 - (c) schedule 4, part 1.
- (2) Sections 395, 396, 397(2) and 398 to 400 commence immediately after the commencement of sections 391 and 401.
- (3) The remaining provisions commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Division 2 Object

3 Object

- (1) The main object of this Act is to provide for a balanced and nationally consistent framework to secure the health and safety of workers and workplaces by—
 - (a) protecting workers and other persons against harm to their health, safety and welfare through the elimination or minimisation of risks arising from work or from particular types of substances or plant; and
 - (b) providing for fair and effective workplace representation, consultation, cooperation and issue resolution in relation to work health and safety; and
 - (c) encouraging unions and employer organisations to take a constructive role in promoting improvements in work health and safety practices, and assisting persons conducting businesses or undertakings and workers to achieve a healthier and safer working environment; and
 - (d) promoting the provision of advice, information, education and training in relation to work health and safety; and
 - (e) securing compliance with this Act through effective and appropriate compliance and enforcement measures; and
 - (f) ensuring appropriate scrutiny and review of actions by persons exercising powers and performing functions under this Act; and
 - (g) providing a framework for continuous improvement and progressively higher standards of work health and safety; and
 - (h) maintaining and strengthening the national harmonisation of laws relating to work health and safety and to facilitate a consistent national approach to work health and safety in Queensland.

- (2) In furthering subsection (1)(a), regard must be had to the principle that workers and other persons should be given the highest level of protection against harm to their health, safety and welfare from hazards and risks arising from work or from particular types of substances or plant as is reasonably practicable.

Note—

The numbering of this Act closely corresponds to the same numbering in a model Bill prepared for and approved by the Council of Australian Governments. To maximise uniformity between this Act and the model Bill, the numbers of some sections in the model Bill that are not relevant have not been used in the numbering of this Act, unless required for provisions particular to the State. Adoption of the numbering of the model Bill also results in alphanumeric numbering being used to insert further provisions particular to the State.

 - (b) a category 2 offence, if the person’s failure to comply with a health and safety duty results in the death of an individual; or
 - (c) an offence against part 2A.
- (3) The giving of a WHS undertaking does not constitute an admission of guilt by the person giving it in relation to the contravention or alleged contravention to which the undertaking relates.

P&G Act means the Petroleum and Gas (Production and Safety) Act 2004.

2 Relationship with mining Acts

(1) This Act does not apply to—

- (a) a coal mine to which the Coal Mining Safety and Health Act 1999 applies; or
- (b) a mine to which the Mining and Quarrying Safety and Health Act 1999 applies; or
- (c) subject to subsections (2) and (3), operating plant under the P&G Act, other than specified P&G Act authorised activity, for any of the following—
 - (i) a 1923 Act petroleum tenure under the Petroleum Act 1923;

(2) Despite subsection (1)(c)—

- (a) this Act applies to construction work for operating plant under the P&G Act, unless the work is—
 - (i) the commissioning of an operating plant; or

- (ii) the process called ‘rigging up and down’ of a drill rig; and
 - (b) both this Act and the P&G Act apply to construction work for a stage of operating plant or proposed operating plant mentioned in section 672(2) of that Act, unless the work is work mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) or (ii).
- (3) Despite subsection (1)(c), a regulation under this Act applying in relation to a hazardous chemical or major hazard facility applies in relation to the chemical or facility even though it is at, or is, operating plant excluded from the application of this Act by subsection (1)(c).
- (4) Subject to subsection (3), if this Act, for a health and safety matter, conflicts with the P&G Act, that Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.
- (5) This section is subject to schedule 2, part 4, division 2.
- (6) In this section—

hazardous chemical means a hazardous chemical under a regulation.

major hazard facility means a major hazard facility under a regulation.

specified P&G Act authorised activity means an authorised activity mentioned in the P&G Act, section 670(6) that is not operating plant under the P&G Act, because of section 670(7)(b) of that Act.

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) this Act, in the absence of this section, would have application to a matter, relating to the design or construction of proposed operating plant under the P&G Act, that impacts on the integrity or safe use of the plant; and

- (2) This Act does not have application to the matter to the extent that the P&G Act has application to the matter.

Division 2 Electrical safety

4 Relationship with Electrical Safety Act 2002

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) this Act, in the absence of this section, would have application in particular circumstances; and
 - (b) the Electrical Safety Act 2002 also has application in the circumstances.
- (2) This Act does not have application in the circumstances to the extent that the Electrical Safety Act 2002 has application.

Example for subsection (2)—

Section 19(1) of this Act provides, among other matters, for circumstances in which a duty is imposed on a person who conducts a business or undertaking to ensure, so far as reasonably practicable, the health and safety of workers mentioned in the section while the workers are at work in the business or undertaking.

The Electrical Safety Act 2002, section 30(1), provides for circumstances (the electrical safety circumstances) in which a duty is imposed on that person to ensure the person's business or undertaking is conducted in a way that is electrically safe.

Accordingly, the duty under section 19(1) of this Act to the extent it is mentioned above, that apart from this section would apply to the electrical safety circumstances, does not include a duty to ensure the person's business or undertaking is conducted in a way that is electrically safe.

Division 3 Vocational education and training regulation

5 Relationship with National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (Cwlth)

- (1) The State competency regulation provisions are declared to be an excluded matter for the purposes of the Commonwealth

Act, section 10 in relation to section 9(1) of that Act to the extent only that section 9(1) prevents the application of the State competency regulation provisions to an NVR registered training organisation (within the meaning of the Commonwealth Act) providing—

- (a) training, assessment or instruction for an authorisation under this Act; or
 - (b) training, assessment or instruction about working safely in a workplace in a particular industry.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), each provision of this Act is declared to be a VET legislation displacement provision for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act, section 11.
- (3) In this section—

Commonwealth Act means the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (Cwlth).

State competency regulation provisions means—

- (a) the provisions under this Act—
 - (i) regulating organisations providing training, assessment or instruction—

 - (a) this Act, in the absence of this section, would have application in particular circumstances; and
 - (b) the Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011, section 16 also has application in the circumstances.
- (2) This Act does not have application in the circumstances to the extent that the Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011, section 16 has application.

Example for subsection (2)—

Section 19 of this Act provides, among other matters, for circumstances in which a duty is imposed on a person who conducts a business or undertaking to ensure, so far as reasonably practicable, the health and safety of persons mentioned in the section.

If the business or undertaking provides recreational water activities, the Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011, section 16, provides that a duty is imposed on the person conducting the business or undertaking to ensure it is conducted in a way that ensures the health and safety of persons for whom the activities are provided.

Accordingly, the duty under section 19(1) of this Act continues to apply to persons covered by section 19 (for example, workers) for whom the recreational water activities are not being provided, and the Safety in Recreational Water Activities Act 2011 applies to the persons for whom the recreational water activities are provided.

Division 5 Other legislation

7 Generally

- (1) Subject to divisions 1 to 4, a person on whom a health and safety duty is imposed must discharge the duty even though another Act may prescribe a lesser duty in the same circumstances.
