Mr Ian W. Kennedy

BMSc (Hons), MBChB, MD, FRCS (Tr & Orth)

Mr Ian Kennedy is a Consultant Trauma and Orthopaedic Surgeon with specialist expertise in lower limb arthroplasty, trauma, and complex revision surgery. Based in Glasgow, he combines an active clinical practice with an extensive research and academic portfolio.

He is an Honorary Senior Clinical Lecturer at the University of Glasgow, Educational Chair of the Bone and Joint Infection Society, and a peer reviewer for the Bone & Joint Journal. His international fellowship experience includes the Vancouver Hip & Knee Reconstruction Fellowship and the Endo-Klinik Travelling Fellowship in Germany.

Mr Kennedy's clinical focus is on hip and knee replacement, revision arthroplasty, and infection management. He has authored over 30 peer-reviewed publications and presented at major international meetings. He offers medico-legal opinions in orthopaedic trauma, hip and knee reconstruction, and infection-related litigation, ensuring balanced, evidence-based reports compliant with CPR Part 35.
