Secretary's report: March's secretary's report posted on WHC website.

No additions or corrections.

March's minutes were approved as read.

OLD BUSINESS:

Farm Tech Days are the 14th -16th at Redetzke's No Joke DAIRY in Stratford Wi.

Please note they need volunteers. If available reach out to H/C

HORSE FESTIVAL:

Kevin reported that there is no longer a drill team in the Shawano Co. 4/H program.

Koch (Cook) Chiropractic will demo both days at the horse festival. He will confirm with them if they would like a table or booth.

Lori reported that the dental demo was unable at this time.

Tammy confirmed Natalie Fuller for liberty demo and Brittney Block horse anatomy and take for kids.

Tammy confirmed Riverwind will have a barrel racing and pole bending demo.

Bleachers will be purchased by the Riverwind Ranch venue.

Sweet Water Pillows was contacted and they are unable to attend this year.

Tammy confirmed Mark Jenkins demos and time slots.

She also agreed to make the vendor forms.

Sponsor forms have been completed and sent to committee members.

Shaughn reported that the JFW channel 12 has agreed to advertise Fall Horse Festival for $350 and in turn H/F will receive $1000 in advertising.

She also stated that she placed 2 ads in the shopper for $145

Shaughn has paid the Antigo Times (MMC) for advertising.

#IN322025 for $70.00

#IN316624 amount-$70.00

Shaughn needs to get reimbursed by the Horse Council.

NEW BUSINESS:

Tammy Guite asked about how we were going to handle invoices and deposits.

It was decided that Kevin will send all invoices to H/C

Shaughn brought up the idea of having a burro and its handler entertaining the crowd all around the grounds at the horse festival.

It was unanimously agreed upon to move forward with that.

Lisa Redfern asked who was in charge of District 2 FB page.

Lori will get in touch with Dr. Becky and have her contact Lisa

Tammy will make up a spreadsheet for all the confirmed sponsors we have, so anyone with sponsor information needs to forward that to Tammy.

Shaughn brought up that we need posters.

Tammy suggested a template be made.

Tammy will go to Merrill Photo News and research that.

Lori offered to be the contact person if there are questions from Sponsors.

Next District 2 meeting is set for 12:00 pm May17th at the Millyard in Merrill Wi.

Meeting will also be available via Zoom (fingers crossed)
