Questions for Personal Reflection and Group Discussion

1. Read 2 Corinthians 2:11.

What does this verse tell you about Satan? What kind of mindset should you have about him and his activities and why?

2. Read Isaiah 14:12-15.

This passage describes Satan's rebellion against God. In what way did he rebel?

3. Read Job 1:6, Revelation 12:9, Isaiah 14:15 and Hebrews 2:14-15.

What additional information about Satan do you find in these verses?

Putting all these pieces of information together, how is your understanding of Satan more clear and how is that helpful for you?

4. Read Genesis 6:2 and 4, 2 Peter 2:4-5 and Jude 1:6.

These verses tell us about a different enemy. Who are they, in what way did they rebel against God and what happened to them?

5. Read Matthew 12:43-45.

In this passage we read of a third type of enemy. Where did this enemy come from? What is this enemy seeking and why are they unable to find it?

6. Read Deuteronomy 32:8-9, and 32:17 and 1 Corinthians 10:19-20.

The fourth enemy is described in these passages. Who are they. Where did they come from? What role were they given and how have they twisted the power that was given to them?

7. Read 1 Kings 18:21 and Jeremiah 32:35.

How does Elijah describe the double-mindedness of the Israelites in 1 Kings 18:21?

How have you felt pulled between 'opposing opinions' in your own life? Between what God calls you to and your human desires? How long will you waver and who will you choose to serve?

We don't have idols of wood or stone in our culture. But humans still serve the gods of provision and pleasure and the god who demands a price to be paid. How do you see this playing out in the world?

In what area of your life is there something competing for the devotion that belongs only to Jesus? What will you do about it?
