MUTUAL INTRODUCER AGREEMENT

(Confidentiality, Non-Circumvention & Introducer Protection)

Effective Date: ___________________

This Mutual Introducers' Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by the undersigned Parties (collectively referred to as the "Parties").

1. Purpose

The Parties wish to collaborate in identifying, introducing and supporting commercial opportunities, including but not limited to precious metals, commodities, financial instruments and other international trade transactions.

This Agreement establishes a framework of trust, confidentiality and mutual protection for all introductions and business relationships shared between the Parties.

2. Confidential Information

For the purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes, but is not limited to:

- Buyers and sellers
- Mandates and intermediaries
- Principals
- Banking information
- Pricing
- Commercial terms
- Transaction structures
- Due diligence documents
- Correspondence
- Business strategies
- Contact information
- Any other information identified as confidential.

Each Party agrees to maintain the confidentiality of such information and shall not disclose it to any third party without the prior written consent of the Party providing the information, except where disclosure is required by law.

3. Mutual Non-Circumvention

Each Party agrees that it shall not, directly or indirectly:

- Circumvent another Party.
- Contact or negotiate directly with any protected contact introduced by another Party for the purpose of excluding or bypassing that Party.
- Use information obtained through another Party for commercial benefit without that Party's knowledge and written consent.

The Parties acknowledge that introductions represent valuable commercial relationships deserving of mutual protection.

4. Recognition of Introductions

Each introduction made by a Party shall remain recognised as that Party's protected introduction unless otherwise agreed in writing.

The Parties agree to respect the contribution of every introducer throughout the duration of any resulting business relationship.

5. Commission Protection

Where a transaction results from introductions made under this Agreement:

- The commission structure shall be documented separately in a Commission Schedule, Settlement Agreement, or other written commission agreement specific to that transaction.
- All Parties agree to honour the agreed commission allocation.
- No Party shall knowingly take any action intended to deprive another Party of an agreed commission.

6. Admission of New Introducers

This Agreement is intended to operate as a continuing agreement for the introducer group.

Any additional introducer who wishes to participate in discussions, receive confidential information or become involved in a transaction introduced by the group must first sign this Agreement.

Upon signing, the new Party shall become bound by all provisions of this Agreement and shall enjoy the same rights and obligations as the existing Parties.

7. Register of Protected Introductions

The Parties agree that introductions may be recorded

Each entry should record, where applicable:

- Date of introduction
- Name of introducing Party
- Name of introduced individual or organisation
- Capacity (Buyer, Seller, Mandate, Principal, Refinery, Financial Institution, etc.)
- NCNDA Status between parties

8. Good Faith

The Parties agree to conduct all dealings honestly, professionally and in good faith, recognising that successful transactions depend upon cooperation, integrity and mutual respect.

9. No Partnership

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as creating a partnership, joint venture, employment relationship or agency between the Parties.

10. Term

This Agreement shall remain in force for three (3) years from the date of the last signature.

The confidentiality, non-circumvention and commission protection provisions shall continue to apply to introductions made during the term of this Agreement.

11. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

The Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales for any dispute arising under this Agreement.

12. Electronic Execution

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts.

Electronic signatures, scanned signatures and signatures executed through recognised electronic signature platforms shall be deemed original signatures and shall have the same legal force and effect as original handwritten signatures.
