

What Are They Actually Doing?
UNSEEN: What You Don't See is Still There
September 27, 2026

Questions for Personal Reflection and Group Discussion

1. Read Hebrews 1:14 and 13:2.

What thoughts or beliefs about angels have you had in the past?

What do you learn about angels from these verses? What implications do these truths about angels have for you in your everyday life?

2. Read 1 Peter 1:10-12 and Ephesians 3:10.

What do the members of the unseen realm (angels, rulers, authorities) see when they look at us – the Church?

The idea of representing Christ well because “you never know who’s watching” is familiar. But usually we’re thinking of people. What might angels and other spiritual beings be learning about God as they observe your life?

3. Read Matthew 18:10 and Psalm 91:11-12.

What do these verses tell you about the protective role of angels?

The idea of ‘guardian angels’ comes from these two verses. But what cultural ideas about guardian angels are not supported by these verses?

4. Read Daniel 10:2-21.

At what point did God hear and respond to Daniel’s prayer? How long was it before Daniel received that response?

When you are waiting for an answer to prayer, what assumptions do you tend to make about God?

What difference would it make in your life today if you could truly believe that God is at work on your behalf, even when you can’t see it?

5. Read Matthew 26:53.

Who does Jesus say has the authority to command angels? In what way does this challenge or add to your understanding of angels and their activity?

6. Read 1 Corinthians 6:3 and Hebrews 12:22-23.

What glimpse of God’s plan for the future and the believer’s interaction or connection with angels do you see in these verses? How does this impact your understanding of what happens in eternity?