Terms Of Purchase

Nick the Marketer, LLC DBA Patient Care Marketing Pros Last Updated: August 18, 2026

These Terms of Purchase ("Terms") govern every purchase you make from Nick the Marketer, LLC, doing business as Patient Care Marketing Pros. Throughout these Terms, Nick the Marketer, LLC DBA Patient Care Marketing Pros is referred to as "PCMP," "we," "us," or "our."

These Terms apply to all PCMP offerings, including digital courses, training programs, event tickets, coaching, and marketing services.

Some offerings carry additional terms that address details unique to that product. Those Supplemental Terms are linked from your receipt and from the product page. Where a Supplemental Term conflicts with these Terms, the Supplemental Term controls for that purchase only.

Current Supplemental Terms:

- Front Desk Training Course
- Clinic Growth Mastermind 2027

By completing a purchase, you agree to these Terms and to any Supplemental Terms that apply to what you bought. If you do not agree, do not complete your purchase.

1. Agreement To These Terms

By purchasing, registering for, or accessing any PCMP product or service, you ("you," "Customer") agree to these Terms.

If you are purchasing on behalf of another person or an organization, you confirm that you have authority to bind that person or organization to these Terms, and you agree to share these Terms with everyone who will access the purchase.

The version of these Terms in effect at the time of your purchase governs that purchase, except where a change is required by law.

2. Payment And Billing

Full payment is due at the time of purchase. Your order is not confirmed until payment is received in full.

All prices are listed in U.S. dollars and do not include applicable taxes or third-party processing fees unless stated at checkout. PCMP may update pricing at any time. Price changes do not affect purchases already completed.

Discounts, promotional pricing, and tiered pricing must be applied at the time of purchase. We cannot apply them retroactively. Eligibility for any restricted pricing tier is assessed at the time of purchase.

3. Refunds

All sales are final and non-refundable unless the Supplemental Terms for your purchase state otherwise.

PCMP commits to non-recoverable costs on your behalf when you buy, including platform access, venue and vendor commitments, staffing, and produced materials. This policy lets us hold pricing and protect the experience for everyone.

If you believe you were charged in error, or you cannot access what you purchased, contact us at hello@patientcaremarketingpros.com and we will work to resolve it. See the Supplemental Terms for the resolution window that applies to your purchase.

4. Access, Licensing, And Transfers

Access to any PCMP product is granted to the individual, seat, or location identified in your order and is non-transferable unless the Supplemental Terms permit a transfer.

Sharing login credentials, seats, or registrations between users is prohibited. Additional seats or locations must be purchased separately at the current rate.

PCMP may suspend or revoke access for violation of these Terms without refund.

5. Intellectual Property

All PCMP content is the exclusive property of PCMP or its licensors. This includes course videos, worksheets, templates, frameworks, slides, workbooks, handouts, recordings, written materials, and event content.

You receive a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use these materials for your own internal business purposes only.

You may not reproduce, distribute, publish, resell, license, repackage, or use PCMP materials to create derivative works, competing programs, or training materials without our prior written consent.

6. No Professional Advice And No Guarantee Of Results

PCMP products and services are provided for general business and educational purposes only.

Nothing PCMP provides constitutes medical, legal, accounting, tax, regulatory, compliance, employment, or financial advice. No attorney-client, provider-patient, or fiduciary relationship is created. Consult your own qualified professionals before acting on anything we present.

PCMP makes no representation, warranty, or guarantee regarding revenue growth, patient volume, profitability, or any other business outcome. Results vary. Any results discussed by PCMP, our facilitators, or other customers are specific to those businesses and are not typical or promised. You are solely responsible for your own business decisions and their outcomes.

7. Limitation Of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law:

- PCMP's total aggregate liability arising out of or relating to any purchase or these Terms, regardless of the theory of liability, will not exceed the amount you actually paid for that purchase.
- PCMP is not liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, exemplary, or punitive damages, including lost profits, lost revenue, lost business opportunity, or travel and lodging costs, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.
- PCMP is not responsible for the acts, omissions, products, services, or statements of third parties, including venues, hotels, caterers, transportation providers, sponsors, guest speakers, platform vendors, or other customers.

8. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PCMP, its owners, officers, employees, contractors, facilitators, and agents from any claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising from your use of PCMP products or services, your conduct, your breach of these Terms, or your violation of any law or third-party right.

9. Payment Disputes And Chargebacks

If you have a billing concern, please contact PCMP at hello@patientcaremarketingpros.com before initiating a chargeback or payment dispute so we have an opportunity to review and resolve the issue.

Nothing in these Terms limits any rights you may have under applicable law or your payment card agreement.

If a chargeback or payment dispute is initiated without a valid basis, or if the dispute is resolved in PCMP's favor, PCMP may suspend or revoke access to the associated product or service, cancel the related registration, deny admission where applicable, recover amounts lawfully owed and any fees or costs permitted by law, and decline future purchases.

10. Communications And Your Information

10.1 Communications. By purchasing, you consent to receive transactional communications from PCMP by email, phone, and text, including access instructions, logistics, scheduling, and reminders. You may also receive PCMP marketing communications and may unsubscribe from those at any time. Transactional communications are required and cannot be opted out of while your purchase is active.

10.2 Information We Collect. PCMP collects the information you provide in connection with your purchase, including your name, title, organization, email address, phone number, mailing address, and any business information you submit as part of onboarding, intake, or pre-work.

10.3 How We Use It. PCMP uses this information to process your purchase and payment, deliver what you bought, communicate with you, and send marketing communications about PCMP services, products, and future events.

10.4 Sharing. PCMP shares your information only with service providers who need it to deliver your purchase, including our payment processor, email and registration platforms, and event vendors, and where required by law. PCMP does not sell your personal information.

10.5 Business Information. Any KPI data, revenue figures, or operational information you submit is used to deliver and improve your experience. PCMP may reference it in aggregated or de-identified form but will not publish or share your identifiable figures without your written consent.

10.6 Your Choices. You may request access to, correction of, or deletion of your information at any time by emailing hello@patientcaremarketingpros.com. PCMP retains transaction records as required for tax and accounting purposes.

11. Force Majeure

PCMP is not liable for any failure or delay in performance resulting from causes beyond its reasonable control, including acts of God, severe weather, natural disaster, fire, epidemic or pandemic, public health emergency, government order or restriction, act of terrorism, civil unrest, labor dispute, utility or telecommunications failure, platform or hosting outage, venue closure, or transportation disruption.

12. General

12.1 Governing Law. These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Alabama, without regard to conflict-of-law principles. Any dispute arising out of or relating to these Terms or your purchase must be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Jefferson County, Alabama, and you consent to the personal jurisdiction of those courts.

12.2 Entire Agreement. These Terms, together with any applicable Supplemental Terms and the information published on the product or registration page, constitute the entire agreement between you and PCMP regarding your purchase and supersede all prior communications, representations, and understandings.

12.3 Modification. PCMP may update these Terms at any time. The version in effect at the time of your purchase governs that purchase, except where changes are required by law.

12.4 Severability. If any provision is found unenforceable, that provision will be limited or severed to the minimum extent necessary, and the remaining provisions remain in full force and effect.

12.5 Waiver. PCMP's failure to enforce any provision is not a waiver of its right to enforce that provision later.

12.6 Assignment. You may not assign these Terms except as expressly permitted in the applicable Supplemental Terms.
