1. All Sales Final

All sales are final. Tai Coaches LLC maintains a strict no-refund policy except where a written offer page explicitly states otherwise or where non-waivable law requires a remedy.

2. Why This Policy Exists

Offers may include immediate digital delivery, instant access to proprietary frameworks, downloadable files, assessment interpretation, strategic materials, booking capacity, and business-sensitive intellectual property. Once access is granted or delivery begins, value has been transferred.

3. Non-Refundable Situations

- Change of mind after purchase
- Failure to use, complete, attend, or implement the product or service
- Misunderstanding the offer despite availability of the sales page or policy disclosures
- Accidental purchase where access was provided
- Failure to cancel before a renewal date, if an offer is recurring
- Dissatisfaction based on subjective preference rather than failure to deliver the purchased access

4. Chargebacks and Payment Disputes

Initiating a chargeback after receiving access, downloads, delivered services, or protected materials may constitute a breach of these policies. Tai Coaches LLC reserves the right to provide transaction records, access logs, delivery records, policy notices, and communications in response to payment disputes. Clear billing terms help reduce avoidable chargebacks, but card-network rules still apply. citeturn546404searcho

5. Duplicate Charges or Technical Errors

If you believe you were charged more than once for the same purchase due to a technical processing issue, contact support promptly at support@taicoaches.com. Verified duplicate transactions may be addressed in Tai Coaches LLC's discretion.

6. Access Suspension for Reversals

Tai Coaches LLC may suspend or terminate access to content, portals, downloads, calls, or support where a payment is reversed, disputed, or otherwise invalidated.
