

EXODUS

Let My people go

AUTHOR	Moses, according to Jewish and Christian tradition. Jesus called it the book of Moses Mark 12:26. Many modern scholars think it was put together from older sources over time.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	From slavery in Egypt to the tabernacle at Mount Sinai. The date is debated: about 1446 BC from 1 Kings 6:1, or about 1270 BC in the time of Ramesses II.
DATE WRITTEN	Traditionally about 1440 to 1400 BC, during the forty years in the wilderness. Many scholars say it reached its final form much later, around 500 BC.
WRITTEN TO	The people of Israel, so they would never forget who rescued them.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	About fifteen copies of Exodus were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls. It was also translated into Greek, in the Septuagint, around 250 BC.
KEY VERSE	Exodus 20:2. I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

ONE OF THE OLDEST PIECES OF EXODUS

This scroll is called 4QExod Lev f, which means a copy of Exodus and Leviticus from Cave 4 at Qumran. It was found with the Dead Sea Scrolls, and the photo shows all of its surviving pieces. They hold parts of the last chapters of Exodus and the first chapter of Leviticus, all on one scroll. Experts date it by its handwriting to about 250 BC, which makes it one of the oldest Bible scrolls ever found. That is about 250 years before Jesus was born. It is kept in Jerusalem.

Historical Setting

Egypt was the richest and strongest nation on earth. Its Pharaohs were worshiped as gods, and so were the Nile, the sun, frogs and cows. Jacob's family had moved there in a famine, and they settled in Goshen, the green land of the Nile Delta. Over time they grew into a huge nation, and a new Pharaoh made them slaves. Which Pharaoh is not named. The early date points to Thutmose III or Amenhotep II, the late date to Ramesses II, one of Egypt's most famous builders.

What Was Going Wrong

SLAVERY AND MURDER. Pharaoh worked Israel without mercy and ordered every Hebrew baby boy thrown into the Nile 1:13 to 14, 1:22.

THE GODS OF EGYPT. Egypt worshiped many gods, and God said He would bring judgment on all of them 12:12.

A HARD HEART. Pharaoh hardened his heart again and again, even when he could see what God was doing 8:15, 8:32, 9:34.

A LEADER FULL OF EXCUSES. Moses told God five different ways that he was the wrong man for the job 3:11, 3:13, 4:1, 4:10, 4:13.

GRUMBLING. Days after the sea parted, the people were complaining about water, food and Moses 15:24, 16:2 to 3, 17:3.

THE GOLDEN CALF. Forty days after they promised to obey, they made an idol and threw a party for it 24:7, 32:1 to 6.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Exodus means the way out. It is the great rescue story of the Old Testament. God hears His people crying in slavery and sends Moses to Pharaoh with one message: Let My people go. Ten plagues later, the blood of the Passover lamb saves Israel, and they walk out of Egypt through the middle of the sea. At Mount Sinai God gives them His law and makes them His own nation. Then He gives them plans for a tent so He can live in the middle of their camp. The book ends with His glory filling the tabernacle.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS SHOW UP TWICE

They are in Exodus 20 and Deuteronomy 5, with small differences, mostly in the Sabbath command. Before the Dead Sea Scrolls, the oldest Hebrew Bible text known was the Nash Papyrus, with the Ten Commandments on it.

WHY MOSES HAS HORNS

Exodus 34:29 says Moses' face was shining. The Hebrew word for shine is close to horn, and the old Latin Bible said horned. So Michelangelo's Moses has two little horns.

WHAT IS IT

Manna comes from man hu, Hebrew for What is it? Israel ate a question for forty years.

THE FIRST SPIRIT FILLED ARTIST

Bezalel is filled with God's Spirit to do art, 31:2 to 5. God cares about beauty.

THE BLUEPRINTS TAKE UP A THIRD

Thirteen of forty chapters are about the tabernacle, where God would meet His people.

THE FIRSTBORN ARE BOUGHT BACK

Every firstborn belongs to God, but Israel buys back each firstborn son instead of sacrificing him 13:13, 34:20. The nations burned children, which God hated Leviticus 18:21.

Did Anybody Listen?

Sometimes. Forty days after promising to obey, they made a golden calf. But Moses prayed, God forgave them, and Exodus ends with God's glory filling the tent.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob's family grows from seventy people into a nation, and a new Pharaoh who never knew Joseph gets nervous. He turns them into slaves and makes them build store cities. When that does not slow them down, he orders the Hebrew midwives to kill the baby boys. The midwives fear God more than Pharaoh and quietly refuse.

THE ISRAELITES MULTIPLY IN EGYPT // GENESIS 46:7-27

¹These are the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt with Jacob, each with his family:

²Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;

³Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;

⁴Dan and Naphtali;

Gad and Asher.

⁵The descendants of Jacob numbered seventy in all, including Joseph, who was already in Egypt.

⁶Now Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died, ⁷but the Israelites were fruitful and increased rapidly; they multiplied and became exceedingly numerous, so that the land was filled with them.

OPPRESSION BY A NEW KING // ACTS 7:15-19

⁸Then a new king, who did not know Joseph, came to power in Egypt. ⁹"Look," he said to his people, "the Israelites have become too numerous and too powerful for us. ¹⁰Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase even more; and if a war breaks out, they may join our enemies, fight against us, and leave the country."

¹¹So the Egyptians appointed taskmasters over the Israelites to oppress them with forced labor. As a result, they built Pithom and Rameses as store cities for Pharaoh.

¹²But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and flourished; so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites.

PITHOM AND PI RAMESESSES

EXODUS 1:11 · EXODUS 12:37 · GENESIS 47:11

The feet of a giant statue of Ramesses II, still lying in a farm field at Qantir, the site of Pi Ramesses.

WHAT IT IS

Two real Egyptian cities in the eastern Nile Delta, the same area as the land of Goshen. Raamses was Pi Ramesses, which means House of Ramesses, the giant capital city of Pharaoh Ramesses II. Pithom means House of the god Atum.

HOW OLD IT IS

Pi Ramesses was built by Ramesses II starting about 1270 BC, right on top of an older city called Avaris, which goes back to about 1800 BC. Many people from Canaan lived at Avaris. Pithom is either Tell el Retaba, which was busy in the time of Ramesses, or Tell el Maskhuta, which is mostly from about 600 BC. Which site is Pithom is disputed.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

People once thought Pi Ramesses was Tanis, because statues of Ramesses were found there. Then Manfred Bietak, starting in 1966, and Edgar Pusch, starting in 1980, showed the real city was at Tell el Dab'a and Qantir. Later Pharaohs had hauled its stones to Tanis. Edouard Naville dug at Tell el Maskhuta in 1883, and a Polish and Slovak team has worked at Tell el Retaba since 2007.

dreds of chariot horses, built with mud brick, the work Exodus 1:14 describes.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The sites are mostly farm fields and mounds in the Nile Delta of Egypt. Many finds are in Egyptian museums and the Roemer and Pelizaeus Museum in Hildesheim, Germany.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

The cities in Exodus 1:11 were real places in the right part of Egypt, with huge building projects going on.

THE BIG DEBATE

The name Raamses points many scholars to the late date, about 1270 BC. People who hold the early date, about 1446 BC, say a later writer updated the city name, just as Genesis 47:11 says land of Rameses long before any Ramesses was born.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No record found so far names Hebrew slaves or Moses at these cities. The cities fit the story, but direct evidence of Israel there has not been found.

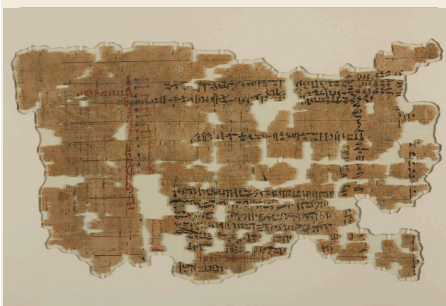

¹³ They worked the Israelites ruthlessly ¹⁴ and made their lives bitter with hard labor in brick and mortar, and with all kinds of work in the fields. Every service they imposed was harsh.

¹⁵ Then the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, whose names were Shiphrah and Puah, ¹⁶ "When you help the Hebrew women give birth, observe them on the birthstools. If the child is a son, kill him; but if it is a daughter, let her live."

THE BROOKLYN PAPYRUS

EXODUS 1:13 TO 15 · GENESIS 39:1

The Brooklyn Papyrus, written in hieratic, a fast handwritten form of Egyptian writing.

WHAT IT IS

A long Egyptian papyrus scroll. On one side are prison and court records. On the other side is a list of 95 servants who belonged to one wealthy Egyptian household.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 1740 BC, in the time of Pharaoh Sobekhotep III. Experts date it by the names of the kings and officials written in it, so this date is fairly firm.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

An American collector named Charles Edwin Wilbour bought it in Egypt in the 1880s. It went to the Brooklyn Museum in 1935, and the Egyptologist William Hayes published it in 1955.

WHAT WAS INSIDE

About 45 of the 95 servants are called Aamu, the Egyptian word for people from Canaan and Syria. Many have Semitic names, the same family of languages as Hebrew. One woman on the list is named Shiphrah, the same name as one of the Hebrew midwives in Exodus 1:15. Some scholars think they also see names like Asher and Issachar, but those readings are debated.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Brooklyn Museum in New York City.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

People from Canaan really lived and worked as servants in Egyptian homes, with Semitic names that sound like names in the Bible. The life of Joseph as a slave in Potiphar's house and the ■ EX 1:15 [FIELD NOTES] An Egyptian list of household servants from about 1740 BC includes a woman named Shiphrah. See the Brooklyn Papyrus Field Notes page.

Hebrew servants in Exodus fit this world.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

This Shiphrah is not the midwife from Exodus. She is a different woman with the same name. The list does not mention Israel, Moses or the Exodus.

¹⁷ The midwives, however, feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt had instructed; they let the boys live. ¹⁸ So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, "Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?"

¹⁹ The midwives answered Pharaoh, "The Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous and give birth before a midwife arrives."

²⁰ So God was good to the midwives, and the people multiplied and became even more numerous. ²¹ And because the midwives feared God, He gave them families of their own.

²² Then Pharaoh commanded all his people: "Every son born to the Hebrews you must throw into the Nile, but every daughter you may allow to live."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHEN WAS THE EXODUS?

Two Dates, One Story

EXODUS 1:11 · 12:40 TO 41 · 1 KINGS 6:1 · JUDGES 11:26 · JOSHUA 6 AND 11

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Solomon began the temple in the 480th year after Israel came out of Egypt, in the fourth year of his reign, 1 Kings 6:1. That was about 966 BC, which puts the Exodus about 1446 BC. Jephthah says Israel had lived in the land about 300 years, Judges 11:26. But Exodus 1:11 says the Hebrew slaves built the store cities Pithom and Rameses, and the great city of Pi Ramesses was built by Pharaoh Ramesses II, who ruled about 1279 to 1213 BC.

THE EARLY DATE, ABOUT 1446 BC

Take 1 Kings 6:1 at face value. Pharaoh would be Thutmose III or Amenhotep II. The name Rameses was updated by a later writer, just as Genesis 47:11 says land of Rameses long before any Ramesses was born. In the 1930s John Garstang dated the fall of Jericho's walls to about 1400 BC, and in 1990 Bryant Wood argued for that date again from the pottery. Letters found at Amarna in Egypt, from the 1300s BC, complain of raiders called Habiru in Canaan, which some link to the Hebrews.

THE LATE DATE, ABOUT 1270 BC

Pharaoh is Ramesses II, or his father Seti I. The 480 years is twelve generations of 40 years, a round number; real generations are closer to 25 years, which gives about 300 years. In the 1950s Kathleen Kenyon dated Jericho's fall to about 1550 BC, with little there in 1400. Hazor, which Joshua burned, 11:11, was destroyed in the 1200s BC.

THE 430 YEARS

Israel lived in Egypt 430 years, 12:40. The Greek Septuagint and the Samaritan text say in Egypt and Canaan, counting from Abraham, and Paul counts 430 years from the promise to the Law, Galatians 3:17. So some say Israel was in Egypt only about 215 years. This changes the story of the patriarchs, not the date of the Exodus itself.

What the Ground Says

EXODUS 12:37 TO 41 · 14:28 · JOSHUA 11:10 TO 13

THE FIRM DATE

The Merneptah Stele, about 1208 BC, names Israel as a people in Canaan. So Israel was there by then. Both views fit, the late date just barely. See The Merneptah Stele Field Notes page.

THE SKEPTICAL VIEW

Some scholars think there was no large Exodus at all, or only a small group that escaped Egypt, and that Israel mostly grew up inside Canaan. They point out that Egyptian records never mention it. Others answer that Pharaohs did not carve their defeats in stone, and that the Bible's details about Egypt fit the times. See the Pithom and Pi Ramesses and Brooklyn Papyrus Field Notes pages.

BE CAREFUL WITH

The Ipuwer Papyrus is often called an Egyptian record of the plagues, but most scholars date it centuries earlier; see its Field Notes page. Claims of chariot wheels found in the Red Sea have never been backed by real archaeologists. Movies like The Ten Commandments, 1956, and The Prince of Egypt, 1998, made Ramesses II the Pharaoh of the Exodus, but the Bible never names him.

HOW MANY?

About 600,000 men on foot, besides women and children, 12:37, perhaps two million people. Some read the Hebrew word for thousand, elef, as a clan or military unit, which would make the number much smaller. Others take the number as written.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Every believing view agrees God brought Israel out of Egypt with a mighty hand, 13:3, and that the Passover points to Jesus, our Passover lamb, 1 Corinthians 5:7. The date changes the calendar, not the story.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

A Hebrew mom hides her baby boy, then floats him down the Nile in a basket. Pharaoh's own daughter finds him, adopts him and names him Moses, and his real mom gets paid to nurse him. Grown up Moses kills an Egyptian who was beating a Hebrew and runs for his life to Midian. Meanwhile God hears His people groaning.

THE BIRTH AND ADOPTION OF MOSES // ACTS

7:20-22; HEBREWS 11:23

¹Now a man of the house of Levi married a Levite woman, ²and she conceived and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a beautiful child, she hid him for three months.

⁵Soon the daughter of Pharaoh went down to bathe in the Nile, and her attendants were walking along the riverbank. And when she saw the basket among the reeds, she sent her maidservant to retrieve it. ⁶When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the little boy was crying. So she had compassion on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrew children."

⁷Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call one of the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?"

⁸"Go ahead," Pharaoh's daughter told her. And the girl went and called the boy's mother.

⁹Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay your wages." So the woman took the boy and nursed him.

¹⁰When the child had grown older, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses and explained, "I drew him out of the water."

THE REJECTION AND FLIGHT OF MOSES // ACTS 7:23-29

¹¹One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to his own people and observed their hard labor. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his own people. ¹²After looking this way and that and seeing no one, he struck down the Egyptian and hid his body in the sand.

¹³The next day Moses went out and saw two Hebrews fighting. He asked the one in the wrong, "Why are you attacking your companion?"

¹⁴*But the man replied, "Who made you ruler and judge over us? Are you planning to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?"*

Then Moses was afraid and thought, "This thing I have done has surely become known."

¹⁵When Pharaoh heard about this matter, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian, where he sat down beside a well.

¹⁶Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came to draw water and fill the troughs to water their father's flock. ¹⁷ And when some shepherds came along and drove them away, Moses rose up to help them and watered their flock.

¹⁸ When the daughters returned to their father Reuel, he asked them, "Why have you returned so early today?"

¹⁹ "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds," they replied. "He even drew water for us and watered the flock."

²⁰ "So where is he?" their father asked. "Why did you leave the man behind? Invite him to have something to eat."

²¹ Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses in marriage. ²² And she gave birth to a son, and Moses named him Gershom, saying, "I have become a foreigner in a foreign land."

GOD HEARS THE CRY OF THE ISRAELITES

²⁴ So God heard their groaning, and He remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ²⁵ God saw the Israelites and took notice.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses is watching sheep for forty years when a bush catches fire and does not burn up. God speaks from the flames and tells him to take off his sandals. God says He has seen His people suffer and is sending Moses to Pharaoh. Moses asks for God's name, and God says, I AM WHO I AM.

MOSES AT THE BURNING BUSH // ACTS 7:30–38

¹ Meanwhile, Moses was shepherding the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. He led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. ² There the angel of Yahweh appeared to him in a blazing fire from within a bush. Moses saw the bush ablaze with fire, but it was not consumed. ³ So Moses thought, "I must go over and see this marvelous sight. Why is the bush not burning up?"

⁴ When Yahweh saw that he had gone over to look, God called out to him from within the bush, "Moses, Moses!"

"Here I am," he answered.

⁵ "Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground." ⁶ Then He said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

At this, Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

⁷ Yahweh said, "I have indeed seen the affliction of My people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their oppressors, and I am aware of their sufferings. ⁸ I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.

⁹ And now the cry of the Israelites has reached Me, and I have seen how severely the Egyptians are oppressing them.

¹⁰ Therefore, go! I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring My people the Israelites out of Egypt."

¹¹ But Moses asked God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

¹² "I will surely be with you," God said, "and this will be the sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, all of you will worship God on this mountain."

¹³ Then Moses asked God, "Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is His name?' What should I tell them?"

¹⁴ God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM.

This is what you are to say to the Israelites: 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

¹⁵ God also told Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.' This is My name forever, and this is how I am to be remembered in every generation.

¹⁶ Go, assemble the elders of Israel and say to them, 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—has appeared to me and said: I have surely attended to you and have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses has a long list of excuses. God turns his staff into a snake and back, and makes his hand sick and then healthy again. Moses says he is a bad speaker, and God says, Who made your mouth? Moses finally just asks God to send someone else. So God sends his brother Aaron along to do the talking.

MOSES' STAFF

¹ Then Moses answered, "What if they do not believe me or listen to my voice? For they may say, 'Yahweh has not appeared to you.'"

² And Yahweh asked him, "What is that in your hand?"

"A staff," he replied.

³ "Throw it on the ground," said Yahweh. So Moses threw it on the ground, and it became a snake, and he ran from it.

MOSES' HAND

⁶ Furthermore, Yahweh said to Moses, "Put your hand inside your cloak." So he put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out, his hand was leprous, white as snow.

⁷ "Put your hand back inside your cloak," said Yahweh.

So Moses put his hand back inside his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored, like the rest of his skin.

water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. Then the water you take from the Nile will become blood on the ground."

THE APPOINTMENT OF AARON

¹⁰ "Please, Lord," Moses replied, "I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since You have spoken to Your servant, for I am slow of speech and tongue."

¹¹ And Yahweh said to him, "Who gave man his mouth? Or who makes the mute or the deaf, the sighted or the blind? Is it not I, Yahweh? ¹² Now go! I will help you as you speak, and I will teach you what to say."

¹³ But Moses replied, "Please, Lord, send someone else."

¹⁴ Then the anger of Yahweh burned against Moses, and He said, "Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well, and he is now on his way to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. ¹⁵ You are to speak to him and put the words in his mouth. I will help both of you to speak, and I will teach you what to do. ¹⁶ He will speak to the people for you. He will be your spokesman, and it will be as if you were God to him. ¹⁷ But take this staff in your hand so you can perform signs with it."

MOSES LEAVES FOR EGYPT

¹⁸ Then Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, "Please let me return to my brothers in Egypt to see if they are still alive."

"Go in peace," Jethro replied.

¹⁹ Now Yahweh had said to Moses in Midian, "Go back to Egypt, for all the men who sought to kill you are dead." ²⁰ So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey, and headed back to Egypt. And he took the staff of God in his hand.

²¹ Yahweh instructed Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders that I have put within your power. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.

²² Then tell Pharaoh that this is what Yahweh says: 'Israel is My firstborn son, ²³ and I told you to let My son go so that he may worship Me. But since you have refused to let him go, behold, I will kill your firstborn son!'"

²⁴ Now at a lodging place along the way, Yahweh met Moses and was about to kill him. ²⁵ But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin, and touched it to Moses' feet. "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me," she said.

²⁶ So Yahweh let him alone. (When she said, "bridegroom of blood," she was referring to the circumcision.)

THE PEOPLE BELIEVE MOSES AND AARON

²⁷ Meanwhile, Yahweh had said to Aaron, "Go and meet Moses in the wilderness." So he went and met Moses at the mountain of God and kissed him. ²⁸ And Moses told Aaron everything Yahweh had sent him to say, and all the signs He had commanded him to perform.

²⁹ Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the Israelites, ³⁰ and Aaron relayed everything Yahweh had said to Moses.

And Moses performed the signs before the people, ³¹ and they believed. And when they heard that Yahweh had attended to the Israelites and had seen their affliction, they bowed down and worshiped.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses and Aaron tell Pharaoh, Let My people go, and Pharaoh says, Who is Yahweh? Then he makes the slaves gather their own straw and still make the same number of bricks. The workers blame Moses, and Moses blames God. Day one of the mission does not go well.

PHARAOH'S FIRST REFUSAL

¹ After that, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'Let My people go, so that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness.'"

² But Pharaoh replied, "Who is Yahweh that I should obey His voice and let Israel go? I do not know Yahweh, and I will not let Israel go."

³ "The God of the Hebrews has met with us," they answered. "Please let us go on a three-day journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to Yahweh our God, or He may strike us with plagues or with the sword."

⁴ But the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why do you draw the people away from their work? Get back to your labor!" ⁵ Pharaoh also said, "Look, the people of the land are now numerous, and you would be stopping them from their labor."

BRICKS AND STRAW

⁶ That same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their foremen: ⁷ "You shall no longer supply the people with straw for making bricks. They must go and gather their own straw. ⁸ But require of them the same quota of bricks as before; do not reduce it. For they are lazy; that is why they are crying out, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.' ⁹ Make the work harder on the men so they will be occupied and pay no attention to these lies."

¹⁰ So the taskmasters and foremen of the people went out and said to them, "This is what Pharaoh says: 'I am no longer giving you straw. ¹¹ Go and get your own straw wherever you can find it; but your workload will in no way be reduced.'"

¹² So the people scattered all over the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. ¹³ The taskmasters kept pressing them, saying, "Fulfill your quota each day, just as you did when straw was provided."

¹⁴ Then the Israelite foremen, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over the people, were beaten and asked, "Why have you not fulfilled your quota of bricks yesterday or today, as you did before?"

THE CRY OF THE ISRAELITES

¹⁵ So the Israelite foremen went and appealed to Pharaoh: "Why are you treating your servants this way? ¹⁶ No straw has been given to your servants, yet we are told, 'Make bricks!' Look, your servants are being beaten, but the fault is with your own people."

¹⁷ "You are slackers!" Pharaoh replied.

"Slackers! That is why you keep saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to Yahweh.' ¹⁸ Now get to work. You will be given no straw, yet you must deliver the full quota of bricks."

¹⁹ The Israelite foremen realized they were in trouble when they were told, "You must not reduce your daily quota of bricks." ²⁰ When they left Pharaoh, they confronted Moses and Aaron, who stood waiting to meet them.

²² So Moses returned to Yahweh and asked, "Lord, why have You brought trouble upon this people? Is this why You sent me? ²³ Ever since I went to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has brought trouble on this people, and You have not delivered Your people in any way."

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

God answers Moses with seven I will promises: I will bring you out, I will rescue you, I will redeem you and more. The people are too crushed to listen. Then the story pauses for a family tree so we know exactly who Moses and Aaron are. Watch for Amminadab and Nahshon in verse 23, two names in the family line of Jesus.

GOD PROMISES DELIVERANCE

¹ But Yahweh said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh, for because of My mighty hand he will let the people go; because of My strong hand he will drive them out of his land."

² God also told Moses, "I am Yahweh. ³ I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by My name Yahweh I did not make Myself known to them. ⁴ I also established My covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, the land where they lived as foreigners. ⁵ Furthermore, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered My covenant.

GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

⁶ Therefore tell the Israelites: 'I am Yahweh, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians and deliver you from their bondage. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment. ⁷ I will take you as My own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. ⁸ And I will bring you into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I will give it to you as a possession. I am Yahweh!'"

⁹ Moses relayed this message to the Israelites, but on account of their broken spirit and cruel bondage, they did not listen to him.

¹⁰ So Yahweh said to Moses, ¹¹ "Go and tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his land."

¹² But in Yahweh's presence Moses replied, "If the Israelites will not listen to me, then why would Pharaoh listen to me, since I am unskilled in speech?"

¹³ Then Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them a charge concerning both the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

GENEALOGIES OF MOSES AND AARON

¹⁴ These were the heads of their fathers' houses:

The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben.

¹⁵ The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

¹⁶ These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their records: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. Levi lived 137 years.

¹⁷ The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei, by their clans.

¹⁸ The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years.

¹⁹ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi.

These were the clans of the Levites according to their records.

²⁰ And Amram married his father's sister Jochebed, and she bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years.

²¹ The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

²² The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

²³ And Aaron married Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

²⁴ The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the clans of the Korahites.

²⁵ Aaron's son Eleazar married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas.

These were the heads of the Levite families by their clans.

²⁶ It was this Aaron and Moses to whom Yahweh said, "Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt by their divisions." ²⁷

Moses and Aaron were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt in order to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

²⁸ Now on the day that Yahweh spoke to Moses in Egypt, ²⁹ He said to him, "I am Yahweh; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I say to you."

³⁰ But in Yahweh's presence Moses replied, "Since I am unskilled in speech, why would Pharaoh listen to me?"

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Aaron throws down his staff and it becomes a serpent. Pharaoh's magicians do the same trick, but Aaron's staff swallows theirs. Then the first plague hits. The Nile turns to blood, the fish die and the whole country stinks. The magicians copy it, which only makes things worse, and Pharaoh's heart stays hard.

GOD COMMANDS MOSES AND AARON

¹Yahweh answered Moses, "See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet. ²You are to speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron is to tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his land.

³But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and though I will multiply My signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, ⁴Pharaoh will not listen to you.

Then I will lay My hand on Egypt, and by mighty acts of judgment I will bring the divisions of My people the Israelites out of the land of Egypt. ⁵And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh, when I stretch out My hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them."

⁶So Moses and Aaron did just as Yahweh had commanded them. ⁷Moses was eighty years old and Aaron was eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

AARON'S STAFF

⁸Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, ⁹"When Pharaoh tells you, 'Perform a miracle,' you are to say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh,' and it will become a serpent."

¹⁰So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did just as Yahweh had commanded. Aaron threw his staff down before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a serpent.

¹¹But Pharaoh called the wise men and sorcerers and magicians of Egypt, and they also did the same things by their magic arts. ¹²Each one threw down his staff, and it became a serpent. But Aaron's staff swallowed up the other staffs.

¹³Still, Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said.

THE FIRST PLAGUE: BLOOD

¹⁴Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is unyielding; he refuses to let the people go. ¹⁵Go to Pharaoh in the morning as you see him walking out to the water. Wait on the bank of the Nile to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was changed into a snake. ¹⁶Then say to him, 'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to tell you: Let My people go, so that they may worship Me in the wilderness. But until now you have not listened. ¹⁷This is what Yahweh says: By this you will know that I am Yahweh. Behold, with the staff in my hand I will strike the water of the Nile, and it will turn to blood. ¹⁸The fish in the Nile will die, the river will stink, and the Egyptians will be unable to drink its water.'"

¹⁹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt—over their rivers and canals and ponds and all the reservoirs—that they may become blood.' There will be blood throughout the land of Egypt, even in the vessels of wood and stone."

²⁰Moses and Aaron did just as Yahweh had commanded; in the presence of Pharaoh and his officials, Aaron raised the staff and struck the water of the Nile, and all the water was turned to blood. ²¹The fish in the Nile died, and the river smelled so bad that the Egyptians could not drink its water. And there was blood throughout the land of Egypt.

EXODUS 7:20 TO 21 · EXODUS 10:22 · EXODUS 12:35 TO 36

A page of the Ipuwer Papyrus, written in hieratic.

WHAT IT IS

An Egyptian poem, also called the Admonitions of Ipuwer. A wise man named Ipuwer complains to the king that Egypt has fallen apart: the poor have become rich, the rich have become poor, and there is chaos everywhere.

HOW OLD IT IS

The only copy was written about 1250 BC. The poem itself is older, but how much older is disputed. Most Egyptologists date it to the Middle Kingdom, somewhere around 1850 BC or earlier.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The National Museum of Antiquities in Leiden, Netherlands, bought it in 1828 from the collection of Giovanni Anastasi, a merchant in Egypt. It probably came from Saqqara, near Memphis. Alan Gardiner published the first full English translation in 1909.

WHAT IT SAYS

Some lines sound a lot like Exodus. The river is blood, and people refuse to drink from it. Plague is all over the land. Gold and precious stones hang on the necks of servant girls. Fire has destroyed the land.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The National Museum of Antiquities in Leiden, Netherlands.

WHY SOME LINK IT TO THE PLAGUES

In 1952 a writer named Immanuel Velikovsky said Ipuwer was an Egyptian eyewitness to the plagues, and many Bible teachers have repeated it since.

The river turned to blood and the Egyptians handing their gold to slaves are the two lines people point to most.

WHY MOST EXPERTS DISAGREE

It never mentions Israelites, Moses, a Passover or slaves leaving Egypt. Most experts say it is poetry about Egypt falling into disorder, and that a red river was a way to describe bloodshed. Its probable date is also hundreds of years before either date for the Exodus. We rate it LOW: interesting, but not evidence.

²² But the magicians of Egypt did the same things by their magic arts. So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as Yahweh had said. ²³ Instead, Pharaoh turned around, went into his palace, and did not take any of this to heart. ²⁴ So all the Egyptians dug around the Nile for water to drink, because they could not drink the water from the river.

²⁵ And seven full days passed after Yahweh had struck the Nile.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Plague two is frogs: in the beds, in the ovens and in the bread bowls. Pharaoh begs for them to go away, and when Moses asks when, he says, Tomorrow. One more night with the frogs. Then come gnats, and the magicians give up and say, This is the finger of God. Then flies, everywhere except Goshen, where God's people live.

THE SECOND PLAGUE: FROGS

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him that this is what Yahweh says: 'Let My people go, so that they may worship Me.' ² But if you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs. ³ The Nile will teem with frogs, and they will come into your palace and up to your bedroom and onto your bed, into the houses of your officials and your people, and into your ovens and kneading bowls. ⁴ The frogs will come up on you and your people and all your officials."

⁵ And Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers and canals and ponds, and cause the frogs to come up onto the land of Egypt.'"

⁶ So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

⁷ But the magicians did the same thing by their magic arts, and they also brought frogs up onto the land of Egypt.

⁸ Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray to Yahweh to take the frogs away from me and my people. Then I will let your people go, that they may sacrifice to Yahweh."

⁹ Moses said to Pharaoh, "You may have the honor over me. When shall I pray for you and your officials and your people that the frogs (except for those in the Nile) may be taken away from you and your houses?"

¹⁰ "Tomorrow," Pharaoh answered.

"May it be as you say," Moses replied, "so that you may know that there is no one like Yahweh our God. ¹¹ The frogs will depart from you and your houses and your officials and your people; they will remain only in the Nile."

¹² After Moses and Aaron had left Pharaoh, Moses cried out to Yahweh for help with the frogs that He had brought against Pharaoh. ¹³ And Yahweh did as Moses requested, and the frogs in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields died. ¹⁴ They were piled into countless heaps, and there was a terrible stench in the land.

¹⁵ When Pharaoh saw that there was relief, however, he hardened his heart and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as Yahweh had said.

THE THIRD PLAGUE: GNATS

¹⁶ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, that it may turn into swarms of gnats throughout the land of Egypt.'"

¹⁸ The magicians tried to produce gnats using their magic arts, but they could not. And the gnats remained on man and beast.

¹⁹ "This is the finger of God," the magicians said to Pharaoh. But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said.

THE FOURTH PLAGUE: FLIES

²⁰ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning, and when Pharaoh goes out to the water, stand before him and tell him that this is what Yahweh says: 'Let My people go, so that they may worship Me. ²¹ But if you will not let My people go, I will send swarms of flies upon you and your officials and your people and your houses. The houses of the Egyptians and even the ground where they stand will be full of flies.

²² But on that day I will give special treatment to the land of Goshen, where My people live; no swarms of flies will be found there. In this way you will know that I, Yahweh, am in the land. ²³ I will make a distinction between My people and your people. This sign will take place tomorrow.'"

²⁴ And Yahweh did so. Thick swarms of flies poured into Pharaoh's palace and into the houses of his officials. Throughout Egypt the land was ruined by swarms of flies.

²⁵ Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God within this land."

²⁶ But Moses replied, "It would not be right to do that, because the sacrifices we offer to Yahweh our God would be detestable to the Egyptians. If we offer sacrifices that are detestable before the Egyptians, will they not stone us?" ²⁷ We must make a three-day journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to Yahweh our God as He commands us."

²⁸ Pharaoh answered, "I will let you go and sacrifice to Yahweh your God in the wilderness, but you must not go very far. Now pray for me."

²⁹ "As soon as I leave you," Moses said, "I will pray to Yahweh, so that tomorrow the swarms of flies will depart from Pharaoh and his officials and his people. But Pharaoh must not act deceitfully again by refusing to let the people go and sacrifice to Yahweh."

³⁰ Then Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to Yahweh, ³¹ and Yahweh did as Moses requested. He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh and his officials and his people; not one fly remained. ³² But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time as well, and he would not let the people go.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

The livestock of Egypt die, but Israel's animals are fine. Then painful boils break out on people and animals, even on the magicians, who cannot stand up in front of Moses. Then the worst hail-storm in Egypt's history falls with fire mixed in. Pharaoh says, I have sinned, then changes his mind again as soon as the hail stops.

THE FIFTH PLAGUE: LIVESTOCK

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him that this is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'Let My people go, so that they may worship Me.' ² But if you continue to restrain them and refuse to let them go, ³ then the hand of Yahweh will bring a severe plague on your livestock in the field—on your horses, donkeys, camels, herds, and flocks. ⁴ But Yahweh will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that no animal belonging to the Israelites will die.'"

⁵ Yahweh set a time, saying, "Tomorrow Yahweh will do this in the land." ⁶ And the next day Yahweh did just that. All the livestock of the Egyptians died, but not one animal belonging to the Israelites died. ⁷ Pharaoh sent officials and found that none of the livestock of the Israelites had died. But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not let the people go.

THE SIXTH PLAGUE: BOILS

⁸ Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, "Take handfuls of soot from the furnace; in the sight of Pharaoh, Moses is to toss it into the air. ⁹ It will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and festering boils will break out on man and beast throughout the land."

¹² But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said to Moses.

THE SEVENTH PLAGUE: HAIL

¹³ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning, stand before Pharaoh, and tell him that this is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'Let My people go, so that they may worship Me.' ¹⁴ Otherwise, I will send all My plagues against you and your officials and your people, so you may know that there is no one like Me in all the earth.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

¹⁵ For by this time I could have stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with a plague to wipe you off the earth. ¹⁶ But I have raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display My power to you, and that My name might be proclaimed in all the earth. ¹⁷ Still, you lord it over My people and do not allow them to go.

¹⁸ Behold, at this time tomorrow I will rain down the worst hail that has ever fallen on Egypt, from the day it was founded until now. ¹⁹ So give orders now to shelter your livestock and everything you have in the field. Every man or beast that remains in the field and is not brought inside will die when the hail comes down upon them."

²⁰ Those among Pharaoh's officials who feared the word of Yahweh hurried to bring their servants and livestock to shelter, ²¹ but those who disregarded the word of Yahweh left their servants and livestock in the field.

²² Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven, so that hail may fall on all the land of Egypt—on man and beast and every plant of the field throughout the land of Egypt."

²³ So Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven, and Yahweh sent thunder and hail, and lightning struck the earth. So Yahweh rained down hail upon the land of Egypt. ²⁴ The hail fell and the lightning continued flashing through it. The hail was so severe that nothing like it had ever been seen in all the land of Egypt from the time it became a nation.

²⁵ Throughout the land of Egypt, the hail struck down everything in the field, both man and beast; it beat down every plant of the field and stripped every tree. ²⁶ The only place where it did not hail was in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites lived.

²⁷ Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. "This time I have sinned," he said. "Yahweh is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. ²⁸ Pray to Yahweh, for there has been enough of God's thunder and hail. I will let you go; you do not need to stay any longer."

²⁹ Moses said to him, "When I have left the city, I will spread out my hands to Yahweh. The thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth is Yahweh's. ³⁰ But as for you and your officials, I know that you still do not fear Yahweh our God."

³³ Then Moses departed from Pharaoh, went out of the city, and spread out his hands to Yahweh. The thunder and hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured down on the land.

³⁴ When Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder had ceased, he sinned again and hardened his heart—he and his officials. ³⁵ So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not let the Israelites go, just as Yahweh had said through Moses.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Pharaoh's own officials beg him to give up, because Egypt is ruined. He refuses, and locusts eat every green thing the hail missed. Then thick darkness covers Egypt for three days, a darkness you can feel. But all the Israelites have light where they live. Pharaoh tells Moses never to show his face again.

THE EIGHTH PLAGUE: LOCUSTS

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials, that I may perform these miraculous signs of Mine among them, ² and that you may tell your children and grandchildren how severely I dealt with the Egyptians when I performed miraculous signs among them, so that all of you may know that I am Yahweh."

³ So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and told him, “This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, so that they may worship Me.’ ⁴ But if you refuse to let My people go, I will bring locusts into your territory tomorrow. ⁵ They will cover the face of the land so that no one can see it. They will devour whatever is left after the hail and eat every tree that grows in your fields. ⁶ They will fill your houses and the houses of all your officials and every Egyptian—something neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen since the day they came into this land.’”

Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh's presence.

⁷ Pharaoh's officials asked him, “How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may worship Yahweh their God. Do you not yet realize that Egypt lies in ruins?”

⁸ So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. “Go, worship Yahweh your God,” he said. “But who exactly will be going?”

⁹ “We will go with our young and old,” Moses replied. “We will go with our sons and daughters, and with our flocks and herds, for we must hold a feast to Yahweh.”

¹⁰ Then Pharaoh told them, “May Yahweh be with you if I ever let you go with your little ones. Clearly you are bent on evil. ¹¹ No, only the men may go and worship Yahweh, since that is what you have been requesting.” And Moses and Aaron were driven from Pharaoh's presence.

¹² Then Yahweh said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt, so that the locusts may swarm over it and devour every plant in the land—everything that the hail has left behind.”

¹³ So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and throughout that day and night Yahweh sent an east wind across the land. By morning the east wind had brought the locusts.

¹⁴ The locusts swarmed across the land and settled over the entire territory of Egypt. Never before had there been so many locusts, and never again will there be. ¹⁵ They covered the face of all the land until it was black, and they consumed all the plants on the ground and all the fruit on the trees that the hail had left behind. Nothing green was left on any tree or plant in all the land of Egypt.

¹⁶ Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “I have sinned against Yahweh your God and against you. ¹⁷ Now please forgive my sin once more and appeal to Yahweh your God, that He may remove this death from me.”

¹⁸ So Moses left Pharaoh's presence and appealed to Yahweh. ¹⁹ And Yahweh changed the wind to a very strong west wind that carried off the locusts and blew them into the Red Sea. Not a single locust remained anywhere in Egypt.

²⁰ But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the Israelites go.

THE NINTH PLAGUE: DARKNESS

²¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, so that darkness may spread over the land of Egypt—a palpable darkness.”

²² So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and total darkness covered all the land of Egypt for three days. ²³ No one could see anyone else, and for three days no one left his place. Yet all the Israelites had light in their dwellings.

²⁴ Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, “Go, worship Yahweh. Even your little ones may go with you; only your flocks and herds must stay behind.”

²⁵ But Moses replied, “You must also provide us with sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to Yahweh our God. ²⁶ Even our livestock must go with us; not a hoof will be left behind, for we will need some of

²⁷ But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was unwilling to let them go. ²⁸ "Depart from me!" Pharaoh said to Moses. "Make sure you never see my face again, for on the day you see my face, you will die."

²⁹ "As you say," Moses replied, "I will never see your face again."

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

God says there is one more plague, and after this Pharaoh will practically chase you out. The Israelites ask their Egyptian neighbors for silver and gold, and the Egyptians just hand it over. Moses warns that at midnight every firstborn in Egypt will die. Then he walks out of the palace, hot with anger.

THE PLAGUE ON THE FIRSTBORN FORETOLD

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "I will bring upon Pharaoh and Egypt one more plague. After that, he will allow you to leave this place. And when he lets you go, he will drive you out completely. ² Now announce to the people that men and women alike should ask their neighbors for articles of silver and gold."

³ And Yahweh gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, Moses himself was highly regarded in Egypt by Pharaoh's officials and by the people.

⁴ So Moses declared, "This is what Yahweh says: 'About midnight I will go throughout Egypt, ⁵ and every firstborn son in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, to the firstborn of the servant girl behind the hand mill, as well as the firstborn of all the cattle. ⁶ Then a great cry will go out over all the land of Egypt. Such an outcry has never been heard before and will never be heard again. ⁷ But among all the Israelites, not even a dog will snarl at man or beast.'

Then you will know that Yahweh makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel. ⁸ And all these officials of yours will come and bow before me, saying, 'Go, you and all the people who follow you!' After that, I will depart."

And hot with anger, Moses left Pharaoh's presence.

⁹ Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt."

¹⁰ Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, but Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not let the Israelites go out of his land.

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

The first Passover. Each family kills a spotless lamb and puts its blood on the doorframe, and the angel of death passes over every house with the blood. At midnight the firstborn of Egypt die, from the palace to the prison. Pharaoh finally says, Go. About 600,000 men plus women and children walk out after 430 years.

THE FIRST PASSOVER // NUMBERS 9:1-14

¹ Now Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, ² "This month is the beginning of months for you; it shall be the first month of your year.

³ Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man must select a lamb for his family, one per household. ⁴ If the household is too small for a whole lamb, they are to share with the nearest neighbor based on the number of people, and apportion the lamb accordingly.

⁵ Your lamb must be an unblemished year-old male, and you may take it from the sheep or the goats. ⁶ You must keep it until the fourteenth day of the month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel will slaughter the animals at twilight. ⁷ They are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs.

⁸ They are to eat the meat that night, roasted over the fire, along with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

⁹ Do not eat any of the meat raw or cooked in boiling water, but only roasted over the fire—its head and legs and inner parts. ¹⁰ Do not leave any of it until morning; before the morning you must burn up any part that is left over.

¹² On that night I will pass through the land of Egypt and strike down every firstborn male, both man and beast, and I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt. I am Yahweh. ¹³ The blood on the houses where you are staying will be a sign; when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No plague will fall on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

THE FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD // LEVITICUS 23:4-8; NUMBERS 28:16-25; DEUTERONOMY 16:1-8

¹⁴ And this day will be a memorial for you, and you are to celebrate it as a feast to Yahweh, as a permanent statute for the generations to come. ¹⁵ For seven days you must eat unleavened bread. On the first day you are to remove the leaven from your houses. Whoever eats anything leavened from the first day through the seventh must be cut off from Israel.

¹⁶ On the first day you are to hold a sacred assembly, and another on the seventh day. You must not do any work on those days, except to prepare the meals—that is all you may do.

¹⁷ So you are to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your divisions out of the land of Egypt. You must keep this day as a permanent statute for the generations to come. ¹⁸ In the first month you are to eat unleavened bread, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day. ¹⁹ For seven days there must be no leaven found in your houses. If anyone eats something leavened, that person, whether a foreigner or native of the land, must be cut off from the congregation of Israel. ²⁰ You are not to eat anything leavened; eat unleavened bread in all your homes."

²³ When Yahweh passes through to strike down the Egyptians, He will see the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe and will pass over that doorway; so He will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses and strike you down.

²⁴ And you are to keep this command as a permanent statute for you and your descendants. ²⁵ When you enter the land that Yahweh will give you as He promised, you are to keep this service.

²⁶ When your children ask you, 'What does this service mean to you?' ²⁷ you are to reply, 'It is the Passover sacrifice to Yahweh, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when He struck down the Egyptians and spared our homes.'"

Then the people bowed down and worshiped. ²⁸ And the Israelites went and did just what Yahweh had commanded Moses and Aaron.

THE TENTH PLAGUE: DEATH OF THE FIRSTBORN

²⁹ Now at midnight Yahweh struck down every firstborn male in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on his throne, to the firstborn of the prisoner in the dungeon, as well as all the firstborn among the livestock.

THE EXODUS BEGINS

³¹ Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron by night and said, “Get up, leave my people, both you and the Israelites! Go, worship Yahweh as you have requested.” ³² Take your flocks and herds as well, just as you have said, and depart! And bless me also.”

³³ And in order to send them out of the land quickly, the Egyptians urged the people on. “For otherwise,” they said, “we are all going to die!” ³⁴ So the people took their dough before it was leavened, carrying it on their shoulders in kneading bowls wrapped in clothing.

³⁷ The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth with about 600,000 men on foot, besides women and children. ³⁸ And a mixed multitude also went up with them, along with great droves of livestock, both flocks and herds.

³⁹ Since their dough had no leaven, the people baked what they had brought out of Egypt into unleavened loaves. For when they had been driven out of Egypt, they could not delay and had not prepared any provisions for themselves.

⁴⁰ Now the duration of the Israelites’ stay in Egypt was 430 years. ⁴¹ At the end of the 430 years, to the very day, all Yahweh’s divisions went out of the land of Egypt. ⁴² Because Yahweh kept a vigil that night to bring them out of the land of Egypt, this same night is to be a vigil to Yahweh, to be observed by all the Israelites for the generations to come.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PASSOVER

⁴³ And Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, “This is the statute of the Passover: No foreigner is to eat of it. ⁴⁴ But any slave who has been purchased may eat of it, after you have circumcised him. ⁴⁵ A temporary resident or hired hand shall not eat the Passover.

⁴⁶ It must be eaten inside one house. You are not to take any of the meat outside the house, and you may not break any of the bones.

⁴⁷ The whole congregation of Israel must celebrate it. ⁴⁸ If a foreigner resides with you and wants to celebrate Yahweh’s Passover, all the males in the household must be circumcised; then he may come near to celebrate it, and he shall be like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised man may eat of it. ⁴⁹ The same law shall apply to both the native and the foreigner who resides among you.”

DEBATED FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: HIGH FOR THE STELE, DEBATED FOR THE DATE OF THE EXODUS

THE MERNEPTAH STELE

EXODUS 12:40 TO 41 · EXODUS 1:7 · JOSHUA 24:13

The Merneptah Stele in the Egyptian Museum, Cairo. Israel is named near the bottom.

WHAT IT IS

A big slab of black granite, about ten feet tall, carved with a victory poem for Pharaoh Merneptah, the son of Ramesses II. Near the end it lists the enemies he defeated in Canaan, and one of them is Israel: Israel is laid waste, his seed is not.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 1208 BC, in the fifth year of Merneptah's reign. The date comes from the stone itself, so it is firm within a few years.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The British archaeologist Flinders Petrie found it in 1896 in the ruins of Merneptah's temple at Thebes, which is modern Luxor. The stone was used twice. The back side has an older carving from Pharaoh Amenhotep III.

WHY IT MATTERS

It is the oldest mention of Israel anywhere outside the Bible that everyone agrees on. The Egyptian writing adds a little sign that means a people, not a city or a country, so Israel was already a group of people living in Canaan by about 1208 BC.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Egyptian Museum in Cairo, Egypt.

WHAT IT MEANS FOR THE DATE

If Israel was settled in Canaan by 1208 BC, the Exodus had to happen before that. People who hold the early date, about 1446 BC, say this fits easily. People who hold the late date, about 1270 BC, say it fits too, but just barely, with Israel arriving in Canaan only a few years earlier.

THE ISRAEL LINE

The lines around it name Canaan, Ashkelon, Gezer and Yenoam, each written with the Egyptian sign for a land or a city. Israel is the only name in the list written with the sign for a people.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It does not mention Moses, Egypt's slaves or the Exodus. Merneptah was bragging that he wiped Israel out, which turned out to be very wrong, since Israel is still here.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE MIRACLES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

every womb among the Israelites belongs to Me, both of man and beast.”

³ So Moses told the people, “Remember this day, the day you came out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; for Yahweh brought you out of it by the strength of His hand. And nothing leavened shall be eaten.

⁴ Today, in the month of Abib, you are leaving. ⁵ And when Yahweh brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites—the land He swore to your fathers that He would give you, a land flowing with milk and honey—you shall keep this service in this month.

⁶ For seven days you are to eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to Yahweh. ⁷ Unleavened bread shall be eaten during those seven days. Nothing leavened may be found among you, nor shall leaven be found anywhere within your borders.

⁸ And on that day you are to explain to your son, ‘This is because of what Yahweh did for me when I came out of Egypt.’

⁹ It shall be a sign for you on your hand and a reminder on your forehead that the Law of Yahweh is to be on your lips. For with a mighty hand Yahweh brought you out of Egypt. ¹⁰ Therefore you shall keep this statute at the appointed time year after year.

¹¹ And after Yahweh brings you into the land of the Canaanites and gives it to you, as He swore to you and your fathers, ¹² you are to present to Yahweh the firstborn male of every womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock belong to Yahweh. ¹³ You must redeem every firstborn donkey with a lamb, and if you do not redeem it, you are to break its neck. And every firstborn of your sons you must redeem.

¹⁴ In the future, when your son asks you, ‘What does this mean?’ you are to tell him, ‘With a mighty hand Yahweh brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

¹⁵ And when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, Yahweh killed every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both of man and beast. This is why I sacrifice to Yahweh the firstborn male of every womb, but I redeem all the firstborn of my sons.’ ¹⁶ So it shall serve as a sign on your hand and a symbol on your forehead, for with a mighty hand Yahweh brought us out of Egypt.”

THE PILLARS OF CLOUD AND FIRE

¹⁷ When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them along the road through the land of the Philistines, though it was shorter. For God said, “If the people face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt.” ¹⁸ So God led the people around by the way of the wilderness toward the Red Sea. And the Israelites left the land of Egypt arrayed for battle.

²⁰ They set out from Succoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the wilderness. ²¹ And Yahweh went before them in a pillar of cloud to guide their way by day, and in a pillar of fire to give them light by night, so that they could travel by day or night. ²² Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place before the people.

PHARAOH PURSUES THE ISRAELITES

¹Then Yahweh said to Moses, ²"Tell the Israelites to turn back and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. You are to encamp by the sea, directly opposite Baal-zephon.

³For Pharaoh will say of the Israelites, 'They are wandering the land in confusion; the wilderness has boxed them in.' ⁴ And I will harden Pharaoh's heart so that he will pursue them. But I will gain honor by means of Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh."

So this is what the Israelites did.

⁵When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about them and said, "What have we done? We have released Israel from serving us."

⁶So Pharaoh prepared his chariot and took his army with him. ⁷He took 600 of the best chariots, and all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them.

⁸And Yahweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out defiantly. ⁹The Egyptians—all Pharaoh's horses and chariots, horsemen and troops—pursued the Israelites and overtook them as they camped by the sea near Pi-hahiroth, opposite Baal-zephon.

¹⁰As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians marching after them, and they were terrified and cried out to Yahweh. ¹¹They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you brought us into the wilderness to die? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? ¹² Did we not say to you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone so that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness."

¹³But Moses told the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see Yahweh's salvation, which He will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians you see today, you will never see again." ¹⁴

Yahweh will fight for you; you need only to be still."

PARTING THE RED SEA

¹⁵Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. ¹⁶And as for you, lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground. ¹⁷And I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. Then I will gain honor by means of Pharaoh and all his army and chariots and horsemen. ¹⁸ The Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh when I am honored through Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen."

¹⁹And the angel of God, who had gone before the camp of Israel, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved from before them and stood behind them, ²⁰so that it came between the camps of Egypt and Israel. The cloud was there in the darkness, but it lit up the night. So all night long neither camp went near the other.

²¹Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night Yahweh drove back the sea with a strong east wind that turned it into dry land. So the waters were divided, ²²and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with walls of water on their right and on their left.

²³And the Egyptians chased after them—all Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and horsemen—and followed them into the sea. ²⁴At morning watch, however, Yahweh looked down on the army of the Egyptians from the pillar of fire and cloud, and He threw their camp into confusion.

²⁵He caused their chariot wheels to wobble, so that they had difficulty driving. "Let us flee from the Israelites," said the Egyptians, "for Yahweh is fighting for them against Egypt!"

As the Egyptians were re-treating, Yahweh swept them into the sea. ²⁸ The waters flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen—the entire army of Pharaoh that had chased the Israelites into the sea. Not one of them survived.

²⁹ But the Israelites had walked through the sea on dry ground, with walls of water on their right and on their left. ³⁰ That day Yahweh saved Israel from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the shore. ³¹ When Israel saw the great power that Yahweh had exercised over the Egyptians, the people feared Yahweh and believed in Him and in His servant Moses.

tions. ⁵ Then on the sixth day, when they

⁶ So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "This evening you will know that it was Yahweh who brought you out of the land of Egypt, ⁷ and in the morning you will see Yahweh's glory, because He has heard your grumbling against Him. For who are we, that you should grumble against us?"

grumbling against Him. Who are we? Your grumbings are not against us but against Yahweh."

⁹ Then Moses said to Aaron, "Tell the whole congregation of Israel, 'Come before Yahweh, for He has heard your grumbling.'"

¹⁰ And as Aaron was speaking to the whole congregation of Israel, they looked toward the desert, and there in a cloud the glory of Yahweh appeared.

¹¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, ¹² "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them, 'At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am Yahweh your God.'"

¹³ That evening quail came and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. ¹⁴ When the layer of dew had evaporated, there were thin flakes on the desert floor, as fine as frost on the ground. ¹⁵ When the Israelites saw it, they asked one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was.

So Moses told them, "It is the bread that Yahweh has given you to eat." ¹⁶ This is what Yahweh has commanded: 'Each one is to gather as much as he needs. You may take two quarts for each person in your tent.'"

¹⁷ So the Israelites did this. Some gathered more, and some less. ¹⁸ When they measured it out, he who gathered much had no excess, and he who gathered little had no shortfall. Each one gathered as much as he needed to eat.

¹⁹ Then Moses said to them, "No one may keep any of it until morning." ²⁰ But they did not listen to Moses; some people left part of it until morning, and it became infested with maggots and began to smell. So Moses was angry with them.

²¹ Every morning each one gathered as much as was needed, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away.

THE SABBATH OBSERVED // GENESIS 2:1-3; HEBREWS 4:1-11

²² On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much food—four quarts per person—and all the leaders of the congregation came and reported this to Moses. ²³ He told them, "This is what Yahweh has said: 'Tomorrow is to be a day of complete rest, a holy Sabbath to Yahweh. So bake what you want to bake, and boil what you want to boil. Then set aside whatever remains and keep it until morning.'"

²⁴ So they set it aside until morning as Moses had commanded, and it did not smell or contain any maggots. ²⁵ "Eat it to-day," Moses said, "because today is a Sabbath to Yahweh. Today you will not find anything in the field. ²⁶ For six days you may gather, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, it will not be there."

²⁷ Yet on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, but they did not find anything. ²⁸ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep My commandments and instructions? ²⁹ Understand that Yahweh has given you the Sabbath; that is why on the sixth day He will give you bread for two days. On the seventh day, everyone must stay where he is; no one may leave his place."

³⁰ So the people rested on the seventh day.

THE JAR OF MANNA

³¹ Now the house of Israel called the bread manna. It was white like coriander seed and tasted like wafers made with honey.

³² Moses said, "This is what Yahweh has commanded: 'Keep two quarts of manna for the generations to come, so that they may see the bread I fed you in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.'"

³³ So Moses told Aaron, "Take a jar and fill it with two quarts of manna. Then place it before Yahweh to be preserved for the generations to come." ³⁴ And Aaron placed it in front of the Testimony, to be preserved just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

³⁵ The Israelites ate manna forty years, until they came to a land where they could settle; they ate manna until they reached the border of Canaan. ³⁶ (The measure they used held about two quarts.)

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

No water again, and the people are ready to stone Moses. God tells him to strike a rock, and water pours out. Then the Amalekites attack. As long as Moses holds up his hands Israel wins, so Aaron and Hur hold up his arms until sunset. Teamwork makes the dream work.

WATER FROM THE ROCK // NUMBERS 20:1-13

¹ Then the whole congregation of Israel left the Desert of Sin, moving from place to place as Yahweh commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. ² So the people contended with Moses, "Give us water to drink."

"Why do you contend with me?" Moses replied. "Why do you test Yahweh?"

³ But the people thirsted for water there, and they grumbled against Moses: "Why have you brought us out of Egypt—to make us and our children and livestock die of thirst?"

⁴ Then Moses cried out to Yahweh, "What should I do with these people? A little more and they will stone me!"

⁵ And Yahweh said to Moses, "Walk on ahead of the people and take some of the elders of Israel with you. Take along in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. ⁶ Behold, I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb. And when you strike the rock, water will come out of it for the people to drink."

So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel. ⁷ He named the place Mas-sah and Meribah because the Israelites quarreled, and because they tested Yahweh, saying, "Is Yahweh among us or not?"

THE DEFEAT OF THE AMALEKITES

⁸ After this, the Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim. ⁹ So Moses said to Joshua, "Choose some of our men and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on the hilltop with the staff of God in my hand."

¹⁰ Joshua did as Moses had instructed him and fought against the Amalekites, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

¹¹ As long as Moses held up his hands, Israel prevailed; but when he lowered them, Amalek prevailed. ¹² When Moses' hands grew heavy, they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Then Aaron and Hur held his hands up, one on each side, so that his hands remained steady until the sun went down.

¹³ So Joshua overwhelmed Amalek and his army with the sword.

¹⁴ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Write this on a scroll as a reminder and recite it to Joshua, because I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven."

¹⁵ And Moses built an altar and named it Yahweh Is My Banner. ¹⁶ "Indeed," he said, "a hand was lifted up toward the throne of Yahweh. Yahweh will war against Amalek from generation to generation."

Moses' father in law Jethro comes to visit and watches Moses judge the people's cases from morning until evening. Jethro says, What you are doing is not good. You will wear yourself out. He tells Moses to pick honest leaders over groups of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. It is the first management seminar in the Bible.

THE VISIT OF JETHRO

¹Now Moses' father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, heard about all that God had done for Moses and His people Israel, and how Yahweh had brought Israel out of Egypt.

²After Moses had sent back his wife Ziporah, his father-in-law Jethro had received her, ³along with her two sons. One son was named Gershom, for Moses had said, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land." ⁴The other son was named Eliezer, for Moses had said, "The God of my father was my helper and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh."

⁵Moses' father-in-law Jethro, along with Moses' wife and sons, came to him in the desert, where he was encamped at the mountain of God. ⁶He sent word to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."

⁷So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down and kissed him. They greeted each other and went into the tent. ⁸Then Moses recounted to his father-in-law all that Yahweh had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships they had encountered along the way, and how Yahweh had delivered them.

⁹And Jethro rejoiced over all the good things Yahweh had done for Israel, whom He had rescued from the hand of the Egyptians. ¹⁰Jethro declared, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and of Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from the hand of the Egyptians. ¹¹Now I know that Yahweh is greater than all other gods, for He did this when they treated Israel with arrogance."

¹²Then Moses' father-in-law Jethro brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God.

JETHRO ADVISES MOSES // DEUTERONOMY 1:9-18

¹³The next day Moses took his seat to judge the people, and they stood around him from morning until evening. ¹⁴When his father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people, he asked, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone as judge, with all the people standing around you from morning till evening?"

¹⁵"Because the people come to me to inquire of God," Moses replied. ¹⁶"Whenever they have a dispute, it is brought to me to judge between one man and another, and I make known to them the statutes and laws of God."

¹⁷But Moses' father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing is not good. ¹⁸Surely you and these people with you will wear yourselves out, because the task is too heavy for you. You cannot handle it alone.

¹⁹Now listen to me; I will give you some advice, and may God be with you. You must be the people's representative before God and bring their causes to Him. ²⁰Teach them the statutes and laws, and show them the way to live and the work they must do.

²¹Furthermore, select capable men from among the people—God-fearing, trustworthy men who are averse to dishonest gain. Appoint them over the people as leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.

²²Have these men judge the people at all times. Then they can bring you any major issue, but all minor cases they can judge on their own, so that your load may be lightened as they share it with you.

²³If you follow this advice and God so directs you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people can go home in peace."

²⁴Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said. ²⁵So Moses chose capable men from all Israel and made them heads over the people as leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens. ²⁶And they judged the people at all times; they would bring the difficult cases to Moses, but any minor issue they would judge themselves.

²⁷ Then Moses sent his father-in-law on his way, and Jethro returned to his own land.

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Three months after leaving Egypt, Israel camps at the foot of Mount Sinai. God says they will be His treasured possession, a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. The people wash up for three days. Then the mountain shakes, smokes like a furnace and blasts with a trumpet that keeps getting louder.

ISRAEL AT MOUNT SINAI

¹In the third month, on the same day of the month that the Israelites had left the land of Egypt, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai. ²After they had set out from Rephidim, they entered the Wilderness of Sinai, and Israel camped there in front of the mountain.

³Then Moses went up to God, and Yahweh called to him from the mountain, "This is what you are to tell the house of Jacob and explain to the sons of Israel: ⁴'You have seen for yourselves what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself. ⁵Now if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, you will be My treasured possession out of all the nations—for the whole earth is Mine. ⁶And unto Me you shall be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words that you are to speak to the Israelites."

⁷So Moses went back and summoned the elders of the people and set before them all these words that Yahweh had commanded him. ⁸And all the people answered together, "We will do everything that Yahweh has spoken."

- EX 19:1 [FULFILLS] God told Moses the people would worship Him on this same mountain ← EX 3:12 p.~

So Moses brought their words back to Yahweh.

⁹Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, I will come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear when I speak with you, and they will always put their trust in you."

And Moses relayed to Yahweh what the people had said.

¹⁰ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. They must wash their clothes ¹¹ and be prepared by the third day, for on the third day Yahweh will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

¹² And you are to set up a boundary for the people around the mountain and tell them, 'Be careful not to go up on the mountain or touch its base. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death. ¹³No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot with arrows—whether man or beast, he must not live.'

Only when the ram's horn sounds a long blast may they approach the mountain."

¹⁴ When Moses came down from the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵ "Be prepared for the third day," he said to the people. "Do not draw near to a woman."

YAHWEH VISITS SINAI

¹⁶ On the third day, when morning came, there was thunder and lightning. A thick cloud was upon the mountain, and a very loud blast of the ram's horn went out, so that all the people in the camp trembled. ¹⁷ Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

¹⁸ Mount Sinai was completely enveloped in smoke, because Yahweh had descended on it in fire. And the smoke rose like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked violently. ¹⁹ And as the sound of the ram's horn grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him in the thunder.

²⁰ Yahweh descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the summit. So Moses went up, ²¹and Yahweh said to him, "Go down and warn the people not to break through to see Yahweh, lest many of them perish. ²²Even the priests who approach Yahweh must consecrate themselves, or Yahweh will break out against them."

²³But Moses said to Yahweh, "The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, for You solemnly warned us, 'Put a boundary around the mountain and set it apart as holy.'"

²⁴And Yahweh replied, "Go down and bring Aaron with you. But the priests and the people must not break through to come up to Yahweh, or He will break out against them."

²⁵So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

God speaks the Ten Commandments to the whole nation. One God, no idols, honor His name, keep the Sabbath, honor your parents, and no murder, adultery, stealing, lying or wanting what is not yours. The people are so terrified they ask Moses to do the listening from now on. Moses says the fear is there to keep them from sinning.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS // DEUTERONOMY 5:6–21

¹And God spoke all these words:

²"I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

³You shall have no other gods before Me.

⁴You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in the heavens above, on the earth below, or in the waters beneath. ⁵You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on their children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, ⁶

but showing loving devotion to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

⁷You shall not take the name of Yahweh your God in vain, for Yahweh will not leave anyone unpunished who takes His name in vain.

⁸Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. ⁹Six days you shall labor and do all your work, ¹⁰but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yahweh your God, on which you must not do any work—neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant or livestock, nor the foreigner within your gates. ¹¹For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth and the sea and all that is in them, but on the seventh day He rested. Therefore Yahweh blessed the Sabbath day and set it apart as holy.

¹²Honor your father and mother, so that your days may be long in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you.

¹³You shall not murder.

¹⁴You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁵You shall not steal.

¹⁶You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

¹⁷You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant or maidservant, or his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

MOSES COMFORTS THE PEOPLE // DEUTERONOMY

5:22-33; HEBREWS 12:18-29

¹⁸ When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sounding of the ram's horn, and the mountain enveloped in smoke, they trembled and stood at a distance. ¹⁹ "Speak to us yourself and we will listen," they said to Moses. "But do not let God speak to us, or we will die."

²⁰ "Do not be afraid," Moses replied. "For God has come to test you, so that the fear of Him may be before you, to keep you from sinning." ²¹ And the people stood at a distance as Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

IDOLATRY FORBIDDEN // 1 CORINTHIANS 10:14-22

²² Then Yahweh said to Moses, "This is what you are to tell the Israelites: 'You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven. ²³ You are not to make any gods alongside Me; you are not to make for yourselves gods of silver or gold.

²⁴ You are to make for Me an altar of earth, and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and peace offerings, your sheep and goats and cattle. In every place where I cause My name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.

²⁵ Now if you make an altar of stones for Me, you must not build it with stones shaped by tools; for if you use a chisel on it, you will defile it. ²⁶ And you must not go up to My altar on steps, lest your nakedness be exposed on it.'

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

Now the details. Rules for servants, for fights, for injuries and for an ox that gores. This is where you find eye for eye and tooth for tooth. It sounds harsh, but it was really a limit, so the payback could never be bigger than the damage.

HEBREW SERVANTS // DEUTERONOMY 15:12-18

¹ "These are the ordinances that you are to set before them:

■ EX 20:17 [QUOTED] Quoted in the New Testament → ROM 7:7 p.---

■ EX 20:18 [MIRACLE] The people tremble and stand far off

■ EX 20:23 [DEMONIC] God forbids making gods of silver or gold

² If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, he shall go free without paying anything. ³ If he arrived alone, he is to leave alone; if he arrived with a wife, she is to leave with him. ⁴ If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and only the man shall go free.

⁵ But if the servant declares, 'I love my master and my wife and children; I do not want to go free,' ⁶ then his master is to bring him before the judges. And he shall take him to the door or doorpost and pierce his ear with an awl. Then he shall serve his master for life.

PERSONAL INJURY LAWS

¹² Whoever strikes and kills a man must surely be put to death. ¹³ If, however, he did not lie in wait, but God allowed it to happen, then I will appoint for you a place where he may flee.

¹⁴ But if a man schemes and acts willfully against his neighbor to kill him, you must take him away from My altar to be put to death.

¹⁵ Whoever strikes his father or mother must surely be put to death.

¹⁶ Whoever kidnaps another man must be put to death, whether he sells him or the man is found in his possession.

¹⁷ Anyone who curses his father or mother must surely be put to death.

■ EX 21:17 [QUOTED] Quoted in the New Testament → MT 15:4 p.---

OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

¹⁸ If men are quarreling and one strikes the other with a stone or a fist, and he does not die but is confined to bed, ¹⁹ then the one who struck him shall go unpunished, as long as the other can get up and walk around outside with his staff. Nevertheless, he must compensate the man for his lost work and see that he is completely healed.

²⁰ If a man strikes his manservant or maidservant with a rod, and the servant dies by his hand, he shall surely be punished.

²¹ However, if the servant gets up after a day or two, the owner shall not be punished, since the servant is his property.

²² If men who are fighting strike a pregnant woman and her child is born prematurely, but there is no further injury, he shall surely be fined as the woman's husband demands and as the court allows. ²³

But if a serious injury results, then you must require a life for a life— ²⁴ eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ²⁵ burn for burn, wound for wound, and stripe for stripe.

²⁶ If a man strikes and blinds the eye of his manservant or maidservant, he must let the servant go free as compensation for the eye. ²⁷ And if he knocks out the tooth of his manservant or maidservant, he must let the servant go free as compensation for the tooth.

²⁸ If an ox gores a man or woman to death, the ox must surely be stoned, and its meat must not be eaten. But the owner of the ox shall not be held responsible.

³² If the ox gores a manservant or maidservant, the owner must pay twelve ounces of silver to the master of that servant, and the ox must be stoned.

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS

Laws about stealing, borrowed animals, fires that spread to a neighbor's field and loans. Do not mistreat the foreigner, the widow or the orphan, because God hears them when they cry out. If you take a poor man's coat as a pledge, give it back before sundown, because it is his blanket.

PROPERTY LAWS

¹ "If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters or sells it, he must repay five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.

² If a thief is caught breaking in and is beaten to death, no one shall be guilty of bloodshed. ³ But if it happens after sunrise, there is guilt for his bloodshed.

A thief must make full restitution; if he has nothing, he himself shall be sold for his theft. ⁴ If what was stolen is actually found alive in his possession—whether ox or donkey or sheep—he must pay back double.

⁵ If a man grazes his livestock in a field or vineyard and allows them to stray so that they graze in someone else's field, he must make restitution from the best of his own field or vineyard.

⁶ If a fire breaks out and spreads to thornbushes so that it consumes stacked or standing grain, or the whole field, the one who started the fire must make full restitution.

DEMONIC OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

⁷ If a man gives his neighbor money or goods for safekeeping and they are stolen from the neighbor's house, the thief, if caught, must pay back double. ⁸ If the thief is not found, the owner of the house must appear before the judges to determine whether he has taken his neighbor's property.

¹⁰ If a man gives a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any other animal to be cared for by his neighbor, but it dies or is injured or stolen while no one is watching, ¹¹ an oath before Yahweh shall be made between the parties to determine whether or not the man has taken his neighbor's property. The owner must accept the oath and require no restitution.

¹² But if the animal was actually stolen from the neighbor, he must make restitution to the owner.

¹³ If the animal was torn to pieces, he shall bring it as evidence; he need not make restitution for the torn carcass.

¹⁴ If a man borrows an animal from his neighbor and it is injured or dies while its owner is not present, he must make full restitution. ¹⁵ If the owner was present, no restitution is required. If the animal was rented, the fee covers the loss.

LAWS OF SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

¹⁶ If a man seduces a virgin who is not pledged in marriage and sleeps with her, he must pay the full dowry for her to be his wife. ¹⁷ If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, the man still must pay an amount comparable to the bridal price of a virgin.

¹⁸ You must not allow a sorceress to live.

¹⁹ Whoever lies with an animal must surely be put to death.

²⁰ If anyone sacrifices to any god other than Yahweh alone, he must be set apart for destruction.

²¹ You must not exploit or oppress a foreign resident, for you yourselves were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

²² You must not mistreat any widow or orphan. ²³ If you do mistreat them, and they cry out to Me in distress, I will surely hear their cry. ²⁴ My anger will be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword; then your wives will become widows and your children will be fatherless.

²⁵ If you lend money to one of My people among you who is poor, you must not act as a creditor to him; you are not to charge him interest.

²⁶ If you take your neighbor's cloak as collateral, return it to him by sunset, ²⁷ because his cloak is the only covering he has for his body. What else will he sleep in? And if he cries out to Me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.

²⁸ You must not blaspheme God or curse the ruler of your people.

²⁹ You must not hold back offerings from your granaries or vats. You are to give Me the firstborn of your sons. ³⁰ You shall do likewise with your cattle and your sheep. Let them stay with their mothers for seven days, but on the eighth day you are to give them to Me.

³¹ You are to be My holy people. You must not eat the meat of a mauled animal found in the field; you are to throw it to the dogs.

JUSTICE AND MERCY

¹“You shall not spread a false report. Do not join the wicked by being a malicious witness.

² You shall not follow the crowd in wrongdoing. When you testify in a lawsuit, do not pervert justice by siding with the crowd. ³ And do not show favoritism to a poor man in his lawsuit.

⁴ If you encounter your enemy's stray ox or donkey, you must return it to him.

⁵ If you see the donkey of one who hates you fallen under its load, do not leave it there; you must help him with it.

⁶ You shall not deny justice to the poor in their lawsuits. ⁷ Stay far away from a false accusation. Do not kill the innocent or the just, for I will not acquit the guilty.

⁸ Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and twists the words of the righteous.

⁹ Do not oppress a foreign resident, since you yourselves know how it feels to be foreigners; for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

15:1-6

¹⁰ For six years you are to sow your land and gather its produce, ¹¹ but in the seventh year you must let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor among your people may eat from the field and the wild animals may consume what they leave. Do the same with your vineyard and olive grove.

¹³ Pay close attention to everything I have said to you. You must not invoke the names of other gods; they must not be heard on your lips.

THE THREE FEASTS OF PILGRIMAGE // LEVITICUS

23:1-3

¹⁴ Three times a year you are to celebrate a feast to Me.

¹⁵ You are to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread as I commanded you: At the appointed time in the month of Abib you are to eat unleavened bread for seven days, because that was the month you came out of Egypt. No one may appear before Me empty-handed.

¹⁶ You are also to keep the Feast of Harvest with the firstfruits of the produce from what you sow in the field.

And keep the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather your produce from the field.

¹⁷ Three times a year all your males are to appear before the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁸ You must not offer the blood of My sacrifices with anything leavened, nor may the fat of My feast remain until morning.

²² But if you will listen carefully to his voice and do everything I say, I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes. ²³ For My angel will go before you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and Jebusites, and I will annihilate them.

²⁴ You must not bow down to their gods or serve them or follow their practices. Instead, you are to demolish them and smash their sacred stones to pieces.

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

The people say, All that Yahweh has spoken we will do. Moses splashes the blood of the covenant on them. Then Moses, Aaron and seventy elders go up the mountain, see the God of Israel, and eat and drink. Moses goes up into the cloud and stays forty days and forty nights.

THE COVENANT SEALED

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Come up to Yahweh—you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of Israel's elders—and you are to worship at a distance. ² Moses alone shall approach Yahweh, but the others must not come near. And the people may not go up with him."

³ When Moses came and told the people all the words and ordinances of Yahweh, they all responded with one voice: "All the words that Yahweh has spoken, we will do."

⁴ And Moses wrote down all the words of Yahweh.

Early the next morning he got up and built an altar at the base of the mountain, along with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵ Then he sent out some young men of Israel, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as peace offerings to Yahweh.

⁶ Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and the other half he splattered on the altar. ⁷ Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people, who replied, "All that Yahweh has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient."

⁸ So Moses took the blood, splattered it on the people, and said, "This is the blood of the covenant that Yahweh has made with you in accordance with all these words."

⁹ Then Moses went up with Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, ¹⁰ and they saw the God of Israel. Under His feet was a work like a pavement made of sapphire, as clear as the sky itself. ¹¹ But God did not lay His hand on the nobles of Israel; they saw Him, and they ate and drank.

MOSES ON THE MOUNTAIN

¹² Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Come up to Me on the mountain and stay here, so that I may give you the tablets of stone, with the law and commandments I have written for their instruction."

¹³ So Moses set out with Joshua his attendant and went up on the mountain of God.

¹⁴ And he said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we return to you. Aaron and Hur are here with you. Whoever has a dispute can go to them."

¹⁵ When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it, ¹⁶ and the glory of Yahweh settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered it, and on the seventh day Yahweh called to Moses from ¹⁸ Moses entered the cloud as he went up on the mountain, and he remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS

God gives Moses the plans for a tent where He will live among His people. The people are to give only what their hearts want to give. First comes the ark of the covenant with its golden mercy seat and two cherubim, then a table for bread and a solid gold lampstand. Build it exactly like the pattern on the mountain.

OFFERINGS FOR THE TABERNACLE // EXODUS 35:4–9

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, ² “Tell the Israelites to bring Me an offering. You are to receive My offering from every man whose heart compels him. ³ This is the offering you are to accept from them:

gold, silver, and bronze;

⁴ blue, purple, and scarlet yarn; fine linen and goat hair;

⁵ ram skins dyed red and fine leather; acacia wood;

⁶ olive oil for the light;

spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

⁷ and onyx stones and gemstones to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

THE ARK OF THE COVENANT // EXODUS 37:1–5

¹⁰ And they are to construct an ark of acacia wood, 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high. ¹¹ Overlay it with pure

■ EX 25:10 [NOTABLE] This is the first time the Bible mentions the ark of the covenant, a wooden chest covered in gold, about 45 inches long. It held the stone tablets of the Ten Commandments, and God said He would meet gold both inside and out, and make a gold molding around it.

¹² Cast four gold rings for it and fasten them to its four feet, two rings on one side and two on the other. ¹³ And make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

¹⁴ Insert the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, in order to carry it. ¹⁵ The poles are to remain in the rings of the ark; they must not be removed. ¹⁶ And place inside the ark the Testimony, which I will give you.

THE MERCY SEAT // EXODUS 37:6–9

¹⁷ And you are to construct a mercy seat of pure gold, 45 inches long and 27 inches wide. ¹⁸ Make two cherubim of hammered gold at the ends of the mercy seat, ¹⁹ one cherub on one end and one on the other, all made from one piece of gold. ²⁰ And the cherubim are to have wings that spread upward, overshadowing the mercy seat. The cherubim are to face each other, looking toward the mercy seat.

²¹ Set the mercy seat atop the ark and put the Testimony that I will give you into the ark.

²² And I will meet with you there above the mercy seat, between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the Testimony; I will speak with you about all that I command you regarding the Israelites.

THE TABLE OF SHOWBREAD // EXODUS 37:10–16; LEVITICUS 24:5–9

²³ You are also to make a table of acacia wood 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high. ²⁴ Overlay it with pure gold and make a gold molding around it. ²⁵ And make a rim around it three inches wide and put a gold molding on the rim.

²⁶ Make four gold rings for the table and fasten them to the four corners at its four legs. ²⁷ The rings are to be close to the rim, to serve as holders for the poles used to carry the table. ²⁸ Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, with Moses above its gold lid, the mercy seat. Nobody knows where it is today, which makes it one of the great mysteries of history.

so that the table may be carried with them.

²⁹ You are also to make the plates and dishes, as well as the pitchers and bowls for pouring drink offerings. Make them out of pure gold.

³⁰ And place the Bread of the Presence on the table before Me at all times.

THE LAMPSTAND // EXODUS 37:17–24; NUMBERS 8:1–4

³¹ Then you are to make a lampstand of pure, hammered gold. It shall be made of one piece, including its base and shaft, its cups, and its buds and petals.

³² Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand—three on one side and three on the other. ³³ There are to be three cups shaped like almond blossoms on the first branch, each with buds and petals, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches that extend from the lampstand.

⁴⁰ See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

CHAPTER 26 IN 30 SECONDS

The tabernacle itself: ten curtains of fine linen with cherubim woven in, coverings of goat hair and leather, and a frame of acacia wood covered with gold. A thick veil divides the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place. Behind that veil, God's presence will live.

THE TEN CURTAINS FOR THE TABERNACLE // EXODUS 36:8–13

¹ "You are to construct the tabernacle itself with ten curtains of finely spun linen, each with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and cherubim skillfully worked into them. ² Each curtain shall be 42 feet long and 6 feet wide—all curtains the same size.

³ Five of the curtains are to be joined together, and the other five joined as well. ⁴ Make loops of blue material on the edge of the end curtain in the first set, and do the same for the end curtain in the second set.

⁵ Make fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the second set, so that the loops line up opposite one another. ⁶ Make fifty gold clasps as well, and join the curtains together with the clasps, so that the tabernacle will be a unit.

THE ELEVEN CURTAINS OF GOAT HAIR // EXODUS 36:14–19

⁷ You are to make curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle—eleven curtains in all. ⁸ Each of the eleven curtains is to be the same size—45 feet long and 6 feet wide.

⁹ Join five of the curtains into one set and the other six into another. Then fold the sixth curtain over double at the front of the tent.

¹⁰ Make fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in the first set, and fifty loops along the edge of the corresponding curtain in the second set. ¹¹ Make fifty bronze clasps and put them through the loops to join the tent together as a unit.

¹² As for the overlap that remains of the tent curtains, the half curtain that is left over shall hang down over the back of the tabernacle. ¹³ And the tent curtains will be eighteen inches longer on either side, and the excess will hang over the sides of the tabernacle to cover it.

¹⁴ Also make a covering for the tent out of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of fine leather.

THE FRAMES AND BASES // EXODUS 36:20–34

¹⁵ You are to construct upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle. ¹⁶ Each frame is to be 15 feet long and 27 inches wide. ¹⁷ Two tenons must be connected to each other for each frame. Make all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

¹⁸ Construct twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle, ¹⁹ with forty silver bases under the twenty frames—two bases for each frame, one under each tenon.

²⁰ For the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, make twenty frames ²¹ and forty silver bases—two bases under each frame.

²² Make six frames for the rear of the tabernacle, the west side, ²³ and two frames for the two back corners of the tabernacle, ²⁴ coupled together from bottom to top and fitted into a single ring.

These will serve as the two corners. ²⁵ So there are to be eight frames and sixteen silver bases—two under each frame.

²⁸ The central crossbar in the middle of the frames shall extend from one end to the other. ²⁹ Overlay the frames with gold and make gold rings to hold the crossbars. Also overlay the crossbars with gold.

³⁰ So you are to set up the tabernacle according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

THE VEIL // EXODUS 36:35–36

³¹ Make a veil of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen, with cherubim skillfully worked into it. ³² Hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood, overlaid with gold and standing on four silver bases. ³³ And hang the veil from the clasps and place the ark of the Testimony behind the veil. So the veil will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place.

³⁴ Put the mercy seat on the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place. ³⁵ And place the table outside the veil on the north side of the tabernacle, and put the lampstand opposite the table, on the south side.

THE CURTAIN FOR THE ENTRANCE // EXODUS 36:37–38

³⁶ For the entrance to the tent, you are to make a curtain embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. ³⁷ Make five posts of acacia wood for the curtain, overlay them with gold, use hooks of gold, and cast five bronze bases for them.

27

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

A bronze altar for burnt offerings stands in the courtyard. Around everything is a courtyard about 150 feet long, made of linen curtains hanging on posts. And the lamp in the tent must burn all night, every night, with pure olive oil.

THE BRONZE ALTAR // EXODUS 38:1–7

¹ “You are to build an altar of acacia wood. The altar must be square, 7½ feet long, 7½ feet wide, and 4½ feet high. ² Make a horn on each of its four corners, so that the horns are of one piece, and overlay it with bronze.

³ Make all its utensils of bronze—its pots for removing ashes, its shovels, its sprinkling bowls, its meat forks, and its firepans. ⁴ Construct for it a grate of bronze mesh, and make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the mesh. ⁵ Set the grate beneath the ledge of the altar, so that the mesh comes halfway up the altar.

⁶ Additionally, make poles of acacia wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze.

⁷ The poles are to be inserted into the rings so that the poles are on two sides of the altar when it is carried.

⁸ Construct the altar with boards so that it is hollow. It is to be made just as you were shown on the mountain.

THE COURTYARD // EXODUS 38:9–20

⁹ You are also to make a courtyard for the tabernacle. On the south side of the courtyard make curtains of finely spun linen, 150 feet long on one side, ¹⁰ with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and silver hooks and bands on the posts.

¹¹ Likewise there are to be curtains on the north side, 150 feet long, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts. ¹² The curtains on the west side of the courtyard shall be 75 feet wide, with ten posts and ten bases.

¹³ The east side of the courtyard, toward the sunrise, is to be 75 feet wide. ¹⁴ Make the curtains on one side 22½ feet long, with three posts and three bases, ¹⁵ and the curtains on the other side 22½ feet long, with three posts and three bases.

¹⁶ The gate of the courtyard shall be 30 feet long, with a curtain embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. It shall have four posts and four bases.

¹⁷ All the posts around the courtyard shall have silver bands, silver hooks, and bronze bases. ¹⁸ The entire courtyard shall be 150 feet long and 75 feet wide, with curtains of finely spun linen 7½ feet high, and with bronze bases. ¹⁹ All the utensils of the tabernacle for every use, including all its tent pegs and the tent pegs of the courtyard, shall be made of bronze.

THE OIL FOR THE LAMPS // LEVITICUS 24:1–4

²⁰ And you are to command the Israelites to bring you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to keep the lamps burning continually.

²¹ In the Tent of Meeting, outside the veil that is in front of the Testimony, Aaron and his sons are to tend the lamps before Yahweh from evening until morning. This is to be a permanent statute for the Israelites for the generations to come.

28

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS

Aaron and his sons are chosen to be priests, and God designs their clothes down to the stitching. The high priest wears an ephod and a breastpiece with twelve stones, one for each tribe, so he carries Israel over his heart. On his turban is a gold plate that says HOLY TO YAHWEH. Fashion, but make it holy.

GARMENTS FOR THE PRIESTS

¹ "Next, have your brother Aaron brought to you from among the Israelites, along with his sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, to serve Me as priests. ² Make holy garments for your brother Aaron, to give him glory and splendor.

³ You are to instruct all the skilled craftsmen, whom I have filled with a spirit of wisdom, to make garments for Aaron's consecration, so that he may serve Me as priest. ⁴ These are the garments that they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a woven tunic, a turban, and a sash. They are to make these holy garments for your brother Aaron and his sons, so that they may serve Me as priests. ⁵ They shall use gold, along with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen.

THE EPHOD // EXODUS 39:1–7

⁶ They are to make the ephod of finely spun linen embroidered with gold, and with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. ⁷ It shall have two shoulder pieces attached at two of its corners, so it can be fastened. ⁸ And the skillfully woven waistband of the ephod must be of one piece, of the same workmanship—with gold, with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely spun linen.

⁹ Take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel: ¹⁰ six of their names on one stone and the remaining six on the other, in the order of their birth. ¹¹ Engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones the way a gem cutter engraves a seal. Then mount the stones in gold filigree settings. ¹² Fasten both stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. Aaron is to bear their names on his two shoulders as a memorial before Yahweh.

¹³ Fashion gold filigree settings ¹⁴ and two chains of pure gold, made of braided cord work; and attach these chains to the settings.

THE BREASTPIECE // EXODUS 39:8–21

¹⁵ You are also to make a breastpiece of judgment with the same workmanship as the ephod. Construct it with gold, with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely spun linen. ¹⁶ It must be square when folded over double, nine inches long and nine inches wide.

¹⁷ And mount on it a setting of gemstones, four rows of stones:

In the first row there shall be a ruby, a topaz, and an emerald;

¹⁸ in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;

¹⁹ in the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

²⁰ and in the fourth row a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper.

Mount these stones in gold filigree settings. ²¹ The twelve stones are to correspond to the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

²² For the breastpiece, make braided chains like cords of pure gold. ²³ You are also to make two gold rings and fasten them to the two corners of the breastpiece. ²⁴ Then fasten the two gold chains to the two gold rings at the corners of the breastpiece, ²⁵ and fasten the other ends of the two chains to the two filigree settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

²⁶ Make two more gold rings and attach them to the other two corners of the breastpiece, on the inside edge next to the ephod.

²⁷ Make two additional gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, on its front, near its seam just above its woven waistband.

²⁸ The rings of the breastpiece shall be tied to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue yarn, so that the breastpiece is above the waistband of the ephod and does not swing out from the ephod.

²⁹ Whenever Aaron enters the Holy Place, he shall bear the names of the sons of Israel over his heart on the breastpiece of judgment, as a continual reminder before Yahweh.

³⁰ And place the Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece of judgment, so that they will also be over Aaron's heart whenever he comes before Yahweh. Aaron will continually carry the judgment of the sons of Israel over his heart before Yahweh.

ADDITIONAL PRIESTLY GARMENTS // EXODUS

³¹ You are to make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth, ³² with an opening at its top in the center. Around the opening shall be a woven collar with an opening like that of a garment, so that it will not tear.

³³ Make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn all the way around the lower hem, with gold bells between them, ³⁴ alternating the gold bells and pomegranates around the lower hem of the robe.

³⁵ Aaron must wear the robe whenever he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he enters or exits the sanctuary before Yahweh, so that he will not die.

³⁶ You are to make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal:

HOLY TO THE Yahweh.

³⁷ Fasten to it a blue cord to mount it on the turban; it shall be on the front of the turban. ³⁸ And it will be worn on Aaron's forehead, so that he may bear the iniquity of the holy things that the sons of Israel consecrate with regard to all their holy gifts. It shall always be on his forehead, so that they may be acceptable before Yahweh.

³⁹ You are to weave the tunic with fine linen, make the turban of fine linen, and fashion an embroidered sash. ⁴⁰ Make tunics, sashes, and headbands for Aaron's sons, to give them glory and splendor.

⁴¹ After you put these garments on your brother Aaron and his sons, anoint them, ordain them, and consecrate them so that they may serve Me as priests.

⁴² Make linen undergarments to cover their bare flesh, extending from waist to thigh. ⁴³ Aaron and his sons must wear them whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they will not incur guilt and die. This is to be a permanent statute for Aaron and his descendants.

CHAPTER 29 IN 30 SECONDS

A seven day ceremony to ordain the priests. They are washed, dressed and anointed with oil, and blood is put on the right ear, right thumb and right big toe, so they listen, work and walk for God. God says He will meet with Israel and live among them, and they will know He is Yahweh their God.

CONSECRATION OF THE PRIESTS // LEVITICUS 8:1–13

⁴ Then present Aaron and his sons at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water. ⁵ Take the garments and clothe Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself, and the breastplate. Fasten the ephod on him with its woven waistband. ⁶ Put the turban on his head and attach the holy diadem to the turban. ⁷ Then take the anointing oil and anoint him by pouring it on his head.

⁸ Present his sons as well and clothe them with tunics. ⁹ Wrap the sashes around Aaron and his sons and tie headbands on them. The priesthood shall be theirs by a permanent statute. In this way you are to ordain Aaron and his sons.

THE ORDER OF THE SACRIFICES // LEVITICUS 8:22–36

¹⁰ You are to present the bull at the front of the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons are to lay their hands on its head. ¹¹ And you shall slaughter the bull before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. ¹² Take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; then pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. ¹³ Take all the fat that covers the entrails and the lobe of the liver, and both kidneys with the fat on them, and burn them on the altar. ¹⁴ But burn the flesh of the bull and its hide and dung outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

¹⁹ Take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons are to lay their hands on its head. ²⁰ Slaughter the ram, take some of its blood, and put it on the right earlobes of Aaron and his sons, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Splatter the remaining blood on all sides of the altar. ²¹ And take some of the blood on the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments, as well as on his sons and their garments. Then he and his garments will be consecrated, as well as his sons and their garments.

GOD SPEAKING

²² Take the fat from the ram, the fat tail, the fat covering the entrails, the lobe of the liver, both kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh (since this is a ram for ordination), ²³ along with one loaf of bread, one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread that is before Yahweh. ²⁴ Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and wave them before Yahweh as a wave offering. ²⁵ Then take them from their hands and burn them on the altar atop the burnt offering as a pleasing aroma before Yahweh; it is a food offering to Yahweh.

²⁶ Take the breast of the ram of Aaron's ordination and wave it before Yahweh as a wave offering, and it will be your portion.

²⁷ Consecrate for Aaron and his sons the breast of the wave offering that is waved and the thigh of the heave offering that is lifted up from the ram of ordination. ²⁸ This will belong to Aaron and his sons as a regular portion from the Israelites, for it is the heave offering the Israelites will make to Yahweh from their peace offerings.

²⁹ The holy garments that belong to Aaron will belong to his sons after him, so they can be anointed and ordained in them. ³⁰ The son who succeeds him as priest and enters the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place must wear them for seven days.

FOOD FOR THE PRIESTS

³¹ You are to take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place. ³² At the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread that is in the basket. ³³ They must eat those things by which atonement was made for their ordination and consecration. But no outsider may eat them, because these things are sacred. ³⁴ And if any of the meat of ordination or any bread is left until the morning, you are to burn up the remainder. It must not be eaten, because it is sacred.

³⁵ This is what you are to do for Aaron and his sons based on all that I have commanded you, taking seven days to ordain them. ³⁶ Sacrifice a bull as a sin offering each day for atonement. Purify the altar by making atonement for it, and anoint it to consecrate it. ³⁷ For seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and consecrate it. Then the altar will become most holy; whatever touches the altar will be holy.

THE DAILY OFFERINGS // NUMBERS 28:1–8

³⁸ This is what you are to offer regularly on the altar, each day: two lambs that are a year old. ³⁹ Offer one lamb in the morning and the other at twilight. ⁴⁰ With the first lamb offer two quarts of fine flour, mixed with a quart of oil from pressed olives, and a drink offering of a quart of wine. ⁴¹ And offer the second lamb at twilight with the same grain offering and drink offering as in the morning, as a pleasing aroma, a food offering to Yahweh.

⁴² For the generations to come, this burnt offering shall be made regularly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh, where I will meet you to speak with you. ⁴³ I will also meet with the Israelites there, and that place will be consecrated by My glory. ⁴⁴ So I will consecrate the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and I will consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve Me as priests.

GOD WILL DWELL AMONG THE PEOPLE

⁴⁵ Then I will dwell among the Israelites and be their God. ⁴⁶ And they will know that I am Yahweh their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt so that I might dwell among them. I am Yahweh their God.

CHAPTER 30 IN 30 SECONDS

An altar of incense made of gold, a census tax that is the same for rich and poor, and a bronze basin for washing. Then God gives the exact recipe for the holy anointing oil and the holy incense. Copy them for your own use and you are cut off from the people. This is not a home fragrance.

THE ALTAR OF INCENSE // EXODUS 37:25–29

¹“You are also to make an altar of acacia wood for the burning of incense. ²It is to be square, 18 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 36 inches high. Its horns must be of one piece. ³Overlay with pure gold the top and all the sides and horns, and make a molding of gold around it. ⁴And make two gold rings below the molding on opposite sides to hold the poles used to carry it. ⁵Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

⁶Place the altar in front of the veil that is before the ark of the Testimony—before the mercy seat that is over the Testimony—where I will meet with you. ⁷And Aaron is to burn fragrant incense on it every morning when he tends the lamps.

⁸When Aaron sets up the lamps at twilight, he must burn the incense perpetually before Yahweh for the generations to come. ⁹On this altar you must not offer unauthorized incense or a burnt offering or grain offering; nor are you to pour a drink offering on it.

¹⁰Once a year Aaron shall make atonement on the horns of the altar. Throughout your generations he shall make atonement on it annually with the blood of the sin offering of atonement. The altar is most holy to Yahweh."

THE CENSUS OFFERING // 2 SAMUEL 24:1–9; 1 CHRONICLES 21:1–6

¹¹Then Yahweh said to Moses, ¹²"When you take a census of the Israelites to number them, each man must pay Yahweh a ransom for his life when he is counted. Then no plague will come upon them when they are numbered. ¹³Everyone who crosses over to those counted must pay a fifth of an ounce, weighed by the sanctuary standard. This fifth of an ounce is an offering to Yahweh.

¹⁴Everyone twenty years of age or older who crosses over must give this offering to Yahweh. ¹⁵In making the offering to Yahweh to atone for your lives, the rich shall not give more than a fifth of an ounce, nor shall the poor give less. ¹⁶Take the atonement money from the Israelites and use it for the service of the Tent of Meeting. It will serve as a memorial for the Israelites before Yahweh to make atonement for your lives."

THE BRONZE BASIN // EXODUS 38:8

¹⁷And Yahweh said to Moses, ¹⁸"You are to make a bronze basin with a bronze stand for washing. Set it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it, ¹⁹with which Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet. ²⁰Whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the altar to minister by presenting a food offering to Yahweh, they must wash with water so that they will not die. ²¹Thus they are to wash their hands and feet so that they will not die; this shall be a permanent statute for Aaron and his descendants for the generations to come."

THE ANOINTING OIL

²²Then Yahweh said to Moses, ²³"Take the finest spices: 12½ pounds of liquid myrrh, half that amount (6¼ pounds) of fragrant cinnamon, 6¼ pounds of kanneh bosem, ²⁴12½ pounds of cassia—all weighed by the sanctuary standard—and a gallon of olive oil. ²⁵Prepare from these a sacred anointing oil, a fragrant blend, the work of a perfumer; it will be a sacred anointing oil.

²⁶Use this oil to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony, ²⁷the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, the altar of incense, ²⁸the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the basin with its stand. ²⁹You are to consecrate them so that they will be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy. ³⁰Anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them to serve Me as priests.

³¹And you are to tell the Israelites, 'This will be My sacred anointing oil for the generations to come. ³²It must not be used to anoint an ordinary man, and you must not make anything like it with the EX 30:23 [NOTABLE] The recipe for the holy anointing oil. Most English Bibles call the third spice calamus, sweet cane or fragrant cane, but the Hebrew root words are kanneh bosem, which means fragrant reed. In 1936 a Polish scholar named Sula Benet pointed this out and made the case that kanneh bosem may have really been cannabis, the word she believed cannabis came from. The scholarly consensus is that it was not cannabis but a sweet smelling reed like calamus or lemongrass.

same formula. It is holy, and it must be holy to you. ³³ Anyone who mixes perfume like it or puts it on an outsider shall be cut off from his people.”

THE INCENSE

³⁴ Yahweh also said to Moses, “Take fragrant spices—gum resin, onycha, galbanum, and pure frankincense—in equal measures, ³⁵ and make a fragrant blend of incense, the work of a perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy. ³⁶ Grind some of it into fine powder and place it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you. ³⁷ You are never to use this formula to make incense for yourselves; you shall regard it as holy to Yahweh. ³⁸ Anyone who makes something like it to enjoy its fragrance shall be cut off from his people.”

CHAPTER 31 IN 30 SECONDS

God fills a craftsman named Bezalel with His Spirit, with skill and with creativity. One of the first people in the Bible filled with the Spirit of God is an artist. God makes the Sabbath a sign between Him and Israel. Then He hands Moses two stone tablets written by the finger of God.

BEZALEL AND OHOLIAB // EXODUS 35:30–35

⁶ Moreover, I have selected Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, as his assistant.

EX 30:34 [NOTABLE] The recipe for the holy incense, burned on the gold altar inside the tent every morning and evening, 30:7 to 8. Some point out that three of the four ingredients may be psychoactive, which means God was literally telling the Levite priests to light it up under a tent. Lab studies back this for frankincense, whose smoke acted on the brain in mice in a 2008 study, and for myrrh, a likely match for the gum resin, which eased pain in mice in 1996. Most scholars say the incense was a sweet smell picturing prayer rising to God, Psalm 141:2, and its effect on people is not proven.

I have also given skill to all the craftsmen, that they may fashion all that I have commanded you: ⁷ the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony and the mercy seat upon it, and all the other furnishings of the tent— ⁸ the table with its utensils, the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense, ⁹ the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its stand— ¹⁰ as well as the woven garments, both the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to serve as priests, ¹¹ in addition to the anointing oil and fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them according to all that I have commanded you.”

THE SIGN OF THE SABBATH // NUMBERS 15:32–36

¹² And Yahweh said to Moses, ¹³ “Tell the Israelites, ‘Surely you must keep My Sabbaths, for this will be a sign between Me and you for the generations to come, so that you may know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies you. ¹⁴ Keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Anyone who profanes it must surely be put to death. Whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from among his people. ¹⁵ For six days work may be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to Yahweh. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must surely be put to death.

¹⁶ The Israelites must keep the Sabbath, celebrating it as a permanent covenant for the generations to come. ¹⁷ It is a sign between Me and the Israelites forever; for in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth, but on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.”

MOSES RECEIVES THE TABLETS

¹⁸ When Yahweh had finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, He gave him the two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses is gone a long time, so the people ask Aaron to make them a god. He melts their gold earrings into a calf, and they throw a party. God tells Moses to go down, and Moses pleads for the people. When he sees the dancing, he smashes the tablets. Aaron's excuse is that he threw the gold into the fire, and out came this calf.

THE GOLDEN CALF // DEUTERONOMY 9:7-29; ACTS 7:39-43

¹Now when the people saw that Moses was delayed in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said, "Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him!"

²So Aaron told them, "Take off the gold earrings that are on your wives and sons and daughters, and bring them to me."

³Then all the people took off their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron. ⁴He took the gold from their hands, and with an engraving tool he fashioned it into a molten calf. And they said, "These, O Israel, are your gods, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"

⁵When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before the calf and proclaimed: "Tomorrow shall be a feast to Yahweh."

⁶So the next day they arose, offered burnt offerings, and presented peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry.

⁷Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. ⁸How quickly they have turned aside from the way that I commanded them! They have made for themselves a molten calf and have bowed down to it. They have sacrificed to it and said, 'These, O Israel, are your gods, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.'"

⁹Yahweh also said to Moses, "I have seen this people, and they are indeed a stiff-necked people. ¹⁰Now leave Me alone, so that My anger may burn against them and consume them. Then I will make you into a great nation."

¹¹But Moses sought the favor of Yahweh his God, saying, "O Yahweh, why does Your anger burn against Your people, whom You brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand? ¹²Why should the Egyptians declare, 'He brought them out with evil intent, to kill them in the mountains and wipe them from the face of the earth'? Turn from Your fierce anger and relent from doing harm to Your people. ¹³Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, to whom You swore by Your very self when You declared, 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky, and I will give your descendants all this land that I have promised, and it shall be their inheritance forever.'"

¹⁴So Yahweh relented from the calamity He had threatened to bring on His people.

¹⁵Then Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides, front and back. ¹⁶The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

¹⁷When Joshua heard the sound of the people shouting, he said to Moses, "The sound of war is in the camp."

¹⁸But Moses replied:

"It is neither the cry of victory nor the cry of defeat;

I hear the sound of singing!"

¹⁹As Moses approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, he burned with anger and threw the tablets out of his hands, shattering them at the base of the mountain. ²⁰Then he took the calf they had made, burned it in the fire, ground it to powder, and scattered the powder over the face of the water. Then he forced the Israelites to drink it.

²¹ "What did this people do to you," Moses asked Aaron, "that you have led them into so great a sin?"

²² "Do not be enraged, my lord," Aaron replied. "You yourself know that the people are intent on evil. ²³ They told me, 'Make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him!'"

²⁴ So I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, let him take it off,' and they gave it to me. And when I threw it into the fire, out came this calf!"

²⁵ Moses saw that the people were out of control, for Aaron had let them run wild and become a laughingstock to their enemies. ²⁶ So Moses stood at the entrance to the camp and said, "Whoever is for Yahweh, come to me."

And all the Levites gathered around him.

²⁷ He told them, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'Each of you men is to fasten his sword to his side, go back and forth through the camp from gate to gate, and slay his brother, his friend, and his neighbor.'"

²⁸ The Levites did as Moses commanded, and that day about three thousand of the people fell dead.

²⁹ Afterward, Moses said, "Today you have been ordained for service to Yahweh, since each man went against his son and his brother; so Yahweh has bestowed a blessing on you this day."

³⁰ The next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a great sin. Now I will go up to Yahweh; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin."

³¹ So Moses returned to Yahweh and said, "Oh, what a great sin these people have committed! They have made gods of gold for themselves. ³² Yet now, if You would only forgive their sin.... But if not, please blot me out of the book that You have written."

³³ Yahweh replied to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot out of My book. ³⁴ Now go, lead the people to the place I described. Behold, My angel shall go before you. But on the day I settle accounts, I will punish them for their sin."

³⁵ And Yahweh sent a plague on the people because of what they had done with the calf that Aaron had made.

33

CHAPTER 33 IN 30 SECONDS

God says He will send an angel but will not go with them Himself, and the people mourn. Moses meets God in the tent face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Moses says, If Your Presence does not go with us, do not send us. Then he asks to see God's glory, and God hides him in a rock and lets him see His back.

THE COMMAND TO LEAVE SINAI // DEUTERONOMY 1:1-8

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of the land of Egypt, and go to the land that I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob when I said, 'I will give it to your descendants.' ² And I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. ³ Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go with you, because you are a stiff-necked people; otherwise, I might destroy you on the way."

⁴ When the people heard this bad news, they went into mourning, and no one put on any of his jewelry. ⁵ For Yahweh had said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I should go with you for a single moment, I would destroy you. Now take off your jewelry, and I will decide what to do with you.'"

⁶ So the Israelites stripped themselves of their jewelry from Mount Horeb onward.

THE TENT OF MEETING

⁷ Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it at a distance outside the camp. He called it the Tent of Meeting, and anyone inquiring of Yahweh would go to the Tent of Meeting outside the camp. ⁸ Then, whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would stand at the entrances to their own tents and watch Moses until he entered the tent. ⁹ As Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and remain at the entrance, and Yahweh would speak with Moses. ¹⁰ When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent, they would stand up and worship, each one at the entrance to his own tent.

¹¹ Thus Yahweh would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young assistant Joshua son of Nun would not leave the tent.

THE PROMISE OF GOD'S PRESENCE

¹² Then Moses said to Yahweh, "Look, You have been telling me, 'Lead this people up,' but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, 'I know you by name, and you have found favor in My sight.' ¹³ Now if indeed I have found favor in Your sight, please let me know Your ways, that I may know You and find favor in Your sight. Remember that this nation is Your people."

¹⁴ And Yahweh answered, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

¹⁵ "If Your Presence does not go with us," Moses replied, "do not lead us up from here. ¹⁶ For how then can it be known that Your people and I have found favor in Your sight, unless You go with us? How else will we be distinguished from all the other people on the face of the earth?"

¹⁷ So Yahweh said to Moses, "I will do this very thing you have asked, for you have found favor in My sight, and I know you by name."

¹⁸ Then Moses said, "Please show me Your glory."

¹⁹ "I will cause all My goodness to pass before you," Yahweh replied, "and I will proclaim My name—Yahweh—in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."

²⁰ But He added, "You cannot see My face, for no one can see Me and live."

²¹ Yahweh continued, "There is a place near Me where you are to stand upon a rock, ²² and when My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by. ²³ Then I will take My hand away, and you will see My back; but My face must not be seen."

NEW STONE TABLETS // DEUTERONOMY 10:1–11

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Chisel out two stone tablets like the originals, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. ² Be ready in the morning, and come up on Mount Sinai to present yourself before Me on the mountaintop. ³ No one may go up with you; in fact, no one may be seen anywhere on the mountain—not even the flocks or herds may graze in front of the mountain."

⁴ So Moses chiseled out two stone tablets like the originals. He rose early in the morning, and taking the two stone tablets in his hands, he went up Mount Sinai as Yahweh had commanded him.

⁵ And Yahweh descended in a cloud, stood with him there, and proclaimed His name, Yahweh. ⁶ Then Yahweh passed in front of Moses and called out: "Yahweh, Yahweh God,

YAHWEH RENEWS THE COVENANT // 2 CORINTHI-ANS 3:7-18

10 And Yahweh said, "Behold, I am making a covenant. Before all your people I will perform wonders that have never been done in any nation in all the world. All the people among whom you live will see Yahweh's work, for it is an awesome thing that I am doing with you.

11 Observe what I command you this day. I will drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. 12 Be careful not to make a treaty with the inhabitants of the land you are entering, lest they become a snare in your midst. 13 Rather, you must tear down their altars, smash their sacred stones, and chop down their Asherah poles. 14 For you must not worship any other god, for Yahweh, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

15 Do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you, and you will eat their sacrifices. 16 And when you take some of their daughters as brides for your sons, their daughters will prostitute themselves to their gods and cause your sons to do the same.

17 You shall make no molten gods for yourselves.

18 You are to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, you are to eat unleavened bread as I commanded you. For in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt.

19 The first offspring of every womb belongs to Me, including all the firstborn males among your livestock, whether cattle or sheep. 20 You must redeem the firstborn of a donkey with a lamb; but if you do not redeem it, you are to break its neck. You must redeem all the firstborn of your sons. No one shall appear before Me empty-handed.

21 Six days you shall labor, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even in the seasons of plowing and harvesting, you must rest.

22 And you are to celebrate the Feast of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year. 23 Three times a year all your males are to appear before the Lord Yahweh, the God of Israel. 24 For I will drive out the nations before you and enlarge your borders, and no one will covet your land when you go up three times a year to appear before Yahweh your God.

25 Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to Me along with anything leavened, and do not let any of the sacrifice from the Passover Feast remain until morning.

26 Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of Yahweh your God. You must not cook a young goat in its mother's milk."

27 Yahweh also said to Moses, "Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."

Moses gathers everyone and repeats the Sabbath rule. Then he asks for gifts for the tabernacle, and everyone whose heart is moved brings gold, yarn, wood, spices and jewels. The women spin goat hair. God fills Bezalel and Oholiab with skill to build everything and to teach others.

ments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to serve as priests.”

THE PEOPLE OFFER GIFTS

²⁰ Then the whole congregation of Israel withdrew from the presence of Moses. ²¹ And everyone whose heart stirred him and whose spirit prompted him came and brought an offering to Yahweh for the work on the Tent of Meeting, for all its services, and for the holy garments.

²² So all who had willing hearts, both men and women, came and brought brooches and earrings, rings and necklaces, and all kinds of gold jewelry. And they all presented their gold as a wave offering to Yahweh.

²³ Everyone who had blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, or fine linen, goat hair, ram skins dyed red, or articles of fine leather, brought them. ²⁴ And all who could present an offering of silver or bronze brought it as a contribution to Yahweh. Also, everyone who had acacia wood for any part of the service brought it.

²⁵ Every skilled woman spun with her hands and brought what she had spun: blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, or fine linen.

²⁶ And all the skilled women whose hearts were stirred spun the goat hair.

²⁷ The leaders brought onyx stones and gemstones to mount on the ephod and breastpiece, ²⁸ as well as spices and olive oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.

²⁹ So all the men and women of the Israelites whose hearts prompted them brought a freewill offering to Yahweh for all the work that Yahweh through Moses had commanded them to do.

BEZALEL AND OHOLIAB // EXODUS 31:1-11

³⁰ Then Moses said to the Israelites, “See, Yahweh has called by name Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. ³¹ And He has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability, and knowledge in all kinds of craftsmanship, ³² to design artistic works in gold, silver, and bronze, ³³ to cut gemstones for settings, and to carve wood, so that he may be a master of every artistic craft.

³⁴ And Yahweh has given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others. ³⁵ He has filled them with skill to do all kinds of work as engravers, designers, embroiderers in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen, and as weavers—as artistic designers of every kind of craft.

CHAPTER 36 IN 30 SECONDS

The people keep bringing gifts every morning until the builders say, Stop, we have more than enough. It may be the only time in history a church had to ask people to stop giving. Then the work begins on the curtains, the coverings, the frames and the veil.

THE PEOPLE BRING MORE THAN ENOUGH

¹ “So Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skilled person are to carry out everything commanded by Yahweh, who has given them skill and ability to know how to perform all the work of constructing the sanctuary.”

² Then Moses summoned Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skilled person whom Yahweh had gifted—everyone whose heart stirred him to come and do the work. ³ They received from Moses all the contributions that the Israelites had brought to carry out the service of constructing the sanctuary.

Meanwhile, the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning, ⁴ so that all the skilled craftsmen who were doing all the work on the sanctuary left their work ⁵ and said to Moses, “The people are bringing more than enough for doing the work Yahweh has commanded us to do.”

⁶ After Moses had given an order, they sent a proclamation throughout the camp: “No man or woman should make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary.” So the people were restrained from bringing more, ⁷ since what they already had was more than enough to perform all the work.

■ EX 35:21 [HEART] Those whose hearts stirred them brought gifts for the work.

■ EX 35:29 [HEART] The people gave freely because their hearts were willing.

THE TEN CURTAINS FOR THE TABERNACLE // EXODUS 26:1–6

⁸All the skilled craftsmen among the workmen made the ten curtains for the tabernacle. They were made of finely spun linen, as well as blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with cherubim skillfully worked into them. ⁹Each curtain was 42 feet long and 6 feet wide; all the curtains were the same size. ¹⁰And he joined five of the curtains together, and the other five he joined as well.

THE ELEVEN CURTAINS OF GOAT HAIR // EXODUS 26:7–14

¹⁴He then made curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle—eleven curtains in all. ¹⁵Each of the eleven curtains was the same size—45 feet long and 6 feet wide. ¹⁶He joined five of the curtains into one set and the other six into another. ¹⁷He made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in the first set, and fifty loops along the edge of the corresponding curtain in the second set. ¹⁸He also made fifty bronze clasps to join the tent together as a unit.

¹⁹Additionally, he made for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of fine leather.

THE FRAMES AND BASES // EXODUS 26:15–30

²⁰Next, he constructed upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle. ²¹Each frame was 15 feet long and 27 inches wide. ²²Two tenons were connected to each other for each frame. He made all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

²³He constructed twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle, ²⁴with forty silver bases to put under the twenty frames—two bases for each frame, one under each tenon.

²⁵For the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, he made twenty frames ²⁶and forty silver bases—two bases under each frame.

²⁷He made six frames for the rear of the tabernacle, the west side, ²⁸and two frames for the two back corners of the tabernacle, ²⁹coupled together from bottom to top and fitted into a single ring. He made both corners in this way. ³⁰So there were eight frames and sixteen silver bases—two under each frame.

³¹He also made five crossbars of acacia wood for the frames on one side of the tabernacle, ³²five for those on the other side, and five for those on the rear side of the tabernacle, to the west.

³³He made the central crossbar to run through the center of the frames, from one end to the other. ³⁴And he overlaid the frames with gold and made gold rings to hold the crossbars. He also overlaid the crossbars with gold.

THE VEIL // EXODUS 26:31–35

³⁵Next, he made the veil of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen, with cherubim skillfully worked into it.

³⁶He also made four posts of acacia wood for it and overlaid them with gold, along with gold hooks; and he cast four silver bases for the posts.

THE CURTAIN FOR THE ENTRANCE // EXODUS 26:36–37

³⁷For the entrance to the tent, he made a curtain embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen, ³⁸together with five posts and their hooks.

He overlaid the tops of the posts and their bands with gold, and their five bases were bronze.

37

CHAPTER 37 IN 30 SECONDS

Bezalel builds the furniture: the ark with its mercy seat and cherubim, the table, the golden lampstand with its seven lamps and the altar of incense. He also makes the anointing oil and the incense, exactly as the recipe said. Every piece matches the plans from chapter 25.

CONSTRUCTING THE ARK // EXODUS 25:10-16

¹Bezalel went on to construct the ark of acacia wood, 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high. ²He overlaid it with pure gold, both inside and out, and made a gold molding around it. ³And he cast four gold rings for its four feet, two rings on one side and two on the other. ⁴Then he made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. ⁵He inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark in order to carry it.

THE MERCY SEAT // EXODUS 25:17-22

⁶He constructed a mercy seat of pure gold, 45 inches long and 27 inches wide. ⁷He made two cherubim of hammered gold at the ends of the mercy seat, ⁸one cherub on one end and one on the other, all made from one piece of gold. ⁹And the cherubim had wings that spread upward, overshadowing the mercy seat. The cherubim faced each other, looking toward the mercy seat.

THE TABLE OF SHOWBREAD // EXODUS 25:23-30; LEVITICUS 24:5-9

¹⁰He also made the table of acacia wood 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high. ¹¹He overlaid it with pure gold and made a gold molding around it. ¹²And he made a rim around it three inches wide and put a gold molding on the rim.

¹³He cast four gold rings for the table and fastened them to the four corners at its four legs. ¹⁴The rings were placed close to the rim, to serve as holders for the poles used to carry the table. ¹⁵He made the poles of acacia wood for carrying the table and overlaid them with gold.

¹⁶He also made the utensils for the table out of pure gold: its plates and dishes, as well as its bowls and pitchers for pouring drink offerings.

THE LAMPSTAND // EXODUS 25:31-40; NUMBERS 8:1-4

¹⁷Then he made the lampstand out of pure hammered gold, all of one piece: its base and shaft, its cups, and its buds and petals. ¹⁸Six branches extended from the sides, three on one side and three on the other. ¹⁹There were three cups shaped like almond blossoms on the first branch, each with buds and petals, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches that extended from the lampstand.

²⁰And on the lampstand were four cups shaped like almond blossoms with buds and petals. ²¹A bud was under the first pair of branches that extended from the lampstand, a bud under the second pair, and a bud under the third pair. ²²The buds and branches were all of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

²³He also made its seven lamps, its wick trimmers, and trays of pure gold. ²⁴He made the lampstand and all its utensils from 75 pounds of pure gold.

THE ALTAR OF INCENSE // EXODUS 30:1-10

²⁵He made the altar of incense out of acacia wood. It was square, 18 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 36 inches high. Its horns were of one piece. ²⁶And he overlaid with pure gold the top and all the sides and horns. Then he made a molding of gold around it.

²⁷He made two gold rings below the molding on opposite sides to hold the poles used to carry it. ²⁸And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

²⁹He also made the sacred anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense, the work of a perfumer.

CHAPTER 38 IN 30 SECONDS

The bronze altar, the bronze basin and the courtyard are built. The basin is made from the bronze mirrors of the women who served at the tent entrance. Then comes an honest audit of the materials, about a ton of gold, written down for everyone to see.

THE BRONZE ALTAR // EXODUS 27:1-8

¹Bezalel constructed the altar of burnt offering from acacia wood. It was square, 7½ feet long, 7½ feet wide, and 4½ feet high. ²He made a horn at each of its four corners, so that the horns and altar were of one piece, and he overlaid the altar with bronze.

³He made all the altar's utensils of bronze—its pots, shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks, and firepans. ⁴He made a grate of bronze mesh for the altar under its ledge, halfway up from the bottom.

⁵At the four corners of the bronze grate he cast four rings as holders for the poles.

THE BRONZE BASIN // EXODUS 30:17–21

⁸Next he made the bronze basin and its stand from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

THE COURTYARD // EXODUS 27:9–19

⁹Then he constructed the courtyard. The south side of the courtyard was 150 feet long and had curtains of finely spun linen, ¹⁰with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts. ¹¹The north side was also 150 feet long, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases. The hooks and bands of the posts were silver. ¹²The west side was 75 feet long and had curtains, with ten posts and ten bases. The hooks and bands of the posts were silver. ¹³And the east side, toward the sunrise, was also 75 feet long.

¹⁴The curtains on one side of the entrance were 22½ feet long, with three posts and three bases. ¹⁵And the curtains on the other side were also 22½ feet long, with three posts and three bases as well. ¹⁶All the curtains around the courtyard were made of finely spun linen. ¹⁷The bases for the posts were bronze, the hooks and bands were silver, and the plating for the tops of the posts was silver. So all the posts of the courtyard were banded with silver.

¹⁸The curtain for the entrance to the courtyard was embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. It was 30 feet long and, like the curtains of the courtyard, 7½ feet high, ¹⁹with four posts and four bronze bases. Their hooks were silver, as well as the bands and the plating of their tops. ²⁰All the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the surrounding courtyard were bronze.

AN INVENTORY OF MATERIALS // EZRA 2:68–70; NEHEMIAH 7:70–73

²¹This is the inventory for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, as recorded at Moses' command by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest. ²²Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that Yahweh had commanded Moses. ²³With him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, designer, and embroiderer in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen.

²⁴All the gold from the wave offering used for the work on the sanctuary totaled 2,193 pounds, weighed by the sanctuary standard.

²⁵The silver from those numbered among the congregation totaled 7,544 pounds, weighed by the sanctuary standard— ²⁶a fifth of an ounce per person, weighed by the sanctuary standard, from everyone twenty years of age or older who had crossed over to be numbered, a total of 603,550 men.

²⁷The 7,500 pounds of silver were used to cast the bases of the sanctuary and the bases of the veil—100 bases from the 7,500 pounds, 75 pounds per base.

²⁸With the 44 pounds he made the hooks for the posts, overlaid their tops, and supplied bands for them.

²⁹The bronze from the wave offering totaled 5,310 pounds. ³⁰He used it to make the bases for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar and its bronze grating, all the utensils for the altar, ³¹the bases for the surrounding courtyard and its gate, and all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and its surrounding courtyard.

CHAPTER 39 IN 30 SECONDS

The priests' clothes are made: the ephod, the breastpiece with twelve stones, the robe and the gold plate that says HOLY TO YAHWEH. Over and over it says they did it just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. Moses inspects all the work and blesses the people.

THE EPHOD // EXODUS 28:6-14

¹From the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn they made specially woven garments for ministry in the sanctuary, as well as the holy garments for Aaron, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

²Bezalel made the ephod of finely spun linen embroidered with gold, and with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. ³They hammered out thin sheets of gold and cut threads from them to interweave with the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen—the work of a skilled craftsman. ⁴They made shoulder pieces for the ephod, which were attached at two of its corners, so it could be fastened. ⁵And the skillfully woven waistband of the ephod was of one piece with the ephod, of the same workmanship—with gold, with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely spun linen, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

⁶They mounted the onyx stones in gold filigree settings, engraved like a seal with the names of the sons of Israel. ⁷Then they fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

THE BREASTPIECE // EXODUS 28:15-30

⁸He made the breastpiece with the same workmanship as the ephod, with gold, with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely spun linen. ⁹It was square when folded over double, nine inches long and nine inches wide.

¹⁰And they mounted on it four rows of gemstones:

The first row had a ruby, a topaz, and an emerald;

¹¹the second row had a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;

¹²the third row had a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

¹³and the fourth row had a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper.

These stones were mounted in gold filigree settings.

¹⁴The twelve stones corresponded to the names of the sons of Israel. Each stone was engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

¹⁵For the breastpiece they made braided chains like cords of pure gold. ¹⁶They also made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and fastened the two rings to the two corners of the breastpiece. ¹⁷

Then they fastened the two gold chains to the two gold rings at the corners of the breastpiece, ¹⁸and they fastened the other ends of the two chains to the two filigree settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

¹⁹They made two more gold rings and attached them to the other two corners of the breastpiece, on the inside edge next to the ephod.

²⁰They made two additional gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, on its front, near the seam just above its woven waistband. ²¹Then they tied the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue yarn, so that the breastpiece was above the waistband of the ephod and would not swing out from the ephod, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

ADDITIONAL PRIESTLY GARMENTS // EXODUS 28:31-43

²²They made the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth, the work of a weaver, ²³with an opening in the center of the robe like that of a garment, with a collar around the opening so that it would not tear.

²⁴They made pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely spun linen on the lower hem of the robe. ²⁵They also made bells of pure gold and attached them around the hem between the pomegranates,²⁶ alternating the bells and pomegranates around the lower hem of the robe to be worn for ministry, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

²⁷ For Aaron and his sons they made tunics of fine linen, the work of a weaver,²⁸ as well as the turban of fine linen, the ornate headbands and undergarments of finely spun linen,²⁹ and the sash of finely spun linen, embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

³⁰ They also made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and they engraved on it, like an inscription on a seal:

HOLY TO THE Yahweh.

³¹ Then they fastened to it a blue cord to mount it on the turban, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

MOSES APPROVES THE WORK

³² So all the work for the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

³³ Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses:

the tent with all its furnishings, its clasps, its frames, its crossbars, and its posts and bases;

³⁴ the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of fine leather, and the veil of the covering;

³⁵ the ark of the Testimony with its poles and the mercy seat;

³⁶ the table with all its utensils and the Bread of the Presence;

³⁷ the pure gold lampstand with its row of lamps and all its utensils, as well as the oil for the light;

³⁸ the gold altar, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the entrance to the tent;

³⁹ the bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles, and all its utensils; the basin with its stand;

⁴⁰ the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases;

the curtain for the gate of the courtyard, its ropes and tent pegs, and all the equipment for the service of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting;

⁴¹ and the woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary, both the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to serve as priests.

⁴² The Israelites had done all the work just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.⁴³ And Moses inspected all the work and saw that they had accomplished it just as Yahweh had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

40

CHAPTER 40 IN 30 SECONDS

On the first day of the second year the tabernacle goes up. Moses sets up every piece and anoints it. Then the cloud covers the tent, and the glory of Yahweh fills it so completely that even Moses cannot go in. God has moved in with His people, and the cloud leads them on every step of the journey.

SETTING UP THE TABERNACLE // ACTS 7:44–47; HEBREWS 9:1–10

¹ Then Yahweh said to Moses, ² “On the first day of the first month you are to set up the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting. ³ Put the ark of the Testimony in it and screen off the ark with the veil. ⁴ Then bring in the table and set out its arrangement; bring in the lampstand as well, and set up its lamps.

⁵ Place the gold altar of incense in front of the ark of the Testimony, and hang the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.

⁶ Place the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting. ⁷ And place the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

⁸ Set up the surrounding courtyard and hang the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard.

⁹ Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it; consecrate it along with all its furnishings, and it shall be holy. ¹⁰ Anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; consecrate the altar, and it shall be most holy. ¹¹ Anoint the basin and its stand and consecrate them.

¹² Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water. ¹³ And you are to clothe Aaron with the holy garments, anoint him, and consecrate him, so that he may serve Me as a priest. ¹⁴ Bring his sons forward and clothe them with tunics. ¹⁵ Anoint them just as you anointed their father, so that they may also serve Me as priests. Their anointing will qualify them for a permanent priesthood throughout their generations."

¹⁶ Moses did everything just as Yahweh had commanded him. ¹⁷ So the tabernacle was set up on the first day of the first month of the second year.

¹⁸ When Moses set up the tabernacle, he laid its bases, positioned its frames, inserted its crossbars, and set up its posts.

¹⁹ Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering over the tent, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

²⁰ Moses took the Testimony and placed it in the ark, attaching the poles to the ark; and he set the mercy seat atop the ark. ²¹ Then he brought the ark into the tabernacle, put up the veil for the screen, and shielded off the ark of the Testimony, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

²² Moses placed the table in the Tent of Meeting on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil. ²³ He arranged the bread on it before Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

²⁴ He also placed the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle ²⁵ and set up the lamps before Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

²⁶ Moses placed the gold altar in the Tent of Meeting, in front of the veil, ²⁷ and he burned fragrant incense on it, just as Yahweh had commanded him. ²⁸ Then he put up the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle. ²⁹ He placed the altar of burnt offering near the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

³⁰ He placed the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing; ³¹ and from it Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and feet.

³² They washed whenever they entered the Tent of Meeting or approached the altar, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

³³ And Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and the altar, and he hung the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard. So Moses finished the work.

THE CLOUD AND THE GLORY // NUMBERS 9:15-23

³⁴ Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of Yahweh filled the tabernacle. ³⁵ Moses was unable to enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud had settled on it, and the glory of Yahweh filled the tabernacle.

³⁶ Whenever the cloud was lifted from above the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out through all the stages of their journey. ³⁷ If the cloud was not lifted, they would not set out until the day it was taken up. ³⁸ For the cloud of Yahweh was over the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel through all their journeys.
