A REAL WINTER ADVENTURE IN THE CAIRNGORMS

Our Cairngorms Winter Adventure is a 5-day mountain expedition in one of Scotland's most spectacular wild places.

Students spend their days exploring the winter mountains with experienced instructors, learning how to move confidently through snow-covered terrain and developing practical skills including winter navigation, ice axe and crampon use, weather awareness and mountain decision-making.

The Cairngorms offer exceptional flexibility, with a wide range of mountain venues and objectives allowing each day to be shaped around the conditions while maintaining real challenge, progression and adventure.

It's a genuine step up - combining new skills, demanding days, spectacular winter landscapes and the satisfaction of achieving something together.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

- ✓ Explore the Cairngorms in winter
- ✓ Full days of mountain adventure
- ✓ Learn ice axe, crampon & winter movement skills
- ✓ Develop navigation, weather & avalanche awareness
- ✓ Build confidence, resilience & teamwork
- ✓ Specialist equipment, meals & local logistics included

5-DAY ITINERARY OVERVIEW

DAY 1

Arrive & Prepare

Travel to the Cairngorms, meet the expedition team and settle into the base. Get equipped, explore the week's conditions and prepare for the winter mountain adventure ahead.

DAY 2

Winter Mountain Skills

Head into the mountains for the first full day. Learn how to move effectively over winter terrain and develop practical skills using ice axes and crampons.

DAY 3

Winter Mountain Journey

Put those skills into practice on a full mountain journey, developing navigation and learning how weather, snow conditions and avalanche information influence decisions.

DAY 4

The Big Mountain Day

Take on a more ambitious winter journey, shaped around the conditions and the group. Depending on conditions, this could include a summit objective, snow-shelter work or an evening journey off the mountain.

DAY 5

Final Challenge

Complete a final winter session, consolidate new skills and celebrate what the team has achieved before beginning the journey home.
