

Write or draw one thing on each star that reminds you Allah is always with you.

Stars in the Dark

Trusting Allah Like the Sons of Muslim ibn Aqeel (a.s.)

The dark
can feel scary...

But the stars
remind me that
Allah is always there.

When I feel worried,
I remember that
Allah is with me.

The sons of Muslim ibn Aqeel (a.s.) went through very difficult times. They never forgot Allah and continued to trust Him. When life feels dark, we can remember that Allah is always with us.

My Stars of Trust Garland

1. Colour your stars.
2. Write your answers.
3. Cut out each star.

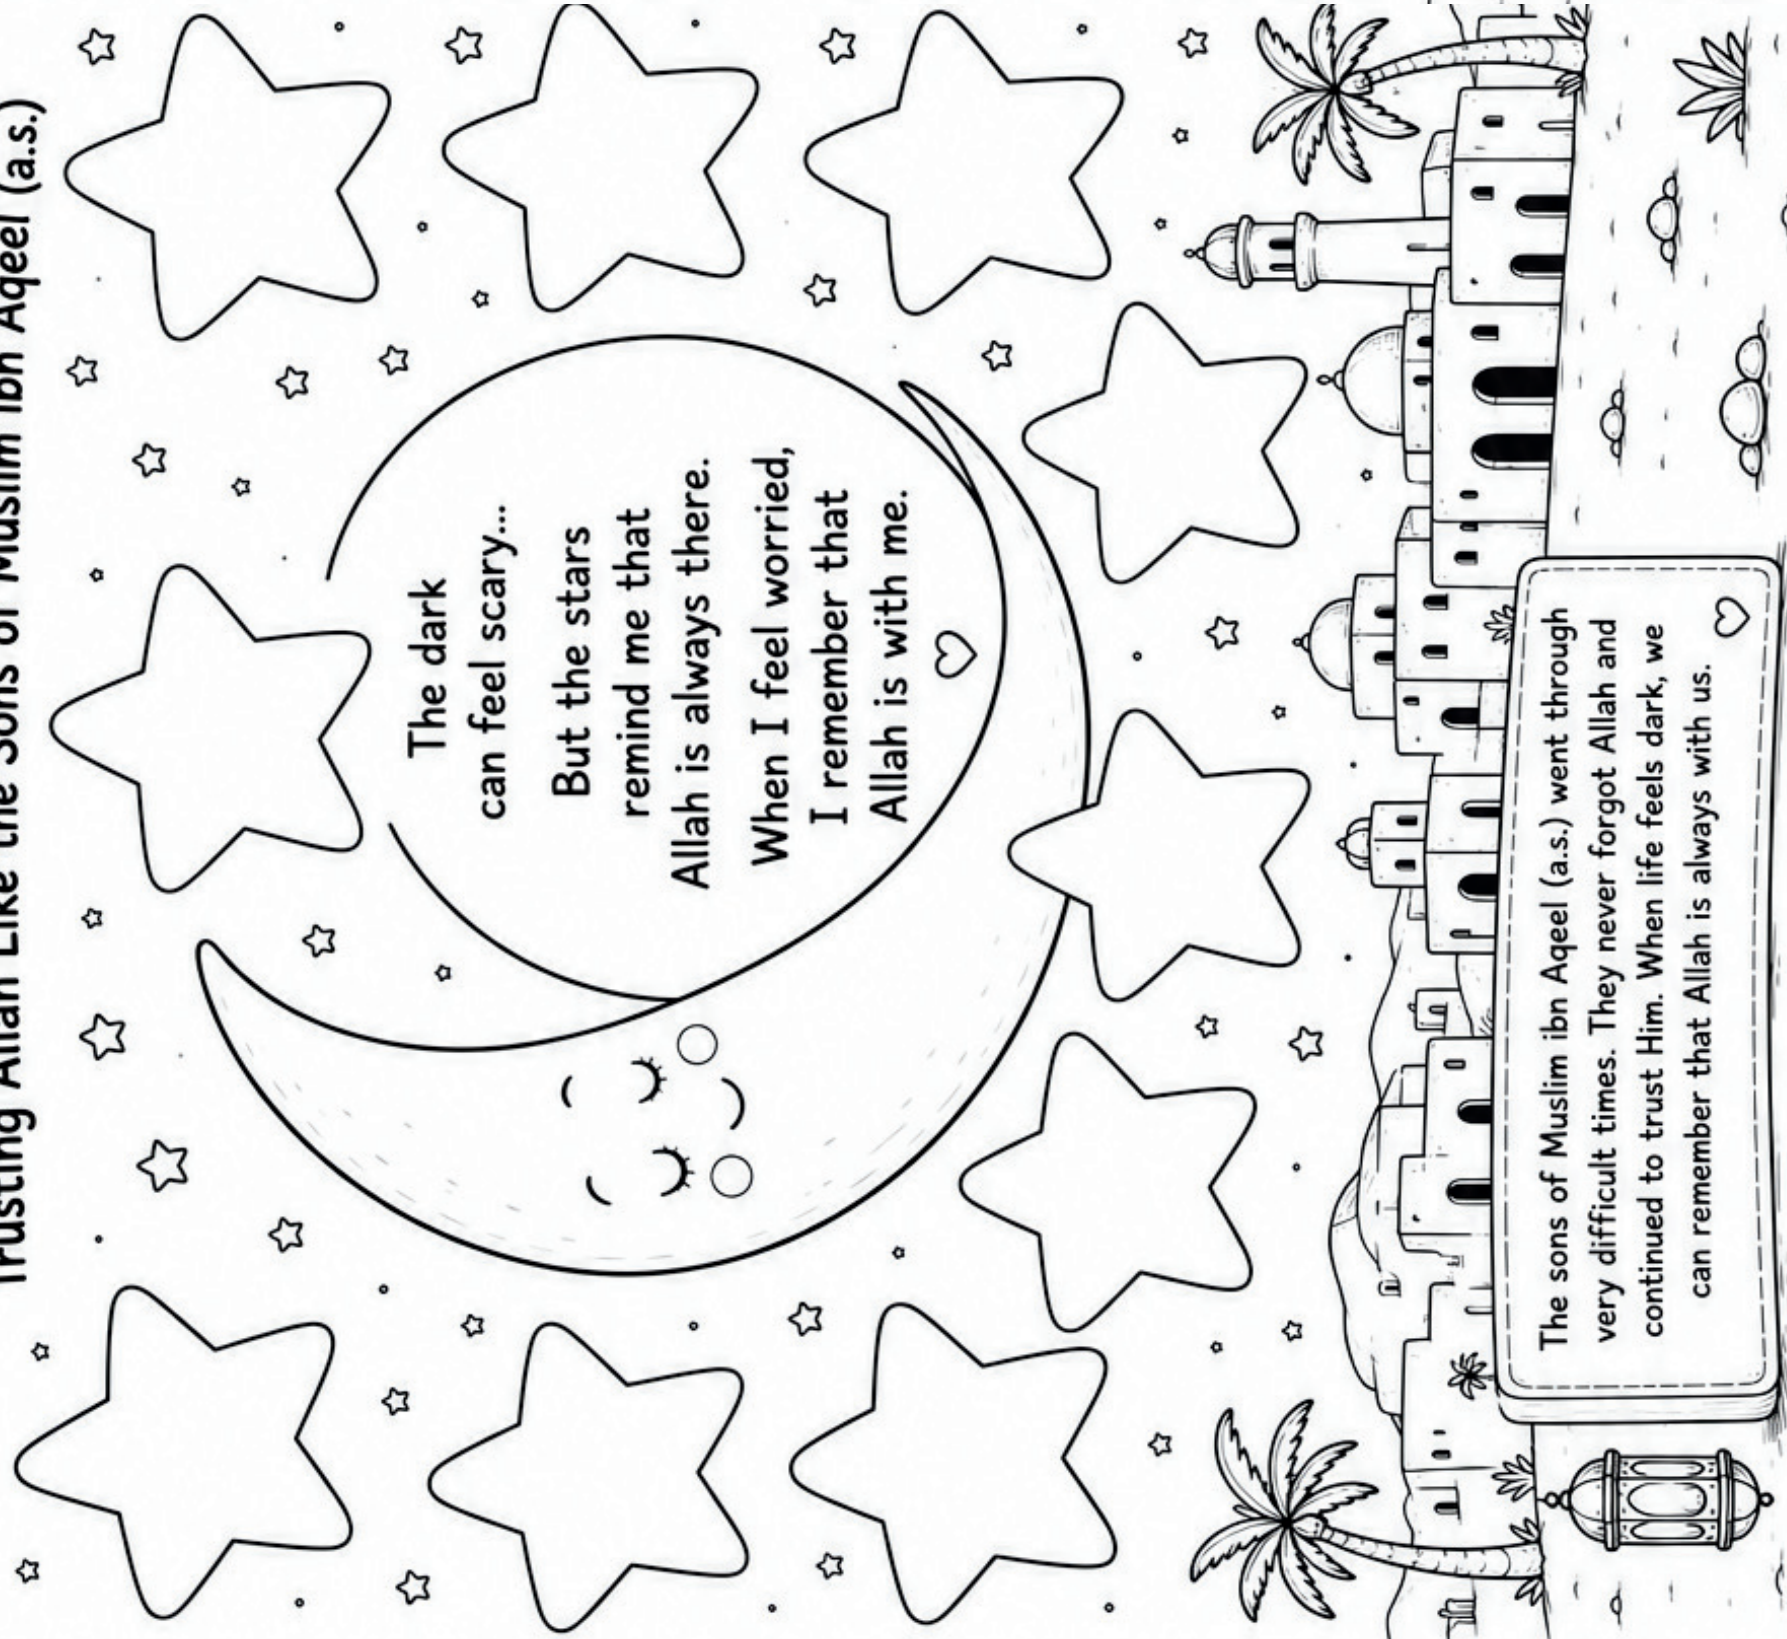

4. Punch a hole in the top.
5. Thread them onto string or ribbon.
6. Hang your garland at home.

Stars in the Dark

Trusting Allah Like the Sons of Muslim ibn Aqeel (a.s.)

The dark can feel scary...
But the stars remind me that Allah is always there.
When I feel worried, I remember that Allah is with me.

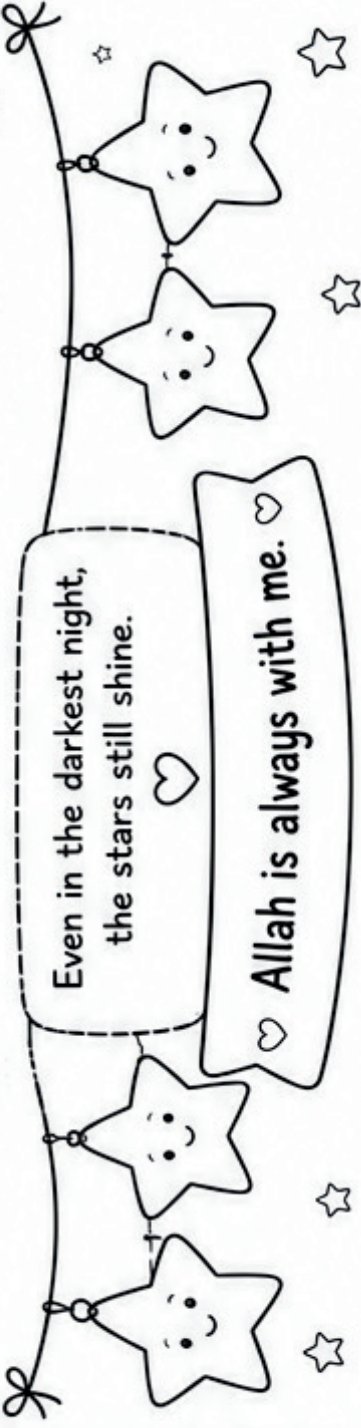

The sons of Muslim ibn Aqeel (a.s.) went through very difficult times. They never forgot Allah and continued to trust Him. When life feels dark, we can remember that Allah is always with us.

My Stars of Trust Garland

1. Colour your stars.
2. Write your answers.
3. Cut out each star.
4. Punch a hole in the top.
5. Thread them onto string or ribbon.
6. Hang your garland at home.

12 star-shaped prompts for a trust garland:

- Allah helps me when...
- I feel brave when...
- Someone who helps me is...
- Something I am grateful for is...
- A challenge I can overcome is...
- I trust Allah because...
- When I feel worried I can...
- A good deed I can do is...
- A way I can help others is...
- Something that makes me smile is...
- Allah is always with me because...

Write or draw one thing on each star that reminds you Allah is always with you.