Dr Maneesh Singh

MBChB, MD, MRCOG, FRANZCOG

Dr Maneesh Singh is a Consultant Gynaecologist with over 20 years' experience across the NHS and Australian healthcare systems. He has comprehensive expertise in general obstetrics, complex benign gynaecology, endometriosis, minimal access surgery, robotic gynaecological surgery, and vaginal and abdominal surgery. He currently holds a substantive consultant post at Chesterfield Royal Hospital.

Alongside his clinical practice, Professor Singh has extensive experience in clinical governance, patient safety, incident investigation, and medico-legal risk management. He has held senior leadership and non-executive roles within NHS Trusts and has been directly involved in root cause analysis, CNST processes, guideline development, and morbidity and mortality review. He provides clear, structured and evidence-based medico-legal opinions grounded in senior consultant-level practice and deep governance experience.
