

LIMITLESS WEALTH ACTIVATION

JOURNAL PROMPTS

Hello, my friend!

You made it here! Congratulations on taking some time for you, and taking the time to bring some clarity to what exactly it is that you want. When you bring clarity and focus to your dreams and desires you are 90% more likely to actually begin to activate them.

So light a candle, put some calming music on and start to feel into the following questions. Notice everything that happens next. Do you start? Do you stop? Can you track any judgements? It's all great information!

Sitting and writing, feel into which part of you is ready to come alive right now. Which part of you is no longer satisfied to sit in the wings of the stage of life.

All the answers are within you.

I am so looking forward to diving into this with you.

Wishing you all success with your limitless access,

xo. Michelle

Journal Prompts

01. If you were in exactly the right time and place, what would you want?

02. If you couldn't get it wrong, and no one would be upset, what do you want?

03. If everything was lining up for you, and there were no negative consequences, what would you like?

Journal Prompts

04. If truly you could trust yourself and you knew your desires were a form of inner guidance what do you want?

05. When you think about the above, and maybe some ideas have come through, are there stories and memories you have about why this couldn't or shouldn't happen?

06. What are your stories about your dreams and desires?

Journal Prompts

07. How was this talked about in your family of origin?

08. Notice what comes up, notice feelings, physical sensations, memories.

09. Will someone be upset if all these desires came true for you?

Journal Prompts

10. Would you feel disconnected from anyone or outcast in some way?

All this we are shining the light on in order to release and reframe.

Come to the Masterclass, and let me show you how to turn this into your next chapter!

Wishing you all success with your limitless access,

xo, Michelle
