

BIBI SAKINA (sa)

Kind. Caring. Loving Allah (SWT).
Brave Little Princess.

Once upon a time there was a beautiful princess called Bibi Ruqayya. She was also known as Sakina. She was kind, caring and generous. She loved Allah (swt) and her family very much.

When she was 4 years old, she went to Karbala with her family.

The bad people didn't give them water for 3 days. She was very thirsty.

On the 10th of Muharram, the day of Ashura sad things happened. One by one her baba's friends and family were killed. She lost her baba, her uncle and her brothers.

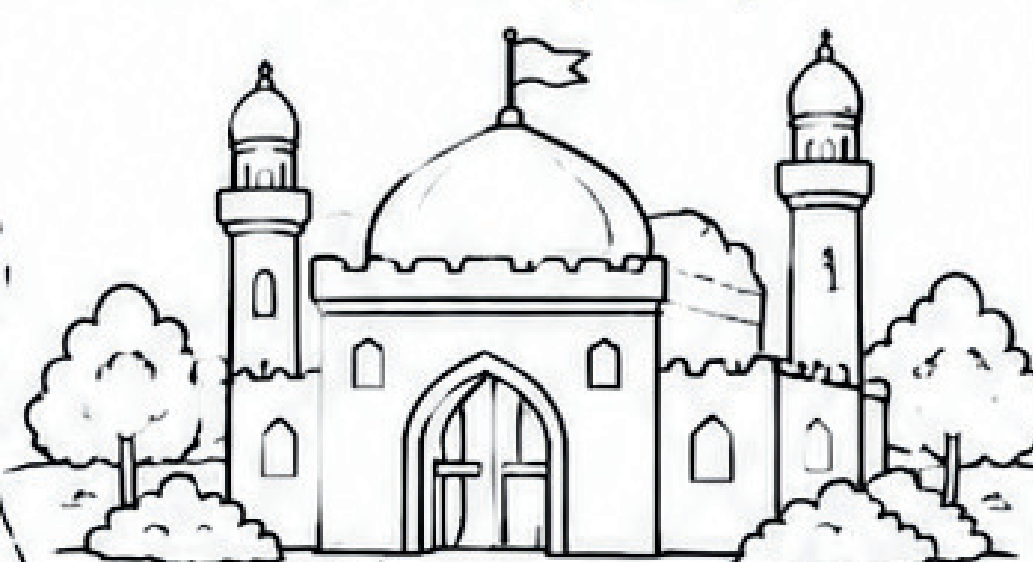

After Ashura, their tents were burnt, their things were taken. Bibi Sakina and the other ladies were taken to Shaam without saddles. She got hurt. It was also very hot and she was still very thirsty.

In Shaam she spent her days in a dark prison. Bibi Sakina was very sad, she used to remember her baba and cry. She would look at the birds flying home in the evenings and wonder when she would go home.

Sadly one night she died in that prison.

Her body rests in a beautiful castle shrine in Shaam. Lots of people who love her used to visit her but because of the tensions in Syria/Shaaam her shrine is also deserted.

Oh my princess Bibi Sakina,
I love you very much. I will try and always be kind and caring like you. Will you please call us to visit you soon.

