Please read as written. Replace [Insert Talk Title] with the presentation title provided for your event.

Today's speaker has spent more than 25 years studying human behavior, influence, and organizational dynamics to better understand the principles that drive growth.

He uses what he learns to help entrepreneurs and leadership teams grow.

Across 12 industries, he has led more than 70 multimillion-dollar businesses, worked with more than 50 global brands, and led, trained, and developed more than 10,000 people.

Through it all, one question has remained at the center of his work: How does growth actually work?

Today, he's here to share some of what he's learned through [Insert Talk Title].

Please welcome to the stage, Danny Pippin.
