

David Stone

SPEAKER • COACH • CHAPLAIN

Honest, warm talks on leadership, faith, and mental health, from someone who has lived all three.

David has spent 30+ years in church, campus, and organizational leadership. He's an ICF-certified coach, a workplace chaplain through Team Care, and the voice behind the Isolation Kills and WHOLE: Faith, Church & Mental Health podcasts. Expect real stories and something your people can use on Monday.

SIGNATURE KEYNOTE

The Power of Presence

Presence is the leadership skill under all the others. When it goes missing, teams drift and your best people start looking for the door. When it's there, everything else gets easier. Fits a company all-hands, a church conference, or a school staff day.

FOR LEADERS

Leadership

Summits, offsites, manager trainings, staff development

Ask, Don't Tell

Better questions beat more answers. Shift from telling to asking, and people start owning the work.

The Human Leader

Why vulnerability outperforms bravado, and what happens to a team when the armor drops.

Develop or Stall

Your leadership multiplies when other people grow. Build a culture that develops them.

FOR CHURCHES

Faith

Conferences, retreats, men's events, campus ministry, staff gatherings

The Leader Nobody Sees

For people carrying quiet, unseen responsibility and leading with integrity when no one's watching.

Raising Up the Next One

Invest in people on purpose and leave something that outlives your title.

WHOLE: Faith, Church & Mental Health

With Robert Grant. An honest conversation for churches about faith and mental health in the same room.

FOR EVERYONE

Mental Health

Wellness events, first responders, men's events, schools

Isolation Kills

The hidden cost of disconnection, and why showing up for each other saves lives.

Is It Okay to Not Be Okay?

Breaking the silence about struggle, and the strength it takes to ask for help.

A Better Kind of Tough

Strength for men, built on courage and real connection.

Also available: ADHD in the Workplace, a hands-on duo workshop with Robert Grant for teams and founders working with neurodivergence.

BEST FIT Companies & leadership teams · School districts & universities · Churches & conferences · First responders
