1. Acceptance and Scope

Welcome to Science Babe Skincare. These Terms and Conditions ("Terms") govern access to and use of our website and any online inquiries, reservations, purchases or services offered through it. By using the website, you agree to these Terms to the extent permitted by law. If you do not agree, please do not use the site. Additional written terms or consents may govern specific services, orders, memberships or promotions; where they conflict, the more specific terms control to the extent legally permitted.

2. Website Information and Skincare Disclaimer

Content on this site is provided for general informational and educational purposes. Skincare suggestions and product descriptions are not individualized medical advice, diagnoses or treatment plans and do not replace consultation with a qualified healthcare professional. Product results and service outcomes vary based on individual circumstances. Read all product labels, instructions, ingredient lists and warnings, and disclose relevant sensitivities to your service provider. Stop using a product and seek appropriate professional guidance if an adverse reaction occurs. If you are experiencing a medical emergency, seek emergency care.

3. Appointments and Services

Where online appointment requests or booking features are offered, availability is subject to confirmation. We may need to contact you to confirm timing, eligibility, service details or preparation instructions. Please provide accurate contact information. Prices, estimated durations, service descriptions, and provider availability may change before a booking is confirmed; material changes will be communicated where appropriate. A service provider may decline or reschedule a service when necessary for safety, qualifications, availability or compliance with applicable law.

4. Cancellations, Deposits and No-Shows

Any appointment deposits, cancellation deadlines, no-show charges or rescheduling restrictions must be disclosed clearly at the time of booking or in a separately presented booking policy before the customer agrees. The terms applicable to a particular booking are those disclosed during that transaction, subject to applicable law. This website Terms document does not itself establish a cancellation fee, forfeiture of a deposit, or a nonrefundable payment.

5. Products, Pricing, Orders and Returns

If online product purchases are offered, displayed product availability, taxes, shipping charges, and any applicable restrictions will be presented during checkout. We may correct genuine listing errors and cancel an unfulfilled order, with any payment refund required by law. Delivery dates are estimates unless a specific commitment is made. Return, exchange, refund and damaged-item policies must be communicated before purchase and will be governed by the applicable order disclosures and consumer-protection law. Nothing in these Terms removes rights provided by applicable law.

6. Subscriptions, Packages and Gift Cards

If we offer memberships, recurring subscriptions, prepaid packages, gift cards or promotional credits, their prices, durations, included benefits, expiration terms, restrictions and cancellation methods will be stated separately at purchase. We will obtain any consent and provide clear disclosures required for automatic renewal or continuous-service offers, including recurring charges and cancellation information. We do not enroll visitors in recurring charges merely because they use this website. Gift cards and prepaid instruments will be administered in accordance with applicable state and federal law.

7. Payments and Third-Party Platforms

Payments, if enabled, may be processed through third-party providers. You agree to provide accurate purchase information and authorize only charges that you expressly approve. We are not responsible for outages or separate terms of third-party payment platforms, but remain responsible for obligations imposed on us by applicable law. Contact us promptly regarding suspected billing errors.

8. Website Conduct and Intellectual Property

You agree not to misuse the website, interfere with its operation, attempt unauthorized access, introduce malicious software, scrape content in violation of law, or provide deceptive information. Text, branding, design and original material on this website are owned by Science Babe Skincare or their respective licensors, except where otherwise noted. You may view the site for personal, noncommercial purposes but may not reproduce protected materials without authorization, except as permitted by law.

9. Testimonials, Images and Results

Testimonials and before-and-after images, where displayed, describe individual experiences and do not guarantee particular outcomes. We seek permission for use of identifiable client images and testimonials when required. Sponsored endorsements or other material connections will be disclosed as applicable. Website photographs may be illustrative rather than actual clients or services.

10. Third-Party Links and Availability

Our site may link to independently operated websites and platforms. We do not control their content or privacy policies. We work to keep the website available and accurate but cannot guarantee uninterrupted access or that every typographical or technical error will be prevented.

11. Disclaimers and Limitation of Liability

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the website and its general informational content are provided on an "as available" basis without warranties beyond those expressly stated or legally required. Science Babe Skincare is not liable for indirect or consequential losses arising solely from website use to the extent such limits are enforceable. Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability for fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct, personal injury, statutory consumer rights, or other liability that cannot legally be excluded or limited. These Terms do not waive any nonwaivable warranty or remedy.

12. Governing Law and Disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Oregon, without overriding mandatory consumer protections or jurisdictional rights that apply to a visitor. Before filing a formal dispute, you are encouraged, but not required, to contact us at sciencebabeskincare@gmail.com so we may attempt an informal resolution. Nothing here requires arbitration or waives the right to bring a claim in a court with proper jurisdiction.

13. Updates to Terms

We may modify these Terms for future website use by publishing an updated version and effective date. Changes do not retroactively alter completed transactions or existing agreements without appropriate notice and consent where required.
