Suggested Interview Questions

DeeDee welcomes conversations about writing, faith, relationships, and the experiences that shape our stories. Hosts are welcome to select from these questions or suggest their own.

For Author and Writing Audiences

- What inspired you to become an author and a Business Coach for Authors?
- Why is it important for writers to think about the business side of their author journey?
- What is one step an author can take to become more visible and connect with readers?
- How can authors choose marketing activities that fit their strengths and personalities?
- What have you learned from co-authoring the Rules of Engagement military romance series?
- How can authors build genuine relationships within the writing community?

For Women, Faith, and Relationship Audiences

- How have your experiences as a Navy Brat and Army wife shaped your understanding of faith and relationships?
- What small, intentional choices can strengthen a marriage in everyday life?
- What does C.H.E.R.I.S.H. mean, and how can couples use it to nurture their relationship?
- How can couples stay connected when life brings unexpected changes?
- What role has laughter played in your marriage?
- How has your faith guided you through times of transition?