Questions for Personal Reflection and Group Discussion

1. Read John 21:15-17.

What question did Jesus ask Peter and why do you think He asked it three times? What was Peter's response and what did Jesus tell him to do?

What did Jesus mean when He said, "Feed my sheep"? How is that statement connected to loving Jesus?

2. Read Zephaniah 3:17.

What does this verse tell you about who God is? What does it tell you about how He feels about you and cares for you?

Knowing these things about God is different from really believing them. In what ways is your life impacted if you truly believe, rather than just know?

3. Read Mark 12:30.

With what four aspects of our lives are we to love God? Why is each of them important and how do they connect to each other?

4. Read Revelation 2:4.

What characteristics of God do you most take for granted? How might you rekindle your awe regarding that aspect of who He is?

Who in your life have you been taking for granted? How might you express your affirmation and appreciation for them?

5. Read 2 Samuel 6:14-22.

Is your love for God carefully contained or boldly expressed? What does that say about your relationship with Him? How might He be calling you to a deeper and bolder expression of love for Him?

6. Read Psalm 63:1, 3-4, and 8.

David uses some strong emotional language in this psalm. Which phrases stand out to you and why? In what ways can you relate to David's words?

7. Read Isaiah 6:5-8.

What truth about himself does Isaiah see by being in God's presence and what kind of response does that create in him?

In what ways have you responded to God's grace and forgiveness? What does that look like in your life today?

8. Read Luke 6:32.

In what ways is God calling you to love others like He loves? In what ways is God loving you through people around you? Are you open to receiving His love? If not, why not?
