Bios - The following bio options are available for conference programs, promotional materials, websites, and media use. Please select the length that best fits your needs.

25–30 Word Bio - Author Events
DeeDee Lake is a seven-time published author, speaker, and Business Coach for Authors who encourages writers, women, and couples with faith, practical wisdom, and engaging humor.

12-30 Word Bio - Women/Faith/Relationship Events
DeeDee Lake is a seven-time published author and speaker who encourages women and couples to build faith-filled, intentional relationships through biblical truth, practical wisdom, and laughter.

Short Bio - Author Events
DeeDee Lake is a seven-time published author, conference speaker, and Business Coach for Authors. She equips writers to confidently navigate the business side of writing. Blending Biblical truth with practical strategy, she delivers clarity, structure, and forward momentum with warmth and engaging humor.

Short Bio - Women/Faith/Relationship Events DeeDee Lake is a seven-time published author and speaker who encourages women and couples to cultivate faith-filled, intentional relationships. A Navy Brat and Army wife married for over four decades, she shares biblical truth, real-life stories, and practical wisdom with warmth and humor.

Medium Bio - Author Events
DeeDee Lake is a seven-time published author, conference speaker, and Business Coach for Authors. She equips writers to navigate the business side of writing and with clarity and confidence.

Blending Biblical truth with practical strategy, DeeDee bridges creative calling with sustainable career direction. At writers' conferences, she delivers actionable insight on platform building, strategic positioning, and long-term growth. Raised as a Navy Brat and married to an Army helicopter pilot for over four decades, she brings resilience, leadership, and steady faith to every stage she steps onto.

Medium Bio - Women/Faith/Relationship Events

DeeDee Lake is a seven-time published author and speaker who encourages women and couples to build faith-filled, intentional relationships. Known for her warmth, storytelling, and engaging humor, she blends biblical truth with practical ideas audiences can carry into everyday life.

Raised as a Navy Brat and married to an Army helicopter pilot for over four decades, DeeDee understands the joys and challenges of navigating change while staying connected. Whether speaking at a women's event or marriage retreat, she invites audiences to grow in faith, nurture their relationships, and make room for laughter along the way.

Long Bio - Author Events

DeeDee Lake is a seven-time published author, conference speaker, and Business Coach for Authors. She equips writers to confidently navigate the business side of writing with clarity, structure, and forward momentum.

Blending Biblical truth with practical strategy, DeeDee bridges creative calling with sustainable career direction. She understands that many writers feel called to share their message but are uncertain about marketing, positioning, and long-term growth. Her conference sessions provide actionable frameworks that bring order to overwhelm and strategy to inspiration.

At writers' conferences, DeeDee speaks on building sustainable author platforms, avoiding common business missteps, and approaching the writing industry with professionalism and purpose. Her teaching style combines real-life experience, clear structure, and engaging humor—making complex industry concepts approachable and applicable.

Raised as a Navy Brat and married to an Army helicopter pilot for over four decades, DeeDee brings resilience, leadership, and steadfast faith into every message she delivers. Her steady confidence and Scripture-rooted perspective resonate with writers seeking both excellence and integrity.

Whether guiding emerging authors or encouraging seasoned writers to think more strategically, DeeDee leaves audiences equipped, encouraged, and ready to take their next right steps with clarity and conviction.

Long Bio - Women/Faith/Relationship Events

DeeDee Lake is a seven-time published author and speaker who believes meaningful relationships grow through faith, intention, and plenty of laughter. Through stories from her own life and practical, biblically grounded encouragement, she invites women and couples to strengthen their connections with God and one another.

Raised as a Navy Brat and married to an Army helicopter pilot for over four decades, DeeDee knows that life rarely follows a predictable path. Moving, adapting to change, raising a family, and building friendships across the miles have shaped her appreciation for the small, intentional choices that keep relationships strong.

At women's events and marriage retreats, DeeDee brings warmth, humor, and relatable stories to conversations about faith, connection, and everyday life. Her C.H.E.R.I.S.H. framework offers couples practical ingredients for an extraordinary marriage, including communication, respect, and humor.

DeeDee is also a Business Coach for Authors and co-author of the clean Christian military romance series Rules of Engagement. She lives in the Texas Hill Country and enjoys spending time with family and friends, sharing stories, and building relationships one conversation at a time.