

The Special Place of Love

Story for Yawme Gham

Once upon a time, there was a peaceful place called Jannatul Baqi.

In this special place, very important people are resting – people who loved Allah very much and taught others to be kind, honest, and brave. It had a beautiful Shrine. The 2nd,4th,5th and 6th Imam are buried there and it is also said to be one of the options of the resting place of Lady Zahra (SA)

A little child named Zayn went with his mother and asked,
“Why does this place look so simple now?”

His mother smiled gently and said,

“Some people in the world did not understand how special these people are. So they did not take care of this place the way it should be.

On the 8th of Shawwal 1447 AH i.e. in 1825 these people demolished the graves of al-Baqi Cemetery.”

Zayn looked a little sad.

“But we still love them, right?”

His mother held his hand and said,

“Yes, we love them very much and even if the place looks simple, our love for them is BIG and beautiful in our hearts. One day we will rebuild these graves and make a beautiful shrine here, even more magnanimous than the previous one”

Zayn closed his eyes and made a small dua:

“Dear Allah, I love the family of the Prophet. Please take care of them.”

His mother smiled and said,

“That love in your heart is the most special gift of all.”

Dua

“Ya Allah, fill our hearts with love for Ahlulbayt and make us kind, respectful, and caring. May we live to see the restoration of Jannatul Baqi”
