Questions for Personal Reflection and Group Discussion

1. Read Genesis 11:8-9.

What does the Lord do in response to the building of the city of Babel? What does verse 9 say about how the people felt as a result?

2. Read Acts 2:1-6 and 9-11.

What similarities do you see between Acts 2:1-4 and Genesis 11:8-9?

What differences do you notice?

How do the people in the crowd respond to what they are hearing?

How is this response different from the response in the Genesis story and why is it different?

What glimpse of God's ultimate plan for humanity do you see in these verses?

3. Read Colossians 1:16, Psalm 2:7-8, Matthew 28:18-19 and Acts 1:8.

What things does Colossians 1:16 tell you God created?

For whom did God create all that He has made and under whose ultimate authority do all things exist?

What role does Jesus commission you to as a Christ-follower in God's plan for humanity and what are you given in order to accomplish it?

In what way(s) are you living out your calling as described in Acts 1:8? What opportunity or step of obedience has God put in front of you to take?

4. Read Ephesians 3:10.

What do you learn about the scope of God's plan in this verse? How does this verse expand your understanding and awareness of what God is up to in our world?

5. Read Romans 15:23-24 and 28.

What is Paul's plan for the next season of his life and ministry? What is yours?

6. Read Ephesians 6:12 and 1 John 5:19.

How do these verses shape your understanding of what is really happening in our world – even when you can't physically see it? How will this understanding shape the way you live this week?
