ABOUT HOLLY WOODS, PhD

Holly Woods, PhD is a portal-walker, soul whisperer, shamanic mediatrix and cosmic provocateur disguised as a master coach and guide. Founder of Emergence Institute and Living Portal™, Holly has spent over 40 years and 40 careers chasing, and then becoming, the WildCreator™ she was born to be.

The blessing and curse of her chaotic and challenging childhood and subsequent trauma were in fact the seed crystal, or source code, for who she was to become and what was hers to create in this lifetime. Every detour, heartbreak, and dark night became kindling for a fire that now burns with truth, power, and purpose to help others remember who they truly are, and create from that place.

Holly discovered that each of us carries a Golden Thread—a soul-designed path that unravels our karma, activates our gifts, and dares us to live as the wild, luminous beings we secretly know we are. She's here to midwife that becoming in you.

Holding a PhD in Human & Organizational Development and a medicine bag full of credentials - Master Integral Coach, Master Energy Healer, Purpose Guide, Plant Medicine Facilitator, and practitioner of Internal Family Systems, Somatic Experiencing, and other deep soul technologies - Holly blends science, mysticism, and practical magic. She's also trained with Shipibo shamans in the Amazon and third-generation shamans in California.

She's served on faculty at five universities, but her truest classroom is the liminal edge where soul meets matter, and new worlds are born.

Her bestselling book The Golden Thread: Where to Find Purpose in the Stages of Your Life (2020) distills this sacred path. And this Living Portal™ Initiation is the most potent expression of her work to date, a cosmic call to step into a parallel reality where your fully embodied, purpose-fueled self leads the way.

Through her Involuntary-Evolutionary Flywheel™ and CosmoSync™ frameworks, Holly helps visionaries reclaim radical wholeness, unleash their WildCreator™ life force, and channel earth-rooted, star-sourced creations that change lives and timelines.

Are you ready to join in this parallel reality and become a Living Portal to activate your WildCreator™ and create a better future?

“Your pain isn’t your story — it’s your portal.”
