

MINERAL SURFACES

ECLOS

Eclectic Veins Collection

SLAB DETAILS | KITCHEN INSPIRATION | 2026 EDITION

A new layer of matter & design.

Eclos is Cosentino's next generation of mineral surfaces, created with layered 3D body-integrated design, realistic aesthetics and a natural touch and feel. The debut Eclectic Veins collection is designed for indoor use.

01 3D BODY DESIGN

Layered patterns are integrated through the body using INLAYR technology.

02 HEAT RESISTANCE

Designed to withstand direct contact with cookware up to 220 C.

03 RECYCLED CORE

The collection uses up to 88% recycled materials in its core.

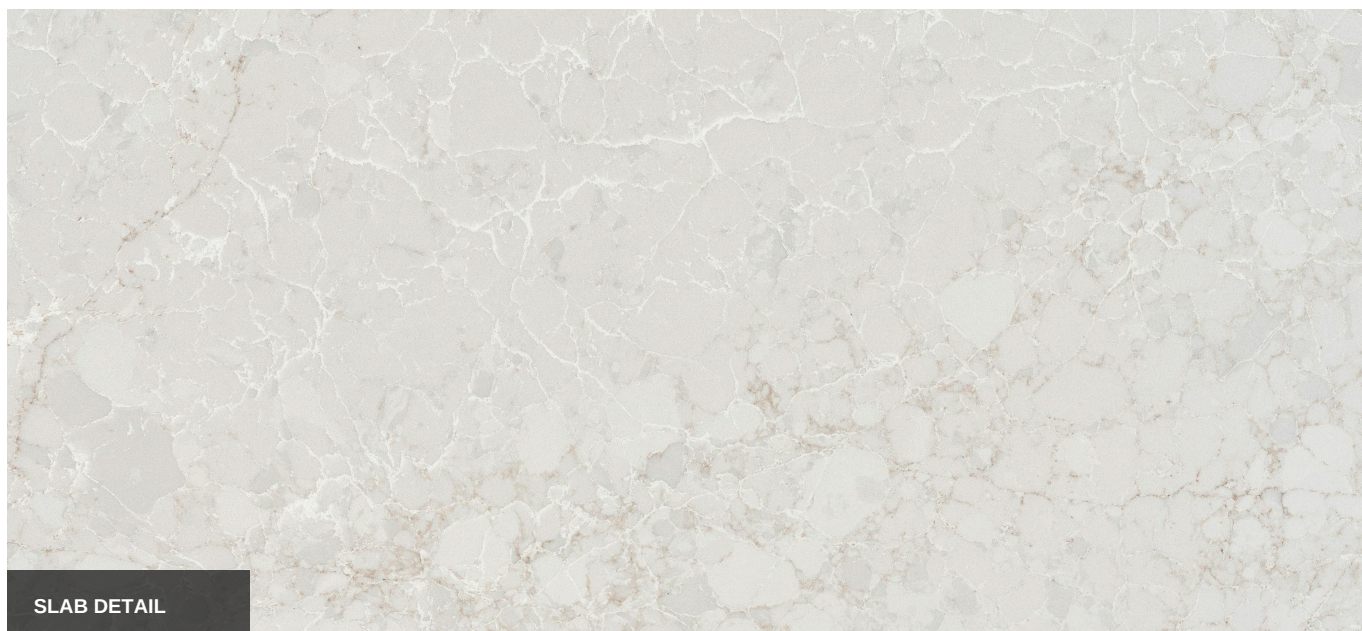

04 INDOOR USE

Made for worktops, islands, wall cladding and other indoor applications.

ECLECTIC VEINS

LUMER

Warm veils over a calm sea

DESIGN NOTES

A delicate interweaving of soft veining and diffused transitions extends across a luminous ivory background. Its warm, enveloping graphic brings subtle depth, filled with light, naturalness and serene elegance, creating balanced and tranquil interiors.

ECLECTIC VEINS

VANCOR

Sand veining on a mineral background

SLAB DETAIL

KITCHEN INSPIRATION

DESIGN NOTES

Subtle lines in golden and copper tones run across a beige base with greyish nuances, evoking mineral landscapes shaped by the passage of time. Its delicate graphic adds texture, light and understated elegance, ideal for timeless interior surfaces and wall claddings.

ECLECTIC VEINS

VEILR

A warm suspended mist

DESIGN NOTES

Against a cream background, an ethereal texture of toasted nuances and mineral veils unfolds, flowing gently across the entire surface. Its warm, enveloping expression adds depth without creating harsh contrasts, resulting in serene elegance and a pleasant sense of harmony in interior spaces.

ECLECTIC VEINS

IVORA

Natural geometry on a cream canvas

SLAB DETAIL

KITCHEN INSPIRATION

DESIGN NOTES

A striking yet elegant colour featuring an interplay of thin, linear veins across a light cream canvas. Slightly darker grey and beige veins create an irregular, organic pattern.

ECLECTIC VEINS

LANDR

Layers of light and shadow

DESIGN NOTES

Layers of subtle golden veining weave light and shadow across the white background, enhancing its organic beauty and unique character. Soft, muted tones bring a calming, minimalist elegance and understated luxury.

ECLECTIC VEINS

LEGND

Lightning veins through the earth

SLAB DETAIL

KITCHEN INSPIRATION

DESIGN NOTES

A flowing veined composition with rich, earthy layers. Muted brown tones convey calm sophistication, while lightning-like veins thread through the surface and add character to an interior.
