INTRODUCTION

How this Bible got to you, and why we made it the way we did

Be a Berean

This Bible was built to be checked. That idea comes from a small town in Greece and three verses in Acts.

THE TOWN THAT FACT CHECKED PAUL

In Acts 17, Paul and Silas are run out of Thessalonica. A mob is after them. The believers sneak them out at night, and they land in a town called Berea. Today it is called Veria, and you can still visit it.

Paul does what he always does. He goes to the synagogue and teaches that Jesus is the Messiah the Scriptures promised.

Here is what the Bereans did next. Acts 17:11 says they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if these things were so.

Think about that. The apostle Paul is standing in front of them. The man who would write 13 books of the New Testament. And they said, in effect, "Great sermon. We're going to go look it up."

GOD CALLED IT NOBLE

You might expect Luke to scold them for doubting an apostle. He does the opposite. He says the Bereans were more noble than the people in Thessalonica.

They were not cynics. They were eager. They wanted it to be true. They just wanted to see it for themselves. Acts 17:12 says many of them believed, including leading Greek women and men.

You know that one kid in Sunday school? The one who actually finished the take home sheet. The one with tabs on every book of the Bible, color coded. The one who raised a hand when the teacher said Methuselah lived about a thousand years and said, "Actually, it was 969. Genesis 5:27." The one who reminded the teacher she forgot to give homework.

Now fill a whole synagogue with that kid. That was Berea.

Paul walked in ready to preach and got a room full of fact checkers with scrolls. Every time he said, "As it is written," fifty people started unrolling scrolls to find the spot. Nobody fell asleep. Nobody was drawing in the margins. Somebody in the back was probably taking notes on his notes.

And here is the best part. Luke did not call them annoying. He did not call them know it alls. He called them noble.

Paul didn't scold them either. I like to imagine him thinking, "Finally! People who actually want to hear this. Bring on the hard questions." Because in a lot of towns, the crowd was looking up at the sun to see how close it was to lunch.

That's not just a joke. Back then, most people told time by the sun. The daylight was split into twelve hours, from sunrise to sunset. Jesus said it Himself: Are there not twelve hours of daylight? John 11:9. That means a summer hour was longer than a winter hour. Cities had sundials, and some had water clocks, but most folks just looked up. Noon was the sixth hour. In Acts 10:9 to 10, Peter goes up on a roof to pray at about the sixth hour and gets hungry. Even apostles knew when it was lunchtime.

And Paul knew what a bored crowd looked like. In Acts 20:9, a young man named Eutychus was sitting in a window while Paul talked on and on. He fell asleep, fell out the window from the third story and died. Paul had to raise him from the dead. Nobody in Berea ever needed that.

That crowd still exists today. In Christian circles we call them the apologetics crowd, and you know who you are. You have watched a three hour debate about one Greek word at 1 a.m. and paused it to take notes. You own more Bibles than coffee mugs. You have said the words "well, actually, in the Greek" at Thanksgiving dinner. Your pastor sees you walk in with a notebook and quietly checks his sermon one more time.

If that's you, welcome to Berea. This study Bible was written partly just for you. We know you are going to check every note anyway, so let's make it official. If you find a mistake, a take you think is wrong, or a view we left out, tell us at bibletechsupport.com. All of them. Even the small ones. Especially the small ones. We would rather hear it from you than from a comment section.

And it stuck. A few chapters later, in Acts 20:4, a Berean named Sopater is traveling with Paul as part of his team. The town that checked his work sent him a teammate.

THEY DIDN'T HAVE IT EASY

The Bereans did not have a Bible on the nightstand. There were no printed books. The Scriptures were handwritten scrolls, expensive and heavy, kept at the synagogue. Their Bible was what we call the Old Testament.

So checking Paul meant showing up, unrolling scrolls and reading, every single day. They did it anyway.

You have it much easier. You are holding the whole thing, both testaments, with notes that point you to every verse we talk about.

WHY THAT MATTERS FOR THIS BIBLE

Every note in this Bible is a claim. A prophecy was fulfilled here. This stone was dug up there. This verse is missing from the oldest copies. We want you to check every one of them.

That is why each note gives you the verse. That is why our confidence ratings say HIGH, MEDIUM or LOW instead of pretending everything is certain. That is why the Big Question pages show every side. And that is why every change we made to the Bible text is listed where you can see it.

We are not asking you to trust us. We are asking you to do what the Bereans did. Open the Book and see if these things are so.

Our whole ministry is built on that one verse. No Bible college required. Just eagerness and a habit of looking it up.

How the Bible Got to You

God did not drop a leather Bible out of the sky and tell everyone, "This is My Complete Word of God!" The one exception might be the Ten Commandments, which Exodus 31:18 says were written by the finger of God. And no, the Council of Nicaea did not take books out of the Bible in AD
325. More on that in the bonus section at the very end of this Bible.

God used people, scrolls, scribes and printing presses over about 3,000 years. Here is the family tree, short version.

IT STARTED IN HEBREW AND GREEK

Here's a fun question nobody can answer: what language did Adam speak?

The stories in Genesis happened long before anyone wrote them down, and the people in them did not all speak Hebrew. Abraham's family settled in Haran, in a region called Aram, Genesis 11:31. That's where the word Aramaic comes from. Isaac married Rebekah, the sister of Laban the Aramean, Genesis 25:20. Deuteronomy 26:5 even calls Jacob a wandering Aramean.

The Bible gives us a clue. In Genesis 31:47, Jacob and his uncle Laban stack up a pile of rocks to seal a deal, and each one names it. Laban calls it Jegar Sahadutha, which is Aramaic. Jacob calls it Galeed, which is Hebrew. Both names mean heap of witness. One rock pile, two languages. That's the first Aramaic in the Bible.

So when these things actually happened, some of the talking was probably in Aramaic, or in an older language we don't even have a name for. An old Jewish teaching in the Talmud says Adam spoke Aramaic, Sanhedrin 38b. Others said Hebrew. Genesis 11:1 only tells us the whole world spoke one language before Babel. The truth is we don't know, and anyone who tells you for sure is guessing.

BEFORE ANYONE WROTE IT DOWN

For a long time, these stories were not read. They were told. Around the fire, at the dinner table, on long walks with the sheep. Scholars call this oral tradition. Oral just means spoken out loud. Not the dentist kind.

Now you might be thinking of the telephone game, where Grandma likes pie turns into Grandpa bought a goat by the end of the line. That's not how it worked. In a world with no books, people memorized on purpose. They used songs, rhymes, lists and the same words over and over. And if someone told the story wrong, the whole family fixed it on the spot. Try telling a family story wrong at Thanksgiving with your aunt in the room. You will be corrected before you finish the sentence.

The Bible tells families to do exactly this:

- Deuteronomy 6:7. Talk about God's words when you sit at home, when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Basically, all day.
- Exodus 12:26 to 27. When your kids ask what Passover means, tell them the story.
- Joshua 4:6 to 7. Pile up twelve stones from the Jordan River, so when your kids ask what the rocks are for, you tell them what God did.
- Psalm 78:3 to 4. What our fathers told us, we will not hide from our children.

The rest of the ancient world did it too. Many scholars think the Greek poems of Homer, the Iliad and the Odyssey, were recited from memory for generations before anyone wrote them down. Jewish teachers carried a huge body of teaching in their heads for centuries before it was written down as the Mishnah, around AD 200.

Here's a mind blower. Do the math with the ages in the Hebrew text of Genesis 5 and 11, and the chain is short. Methuselah was alive at the same time as Adam for about 243 years. Then Methuselah was alive at the same time as Noah for 600 years. And Noah's son Shem was still alive when Abraham was born. So a story from the garden could go from Adam to Methuselah to Noah's family to Abraham with just a few handoffs. That's fewer people than it takes to pass the mashed potatoes.

One more thing. Writing is way older than Moses. Egypt and Babylon were writing things down more than a thousand years before he was born. Genesis is divided into sections that start with words like This is the account of, Genesis 2:4, 6:9 and 11:27. Some scholars think those mark older family records that were written down early. Nobody knows for sure.

THEN MOSES WROTE IT DOWN

Jewish and Christian tradition says Moses put Genesis and the next four books in writing, and he wrote them in Hebrew. When? That depends on when you date the Exodus. 1 Kings 6:1 says Solomon started the temple 480 years after Israel left Egypt, which points to about 1446 BC. That would put Moses writing around 1400 BC. Many other scholars date the Exodus to the 1200s BC, which would put it around 1250 BC. Some modern scholars think the books reached their final form even later. Each book's introduction tells you more. The Old Testament Introduction has three pages, starting with Why Do Some Books Have Two Dates?, that explain how we date the books and why many scholars date them later, and the New Testament Introduction does the same for the Gospels.

So here's the idiot proof version. Things happened. People talked about them, maybe in Aramaic. Families memorized the stories and passed them down. Then Moses wrote it all down in Hebrew. Same story, new language. Kind of like the Bible you're holding, which you're reading in English.

WHAT THE BOOKS WERE WRITTEN IN

The Old Testament was written mostly in Hebrew. A few chapters in Daniel and Ezra, plus one verse in Jeremiah, are in Aramaic, a cousin language. The New Testament was written in Greek, the common language of the Roman world.

We do not have the original pages. Nobody does. That is true of every ancient book, from Homer to Julius Caesar. What we have is copies, and copies of copies. The good news is that we have a lot of them, and some are very old.

WHAT LANGUAGE DID JESUS SPEAK?

Here's the short answer: most of the New Testament happened in Aramaic and got written down in Greek. Let's untangle that.

In Jesus' day, the Jews of Galilee and Judea mostly spoke Aramaic at home and in the street. Hebrew was the language of the Scriptures and worship. Greek was the language of business and government all over the Roman world. And the Roman soldiers spoke Latin. The sign Pilate nailed over the cross covered the whole menu. It was written in Hebrew, Latin and Greek, John 19:20.

You can still hear Jesus' own Aramaic in the Gospels. Mark kept a few of His actual words:

- Talitha koum. Little girl, get up. Mark 5:41.
- Ephphatha. Be opened. Mark 7:34.
- Abba. Father. Mark 14:36.
- Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani? My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? Mark 15:34.

Even Peter's nickname is Aramaic. Cephas means rock, John 1:42.

But when Jesus stood up in the synagogue in Nazareth and was handed the scroll of Isaiah, Luke 4:16 to 20, that scroll was in Hebrew, and He read it in Hebrew. Many think someone then gave the meaning out loud in Aramaic so everybody could follow. That custom is described in Jewish writings from later on, so we can't be sure it happened that day.

Did Jesus speak Greek too? Maybe. Galilee was surrounded by Greek speaking towns, He talked with a Greek woman in Mark 7:26, and He talked with Pilate. Scholars still argue about it.

Acts has the same mix. When Paul spoke to the crowd in Jerusalem, he switched to Hebrew, which many think means the Aramaic the locals spoke, and the crowd went even quieter, Acts 21:40 to 22:2. Nothing gets a crowd's attention like speaking their language. When he preached in Athens, it was Greek.

SO WHY WRITE IT IN GREEK?

Because Greek was the English of the ancient world. About 300 years before Jesus, Alexander the Great conquered everything from Greece to Egypt to the edge of India, and Greek spread everywhere he went. By Jesus' day, a merchant from Spain, a soldier in Egypt and a fisherman in Turkey could all get by in Greek. The kind they used is called Koine, which means common. Not the fancy Greek of the philosophers. The everyday Greek of the marketplace. Think text messages, not Shakespeare.

The apostles were writing to churches in places like Rome, Corinth, Galatia and Ephesus. Most of those people did not speak Aramaic. If Paul had written Romans in Aramaic, the Romans would have needed a translator and a snack. He didn't even write it in Latin. He wrote it in Greek, because that's what everybody could read. Jesus told them to make disciples of all nations, Matthew 28:19, so they wrote in the one language all the nations shared.

There's one more reason. The Bible most early Christians read was already in Greek, the Septuagint. So when the New Testament writers quoted the Old Testament, they could quote a Bible their readers already owned.

One honest footnote. Papias, a church leader in the early 100s, said Matthew first put Jesus' sayings together in the Hebrew language. We only know this because the historian Eusebius quoted him. Scholars still debate what Papias meant. The Gospel of Matthew we have was written in Greek, and most scholars think it was not translated from another language.

The idiot proof version: Jesus talked in Aramaic. He read the Scriptures in Hebrew. The apostles wrote it all down in Greek so the whole world could read it. And now you're reading it in English. Same story, fourth language.

THE OLD TESTAMENT COPIES

For centuries, Jewish scribes copied the Hebrew Bible by hand. They were famous for being careful. A group called the Masoretes counted letters and words so they could catch mistakes. Their work gave us the standard Hebrew text.

The oldest complete Hebrew Bible we have is the Leningrad Codex, copied around AD 1008. The Aleppo Codex is a little older, from around AD 930, but part of it was lost in the 1900s.

Then around 1947, as the story goes, a shepherd boy threw a rock into a cave near the Dead Sea. He heard pottery break. Inside were the Dead Sea Scrolls, copies of Old Testament books about a thousand years older than the Leningrad Codex. The Great Isaiah Scroll, from around 125 BC, lines up closely with the Isaiah we read today. A thousand years of copying, and the message held.

THE GREEK OLD TESTAMENT

Around 250 BC, Jewish scholars in Egypt began translating their Scriptures into Greek. This translation is called the Septuagint. Many Jews by then spoke Greek better than Hebrew.

The Septuagint matters because the New Testament writers often quote from it. When a New Testament quote reads a little differently from your Old Testament, this is usually why. Our notes point it out when it matters.

THE NEW TESTAMENT COPIES

We have more than 5,000 handwritten Greek copies of the New Testament, whole books and scraps. No other ancient book comes close. The oldest scraps are often dated to the 100s, though scholars debate exact dates. The oldest nearly complete Bibles, Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus, come from the 300s.

With that many copies, there are differences. Most are spelling and word order. A few are bigger, like the ending of Mark. That is why this Bible uses [square brackets]. We show you where the oldest copies differ. We don't hide it.

LATIN TAKES OVER

Around AD 400, a scholar named Jerome translated the Bible into Latin. It became known as the Vulgate, which means common. For about a thousand years, it was the Bible of the Western church.

The problem was that most regular people didn't speak Latin. The Bible was read to them in a language they couldn't understand.

INTO ENGLISH, AND INTO TROUBLE

In the 1380s, John Wycliffe and his followers put the whole Bible into English by hand. They translated from the Latin. The church banned unapproved English Bibles in 1409.

Then came the printing press. In 1516, a Dutch scholar named Erasmus printed the Greek New Testament. Now scholars could translate from the Greek instead of the Latin.

Martin Luther used it. In 1522, he put the New Testament into German so a farmer could read it for himself. The full German Bible followed in 1534. He did it while the church wanted him dead.

William Tyndale used it too. He read Luther and borrowed from his prefaces. In 1526, Tyndale printed the first English New Testament translated from Greek. He had to do it in hiding in Germany, and copies were smuggled into England in bales of cloth. Bishops bought them up and burned them. Tyndale was strangled and burned in 1536. According to the old account by John Foxe, his last words were a prayer: "Lord, open the King of England's eyes."

Within a few years, England had approved English Bibles. The Geneva Bible of 1560 was the Bible of Shakespeare and the Pilgrims. It was the first full English Bible with verse numbers.

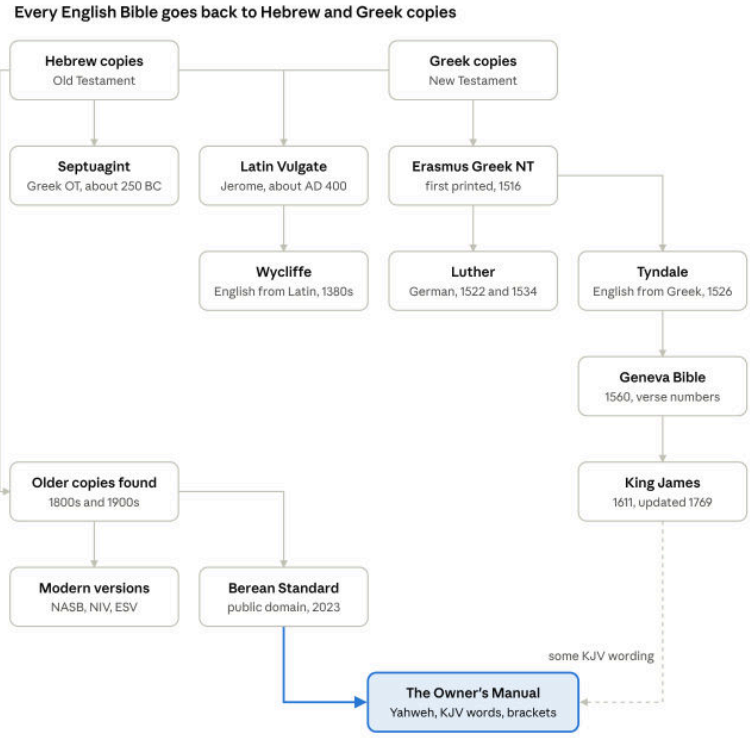
THE KING JAMES

In 1611, a team of about 50 scholars finished the King James Version. It became the Bible of the English speaking world for over 300 years. Most of its New Testament wording comes straight from Tyndale. One computer study found about 83 percent. The man they burned wrote most of the Bible they printed.

The KJV most people read today is not the 1611 printing. It is a 1769 update that fixed spelling and printing errors.

THEN WE FOUND MORE COPIES

In the 1800s and 1900s, scholars found older copies than the KJV translators ever saw, including Codex Sinaiticus and the Dead Sea Scrolls. New translations used them. You have probably heard of a few: the NASB, NIV and ESV. Their New Testaments are translated from what scholars call the critical text, a Greek text built by comparing the oldest copies.



Not every new translation went that way. The New King James Version, finished in 1982, updated the King James English but kept the same Greek text the King James used, called the Textus Receptus, or Received Text. Good scholars still disagree about which Greek text is best, and our TEXT notes show you where the two differ.

Translations sit on a line. On one end are word for word translations like the KJV, NASB and ESV. In the middle are thought for thought translations like the NIV and NLT. Way out on the far end are paraphrases like The Message. Each has a job. Word for word helps you study. Thought for thought helps you read fast.

WHERE THE OWNER'S MANUAL FITS

The Owner's Manual, or TOM, is a word for word style translation. TOM starts from the Berean Standard Bible, a modern English translation made from the Hebrew and Greek. Yes, it is named after the same Bereans from Acts 17. In 2023, its makers did something generous. They gave it to the public for free, so anyone could print it, share it and build on it. We did exactly that, and we thank them in our acknowledgments. Then we changed it.

We print God's name, Yahweh, where the Hebrew has it. We brought back some King James wording where it hits harder and still means the same thing today. And we put words missing from the oldest copies in brackets instead of deleting them. Every change is listed in our change log, verse by verse, with the reason why.

Follow any arrow up and you land on the same Hebrew and Greek copies. TOM borrows from two branches: the Berean Standard Bible for its base, and the King James for some of its wording.

The King James: Respect and False Friends

Let's get this out of the way. We love the King James Bible.

It shaped the English language. It gave us phrases people still use without knowing where they came from, like the salt of the earth, a labor of love and the powers that be. Revivals were preached from it. Missionaries carried it around the world. Your grandma probably underlined hers until the pages were soft. If you read the KJV, you are reading a Bible that God has used for over 400 years. Keep reading it.

THE TRANSLATORS AGREED WITH US

Here is something most people never see. The 1611 King James had a long preface called The Translators to the Reader. In it, the translators said the Bible should be in the plain language of the people, so even the simplest person could understand it.

They also said that even a weak translation of the Bible is still the word of God. And they filled the margins with thousands of notes showing other ways a word could be translated. They were Bereans too. They wanted you to see their choices.

So when a newer Bible changes an old word, it is not attacking the King James. It is doing what the King James translators did. Putting God's Word in the language people speak today.

WHY WE KEPT SOME KJV WORDING

Sometimes the King James just says it better. Daniel 11:32 says the people who know their God shall be strong and do exploits. Try saying that with less punch. You can't.

So TOM brings back KJV wording in some places. Our rule is simple. The KJV words must be faithful to the Hebrew or Greek, and they must still mean the same thing to a reader today. Every one of these swaps is listed in our change log.

WATCH OUT FOR FALSE FRIENDS

That second rule matters, because English changes. A false friend is a word you think you know, but it meant something else in 1611. It looks friendly. It is not.

The teacher Mark Ward made this idea famous for KJV readers, and he is right. These are not mistakes in the King James. In 1611, these words were perfect. The language moved. The Bible didn't.

Here are some of our favorites.

The KJV says	Where	In 1611 it meant	What you might think
Suffer the little children to come unto me	Mark 10:14	Let them come	Make the kids suffer
We which are alive shall not prevent them which are asleep	1 Thessalonians 4:15	Go ahead of	Stop them
I purposed to come unto you, but was let hitherto	Romans 1:13	Hindered, blocked	Allowed
Let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel	Philippians 1:27	Your whole way of life	Watch your mouth
The word of God is quick, and powerful	Hebrews 4:12	Alive	Fast
Judge the quick and the dead	2 Timothy 4:1	The living	The speedy
We took up our carriages	Acts 21:15	Our bags	Paul had a horse and buggy
Give me by and by in a charger the head of John	Mark 6:25	Right now, on a platter	Eventually, with a phone charger
To do good and to communicate forget not	Hebrews 13:16	Share what you have	Keep texting
Study to shew thyself approved	2 Timothy 2:15	Work hard, be diligent	Hit the books

That last one is a good example of how TOM works. We kept the King James phrase rightly dividing the word of truth, because it is strong and still clear. But we changed Study to Be diligent, because Paul was not telling Timothy to cram for a test. He was telling him to work hard at handling God's Word right.

So when you see an old word in TOM, it is there on purpose. When you see an old word changed, that is on purpose too. Either way, it's in the change log.

What We Changed, and Where to Check

Any time someone changes the Bible text, you should get nervous. We would. So we wrote down every single change.

THE CHANGE LOG

Our change log lists every place where TOM's wording is different from the translation we started with. Each line gives you the verse, what it said before, what it says now and why we changed it.

Scan the QR code on the copyright page to open it. It's free, and it updates as we fix things. Nothing is hidden in the fine print, because there is no fine print.

THE FOUR KINDS OF CHANGES

Almost every change falls into one of four groups.

1. God's name. Where the Hebrew has God's personal name, we print Yahweh. That is the biggest change by far, in thousands of verses. The next section explains why.
2. King James wording. Where the KJV is stronger and still clear, we brought it back. For example, 1 Timothy 3:16 reads God was manifest in the flesh. The note under it tells you that the oldest copies say He who was manifest, and that both readings point to Jesus.
3. Brackets. Some verses that older Bibles had and newer Bibles dropped are back in TOM, inside [square brackets]. One example is Acts 8:37, where the Ethiopian official confesses his faith before he is baptized. You see the verse, and you see that the oldest copies don't have it.
4. Plain English measures. In some places we turned ancient weights and measures into ones you know, like inches and pounds, so you can picture the thing.

WHAT WE NEVER DO

We never change a verse to win an argument. We never change a verse to fit a doctrine. If a verse makes our side uncomfortable, it stays exactly as it is.

And we never make a change without telling you. If you find one that isn't in the log, that's a mistake, and we want to know.

FIND A MISTAKE?

This Bible was made by people, and people miss things. If you find an error in a note, a date or a highlight, tell us at bibletechsupport.com. We will check it, fix it in the next printing and add it to the log. Bereans are welcome here.

God Has a Name

God is not God's name. God is His title, like President or Coach. He has a personal name, and He told us what it is.

THE BURNING BUSH

In Exodus 3, Moses is standing barefoot in front of a bush that is on fire but not burning up. God tells him to go back to Egypt and lead Israel out. Moses asks a fair question. If the people ask me Your name, what do I tell them?

God answers in Exodus 3:14, I AM WHO I AM. Then in verse 15 He gives His name. In Hebrew it is four letters, YHWH. And He adds, This is My name forever, and this is how I am to be remembered from generation to generation.

Most scholars connect the name to the Hebrew verb for to be. He is the God who is. He was before anything else, and He will be after everything else.

THE MOST USED NAME IN THE BIBLE

That four letter name shows up about 6,800 times in the Old Testament. That's more than any other name or title for God, and more than any other name in the Bible.

So why have most of us never seen it?

HOW A NAME WENT MISSING

Ancient Hebrew was written with consonants only, no vowels. Readers just knew how to say the words. Imagine reading a text from your friend that says GD MRNNG and knowing exactly what it means.

Over time, Jewish readers became so careful about God's name that they stopped saying it out loud. They did not want to misuse it and break the commandment in Exodus 20:7. Ancient Jewish writings say that only the high priest spoke it, in the temple, on the Day of Atonement.

So when readers came to YHWH, they said Adonai instead, which means Lord. Later, the Greek translation of the Old Testament mostly used the Greek word for Lord in those places too.

Then, hundreds of years after Jesus, Jewish scribes called the Masoretes added little vowel marks to the Hebrew text. On YHWH, they put the vowels of Adonai, as a reminder to say Lord. It was like a sticky note that said, don't say this word out loud.

After enough centuries of nobody saying it, the exact sound of the name was lost.

WHERE JEHOVAH CAME FROM

Christian scholars in the Middle Ages read the Hebrew text and took the sticky note literally. They mixed the consonants YHWH with the vowels of Adonai. Spell that in Latin letters, where the letter J was said like our Y, and you get Jehovah.

The name spread in English Bibles. Tyndale used it. The King James prints Jehovah four times on its own, in Exodus 6:3, Psalm 83:18, Isaiah 12:2 and Isaiah 26:4, plus in a few place names like Jehovah jireh in Genesis 22:14.

Everywhere else, the King James did what most English Bibles still do. It printed LORD in capital letters. When your Bible says LORD in all caps, that is God's name hiding in plain sight. When it says Lord GOD, the Hebrew is Adonai YHWH.

Jehovah has been used in great hymns and by sincere believers for centuries. It is just not how the name was pronounced in Bible times. Scholars across the board agree on that.

WHY WE SAY YAHWEH

Nobody alive can be 100 percent sure how the name was said. But scholars have strong clues, and they mostly agree on Yahweh.

Clue one is the short form of the name, Yah. You already say it. Hallelujah means praise Yah. Psalm 68:4 uses Yah by itself.

Clue two is names. Elijah means my God is Yah. Isaiah means Yah saves. Many Bible names carry part of God's name inside them.

Clue three is early Christian writers. Around AD 200, Clement of Alexandria wrote the name in Greek letters with a sound close to Yahweh. A later writer named Theodoret said the Samaritans pronounced it Yabe.

Put those together and you get Yahweh, which is how most scholars write it today. That's what TOM prints.

ISN'T IT WRONG TO SAY IT?

This is a fair question, and good people disagree.

Many Jewish people today still will not say the name. Some will not even spell out the word God in full, and many call Him HaShem, which means The Name. That comes from deep respect, and we respect it too.

Many Christians prefer LORD for a different reason. The apostles wrote the New Testament in Greek, and when they quoted the Old Testament, they used the Greek word for Lord. That tradition is old and honorable.

Here is why we still print Yahweh. In the Old Testament, people said God's name all the time. In Ruth 2:4, Boaz greets his field workers with Yahweh be with you, and they answer, Yahweh bless you. That's farm small talk. The commandment in Exodus 20:7 is about misusing God's name, like a false promise or a fake prophecy. It's not about saying it with love.

God said this is My name forever. We think He meant for it to be used. So when you see Yahweh in TOM, read it, say it and know that you are calling God by the name He gave Himself.

HOW TOM PRINTS GOD'S NAMES

Hebrew	What it means	Most English Bibles	TOM
YHWH	God's personal name	LORD	Yahweh
Adonai YHWH	Lord Yahweh	Lord GOD	Lord Yahweh
Adonai	Lord, master	Lord	Lord
Elohim	God	God	God

In the New Testament, TOM keeps Lord, because that is what the apostles wrote in Greek. The next section explains how that ties right back to Yahweh.

GOD'S OTHER NAMES AND TITLES

The Bible pairs God's name and titles with words that describe Him. Some are names He gives Himself. Some are names people gave Him after He showed up in their lives. Here are the big ones.

Name	What it means	Where you first meet it
Elohim	God. It is plural in form, but it takes singular verbs when it means the one true God.	Genesis 1:1
El Elyon	God Most High	Genesis 14:18, with Melchizedek
El Roi	The God who sees me	Genesis 16:13, said by Hagar, a runaway servant
El Shaddai	Usually translated God Almighty. The exact meaning is debated.	Genesis 17:1, to Abraham
Yahweh Yireh	Yahweh will provide	Genesis 22:14, after the ram on the mountain
Yahweh Rapha	Yahweh who heals you	Exodus 15:26
Yahweh Nissi	Yahweh is my banner	Exodus 17:15, after a battle
Yahweh Shalom	Yahweh is peace	Judges 6:24, said by Gideon
Yahweh Sabaoth	Yahweh of armies, often called the LORD of hosts	1 Samuel 1:3
Yahweh Tsidkenu	Yahweh our righteousness	Jeremiah 23:6, a prophecy about the Messiah
Yahweh Shammah	Yahweh is there	Ezekiel 48:35, the last words of Ezekiel

A quick note on Elohim. Some Christians see the plural form as an early hint of the Trinity. Many scholars, Jewish and Christian, say it is a plural of majesty, the way a king might say we. Both views are out there. Neither one changes what Deuteronomy 6:4 says. Yahweh is one.

See how El Roi was spoken by a runaway servant girl alone in the desert? God's names are not just theology. A lot of them were given by people who just met Him on their worst day.

Jesus, Yeshua and Lord

God's name doesn't disappear in the New Testament. It's hiding inside the name of Jesus.

HIS NAME MEANS YAHWEH SAVES

Jesus's mother and friends did not call Him Jesus. They spoke Aramaic and Hebrew, and they called Him Yeshua. It's a short form of Yehoshua, the same name as Joshua, the man who led Israel into the Promised Land. In Ezra and Nehemiah, a high priest has the same name, written Jeshua in many English Bibles.

Yeshua means Yahweh saves. That's why the angel tells Joseph in Matthew 1:21, You are to give Him the name Jesus, because He will save His people from their sins. The name was the mission statement.

SO HOW DID WE GET JESUS?

The New Testament was written in Greek, and Yeshua in Greek is Iesous. In Latin it became Iesus. English later added the letter J, and Iesus became Jesus. The 1611 King James actually printed Iesus, because English hadn't fully split I and J yet.

Every step was a normal translation, the way your name might sound a little different in Spanish. The apostles themselves wrote His name in Greek. So TOM prints Jesus in the text. You will find notes on Yeshua at Matthew 1:1 and 1:21.

Some believers prefer to say Yeshua only. That's a beautiful name, and you're welcome to use it. But nobody needs to feel guilty for saying Jesus. Peter, Paul and John wrote His name in Greek, and heaven did not lose any mail.

CHRIST IS A TITLE, NOT A LAST NAME

Jesus Christ is not Mr. and Mrs. Christ's boy. Christ comes from the Greek word Christos, which means Anointed One. In Hebrew that word is Mashiach, which gives us Messiah.

In the Old Testament, kings and priests were anointed with oil to set them apart. Saying Jesus Christ means Jesus the Messiah, the King everyone was waiting for.

LORD IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

The Greek word for Lord is Kyrios. It could mean sir, master or God, depending on who you were talking to. A servant called his boss kyrios. A Greek Bible reader called Yahweh Kyrios.

That is why TOM keeps Lord in the New Testament. It's what the apostles wrote. But watch what they do with it. Again and again, they take an Old Testament verse about Yahweh and apply it to Jesus.

The Old Testament says	The New Testament applies it to Jesus
Joel 2:32. Everyone who calls on the name of Yahweh will be saved.	Romans 10:9 to 13. Confess that Jesus is Lord, because everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.
Isaiah 40:3. Prepare the way for Yahweh.	Mark 1:2 to 3. John the Baptist prepares the way for Jesus.
Isaiah 45:23. To Me every knee will bow and every tongue will swear.	Philippians 2:10 to 11. At the name of Jesus every knee will bow, and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

In Isaiah 45, the One speaking is Yahweh, and He says there is no other God. Paul takes those exact words and gives them to Jesus. That's not an accident. That's the point.

Jesus did it too. In John 8:58, He says, Before Abraham was born, I am. Remember the burning bush? The crowd did. They picked up stones.

And in John 20:28, when Thomas finally sees the risen Jesus, he doesn't say, nice trick. He says, My Lord and my God.

So when you read Lord in the New Testament, pay attention. Sometimes it just means sir. Sometimes it means a whole lot more. Our notes will flag the big ones.

Not everyone reads these verses the same way. Jewish readers, Jehovah's Witnesses, Oneness Pentecostals and others understand them differently, and the Big Question page on Is Jesus God? in the Gospel of John lays out every view fairly. But this is where the trail leads. The God who told Moses His name is the God who walked out of the tomb.

HOW TO USE THIS BIBLE

The Owner's Manual for The Owner's Manual

Read This First. Seriously.

Nobody reads the owner's manual. That is how people end up with a bookshelf built upside down and three screws left over.

This Bible is full of colors, red letters, brackets and little notes. Every one of them means something. If you skip this section, it will look like a coloring book exploded.

Give me five minutes. By the end, you will know what every color means, how to find a prophecy and where it was fulfilled, and how to check our work. No Bible college required. I didn't finish it either.

Idiot Proof: The Three Things You Must Know

In a hurry? Learn these three and you can start reading today.

1. Colors mean something. A highlighted verse is not decoration. Lime green means a prophecy about Jesus. Blue means the end times. Every color is explained below, and the bottom of each page shows only the colors used on that page.
2. Red letters mean God is talking. In the Old Testament the label says GOD SPEAKING. In the New Testament it says JESUS SPEAKING. When the coming Messiah speaks in the Old Testament, it says MESSIAH SPEAKING. When a prophet or anyone else quotes what God said, God's words are red too.
3. Brackets mean "not in the oldest copies." Words in [square brackets] are missing from the earliest handwritten copies we have. We kept them so you can see them, and we told you so you can decide.

That's it. Everything else in this section just makes you better at those three.

Here is every part of a page, top to bottom. In the printed Bible, this section shows a real page from Isaiah with a line pointing to each part.

What you see	What it means
Header bar	The book and chapters on this page. It says The Owner's Manual so you never forget what you're holding.
Chapter summary	A short, funny recap at the start of each chapter. Read it first so you know what's coming.
Highlighted verse	A verse in one of our colors. The color tells you its category.
Note under the verse	Explains why the verse is colored. A prophecy note says where it was fulfilled. A fulfillment note says FULFILLS and points back to the prophecy.
Red letters	Words spoken by God, by Jesus, or by the Messiah in the Old Testament, and God's words when someone else quotes Him.
Red underline	A name in the family line of Jesus. We underline the name, not the whole verse.
Italics	Old Testament words quoted in the New Testament. Both the quote and the verse it came from are italic.

[Square brackets]	Words not found in the oldest copies.
FIELD NOTES pointer	Sends you to a Field Notes box about a real find, like a stone, a scroll or a city.
Shaded study note box	A longer note right after its verse: a Big Question, Field Notes or From History. Its background color tells you what kind of note it is. See Study Note Colors.
Split note	A note saying this verse also fits another color, and why the color you see won.

If you forget what a color means, look down. The answer is at the bottom of the page you are already on.

The Color Key

There are two families of colors. Prophecy colors show predictions and where they were fulfilled. Reference colors show everything else worth noticing. A light, pastel color means a foreshadow. Before you meet the colors, you need to know what that is.

WHAT'S A FORESHADOW?

A prophecy says it straight. A foreshadow doesn't spell it out. It's a picture that points ahead.

Some people would call a foreshadow a vague prophecy. Fair enough. It is softer evidence than a prediction with names and places. That's exactly why foreshadows get the lighter, pastel colors. We would rather undersell than oversell.

Here's the best example in the whole Bible: the lamb with no blemish.

The picture starts early. In Genesis 4:4, Abel brings the firstborn of his flock, the best he had, and God accepts it. After the flood, Noah offers clean animals on the altar in Genesis 8:20. In Genesis 22:8, Abraham tells his son Isaac that God Himself will provide the lamb. None of those use the words "no blemish" yet. They just set the table.

Then God makes it a rule, and He repeats it over and over:

- Exodus 12:5. The Passover lamb must be a year old male with no blemish. Its blood on the doorframe makes death pass over the house.
- Leviticus 1:10. A burnt offering from the flock must be a male with no defect.
- Leviticus 3:6 to 7. A lamb for a peace offering must have no defect.
- Leviticus 4:32. A lamb for a sin offering must be a female with no defect.
- Leviticus 9:3. A year old lamb with no blemish on the day the priests start their work.
- Leviticus 14:10. Two male lambs and a female lamb with no defect when a person healed of a skin disease is declared clean.
- Leviticus 22:19 to 21. Any animal with a defect will not be accepted. Period.
- Leviticus 23:12. A lamb with no defect on the day of First Fruits.
- Leviticus 23:18. Seven lambs with no defect at the Feast of Weeks, later called Pentecost.
- Numbers 6:14. Lambs with no defect when a Nazirite finishes his vow.
- Numbers 28:3 to 4. Two lambs with no defect every single day, one in the morning and one at twilight.
- Numbers 28 and 29. More lambs with no defect every Sabbath, every new moon and every feast of the year.
- Deuteronomy 17:1. Never sacrifice an animal with a defect.
- Ezekiel 46:4 to 13. Ezekiel's vision of a future temple still has lambs with no blemish.

- Malachi 1:8. God scolds the priests for offering blind, lame and sick animals. Try giving that to your governor, He says.

That's hundreds of years of the same instruction. The best lamb. No blemish. Blood that covers. Nobody in those chapters says the name Jesus.

WHY A LAMB WAS A BIG DEAL

To us, a lamb is something at the petting zoo. To Abraham, a lamb was money.

There was no cash back then. Coins weren't invented until the late 600s BC, long after Abraham, in a kingdom called Lydia in what is now Turkey. Gold and silver did exist and they did matter. Genesis 13:2 says Abraham was rich in livestock, silver and gold. In Genesis 23, he buys a burial field by weighing out 400 shekels of silver. A shekel was a weight, not a coin. You didn't bring a wallet. You brought a scale.

But for a herdsman, the herd was the bank account. Your flock fed you, clothed you, and kept growing. Silver just sat in a bag. A healthy ewe made more sheep. Even the English word pecuniary, which means having to do with money, comes from the Latin word for cattle.

There was no 30 year mortgage either. People did borrow, and the laws of Hammurabi, written around 1750 BC, set rules for debts. But if you couldn't pay, you didn't get a late fee. You could lose your land. Your kids could be taken to work off the debt. So could you. Land didn't quietly build your wealth the way a house does today. Your animals did.

So when God said to bring your best lamb, the one with no blemish, He wasn't asking for a tip. He was asking for the best thing you owned.

THINK OF IT THIS WAY

Meet Bill. Bill collects cars. His garage has a Lamborghini, two Ferraris, a couple of Porsches, and a Tesla he drives to the grocery store. But his baby is the McLaren. He washes it by hand. Nobody else is allowed to touch it.

Now God shows up and says, "Bill, you sinned. Sin costs something. And I want to see that you love Me more than your stuff. Take the McLaren. Not the Tesla. Not the Porsche with the door ding. The McLaren. Drive it to the edge of the Grand Canyon, set the cruise control, jump out, and watch it go over."

That is what a lamb with no blemish meant. Not your leftovers. Not the sick one. The one that hurts to give up. That's why God was so angry in Malachi 1:8 when people brought blind and lame animals. That's like Bill driving his rusted out riding mower off the cliff and calling it worship.

And here's the catch. Bill has to do it again next year. And the year after that. Every morning and every evening, a lamb went on the altar, because animal blood could never finish the job. Hebrews 10:4 says it straight: it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Then the New Testament shows up. Isaiah 53:7 had already said the Servant would be led like a lamb to the slaughter. In John 1:29, John the Baptist sees Jesus coming and says, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" In 1 Corinthians 5:7, Paul calls Him our Passover lamb. In Hebrews 9:14, He offers Himself to God without blemish. In 1 Peter 1:19, Peter says we were bought with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or spot. Jesus dies at Passover. And Revelation calls Him the Lamb more than 25 times.

THEN GOD TOOK HIS TURN

Remember Abraham? In Genesis 22:2, God told him to take his son, his only son, the son he loved, up a mountain and offer him. Abraham went. At the last second, God stopped him and provided a ram instead.

God never let Abraham go through with it. Roughly two thousand years later, on a hill in that same region, God went through with it Himself.

He didn't send His best lamb. He sent His one and only Son. If a lamb was your McLaren, this was God giving up the one thing He had only one of. John 3:16 says God so loved the world that He gave Him.

And this sacrifice was one and done. Hebrews 10:10 says we are made holy through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ, once for all. No more lambs. No more cliffs. The real Lamb finally showed up, so the previews could stop.

So here's the deal God offers. Romans 6:23 says the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. A wage is something you earn. A gift is something you accept. Ephesians 2:8 to 9 says you are saved by grace through faith, not by your own works, so nobody gets to brag.

You can't pay for this one. You don't own a car nice enough. All that's left to do is say yes.

One lamb is a coincidence. A lamb from Genesis to Revelation is a pattern. That's a foreshadow. It's never spelled out in black and white, but it repeats until it's hard to miss.

PROPHECY COLORS

Lime Green: Jesus Fulfilled It. A prophecy about the Messiah that Jesus fulfilled. Isaiah 53:3 calls Him a man of sorrows, and Mark 14:33 to 34 shows it in Gethsemane. Written centuries early, with details. Try getting your weatherman to do that for next Tuesday.

Pastel Green: The Trailer. A foreshadow of Jesus, like the Passover lamb. It's the movie trailer. You don't get the whole plot, but when the movie comes out, you go, "Oh, that's what that was."

Orange: Called It. A prophecy about something besides the Messiah, fulfilled later inside the Bible. A king, a city, a nation. God called it, it happened, and the Bible kept the receipts.

Pastel Orange: History Rhymes. A foreshadow about something besides the Messiah. A pattern that shows up early and repeats later. History rhymes, and God writes the rhymes.

Purple: The Historians Agree. A prophecy that was fulfilled outside the Bible, in recorded history. The people who wrote it down usually weren't trying to help us out, which makes it even better.

Pastel Purple: Between the Testaments. A prophecy fulfilled in the books between the Testaments, mostly 1 and 2 Maccabees. Spoiler: Antiochus does not get a happy ending.

Blue: Not Yet. The end times, still waiting to be fulfilled, like Philippians 2:10 to 11 where every knee will bow. This is the only color where you're still waiting. Keep your lamp trimmed.

REFERENCE COLORS

Pink: The Heart. Motives, intentions, and what you did with what you knew, like Romans 10:9 to 10, believe in your heart. God doesn't grade on outfits or church attendance. He reads the heart. This is the color that will convict you at 2 a.m.

Sand: Dig It. Archaeology, something real that was dug up. Romans 16:23 names Erastus, and a stone in Corinth names an Erastus too. Many think it's the same man. Hard to call the Bible a fairy tale when a shovel keeps finding its people.

Teal: The Supernatural. Miracles, angels and things that break physics, like 1 Peter 1:12, things even angels long to look into. Walking on water, a talking donkey, angels with swords. If you think the Bible is boring, you haven't hit Teal yet.

Gray: The Dark Side. Demons, deliverance, idols, witchcraft, the occult, giants and curses. The page chip says DEMONIC. Romans 11:4 remembers the people who refused to bow to Baal. Yes, your horoscope app is in this category. We color it so you know what you're looking at, not so you can try it at home.

Yellow: The Greatest Hits. Famous passages and favorite sermon texts, like Philippians 4:11 to 13, the secret of being content. If your pastor has preached it three times this year, it's probably Yellow.

NOT COLORS, BUT STILL IMPORTANT

Red letters: God talking. God, Jesus or the Messiah speaking, and God's words when anyone quotes Him, already printed for you. When the red starts, put the phone down.

Red underline: The family tree. A name in the family line of Jesus. It includes a prostitute, a foreigner, an adulterer and a few men who really should have known better. God works with what He's got. That should encourage you.

[Square brackets]: Timeout corner. Words missing from the oldest copies. We didn't delete them. We just put them in the timeout corner so you can decide.

Italics*: Jesus Quoting His Bible. When the New Testament quotes the Old Testament, the quoted words are printed in italics, like Matthew 4:4 quoting Deuteronomy 8:3. The Old Testament verse it came from is in italics too. Italics mean the actual words are quoted, or very close. When the New Testament only refers to an Old Testament story without quoting it, like Jude 5 pointing back to Numbers 14, there are no italics, just a note that says ALLUDES TO. Italics are not a color, so they can sit right on top of one. A prophecy that Jesus quotes stays lime green and turns italic. Jesus didn't have chapter and verse numbers. Those came over a thousand years later. He just knew it.

There is no color for "verses Nate likes." Every colored verse earned its spot, and its note tells you why.

Study Note Colors

The highlights tell you what a verse is about. The study notes have colors too, so you know what kind of note you're about to read before you read a word.

The longer notes sit in a shaded box right after the verse they explain. That means the Big Questions, the Field Notes and the From History boxes. Each box has a light background color. These colors are not the highlight colors, and they mean different things. You don't need to memorize them. The table is here when you want it.

Box color	What the note is about	For example
Red	Christians or scholars disagree. Every side gets its best case.	The rapture, speaking in tongues, who wrote a book, how big the Flood was
Green	Prophecy, and anything about Jesus: what He did and who He is	How a prophecy came true, who Jesus says He is
Blue	Background: customs, places, people and how things worked	Why a book has so many names, how the temple worked
Gray	Demons, idols, the occult and spiritual warfare	False gods like Baal, evil spirits, curses
Yellow	Life lessons: how to live it out	Prayer, faith in hard times, how to treat people
Purple	From History: the exact words of ancient writers outside the Bible	Josephus on James, the brother of Jesus, a Roman governor's letter about Christians

Sand	Field Notes: a real find you can go and see, with a photo	The Cyrus Cylinder, the Pilate Stone

Red wins. If a note fits two colors and people disagree about it, the box is red. Think of red as a warning light, not a stop sign. It means slow down: good Christians land in different places here, and you'll see every view laid out fairly. A red box also has a small DEBATED tag at the top, so you can spot it even in a black and white copy.

The biggest finds get a whole page. A few Field Notes are so important that they get a full page of their own, with a bigger photo and more of the story.

The Rules of the Road

Some verses fit two categories. A real highlighter can only do one color, so we made rules. Here they are.

1. One verse, one color. No stripes, no rainbows. If you are highlighting your own copy, this keeps it readable. Italics don't count as a color, so an Old Testament quote can be italic and still wear its one color.
2. Prophecy always wins. If a verse is a prophecy and something else, it gets the prophecy color. Fulfilled predictions are the strongest thing in this Bible, so they get top billing.
3. After prophecy, the order is Pink, Sand, Teal, Gray, then Yellow. The color higher on the list wins. One small exception: Sand beats a prophecy that is not about the Messiah, so a few archaeology verses keep their Sand color.
4. Nothing gets lost. When a verse loses a tie, its note says so. A split note reads something like "This verse also belongs in Teal" and tells you why.
5. We tell you how sure we are. Notes on prophecies and finds carry a rating. HIGH means the evidence is strong. MEDIUM means it is a good case but people disagree. LOW means only some Christians read it that way. We would rather be honest than impressive.

Red Letters

Most red letter Bibles only print Jesus in red, and only in the New Testament. That always bugged me. God was talking long before Matthew.

So in this Bible, red letters run through both testaments.

Label	Where	What it means
GOD SPEAKING	Old Testament	God's own words, like Genesis 1:3, "Let there be light."
JESUS SPEAKING	New Testament	The words of Jesus, the classic red letters.
MESSIAH SPEAKING	Old Testament	The coming Messiah talking before He was born, like the Servant in Isaiah 49, 50 and 61. A note marks where it starts.

Anyone quoting God counts. When a prophet, Moses, a king, the people or the writer of the book repeats what God actually said, God's words turn red. The speaker's own words stay black. In 1 Chronicles 22:8, David tells Solomon what God told him: "You have shed much blood." Those are God's words, so they're red. David's words around them stay black.

What turns red:

- God speaking, in either testament, including the Father's voice from heaven.
- Jesus speaking.
- The Messiah speaking in the Old Testament.

- The angel of Yahweh and the Commander of Yahweh's army. Some think he was an angel God sent, and others think he was God Himself. A note gives both views.
- Anyone quoting what God actually said: a prophet passing on His message, Moses retelling it, a king or the people repeating His promise, or the writer quoting His law.
- God's lines inside a song, a poem or a vision, like "Do not touch My anointed ones!" in 1 Chronicles 16:22. Only His lines turn red, not the whole poem.
- God speaking to an angel, like "Enough! Withdraw your hand now!" in 2 Samuel 24:16.

What stays black:

- The messenger's words, like "This is what Yahweh says" and "declares Yahweh." That's the prophet talking, not God.
- A prophet's own words after God's message ends.
- A verse that only tells you God or an angel spoke, without quoting the words.
- Anyone claiming God said something the Bible never records, false prophets, lying spirits and the dead. When Samuel speaks at Endor in 1 Samuel 28, it stays black.

Red letters are already printed. If you have the blank edition, you never need to mark them.

Brackets and Footnotes

In this Bible, square brackets mean one thing: these words are not in the oldest copies.

Watch out if you came from another Bible. Some study Bibles use brackets for extra explanation. Others use them for cross references. Ours don't. If you see [brackets] in the Bible text, it means the earliest handwritten copies we have do not include those words.

Why keep them at all? Because many Christians grew up with these verses, and some of them have been read in church for over a thousand years. Cutting them would hide the question. Brackets show you the question and let you decide.

You'll see brackets around a few famous passages, like the ending of Mark and the woman caught in adultery in John 8. A TEXT note explains what the oldest copies say. We never say "the best manuscripts" or tell you what to think. We just tell you what is there.

Smaller differences between copies don't get brackets. They get a short TEXT note under the verse instead.

If brackets ever mean something different in a special spot, a note right there will tell you.

Try It: The Prophecy You Probably Skipped

Let's walk through one together. Turn to Isaiah 53.

Most people read right past this chapter. It sounds like old poetry about somebody sad. Now look at the page. Verse after verse is lime green. That means prophecy about the Messiah.

Step 1. Read the verse. Isaiah 53:3 says He was despised and rejected, a man of sorrows, familiar with grief.

Step 2. Read the note under it. The note names where this was fulfilled, with short references like Mk 14:33.

Step 3. Follow it. Turn to Mark 14:33 to 34. Jesus is in the garden of Gethsemane, deeply distressed, telling His friends His soul is overwhelmed with sorrow. That verse is lime green too. Its note says FULFILLS and points back to Isaiah 53.

Step 4. Do it again. Isaiah 53:7 says He was led like a lamb and did not open His mouth. Its note sends you to 1 Peter 2:23, where Peter says Jesus did not threaten back when He suffered.

Here's the part that should give you chills. Isaiah lived about 700 years before Jesus. And we are not just trusting that date. A complete copy of Isaiah, the Great Isaiah Scroll, was found with the Dead Sea Scrolls. It was copied around 125 BC. Isaiah 53 is in it, written down before Jesus was born.

That is how every prophecy in this Bible works. The prophecy points forward. The fulfillment points back. You can walk it in either direction.

Try It: Jesus Quoting His Bible

Jesus quoted the Old Testament all the time. Most readers never notice, because nothing in a normal Bible tells them. In this one, italics tell them.

Turn to Matthew 4. Jesus has gone 40 days without food, and the devil shows up to tempt Him three times. Jesus answers all three with Scripture.

1. "Man shall not live on bread alone." That's Deuteronomy 8:3.
2. "Do not put the Lord your God to the test." That's Deuteronomy 6:16.
3. "Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only." That's Deuteronomy 6:13.

Each answer is printed in italics, and so is the verse in Deuteronomy it came from. Flip back and read them in their home chapters. Moses was talking to Israel after 40 years in the wilderness, where they failed the same tests. Jesus walks into His own wilderness and passes every one. You only see that if you know He is quoting.

Now try Matthew 27:46. On the cross Jesus cries, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" That's Psalm 22:1. This verse is italic, because Jesus is quoting. It is also lime green, because Psalm 22 does not just get quoted. It describes the crucifixion, and the rest of the psalm keeps lining up, right down to the soldiers gambling for His clothes in verse 18.

One verse, two signals: the color says prophecy, and the italics say quote. So when you see italics, ask one question. Where did this come from? Then go read the original. It usually changes what the verse means.

Everything Else You'll Run Into

Colors are the big thing, but they're not the only thing. Here's the rest of the toolbox.

Feature	Where you'll find it	What it does
Testament Introductions	Before Genesis and before Matthew	The big picture of each testament, plus why we say Yahweh
Book Introductions	The first pages of every book	Who wrote it, when, what was going wrong, and the cool stuff to watch for
Chapter Summaries	Top of every chapter	A short, funny recap so you know where you are
The Big Question	A colored box right after the passage	The questions readers ask, like tongues, the rapture or baptism. When Christians disagree, the box is red, and every view gets its best case and its key verses. We don't pick a winner for you.

From History	A purple box right after the verse it backs up	The exact words of ancient writers outside the Bible, like Josephus or Tacitus, and then what they tell us
Notes	Under highlighted verses	Why the verse is colored, where a prophecy was fulfilled, and what the oldest copies say

The Big Questions matter most to me. Good Christians land in different places on some things. You deserve to see every side laid out fairly, then make up your own mind. That's what a Berean does.

The Highlighting Guides

This Bible comes two ways. The highlighted edition has every color already printed. The blank edition leaves the colors to you. Either way, the two free guides are your map.

The two guides are free PDFs at bibletechsupport.com:

- The Complete Prophecy Database. More than 1,000 prophecies, each with its color, where it was fulfilled, and how sure we are.
- The Bible Reference Index. About 2,000 more highlights: The Heart, archaeology, miracles, the demonic, the Old Testament quoted in the New, and notable passages.

Each guide opens with the full color legend, the rules, and a breakdown of every category. Every row is shaded in its own color, so you can match your highlighter to the page. When a verse fits two categories, a split note sits right under it and tells you which color wins.

HIGHLIGHTING YOUR OWN COPY

1. Get the right highlighters. Bible paper is thin, and wet highlighters bleed through. Use dry or gel highlighters made for Bibles.
2. Test first. Try each color on a blank page in the back before you touch Genesis.
3. Go one book at a time. Open the guide to that book, work top to bottom, and check off what you finish.
4. Do prophecy first. Prophecy wins every tie, so color those verses before anything else. Then follow the guide for the rest.
5. One verse, one color. If the guide gives a verse a split note, use the color it says wins.
6. Using another Bible? Quotes get Dark Green. TOM already prints Old Testament quotes in italics, so you can skip them here. If you are using the guides in another Bible, mark quotes with a dark green highlighter and a light touch. If the verse is in red letters, underline it in green instead, so it doesn't end up looking like a Christmas ornament.
7. Underline, don't highlight, the family line of Jesus. Use a thin red pen under the name only.

What you never have to do: red letters, italics and brackets are already printed. Your job is just the colors.

Take your time. Highlighting the whole Bible is a project, not a weekend. But by the end, you will know your way around this book better than most people who've owned one for 30 years.

Your Turn

In 2 Timothy 2:15, Paul told Timothy, "Be diligent... rightly dividing the word of truth." That's the whole point of this Bible. Not to make you a scholar. To make you a workman who knows how to use his tools.

You now know the tools. Colors mean something. Red letters mean God is talking. Brackets mean not in the oldest copies. Notes point forward and back. Every claim we make, you can check.

And please do check. In Acts 17:11, the Bereans heard the apostle Paul preach and then went home to see if he was right. Luke calls them noble for it. If they could fact check Paul, you can fact check me.

Every change we made to the Bible text is listed in our change log. Scan the QR code on the copyright page to see it. Find a mistake? Tell us at bibletechsupport.com. We'll fix it and thank you.

Now close this manual and open the book it was written for. Start anywhere. Genesis is a good beginning, John is a great one. Just start.

BOOKS 1 TO 39 · 39 BOOKS · WRITTEN IN HEBREW

THE OLD TESTAMENT

The promise made

BOOKS	39 books: 5 books of Moses, 12 books of history, 5 books of poetry and wisdom, and 17 books of prophecy.
WRITTEN	Over about a thousand years, from the time of Moses to the prophet Malachi around 430 BC, by the traditional count.
LANGUAGE	Mostly Hebrew. A few chapters of Ezra and Daniel and one verse of Jeremiah are in Aramaic, a sister language.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	The Dead Sea Scrolls, found from 1947 to 1956, hold pieces of every Old Testament book except Esther. They are about a thousand years older than the copies scholars had before.
EARLIEST MANUSCRIPT	Two tiny silver scrolls from Ketef Hinnom in Jerusalem, from about 600 BC. They hold the priestly blessing from Numbers 6:24 to 26, Yahweh bless you and keep you, and they spell out God's name YHWH.
THE LIST OF 39	Jesus called these Scriptures the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms in Luke 24:44. Jewish Bibles have the same books but count them as 24 by grouping some together.

What Does Testament Mean

Testament is an old word for covenant, a binding promise. The Old Testament is the story of God's covenants: with Noah, with Abraham, with Israel at Mount Sinai and with King David. Each one moves the story forward, and each one points to the new covenant Jesus would bring.

One Big Story

Thirty nine books look like a library, but they tell one story. God makes a good world, and people break it. God picks one family, Abraham's, to bring the fix. He rescues them from Egypt, gives them His law and a land, and sends prophet after prophet every time they wander off. The Old Testament ends with the people waiting for the Messiah. The New Testament opens with His arrival.

Not in Time Order

English Bibles group the books by type, not by date. Job may be one of the oldest stories in the Bible, and many of the prophets lived during the events in Kings and Chronicles. When a prophet's book confuses you, look up which king was on the throne. The last three pages of this Introduction explain the order and show every book on a timeline.

How It Is Organized

THE LAW	Genesis to Deuteronomy. The five books of Moses: creation, the fathers of Israel, the escape from Egypt and the law.
HISTORY	Joshua to Esther. Israel enters the land, gets kings, splits in two, goes into exile and comes home.
POETRY AND WISDOM	Job to Song of Solomon. Songs, prayers and wise sayings for real life.
MAJOR PROPHETS	Isaiah to Daniel. Five longer books. Major means long, not more important.

MINOR PROPHETS Hosea to Malachi. Twelve shorter books. Minor means short, not less important.

Why We Say Yahweh

God told Moses His personal name in Exodus 3:15. In Hebrew it is spelled YHWH, and it shows up about 6,800 times in the Old Testament. Out of respect, Jewish readers stopped saying it out loud and said Lord instead, so most English Bibles print LORD in capital letters. The Owner's Manual puts His name back. Where you see Yahweh, the Hebrew says YHWH. Where you see Lord, the Hebrew usually says Adonai, which means master. Where you see God, the Hebrew usually says Elohim, the mighty Creator.

How This Bible Marks the Old Testament

PROPHECY. Prophecies are highlighted in green, orange, purple or blue, depending on how they came true. The note at the bottom of the column tells you where.
QUOTED IN THE NEW. When the New Testament quotes an Old Testament verse, that verse is printed in italics, and the note tells you where it is quoted. When the New Testament only points back to a verse without quoting it, the verse gets a note but no italics.
GOD SPEAKING. Words spoken by God are printed in red. Only the words He actually said are red.
THE FAMILY LINE. Names in the bloodline of Jesus are underlined in red, from Adam and Eve all the way to Judah and Perez.

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS

Cave 4 at Qumran, near the Dead Sea, where most of the scroll pieces were found.

FOUND BY A SHEPHERD
In late 1946 or early 1947 a young Bedouin shepherd named Muhammed edh Dhib was looking for a lost goat near the Dead Sea. He threw a rock into a cave, heard pottery break and found clay jars holding ancient scrolls. From 1947 to 1956 searchers found scrolls in eleven caves near a place called Qumran.

WHAT WAS FOUND
Pieces of about 900 scrolls, many broken into tens of thousands of fragments. About 230 of them are books of the Bible, and every Old Testament book shows up except Esther. The rest are Bible commentaries, community rules and other religious writings, including 1 Enoch.

HOW OLD THEY ARE
The scrolls were copied from about 250 BC to AD 68, the year the Romans destroyed the settlement at Qumran. Scholars dated them by handwriting, radiocarbon tests and coins found at the site.

THE GREAT ISAIAH SCROLL
One scroll holds all 66 chapters of Isaiah. It is about 24 feet long and was copied around 125 BC. Before 1947 the oldest complete Hebrew copies of Isaiah were from about AD 900 to 1000. This scroll is about 1,000 years older, and when scholars compared them the words were nearly identical. Most differences are spelling and small slips of the pen, and none of them change a major teaching of the faith.

WHERE ARE THE VOWELS
Hebrew was written with consonants only. Readers knew the vowel sounds by heart, the way you can read txt msgs. Jewish scribes called the Masoretes added written vowel marks between about AD 600 and 1000. So the scrolls have no vowel marks, but the letters match.

BUT WASN'T THE BIBLE CHANGED?
Skeptics often say the Bible was changed over and over until it no longer says what it first said. The Dead Sea Scrolls let us test that claim, and copies made before Jesus was born read almost the same as the Hebrew Bible we use today. To be fair, some scrolls show small differences, and a few books like Jeremiah existed in a shorter and a longer form. But the big picture is clear: the text was copied with amazing care.

ISAIAH 53 BEFORE JESUS
The Isaiah Scroll includes Isaiah 53, the chapter about a Servant who is pierced for our sins. It was copied more than a hundred years before Jesus was born, so no one can say Christians wrote it after the fact.

WHERE THEY ARE TODAY
Most are kept by the Israel Antiquities Authority. The Great Isaiah Scroll is in the Shrine of the Book at the Israel Museum in Jerusalem, a building shaped like the lids of the jars the scrolls were found in. In 1954 four of the scrolls were offered for sale in a Wall Street Journal ad, and Israel quietly bought them for $250,000.

THE MASORETIC TEXT

The Aleppo Codex open to the Ten Commandments in Deuteronomy, photographed by Joseph Segall around 1910. These pages went missing after 1947, so this old photo is now the only way to see them. Public domain.

WHAT IT IS
The Masoretic Text is the standard Hebrew text of the Old Testament. Jewish Bibles use it today, and so do almost all English Old Testaments, including this one. The name comes from the Hebrew word masorah, which means tradition, the things handed down.

ONE TEXT BEFORE THEM
The Masoretes did not stitch the Bible together. The letters were already settled long before them. By about AD 100, Jewish scribes copied one standard set of letters that scholars call the proto Masoretic text. Many of the Dead Sea Scrolls, and the scrolls found at Masada, already match it.

WHO THE MASORETES WERE
Families of Jewish scribes and scholars who worked from about AD 600 to 1000, mostly in Tiberias, on the Sea of Galilee, and also in Babylonia and Jerusalem.

THE VOWELS
Hebrew was written with consonants only. So the Masoretes added tiny dots and lines above, below and inside the letters to show the vowel sounds. They did not change a single letter. The system from Tiberias, called the Tiberian system, won out and is still used today.

THE ACCENTS
They also added accent marks that show how to chant each verse in the synagogue, which word gets the stress, and where to pause. They work a lot like our commas and periods.

THE NOTES
In the margins, and at the end of each book, they wrote notes called the masorah. They counted the letters, words and verses of each book and marked the middle of the Torah, so a copy could be checked like a bank count. When the written word looked odd, they did not fix it. They left the letters alone and wrote in the margin how to read it.

BEN ASHER
The most famous Masorete was Aaron ben Asher of Tiberias, in the early 900s, the last of a family of Masoretes. A rival named Ben Naphtali disagreed with him in about 875 small places, mostly accent marks. Ben Asher's version won. In the 1100s, the great Jewish teacher Maimonides used a Ben Asher codex, a book with pages instead of a scroll, as his model.

THE ALEPPO CODEX
Copied about AD 920 to 930. A note in the book says Ben Asher himself added its vowels and notes. It was kept in a synagogue in Aleppo, Syria, for about 600 years. In 1947, rioters set the synagogue on fire, and about 40 percent of it, including most of the Torah, went missing. What survived was brought to Israel in 1958 and is kept at the Israel Museum in Jerusalem.

FROM THE MASORETES TO YOUR BIBLE

A decorated page from the Leningrad Codex, AD 1008. The words in the center star name the scribe, Samuel ben Jacob. Public domain.

THE LENINGRAD CODEX
Copied in Cairo in AD 1008 by a scribe named Samuel ben Jacob, from Ben Asher copies. It is the oldest complete Hebrew Bible in the world. It is kept at the National Library of Russia in Saint Petersburg, a city once called Leningrad.

1488
The first complete printed Hebrew Bible came off the press in Soncino, Italy.

1524 TO 1525
The Second Rabbinic Bible, printed by Daniel Bomberg in Venice and edited by Jacob ben Hayyim. It was the Hebrew behind the King James Old Testament of 1611 and the standard printed text for about 400 years.

1906
Rudolf Kittel, a German scholar, published Biblia Hebraica, still based on the Bomberg text.

1937
The third edition of Biblia Hebraica switched to the Leningrad Codex, a copy hundreds of years older than the manuscripts behind Bomberg.

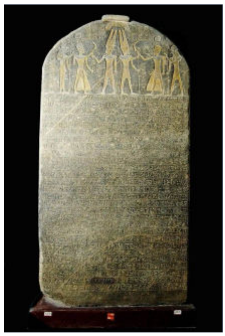
Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia, the edition most scholars and translators use today. Its footnotes list differences found in other old copies and old translations, and fixes scholars have suggested.

2004 TO TODAY
Biblia Hebraica Quinta, still being finished one book at a time. It adds what scholars learned from the Dead Sea Scrolls.



NEW FINDS, SAME TEXT
When older copies like the Dead Sea Scrolls turned up, scholars did not rewrite the Masoretic Text. They printed better and older copies of it and listed the differences in footnotes, so translators can see every reading and decide.

WHY IT MATTERS
The Hebrew you are reading in translation was guarded by scribes who counted letters for a living. Copies made a thousand years apart, like the great Isaiah scroll from the Dead Sea caves and the Leningrad Codex, say almost exactly the same thing. That is not luck. That is care.

THIS BIBLE'S BASE TEXT
The Old Testament in The Owner's Manual is translated from the Masoretic Text, mainly as it is kept in the Leningrad Codex. Once in a while, like most modern Bibles, it follows the Dead Sea Scrolls, the Greek Septuagint or another old copy where the Hebrew seems to have a copying slip. When it does, a TEXT note tells you.

HOW THIS BIBLE WORKS · DATING THE BOOKS · CONFIDENCE: HONEST

WHY DO SOME BOOKS HAVE TWO DATES?

The Merneptah Stele, carved in Egypt about 1208 BC, now in the Egyptian Museum, Cairo. It is the oldest mention of Israel outside the Bible that most scholars accept, already a people living in Canaan. Clues like this help pin down the dates.

TWO DATES, ONE BOOK
In the introduction to almost every Old Testament book, you will see two dates. The first is the traditional date. The second is the date many critical scholars give, and it is usually later. This page explains where each one comes from, so nothing surprises you.

WHAT CRITICAL MEANS
Just like textual criticism, critical does not mean mean. It means judging carefully. Critical scholars study the Bible the way they would study any old book. Some are believers and some are not.

HOW THIS BIBLE DATES A BOOK
First, what the book says about itself. Isaiah 1:1 names the four kings Isaiah served under. Second, what the rest of the Bible says. Jesus called the first five books the Law of Moses, Luke 24:44, and called Daniel a prophet, Matthew 24:15. Third, old Jewish tradition, which tells who wrote or gathered each book. Fourth, history and archaeology, to check all of it.

THE ANCHORS
Some dates are nailed down by records from other nations. An Assyrian monument called the Black Obelisk shows King Jehu of Israel paying tribute around 841 BC. The Assyrian king Sennacherib attacked Judah in 701 BC. Babylonian records say Nebuchadnezzar captured Jerusalem in 597 BC. Counting back from anchors like these, 1 Kings 6:1 puts the Exodus around 1446 BC. Many scholars prefer the 1200s BC, and some doubt it happened the way it is told, so the book intros give both.

WHY CRITICS DATE LATER: 1, NO PREDICTIONS
This is the biggest reason. Some scholars start with a rule that nobody can really predict the future. But there are other reasons too. Isaiah 40 to 66 talks to people who are already in Babylon, as if Jerusalem has already fallen. Isaiah names King Cyrus about 150 years early, Isaiah 44:28 to 45:1, so many date those chapters to Cyrus's time, around 540 BC. Daniel 11 tells the story of the Greek king Antiochus in great detail, right up to about 165 BC. Then, critics say, the details about his death in verses 40 to 45 no longer match what happened. So they date Daniel to the 160s BC.

2, THE FOUR SOURCES IDEA
In 1878, a German scholar named Julius Wellhausen made famous the idea that Genesis to Deuteronomy was stitched together from four later writings, nicknamed J, E, D and P, and finished around 500 BC, about 900 years after Moses. Today many scholars have dropped the neat four part version, but most still date the final form late.

3, DETAILS THAT SOUND LATER
Genesis 14:14 mentions the city of Dan, but that city got its name later, Judges 18:29. Genesis 36:31 talks about kings before Israel had a king. Deuteronomy 34 tells about Moses' own death and burial.

4, THE LANGUAGE
Hebrew changed over time, the way English did. Ecclesiastes uses later Hebrew and at least one Persian word. Daniel uses Greek words for three musical instruments, Daniel 3:5.

5, THE DIGGING SO FAR
Many archaeologists say they have not found clear signs of Israel's time in the wilderness or of some cities in Joshua being destroyed when the Bible says.

THE TRADITIONAL ANSWERS

The smaller Ketef Hinnom silver scroll, about 600 BC, unrolled. It holds a short form of the priestly blessing from Numbers 6:24 to 26 and the name YHWH. Public domain.

FAIR IS FAIR

Each of those five reasons has an answer, and Christian scholars have given them for a long time. Here they are, in the same order.

THE ANSWER TO 1

If God knows the future, prediction is not a problem. It is the point. God says He declares the end from the beginning, Isaiah 46:9 to 10. For many critics, the no predictions rule is a starting belief, not something anyone discovered. And Jesus Himself called Daniel a prophet.

THE ANSWER TO 2

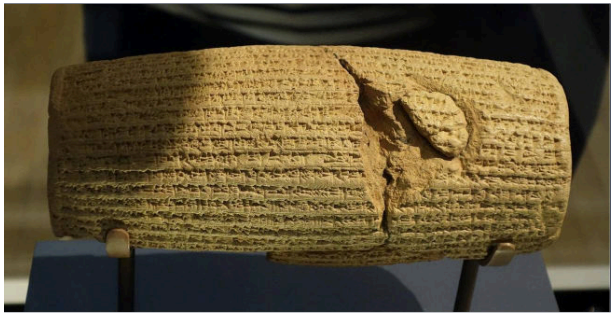
Moses could have used older family records. Genesis is divided by the words This is the account of, which may mark older sources. Even the scholars who hold the four sources idea cannot agree on how to divide it. And the silver scrolls from Ketef Hinnom, about 600 BC, already have a short form of the priestly blessing from Numbers 6:24 to 26. Many critics put that passage in their latest source. They answer that the blessing was older than the book it ended up in. Still, it shows this part of the Law was in use before the exile.

THE ANSWER TO 3

Later scribes updated old place names so readers would know where things were, the same way we might say the Pilgrims landed in the United States, though there was no United States yet. Old Jewish tradition says Joshua wrote the last verses of Deuteronomy, about Moses' death.

THE ANSWER TO 4

Scribes updated spelling and words over the centuries, like the King James Bible was updated in 1769. Greek words for instruments could travel with traders long before Greece ruled the world. Greek soldiers and traders were already in the Near East in Daniel's day. Critics answer that one of those words shows up in Greek only much later.



THE ANSWER TO 5

Not finding something yet is not proof it never happened. People living in tents in the desert leave very little behind. And some finds point the other way. The Merneptah Stele on the first page of this section shows Israel already living in Canaan by about 1208 BC.

SO WHO IS RIGHT

On the small things, like an updated place name, both sides can be partly right. On the big thing, it comes down to one question: can God tell the future? If He can, there is no reason to push the dates later. This Bible believes He can, and the hundreds of fulfilled prophecies highlighted on these pages are the evidence.

THE BIG DATES SIDE BY SIDE

The Cyrus Cylinder, about 539 BC, now in the British Museum. Isaiah names Cyrus in Isaiah 44:28 and 45:1. That name is one of the main reasons many scholars date the end of Isaiah later.

GENESIS TO DEUTERONOMY
Traditional: Moses, about 1440 to 1400 BC, or the 1200s BC with the later Exodus date. Critical: finished around 500 BC. Why: the four sources idea and later sounding details.

JOSHUA TO KINGS
Traditional: written over time by prophets, with Kings finished during the exile in Babylon. Critical: mostly put together around 620 to 560 BC. Both sides agree Kings was finished after 562 BC, because its last verses happen that year, 2 Kings 25:27.

JOB
Traditional: the story is set in Abraham's time, and some say Moses wrote it down. Critical: about 600 to 400 BC. Why: the language and the big questions it asks.

PSALMS
Both sides agree it was collected over hundreds of years. Traditional: many by David, around 1000 BC, with some much later, like Psalm 137 from the exile. Critical: many of David's psalms were written later in his name.

ECCLESIASTES
Traditional: Solomon, about 950 to 930 BC. Critical: about 450 to 250 BC. Why: later Hebrew and a Persian word.

ISAIAH
Traditional: Isaiah, about 740 to 680 BC. Critical: chapters 40 to 66 around 540 BC or later, by followers sometimes called Second Isaiah. Why: Cyrus is named. The New Testament quotes both halves as Isaiah, John 12:38 to 41.

DANIEL
Traditional: Daniel, in the 500s BC. Critical: around 167 to 164 BC. Why: the detailed prophecies about Antiochus in chapter 11. See When Was Daniel Written? in Daniel.

JONAH
Traditional: Jonah lived around 793 to 753 BC, and many Christians believe he wrote it. Critical: written later, maybe 500 to 300 BC. Why: the language and the style of the story.

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS SETTLE THE EDGE
No matter which date you pick, every Old Testament book except Esther was found in the Dead Sea Scrolls, and many of those copies were made before Jesus was born. So the prophecies about Jesus were written down before He came. Even the latest date for Daniel is still more than 150 years before Jesus.

THIS BIBLE'S RULE
Every book intro gives the traditional date first, then the critical view in one honest line. When the date really matters, like Daniel, there is a Big Question page that lays out both sides.

WHAT EVERYONE AGREES ON
These books are ancient. They were copied with great care. And the Old Testament we read today is the same one Jesus read and quoted.

HOW THE BOOKS ARE ARRANGED

WHY THE BOOKS ARE NOT IN TIME ORDER

SORTED LIKE A LIBRARY
A library puts books on shelves by type, not by the year they were written. The Old Testament does the same. It has five shelves: the Law, History, Poetry and Wisdom, the Major Prophets and the Minor Prophets. The books on each shelf are mostly in time order, but the shelves overlap each other.

MAJOR AND MINOR
The only difference is length. Isaiah has 66 chapters, and Obadiah has one. Around AD 420 Augustine wrote that the short ones are called minor because their books are short, not because they matter less. A minor prophet still spoke for God.

THE TWELVE
In Jewish Bibles the twelve minor prophets are one book, called The Twelve, because all of them fit on one scroll.

WHY A PERFECT ORDER IS IMPOSSIBLE
Many books happen at the same time. Kings and Chronicles tell the same years twice. Isaiah, Hosea, Amos and Micah all preached during the years of 2 Kings 14 to 20. Jeremiah watched Jerusalem fall in 2 Kings 25. Ezra, Nehemiah, Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi all belong to the return from Babylon. The Psalms were written over hundreds of years. And some books never tell us when they happened, like Job and Joel. So no list can put every book in one perfect line. The next two pages show where they overlap.

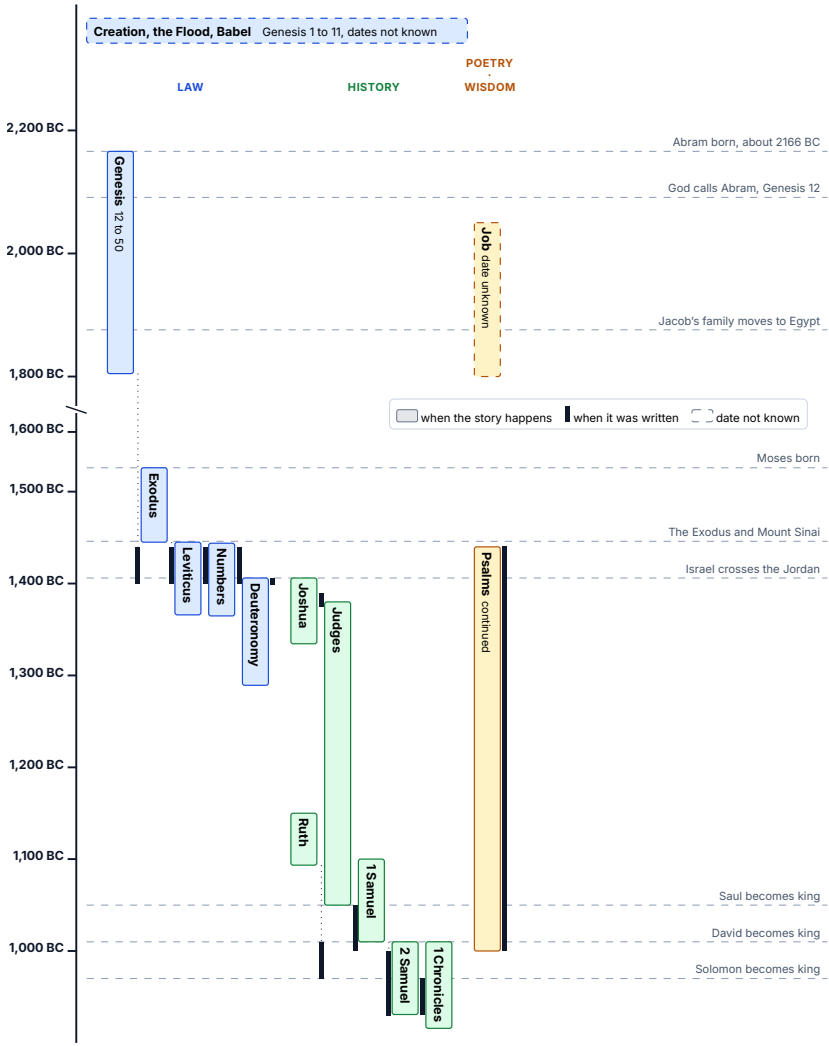
THE TANAKH
The Jewish Bible is called the Tanakh. The name is built from the first letters of its three parts: T for Torah (teaching or instruction, usually called the Law); N for Nevi'im (prophets); and K for Ketuvim (writings). The vowels are added so you can say it.

SAME BOOKS, DIFFERENT COUNT
The Tanakh has the same books as our Old Testament, but it counts 24, not 39. Samuel, Kings and Chronicles are one book each, Ezra and Nehemiah are one book, and The Twelve is one book. Daniel sits with the Writings, not the Prophets. And most Jewish Bibles end with Chronicles, where King Cyrus tells the Jews they can go home and rebuild the temple.

TORAH (THE LAW), 5 BOOKS
Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy.

NEVI'IM (THE PROPHETS), 8 BOOKS
Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, The Twelve. The first four are called the Former Prophets, because Jews believed prophets wrote Israel's history.

KETUVIM (THE WRITINGS), 11 BOOKS
Psalms, Proverbs, Job, Song of Songs, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes, Esther, Daniel, Ezra and Nehemiah, Chronicles.



JESUS KNEW THE THREE PARTS
Jesus named the three parts in Luke 24:44: the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms, usually the first book of the Writings. In Matthew 23:35 He spoke of the blood of the prophets from Abel to Zechariah. Abel is killed in Genesis, and a Zechariah is stoned in 2 Chronicles 24:20 to 21. Many scholars think Jesus meant from the first page to the last page of His Bible.

WHY OURS ENDS WITH MALACHI
Our order comes from the old Latin Bible, which put the prophets last and ended them with Malachi. Catholic Bibles add 1 and 2 Maccabees after it. So our Old Testament closes with Malachi's promise that God will send Elijah before the great day of the Lord, Malachi 4:5. Turn the page, and Matthew opens with John the Baptist, who came in the spirit of Elijah, Luke 1:17.

The Old Testament in Time Order

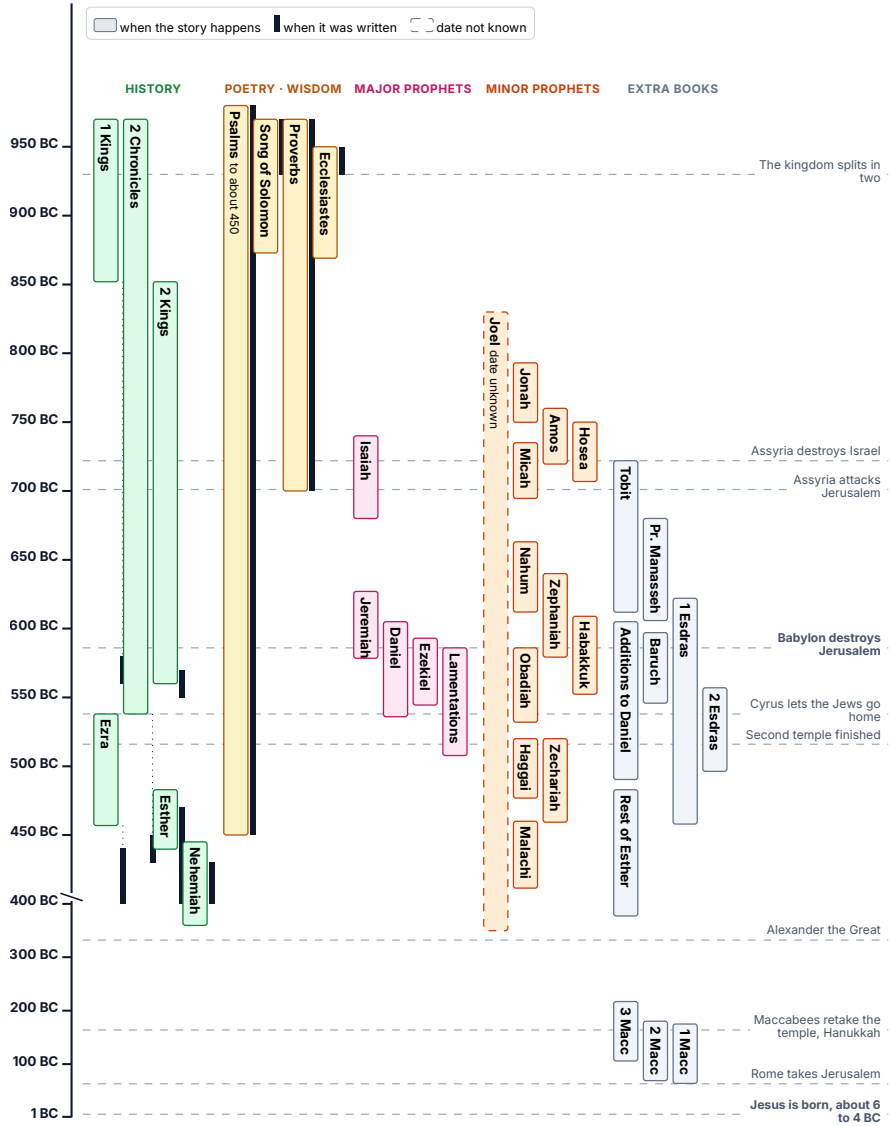
From creation to King David

HOW TO READ IT Time runs down the page, oldest at the top. A colored bar shows when a book's story happens. The thin dark bar beside it shows when the book was written, by the traditional dates this Bible uses.

WHY CREATION HAS NO DATE The Bible does not give a year for creation, and its family trees may skip generations. Older Bibles printed 4004 BC, Archbishop Ussher's 1650 guess.

JOB Job's story fits the days of the patriarchs, but no one knows when it happened or when it was written.

EARLY OR LATE? These pages use the early date for the Exodus, about 1446 BC, from 1 Kings 6:1. Many scholars date it in the 1200s BC. See Why Do Some Books Have Two Dates? in this Introduction.



CHRONICLES 1 Chronicles retells David's years, with family trees back to Adam. It was written much later, about 450 BC, so its dark bar is on the next page.

Dates are approximate. The second page runs from Solomon to Malachi and the extra books.

From King Solomon to Malachi, and the 400 quiet years

THE PROPHETS LIVED IN KINGS Most of the prophets preached during the years told in 1 and 2 Kings. Isaiah, Hosea, Amos and Micah all spoke while Assyria was rising. Jeremiah watched Jerusalem fall.

JOEL AND OBADIAH Neither book names a king. Joel has been dated anywhere from about 830 to 350 BC. Most date Obadiah soon after 586 BC; some say about 845 BC.

PROPHETS WROTE AS THEY PREACHED For the prophets, the book was written in the same years as its story, so they have no separate dark bar.

THE EXTRA BOOKS Gray bars show where the stories of the extra books are set. Judith is left off because its story does not fit any real time. See About the Apocrypha, right after Malachi.

Dates are approximate. Below the zigzag the scale is squeezed, because the Old Testament books end about 430 BC.

BOOK 1 OF 66 · OLD TESTAMENT · BOOKS OF MOSES

GENESIS

In the beginning, God

AUTHOR	Moses, according to Jewish and Christian tradition. Jesus called these books the Law of Moses Luke 24:44. Many modern scholars think Genesis was put together from older sources over time.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	From the creation of the world to the death of Joseph in Egypt. Abraham lived about 2000 BC, give or take a couple hundred years.
DATE WRITTEN	Traditionally about 1440 to 1400 BC, while Israel wandered in the wilderness. Many scholars say it reached its final form much later, around 500 BC.
WRITTEN TO	The people of Israel, freed from Egypt and headed for the Promised Land. Genesis tells them who God is, who they are and why they are going there.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	About twenty copies of Genesis were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls. It was also translated into Greek, in the Septuagint, around 250 BC.
KEY VERSE	Genesis 12:3. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you.

ONE OF THE OLDEST PIECES OF GENESIS
This fragment is called 4QGen g, which means Genesis copy g from Cave 4 at Qumran. It was found with the Dead Sea Scrolls and holds parts of Genesis 1:1 to 2:7, the creation story. Experts date it by its handwriting to somewhere between about 150 and 37 BC. 4Q1, a copy of Genesis and Exodus from about 125 to 100 BC, may be a little older. But this one gives us the very first page of the Bible, copied over a hundred years before Jesus was born. It is kept in Jerusalem.

Historical Setting

Genesis covers more time than the rest of the Bible put together. Chapters 1 to 11 happen before any history book was written. Chapters 12 to 50 happen in the world of the first great civilizations. In Mesopotamia, which is modern Iraq, cities like Ur had temples, schools and writing. In Egypt the great pyramids were already hundreds of years old when Abraham visited. Canaan, the land God promised, sat between those two superpowers.

What Was Going Wrong

SIN BREAKS IN. Adam and Eve believe the serpent instead of God, and death enters the world 3:6.
VIOLENCE EVERYWHERE. By Noah's day the earth was filled with violence, and every thought was evil 6:5, 6:11.
PRIDE AT BABEL. People tried to make a name for themselves instead of honoring God 11:4.
LIES TO SAVE THEIR SKIN. Abraham and Isaac both lied about their wives, and Jacob lied to his blind father 12:13, 26:7, 27:19.
FAVORITE CHILDREN. Isaac loved Esau, Rebekah loved Jacob, Jacob loved Joseph most, and it tore the family apart 25:28, 37:3.
IDOLS IN THE HOUSE. Rachel stole her father's household gods, and Jacob's family had to bury their idols 31:19, 35:2 to 4.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Genesis means beginnings. It tells how everything started: the world, people, marriage, sin, death, nations and languages. It also tells how God started fixing what went wrong. After the flood and the tower of Babel, God picks one man, Abraham, and promises that through his family He will bless the whole world. The rest of the book follows that family for four generations: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph. They lie, fight, scheme and play favorites, and God keeps His promise anyway. The book ends with the family safe in Egypt, waiting for God to bring them home.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

THE FIRST REAL ESTATE CLOSING
In chapter 23 Abraham buys a burial cave for about 10 pounds of silver, with witnesses at the city gate. It is the first land deal in the Bible. Tradition says the Cave of the Patriarchs in Hebron marks the spot.

THE FIRST GOSPEL
Bible teachers call Genesis 3:15 the first gospel. Just minutes after the first sin, God promises a Son of the woman who will crush the serpent.

THE YOUNGER BROTHER WINS
Abel over Cain, Isaac over Ishmael, Jacob over Esau, Joseph over his brothers, Ephraim over Manasseh. God keeps picking the one nobody expected.

GOD SAYS NO TO CHILD SACRIFICE
Nations around Abraham sacrificed children to their gods. In Genesis 22 God stops Abraham's hand and provides a ram instead, and His law later calls child sacrifice detestable Leviticus 18:21. The ram in Isaac's place points to Jesus, the Lamb of God.

Did Anybody Listen?

Genesis ends with Joseph in a coffin in Egypt. But he trusted God and made his family promise to carry his bones home. Centuries later Moses did Exodus 13:19, and Joshua buried him at Shechem Joshua 24:32. God keeps His promises, even when it takes centuries.

MIRACLES NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

God speaks and things appear: light, sky, land, plants, sun, moon, stars, fish, birds and animals. Then He makes people in His own image, which is the highest compliment anyone has ever been paid. Every day ends with God looking at His work and calling it good. Day six gets an upgrade to very good.

THE CREATION // JOHN 1:1–5; HEBREWS 11:1–3

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

2 Now the earth was formless and void, and darkness was over the surface of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.

THE FIRST DAY

3 And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. 4 And God saw that the light was good, and He separated the light from the darkness. 5 God called the light "day," and the darkness He called "night."

And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day.

THE SECOND DAY

6 And God said, "Let there be an expanse between the waters, to separate the waters from the waters." 7 So God made the expanse and separated the waters beneath it from the waters above. And it was so. 8 God called the expanse "sky."

And there was evening, and there was morning—the second day.

THE THIRD DAY

9 And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered into one place, so that the dry land may appear." And it was so. 10 God called the dry land "earth," and the gathering of waters He called "seas." And God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth vegetation: seed-bearing plants and fruit trees, each bearing fruit with seed according to its kind." And it was so. 12 The earth produced vegetation: seed-bearing plants according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

13 And there was evening, and there was morning—the third day.

THE FOURTH DAY

14 And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to distinguish between the day and the night, and let them be signs to mark the seasons and days and years. 15 And let them serve as lights in the expanse of the sky to shine upon the earth." And it was so.

16 God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night. And He made the stars as well.

17 God set these lights in the expanse of the sky to shine upon the earth, 18 to preside over the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

19 And there was evening, and there was morning—the fourth day.

THE FIFTH DAY

20 And God said, "Let the waters teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in the open expanse of the sky." 21 So God created the great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters teemed according to their kinds, and every winged bird after its kind. And God saw that it was good.

22 Then God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters of the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."

23 And there was evening, and there was morning—the fifth day.

THE SIXTH DAY

24 And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds:

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WAS OR BECAME?

The Gap Theory and How Old Everything Is

GENESIS 1:1 TO 2 · ISAIAH 45:18 · JEREMIAH 4:23 · EXODUS 20:11

WHAT 1:2 SAYS

Now the earth was formless and void. The King James says without form, and void. The Hebrew is tohu wa bohu, two rhyming words that mean empty and shapeless. The same pair shows up in Jeremiah 4:23 for a land wrecked by judgment, and again in Isaiah 34:11. Isaiah 45:18 says God did not create the earth to be empty, tohu, but formed it to be lived in.

THE GAP THEORY

Some Christians believe a huge gap of time sits between verse 1 and verse 2. God made a perfect world in 1:1. Then something went wrong, often tied to the fall of Satan, Isaiah 14:12 and Luke 10:18, and the earth became a ruin. In verse 2 God starts over and remakes it in six days. This is also called ruin and restoration.

WHERE IT CAME FROM

An old Jewish teaching in Genesis Rabbah, written about AD 400 to 500, says God made worlds and destroyed them before He made this one. The Scottish preacher Thomas Chalmers taught the gap about 1814, as geologists started saying the earth was very old. G. H. Pember's Earth's Earliest Ages, 1876, the Scofield Reference Bible, 1909, Clarence Larkin and Finis Dake's Annotated Reference Bible, 1963, made it popular with many Bible teachers.

THE CASE FOR IT

The verb in verse 2, hayah, can mean became, as when Lot's wife became a pillar of salt, 19:26. Isaiah 45:18 says God did not make it tohu, so it must have become tohu later. Darkness over the deep sounds like judgment. It makes room for an old earth and its fossils while keeping the six days as normal days.

THE CASE AGAINST IT

In Hebrew, verse 2 starts with and the earth before the verb. That pattern usually describes how things were, not a new event, so almost every Bible says was. Exodus 20:11 says God made the heavens, the earth and everything in them in six days. Tohu can simply mean empty, like the wilderness in Deuteronomy 32:10. The King James word replenish in 1:28 means fill, the same word used for the fish in 1:22, not fill again. Weston Fields wrote against the gap in Unformed and Unfilled, 1976. Most young earth and old earth scholars reject it today.

HOW OLD IS THE EARTH?

Young earth: about 6,000 to 10,000 years. Archbishop Ussher, in 1650, set creation at 4004 BC, and Answers in Genesis teaches a young earth today. Gap theory: the earth is very old, and the six days are recent. Day age and old earth creation: the days are long ages, and the earth is about 4.5 billion years old, as Reasons to Believe teaches. Framework, cosmic temple and evolutionary creation: Genesis is telling who made the world and why, not giving its age, so they accept the science. Scientists date the earth at about 4.5 billion years and the universe at about 13.8 billion. For the days themselves, see How Long Were the Days? after 2:3.

HOW OLD IS MANKIND?

Add up the ages in Genesis 5 and 11, and Adam lived about 4000 BC. The Jewish calendar counts from 3761 BC, so the year that began in fall 2026 is 5787. The Greek Septuagint has bigger numbers and puts Adam about 5500 BC, the date many early church writers used. Others say the family lists skip names, since Matthew 1:8 skips three kings and Luke 3:36 names a Cainan that Genesis 11 does not. William Henry Green, 1890, and B. B. Warfield argued Adam could be older than 4000 BC. Old earth creationists put Adam and Eve tens of thousands of years ago. Scientists date the oldest human fossils, from Jebel Irhoud in Morocco, at about 300,000 years. Some Christians answer that God chose one real couple to be the first people in His image, as John Stott suggested. Joshua Swamidass, 2019, argued an Adam who lived about 6,000 years ago could still be the ancestor of everyone alive today.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

In the beginning, God. He made everything, 1:1. People are made in His image, 1:27. God made every nation from one man, Acts 17:26. Jesus spoke of Adam and Eve as real, Matthew 19:4. And how old the earth is does not change how you are saved, Romans 10:9.

26 Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness, to rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, and over all the earth itself and every creature that crawls upon it."

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Now we zoom in on day six. God forms the man from dust, breathes life into him and plants a garden with exactly one rule: do not eat from that one tree. Adam names every animal, the first job in history, and still has nobody to talk to. So God makes the woman, and Adam writes the first love poem in the Bible.

THE SEVENTH DAY // EXODUS 16:22–30; HEBREWS 4:1–11

1 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array. 2 And by the seventh day God had finished the work He had been doing; so on that day He rested from all His work.

3 Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on that day He rested from all the work of creation that He had accomplished.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

HOW LONG WERE THE DAYS?

Evening and Morning

GENESIS 1:1 TO 2:4 · EXODUS 20:11 · PSALM 90:4 · 2 PETER 3:8

WHAT GENESIS SAYS

God made the world in six days, each ending with and there was evening, and there was morning, and rested on the seventh, 1:5 to 2:3. The Hebrew word for day, yom, usually means a normal day, but it can also mean a longer time. Genesis 2:4 says in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, using day for the whole week.

BEFORE THE CHURCH

About AD 40 the Jewish writer Philo of Alexandria said God did not need six days of time; the days show order, not hours (Allegorical Interpretation 1.2).

THE EARLY CHURCH

Christians argued about this long before modern science. About AD 230 Origen asked how there could be evening and morning on the first three days with no sun, and read the days as a teaching picture (First Principles 4.3.1). About AD

MIRACLES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

378 Basil of Caesarea took them as ordinary days of 24 hours. Augustine, in The Literal Meaning of Genesis, about AD 401 to 415, thought God made everything at once, and that the six days show the order of creation, not the length of time.

THE REFORMATION

Luther took Moses literally: six real days, and a world less than 6,000 years old. In 1650 Archbishop James Ussher added up the Bible's ages and dates and set creation in 4004 BC. His dates were printed in the margins of many King James Bibles.

THE SCIENCE QUESTION

Most scientists today date the earth at about 4.5 billion years and the universe at about 13.8 billion. Christians answer that in different ways, shown on the next page.

Young Earth, Old Earth and More

GENESIS 1:1 TO 2:3 · EXODUS 20:9 TO 11 · ROMANS 5:12 · PSALM 19:1

YOUNG EARTH

Six days of 24 hours, about 6,000 to 10,000 years ago. Exodus 20:11 bases the week on them: in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth. Death came through Adam's sin, Romans 5:12. Whitcomb and Morris's The Genesis Flood, 1961, started the modern movement; Answers in Genesis and its Ark Encounter in Kentucky carry it today.

GAP THEORY

Billions of years fit between 1:1 and 1:2, and God remade the ruined earth in six days. See Was or Became? after 1:24.

DAY AGE

Each day is a long age, in the right order. With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, 2 Peter 3:8. At the 1925 Scopes trial, William Jennings Bryan admitted the days could be ages. Hugh Ross's Reasons to Believe teaches it today.

FRAMEWORK

The days are a literary frame: days 1 to 3 make spaces (light, sky and sea, land) and days 4 to 6 fill them (sun and stars, birds and fish, animals and people). It tells who made everything and why, not how long it took. Arie Noordtzij proposed it in 1924, and Meredith Kline developed it.

COSMIC TEMPLE

John Walton, 2009, says Genesis 1 is about God giving the world its jobs and moving in, like a temple being dedicated, on the seventh day.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God created everything out of nothing. People are made in His image, 1:27. Creation was very good, 1:31. The heavens declare the glory of God, Psalm 19:1.

MAN AND WOMAN IN THE GARDEN

4 This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that Yahweh God made them.
5 Now no shrub of the field had yet appeared on the earth, nor had any plant of the field sprouted, for Yahweh God had not yet sent rain upon the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the ground. 6 But springs welled up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground.
7 Then Yahweh God formed man from the dust
of the ground and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils, and the man became a living being.
8 And Yahweh God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, where He placed the man He had formed. 9 Out of the ground Yahweh God gave growth to every tree that is pleasing to the eye and good for food. And in the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
10 Now a river flowed out of Eden to water
the garden, and from there it branched into four headwaters:
11 The name of the first river is the Pishon;
it winds through the whole land of Havi-lah, where there is gold. 12 And the gold of that land is pure, and bdellium and onyx are found there.

13 The name of the second river is the Gihon; it winds through the whole land of Cush.
14 The name of the third river is the Tigris;
it runs along the east side of Assyria.
And the fourth river is the Euphrates.
15 Then Yahweh God took the man and placed him in the Garden of Eden to cultivate and keep it.
16 And Yahweh God commanded him, "You may eat freely from every tree of the garden, 17 but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil; for in the day that you eat of it, you will surely die."
18 Yahweh God also said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make for him a suitable helper."
19 And out of the ground Yahweh God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and He brought them to the man to see what he would name each one. And whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. 20 The man gave names to all the livestock, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam no suitable helper was found.
21 So Yahweh God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep, and while he slept, He took one of the man's ribs and closed up the area with flesh. 22 And from the rib that Yahweh God had taken from the man, He made a woman and brought her to him. 23 And the man said:

"This is now bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
she shall be called 'woman,'
for out of man she was taken."

24 For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.
25 And the man and his wife were both naked, and they were not ashamed.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

A talking serpent asks Eve one sneaky question, and the whole world changes. They eat, they hide, and when God asks what happened, Adam blames Eve and Eve blames the snake. It is the first game of hot potato. God pronounces judgment, but He slips in a promise in verse 15: one day a Son of the woman will crush the serpent's head.

THE SERPENT'S DECEPTION // ROMANS 5:12–21

1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any beast of the field that Yahweh God had made. And he said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden?'"
2 The woman answered the serpent, "We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden, 3 but about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, God has said, 'You must not eat of it or touch it, or you will die.'"
4 "You will not surely die," the serpent told the woman. 5 "For God knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."
6 When the woman saw that the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eyes, and that it was desirable for obtaining wisdom, she took the fruit and ate it. She also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate it.
7 And the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; so they sewed together fig leaves and made coverings for themselves.

GOD ARRAIGNS ADAM AND EVE

8 Then the man and his wife heard the voice of Yahweh God walking in the garden in the breeze of the day, and they hid themselves from the presence of Yahweh God among the trees of the garden.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES MESSIANIC FORESHADOW MIRACLES DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

9 But Yahweh God called out to the man,
"Where are you?"
10 "I heard Your voice in the garden," he replied, "and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid myself."
11 "Who told you that you were naked?"
asked Yahweh God. "Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?"
12 And the man answered, "The woman whom You gave me, she gave me fruit
from the tree, and I ate it." 13 Then Yahweh God said to the woman,
"What is this you have done?"
"The serpent deceived me," she replied,
"and I ate."

THE FATE OF THE SERPENT

14 So Yahweh God said to the serpent:

"Because you have done this,
cursed are you above all livestock
and every beast of the field!
On your belly will you go,
and dust you will eat,
all the days of your life.
15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman,
and between your seed and her seed.
He will crush your head,
and you will strike his heel."

THE PUNISHMENT OF MANKIND

16 To the woman He said:

"I will sharply increase your pain in childbirth;
in pain you will bring forth children.
Your desire will be for your husband,
and he will rule over you."
17 And to Adam He said:

"Because you have listened to the voice of your wife
and have eaten from the tree
of which I commanded you not to eat, cursed is the ground because of you;
through toil you will eat of it
all the days of your life.
18 Both thorns and thistles it will yield for
you,
and you will eat the plants of the field.
19 By the sweat of your brow
you will eat your bread,
until you return to the ground—
because out of it were you taken.
For dust you are,
and to dust you shall return." 20 And Adam named his wife Eve, because she would be the mother of all the living.

THE EXPULSION FROM PARADISE

21 And Yahweh God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife, and He clothed
them.
22 Then Yahweh God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil. And now, lest he reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever..."
23 Therefore Yahweh God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken. 24
So He drove out the man and stationed cherubim on the east side of the Garden of Eden, along with a whirling sword of flame to guard the way to the tree of life.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

2 Later she gave birth to Cain's brother Abel.

Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, while Cain was a tiller of the soil. 3 So in the course of time, Cain brought some of the fruit of the soil as an offering to Yahweh, 4 while Abel brought the best portions of the firstborn of his flock.

And Yahweh looked with favor on Abel and his offering, 5 but He had no regard for Cain and his offering. So Cain became very angry, and his countenance fell.

6 "Why are you angry," said Yahweh to Cain, "and why has your countenance fallen? 7 If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you refuse to do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires you, but you must master it."

8 Then Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let us go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.

9 And Yahweh said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?"

"I do not know!" he answered. "Am I my brother's keeper?"

10 "What have you done?" replied Yahweh. "The voice of your brother's blood cries out to Me from the ground. 11 Now you are cursed and banished from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. 12 When you till the ground, it will no longer yield its produce to you. You will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth."

13 But Cain said to Yahweh, "My punishment is greater than I can bear. 14 Behold, this day You have driven me from the face of the earth, and from Your face I will be hidden; I will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me."

15 "Not so!" replied Yahweh. "If anyone slays Cain, then Cain will be avenged sevenfold." And Yahweh placed a mark on Cain, so that no one who found him would kill him.

16 So Cain went out from the presence of Yahweh and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

THE DESCENDANTS OF CAIN

17 And Cain had relations with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Enoch. Then Cain built a city and named it after his son Enoch.

18 Now to Enoch was born Irad, and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael was the father of Methusael, and Methusael was the father of Lamech. 19 And Lamech married two women, one named Adah and the other Zillah.

20 Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who dwell in tents and raise livestock. 21 And his brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all who play the harp and flute.

22 And Zillah gave birth to Tubal-cain, a forger of every implement of bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 Then Lamech said to his wives:

"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
wives of Lamech, listen to my speech.
For I have slain a man for wounding me,
a young man for striking me.
24 If Cain is avenged sevenfold,
then Lamech seventy-sevenfold."

God even puts a mark on Cain so others will not kill him in 4:15, and in 4:17 Cain has a wife and builds a city. Many readers see this as a strong hint that other people were already living outside the garden, maybe even before Adam and Eve. This idea is called the pre Adamite view, and a French scholar named Isaac La Peyrere wrote a book about it in 1655. The traditional answer is that Adam and Eve had many other sons and daughters, 5:4, so the family may already have been large, and Cain married a relative. The Bible does not say for sure, which makes this one of its most famous puzzles.

At that time men began to call upon the name of Yahweh.

The first family tree, and almost every branch ends with the same words: and then he died. Methuselah lives 969 years, the longest life in the Bible, and he still dies. The one exception is Enoch, who walked with God, and then he was gone, because God took him. Enoch went on a walk and never came back, in the best way possible.

THE DESCENDANTS OF ADAM // 1 CHRONICLES 1:1–3

1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in His own likeness. 2 Male and female He created them, and He blessed them. And in the day they were created, He called them "man."

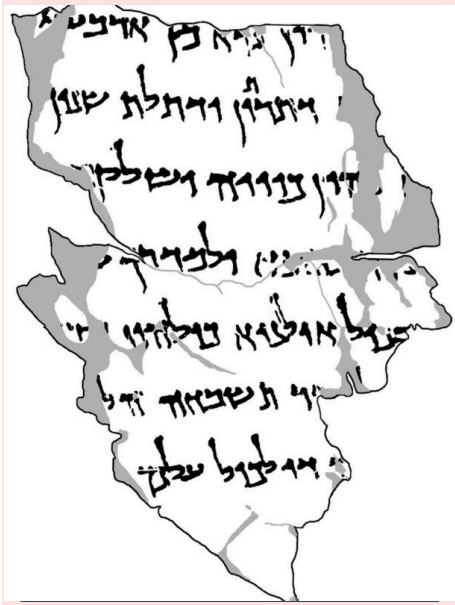
3 When Adam was 130 years old, he had a son in his own likeness, after his own image; and he named him Seth. 4 And after he had become the father of Seth, Adam lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters. 5 So Adam lived a total of 930 years, and then he died.

6 When Seth was 105 years old, he became the father of Enosh. 7 And after he had become the father of Enosh, Seth lived 807 years and had other sons and daughters. 8 So Seth lived a total of 912 years, and then he died.

9 When Enosh was 90 years old, he became the father of Kenan. 10 And after he had become the father of Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years and had other sons and daughters. 11 So Enosh lived a total of 905 years, and then he died.

12 When Kenan was 70 years old, he became the father of Mahalalel. 13 And after he had become the father of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years and had other sons and daughters. 14 So Kenan lived a total of 910 years, and then he died.

15 When Mahalalel was 65 years old, he became the father of Jared. 16 And after he had become the father of Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years and had other sons and daughters. 17 So Mahalalel lived a total of 895 years, and then he died.



GOD TAKES UP ENOCH // HEBREWS 11:5

18 When Jared was 162 years old, he became the father of Enoch. 19 And after he had become the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters. 20 So Jared lived a total of 962 years, and then he died.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW ARCHAEOLOGY DEMONIC OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

WHAT IT IS
A book called 1 Enoch that claims to tell what Enoch saw and said: visions of heaven, angels who sinned before the flood and the judgment to come. Genesis gives Enoch six verses. This book gives him 108 chapters.

HOW OLD IT IS
The scroll copies were made between about 200 BC and the time of Jesus, dated by their handwriting. When the book itself was first written is debated, see below.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
Between 1947 and 1956, pieces of more than ten copies were found in the caves at Qumran near the Dead Sea, written in Aramaic. The oldest are from about 200 BC. Before that, the only complete copies were in Ge'ez, the old church language of Ethiopia.

WHERE IT IS TODAY
The scroll pieces are kept in Jerusalem. The Ethiopian Orthodox Church still has 1 Enoch in its Bible today.

DID ENOCH WRITE IT
Nobody knows for sure. If Enoch wrote it, Noah would have had to carry a copy onto the ark, and it would have had to be copied again and again for thousands of years until the time of the Dead Sea Scrolls. Most scholars think Jewish writers wrote it much later, between about 300 BC and the time of Jesus, using Enoch's name. Jewish Bibles and most Christian Bibles left it out.

THE BIGGEST ARGUMENT FOR IT
Jude, the brother of Jesus, quotes it almost word for word in Jude 14 to 15: Behold, the Lord is coming with myriads of His holy ones to execute judgment on everyone. That is 1 Enoch 1:9, and Jude says Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied it. Many Christians believe Jude was quoting a true prophecy, even if the whole book is not Scripture.

WHAT ABOUT 2 AND 3 ENOCH
These are different books. 2 Enoch survives in Slavonic copies, the oldest from the 1300s AD, and was probably written around the time of Jesus or later. 3 Enoch is a Hebrew book written by rabbis around AD 400 to 600. Neither one could have been written by Enoch.

21 When Enoch was 65 years old, he became the father of Methuselah. 22 And after he had become the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years and had other sons and daughters. 23 So Enoch lived a total of 365 years.

24 Enoch walked with God, and then he was no more, because God had taken him away.

FROM METHUSELAH TO NOAH

25 When Methuselah was 187 years old, he became the father of Lamech. 26 And after he had become the father of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years and had other sons and daughters. 27 So Methuselah lived a total of 969 years, and then he died.

28 When Lamech was 182 years old, he had a son. 29 And he named him Noah, saying, "May this one comfort us in the labor and toil of our hands caused by the ground that Yahweh has cursed." 30 And after he had become the father of Noah, Lamech lived 595 years and had other sons and daughters. 31 So Lamech lived a total of 777 years, and then he died.

32 After Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS
The world gets so violent that God is grieved He ever made man. But Noah found favor in the eyes of Yahweh. God hands Noah the plans for a giant boat about one and a half football fields long, with no ocean anywhere nearby. Noah does everything God tells him, which the neighbors probably thought was hilarious.

to them, 2 the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful, and they took as wives whomever they chose.

3 So Yahweh said, "My Spirit will not contend with man forever, for he is mortal; his days shall be 120 years."

4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days—and afterward as well—when the sons of God had relations with the daughters of men. And they bore them children who became the mighty men of old, men of renown.

5 Then Yahweh saw that the wickedness of man was great upon the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was altogether evil all the time. 6 And Yahweh regretted that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. 7 So Yahweh said, "I will blot out man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth—every man and beast and crawling creature and bird of the air—for I am grieved that I have made them."

NOAH'S FAVOR WITH GOD

8 Noah, however, found favor in the eyes of Yahweh.

9 This is the account of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation; Noah walked with God. 10 And Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 Now the earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and full of violence. 12 And God looked upon the earth and saw that it was corrupt; for all living creatures on the earth had corrupted their ways.

PREPARING THE ARK // HEBREWS 11:7

13 Then God said to Noah, "The end of all living creatures has come before Me, because through them the earth is full of violence. Now behold, I will destroy both them and the earth.

14 Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood; make rooms in the ark and coat it with pitch inside and out. 15 And this is how you are to build it: The ark is to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high. 16 You are to make a roof for the ark, finish its walls eighteen inches from the top, place a door in the side of the ark, and build lower, middle, and upper decks.

17 And behold, I will bring floodwaters upon the earth to destroy every creature under the heavens that has the breath of life. Everything on the earth will perish. 18 But I will establish My covenant with you, and you will enter the ark—you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you.

19 And you are to bring two of every living creature into the ark—male and female—to keep them alive with you. 20 Two of every kind of bird and animal and crawling creature will come to you to be kept alive. 21 You are also to take for yourself every kind of food that is eaten and gather it as food for yourselves and for the animals."

22 So Noah did everything precisely as God had commanded him.

Noah, his family and the animals climb aboard, and God Himself shuts the door. Then it rains for forty days and forty nights while the springs of the deep burst open. The water covers the highest mountains. Everything outside the ark is gone, and only Noah and those with him survive.

THE GREAT FLOOD // 2 PETER 3:1–7

1 Then Yahweh said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and all your family, because I have found you righteous in this generation. 2 You are to take with you seven pairs of every kind of clean animal, a male and its mate; a pair of every kind of unclean animal, a male and its mate; 3 and seven

5 And Noah did all that Yahweh had commanded him.

6 Now Noah was 600 years old when the floodwaters came upon the earth. 7 And Noah and his wife, with his sons and their wives, entered the ark to escape the waters of the flood. 8 The clean and unclean animals, the birds, and everything that crawls along the ground 9 came to Noah to enter the ark, two by two, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And after seven days the floodwaters came upon the earth. 11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, on the seventeenth day of the second month, all the fountains of the great deep burst forth, and the floodgates of the heavens were opened. 12 And the rain fell upon the earth for forty days and forty nights.

13 On that very day Noah entered the ark, along with his sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and his wife, and the three wives of his sons— 14 they and every kind of wild animal, livestock, crawling creature, bird, and winged creature. 15 They came to Noah to enter the ark, two by two of every creature with the breath of life. 16 And they entered, the male and female of every living thing, as God had commanded Noah. Then Yahweh shut him in.

17 For forty days the flood kept coming on the earth, and the waters rose and lifted the ark high above the earth. 18 So the waters continued to surge and rise greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the waters. 19 Finally, the waters completely prevailed upon the earth, so that all the high mountains under all the heavens were covered.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth for 150 days.

God remembers Noah. The water slowly goes down, the ark comes to rest on the mountains of Ararat, and Noah starts sending out birds like a very slow weather report. A dove comes back with a fresh olive leaf. After more than a year on board everyone steps out, and the first thing Noah does is build an altar.

THE ARK RESTS ON ARARAT

1 But God remembered Noah and all the animals and livestock that were with him in the ark. And God sent a wind over the earth, and the waters began to subside. 2 The springs of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens were closed, and the rain from the sky was restrained. 3 The waters receded steadily from the earth, and after 150 days the waters had gone down.

4 On the seventeenth day of the seventh month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat. 5 And the waters continued to recede until the tenth month, and on

THE DURUPINAR FORMATION

GENESIS 8:4 · GENESIS 6:14 TO 16

The Durupinar formation from the air, about 18 miles south of Mount Ararat in eastern Turkey.

WHAT IT IS

A huge boat shaped mound of earth and rock on a hillside in eastern Turkey, near the border with Iran. It is about 538 feet long and sits about 18 miles south of the peak of Mount Ararat.

HOW OLD IT IS

No one knows yet. In 2023 a team from Istanbul Technical University and Agri Ibrahim Cecen University said soil samples showed signs of activity from about 5500 to 3000 BC. Those results have not been published for other scientists to check, and news reports gave different numbers, so this date is disputed.

HOW IT WAS FOUND

Heavy rains and earthquakes uncovered its shape in 1948. In 1959 a Turkish army captain named Ilhan Durupinar spotted it in aerial photos, and the site is named after him.

THE HEADLINES

In September 2026 a team from Noah's Ark Scans and Sivas Cumhuriyet University in Turkey began drilling deep into the mound. A drill bit broke on a very hard layer that the team thinks could be petrified wood. Earlier soil tests and radar scans also looked interesting. The team told a British newspaper the mound was 100 percent man made, and headlines everywhere announced that Noah's Ark had been confirmed.

THE REAL STORY

Nothing has been confirmed yet. The team's own press release says the samples still have to be tested in a lab, and those results have not been published. Even the project leader, Andrew Jones, says he believes it is the ark, not that it has been proven.

WHY MANY EXPERTS DOUBT IT

Many geologists, including Christian geologists like Andrew Snelling, say it is a natural fold in the rock that happens to look like a boat. David Fasold, who once helped promote the site, later said he no longer believed it was the ark. The Bible describes the ark as a long box, and this mound is pointed like a ship.

WHAT WOULD SETTLE IT

Genesis 8:4 says the ark rested on the mountains of Ararat. That means the whole mountain region, not just the tallest peak, so this spot is in the right part of the world. If lab tests find real wood, cut planks or fasteners in the shape the Bible describes, it would be one of the biggest finds in history. Until it is dug up and the results are published, we rate it MEDIUM: worth watching, but not proven.

NOAH SENDS A RAVEN AND A DOVE

6 After forty days Noah opened the window he had made in the ark 7 and sent out a raven. It kept flying back and forth until the waters had dried up from the earth.
8 Then Noah sent out a dove to see if the waters had receded from the surface of the ground. 9 But the dove found no place to rest her foot, and she returned to him in the ark, because the waters were still covering the surface of all the earth. So he reached out his hand and brought her back inside the ark.
10 Noah waited seven more days and again sent out the dove from the ark. 11 And behold, the dove returned to him in the evening with a freshly plucked olive leaf in her beak. So Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.

THE HEART GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

12 And Noah waited seven more days and sent out the dove again, but this time she did not return to him.

EXITING THE ARK

13 In Noah's six hundred and first year, on the first day of the first month, the waters had dried up from the earth. So Noah removed the covering from the ark and saw that the surface of the ground was dry. 14
By the twenty-seventh day of the second month, the earth was fully dry.

15 Then God said to Noah, 16 "Come out of the ark, you and your wife, along with your sons and their wives. 17 Bring out all the living creatures that are with you—birds, livestock, and everything that crawls upon the ground—so that they can spread out over the earth and be fruitful
and multiply upon it."

18 So Noah came out, along with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives. 19 Every living creature, every creeping thing, and every bird—everything that moves upon the earth—came out of the ark, kind by kind.

NOAH BUILDS AN ALTAR

20 Then Noah built an altar to Yahweh. And taking from every kind of clean animal and clean bird, he offered burnt offerings on the altar. 21 When Yahweh smelled the pleasing aroma, He said in His heart,
"Never again will I curse the ground because of man, even though every inclination of his heart is evil from his youth. And never again will I destroy all living creatures as I have done.

22 As long as the earth endures,
seedtime and harvest,
cold and heat,
summer and winter,
day and night
shall never cease."

GEN 8:21 [HEART] God says the intent of man's heart is evil from youth.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

God blesses Noah, gives the world a fresh start and promises never again to destroy the earth with a flood. The rainbow is the sign of that promise. Then Noah plants a vineyard, drinks too much and passes out in his tent, proof that even the heroes of the faith need a Savior. The chapter ends with a curse on Canaan and a blessing on Shem.

THE COVENANT OF THE RAINBOW

1 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. 2 The fear and dread of you will fall on every living creature on the earth, every bird of the air, every creature that crawls on the ground, and all the fish of the sea. They are delivered into your hand. 3 Everything that lives and moves will be food for you; just as I gave you the green plants, I now give you all things. 4
But you must not eat meat with its lifeblood still in it. 5 And surely I will require the life of any man or beast by whose hand your lifeblood is shed. I will demand an accounting from anyone who takes the life of his fellow man:

6 Whoever sheds the blood of man,
by man his blood will be shed;
for in His own image
God has made mankind.
7 But as for you,
be fruitful and multiply;
spread out across the earth
and multiply upon it."

8 Then God said to Noah and his sons with him, 9 "Behold, I now establish My covenant with you and your descendants
after you, 10 and with every living creature that was with you—the birds, the livestock, and every beast of the earth—every living thing that came out of the ark. 11 And I establish My covenant with you: Never again will all life be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth."

12 And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant I am making between Me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all generations to come: 13 I

GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

have set My rainbow in the clouds, and it will be a sign of the covenant between Me and the earth.

14 Whenever I form clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds, 15 I will remember My covenant between Me and you and every living creature of every kind. Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all life. 16 And whenever the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of every kind that is on the earth."

17 So God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between Me and every creature on the earth."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

GLOBAL OR LOCAL FLOOD?

How Big Was Noah's Flood?

GENESIS 6 TO 9 · 41:57 · MATTHEW 24:37 TO 39 · 2 PETER 3:5 TO 6

WHAT GENESIS SAYS

The waters covered all the high mountains under all the heavens, by more than 20 feet, 7:19 to 20. Every living thing on the face of the ground died, except those in the ark, 7:23. The ark was about 450 by 75 by 45 feet, 6:15. It came to rest on the mountains of Ararat, a region in what is now Turkey and Armenia, not one peak, 8:4.

A GLOBAL FLOOD

The whole earth was covered. The words all and every are repeated again and again. Jesus compared His coming to the flood that swept them all away, Matthew 24:39, and Peter says the world of that time perished, 2 Peter 3:6. Whitcomb and Morris's The Genesis Flood, 1961, says the flood laid down most of the rock layers and fossils. Most young earth Christians hold this view.

A LOCAL FLOOD

A huge flood covered the world Noah knew, the region of Mesopotamia. The Hebrew word for earth, eretz, often means a land. Genesis uses the same kind of language when it says all the earth came to Egypt to buy grain, 41:57. Under all the heavens can mean as far as anyone could see. Many old earth Christians and Christian scientists hold this view.

A FLOOD OF ALL PEOPLE

Some combine the two: the flood may have covered only one region, but it wiped out all humans, because at that time they all lived there.

THE HARD QUESTIONS

For a global flood: where did all that water go, and how did animals reach places like Australia afterward? Answers given: the mountains rose and the valleys sank, Psalm 104:6 to 9, and the ark carried kinds, not every species. For a local flood: why build an ark instead of just moving away, and why promise no more floods when local floods still happen? Answers given: the ark was a sign and a warning to that world, and the promise is never again to destroy all life, 9:11.

THE GILGAMESH FLOOD

In 1872 George Smith of the British Museum stunned London when he read a clay tablet from the library of Nineveh. In the Epic of Gilgamesh, tablet 11, a man named Utnapishtim is told by a god to build a boat sealed with pitch, take animals aboard, and survive a great flood. The boat lands on a mountain, he sends out a dove, a swallow and a raven, and offers a sacrifice. The older Atrahasis story, about 1700 BC, tells much the same.

THE DIFFERENCES

In the Babylonian stories, many gods send the flood because humans are too noisy, and the gods crowd around the sacrifice like flies, hungry. In Genesis one God grieves over human violence and evil, 6:5 to 6, saves Noah by grace, 6:8, and makes a promise with the rainbow, 9:12 to 16.

WHAT IT MEANS

Some say the Hebrews borrowed the story. Others say all these stories remember the same real event, and Genesis tells it truly. Flood stories are found in many cultures around the world.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES | PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE | BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

FLOODS IN THE GROUND

In 1929 Leonard Woolley found a thick layer of flood mud at Ur and thought it was Noah's flood; it turned out to be a local flood. In 1997 William Ryan and Walter Pitman proposed that the Black Sea flooded about 5600 BC; that is still debated. For the ark search on Mount Ararat, see The Durupinar Formation Field Notes page, p.57.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God judges sin, and He saves through the way He provides. Peter says the ark is a picture of baptism, 1 Peter 3:20 to 21. And God has promised never again to destroy all life by a flood, 9:11.

NOAH'S SHAME AND CANAAN'S CURSE

18 The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham was the father of Canaan. 19 These three were the sons of Noah, and from them the whole earth was populated.

20 Now Noah, a man of the soil, proceeded to plant a vineyard. 21 But when he drank some of its wine, he became drunk and uncovered himself inside his tent. 22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father's nakedness and told his two brothers outside.

23 Then Shem and Japheth took a garment and placed it across their shoulders, and walking backward, they covered their father's nakedness. Their faces were turned away so that they did not see their father's nakedness.

24 When Noah awoke from his drunkenness and learned what his youngest son had done to him, 25 he said,

"Cursed be Canaan!
A servant of servants shall he be to his brothers."

SHEM'S BLESSING AND NOAH'S DEATH

26 He also declared:

"Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Shem!
May Canaan be the servant of Shem.
27 May God expand the territory of Japheth;
may he dwell in the tents of Shem,
and may Canaan be his servant."

28 After the flood, Noah lived 350 years. 29
So Noah lived a total of 950 years, and then he died.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

The Table of Nations lists about seventy family groups that spread out after the flood. It reads like a phone book, but it is the Bible's map of where everybody came from. Watch for Nimrod, the mighty hunter who built Babel and Nineveh. Both cities cause big trouble later in the story.

THE TABLE OF NATIONS // 1 CHRONICLES 1:4–27

1 This is the account of Noah's sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth, who also had sons after the flood.

THE JAPHETHITES

2 The sons of Japheth:

Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

3 The sons of Gomer:

Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Javan:

Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittites, and the Rodanites. 5 From these, the maritime peoples separated into their territories, according to their languages, by clans within their nations.

THE HAMITES

6 The sons of Ham:

Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan.

7 The sons of Cush:

Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca.

And the sons of Raamah:

Sheba and Dedan.

8 Cush was the father of Nimrod, who began to be a mighty one on the earth. 9 He was a mighty hunter before Yahweh; so it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before Yahweh." 10 His kingdom began in

Babylon, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. 11 From that land he went forth into Assyria, where he built Nineveh, Rehoboth-Ir, Calah, 12 and Resen, which is between Nineveh and the great city of Calah.

13 Mizraim was the father of the Ludites, the Anamites, the Lehabites, the Naphtuhites, 14 the Pathrusites, the Casluhites (from whom the Philistines came), and the Caphtorites.

15 And Canaan was the father of Sidon his firstborn, and of the Hittites, 16 the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites, 17 the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites, 18 the Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites.

Later the Canaanite clans were scattered, 19 and the borders of Canaan extended from Sidon toward Gerar as far as Gaza, and then toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham according to their clans, languages, lands, and nations.

THE SEMITES

21 And sons were also born to Shem, the older brother of Japheth; Shem was the forefather of all the sons of Eber.

22 The sons of Shem:

Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.

23 The sons of Aram:

Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.

24 Arphaxad was the father of Shelah, and Shelah was the father of Eber.

25 Two sons were born to Eber: One was named Peleg, because in his days the earth was divided, and his brother was named Joktan.

26 And Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, 27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, 28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba, 29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan. 30 Their territory extended from Mesha to Sephar, in the eastern hill country.

31 These are the sons of Shem, according to their clans, languages, lands, and nations.

32 All these are the clans of Noah's sons, according to their generations and nations. From these the nations of the earth spread out after the flood.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Everybody speaks one language, so they decide to build a tower up to heaven and make a name for themselves. God has to come down just to see it, which is a polite way of saying it was not that tall. He confuses their languages and scatters them. Then the family tree narrows down to one man named Abram and his wife Sarai, who has no children.

THE TOWER OF BABEL // DEUTERONOMY 32:8; ACTS 2:1–13

1 Now the whole world had one language and a common form of speech. 2 And as people journeyed eastward, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.

3 And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly." So they used brick instead of stone, and tar instead of mortar.

4 "Come," they said, "let us build for ourselves a city with a tower that reaches to the heavens, that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of all the earth."

5 Then Yahweh came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men were building. 6 And Yahweh said, "If they have begun to do this as one people speaking the same language, then nothing they devise will be beyond them. 7 Come, let Us go down and confuse their language, so that they will not understand one another's speech."

8 So Yahweh scattered them from there over the face of all the earth, and they stopped building the city. 9 That is why it is called Babel, for there Yahweh confused the language of the whole world, and from that place Yahweh scattered them over the face of all the earth.

GENEALOGY FROM SHEM TO ABRAM // 1 CHRONICLES 1:17–27

10 This is the account of Shem. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, he became the father of Arphaxad. 11
And after he had become the father of Arphaxad, Shem lived 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

12 When Arphaxad was 35 years old, he became the father of Shelah. 13 And after he had become the father of Shelah, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

14 When Shelah was 30 years old, he became the father of Eber. 15 And after he had become the father of Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

16 When Eber was 34 years old, he became the father of Peleg. 17 And after he had become the father of Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and had other sons and
daughters.

18 When Peleg was 30 years old, he became the father of Reu. 19 And after he had become the father of Reu, Peleg lived 209
years and had other sons and daughters.

20 When Reu was 32 years old, he became the father of Serug. 21 And after he had become the father of Serug, Reu lived 207
years and had other sons and daughters.

22 When Serug was 30 years old, he became the father of Nahor. 23 And after he had become the father of Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and
daughters.

24 When Nahor was 29 years old, he became the father of Terah. 25 And after he had become the father of Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and
daughters.

26 When Terah was 70 years old, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Ha-ran.

TERAH'S DESCENDANTS

27 This is the account of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Ha-
ran. And Haran became the father of Lot.
28 During his father Terah's lifetime, Haran died in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

29 And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. Abram's wife was named Sarai, and Nahor's wife was named Milcah; she was the daughter of Haran, who was the father of both Milcah and Iscah. 30 But Sarai was barren; she had no children.

31 And Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai the wife of Abram,
and they set out from Ur of the Chaldeans for the land of Canaan. But when they arrived in Haran, they settled there. 32 Terah lived 205 years, and he died in Haran.

God tells Abram to leave his country, his relatives and his father's house and go to a land He will show him later. No address and no map, just a promise: all the families of the earth will be blessed through you. Abram goes at 75 years old. Then a famine sends him to Egypt, where he tells Pharaoh his wife is his sister, and that does not go well.

THE CALL OF ABRAM // GENESIS 26:1–5; ACTS 7:1–8

rected him, and Lot went with him. Abram

MAP · GENESIS 11 TO 13

The World of Abraham

From Ur to the land God promised

FROM UR TO HARAN Abram grew up in Ur. His father Terah moved the family up the Euphrates River to Haran, Genesis 11:31.

INTO CANAAN He camped at Shechem and Bethel and built altars, Genesis 12:6 to 8. Later he settled near Hebron, Genesis 13:18.

THE CALL God called Abram in Ur, Acts 7:2, and again in Haran, Genesis 12:1 to 4. Abram left Haran at 75 years old.

DOWN TO EGYPT A famine sent him to Egypt and back again, Genesis 12:10 to 13:3. In all he walked well over 1,000 miles.

Most scholars place Ur in southern Iraq. A few think Genesis means a northern Ur near Haran. The route is approximate.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Haran. 5 And Abram took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, and all the possessions and people they had acquired in Haran, and set out for the land of Canaan.

When they came to the land of Canaan, 6 Abram traveled through the land as far as the site of the Oak of Moreh at Shechem. And at that time the Canaanites were in the land.

7 Then Yahweh appeared to Abram and said, "I will give this land to your offspring." So Abram built an altar there to Yahweh, who had appeared to him.

8 From there Abram moved on to the hill country east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel to the west and Ai to the east. There he built an altar to Yahweh, and he called on the name of Yahweh.

9 And Abram journeyed on toward the Negev.

ABRAM AND SARAI IN EGYPT

10 Now there was a famine in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe. 11 As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "Look, I know that you are a beautiful woman, 12 and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' Then they will kill me but will let you live. 13 Please say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake, and on account of you my life will be spared."

14 So when Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. 15 When Pharaoh's officials saw Sarai, they commended her to him, and she was taken into the palace of Pharaoh. 16 He treated Abram well on her account, and Abram acquired sheep and cattle, male and female donkeys, menservants and maidservants, and camels.

17 Yahweh, however, afflicted Pharaoh and his household with severe plagues because of Abram's wife Sarai. 18 So Pharaoh summoned Abram and asked, "What have you done to me? Why didn't you tell me she was your wife? 19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her as my wife? Now then, here is your wife. Take her and go!"

20 Then Pharaoh gave his men orders concerning Abram, and they sent him away with his wife and all his possessions.

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

Abram and his nephew Lot have so many animals that their herdsmen start fighting. Abram lets Lot choose first, and Lot picks the green valley near Sodom, which is like buying the house next door to a crime scene. Abram takes what is left. Then God tells him to look north, south, east and west, because all of it will belong to his family.

ABRAM AND LOT PART WAYS

1 So Abram went up out of Egypt into the Negev—he and his wife and all his possessions—and Lot was with him. 2 And Abram had become extremely wealthy in livestock and silver and gold.

3 From the Negev he journeyed from place to place toward Bethel, until he came to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had formerly been pitched, 4 to the site where he had built the altar. And there Abram called on the name of Yahweh.

5 Now Lot, who was traveling with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents. 6 But the land was unable to support both of them while they stayed together, for they had so many possessions that they were unable to coexist. 7 And there was discord between the herdsmen of Abram and the herdsmen of Lot. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites were also living in the land.

8 So Abram said to Lot, "Please let there be no contention between you and me, or between your herdsmen and my herdsmen. After all, we are kinsmen. 9 Is not the whole land before you? Now separate yourself from me. If you go to the left, I will go to the right; if you go to the right, I will go to the left."

GENESIS 11:28 TO 31 · GENESIS 15:7 · NEHEMIAH 9:7

The Great Ziggurat of Ur in southern Iraq. The lower levels were rebuilt in the 1980s.

WHAT IT IS

A great city in southern Iraq near the Euphrates River. Its biggest building was a huge stepped temple tower called a ziggurat, built for the moon god Nanna.

HOW OLD IT IS

People lived at Ur from before 4000 BC. The Royal Tombs are from about 2600 BC, and the ziggurat was built about 2100 BC by King Ur Nammu. When Abraham lived is disputed, but most guesses fall between 2100 and 1800 BC.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Dug up by the British archaeologist Leonard Woolley from 1922 to 1934.

WHAT WAS INSIDE

The Royal Tombs of Ur, full of gold helmets, jewelry, harps and a box covered in shell and blue stone called the Standard of Ur.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The rebuilt ziggurat still stands near Nasiriyah, Iraq. Many finds are in the British Museum in London and the Penn Museum in Philadelphia.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Ur was a rich, crowded city full of idol worship. That fits Joshua 24:2, which says Abraham's family served other gods beyond the river. God called Abram out of a real place and a real culture.

THE GREAT DEATH PIT

In one royal grave Woolley found 74 bodies, most of them women in fine gold headdresses, laid out in neat rows. Servants seem to have died to serve their ruler after death. A CT scan of two skulls from the royal graves, one from this pit and one from a nearby grave, showed both people were killed by a hard blow to the head.

THE RAM IN A THICKET

Two famous statues of a goat standing up to reach a bush came from the same pit. Woolley named them the Ram in a Thicket, after Genesis 22:13, where Abraham finds a ram caught in a thicket. One is in the British Museum and one is in Philadelphia.

FROM ONE MOON CITY TO ANOTHER

Ur and Haran were the two great cities of the moon god, called Nanna in the old Sumerian language and Sin in the later language of the region. Genesis 11:31 says Terah took his family from Ur to Haran, from one moon city to the other.

WOOLLEY'S FLOOD

Woolley dug deeper and hit a layer of clean mud about 8 feet thick. He thought he had found Noah's Flood. Experts now say it was a big local river flood, since nearby cities flooded at other times.

WHY OF THE CHALDEANS

The Chaldeans lived in southern Iraq from about 900 BC on. The name told later readers which Ur was meant.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing found at Ur names Abraham. Most scholars link Genesis to this Ur, but some think Abraham came from a northern Ur closer to Haran.

ARCHAEOLOGY DEMONIC OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

LOT PROCEEDS TOWARD SODOM

10 And Lot looked out and saw that the whole plain of the Jordan, all the way to Zoar, was well watered like the garden of Yahweh, like the land of Egypt. (This was before Yahweh destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) 11 So Lot chose the whole plain of the Jordan for himself and set out toward the east. And Abram and Lot parted company.

12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, but Lot settled in the cities of the plain and pitched his tent toward Sodom. 13 But the men of Sodom were wicked, sinning greatly against Yahweh.

GOD RENEWS THE PROMISE TO ABRAM

14 After Lot had departed, Yahweh said to Abram, "Now lift up your eyes from the place where you are, and look to the north and south and east and west, 15 for all the land that you see, I will give to you and your offspring forever.
16 I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if one could count the dust of the earth, then your offspring could be counted. 17 Get up and walk around the land, through its length and breadth, for I will give it to you."

18 So Abram moved his tent and went to live near the Oaks of Mamre at Hebron, where he built an altar to Yahweh.

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Four kings from the east raid Sodom and carry off Lot. Abram gathers 318 trained men and rescues him, which makes him a shepherd with a side job in special forces. Then a mysterious priest king named Melchizedek brings out bread and wine and blesses him. Abram gives him a tenth of everything and refuses to take so much as a thread from the king of Sodom.

THE WAR OF THE KINGS

1 In those days Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim 2 went to war against Bera king of Sodom, Birsha
king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

3 The latter five came as allies to the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea). 4 For twelve years they had been subject to Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year
they rebelled.

5 In the fourteenth year, Chedorlaomer and the kings allied with him went out and defeated the Rephaites in Ashteroth-kar-naim, the Zuzites in Ham, the Emites in Shaveh-kiriathaim, 6 and the Horites in the area of Mount Seir, as far as El-paran, which is near the desert. 7 Then they turned back to invade En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and they conquered the whole territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-tamar.

8 Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) marched out and arrayed themselves for battle in the Valley of Siddim 9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five.

ABRAM RESCUES LOT

10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some men fell into the pits,
but the survivors fled to the hill country.

11 The four kings seized all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food, and they went on their way. 12 They also carried off Abram's nephew Lot and his possessions, since Lot was living in Sodom.

13 Then an escapee came and reported this to Abram the Hebrew. Now Abram was living near the Oaks of Mamre the Amorite, a brother of Eshcol and Aner, all of whom were bound by treaty to Abram.
14 And when Abram heard that his relative had been captured, he mobilized the 318 trained men born in his household, and they set out in pursuit as far as Dan.

MELCHIZEDEK BLESSES ABRAM // PSALM 110:1–7; HEBREWS 7:1–10

17 After Abram returned from defeating Chedorlaomer and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine—since he was priest of God Most High— 19 and he blessed Abram and said:

"Blessed be Abram by God Most High,
Creator of heaven and earth,
20 and blessed be God Most High,
who has delivered your enemies into
your hand."

Then Abram gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything.

21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people, but take the goods for yourself."

22 But Abram replied to the king of Sodom,
"I have raised my hand to Yahweh God
Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, 23 that I will not accept even a thread, or a strap of a sandal, or anything that belongs to you, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich.' 24 I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten and the share for the men who went with me—Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. They may take their portion."

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Abram asks God how he can have a great family when he still has no son. God takes him outside and says, Count the stars. Abram believed Yahweh, and it was credited to him as righteousness, one of the most quoted verses in the New Testament. Then a smoking pot and a flaming torch pass between the cut animals while Abram sleeps. God put the whole promise on Himself.

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ABRAM // ROMANS 4:1–12; HEBREWS 11:8–19

1 After these events, the word of Yahweh came to Abram in a vision:

"Do not be afraid, Abram.
I am your shield,
your very great reward."

2 But Abram replied, "O Lord Yahweh, what can You give me, since I remain childless, and the heir of my house is
"Behold, You have given me no offspring,
so a servant in my household will be my heir."

4 Then the word of Yahweh came to Abram, saying, "This one will not be your heir, but one who comes from your own body will be your heir." 5 And Yahweh took him outside and said, "Now look to the heavens and count the stars, if you are able." Then He told him, "So shall your offspring be."

6 Abram believed Yahweh, and it was credited to him as righteousness.

7 Yahweh also told him, "I am Yahweh, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to possess."

Hebrews 7:3 says Melchizedek had no father, no mother and no family line, no beginning of days and no end of life, and was like the Son of God. Others say Genesis simply never names his parents, which makes him a picture of Jesus, our King and Priest forever.

8 But Abram replied, "Lord Yahweh, how can I know that I will possess it?" 9 And Yahweh said to him, "Bring Me a heifer, a goat, and a ram, each three years old, along with a turtledove and a young pigeon."
10 So Abram brought all these to Him, split
each of them down the middle, and laid the halves opposite each other. The birds, however, he did not cut in half. 11 And the birds of prey descended on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away. 12 As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and suddenly great terror and darkness overwhelmed him.
13 Then Yahweh said to Abram, "Know for cer- tain that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not their own, and they will be enslaved and mistreated four hundred years. 14
But I will judge the nation they serve as slaves, and afterward they will depart with many possessions. 15 You, however, will go to your fathers in peace and be buried at a ripe old age. 16 In the fourth generation your descendants will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete." 17 When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, behold, a smoking firepot and a flaming torch appeared and passed between the halves of the carcasses. 18 On that day Yahweh made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I have given this land—from the river of Egypt to the great River Euphrates— 19 the land of the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kad-monites, 20 Hittites, Perizzites, Rephaites, 21 Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites, and

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

Sarai gets tired of waiting and gives her servant Hagar to Abram, and the plan works about as well as you would expect. Hagar gets pregnant, Sarai gets jealous, and Hagar runs away into the desert. The angel of Yahweh finds her by a spring, and she gives God a new name: the God who sees me. Ishmael is born when Abram is 86.

HAGAR AND ISHMAEL

1 Now Abram's wife Sarai had borne him
no children, but she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar. 2 So Sarai said to Abram, "Look now, Yahweh has prevented me from bearing children. Please go to my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family by her."
And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.
3 So after he had lived in Canaan for ten years, his wife Sarai took her Egyptian maidservant Hagar and gave her to Abram to be his wife. 4 And he slept with Hagar, and she conceived. But when Hagar realized that she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE MIRACLES NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

HOW OLD IT IS
About 1500 to 1350 BC. That is a few hundred years after the traditional date for Abraham, which is one reason scholars no longer use them to date him.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
At the ancient town of Nuzi near Kirkuk in northern Iraq, dug up from 1925 to 1931.

WHERE IT IS TODAY
Most are at the Harvard Semitic Museum and the Iraq Museum in Baghdad.

WHAT IT SHOWS
One marriage contract says that if the wife has no children, she must give her husband a servant woman to have children for her. That is exactly what Sarai did with Hagar, and what Rachel and Leah later did with their servants.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE
Scholars once said customs like this proved the stories of Abraham were very old. Today most say these customs show up in many times and places, so they cannot date Abraham. They do show the story fits the real ancient world.

5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "May the wrong done to me be upon you! I delivered my servant into your arms, and ever since she saw that she was pregnant, she has treated me with contempt. May Yahweh judge between you and me."

6 "Here," said Abram, "your servant is in your hands. Do whatever you want with her." Then Sarai treated Hagar so harshly that she fled from her.

7 Now the angel of Yahweh found Hagar by a spring of water in the desert—the spring along the road to Shur. 8 "Hagar, servant of Sarai," he said, "where have you come from, and where are you going?"

"I am running away from my mistress Sarai," she replied.

9 So the angel of Yahweh told her, "Return to your mistress and submit to her authority." 10 Then the angel added, "I will greatly multiply your offspring so that they will be too numerous to count."

11 The angel of Yahweh proceeded:

"Behold, you have conceived and will bear
a son.
And you shall name him Ishmael,
for Yahweh has heard your cry of affliction.
12 He will be a wild donkey of a man,
and his hand will be against everyone,
and everyone's hand against him;
he will live in hostility toward all his brothers."

13 So Hagar gave this name to Yahweh who had spoken to her: "You are the God who sees me," for she said, "Here I have seen the One who sees me!" 14 Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi. It is located between Kadesh and Bered.

15 And Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son
she had borne. 16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to him.

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS
Abram is 99 when God appears again and changes his name to Abraham, father of many nations, and Sarai to Sarah. God gives the sign of the covenant, circumcision, and every man in the house gets it the same day. Abraham falls on his face laughing when God says Sarah will have a son at 90. So God names the baby Isaac, which means he laughs.

ABRAHAM TO FATHER MANY NATIONS

Yahweh appeared to him and said, "I am blameless. 2 I will establish My covenant

GEN 16:15 [NOTABLE] Ishmael is born. Arabs have long seen Ishmael as their ancestor. Islamic tradition says Muhammad, who started Islam around AD 610, came from Ishmael's family line, most often through his son Kedar in 25:13. Muslim historians agree Muhammad descended from a man named Adnan, but even they do not agree on the names between Adnan and Ishmael. The Bible itself never names Muhammad.

between Me and you, and I will multiply you exceedingly."

3 Then Abram fell facedown, and God said to him, 4 "As for Me, this is My covenant with you: You will be the father of many nations. 5 No longer will you be called Abram, but your name will be Abraham, for I have made you a father of many nations.

6 I will make you exceedingly fruitful; I will make nations of you, and kings will descend from you.

7 I will establish My covenant as an everlasting covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.

8 And to you and your descendants I will give the land where you are residing—all the land of Canaan—as an eternal possession; and I will be their God."

THE COVENANT OF CIRCUMCISION

9 God also said to Abraham, "You must keep My covenant—you and your descendants in the generations after you. 10 This is My covenant with you and your descendants after you, which you are to keep: Every male among you must be circumcised. 11 You are to circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and this will be a sign of the covenant between Me and you.

12 Generation after generation, every male must be circumcised when he is eight days old, including those born in your household and those purchased from a foreigner—even those who are not your offspring. 13 Whether they are born in your household or purchased, they must be circumcised. My covenant in your flesh will be an everlasting covenant.

14 But if any male is not circumcised, he will be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant."

15 Then God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, do not call her Sarai, for her name is to be Sarah. 16 And I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she will be the mother of nations; kings of peoples will descend from her."

17 Abraham fell facedown. Then he laughed and said to himself, "Can a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Can Sarah give birth at the age of ninety?" 18 And Abraham said to God, "O that Ishmael might live under Your blessing!"

19 But God replied, "Your wife Sarah will indeed bear you a son, and you are to name him Isaac. I will establish My covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him. 20 As for Ishmael, I have heard you, and I will surely bless him; I will make him fruitful and multiply him greatly. He will become the father of twelve rulers, and I will make him into a great nation. 21 But I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this time next year."

22 When He had finished speaking with Abraham, God went up from him.

23 On that very day Abraham took his son Ishmael and all those born in his household or purchased with his money—every male among the members of Abraham's household—and he circumcised them, just as God had told him.

24 So Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised, 25 and his son Ishmael was thirteen; 26 Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised on the same day. 27 And all the men of Abraham's household—both servants born in his household and those purchased from foreigners—were circumcised with him.

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

Three visitors come for lunch, and one of them is Yahweh. He says Sarah will have a son by this time next year, and Sarah laughs behind the tent door and then denies it. Then Abraham bargains with God over Sodom like a buyer working a deal, from fifty righteous people all the way down to ten. God says yes every time.

THE THREE VISITORS

1 Then Yahweh appeared to Abraham by the Oaks of Mamre in the heat of the day, while he was sitting at the entrance of his tent. 2 And Abraham looked up and saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground.

3 "My lord," said Abraham, "if I have found favor in your sight, please do not pass your servant by. 4 Let a little water be brought, that you may wash your feet and rest yourselves under the tree. 5 And I will bring a bit of bread so that you may refresh yourselves. This is why you have passed your servant's way. After that, you may continue on your way."

"Yes," they replied, "you may do as you have said."

6 So Abraham hurried into the tent and said to Sarah, "Quick! Prepare eighteen quarts of fine flour, knead it, and bake some bread."

7 Meanwhile, Abraham ran to the herd, selected a tender and choice calf, and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it. 8
Then Abraham brought curds and milk and the calf that had been prepared, and he set them before the men and stood by them under the tree as they ate.

SARAH LAUGHS AT THE PROMISE

9 "Where is your wife Sarah?" they asked.

"There, in the tent," he replied.

10 Then Yahweh said, "I will surely return to you at this time next year, and your wife Sarah will have a son!"

Now Sarah was behind him, listening at the entrance to the tent. 11 And Abraham and Sarah were already old and well along in years; Sarah had passed the age of childbearing. 12 So she laughed to herself, saying, "After I am worn out and my master is old, will I now have this pleasure?"

13 And Yahweh asked Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Can I really bear a child when I am old?' 14 Is anything too difficult for Yahweh? At the appointed time I will return to you—in about a year—and Sarah will have a son."

15 But Sarah was afraid, so she denied it and said, "I did not laugh."

"No," replied Yahweh, "but you did laugh."

ABRAHAM INTERCEDES FOR SODOM

16 When the men got up to leave, they looked out over Sodom, and Abraham walked along with them to see them off.

17 And Yahweh said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do? 18 Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation, and through him all the nations of the earth will be blessed. 19 For I have chosen him, so that he will command his children and his household after him to keep the way of Yahweh by doing what is right and just, in order that Yahweh may bring upon Abraham what He has promised."

20 Then Yahweh said, "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great. Because their sin is so grievous, 21 I will go down to see if their actions fully justify the outcry that has reached Me. If not, I will find out."

22 And the two men turned away and went toward Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before Yahweh.

23 Abraham stepped forward and said,
"Will You really sweep away the righteous with the wicked? 24 What if there are fifty righteous ones in the city? Will You really sweep it away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous ones who are there? 25 Far be it from You to do such a thing—to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous and the wicked are treated alike. Far be it from You! Will not the Judge of all the earth do what is right?"

26 So Yahweh replied, "If I find fifty righteous ones within the city of Sodom, on their account I will spare the whole place."

27 Then Abraham answered, "Now that I have ventured to speak to the Lord—though I am but dust and ashes—28 suppose the fifty righteous ones lack five. Will You destroy the whole city for the lack of five?"

He replied, "If I find forty-five there, I will not destroy it."

29 Once again Abraham spoke to Yahweh,
"Suppose forty are found there?"

He answered, "On account of the forty, I will not do it."

30 Then Abraham said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak further. Suppose thirty are found there?"

He replied, "If I find thirty there, I will not

31 And Abraham said, "Now that I have ventured to speak to the Lord, suppose twenty are found there?"

He answered, "On account of the twenty, I

32 Finally, Abraham said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak once more.
Suppose ten are found there?"

And He answered, "On account of the ten,
I will not destroy it."

33 When Yahweh had finished speaking with Abraham, He departed, and Abraham returned home.

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Two angels arrive in Sodom, and the men of the city surround Lot's house to attack them. The angels strike the mob blind and pull Lot's family out by the hand. Fire and burning sulfur fall on Sodom and Gomorrah, and Lot's wife looks back and becomes a pillar of salt. The chapter ends with a sad family story that explains where two enemy nations came from.

LOT WELCOMES THE ANGELS // JUDGES 19:1–30

1 Now the two angels arrived at Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of the city. When Lot saw them,
he got up to meet them, bowed facedown,
2 and said, "My lords, please turn aside into the house of your servant; wash your feet and spend the night. Then you can rise early and go on your way."

"No," they answered, "we will spend the night in the square."

3 But Lot insisted so strongly that they followed him into his house. He prepared a feast for them and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 Before they had gone to bed, all the men of the city of Sodom, both young and old, surrounded the house. 5 They called out to Lot, saying, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Send them out to us so we can have relations with them!"

6 Lot went outside to meet them, shutting the door behind him. 7 "Please, my brothers," he pleaded, "don't do such a wicked thing! 8 Look, I have two daughters who have never slept with a man. Let me bring them to you, and you can do to them as you please. But do not do anything to these men, for they have come under the protection of my roof."

9 "Get out of the way!" they replied. And they declared, "This one came here as a foreigner, and he is already acting like a judge! Now we will treat you worse than them." And they pressed in on Lot and moved in to break down the door.

10 But the men inside reached out, pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door. 11 And they struck the men at the entrance, young and old, with blindness, so that they wearied themselves trying to find the door.

LOT FLEES TO ZOAR

12 Then the two men said to Lot, "Do you have anyone else here—a son-in-law, your sons or daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you? Get them out of here, 13 because we are about to destroy this place. For the outcry to Yahweh against its people is so great that He has sent us to destroy it."

14 So Lot went out and spoke to the sons-in-law who were pledged in marriage to his daughters. "Get up," he said. "Get out of this place, for Yahweh is about to destroy the city!" But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

15 At daybreak the angels hurried Lot along, saying, "Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city." 16 But when Lot hesitated, the men grabbed his hand and the hands of his wife and his two daughters. And they led them safely out of the city, because of Yahweh's compassion for them.

17 As soon as the men had brought them out, one of them said, "Run for your lives! Do not look back, and do not stop anywhere on the plain! Flee to the mountains, or you will be swept away!"

18 But Lot replied, "No, my lords, please! 19 Your servant has indeed found favor in your sight, and you have shown me great kindness by sparing my life. But I cannot run to the mountains; the disaster will overtake me, and I will die. 20 Look, there is a town nearby where I can flee, and it is a small place. Please let me flee there—is it not a small place? Then my life will be saved."

21 "Very well," he answered, "I will grant this request as well, and will not demolish the town you indicate. 22 Hurry! Run there quickly, for I cannot do anything until you reach it." That is why the town was called Zoar.

23 And by the time the sun had risen over the land, Lot had reached Zoar.

THE DESTRUCTION OF SODOM AND GOMORRAH // LUKE 17:20–37

24 Then Yahweh rained down sulfur and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah—from Yahweh out of the heavens. 25 Thus He destroyed these cities and the entire plain, including all the inhabitants of the cities and everything that grew on the ground.

26 But Lot's wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 Early the next morning, Abraham got up and returned to the place where he had stood before Yahweh. 28 He looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and all the land of the plain, and he saw the smoke rising from the land like smoke from a furnace.

29 So when God destroyed the cities of the plain, He remembered Abraham, and He brought Lot out of the catastrophe that destroyed the cities where he had lived.

LOT AND HIS DAUGHTERS

30 Lot and his two daughters left Zoar and settled in the mountains—for he was afraid to stay in Zoar—where they lived in a cave.

31 One day the older daughter said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to sleep with us, as is the custom over all the earth. 32 Come, let us get our father drunk with wine so we can sleep with him and preserve his line."

33 So that night they got their father drunk with wine, and the firstborn went in and slept with her father; he was not aware when she lay down or when she got up.

34 The next day the older daughter said to the younger, "Look, I slept with my father last night. Let us get him drunk with wine

35 So again that night they got their father drunk with wine, and the younger daughter went in and slept with him; he was not aware when she lay down or when she got up.

36 Thus both of Lot's daughters became pregnant by their father. 37 The older daughter gave birth to a son and named him Moab. He is the father of the Moabites of today. 38 The younger daughter also gave birth to a son, and she named him Ben-ammi. He is the father of the Ammonites of today.

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

Abraham tells the same lie again, that Sarah is his sister, this time to King Abimelech of Gerar. God warns Abimelech in a dream that he is as good as dead if he touches her. The pagan king ends up acting more honest than the prophet, and Abraham has to pray for him to clean up the mess.

ABRAHAM, SARAH, AND ABIMELECH

1 Now Abraham journeyed from there to the region of the Negev and settled between Kadesh and Shur. While he was staying in Gerar, 2 Abraham said of his wife Sarah, "She is my sister." So Abimelech king of Gerar had Sarah brought to him.

3 One night, however, God came to Abimelech in a dream and told him, "You are as good as dead because of the woman you have taken, for she is a married woman."

4 Now Abimelech had not gone near her, so he replied, "Lord, would You destroy a nation even though it is innocent? 5 Didn't Abraham tell me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself said, 'He is my brother.' I have done this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands."

6 Then God said to Abimelech in the dream, "Yes, I know that you did this with a clear conscience, and so I have kept you from sinning against Me. That is why I did not let you touch her. 7 Now return the man's wife, for he is a prophet; he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not restore her, be aware that you will surely die—you and all who belong to you."

8 Early the next morning Abimelech got up and summoned all his servants; and when he described to them all that had happened, the men were terrified.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham and asked, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought such tremendous guilt upon me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that should not be done." 10 Abimelech also asked Abraham, "What prompted you to do such a thing?"

11 Abraham replied, "I thought to myself, 'Surely there is no fear of God in this place. They will kill me on account of my wife.' 12 Besides, she really is my sister, the daughter of my father—though not the daughter of my mother—and she became my wife. 13 So when God had me journey from my father's house, I said to Sarah, 'This is how you can show your loyalty to me: Wherever we go, say of me, "He is my brother."'"

14 So Abimelech brought sheep and cattle, menservants and maidservants, and he gave them to Abraham and restored his wife Sarah to him. 15 And Abimelech said, "Look, my land is before you. Settle wherever you please." 16 And he said to Sarah, "See, I am giving your brother a thousand pieces of silver. It is your vindication before all who are with you; you are completely cleared."

17 Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his maidservants, so that they could again bear children— 18 for on account of Abraham's wife Sarah, Yahweh had completely closed all the wombs in Abimelech's household.

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

Isaac is finally born, right on schedule, and Sarah says God has made her laugh. Hagar and Ishmael are sent away and nearly die of thirst in the desert, but God hears the boy crying and opens Hagar's eyes to see a well. Abraham makes a peace treaty over a well at Beersheba and calls on the name of the Everlasting God.

THE BIRTH OF ISAAC

1 Now Yahweh attended to Sarah as He had said, and Yahweh did for Sarah what He had promised. 2 So Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age,
at the very time God had promised.

3 And Abraham gave the name Isaac to the son Sarah bore to him. 4 When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him, as God had commanded him. 5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

6 Then Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and everyone who hears of this will laugh with me." 7 She added, "Who would have told Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

8 So the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham held a great feast on the day
Isaac was weaned.

SARAH TURNS AGAINST HAGAR // GALATIANS 4:21–30

9 But Sarah saw that the son whom Hagar
the Egyptian had borne to Abraham was mocking her son, 10 and she said to Abraham, "Expel the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with my son Isaac!"

11 Now this matter distressed Abraham greatly because it concerned his son Ishmael. 12 But God said to Abraham, "Do not be distressed about the boy and your maidser-vant. Listen to everything that Sarah tells you, for through Isaac your offspring will be reckoned. 13 But I will also make a nation of the slave woman's son, because he is your offspring."

14 Early in the morning, Abraham got up, took bread and a skin of water, put them
on Hagar's shoulders, and sent her away with the boy. She left and wandered in the Wilderness of Beersheba. 15 When the water in the skin was gone, she left the boy under one of the bushes. 16 Then she went off and sat down nearby, about a bowshot away, for she said, "I cannot bear to watch the boy die!" And as she sat nearby, she lifted up her voice and wept.

17 Then God heard the voice of the boy, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, "What is wrong, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he lies. 18 Get up, lift up the boy, and take him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation." 19 Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

20 And God was with the boy, and he grew up and settled in the wilderness and became a great archer. 21 And while he was dwelling in the Wilderness of Paran, his

Sarah demands that Hagar and Ishmael leave, and Abraham sends them into the desert with bread and water. Here the family splits in two. Isaac's line becomes the Jewish people, and Ishmael's line is seen as the father of the Arab peoples. Many Bible teachers trace the tension between Israel and her neighbors back to this family break. Today's wars also have modern causes like land, politics and religion, but the family split starts right here.

THE COVENANT AT BEERSHEBA

22 At that time Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his army said to Abraham, "God is with you in all that you do. 23 Now, therefore, swear to me here before God that you will not deal falsely with me or my children or descendants. Show to me and to the country in which you reside the same kindness that I have shown to you."

24 And Abraham replied, "I swear it."

25 But when Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well that Abimelech's servants had seized, 26 Abimelech replied, "I do not know who has done this. You did not tell me, so I have not heard about it until today."

27 So Abraham brought sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a covenant. 28 Abraham separated seven ewe lambs from the flock, 29 and Abimelech asked him, "Why have you set apart these seven ewe lambs?"

30 He replied, "You are to accept the seven ewe lambs from my hand as my witness that I dug this well." 31 So that place was called Beersheba, because it was there that the two of them swore an oath. 32 After they had made the covenant at Beersheba, Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his army got up and returned to the land of the Philistines.

33 And Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called upon the name of Yahweh, the Eternal God. 34 And Abraham resided in the land of the Philistines for a long time.

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS

The hardest test in the whole book. God tells Abraham to offer his only son Isaac on a mountain in Moriah. Isaac carries the wood and asks where the lamb is, and Abraham answers, God Himself will provide the lamb. At the last second the angel of Yahweh stops him, and a ram caught in a bush takes Isaac's place. About two thousand years later God did not spare His own Son.

THE OFFERING OF ISAAC // JOHN 3:1–21

1 Some time later God tested Abraham and said to him, "Abraham!"

"Here I am," he answered.

2 "Take your son," God said, "your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. Offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains, which I will show you."

3 So Abraham got up early the next morning, saddled his donkey, and took along two of his servants and his son Isaac. He split the wood for a burnt offering and set out for the place God had designated.

4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. 5 "Stay here with the donkey," Abraham told his servants. "The boy and I will go over there to worship, and then we will return to you."

6 Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac. He himself carried the fire and the sacrificial knife, and the two of them walked on together.

7 Then Isaac said to his father Abraham, "My father!"

"Here I am, my son," he replied.

"The fire and the wood are here," said Isaac, "but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"

8 Abraham answered, "God Himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." And the two walked on together.

9 When they arrived at the place God had designated, Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood. He bound his son Isaac and placed him on the altar, atop the wood. 10 Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to slaughter his son.

13 Then Abraham looked up and saw behind him a ram in a thicket, caught by its horns. So he went and took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering in place of his son. 14 And Abraham called that place Yahweh Will Provide. So to this day it is said, "On the mountain of Yahweh it will be provided."

15 And the angel of Yahweh called to Abraham from heaven a second time, 16 *saying, "By Myself I have sworn, declares Yahweh, that because you have done this and have not withheld your only son, 17 I will surely bless you, and I will multiply your descendants like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore. CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

Sarah dies at 127, and Abraham needs a place to bury her. He buys the cave of Machpelah from Ephron the Hittite in front of witnesses at the city gate, the most polite and most expensive real estate deal in the Bible. Ephron keeps offering the land for free while naming his price, ten pounds of silver. Abraham pays in full and owns his first piece of the Promised Land.

THE DEATH AND BURIAL OF SARAH

1 Now Sarah lived to be 127 years old. 2 She died in Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went out to mourn and to weep for her.

3 Then Abraham got up from beside his dead wife and said to the Hittites, 4 "I am a foreigner and an outsider among you. Give me a burial site among you so that I can bury my dead."

5 The Hittites replied to Abraham, 6 "Listen to us, sir. You are God's chosen one among us. Bury your dead in the finest of our tombs. None of us will withhold his tomb for burying your dead."

7 Then Abraham rose and bowed down before the people of the land, the Hittites. 8 "If you are willing for me to bury my dead," he said to them, "listen to me, and approach Ephron son of Zohar on my behalf 9 to sell me the cave of Machpelah that belongs to him; it is at the end of his field. Let him sell it to me in your presence for full price, so that I may have a burial site."

10 Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth. So in the presence of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of his city, Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham, 11 "No, my lord. Listen to me. I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. I give it to you in the presence of my people. Bury your dead."

12 Again Abraham bowed down before the people of the land 13 and said to Ephron in their presence, "If you will please listen to me, I will pay you the price of the field.

Accept it from me, so that I may bury my dead there."

14 Ephron answered Abraham, 15 "Listen to me, my lord. The land is worth ten pounds of silver, but what is that between you and me? Bury your dead."

16 Abraham agreed to Ephron's terms and weighed out for him the price he had named in the hearing of the Hittites: ten pounds of silver, according to the standard of the merchants.

17 So Ephron's field at Machpelah near Mamre, the cave that was in it, and all the trees within the boundaries of the field were deeded over 18 to Abraham's possession in the presence of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of his city. 19 After this, Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave of the field at Machpelah near Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan. 20 So the field and its cave were deeded by the Hittites to Abraham as a burial site.

THE LOST HITTITE EMPIRE

GENESIS 23:3 TO 20 · GENESIS 26:34 · JOSHUA 1:4 · 2 KINGS 7:6

The Lion Gate at Hattusa, the Hittite capital, in central Turkey.

WHAT IT IS

Hattusa, the capital city of the Hittite empire, one of the great powers of the Bronze Age. Its walls, gates and temples still stand in central Turkey.

HOW OLD IT IS

Hattusa was the Hittite capital from about 1650 to 1180 BC. The peace treaty with Ramesses II is from about 1259 BC. That is later than the traditional date for Abraham, so whether the Hittites of Hebron were part of this empire is disputed.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

German archaeologist Hugo Winckler began digging at Bogazkoy in 1906 and found a royal archive of thousands of clay tablets.

WHAT WAS INSIDE

Among the tablets was a copy of a peace treaty between the Hittite king and Pharaoh Ramesses II of Egypt.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The ruins are a World Heritage Site near Bogazkale, Turkey. Many tablets are in the Museum of Anatolian Civilizations in Ankara and the Istanbul Archaeology Museums.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

In the 1800s some critics doubted the Hittites of the Bible, because so little was known about them. Once their capital was dug up, nobody could doubt they were real.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The Hittite empire was far to the north in Turkey. The sons of Heth living in Hebron may be a different, smaller group with a similar name. Scholars still debate the link.

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

Abraham sends his oldest servant to find a wife for Isaac among his relatives. The servant prays for a very specific sign, and before he finishes praying Rebekah shows up and offers to water all ten of his camels. That is a lot of water, since one thirsty camel can drink about 30 gallons. Isaac meets her in a field at sunset, and he loves her.

A WIFE FOR ISAAC

1 By now Abraham was old and well along in years, and Yahweh had blessed him in every way. 2 So Abraham instructed the chief servant of his household, who managed all he owned, "Place your hand under my thigh, 3 and I will have you swear by Yahweh, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Canaanites among whom I am dwelling, 4 but will go to my country and my kindred to take a wife for my son Isaac."

5 The servant asked him, "What if the woman is unwilling to follow me to this land? Shall I then take your son back to the land from which you came?"

6 Abraham replied, "Make sure that you do not take my son back there. 7 Yahweh, the God of heaven, who brought me from my father's house and my native land, who spoke to me and promised me on oath, saying, 'To your offspring I will give this land'—He will send His angel before you so that you can take a wife for my son from there. 8 And if the woman is unwilling to follow you, then you are released from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there."

9 So the servant placed his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore an oath to him concerning this matter.

10 Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed with all manner of good things from his master in hand. And he set out for Nahor's hometown in Aram-naharaim. 11 As evening approached, he made the camels kneel down near the well outside the town at the time when the women went out to draw water.

12 "O Yahweh, God of my master Abraham," he prayed, "please grant me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham. 13 Here I am, standing beside the spring, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water. 14 Now may it happen that the girl to whom I say, 'Please let down your jar that I may drink,' and who responds, 'Drink, and I will water your camels as well'—let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. By this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master."

REBEKAH IS CHOSEN

15 Before the servant had finished praying, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor. 16 Now the girl was very beautiful, a virgin who had not had relations with any man. She went down to the spring, filled her jar, and came up again.

17 So the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me have a little water from your jar."

18 "Drink, my lord," she replied, and she quickly lowered her jar to her hands and gave him a drink.

19 After she had given him a drink, she said, "I will also draw water for your camels, until they have had enough to drink." 20 And she quickly emptied her jar into the trough and ran back to the well to draw water, until she had drawn water for all his camels.

21 Meanwhile, the man watched her silently to see whether or not Yahweh had made his journey a success.

22 And after the camels had finished drinking, he took out a gold ring weighing a fifth of an ounce, and two gold bracelets for her wrists weighing four ounces. 23 "Whose daughter are you?" he asked. "Please tell me, is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?"

24 She replied, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son that Milcah bore to Nahor." 25 Then she added, "We have plenty of straw and feed, as well as a place for you to spend the night."

26 Then the man bowed down and worshiped Yahweh, 27 saying, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who has not withheld His kindness and faithfulness from my master. As for me, Yahweh has led me on the journey to the house of my master's relatives."

28 The girl ran and told her mother's household about these things. 29 Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and he rushed out to the man at the spring. 30 As soon as he saw the ring, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and heard Rebekah's words, "The man said this to me," he went and found the man standing by the camels near the spring.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

31 "Come, you who are blessed by Yahweh," said Laban. "Why are you standing out here? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels." 32 So the man came to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and feed were brought to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of his companions.
33 Then a meal was set before the man, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told you what I came to say."
So Laban said, "Please speak."
34 "I am Abraham's servant," he replied. 35
"Yahweh has greatly blessed my master, and he has become rich. He has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, menservants and maidservants, camels and donkeys. 36 My master's wife Sarah has borne him a son in her old age, and my master has given him everything he owns.
37 My master made me swear an oath and said, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose land I dwell, 38 but you shall go to my father's house and to my kindred to take a wife for my son.'
39 Then I asked my master, 'What if the woman will not come back with me?'
40 And he told me, 'Yahweh, before whom I have walked, will send His angel with you and make your journey a success, so that you may take a wife for my son from my kindred and from my father's house. 41 And when you go to my kindred, if they refuse to give her to you, then you will be released from my oath.' 42 So when I came to the spring today, I prayed: O Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, if only You would make my journey a success! 43 Here I am, standing beside this spring. Now if a maiden comes out to draw water and I say to her, 'Please let me drink a little water from your jar,' 44 and she replies, 'Drink, and I will draw water for your camels as well,' may she be the woman Yahweh has appointed for my master's son.
45 And before I had finished praying in my heart, there was Rebekah coming out with her jar on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew water. So I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.' 46 She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and said, 'Drink, and I will water your camels as well.' So I drank, and she also watered the camels.
47 Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are
you?'
She replied, 'The daughter of Bethuel son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.' So I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. 48 Then I bowed down and worshiped Yahweh; and I blessed Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who led me on the right road to take the granddaughter of my master's brother for his son.
49 Now if you will show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me; but if not, let me know, so that I may go elsewhere." 50 Laban and Bethuel answered, "This is from Yahweh; we have no choice in the matter. 51 Rebekah is here before you.
Take her and go, and let her become the wife of your master's son, just as Yahweh has decreed."
52 When Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed down to the ground before Yahweh. 53 Then he brought out jewels of silver and gold, and articles of clothing, and he gave them to Rebekah.
He also gave precious gifts to her brother and her mother. 54 Then he and the men with him ate and drank and spent the night there.
When they got up the next morning, he said, "Send me on my way to my master." 55 But her brother and mother said, "Let the girl remain with us ten days or so. After that, she may go." 56 But he replied, "Do not delay me, since Yahweh has made my journey a success.
Send me on my way so that I may go to my master."
57 So they said, "We will call the girl and ask her opinion."

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS

Abraham dies at 175 and is buried next to Sarah. Rebekah has twins who are already wrestling before they are born, and God says the older will serve the younger. Esau grows up hairy and outdoorsy, and Jacob grows up quiet and clever. One day Esau comes home starving and trades his birthright for a bowl of red stew, the worst deal in history.

ABRAHAM AND KETURAH // 1 CHRONICLES 1:32–33

1 Now Abraham had taken another wife, named Keturah, 2 and she bore him Zim-ran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.
3 Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushites, and the Leum-

4 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah.
All these were descendants of Keturah.
5 Abraham left everything he owned to Isaac. 6 But while he was still alive, Abraham gave gifts to the sons of his concu-

Isaac to the land of the east.

THE DEATH OF ABRAHAM

7 Abraham lived a total of 175 years. 8 And at a ripe old age he breathed his last and died, old and contented, and was gathered to his people.
9 His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah near Mamre, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite. 10
This was the field that Abraham had bought from the Hittites. Abraham was buried there with his wife Sarah.
11 After Abraham's death, God blessed his son Isaac, who lived near Beer-lahai-roi.

Ishmael, whom Hagar the Egyptian,

the firstborn of Ishmael, then Kedar, Ad-
beel, Mibsam, 14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa, 15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.
16 These were the sons of Ishmael, and these were their names by their villages

their tribes. 17 Ishmael lived a total of 137 years. Then he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.

JACOB AND ESAU // MALACHI 1:1–5; ROMANS 9:6–29

19 This is the account of Abraham's son Isaac. Abraham became the father of Isaac, 20 and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan-aram and the sister of Laban the Aramean.

21 Later, Isaac prayed to Yahweh on behalf of his wife, because she was barren. And Yahweh heard his prayer, and his wife Rebekah conceived.

22 But the children inside her struggled with each other, and she said, "Why is this happening to me?" So Rebekah went to inquire of Yahweh, 23 and He declared to her:

"Two nations are in your womb,
and two peoples from within you will be separated;
one people will be stronger than the other,
and the older will serve the younger."

24 When her time came to give birth, there were indeed twins in her womb. 25 The first one came out red, covered with hair like a fur coat; so they named him Esau. 26 After this, his brother came out grasping Esau's heel; so he was named Jacob. And Isaac was sixty years old when the twins were born.

27 When the boys grew up, Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a quiet man who stayed at home. 28 Because Isaac had a taste for wild game, he loved Esau; but Rebekah loved Jacob.

ESAU SELLS HIS BIRTHRIGHT

29 One day, while Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the field and was famished. 30 He said to Jacob, "Let me eat some of that red stew, for I am famished." (That is why he was also called Edom.)

31 "First sell me your birthright," Jacob replied.

32 "Look," said Esau, "I am about to die, so what good is a birthright to me?"

33 "Swear to me first," Jacob said.

So Esau swore to Jacob and sold him the birthright. 34 Then Jacob gave some bread and lentil stew to Esau, who ate and drank and then got up and went away. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

CHAPTER 26 IN 30 SECONDS

A famine hits, and God tells Isaac to stay in the land because He will keep every promise He made to Abraham. Isaac then tells the exact same lie his father told, that his wife is his sister. Like father, like son. Isaac's men keep digging wells and the locals keep taking them, until he finally finds one nobody fights over and names it Room.

GOD'S PROMISE TO ISAAC // GENESIS 12:1–9

1 Now there was another famine in the land, subsequent to the one that had occurred in Abraham's time. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines at Gerar.

2 Yahweh appeared to Isaac and said, "Do not go down to Egypt. Settle in the land where I tell you. 3 Stay in this land as a foreigner, and I will be with you and bless you. For I will give all these lands to you and your offspring, and I will confirm the oath that I swore to your father Abraham. 4 I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky, and I will give them all these lands, and through your offspring all nations of the earth will be blessed, 5 because Abraham listened to My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws."

Esau traded all of it for one bowl of soup because he was hungry right now. Hebrews 12:16 to 17 uses him as a warning: do not trade what God has promised you for something that feels good today. Jacob does not look great here either, since he took advantage of his brother. Esau's nickname Edom means red, and his family became the Edomites, who fought with Israel for centuries.

MIRACLES GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

ISAAC DECEIVES ABIMELECH

6 So Isaac settled in Gerar. 7 But when the men of that place asked about his wife, he said, "She is my sister." For he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," since he thought to himself, "The men of this place will kill me on account of Rebekah, because she is so beautiful."

8 When Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked down from the window and was surprised to see Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah. 9 Abimelech sent for Isaac and said, "So she is really your wife! How could you say,
'She is my sister'?"

Isaac replied, "Because I thought I might die on account of her."

10 "What is this you have done to us?"
asked Abimelech. "One of the people could easily have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us." 11
So Abimelech warned all the people, saying, "Whoever harms this man or his wife will surely be put to death."

ISAAC'S PROSPERITY

12 Now Isaac sowed seed in the land, and that very year he reaped a hundredfold.
And Yahweh blessed him, 13 and he became richer and richer, until he was exceedingly wealthy. 14 He owned so many flocks and herds and servants that the Philistines envied him. 15 So the Philistines took dirt and stopped up all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the days of his father Abraham.

16 Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Depart from us, for you are much too powerful for us."

17 So Isaac left that place and encamped in the Valley of Gerar and settled there. 18 Isaac reopened the wells that had been dug in the days of his father Abraham, which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died. And he gave these wells the same names his father had given
them.

19 Then Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found a well of fresh water there. 20
But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen and said, "The water is ours!" So he named the well Esek, because they contended with him.

21 Then they dug another well and quarreled over that one also; so he named it Sitnah.

22 He moved on from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it.
He named it Rehoboth and said, "At last Yahweh has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

23 From there Isaac went up to Beersheba, 24 and that night Yahweh appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of My servant Abraham."

25 So Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of Yahweh, and he pitched his tent there. His servants also dug a well there.

ISAAC'S COVENANT WITH ABIMELECH

26 Later, Abimelech came to Isaac from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phi-col the commander of his army.

27 "Why have you come to me?" Isaac asked them. "You hated me and sent me away."

28 "We can plainly see that Yahweh has been with you," they replied. "We recommend that there should now be an oath between us and you. Let us make a covenant with you 29 that you will not harm us, just as we have not harmed you but have done only good to you, sending you on your way in peace. And now you are blessed by Yahweh."

30 So Isaac prepared a feast for them, and they ate and drank. 31 And they got up early the next morning and swore an oath to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace.

32 On that same day, Isaac's servants came and told him about the well they had dug. "We have found water!" they told him. 33 So he called it Shibah, and to this day the name of the city is Beersheba.

ESAU'S WIVES

34 When Esau was forty years old, he took as his wives Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite and Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite. 35 And they brought grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

27

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

Isaac is old and blind and ready to bless Esau. Rebekah dresses Jacob in Esau's clothes and puts goat skins on his arms so he feels hairy, and the trick works. Jacob steals the blessing. Esau comes home, finds out and plans to kill his brother as soon as their father dies. This family has some issues.

ISAAC BLESSES JACOB // HEBREWS 11:20

1 When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could no longer see, he called his older son Esau and said to him, "My son."

"Here I am," Esau replied.

2 "Look," said Isaac, "I am now old, and I do not know the day of my death. 3 Take your weapons—your quiver and bow—and go out into the field to hunt some game for me. 4 Then prepare a tasty dish that I love and bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I die."

5 Now Rebekah was listening to what Isaac told his son Esau. So when Esau went into the field to hunt game and bring it back, 6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Behold, I overheard your father saying to your brother Esau, 7 'Bring me some game and prepare me a tasty dish to eat, so that I may bless you in the presence of Yahweh before I die.'

8 Now, my son, listen to my voice and do exactly as I tell you. 9 Go out to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, so that I can make them into a tasty dish for your father—the kind he loves. 10 Then take it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before he dies."

11 Jacob answered his mother Rebekah, "Look, my brother Esau is a hairy man, but I am smooth-skinned. 12 What if my father touches me? Then I would be revealed to him as a deceiver, and I would bring upon myself a curse rather than a blessing."

13 His mother replied, "Your curse be on me, my son. Just obey my voice and go get them for me."

14 So Jacob went and got two goats and brought them to his mother, who made the tasty food his father loved. 15 And Rebekah took the finest clothes in the house that belonged to her older son Esau, and she put them on her younger son Jacob. 16 She also put the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck. 17 Then she handed her son Jacob the tasty food and bread she had made.

18 So Jacob went to his father and said, "My father."

"Here I am!" he answered. "Which one are you, my son?"

19 Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau, your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may bless me."

20 But Isaac asked his son, "How did you ever find it so quickly, my son?"

"Because Yahweh your God brought it to me," he replied.

21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come closer so I can touch you, my son. Are you really my son Esau, or not?"

22 So Jacob came close to his father Isaac, who touched him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau." 23 Isaac did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him.

24 Again he asked, "Are you really my son Esau?"

And he replied, "I am."

25 "Serve me," said Isaac, "and let me eat some of my son's game, so that I may bless you."

Jacob brought it to him, and he ate; then he brought him wine, and he drank.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

26 Then his father Isaac said to him,
"Please come near and kiss me, my son."
27 So he came near and kissed him. When Isaac smelled his clothing, he blessed him
and said:

"Ah, the smell of my son
is like the smell of a field
that Yahweh has blessed.
28 May God give to you the dew of heaven and the richness of the earth—
an abundance of grain and new wine.
29 May peoples serve you
and nations bow down to you.
May you be the master of your brothers,
and may the sons of your mother bow
down to you.
May those who curse you be cursed,
and those who bless you be blessed."

ESAU'S LOST HOPE

30 As soon as Isaac had finished blessing him and Jacob had left his father's presence, his brother Esau returned from the hunt. 31 He too made some tasty food, brought it to his father, and said to him,
"My father, sit up and eat of your son's game, so that you may bless me." 32 But his father Isaac replied, "Who are
you?"
"I am Esau, your firstborn son," he answered.
33 Isaac began to tremble violently and said, "Who was it, then, who hunted the game and brought it to me? Before you came in, I ate it all and blessed him—and indeed, he will be blessed!" 34 When Esau heard his father's words, he let out a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me too, O my father!" 35 But Isaac replied, "Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing." 36 So Esau declared, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has cheated me twice. He took my birthright, and now he has taken my blessing." Then he asked,
"Haven't you saved a blessing for me?"
37 But Isaac answered Esau: "Look, I have made him your master and given him all his relatives as servants; I have sustained him with grain and new wine. What is left that I can do for you, my son?" 38 Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me too, O my father!" Then Esau wept aloud.
39 His father Isaac answered him:

"Behold, your dwelling place shall be away from the richness of the land, away from the dew of heaven above.
40 You shall live by the sword
and serve your brother.
But when you rebel,
you will tear his yoke from your neck."

41 Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. And Esau said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father are at hand;
then I will kill my brother Jacob."
42 When the words of her older son Esau were relayed to Rebekah, she sent for her younger son Jacob and told him, "Look, your brother Esau is consoling himself by plotting to kill you. 43 So now, my son, obey my voice and flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran. 44 Stay with him for a while, until your brother's fury subsides— 45 until your brother's rage against you wanes and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send for you and bring you back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?" 46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of these Hittite women. If Jacob takes a Hittite wife from among them, what good is my life?"

28

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob runs for his life toward his uncle Laban's house. He sleeps outside with a rock for a pillow and dreams of a stairway reaching to heaven, with angels going up and down on it. Yahweh stands above it and repeats the promise He made to Abraham. Jacob wakes up and says, Surely Yahweh is in this place, and I did not know it.

JACOB'S DEPARTURE

1 So Isaac called for Jacob and blessed
him. "Do not take a wife from the Canaanite women," he commanded. 2 "Go at once to Paddan-aram, to the house of your mother's father Bethuel, and take a wife from among the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother. 3 May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, so that you may become a company of peoples. 4 And may He give the blessing of Abraham to you and your descendants, so that you may possess the land where you dwell as a foreigner, the land God gave to Abraham."

5 So Isaac sent Jacob to Paddan-aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, who was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

ESAU MARRIES MAHALATH

6 Now Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him to Paddan-aram to take a wife there, commanding him, "Do not marry a Canaanite woman," 7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and gone to Paddan-aram.

8 And seeing that his father Isaac disapproved of the Canaanite women, 9 Esau went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, the sister of Nebaioth and daughter of Abraham's son Ishmael, in addition to the wives he already had.

JACOB'S LADDER

10 Meanwhile Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran. 11 On reaching a certain place, he spent the night there because the sun had set. And taking one of the stones from that place, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep.

12 And Jacob had a dream about a ladder that rested on the earth with its top reaching up to heaven, and God's angels were going up and down the ladder. 13 And there at the top Yahweh was standing and saying, "I am Yahweh, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you now lie. 14 Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and east and north and south. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you and your offspring. 15 Look, I am with you, and I will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."

16 When Jacob woke up, he said, "Surely Yahweh is in this place, and I was unaware of it." 17 And he was afraid and said,
"How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven!"

THE STONE OF BETHEL

18 Early the next morning, Jacob took the stone that he had placed under his head, and he set it up as a pillar. He poured oil on top of it, 19 and he called that place Bethel, though previously the city had been named Luz.

20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me and watch over me on this journey, and if He will provide me with food to eat and clothes to wear, 21 so that I may return safely to my father's house, then Yahweh will be my God. 22 And this stone I have set up as a pillar will be God's house, and of all that You give me I will surely give You a tenth."

CHAPTER 29 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob meets Rachel at a well and falls hard. He works seven years for her, and they feel like only a few days because he loves her so much. Then on the wedding night Laban switches brides, and in the morning, surprise, it is Leah. The trickster finally gets tricked, and Jacob works seven more years for Rachel.

the land of the people of the east. 2 He looked and saw a well in the field, and near it lay three flocks of sheep, because the sheep were watered from this well. And a large stone covered the mouth of the well. 3 When all the flocks had been gathered there, the shepherds would roll away the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep. Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

4 "My brothers," Jacob asked the shepherds, "where are you from?"

"We are from Haran," they answered.

5 "Do you know Laban the grandson of Nahor?" Jacob asked.

"We know him," they replied.

6 "Is he well?" Jacob inquired.

"Yes," they answered, "and here comes his daughter Rachel with his sheep."

7 "Look," said Jacob, "it is still broad daylight; it is not yet time to gather the livestock. Water the sheep and take them back to pasture."

8 But they replied, "We cannot, until all the flocks have been gathered and the stone has been rolled away from the mouth of the well. Then we will water the sheep."

9 While he was still speaking with them, Rachel arrived with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess. 10 As soon as Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of his mother's brother Laban, with Laban's sheep, he went up and rolled the stone away from the mouth of the well and watered his uncle's sheep. 11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel and wept aloud. 12 He told Rachel that he was Rebekah's son, a relative of her father, and she ran and told her father.

13 When Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob, he ran out to meet him. He embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his home, where Jacob told him all that had happened.

JACOB MARRIES LEAH AND RACHEL

14 Then Laban declared, "You are indeed my own flesh and blood."

After Jacob had stayed with him a month, 15 Laban said to him, "Just because you are my relative, should you work for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be."

16 Now Laban had two daughters; the older was named Leah, and the younger was named Rachel. 17 Leah had weak eyes, but Rachel was shapely and beautiful. 18 Since Jacob loved Rachel, he answered, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."

19 Laban replied, "Better that I give her to you than to another. Stay here with me."

20 So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, yet it seemed but a few days because of his love for her.

21 Finally Jacob said to Laban, "Grant me my wife, for my time is complete, and I want to sleep with her."

22 So Laban invited all the men of that place and prepared a feast. 23 But when evening came, Laban took his daughter Leah and gave her to Jacob, and he slept with her. 24 And Laban gave his servant girl Zilpah to his daughter Leah as her maidservant.

25 When morning came, there was Leah! "What have you done to me?" Jacob said to Laban. "Wasn't it for Rachel that I served you? Why have you deceived me?"

26 Laban replied, "It is not our custom here to give the younger daughter in marriage before the older. 27 Finish this week's celebration, and we will give you the younger one in return for another seven years of work."

28 And Jacob did just that. He finished the week's celebration, and Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife. 29 Laban also gave his servant girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maidservant.

30 Jacob slept with Rachel as well, and indeed, he loved Rachel more than Leah. So he worked for Laban another seven years.

REUBEN, SIMEON, LEVI, AND JUDAH

31 When Yahweh saw that Leah was unloved, He opened her womb; but Rachel was barren. 32 And Leah conceived and gave birth to a son, and she named him Reuben, for she said, "Yahweh has seen my affliction. Surely my husband will love me now."

33 Again she conceived and gave birth to a son, and she said, "Because Yahweh has heard that I am unloved, He has given me this son as well." So she named him Simeon.

34 Once again Leah conceived and gave birth to a son, and she said, "Now at last my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons." So he was named Levi.

35 And once more she conceived and gave birth to a son and said, "This time I will praise Yahweh." So she named him Judah. Then Leah stopped having children.

CHAPTER 30 IN 30 SECONDS

The two sisters get into a baby race, and they even bring their servants into it. By the end of the chapter Jacob has eleven sons and a daughter, which is a very full tent. Then Jacob and Laban make a deal about spotted and speckled goats. Laban keeps trying to outsmart Jacob, and God keeps blessing Jacob anyway.

DAN AND NAPHTALI

1 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing any children for Jacob, she envied her sister. "Give me children, or I will die!" she said to Jacob.

2 Jacob became angry with Rachel and said, "Am I in the place of God, who has withheld children from you?"

3 Then she said, "Here is my maidservant Bilhah. Sleep with her, that she may bear children for me, so that through her I too can build a family."

4 So Rachel gave Jacob her servant Bilhah as a wife, and he slept with her, 5 and Bilhah conceived and bore him a son. 6 Then Rachel said, "God has vindicated me; He has heard my plea and given me a son." So she named him Dan.

7 And Rachel's servant Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son. 8 Then Rachel said, "In my great struggles, I have wrestled with my sister and won." So she named him Naphtali.

GAD AND ASHER

9 When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she gave her servant Zilpah to Jacob as a wife. 10 And Leah's servant Zilpah bore Jacob a son. 11 Then Leah said, "How fortunate!" So she named him Gad.

12 When Leah's servant Zilpah bore Jacob a second son, 13 Leah said, "How happy I am! For the women call me happy." So she named him Asher.

14 Now during the wheat harvest, Reuben went out and found some mandrakes in the field. When he brought them to his mother, Rachel begged Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

15 But Leah replied, "Is it not enough that you have taken away my husband? Now you want to take my son's mandrakes as well?"

"Very well," said Rachel, "he may sleep with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes."

16 When Jacob came in from the field that evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come with me, for I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he slept with her that night.

ISSACHAR, ZEBULUN, AND DINAH

17 And God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore a fifth son to Jacob. 18 Then Leah said, "God has rewarded me for giving my maidservant to my husband." So she named him Issachar.

19 Again Leah conceived and bore a sixth son to Jacob. 20 "God has given me a good gift," she said. "This time my husband will honor me, because I have borne him six sons." And she named him Zebulun.

21 After that, Leah gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.

JOSEPH

22 Then God remembered Rachel. He listened to her and opened her womb, 23 and she conceived and gave birth to a son. "God has taken away my shame," she said. 24 She named him Joseph, and said, "May Yahweh add to me another son."

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

JACOB PROSPERS

25 Now after Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me on my way so I can return to my homeland. 26 Give me my wives and children for whom I have served you, that I may go on my way. You know how hard I have worked for you."

27 But Laban replied, "If I have found favor in your eyes, please stay. I have learned by divination that Yahweh has blessed me because of you." 28 And he added, "Name
your wages, and I will pay them."

29 Then Jacob answered, "You know how I have served you and how your livestock have thrived under my care. 30 Indeed, you had very little before my arrival, but now your wealth has increased many times over. Yahweh has blessed you wherever I set foot. But now, when may I also provide for my own household?"

31 "What can I give you?" Laban asked.

"You do not need to give me anything," Jacob replied. "If you do this one thing for me, I will keep on shepherding and keeping your flocks. 32 Let me go through all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-colored lamb, and every spotted or speckled goat. These will be my wages.
33 So my honesty will testify for me when you come to check on my wages in the future. If I have any goats that are not speckled or spotted, or any lambs that are not dark-colored, they will be considered stolen."

34 "Agreed," said Laban. "Let it be as you
have said."

35 That very day Laban removed all the streaked or spotted male goats and every speckled or spotted female goat—every one that had any white on it—and every dark-colored lamb, and he placed them under the care of his sons. 36 Then he put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob was shepherding the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 Jacob, however, took fresh branches of poplar, almond, and plane trees, and peeled the bark, exposing the white inner wood of the branches. 38 Then he set the peeled branches in the watering troughs
in front of the flocks coming in to drink.
So when the flocks were in heat and came to drink, 39 they mated in front of the branches. And they bore young that were streaked or speckled or spotted. 40 Jacob set apart the young, but made the rest face the streaked dark-colored sheep in Laban's flocks. Then he set his own stock apart and did not put them with Laban's animals.

41 Whenever the stronger females of the flock were in heat, Jacob would place the branches in the troughs, in full view of the animals, so that they would breed in front of the branches. 42 But if the animals were weak, he did not set out the branches. So the weaker animals went to Laban and the stronger ones to Jacob.

43 Thus Jacob became exceedingly prosperous. He owned large flocks, maidservants and menservants, and camels and donkeys.

CHAPTER 31 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Jacob it is time to go home. Jacob sneaks away with his family and flocks, and Rachel secretly steals her father's household idols. Laban chases them down and searches every tent, but he never finds the idols, because Rachel is sitting on them. They finally set up a pile of stones and promise to stay on their own sides of it.

JACOB FLEES FROM LABAN

1 Now Jacob heard that Laban's sons were saying, "Jacob has taken away all that belonged to our father and built all this wealth at our father's expense." 2 And Jacob saw from the countenance of Laban
that his attitude toward him had changed.

3 Then Yahweh said to Jacob, "Go back to the land of your fathers and to your kindred, and I will be with you."

4 So Jacob sent word and called Rachel and Leah to the field where his flocks

GEN 30:27 [DEMONIC] Laban says he learned by divination that God blessed him

MIRACLES DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

were, 5 and he told them, "I can see from your father's countenance that his attitude toward me has changed; but the God of my father has been with me. 6 You know that I have served your father with all my strength. 7 And although he has cheated me and changed my wages ten times, God has not allowed him to harm me. 8 If he said, 'The speckled will be your wages,' then the whole flock bore speckled offspring. If he said, 'The streaked will be your wages,' then the whole flock bore streaked offspring. 9 Thus God has taken away your father's livestock and given them to me.

10 When the flocks were breeding, I saw in a dream that the streaked, spotted, and speckled males were mating with the females. 11 In that dream the angel of God said to me, 'Jacob!'

And I replied, 'Here I am.'

12 'Look up,' he said, 'and see that all the males that are mating with the flock are streaked, spotted, or speckled; for I have seen all that Laban has done to you. 13 I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar and made a solemn vow to Me. Now get up, leave this land at once, and return to your native land.'"

14 And Rachel and Leah replied, "Do we have any portion or inheritance left in our father's house? 15 Are we not regarded by him as outsiders? Not only has he sold us, but he has certainly squandered what was paid for us. 16 Surely all the wealth that God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children. So do whatever God has told you."

17 Then Jacob got up and put his children and his wives on camels, 18 and he drove all his livestock before him, along with all the possessions he had acquired in Paddan-aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land in Canaan.

19 Now while Laban was out shearing his sheep, Rachel stole her father's household idols. 20 Moreover, Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean by not telling him that he was running away. 21 So he fled with all his possessions, crossed the Euphrates, and headed for the hill country of Gilead.

LABAN PURSUES JACOB

22 On the third day Laban was informed that Jacob had fled. 23 So he took his relatives with him, pursued Jacob for seven days, and overtook him in the hill country of Gilead. 24 But that night God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream and warned him, "Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad."

25 Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country of Gilead when Laban overtook him, and Laban and his relatives camped there as well. 26 Then Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? You have deceived me and carried off my daughters like captives of war! 27 Why did you run away secretly and deceive me, without even telling me? I would have sent you away with joy and singing, with tambourines and harps. 28 But you did not even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters goodbye. Now you have done a foolish thing.

29 I have power to do you great harm, but last night the God of your father said to me, 'Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.' 30 Now you have gone off because you long for your father's house. But why have you stolen my gods?"

31 "I was afraid," Jacob answered, "for I thought you would take your daughters from me by force. 32 If you find your gods with anyone here, he shall not live! In the presence of our relatives, see for yourself if anything is yours, and take it back." For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the idols.

33 So Laban went into Jacob's tent, then Leah's tent, and then the tents of the two maidservants, but he found nothing. Then he left Leah's tent and entered Rachel's tent. 34 Now Rachel had taken Laban's household idols, put them in the saddle-bag of her camel, and was sitting on them. And Laban searched everything in the tent but found nothing.

35 Rachel said to her father, "Sir, do not be angry that I cannot stand up before you; for I am having my period." So Laban searched but could not find the household idols.

36 Then Jacob became incensed and challenged Laban. "What is my crime?" he said. "For what sin of mine have you so hotly pursued me? 37 You have searched all my goods! Have you found anything that belongs to you? Put it here before my brothers and yours, that they may judge between the two of us.

38 I have been with you for twenty years now. Your sheep and goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten the rams of your flock. 39 I did not bring you anything torn by wild beasts; I bore the loss myself. And you demanded payment from me for what was stolen by day or night. 40 As it was, the heat consumed me by day and the frost by night, and sleep fled from my eyes.

41 Thus for twenty years I have served in your household—fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks—and you have changed my wages ten times! 42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, surely by now you would have sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen my affliction and the toil of my hands, and last night He rendered judgment."

JACOB'S COVENANT WITH LABAN

43 But Laban answered Jacob, "These daughters are my daughters, these sons are my sons, and these flocks are my flocks! Everything you see is mine! Yet what can I do today about these daughters of mine or the children they have borne? 44 Come now, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it serve as a witness between you and me."

45 So Jacob picked out a stone and set it up as a pillar, 46 and he said to his relatives, "Gather some stones." So they took stones and made a mound, and there by the mound they ate. 47 Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha, and Jacob called it Galeed.

48 Then Laban declared, "This mound is a witness between you and me this day."

Therefore the place was called Galeed. 49 It was also called Mizpah, because Laban said, "May Yahweh keep watch between you and me when we are absent from each other. 50 If you mistreat my daughters or take other wives, although no one is with us, remember that God is a witness between you and me."

51 Laban also said to Jacob, "Here is the mound, and here is the pillar I have set up between you and me. 52 This mound is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not go past this mound to harm you, and you will not go past this mound and pillar to harm me. 53 May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us."

So Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and invited his relatives to eat a meal. And after they had eaten, they spent the night on the mountain. 55 Early the next morning, Laban got up and kissed his grandchildren and daughters and blessed them. Then he left to return home.

CHAPTER 32 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob hears that Esau is coming to meet him with 400 men, and he is terrified. He prays, sends wave after wave of gifts ahead and spends the night alone. A Man wrestles with him until daybreak, and Jacob will not let go until he is blessed. He walks away with a new name, Israel, and a limp he will have for the rest of his life.

JACOB PREPARES TO MEET ESAU

1 Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of God met him. 2 When Jacob saw

GEN 32:1 [MIRACLE] The angels of God meet Jacob at Mahanaim

them, he said, "This is the camp of God." So he named that place Mahanaim.

3 Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom. 4 He instructed them,
"You are to say to my master Esau, 'Your servant Jacob says: I have been staying with Laban and have remained there until
now. 5 I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, menservants, and maidservants. I have sent this message to inform my master, so that I may find favor in your sight.'"

6 When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau, and now he is coming to meet you—he and four hundred men with him."

7 In great fear and distress, Jacob divided his people into two camps, as well as the flocks and herds and camels. 8 He thought, "If Esau comes and attacks one camp, then the other camp can escape."

9 Then Jacob declared, "O God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, Yahweh who told me, 'Go back to your country and to your kindred, and I will make you prosper,' 10 I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness You have shown Your servant. Indeed, with only my staff I came across the Jordan, but now I have become two camps. 11 Please deliver me from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid that he may come and attack
me and the mothers and children with me.
12 But You have said, 'I will surely make you prosper, and I will make your offspring like the sand of the sea, too numerous to count.'"

13 Jacob spent the night there, and from what he had brought with him, he selected a gift for his brother Esau: 14 200 female goats, 20 male goats, 200 ewes, 20
rams, 15 30 milk camels with their young, 40 cows, 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys, and 10 male donkeys. 16 He entrusted them to his servants in separate herds and told them, "Go on ahead of me, and keep some distance between the herds."

17 He instructed the one in the lead, "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'To whom do you belong, where are you going, and whose animals are these before you?' 18 then you are to say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift, sent to my lord Esau. And behold, Jacob is behind us.'"

19 He also instructed the second, the third,
and all those following behind the herds:
"When you meet Esau, you are to say the same thing to him. 20 You are also to say,
'Look, your servant Jacob is right behind us.'" For he thought, "I will appease Esau with the gift that is going before me. After that I can face him, and perhaps he will accept me."

21 So Jacob's gifts went on before him, while he spent the night in the camp.

JACOB WRESTLES WITH GOD

22 During the night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maidservants, and his eleven sons, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. 23 He took them and sent them across the stream, along with all his possessions.

24 So Jacob was left all alone, and there a man wrestled with him until daybreak. 25
When the man saw that he could not overpower Jacob, he struck the socket of Jacob's hip and dislocated it as they wrestled. 26 Then the man said, "Let me go, for it is daybreak."

But Jacob replied, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

27 "What is your name?" the man asked.

"Jacob," he replied.

28 Then the man said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel, because you have struggled with God and with men,
and you have prevailed."

29 And Jacob requested, "Please tell me your name."

But he replied, "Why do you ask my name?" Then he blessed Jacob there.

30 So Jacob named the place Peniel, saying, "Indeed, I have seen God face to face, and yet my life was spared."

GEN 32:24 [MIRACLE] Jacob wrestles with a man until daybreak; named Israel

31 The sun rose above him as he passed by Penuel, and he was limping because of his hip. 32 Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the tendon attached to the socket of the hip, because the socket of Jacob's hip was struck near that tendon.

33

CHAPTER 33 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob bows to the ground seven times as Esau walks up, expecting the worst. Instead Esau runs to him, hugs him and kisses him, and they both cry. Twenty years of fear melt away in one hug. Jacob tells Esau that seeing his face is like seeing the face of God, and then he settles near Shechem and builds an altar.

JACOB MEETS ESAU

1 Now Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming toward him with four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants. 2
He put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children next,
and Rachel and Joseph at the rear. 3 But Jacob himself went on ahead and bowed to the ground seven times as he approached his brother.

4 Esau, however, ran to him and embraced him, threw his arms around his neck, and kissed him. And they both wept.

5 When Esau looked up and saw the women and children, he asked, "Who are these with you?"

Jacob answered, "These are the children
God has graciously given your servant." 6
Then the maidservants and their children approached and bowed down. 7 Leah and her children also approached and bowed down, and then Joseph and Rachel approached and bowed down.

8 "What do you mean by sending this whole company to meet me?" asked Esau.

"To find favor in your sight, my lord," Jacob answered.

9 "I already have plenty, my brother," Esau replied. "Keep what belongs to you."

10 But Jacob insisted, "No, please! If I have found favor in your sight, then receive this gift from my hand. For indeed, I have seen your face, and it is like seeing the face of God, since you have received me favorably. 11 Please accept my gift that was brought to you, because God has been gracious to me and I have all I need." So Jacob pressed him until he accepted.

12 Then Esau said, "Let us be on our way,
and I will go ahead of you."

13 But Jacob replied, "My lord knows that the children are frail, and I must care for sheep and cattle that are nursing their young. If they are driven hard for even a day, all the animals will die. 14 Please let my lord go ahead of his servant. I will continue on slowly, at a comfortable pace for the livestock and children, until I come to my lord at Seir."

15 "Let me leave some of my people with you," Esau said.

But Jacob replied, "Why do that? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord."

16 So that day Esau started on his way back to Seir, 17 but Jacob went on to Suc-
coth, where he built a house for himself and shelters for his livestock; that is why
the place was called Succoth.

JACOB SETTLES IN SHECHEM

18 After Jacob had come from Paddanaram, he arrived safely at the city of Shechem in the land of Canaan, and he camped just outside the city. 19 And the plot of ground where he pitched his tent,
he purchased from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred pieces of silver. 20 There he set up an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.

34

CHAPTER 34 IN 30 SECONDS

This is one of the darkest chapters in Genesis. Jacob's daughter Dinah is violated by Shechem, the son of the local ruler. Her brothers Simeon and Levi pretend to make a peace deal, then attack the whole city while the men are still recovering. Jacob is furious, and he brings it up again on his deathbed.

GEN 33:18 [FULFILLS] God promised to bring Jacob back to the land ← GEN 28:15 p.86

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

THE DEFILING OF DINAH

1 Now Dinah, the daughter Leah had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the daughters of the land. 2 When Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the region, saw her, he took her and lay with her by force. 3 And his soul was drawn to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob. He loved the young girl and spoke to her tenderly. 4 So Shechem told his father Hamor, "Get me
this girl as a wife."

5 Jacob heard that Shechem had defiled
his daughter Dinah, but since his sons were with his livestock in the field, he remained silent about it until they returned.
6 Meanwhile, Shechem's father Hamor came to speak with Jacob. 7 When Jacob's sons heard what had happened, they returned from the field. They were filled with grief and fury, because Shechem had committed an outrage in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter—a thing that should not be done.

8 But Hamor said to them, "My son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife. 9 Intermarry with us; give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves. 10 You may settle among us, and the land will be open to you. Live here, move about freely, and acquire your own property."

11 Then Shechem said to Dinah's father and brothers, "Grant me this favor, and I will give you whatever you ask. 12 Demand a high dowry and an expensive gift, and I will give you whatever you ask. Only give me the girl as my wife!"

THE REVENGE OF DINAH'S BROTHERS

13 But because Shechem had defiled their sister Dinah, Jacob's sons answered him and his father Hamor deceitfully. 14 "We cannot do such a thing," they said. "To give our sister to an uncircumcised man would be a disgrace to us. 15 We will consent to this on one condition, that you become circumcised like us—every one of your males. 16 Then we will give you our daughters and take your daughters for ourselves. We will dwell among you and become one people. 17 But if you will not agree to be circumcised, then we will take our sister and go."

18 Their offer seemed good to Hamor and his son Shechem. 19 The young man, who was the most respected of all his father's household, did not hesitate to fulfill this request, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter.

20 So Hamor and his son Shechem went to the gate of their city and addressed the men of their city: 21 "These men are at peace with us. Let them live and trade in our land; indeed, it is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters in marriage and give our daughters to them. 22
But only on this condition will the men
agree to dwell with us and be one people:
if all our men are circumcised as they are.
23 Will not their livestock, their possessions, and all their animals become ours?
Only let us consent to them, and they will dwell among us."

24 All the men who went out of the city gate listened to Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male of the city was circumcised.

25 Three days later, while they were still in pain, two of Jacob's sons (Dinah's brothers Simeon and Levi) took their swords, went into the unsuspecting city, and slaughtered every male. 26 They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with their swords, took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went away.

27 Jacob's other sons came upon the slaughter and looted the city, because their sister had been defiled. 28 They took their flocks and herds and donkeys, and everything else in the city or in the field.
29 They carried off all their possessions and women and children, and they plundered everything in their houses.

30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi,
"You have brought trouble upon me by making me a stench to the Canaanites and Perizzites, the people of this land. We are few in number; if they unite against me and attack me, I and my household will be destroyed."

CHAPTER 35 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Jacob to go back to Bethel, where he first saw the stairway. Jacob tells his family to get rid of their idols, and they bury them under a tree. God confirms his new name, Israel. Then comes heartbreak. Rachel dies giving birth to Benjamin, and Isaac dies old and full of years.

JACOB RETURNS TO BETHEL

1 Then God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and settle there. Build an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."

2 So Jacob told his household and all who were with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods that are among you. Purify yourselves and change your garments. 3 Then let us arise and go to Bethel. I will build an altar there to God, who answered me in my day of distress. He has been with me wherever I have gone."

4 So they gave Jacob all their foreign gods and all their earrings, and Jacob buried them under the oak near Shechem.

5 As they set out, a terror from God fell over the surrounding cities, so that they did not pursue Jacob's sons. 6 So Jacob and everyone with him arrived in Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan. 7 There Jacob built an altar, and he called that place El-bethel, because it was there that God had revealed Himself to Jacob as he fled from his brother.

8 Now Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died and was buried under the oak below Bethel.
So Jacob named it Allon-bacuth.

9 After Jacob had returned from Paddanaram, God appeared to him again and blessed him. 10 And God said to him,
"Though your name is Jacob, you will no longer be called Jacob. Instead, your name will be Israel." So God named him Israel.

11 And God told him, "I am God Almighty.
Be fruitful and multiply. A nation—even a company of nations—shall come from you, and kings shall descend from you. 12
The land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac
I will give to you, and I will give this land to your descendants after you."

13 Then God went up from the place where He had spoken with him.

14 So Jacob set up a pillar in the place where God had spoken with him—a stone marker—and he poured out a drink offering on it and anointed it with oil. 15 Jacob called the place where God had spoken with him Bethel.

BENJAMIN BORN, RACHEL DIES

16 Later, they set out from Bethel, and while they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth, and her labor was difficult. 17 During her severe labor, the midwife said to her, "Do not be afraid, for you are having another son."

18 And with her last breath—for she was dying—she named him Ben-oni. But his father called him Benjamin.

19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). 20 Jacob set up a pillar on her grave; it marks
Rachel's tomb to this day.

THE SONS OF JACOB // 1 CHRONICLES 2:1–2

21 Israel again set out and pitched his tent beyond the Tower of Eder. 22 While Israel was living in that region, Reuben went in and slept with his father's concubine Bil-hah, and Israel heard about it.

Jacob had twelve sons:

23 The sons of Leah were Reuben the first-born of Jacob, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Is-sachar, and Zebulun.

24 The sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.

25 The sons of Rachel's maidservant Bilhah were Dan and Naphtali.

26 And the sons of Leah's maidservant Zilpah were Gad and Asher.

These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

THE DEATH OF ISAAC

27 Jacob returned to his father Isaac at Mamre, near Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had stayed.

28 And Isaac lived 180 years. 29 Then he breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people, old and full of years.
And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36

CHAPTER 36 IN 30 SECONDS

This is the family tree of Esau, who is also called Edom. It is a long list of sons, chiefs and kings, and it reads a little like a phone book. But it shows God kept His promise that Esau would become a nation too. Edom had kings long before any king ruled Israel.

THE DESCENDANTS OF ESAU // 1 CHRONICLES 1:35–37

1 This is the account of Esau (that is, Edom). 2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite, 3 and Basemath daughter of Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth. 4 And Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, Basemath gave birth to Reuel, 5 and Oholibamah gave birth to Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 Later, Esau took his wives and sons and daughters and all the people of his household, along with his livestock, all his other animals, and all the property he had acquired in Canaan, and he moved to a land far away from his brother Jacob. 7 For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together; the land where they stayed could not support them because of their livestock. 8 So Esau (that is, Edom) settled in the area of Mount Seir.

9 This is the account of Esau, the father of the Edomites, in the area of Mount Seir.

10 These are the names of Esau's sons:
Eliphaz son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel son of Esau's wife Basemath.

11 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz. 12 Additionally,
Timna, a concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz, gave birth to Amalek. These are the grandsons of Esau's wife Adah.

13 These are the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. They are the grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

14 These are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah (daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon) whom she bore to Esau: Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

15 These are the chiefs among the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: Chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, 16 Korah, Gatam, and Amalek. They are the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom, and they are the grandsons of Adah.

17 These are the sons of Esau's son Reuel:
Chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Miz-zah. They are the chiefs descended from Reuel in the land of Edom, and they are
the grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

18 These are the sons of Esau's wife
Oholibamah: Chiefs Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. They are the chiefs descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

19 All these are the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and they were their chiefs.

THE DESCENDANTS OF SEIR // 1 CHRONICLES 1:38–42

20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite,
who were living in the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, 21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.
They are the chiefs of the Horites, the descendants of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam. Timna was Lotan's sister.

23 These are the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 These are the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. (This is the Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness as he was pasturing the donkeys of his father Zibeon.)

25 These are the children of Anah: Dishon

THE KINGS OF EDOM // 1 CHRONICLES 1:43–54

31 These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelites:

32 Bela son of Beor reigned in Edom; the name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah reigned in his place.

34 When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.

35 When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Avith.

36 When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah reigned in his place.

37 When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the Euphrates reigned in his place.

38 When Shaul died, Baal-hanan son of Achbor reigned in his place.

39 When Baal-hanan son of Achbor died, Hadad reigned in his place. His city was named Pau, and his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-zahab.

40 These are the names of Esau's chiefs, according to their families and regions, by their names: Chiefs Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, 41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, 42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, 43 Magdiel, and Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they possessed. Esau was the father of the Edomites.

CHAPTER 37 IN 30 SECONDS

Joseph is seventeen, his father's favorite and the owner of a very fancy robe. He has two dreams about his whole family bowing down to him, and he makes the mistake of telling them. His brothers throw him in a pit, sell him to traders for twenty pieces of silver and dip his robe in goat's blood to fool their father. Jacob is crushed.

JOSEPH'S DREAMS

1 Now Jacob lived in the land where his father had resided, the land of Canaan.

2 This is the account of Jacob. When Joseph was seventeen years old, he was tending the flock with his brothers, the sons of his father's wives Bilhah and Zilpah, and he brought their father a bad report about them.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than his other sons, because Joseph had been born to him in his old age; so he made him a robe of many colors. 4 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him.

5 Then Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. 6 He said to them, "Listen to this dream I had: 7 We were binding sheaves of grain in the field, and suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to mine."

8 "Do you intend to reign over us?" his brothers asked. "Will you actually rule us?" So they hated him even more because of his dream and his statements.

9 Then Joseph had another dream and told it to his brothers. "Look," he said, "I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me."

10 He told his father and brothers, but his father rebuked him and said, "What is this dream that you have had? Will your mother and brothers and I actually come and bow down to the ground before you?"

11 And his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept in mind what he had said.

JOSEPH SOLD INTO EGYPT // ACTS 7:9–14

12 Some time later, Joseph's brothers had gone to pasture their father's flocks near Shechem. 13 Israel said to him, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flocks at Shechem? Get ready; I am sending you to them."

"I am ready," Joseph replied.

14 Then Israel told him, "Go now and see how your brothers and the flocks are faring, and bring word back to me."

So he sent him off from the Valley of Hebron. And when Joseph arrived in Shechem, 15 a man found him wandering in the field and asked, "What are you looking for?"

16 "I am looking for my brothers," Joseph replied. "Can you please tell me where they are pasturing their flocks?"

17 "They have moved on from here," the man answered. "I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph set out after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

18 Now Joseph's brothers saw him in the distance, and before he arrived, they plotted to kill him. 19 "Here comes that dreamer!" they said to one another. 20 "Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits. We can say that a vicious animal has devoured him. Then we shall see what becomes of his dreams!"

21 When Reuben heard this, he tried to rescue Joseph from their hands. "Let us not take his life," he said. 22 "Do not shed his blood. Throw him into this pit in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him." Reuben said this so that he could rescue Joseph from their hands and return him to his father.

23 So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe—the robe of many colors he was wearing— 24 and they took him and threw him into the pit. Now the pit was empty, with no water in it.

25 And as they sat down to eat a meal, they looked up and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were carrying spices, balm, and myrrh on their way down to Egypt.

26 Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit will we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? 27 Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay a hand on him; for he is our brother, our own flesh." And they agreed. 28 So when the Midianite traders passed by, his brothers pulled Joseph out of the pit and sold him for eight ounces of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt.

29 When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not there, he tore his clothes, 30 returned to his brothers, and said, "The boy is gone! What am I going to do?"

JACOB MOURNS JOSEPH

31 Then they took Joseph's robe, slaughtered a young goat, and dipped the robe in its blood. 32 They sent the robe of many colors to their father and said, "We found this. Examine it to see whether it is your son's robe or not."

33 His father recognized it and said, "It is my son's robe! A vicious animal has devoured him. Joseph has surely been torn to pieces!" 34 Then Jacob tore his clothes, put sackcloth around his waist, and mourned for his son many days. 35 All his sons and daughters tried to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. "No," he said. "I will go down to Sheol mourning for my son." So his father wept for him.

36 Meanwhile, the Midianites sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

CHAPTER 38 IN 30 SECONDS

A detour into Judah's family, and it is messy. Two of Judah's sons die, and he will not give his widowed daughter in law Tamar his last son as the custom required. So Tamar disguises herself and tricks Judah himself. When the truth comes out, Judah admits, She is more righteous than I. Their son Perez ends up in the family line of Jesus.

JUDAH AND TAMAR // 1 CHRONICLES 2:3–4

1 About that time, Judah left his brothers and settled near a man named Hirah, an Adullamite. 2 There Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite man named Shua, and he took her as a wife and slept with her. 3
So she conceived and gave birth to a son,
and Judah named him Er. 4 Again she conceived and gave birth to a son, and she named him Onan. 5 Then she gave birth to another son and named him Shelah; it was at Chezib that she gave birth to him.

6 Now Judah acquired a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. 7 But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Yahweh; so Yahweh put him to death. 8 Then Judah said to Onan, "Sleep with your brother's wife. Perform your duty as her brother-in-law and raise up offspring for your brother."

9 But Onan knew that the offspring would not belong to him; so whenever he would sleep with his brother's wife, he would spill his seed on the ground so that he would not produce offspring for his brother. 10 What he did was wicked in the sight of Yahweh, so He put Onan to death
as well.

11 Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Live as a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up." For he thought, "He may die too, like his brothers." So Tamar went to live in her father's house.

12 After a long time Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died. When Judah had finished mourning, he and his friend Hirah
the Adullamite went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah. 13 When Tamar was told,
"Your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep," 14 she removed her widow's garments, covered her face with a veil to disguise herself, and sat at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the way to Timnah. For she saw that although Shelah had grown up, she had not been given to him as a wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute because she had covered her face. 16 Not realizing that she was his daughter-in-law, he went over to her and said, "Come now, let me sleep with you."

"What will you give me for sleeping with you?" she inquired.

17 "I will send you a young goat from my flock," Judah answered.

But she replied, "Only if you leave me something as a pledge until you send it."

18 "What pledge should I give you?" he asked.

She answered, "Your seal and your cord, and the staff in your hand." So he gave them to her and slept with her, and she became pregnant by him. 19 Then Tamar got up and departed. And she removed her veil and put on her widow's garments
again.

20 Now when Judah sent his friend Hirah
the Adullamite with the young goat to collect the items he had left with the woman,
he could not find her. 21 He asked the men of that place, "Where is the shrine prostitute who was beside the road at Enaim?"

"No shrine prostitute has been here," they answered.

22 So Hirah returned to Judah and said, "I could not find her, and furthermore, the men of that place said, 'No shrine prostitute has been here.'"

23 "Let her keep the items," Judah replied.
"Otherwise we will become a laughingstock. After all, I did send her this young goat, but you could not find her."

24 About three months later, Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has prostituted herself, and now she is pregnant."

NOTABLE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

"Bring her out!" Judah replied. "Let her be burned to death!"

25 As she was being brought out, Tamar sent a message to her father-in-law: "I am pregnant by the man to whom these items belong." And she added, "Please examine them. Whose seal and cord and staff are these?"

26 Judah recognized the items and said, "She is more righteous than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah." And he did not have relations with her again.

THE BIRTH OF PEREZ AND ZERAH

27 When the time came for Tamar to give birth, there were twins in her womb. 28 And as she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand; so the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it around his wrist. "This one came out first," she announced. 29 But when he pulled his hand back and his brother came out, she said, "You have broken out first!" So he was named Perez. 30 Then his brother came out with the scarlet thread around his wrist, and he was named Zerah.

CHAPTER 39 IN 30 SECONDS

Joseph becomes a slave in the house of Potiphar, and God makes everything he does succeed. Potiphar's wife keeps trying to get him into bed, and Joseph keeps saying no. One day she grabs his cloak, he runs out without it, and she lies about him. Joseph lands in prison, but Yahweh is with him there too.

JOSEPH AND POTIPHAR'S WIFE

1 Meanwhile, Joseph had been taken down to Egypt, where an Egyptian named Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there. 2 And Yahweh was with Joseph, and he became a successful man, serving in the household of his Egyptian master.

3 When his master saw that Yahweh was with him and made him prosper in all he did, 4 Joseph found favor in his sight and became his personal attendant.

Potiphar put him in charge of his household and entrusted him with everything he owned. 5 From the time that he put Joseph in charge of his household and all he owned, Yahweh blessed the Egyptian's household on account of him. Yahweh's blessing was on everything he owned, both in his house and in his field. 6 So Potiphar left all that he owned in Joseph's care; he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate.

Now Joseph was well-built and handsome, 7 and after some time his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph and said, "Sleep with me."

8 But he refused. "Look," he said to his master's wife, "with me here, my master does not concern himself with anything in his house, and he has entrusted everything he owns to my care. 9 No one in this house is greater than I am. He has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. So how could I do such a great evil and sin against God?"

10 Although Potiphar's wife spoke to Joseph day after day, he refused to go to bed with her or even be near her. 11 One day, however, Joseph went into the house to attend to his work, and not a single household servant was inside. 12 She grabbed Joseph by his cloak and said, "Sleep with me!" But leaving his cloak in her hand, he escaped and ran outside.

JOSEPH FALSELY IMPRISONED

13 When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run out of the house, 14 she called her household servants. "Look," she said, "this Hebrew has been brought to us to make sport of us. He came to me so he could sleep with me, but I screamed as loud as I could. 15 When he heard me scream for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

16 So Potiphar's wife kept Joseph's cloak beside her until his master came home. 17 Then she told him the same story: "The Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to make sport of me, 18 but when I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

19 When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, "This is what your slave did to me," he burned with anger. 20 So Joseph's master took him and had him thrown into the prison where the king's prisoners were confined.

While Joseph was there in the prison, 21 Yahweh was with him and extended kindness to him, granting him favor in the eyes of the prison warden. 22 And the warden put all the prisoners under Joseph's care, so that he was responsible for all that was done in the prison. 23 The warden did not concern himself with anything under Joseph's care, because Yahweh was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.

CHAPTER 40 IN 30 SECONDS

In prison Joseph meets Pharaoh's cupbearer and baker, and both of them have strange dreams. Joseph explains them: in three days the cupbearer gets his job back and the baker gets hanged. Both come true exactly. Joseph asks the cupbearer to remember him, and the cupbearer promptly forgets him for two more years.

THE CUPBEARER AND THE BAKER

1 Some time later, the king's cupbearer and baker offended their master, the king of Egypt. 2 Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, 3 and imprisoned them in the house of the captain of the guard, the same prison where Joseph was confined. 4 The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he became their personal attendant.

After they had been in custody for some time, 5 both of these men—the Egyptian king's cupbearer and baker, who were being held in the prison—had a dream on the same night, and each dream had its own meaning.

6 When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they were distraught. 7 So he asked the officials of Pharaoh who were in custody with him in his master's house, "Why are your faces so downcast today?"

8 "We both had dreams," they replied, "but there is no one to interpret them."

Then Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams."

9 So the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream: "In my dream there was a vine before me, 10 and on the vine were three branches. As it budded, its blossoms opened and its clusters ripened into grapes. 11 Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into his cup, and placed the cup in his hand."

12 Joseph replied, "This is the interpretation: The three branches are three days. 13 Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore your position. You will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you did when you were his cupbearer. 14 But when it goes well for you, please remember me and show me kindness by mentioning me to Pharaoh, that he might bring me out of this prison. 15 For I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing for which they should have put me in this dungeon."

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Joseph, "I too had a dream: There were three baskets of white bread on my head. 17 In the top basket were all sorts of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

18 Joseph replied, "This is the interpretation: The three baskets are three days. 19 Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your

20 On the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he held a feast for all his officials, and in their presence he lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker. 21 Pharaoh restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand. 22
But Pharaoh hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had described to them in his interpretation.
23 The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot all about him.

CHAPTER 41 IN 30 SECONDS

Pharaoh dreams about seven fat cows being eaten by seven skinny cows, and nobody in Egypt can explain it. Suddenly the cupbearer remembers Joseph. Joseph tells Pharaoh that God is warning of seven good years and then seven years of famine. Pharaoh puts Joseph in charge of all Egypt at age thirty. From the prison to the palace in one day.

THE DREAMS OF PHARAOH

1 After two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing beside the Nile, 2 when seven cows, sleek and well-fed, came up from the river and began to graze among the reeds. 3 After them, seven other cows, sickly and thin, came up from the Nile and stood beside the well-fed cows on the bank of the river. 4
And the cows that were sickly and thin
devoured the seven sleek, well-fed cows.
Then Pharaoh woke up, 5 but he fell back asleep and dreamed a second time: Seven heads of grain, plump and ripe, came up on one stalk. 6 After them, seven other heads of grain sprouted, thin and scorched by the east wind. 7 And the thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven plump, ripe ones. Then Pharaoh awoke and realized it was a dream.
8 In the morning his spirit was troubled, so he summoned all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them
for him.
9 Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, "Today I recall my failures. 10
Pharaoh was once angry with his servants, and he put me and the chief baker
in the custody of the captain of the guard.
11 One night both the chief baker and I had dreams, and each dream had its own meaning. 12 Now a young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams and he interpreted them for us individually. 13 And it happened to us just as he had interpreted: I was restored to my position, and the other man was hanged."

JOSEPH INTERPRETS PHARAOH'S DREAMS

14 So Pharaoh sent for Joseph, who was quickly brought out of the dungeon. After he had shaved and changed his clothes,
he went in before Pharaoh.
15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it." 16 "I myself cannot do it," Joseph replied,
"but God will give Pharaoh a sound answer."
17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph: "In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile, 18 when seven cows, well-fed and sleek, came up from the river and began to graze among the reeds. 19 After them, seven other cows—sickly, ugly, and thin—came up. I have never seen such ugly cows in all the land of Egypt! 20 Then the thin, ugly cows devoured the seven well-fed cows that were there first. 21
When they had devoured them, however,
no one could tell that they had done so;
their appearance was as ugly as it had been before. Then I awoke.
22 In my dream I also saw seven heads of grain, plump and ripe, growing on a single stalk. 23 After them, seven other heads of grain sprouted—withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind. 24 And the thin heads of grain swallowed the seven plump ones.

I told this dream to the magicians, but no one could explain it to me."

25 At this, Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same. God has revealed to Pharaoh what He is about to do. 26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven ripe heads of grain are seven years. The dreams have the same meaning. 27 Moreover, the seven thin, ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and so are the seven worthless heads of grain scorched by the east wind—they are seven years of famine.

28 It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. 29 Behold, seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt, 30 but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in the land of Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will devastate the land. 31 The abundance in the land will not be remembered, since the famine that follows it will be so severe.

32 Moreover, because the dream was given to Pharaoh in two versions, the matter has been decreed by God, and He will carry it out shortly.

33 Now, therefore, Pharaoh should look for a discerning and wise man and set him over the land of Egypt. 34 Let Pharaoh take action and appoint commissioners over the land to take a fifth of the harvest of Egypt during the seven years of abundance. 35 Under the authority of Pharaoh, let them collect all the excess food from these good years, that they may come and lay up the grain to be preserved as food in the cities. 36 This food will be a reserve for the land during the seven years of famine to come upon the land of Egypt. Then the country will not perish in the famine."

JOSEPH GIVEN CHARGE OF EGYPT

37 This proposal pleased Pharaoh and all his officials. 38 So Pharaoh asked them, "Can we find anyone like this man, in whom the Spirit of God abides?"

39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one as discerning and wise as you. 40 You shall be in charge of my house, and all my people are to obey your commands. Only with regard to the throne will I be greater than you."

41 Pharaoh also told Joseph, "I hereby place you over all the land of Egypt." 42 Then Pharaoh removed the signet ring from his finger, put it on Joseph's finger, clothed him in garments of fine linen, and placed a gold chain around his neck. 43 He had Joseph ride in his second chariot, with men calling out before him, "Bow the knee!" So he placed him over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Pharaoh declared to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, but without your permission, no one in all the land of Egypt shall lift his hand or foot."

45 Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-paneah, and he gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, to be his wife. And Joseph took charge of all the land of Egypt.

THE SEVEN YEARS OF PLENTY

46 Now Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph left Pharaoh's presence and traveled throughout the land of Egypt.

47 During the seven years of abundance, the land brought forth bountifully. 48 During those seven years, Joseph collected all the excess food in the land of Egypt and stored it in the cities. In every city he laid up the food from the fields around it.

49 So Joseph stored up grain in such abundance, like the sand of the sea, that he stopped keeping track of it; for it was beyond measure.

50 Before the years of famine arrived, two sons were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On. 51
Joseph named the firstborn Manasseh, saying, "God has made me forget all my hardship and all my father's household." 52 And the second son he named Ephraim, saying, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."

THE FAMINE BEGINS

53 When the seven years of abundance in the land of Egypt came to an end, 54 the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. And although there was famine in every country, there was food throughout the land of Egypt. 55 When extreme hunger came to all the land of Egypt and the people cried out to Pharaoh for food, he told all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph and do whatever he tells you."
56 When the famine had spread over all the land, Joseph opened up all the store-houses and sold grain to the Egyptians;
for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt. 57 And every nation came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, because the famine was severe over all the earth.

42

CHAPTER 42 IN 30 SECONDS

The famine hits Canaan, and Jacob sends ten sons to Egypt to buy grain. They bow down to the Egyptian governor with no idea he is Joseph. Joseph remembers his dreams and tests them, calling them spies and keeping Simeon in jail. The brothers start saying out loud that this is payback for what they did to Joseph.

JOSEPH'S BROTHERS SENT TO EGYPT

1 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why are you staring at one another?"
2 "Look," he added, "I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so that we may live and not die."
3 So ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. 4 But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, "I am afraid that harm might befall him."
5 So the sons of Israel were among those who came to buy grain, since the famine
had also spread to the land of Canaan.
6 Now Joseph was the ruler of the land; he was the one who sold grain to all its people. So when his brothers arrived, they bowed down before him with their faces to the ground. 7 And when Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he treated them as strangers and spoke harshly to them. "Where have you come from?" he asked.
"From the land of Canaan," they replied.
"We are here to buy food."
8 Although Joseph recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him. 9 Joseph remembered his dreams about them and said, "You are spies! You have come to see if our land is vulnerable."
10 "Not so, my lord," they replied. "Your servants have come to buy food. 11 We are all sons of one man. Your servants are honest men, not spies." 12 "No," he told them. "You have come to see if our land is vulnerable." 13 But they answered, "Your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. The youngest is now with our father, and one is no more." 14 Then Joseph declared, "Just as I said, you are spies! 15 And this is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here. 16 Send one of your number to get your brother; the rest of you will be confined so that the truth of your words may be tested. If they are untrue, then as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies!"
17 So Joseph imprisoned them for three days, 18 and on the third day he said to them, "I fear God. So do this and you will live: 19 If you are honest, leave one of your brothers in custody while the rest of you go and take back grain to relieve the hunger of your households. 20 Then bring your youngest brother to me so that your words can be verified, that you may not die."

And to this they consented.

21 Then they said to one another, "Surely we are being punished because of our brother. We saw his anguish when he pleaded with us, but we would not listen. That is why this distress has come upon us."

22 And Reuben responded, "Didn't I tell you not to sin against the boy? But you would not listen. Now we must account for his blood!"

23 They did not realize that Joseph understood them, since there was an interpreter between them. 24 And he turned away from them and wept. When he turned back and spoke to them, he took Simeon from them and had him bound before their eyes.

JOSEPH'S BROTHERS RETURN TO CANAAN

25 Then Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, to return each man's silver to his sack, and to give them provisions for their journey. This order was carried out, 26 and they loaded the grain on their donkeys and departed.

27 At the place where they lodged for the night, one of them opened his sack to get feed for his donkey, and he saw his silver in the mouth of the sack. 28 "My silver has been returned!" he said to his brothers. "It is here in my sack."

Their hearts sank, and trembling, they turned to one another and said, "What is this that God has done to us?"

29 When they reached their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they described to him all that had happened to them: 30 "The man who is lord of the land spoke harshly to us and accused us of spying on the country.

31 But we told him, 'We are honest men, not spies. 32 We are twelve brothers, sons of one father. One is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Canaan.'

33 Then the man who is lord of the land said to us, 'This is how I will know whether you are honest: Leave one brother with me, take food to relieve the hunger of your households, and go. 34 But bring your youngest brother back to me so I will know that you are not spies but honest men. Then I will give your brother back to you, and you can trade in the land.'"

35 As they began emptying their sacks, there in each man's sack was his bag of silver! And when they and their father saw the bags of silver, they were dismayed.

36 Their father Jacob said to them, "You have deprived me of my sons. Joseph is gone and Simeon is no more. Now you want to take Benjamin. Everything is going against me!"

37 Then Reuben said to his father, "You may kill my two sons if I fail to bring him back to you. Put him in my care, and I will return him."

38 But Jacob replied, "My son will not go down there with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If any harm comes to him on your journey, you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow."

43

CHAPTER 43 IN 30 SECONDS

The food runs out, and Jacob finally lets Benjamin go to Egypt. Joseph sees his little brother, has to leave the room to cry, then comes back and throws them a feast. He seats the brothers in birth order, oldest to youngest, and they stare at each other in shock. Benjamin gets five times as much food as everyone else.

THE RETURN TO EGYPT WITH BENJAMIN

1 Now the famine was still severe in the land. 2 So when Jacob's sons had eaten all the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Go back and buy us a little more food."

3 But Judah replied, "The man solemnly warned us, 'You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.' 4 If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you. 5 But if you will not send him, we will not go; for the man told us, 'You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'"

6 "Why did you bring this trouble upon me?" Israel asked. "Why did you tell the man you had another brother?"

7 They replied, "The man questioned us in detail about ourselves and our family: 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' And we answered him accordingly. How could we possibly know that he would say, 'Bring your brother here'?"

8 And Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the boy with me, and we will go at once, so that we may live and not die—neither we, nor you, nor our children. 9 I will guarantee his safety. You may hold me personally responsible. If I do not bring him back and set him before you, then may I bear the guilt before you all my life. 10 If we had not delayed, we could have come and gone twice by now."

11 Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so, then do this: Put some of the best products of the land in your packs and carry them down as a gift for the man—a little balm and a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachios and almonds. 12 Take double the silver with you so that you may return the silver that was put back into the mouths of your sacks. Perhaps it was a mistake. 13 Take your brother as well, and return to the man at once. 14 May God Almighty grant you mercy before the man, that he may release your other brother along with Benjamin. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved."

15 So the men took these gifts, along with double the amount of silver, and Benjamin as well. Then they hurried down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

JOSEPH'S HOSPITALITY TO HIS BROTHERS

16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with his brothers, he said to the steward of his house, "Take these men to my house. Slaughter an animal and prepare it, for they shall dine with me at noon." 17 The man did as Joseph had commanded and took the brothers to Joseph's house.

18 But the brothers were frightened that they had been taken to Joseph's house. "We have been brought here because of the silver that was returned in our bags the first time," they said. "They intend to overpower us and take us as slaves, along with our donkeys."

19 So they approached Joseph's steward and spoke to him at the entrance to the house. 20 "Please, sir," they said, "we really did come down here the first time to buy food. 21 But when we came to the place we lodged for the night, we opened our sacks and, behold, each of us found his silver in the mouth of his sack! It was the full amount of our silver, and we have brought it back with us. 22 We have brought additional silver with us to buy food. We do not know who put our silver in our sacks."

23 "It is fine," said the steward. "Do not be afraid. Your God, the God of your father, gave you the treasure that was in your sacks. I received your silver." Then he brought Simeon out to them. 24 And the steward took the men into Joseph's house, gave them water to wash their feet, and provided food for their donkeys.

25 Since the brothers had been told that they were going to eat a meal there, they prepared their gift for Joseph's arrival at noon. 26 When Joseph came home, they presented him with the gifts they had brought, and they bowed to the ground before him.

27 He asked if they were well, and then he asked, "How is your elderly father you told me about? Is he still alive?"

28 "Your servant our father is well," they answered. "He is still alive." And they bowed down to honor him.

29 When Joseph looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, his own mother's son, he asked, "Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?" Then he declared, "May God be gracious to you, my son."

30 Joseph hurried out because he was moved to tears for his brother, and he went to a private room to weep. 31 Then he washed his face and came back out. Regaining his composure, he said, "Serve the meal."

32 They separately served Joseph, his brothers, and the Egyptians. They ate separately because the Egyptians would not eat with the Hebrews, since that was detestable to them. 33 They were seated before Joseph in order by age, from the firstborn to the youngest, and the men looked at one another in astonishment. 34 When the portions were served to them from Joseph's table, Benjamin's portion was five times larger than any of the others. So they feasted and drank freely with Joseph.

CHAPTER 44 IN 30 SECONDS

Joseph hides his silver cup in Benjamin's sack, then has the brothers stopped on the road home. It is the final test. Will they abandon Benjamin the way they abandoned Joseph? Judah steps up and offers to stay as a slave in Benjamin's place so their father will not die of grief. The brother who once sold Joseph now gives himself for Benjamin.

BENJAMIN AND THE SILVER CUP

1 Then Joseph instructed his steward: "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each one's silver in the mouth of his sack. 2 Put my cup, the silver one, in the mouth of the youngest one's sack, along with the silver for his grain."

So the steward did as Joseph had instructed.

3 At daybreak, the men were sent on their way with their donkeys. 4 They had not gone far from the city when Joseph told his steward, "Pursue the men at once, and when you overtake them, ask, 'Why have you repaid good with evil? 5 Is this not the cup my master drinks from and uses for divination? What you have done is wicked!'"

6 When the steward overtook them, he relayed these words to them.

7 "Why does my lord say these things?" they asked. "Your servants could not possibly do such a thing. 8 We even brought back to you from the land of Canaan the silver we found in the mouths of our sacks. Why would we steal silver or gold from your master's house? 9 If any of your servants is found to have it, he must die, and the rest will become slaves of my lord."

10 "As you say," replied the steward. "But only the one who is found with the cup will be my slave, and the rest of you shall be free of blame."

11 So each one quickly lowered his sack to the ground and opened it. 12 The steward searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest—and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack. 13 Then they all tore their clothes, loaded their donkeys, and returned to the city.

14 When Judah and his brothers arrived at Joseph's house, he was still there, and they fell to the ground before him.

15 "What is this deed you have done?" Joseph declared. "Do you not know that a man like me can surely divine the truth?"

16 "What can we say to my lord?" Judah replied. "How can we plead? How can we justify ourselves? God has exposed the iniquity of your servants. We are now my lord's slaves—both we and the one who was found with the cup."

17 But Joseph replied, "Far be it from me to do this. The man who was found with the cup will be my slave. The rest of you may return to your father in peace."

JUDAH PLEADS FOR BENJAMIN

18 Then Judah approached Joseph and said, "Sir, please let your servant speak personally to my lord. Do not be angry with your servant, for you are equal to

Pharaoh himself. 19 My lord asked his servants, 'Do you have a father or a brother?'
20 And we answered, 'We have an elderly father and a younger brother, the child of his old age. The boy's brother is dead. He is the only one of his mother's sons left, and his father loves him.'
21 Then you told your servants, 'Bring him down to me so that I can see him for myself.'
22 So we said to my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father. If he were to leave, his father would die.'
23 But you said to your servants, 'Unless your younger brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.'
24 Now when we returned to your servant my father, we relayed your words to him.
25 Then our father said, 'Go back and buy us some food.'
26 But we answered, 'We cannot go down there unless our younger brother goes with us. So if our younger brother is not with us, we cannot see the man.'
27 And your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons.
28 When one of them was gone, I said: "Surely he has been torn to pieces." And I have not seen him since. 29 Now if you also take this one from me and harm comes to him, you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow.'
30 So if the boy is not with us when I return to your servant, and if my father, whose life is wrapped up in the boy's life, 31 sees that the boy is not with us, he will die. Then your servants will have brought the gray hair of your servant our father down to Sheol in sorrow. 32 Indeed, your servant guaranteed the boy's safety to my father, saying, 'If I do not return him to you, I will bear the guilt before you, my father, all my life.'
33 Now please let your servant stay here as my lord's slave in place of the boy. Let him return with his brothers. 34 For how can I go back to my father without the boy? I could not bear to see the misery that would overwhelm him."

45

CHAPTER 45 IN 30 SECONDS

Joseph cannot hold it in anymore. He sends the Egyptians out, weeps so loudly the whole palace hears it and says, I am Joseph. His brothers are terrified, but Joseph tells them it was not them who sent him here, it was God, to save lives. When Jacob hears his son is alive and running Egypt, his spirit comes back to life.

JOSEPH REVEALS HIS IDENTITY

1 Then Joseph could no longer control himself before all his attendants, and he cried out, "Send everyone away from me!"
So none of them were with Joseph when he made himself known to his brothers. 2 But he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard him, and Pharaoh's household soon heard of it.
3 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?"
But they were unable to answer him, because they were terrified in his presence.
4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near me." And they did so.
"I am Joseph, your brother," he said, "the one you sold into Egypt! 5 And now, do not be distressed or angry with yourselves that you sold me into this place, because it was to save lives that God sent me before you. 6 For the famine has covered the land these two years, and there will be five more years without plowing or harvesting. 7 God sent me before you to preserve you as a remnant on the earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance.
8 Therefore it was not you who sent me here, but God, who has made me a father to Pharaoh—lord of all his household and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

JOSEPH SENDS FOR HIS FATHER

9 Now return quickly to my father and tell him, 'This is what your son Joseph says: God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me without delay. 10 You shall settle in the land of Goshen and be near me—you and your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and everything you own. 11 And there I will provide for you, because there will be five more years of famine. Otherwise, you and your household and everything you own will come to destitution.'

12 Behold! You and my brother Benjamin can see that I, Joseph, am the one speaking with you. 13 Tell my father about all my splendor in Egypt and everything you have seen. And bring my father down here quickly."

14 Then Joseph threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin wept as they embraced. 15 Joseph kissed each of his brothers as he wept over them. And afterward his brothers talked with him.

PHARAOH INVITES JACOB TO EGYPT

16 When the news reached Pharaoh's house that Joseph's brothers had come, Pharaoh and his servants were pleased.

17 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do as follows: Load your animals and return to the land of Canaan. 18 Then bring your father and your families and return to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you shall eat from the fat of the land.' 19 You are also directed to tell them: 'Take wagons from the land of Egypt for your young children and your wives, and bring your father and come back. 20 But pay no regard to your belongings, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.'"

21 So the sons of Israel did as they were told. Joseph gave them wagons as Pharaoh had instructed, and he also gave them provisions for their journey. 22 He gave new garments to each of them, but to Benjamin he gave 7½ pounds of silver and five sets of clothes. 23 And he sent to his father the following: ten donkeys loaded with the best of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and provisions for his father's journey.

24 Then Joseph sent his brothers on their way, and as they were leaving, he said to them, "Do not quarrel on the way!"

THE REVIVAL OF JACOB

25 So the brothers went up out of Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. 26 "Joseph is still alive," they said, "and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt!"

But Jacob was stunned, for he did not believe them. 27 However, when they relayed all that Joseph had told them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him back, the spirit of their father Jacob was revived.

28 "Enough!" declared Israel. "My son Joseph is still alive! I will go to see him before I die."

46

CHAPTER 46 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Jacob not to be afraid to go down to Egypt, because He will make him a great nation there. Seventy members of the family make the trip. Jacob and Joseph meet after more than twenty years, and Joseph weeps on his father's neck for a long time. Jacob says he can die happy now.

JACOB'S JOURNEY TO EGYPT

1 So Israel set out with all that he had, and when he came to Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. 2 And that night God spoke to Israel in a vision: "Jacob, Jacob!" He said.

"Here I am," replied Jacob.

3 "I am God," He said, "the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there. 4 I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will surely bring you back. And Joseph's own hands will close your eyes."

5 Then Jacob departed from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel took their father Jacob in the wagons Pharaoh had sent to carry him, along with their children and wives. 6 They also took the livestock and possessions they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and Jacob and all his offspring went to Egypt.

THE BENI HASAN TOMB PAINTING

GENESIS 46:5 TO 7 · GENESIS 12:10 · GENESIS 42:5

A painted copy of the travelers from Canaan in the tomb of Khnumhotep II at Beni Hasan.

WHAT IT IS

A colorful wall painting of 37 foreigners from the area of Canaan arriving in Egypt with their donkeys, weapons, a lyre and bright patterned clothes. Their leader is named Abisha.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 1890 BC. An inscription in the painting dates it to the sixth year of Pharaoh Senusret II, so this date is firm.

WHERE AND WHEN MADE

Painted about 1890 BC in the tomb of an Egyptian governor named Khnumhotep II at Beni Hasan, on the Nile in Middle Egypt. Explorers copied it in the 1800s.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

Still on the tomb wall at Beni Hasan, Egypt.

WHAT IT SHOWS

People from Canaan really did travel down to Egypt with their families and animals. It is the same kind of trip Abram made during a famine and Jacob's family made in chapter 46.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

This is not Jacob's family. It shows what a trip like theirs looked like.

THOSE WHO WENT TO EGYPT // EXODUS 1:1–7

7 Jacob took with him to Egypt his sons and grandsons, and his daughters and granddaughters—all his offspring.

THE CHILDREN OF LEAH

8 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel (Jacob and his descendants) who went to Egypt: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.
9 The sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.
10 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.
11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
12 The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan
died in the land of Canaan.
The sons of Perez: Hezron and Hamul.
13 The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puvah, Job, and Shimron.
14 The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.
15 These are the sons of Leah born to Jacob in Paddan-aram, in addition to his daughter Dinah. The total number of sons and daughters was thirty-three.

THE CHILDREN OF ZILPAH

16 The sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

17 The children of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah.
The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.
18 These are the sons of Jacob born to Zilpah—whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah—sixteen in all.

THE CHILDREN OF RACHEL

19 The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel:
Joseph and Benjamin.
20 Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.
21 The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.
22 These are the sons of Rachel born to Jacob—fourteen in all.

THE CHILDREN OF BILHAH

23 The son of Dan: Hushim.
24 The sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.
25 These are the sons of Jacob born to Bil-hah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel—seven in all.
26 All those belonging to Jacob who came to Egypt—his direct descendants, besides the wives of Jacob's sons—numbered sixty-six persons. 27 And with the two sons who had been born to Joseph in Egypt,
the members of Jacob's family who went to Egypt were seventy in all.

JACOB ARRIVES IN EGYPT

28 Now Jacob had sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to get directions to Goshen.
When Jacob's family arrived in the land of Goshen, 29 Joseph prepared his chariot
and went there to meet his father Israel.
Joseph presented himself to him, embraced him, and wept profusely.
30 Then Israel said to Joseph, "Finally I can die, now that I have seen your face and know that you are still alive!" 31 Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and inform Pharaoh: 'My brothers and my father's household from the land of Canaan have come to me. 32 The men are shepherds; they raise livestock, and they have brought their flocks and herds and all that they own.'
33 When Pharaoh summons you and asks,
'What is your occupation?' 34 you are to say, 'Your servants have raised livestock ever since our youth—both we and our fathers.' Then you will be allowed to settle in the land of Goshen, since all shepherds are detestable to the Egyptians."

47

CHAPTER 47 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob meets Pharaoh and actually blesses him. The family settles in Goshen, the best land in Egypt. The famine gets so bad that the Egyptians trade their money, then their animals and finally their land to Pharaoh for food, and Joseph runs the whole economy. Jacob makes Joseph promise to bury him back in Canaan.

JACOB SETTLES IN GOSHEN

1 So Joseph went and told Pharaoh: "My father and my brothers, with their flocks and herds and all they own, have come from the land of Canaan and are now in Goshen."
2 And he chose five of his brothers and presented them before Pharaoh.
3 "What is your occupation?" Pharaoh asked Joseph's brothers.
"Your servants are shepherds," they replied, "both we and our fathers."
4 Then they said to Pharaoh, "We have come to live in the land for a time, because there is no pasture for the flocks of your servants, since the famine in the land of Canaan has been severe. So now, please allow your servants to settle in the land of Goshen."
5 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Now that your father and brothers have come to you, 6
the land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and brothers in the best part of the land. They may dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know of any talented men among them, put them in charge of my own livestock."
7 Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob and presented him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

8 "How many years have you lived?"
Pharaoh asked.
9 "My travels have lasted 130 years," Jacob replied. "My years have been few and hard, and they have not matched the years of the travels of my fathers."
10 Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and departed from his presence.
11 So Joseph settled his father and brothers in the land of Egypt and gave them property in the best part of the land, the district of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. 12 Joseph also provided his father and brothers and all his father's household with food for their families.

THE FAMINE CONTINUES

13 There was no food, however, in all that region, because the famine was so severe; the lands of Egypt and Canaan had been exhausted by the famine. 14 Joseph collected all the money to be found in the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan in exchange for the grain they were buying, and he brought it into Pharaoh's palace. 15 When the money from the lands of Egypt and Canaan was gone, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food. Why should we die before your eyes? For our funds have run out!"
16 "Then bring me your livestock," said Joseph. "Since the money is gone, I will sell you food in exchange for your livestock." 17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for their horses, their flocks and herds, and their donkeys. Throughout that year he provided them with food in exchange for all their livestock.
18 When that year was over, they came to him the second year and said, "We cannot hide from our lord that our money is gone and all our livestock belongs to you. There is nothing left for our lord except our bodies and our land. 19 Why should we perish before your eyes—we and our land as well? Purchase us and our land in exchange for food. Then we, along with our land, will be slaves to Pharaoh. Give us seed that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate."
20 So Joseph acquired for Pharaoh all the land in Egypt; the Egyptians, one and all, sold their fields because the famine was so severe upon them. The land became Pharaoh's, 21 and Joseph reduced the people to servitude from one end of Egypt to the other. 22 However, he did not acquire the priests' portion of the land, for it had been given to them by Pharaoh. They ate the rations that Pharaoh supplied; so they did not sell their land.
23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Now that I have acquired you and your land for Pharaoh this day, here is seed for you to sow in the land. 24 At harvest time, you are to give a fifth of it to Pharaoh, and four-fifths will be yours as seed for the field and food for yourselves and your households and children."
25 "You have saved our lives," they said. "We have found favor in our lord's eyes, and we will be Pharaoh's servants." 26 So Joseph established a law that a fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh, and it is in effect in the land of Egypt to this day. Only the priests' land does not belong to Pharaoh.

THE ISRAELITES PROSPER IN GOSHEN

27 Now the Israelites settled in the land of Egypt, in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there and became fruitful and increased greatly in number. 28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, and the length of his life was 147 years.
29 When the time drew near for Israel to die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes, put your hand under my thigh and promise to show me kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt, 30 but when I lie down with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt and bury me with them."
Joseph answered, "I will do as you have requested."
31 "Swear to me," Jacob said.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

So Joseph swore to him, and Israel bowed in worship at the head of his bed.

48

CHAPTER 48 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob is dying, and he blesses Joseph's two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. He crosses his arms and puts his right hand on the younger boy, and Joseph tries to fix it. Jacob says he knows exactly what he is doing. In Genesis the younger brother keeps getting the blessing, which is great news for younger brothers everywhere.

JACOB BLESSES EPHRAIM AND MANASSEH

1 Some time later Joseph was told, "Your father is ill." So he set out with his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. 2 When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph has come to you," Israel rallied his strength and sat up in bed.

3 Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and there He blessed me 4 *and told me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply
you; I will make you a multitude of peoples,
and will give this land to your descendants after you as an everlasting possession.'*

5 And now your two sons born to you in Egypt before I came to you here shall be reckoned as mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine. 6 Any children born to you after them shall be yours, and they shall be called by the names of their brothers in the territory they inherit.

7 Now as for me, when I was returning from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died
along the way in the land of Canaan, some distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem).

8 When Israel saw the sons of Joseph, he asked, "Who are these?"

9 Joseph said to his father, "They are the sons God has given me in this place."

So Jacob said, "Please bring them to me, that I may bless them."

10 Now Israel's eyesight was poor because of old age; he could hardly see. Joseph brought his sons to him, and his father kissed them and embraced them.

11 "I never expected to see your face
again," Israel said to Joseph, "but now
God has let me see your children as well."

12 Then Joseph removed his sons from his father's knees and bowed facedown.

13 And Joseph took both of them—with Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand—and brought them close to him. 14 But Israel stretched out his right hand and put it on the head of Ephraim, the younger; and crossing his hands, he put his left on Manasseh's head, although Manasseh was the first-born. 15 Then he blessed Joseph and said:

"May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,
the God who has been my shepherd all
my life to this day, 16 the angel who has redeemed me from all harm—
may He bless these boys.
And may they be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac,
and may they grow into a multitude
upon the earth."

17 When Joseph saw that his father had placed his right hand on Ephraim's head,
he was displeased and took his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's. 18 "Not so, my father!" Joseph said. "This one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head."

19 But his father refused. "I know, my son, I know!" he said. "He too shall become a people, and he too shall be great; nevertheless, his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his offspring shall become a multitude of nations."

20 So that day Jacob blessed them and
said:

"By you shall Israel pronounce this blessing:
'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.'"
So he put Ephraim before Manasseh.
21 Then Israel said to Joseph, "Look, I am about to die, but God will be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers.
22 And to you, as one who is above your brothers, I give the ridge of land that I took from the Amorites with my sword and bow."

CHAPTER 49 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob gathers his twelve sons and tells them what will happen to their families in the days to come. Some get praise and some get called out. Judah gets the big one: the scepter will not depart from Judah until the One comes to whom it belongs. Then Jacob pulls his feet into the bed and breathes his last.

JACOB BLESSES HIS SONS

1 Then Jacob called for his sons and said, "Gather around so that I can tell you what will happen to you in the days to come:

2 Come together and listen, O sons of Jacob listen to your father Israel.

3 Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might,
and the beginning of my strength,
excelling in honor,
excelling in power.
4 Uncontrolled as the waters,
you will no longer excel,
because you went up to your father's bed,
onto my couch, and defiled it.

5 Simeon and Levi are brothers;
their swords are weapons of violence.
6 May I never enter their council;
may I never join their assembly.
For they kill men in their anger,
and hamstring oxen on a whim.
7 Cursed be their anger, for it is strong,
and their wrath, for it is cruel!
I will disperse them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

8 Judah, your brothers shall praise you.
Your hand shall be on the necks of your enemies;
your father's sons shall bow down to you.
9 Judah is a young lion—
my son, you return from the prey.
Like a lion he crouches and lies down;
like a lioness, who dares to rouse him?
10 The scepter will not depart from Judah,
nor the staff from between his feet,
until Shiloh comes
and the allegiance of the nations is his.
11 He ties his donkey to the vine,
his colt to the choicest branch.
He washes his garments in wine,
his robes in the blood of grapes.
12 His eyes are darker than wine,
and his teeth are whiter than milk.

13 Zebulun shall dwell by the seashore
and become a harbor for ships;
his border shall extend to Sidon.

14 Issachar is a strong donkey,
lying down between the sheepfolds.
15 He saw that his resting place was good and that his land was pleasant,
so he bent his shoulder to the burden
and submitted to labor as a servant.

16 Dan shall provide justice for his people
as one of the tribes of Israel.
17 He will be a snake by the road,
a viper in the path
that bites the horse's heels
so that its rider tumbles backward.

THE DEATH OF JACOB

29 Then Jacob instructed them, "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite. 30 The cave is in the field of Machpelah near Mamre, in the land of Canaan. This is the field Abraham purchased from Ephron the Hittite as a burial site. 31 There Abraham and his wife Sarah are buried, there Isaac and his wife Rebekah are buried, and there I buried Leah. 32 The field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the Hittites."

33 When Jacob had finished instructing his sons, he pulled his feet into the bed and breathed his last, and he was gathered to his people.

CHAPTER 50 IN 30 SECONDS

Egypt mourns Jacob for seventy days, and Joseph carries him home to the family cave. The brothers panic that Joseph will finally get revenge now that Dad is gone. Joseph weeps and says, You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good. Joseph dies at 110 and makes them promise to carry his bones home when God brings them out.

MOURNING AND BURIAL FOR JACOB

1 Then Joseph fell upon his father's face, wept over him, and kissed him.

2 And Joseph directed the physicians in his service to embalm his father Israel. So they embalmed him, 3 taking the forty days required to complete the embalming. And the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

4 When the days of mourning had passed, Joseph said to Pharaoh's court, "If I have found favor in your eyes, please tell Pharaoh that 5 my father made me swear an oath when he said, 'I am about to die. You must bury me in the tomb that I dug for myself in the land of Canaan.' Now let me go and bury my father, and then return."

6 Pharaoh replied, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear to do."

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

7 Then Joseph went to bury his father, and all the servants of Pharaoh accompanied him—the elders of Pharaoh's household and all the elders of the land of Egypt— 8 along with all of Joseph's household, and his brothers, and his father's household.
Only their children and flocks and herds
were left in Goshen.

9 Chariots and horsemen alike went up with him, and it was an exceedingly large procession. 10 When they reached the threshing floor of Atad, which is across the Jordan, they lamented and wailed loudly, and Joseph mourned for his father
seven days.

11 When the Canaanites of the land saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a solemn ceremony of mourning by the Egyptians." Thus the place across the Jordan is called Abelmizraim.

12 So Jacob's sons did as he had charged them. 13 They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave at Machpelah in the field near Mamre, which Abraham had purchased from Ephron the Hittite as a burial site.

14 After Joseph had buried his father, he returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had gone with him to bury his father.

JOSEPH COMFORTS HIS BROTHERS

15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph bears a grudge? Then he will surely repay us for all the evil that we did
to him."

16 So they sent word to Joseph, saying,
"Before he died, your father commanded,
17 'This is what you are to say to Joseph: I beg you, please forgive the transgression and sin of your brothers, for they did you wrong.' So now, Joseph, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father."

When their message came to him, Joseph wept. 18 His brothers also came to him, bowed down before him, and said, "We are your slaves!"

19 But Joseph replied, "Do not be afraid.
Am I in the place of God? 20 As for you,
what you intended against me for evil,
God intended for good, in order to accomplish a day like this—to preserve the lives of many people. 21 Therefore do not be afraid. I will provide for you and your little ones." So Joseph reassured his brothers and spoke kindly to them.

THE DEATH OF JOSEPH

22 Now Joseph and his father's household remained in Egypt, and Joseph lived to the age of 110. 23 He saw Ephraim's sons to the third generation, and indeed the sons of Machir son of Manasseh were brought up on Joseph's knees.

24 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will surely visit you and bring you up from this land to the land
He promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." 25 And Joseph made the sons of Israel take an oath and said, "God will surely attend to you, and then you must carry my bones up from this place."

26 So Joseph died at the age of 110. And they embalmed his body and placed it in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

Let My people go

AUTHOR	Moses, according to Jewish and Christian tradition. Jesus called it the book of Moses Mark 12:26. Many modern scholars think it was put together from older sources over time.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	From slavery in Egypt to the tabernacle at Mount Sinai. The date is debated: about 1446 BC from 1 Kings 6:1, or about 1270 BC in the time of Ramesses II.
DATE WRITTEN	Traditionally about 1440 to 1400 BC, during the forty years in the wilderness. Many scholars say it reached its final form much later, around 500 BC.
WRITTEN TO	The people of Israel, so they would never forget who rescued them.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	About fifteen copies of Exodus were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls. It was also translated into Greek, in the Septuagint, around 250 BC.
KEY VERSE	Exodus 20:2. I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

ONE OF THE OLDEST PIECES OF EXODUS
This scroll is called 4QExod Lev f, which means a copy of Exodus and Leviticus from Cave 4 at Qumran. It was found with the Dead Sea Scrolls, and the photo shows all of its surviving pieces. They hold parts of the last chapters of Exodus and the first chapter of Leviticus, all on one scroll. Experts date it by its handwriting to about 250 BC, which makes it one of the oldest Bible scrolls ever found. That is about 250 years before Jesus was born. It is kept in Jerusalem.

Historical Setting

Egypt was the richest and strongest nation on earth. Its Pharaohs were worshiped as gods, and so were the Nile, the sun, frogs and cows. Jacob's family had moved there in a famine, and they settled in Goshen, the green land of the Nile Delta. Over time they grew into a huge nation, and a new Pharaoh made them slaves. Which Pharaoh is not named. The early date points to Thutmose III or Amenhotep II, the late date to Ramesses II, one of Egypt's most famous builders.

What Was Going Wrong

SLAVERY AND MURDER. Pharaoh worked Israel without mercy and ordered every Hebrew baby boy thrown into the Nile 1:13 to 14, 1:22.
THE GODS OF EGYPT. Egypt worshiped many gods, and God said He would bring judgment on all of them 12:12.
A HARD HEART. Pharaoh hardened his heart again and again, even when he could see what God was doing 8:15, 8:32, 9:34.
A LEADER FULL OF EXCUSES. Moses told God five different ways that he was the wrong man for the job 3:11, 3:13, 4:1, 4:10, 4:13.
GRUMBLING. Days after the sea parted, the people were complaining about water, food and Moses 15:24, 16:2 to 3, 17:3.
THE GOLDEN CALF. Forty days after they promised to obey, they made an idol and threw a party for it 24:7, 32:1 to 6.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Exodus means the way out. It is the great rescue story of the Old Testament. God hears His people crying in slavery and sends Moses to Pharaoh with one message: Let My people go. Ten plagues later, the blood of the Passover lamb saves Israel, and they walk out of Egypt through the middle of the sea. At Mount Sinai God gives them His law and makes them His own nation. Then He gives them plans for a tent so He can live in the middle of their camp. The book ends with His glory filling the tabernacle.

CH 3 to 4	THE BURNING BUSH God calls Moses and tells him His name.
CH 5 to 11	THE PLAGUES Ten plagues show Egypt who the real God is.
CH 12 to 15	PASSOVER AND THE SEA The blood of the lamb, the night of escape and the sea that splits.
CH 15 to 18	THE WILDERNESS Bitter water, manna, water from the rock and a battle.
CH 19 to 24	MOUNT SINAI The Ten Commandments and the covenant.
CH 25 to 31	THE PLANS God's blueprint for the tabernacle and the priests.
CH 32 to 34	THE GOLDEN CALF Israel breaks the covenant, Moses prays and God renews it.
CH 35 to 40	THE BUILD The tabernacle goes up, and God's glory moves in.

Where Jesus Shows Up

EXODUS 3:14 God's name I AM. Jesus said, Before Abraham was born, I am, in John 8:58.

EXODUS 12:5 TO 13 The spotless Passover lamb. Christ is our Passover lamb, 1 Corinthians 5:7.

EXODUS 12:46 Not one bone of the lamb was to be broken, fulfilled at the cross, John 19:36.

EXODUS 16:4 Bread from heaven. Jesus is the true bread from heaven, John 6:32 to 35.

EXODUS 17:6 Water from the rock. Paul says that rock was Christ in 1 Corinthians 10:4.

EXODUS 25:8 God's tent among His people. The Word pitched His tent among us, John 1:14.

GOD'S NAMES IN EXODUS

Exodus is where God tells His name: I AM WHO I AM 3:14, and His personal name, YHWH, printed Yahweh 3:15. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob knew Him as God Almighty 6:3. You also meet Yahweh who heals you 15:26, Yahweh is my banner 17:15 and Yahweh whose name is Jealous 34:14.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS SHOW UP TWICE

They are in Exodus 20 and Deuteronomy 5, with small differences, mostly in the Sabbath command. Before the Dead Sea Scrolls, the oldest Hebrew Bible text known was the Nash Papyrus, with the Ten Commandments on it.

WHY MOSES HAS HORNS

Exodus 34:29 says Moses' face was shining. The Hebrew word for shine is close to horn, and the old Latin Bible said horned. So Michelangelo's Moses has two little horns.

WHAT IS IT

Manna comes from man hu, Hebrew for What is it? Israel ate a question for forty years.

THE FIRST SPIRIT FILLED ARTIST

Bezalel is filled with God's Spirit to do art, 31:2 to 5. God cares about beauty.

THE BLUEPRINTS TAKE UP A THIRD

Thirteen of forty chapters are about the tabernacle, where God would meet His people.

THE FIRSTBORN ARE BOUGHT BACK

Every firstborn belongs to God, but Israel buys back each firstborn son instead of sacrificing him 13:13, 34:20. The nations burned children, which God hated Leviticus 18:21.

Did Anybody Listen?

Sometimes. Forty days after promising to obey, they made a golden calf. But Moses prayed, God forgave them, and Exodus ends with God's glory filling the tent.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Jacob's family grows from seventy people into a nation, and a new Pharaoh who never knew Joseph gets nervous. He turns them into slaves and makes them build store cities. When that does not slow them down, he orders the Hebrew midwives to kill the baby boys. The midwives fear God more than Pharaoh and quietly refuse.

THE ISRAELITES MULTIPLY IN EGYPT // GENESIS 46:7–27

1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt with Jacob, each with his family:
2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;
3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;
4 Dan and Naphtali;
Gad and Asher.
5 The descendants of Jacob numbered seventy in all, including Joseph, who was already in Egypt.
6 Now Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died, 7 but the Israelites were fruitful and increased rapidly; they multiplied and became exceedingly numerous, so that the land was filled with
them.

OPPRESSION BY A NEW KING // ACTS 7:15–19

8 Then a new king, who did not know Joseph, came to power in Egypt. 9 "Look," he said to his people, "the Israelites have become too numerous and too powerful for us. 10 Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase even more; and if a war breaks out, they may join our enemies,
fight against us, and leave the country."
11 So the Egyptians appointed taskmasters over the Israelites to oppress them with forced labor. As a result, they built Pithom and Rameses as store cities for Pharaoh.
12 But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and flourished; so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites.

PITHOM AND PI RAMESSES

EXODUS 1:11 · EXODUS 12:37 · GENESIS 47:11

The feet of a giant statue of Ramesses II, still lying in a farm field at Qantir, the site of Pi Ramesses.

WHAT IT IS

Two real Egyptian cities in the eastern Nile Delta, the same area as the land of Goshen. Raamses was Pi Ramesses, which means House of Ramesses, the giant capital city of Pharaoh Ramesses II. Pithom means House of the god Atum.

HOW OLD IT IS

Pi Ramesses was built by Ramesses II starting about 1270 BC, right on top of an older city called Avaris, which goes back to about 1800 BC. Many people from Canaan lived at Avaris. Pithom is either Tell el Retaba, which was busy in the time of Ramesses, or Tell el Maskhuta, which is mostly from about 600 BC. Which site is Pithom is disputed.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

People once thought Pi Ramesses was Tanis, because statues of Ramesses were found there. Then Manfred Bietak, starting in 1966, and Edgar Pusch, starting in 1980, showed the real city was at Tell el Dab'a and Qantir. Later Pharaohs had hauled its stones to Tanis. Edouard Naville dug at Tell el Maskhuta in 1883, and a Polish and Slovak team has worked at Tell el Retaba since 2007.

WHAT WAS INSIDE

Scans under the fields at Qantir show palaces, temples and stables for hundreds of chariot horses, built with mud brick, the work Exodus 1:14 describes.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The sites are mostly farm fields and mounds in the Nile Delta of Egypt. Many finds are in Egyptian museums and the Roemer and Pelizaeus Museum in Hildesheim, Germany.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

The cities in Exodus 1:11 were real places in the right part of Egypt, with huge building projects going on.

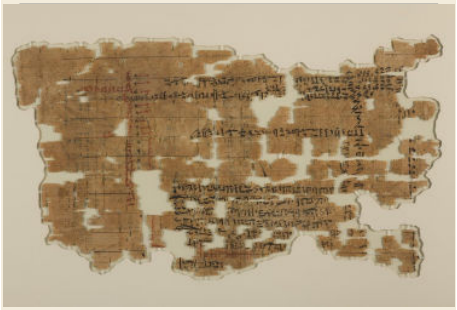
THE BIG DEBATE

The name Raamses points many scholars to the late date, about 1270 BC. People who hold the early date, about 1446 BC, say a later writer updated the city name, just as Genesis 47:11 says land of Rameses long before any Ramesses was born.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No record found so far names Hebrew slaves or Moses at these cities. The cities fit the story, but direct evidence of Israel there has not been found.

13 They worked the Israelites ruthlessly 14 and made their lives bitter with hard labor in brick and mortar, and with all kinds of work in the fields. Every service they imposed was harsh.



15 Then the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, whose names were Shiphrah and Puah, 16 "When you help the Hebrew women give birth, observe them on the birthstools. If the child is a son, kill him; but if it is a daughter, let her live."

■ EX 1:15 [FIELD NOTES] An Egyptian list of household servants from about 1740 BC includes a woman named Shiphrah. See the Brooklyn Papyrus Field Notes page, p.121.

The Brooklyn Papyrus, written in hieratic, a fast handwritten form of Egyptian writing.

WHAT IT IS

A long Egyptian papyrus scroll. On one side are prison and court records. On the other side is a list of 95 servants who belonged to one wealthy Egyptian household.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 1740 BC, in the time of Pharaoh Sobekhotep III. Experts date it by the names of the kings and officials written in it, so this date is fairly firm.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

An American collector named Charles Edwin Wilbour bought it in Egypt in the 1880s. It went to the Brooklyn Museum in 1935, and the Egyptologist William Hayes published it in 1955.

WHAT WAS INSIDE

About 45 of the 95 servants are called Aamu, the Egyptian word for people from Canaan and Syria. Many have Semitic names, the same family of languages as Hebrew. One woman on the list is named Shiphrah, the same name as one of the Hebrew midwives in Exodus 1:15. Some scholars think they also see names like Asher and Issachar, but those readings are debated.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Brooklyn Museum in New York City.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

People from Canaan really lived and worked as servants in Egyptian homes, with Semitic names that sound like names in the Bible. The life of Joseph as a slave in Potiphar's house and the Hebrew servants in Exodus fit this world.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

This Shiphrah is not the midwife from Exodus. She is a different woman with the same name. The list does not mention Israel, Moses or the Exodus.

17 The midwives, however, feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt had instructed; they let the boys live. 18 So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, "Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?" 19 The midwives answered Pharaoh, "The Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous and give birth before a midwife arrives." 20 So God was good to the midwives, and the people multiplied and became even more numerous. 21 And because the midwives feared God, He gave them families of their own.
22 Then Pharaoh commanded all his people: "Every son born to the Hebrews you must throw into the Nile, but every daughter you may allow to live."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHEN WAS THE EXODUS?

Two Dates, One Story

EXODUS 1:11 · 12:40 TO 41 · 1 KINGS 6:1 · JUDGES 11:26 · JOSHUA 6 AND 11

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Solomon began the temple in the 480th year after Israel came out of Egypt, in the fourth year of his reign, 1 Kings 6:1. That was about 966 BC, which puts the Exodus about 1446 BC. Jephthah says Israel had lived in the land about 300 years, Judges 11:26. But Exodus 1:11 says the Hebrew slaves built the store cities Pithom and Rameses, and the great city of Pi Ramesses was built by Pharaoh Ramesses II, who ruled about 1279 to 1213 BC.

THE EARLY DATE, ABOUT 1446 BC

Take 1 Kings 6:1 at face value. Pharaoh would be Thutmose III or Amenhotep II. The name Rameses was updated by a later writer, just as Genesis 47:11 says land of Rameses long before any Ramesses was born. In the 1930s John Garstang dated the fall of Jericho's walls to about 1400 BC, and in 1990 Bryant Wood argued for that date again from the pottery. Letters found at Amarna in Egypt, from the 1300s BC, complain of raiders called Habiru in Canaan, which some link to the Hebrews.

THE LATE DATE, ABOUT 1270 BC

Pharaoh is Ramesses II, or his father Seti I. The 480 years is twelve generations of 40 years, a round number; real generations are closer to 25 years, which gives about 300 years. In the 1950s Kathleen Kenyon dated Jericho's fall to about 1550 BC, with little there in 1400. Hazor, which Joshua burned, 11:11, was destroyed in the 1200s BC.

THE 430 YEARS

Israel lived in Egypt 430 years, 12:40. The Greek Septuagint and the Samaritan text say in Egypt and Canaan, counting from Abraham, and Paul counts 430 years from the promise to the Law, Galatians 3:17. So some say Israel was in Egypt only about 215 years. This changes the story of the patriarchs, not the date of the Exodus itself.

What the Ground Says

EXODUS 12:37 TO 41 · 14:28 · JOSHUA 11:10 TO 13

THE FIRM DATE

The Merneptah Stele, about 1208 BC, names Israel as a people in Canaan. So Israel was there by then. Both views fit, the late date just barely. See The Merneptah Stele Field Notes page, p.138.

THE SKEPTICAL VIEW

Some scholars think there was no large Exodus at all, or only a small group that escaped Egypt, and that Israel mostly grew up inside Canaan. They point out that Egyptian records never mention it. Others answer that Pharaohs did not carve their defeats in stone, and that the Bible's details about Egypt fit the times. See the Pithom and Pi Ramesses and Brooklyn Papyrus Field Notes pages, p.120.

BE CAREFUL WITH

The Ipuwer Papyrus is often called an

OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

Egyptian record of the plagues, but most scholars date it centuries earlier; see its page, p.130. Claims of chariot wheels found in the Red Sea have never been backed by real archaeologists. Movies like The Ten Commandments, 1956, and The Prince of Egypt, 1998, made Ramesses II the Pharaoh of the Exodus, but the Bible never names him.

HOW MANY?

About 600,000 men on foot, besides women and children, 12:37, perhaps two million people. Some read the Hebrew word for thousand, elef, as a clan or military unit, which would make the number much smaller. Others take the number as written.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Every believing view agrees God brought Israel out of Egypt with a mighty hand, 13:3, and that the Passover points to Jesus, our Passover lamb, 1 Corinthians 5:7. The date changes the calendar, not the story.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

A Hebrew mom hides her baby boy, then floats him down the Nile in a basket. Pharaoh's own daughter finds him, adopts him and names him Moses, and his real mom gets paid to nurse him. Grown up Moses kills an Egyptian who was beating a Hebrew and runs for his life to Midian. Meanwhile God hears His people groaning.

THE BIRTH AND ADOPTION OF MOSES // ACTS 7:20–22; HEBREWS 11:23

1 Now a man of the house of Levi married a Levite woman, 2 and she conceived and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a beautiful child, she hid him for three months.

3 But when she could no longer hide him,
she got him a papyrus basket and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in the basket and set it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile. 4 And his sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

5 Soon the daughter of Pharaoh went down to bathe in the Nile, and her attendants were walking along the riverbank.
And when she saw the basket among the reeds, she sent her maidservant to retrieve it. 6 When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the little boy was crying. So she had compassion on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrew children."

7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call one of the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?"

8 "Go ahead," Pharaoh's daughter told her.
And the girl went and called the boy's mother.

9 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay your wages." So the woman took the boy and nursed him.

10 When the child had grown older, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses and explained, "I drew him out of the water."

THE REJECTION AND FLIGHT OF MOSES // ACTS 7:23–29

11 One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to his own people and observed their hard labor. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his own people. 12
After looking this way and that and seeing no one, he struck down the Egyptian and hid his body in the sand.

13 The next day Moses went out and saw two Hebrews fighting. He asked the one in the wrong, "Why are you attacking your companion?"

14 But the man replied, "Who made you ruler and judge over us? Are you planning to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?"

Then Moses was afraid and thought, "This thing I have done has surely become known."

15 When Pharaoh heard about this matter,
he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian, where he sat down beside a well.

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came to draw water and fill the troughs to water their father's flock. 17 And when some shepherds came along and drove them away, Moses rose up to help them and watered their flock.

18 When the daughters returned to their father Reuel, he asked them, "Why have you returned so early today?"

19 "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds," they replied. "He even drew water for us and watered the flock."

20 "So where is he?" their father asked. "Why did you leave the man behind? Invite him to have something to eat."

21 Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses in marriage. 22 And she gave birth to a son, and Moses named him Gershom, saying, "I have become a foreigner in a foreign land."

GOD HEARS THE CRY OF THE ISRAELITES

23 After a long time, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned and cried out under their burden of slavery, and their cry for deliverance from bondage ascended to God.

24 So God heard their groaning, and He remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 25 God saw the Israelites and took notice.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses is watching sheep for forty years when a bush catches fire and does not burn up. God speaks from the flames and tells him to take off his sandals. God says He has seen His people suffer and is sending Moses to Pharaoh. Moses asks for God's name, and God says, I AM WHO I AM.

MOSES AT THE BURNING BUSH // ACTS 7:30–38

1 Meanwhile, Moses was shepherding the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. He led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. 2 There the angel of Yahweh appeared to him in a blazing fire from within a bush. Moses saw the bush ablaze with fire, but it was not consumed.

3 So Moses thought, "I must go over and see this marvelous sight. Why is the bush not burning up?"

4 When Yahweh saw that he had gone over to look, God called out to him from within the bush, "Moses, Moses!"

"Here I am," he answered.

5 "Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground." 6 Then He said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

At this, Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

7 Yahweh said, "I have indeed seen the affliction of My people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their oppressors, and I am aware of their sufferings. 8 I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.

9 And now the cry of the Israelites has reached Me, and I have seen how severely the Egyptians are oppressing them.

10 Therefore, go! I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring My people the Israelites out of Egypt."

11 But Moses asked God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

12 "I will surely be with you," God said, "and this will be the sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, all of you will worship God on this mountain."

13 Then Moses asked God, "Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is His name?' What should I tell them?"

14 God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM.
This is what you are to say to the Israelites: 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

15 God also told Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.' This is My name forever, and this is how I am to be remembered in every generation.

16 Go, assemble the elders of Israel and say to them, 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—has appeared to me and said: I have surely attended to you and have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.
17 And I have promised to bring you up out of your affliction in Egypt, into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Per-izzites, Hivites, and Jebusites—a land flowing with milk and honey.'

18 The elders of Israel will listen to what you say, and you must go with them to the king of Egypt and tell him, 'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us.
Now please let us take a three-day journey into the wilderness, so that we may sacrifice to Yahweh our God.'

19 But I know that the king of Egypt will not allow you to go unless a mighty hand compels him. 20 So I will stretch out My hand and strike the Egyptians with all the wonders I will perform among them. And after that, he will release you.

21 And I will grant this people such favor in the sight of the Egyptians that when you leave, you will not go away empty-handed. 22 Every woman shall ask her neighbor and any woman staying in her house for silver and gold jewelry and clothing, and you will put them on your sons and daughters. So you will plunder
the Egyptians."

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses has a long list of excuses. God turns his staff into a snake and back, and makes his hand sick and then healthy again. Moses says he is a bad speaker, and God says, Who made your mouth? Moses finally just asks God to send someone else. So God sends his brother Aaron along to do the talking.

MOSES' STAFF

1 Then Moses answered, "What if they do not believe me or listen to my voice? For they may say, 'Yahweh has not appeared to you.'"

2 And Yahweh asked him, "What is that in
your hand?"

"A staff," he replied.

3 "Throw it on the ground," said Yahweh.
So Moses threw it on the ground, and it became a snake, and he ran from it.

4 "Stretch out your hand and grab it by the tail," Yahweh said to Moses, who reached out his hand and caught the snake, and it turned back into a staff in his hand. 5 "This is so that they may believe that Yahweh,
the God of their fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob—has appeared to you."

MOSES' HAND

6 Furthermore, Yahweh said to Moses,
"Put your hand inside your cloak." So he put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out, his hand was leprous, white as snow.

7 "Put your hand back inside your cloak,"
said Yahweh.

So Moses put his hand back inside his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored, like the rest of his skin.

8 And Yahweh said, "If they refuse to believe you or heed the witness of the first sign, they may believe that of the second.
9 But if they do not believe even these two signs or listen to your voice, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. Then the water you take from the Nile will become blood on the ground."

THE APPOINTMENT OF AARON

10 "Please, Lord," Moses replied, "I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since You have spoken to Your servant, for I am slow of speech and tongue."

11 And Yahweh said to him, "Who gave man his mouth? Or who makes the mute or the deaf, the sighted or the blind? Is it not I, Yahweh? 12 Now go! I will help you as you speak, and I will teach you what to say."

13 But Moses replied, "Please, Lord, send someone else."

14 Then the anger of Yahweh burned against Moses, and He said, "Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well, and he is now on his way to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. 15 You are to speak to him and put the words in his mouth. I will help both of you to speak, and I will teach you what to do. 16 He will speak to the people for you. He will be your spokesman, and it will be as if you were God to him. 17 But take this staff in your hand so you can perform signs with it."

MOSES LEAVES FOR EGYPT

18 Then Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, "Please let me return to my brothers in Egypt to see if they are still alive."

"Go in peace," Jethro replied.

19 Now Yahweh had said to Moses in Midian, "Go back to Egypt, for all the men who sought to kill you are dead." 20 So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey, and headed back to Egypt. And he took the staff of God in his hand.

21 Yahweh instructed Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders that I have put within your power. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go. 22 Then tell Pharaoh that this is what Yahweh says: 'Israel is My firstborn son, 23 and I told you to let My son go so that he may worship Me. But since you have refused to let him go, behold, I will kill your firstborn son!'"

24 Now at a lodging place along the way, Yahweh met Moses and was about to kill him. 25 But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin, and touched it to Moses' feet. "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me," she said.

26 So Yahweh let him alone. (When she said, "bridegroom of blood," she was referring to the circumcision.)

THE PEOPLE BELIEVE MOSES AND AARON

27 Meanwhile, Yahweh had said to Aaron, "Go and meet Moses in the wilderness." So he went and met Moses at the mountain of God and kissed him. 28 And Moses told Aaron everything Yahweh had sent him to say, and all the signs He had commanded him to perform.

29 Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the Israelites, 30 and Aaron relayed everything Yahweh had said to Moses.

And Moses performed the signs before the people, 31 and they believed. And when they heard that Yahweh had attended to the Israelites and had seen their affliction, they bowed down and worshiped.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses and Aaron tell Pharaoh, Let My people go, and Pharaoh says, Who is Yahweh? Then he makes the slaves gather their own straw and still make the same number of bricks. The workers blame Moses, and Moses blames God. Day one of the mission does not go well.

PHARAOH'S FIRST REFUSAL

1 After that, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'Let My people go, so that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness.'"

2 But Pharaoh replied, "Who is Yahweh that I should obey His voice and let Israel go? I do not know Yahweh, and I will not let Israel go."

GOD SPEAKING

3 "The God of the Hebrews has met with us," they answered. "Please let us go on a three-day journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to Yahweh our God, or He may strike us with plagues or with the sword."

4 But the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why do you draw the people away from their work? Get back to your labor!" 5 Pharaoh also said, "Look, the people of the land are now numerous, and you would be stopping them from their labor."

BRICKS AND STRAW

6 That same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their foremen: 7 "You shall no longer supply the people with straw for making bricks. They must go and gather their own straw. 8 But require of them the same quota of bricks as before; do not reduce it. For they are lazy; that is why they are crying out, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.' 9 Make the work harder on the men so they will be occupied and pay no attention to these lies."

10 So the taskmasters and foremen of the people went out and said to them, "This is what Pharaoh says: 'I am no longer giving you straw. 11 Go and get your own straw wherever you can find it; but your workload will in no way be reduced.'"

12 So the people scattered all over the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. 13 The taskmasters kept pressing them, saying, "Fulfill your quota each day, just as you did when straw was provided."

14 Then the Israelite foremen, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over the people, were beaten and asked, "Why have you not fulfilled your quota of bricks yesterday or today, as you did before?"

THE CRY OF THE ISRAELITES

15 So the Israelite foremen went and appealed to Pharaoh: "Why are you treating your servants this way? 16 No straw has been given to your servants, yet we are told, 'Make bricks!' Look, your servants are being beaten, but the fault is with your own people."

17 "You are slackers!" Pharaoh replied. "Slackers! That is why you keep saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to Yahweh.' 18 Now get to work. You will be given no straw, yet you must deliver the full quota of bricks."

19 The Israelite foremen realized they were in trouble when they were told, "You must not reduce your daily quota of bricks." 20 When they left Pharaoh, they confronted Moses and Aaron, who stood waiting to meet them.

21 "May Yahweh look upon you and judge you," the foremen said, "for you have made us a stench before Pharaoh and his officials; you have placed in their hand a sword to kill us!"

22 So Moses returned to Yahweh and asked, "Lord, why have You brought trouble upon this people? Is this why You sent me? 23 Ever since I went to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has brought trouble on this people, and You have not delivered Your people in any way."

6

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

God answers Moses with seven I will promises: I will bring you out, I will rescue you, I will redeem you and more. The people are too crushed to listen. Then the story pauses for a family tree so we know exactly who Moses and Aaron are. Watch for Amminadab and Nahshon in verse 23, two names in the family line of Jesus.

GOD PROMISES DELIVERANCE

1 But Yahweh said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh, for because of My mighty hand he will let the people go; because of My strong hand he will drive them out of his land."

2 God also told Moses, "I am Yahweh. 3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by My name Yahweh I did not make Myself known to them. 4 I also established My covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, the land where they lived as foreigners. 5 Furthermore, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered My covenant.

6 Therefore tell the Israelites: 'I am Yahweh, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians and deliver you from their bondage. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment. 7 I will take you as My own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. 8 And I will bring you into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I will give it to you as a possession. I am Yahweh!'"

9 Moses relayed this message to the Israelites, but on account of their broken spirit and cruel bondage, they did not listen to him.

10 So Yahweh said to Moses, 11 "Go and tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his land."

12 But in Yahweh's presence Moses replied, "If the Israelites will not listen to me, then why would Pharaoh listen to me, since I am unskilled in speech?"

13 Then Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them a charge concerning both the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

GENEALOGIES OF MOSES AND AARON

14 These were the heads of their fathers' houses:

The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben.

15 The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

16 These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their records: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. Levi lived 137 years.

17 The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei, by their clans.

18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years.

19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi.

These were the clans of the Levites according to their records.

20 And Amram married his father's sister Jochebed, and she bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years.

21 The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

22 The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

23 And Aaron married Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

24 The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the clans of the Korahites.

25 Aaron's son Eleazar married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas.

These were the heads of the Levite families by their clans.

26 It was this Aaron and Moses to whom Yahweh said, "Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt by their divisions." 27 Moses and Aaron were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt in order to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

28 Now on the day that Yahweh spoke to Moses in Egypt, 29 He said to him, "I am Yahweh; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I say to you."

30 But in Yahweh's presence Moses replied, "Since I am unskilled in speech, why would Pharaoh listen to me?"

7

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Aaron throws down his staff and it becomes a serpent. Pharaoh's magicians do the same trick, but Aaron's staff swallows theirs. Then the first plague hits. The Nile turns to blood, the fish die and the whole country stinks. The magicians copy it, which only makes things worse, and Pharaoh's heart stays hard.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING

GOD COMMANDS MOSES AND AARON

1 Yahweh answered Moses, "See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet. 2 You are to speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron is to tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his land.

3 But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and though I will multiply My signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, 4 Pharaoh will not listen to you.

Then I will lay My hand on Egypt, and by mighty acts of judgment I will bring the divisions of My people the Israelites out of the land of Egypt. 5 And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh, when I stretch out My hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them."

6 So Moses and Aaron did just as Yahweh had commanded them. 7 Moses was eighty years old and Aaron was eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

AARON'S STAFF

8 Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 9
"When Pharaoh tells you, 'Perform a miracle,' you are to say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh,'
and it will become a serpent."

10 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh
and did just as Yahweh had commanded.
Aaron threw his staff down before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a serpent.

11 But Pharaoh called the wise men and sorcerers and magicians of Egypt, and they also did the same things by their magic arts. 12 Each one threw down his staff, and it became a serpent. But Aaron's staff swallowed up the other staffs.

13 Still, Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said.

THE FIRST PLAGUE: BLOOD

14 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is unyielding; he refuses to let the people go. 15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning
as you see him walking out to the water.
Wait on the bank of the Nile to meet him,
and take in your hand the staff that was changed into a snake. 16 Then say to him,
'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to tell you: Let My people go, so that they may worship Me in the wilderness. But until now you have not listened.
17 This is what Yahweh says: By this you will know that I am Yahweh. Behold, with the staff in my hand I will strike the water of the Nile, and it will turn to blood. 18 The fish in the Nile will die, the river will stink, and the Egyptians will be unable to drink
its water.'"

19 And Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron,
'Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt—over their rivers and canals and ponds and all the reservoirs—that they may become blood.'
There will be blood throughout the land of Egypt, even in the vessels of wood and stone."

20 Moses and Aaron did just as Yahweh had commanded; in the presence of Pharaoh and his officials, Aaron raised the staff and struck the water of the Nile, and all the water was turned to blood. 21 The fish in the Nile died, and the river smelled
so bad that the Egyptians could not drink its water. And there was blood throughout the land of Egypt.

THE IPUWER PAPYRUS

EXODUS 7:20 TO 21 · EXODUS 10:22 · EXODUS 12:35 TO 36

A page of the Ipuwer Papyrus, written in hieratic.

WHAT IT IS

An Egyptian poem, also called the Admonitions of Ipuwer. A wise man named Ipuwer complains to the king that Egypt has fallen apart: the poor have become rich, the rich have become poor, and there is chaos everywhere.

HOW OLD IT IS

The only copy was written about 1250 BC. The poem itself is older, but how much older is disputed. Most Egyptologists date it to the Middle Kingdom, somewhere around 1850 BC or earlier.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The National Museum of Antiquities in Leiden, Netherlands, bought it in 1828 from the collection of Giovanni Anastasi, a merchant in Egypt. It probably came from Saqqara, near Memphis. Alan Gardiner published the first full English translation in 1909.

WHAT IT SAYS

Some lines sound a lot like Exodus. The river is blood, and people refuse to drink from it. Plague is all over the land. Gold and precious stones hang on the necks of servant girls. Fire has destroyed the land.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The National Museum of Antiquities in Leiden, Netherlands.

WHY SOME LINK IT TO THE PLAGUES

In 1952 a writer named Immanuel Velikovsky said Ipuwer was an Egyptian eyewitness to the plagues, and many Bible teachers have repeated it since. The river turned to blood and the Egyptians handing their gold to slaves are the two lines people point to most.

WHY MOST EXPERTS DISAGREE

It never mentions Israelites, Moses, a Passover or slaves leaving Egypt. Most experts say it is poetry about Egypt falling into disorder, and that a red river was a way to describe bloodshed. Its probable date is also hundreds of years before either date for the Exodus. We rate it LOW: interesting, but not evidence.

22 But the magicians of Egypt did the same things by their magic arts. So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as Yahweh had said. 23 Instead, Pharaoh turned around, went into his palace, and did not take any of this to heart. 24 So all the Egyptians dug around the Nile for water to drink, because they could not drink the water from the river.
25 And seven full days passed after Yahweh had struck the Nile.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Plague two is frogs: in the beds, in the ovens and in the bread bowls. Pharaoh begs for them to go away, and when Moses asks when, he says, Tomorrow. One more night with the frogs. Then come gnats, and the magicians give up and say, This is the finger of God. Then flies, everywhere except Goshen, where God's people live.

THE SECOND PLAGUE: FROGS

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him that this is what Yahweh says: 'Let My people go, so that they may worship Me. 2 But if you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs. 3 The Nile will teem with frogs, and they will come into your palace and up to your bedroom and onto your bed, into the houses of your officials and your people, and into your ovens and kneading

bowls. 4 The frogs will come up on you and your people and all your officials.'"
5 And Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron,
'Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers and canals and ponds, and cause the frogs to come up onto the land of Egypt.'"
6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.
7 But the magicians did the same thing by their magic arts, and they also brought frogs up onto the land of Egypt.
8 Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray to Yahweh to take the frogs away from me and my people. Then I will let your people go, that they may sacrifice to Yahweh." 9 Moses said to Pharaoh, "You may have the honor over me. When shall I pray for you and your officials and your people that the frogs (except for those in the Nile)
may be taken away from you and your houses?"
10 "Tomorrow," Pharaoh answered.
"May it be as you say," Moses replied, "so that you may know that there is no one like Yahweh our God. 11 The frogs will depart from you and your houses and your officials and your people; they will remain only in the Nile."
12 After Moses and Aaron had left Pharaoh, Moses cried out to Yahweh for help with the frogs that He had brought against Pharaoh. 13 And Yahweh did as Moses requested, and the frogs in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields died. 14 They were piled into countless heaps, and there was a terrible stench in the land.
15 When Pharaoh saw that there was relief, however, he hardened his heart and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as Yahweh had said.

THE THIRD PLAGUE: GNATS

16 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike
the dust of the earth, that it may turn into swarms of gnats throughout the land of Egypt.'"
17 This they did, and when Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, gnats came upon man and beast. All the dust of the earth turned into gnats throughout the land of Egypt.
18 The magicians tried to produce gnats
using their magic arts, but they could not.
And the gnats remained on man and beast.
19 "This is the finger of God," the magicians said to Pharaoh. But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said.

THE FOURTH PLAGUE: FLIES

20 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning, and when Pharaoh goes out to the water, stand before him and tell him that this is what Yahweh says:
'Let My people go, so that they may worship Me. 21 But if you will not let My people go, I will send swarms of flies upon you and your officials and your people and your houses. The houses of the Egyptians and even the ground where they stand will be full of flies.
22 But on that day I will give special treatment to the land of Goshen, where My people live; no swarms of flies will be found there. In this way you will know that I, Yahweh, am in the land. 23 I will make a distinction between My people and your people. This sign will take place tomorrow.'" 24 And Yahweh did so. Thick swarms of flies poured into Pharaoh's palace and into the houses of his officials. Throughout Egypt the land was ruined by swarms of flies.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING

25 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God within this land."

26 But Moses replied, "It would not be right to do that, because the sacrifices we offer to Yahweh our God would be detestable to the Egyptians. If we offer sacrifices that are detestable before the Egyptians, will they not stone us? 27 We must make a three-day journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to Yahweh our God as He commands us."

28 Pharaoh answered, "I will let you go and sacrifice to Yahweh your God in the wilderness, but you must not go very far.
Now pray for me."

29 "As soon as I leave you," Moses said, "I will pray to Yahweh, so that tomorrow the swarms of flies will depart from Pharaoh and his officials and his people. But Pharaoh must not act deceitfully again by refusing to let the people go and sacrifice
to Yahweh."

30 Then Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to Yahweh, 31 and Yahweh did as Moses requested. He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh and his officials and his people; not one fly remained. 32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time as well, and he would not let the people go.

9

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

The livestock of Egypt die, but Israel's animals are fine. Then painful boils break out on people and animals, even on the magicians, who cannot stand up in front of Moses. Then the worst hail-storm in Egypt's history falls with fire mixed in. Pharaoh says, I have sinned, then changes his mind again as soon as the hail stops.

THE FIFTH PLAGUE: LIVESTOCK

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him that this is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'Let My people go, so that they may worship
Me. 2 But if you continue to restrain them and refuse to let them go, 3 then the hand of Yahweh will bring a severe plague on your livestock in the field—on your horses, donkeys, camels, herds, and flocks. 4 But Yahweh will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that no animal belonging to the Israelites will die.'"

5 Yahweh set a time, saying, "Tomorrow Yahweh will do this in the land." 6 And the next day Yahweh did just that. All the livestock of the Egyptians died, but not one animal belonging to the Israelites died. 7 Pharaoh sent officials and found that none of the livestock of the Israelites had died.
But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not let the people go.

THE SIXTH PLAGUE: BOILS

8 Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron,
"Take handfuls of soot from the furnace;
in the sight of Pharaoh, Moses is to toss it into the air. 9 It will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and festering boils will break out on man and beast throughout the land."

10 So they took soot from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh. Moses tossed it into the air, and festering boils broke out on man and beast. 11 The magicians could not stand before Moses, because the boils had broken out on them and on all the Egyptians.

12 But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart,
and he would not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said to Moses.

THE SEVENTH PLAGUE: HAIL

13 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Get up
early in the morning, stand before Pharaoh, and tell him that this is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says:
'Let My people go, so that they may worship Me. 14 Otherwise, I will send all My plagues against you and your officials and your people, so you may know that there is no one like Me in all the earth.

15 For by this time I could have stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with a plague to wipe you off the earth. 16 But I have raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display My power to you,
and that My name might be proclaimed in all the earth. 17 Still, you lord it over My people and do not allow them to go.

18 Behold, at this time tomorrow I will rain down the worst hail that has ever fallen on Egypt, from the day it was founded until now. 19 So give orders now to shelter your livestock and everything you have in the field. Every man or beast that remains in the field and is not brought inside will die
when the hail comes down upon them.'"

20 Those among Pharaoh's officials who feared the word of Yahweh hurried to bring their servants and livestock to shelter, 21 but those who disregarded the word of Yahweh left their servants and livestock
in the field.

22 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven, so that hail may fall on all the land of Egypt—on man and beast and every plant of the field
throughout the land of Egypt."

23 So Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven, and Yahweh sent thunder and hail, and lightning struck the earth. So Yahweh rained down hail upon the land of Egypt. 24 The hail fell and the lightning continued flashing through it. The hail was so severe that nothing like it had ever been seen in all the land of Egypt from the time it became a nation.

25 Throughout the land of Egypt, the hail struck down everything in the field, both man and beast; it beat down every plant of the field and stripped every tree. 26 The only place where it did not hail was in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites lived.

27 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. "This time I have sinned," he said.
"Yahweh is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. 28 Pray to Yahweh, for there has been enough of God's thunder and hail. I will let you go; you do not need to stay any longer."

29 Moses said to him, "When I have left the city, I will spread out my hands to Yahweh. The thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth is Yahweh's. 30 But as for you and your officials, I know that you still do not fear Yahweh our God."

31 (Now the flax and barley were destroyed, since the barley was ripe and the flax was in bloom; 32 but the wheat and spelt were not destroyed, because they are late crops.)

33 Then Moses departed from Pharaoh, went out of the city, and spread out his hands to Yahweh. The thunder and hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured down on the land.

34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder had ceased, he sinned again
and hardened his heart—he and his officials. 35 So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not let the Israelites go, just as Yahweh had said through Moses.

10

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Pharaoh's own officials beg him to give up, because Egypt is ruined. He refuses, and locusts eat every green thing the hail missed. Then thick darkness covers Egypt for three days, a darkness you can feel. But all the Israelites have light where they live. Pharaoh tells Moses never to show his face again.

THE EIGHTH PLAGUE: LOCUSTS

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials, that I may perform these miraculous signs of Mine among them, 2 and that you may tell your children and grandchildren how severely I dealt with the Egyptians when I performed miraculous signs among them, so that all of you may know that I am Yahweh."

3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh
and told him, "This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me?
Let My people go, so that they may worship Me. 4 But if you refuse to let My people go, I will bring locusts into your territory tomorrow. 5 They will cover the face of the land so that no one can see it. They will devour whatever is left after the hail and eat every tree that grows in your fields. 6 They will fill your houses and the houses of all your officials and every Egyptian—something neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen since the day they came into this land.'"

Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh's presence.

7 Pharaoh's officials asked him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may worship Yahweh their God. Do you not yet realize that Egypt lies in ruins?"

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. "Go, worship Yahweh your God," he said. "But who exactly will be going?"

9 "We will go with our young and old," Moses replied. "We will go with our sons and daughters, and with our flocks and herds, for we must hold a feast to Yah-
weh."

10 Then Pharaoh told them, "May Yahweh be with you if I ever let you go with your little ones. Clearly you are bent on evil. 11
No, only the men may go and worship Yahweh, since that is what you have been requesting." And Moses and Aaron were driven from Pharaoh's presence.

12 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch
out your hand over the land of Egypt, so that the locusts may swarm over it and devour every plant in the land—everything that the hail has left behind."

13 So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and throughout that day and night Yahweh sent an east wind across the land. By morning the east wind had brought the locusts.

14 The locusts swarmed across the land and settled over the entire territory of Egypt. Never before had there been so many locusts, and never again will there be. 15 They covered the face of all the land until it was black, and they consumed all the plants on the ground and all the fruit
on the trees that the hail had left behind.
Nothing green was left on any tree or plant in all the land of Egypt.

16 Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned against Yahweh your God and against you. 17 Now please forgive my sin once more and appeal to Yahweh your God, that He may remove this death from me."

18 So Moses left Pharaoh's presence and appealed to Yahweh. 19 And Yahweh changed the wind to a very strong west wind that carried off the locusts and blew them into the Red Sea. Not a single locust remained anywhere in Egypt.

20 But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart,
and he would not let the Israelites go.

THE NINTH PLAGUE: DARKNESS

21 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven, so that darkness may spread over the land of Egypt—a palpable darkness."

22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and total darkness covered all the land of Egypt for three days. 23 No one could see anyone else, and for three days no one left his place. Yet all the Israelites had light in their dwellings.

24 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, "Go, worship Yahweh. Even your little ones may go with you; only your flocks and herds must stay behind."

25 But Moses replied, "You must also provide us with sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to Yahweh our God. 26 Even our livestock must go with us; not a hoof will be left behind, for we will need some of them to worship Yahweh our God, and we will not know how we are to worship Yahweh until we arrive."

27 But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was unwilling to let them go. 28 "Depart from me!" Pharaoh said to Moses. "Make sure you never see my face again, for on the day you see my face, you will die."

29 "As you say," Moses replied, "I will never see your face again."

11

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

God says there is one more plague, and after this Pharaoh will practically chase you out. The Israelites ask their Egyptian neighbors for silver and gold, and the Egyptians just hand it over. Moses warns that at midnight every firstborn in Egypt will die. Then he walks out of the palace, hot with anger.

THE PLAGUE ON THE FIRSTBORN FORETOLD

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "I will bring upon Pharaoh and Egypt one more plague. After that, he will allow you to leave this place. And when he lets you go, he will drive you out completely. 2 Now announce to the people that men and women alike should ask their neighbors for articles of silver and gold."

3 And Yahweh gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, Moses himself was highly regarded in Egypt by Pharaoh's officials and by the people.

4 So Moses declared, "This is what Yahweh says: 'About midnight I will go throughout Egypt, 5 and every firstborn son in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, to the firstborn of the servant girl behind the hand mill, as well as the firstborn of all the cattle. 6 Then a great cry will go out over all the land of Egypt. Such an outcry has never been heard before and will never be heard again. 7 But among all the Israelites, not even a dog will snarl at man or beast.'

Then you will know that Yahweh makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel. 8 And all these officials of yours will come and bow before me, saying, 'Go, you and all the people who follow you!' After that, I will depart."

And hot with anger, Moses left Pharaoh's presence.

9 Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt."

10 Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, but Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not let the Israelites go out of his land.

12

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

The first Passover. Each family kills a spotless lamb and puts its blood on the doorframe, and the angel of death passes over every house with the blood. At midnight the firstborn of Egypt die, from the palace to the prison. Pharaoh finally says, Go. About 600,000 men plus women and children walk out after 430 years.

THE FIRST PASSOVER // NUMBERS 9:1–14

1 Now Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, 2 "This month is the beginning of months for you; it shall be the first month of your year.

3 Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man must select a lamb for his family, one per household. 4 If the household is too small for a whole lamb, they are to share with the nearest neighbor based on the number of people, and apportion the lamb accordingly.

5 Your lamb must be an unblemished year-old male, and you may take it from the sheep or the goats. 6 You must keep it until the fourteenth day of the month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel will slaughter the animals at twilight. 7 They are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs.

8 They are to eat the meat that night, roasted over the fire, along with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

9 Do not eat any of the meat raw or cooked in boiling water, but only roasted over the fire—its head and legs and inner parts. 10 Do not leave any of it until morning; before the morning you must burn up any part that is left over.

11 This is how you are to eat it: You must be fully dressed for travel, with your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. You are to eat in haste; it is Yahweh's Passover.

12 On that night I will pass through the land of Egypt and strike down every firstborn male, both man and beast, and I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt. I am Yahweh. 13 The blood on the houses where you are staying will be a sign; when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No plague will fall on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

THE FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD // LEVITICUS 23:4–8; NUMBERS 28:16–25; DEUTERONOMY 16:1–8

14 And this day will be a memorial for you, and you are to celebrate it as a feast to Yahweh, as a permanent statute for the generations to come. 15 For seven days you must eat unleavened bread. On the first day you are to remove the leaven from your houses. Whoever eats anything leavened from the first day through the seventh must be cut off from Israel.

16 On the first day you are to hold a sacred assembly, and another on the seventh day. You must not do any work on those days, except to prepare the meals—that is all you may do.

17 So you are to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your divisions out of the land of Egypt. You must keep this day as a permanent statute for the generations to come. 18 In the first month you are to eat unleavened bread, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day. 19 For seven days there must be no leaven found in your houses. If anyone eats something leavened, that person, whether a foreigner or native of the land, must be cut off from the congregation of Israel. 20 You are not to eat anything leavened; eat unleavened bread in all your homes."

21 Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and told them, "Go at once and select for yourselves a lamb for each family, and slaughter the Passover lamb. 22 Take a cluster of hyssop, dip it into the blood in the basin, and brush the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe. None of you shall go out the door of his house until morning.

23 When Yahweh passes through to strike down the Egyptians, He will see the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe and will pass over that doorway; so He will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses and strike you down.

24 And you are to keep this command as a permanent statute for you and your descendants. 25 When you enter the land that Yahweh will give you as He promised, you are to keep this service.

26 When your children ask you, 'What does this service mean to you?' 27 you are to reply, 'It is the Passover sacrifice to Yahweh, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when He struck down the Egyptians and spared our homes.'"

Then the people bowed down and worshiped. 28 And the Israelites went and did just what Yahweh had commanded Moses and Aaron.

THE TENTH PLAGUE: DEATH OF THE FIRSTBORN

29 Now at midnight Yahweh struck down every firstborn male in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on his throne, to the firstborn of the prisoner in the dungeon, as well as all the firstborn among the livestock.

30 During the night Pharaoh got up—he and all his officials and all the Egyptians—and there was loud wailing in Egypt; for there was no house without someone dead.

THE EXODUS BEGINS

31 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron by night and said, "Get up, leave my people, both you and the Israelites!
Go, worship Yahweh as you have requested. 32 Take your flocks and herds as well, just as you have said, and depart!
And bless me also."

33 And in order to send them out of the land quickly, the Egyptians urged the people on. "For otherwise," they said, "we are all going to die!" 34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, carrying it on their shoulders in kneading bowls wrapped in clothing.

35 Furthermore, the Israelites acted on Moses' word and asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and gold, and for clothing. 36 And Yahweh gave the people such favor in the sight of the Egyptians that they granted their request. In this way they plundered the Egyptians.

37 The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth with about 600,000 men on foot, besides women and children. 38 And a mixed multitude also went up with them, along with great droves of livestock, both flocks and herds.

39 Since their dough had no leaven, the people baked what they had brought out of Egypt into unleavened loaves. For when they had been driven out of Egypt,
they could not delay and had not prepared
any provisions for themselves.

40 Now the duration of the Israelites' stay in Egypt was 430 years. 41 At the end of the 430 years, to the very day, all Yahweh's divisions went out of the land of Egypt. 42 Because Yahweh kept a vigil that night to bring them out of the land of Egypt, this same night is to be a vigil to Yahweh, to be observed by all the Israelites for the generations to come.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PASSOVER

43 And Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron,
"This is the statute of the Passover: No foreigner is to eat of it. 44 But any slave who has been purchased may eat of it, after you have circumcised him. 45 A temporary resident or hired hand shall not eat
the Passover.

46 *It must be eaten inside one house. You are not to take any of the meat outside the house,
and you may not break any of the bones.*

47 The whole congregation of Israel must celebrate it. 48 If a foreigner resides with you and wants to celebrate Yahweh's Passover, all the males in the household must be circumcised; then he may come near to celebrate it, and he shall be like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised man may eat of it. 49 The same law shall apply to both the native and the foreigner who resides among you."

50 Then all the Israelites did this—they did just as Yahweh had commanded Moses and Aaron. 51 And on that very day Yahweh brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt by their divisions.

DEBATED FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: HIGH FOR THE STELE, DEBATED FOR THE DATE OF THE EXODUS

THE MERNEPTAH STELE

EXODUS 12:40 TO 41 · EXODUS 1:7 · JOSHUA 24:13

The Merneptah Stele in the Egyptian Museum, Cairo. Israel is named near the bottom.

WHAT IT IS

A big slab of black granite, about ten feet tall, carved with a victory poem for Pharaoh Merneptah, the son of Ramesses II. Near the end it lists the enemies he defeated in Canaan, and one of them is Israel: Israel is laid waste, his seed is not.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 1208 BC, in the fifth year of Merneptah's reign. The date comes from the stone itself, so it is firm within a few years.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The British archaeologist Flinders Petrie found it in 1896 in the ruins of Merneptah's temple at Thebes, which is modern Luxor. The stone was used twice. The back side has an older carving from Pharaoh Amenhotep III.

WHY IT MATTERS

It is the oldest mention of Israel anywhere outside the Bible that everyone agrees on. The Egyptian writing adds a little sign that means a people, not a city or a country, so Israel was already a group of people living in Canaan by about 1208 BC.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Egyptian Museum in Cairo, Egypt.

WHAT IT MEANS FOR THE DATE

If Israel was settled in Canaan by 1208 BC, the Exodus had to happen before that. People who hold the early date, about 1446 BC, say this fits easily. People who hold the late date, about 1270 BC, say it fits too, but just barely, with Israel arriving in Canaan only a few years earlier.

THE ISRAEL LINE

The lines around it name Canaan, Ashkelon, Gezer and Yenoam, each written with the Egyptian sign for a land or a city. Israel is the only name in the list written with the sign for a people.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It does not mention Moses, Egypt's slaves or the Exodus. Merneptah was bragging that he wiped Israel out, which turned out to be very wrong, since Israel is still here.

every womb among the Israelites belongs to Me, both of man and beast."

3 So Moses told the people, "Remember this day, the day you came out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; for Yahweh brought you out of it by the strength of His hand. And nothing leavened shall be eaten.

4 Today, in the month of Abib, you are leaving. 5 And when Yahweh brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites—the land He swore to your fathers that He would give you, a land flowing with milk and honey—you shall keep this service in this month.

6 For seven days you are to eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to Yahweh. 7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten during those seven days. Nothing leavened may be found among you, nor shall leaven be found anywhere within your borders.

8 And on that day you are to explain to your son, 'This is because of what Yahweh did for me when I came out of Egypt.' 9 It shall be a sign for you on your hand and a reminder on your forehead that the Law of Yahweh is to be on your lips. For with a mighty hand Yahweh brought you out of Egypt. 10 Therefore you shall keep this statute at the appointed time year after year.

11 And after Yahweh brings you into the land of the Canaanites and gives it to you, as He swore to you and your fathers, 12 you are to present to Yahweh the firstborn male of every womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock belong to Yahweh. 13 You must redeem every firstborn donkey with a lamb, and if you do not redeem it, you are to break its neck. And every firstborn of your sons you must redeem.

14 In the future, when your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' you are to tell him, 'With a mighty hand Yahweh brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

15 And when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, Yahweh killed every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both of man and beast. This is why I sacrifice to Yahweh the firstborn male of every womb, but I redeem all the firstborn of my sons.' 16 So it shall serve as a sign on your hand and a symbol on your forehead, for with a mighty hand Yahweh brought us out of Egypt."

THE PILLARS OF CLOUD AND FIRE

17 When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them along the road through the land of the Philistines, though it was shorter. For God said, "If the people face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt." 18 So God led the people around by the way of the wilderness toward the Red Sea. And the Israelites left the land of Egypt arrayed for battle.

19 Moses took the bones of Joseph with him because Joseph had made the sons of Israel swear a solemn oath when he said, "God will surely attend to you, and then you must carry my bones with you from this place."

20 They set out from Succoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the wilderness. 21 And Yahweh went before them in a pillar of cloud to guide their way by day, and in a pillar of fire to give them light by night, so that they could travel by day or night. 22 Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place before the people.

The Exodus and the Wilderness

Out of Egypt, through the sea, and forty years to the Jordan

OUT OF EGYPT Israel set out from Rameses to Succoth, Exodus 12:37. God led them the long way, not the coast road through Philistine land, Exodus 13:17 to 18.

WHERE IS SINAI? The old tradition, since the 300s, is Jebel Musa in southern Sinai. Others point to Har Karkom in the Negev or Jebel al Lawz in Arabia, the land of Midian.

WHICH SEA? The Hebrew is Yam Suph, the Sea of Reeds. Some place the crossing at the lakes near the Suez, some at the Gulf of Suez, and some at the Gulf of Aqaba.

FORTY YEARS From Kadesh to the brook Zered took Israel 38 years, Deuteronomy 2:14. Edom refused to let them pass, so they went around, Numbers 20:14 to 21.

Rameses, Kadesh and the plains of Moab are fairly certain. Most stops in between are not. Routes are approximate.

PHARAOH PURSUES THE ISRAELITES

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Tell the Israelites to turn back and encamp before
Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea.
You are to encamp by the sea, directly opposite Baal-zephon.
3 For Pharaoh will say of the Israelites,
'They are wandering the land in confusion; the wilderness has boxed them in.' 4
And I will harden Pharaoh's heart so that he will pursue them. But I will gain honor by means of Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am Yah-
weh."

So this is what the Israelites did.

5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about them and said,
"What have we done? We have released Israel from serving us."

6 So Pharaoh prepared his chariot and took his army with him. 7 He took 600 of the best chariots, and all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them.

8 And Yahweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out defiantly. 9 The Egyptians—all Pharaoh's horses and chariots, horsemen and troops—pursued the Israelites and overtook them as they camped by the sea near Pi-hahiroth, opposite Baal-zephon.

10 As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians marching after them, and they were terrified and cried out to Yahweh. 11 They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you brought us into the wilderness to die? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? 12
Did we not say to you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone so that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness."

13 But Moses told the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see Yahweh's salvation, which He will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians you see today, you will never see again. 14 Yahweh will fight for you; you need only to be still."

PARTING THE RED SEA

15 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. 16 And as for you, lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground. 17 And I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. Then I will gain honor by means of Pharaoh and all his army and chariots and horsemen. 18
The Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh when I am honored through Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen."

19 And the angel of God, who had gone before the camp of Israel, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved from before them and stood behind them, 20 so that it came between the camps of Egypt and Israel. The cloud was there in the darkness, but it lit up the night. So all night long neither camp went near the other.

21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night Yahweh drove back the sea with a strong east wind that turned it into dry land. So the waters were divided, 22 and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with walls of water
on their right and on their left.

23 And the Egyptians chased after them—all Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and horsemen—and followed them into the sea. 24 At morning watch, however, Yahweh looked down on the army of the Egyptians from the pillar of fire and cloud,
and He threw their camp into confusion.
25 He caused their chariot wheels to wobble, so that they had difficulty driving. "Let us flee from the Israelites," said the Egyptians, "for Yahweh is fighting for them against Egypt!"

26 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen." 27 So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea returned to its normal state. As the Egyptians were retreating, Yahweh swept them into the sea.
28 The waters flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen—the entire army of Pharaoh that had chased the Israelites into the sea. Not one of them survived.

29 But the Israelites had walked through
the sea on dry ground, with walls of water
on their right and on their left. 30 That day Yahweh saved Israel from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the shore. 31 When Israel saw the great power that Yahweh had exercised over the Egyptians, the people feared Yahweh and believed in Him and in His servant Moses.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses and Israel sing the first big worship song in the Bible, and Miriam leads the women with a tambourine. Then they walk three days with no water, and the water they finally find is bitter. The worship lasted about three days, and so did the gratitude. God shows Moses a piece of wood that makes the water sweet.

THE SONG AT THE SEA // JUDGES 5:1–31

1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to Yahweh:

"I will sing to Yahweh,
for He is highly exalted.
The horse and rider
He has thrown into the sea.
2 Yahweh is my strength and my song,
and He has become my salvation.
He is my God, and I will praise Him,
my father's God, and I will exalt Him.

3 Yahweh is a warrior,
Yahweh is His name.
4 Pharaoh's chariots and army
He has cast into the sea;
the finest of his officers
are drowned in the Red Sea.
5 The depths have covered them;
they sank there like a stone.

6 Your right hand, O Yahweh,
is majestic in power;
Your right hand, O Yahweh,
has shattered the enemy.
7 You overthrew Your adversaries
by Your great majesty.
You unleashed Your burning wrath;
it consumed them like stubble.
8 At the blast of Your nostrils
the waters piled up;
like a wall the currents stood firm;
the depths congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy declared,
'I will pursue, I will overtake.
I will divide the spoils;
I will gorge myself on them.
I will draw my sword;
my hand will destroy them.'
10 But You blew with Your breath,
and the sea covered them.
They sank like lead
in the mighty waters.

11 Who among the gods is like You, O Yah-
weh?
Who is like You—majestic in holiness,
revered with praises,
performing wonders?
12 You stretched out Your right hand,
and the earth swallowed them up.
13 With loving devotion You will lead
the people You have redeemed;
with Your strength You will guide them
to Your holy dwelling.

14 The nations will hear and tremble;
anguish will grip the dwellers of Philistia.
15 Then the chiefs of Edom will be dismayed;
trembling will seize the leaders of Moab;
those who dwell in Canaan will melt away,
16 and terror and dread will fall on them.

19 For when Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and horsemen went into the sea, Yahweh brought the waters of the sea back over them. But the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground.

20 Then Miriam the prophetess, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women followed her with tambourines and dancing. 21 And Miriam sang back to them:

"Sing to Yahweh,

THE WATERS OF MARAH

22 Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the Desert of Shur. For three days they walked in the desert without finding water. 23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drink the water there because it was bitter. (That is why it was named Marah.)

24 So the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "What are we to drink?" 25 And Moses cried out to Yahweh, and Yahweh showed him a log. And when he cast it into the waters, they were sweetened.

There Yahweh made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there He tested them, 26 saying, "If you will listen carefully to the voice of Yahweh your God, and do what is right in His eyes, and pay attention to His commands, and keep all His statutes, then I will not bring on you any of the diseases I inflicted on the Egyptians. For I am Yahweh who heals you."

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

The people grumble that they had more food back in slavery. So God rains bread from heaven every morning. They call it manna, which means What is it? Anyone who keeps extra overnight finds worms in the morning, except on the Sabbath. They will eat manna for the next forty years.

MANNA AND QUAIL FROM HEAVEN

1 On the fifteenth day of the second month after they had left the land of Egypt, the whole congregation of Israel set out from Elim and came to the Desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai. 2 And there in the desert the whole congregation of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron. 3 "If only we had died by Yahweh's hand in the land of Egypt!" they said. "There we sat by pots of meat and ate our fill of bread, but you have brought us into this desert to starve this whole assembly to death!"

4 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, I will rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day the people are to go out and gather enough for that day. In this way I will test whether or not they will follow My instructions. 5 Then on the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on the other days."

6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "This evening you will know that it was Yahweh who brought you out of the land of Egypt, 7 and in the morning you will see Yahweh's glory, because He has heard your grumbling against Him. For who are we, that you should grumble against us?"

grumbling against Him. Who are we? Your grumblings are not against us but against Yahweh."

9 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Tell the whole congregation of Israel, 'Come before Yahweh, for He has heard your grumbling.'"

10 And as Aaron was speaking to the whole congregation of Israel, they looked toward the desert, and there in a cloud the glory of Yahweh appeared.

11 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 12 "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them, 'At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am Yahweh your God.'"

13 That evening quail came and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. 14 When the layer of dew had evaporated, there were thin flakes on the desert floor, as fine as frost on the ground. 15 When the Israelites saw it, they asked one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was.

So Moses told them, "It is the bread that Yahweh has given you to eat. 16 This is what Yahweh has commanded: 'Each one is to gather as much as he needs. You may take two quarts for each person in your tent.'"

17 So the Israelites did this. Some gathered more, and some less. 18 When they measured it out, he who gathered much had no excess, and he who gathered little had no shortfall. Each one gathered as much as he needed to eat.

19 Then Moses said to them, "No one may keep any of it until morning." 20 But they did not listen to Moses; some people left part of it until morning, and it became infested with maggots and began to smell. So Moses was angry with them.

21 Every morning each one gathered as much as was needed, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away.

THE SABBATH OBSERVED // GENESIS 2:1–3; HEBREWS 4:1–11

22 On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much food—four quarts per person—and all the leaders of the congregation came and reported this to Moses. 23 He told them, "This is what Yahweh has said: 'Tomorrow is to be a day of complete rest, a holy Sabbath to Yahweh. So bake what you want to bake, and boil what you want to boil. Then set aside whatever remains and keep it until morning.'"

24 So they set it aside until morning as Moses had commanded, and it did not smell or contain any maggots. 25 "Eat it today," Moses said, "because today is a Sabbath to Yahweh. Today you will not find anything in the field. 26 For six days you may gather, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, it will not be there."

27 Yet on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, but they did not find anything. 28 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep My commandments and instructions? 29 Understand that Yahweh has given you the Sabbath; that is why on the sixth day He will give you bread for two days. On the seventh day, everyone must stay where he is; no one may leave his place."

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

THE JAR OF MANNA

31 Now the house of Israel called the bread manna. It was white like coriander seed and tasted like wafers made with honey. 32 Moses said, "This is what Yahweh has commanded: 'Keep two quarts of manna for the generations to come, so that they may see the bread I fed you in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.'"

33 So Moses told Aaron, "Take a jar and fill it with two quarts of manna. Then place it before Yahweh to be preserved for the generations to come." 34 And Aaron placed it in front of the Testimony, to be pre-to place as Yahweh commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. 2 So the people contended with Moses, "Give us water to drink."

"Why do you contend with me?" Moses replied. "Why do you test Yahweh?"

3 But the people thirsted for water there,
and they grumbled against Moses: "Why have you brought us out of Egypt—to make us and our children and livestock die of thirst?"

4 Then Moses cried out to Yahweh, "What should I do with these people? A little more and they will stone me!"

5 And Yahweh said to Moses, "Walk on ahead of the people and take some of the elders of Israel with you. Take along in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. 6 Behold, I will stand
there before you by the rock at Horeb.
And when you strike the rock, water will come out of it for the people to drink."

So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel. 7 He named the place Massah and Meribah because the Israelites quarreled, and because they tested Yahweh, saying, "Is Yahweh among us or not?"

THE DEFEAT OF THE AMALEKITES

8 After this, the Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim. 9 So Moses said to Joshua, "Choose some of our men and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on the hilltop with the staff of God in my hand."

10 Joshua did as Moses had instructed him and fought against the Amalekites, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 As long as Moses held up his hands, Israel prevailed; but when he lowered them, Amalek prevailed. 12 When Moses' hands grew heavy, they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Then Aaron and Hur held his hands up, one on each side, so that his hands remained steady
until the sun went down.

13 So Joshua overwhelmed Amalek and his army with the sword.

14 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Write this on a scroll as a reminder and recite it to Joshua, because I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven."

15 And Moses built an altar and named it Yahweh Is My Banner. 16 "Indeed," he said,
"a hand was lifted up toward the throne of Yahweh. Yahweh will war against Amalek from generation to generation."

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses' father in law Jethro comes to visit and watches Moses judge the people's cases from morning until evening. Jethro says, What you are doing is not good. You will wear yourself out. He tells Moses to pick honest leaders over groups of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. It is the first management seminar in the Bible.

THE VISIT OF JETHRO

1 Now Moses' father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, heard about all that God had done for Moses and His people Israel, and how Yahweh had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 After Moses had sent back his wife Zip-porah, his father-in-law Jethro had received her, 3 along with her two sons. One son was named Gershom, for Moses had said, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land." 4 The other son was named Eliezer, for Moses had said, "The God of my father was my helper and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh."

5 Moses' father-in-law Jethro, along with Moses' wife and sons, came to him in the desert, where he was encamped at the mountain of God. 6 He sent word to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."

7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down and kissed him.
They greeted each other and went into the tent. 8 Then Moses recounted to his father-in-law all that Yahweh had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships they had encountered along the way, and how Yahweh had delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced over all the good things Yahweh had done for Israel, whom He had rescued from the hand of the Egyptians. 10 Jethro declared, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and of Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from the hand of the Egyptians. 11 Now I know that Yahweh is greater than all other gods, for He did this when they treated Israel
with arrogance."

12 Then Moses' father-in-law Jethro brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God.

JETHRO ADVISES MOSES // DEUTERONOMY 1:9–18

13 The next day Moses took his seat to judge the people, and they stood around him from morning until evening. 14 When his father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people, he asked, "What is this that you are doing for the people?
Why do you sit alone as judge, with all the people standing around you from morning till evening?"

15 "Because the people come to me to inquire of God," Moses replied. 16 "Whenever they have a dispute, it is brought to me to judge between one man and another, and I make known to them the statutes and laws of God."

17 But Moses' father-in-law said to him,
"What you are doing is not good. 18 Surely you and these people with you will wear yourselves out, because the task is too heavy for you. You cannot handle it alone.

19 Now listen to me; I will give you some advice, and may God be with you. You must be the people's representative before God and bring their causes to Him. 20 Teach them the statutes and laws, and show them the way to live and the work they must do.

21 Furthermore, select capable men from among the people—God-fearing, trustworthy men who are averse to dishonest gain. Appoint them over the people as leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.

22 Have these men judge the people at all times. Then they can bring you any major issue, but all minor cases they can judge on their own, so that your load may be lightened as they share it with you.

23 If you follow this advice and God so directs you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people can go home in peace."

24 Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said. 25 So Moses chose capable men from all Israel and made them heads over the people as leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens. 26 And they judged the people at all

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE MIRACLES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

times; they would bring the difficult cases to Moses, but any minor issue they would judge themselves.

27 Then Moses sent his father-in-law on his way, and Jethro returned to his own land.

19

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Three months after leaving Egypt, Israel camps at the foot of Mount Sinai. God says they will be His treasured possession, a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. The people wash up for three days. Then the mountain shakes, smokes like a furnace and blasts with a trumpet that keeps getting louder.

ISRAEL AT MOUNT SINAI

1 In the third month, on the same day of the month that the Israelites had left the land of Egypt, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai. 2 After they had set out from Rephidim, they entered the Wilderness of Sinai, and Israel camped there in front of the mountain.

3 Then Moses went up to God, and Yahweh called to him from the mountain, "This is what you are to tell the house of Jacob and explain to the sons of Israel: 4 'You have seen for yourselves what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself. 5 Now if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, you will be My treasured possession out of all the nations—for the whole earth is Mine. 6 And unto Me you shall be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words that you are to speak to the Israelites."

7 So Moses went back and summoned the elders of the people and set before them all these words that Yahweh had commanded him. 8 And all the people answered together, "We will do everything that Yahweh has spoken."

So Moses brought their words back to Yahweh.

9 Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, I will come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear when I speak with you, and they will always put their trust in you."

And Moses relayed to Yahweh what the people had said.

10 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. They must wash their clothes 11 and be prepared by the third day, for on the third day Yahweh will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

12 And you are to set up a boundary for the people around the mountain and tell them, 'Be careful not to go up on the mountain or touch its base. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death. 13 No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot with arrows—whether man or beast, he must not live.'

Only when the ram's horn sounds a long blast may they approach the mountain."

14 When Moses came down from the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes. 15 "Be prepared for the third day," he said to the people. "Do not draw near to a woman."

YAHWEH VISITS SINAI

16 On the third day, when morning came, there was thunder and lightning. A thick cloud was upon the mountain, and a very loud blast of the ram's horn went out, so that all the people in the camp trembled. 17 Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

18 Mount Sinai was completely enveloped in smoke, because Yahweh had descended on it in fire. And the smoke rose like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked violently. 19 And as the sound of the ram's horn grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him in the thunder.

20 Yahweh descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the summit. So Moses went up, 21 and Yahweh said to him, "Go down and warn the people not to break through to see Yahweh, lest many of them perish. 22 Even the priests who approach Yahweh must consecrate themselves, or Yahweh will break out against them."

23 But Moses said to Yahweh, "The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, for You solemnly warned us, 'Put a boundary around the mountain and set it apart as holy.'"

24 And Yahweh replied, "Go down and bring Aaron with you. But the priests and the people must not break through to come up to Yahweh, or He will break out against them."

25 So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

20

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

God speaks the Ten Commandments to the whole nation. One God, no idols, honor His name, keep the Sabbath, honor your parents, and no murder, adultery, stealing, lying or wanting what is not yours. The people are so terrified they ask Moses to do the listening from now on. Moses says the fear is there to keep them from sinning.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS // DEUTERONOMY 5:6–21

1 And God spoke all these words:

2 "I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

3 You shall have no other gods before Me.

4 You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in the heavens above, on the earth below, or in the waters beneath. 5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on their children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, 6 but showing loving devotion to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

7 You shall not take the name of Yahweh your God in vain, for Yahweh will not leave anyone unpunished who takes His name in vain.

8 Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. 9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 10 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yahweh your God, on which you must not do any work—neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant or livestock, nor the foreigner within your gates. 11 For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth and the sea and all that is in them, but on the seventh day He rested. Therefore Yahweh blessed the Sabbath day and set it apart as holy.

12 Honor your father and mother, so that your days may be long in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you.

13 You shall not murder.

14 You shall not commit adultery.

15 You shall not steal.

16 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

17 You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant or maidservant, or his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

MOSES COMFORTS THE PEOPLE // DEUTERONOMY 5:22–33; HEBREWS 12:18–29

18 When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sounding of the ram's horn, and the mountain enveloped in smoke, they trembled and stood at a distance. 19 "Speak to us yourself and we will listen," they said to Moses. "But do not let God speak to us, or we will die."

20 "Do not be afraid," Moses replied. "For God has come to test you, so that the fear of Him may be before you, to keep you from sinning." 21 And the people stood at a distance as Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

IDOLATRY FORBIDDEN // 1 CORINTHIANS 10:14–22

22 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "This is what you are to tell the Israelites: 'You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven. 23 You are not to make any gods alongside Me; you are not to make for yourselves gods of silver or gold.

24 You are to make for Me an altar of earth, and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and peace offerings, your sheep and goats and cattle. In every place where I cause My name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.

25 Now if you make an altar of stones for Me, you must not build it with stones shaped by tools; for if you use a chisel on it, you will defile it. 26 And you must not go up to My altar on steps, lest your nakedness be exposed on it.'

21

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

Now the details. Rules for servants, for fights, for injuries and for an ox that gores. This is where you find eye for eye and tooth for tooth. It sounds harsh, but it was really a limit, so the payback could never be bigger than the damage.

HEBREW SERVANTS // DEUTERONOMY 15:12–18

1 "These are the ordinances that you are to set before them:

2 If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, he shall go free without paying anything. 3 If he arrived alone, he is to leave alone; if he arrived with a wife, she is to leave with him. 4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and only the man shall go free.

5 But if the servant declares, 'I love my master and my wife and children; I do not want to go free,' 6 then his master is to bring him before the judges. And he shall take him to the door or doorpost and pierce his ear with an awl. Then he shall serve his master for life.

7 And if a man sells his daughter as a servant, she is not to go free as the menservants do. 8 If she is displeasing in the eyes of her master who had designated her for himself, he must allow her to be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners, since he has broken faith with her. 9 And if he chooses her for his son, he must deal with her as with a daughter. 10 If he takes another wife, he must not reduce the food, clothing, or marital rights of his first wife. 11 If, however, he does not provide her with these three things, she is free to go without monetary payment.

PERSONAL INJURY LAWS

12 Whoever strikes and kills a man must surely be put to death. 13 If, however, he did not lie in wait, but God allowed it to happen, then I will appoint for you a place where he may flee.

14 But if a man schemes and acts willfully against his neighbor to kill him, you must take him away from My altar to be put to death.

15 Whoever strikes his father or mother must surely be put to death.

16 Whoever kidnaps another man must be put to death, whether he sells him or the man is found in his possession.

17 Anyone who curses his father or mother must surely be put to death.

OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

18 If men are quarreling and one strikes the other with a stone or a fist, and he does not die but is confined to bed, 19 then the one who struck him shall go unpunished,
as long as the other can get up and walk around outside with his staff. Nevertheless, he must compensate the man for his lost work and see that he is completely healed.

20 If a man strikes his manservant or maidservant with a rod, and the servant dies
by his hand, he shall surely be punished.
21 However, if the servant gets up after a day or two, the owner shall not be punished, since the servant is his property.

22 If men who are fighting strike a pregnant woman and her child is born prematurely, but there is no further injury, he shall surely be fined as the woman's husband demands and as the court allows. 23
But if a serious injury results, then you must require a life for a life— 24 eye for eye,
tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, 25 burn for burn, wound for wound, and stripe for stripe.

26 If a man strikes and blinds the eye of his manservant or maidservant, he must let the servant go free as compensation for the eye. 27 And if he knocks out the tooth of his manservant or maidservant, he must let the servant go free as compensation for the tooth.

28 If an ox gores a man or woman to death,
the ox must surely be stoned, and its meat must not be eaten. But the owner of the ox shall not be held responsible.

29 But if the ox has a habit of goring, and its owner has been warned yet does not restrain it, and it kills a man or woman,
then the ox must be stoned and its owner must also be put to death. 30 If payment is demanded of him instead, he may redeem his life by paying the full amount demanded of him.

31 If the ox gores a son or a daughter, it shall be done to him according to the same rule.

32 If the ox gores a manservant or maidservant, the owner must pay twelve ounces of silver to the master of that servant, and the ox must be stoned.

33 If a man opens or digs a pit and fails to cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it, 34 the owner of the pit shall make restitution; he must pay its owner, and the dead animal will be his.

35 If a man's ox injures his neighbor's ox and it dies, they must sell the live one and divide the proceeds; they also must divide the dead animal. 36 But if it was known that the ox had a habit of goring, yet its owner failed to restrain it, he shall pay full compensation, ox for ox, and the dead animal will be his.

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS

Laws about stealing, borrowed animals, fires that spread to a neighbor's field and loans. Do not mistreat the foreigner, the widow or the orphan, because God hears them when they cry out. If you take a poor man's coat as a pledge, give it back before sundown, because it is his blanket.

PROPERTY LAWS

1 "If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters or sells it, he must repay five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.

2 If a thief is caught breaking in and is beaten to death, no one shall be guilty of bloodshed. 3 But if it happens after sunrise, there is guilt for his bloodshed.

A thief must make full restitution; if he has nothing, he himself shall be sold for his theft. 4 If what was stolen is actually found alive in his possession—whether ox or donkey or sheep—he must pay back double.

5 If a man grazes his livestock in a field or vineyard and allows them to stray so that they graze in someone else's field, he must make restitution from the best of his own field or vineyard.

6 If a fire breaks out and spreads to thorn-bushes so that it consumes stacked or standing grain, or the whole field, the one who started the fire must make full restitution.

DEMONIC OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

7 If a man gives his neighbor money or goods for safekeeping and they are stolen from the neighbor's house, the thief, if caught, must pay back double. 8 If the thief is not found, the owner of the house must appear before the judges to determine whether he has taken his neighbor's property.

9 In all cases of illegal possession of an ox,
a donkey, a sheep, a garment, or any lost
item that someone claims, 'This is mine,' both parties shall bring their cases before the judges. The one whom the judges find guilty must pay back double to his neighbor.

10 If a man gives a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any other animal to be cared for by his neighbor, but it dies or is injured or stolen
while no one is watching, 11 an oath before Yahweh shall be made between the parties to determine whether or not the man has taken his neighbor's property. The owner must accept the oath and require no restitution.

12 But if the animal was actually stolen from the neighbor, he must make restitution to the owner.

13 If the animal was torn to pieces, he shall bring it as evidence; he need not make restitution for the torn carcass.

14 If a man borrows an animal from his neighbor and it is injured or dies while its owner is not present, he must make full restitution. 15 If the owner was present, no restitution is required. If the animal was rented, the fee covers the loss.

LAWS OF SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

16 If a man seduces a virgin who is not pledged in marriage and sleeps with her,
he must pay the full dowry for her to be his wife. 17 If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, the man still must pay an amount comparable to the bridal price of a virgin.

18 You must not allow a sorceress to live.

19 Whoever lies with an animal must surely
be put to death.

20 If anyone sacrifices to any god other than Yahweh alone, he must be set apart for destruction.

21 You must not exploit or oppress a foreign resident, for you yourselves were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

22 You must not mistreat any widow or orphan. 23 If you do mistreat them, and they cry out to Me in distress, I will surely hear their cry. 24 My anger will be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword; then your wives will become widows and your children will be fatherless.

25 If you lend money to one of My people
among you who is poor, you must not act as a creditor to him; you are not to charge him interest.

26 If you take your neighbor's cloak as collateral, return it to him by sunset, 27 because his cloak is the only covering he has for his body. What else will he sleep in? And if he cries out to Me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.

28 You must not blaspheme God or curse the ruler of your people.

29 You must not hold back offerings from your granaries or vats. You are to give Me the firstborn of your sons. 30 You shall do likewise with your cattle and your sheep.
Let them stay with their mothers for seven days, but on the eighth day you are to give them to Me.

31 You are to be My holy people. You must not eat the meat of a mauled animal found in the field; you are to throw it to the dogs.

23

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

Do not spread false rumors or follow the crowd to do wrong. If your enemy's donkey wanders off, take it back to him. Then come the three yearly feasts. God promises to send His angel ahead to guard them on the way and to drive out their enemies little by little.

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

JUSTICE AND MERCY

1 "You shall not spread a false report. Do not join the wicked by being a malicious witness.

2 You shall not follow the crowd in wrongdoing. When you testify in a lawsuit, do not pervert justice by siding with the crowd. 3 And do not show favoritism to a poor man in his lawsuit.

4 If you encounter your enemy's stray ox
or donkey, you must return it to him.

5 If you see the donkey of one who hates
you fallen under its load, do not leave it there; you must help him with it.

6 You shall not deny justice to the poor in their lawsuits. 7 Stay far away from a false accusation. Do not kill the innocent or the just, for I will not acquit the guilty.

8 Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and twists the words of the righteous.

9 Do not oppress a foreign resident, since you yourselves know how it feels to be foreigners; for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

SABBATH LAWS // LEVITICUS 25:1–7; DEUTERONOMY 15:1–6

10 For six years you are to sow your land and gather its produce, 11 but in the seventh year you must let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor among your people may eat from the field and the wild animals may consume what they leave. Do the same with your vineyard and olive grove.

12 For six days you are to do your work,
but on the seventh day you must cease,
so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the son of your maidservant may be refreshed, as well as the foreign resident.

13 Pay close attention to everything I have said to you. You must not invoke the names of other gods; they must not be heard on your lips.

THE THREE FEASTS OF PILGRIMAGE // LEVITICUS 23:1–3

14 Three times a year you are to celebrate a feast to Me.

15 You are to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread as I commanded you: At the appointed time in the month of Abib you are to eat unleavened bread for seven days, because that was the month you came out of Egypt. No one may appear before Me empty-handed.

16 You are also to keep the Feast of Harvest with the firstfruits of the produce from what you sow in the field.

And keep the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather your produce from the field.

17 Three times a year all your males are to appear before the Lord Yahweh.

18 You must not offer the blood of My sacrifices with anything leavened, nor may the fat of My feast remain until morning.

19 Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of Yahweh your God.

You must not cook a young goat in its mother's milk.

GOD'S ANGEL TO LEAD // DEUTERONOMY 7:12–26

20 Behold, I am sending an angel before you to protect you along the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared. 21 Pay attention to him and listen to his voice; do not defy him, for he will not forgive rebellion, since My Name is in him.

22 But if you will listen carefully to his voice and do everything I say, I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes. 23
For My angel will go before you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and Jebusites, and I will annihilate them.

24 You must not bow down to their gods or serve them or follow their practices. Instead, you are to demolish them and smash their sacred stones to pieces.

25 So you shall serve Yahweh your God,
and He will bless your bread and your water. And I will take away sickness from among you. 26 No woman in your land will miscarry or be barren; I will fulfill the number of your days.

27 I will send My terror ahead of you and throw into confusion every nation you encounter. I will make all your enemies turn and run. 28 I will send the hornet before you to drive the Hivites and Canaanites and Hittites out of your way.
29 I will not drive them out before you in a single year; otherwise the land would become desolate and wild animals would multiply against you. 30 Little by little I will drive them out ahead of you, until you become fruitful and possess the land.
31 And I will establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the Euphrates. For I will deliver the inhabitants into your hand,
and you will drive them out before you. 32
You shall make no covenant with them or with their gods. 33 They must not remain in your land, lest they cause you to sin against Me. For if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you."

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

The people say, All that Yahweh has spoken we will do. Moses splashes the blood of the covenant on them. Then Moses, Aaron and seventy elders go up the mountain, see the God of Israel, and eat and drink. Moses goes up into the cloud and stays forty days and forty nights.

THE COVENANT SEALED

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Come up to Yahweh—you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of Israel's elders—and you are to worship at a distance. 2 Moses alone shall approach Yahweh, but the others must not come near. And the people may not go up with him."
3 When Moses came and told the people
all the words and ordinances of Yahweh, they all responded with one voice: "All the words that Yahweh has spoken, we will do."
4 And Moses wrote down all the words of Yahweh.
Early the next morning he got up and built an altar at the base of the mountain, along with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. 5 Then he sent out some young men of Israel, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as peace offerings to Yahweh.
6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and the other half he splattered on the altar. 7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people, who replied, "All that Yahweh has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient."
8 So Moses took the blood, splattered it on the people, and said, "This is the blood of the covenant that Yahweh has made with you in accordance with all these words."
9 Then Moses went up with Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, 10 and they saw the God of Israel.
Under His feet was a work like a pavement made of sapphire, as clear as the sky itself. 11 But God did not lay His hand on the nobles of Israel; they saw Him, and they ate and drank.

MOSES ON THE MOUNTAIN

12 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Come up
to Me on the mountain and stay here, so that I may give you the tablets of stone, with the law and commandments I have written for their instruction."
13 So Moses set out with Joshua his attendant and went up on the mountain of God.
14 And he said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we return to you. Aaron and Hur are here with you. Whoever has a dispute can go to them."
15 When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it, 16 and the glory of Yahweh settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered it, and on the seventh day Yahweh called to Moses from within the cloud. 17 And the sight of the glory of Yahweh was like a consuming fire on the mountaintop in the eyes of the Israelites.

18 Moses entered the cloud as he went up on the mountain, and he remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS

God gives Moses the plans for a tent where He will live among His people. The people are to give only what their hearts want to give. First comes the ark of the covenant with its golden mercy seat and two cherubim, then a table for bread and a solid gold lampstand. Build it exactly like the pattern on the mountain.

OFFERINGS FOR THE TABERNACLE // EXODUS 35:4–9

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Tell the Israelites to bring Me an offering. You are to receive My offering from every man whose heart compels him. 3 This is the offering you are to accept from them:

gold, silver, and bronze;
4 blue, purple, and scarlet yarn;
fine linen and goat hair;
5 ram skins dyed red and fine leather;
acacia wood;
6 olive oil for the light;
spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;
7 and onyx stones and gemstones to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

8 And they are to make a sanctuary for Me, so that I may dwell among them. 9 You must make the tabernacle and design all its furnishings according to the pattern I show you.

THE ARK OF THE COVENANT // EXODUS 37:1–5

10 And they are to construct an ark of acacia wood, 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high. 11 Overlay it with pure gold both inside and out, and make a gold molding around it.

12 Cast four gold rings for it and fasten them to its four feet, two rings on one side and two on the other. 13 And make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. 14 Insert the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, in order to carry it. 15 The poles are to remain in the rings of the ark; they must not be removed. 16 And place inside the ark the Testimony, which I will give you.

THE MERCY SEAT // EXODUS 37:6–9

17 And you are to construct a mercy seat of pure gold, 45 inches long and 27 inches wide. 18 Make two cherubim of hammered gold at the ends of the mercy seat, 19 one cherub on one end and one on the other, all made from one piece of gold. 20 And the cherubim are to have wings that spread upward, overshadowing the mercy seat. The cherubim are to face each other, looking toward the mercy seat.

21 Set the mercy seat atop the ark and put the Testimony that I will give you into the ark.

22 And I will meet with you there above the mercy seat, between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the Testimony; I will speak with you about all that I command you regarding the Israelites.

THE TABLE OF SHOWBREAD // EXODUS 37:10–16; LEVITICUS 24:5–9

23 You are also to make a table of acacia wood 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high. 24 Overlay it with pure gold and make a gold molding around it. 25 And make a rim around it three inches wide and put a gold molding on the rim.

26 Make four gold rings for the table and fasten them to the four corners at its four legs. 27 The rings are to be close to the rim, to serve as holders for the poles used to carry the table. 28 Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold,

so that the table may be carried with them.

29 You are also to make the plates and dishes, as well as the pitchers and bowls for pouring drink offerings. Make them out of pure gold.

30 And place the Bread of the Presence on the table before Me at all times.

THE LAMPSTAND // EXODUS 37:17–24; NUMBERS 8:1–4

31 Then you are to make a lampstand of pure, hammered gold. It shall be made of one piece, including its base and shaft, its cups, and its buds and petals.

32 Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand—three on one side and three on the other. 33 There are to be three cups shaped like almond blossoms on the first branch, each with buds and petals, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches that extend from the lampstand.

34 And on the lampstand there shall be four cups shaped like almond blossoms with buds and petals. 35 For the six branches that extend from the lampstand, a bud must be under the first pair of branches, a bud under the second pair, and a bud under the third pair. 36 The buds and branches are to be all of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

37 Make seven lamps and set them up on the lampstand so that they illuminate the area in front of it. 38 The wick trimmers and their trays must be of pure gold. 39 The lampstand and all these utensils shall be made from 75 pounds of pure gold.

40 See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

CHAPTER 26 IN 30 SECONDS

The tabernacle itself: ten curtains of fine linen with cherubim woven in, coverings of goat hair and leather, and a frame of acacia wood covered with gold. A thick veil divides the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place. Behind that veil, God's presence will live.

THE TEN CURTAINS FOR THE TABERNACLE // EXODUS 36:8–13

1 "You are to construct the tabernacle itself with ten curtains of finely spun linen, each with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and cherubim skillfully worked into them. 2 Each curtain shall be 42 feet long and 6 feet wide—all curtains the same size.

3 Five of the curtains are to be joined together, and the other five joined as well. 4 Make loops of blue material on the edge of the end curtain in the first set, and do the same for the end curtain in the second set.

5 Make fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the second set, so that the loops line up opposite one another. 6 Make fifty gold clasps as well, and join the curtains together with the clasps, so that the tabernacle will be a unit.

THE ELEVEN CURTAINS OF GOAT HAIR // EXODUS 36:14–19

7 You are to make curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle—eleven curtains in all. 8 Each of the eleven curtains is to be the same size—45 feet long and 6 feet wide.

9 Join five of the curtains into one set and the other six into another. Then fold the sixth curtain over double at the front of the tent.

10 Make fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in the first set, and fifty loops along the edge of the corresponding curtain in the second set. 11 Make fifty bronze clasps and put them through the loops to join the tent together as a unit.

12 As for the overlap that remains of the tent curtains, the half curtain that is left over shall hang down over the back of the tabernacle. 13 And the tent curtains will be eighteen inches longer on either side, and the excess will hang over the sides of the tabernacle to cover it.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW GOD SPEAKING

14 Also make a covering for the tent out of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of fine leather.

THE FRAMES AND BASES // EXODUS 36:20–34

15 You are to construct upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle. 16 Each frame is to be 15 feet long and 27 inches wide. 17 Two tenons must be connected to each other for each frame. Make all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

18 Construct twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle, 19 with forty silver bases under the twenty frames—two bases for each frame, one under each tenon.

20 For the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, make twenty frames 21 and forty silver bases—two bases under each frame.

22 Make six frames for the rear of the tabernacle, the west side, 23 and two frames for the two back corners of the tabernacle, 24 coupled together from bottom to top and fitted into a single ring. These will serve as the two corners. 25 So there are to be eight frames and sixteen silver bases—two under each frame.

26 You are also to make five crossbars of acacia wood for the frames on one side of the tabernacle, 27 five for those on the other side, and five for those on the rear side of the tabernacle, to the west.

28 The central crossbar in the middle of the frames shall extend from one end to the other. 29 Overlay the frames with gold and make gold rings to hold the crossbars. Also overlay the crossbars with gold.

30 So you are to set up the tabernacle according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

THE VEIL // EXODUS 36:35–36

31 Make a veil of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen, with cherubim skillfully worked into it. 32 Hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood, overlaid with gold and standing on four silver bases. 33 And hang the veil from the clasps and place the ark of the Testimony behind the veil. So the veil will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place.

34 Put the mercy seat on the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place. 35 And place the table outside the veil on the north side of the tabernacle, and put the lampstand opposite the table, on the south side.

THE CURTAIN FOR THE ENTRANCE // EXODUS 36:37–38

36 For the entrance to the tent, you are to make a curtain embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. 37 Make five posts of acacia wood for the curtain, overlay them with gold, use hooks of gold, and cast five bronze bases for them.

27

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

A bronze altar for burnt offerings stands in the courtyard. Around everything is a courtyard about 150 feet long, made of linen curtains hanging on posts. And the lamp in the tent must burn all night, every night, with pure olive oil.

THE BRONZE ALTAR // EXODUS 38:1–7

1 "You are to build an altar of acacia wood. The altar must be square, 7½ feet long, 7½ feet wide, and 4½ feet high. 2 Make a horn on each of its four corners, so that the horns are of one piece, and overlay it with bronze.

3 Make all its utensils of bronze—its pots for removing ashes, its shovels, its sprinkling bowls, its meat forks, and its firepans. 4 Construct for it a grate of bronze mesh, and make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the mesh. 5 Set the grate beneath the ledge of the altar, so that the mesh comes halfway up the altar.

6 Additionally, make poles of acacia wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze. 7 The poles are to be inserted into the rings so that the poles are on two sides of the altar when it is carried.

8 Construct the altar with boards so that it is hollow. It is to be made just as you were shown on the mountain.

THE COURTYARD // EXODUS 38:9–20

9 You are also to make a courtyard for the tabernacle. On the south side of the courtyard make curtains of finely spun linen, 150 feet long on one side, 10 with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and silver hooks and bands on the posts.

11 Likewise there are to be curtains on the north side, 150 feet long, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts. 12 The curtains on the west side of the courtyard shall be 75 feet wide, with ten posts and ten bases.

13 The east side of the courtyard, toward the sunrise, is to be 75 feet wide. 14 Make the curtains on one side 22½ feet long, with three posts and three bases, 15 and the curtains on the other side 22½ feet long, with three posts and three bases.

16 The gate of the courtyard shall be 30 feet long, with a curtain embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. It shall have four posts and four bases.

17 All the posts around the courtyard shall have silver bands, silver hooks, and bronze bases. 18 The entire courtyard shall be 150 feet long and 75 feet wide, with curtains of finely spun linen 7½ feet high, and with bronze bases. 19 All the utensils of the tabernacle for every use, including all its tent pegs and the tent pegs of the courtyard, shall be made of bronze.

THE OIL FOR THE LAMPS // LEVITICUS 24:1–4

20 And you are to command the Israelites to bring you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to keep the lamps burning continually.

21 In the Tent of Meeting, outside the veil that is in front of the Testimony, Aaron and his sons are to tend the lamps before Yahweh from evening until morning. This is to be a permanent statute for the Israelites for the generations to come.

28

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS

Aaron and his sons are chosen to be priests, and God designs their clothes down to the stitching. The high priest wears an ephod and a breastpiece with twelve stones, one for each tribe, so he carries Israel over his heart. On his turban is a gold plate that says HOLY TO YAHWEH. Fashion, but make it holy.

GARMENTS FOR THE PRIESTS

1 "Next, have your brother Aaron brought to you from among the Israelites, along with his sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, to serve Me as priests. 2 Make holy garments for your brother Aaron, to give him glory and splendor.

3 You are to instruct all the skilled craftsmen, whom I have filled with a spirit of wisdom, to make garments for Aaron's consecration, so that he may serve Me as priest. 4 These are the garments that they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a woven tunic, a turban, and a sash. They are to make these holy garments for your brother Aaron and his sons, so that they may serve Me as priests. 5 They shall use gold, along with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen.

THE EPHOD // EXODUS 39:1–7

6 They are to make the ephod of finely spun linen embroidered with gold, and with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. 7 It shall have two shoulder pieces attached at two of its corners, so it can be fastened. 8 And the skillfully woven waistband of the ephod must be of one piece, of the same workmanship—with gold, with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely spun linen.

9 Take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel: 10 six of their names on one stone and the re-

EX 27:21 [NOTABLE] This is the first time the Bible uses the name Tent of Meeting. It was God's tent in the middle of the camp, the place where He met with His people, and it moved with Israel until Solomon built the temple. John 1:14 says Jesus came and pitched His tent among us.

maining six on the other, in the order of their birth. 11 Engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones the way a gem cutter engraves a seal. Then mount the stones in gold filigree settings. 12 Fasten both stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. Aaron is to bear their names on his two shoulders as a memorial before Yahweh.

13 Fashion gold filigree settings 14 and two chains of pure gold, made of braided cord work; and attach these chains to the settings.

THE BREASTPIECE // EXODUS 39:8–21

15 You are also to make a breastpiece of judgment with the same workmanship as the ephod. Construct it with gold, with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely spun linen. 16 It must be square when folded over double, nine inches long and nine inches wide.

17 And mount on it a setting of gemstones, four rows of stones:

In the first row there shall be a ruby, a topaz, and an emerald;
18 in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;
19 in the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
20 and in the fourth row a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper.

Mount these stones in gold filigree settings. 21 The twelve stones are to correspond to the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

22 For the breastpiece, make braided chains like cords of pure gold. 23 You are also to make two gold rings and fasten them to the two corners of the breastpiece. 24 Then fasten the two gold chains to the two gold rings at the corners of the breastpiece, 25 and fasten the other ends of the two chains to the two filigree settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

26 Make two more gold rings and attach them to the other two corners of the breastpiece, on the inside edge next to the ephod.

27 Make two additional gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, on its front, near its seam just above its woven waistband. 28 The rings of the breastpiece shall be tied to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue yarn, so that the breastpiece is above the waistband of the ephod and does not swing out from the ephod.

29 Whenever Aaron enters the Holy Place, he shall bear the names of the sons of Israel over his heart on the breastpiece of judgment, as a continual reminder before Yahweh.

30 And place the Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece of judgment, so that they will also be over Aaron's heart whenever he comes before Yahweh. Aaron will continually carry the judgment of the sons of Israel over his heart before Yahweh.

ADDITIONAL PRIESTLY GARMENTS // EXODUS 39:22–31

31 You are to make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth, 32 with an opening at its top in the center. Around the opening shall be a woven collar with an opening like that of a garment, so that it will not tear.

33 Make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn all the way around the lower hem, with gold bells between them, 34 alternating the gold bells and pomegranates around the lower hem of the robe.

35 Aaron must wear the robe whenever he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he enters or exits the sanctuary before Yahweh, so that he will not die.

36 You are to make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal:

HOLY TO THE Yahweh.

37 Fasten to it a blue cord to mount it on the turban; it shall be on the front of the turban. 38 And it will be worn on Aaron's forehead, so that he may bear the iniquity of the holy things that the sons of Israel consecrate with regard to all their holy gifts. It shall always be on his forehead, so that they may be acceptable before Yahweh.

39 You are to weave the tunic with fine linen, make the turban of fine linen, and fashion an embroidered sash. 40 Make tunics, sashes, and headbands for Aaron's sons, to give them glory and splendor.

41 After you put these garments on your brother Aaron and his sons, anoint them, ordain them, and consecrate them so that they may serve Me as priests.

42 Make linen undergarments to cover their bare flesh, extending from waist to thigh. 43 Aaron and his sons must wear them whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they will not incur guilt and die. This is to be a permanent statute for Aaron and his descendants.

29

CHAPTER 29 IN 30 SECONDS

A seven day ceremony to ordain the priests. They are washed, dressed and anointed with oil, and blood is put on the right ear, right thumb and right big toe, so they listen, work and walk for God. God says He will meet with Israel and live among them, and they will know He is Yahweh their God.

CONSECRATION OF THE PRIESTS // LEVITICUS 8:1–13

1 "Now this is what you are to do to consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve Me as priests: Take a young bull and two rams without blemish, 2 along with unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil. Make them out of fine wheat flour, 3 put them in a basket, and present them in the basket, along with the bull and the two rams.

4 Then present Aaron and his sons at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water. 5 Take the garments and clothe Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself, and the breastplate. Fasten the ephod on him with its woven waistband. 6 Put the turban on his head and attach the holy diadem to the turban. 7 Then take the anointing oil and anoint him by pouring it on his head.

8 Present his sons as well and clothe them with tunics. 9 Wrap the sashes around Aaron and his sons and tie headbands on them. The priesthood shall be theirs by a permanent statute. In this way you are to ordain Aaron and his sons.

THE ORDER OF THE SACRIFICES // LEVITICUS 8:22–36

10 You are to present the bull at the front of the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons are to lay their hands on its head. 11 And you shall slaughter the bull before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 12 Take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; then pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. 13 Take all the fat that covers the entrails and the lobe of the liver, and both kidneys with the fat on them, and burn them on the altar. 14 But burn the flesh of the bull and its hide and dung outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

15 Take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head. 16 You are to slaughter the ram, take its blood, and splatter it on all sides of the altar. 17 Cut the ram into pieces, wash the entrails and legs, and place them with its head and other pieces. 18 Then burn the entire ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering to Yahweh, a pleasing aroma, a food offering to Yahweh.

19 Take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons are to lay their hands on its head. 20 Slaughter the ram, take some of its blood, and put it on the right earlobes of Aaron and his sons, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Splatter the remaining blood on all sides of the altar. 21 And take some of the blood on the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments, as well as on his sons and their garments. Then he and his garments will be consecrated, as well as his sons and their garments.

22 Take the fat from the ram, the fat tail,
the fat covering the entrails, the lobe of the liver, both kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh (since this is a ram for ordination), 23 along with one loaf
of bread, one cake of bread made with oil,
and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread that is before Yahweh. 24 Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and wave them before Yahweh as a wave offering. 25 Then take them from their hands and burn them on the altar atop the burnt offering as a pleasing aroma before Yahweh; it is a food offering
to Yahweh.

26 Take the breast of the ram of Aaron's ordination and wave it before Yahweh as a wave offering, and it will be your portion.
27 Consecrate for Aaron and his sons the breast of the wave offering that is waved and the thigh of the heave offering that is lifted up from the ram of ordination. 28 This will belong to Aaron and his sons as a regular portion from the Israelites, for it is the heave offering the Israelites will make to Yahweh from their peace offerings.

29 The holy garments that belong to Aaron will belong to his sons after him, so they can be anointed and ordained in them. 30
The son who succeeds him as priest and enters the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place must wear them for seven days.

FOOD FOR THE PRIESTS

31 You are to take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place. 32 At the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread that is in the basket. 33 They must eat those things by which atonement was made for their ordination and consecration. But no outsider may eat them, because these things are sacred. 34 And if any of the meat of ordination or any bread is left until the morning, you are to burn up the remainder. It must not be eaten, because it is sacred.

35 This is what you are to do for Aaron and his sons based on all that I have commanded you, taking seven days to ordain them. 36 Sacrifice a bull as a sin offering each day for atonement. Purify the altar by making atonement for it, and anoint it to consecrate it. 37 For seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and consecrate it. Then the altar will become most holy; whatever touches the altar will be holy.

THE DAILY OFFERINGS // NUMBERS 28:1–8

38 This is what you are to offer regularly on the altar, each day: two lambs that are a year old. 39 Offer one lamb in the morning and the other at twilight. 40 With the first lamb offer two quarts of fine flour, mixed with a quart of oil from pressed olives,
and a drink offering of a quart of wine. 41
And offer the second lamb at twilight with the same grain offering and drink offering as in the morning, as a pleasing aroma, a food offering to Yahweh.

42 For the generations to come, this burnt offering shall be made regularly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh, where I will meet you to speak with
you. 43 I will also meet with the Israelites there, and that place will be consecrated by My glory. 44 So I will consecrate the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and I will consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve
Me as priests.

GOD WILL DWELL AMONG THE PEOPLE

45 Then I will dwell among the Israelites and be their God. 46 And they will know that I am Yahweh their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt so that I might dwell among them.
I am Yahweh their God.

CHAPTER 30 IN 30 SECONDS

An altar of incense made of gold, a census tax that is the same for rich and poor, and a bronze basin for washing. Then God gives the exact recipe for the holy anointing oil and the holy incense. Copy them for your own use and you are cut off from the people. This is not a home fragrance.

THE ALTAR OF INCENSE // EXODUS 37:25–29

1 "You are also to make an altar of acacia wood for the burning of incense. 2 It is to be square, 18 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 36 inches high. Its horns must be of one piece. 3 Overlay with pure gold the top and all the sides and horns, and make a molding of gold around it. 4 And make two gold rings below the molding on opposite sides to hold the poles used to carry it. 5 Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING

6 Place the altar in front of the veil that is before the ark of the Testimony—before the mercy seat that is over the Testimony—where I will meet with you. 7 And Aaron is to burn fragrant incense on it every morning when he tends the lamps. 8 When Aaron sets up the lamps at twilight, he must burn the incense perpetually before Yahweh for the generations to come. 9 On this altar you must not offer unauthorized incense or a burnt offering or grain offering; nor are you to pour a drink offering on it.

10 Once a year Aaron shall make atonement on the horns of the altar. Throughout your generations he shall make atonement on it annually with the blood of the sin offering of atonement. The altar is most holy to Yahweh."

THE CENSUS OFFERING // 2 SAMUEL 24:1–9; 1 CHRONICLES 21:1–6

11 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 12 "When you take a census of the Israelites to number them, each man must pay Yahweh a ransom for his life when he is counted. Then no plague will come upon them when they are numbered. 13 Everyone who crosses over to those counted must pay a fifth of an ounce, weighed by the sanctuary standard. This fifth of an ounce is an offering to Yahweh.

14 Everyone twenty years of age or older who crosses over must give this offering to Yahweh. 15 In making the offering to Yahweh to atone for your lives, the rich shall not give more than a fifth of an ounce, nor shall the poor give less. 16 Take the atonement money from the Israelites and use it for the service of the Tent of Meeting. It will serve as a memorial for the Israelites before Yahweh to make atonement for your lives."

THE BRONZE BASIN // EXODUS 38:8

17 And Yahweh said to Moses, 18 "You are to make a bronze basin with a bronze stand for washing. Set it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it, 19 with which Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet. 20 Whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the altar to minister by presenting a food offering to Yahweh, they must wash with water so that they will not die. 21 Thus they are to wash their hands and feet so that they will not die; this shall be a permanent statute for Aaron and his descendants for the generations to come."

THE ANOINTING OIL

22 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 23 "Take the finest spices: 12½ pounds of liquid myrrh, half that amount (6¼ pounds) of fragrant cinnamon, 6¼ pounds of kaneh bosem, 24 12½ pounds of cassia—all weighed by the sanctuary standard—and a gallon of olive oil. 25 Prepare from these a sacred anointing oil, a fragrant blend, the work of a perfumer; it will be a sacred anointing oil.

26 Use this oil to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony, 27 the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, the altar of incense, 28 the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the basin with its stand. 29 You are to consecrate them so that they will be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy. 30 Anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them to serve Me as priests.

31 And you are to tell the Israelites, 'This will be My sacred anointing oil for the generations to come. 32 It must not be used to anoint an ordinary man, and you must not make anything like it with the EX 30:23 [NOTABLE] The recipe for the holy anointing oil. Most English Bibles call the third spice calamus, sweet cane or fragrant cane, but the Hebrew root words are kaneh bosem, which means fragrant reed. In 1936 a Polish scholar named Sula Benet pointed this out and made the case that kaneh bosem may have really been cannabis, the word she believed cannabis came from. The scholarly consensus is that it was not cannabis but a sweet smelling reed like calamus or lemongrass.

same formula. It is holy, and it must be holy to you. 33 Anyone who mixes perfume like it or puts it on an outsider shall be cut off from his people.'"

THE INCENSE

34 Yahweh also said to Moses, "Take fragrant spices—gum resin, onycha, galbanum, and pure frankincense—in equal measures, 35 and make a fragrant blend of incense, the work of a perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy. 36 Grind some of it into fine powder and place it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you. 37 You are never to use this formula to make incense for yourselves; you shall regard it as holy to Yahweh. 38 Anyone who makes something like it to enjoy its fragrance shall be cut off from his people."

CHAPTER 31 IN 30 SECONDS

God fills a craftsman named Bezalel with His Spirit, with skill and with creativity. One of the first people in the Bible filled with the Spirit of God is an artist. God makes the Sabbath a sign between Him and Israel. Then He hands Moses two stone tablets written by the finger of God.

BEZALEL AND OHOLIAB // EXODUS 35:30–35

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "See, I have called by name Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. 3 And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability, and knowledge in all kinds of craftsmanship, 4 to design artistic works in gold, silver, and bronze, 5 to cut gemstones for settings, and to carve wood, so that he may be a master of every craft.

6 Moreover, I have selected Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, as his assistant.

I have also given skill to all the craftsmen, that they may fashion all that I have commanded you: 7 the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony and the mercy seat upon it, and all the other furnishings of the tent— 8 the table with its utensils, the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense, 9 the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its stand— 10 as well as the woven garments, both the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to serve as priests, 11 in addition to the anointing oil and fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them according to all that I have commanded you."

THE SIGN OF THE SABBATH // NUMBERS 15:32–36

12 And Yahweh said to Moses, 13 "Tell the Israelites, 'Surely you must keep My Sabbaths, for this will be a sign between Me and you for the generations to come, so that you may know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies you. 14 Keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Anyone who profanes it must surely be put to death. Whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from among his people. 15 For six days work may be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to Yahweh. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must surely be put to death.

16 The Israelites must keep the Sabbath, celebrating it as a permanent covenant for the generations to come. 17 It is a sign between Me and the Israelites forever; for in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth, but on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.'"

MOSES RECEIVES THE TABLETS

18 When Yahweh had finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, He gave him the two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

EX 30:34 [NOTABLE] The recipe for the holy incense, burned on the gold altar inside the tent every morning and evening, 30:7 to 8. Some point out that three of the four ingredients may be psychoactive, which means God was literally telling the Levite priests to light it up under a tent. Lab studies back this for frankincense, whose smoke acted on the brain in mice in a 2008 study, and for myrrh, a likely match for the gum resin, which eased pain in mice in 1996. Most scholars say the incense was a sweet smell picturing prayer rising to God, Psalm 141:2, and its effect on people is not proven.

CHAPTER 32 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses is gone a long time, so the people ask Aaron to make them a god. He melts their gold earrings into a calf, and they throw a party. God tells Moses to go down, and Moses pleads for the people. When he sees the dancing, he smashes the tablets. Aaron's excuse is that he threw the gold into the fire, and out came this calf.

THE GOLDEN CALF // DEUTERONOMY 9:7–29; ACTS 7:39–43

1 Now when the people saw that Moses was delayed in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said, "Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him!"

2 So Aaron told them, "Take off the gold earrings that are on your wives and sons and daughters, and bring them to me."

3 Then all the people took off their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron. 4 He took the gold from their hands, and with an engraving tool he fashioned it into a molten calf. And they said, "These, O Israel, are your gods, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"

5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before the calf and proclaimed: "Tomorrow shall be a feast to Yahweh."

6 So the next day they arose, offered burnt offerings, and presented peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry.

7 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. 8 How quickly they have turned aside from the way that I commanded them! They have made for themselves a molten calf and have bowed down to it. They have sacrificed to it and said, 'These, O Israel, are your gods, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.'"

9 Yahweh also said to Moses, "I have seen this people, and they are indeed a stiff-necked people. 10 Now leave Me alone, so that My anger may burn against them and consume them. Then I will make you into a great nation."

11 But Moses sought the favor of Yahweh his God, saying, "O Yahweh, why does Your anger burn against Your people, whom You brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand? 12 Why should the Egyptians declare, 'He brought them out with evil intent, to kill them in the mountains and wipe them from the face of the earth'? Turn from Your fierce anger and relent from doing harm to Your people. 13 Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, to whom You swore by Your very self when You declared, 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky, and I will give your descendants all this land that I have promised, and it shall be their inheritance forever.'"

14 So Yahweh relented from the calamity He had threatened to bring on His people.

15 Then Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides, front and back. 16 The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

17 When Joshua heard the sound of the people shouting, he said to Moses, "The sound of war is in the camp."

18 But Moses replied:

"It is neither the cry of victory nor the cry
of defeat;
I hear the sound of singing!"

19 As Moses approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, he burned with anger and threw the tablets out of his hands, shattering them at the base of the mountain. 20 Then he took the calf they had made, burned it in the fire, ground it to powder, and scattered the powder over the face of the water. Then he forced the Israelites to drink it.

21 "What did this people do to you," Moses asked Aaron, "that you have led them into so great a sin?"

22 "Do not be enraged, my lord," Aaron replied. "You yourself know that the people are intent on evil. 23 They told me, 'Make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him!'

24 So I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, let him take it off,' and they gave it to me. And when I threw it into the fire, out came this calf!"

25 Moses saw that the people were out of control, for Aaron had let them run wild and become a laughingstock to their enemies. 26 So Moses stood at the entrance to the camp and said, "Whoever is for Yahweh, come to me."

And all the Levites gathered around him.

27 He told them, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'Each of you men is to fasten his sword to his side, go back and forth through the camp from gate to gate, and slay his brother, his friend, and his neighbor.'"

28 The Levites did as Moses commanded, and that day about three thousand of the people fell dead.

29 Afterward, Moses said, "Today you have been ordained for service to Yahweh, since each man went against his son and his brother; so Yahweh has bestowed a blessing on you this day."

30 The next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a great sin. Now I will go up to Yahweh; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin."

31 So Moses returned to Yahweh and said, "Oh, what a great sin these people have committed! They have made gods of gold for themselves. 32 Yet now, if You would only forgive their sin.... But if not, please blot me out of the book that You have written."

33 Yahweh replied to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot out of My book. 34 Now go, lead the people to the place I described. Behold, My angel shall go before you. But on the day I settle accounts, I will punish them for their sin."

35 And Yahweh sent a plague on the people because of what they had done with the calf that Aaron had made.

CHAPTER 33 IN 30 SECONDS

God says He will send an angel but will not go with them Himself, and the people mourn. Moses meets God in the tent face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Moses says, If Your Presence does not go with us, do not send us. Then he asks to see God's glory, and God hides him in a rock and lets him see His back.

THE COMMAND TO LEAVE SINAI // DEUTERONOMY 1:1–8

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of the land of Egypt, and go to the land that I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob when I said, 'I will give it to your descendants.' 2 And I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. 3 Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go with you, because you are a stiff-necked people; otherwise, I might destroy you on the way."

4 When the people heard this bad news, they went into mourning, and no one put on any of his jewelry. 5 For Yahweh had said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I should go with you for a single moment, I would destroy you. Now take off your jewelry, and I will decide what to do with you.'"

6 So the Israelites stripped themselves of their jewelry from Mount Horeb onward.

THE TENT OF MEETING

7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it at a distance outside the camp. He called it the Tent of Meeting, and anyone inquiring of Yahweh would go to the Tent of Meeting outside the camp. 8 Then, whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would stand at the entrances to their own tents and watch Moses until he entered the tent. 9 As Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and remain at the entrance, and Yahweh would speak with Moses. 10 When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent, they would stand up and worship, each one at the entrance to his own tent.

11 Thus Yahweh would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young assistant Joshua son of Nun would not leave the tent.

THE PROMISE OF GOD'S PRESENCE

12 Then Moses said to Yahweh, "Look, You have been telling me, 'Lead this people up,' but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said,
'I know you by name, and you have found favor in My sight.' 13 Now if indeed I have found favor in Your sight, please let me know Your ways, that I may know You and find favor in Your sight. Remember that this nation is Your people."

14 And Yahweh answered, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

15 "If Your Presence does not go with us," Moses replied, "do not lead us up from here. 16 For how then can it be known that Your people and I have found favor in Your sight, unless You go with us? How else will we be distinguished from all the other people on the face of the earth?"

17 So Yahweh said to Moses, "I will do this very thing you have asked, for you have found favor in My sight, and I know you by name."

18 Then Moses said, "Please show me Your glory."

19 "I will cause all My goodness to pass before you," Yahweh replied, "and I will proclaim My name—Yahweh—in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."

20 But He added, "You cannot see My face, for no one can see Me and live."

21 Yahweh continued, "There is a place near Me where you are to stand upon a rock, 22 and when My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock and cover
you with My hand until I have passed by.
23 Then I will take My hand away, and you will see My back; but My face must not be seen."

New tablets. God passes by and calls out His own name: compassionate and gracious, slow to anger and full of loving devotion and faithfulness. Moses stays forty days and nights with no food or water. When he comes down, his face is shining so brightly that he wears a veil.

NEW STONE TABLETS // DEUTERONOMY 10:1–11

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Chisel out two stone tablets like the originals, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. 2 Be ready in the morning, and come up on Mount Sinai to present yourself before Me on the mountaintop. 3 No one may go up with you; in fact, no one may be seen anywhere on the mountain—not even the flocks or herds may graze in front of the mountain."

4 So Moses chiseled out two stone tablets like the originals. He rose early in the morning, and taking the two stone tablets in his hands, he went up Mount Sinai as Yahweh had commanded him.

5 And Yahweh descended in a cloud, stood with him there, and proclaimed His name, Yahweh. 6 Then Yahweh passed in front of Moses and called out:

is compassionate and gracious,
slow to anger,
abounding in loving devotion and faithfulness,
7 maintaining loving devotion to a thousand generations,
forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin.
Yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished;
He will visit the iniquity of the fathers on their children and grandchildren to the third and fourth generations."

8 Moses immediately bowed down to the ground and worshiped. 9 "O Lord," he said, "if I have indeed found favor in Your sight, my Lord, please go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, forgive our iniquity and sin, and take us as Your inheritance."

YAHWEH RENEWS THE COVENANT // 2 CORINTHIANS 3:7–18

10 And Yahweh said, "Behold, I am making a covenant. Before all your people I will perform wonders that have never been done in any nation in all the world. All the people among whom you live will see Yahweh's work, for it is an awesome thing that I am doing with you.

11 Observe what I command you this day. I will drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. 12 Be careful not to make a treaty with the inhabitants of the land you are entering, lest they become a snare in your midst. 13 Rather, you must tear down their altars, smash their sacred stones, and chop down their Asherah poles. 14 For you must not worship any other god, for Yahweh, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

15 Do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you, and you will eat their sacrifices. 16 And when you take some of their daughters as brides for your sons, their daughters will prostitute themselves to their gods and cause your sons to do the same.

17 You shall make no molten gods for yourselves.

18 You are to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, you are to eat unleavened bread as I commanded you. For in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt.

19 The first offspring of every womb belongs to Me, including all the firstborn males among your livestock, whether cattle or sheep. 20 You must redeem the firstborn of a donkey with a lamb; but if you do not redeem it, you are to break its neck. You must redeem all the firstborn of your sons. No one shall appear before Me empty-handed.

21 Six days you shall labor, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even in the seasons of plowing and harvesting, you must rest.

22 And you are to celebrate the Feast of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year. 23 Three times a year all your males are to appear before the Lord Yahweh, the God of Israel. 24 For I will drive out the nations before you and enlarge your borders, and no one will covet your land when you go up three times a year to appear before Yahweh your God.

25 Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to Me along with anything leavened, and do not let any of the sacrifice from the Passover Feast remain until morning.

26 Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of Yahweh your God.

You must not cook a young goat in its mother's milk."

27 Yahweh also said to Moses, "Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."

28 So Moses was there with Yahweh forty days and forty nights without eating bread or drinking water. He wrote on the tablets

32 And after this all the Israelites came near, and Moses commanded them to do

Mount Sinai.

33 When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. 34 But whenever Moses went in before Yahweh to speak with Him, he would remove the veil until he came out. And when he came out, he would tell the Israelites what he had been commanded, 35 and the Is-

was radiant. So Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to

EX 35:5 [HEART] Everyone with a willing heart brought an offering for the tabernacle.

THE HEART

ments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to serve as priests."

THE PEOPLE OFFER GIFTS

20 Then the whole congregation of Israel withdrew from the presence of Moses. 21 And everyone whose heart stirred him and whose spirit prompted him came and brought an offering to Yahweh for the work on the Tent of Meeting, for all its services, and for the holy garments.

22 So all who had willing hearts, both men and women, came and brought brooches and earrings, rings and necklaces, and all kinds of gold jewelry. And they all presented their gold as a wave offering to Yahweh.

23 Everyone who had blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, or fine linen, goat hair, ram skins dyed red, or articles of fine leather, brought them. 24 And all who could present an offering of silver or bronze brought it as a contribution to Yahweh. Also, everyone who had acacia wood for any part of the service brought it.

25 Every skilled woman spun with her hands and brought what she had spun: blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, or fine linen. 26 And all the skilled women whose hearts were stirred spun the goat hair.

27 The leaders brought onyx stones and gemstones to mount on the ephod and breastpiece, 28 as well as spices and olive oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.

29 So all the men and women of the Israelites whose hearts prompted them brought a freewill offering to Yahweh for all the work that Yahweh through Moses had commanded them to do.

BEZALEL AND OHOLIAB // EXODUS 31:1–11

30 Then Moses said to the Israelites, "See, Yahweh has called by name Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. 31 And He has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability, and knowledge in all kinds of craftsmanship, 32 to design artistic works in gold, silver, and bronze, 33 to cut gemstones for settings, and to carve wood, so that he may be a master of every artistic craft.

34 And Yahweh has given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others. 35 He has filled them with skill to do all kinds of work as engravers, designers, embroiderers in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen, and as weavers—as artistic designers of every kind of craft.

- EX 35:21 [HEART] Those whose hearts stirred them brought gifts for the work.
- EX 35:29 [HEART] The people gave freely because their hearts were willing.

36

CHAPTER 36 IN 30 SECONDS

The people keep bringing gifts every morning until the builders say, Stop, we have more than enough. It may be the only time in history a church had to ask people to stop giving. Then the work begins on the curtains, the coverings, the frames and the veil.

THE PEOPLE BRING MORE THAN ENOUGH

1 "So Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skilled person are to carry out everything commanded by Yahweh, who has given them skill and ability to know how to perform all the work of constructing the sanctuary."

2 Then Moses summoned Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skilled person whom Yahweh had gifted—everyone whose heart stirred him to come and do the work. 3 They received from Moses all the contributions that the Israelites had brought to carry out the service of constructing the sanctuary.

Meanwhile, the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning, 4 so that all the skilled craftsmen who were doing all the work on the sanctuary left their work 5 and said to Moses, "The people are bringing more than enough for doing the work Yahweh has commanded us to do."

6 After Moses had given an order, they sent a proclamation throughout the camp: "No man or woman should make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing more, 7 since what they already had was more than enough to perform all the work.

THE TEN CURTAINS FOR THE TABERNACLE // EXODUS 26:1–6

8 All the skilled craftsmen among the workmen made the ten curtains for the tabernacle. They were made of finely spun linen, as well as blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with cherubim skillfully worked into them. 9 Each curtain was 42 feet long and 6 feet wide; all the curtains were the same size. 10 And he joined five of the curtains together, and the other five
he joined as well.

11 He made loops of blue material on the edge of the end curtain in the first set,
and also on the end curtain in the second set. 12 He made fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the second set, so that the loops lined up opposite one another. 13 He also made fifty gold clasps to join the curtains together,
so that the tabernacle was a unit.

THE ELEVEN CURTAINS OF GOAT HAIR // EXODUS 26:7–14

14 He then made curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle—eleven curtains in all. 15 Each of the eleven curtains was the same size—45 feet long and 6 feet wide. 16 He joined five of the curtains into one set and the other six into another.
17 He made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in the first set, and fifty loops along the edge of the corresponding curtain in the second set. 18 He also made fifty bronze clasps to join the tent
together as a unit.

19 Additionally, he made for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of fine leather.

THE FRAMES AND BASES // EXODUS 26:15–30

20 Next, he constructed upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle. 21 Each frame was 15 feet long and 27 inches wide. 22 Two tenons were connected to each other for each frame. He made all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

23 He constructed twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle, 24 with forty silver bases to put under the twenty frames—two bases for each frame, one under each tenon.

25 For the second side of the tabernacle,
the north side, he made twenty frames 26
and forty silver bases—two bases under each frame.

27 He made six frames for the rear of the tabernacle, the west side, 28 and two frames for the two back corners of the tabernacle, 29 coupled together from bottom to top and fitted into a single ring. He made both corners in this way. 30 So there were eight frames and sixteen silver bases—two under each frame.

31 He also made five crossbars of acacia wood for the frames on one side of the tabernacle, 32 five for those on the other side, and five for those on the rear side of the tabernacle, to the west.

33 He made the central crossbar to run through the center of the frames, from one end to the other. 34 And he overlaid the frames with gold and made gold rings to hold the crossbars. He also overlaid the crossbars with gold.

THE VEIL // EXODUS 26:31–35

35 Next, he made the veil of blue, purple,
and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen,
with cherubim skillfully worked into it.

36 He also made four posts of acacia wood for it and overlaid them with gold, along with gold hooks; and he cast four silver bases for the posts.

THE CURTAIN FOR THE ENTRANCE // EXODUS 26:36–37

37 For the entrance to the tent, he made a curtain embroidered with blue, purple,
and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen, 38
together with five posts and their hooks.

He overlaid the tops of the posts and their bands with gold, and their five bases were bronze.

37

CHAPTER 37 IN 30 SECONDS

Bezalel builds the furniture: the ark with its mercy seat and cherubim, the table, the golden lampstand with its seven lamps and the altar of incense. He also makes the anointing oil and the incense, exactly as the recipe said. Every piece matches the plans from chapter 25.

CONSTRUCTING THE ARK // EXODUS 25:10–16

1 Bezalel went on to construct the ark of acacia wood, 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high. 2 He overlaid it with pure gold, both inside and out, and made a gold molding around it. 3 And he cast four gold rings for its four feet, two rings on one side and two on the other. 4
Then he made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. 5 He inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark
in order to carry it.

THE MERCY SEAT // EXODUS 25:17–22

6 He constructed a mercy seat of pure gold, 45 inches long and 27 inches wide.
7 He made two cherubim of hammered gold at the ends of the mercy seat, 8 one cherub on one end and one on the other,
all made from one piece of gold. 9 And the cherubim had wings that spread upward, overshadowing the mercy seat. The cherubim faced each other, looking toward the mercy seat.

THE TABLE OF SHOWBREAD // EXODUS 25:23–30; LEVITICUS 24:5–9

10 He also made the table of acacia wood 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high. 11 He overlaid it with pure gold and made a gold molding around it. 12 And he made a rim around it three inches wide and put a gold molding on the rim.

13 He cast four gold rings for the table and fastened them to the four corners at its four legs. 14 The rings were placed close to the rim, to serve as holders for the poles used to carry the table. 15 He made the poles of acacia wood for carrying the table and overlaid them with gold.

16 He also made the utensils for the table out of pure gold: its plates and dishes, as well as its bowls and pitchers for pouring drink offerings.

THE LAMPSTAND // EXODUS 25:31–40; NUMBERS 8:1–4

17 Then he made the lampstand out of pure hammered gold, all of one piece: its base and shaft, its cups, and its buds and petals. 18 Six branches extended from the sides, three on one side and three on the other. 19 There were three cups shaped like almond blossoms on the first branch, each with buds and petals, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches that extended from the lamp-stand.

20 And on the lampstand were four cups shaped like almond blossoms with buds and petals. 21 A bud was under the first pair of branches that extended from the lampstand, a bud under the second pair, and a bud under the third pair. 22 The buds and branches were all of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

23 He also made its seven lamps, its wick trimmers, and trays of pure gold. 24 He made the lampstand and all its utensils
from 75 pounds of pure gold.

THE ALTAR OF INCENSE // EXODUS 30:1–10

25 He made the altar of incense out of acacia wood. It was square, 18 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 36 inches high. Its horns were of one piece. 26 And he overlaid with pure gold the top and all the sides and horns. Then he made a molding of gold around it.

27 He made two gold rings below the molding on opposite sides to hold the poles used to carry it. 28 And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

29 He also made the sacred anointing oil
and the pure, fragrant incense, the work of a perfumer.

38

CHAPTER 38 IN 30 SECONDS

The bronze altar, the bronze basin and the courtyard are built. The basin is made from the bronze mirrors of the women who served at the tent entrance. Then comes an honest audit of the materials, about a ton of gold, written down for everyone to see.

THE BRONZE ALTAR // EXODUS 27:1–8

1 Bezalel constructed the altar of burnt offering from acacia wood. It was square, 7½ feet long, 7½ feet wide, and 4½ feet high. 2 He made a horn at each of its four corners, so that the horns and altar were

of one piece, and he overlaid the altar with bronze.

3 He made all the altar's utensils of bronze—its pots, shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks, and firepans. 4 He made a grate of bronze mesh for the altar under its ledge, halfway up from the bottom.

5 At the four corners of the bronze grate he cast four rings as holders for the poles. 6 And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze. 7 Then he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar for carrying it. He made the altar with boards so that it was hollow.

THE BRONZE BASIN // EXODUS 30:17–21

8 Next he made the bronze basin and its stand from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

THE COURTYARD // EXODUS 27:9–19

9 Then he constructed the courtyard. The south side of the courtyard was 150 feet long and had curtains of finely spun linen, 10 with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts. 11 The north side was also 150 feet long, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases. The hooks and bands of the posts were silver. 12 The west side was 75 feet long and had curtains, with ten posts and ten bases. The hooks and bands of the posts were silver. 13 And the east side, toward the sunrise, was also 75 feet long.

14 The curtains on one side of the entrance were 22½ feet long, with three posts and three bases. 15 And the curtains on the other side were also 22½ feet long, with three posts and three bases as well. 16 All the curtains around the courtyard were made of finely spun linen. 17 The bases for the posts were bronze, the hooks and bands were silver, and the plating for the tops of the posts was silver. So all the posts of the courtyard were banded with silver.

18 The curtain for the entrance to the courtyard was embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. It was 30 feet long and, like the curtains of the courtyard, 7½ feet high, 19 with four posts and four bronze bases. Their hooks were silver, as well as the bands and the plating of their tops. 20 All the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the surrounding courtyard were bronze.

AN INVENTORY OF MATERIALS // EZRA 2:68–70; NEHEMIAH 7:70–73

21 This is the inventory for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, as recorded at Moses' command by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest. 22 Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that Yahweh had commanded Moses. 23 With him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, designer, and embroiderer in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen.

24 All the gold from the wave offering used for the work on the sanctuary totaled 2,193 pounds, weighed by the sanctuary standard.

25 The silver from those numbered among the congregation totaled 7,544 pounds, weighed by the sanctuary standard— 26 a fifth of an ounce per person, weighed by the sanctuary standard, from everyone twenty years of age or older who had crossed over to be numbered, a total of 603,550 men.

27 The 7,500 pounds of silver were used to cast the bases of the sanctuary and the bases of the veil—100 bases from the 7,500 pounds, 75 pounds per base.

28 With the 44 pounds he made the hooks for the posts, overlaid their tops, and supplied bands for them.

29 The bronze from the wave offering totaled 5,310 pounds. 30 He used it to make the bases for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar and its bronze grating, all the utensils for the altar, 31 the bases for the surrounding courtyard and its gate, and all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and its surrounding courtyard.

39

CHAPTER 39 IN 30 SECONDS

The priests' clothes are made: the ephod, the breastpiece with twelve stones, the robe and the gold plate that says HOLY TO YAHWEH. Over and over it says they did it just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. Moses inspects all the work and blesses the people.

THE EPHOD // EXODUS 28:6–14

1 From the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn they made specially woven garments for ministry in the sanctuary, as well as the holy garments for Aaron, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

2 Bezalel made the ephod of finely spun linen embroidered with gold, and with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. 3 They hammered out thin sheets of gold and cut threads from them to interweave with the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen—the work of a skilled craftsman. 4 They made shoulder pieces for the ephod, which were attached at two of its corners, so it could be fastened. 5 And the skillfully woven waistband of the ephod was of one piece with the ephod, of the same workmanship—with gold, with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely spun linen, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

6 They mounted the onyx stones in gold filigree settings, engraved like a seal with the names of the sons of Israel. 7 Then they fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

THE BREASTPIECE // EXODUS 28:15–30

8 He made the breastpiece with the same workmanship as the ephod, with gold, with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely spun linen. 9 It was square when folded over double, nine inches long and nine inches wide.

10 And they mounted on it four rows of gemstones:

The first row had a ruby, a topaz, and an emerald;

11 the second row had a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;

12 the third row had a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

13 and the fourth row had a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper.

These stones were mounted in gold filigree settings.

14 The twelve stones corresponded to the names of the sons of Israel. Each stone was engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

15 For the breastpiece they made braided chains like cords of pure gold. 16 They also made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and fastened the two rings to the two corners of the breastpiece. 17 Then they fastened the two gold chains to the two gold rings at the corners of the breastpiece, 18 and they fastened the other ends of the two chains to the two filigree settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

19 They made two more gold rings and attached them to the other two corners of the breastpiece, on the inside edge next to the ephod.

20 They made two additional gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, on its front, near the seam just above its woven waistband. 21 Then they tied the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue yarn, so that the breastpiece was above the waistband of the ephod and would not swing out from the ephod, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

22 They made the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth, the work of a weaver, 23 with an opening in the center of the robe like that of a garment, with a collar around the opening so that it would not tear.

24 They made pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely spun linen on the lower hem of the robe. 25 They also made bells of pure gold and attached them around the hem between the pomegranates, 26 alternating the bells and pomegranates around the lower hem of the robe to be worn for ministry, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

27 For Aaron and his sons they made tunics of fine linen, the work of a weaver, 28 as well as the turban of fine linen, the ornate headbands and undergarments of finely spun linen, 29 and the sash of finely spun linen, embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

30 They also made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and they engraved on it, like an inscription on a seal:

HOLY TO THE Yahweh.

31 Then they fastened to it a blue cord to mount it on the turban, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

MOSES APPROVES THE WORK

32 So all the work for the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

33 Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses:

the tent with all its furnishings, its clasps, its frames, its crossbars, and its posts and bases;

34 the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of fine leather, and the veil of the covering;

35 the ark of the Testimony with its poles and the mercy seat;

36 the table with all its utensils and the Bread of the Presence;

37 the pure gold lampstand with its row of lamps and all its utensils, as well as the oil for the light;

38 the gold altar, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the entrance to the tent;

39 the bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles, and all its utensils;

the basin with its stand;

40 the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases;

the curtain for the gate of the courtyard, its ropes and tent pegs, and all the equipment for the service of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting;

41 and the woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary, both the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to serve as priests.

42 The Israelites had done all the work just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. 43 And Moses inspected all the work and saw that they had accomplished it just as Yahweh had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

40

CHAPTER 40 IN 30 SECONDS

On the first day of the second year the tabernacle goes up. Moses sets up every piece and anoints it. Then the cloud covers the tent, and the glory of Yahweh fills it so completely that even Moses cannot go in. God has moved in with His people, and the cloud leads them on every step of the journey.

SETTING UP THE TABERNACLE // ACTS 7:44–47; HEBREWS 9:1–10

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "On the first day of the first month you are to set up the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting. 3 Put the ark of the Testimony in it and screen off the ark with the veil. 4 Then bring in the table and set out its arrangement; bring in the lampstand as well, and set up its lamps.

5 Place the gold altar of incense in front of the ark of the Testimony, and hang the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle. 6 Place the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting. 7 And place the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

8 Set up the surrounding courtyard and hang the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard.

9 Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it; consecrate it along with all its furnishings, and it shall be holy. 10 Anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; consecrate the altar, and it shall be most holy. 11 Anoint the basin and its stand and consecrate them.

12 Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water. 13 And you are to clothe Aaron with the holy garments, anoint him, and consecrate him, so that he may serve Me as a priest. 14 Bring his sons forward and clothe them with tunics. 15 Anoint them just as you anointed their father, so that they may also serve Me as priests. Their anointing will qualify them for a permanent priesthood throughout their generations."

16 Moses did everything just as Yahweh had commanded him. 17 So the tabernacle was set up on the first day of the first month of the second year.

18 When Moses set up the tabernacle, he laid its bases, positioned its frames, inserted its crossbars, and set up its posts. 19 Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering over the tent, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

20 Moses took the Testimony and placed it in the ark, attaching the poles to the ark; and he set the mercy seat atop the ark. 21 Then he brought the ark into the tabernacle, put up the veil for the screen, and shielded off the ark of the Testimony, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

22 Moses placed the table in the Tent of Meeting on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil. 23 He arranged the bread on it before Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

24 He also placed the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle 25 and set up the lamps before Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

26 Moses placed the gold altar in the Tent of Meeting, in front of the veil, 27 and he burned fragrant incense on it, just as Yahweh had commanded him. 28 Then he put up the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle. 29 He placed the altar of burnt offering near the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

30 He placed the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing; 31 and from it Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and feet. 32 They washed whenever they entered the Tent of Meeting or approached the altar, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

33 And Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and the altar, and he hung the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard. So Moses finished the work.

THE CLOUD AND THE GLORY // NUMBERS 9:15–23

34 Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of Yahweh filled the tabernacle. 35 Moses was unable to enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud had settled on it, and the glory of Yahweh filled the tabernacle.

36 Whenever the cloud was lifted from above the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out through all the stages of their journey. 37 If the cloud was not lifted, they would not set out until the day it was taken up. 38 For the cloud of Yahweh was over the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel through all their journeys.

EX 40:34 [MIRACLE] Shekinah glory filled the tabernacle

BOOK 3 OF 66 · OLD TESTAMENT · BOOKS OF MOSES

LEVITICUS

Be holy, because I am holy

AUTHOR	Moses, according to Jewish and Christian tradition. Over and over the book says Yahweh spoke to Moses, and Jesus called the leper's offering the gift Moses commanded Matthew 8:4. Many modern scholars think priests put it together from older material over time.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	At Mount Sinai, in about one month. Exodus ends on the first day of the first month of the second year after Egypt, and Numbers starts on the first day of the second month.
DATE WRITTEN	Traditionally about 1440 to 1400 BC, in the wilderness. Many scholars say it reached its final form much later, around 500 BC.
WRITTEN TO	The priests from the tribe of Levi, and all Israel, so a holy God could live in the middle of an unholy camp.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	About fifteen copies of Leviticus were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls, including Greek and Aramaic ones. It was also translated into Greek, in the Septuagint, around 250 BC.
KEY VERSE	Leviticus 19:2. Be holy because I, Yahweh your God, am holy.

LEVITICUS IN THE OLD HEBREW LETTERS
This is 11QpaleoLev a, the Paleo Hebrew Leviticus Scroll from Cave 11 at Qumran, found with the Dead Sea Scrolls in 1956. It is written in the old Hebrew alphabet that Israel used before the exile to Babylon, even though it was copied centuries later, about 100 BC by one count and in the first century AD by another. Most of what survives is Leviticus 22 to 27. The oldest copy of Leviticus found so far is a different scroll, 4QExod Lev f from Cave 4, about 250 BC, which holds the end of Exodus and the start of Leviticus on one scroll. Historical Setting Israel is still camped at the foot of Mount Sinai. The tabernacle has just gone up, and God's glory has filled it so completely that even Moses could not go in, Exodus 40:35. Now the big question is how sinful people can live next door to a holy God and not be destroyed. Leviticus is the answer. Egypt with its many gods is behind them. Canaan is in front of them, where people sacrificed children to Molech and went to mediums. The name Leviticus means about the Levites, the tribe of priests. The Hebrew name is Vayikra, which means And He called, the first word of the book.

What Was Going Wrong

SIN IN THE CAMP. God was holy and the people were not. Without a way to deal with sin, they could not come near Him 16:2.
PLAYING WITH FIRE. On their first week on the job, Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu offered fire God never asked for, and they died on the spot 10:1 to 2.

GOAT DEMONS. Some people were offering sacrifices out in the open fields to goat demons instead of bringing them to God's tent 17:7.
THE WAYS OF CANAAN. The nations they were about to replace had filled the land with sexual sin, idols and mediums, and God said the land itself was vomiting them out 18:24 to 28.
A CURSE IN THE CAMP. A man whose father was Egyptian cursed the Name of God in the middle of a fight, and the whole camp had to deal with it 24:10 to 16.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Leviticus is the book most people quit on during their read the Bible in a year plan. But it answers one huge question: how can a holy God live in the middle of sinful people? His answer is sacrifice, priests and a whole new way of living. Every offering says sin is serious and it costs a life. Once a year, on the Day of Atonement, the sins of the whole nation are covered. Then God tells His people to be holy like Him, and holy turns out to look very practical: honest scales, help for the poor, respect for the old and love for your neighbor. Leviticus is the instruction manual for the tabernacle, and the New Testament says it all points to Jesus.

Where Jesus Shows Up

LEVITICUS 1:3 TO 9 The burnt offering, all of it given to God, a pleasing aroma. Paul says Christ gave Himself up for us as a fragrant offering to God in Ephesians 5:2.

LEVITICUS 16:15 TO 22 The Day of Atonement and the goat that carried the people's sins away. Hebrews 9:11 to 12 says Jesus entered the Most Holy Place once for all with His own blood, and John 1:29 calls Him the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

LEVITICUS 16:27 The sin offering was burned outside the camp. Hebrews 13:11 to 12 says Jesus suffered outside the city gate.

LEVITICUS 17:11 The life is in the blood, and the blood makes atonement. Jesus said, This is My blood of the covenant, poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins, Matthew 26:28.

LEVITICUS 23:10 TO 11 The firstfruits were waved before God on the day after the Sabbath. Jesus rose on the day after the Sabbath, and Paul calls Him the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep, 1 Corinthians 15:20.

LEVITICUS 25:10 The Jubilee proclaimed liberty. Jesus began His ministry by reading that He came to proclaim liberty to the captives and the year of the Lord's favor, Luke 4:18 to 19.

GOD'S NAME IN LEVITICUS
God signs His laws with His name. I am Yahweh shows up 49 times in Leviticus, mostly in chapters 18 to 26, like a signature at the bottom of each command. He also calls Himself Yahweh who sanctifies you, or makes you holy 20:8, 21:8, 22:32. The word holy shows up more often in Leviticus than in any other book of the Bible. See Why We Say Yahweh in the Old Testament Introduction.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR COMES FROM LEVITICUS
Jesus called it the second greatest commandment, and He was quoting Leviticus 19:18. The New Testament quotes that one verse nine times. Just a few verses later, 19:34 says love the foreigner as yourself too.

CHILD SACRIFICE WAS BANNED
Some nations near Israel gave their children to a god called Molech. God made it a crime punished by death and said He would set His face against anyone who did it, and against anyone who looked the other way 18:21, 20:2 to 5. The Canaanites did these things, and that is why God said the land was vomiting them out 18:24 to 28.

THE LIBERTY BELL QUOTES LEVITICUS
The famous bell in Philadelphia, made in 1752 and recast in 1753, has Leviticus 25:10 written around the top: Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.

WHERE SCAPEGOAT CAME FROM
When William Tyndale translated Leviticus 16 into English in 1530, he made up the word scapegoat, from escape goat. Today it means anyone who takes the blame for others.

THE FIRST BOOK JEWISH KIDS LEARNED
An old Jewish tradition says children began their Bible lessons with Leviticus, not Genesis. The rabbis said children are pure and the sacrifices are pure, so let the pure come and study purity.

THE GLEANING LAW
Farmers had to leave the edges of their fields for the poor and the foreigner 19:9 to 10. That is exactly how Ruth fed herself and Naomi in the field of Boaz, Ruth 2.

Did Anybody Listen?

At first, yes. Over and over Leviticus says the people did just as Yahweh commanded. But both stories about sin in the book end with a death, and chapter 26 warned what would happen if they turned away. It did: Babylon carried Judah into exile while the land enjoyed its Sabbath rest, 2 Chronicles 36:21.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW GOD SPEAKING

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

God calls to Moses from the brand new tent and starts with the burnt offering. A bull, a sheep, a goat or a bird, and everything but the skin goes up in smoke on the altar. God calls it a pleasing aroma, which is a nice way of saying He loves a gift that costs you something.

LAWS FOR BURNT OFFERINGS // LEVITICUS 6:8–13

1 Then Yahweh called to Moses and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting, saying, 2
"Speak to the Israelites and tell them:
When any of you brings an offering to Yahweh, you may bring as your offering an animal from the herd or the flock.

3 If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he is to present an unblemished male. He must bring it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for its acceptance before Yahweh. 4 He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, so it can be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him.

5 And he shall slaughter the young bull before Yahweh, and Aaron's sons the priests are to present the blood and splatter it on all sides of the altar at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 6 Next, he is to skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces.

7 The sons of Aaron the priest shall put a fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. 8 Then Aaron's sons the priests are to arrange the pieces, including the head and the fat, atop the burning wood on the altar. 9 The entrails and legs must be washed with water, and the priest shall burn all of it on the altar as a burnt offering, a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

10 If, however, one's offering is a burnt offering from the flock—from the sheep or goats—he is to present an unblemished male. 11 He shall slaughter it on the north side of the altar before Yahweh, and Aaron's sons the priests are to splatter its blood against the altar on all sides. 12 He is to cut the animal into pieces, and the priest shall arrange them, including the head and fat, atop the burning wood that is on the altar. 13 The entrails and legs must be washed with water, and the priest shall present all of it and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt offering, a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

14 If, instead, one's offering to Yahweh is a burnt offering of birds, he is to present a turtledove or a young pigeon. 15 Then the priest shall bring it to the altar, twist off its head, and burn it on the altar; its blood should be drained out on the side of the altar. 16 And he is to remove the crop with its contents and throw it to the east side of the altar, in the place for ashes. 17 He shall tear it open by its wings, without dividing the bird completely. And the priest is to burn it on the altar atop the burning wood. It is a burnt offering, a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

LEV 1:9 [FORESHADOW] The burnt offering was a pleasing aroma to Yahweh → EPH 5:2 p.1887

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

The grain offering: fine flour, olive oil and frankincense, baked, fried or grilled. A handful is burned on the altar and the rest goes to the priests for dinner. No yeast and no honey allowed, but every offering gets salt. Even the cooking in Leviticus has rules.

LAWS FOR GRAIN OFFERINGS // LEVITICUS 6:14–23

1 "When anyone brings a grain offering to Yahweh, his offering must consist of fine flour. He is to pour olive oil on it, put frankincense on it, 2 and bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. The priest shall take a handful of the flour and oil, together with all the frankincense, and burn this as a memorial portion on the altar, a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. 3 The remainder of the grain offering shall belong to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the food offerings to Yahweh.

4 Now if you bring an offering of grain baked in an oven, it must consist of fine flour, either unleavened cakes mixed with oil or unleavened wafers coated with oil.

5 If your offering is a grain offering prepared on a griddle, it must be unleavened bread made of fine flour mixed with oil. 6

GOD SPEAKING

Crumble it and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

7 If your offering is a grain offering cooked in a pan, it must consist of fine flour with oil.

8 When you bring to Yahweh the grain offering made in any of these ways, it is to be presented to the priest, and he shall take it to the altar. 9 The priest is to remove the memorial portion from the grain offering and burn it on the altar as a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. 10 But the remainder of the grain offering shall belong to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the food offerings to Yahweh.

11 No grain offering that you present to Yahweh may be made with leaven, for you are not to burn any leaven or honey as a food offering to Yahweh. 12 You may bring them to Yahweh as an offering of firstfruits, but they must not go up on the altar as a pleasing aroma. 13 And you shall season each of your grain offerings with salt. You must not leave the salt of the covenant of your God out of your grain offering; you are to add salt to each of your offerings.

14 If you bring a grain offering of firstfruits to Yahweh, you shall offer crushed heads of new grain roasted on the fire. 15 And you are to put oil and frankincense on it; it is a grain offering. 16 The priest shall then burn the memorial portion of the crushed grain and the oil, together with all its frankincense, as a food offering to Yahweh.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

The peace offering is the one you get to eat. The fat and the kidneys go to God on the altar, and the family and the priests share the meat. It was a meal with God. And one rule for all time: do not eat the fat or the blood.

LAWS FOR PEACE OFFERINGS // LEVITICUS 7:11–21

1 "If one's offering is a peace offering and he offers an animal from the herd, whether male or female, he must present it without blemish before Yahweh. 2 He is to lay his hand on the head of the offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons the priests shall splatter the blood on all sides of the altar.

3 From the peace offering he is to bring a food offering to Yahweh: the fat that covers the entrails, all the fat that is on them, 4 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he is to remove with the kidneys. 5 Then Aaron's sons are to burn it on the altar atop the burnt offering that is on the burning wood, as a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

6 If, however, one's peace offering to Yahweh is from the flock, he must present a male or female without blemish.

7 If he is presenting a lamb for his offering, he must present it before Yahweh. 8 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons shall splatter its blood on all sides of the altar.

9 And from the peace offering he shall bring a food offering to Yahweh consisting of its fat: the entire fat tail cut off close to the backbone, the fat that covers the entrails, all the fat that is on them, 10 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he is to remove with the kidneys. 11 Then the priest is to burn them on the altar as food, a food offering to Yahweh.

12 If one's offering is a goat, he is to present it before Yahweh. 13 He must lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons shall splatter its blood on all sides of the altar.

14 And from his offering he shall present a food offering to Yahweh: the fat that covers the entrails, all the fat that is on them, 15 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he is to remove with the kidneys. 16 Then the priest is to burn the food on the altar as a food offering, a pleasing aroma. All the fat is Yahweh's.

GOD SPEAKING

17 This is a permanent statute for the generations to come, wherever you live: You must not eat any fat or any blood."

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

What happens when you sin and did not mean to? There is an offering for that. A priest, the whole nation, a leader or a regular person each bring a different animal. The bigger your job, the bigger the offering, because leaders who sin take a lot of people down with them.

LAWS FOR SIN OFFERINGS // LEVITICUS 5:1–13; LEVITICUS 6:24–30

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Tell the Israelites to do as follows with one who sins unintentionally against any of Yahweh's commandments and does what is forbidden by them:

3 If the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, he must bring to Yahweh a young bull without blemish as a sin offering for the sin he has committed. 4 He must bring the bull to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh, lay his hand on the bull's head, and slaughter it before Yahweh. 5 Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood and bring it into the Tent of Meeting. 6 The priest is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of it seven times before Yahweh, in front of the veil of the sanctuary. 7 The priest must then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is before Yahweh in the Tent of Meeting. And he is to pour out the rest of the bull's blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 8 Then he shall remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering—the fat that covers the entrails, all the fat that is on them, 9 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he is to remove with the kidneys— 10 just as the fat is removed from the ox of the peace offering. Then the priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering. 11 But the hide of the bull and all its flesh, with its head and legs and its entrails and dung— 12 all the rest of the bull—he must take outside the camp to a ceremonially clean place where the ashes are poured out, and there he must burn it on a wood fire on the ash heap.

LEV 4:7 [FIELD NOTES] A real altar with four stone horns was found at Beersheba. See the Horned Altar of Beersheba Field Notes page, p.180.

DEBATED FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: HIGH FOR THE ALTAR, DEBATED FOR WHY IT WAS TAKEN APART

THE HORNED ALTAR OF BEERSHEBA

LEVITICUS 4:7 · EXODUS 27:2 · 1 KINGS 1:50 · 2 KINGS 18:4

The horned altar of Beersheba, put back together in the Israel Museum, Jerusalem. Photo Gary Todd, public domain.

WHAT IT IS

A big altar for burnt offerings made of cut sandstone blocks, with a horn sticking up at each of its four corners. Leviticus 4:7 tells the priest to put blood on the horns of the altar, and Exodus 27:2 says the altar in the tabernacle had horns on its four corners. This is what a real one looked like.

HOW OLD IT IS

About the 700s BC, in the days of the kings of Judah. Experts date it by the layer of the city where its stones were found, which was destroyed about 701 BC. Some scholars date that wall about a hundred years later.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Yohanan Aharoni's dig at Tel Beersheba found it in 1973. The altar had been taken apart, and its blocks were reused in the wall of a storehouse. More stones turned up in the dirt of the city's outer slope. Aharoni put it back together and published it in 1974.

WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE

It stands about 63 inches tall, a little over 5 feet. The altar in Exodus 27:1 was about 4½ feet tall, so the two are close. Three of the horns are original. The fourth was missing, maybe cut off on purpose, so the one on display is rebuilt. One block has a snake carved into it.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Museum in Jerusalem. A copy stands at Tel Beersheba National Park.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Altars with horns at the corners were real in ancient Israel, just as the law describes. It also helps us picture Adonijah and Joab grabbing the horns of the altar to beg for their lives, 1 Kings 1:50 and 2:28.

THE BIG DEBATE

Why was it taken apart? Aharoni thought King Hezekiah did it when he removed the high places and worship sites outside Jerusalem, 2 Kings 18:4. Others think it happened later under Josiah, or for a reason that had nothing to do with reform. And one more puzzle: Exodus 20:25 says an altar of stones must not be cut with tools, and these stones were cut.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It is not the tabernacle altar, which was bronze over wood. It shows Judah offering sacrifices outside Jerusalem, which later kings tried to stop.

13 Now if the whole congregation of Israel strays unintentionally and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly so that they violate any of Yahweh's commandments and incur guilt by doing what is for-bidden, 14 when they become aware of the sin they have committed, then the assembly must bring a young bull as a sin offering and present it before the Tent of Meeting. 15 The elders of the congregation
are to lay their hands on the bull's head
before Yahweh, and it shall be slaughtered before Yahweh. 16 Then the anointed priest is to bring some of the bull's blood into the Tent of Meeting, 17 and he is to dip
his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before Yahweh in front of the veil. 18 He is also to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before Yahweh in the Tent of Meeting, and he must pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 19 And he is to remove all the fat from it and burn it on the altar. 20 He shall offer this bull just as he did the bull for the sin offering; in this way the priest will make atonement
on their behalf, and they will be forgiven.
21 Then he is to take the bull outside the camp and burn it, just as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the assembly.

22 When a leader sins unintentionally and does what is prohibited by any of the commandments of Yahweh his God, he incurs guilt. 23 When he becomes aware of the sin he has committed, he must bring an unblemished male goat as his offering.
24 He is to lay his hand on the head of the goat and slaughter it at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered before Yahweh. It is a sin offering. 25 Then the priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and
pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. 26 He must burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the peace offerings; thus the priest will make atonement for that man's sin, and he will be forgiven.

27 And if one of the common people sins unintentionally and does what is prohibited by any of Yahweh's commandments, he incurs guilt. 28 When he becomes aware of the sin he has committed, he must bring an unblemished female goat as his offering for that sin. 29 He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place of the burnt offering. 30 Then the priest is to take some of its blood with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and
pour out the rest of the blood at the base

of the altar. 31 Then he is to remove all the fat, just as it is removed from the peace offering, and the priest is to burn it on the altar as a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. In this way the priest will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

32 If, however, he brings a lamb as a sin offering, he must bring an unblemished female. 33 And he is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it as a sin offering at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered. 34 Then the priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar. 35 And he shall remove all the fat, just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the peace offerings, and he shall burn it on the altar along with the food offerings to Yahweh. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Some sins are about keeping quiet when you saw something, or touching something unclean, or making a careless promise. You confess and bring an offering. If you cannot afford a lamb, bring two birds. If you cannot afford birds, bring a little flour. Nobody is too poor to be forgiven.

SINS REQUIRING A SIN OFFERING // LEVITICUS 4:1–35; LEVITICUS 6:24–30

1 "If someone sins by failing to testify when he hears a public charge about something he has witnessed, whether he has seen it or learned of it, he shall bear the iniquity.

2 Or if a person touches anything unclean—whether the carcass of any unclean wild animal or livestock or crawling creature—even if he is unaware of it, he is unclean and guilty.

3 Or if he touches human uncleanness—anything by which one becomes unclean—even if he is unaware of it, when he realizes it, he is guilty.

4 Or if someone swears thoughtlessly with his lips to do anything good or evil—in whatever matter a man may rashly pronounce an oath—even if he is unaware of it, when he realizes it, he is guilty in the matter.

5 If someone incurs guilt in one of these ways, he must confess the sin he has committed, 6 and he must bring his guilt offering to Yahweh for the sin he has committed: a female lamb or goat from the flock as a sin offering. And the priest will make atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 If, however, he cannot afford a lamb, he may bring to Yahweh as restitution for his sin two turtledoves or two young pigeons—one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. 8 He is to bring them to the priest, who shall first present the one for the sin offering. He is to twist its head at the front of its neck without severing it; 9 then he is to sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood is drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. 10 And the priest must prepare the second bird as a burnt offering according to the ordinance. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

11 But if he cannot afford two turtledoves or two young pigeons, he may bring two quarts of fine flour as a sin offering. He must not put olive oil or frankincense on it, because it is a sin offering. 12 He is to bring it to the priest, who shall take a handful from it as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar atop the food offerings to Yahweh; it is a sin offering. 13 In this way the priest will make atonement for him for any of these sins he has committed, and he will be forgiven. The remainder will belong to the priest, like the grain offering."

LAWS FOR GUILT OFFERINGS // LEVITICUS 6:1–7; LEVITICUS 7:1–10

14 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 15 "If someone acts unfaithfully and sins unintentionally against any of Yahweh's holy things, he must bring his guilt offering to Yahweh: an unblemished ram from the flock, of proper value in silver, weighed by the sanctuary standard; it is a guilt offering. 16 Regarding any holy thing he has harmed, he must make restitution by adding a fifth of its value to it and giving it to the priest, who will make atonement on his behalf with the ram as a guilt offering, and he will be forgiven.

17 If someone sins and violates any of Yahweh's commandments even though he was unaware, he is guilty and shall bear his punishment. 18 He is to bring to the priest an unblemished ram of proper value from the flock as a guilt offering. Then the priest will make atonement on his behalf for the wrong he has committed in ignorance, and he will be forgiven. 19 It is a guilt offering; he was certainly guilty before Yahweh."

6

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

If you cheat your neighbor, lie about something you found or keep what was left in your care, you pay it all back plus one fifth more, then bring your offering. Saying sorry includes paying for the damage. And the fire on the altar must never go out, day or night.

SINS REQUIRING A GUILT OFFERING // LEVITICUS 5:14–19; LEVITICUS 7:1–10

1 And Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "If someone sins and acts unfaithfully against Yahweh by deceiving his neighbor in regard to a deposit or security entrusted to him or stolen, or if he extorts his neighbor 3 or finds lost property and lies about it and swears falsely, or if he commits any such sin that a man might commit— 4 once he has sinned and becomes guilty, he must return what he has stolen or taken by extortion, or the deposit entrusted to him, or the lost property he found, 5 or anything else about which he has sworn falsely.

He must make restitution in full, add a fifth of the value, and pay it to the owner on the day he acknowledges his guilt. 6 Then he must bring to the priest his guilt offering to Yahweh: an unblemished ram of proper value from the flock. 7 In this way the priest will make atonement for him before Yahweh, and he will be forgiven for anything he may have done to incur guilt."

THE BURNT OFFERING // LEVITICUS 1:1–17

8 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 9 "Command Aaron and his sons that this is the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering is to remain on the hearth of the altar all night, until morning, and the fire must be kept burning on the altar.

10 And the priest shall put on his linen robe and linen undergarments, and he shall remove from the altar the ashes of the burnt offering that the fire has consumed and place them beside it. 11 Then he must take off his garments, put on other clothes, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a ceremonially clean place.

12 The fire on the altar shall be kept burning; it must not be extinguished. Every morning the priest is to add wood to the fire, arrange the burnt offering on it, and burn the fat portions of the peace offerings on it. 13 The fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it must not be extinguished.

THE GRAIN OFFERING // LEVITICUS 2:1–16

14 Now this is the law of the grain offering: Aaron's sons shall present it before Yahweh in front of the altar. 15 The priest is to remove a handful of fine flour and olive oil, together with all the frankincense from the grain offering, and burn the memorial portion on the altar as a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

16 Aaron and his sons are to eat the remainder. It must be eaten without leaven in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting. 17 It must not be baked with leaven; I have assigned it as their portion of My food offerings. It is most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering. 18 Any male among the sons of Aaron may eat it. This is a permanent portion from the food offerings to Yahweh for the generations to come. Anything that touches them will become holy."

19 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 20 "This is the offering that Aaron and his sons must present to Yahweh on the day he is anointed: two quarts of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening. 21 It shall be prepared with oil on a griddle; you are to bring it well-kneaded and present it as a grain offering broken in pieces, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. 22 The priest, who is one of Aaron's sons and will be anointed to take his place, is to prepare it. As a permanent portion for Yahweh, it must be burned completely. 23 Every grain offering for a priest shall be burned completely; it is not to be eaten."

THE SIN OFFERING // LEVITICUS 4:1–35; LEVITICUS 5:1–13

24 And Yahweh said to Moses, 25 "Tell Aaron and his sons that this is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, the sin offering shall be slaughtered before Yahweh; it is most holy. 26 The priest who offers it shall eat it; it must be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting. 27 Anything that touches its flesh will become holy, and if any of the blood is spattered on a garment, you must wash it in a holy place.

28 The clay pot in which the sin offering is boiled must be broken; if it is boiled in a bronze pot, the pot must be scoured and rinsed with water. 29 Any male among the priests may eat it; it is most holy. 30 But no sin offering may be eaten if its blood has been brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place; it must be burned.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

More rules for the priests about the guilt offering and the peace offering, and which parts are theirs to eat. The thank offering has to be eaten the same day, no leftovers. Again: no fat and no blood. The breast and the right thigh go to the priests as their pay.

THE GUILT OFFERING // LEVITICUS 5:14–19; LEVITICUS 6:1–7

1 "Now this is the law of the guilt offering, which is most holy: 2 The guilt offering must be slaughtered in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, and the priest shall splatter its blood on all sides of the altar. 3 And all the fat from it shall be offered: the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, 4 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which is to be removed with the kidneys. 5 The priest shall burn them on the altar as a food offering to Yahweh; it is a guilt offering. 6 Every male among the priests may eat of it. It must be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

7 The guilt offering is like the sin offering; the same law applies to both. It belongs to the priest who makes atonement with it. 8 As for the priest who presents a burnt offering for anyone, the hide of that offering belongs to him. 9 Likewise, every grain offering that is baked in an oven or cooked in a pan or on a griddle belongs to the priest who presents it, 10 and every grain offering, whether dry or mixed with oil, belongs equally to all the sons of Aaron.

THE PEACE OFFERING // LEVITICUS 3:1–17

11 Now this is the law of the peace offering that one may present to Yahweh: 12 If he offers it in thanksgiving, then along with the sacrifice of thanksgiving he shall offer unleavened cakes mixed with olive oil, unleavened wafers coated with oil, and well-kneaded cakes of fine flour mixed with oil.

13 Along with his peace offering of thanksgiving he is to present an offering with cakes of leavened bread. 14 From the cakes he must present one portion of each offering as a contribution to Yahweh. It belongs to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offering. 15 The meat of the sacrifice of his peace offering of thanksgiving must be eaten on the day he offers it; none of it may be left until morning.

16 If, however, the sacrifice he offers is a vow or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day he presents his sacrifice, but the remainder may be eaten on the next day. 17 But any meat of the sacrifice remaining until the third day must be burned up. 18 If any of the meat from his peace offering is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted. It will not be credited to the one who presented it; it shall be an abomination, and the one who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 Meat that touches anything unclean must not be eaten; it is to be burned up. As for any other meat, anyone who is ceremonially clean may eat it. 20 But if anyone who is unclean eats meat from the peace offering that belongs to Yahweh, that person must be cut off from his people. 21 If one touches anything unclean, whether human uncleanness, an unclean animal, or any unclean, detestable thing, and then eats any of the meat of the peace offering that belongs to Yahweh, that person must be cut off from his people."

FAT AND BLOOD FORBIDDEN

22 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 23 "Speak to the Israelites and say, 'You are not to eat any of the fat of an ox, a sheep, or a goat. 24 The fat of an animal found dead or mauled by wild beasts may be used for any other purpose, but you must not eat it.

25 If anyone eats the fat of an animal from which a food offering may be presented to Yahweh, the one who eats it must be cut off from his people. 26 You must not eat the blood of any bird or animal in any of your dwellings. 27 If anyone eats blood, that person must be cut off from his people.'"

THE PRIESTS' PORTION

28 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 29 "Speak to the Israelites and say, 'Anyone who presents a peace offering to Yahweh must bring it as his sacrifice to Yahweh. 30 With his own hands he is to bring the food offerings to Yahweh; he shall bring the fat, together with the breast, and wave the breast as a wave offering before Yahweh.

31 The priest is to burn the fat on the altar, but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons. 32 And you are to give the right thigh to the priest as a contribution from your peace offering. 33 The son of Aaron who presents the blood and fat of the peace offering shall have the right thigh as a portion.

34 I have taken from the sons of Israel the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and his sons as a permanent portion from the sons of Israel.'"

35 This is the portion of the food offerings to Yahweh for Aaron and his sons since the day they were presented to serve Yahweh as priests. 36 On the day they were anointed, Yahweh commanded that this be given them by the sons of Israel. It is a permanent portion for the generations to come.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the ordination offering, and the peace offering, 38 which Yahweh gave Moses on Mount Sinai on the day He commanded the Israelites to present their offerings to Yahweh in the Wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses ordains Aaron and his sons as priests in front of the whole nation. He washes them, dresses them and pours the holy anointing oil on Aaron's head. Then blood goes on the right ear, the right thumb and the right big toe. They stay at the tent door for seven days.

MOSES CONSECRATES AARON AND HIS SONS // EXODUS 29:1–9

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Take Aaron and his sons, their garments, the anointing oil, the bull of the sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread, 3 and assemble the whole congregation at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting."

4 So Moses did as Yahweh had commanded him, and the assembly gathered at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 5 And Moses said to them, "This is what Yahweh has commanded to be done."

6 Then Moses presented Aaron and his sons and washed them with water. 7 He put the tunic on Aaron, tied the sash around him, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him. He tied the woven band of the ephod around him and fastened it to him. 8 Then he put the breastpiece on him and placed the Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece. 9 Moses also put the turban on Aaron's head and set the gold plate, the holy diadem, on the front of the turban, as Yahweh had commanded him.

10 Next, Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and everything in it; and so he consecrated them. 11 He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times, anointing the altar and all its utensils, and the basin with its stand, to consecrate them.

12 He also poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him. 13 Then Moses presented Aaron's sons, put tunics on them, wrapped sashes around them, and tied headbands on them, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

THE PRIESTS' SIN OFFERING

14 Moses then brought the bull near for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head. 15 Moses slaughtered the bull, took some of the blood, and applied it with his finger to all four horns of the altar, purifying the altar. He poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar and consecrated it so that atonement could be made on it.

16 Moses also took all the fat that was on the entrails, the lobe of the liver, and both kidneys and their fat, and burned it all on the altar. 17 But the bull with its hide, flesh, and dung he burned outside the camp, as Yahweh had commanded him.

THE PRIESTS' BURNT OFFERING

18 Then Moses presented the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head. 19 Moses slaughtered the ram and splattered the blood on all sides of the altar. 20 He cut the ram into pieces and burned the head, the pieces, and the fat. 21 He washed the entrails and legs with water and burned the entire ram on the altar as a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, a food offering to Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

THE RAM OF ORDINATION // EXODUS 29:10–30

22 After that, Moses presented the other ram, the ram of ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head. 23 Moses slaughtered the ram and took some of its blood and put it on Aaron's right earlobe, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. 24 Moses also presented Aaron's sons and put some of the blood on their right earlobes, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Then he splattered the blood on all sides of the altar.

25 And Moses took the fat—the fat tail, all the fat that was on the entrails, the lobe of the liver, and both kidneys with their fat—as well as the right thigh. 26 And from the basket of unleavened bread that was before Yahweh, he took one cake of unleavened bread, one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer, and he placed them on the fat portions and on the right thigh. 27 He put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and waved them before Yahweh as a wave offering.

28 Then Moses took these from their hands and burned them on the altar with the burnt offering. This was an ordination offering, a pleasing aroma, a food offering to Yahweh. 29 He also took the breast—Moses' portion of the ram of ordination—and waved it before Yahweh as a wave offering, as Yahweh had commanded him.

30 Next, Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his garments, and on his sons and their garments. So he consecrated Aaron and his garments, as well as Aaron's sons and their garments.

31 And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the meat at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of ordination offerings, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons are to eat it.' 32 Then you must burn up the remainder of the meat and bread.

33 You must not go outside the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are complete; for it will take seven days to ordain you. 34 What has been done today has been commanded by Yahweh in order to make atonement on your behalf. 35 You must remain at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting day and night for seven days and keep Yahweh's charge so that you will not die, for this is what I have been commanded."

36 So Aaron and his sons did everything Yahweh had commanded through Moses.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

On the eighth day the priests offer their first sacrifices. Aaron lifts his hands and blesses the people. Then the glory of Yahweh appears and fire comes out from His presence and burns up the offering. The people shout and fall on their faces. It is the best first day on the job ever.

AARON'S FIRST OFFERINGS

1 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. 2 He said to Aaron, "Take for yourself a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and present them before Yahweh. 3 Then speak to the Israelites and say, 'Take a male goat for a sin offering, a calf and a lamb—both a year old and without blemish—for a burnt offering, 4 an ox and a ram for a peace offering to sacrifice before Yahweh, and a grain offering mixed with oil. For today Yahweh will appear to you.'"

5 So they took what Moses had commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and the whole congregation drew near and stood before Yahweh. 6 And Moses said, "This is what Yahweh has commanded you to do, so that the glory of Yahweh may appear to you."

7 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Approach the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering to make atonement for yourself and for the people. And sacrifice the people's offering to make atonement for them, as Yahweh has commanded."

8 So Aaron approached the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sin offering for himself. 9 The sons of Aaron brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and applied it to the horns of the altar. And he poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. 10 On the altar he burned the fat, the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver from the sin offering, as Yahweh had commanded Moses. 11 But he burned up the flesh and the hide outside the camp.

12 Then Aaron slaughtered the burnt offering. His sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it on all sides of the altar. 13 They brought him the burnt offering piece by piece, including the head, and he burned them on the altar. 14 He washed the entrails and the legs and burned them atop the burnt offering on the altar.

15 Aaron then presented the people's offering. He took the male goat for the people's sin offering, slaughtered it, and offered it for sin like the first one.

16 He presented the burnt offering and offered it according to the ordinance.

17 Next he presented the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning's burnt offering.

18 Then he slaughtered the ox and the ram as the people's peace offering. His sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it on all sides of the altar.

19 They also brought the fat portions from the ox and the ram—the fat tail, the fat covering the entrails, the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver— 20 and placed these on the breasts. Aaron burned the fat portions on the altar, 21 but he waved the breasts and the right thigh as a wave offering before Yahweh, as Moses had commanded.

22 Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. And having made the sin offering, the burnt offering,
and the peace offering, he stepped down.
23 Moses and Aaron then entered the Tent of Meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people, and the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the people. 24 Fire came out from the presence of Yahweh and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. And when all the people saw it, they shouted for joy and fell facedown.

10

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

The very next thing, Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu offer fire God never asked for, and fire comes out and kills them on the spot. Aaron stays silent. God tells the priests no wine or strong drink before they serve. Holiness is not something to play around with.

THE SIN OF NADAB AND ABIHU // NUMBERS 3:1–4

1 Now Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu took their censers, put fire in them and added incense, and offered unauthorized fire before Yahweh, contrary to His command. 2
So fire came out from the presence of Yahweh and consumed them, and they died in the presence of Yahweh.
3 Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what Yahweh meant when He said:

'To those who come near Me
I will show My holiness,
and in the sight of all the people
I will reveal My glory.'"

But Aaron remained silent.

4 Moses summoned Mishael and Elza-phan, sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, "Come here; carry the bodies of your cousins outside the camp, away from the front of the sanctuary." 5 So they came forward and carried them, still in their tunics, outside the camp, as Moses had directed.
6 Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not let your hair become disheveled and do not tear your garments, or else you will die, and Yahweh will be angry with the whole congregation. But your brothers, the whole house of Israel, may mourn on account of the fire that Yahweh has ignited. 7 You shall not go outside the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, or you will die, for Yahweh's anointing oil is on you."
So they did as Moses instructed.

RESTRICTIONS FOR PRIESTS

8 Then Yahweh said to Aaron, 9 "You and your sons are not to drink wine or strong drink when you enter the Tent of Meeting, or else you will die; this is a permanent statute for the generations to come. 10 You must distinguish between the holy and the common, between the clean and the unclean, 11 so that you may teach the Israelites all the statutes that Yahweh has given them through Moses."
12 And Moses said to Aaron and his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the grain offering that remains from the food offerings to Yahweh and eat it without leaven beside the altar, because it is most holy. 13 You shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your share and your sons' share of the food offerings to Yahweh; for this is what I have been commanded.
14 And you and your sons and daughters
may eat the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution in a ceremonially clean place, because these portions have been assigned to you and your children from the peace offerings of the sons of Israel. 15 They are to bring the thigh of the contribution and the breast of the wave offering, together with the fat portions of the food offerings, to wave as a wave offering before Yahweh. It will belong permanently to you and your children, as Yahweh has commanded."

GOD SPEAKING

16 Later, Moses searched carefully for the goat of the sin offering, and behold, it had been burned up. He was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, and asked, 17 "Why didn't you eat the sin offering in the holy place? For it is most holy; it was given to you to take away the guilt of the congregation by making atonement for them before Yahweh. 18 Since its blood was not brought inside the holy place, you should have eaten it in the sanctuary area, as I commanded."

19 But Aaron replied to Moses, "Behold, this very day they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before Yahweh. Since these things have happened to me, if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been acceptable in the sight of Yahweh?"

20 And when Moses heard this explanation, he was satisfied.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

The menu. Land animals that chew the cud and have split hooves are clean, so cows yes and pigs no. Sea creatures need fins and scales, so no shrimp. A long list of birds and bugs is off limits, but locusts and grasshoppers are fine. The reason God gives is simple: Be holy, because I am holy.

CLEAN AND UNCLEAN ANIMALS // DEUTERONOMY 14:1–21; ACTS 10:9–16

1 Yahweh spoke again to Moses and Aaron, telling them, 2 "Say to the Israelites, 'Of all the beasts of the earth, these ones you may eat: 3 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof completely divided and that chews the cud.

4 But of those that only chew the cud or only have a divided hoof, you are not to eat the following:

The camel, though it chews the cud, does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean for you.

5 The rock badger, though it chews the cud, does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean for you.

6 The rabbit, though it chews the cud, does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean for you.

7 And the pig, though it has a split hoof completely divided, does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you.

8 You must not eat their meat or touch their carcasses; they are unclean for you.

9 Of all the creatures that live in the water, whether in the seas or in the streams, you may eat anything with fins and scales.

10 But the following among all the teeming life and creatures in the water are detestable to you: everything in the seas or streams that does not have fins and scales. 11 They shall be an abomination to you; you must not eat their meat, and you must detest their carcasses. 12 Everything in the water that does not have fins and scales shall be detestable to you.

13 Additionally, you are to detest the following birds, and they must not be eaten because they are detestable:

the eagle, the bearded vulture, the black vulture,

14 the kite, any kind of falcon,

15 any kind of raven,

16 the ostrich, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk,

17 the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl,

18 the white owl, the desert owl, the osprey,

19 the stork, any kind of heron,

the hoopoe, and the bat.

20 All flying insects that walk on all fours are detestable to you. 21 However, you may eat the following kinds of flying insects that walk on all fours: those having jointed legs above their feet for hopping on the ground. 22 Of these you may eat any kind of locust, katydid, cricket, or grasshopper. 23 All other flying insects that have four legs are detestable to you.

24 These creatures will make you unclean. Whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until evening, 25 and whoever picks up one of their carcasses must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean until evening.

26 Every animal with hooves not completely divided or that does not chew the cud is unclean for you. Whoever touches any of them will be unclean.

27 All the four-footed animals that walk on their paws are unclean for you; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until evening, 28 and anyone who picks up a carcass must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean until evening. They are unclean for you.

29 The following creatures that move along the ground are unclean for you: the mole, the mouse, any kind of great lizard, 30 the gecko, the monitor lizard, the common lizard, the skink, and the chameleon.

31 These animals are unclean for you among all the crawling creatures. Whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening. 32 When one of them dies and falls on something, that article becomes unclean; any article of wood, clothing, leather, sackcloth, or any implement used for work must be rinsed with water and will remain unclean until evening; then it will be clean. 33 If any of them falls into a clay pot, everything in it will be unclean; you must break the pot. 34 Any food coming into contact with water from that pot will be unclean, and any drink in such a container will be unclean.

35 Anything upon which one of their carcasses falls will be unclean. If it is an oven or cooking pot, it must be smashed; it is unclean and will remain unclean for you. 36 Nevertheless, a spring or cistern containing water will remain clean, but one who touches a carcass in it will be unclean. 37 If a carcass falls on any seed for sowing, the seed is clean; 38 but if water has been put on the seed and a carcass falls on it, it is unclean for you.

39 If an animal that you may eat dies, anyone who touches the carcass will be unclean until evening. 40 Whoever eats from the carcass must wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening, and anyone who picks up the carcass must wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening.

41 Every creature that moves along the ground is detestable; it must not be eaten. 42 Do not eat any creature that moves along the ground, whether it crawls on its belly or walks on four or more feet; for such creatures are detestable.

43 Do not defile yourselves by any crawling creature; do not become unclean or defiled by them. 44 For I am Yahweh your God; consecrate yourselves, therefore, and be holy, because I am holy. You must not defile yourselves by any creature that crawls along the ground. 45 For I am Yahweh, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt so that I would be your God; therefore be holy, because I am holy.

46 This is the law regarding animals, birds, all living creatures that move in the water, and all creatures that crawl along the ground. 47 You must distinguish between the unclean and the clean, between animals that may be eaten and those that may not.'"

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

CLEAN AND UNCLEAN FOOD

Why No Pork?

LEVITICUS 11 · DEUTERONOMY 14 · DANIEL 1:8 · 1 MACCABEES 1:62 TO 63

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Land animals that chew the cud and have a split hoof are clean, so cows, sheep and goats are in, and pigs, camels and rabbits are out, 11:3 to 8. Water creatures need fins and scales. Most birds of prey and most insects are out, but locusts and grasshoppers are fine. The reason God gives is holiness: Be holy, because I am holy, 11:44 to 45. These rules set Israel apart from the nations, 20:25 to 26.

THE HEALTH VIEW

God was protecting His people from disease. Pigs can carry trichinosis, shellfish can carry toxins, and scavengers eat dead things. The Jewish teacher Maimonides gave this answer in his Guide for the Perplexed, about AD 1190. Many Christians still find it convincing.

GOD SPEAKING

THE HOLINESS VIEW

The point was not germs but being set apart. Every meal reminded Israel that they belonged to God. In 1966 the scholar Mary Douglas, in her book Purity and Danger, argued that clean animals were the ones that fit their category perfectly, like a fish with fins and scales, a picture of wholeness and holiness.

THE SYMBOL VIEW

Older Jewish and Christian writers read the animals as lessons. The Letter of Aristeas, about 150 BC, and Philo of Alexandria said chewing the cud pictures thinking over God's words. The Epistle of Barnabas, about AD 130, said the pig stands for people who only remember God when they are hungry.

PEOPLE DIED FOR THESE RULES

Daniel refused the king's food, Daniel 1:8. When the Greek king Antiochus tried to force Jews to eat pork about 167 BC, many chose to die instead, 1 Maccabees 1:62 to 63 and 2 Maccabees 7. For Jews, these laws were never small.

What About Today?

MARK 7:18 TO 19 · ACTS 10:9 TO 16 · ACTS 15:20, 29 · ROMANS 14:14, 20 · 1 TIMOTHY 4:3 TO 5

WHAT JESUS SAID

Nothing that goes into a man from the outside can defile him, because it goes into his stomach and then out of the body, Mark 7:18 to 19. Most modern Bibles translate the next words as, Thus He declared all foods clean. The King James reads purging all meats, because the Greek copies it used have one letter different.

PETER'S VISION

God showed Peter a sheet full of unclean animals and said, Get up, Peter, kill and eat. Peter said he had never eaten anything unclean, and God answered, Do not call anything impure that God has made clean, Acts 10:13 to 15. Peter said it meant he should not call any person unclean, 10:28.

MOST CHURCHES TODAY

Catholic, Orthodox and nearly all Protestant churches say the food laws were for Israel until Christ came. Paul says nothing is unclean in itself, Romans 14:14 and 14:20, and that every food is good when received with thanks, 1 Timothy 4:4. The early church council only asked Gentiles to avoid blood, strangled meat and food offered to idols, Acts 15:20 and 15:29.

THOSE WHO KEEP THEM

Messianic Jews often keep kosher as part of who they are as Jews. Seventh day Adventists avoid unclean meats because of Leviticus 11, and many add the health reason, which Ellen White taught. Some in the Hebrew Roots movement say every believer should keep them. Many of them read Peter's vision as about people, not food, and Mark 7 as about unwashed hands, 7:2 to 5.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The food laws taught Israel that God cares about everyday life, even dinner. And all sides agree with Paul: whoever eats and whoever does not should not judge each other, Romans 14:3. Eat with thanks, and do not wreck your brother's faith over a menu, 14:20.

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

A new mom brings a burnt offering and a sin offering after her baby is born. If she cannot afford a lamb, two turtledoves or two young pigeons will do. Hundreds of years later Mary and Joseph bring exactly that, the offering of a poor family, when they take baby Jesus to the temple.

PURIFICATION AFTER CHILDBIRTH

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Say to the Israelites, 'A woman who becomes pregnant and gives birth to a son will be unclean for seven days, as she is during the days of her menstruation. 3 And on the eighth day the flesh of the boy's foreskin is to be circumcised.

4 The woman shall continue in purification
from her bleeding for thirty-three days.
She must not touch anything sacred or go into the sanctuary until the days of her purification are complete.

OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

5 If, however, she gives birth to a daughter,
the woman will be unclean for two weeks
as she is during her menstruation. Then she must continue in purification from her bleeding for sixty-six days.

6 When the days of her purification are complete, whether for a son or for a daughter, she is to bring to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting a year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering. 7 And the priest will present them before Yahweh and make atonement for her; and she shall be ceremonially cleansed from her flow of blood. This is the law for a woman giving birth, whether to a male or to a female.

8 But if she cannot afford a lamb, she shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons,
one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. Then the priest will make atonement for her, and she will be clean.'"

13

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

The priest becomes the skin doctor. Rashes, swellings and spots are checked, the person waits seven days and gets checked again. Anyone with a serious skin disease lives outside the camp and calls out Unclean so nobody gets too close. Moldy clothes get checked too, and sometimes burned.

LAWS ABOUT SKIN DISEASES // NUMBERS 5:1–4

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 2
"When someone has a swelling or rash or bright spot on his skin that may be an infectious skin disease, he must be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons who is a priest.

3 The priest is to examine the infection on his skin, and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the sore appears to be deeper than the skin, it is a skin disease.
After the priest examines him, he must pronounce him unclean.

4 If, however, the spot on his skin is white and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest shall isolate the infected person for seven days. 5 On the seventh day the priest is to reexamine him, and if he sees that the infection is unchanged
and has not spread on the skin, the priest must isolate him for another seven days. 6
The priest will examine him again on the seventh day, and if the sore has faded
and has not spread on the skin, the priest
shall pronounce him clean; it is a rash.
The person must wash his clothes and be clean.

7 But if the rash spreads further on his skin
after he has shown himself to the priest
for his cleansing, he must present himself
again to the priest. 8 The priest will reexamine him, and if the rash has spread on the skin, the priest must pronounce him
unclean; it is a skin disease.

9 When anyone develops a skin disease,
he must be brought to the priest. 10 The priest will examine him, and if there is a white swelling on the skin that has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the swelling, 11 it is a chronic skin disease and the priest must pronounce him unclean.
He need not isolate him, for he is unclean.

12 But if the skin disease breaks out all over his skin so that it covers all the skin
of the infected person from head to foot,
as far as the priest can see, 13 the priest shall examine him, and if the disease has covered his entire body, he is to pronounce the infected person clean. Since it has all turned white, he is clean.

14 But whenever raw flesh appears on someone, he will be unclean. 15 When the priest sees the raw flesh, he must pronounce him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean; it is a skin disease. 16 But if the raw flesh changes and turns white, he must go to the priest. 17 The priest will reexamine him, and if the infection has turned white, the priest is to pronounce the infected person clean; then he is clean.

18 When a boil appears on someone's skin and it heals, 19 and a white swelling or a reddish-white spot develops where the boil was, he must present himself to the priest. 20 The priest shall examine it, and if it appears to be beneath the skin and the hair in it has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a diseased infection that has broken out in the boil.

21 But when the priest examines it, if there is no white hair in it, and it is not beneath the skin and has faded, the priest shall isolate him for seven days. 22 If it spreads any further on the skin, the priest must pronounce him unclean; it is an infection. 23 But if the spot remains unchanged and does not spread, it is only the scar from the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 When there is a burn on someone's skin and the raw area of the burn becomes reddish-white or white, 25 the priest must examine it. If the hair in the spot has turned white and the spot appears to be deeper than the skin, it is a disease that has broken out in the burn. The priest must pronounce him unclean; it is a diseased infection.

26 But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the spot, and it is not beneath the skin but has faded, the priest shall isolate him for seven days. 27 On the seventh day the priest is to reexamine him, and if it has spread further on the skin, the priest must pronounce him unclean; it is a diseased infection. 28 But if the spot is unchanged and has not spread on the skin but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest is to pronounce him clean; for it is only the scar from the burn.

29 If a man or woman has an infection on the head or chin, 30 the priest shall examine the infection, and if it appears to be deeper than the skin and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest must pronounce him unclean; it is a scaly outbreak, an infectious disease of the head or chin.

31 But if the priest examines the scaly infection and it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, the priest shall isolate the infected person for seven days. 32 On the seventh day the priest is to reexamine the infection, and if the scaly outbreak has not spread and there is no yellow hair in it, and it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, 33 then the person must shave himself except for the scaly area. Then the priest shall isolate him for another seven days. 34 On the seventh day the priest shall examine the scaly outbreak, and if it has not spread on the skin and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, the priest is to pronounce him clean. He must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

35 If, however, the scaly outbreak spreads further on the skin after his cleansing, 36 the priest is to examine him, and if the scaly outbreak has spread on the skin, the priest need not look for yellow hair; the person is unclean.

37 If, however, in his sight the scaly outbreak is unchanged and black hair has grown in it, then it has healed. He is clean, and the priest is to pronounce him clean.

38 When a man or a woman has white spots on the skin, 39 the priest shall examine them, and if the spots are dull white, it is a harmless rash that has broken out on the skin; the person is clean.

40 Now if a man loses his hair and is bald, he is still clean. 41 Or if his hairline recedes and he is bald on his forehead, he is still clean. 42 But if there is a reddish-white sore on the bald head or forehead, it is an infectious disease breaking out on it. 43 The priest is to examine him, and if the swelling of the infection on his bald head or forehead is reddish-white like a skin disease, 44 the man is diseased; he is unclean. The priest must pronounce him unclean because of the infection on his head.

45 A diseased person must wear torn clothes and let his hair hang loose, and he must cover his mouth and cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' 46 As long as he has the infection, he remains unclean. He must live alone in a place outside the camp.

LAWS ABOUT MILDEW

47 If any fabric is contaminated with mildew—any wool or linen garment, 48 any weave or knit of linen or wool, or any article of leather— 49 and if the mark in the fabric, leather, weave, knit, or leather article is green or red, then it is contaminated with mildew and must be shown to the priest. 50 And the priest is to examine the mildew and isolate the contaminated fabric for seven days.

51 On the seventh day the priest shall reexamine it, and if the mildew has spread in the fabric, weave, knit, or leather, then regardless of how it is used, it is a harmful mildew; the article is unclean. 52 He is to burn the fabric, weave, or knit, whether the contaminated item is wool or linen or leather. Since the mildew is harmful, the article must be burned up.

53 But when the priest reexamines it, if the mildew has not spread in the fabric, weave, knit, or leather article, 54 the priest is to order the contaminated article to be washed and isolated for another seven days. 55 After it has been washed, the priest is to reexamine it, and if the mildewed article has not changed in appearance, it is unclean. Even though the mildew has not spread, you must burn it,
whether the rot is on the front or back.

56 If the priest examines it and the mildew has faded after it has been washed, he must cut the contaminated section out of the fabric, leather, weave, or knit. 57 But if it reappears in the fabric, weave, or knit,
or on any leather article, it is spreading.
You must burn the contaminated article.

58 If the mildew disappears from the fabric, weave, or knit, or any leather article
after washing, then it is to be washed again, and it will be clean.

59 This is the law concerning a mildew contamination in wool or linen fabric, weave, or knit, or any leather article, for pronouncing it clean or unclean."

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

How a healed person comes back. Two birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop. One bird is killed and the other is dipped in its blood and set free. Then shaving, washing and offerings on the eighth day. Later there are rules for mold in the walls of a house, which might mean tearing out the stones.

CLEANSING FROM SKIN DISEASES // MATTHEW 8:1–4; MARK 1:40–45; LUKE 5:12–16

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "This is the law for the one afflicted with a skin disease on the day of his cleansing, when he is brought to the priest. 3 The priest is to go outside the camp to examine him,
and if the skin disease of the afflicted person has healed, 4 the priest shall order that two live clean birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop be brought for the one to be cleansed.

5 Then the priest shall command that one of the birds be slaughtered over fresh water in a clay pot. 6 And he is to take the live bird together with the cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop, and dip them into the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the fresh water. 7 Seven times he shall sprinkle the one to be cleansed of the skin disease. Then he shall pronounce him clean and release the live bird into the open field.

8 The one being cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and bathe with water; then he will be ceremonially clean. Afterward, he may enter the camp, but he must remain outside his tent for seven days. 9 On the seventh day he must shave off all his hair—his head, his beard, his eyebrows, and the rest of his hair. He must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water, and he will be clean.

10 On the eighth day he is to bring two unblemished male lambs, an unblemished ewe lamb a year old, a grain offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil, and a third of a quart of olive oil. 11 The priest who performs the cleansing shall present the one to be cleansed, together with these offerings, before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

12 Then the priest is to take one of the male lambs and present it as a guilt offering, along with the olive oil; and he must wave them as a wave offering before Yahweh. 13 Then he is to slaughter the lamb in the sanctuary area where the sin offering and burnt offering are slaughtered. Like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

14 The priest is to take some of the blood from the guilt offering and put it on the right earlobe of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. 15 Then the priest shall take some of the olive oil, pour it into his left palm, 16 dip his right forefinger into the oil in his left palm, and sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before Yahweh. 17 And the priest is to put some of the oil remaining in his palm on the right earlobe of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering.

18 The rest of the oil in his palm, the priest is to put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before Yahweh. 19 Then the priest is to sacrifice the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. After that, the priest shall slaughter the burnt offering 20 and offer it on the altar, with the grain offering, to make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

21 If, however, the person is poor and cannot afford these offerings, he is to take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for him, along with two quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering, a third of a quart of olive oil, 22 and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, whichever he can afford, one to be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

23 On the eighth day he is to bring them for his cleansing to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh. 24 The priest shall take the lamb for the guilt offering, along with the olive oil, and wave them as a wave offering before Yahweh.

25 And after he slaughters the lamb for the guilt offering, the priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the right earlobe of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. 26 Then the priest is to pour some of the oil into his left palm 27 and sprinkle with his right forefinger some of the oil in his left palm seven times before Yahweh. 28 The priest shall also put some of the oil in his palm on the right earlobe of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot—on the same places as the blood of the guilt offering.

29 The rest of the oil in his palm, the priest is to put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before Yahweh. 30 Then he must sacrifice the turtledoves or young pigeons, whichever he can afford, 31 one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, together with the grain offering. In this way the priest will make atonement before Yahweh for the one to be cleansed.

32 This is the law for someone who has a skin disease and cannot afford the cost of his cleansing."

SIGNS OF HOME CONTAMINATION

33 Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron,
34 "When you enter the land of Canaan, which I am giving you as your possession, and I put a contamination of mildew into a house in that land, 35 the owner of the house shall come and tell the priest, 'Something like mildew has appeared in my house.'

36 The priest must order that the house be cleared before he enters it to examine the mildew, so that nothing in the house will become unclean. After this, the priest shall go in to inspect the house.

37 He is to examine the house, and if the mildew on the walls consists of green or red depressions that appear to be beneath the surface of the wall, 38 the priest shall go outside the doorway of the house and close it up for seven days.

39 On the seventh day the priest is to return and inspect the house. If the mildew has spread on the walls, 40 he must order that the contaminated stones be pulled out and thrown into an unclean place outside the city. 41 And he shall have the inside of the house scraped completely and the plaster that is scraped off dumped into an unclean place outside the city.

42 So different stones must be obtained to replace the contaminated ones, as well as additional mortar to replaster the house.

43 If the mildew reappears in the house after the stones have been torn out and the house has been scraped and replastered, 44 the priest must come and inspect it.

If the mildew has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew; the house is unclean. 45 It must be torn down with its stones, its timbers, and all its plaster, and taken outside the city to an unclean place. 46 Anyone who enters the house during any of the days that it is closed up will be unclean until evening. 47 And anyone who sleeps in the house or eats in it must wash his clothes.

CLEANSING A HOME

48 If, however, the priest comes and inspects it, and the mildew has not spread after the house has been replastered, he shall pronounce the house clean, because the mildew is gone.

49 He is to take two birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop to purify the house; 50 and he shall slaughter one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot.

51 Then he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn, and the live bird, dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times. 52 And he shall cleanse the house with the bird's blood, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet yarn.

53 Finally, he is to release the live bird into the open fields outside the city. In this way he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.

54 This is the law for any infectious skin disease, for a scaly outbreak, 55 for mildew in clothing or in a house, 56 and for a swelling, rash, or spot, 57 to determine when something is clean or unclean. This is the law regarding skin diseases and mildew."

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Rules about bodily fluids, for men and for women, and how to get clean again by washing and waiting. Yes, this is a whole chapter, and no, it will not be read aloud at your church picnic. God cared about the most private parts of life too.

THE UNCLEANNESS OF MEN // DEUTERONOMY 23:9–14

1 And Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 2 "Say to the Israelites, 'When any man has a bodily discharge, the discharge is unclean. 3 This uncleanness is from his discharge, whether his body allows the discharge to flow or blocks it. So his discharge will bring about uncleanness.

4 Any bed on which the man with the discharge lies will be unclean, and any furniture on which he sits will be unclean. 5 Anyone who touches his bed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until evening. 6 Whoever sits on furniture on which the man with the discharge was sitting must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until evening.

7 Whoever touches the body of the man with a discharge must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until evening. 8 If the man with the discharge spits on one who is clean, that person must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until evening.

GOD SPEAKING

9 Any saddle on which the man with the discharge rides will be unclean. 10 Whoever touches anything that was under him will be unclean until evening, and whoever carries such things must wash his clothes
and bathe with water, and he will be un-
clean until evening.

11 If the man with the discharge touches anyone without first rinsing his hands with water, the one who was touched must wash his clothes and bathe with water,
and he will be unclean until evening. 12 Any clay pot that the man with the discharge touches must be broken, and any wooden utensil must be rinsed with water.

THE CLEANSING OF MEN

13 When the man has been cleansed from his discharge, he must count off seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes, and bathe himself in fresh water, and he shall be clean. 14 On the eighth day he is to take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, come before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest. 15 The priest is to sacrifice them, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for the man before Yahweh because of his discharge.

16 When a man has an emission of semen,
he must bathe his whole body with water,
and he will be unclean until evening. 17 Any clothing or leather on which there is an emission of semen must be washed with water, and it will remain unclean until evening. 18 If a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of semen, both must bathe with water, and they will remain un-
clean until evening.

THE UNCLEANNESS OF WOMEN

19 When a woman has a discharge consisting of blood from her body, she will be unclean due to her menstruation for seven days, and anyone who touches her will be unclean until evening. 20 Anything on which she lies or sits during her menstruation will be unclean, 21 and anyone who touches her bed must wash his clothes
and bathe with water, and he will be un-
clean until evening.

22 Whoever touches any furniture on which she was sitting must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until evening. 23 And whether it is a bed or furniture on which she was sitting, whoever touches it will be unclean
until evening.

24 If a man lies with her and her menstrual flow touches him, he will be unclean for seven days, and any bed on which he lies will become unclean.

25 When a woman has a discharge of her blood for many days at a time other than her menstrual period, or if it continues beyond her period, she will be unclean all the days of her unclean discharge, just as she is during the days of her menstruation. 26 Any bed on which she lies or any furniture on which she sits during the days of her discharge will be unclean, like her bed during her menstrual period. 27
Anyone who touches these things will be unclean; he must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean
until evening.

THE CLEANSING OF WOMEN

28 When a woman is cleansed of her discharge, she must count off seven days,
and after that she will be ceremonially clean. 29 On the eighth day she is to take two turtledoves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 30 The priest is to sacrifice one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for her before Yahweh for her unclean discharge.

31 You must keep the children of Israel separate from their uncleanness, so that they do not die by defiling My tabernacle,
which is among them.

32 This is the law of him who has a discharge, of the man who has an emission of semen whereby he is unclean, 33 of a woman in her menstrual period, of any male or female who has a discharge, and of a man who lies with an unclean
woman.'"

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

The Day of Atonement, the biggest day of the year. Once a year the high priest goes behind the veil into the Most Holy Place with blood and a cloud of incense. Two goats: one is sacrificed, and the high priest confesses all of Israel's sins over the other one and sends it away into the wilderness.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT // LEVITICUS 23:26–32; NUMBERS 29:7–11

1 Now Yahweh spoke to Moses after the death of two of Aaron's sons when they approached the presence of Yahweh. 2 And Yahweh said to Moses: "Tell your brother Aaron not to enter freely into the Most Holy Place behind the veil in front of the mercy seat on the ark, or else he will die, because I appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

3 This is how Aaron is to enter the Holy Place: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering. 4 He is to wear the sacred linen tunic, with linen undergarments. He must tie a linen sash around him and put on the linen turban. These are holy garments, and he must bathe himself with water before he wears them. 5 And he shall take from the congregation of Israel two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 Aaron is to present the bull for his sin offering and make atonement for himself and his household. 7 Then he shall take the two goats and present them before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

8 After Aaron casts lots for the two goats, one for Yahweh and the other for the scapegoat, 9 he shall present the goat chosen by lot for Yahweh and sacrifice it as a sin offering. 10 But the goat chosen by lot as the scapegoat shall be presented alive before Yahweh to make atonement by sending it into the wilderness as the scapegoat.

11 When Aaron presents the bull for his sin offering and makes atonement for himself and his household, he is to slaughter the bull for his own sin offering. 12 Then he must take a censer full of burning coals from the altar before Yahweh, and two handfuls of finely ground fragrant incense, and take them inside the veil. 13 He is to put the incense on the fire before Yahweh, and the cloud of incense will cover the mercy seat above the Testimony, so that he will not die. 14 And he is to take some of the bull's blood and sprinkle it with his finger on the east side of the mercy seat; then he shall sprinkle some of it with his finger seven times before the mercy seat.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW GOD SPEAKING

WHAT IT IS
A small temple inside a royal fortress of Judah at Arad, in the Negev desert. Its inner room, a holy of holies, held two limestone incense altars on the steps and a standing stone behind them. It shows how incense was burned in Judah in the days of the kings.

HOW OLD IT IS
The shrine was built about 760 or 750 BC and went out of use about 715 BC. Experts date it by the layers of the fortress.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
Yohanan Aharoni dug the fortress from 1962 to 1967. The two altars had been laid carefully on their sides and covered over, along with the standing stone, so they were found in good shape.

WHAT WAS INSIDE
In 2020 Eran Arie, Baruch Rosen and Dvory Namdar tested the black crust on top of the altars and published it in the journal Tel Aviv. The bigger altar, about 20 inches tall, had frankincense mixed with animal fat. The smaller one, about 16 inches tall, had cannabis mixed with animal dung to keep it burning. The researchers called it the first cannabis found in ancient Judah.

WHERE IT IS TODAY
The holy of holies, with both altars and the standing stone, is on display in the Israel Museum in Jerusalem.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS
Burning incense on small stone altars was real worship in Judah, and frankincense, one of the ingredients God names for the holy incense in Exodus 30:34, was being used there.

THE BIG DEBATE
Why was it buried? Many think King Hezekiah closed it when he removed the worship places outside Jerusalem, 2 Kings 18:4 and 18:22. Others think the people buried it to protect it before the Assyrians came. Scholars also debate whether this shrine was meant for Yahweh, and whether the cannabis was part of the worship everywhere or only here.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE
It does not tell us what was in the incense of the tabernacle in Leviticus 16. This was a local shrine, the kind of worship site that later kings shut down. See the Exodus 30:34 note on p.162.

15 Aaron shall then slaughter the goat for the sin offering for the people and bring its blood behind the veil, and with its blood he must do as he did with the bull's blood: He is to sprinkle it against the mercy seat and in front of it.
16 So he shall make atonement for the Most Holy Place because of the impurities and rebellious acts of the Israelites in regard to all their sins. He is to do the same for the Tent of Meeting which abides among them in the midst of their impurities. 17 No one may be in the Tent of Meeting from the time Aaron goes in to make atonement in the Most Holy Place until he leaves, after he has made atonement for himself, his household, and the whole assembly of Israel.
18 Then he shall go out to the altar that is before Yahweh and make atonement for it.
He is to take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on all the horns of the altar. 19 He is to sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger
seven times to cleanse it and consecrate
it from the uncleanness of the Israelites.
20 When Aaron has finished purifying the Most Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, he is to bring forward the live goat. 21 Then he is to lay both hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities and rebellious acts of the Israelites in regard to all their sins. He is to put them on the goat's head and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man appointed for the task. 22
The goat will carry on itself all their iniquities into a solitary place, and the man will release it into the wilderness.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

23 Then Aaron is to enter the Tent of Meeting, take off the linen garments he put on before entering the Most Holy Place, and leave them there. 24 He is to bathe himself with water in a holy place and put on his own clothes. Then he must go out and sacrifice his burnt offering and the people's burnt offering to make atonement for himself and for the people. 25 He is also to burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

26 The man who released the goat as the scapegoat must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterward he may reenter the camp.

27 The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought into the Most Holy Place to make atonement, must be taken outside the camp; and their hides, flesh, and dung must be burned up. 28 The one who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water, and afterward he may reenter the camp.

29 This is to be a permanent statute for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month, you shall humble yourselves and not do any work—whether the native or the foreigner who resides among you— 30 because on this day atonement will be made for you to cleanse you, and you will be clean from all your sins before Yahweh. 31 It is a Sabbath of complete rest for you, that you may humble yourselves; it is a permanent statute.

32 The priest who is anointed and ordained to succeed his father as high priest shall make atonement. He will put on the sacred linen garments 33 and make atonement for the Most Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, and for the priests and all the people of the assembly. 34 This is to be a permanent statute for you, to make atonement once a year for the Israelites because of all their sins."

And all this was done as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE SCAPEGOAT AND AZAZEL

Who Was the Goat For?

LEVITICUS 16:8 TO 10, 20 TO 22, 26

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

On the Day of Atonement Aaron casts lots over two goats, one for Yahweh and one for Azazel, 16:8. The goat for Yahweh is sacrificed. Aaron lays both hands on the other goat, confesses all of Israel's sins over it, and a man leads it into the wilderness, where it carries their sins away to a solitary place, 16:21 to 22. The word Azazel shows up only in this chapter, four times, and nobody is sure what it means.

VIEW 1: THE GOAT THAT GOES AWAY

Azazel means the goat that leaves, or the sent away goat. The Greek Septuagint, about 250 BC, says the one sent away. The Latin Vulgate says the goat sent out. William Tyndale made up the English word scapegoat in 1530, from escape goat, and the King James kept it. This Bible says scapegoat too.

VIEW 2: A PLACE

Azazel is the name of a rough, rocky place in the desert. The Talmud, Yoma 67b, says the word means a hard place. The Mishnah, Yoma 6:6, says in later times the man pushed the goat backward off a cliff.

VIEW 3: A DEMON

Azazel is the name of a demon who lived in the desert. In 1 Enoch, Azazel is the fallen angel who taught people to make weapons and makeup, and God has him bound and thrown into darkness in the desert, 1 Enoch 8:1 and 10:4 to 8. A Dead Sea Scroll, 4Q180, and the Apocalypse of Abraham also name Azazel as an evil angel. That is why this Bible marks 16:8, 10 and 26 Gray.

BUT WHY SEND SINS TO A DEMON?

People who hold the demon view say the goat was not an offering to Azazel. Only the first goat was a sacrifice, and it went to Yahweh. The second goat was a way of sending sin back where it came from, out of God's camp and into the desert. Leviticus 17:7 bans sacrifices to goat demons in the very next chapter.

THE SCARLET THREAD

The Mishnah, Yoma 6:8, says a strip of red wool was tied in the temple, and when the goat reached the wilderness it turned white, a sign the sins were forgiven, Isaiah 1:18. The Talmud, Yoma 39b, says that for the last forty years before the temple was destroyed in AD 70 it never turned white. Many Christians note that is about when Jesus died. It is a rabbinic tradition, not Scripture.

HOW CHRISTIANS READ IT

The Epistle of Barnabas, about AD 130, said the goat that was sent away pictures Jesus, who carried our sins. Many Christians see both goats as Jesus: the one who died for sin and the one who carried it away. Yahweh laid on Him the iniquity of us all, Isaiah 53:6. Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world, John 1:29.

WHAT HEBREWS SAYS

Hebrews says the high priest went into the Most Holy Place once a year, never without blood, but Jesus went in once for all with His own blood and got eternal redemption, Hebrews 9:7 and 9:11 to 12. The yearly goats could never take away sins for good, 10:4. Jesus did it one time, 9:28.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Whatever Azazel means, the picture is clear: sin is carried far away and does not come back. As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us, Psalm 103:12. Jews still keep this day as Yom Kippur.

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

All sacrifices must be brought to the tent, not offered out in the fields to goat demons. And do not eat blood, for the life of the flesh is in the blood, and God gave it to make atonement. That one verse explains why so much of the Bible talks about blood.

THE PLACE OF SACRIFICE

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Speak to Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites and tell them this is what Yahweh has commanded: 3 'Anyone from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox, a lamb, or a goat in the camp or outside of it 4 instead of bringing it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to present it as an offering to Yahweh before His tabernacle—that man shall incur bloodguilt. He has shed blood and must be cut off from among his people.

5 For this reason the Israelites will bring to Yahweh the sacrifices they have been offering in the open fields. They are to bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and offer them as sacrifices of peace offerings to Yahweh. 6 The priest will then splatter the blood on the altar of Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat as a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

7 They must no longer offer their sacrifices to the goat demons to which they have prostituted themselves. This will be a permanent statute for them for the generations to come.'

8 Tell them that if anyone from the house of Israel or any foreigner living among them offers a burnt offering or a sacrifice 9 but does not bring it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to sacrifice it to Yahweh, that man must be cut off from his people.

LAWS AGAINST EATING BLOOD

10 If anyone from the house of Israel or a foreigner living among them eats any blood, I will set My face against that person and cut him off from among his people. 11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you to make atonement for your souls upon the altar; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul. 12 Therefore I say to the Israelites, 'None of you may eat blood, nor may any foreigner living among you eat blood.'

13 And if any Israelite or foreigner living among them hunts down a wild animal or bird that may be eaten, he must drain its blood and cover it with dirt. 14 For the life of all flesh is its blood. Therefore I have told the Israelites, 'You must not eat the blood of any living thing, because the life of all flesh is its blood; whoever eats it must be cut off.'

15 And any person, whether native or foreigner, who eats anything found dead or mauled by wild beasts must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until evening; then he will be clean. 16 But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe himself, then he shall bear his iniquity."

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Israel not to live like Egypt behind them or Canaan in front of them. Then comes a long list of forbidden sexual relationships, a rule against giving children to Molech, and a warning. The land vomited out the people before you, and it will do the same to you if you act like them.

UNLAWFUL SEXUAL RELATIONS // MATTHEW 5:27–30

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: I am Yahweh your God. 3 You must not follow the practices of the land of Egypt, where you used to live, and you must not follow the practices of the land of Canaan, into which I am bringing you. You must not walk in their customs.

4 You are to practice My judgments and keep My statutes by walking in them. I am Yahweh your God. 5 Keep My statutes and My judgments, for the man who does these things will live by them. I am Yahweh.

6 None of you are to approach any close relative to have sexual relations. I am Yahweh.

7 You must not expose the nakedness of your father by having sexual relations with your mother. She is your mother; you must not have sexual relations with her.

8 You must not have sexual relations with your father's wife; it would dishonor your father.

9 You must not have sexual relations with your sister, either your father's daughter or your mother's daughter, whether she was born in the same home or elsewhere.

10 You must not have sexual relations with your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, for that would shame your family.

11 You must not have sexual relations with the daughter of your father's wife, born to your father; she is your sister.

12 You must not have sexual relations with your father's sister; she is your father's close relative.

13 You must not have sexual relations with your mother's sister, for she is your mother's close relative.

14 You must not dishonor your father's brother by approaching his wife to have sexual relations with her; she is your aunt.

DEBATED FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: HIGH FOR THE SITE, DEBATED FOR HOW MANY WERE SACRIFICES

THE TOPHET OF CARTHAGE

LEVITICUS 18:21 · LEVITICUS 20:2 TO 5 · 2 KINGS 23:10 · JEREMIAH 7:31

Ancient stone markers still standing in the Tophet at Carthage, Tunisia. Photo BishkekRocks, public domain.

WHAT IT IS
A sacred burial ground at Carthage, a city in North Africa founded by Phoenicians from Tyre, the same people as the Canaanites up the coast from Israel. It holds about 20,000 clay jars with the burned bones of babies and young animals, under stone markers to the gods Baal Hammon and Tanit. Scholars call it a tophet, the Bible's own name for the place of child sacrifice outside Jerusalem, 2 Kings 23:10 and Jeremiah 7:31.

HOW OLD IT IS
It was used from about 750 BC until Rome destroyed Carthage in 146 BC, about 600 years.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
In 1921 a carved stone turned up in an illegal dig. Francois Icard and Paul Gielly bought it and started digging the site. Later teams dug there in the 1920s, the 1940s and the 1970s, when Lawrence Stager led an American dig.

WHAT ANCIENT WRITERS SAID
Greek and Roman writers said Carthage burned children to its gods. Diodorus of Sicily says that in a crisis in 310 BC the city sacrificed 200 children of noble families. Plutarch and the Christian writer Tertullian describe it too.

WHERE IT IS TODAY
The site is in the Salammbo area of Tunis, Tunisia. Many markers and jars are in the Carthage National Museum and the Bardo Museum in Tunis, the Louvre in Paris and the British Museum in London.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS
Burning children to the gods was not a made up charge. Most scholars think the Canaanite world really did it, which is why God banned it in Leviticus 18:21 and 20:2 to 5. In 1935 Otto Eissfeldt argued that molk, a word on some Punic markers, was the name of this kind of sacrifice, and that the Bible's Molech is the same word.

THE BIG DEBATE
Were all of these children sacrificed? In 2010 Jeffrey Schwartz and his team studied the bones and argued that many babies died before or at birth and were buried there, not killed. Patricia Smith and her team answered in 2011 and 2013 that the ages point to sacrifice. Most scholars today think child sacrifice did happen there, but the debate goes on.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Carthage is not in the Bible, and its tophet is centuries after Moses and far from Canaan. It shows the custom among the same Phoenician people, not what happened in Israel.

22 You must not lie with a man as with a woman; that is an abomination.
23 You must not lie carnally with any animal, thus defiling yourself with it; a woman must not stand before an animal to mate with it; that is a perversion.
24 Do not defile yourselves by any of these practices, for by all these things the nations I am driving out before you have defiled themselves. 25 Even the land has become defiled, so I am punishing it for its sin, and the land will vomit out its inhabitants.
26 But you are to keep My statutes and ordinances, and you must not commit any of these abominations—neither your native-born nor the foreigner who lives among
you. 27 For the men who were in the land
before you committed all these abominations, and the land has become defiled. 28
So if you defile the land, it will vomit you out as it spewed out the nations before
you.
29 Therefore anyone who commits any of these abominations must be cut off from among his people. 30 You must keep My charge not to practice any of the abominable customs that were practiced before you, so that you do not defile yourselves
by them. I am Yahweh your God."

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Be holy, because I am holy, and here is what holy looks like on a Tuesday. Leave the edges of your field for the poor. Pay your workers the same day. Do not trip the blind. Stand up for the elderly. Use honest scales. Love the foreigner as yourself. And right in the middle: love your neighbor as yourself.

COMMANDMENTS FOR HOLINESS

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 *"Speak to the whole congregation of Israel and tell them:
Be holy because I, Yahweh your God, am holy.*
3 Each of you must respect his mother and father, and you must keep My Sabbaths. I am Yahweh your God.
4 Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves molten gods. I am Yahweh your God.
5 When you sacrifice a peace offering to Yahweh, you shall offer it for your acceptance. 6 It shall be eaten on the day you sacrifice it, or on the next day; but what remains on the third day must be burned
up. 7 If any of it is eaten on the third day, it is tainted and will not be accepted. 8 Whoever eats it will bear his iniquity, for he has profaned what is holy to Yahweh.
That person must be cut off from his people.

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR // ROMANS 13:8–10

9 When you reap the harvest of your land, you are not to reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. 10 You must not strip your vine-

Leave them for the poor and the foreigner.
I am Yahweh your God.
11 You must not steal. You must not lie or deceive one another.
12 *You must not swear falsely by My name and so profane the name of your God. I am Yahrob him.

You must not withhold until morning the wages due a hired hand.

14 You must not curse the deaf or place a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God. I am Yahweh.

15 You must not pervert justice; you must not show partiality to the poor or favoritism to the rich; you are to judge your neighbor fairly.

16 You must not go about spreading slander among your people.

You must not endanger the life of your neighbor. I am Yahweh.

17 You must not harbor hatred against your brother in your heart. Directly rebuke your neighbor, so that you will not incur guilt on account of him. 18 Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against any of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am Yahweh.

KEEP MY STATUTES

19 You are to keep My statutes. You shall not crossbreed two different kinds of livestock; you shall not sow your fields with two kinds of seed; and you shall not wear clothing made of two kinds of material.

20 If a man lies carnally with a slave girl promised to another man but who has not been redeemed or given her freedom, there must be due punishment. But they are not to be put to death, because she had not been freed. 21 The man, however, must bring a ram to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting as his guilt offering to Yahweh. 22 The priest shall make atonement on his behalf before Yahweh with the ram of the guilt offering for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven the sin he has committed.

23 When you enter the land and plant any kind of tree for food, you shall regard the fruit as forbidden. For three years it will be forbidden to you and must not be eaten. 24 In the fourth year all its fruit must be consecrated as a praise offering to Yahweh. 25 But in the fifth year you may eat its fruit; thus your harvest will be increased. I am Yahweh your God.

26 You must not eat anything with blood still in it.

You must not practice divination or sorcery.

27 You must not cut off the hair at the sides of your head or clip off the edges of your beard.

28 You must not make any cuts in your bodies for the dead or put tattoo marks on yourselves. I am Yahweh.

29 You must not defile your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will be prostituted and filled with depravity.

30 You must keep My Sabbaths and have reverence for My sanctuary. I am Yahweh.

31 You must not turn to mediums or spiritists; do not seek them out, or you will be defiled by them. I am Yahweh your God.

32 You are to rise in the presence of the elderly, honor the aged, and fear your God. I am Yahweh.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DO CHRISTIANS HAVE TO KEEP THE LAW?

Three Kinds of Law?

MATTHEW 5:17 TO 19 · ACTS 15 · ROMANS 6:14 · GALATIANS 3:24 TO 25

THE PROBLEM

Leviticus says love your neighbor, 19:18, and in the very next verse says do not wear clothing woven of two kinds of material, 19:19. Christians keep the first and ignore the second. Is that fair? Jesus said He did not come to abolish the Law but to fulfill it, Matthew 5:17. Paul said we are not under law but under grace, Romans 6:14.

THE EARLY CHURCH

The first big church fight was about this. Some said Gentile believers had to be circumcised and keep the Law of Moses. The council in Jerusalem said no, and asked only that they avoid food offered to idols, blood, strangled animals and sexual immorality, Acts 15:1 to 29. Paul said the Law was a guardian until Christ came, Galatians 3:24 to 25.

THE THREE KINDS VIEW

Thomas Aquinas, about 1270, taught clearly that the Old Testament law has three kinds, building on older Christian ideas: moral laws like do not steal, ceremonial laws like sacrifices and clean food, and civil laws for running the nation, Summa Theologiae I II question 99. John Calvin taught the same in his Institutes, 4.20.14 to 16, and so does the Westminster Confession of 1646, chapter 19. The moral law still applies, the ceremonial law was fulfilled in Jesus, and the civil law ended with Israel's nation.

THE PUSHBACK

Leviticus itself never sorts its laws into three kinds. Love your neighbor and do not mix fabrics sit side by side. Critics say the split is a helpful tool but not something the Bible spells out.

Moses, Luther and the Hebrew Roots

JEREMIAH 31:31 TO 33 · ROMANS 10:4 · ROMANS 13:8 TO 10 · HEBREWS 8:13

LUTHER

In a 1525 sermon, How Christians Should Regard Moses, Martin Luther said the Law of Moses was given to the Jews, not to us. Christians keep the parts that match the law of nature written on every heart, like the Ten Commandments, and read the rest for its promises of Christ and its good examples. Lutherans stress Law and Gospel: the Law shows our sin, and the Gospel saves.

THE NEW COVENANT VIEW

Many Baptists and others say the whole Law of Moses ended as a code when Christ came, Romans 10:4 and Hebrews 8:13. Christians now live under the law of Christ, 1 Corinthians 9:21, and the old laws apply only as the New Testament repeats them. Nine of the Ten Commandments are repeated, but not the Sabbath. See Saturday or Sunday? in Acts on p.1782.

KEEP IT ALL

Rousas Rushdoony's Institutes of Biblical Law, 1973, argued that nations should still follow Moses' civil laws, a view called theonomy. Many Messianic Jews, organized in America since 1915, keep the Law as Jews who follow Jesus, not as a rule for Gentiles. The Hebrew Roots movement, growing since the 1980s and 1990s, teaches that Gentile Christians should keep the Sabbath, the feasts and the food laws too.

THE NEW COVENANT PROMISE

God promised a new covenant: I will put My law in their minds and write it on their hearts, Jeremiah 31:33. Christians of many views agree the Holy Spirit now does from the inside what the Law could only command from the outside, Romans 8:3 to 4.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Nobody is saved by keeping the Law, Galatians 2:16. And love sums it all up: Love your neighbor as yourself, straight from Leviticus 19:18, is the fulfillment of the Law, Romans 13:8 to 10.

The penalties for the worst sins in chapter 18. Giving a child to Molech means death. God will cut off anyone who turns to mediums, and a medium or spiritist must be put to death. God says He will set His face against anyone who does it and against anyone who looks the other way. Be holy, because I set you apart to be My own.

PUNISHMENTS FOR DISOBEDIENCE // LEVITICUS 26:14–39; DEUTERONOMY 28:15–68

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Tell the Israelites, 'Any Israelite or foreigner living in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech must be put to death. The people of the land are to stone him. 3 And I will set My face against that man and cut him off from his people, because by giving his offspring to Molech, he has defiled My sanctuary and profaned My holy name.

4 And if the people of the land ever hide their eyes and fail to put to death the man who gives one of his children to Molech, 5 then I will set My face against that man and his family and cut off from among their people both him and all who follow him in prostituting themselves with Molech.

6 Whoever turns to mediums or spiritists to prostitute himself with them, I will also set My face against that person and cut him off from his people.

7 Consecrate yourselves, therefore, and be holy, because I am Yahweh your God. 8 And you shall keep My statutes and practice them. I am Yahweh who sanctifies you.

10 If a man commits adultery with another man's wife—with the wife of his neighbor—both the adulterer and the adulteress must surely be put to death.

11 If a man lies with his father's wife, he has uncovered his father's nakedness. Both must surely be put to death; their blood is upon them.

12 If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both must surely be put to death. They have acted perversely; their blood is upon them.

13 If a man lies with a man as with a woman, they have both committed an abomination. They must surely be put to death; their blood is upon them.

14 If a man marries both a woman and her mother, it is depraved. Both he and they must be burned in the fire, so that there will be no depravity among you.

15 If a man lies carnally with an animal, he must be put to death. And you are also to kill the animal.

16 If a woman approaches any animal to mate with it, you must kill both the woman and the animal. They must surely be put to death; their blood is upon them.

17 If a man marries his sister, whether the daughter of his father or of his mother, and they have sexual relations, it is a disgrace. They must be cut off in the sight of their people. He has uncovered the nakedness of his sister; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 If a man lies with a menstruating woman and has sexual relations with her, he has exposed the source of her flow, and she has uncovered the source of her blood.

- LEV 20:13 [ALLUDED TO] The New Testament refers to this → 1TI 1:10 p.1934
- LEV 20:13 [TEXT] Paul uses a rare Greek word, arsenokoitai, in 1 Corinthians 6:9 and 1 Timothy 1:10. It joins the two Greek words used in this verse in the Greek Old Testament, male and bed, so most churches read those verses as Paul applying this law. Some scholars argue Paul's word meant only abusive or exploitative sex.

Both of them must be cut off from among their people.

19 You must not have sexual relations with the sister of your mother or your father, for it is exposing one's own kin; both shall bear their iniquity.

20 If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered the nakedness of his uncle. They will bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 If a man marries his brother's wife, it is an act of impurity. He has uncovered the nakedness of his brother; they shall be childless.

DISTINGUISH BETWEEN CLEAN AND UNCLEAN

22 You are therefore to keep all My statutes and ordinances, so that the land where I am bringing you to live will not vomit you out. 23 You must not follow the statutes of the nations I am driving out before you. Because they did all these things, I abhorred them.

24 But I have told you that you will inherit their land, since I will give it to you as an inheritance—a land flowing with milk and honey. I am Yahweh your God, who has set you apart from the peoples.

25 You are therefore to distinguish between clean and unclean animals and birds. Do not become contaminated by any animal or bird, or by anything that crawls on the ground; I have set these apart as unclean for you. 26 You are to be holy to Me because I, Yahweh, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be My own.

27 A man or a woman who is a medium or spiritist must surely be put to death. They shall be stoned; their blood is upon them.'"

21

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

Rules for priests. They cannot shave their heads or cut themselves in mourning like the neighbors did. The high priest must marry an Israelite virgin and cannot even go near a dead body, not even his own parents. The closer you serve, the higher the bar.

HOLINESS REQUIRED OF PRIESTS

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Speak to Aaron's sons, the priests, and tell them that a priest is not to defile himself for a dead person among his people, 2 except for his immediate family—his mother, father, son, daughter, or brother, 3 or his unmarried sister who is near to him, since she has no husband. 4 He is not to defile himself for those related to him by marriage, and so profane himself.

5 Priests must not make bald spots on their heads, shave off the edges of their beards, or make cuts in their bodies. 6 They must be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God. Because they present to Yahweh the food offerings, the food of their God, they must be holy.

7 A priest must not marry a woman defiled by prostitution or divorced by her husband, for the priest is holy to his God. 8 You are to regard him as holy, since he presents the food of your God. He shall be holy to you, because I Yahweh am holy—I who set you apart. 9 If a priest's daughter defiles herself by prostituting herself, she profanes her father; she must be burned in the fire.

10 The priest who is highest among his brothers, who has had the anointing oil poured on his head and has been ordained to wear the priestly garments, must not let his hair hang loose or tear his garments. 11 He must not go near any dead body; he must not defile himself, even for his father or mother. 12 He must not leave or desecrate the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him. I am Yahweh.

LEV 20:27 [DEMONIC] Mediums and familiar spirits — death penalty under the Law

GOD SPEAKING

13 The woman he marries must be a virgin.
14 He is not to marry a widow, a divorced woman, or one defiled by prostitution. He is to marry a virgin from his own people, 15
so that he does not defile his offspring among his people, for I am Yahweh who sanctifies him."

RESTRICTIONS AGAINST THOSE WITH BLEMISHES

16 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 17 "Say to Aaron, 'For the generations to come, none of your descendants who has a physical defect may approach to offer the food of his God.
18 No man who has any defect may approach—no man who is blind, lame, disfigured, or deformed; 19 no man who has a broken foot or hand, 20 or who is a hunchback or dwarf, or who has an eye defect, a festering rash, scabs, or a crushed testicle.
21 No descendant of Aaron the priest who has a defect shall approach to present the food offerings to Yahweh. Since he has a defect, he is not to come near to offer the food of his God. 22 He may eat the most holy food of his God as well as the holy food, 23 but because he has a defect, he must not go near the veil or approach the altar, so as not to desecrate My sanctuaries. For I am Yahweh who sanctifies
them.'"
24 Moses told this to Aaron and his sons
and to all the Israelites.

22

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS

The holy food belongs to the priests and their households, not to visitors or hired workers. Any animal given to God must have no defect. You cannot hand God the blind, the lame or the sick ones you were going to get rid of anyway. God gets your best, not your leftovers.

RESTRICTIONS AGAINST THE UNCLEAN

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Tell Aaron and his sons to treat with respect the sacred offerings that the Israelites have consecrated to Me, so that they do not profane My holy name. I am Yahweh.
3 Tell them that for the generations to come, if any of their descendants in a state of uncleanness approaches the sacred offerings that the Israelites consecrate to Yahweh, that person must be cut off from My presence. I am Yahweh.
4 If a descendant of Aaron has a skin disease or a discharge, he may not eat the sacred offerings until he is clean. Whoever touches anything defiled by a corpse or by a man who has an emission of semen, 5 or whoever touches a crawling creature or a person that makes him unclean, whatever the uncleanness may be— 6 the man who touches any of these will remain unclean until evening. He must not eat from the sacred offerings unless he has bathed himself with water.
7 When the sun has set, he will become clean, and then he may eat from the sacred offerings, for they are his food. 8 He must not eat anything found dead or torn by wild animals, which would make him unclean. I am Yahweh. 9 The priests must keep My charge, lest they bear the guilt and die because they profane it. I am Yahweh who sanctifies them.
10 No one outside a priest's family may eat
the sacred offering, nor may the guest of a priest or his hired hand eat it. 11 But if a priest buys a slave with his own money, or if a slave is born in his household, that slave may eat his food.
12 If the priest's daughter is married to a man other than a priest, she is not to eat of the sacred contributions. 13 But if a priest's daughter with no children becomes widowed or divorced and returns to her father's house, she may share her father's food as in her youth. But no outsider may share it.
14 If anyone eats a sacred offering in error,
he must add a fifth to its value and give the sacred offering to the priest. 15 The priests must not profane the sacred offerings that the Israelites present to Yahweh 16 by allowing the people to eat the sacred offerings and thus to bear the punishment for guilt. For I am Yahweh who sanctifies
them."

WORTHY OFFERINGS

17 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 18 "Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the Israelites and tell them, 'Any man of the house of Israel or any foreign resident who presents
a gift for a burnt offering to Yahweh, whether to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering, 19 must offer an unblemished male from the cattle, sheep, or goats in order for it to be accepted on your behalf. 20 You must not present anything with a defect, because it will not be accepted on your behalf.

21 When a man presents a peace offering to Yahweh from the herd or flock to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering, it must be without blemish or defect to be acceptable. 22 You are not to present to Yahweh any animal that is blind, injured, or maimed, or anything with a running sore,
a festering rash, or a scab; you must not put any of these on the altar as a food offering to Yahweh.

23 You may present as a freewill offering an ox or sheep that has a deformed or stunted limb, but it is not acceptable in fulfillment of a vow. 24 You are not to present to Yahweh an animal whose testicles are bruised, crushed, torn, or cut; you are not to sacrifice them in your land. 25 Neither you nor a foreigner shall present food to your God from any such animal. They will not be accepted on your behalf, because they are deformed and flawed.'"

26 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 27 "When an ox, a sheep, or a goat is born, it must remain with its mother for seven days.
From the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as a food offering presented to Yahweh. 28 But you must not slaughter an ox
or a sheep on the same day as its young.

29 When you sacrifice a thank offering to Yahweh, offer it so that it may be acceptable on your behalf. 30 It must be eaten that same day. Do not leave any of it until morning. I am Yahweh.

31 You are to keep My commandments and practice them. I am Yahweh. 32 You must not profane My holy name. I must be acknowledged as holy among the Israelites.
I am Yahweh who sanctifies you, 33 who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am Yahweh."

23

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

God's calendar. The weekly Sabbath, then Passover, Unleavened Bread, the Firstfruits, the Feast of Weeks fifty days later, Trumpets, the Day of Atonement and the Feast of Booths, when everyone camps out in shelters for a week. Israel's year was one long reminder of what God had done.

FEASTS AND SABBATHS // EXODUS 23:14–19

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them, 'These are My appointed feasts, the feasts of Yahweh that you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies.

3 For six days work may be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, a day of sacred assembly. You must not do any work; wherever you live, it is a Sabbath to Yahweh.

PASSOVER AND THE FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD // EXODUS 12:14–28; NUMBERS 28:16–25; DEUTERONOMY 16:1–8

4 These are Yahweh's appointed feasts,
the sacred assemblies you are to proclaim at their appointed times. 5 The Passover to Yahweh begins at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month. 6 On the fifteenth day of the same month begins the Feast of Unleavened Bread to Yahweh.
For seven days you must eat unleavened bread. 7 On the first day you are to hold a sacred assembly; you are not to do any regular work. 8 For seven days you are to present a food offering to Yahweh. On the seventh day there shall be a sacred assembly; you must not do any regular work.'"

LEVITICUS 22:21 TO 27 · 23:22 TO 29 · 24:9 TO 14 · 25:28 TO 36 · 26:17 TO 26 · 27:11 TO 19

A close up of the Paleo Hebrew Leviticus Scroll, 11QpaleoLev a. Photo Shai Halevi, Israel Antiquities Authority, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A Dead Sea Scroll of Leviticus written in the old Hebrew alphabet, called Paleo Hebrew. It is the alphabet Israel used in the days of the kings. After the exile, the Jews slowly switched to the square letters still used today. Little dots separate the words.

HOW OLD IT IS

The scroll itself was copied long after the old alphabet went out of everyday use. Scholars who study the letters date it to about 100 BC, though some place it later, between about 30 BC and AD 68.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Bedouin of the Ta'amireh tribe found it in Cave 11 near Qumran in January 1956. David Noel Freedman and K. A. Mathews published the full scroll in 1985.

WHAT WAS INSIDE

One roll about 40 inches long and about 4 inches high, with seven columns, plus fifteen small pieces. The main columns hold parts of Leviticus 22 to 27, and the small pieces hold bits of earlier chapters, from chapter 4 to chapter 21.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Antiquities Authority in Jerusalem keeps it in its scroll lab.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Its words match the Hebrew text our Old Testament is translated from very closely, with only small spelling differences. Leviticus was being copied with great care about 1,000 years before the oldest complete Hebrew Bibles.

WHY THE OLD LETTERS?

Only a few Dead Sea Scrolls use the old alphabet, and nearly all of them are the five books of Moses or Job. Many scholars think the scribes used it to honor the books of Moses as the oldest and most sacred.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It is not the oldest copy of Leviticus. That is 4QExod Lev f from Cave 4, about 250 BC, which you can see on the Exodus title page, p.117.

THE FEAST OF FIRSTFRUITS

9 And Yahweh said to Moses, 10 "Speak to the Israelites and say, 'When you enter the land that I am giving you and you reap its harvest, you are to bring to the priest a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest. 11
And he shall wave the sheaf before Yahweh so that it may be accepted on your behalf; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath.

12 On the day you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a year-old lamb without blemish as a burnt offering to Yahweh, 13 along with its grain offering of four quarts of fine flour mixed with oil—a food offering to Yahweh, a pleasing aroma—and its drink offering of a quart of wine.

14 You must not eat any bread or roasted or new grain until the very day you have brought this offering to your God. This is to be a permanent statute for the generations to come, wherever you live.

THE FEAST OF WEEKS // ACTS 2:1–13

15 From the day after the Sabbath, the day
you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, you are to count off seven full weeks.
16 You shall count off fifty days until the day after the seventh Sabbath, and then present an offering of new grain to Yah-
weh.

17 Bring two loaves of bread from your dwellings as a wave offering, each made from four quarts of fine flour, baked with leaven, as the firstfruits to Yahweh.

18 Along with the bread you are to present
seven unblemished male lambs a year old,

one young bull, and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to Yahweh, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings—a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

19 You shall also prepare one male goat as a sin offering and two male lambs a year old as a peace offering. 20 The priest is to wave the lambs as a wave offering before Yahweh, together with the bread of the firstfruits. The bread and the two lambs shall be holy to Yahweh for the priest.

21 On that same day you are to proclaim a sacred assembly, and you must not do any regular work. This is to be a permanent statute wherever you live for the generations to come.

22 When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap all the way to the edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and the foreign resident. I am Yahweh your God.'"

THE FEAST OF TRUMPETS // NUMBERS 29:1–6

23 Yahweh also said to Moses, 24 "Speak to the Israelites and say, 'On the first day of the seventh month you are to have a day of rest, a sacred assembly announced by trumpet blasts. 25 You must not do any regular work, but you are to present a food offering to Yahweh.'"

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT // LEVITICUS 16:1–34; NUMBERS 29:7–11

26 Again Yahweh said to Moses, 27 "The tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. You shall hold a sacred assembly and humble yourselves, and present a food offering to Yahweh.

28 On this day you are not to do any work, for it is the Day of Atonement, when atonement is made for you before Yahweh your God. 29 If anyone does not humble himself on this day, he must be cut off from his people. 30 I will destroy from among his people anyone who does any work on this day.

31 You are not to do any work at all. This is a permanent statute for the generations to come, wherever you live. 32 It will be a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you shall humble yourselves. From the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening you are to keep your Sabbath."

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES // NEHEMIAH 8:13–18; ZECHARIAH 14:16–21

33 And Yahweh said to Moses, 34 "Speak to the Israelites and say, 'On the fifteenth day of the seventh month the Feast of Tabernacles to Yahweh begins, and it continues for seven days. 35 On the first day there shall be a sacred assembly. You must not do any regular work. 36 For seven days you are to present a food offering to Yahweh. On the eighth day you are to hold a sacred assembly and present a food offering to Yahweh. It is a solemn assembly; you must not do any regular work.

37 These are Yahweh's appointed feasts, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies for presenting food offerings to Yahweh—burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its designated day. 38 These offerings are in addition to the offerings for Yahweh's Sabbaths, and in addition to your gifts, to all your vow offerings, and to all the freewill offerings you give to Yahweh.

39 On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, after you have gathered the produce of the land, you are to celebrate a feast to Yahweh for seven days. There shall be complete rest on the first day and also on the eighth day.

40 On the first day you are to gather the fruit of majestic trees, the branches of palm trees, and the boughs of leafy trees and of willows of the brook. And you are to rejoice before Yahweh your God for seven days. 41 You are to celebrate this as a feast to Yahweh for seven days each year. This is a permanent statute for the generations to come; you are to celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 You are to dwell in booths for seven days. All the native-born of Israel must dwell in booths, 43 so that your descendants may know that I made the Israelites dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.'"

44 So Moses announced to the Israelites the appointed feasts of Yahweh.

24

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

Pure olive oil keeps the lamp burning, and twelve loaves sit on the gold table every Sabbath. Then a man in the camp curses the Name of God. They hold him until God answers, and the answer is death. Then comes the law of eye for eye, so payback could never be bigger than the damage.

THE OIL FOR THE LAMPS // EXODUS 27:20–21

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Command the Israelites to bring you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to keep the lamps burning continually.

3 Outside the veil of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, Aaron is to tend the lamps continually before Yahweh from evening until morning. This is to be a permanent statute for the generations to come. 4 He shall tend the lamps on the pure gold lampstand before Yahweh continually.

THE SHOWBREAD // EXODUS 25:23–30; EXODUS 37:10–16

5 You are also to take fine flour and bake twelve loaves, using four quarts for each loaf, 6 and set them in two rows—six per row—on the table of pure gold before Yahweh. 7 And you are to place pure frankincense near each row, so that it may serve as a memorial portion for the bread, a food offering to Yahweh.

8 Every Sabbath day the bread is to be set out before Yahweh on behalf of the Israelites as a permanent covenant. 9 It belongs to Aaron and his sons, who are to eat it in a holy place; for it is to him a most holy part of the food offerings to Yahweh—his portion forever."

PUNISHMENT FOR BLASPHEMY

10 Now the son of an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father went out among the Israelites, and a fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite. 11 The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name with a curse. So they brought him to Moses. (His mother's name was Shelomith daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

12 They placed him in custody until the will of Yahweh should be made clear to them.

13 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 14 "Take the blasphemer outside the camp, and have all who heard him lay their hands on his head; then have the whole assembly stone him.

15 And you are to tell the Israelites, 'If anyone curses his God, he shall bear the consequences of his sin. 16 Whoever blasphemes the name of Yahweh must surely be put to death; the whole assembly must surely stone him, whether he is a foreign resident or native; if he blasphemes the Name, he must be put to death.

AN EYE FOR AN EYE // MATTHEW 5:38–48

17 And if a man takes the life of anyone else, he must surely be put to death. 18 Whoever kills an animal must make restitution—life for life. 19 If anyone injures his neighbor, whatever he has done must be done to him: 20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. Just as he injured the other person, the same must be inflicted on him.

21 Whoever kills an animal must make restitution, but whoever kills a man must be put to death. 22 You are to have the same standard of law for the foreign resident and the native; for I am Yahweh your God.'"

23 Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. So the Israelites did as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS

Every seventh year the land gets a Sabbath rest. Every fiftieth year is the Jubilee: land goes back to the family that first owned it, and Israelites who had to sell themselves go free. God says the land is Mine, and you are only guests. And do not charge a poor brother interest.

THE SEVENTH YEAR // EXODUS 23:10–13; DEUTERONOMY 15:1–6

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses on Mount Sinai, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you, the land itself must observe a Sabbath to Yahweh.

3 For six years you may sow your field and prune your vineyard and gather its crops.
4 But in the seventh year there shall be a Sabbath of complete rest for the land—a Sabbath to Yahweh.

You are not to sow your field or prune your vineyard. 5 You are not to reap the af-tergrowth of your harvest or gather the grapes of your untended vines. The land must have a year of complete rest. 6
Whatever the land yields during the Sabbath year shall be food for you—for yourself, your manservant and maidservant,
the hired hand or foreigner who stays with you, 7 and for your livestock and the wild animals in your land. All its growth may serve as food.

THE YEAR OF JUBILEE

8 And you shall count off seven Sabbaths of years—seven times seven years—so that the seven Sabbaths of years amount to forty-nine years. 9 Then you are to sound the horn far and wide on the tenth day of the seventh month, the Day of Atonement. You shall sound it throughout your land.

10 So you are to consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty in the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be your Jubilee, when each of you is to return to his property and to his clan.

LEV 25:10 [FORESHADOW] The Jubilee proclaimed liberty to all the people → LK 4:18-19 · MEDIUM p.1654

LEV 25:10 [NOTE] The Liberty Bell in Philadelphia has this verse on it, in the King James words: Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.

11 The fiftieth year will be a Jubilee for you;
you are not to sow the land or reap its af-
tergrowth or harvest the untended vines.
12 For it is a Jubilee; it shall be holy to you.
You may eat only the crops taken directly from the field.

RETURN OF PROPERTY

13 In this Year of Jubilee, each of you shall return to his own property.

14 If you make a sale to your neighbor or a purchase from him, you must not take advantage of each other. 15 You are to buy from your neighbor according to the number of years since the last Jubilee; he is to sell to you according to the number of harvest years remaining. 16 You shall increase the price in proportion to a greater number of years, or decrease it in proportion to a lesser number of years; for he is selling you a given number of harvests.

17 Do not take advantage of each other,
but fear your God; for I am Yahweh your God.

THE BLESSING OF OBEDIENCE // DEUTERONOMY 28:1–14

18 You are to keep My statutes and carefully observe My judgments, so that you may dwell securely in the land. 19 Then the land will yield its fruit, so that you can eat
your fill and dwell in safety in the land.

20 Now you may wonder, 'What will we eat in the seventh year if we do not sow or gather our produce?' 21 But I will send My blessing upon you in the sixth year, so that the land will yield a crop sufficient for three years. 22 While you are sowing in the eighth year, you will be eating from the previous harvest, until the ninth year's harvest comes in.

THE LAW OF REDEMPTION

23 The land must not be sold permanently, because it is Mine, and you are but foreigners and residents with Me. 24 Thus for every piece of property you possess, you must provide for the redemption of the land.

25 If your brother becomes impoverished and sells some of his property, his nearest of kin may come and redeem what his brother has sold. 26 Or if a man has no one to redeem it for him, but he prospers and acquires enough to redeem his land, 27 he shall calculate the years since its sale, repay the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and return to his property. 28 But if he cannot obtain enough to repay him, what he sold will remain in possession of the buyer until the Year of Jubilee. In the Jubilee, however, it is to be released, so that he may return to his property.

GOD SPEAKING

29 If a man sells a house in a walled city,
he retains his right of redemption until a full year after its sale; during that year it may be redeemed. 30 If it is not redeemed by the end of a full year, then the house in the walled city is permanently transferred to its buyer and his descendants. It is not to be released in the Jubilee. 31 But houses in villages with no walls around them are to be considered as open fields. They may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee.

32 As for the cities of the Levites, the Levites always have the right to redeem
their houses in the cities they possess. 33
So whatever belongs to the Levites may be redeemed—a house sold in a city they possess—and must be released in the Jubilee, because the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the Israelites. 34 But the open pastureland around their cities may not be sold, for this is their permanent possession.

REDEMPTION OF THE POOR

35 Now if your countryman becomes destitute and cannot support himself among you, then you are to help him as you would a foreigner or stranger, so that he can continue to live among you. 36 Do not take any interest or profit from him, but fear your God, that your countryman may live among you. 37 You must not lend him
your silver at interest or sell him your food for profit. 38 I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

REDEMPTION OF BONDMEN

39 If a countryman among you becomes destitute and sells himself to you, then you must not force him into slave labor. 40 Let him stay with you as a hired worker or temporary resident; he is to work for you until the Year of Jubilee. 41 Then he and his children are to be released, and he may return to his clan and to the property of his fathers.

42 Because the Israelites are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt,
they are not to be sold as slaves. 43 You are not to rule over them harshly, but you shall fear your God.

44 Your menservants and maidservants shall come from the nations around you,
from whom you may purchase them. 45
You may also purchase them from the foreigners residing among you or their clans living among you who are born in your land. These may become your property.
46 You may leave them to your sons after you to inherit as property; you can make them slaves for life. But as for your brothers, the Israelites, no man may rule harshly over his brother.

REDEMPTION OF SERVANTS

47 If a foreigner residing among you prospers, but your countryman dwelling near him becomes destitute and sells himself to the foreigner or to a member of his clan, 48 he retains the right of redemption after he has sold himself. One of his brothers may redeem him: 49 either his uncle or cousin or any close relative from his clan may redeem him. Or if he prospers, he may redeem himself.

50 He and his purchaser will then count the time from the year he sold himself up to the Year of Jubilee. The price of his sale will be determined by the number of years, based on the daily wages of a hired hand. 51 If many years remain, he must pay for his redemption in proportion to his purchase price. 52 If only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, he is to calculate and pay his redemption according to his remaining years. 53 He shall be treated like a man hired from year to year,

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES DEMONIC OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

but a foreign owner must not rule over him harshly in your sight.

54 Even if he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he and his children shall be released in the Year of Jubilee. 55 For the Israelites are My servants. They are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.

CHAPTER 26 IN 30 SECONDS

Blessings if Israel obeys: rain, harvest, peace, and God walking among them. Warnings if they turn away, worse each time, ending in exile while the land enjoys the Sabbaths they never gave it. Even then God will remember His covenant.

ADDITIONAL BLESSINGS OF OBEDIENCE

1 "You must not make idols for yourselves or set up a carved image or sacred pillar; you must not place a sculpted stone in your land to bow down to it. For I am Yahweh your God.

2 You must keep My Sabbaths and have reverence for My sanctuary. I am Yahweh.

3 If you follow My statutes and carefully keep My commandments, 4 I will give you rains in their season, and the land will yield its produce, and the trees of the field will bear their fruit. 5 Your threshing will continue until the grape harvest, and the grape harvest will continue until sowing time; you will have your fill of food to eat and will dwell securely in your land.

6 And I will give peace to the land, and you will lie down with nothing to fear. I will rid the land of dangerous animals, and no sword will pass through your land. 7 You will pursue your enemies, and they will fall by the sword before you. 8 Five of you will pursue a hundred, and a hundred of you will pursue ten thousand, and your enemies will fall by the sword before you.

9 I will turn toward you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will establish My covenant with you. 10 You will still be eating the old supply of grain when you need to clear it out to make room for the new.

11 And I will make My dwelling place among you, and My soul will not despise you. 12 I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be My people. 13 I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt so that you would no longer be slaves to the Egyptians. I broke the bars of your yoke and enabled you to walk in uprightness.

14 If, however, you fail to obey Me and to carry out all these commandments, 15 and if you reject My statutes, despise My ordinances, and neglect to carry out all My commandments, and so break My covenant, 16 then this is what I will do to you: I will bring upon you sudden terror, wasting disease, and fever that will destroy your sight and drain your life. You will sow your seed in vain, because your enemies will eat it. 17 And I will set My face against you, so that you will be defeated by your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one pursues you.

18 And if after all this you will not obey Me, I will proceed to punish you sevenfold for your sins. 19 I will break down your stubborn pride and make your sky like iron and your land like bronze, 20 and your strength will be spent in vain. For your land will not yield its produce, and the trees of the land will not bear their fruit.

21 If you walk in hostility toward Me and refuse to obey Me, I will multiply your plagues seven times, according to your sins. 22 I will send wild animals against you to rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and reduce your numbers, until your roads lie desolate.

23 And if in spite of these things you do not accept My discipline, but continue to walk in hostility toward Me, 24 then I will act with hostility toward you, and I will strike you sevenfold for your sins. 25 And I will bring a sword against you to execute the vengeance of the covenant. Though you withdraw into your cities, I will send a plague among you, and you will be delivered into the hand of the enemy. 26 When I cut off your supply of bread, ten women will bake your bread in a single oven and dole out your bread by weight, so that you will eat but not be satisfied.

27 But if in spite of all this you do not obey Me, but continue to walk in hostility toward Me, 28 then I will walk in fury against you, and I, even I, will punish you sevenfold for your sins. 29 You will eat the flesh of your own sons and daughters. 30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and heap your lifeless bodies on the lifeless remains of your idols; and My soul will despise you.

31 I will reduce your cities to rubble and lay waste your sanctuaries, and I will refuse to smell the pleasing aroma of your sacrifices. 32 And I will lay waste the land, so that your enemies who dwell in it will be appalled. 33 But I will scatter you among the nations and will draw out a sword after you as your land becomes desolate and your cities are laid waste.

34 Then the land shall enjoy its Sabbaths all the days it lies desolate, while you are in the land of your enemies. At that time the land will rest and enjoy its Sabbaths. 35 As long as it lies desolate, the land will have the rest it did not receive during the Sabbaths when you lived in it.

36 As for those of you who survive, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, so that even the sound of a windblown leaf will put them to flight. And they will flee as one flees the sword, and fall when no one pursues them. 37 They will stumble over one another as before the sword, though no one is behind them. So you will not be able to stand against your enemies.

38 You will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will consume you. 39 Those of you who survive in the lands of your enemies will waste away in their iniquity and will decay in the sins of their fathers.

GOD REMEMBERS THOSE WHO REPENT

40 But if they will confess their iniquity and that of their fathers in the unfaithfulness that they practiced against Me, by which they have also walked in hostility toward Me— 41 and I acted with hostility toward them and brought them into the land of their enemies—and if their uncircumcised hearts will be humbled and they will make amends for their iniquity, 42 then I will remember My covenant with Jacob and My covenant with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

43 For the land will be abandoned by them, and it will enjoy its Sabbaths by lying desolate without them. And they will pay the penalty for their iniquity, because they rejected My ordinances and abhorred My statutes.

44 Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject or despise them so as to destroy them and break My covenant with them; for I am Yahweh their God. 45 But for their sake I will remember the covenant with their fathers, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am Yahweh."

46 These are the statutes, ordinances, and laws that Yahweh established between Himself and the Israelites through Moses on Mount Sinai.

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

Rules for vows. If you promised a person, an animal or a field to God, here is the price to buy it back. The book ends with the tithe: a tenth of everything is holy to Yahweh.

RULES ABOUT VALUATIONS

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them, 'When someone makes a special vow to Yahweh involving the value of persons, 3 if the valuation concerns a male from twenty to sixty years of age, then your valuation shall be 1¼ pounds of silver, weighed by the sanctuary standard. 4 Or if it is a female, then your valuation shall be 12 ounces of silver. 5 And if the person is from five to twenty years of age, then your valuation for the male shall be 8 ounces of silver, and for the female 4 ounces.

6 Now if the person is from one month to five years of age, then your valuation for the male shall be 2 ounces of silver, and for the female 1¼ ounces of silver. 7 And if the person is sixty years of age or older, then your valuation shall be 6 ounces of silver for the male and 4 ounces for the female. 8 But if the one making the vow is too poor to pay the valuation, he is to present the person before the priest, who shall set the value according to what the one making the vow can afford.

9 If he vows an animal that may be brought as an offering to Yahweh, any such animal given to Yahweh shall be holy. 10 He must not replace it or exchange it, either good for bad or bad for good. But if he does substitute one animal for another, both that animal and its substitute will be holy.

11 But if the vow involves any of the unclean animals that may not be brought as an offering to Yahweh, the animal must be presented before the priest. 12 The priest shall set its value, whether high or low; as the priest values it, the price will be set. 13
If, however, the owner decides to redeem
the animal, he must add a fifth to its value.

14 Now if a man consecrates his house as holy to Yahweh, then the priest shall value it either as good or bad. The price will stand just as the priest values it. 15 But if he who consecrated his house redeems it,
he must add a fifth to the assessed value,
and it will belong to him.

16 If a man consecrates to Yahweh a parcel of his land, then your valuation shall be proportional to the seed required for it—1¼ pounds of silver for every six bushels of barley seed. 17 If he consecrates his field during the Year of Jubilee,
the price will stand according to your valuation.

18 But if he consecrates his field after the Jubilee, the priest is to calculate the price in proportion to the years left until the next Year of Jubilee, so that your valuation will be reduced. 19 And if the one who consecrated the field decides to redeem
it, he must add a fifth to the assessed value, and it shall belong to him.

20 If, however, he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold it to another man, it may no longer be redeemed. 21 When the field is released in the Jubilee, it will become holy, like a field devoted to Yahweh;
it becomes the property of the priests.

22 Now if a man consecrates to Yahweh a field he has purchased, which is not a part of his own property, 23 then the priest shall calculate for him the value up to the Year of Jubilee, and the man shall pay the assessed value on that day as a sacred offering to Yahweh. 24 In the Year of Jubilee
the field shall return to the one from whom it was bought—the original owner of the land. 25 Every valuation will be weighed by the sanctuary standard.

26 But no one may consecrate a firstborn of the livestock, because a firstborn belongs to Yahweh. Whether it is an ox or a sheep, it is Yahweh's. 27 But if it is among the unclean animals, then he may redeem
it according to your valuation and add a fifth of its value. If it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

GOD SPEAKING

28 Nothing that a man sets apart to Yahweh from all he owns—whether a man, an animal, or his inherited land—can be sold or redeemed; everything so devoted is most holy to Yahweh.

29 No person set apart for destruction may be ransomed; he must surely be put to death.

INSTRUCTION ON TITHES // DEUTERONOMY 14:22–29; DEUTERONOMY 26:1–15; NEHEMIAH 13:10–14

30 Thus any tithe from the land, whether from the seed of the land or the fruit of the trees, belongs to Yahweh; it is holy to Yahweh. 31 If a man wishes to redeem part of his tithe, he must add a fifth to its value.

32 Every tenth animal from the herd or flock that passes under the shepherd's rod will be holy to Yahweh. 33 He must not inspect whether it is good or bad, and he shall not make any substitution. But if he does make a substitution, both the animal and its substitute shall become holy; they cannot be redeemed.'"

34 These are the commandments that Yahweh gave to Moses for the Israelites on Mount Sinai.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DOES THE TITHE STILL APPLY?

Ten Percent in the Bible

GENESIS 14:20 · LEVITICUS 27:30 TO 32 · NUMBERS 18:21 · DEUTERONOMY 14:22 TO 29 · MALACHI 3:8 TO 10

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

A tithe means a tenth. Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything, Genesis 14:20, and Jacob promised God a tenth, 28:22, both long before Moses. The Law says a tenth of the crops and every tenth animal is holy to Yahweh, Leviticus 27:30 to 32. The Levites had no land, so the tithe was their pay, Numbers 18:21.

HOW MANY TITHES?

Deuteronomy adds a tithe that families ate together at the festivals, 14:22 to 27, and a tithe every third year for the Levites, foreigners, orphans and widows, 14:28 to 29. Josephus and the book of Tobit describe more than one tithe, so some count the total as twenty percent or more, not ten. Others think the passages describe one tithe used in different ways.

THE MALACHI PROMISE

Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me in tithes and offerings, Malachi 3:8. Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, and see if I will not open the windows of heaven, 3:10. This is the verse most churches use to teach tithing. Others point out that Malachi was talking to Israel under the Law, and the storehouse was a room in the temple.

JESUS AND THE TITHE

Jesus told the Pharisees they tithed even their mint, dill and cumin but neglected justice, mercy and faithfulness. You should have practiced the latter, without neglecting the former, Matthew 23:23. The Pharisee in His story bragged that he tithed everything, Luke 18:12.

From the Church to the King

MATTHEW 23:23 · 1 CORINTHIANS 9:13 TO 14 · 1 CORINTHIANS 16:2 · 2 CORINTHIANS 9:6 TO 7 · HEBREWS 7:1 TO 10

THE EARLY CHURCH

No New Testament letter tells churches to tithe, though some point to Jesus' words in Matthew 23:23. The Didache, about AD 100, told Christians to give their firstfruits to the prophets. Over time churches asked for a tenth, and in AD 585 the Second Council of Macon ordered it under threat of being thrown out of the church. In 779 Charlemagne made the tithe the law of his empire. In England a tithe tax on land lasted until the Tithe Act of 1936, with its last payments ending in 1977.

VIEW 1: THE TITHE STILL APPLIES

Abraham tithed before the Law, Jesus said not to neglect it, Matthew 23:23, and Hebrews 7 points out that Abraham tithed to Melchizedek, a picture of Jesus. Malachi's promise still stands. Ten percent is the starting line, and offerings go beyond it.

VIEW 2: GRACE GIVING

The tithe was part of the Law that sup-

LEV 27:30 [NOTE] TITHING? See Does the Tithe Still Apply?

ported the Levites and the temple, and it ended with them. Christians give freely and generously: Each one should give what he has decided in his heart, not out of regret or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver, 2 Corinthians 9:7. Some will give less than ten percent, and many should give more.

VIEW 3: A GOOD GUIDE

Many teach that the tithe is not a command for Christians but a wise place to start, since God's people gave at least that much under the old covenant. Paul does say workers in the gospel should be paid, 1 Corinthians 9:13 to 14, and to set money aside every Sunday, 16:2.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Everything already belongs to God, Psalm 24:1. Giving is worship, not a tax. And it starts in the heart: where your treasure is, there your heart will be also, Matthew 6:21.

NUMBERS

Forty years of camping

AUTHOR	Moses, according to Jewish and Christian tradition. Numbers 33:2 says Moses wrote down the stages of the journey at Yahweh's command, and Jesus spoke of the books of Moses as his writings John 5:46 to 47. Many modern scholars think the book was put together from older sources and finished around 500 BC.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	From Mount Sinai to the plains of Moab across from Jericho, over almost forty years. It begins on the first day of the second month of the second year after Egypt 1:1, and the camp leaves Sinai on the twentieth day of that month 10:11.
DATE WRITTEN	Traditionally about 1440 to 1400 BC, near the end of the wilderness years. Those who date the Exodus later, in the 1200s BC, move that date down too.
WRITTEN TO	Israel, especially the new generation about to enter Canaan, so they would not repeat their parents' mistakes.
KEY VERSE	Numbers 14:18. Yahweh is slow to anger and abounding in loving devotion, forgiving iniquity and transgression.

NUMBERS IN THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS
These are pieces of 4QNum b, a scroll of Numbers from Cave 4 at Qumran, copied in the last century before Jesus, about 50 to 1 BC. It holds parts of Numbers 11 to 36, and a few passages are written in red ink. Some of its readings match the Samaritan Bible and the Greek Bible instead of the standard Hebrew text. About eleven copies of Numbers were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls. The oldest is 4QLev Num a, from about 150 to 75 BC. But the oldest Bible words of all come from Numbers 6:24 to 26, on two silver scrolls from about 600 BC. See the Ketef Hinnom page, p.234.

Historical Setting

Israel has spent about a year at Mount Sinai. They have the law, the tabernacle and the priests. Now it is time to march to the Promised Land, which should take a few weeks. It takes forty years. The English name Numbers comes from the Greek Bible, which called it Arithmoi, because of the two big headcounts in chapters 1 and 26. The Hebrew name is Bemidbar, which means in the wilderness, from the first verse. That name tells you where the whole book happens.

What Was Going Wrong

COMPLAINING. Three days after leaving Sinai, the people start complaining, and they keep it up for the rest of the book 11:1, 14:2, 16:41, 21:5.
UNBELIEF. Ten of the twelve spies said the giants in Canaan were too big, and the people believed them instead of God 13:31 to 14:4.
REBELLION. Korah and 250 leaders challenged Moses and Aaron, and even Miriam and Aaron criticized Moses 12:1 to 2, 16:1 to 3.
IDOLS AT PEOR. On the edge of the Promised Land, Israel worshiped Baal of Peor and slept with Moabite women, and 24,000 died in the plague, 25:1 to 9.
MOSES SLIPPED TOO. Even Moses lost his temper and struck the rock instead of speaking to it, and God said he would not lead Israel into the land 20:10 to 12.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Numbers is the story of the longest detour in history. Israel leaves Mount Sinai with everything they need: God's law, God's presence in a cloud, and a land waiting for them. Then they complain, doubt, rebel and refuse to go in. So God lets that whole generation die in the wilderness, all except Joshua and Caleb, and raises up their kids instead. But God never leaves. The cloud keeps leading, the manna keeps falling and the water keeps flowing. Even a hired seer cannot curse the people God has blessed. Numbers shows that people can be faithless, but God stays faithful.

Numbers at a Glance

CH 1 to 10	GETTING READY AT SINAI The census, the camp, the Levites, and the cloud that leads the way.
CH 11 to 12	TROUBLE ON THE ROAD Complaining, quail and a family fight.
CH 13 to 14	THE SPIES Ten say no, two say yes, and a generation is turned back.
CH 15 to 19	THE WILDERNESS YEARS Laws, Korah's rebellion and Aaron's budding staff.
CH 20 to 21	THE LAST LEG Water from the rock, the bronze snake and the first victories.
CH 22 to 25	BALAAM AND PEOR A hired curse turns into blessings, then Israel falls into sin.
CH 26 to 36	THE NEW GENERATION A second census, Joshua chosen, and getting ready to cross the Jordan.

Where Jesus Shows Up

NUMBERS 9:12 Do not break any of the Passover lamb's bones. Fulfilled when the soldiers did not break Jesus' legs, John 19:36.

NUMBERS 11:7 TO 9 Manna fell from heaven. Jesus is the true bread from heaven, John 6:31 to 35.

NUMBERS 19:2 TO 9 The red heifer died outside the camp, and its ashes made people clean. Christ's blood cleanses far more, and He suffered outside the gate, Hebrews 9:13 to 14.

NUMBERS 20:11 Water from the rock. Paul says that Rock was Christ, 1 Corinthians 10:4.

NUMBERS 21:8 TO 9 Anyone who looked at the bronze snake on the pole lived. So the Son of Man must be lifted up, John 3:14 to 15.

NUMBERS 24:17 A star will come out of Jacob. Justin Martyr and Origen linked it to the wise men's star, Matthew 2:2, and Jesus is the bright Morning Star, Revelation 22:16.

NUMBERS 27:17 Not like sheep without a shepherd. Jesus saw the crowds that way and had compassion, Matthew 9:36, and called Himself the Good Shepherd, John 10:11.

GOD'S NAMES IN NUMBERS

Moses calls on the God of the spirits of all flesh, who gives every person life 16:22, 27:16. Balaam calls Him Shaddai, the Almighty, and Elyon, the Most High 24:4, 24:16.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

JOSHUA HAS JESUS' NAME

In 13:16 Moses renames Hoshea as Joshua, Yehoshua, which means Yahweh saves. Jesus' Hebrew name Yeshua is a short form of it, and Greek spells both Iesous.

THE OLDEST BIBLE WORDS EVER FOUND

The priestly blessing in 6:24 to 26 is on two tiny silver scrolls from about 600 BC, the oldest known Bible words. Churches and synagogues still say it today.

A LOST BOOK

Numbers 21:14 quotes the Book of the Wars of Yahweh. Nobody has ever found a copy.

FIVE SISTERS WON THEIR CASE

Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah asked for their father's land, and God sided with them. Their case became law 27:1 to 11.

THE SNAKE ON A POLE

Moses' bronze snake was kept until King Hezekiah smashed it, 2 Kings 18:4. The snake on a staff on ambulances comes from Asclepius, a Greek healing god, not from Moses.

Did Anybody Listen?

The first generation did not. Except for Joshua and Caleb, they died in the wilderness, 26:64 to 65. But their children were counted, and the book ends with Israel across from Jericho, ready to go in.

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Moses to count every man twenty years old or older who can fight. Tribe by tribe the totals come in, and the grand total is 603,550. The Levites are not counted, because their job is the tent, not the army. Yes, the book starts with a census. Hang in there.

THE FIRST CENSUS OF ISRAEL // NUMBERS 26:1–4

1 On the first day of the second month of the second year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt, Yahweh spoke to Moses in the Tent of Meeting in the Wilderness of Sinai. He said: 2 "Take a census of the whole congregation of Israel by their clans and families, listing
every man by name, one by one.
3 You and Aaron are to number those who are twenty years of age or older by their divisions—everyone who can serve in Israel's army. 4 And one man from each tribe, the head of each family, must be there with you.

THE LEADERS OF THE TRIBES

5 These are the names of the men who are to assist you:
From the tribe of Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur;
6 from Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishad-dai;
7 from Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab
8 from Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar;
9 from Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon;
10 from the sons of Joseph:
from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammi-
hud,
and from Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;
11 from Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni;
12 from Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;
13 from Asher, Pagiel son of Ocran;
14 from Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel;
15 and from Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan." 16 These men were appointed from the congregation; they were the leaders of the tribes of their fathers, the heads of the clans of Israel.

THE NUMBER OF EVERY TRIBE

17 So Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by name, 18 and on the first day of the second month they assembled the whole congregation and recorded their ancestry by clans and families, counting one by one the names of those twenty years of age or older, 19 just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.
So Moses numbered them in the Wilderness of Sinai:
20 From the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, according to the records of their clans and families, counting one by one the names of every male twenty years of age or older who could serve in the army, 21 those registered to the tribe of Reuben
numbered 46,500.
22 From the sons of Simeon, according to
the records of their clans and families, counting one by one the names of every male twenty years of age or older who could serve in the army, 23
those registered to the tribe of Simeon
numbered 59,300.
24 From the sons of Gad, according to the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty
years of age or older who could serve
in the army, 25 those registered to the tribe of Gad numbered 45,650.
26 From the sons of Judah, according to
the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty
years of age or older who could serve
in the army, 27 those registered to the tribe of Judah numbered 74,600.
28 From the sons of Issachar, according to
the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty
years of age or older who could serve
in the army, 29 those registered to the tribe of Issachar numbered 54,400.
30 From the sons of Zebulun, according to
the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty
years of age or older who could serve
in the army, 31 those registered to the tribe of Zebulun numbered 57,400.
32 From the sons of Joseph:

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING

From the sons of Ephraim, according to the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty years of age or older who could serve in the army, 33 those registered to the tribe of Ephraim numbered 40,500.

34 And from the sons of Manasseh, according to the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty years of age or older who could serve in the army, 35 those registered to the tribe of Manasseh numbered 32,200.

36 From the sons of Benjamin, according to the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty years of age or older who could serve in the army, 37 those registered to the tribe of Benjamin numbered 35,400.

38 From the sons of Dan, according to the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty years of age or older who could serve in the army, 39 those registered to the tribe of Dan numbered 62,700.

40 From the sons of Asher, according to the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty years of age or older who could serve in the army, 41 those registered to the tribe of Asher numbered 41,500.

42 From the sons of Naphtali, according to the records of their clans and families, counting the names of all those twenty years of age or older who could serve in the army, 43 those registered to the tribe of Naphtali numbered 53,400.

44 These were the men numbered by Moses and Aaron, with the assistance of the twelve leaders of Israel, each one representing his family. 45 So all the Israelites twenty years of age or older who could serve in Israel's army were counted according to their families. 46 And all those counted totaled 603,550.

NUM 1:33 [FULFILLS] Jacob said Ephraim the younger would be greater than Manasseh ← GEN 48:19 p.113

NUM 1:46 [NOTE] HOW MANY? Many read 603,550 fighting men as two million people or more. Not everyone reads the number that way. See the Big Question pages How Many Left Egypt?, p.225

THE EXEMPTION OF THE LEVITES

47 The Levites, however, were not numbered along with them by the tribe of their fathers. 48 For Yahweh had said to Moses:
49 "Do not number the tribe of Levi in the census with the other Israelites. 50 Instead, you are to appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the Testimony, all its furnishings, and everything in it. They shall carry the tabernacle and all its articles, care for it, and camp around it.
51 Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the Levites are to take it down, and whenever it is to be pitched, the Levites are to set it up. Any outsider who goes near it must be put to death.
52 The Israelites are to camp by their divisions, each man in his own camp and under his own standard. 53 But the Levites are to camp around the tabernacle of the Testimony and watch over it, so that no wrath will fall on the congregation of Israel. So the Levites are responsible for the tabernacle of the Testimony."
54 Thus the Israelites did everything just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

HOW MANY LEFT EGYPT?

Two Million, or Fewer?

NUMBERS 1:46 · 26:51 · EXODUS 12:37 · 38:26

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Exodus 12:37 says about 600,000 men on foot left Egypt, besides women and children. Numbers 1:46 counts 603,550 fighting men, and Exodus 38:26 gives the same number for the men who paid the silver tax. Forty years later the count is 601,730, Numbers 26:51. Add women, children, the elderly and the Levites, and you get two million people or more.

THE LITERAL VIEW

Many Christians and Jews read the numbers just as they are. God promised to make Abraham's family as many as the stars, and Exodus 1:7 says Israel multiplied greatly in Egypt. Feeding two million people in a desert would be impossible, but the Bible says God did it with manna and water from the rock.

GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Some rabbis even taught that Israelite mothers had six babies at a time.

THE CLAN VIEW

The Hebrew word for thousand, elef, can also mean a clan or a military unit. In 1906 Flinders Petrie suggested reading the numbers as units plus men. George Mendenhall in 1958 and Colin Humphreys in 1998 built on that idea. On Humphreys' reading, 603,550 becomes 598 units and 5,550 men, and the whole nation is closer to 20,000 people. Defenders of this view note that Deuteronomy 7:7 calls Israel the fewest of all peoples.

PROBLEMS WITH THE CLAN VIEW

The totals in Numbers add up as thousands, not as units, and Exodus 38:26 counts the silver paid by 603,550 men. Critics say the clan math runs into trouble in several tribes. And no Hebrew copy of Numbers reads the numbers any other way.

The Hard Questions

NUMBERS 3:43 · DEUTERONOMY 7:7 · PSALM 105:37

THE HARD VERSES

Numbers 3:43 counts 22,273 firstborn sons. With 603,550 men, that would mean each mother had dozens of sons. Experts also guess that all of Egypt had only about three or four million people at the time. Defenders of the literal view answer that God multiplied Israel in a supernatural way, and that the firstborn count may have been only those born after the Exodus.

THE LATER CENSUS VIEW

Some scholars, like William Albright, thought the lists came from a later census, maybe in King David's day, and were placed back in the wilderness story. Others say the numbers grew over time as the story was told. Nobody has found a copy of Numbers with smaller numbers.

THE SYMBOL VIEW

Some say the big numbers were never meant as a headcount. They show how great and strong God made His people. A few people have tried to find secret codes in the numbers, but none of these ideas has won over most scholars.

WHAT JOSEPHUS SAID

The Jewish historian Josephus, writing about AD 93, also said 600,000 men of fighting age left Egypt. He read the numbers as real numbers, just as most readers did for centuries.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The Hebrew copies say 603,550. The word elef can mean thousand, and sometimes clan. The big number fits God's promise to Abraham, and the small number fits Deuteronomy 7:7. Either way, the point of Numbers is the same: God led His people out, fed them and kept His promise. Christians who disagree here still trust the same Bible.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

God gives the camp a seating chart. Three tribes camp on each side of the Tent of Meeting, each under its own flag, with Judah on the east facing the sunrise. When the camp moves, they move in that order. A whole nation on the move, and nobody fights over parking.

THE ORDER OF THE CAMPS

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron: 2 "The Israelites are to camp around the Tent of Meeting at a distance from it, each man under his standard, with the banners of his family.

3 On the east side, toward the sunrise, the divisions of Judah are to camp under their standard:
The leader of the Judahites is Nahshon son of Amminadab, 4 and his division
numbers 74,600.
5 The tribe of Issachar will camp next to it.
The leader of the Issacharites is Nethanel son of Zuar, 6 and his division
numbers 54,400.
7 Next will be the tribe of Zebulun. The leader of the Zebulunites is Eliab son of Helon, 8 and his division numbers 57,400.
9 The total number of men in the divisions of the camp of Judah is 186,400; they shall set out first.

GOD SPEAKING

10 On the south side, the divisions of Reuben are to camp under their standard:
The leader of the Reubenites is Elizur son of Shedeur, 11 and his division numbers 46,500.
12 The tribe of Simeon will camp next to it.
The leader of the Simeonites is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, 13 and his division numbers 59,300.
14 Next will be the tribe of Gad. The leader of the Gadites is Eliasaph son of Deuel, 15 and his division numbers 45,650.
16 The total number of men in the divisions
of the camp of Reuben is 151,450; they shall set out second.
17 In the middle of the camps, the Tent of Meeting is to travel with the camp of the Levites. They are to set out in the order they encamped, each in his own place under his standard.
18 On the west side, the divisions of Ephraim are to camp under their standard:
The leader of the Ephraimites is Elishama son of Ammihud, 19 and his division
numbers 40,500.
20 The tribe of Manasseh will be next to it.
The leader of the Manassites is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, 21 and his division numbers 32,200.
22 Next will be the tribe of Benjamin. The leader of the Benjamites is Abidan son of Gideoni, 23 and his division numbers 35,400.
24 The total number of men in the divisions
of the camp of Ephraim is 108,100; they shall set out third.
25 On the north side, the divisions of Dan are to camp under their standard:
The leader of the Danites is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, 26 and his division
numbers 62,700.
27 The tribe of Asher will camp next to it.
The leader of the Asherites is Pagiel son of Ocran, 28 and his division numbers 41,500.
29 Next will be the tribe of Naphtali. The leader of the Naphtalites is Ahira son of Enan, 30 and his division numbers 53,400.
31 The total number of men in the camp of Dan is 157,600; they shall set out last, under their standards."

32 These are the Israelites, numbered according to their families. The total of those counted in the camps, by their divisions, was 603,550. 33 But the Levites were not counted among the other Israelites, as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

34 So the Israelites did everything Yahweh commanded Moses; they camped under their standards in this way and set out in the same way, each man with his clan and
his family.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

The priests are Aaron's sons, and the rest of the tribe of Levi serves them. God takes the Levites in place of every firstborn son of Israel. There are 22,273 firstborn and only 22,000 Levites, so the extra 273 are bought back with silver. God really does count everybody.

THE SONS OF AARON // LEVITICUS 10:1–7

1 This is the account of Aaron and Moses at the time Yahweh spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

2 These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, then Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 3 These were Aaron's sons, the anointed priests, who were ordained to serve as priests.

4 Nadab and Abihu, however, died in the presence of Yahweh when they offered unauthorized fire before Yahweh in the Wilderness of Sinai. And since they had no sons, only Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.

THE DUTIES OF THE LEVITES

5 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 6 "Bring the tribe of Levi and present them to Aaron the priest to assist him. 7 They are to perform duties for him and for the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting, attending to the service of the tabernacle. 8
They shall take care of all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting and fulfill obligations for the Israelites by attending to the service of the tabernacle.

GOD SPEAKING

9 Assign the Levites to Aaron and his sons;
they have been given exclusively to him from among the Israelites. 10 So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons to carry out the duties of the priesthood; but any outsider who approaches the tabernacle must be put to death."

11 Again Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, 12 "Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel in place of every firstborn Israelite from the womb.
The Levites belong to Me, 13 for all the firstborn are Mine. On the day I struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt,
I consecrated to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They are Mine; I am Yahweh."

THE NUMBERING OF THE LEVITES

14 Then Yahweh spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 "Number
the Levites by their families and clans.
You are to count every male a month old or more."

16 So Moses numbered them according to the word of Yahweh, as he had been commanded.

17 These were the sons of Levi by name:
Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 18 These were the names of the sons of Gershon by their clans: Libni and Shimei. 19 The sons of Kohath by their clans were Am-ram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 20 And the sons of Merari by their clans were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of the Levites, according to their families.

THE GERSHONITES // NUMBERS 4:21–28; 1 CHRONI-
CLES 23:7–11

21 From Gershon came the Libnite clan and the Shimeite clan; these were the Gershonite clans. 22 The number of all the males a month old or more was 7,500.

23 The Gershonite clans were to camp on the west, behind the tabernacle, 24 and the leader of the families of the Gershonites was Eliasaph son of Lael.

25 The duties of the Gershonites at the Tent of Meeting were the tabernacle and tent, its covering, the curtain for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, 26 the curtains of the courtyard, the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard that surrounds
the tabernacle and altar, and the cords—all the service for these items.

THE KOHATHITES // NUMBERS 4:1–20; 1 CHRONI-
CLES 23:12–20

27 From Kohath came the clans of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites; these were the clans of the Kohathites. 28 The number of all the males a month old or more was 8,600. They were responsible for the duties of the sanctuary.

29 The clans of the Kohathites were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle, 30 and the leader of the families of the Ko-hathites was Elizaphan son of Uzziel.

31 Their duties were the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the articles of the sanctuary used with them, and the curtain—all the service for these items.

32 The chief of the leaders of the Levites was Eleazar son of Aaron the priest; he oversaw those responsible for the duties of the sanctuary.

THE MERARITES // NUMBERS 4:29–33; 1 CHRONI-
CLES 23:21–23

33 From Merari came the clans of the Mahlites and Mushites; these were the Merarite clans. 34 The number of all the males a month old or more was 6,200.

35 The leader of the families of the Mer-arites was Zuriel son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.

36 The duties assigned to the sons of Mer-ari were the tabernacle's frames, cross-bars, posts, bases, and all its equipment—all the service for these items, 37 as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, and ropes.

MOSES AND AARON

38 Moses, Aaron, and Aaron's sons were to camp to the east of the tabernacle, toward the sunrise, before the Tent of Meeting. They were to perform the duties of the sanctuary as a service on behalf of the Israelites; but any outsider who ap-

NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING

proached the sanctuary was to be put to death.

39 The total number of Levites that Moses and Aaron counted by their clans at Yahweh's command, including all the males a month old or more, was 22,000.

THE REDEMPTION OF THE FIRSTBORN

40 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Number every firstborn male of the Israelites a month old or more, and list their names. 41 You are to take the Levites for Me—I am Yahweh—in place of all the firstborn of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites in place of all the firstborn of the livestock of the Israelites."

42 So Moses numbered all the firstborn of the Israelites, as Yahweh had commanded him. 43 The total number of the firstborn males a month old or more, listed by name, was 22,273.

44 Again Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, 45 "Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites in place of their livestock. The Levites belong to Me; I am Yahweh. 46 To redeem the 273 firstborn Israelites who outnumber the Levites, 47 you are to collect 2 ounces of silver for each one, weighed by the sanctuary standard. 48 Give the money to Aaron and his sons as the redemption price for the excess among the Israelites."

49 So Moses collected the redemption money from those in excess of the number redeemed by the Levites. 50 He collected the money from the firstborn of the Israelites: about 34 pounds of silver, weighed by the sanctuary standard. 51 And Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons in obedience to the word of Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Job descriptions for the three Levite clans. The Kohathites carry the holiest things, but only after the priests cover them, because touching or even looking at them means death. The Gershonites carry the curtains and the Merarites carry the frames and posts. Every job mattered.

THE DUTIES OF THE KOHATHITES // NUMBERS 3:27–32; 1 CHRONICLES 23:12–20

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 2 "Take a census of the Kohathites among the Levites by their clans and families, 3 men from thirty to fifty years old—everyone who is qualified to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

4 This service of the Kohathites at the Tent of Meeting regards the most holy things. 5 Whenever the camp sets out, Aaron and his sons are to go in, take down the veil of the curtain, and cover the ark of the Testimony with it. 6 They are to place over this a covering of fine leather, spread a solid blue cloth over it, and insert its poles.

7 Over the table of the Presence they are to spread a blue cloth and place the plates and cups on it, along with the bowls and pitchers for the drink offering. The regular bread offering is to remain on it. 8 And they shall spread a scarlet cloth over them, cover them with fine leather, and insert the poles.

9 They are to take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand used for light, together with its lamps, wick trimmers, and trays, as well as the jars of oil with which to supply it. 10 Then they shall wrap it and all its utensils inside a covering of fine leather and put it on the carrying frame.

11 Over the gold altar they are to spread a blue cloth, cover it with fine leather, and insert the poles. 12 They are to take all the utensils for serving in the sanctuary, place them in a blue cloth, cover them with fine leather, and put them on the carrying frame.

13 Then they shall remove the ashes from the bronze altar, spread a purple cloth

NUM 4:1 [NOTABLE] Strict rules for transporting the sacred objects; violation meant death

over it, 14 and place on it all the vessels used to serve there: the firepans, meat forks, shovels, and sprinkling bowls—all the equipment of the altar. They are to spread over it a covering of fine leather and insert the poles.

15 When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy objects and all their equipment, as soon as the camp is ready to move, the Kohathites shall come and do the carrying. But they must not touch the holy objects, or they will die. These are the transportation duties of the Kohathites regarding the Tent of Meeting.

16 Eleazar son of Aaron the priest shall oversee the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the daily grain offering, and the anointing oil. He has oversight of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including the holy objects and their utensils."

17 Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 18 "Do not allow the Kohathite tribal clans to be cut off from among the Levites. 19 In order that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy things, do this for them: Aaron and his sons are to go in and assign each man his task and what he is to carry. 20 But the Kohathites are not to go in and look at the holy objects, even for a moment, or they will die."

THE DUTIES OF THE GERSHONITES // NUMBERS 3:21–26; 1 CHRONICLES 23:7–11

21 And Yahweh said to Moses, 22 "Take a census of the Gershonites as well, by their families and clans, 23 from thirty to fifty years old, counting everyone who comes to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

24 This is the service of the Gershonite clans regarding work and transport: 25 They are to carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting with the covering of fine leather over it, the curtains for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, 26 the curtains of the courtyard, and the curtains for the entrance at the gate of the courtyard that surrounds the tabernacle and altar, along with their ropes and all the equipment for their service. The Gershonites will do all that needs to be done with these items.

27 All the service of the Gershonites—all their transport duties and other work—is to be done at the direction of Aaron and his sons; you are to assign to them all that they are responsible to carry. 28 This is the service of the Gershonite clans at the Tent of Meeting, and their duties shall be under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

THE DUTIES OF THE MERARITES // NUMBERS 3:33–37; 1 CHRONICLES 23:21–23

29 As for the sons of Merari, you are to number them by their clans and families, 30 from thirty to fifty years old, counting everyone who comes to serve in the work of the Tent of Meeting.

31 This is the duty for all their service at the Tent of Meeting: to carry the frames of the tabernacle with its crossbars, posts, and bases, 32 and the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, and ropes, including all their equipment and everything related to their use. You shall assign by name the items that they are responsible to carry.

33 This is the service of the Merarite clans according to all their work at the Tent of Meeting, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest."

THE NUMBERING OF THE LEVITE CLANS

34 So Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the congregation numbered the Kohathites by their clans and families, 35 everyone from thirty to fifty years old who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting. 36 And those numbered by their clans totaled 2,750. 37 These were counted from the Kohathite clans, everyone who could serve at the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron numbered them according to the command of Yahweh through Moses.

38 Then the Gershonites were numbered by their clans and families, 39 everyone from thirty to fifty years old who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting. 40 And those numbered by their clans and families totaled 2,630. 41 These were counted from the Gershonite clans who served at the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron counted at Yahweh's command.

42 And the Merarites were numbered by their clans and families, 43 everyone from thirty to fifty years old who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting. 44 The men registered by their clans numbered 3,200. 45 These were counted from the Merarite clans, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at Yahweh's command through Moses.

46 So Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel numbered by their clans and families all the Levites 47 from thirty to fifty years old who came to do the work of serving and carrying the Tent of Meeting. 48 And the number of men was 8,580. 49 At Yahweh's command through Moses they were numbered, and each one was assigned his work and burden, as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Anyone with a skin disease or who touched a dead body stays outside the camp. If you wrong someone, you confess, pay it back and add one fifth. Then comes a strange test for a wife whose husband suspects her, with holy water and dust from the floor. God, not the husband, decides.

CLEANSING THE CAMPS // LEVITICUS 13:1–46

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Command the Israelites to send away from the camp anyone with a skin disease, anyone who has a bodily discharge, and anyone who is defiled by a dead body. 3 You must send away male and female alike; send them outside the camp so they will not defile their camp, where I dwell among them."

4 So the Israelites did this, sending such people outside the camp. They did just as Yahweh had instructed Moses.

CONFESSION AND RESTITUTION // LUKE 19:1–10

5 And Yahweh said to Moses, 6 "Tell the Israelites that when a man or woman acts unfaithfully against Yahweh by committing any sin against another, that person is guilty 7 and must confess the sin he has committed. He must make full restitution, add a fifth to its value, and give all this to the one he has wronged.

8 But if the man has no relative to whom restitution can be made for the wrong, the restitution belongs to Yahweh and must be given to the priest along with the ram of atonement, by which the atonement is made for him.

9 Every sacred contribution the Israelites bring to the priest shall belong to him. 10 Each man's sacred gifts are his own, but whatever he gives to the priest will belong to the priest."

THE ADULTERY TEST

11 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 12 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them that if any man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him 13 by sleeping with another man, and it is concealed from her husband and her impurity is undetected (since there is no witness against her and she was not caught in the act), 14 and if a feeling of jealousy comes over her husband and he suspects his wife who has defiled herself—or if a feeling of jealousy comes over him and he suspects her even though she has not defiled herself— 15 then he is to bring his wife to the priest.

He must also bring for her an offering of two quarts of barley flour. He is not to pour oil over it or put frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering for jealousy, an offering of memorial as a reminder of iniquity.

16 The priest is to bring the wife forward and have her stand before Yahweh. 17 Then he is to take some holy water in a clay jar and put some of the dust from the tabernacle floor into the water.

18 After the priest has the woman stand before Yahweh, he is to let down her hair and place in her hands the grain offering of memorial, which is the grain offering for jealousy. The priest is to hold the bitter water that brings a curse. 19 And he is to put the woman under oath and say to her, 'If no other man has slept with you and you have not gone astray and become defiled while under your husband's authority, may you be immune to this bitter water that brings a curse. 20 But if you have gone astray while under your husband's authority and have defiled yourself and lain carnally with a man other than your husband'— 21 and the priest shall have the woman swear under the oath of the curse—' then may Yahweh make you an attested curse among your people by making your thigh shrivel and your belly swell. 22 May this water that brings a curse enter your stomach and cause your belly to swell and your thigh to shrivel.'

Then the woman is to say, 'Amen, Amen.'

23 And the priest shall write these curses on a scroll and wash them off into the bitter water. 24 He is to have the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and it will enter her and may cause her bitter suffering. 25 The priest shall take from her hand the grain offering for jealousy, wave it before Yahweh, and bring it to the altar. 26 Then the priest is to take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar; after that he is to have the woman drink the water.

27 When he has made her drink the water, if she has defiled herself and been unfaithful to her husband, then the water that brings a curse will enter her and cause bitter suffering; her belly will swell, her thigh will shrivel, and she will become accursed among her people. 28 But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, she will be unaffected and able to conceive children.

29 This is the law of jealousy when a wife goes astray and defiles herself while under her husband's authority, 30 or when a feeling of jealousy comes over a husband and he suspects his wife. He is to have the woman stand before Yahweh, and the priest is to apply to her this entire law. 31 The husband will be free from guilt, but the woman shall bear her iniquity."

NUM 5:27 [NOTE] The test did not work by magic water. The text says God decides the outcome, so a jealous husband could not just accuse his wife and win. Bible scholars disagree on exactly what the curse in this verse describes.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

Any man or woman can make a special vow and become a Nazirite. No wine, no grapes, not even raisins. No haircut. No going near a dead body. When the vow ends, they shave their head and put the hair on the fire under the peace offering. The chapter ends with the famous blessing: Yahweh bless you and keep you.

THE NAZIRITE VOW // JUDGES 13:1–25

1 And Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them that if a man or woman makes a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to Yahweh, 3 he is to abstain from wine and strong drink. He must not drink vinegar made from wine or strong drink, and he must not drink any grape juice or eat fresh grapes or raisins. 4 All the days of his separation, he is not to eat anything that comes from the grapevine, not even the seeds or skins.

5 For the entire period of his vow of separation, no razor shall touch his head. He must be holy until the time of his separation to Yahweh is complete; he must let the hair of his head grow long.

6 Throughout the days of his separation to Yahweh, he must not go near a dead body. 7 Even if his father or mother or brother or sister should die, he is not to defile himself, because the symbol of consecration to his God is upon his head. 8 Throughout the time of his separation, he is holy to Yahweh.

9 If someone suddenly dies in his presence and defiles his consecrated head of hair, he must shave his head on the day of his cleansing—the seventh day. 10 On the eighth day he must bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 11 And the priest is to offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to make atonement for him, because he has sinned by being in the presence of the dead body. On that day he must consecrate his head again. 12 He must rededicate his time of separation to Yahweh and bring a year-old male lamb as a guilt offering. But the preceding days shall not be counted, because his separation was defiled.

13 Now this is the law of the Nazirite when his time of separation is complete: He must be brought to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, 14 and he is to present an offering to Yahweh of an unblemished year-old male lamb as a burnt offering, an unblemished year-old female lamb as a sin offering, and an unblemished ram as a peace offering— 15 together with their grain offerings and drink offerings—and a basket of unleavened cakes made from fine flour mixed with oil and unleavened wafers coated with oil.

16 The priest is to present all these before Yahweh and make the sin offering and the burnt offering. 17 He shall also offer the ram as a peace offering to Yahweh, along with the basket of unleavened bread. And the priest is to offer the accompanying grain offering and drink offering.

18 Then at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the Nazirite is to shave his consecrated head, take the hair, and put it on the fire under the peace offering. 19 And the priest is to take the boiled shoulder from the ram, one unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and put them into the hands of the Nazirite who has just shaved the hair of his consecration. 20 The priest shall then wave them as a wave offering before Yahweh. This is a holy portion for the priest, in addition to the breast of the wave offering and the thigh that was presented. After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazirite who vows his offering to Yahweh for his separation, in addition to whatever else he can afford; he must fulfill whatever vow he makes, according to the law of his separation."

AARON'S BLESSING

22 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 23 "Tell Aaron and his sons: This is how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:

24 'May Yahweh bless you and keep you;
25 may Yahweh cause His face to shine upon you
and be gracious to you;
26 may Yahweh lift up His countenance toward you and give you peace.'

27 So they shall put My name on the Israelites, and I will bless them."

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

The twelve tribal leaders bring gifts for the new altar, one leader a day for twelve days. Every gift is exactly the same, and the Bible lists every one of them, twelve times. With 89 verses, it is the longest chapter in the books of Moses. Nobody got to be the favorite.

OFFERINGS OF DEDICATION

1 On the day Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed and consecrated it and all its furnishings, along with the altar and all its utensils. 2 And the leaders of Israel, the heads of their families, presented an offering. These men were the tribal leaders who had supervised the registration. 3 They brought as their offering before Yahweh six covered carts and twelve oxen—an ox from each leader and a cart from every two leaders—and presented them before the tabernacle.

4 And Yahweh said to Moses, 5 "Accept these gifts from them, that they may be used in the work of the Tent of Meeting. And give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service."

6 So Moses took the carts and oxen and gave them to the Levites. 7 He gave the Gershonites two carts and four oxen, as their service required, 8 and he gave the Merarites four carts and eight oxen, as their service required, all under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest. 9 But he did not give any to the Kohathites, since they were to carry on their shoulders the holy objects for which they were responsible.

10 When the altar was anointed, the leaders approached with their offerings for its

NUMBERS 6:24 TO 26 · DEUTERONOMY 7:9

The smaller silver scroll, KH2, unrolled. Public domain image, Wikimedia Commons.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Museum in Jerusalem.

THE BIG DEBATE

The letters are tiny and damaged, so a few scholars argued for a later date, in the Persian or Greek period. In 2004 Barkay's team studied them with new imaging and stood by a date before 586 BC. Most scholars agree, but the debate is not over.

WHAT IT IS

Two tiny sheets of silver, rolled up and worn as charms, with the priestly blessing from Numbers 6:24 to 26 scratched into them in the old Hebrew letters. They are the oldest known words from the Bible ever found. No piece of any Bible scroll, in any language, is older.

HOW OLD IT IS

Most experts date them to about 600 BC, in the last years before Babylon destroyed Jerusalem in 586 BC. That makes them about 350 to 400 years older than the oldest Dead Sea Scrolls.

HOW BIG

The larger one, KH1, is about 1 inch wide and 4 inches long when unrolled. The smaller one, KH2, is about half an inch wide and 1½ inches long. The silver is about 99 percent pure.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In 1979 Gabriel Barkay was digging old burial caves at Ketef Hinnom, which means the shoulder of Hinnom, a hill just outside Jerusalem's Old City. It looks down on the Valley of Hinnom, where kings of Judah once burned children to Molech, Jeremiah 7:31. A 13 year old volunteer helped break into a pit under a burial bench that a fallen ceiling had sealed. Among more than 1,000 objects inside were the two tiny rolled up scrolls.

UNROLLING THEM

The silver was so thin and brittle that experts at the Israel Museum spent about three years working out how to open them without breaking them. Only then could anyone read what was inside.

WHAT THEY SAY

KH2 asks Yahweh to bless, keep, make His face shine and give peace, a shorter form of Numbers 6:24 to 26. KH1 has the blessing too, and also echoes Deuteronomy 7:9, the great God who keeps covenant and loving devotion with those who love Him and keep His commandments. Both scrolls have God's name, YHWH.

WHY IT MATTERS

Many scholars have argued that the books of Moses were mostly written down after the exile. These scrolls show that at least this blessing, word for word close to the Bible we read today, was already treasured in Jerusalem before the exile. Someone loved it enough to wear it and be buried with it, and the same blessing is still spoken in synagogues and churches today.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

These are charms with a blessing on them, not a copy of the book of Numbers, so they do not show that the whole book existed in that form.

dedication and presented them before the altar. 11 And Yahweh said to Moses, "Each day one leader is to present his offering for the dedication of the altar."

12 On the first day Nahshon son of Amminadab from the tribe of Judah drew near with his offering. 13 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 14 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 15 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 16 one male goat for a sin offering; 17 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

18 On the second day Nethanel son of Zuar, the leader of Issachar, drew near. 19 The offering he presented was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 20 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 21 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 22 one male goat for a sin offering; 23 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nethanel son of Zuar.

24 On the third day Eliab son of Helon, the leader of the Zebulunites, drew near. 25 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 26 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 27 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 28 one male goat for a sin offering; 29 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

30 On the fourth day Elizur son of Shedeur, the leader of the Reubenites, drew near. 31 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 32 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 33 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 34 one male goat for a sin offering; 35 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

36 On the fifth day Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, the leader of the Simeonites, drew near. 37 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 38 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 39 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 40 one male goat for a sin offering; 41 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

42 On the sixth day Eliasaph son of Deuel, the leader of the Gadites, drew near. 43 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 44 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 45 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 46 one male goat for a sin offering; 47 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

48 On the seventh day Elishama son of Ammihud, the leader of the Ephraimites, drew near. 49 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 50 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 51 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 52 one male goat for a sin offering; 53 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

54 On the eighth day Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, the leader of the Manassites, drew near. 55 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 56 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 57 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 58 one male goat for a sin offering; 59 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

60 On the ninth day Abidan son of Gideoni, the leader of the Benjamites, drew near. 61 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 62 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 63 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 64 one male goat for a sin offering; 65 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

66 On the tenth day Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, the leader of the Danites, drew near. 67 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 68 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 69 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 70 one male goat for a sin offering; 71 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

72 On the eleventh day Pagiel son of Ocran, the leader of the Asherites, drew near. 73 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 74 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 75 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 76 one male goat for a sin offering; 77 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pagiel son of Ocran.

78 On the twelfth day Ahira son of Enan, the leader of the Naphtalites, drew near. 79 His offering was one silver platter weighing 3¼ pounds, and one silver bowl weighing 1¾ pounds, both weighed by the sanctuary standard and filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; 80 one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, filled with incense; 81 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; 82 one male goat for a sin offering; 83 and a peace offering of two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahira son of Enan.

84 So these were the offerings from the leaders of Israel for the dedication of the altar when it was anointed: twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, and twelve gold dishes.

85 Each silver platter weighed 3¼ pounds, and each silver bowl 1¾ pounds. The total weight of the silver articles was 60 pounds, weighed by the sanctuary standard.

86 The twelve gold dishes filled with incense weighed 4 ounces each, by the sanctuary standard. The total weight of the gold dishes was 3 pounds.

GOD SPEAKING

87 All the livestock for the burnt offering totaled twelve bulls, twelve rams, and twelve male lambs a year old—together with their grain offerings—and twelve male goats for the sin offering.

88 All the livestock sacrificed for the peace offering totaled twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty male goats, and sixty male lambs a year old. This was the dedication offering for the altar after it was anointed.

89 When Moses entered the Tent of Meeting to speak with Yahweh, he heard the voice speaking to him from between the two cherubim above the mercy seat on the ark of the Testimony. Thus Yahweh spoke to him.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Aaron sets up the seven lamps of the gold lampstand. Then the Levites are washed, shaved and given to God as a wave offering in place of the firstborn. They start work at twenty five and retire at fifty, but they can still help out. God thought about retirement long before anyone else did.

THE LAMPSTAND // EXODUS 25:31–40; EXODUS 37:17–24

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Speak to Aaron and tell him: 'When you set up the seven lamps, they are to light the area in front of the lampstand.'"

3 And Aaron did so; he set up the lamps facing toward the front of the lampstand, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

4 This is how the lampstand was constructed: it was made of hammered gold from its base to its blossoms, fashioned according to the pattern Yahweh had shown Moses.

CLEANSING THE LEVITES

5 Again Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, 6 "Take the Levites from among the Israelites and make them ceremonially clean. 7 This is what you must do to cleanse them: Sprinkle them with the water of purification. Have them shave their whole bodies and wash their clothes, and so purify themselves.

8 Then have them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you are to take a second young bull for a sin offering. 9 Bring the Levites before the Tent of Meeting and assemble the whole congregation of Israel. 10 You are to present the Levites before Yahweh and have the Israelites lay their hands upon them. 11 Aaron is to present the Levites before Yahweh as a wave offering from the sons of Israel, so that they may perform the service of Yahweh. 12 And the Levites are to lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and offer to Yahweh one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, to make atonement for the Levites.

13 You are to have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons and then present them before Yahweh as a wave offering. 14 In this way you shall separate the Levites from the rest of the Israelites, and the Levites will belong to Me. 15 After you have cleansed them and presented them as a wave offering, they may come to serve at the Tent of Meeting.

16 For the Levites have been wholly given to Me from among the sons of Israel. I have taken them for Myself in place of all who come first from the womb, the firstborn of all the sons of Israel. 17 For every firstborn male in Israel is Mine, both man and beast. I set them apart for Myself on the day I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt. 18 But I have taken the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel. 19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the Israelites, to perform the service for the Israelites at the Tent of Meeting and to make atonement on their behalf, so that no plague will come against the Israelites when they approach the sanctuary."

20 So Moses, Aaron, and the whole congregation of Israel did with the Levites everything that Yahweh had commanded Moses they should do. 21 The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes, and Aaron presented them as a wave offering before Yahweh. Aaron also made atonement for them to cleanse them. 22 After that, the Levites came to perform their service at the Tent of Meeting in the presence of Aaron and his sons. Thus they did with the Levites just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

RETIREMENT FOR LEVITES

23 And Yahweh said to Moses, 24 "This applies to the Levites: Men twenty-five years of age or older shall enter to perform the service in the work at the Tent of Meeting. 25 But at the age of fifty, they must retire from performing the work and no longer serve.

26 After that, they may assist their brothers in fulfilling their duties at the Tent of Meeting, but they themselves are not to do the work. This is how you are to assign responsibilities to the Levites."

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel keeps the Passover in the wilderness. Some men are unclean from a dead body and ask what to do, so God makes a second Passover a month later. Then the cloud: when it lifts, the camp moves. When it stays, they stay, whether for two days, a month or longer.

THE SECOND PASSOVER // EXODUS 12:1–13

1 In the first month of the second year after Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, Yahweh spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai: 2 "The Israelites are to observe the Passover at its appointed time. 3 You are to observe it at the appointed time, at twilight on the fourteenth day of this month, in accordance with its statutes and ordinances."

4 So Moses told the Israelites to observe the Passover, 5 and they did so in the Wilderness of Sinai, at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

6 But there were some men who were unclean due to a dead body, so they could not observe the Passover on that day. And they came before Moses and Aaron that same day 7 and said to Moses, "We are unclean because of a dead body, but why should we be excluded from presenting Yahweh's offering with the other Israelites at the appointed time?"

8 "Wait here until I find out what Yahweh commands concerning you," Moses replied.

9 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 10 "Tell the Israelites: 'When any one of you or your descendants is unclean because of a dead body, or is away on a journey, he may still observe the Passover to Yahweh. 11 Such people are to observe it at twilight on the fourteenth day of the second month. They are to eat the lamb, together with unleavened bread and bitter herbs; 12 they may not leave any of it until morning or break any of its bones. They must observe the Passover according to all its statutes.

13 But if a man who is ceremonially clean and is not on a journey still fails to observe the Passover, he must be cut off from his people, because he did not present Yahweh's offering at its appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.

14 If a foreigner dwelling among you wants to observe the Passover to Yahweh, he is to do so according to the Passover statute and its ordinances. You are to apply the same statute to both the foreigner and the native of the land.'"

THE CLOUD ABOVE THE TABERNACLE // EXODUS 40:34–38

15 On the day that the tabernacle, the Tent of the Testimony, was set up, the cloud covered it and appeared like fire above the tabernacle from evening until morning. 16 It remained that way continually; the cloud would cover the tabernacle by day, and at night it would appear like fire. 17 Whenever the cloud was lifted from above the Tent, the Israelites would set out, and wherever the cloud settled, there the Israelites would camp. 18 At Yahweh's command the Israelites set out, and at Yahweh's command they camped. As long as the cloud remained over the tabernacle, they remained encamped.

19 Even when the cloud lingered over the tabernacle for many days, the Israelites kept Yahweh's charge and did not set out. 20 Sometimes the cloud remained over the tabernacle for only a few days, and they would camp at Yahweh's command and set out at Yahweh's command. 21 Sometimes the cloud remained only from evening until morning, and when it lifted in the morning, they would set out. Whether it was by day or by night, when the cloud was taken up, they would set out.

22 Whether the cloud lingered for two days, a month, or longer, the Israelites camped and did not set out as long as the cloud remained over the tabernacle; but when it was lifted, they would set out. 23 They camped at Yahweh's command, and they set out at Yahweh's command; they carried out Yahweh's charge according to His command through Moses.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Moses to make two silver trumpets to call the camp and sound the alarm for war. Then, on the twentieth day of the second month, the cloud lifts and Israel finally leaves Mount Sinai. Every time the ark sets out, Moses prays, Rise up, O Yahweh. The road trip begins.

THE TWO SILVER TRUMPETS

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Make two trumpets of hammered silver to be used for calling the congregation and for having the camps set out. 3 When both are sounded, the whole congregation is to assemble before you at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 4 But if only one is sounded, then the leaders, the heads of the clans of Israel, are to gather before you.

5 When you sound short blasts, the camps that lie on the east side are to set out. 6 When you sound the short blasts a second time, the camps that lie on the south side are to set out. The blasts are to signal them to set out. 7 To convene the assembly, you are to sound long blasts, not short ones. 8 The sons of Aaron, the priests, are to sound the trumpets. This shall be a permanent statute for you and the generations to come.

9 When you enter into battle in your land against an adversary who attacks you, sound short blasts on the trumpets, and you will be remembered before Yahweh your God and saved from your enemies. 10 And on your joyous occasions, your appointed feasts, and the beginning of each month, you are to blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and peace offerings to serve as a reminder for you before your God. I am Yahweh your God."

FROM SINAI TO PARAN

11 On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the cloud was lifted from above the tabernacle of the Testimony, 12 and the Israelites set out from the Wilderness of Sinai, traveling from place to place until the cloud settled in the Wilderness of Paran. 13 They set out this first time according to Yahweh's command through Moses.

14 First, the divisions of the camp of Judah set out under their standard, with Nahshon son of Amminadab in command. 15 Nethanel son of Zuar was over the division of the tribe of Issachar, 16 and Eliab son of Helon was over the division of the tribe of Zebulun. 17 Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and the Merarites set out, transporting it.

18 Then the divisions of the camp of Reuben set out under their standard, with Elizur son of Shedeur in command. 19 Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai was over the division of the tribe of Simeon, 20 and Eliasaph son of Deuel was over the division of the tribe of Gad. 21 Then the Kohathites set out, transporting the holy objects; the tabernacle was to be set up before their arrival.

22 Next, the divisions of the camp of Ephraim set out under their standard, with Elishama son of Ammihud in command. 23 Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was over the division of the tribe of Manasseh, 24 and

MIRACLES

Abidan son of Gideoni was over the division of the tribe of Benjamin.

25 Finally, the divisions of the camp of Dan set out under their standard, serving as the rear guard for all units, with Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai in command. 26 Pagiel son of Ocran was over the division of the tribe of Asher, 27 and Ahira son of Enan was over the division of the tribe of Naphtali.

28 This was the order of march for the Israelite divisions as they set out.

29 Then Moses said to Hobab, the son of Moses' father-in-law Reuel the Midianite, "We are setting out for the place of which Yahweh said: 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well, for Yahweh has promised good things to Israel."

30 "I will not go," Hobab replied. "Instead, I am going back to my own land and my own people."

31 "Please do not leave us," Moses said, "since you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you can serve as our eyes. 32 If you come with us, we will share with you whatever good things Yahweh gives us."

33 So they set out on a three-day journey from the mountain of Yahweh, with the ark of the covenant of Yahweh traveling ahead of them for those three days to seek a resting place for them. 34 And the cloud of Yahweh was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses would say,

"Rise up, O Yahweh!
May Your enemies be scattered;
may those who hate You flee before You."

36 And when it came to rest, he would say:

"Return, O Yahweh,
to the countless thousands of Israel."

11

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Three days in, the complaining starts. Fire burns the edge of the camp. Then the people get sick of manna and cry for meat like they had in Egypt. Moses tells God he cannot carry them alone, so God puts His Spirit on seventy elders. Then God sends so many quail they get sick of it.

THE COMPLAINTS OF THE PEOPLE

1 Soon the people began to complain about their hardship in the hearing of Yahweh, and when He heard them, His anger was kindled, and fire from Yahweh blazed among them and consumed the outskirts of the camp. 2 And the people cried out to Moses, and he prayed to Yahweh, and the fire died down. 3 So that place was called Taberah, because the fire of Yahweh had burned among them.

4 Meanwhile, the rabble among them had a strong craving for other food, and again the Israelites wept and said, "Who will feed us meat? 5 We remember the fish we ate freely in Egypt, along with the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic. 6 But now our appetite is gone; there is nothing to see but this manna!"

7 Now the manna resembled coriander seed, and its appearance was like that of gum resin. 8 The people walked around and gathered it, ground it on a handmill or crushed it in a mortar, then boiled it in a cooking pot or shaped it into cakes. It tasted like pastry baked with fine oil. 9 When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna would fall with it.

THE COMPLAINT OF MOSES

10 Then Moses heard the people of family after family weeping at the entrances to their tents, and the anger of Yahweh was kindled greatly, and Moses was also displeased.

11 So Moses asked Yahweh, "Why have You brought this trouble on Your servant? Why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have laid upon me the burden of all these people? 12 Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth, so that You should tell me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries an infant,' to the land that You swore to give their fathers?

13 Where can I get meat for all these people? For they keep crying out to me, 'Give us meat to eat!'

14 I cannot carry all these people by myself; it is too burdensome for me. 15 If this is how You are going to treat me, please kill me right now—if I have found favor in Your eyes—and let me not see my own wretchedness."

SEVENTY ELDERS ANOINTED

16 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Bring Me seventy of the elders of Israel known to you as leaders and officers of the people. Bring them to the Tent of Meeting and have them stand there with you.

17 And I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take some of the Spirit that is on you and put that Spirit on them. They will help you bear the burden of the people, so that you do not have to bear it by yourself.

18 And say to the people: Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you will eat meat, because you have cried out in the hearing of Yahweh, saying: 'Who will feed us meat? For we were better off in Egypt!' Therefore Yahweh will give you meat, and you will eat. 19 You will eat it not for one or two days, nor for five or ten or twenty days, 20 but for a whole month—until it comes out of your nostrils and makes you nauseous—because you have rejected Yahweh, who is among you, and have cried out before Him, saying, 'Why did we ever leave Egypt?'"

21 But Moses replied, "Here I am among 600,000 men on foot, yet You say, 'I will give them meat, and they will eat for a month.' 22 If all our flocks and herds were slaughtered for them, would they have enough? Or if all the fish in the sea were caught for them, would they have enough?"

23 Yahweh answered Moses, "Is Yahweh's arm too short? Now you will see whether or not My word will come to pass."

24 So Moses went out and relayed to the people the words of Yahweh, and he gathered seventy of the elders of the people and had them stand around the tent.

25 Then Yahweh came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and He took some of the Spirit that was on Moses and placed that Spirit on the seventy elders. As the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied—but they never did so again.

26 Two men, however, had remained in the camp—one named Eldad and the other Medad—and the Spirit rested on them. They were among those listed, but they had not gone out to the tent, and they prophesied in the camp. 27 A young man ran and reported to Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

28 Joshua son of Nun, the attendant to Moses since youth, spoke up and said, "Moses, my lord, stop them!"

29 But Moses replied, "Are you jealous on my account? I wish that all Yahweh's people were prophets and that Yahweh would place His Spirit on them!"

30 Then Moses returned to the camp, along with the elders of Israel.

THE QUAIL AND THE PLAGUE

31 Now a wind sent by Yahweh came up, drove in quail from the sea, and brought them near the camp, about three feet above the surface of the ground, for a day's journey in every direction around the camp. 32 All that day and night, and all the next day, the people stayed up gathering the quail. No one gathered less than sixty bushels, and they spread them out all around the camp.

33 But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of Yahweh burned against the people, and Yahweh struck them with a severe plague. 34 So they called that place

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Miriam and Aaron criticize Moses for marrying a Cushite woman and ask, Doesn't God speak through us too? God calls all three to the tent and says Moses is different: He speaks to Moses face to face. Miriam turns white with a skin disease, Moses prays for her, and she waits outside the camp seven days.

THE COMPLAINT OF MIRIAM AND AARON

1 Then Miriam and Aaron criticized Moses because of the Cushite woman he had married, for he had taken a Cushite wife. 2
"Does Yahweh speak only through Moses?" they said. "Does He not also speak through us?" And Yahweh heard this.

3 Now Moses was a very humble man, more so than any man on the face of the earth.

4 And suddenly Yahweh said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, "You three, come out to the Tent of Meeting." So the three went out, 5 and Yahweh came down in a pillar of cloud, stood at the entrance to the Tent, and summoned Aaron and Miriam. When both of them had stepped forward, 6 He said, "Hear now My words:

If there is a prophet among you,
I, Yahweh, will reveal Myself to him in a vision;
I will speak to him in a dream.
7 But this is not so with My servant Moses;
he is faithful in all My house.
8 I speak with him face to face,
clearly and not in riddles;
he sees the form of Yahweh.

Why then were you unafraid to speak against My servant Moses?" 9 So the anger of Yahweh burned against them, and He departed.

10 As the cloud lifted from above the Tent, suddenly Miriam became leprous, white as snow. Aaron turned toward her, saw that she was leprous, 11 and said to Moses,
"My lord, please do not hold against us
this sin we have so foolishly committed. 12 Please do not let her be like a stillborn infant whose flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb."

13 So Moses cried out to Yahweh, "O God, please heal her!"

14 But Yahweh answered Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, would she not have been in disgrace for seven days?
Let her be confined outside the camp for seven days; after that she may be brought back in."

15 So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until she was brought in again. 16 After that, the people set out from Hazeroth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

Twelve spies explore Canaan for forty days. They come back carrying a cluster of grapes so big it takes two men and a pole. The land is amazing, they say, but the people are giants and we looked like grasshoppers. Caleb says, We can do this. Ten spies say, No way.

DEMONIC

3 So at the command of Yahweh, Moses sent them out from the Wilderness of Paran. All the men were leaders of the Israelites, 4 and these were their names:
From the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur;
5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori;
6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;
7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph;
8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun;
9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu;
10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi;
11 from the tribe of Manasseh (a tribe of Joseph), Gaddi son of Susi; 12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli;
13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael;
14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophsi;
15 and from the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Machi.
16 These were the names of the men
Moses sent to spy out the land; and Moses gave to Hoshea son of Nun the name Joshua.
17 When Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he told them, "Go up through the Negev and into the hill country. 18 See what the land is like and whether its people are strong or weak, few or many. 19 Is the land where they live good or bad? Are the cities where they dwell open camps or fortifications? 20 Is the soil fertile or unproductive? Are there trees in it or not? Be courageous and bring back some of the fruit of the land."
(It was the season for the first ripe grapes.)

21 So they went up and spied out the land from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, toward Lebo-hamath. 22 They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, dwelled. It had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.
23 When they came to the Valley of Eshcol,
they cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes, which they carried on a pole between two men. They also took some pomegranates and figs. 24 Because of the cluster of grapes the Israelites cut there, that place was called the Valley of Eshcol.

THE REPORTS OF THE SPIES

25 After forty days the men returned from spying out the land, 26 and they went back to Moses, Aaron, and the whole congregation of Israel in the Wilderness of Paran at Kadesh. They brought back a report for the whole congregation and showed them
the fruit of the land.
27 And they gave this account to Moses:
"We went into the land to which you sent us, and indeed, it is flowing with milk and honey. Here is some of its fruit! 28 Nevertheless, the people living in the land are strong, and the cities are large and fortified. We even saw the descendants of Anak there. 29 The Amalekites live in the land of the Negev; the Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live by the sea and along the Jordan."
30 Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses and said, "We must go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly conquer it!"
31 But the men who had gone up with him replied, "We cannot go up against the people, for they are stronger than we are!"
32 So they gave the Israelites a bad report
about the land that they had spied out:

The oasis at Ein el Qudeirat in northern Sinai, with the slope of the ancient mound in front. Photo Beno Rothenberg, 1967, Meitar Collection, National Library of Israel, CC BY 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

Kadesh was Israel's main camp in the wilderness. The spies reported there, Miriam died there, and Moses struck the rock nearby. Most scholars place it at Tell el Qudeirat, a mound next to Ein el Qudeirat, the richest spring and oasis in northern Sinai, in Egypt today.

HOW OLD IT IS

The ruins on the mound are three forts, one on top of another, from the 900s BC to 586 BC, the days of the kings of Judah. That is centuries after Moses.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Explorers first pointed to a smaller spring nearby, Ein Qedeis, in the 1840s. In 1914 Leonard Woolley and T. E. Lawrence, later famous as Lawrence of Arabia, surveyed the area and chose Ein el Qudeirat because it has much more water. Moshe Dothan dug there in 1956, and Rudolph Cohen dug ten seasons from 1976 to 1982.

WHAT WAS FOUND

An oval fort, then a fort with towers, then a big fort with double walls, burned about 586 BC. Pieces of pottery with Hebrew writing were found, including one with Egyptian number signs and Hebrew weights. Some pottery may go back to about the 1100s BC.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The site is in the Sinai, part of Egypt. Digging stopped in 1982 after Israel returned the Sinai under the peace treaty.

THE BIG DEBATE

Cohen himself asked where the remains from the time of Moses were. Nothing that old has been found. Some say Kadesh was somewhere else, like Ein Qedeis or near Petra. Some date the Exodus later, closer to the oldest pottery. Others say a camp of tents leaves almost no trace.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

The best water in northern Sinai is right where Numbers puts Israel's main camp, on the edge of Canaan.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No sign or inscription names the place, and nothing has been found from Israel's forty years in the wilderness.

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

The people cry all night and talk about picking a new leader to take them back to Egypt. Joshua and Caleb beg them not to rebel. God is ready to wipe them out, but Moses prays for them. God forgives, but that generation will wander forty years and die in the wilderness. Then they attack anyway and lose.

ISRAEL'S REBELLION // DEUTERONOMY 1:26–33

1 Then the whole congregation lifted up their voices and cried out, and that night the people wept. 2 All the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, "If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had died in this wilderness! 3 Why is

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

Yahweh bringing us into this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and children will become plunder. Would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?"

4 So they said to one another, "Let us appoint a leader and return to Egypt."

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell facedown before the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel.

6 Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes 7 and said to the whole congregation of Israel, "The land we passed through and explored is an exceedingly good land. 8 If Yahweh delights in us, He will bring us into this land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and He will give it to us. 9 Only do not rebel against Yahweh, and do not be afraid of the people of the land, for they will be like bread for us. Their protection has been removed, and Yahweh is with us. Do not be afraid of them!"

10 But the whole congregation threatened to stone Joshua and Caleb.

Then the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the Israelites at the Tent of Meeting. 11 And Yahweh said to Moses, "How long will this people treat Me with contempt? How long will they refuse to believe in Me, despite all the signs I have performed among them? 12 I will strike them with a plague and destroy them—and I will make you into a nation greater and mightier than they are."

MOSES INTERCEDES FOR ISRAEL

13 But Moses said to Yahweh, "The Egyptians will hear of it, for by Your strength You brought this people from among them. 14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have already heard that You, O Yahweh, are in the midst of this people, that You, O Yahweh, have been seen face to face, that Your cloud stands over them, and that You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.

15 If You kill this people as one man, the nations who have heard of Your fame will say, 16 'Because Yahweh was unable to bring this people into the land He swore to give them, He has slaughtered them in the wilderness.'

17 So now I pray, may the power of my Lord be magnified, just as You have declared: 18 'Yahweh is slow to anger and abounding in loving devotion, forgiving iniquity and transgression. Yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished; He will visit the iniquity of the fathers upon their children to the third and fourth generation.'

19 Pardon, I pray, the iniquity of this people, in keeping with the greatness of Your loving devotion, just as You have forgiven them ever since they left Egypt."

GOD'S FORGIVENESS AND JUDGMENT // DEUTERONOMY 1:34–40

20 "I have pardoned them as you requested," Yahweh replied. 21 "Yet as surely as I live and as surely as the whole earth is filled with the glory of Yahweh, 22 not one of the men who have seen My glory and the signs I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness—yet have tested Me and disobeyed Me these ten times— 23 not one will ever see the land that I swore to give their fathers. None of those who have treated Me with contempt will see it.

24 But because My servant Caleb has a different spirit and has followed Me wholeheartedly, I will bring him into the land he has entered, and his descendants will inherit it.

25 Now since the Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the valleys, turn back tomorrow and head for the wilderness along the route to the Red Sea."

26 Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 27 "How long will this wicked congregation grumble against Me? I have heard the complaints that the Israelites are making against Me. 28 So tell them: As surely as I live, declares Yahweh, I will do to you exactly as I heard you say. 29 Your bodies will fall in this wilderness—all who were numbered in the census, everyone twenty years of age or older—because you have grumbled against Me.

30 Surely none of you will enter the land in which I swore to settle you, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun. 31 But I will bring your children, whom you said would become plunder, into the land you have rejected—and they will enjoy it. 32 As for you, however, your bodies will fall in this wilderness.

33 Your children will be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years, and they will suffer for your unfaithfulness until the last of your bodies lies in the wilderness. 34 In keeping with the forty days you spied out the land, you shall bear your guilt forty years—a year for each day—and you will experience My alienation.

35 I, Yahweh, have spoken, and I will surely do these things to this entire wicked congregation, which has conspired against Me. They will meet their end in the wilderness, and there they will die."

THE PLAGUE ON THE TEN SPIES

36 So the men Moses had sent to spy out the land, who had returned and made the whole congregation grumble against him by bringing out a bad report about the land— 37 those men who had brought out the bad report about the land—were struck down by a plague before Yahweh. 38 Of those men who had gone to spy out the land, only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh remained alive.

39 And when Moses relayed these words to all the Israelites, the people mourned bitterly.

THE DEFEAT AT HORMAH // DEUTERONOMY 1:41–46

40 Early the next morning they got up and went up toward the ridge of the hill country. "We have indeed sinned," they said, "but we will go to the place Yahweh has promised."

41 But Moses said, "Why are you transgressing the commandment of Yahweh? This will not succeed! 42 Do not go up, lest you be struck down by your enemies, because Yahweh is not among you. 43 For there the Amalekites and Canaanites will face you, and you will fall by the sword. Because you have turned away from Yahweh, He will not be with you."

44 But they dared to go up to the ridge of the hill country, though neither Moses nor the ark of the covenant of Yahweh moved from the camp. 45 Then the Amalekites and Canaanites who lived in that part of the hill country came down, attacked them, and routed them all the way to Hormah.

Rules for offerings once they are in the land, and what to do about sins nobody meant to commit. A man gathering sticks on the Sabbath is put to death. Then God tells them to wear tassels with a blue cord on their clothes, so every time they look down, they remember His commands.

LAWS ABOUT OFFERINGS

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: After you enter the land that I am giving you as a home 3 and you present a food offering to Yahweh from the herd or flock to produce a pleasing aroma to Yahweh—either a burnt offering or a sacrifice, for a special vow or freewill offering or appointed feast— 4 then the one presenting his offering to Yahweh shall also present a grain offering of two quarts of fine flour mixed with a quart of olive oil. 5 With the burnt offering or sacrifice of each lamb, you are to prepare a quart of wine as a drink offering.

sent with the bull a grain offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with two quarts of olive oil. 10 Also present two quarts of wine as a drink offering. It is a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. 11 This is to be done for each bull, ram, lamb, or goat. 12 This is how you must prepare each one, no matter how many.

13 Everyone who is native-born shall prepare these things in this way when he presents a food offering as a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. 14 And for the generations to come, if a foreigner residing with you or someone else among you wants to prepare a food offering as a pleasing aroma to Yahweh, he is to do exactly as you do. 15 The assembly is to have the same statute both for you and for the foreign resident; it is a permanent statute for the generations to come. You and the foreigner shall be the same before Yahweh. 16 The same law and the same ordinance will apply both to you and to the foreigner residing with you."

17 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 18 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you enter the land to which I am bringing you 19 and you eat the food of the land, you shall lift up an offering to Yahweh. 20 From the first of your dough, you are to lift up a cake as a contribution; offer it just like an offering from the threshing floor. 21 Throughout your generations, you are to give Yahweh an offering from the first of your dough.

OFFERINGS FOR UNINTENTIONAL SINS

22 Now if you stray unintentionally and do not obey all these commandments that Yahweh has spoken to Moses— 23 all that Yahweh has commanded you through Moses from the day Yahweh gave them and continuing through the generations to come— 24 and if it was done unintentionally without the knowledge of the congregation, then the whole congregation is to prepare one young bull as a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh, with its grain offering and drink offering according to the regulation, and one male goat as a sin offering.

25 The priest is to make atonement for the whole congregation of Israel, so that they may be forgiven; for the sin was unintentional and they have brought to Yahweh a food offering and a sin offering, presented before Yahweh for their unintentional sin. 26 Then the whole congregation of Israel and the foreigners residing among them will be forgiven, since it happened to all the people unintentionally.

27 Also, if one person sins unintentionally, he is to present a year-old female goat as a sin offering. 28 And the priest shall make atonement before Yahweh on behalf of the person who erred by sinning unintentionally; and when atonement has been made for him, he will be forgiven. 29 You shall have the same law for the one who acts in error, whether he is a native-born Israelite or a foreigner residing among you.

30 But the person who sins defiantly, whether a native or foreigner, blasphemes Yahweh. That person shall be cut off from among his people. 31 He shall certainly be cut off, because he has despised the word of Yahweh and broken His commandment; his guilt remains on him."

A SABBATH-BREAKER STONED // EXODUS 31:12–17

32 While the Israelites were in the wilderness, a man was found gathering wood on the Sabbath day. 33 Those who found the man gathering wood brought him to Moses, Aaron, and the whole congregation, 34 and because it had not been declared what should be done to him, they placed him in custody.

35 And Yahweh said to Moses, "The man must surely be put to death. The whole congregation is to stone him outside the camp."

36 So the whole congregation took the man outside the camp and stoned him to death, as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

THE LAW OF TASSELS

37 And Yahweh said to Moses, 38 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them that throughout the generations to come they are to make for themselves tassels for the corners of their garments, with a blue cord on each tassel. 39 These will serve as tassels for you to look at, so that you may remember all the commandments of Yahweh, that you may obey them and not prostitute yourselves by following your own heart and your own eyes.

40 Then you will remember and obey all My commandments, and you will be holy to your God. 41 I am Yahweh your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am Yahweh your God."

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

Korah, a Levite, and Dathan and Abiram from Reuben lead 250 leaders against Moses and Aaron. Moses says, Tomorrow God will show who is His. The ground opens and swallows the rebels, and fire burns up the 250. The next day the people blame Moses, and a plague stops only when Aaron stands between the living and the dead.

KORAH'S REBELLION

1 Now Korah son of Izhar, the son of Kohath son of Levi, along with some Reubenites—Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth—conducted 2 a rebellion against Moses, along with 250 men of Israel renowned as leaders of the congregation and representatives in the assembly. 3 They came together against Moses and Aaron and told them, "You have taken too much upon yourselves! For everyone in the entire congregation is holy, and Yahweh is in their midst. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of Yahweh?"

4 When Moses heard this, he fell facedown. 5 Then he said to Korah and all his followers, "Tomorrow morning Yahweh will reveal who belongs to Him and who is holy, and He will bring that person near to Himself. The one He chooses He will bring near to Himself.

6 You, Korah, and all your followers are to do as follows: Take censers, 7 and tomorrow you are to place fire and incense in them in the presence of Yahweh. Then the man Yahweh chooses will be the one who is holy. It is you sons of Levi who have taken too much upon yourselves!"

8 Moses also said to Korah, "Now listen, you sons of Levi! 9 Is it not enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel and brought you near to Himself to perform the work at Yahweh's tabernacle, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them? 10 He has brought you near, you and all your fellow Levites, but you are seeking the priesthood as well. 11 Therefore, it is you and all your followers who have conspired against Yahweh! As for Aaron, who is he that you should grumble against him?"

12 Then Moses summoned Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, but they said, "We will not come! 13 Is it not enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness? Must you also appoint yourself as ruler over us? 14 Moreover, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? No, we will not come!"

15 Then Moses became very angry and said to Yahweh, "Do not regard their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them or mistreated a single one of them."

16 And Moses said to Korah, "You and all your followers are to appear before Yahweh tomorrow—you and they and Aaron. 17 Each man is to take his censer, place incense in it, and present it before Yahweh—250 censers. You and Aaron are to present your censers as well."

18 So each man took his censer, put fire and incense in it, and stood with Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 19 When Korah had gathered his

21 "Separate yourselves from this congregation so that I may consume them in an instant."

22 But Moses and Aaron fell facedown and said, "O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, when one man sins, will You be angry with the whole congregation?"

MOSES SEPARATES THE PEOPLE

23 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 24 "Tell the congregation to move away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram."

25 So Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him. 26 And he warned the congregation, "Move away now from the tents of these wicked men. Do not touch anything that belongs to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins."

27 So they moved away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Meanwhile, Dathan and Abiram had come out and stood at the entrances to their tents with their wives and children and infants.

THE EARTH SWALLOWS KORAH

28 Then Moses said, "This is how you will know that Yahweh has sent me to do all these things, for it was not my own doing:
29 If these men die a natural death, or if they suffer the fate of all men, then Yahweh has not sent me. 30 But if Yahweh brings about something unprecedented, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them and all that belongs to them so that they go down alive into Sheol, then you will know that these men have treated Yahweh with contempt."

31 As soon as Moses had finished saying all this, the ground beneath them split open, 32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and their households—all Korah's men and all their possessions. 33 They went down alive into Sheol with all they owned. The earth closed over them, and they vanished from the assembly.

34 At their cries, all the people of Israel who were around them fled, saying, "The earth may swallow us too!" 35 And fire came forth from Yahweh and consumed the 250 men who were offering the incense.

THE CENSERS RESERVED FOR HOLY USE

36 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 37 "Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to remove the censers from the flames and to scatter the coals far away, because the censers are holy. 38 As for the censers of those who sinned at the cost of their own lives, hammer them into sheets to overlay the altar, for these were presented before Yahweh, and so have become holy. They will serve as a sign to the Israelites."

39 So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers brought by those who had been burned up, and he had them hammered out to overlay the altar, 40 just as Yahweh commanded him through Moses. This was to be a reminder to the Israelites that no outsider who is not a descendant of Aaron should approach to offer incense before Yahweh, lest he become like Korah and his followers.

MURMURING AND PLAGUE // 1 CORINTHIANS 10:1–13

41 The next day the whole congregation of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying, "You have killed Yahweh's people!" 42 But when the congregation gathered against them, Moses and Aaron turned toward the Tent of Meeting, and suddenly the cloud covered it and the glory of Yahweh appeared.

43 Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the Tent of Meeting, 44 and Yahweh said to Moses, 45 "Get away from this congregation so that I may consume them in an instant." And Moses and Aaron fell facedown.

46 Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, place fire from the altar in it, and add incense. Go quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them, because wrath has come out from Yahweh; the plague
has begun."

47 So Aaron took the censer as Moses had ordered and ran into the midst of the assembly. And seeing that the plague had begun among the people, he offered the incense and made atonement for the people. 48 He stood between the living and the dead, and the plague was halted. 49 But those who died from the plague numbered 14,700, in addition to those who had died on account of Korah.

50 Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, since the plague had been halted.

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

To end the argument about who God chose, each tribe puts a staff in the tent overnight. In the morning Aaron's staff has sprouted, budded, bloomed and grown ripe almonds. It is kept in front of the ark as a warning to rebels. Case closed.

AARON'S STAFF BUDS

1 And Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and take from them twelve staffs, one from the leader of each tribe.
Write each man's name on his staff, 3 and write Aaron's name on the staff of Levi, because there must be one staff for the head of each tribe. 4 Place the staffs in the Tent of Meeting in front of the Testimony, where I meet with you. 5 The staff belonging to the man I choose will sprout, and I will rid Myself of the constant grumbling
of the Israelites against you."

6 So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and each of their leaders gave him a staff—one for each of the leaders of their tribes, twelve staffs in all. And Aaron's staff was among them. 7 Then Moses placed the staffs before Yahweh in the Tent of the Testimony.

8 The next day Moses entered the Tent of the Testimony and saw that Aaron's staff, representing the house of Levi, had sprouted, put forth buds, blossomed, and produced almonds. 9 Then Moses brought out all the staffs from Yahweh's presence to all the Israelites. They saw them, and each man took his own staff.

10 Yahweh said to Moses, "Put Aaron's staff back in front of the Testimony, to be kept as a sign for the rebellious, so that you may put an end to their grumbling against Me, lest they die." 11 So Moses did as Yahweh had commanded him.

12 Then the Israelites declared to Moses,
"Look, we are perishing! We are lost; we are all lost! 13 Anyone who comes near the tabernacle of Yahweh will die. Are we all going to perish?"

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

The priests and Levites guard the tent so nobody else dies coming too close. They get no land. Instead God says, I am your inheritance, and they live on the tithes of Israel. Even the Levites have to give a tenth of what they get. Nobody gets out of tithing.

DUTIES OF PRIESTS AND LEVITES

1 So Yahweh said to Aaron, "You and your sons and your father's house must bear the iniquity involving the sanctuary. And you and your sons alone must bear the iniquity involving your priesthood. 2 But bring with you also your brothers from the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may join you and assist you and your sons before the Tent of the Testimony. 3
And they shall attend to your duties and to all the duties of the Tent; but they must not come near to the furnishings of the sanctuary or the altar, or both they and you will die. 4 They are to join you and attend to the duties of the Tent of Meeting, doing all the work at the Tent; but no outsider may come near you.

5 And you shall attend to the duties of the sanctuary and of the altar, so that wrath may not fall on the Israelites again. 6 Behold, I Myself have selected your fellow Levites from the Israelites as a gift to you, dedicated to Yahweh to perform the service for the Tent of Meeting. 7 But only you and your sons shall attend to your priesthood for everything concerning the altar and what is inside the veil, and you are to perform that service. I am giving you the work of the priesthood as a gift, but any outsider who comes near the sanctuary must be put to death."

OFFERINGS FOR PRIESTS AND LEVITES

8 Then Yahweh said to Aaron, "Behold, I have put you in charge of My offerings. As for all the sacred offerings of the Israelites, I have given them to you and your sons as a portion and a permanent statute. 9 A portion of the most holy offerings reserved from the fire will be yours. From all the offerings they render to Me as most holy offerings, whether grain offerings or sin offerings or guilt offerings, that part belongs to you and your sons. 10 You are to eat it as a most holy offering, and every male may eat it. You shall regard it as holy.

11 And this is yours as well: the offering of their gifts, along with all the wave offerings of the Israelites. I have given this to you and your sons and daughters as a permanent statute. Every ceremonially clean person in your household may eat it. 12 I give you all the freshest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain that the Israelites give to Yahweh as their firstfruits. 13 The firstfruits of everything in their land that they bring to Yahweh will belong to you. Every ceremonially clean person in your household may eat them.

14 Every devoted thing in Israel belongs to you. 15 The firstborn of every womb, whether man or beast, that is offered to Yahweh belongs to you. But you must surely redeem every firstborn son and every firstborn male of unclean animals. 16 You are to pay the redemption price for a month-old male according to your valuation: 2 ounces of silver, weighed by the sanctuary standard.

17 But you must not redeem the firstborn of an ox, a sheep, or a goat; they are holy. You are to splatter their blood on the altar and burn their fat as a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. 18 And their meat belongs to you, just as the breast and right thigh of the wave offering belong to you.

19 All the holy offerings that the Israelites present to Yahweh I give to you and to your sons and daughters as a permanent statute. It is a permanent covenant of salt before Yahweh for you and your offspring."

20 Then Yahweh said to Aaron, "You will have no inheritance in their land, nor will you have any portion among them. I am your portion and your inheritance among the Israelites.

21 Behold, I have given to the Levites all the tithes in Israel as an inheritance in return for the work they do, the service of the Tent of Meeting. 22 No longer may the Israelites come near to the Tent of Meeting, or they will incur guilt and die.

23 The Levites are to perform the work of the Tent of Meeting, and they must bear their iniquity. This is a permanent statute for the generations to come. The Levites will not receive an inheritance among the Israelites. 24 For I have given to the Levites as their inheritance the tithe that the Israelites present to Yahweh as a contribution. That is why I told them that they would not receive an inheritance among the Israelites."

25 And Yahweh instructed Moses, 26 "Speak to the Levites and tell them: 'When you receive from the Israelites the tithe that I have given you as your inheritance, you must present part of it as an offering to Yahweh—a tithe of the tithe. 27 Your offering will be reckoned to you as grain from the threshing floor or juice from the winepress. 28 So you are to present an offering to Yahweh from all the tithes you receive from the Israelites, and from these you are to give Yahweh's offering to Aaron the priest. 29 You must present the offering due Yahweh from all the best of every gift, the holiest part of it.'

30 Therefore say to the Levites, 'When you have presented the best part, it will be reckoned to you as the produce of the threshing floor or winepress. 31 And you and your households may eat the rest of it anywhere; it is the compensation for your work at the Tent of Meeting. 32 Once you have presented the best part of it, you will not incur guilt because of it. But you must not defile the sacred offerings of the Israelites, or else you will die.'"

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

The red heifer: a perfect red cow with no defect, never yoked, is burned outside the camp with cedar, hyssop and red yarn. Its ashes are mixed with water to make clean anyone who touched a dead body. Even the priest who does it becomes unclean. It is one of the strangest laws in the Bible.

THE RED HEIFER

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 2 "This is the statute of the law that Yahweh has commanded: Instruct the Israelites to bring you an unblemished red heifer that has no defect and has never been placed under a yoke. 3 Give it to Eleazar the priest, and he will have it brought outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.

4 Eleazar the priest is to take some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the Tent of Meeting. 5 Then the heifer must be burned in his sight. Its hide, its flesh, and its blood are to be burned, along with its dung. 6 The priest is to take cedar wood, hyssop, and scarlet wool and throw them onto the burning heifer.

7 Then the priest must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; after that he may enter the camp, but he will be ceremonially unclean until evening. 8 The one who burned the heifer must also wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and he too will be ceremonially unclean until evening.

9 Then a man who is ceremonially clean is to gather up the ashes of the heifer and store them in a ceremonially clean place outside the camp. They must be kept by the congregation of Israel for preparing the water of purification; this is for purification from sin. 10 The man who has gathered up the ashes of the heifer must also wash his clothes, and he will be ceremonially unclean until evening. This is a permanent statute for the Israelites and for the foreigner residing among them.

PURIFICATION OF THE UNCLEAN

11 Whoever touches any dead body will be unclean for seven days. 12 He must purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean. 13 Anyone who touches a human corpse and fails to purify himself defiles the tabernacle of Yahweh. That person must be cut off from Israel. He remains unclean, because the water of purification has not been sprinkled on him, and his uncleanness is still on him.

14 This is the law when a person dies in a tent: Everyone who enters the tent and everyone already in the tent will be unclean for seven days, 15 and any open container without a lid fastened on it is unclean.

16 Anyone in the open field who touches someone who has been killed by the sword or has died of natural causes, or anyone who touches a human bone or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.

17 For the purification of the unclean person, take some of the ashes of the burnt sin offering, put them in a jar, and pour fresh water over them. 18 Then a man who is ceremonially clean is to take some hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle the tent, all the furnishings, and the people who were there. He is also to sprinkle the one who touched a bone, a grave, or a person who has died or been slain.

19 The man who is ceremonially clean is to sprinkle the unclean person on the third day and on the seventh day. After he purifies the unclean person on the seventh day, the one being cleansed must wash his clothes and bathe in water, and that evening he will be clean. 20 But if a person who is unclean does not purify himself, he will be cut off from the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of Yahweh. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean.

21 This is a permanent statute for the people: The one who sprinkles the water of purification must wash his clothes, and whoever touches the water of purification will be unclean until evening. 22 Anything the unclean person touches will become unclean, and anyone who touches it will be unclean until evening."

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

Miriam dies at Kadesh. The people have no water and blame Moses again. God tells him to speak to the rock, but Moses strikes it twice. Water comes out, but God tells Moses and Aaron they will not lead Israel into the land. Edom will not let them pass, and Aaron dies on Mount Hor.

WATER FROM THE ROCK // EXODUS 17:1–7

1 In the first month, the whole congregation of Israel entered the Wilderness of Zin and stayed in Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried.

2 Now there was no water for the congregation, so they gathered against Moses and Aaron. 3 The people quarreled with Moses and said, "If only we had perished with our brothers before Yahweh! 4 Why have you brought Yahweh's assembly into this wilderness for us and our livestock to die here? 5 Why have you led us up out of Egypt to bring us to this wretched place? It is not a place of grain, figs, vines, or pomegranates—and there is no water to drink!"

6 Then Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. They fell face-down, and the glory of Yahweh appeared to them. 7 And Yahweh said to Moses, 8 "Take the staff and assemble the congregation. You and your brother Aaron are to speak to the rock while they watch, and it will pour out its water. You will bring out water from the rock and provide drink for the congregation and their livestock."

9 So Moses took the staff from Yahweh's presence, just as he had been commanded. 10 Then Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly in front of the rock, and Moses said to them, "Listen now, you rebels, must we bring you water out of this rock?" 11 Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff, so that a great amount of water gushed out, and the congregation and their livestock were able to drink.

12 But Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust Me to show My holiness in the sight of the Israelites, you will not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them."

13 These were the waters of Meribah, where the Israelites quarreled with Yahweh, and He showed His holiness among them.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHY WAS MOSES BANNED?

The Rock at Meribah

NUMBERS 20:2 TO 13 · 20:24 · 27:14 · PSALM 106:32 TO 33

WHAT HAPPENED

The people had no water and blamed Moses again. God told him to take the staff and speak to the rock in front of everyone. Moses said, Listen, you rebels, must we bring you water out of this rock? Then he struck the rock twice. Water poured out, but God said, Because you did not trust Me to show My holiness, you will not bring this assembly into the land, 20:12.

THE FIRST TIME

This was not the first rock. Almost forty years earlier, in Exodus 17:6, God told Moses to strike a rock at Horeb, and water came out. This time God told him to take the staff but speak to the rock. That difference is where most of the explanations start.

HE STRUCK INSTEAD OF SPEAKING

The great Jewish teacher Rashi, about AD 1100, said the sin was hitting the rock when God said to speak to it. Speaking would have shown God's power even more. Others, like Nachmanides, answered that God told Moses to take the staff, so some striking was expected.

HE LOST HIS TEMPER

Maimonides, about AD 1170, said the sin was anger. Moses called the people rebels when God was not angry with them, and the people thought God was. Psalm 106:32 to 33 says they made his spirit bitter and he spoke rashly with his lips.

HE TOOK THE CREDIT

Some Jewish teachers point to one word: must we bring you water? It sounded like Moses and Aaron were doing the miracle, not God. Numbers 27:14 says they failed to treat God as holy in front of the people.

The Rock Was Christ

DEUTERONOMY 1:37 · 3:26 · 1 CORINTHIANS 10:4 · MATTHEW 17:3

HE DID NOT BELIEVE

God names the problem in 20:12: you did not trust Me. John Calvin said unbelief was the root of it. The Bible teacher Matthew Poole said striking twice looked like Moses doubted one strike would do it.

BECAUSE OF YOU

In Deuteronomy 1:37 and 3:26 Moses tells Israel that God was angry with him because of you. Many read this as the people pushing Moses into his sin. Some scholars think Deuteronomy gives a different reason that goes back to the spies.

THE ROCK WAS CHRIST

Paul says Israel drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ, 1 Corinthians 10:4. Old Jewish stories also told of a rock or well that rolled along with Israel. Many Christian teachers, especially from the 1800s on, say God struck the rock once in Exodus 17, a picture of Christ dying once. They say striking it again spoiled that picture, since Hebrews 10:10 says Christ was offered once for all.

A HAPPY ENDING

Moses never entered the land in his lifetime. But many preachers point out that centuries later he stood on a mountain in the Promised Land, talking with Jesus at the Transfiguration, Matthew 17:3.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God said speak, and Moses struck. He spoke harshly to the people. God said he did not trust Him or honor Him as holy in front of everyone. Even so, God still gave the water. Leaders are held to a higher standard, Numbers 20:12 and James 3:1.

EDOM REFUSES PASSAGE

14 From Kadesh, Moses sent messengers to tell the king of Edom, "This is what your brother Israel says: You know all the hardship that has befallen us, 15 how our fathers went down to Egypt, where we lived many years. The Egyptians mistreated us and our fathers, 16 and when we cried out

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW | PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE | MIRACLES | GOD SPEAKING

to Yahweh, He heard our voice, sent an angel, and brought us out of Egypt.

Now look, we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory. 17 Please let us pass through your land. We will not go through any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will stay on the King's Highway; we will not turn to the right or to the left until we have passed through your territory."

18 But Edom answered, "You may not travel through our land, or we will come out and confront you with the sword."

19 "We will stay on the main road," the Israelites replied, "and if we or our herds drink your water, we will pay for it. There will be no problem; only let us pass through on foot."

20 But Edom insisted, "You may not pass through." And they came out to confront the Israelites with a large army and a strong hand. 21 So Edom refused to allow Israel to pass through their territory, and Israel turned away from them.

THE DEATH OF AARON

22 After they had set out from Kadesh, the whole congregation of Israel came to Mount Hor. 23 And at Mount Hor, near the border of the land of Edom, Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 24 "Aaron will be gathered to his people; he will not enter the land that I have given the Israelites, because both of you rebelled against My command at the waters of Meribah. 25 Take Aaron and his son Eleazar and bring them up Mount Hor. 26 Remove Aaron's priestly garments and put them on his son Eleazar. Aaron will be gathered to his people and will die there."

27 So Moses did as Yahweh had commanded, and they climbed Mount Hor in the sight of the whole congregation. 28 After Moses had removed Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar, Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. 29 When the whole congregation saw that Aaron had died, the entire house of Israel mourned for him thirty days.

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel defeats the king of Arad. Then the people complain about the manna again, and venomous snakes bite them. God tells Moses to make a bronze snake on a pole, and anyone who looks at it lives. Then Israel sings at a well and defeats two kings, Sihon and Og.

THE DEFEAT OF ARAD

1 When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim, he attacked Israel and captured some prisoners. 2 So Israel made a vow to Yahweh: "If You will deliver this people into our hands, we will devote their cities to destruction."

3 And Yahweh heard Israel's plea and delivered up the Canaanites. Israel devoted them and their cities to destruction; so they named the place Hormah.

THE BRONZE SERPENT

4 Then they set out from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, in order to bypass the land of Edom. But the people grew impatient on the journey 5 and spoke against God and against Moses: "Why have you led us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? There is no bread or water, and we detest this wretched food!"

6 So Yahweh sent venomous snakes among the people, and many of the Israelites were bitten and died.

7 Then the people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against Yahweh and against you. Intercede with Yahweh so He will take the snakes away from us." So Moses interceded for the people.

8 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent and mount it on a pole. When anyone who is bitten looks at it, he will live." 9 So Moses made a bronze snake and mounted it on a pole. If anyone who

THE TIMNA COPPER SNAKE

NUMBERS 21:6 TO 9 · 2 KINGS 18:4 · JOHN 3:14 TO 15 · EXODUS 18:1

Site 200 at Timna today: the shrine under the cliff, with standing stones at the left. Photo Erez Ben Yosef, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A small copper snake, about 5 inches long, with a head covered in gold. It was found in a desert shrine at Timna, the copper mines in the far south of Israel. Many say it reminds them of the bronze snake Moses made in Numbers 21:9.

HOW OLD IT IS

The snake comes from the shrine's last phase, when Midianites used it, about the 1100s BC. Experts date it by the layers of the site and the pottery found with it.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Beno Rothenberg dug the shrine, now called Site 200, in 1969. It sits at the foot of the red sandstone cliffs called Solomon's Pillars.

THE SHRINE

Egyptian miners built a small shrine to their goddess Hathor here, beginning around 1300 BC. After the Egyptians left, Midianites took it over. They scratched out Hathor's face, set up a row of standing stones, and covered the shrine with red and yellow wool cloth held up by poles, like a tent. Some scholars say it looks a lot like the tabernacle.

WHY MIDIANITES MATTER

Moses' father in law Jethro was a priest of Midian, Exodus 18:1, and Moses lived in Midian for forty years, Acts 7:30. Midian shows up again in Numbers 22, 25 and 31.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The snake is shown at the Eretz Israel Museum in Tel Aviv, in its Nehushtan Pavilion, named after the bronze snake in 2 Kings 18:4.

THE BIG DEBATE

Reports disagree on exactly where in the shrine the snake lay, and some scholars now think a local shrine was there before the Egyptians came, not after. There is no writing on the snake, so nobody knows who made it or why. Snakes were used as symbols of healing and protection all over the ancient world.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It is not Moses' snake, and it does not prove Numbers 21 happened. It shows that people in the same desert, in about the same age, made copper snakes for their worship.

THE JOURNEY TO MOAB

10 Then the Israelites set out and camped
at Oboth. 11 They journeyed from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim in the wilderness opposite Moab to the east. 12 From there they set out and camped in the Valley of Zered. 13 From there they moved on and camped on the other side of the Arnon, in the wilderness that extends into the Amorite territory.

Now the Arnon is the border between the Moabites and the Amorites. 14 Therefore it is stated in the Book of the Wars of Yah-
weh:

"Waheb in Suphah
and the wadis of the Arnon,

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

15 even the slopes of the wadis
that extend to the site of Ar
and lie along the border of Moab."

16 From there they went on to Beer, the well where Yahweh said to Moses, "Gather the people so that I may give them water." 17 Then Israel sang this song:

"Spring up, O well,
all of you sing to it!
18 The princes dug the well;
the nobles of the people hollowed it out with their scepters and with their staffs."

From the wilderness the Israelites went on to Mattanah, 19 and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, 20 and from Bamoth to the valley in Moab where the top of Pisgah overlooks the wasteland.

THE DEFEAT OF SIHON // DEUTERONOMY 2:24–37

21 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, 22 "Let us pass through your land. We will not turn aside into any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will stay on the King's Highway until we have passed through your territory."

23 But Sihon would not let Israel pass through his territory. Instead, he gathered his whole army and went out to confront Israel in the wilderness. When he came to Jahaz, he fought against Israel. 24 And Israel put him to the sword and took possession of his land, from the Arnon to the Jabbok—but only up to the border of the Ammonites, because it was fortified.

25 Israel captured all the cities of the Amorites and occupied them, including Heshbon and all its villages. 26 Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and taken all his land as far as the Arnon. 27 That is why the poets say:

"Come to Heshbon, let it be rebuilt;
let the city of Sihon be restored.
28 For a fire went out from Heshbon,
a blaze from the city of Sihon.
It consumed Ar of Moab,
the rulers of Arnon's heights.
29 Woe to you, O Moab!
You are destroyed, O people of Chemosh!
He gave up his sons as refugees,
and his daughters into captivity
to Sihon king of the Amorites.
30 But we have overthrown them;
Heshbon is destroyed as far as Dibon.
We demolished them as far as Nophah,
which reaches to Medeba."

THE DEFEAT OF OG // DEUTERONOMY 3:1–11

31 So Israel lived in the land of the Amorites. 32 After Moses had sent spies to Jazer, Israel captured its villages and drove out the Amorites who were there.

33 Then they turned and went up the road to Bashan, and Og king of Bashan and his whole army came out to meet them in battle at Edrei.

34 But Yahweh said to Moses, "Do not fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, along with all his people and his land. Do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon."

35 So they struck down Og, along with his sons and his whole army, until no remnant was left. And they took possession of his land.

Balak, king of Moab, is scared of Israel and hires Balaam, a famous seer, to curse them. God tells Balaam not to go, then lets him go but says to speak only what He says. On the way, the angel of Yahweh blocks the road, and Balaam's donkey sees him first and starts talking. The donkey wins the argument.

BALAK SUMMONS BALAAM

1 Then the Israelites traveled on and camped in the plains of Moab near the Jordan, across from Jericho.

2 Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites, 3 and Moab was terrified of the people because they were numerous. Indeed, Moab dreaded the Israelites. 4 So the Moabites said to the elders of Midian, "This horde will devour everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field."

Since Balak son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time, 5 he sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the Euphrates in the land of his people.

"Behold, a people has come out of Egypt," said Balak. "They cover the face of the land and have settled next to me. 6 So please come now and put a curse on this people, because they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I may be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land; for I know that those you bless are blessed, and those you curse are cursed."

7 The elders of Moab and Midian departed with the fees for divination in hand. They came to Balaam and relayed to him the words of Balak.

8 "Spend the night here," Balaam replied, "and I will give you the answer that Yahweh speaks to me." So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

9 Then God came to Balaam and asked, "Who are these men with you?"

10 And Balaam said to God, "Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent me this message: 11 'Behold, a people has come out of Egypt, and they cover the face of the land. Now come and put a curse on them for me. Perhaps I may be able to fight against them and drive them away.'"

12 But God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them. You are not to curse this people, for they are blessed."

13 So Balaam got up the next morning and said to Balak's princes, "Go back to your homeland, because Yahweh has refused to let me go with you."

14 And the princes of Moab arose, returned to Balak, and said, "Balaam refused to come with us."

15 Then Balak sent other princes, more numerous and more distinguished than the first messengers. 16 They came to Balaam and said, "This is what Balak son of Zippor says: 'Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me, 17 for I will honor you richly and do whatever you say. So please come and put a curse on this people for me!'"

18 But Balaam replied to the servants of Balak, "If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything small or great to go beyond the command of Yahweh my God. 19 So now, please stay here overnight as the others did, that I may find out what else Yahweh has to tell me."

20 That night God came to Balaam and said, "Since these men have come to summon you, get up and go with them, but you must only do what I tell you." 21 So in the morning Balaam got up, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.

THE ANGEL AND BALAAM'S DONKEY

22 Then God's anger was kindled because Balaam was going along, and the angel of Yahweh stood in the road to oppose him. Balaam was riding his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

23 When the donkey saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand, she turned off the path and went into a field. So Balaam beat her to return her to the path.

24 Then the angel of Yahweh stood in a narrow passage between two vineyards, with walls on either side. 25 And the donkey saw the angel of Yahweh and pressed herself against the wall, crushing Balaam's foot against it. So he beat her once again.

26 And the angel of Yahweh moved on ahead and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn to the right or left. 27 When the donkey saw the angel of Yahweh, she lay down under Balaam, and he became furious and beat her with his staff.

28 Then Yahweh opened the donkey's mouth, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you that you have beaten me these three times?"
29 Balaam answered the donkey, "You have made a fool of me! If I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you right now!" 30 But the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not the donkey you have ridden all your life until today? Have I ever treated you this way before?"
"No," he replied.
31 Then Yahweh opened Balaam's eyes,
and he saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand. And Balaam bowed low and fell
facedown.
32 The angel of Yahweh asked him, "Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to oppose you, because your way is perverse before me. 33 The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away, then by now I would surely have killed you and let her live." 34 "I have sinned," Balaam said to the angel of Yahweh, "for I did not realize that you were standing in the road to confront me. And now, if this is displeasing in your sight, I will go back home."
35 But the angel of Yahweh said to Balaam,
"Go with the men, but you are to speak only what I tell you." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.
36 When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the Moabite city on the Arnon border, at the edge of his territory. 37 And he said to Balaam, "Did I not send you an urgent summons? Why did you not come to me? Am I really not able to reward you richly?"
38 "See, I have come to you," Balaam replied, "but can I say just anything? I must speak only the word that God puts in my mouth."

39 So Balaam accompanied Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth. 40 Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, and he gave portions to Balaam and the princes who were
with him.
41 The next morning, Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-baal. From there he could see the outskirts of the camp of the people.

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS
Balak builds seven altars and waits for a curse. Instead Balaam blesses Israel. Balak tries another hill and gets another blessing: God is not a man, that He should lie. Balak is having a very bad day.

BALAAM'S FIRST ORACLE

1 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me seven altars here, and prepare for me
seven bulls and seven rams."
2 So Balak did as Balaam had instructed, and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar.
3 "Stay here by your burnt offering while I am gone," Balaam said to Balak. "Perhaps Yahweh will meet with me. And whatever
He reveals to me, I will tell you."
So Balaam went off to a barren height, 4
and God met with him. "I have set up seven altars," Balaam said, "and on each altar I have offered a bull and a ram."
5 Then Yahweh put a message in Balaam's mouth, saying, "Return to Balak and give him this message."
6 So he returned to Balak, who was standing there beside his burnt offering, with all the princes of Moab.
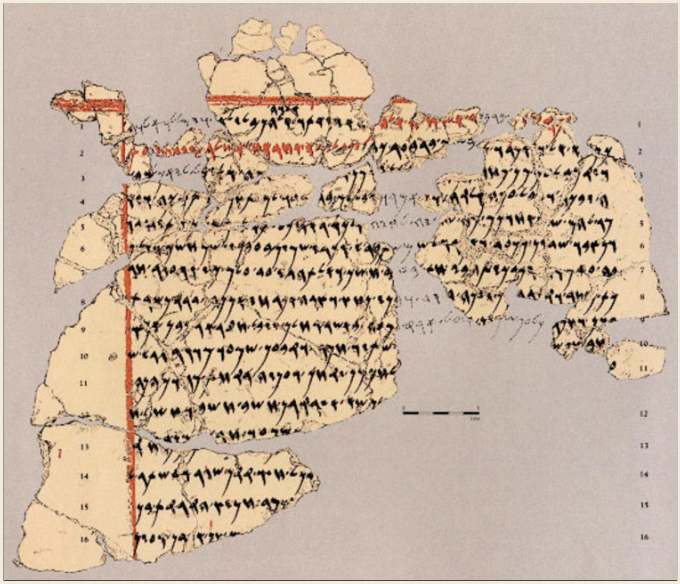
7 And Balaam lifted up an oracle, saying:



"Balak brought me from Aram,
the king of Moab from the mountains of the east.
'Come,' he said, 'put a curse on Jacob for
me;
come and denounce Israel!'

weh has not denounced?

FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: HIGH

THE DEIR ALLA BALAAM INSCRIPTION

NUMBERS 22 TO 24 · 31:8 · JOSHUA 13:22

A drawing of the largest group of plaster pieces, Combination I. The red lines and words are in red ink on the wall. Drawing by Disdero, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

Writing in black and red ink on a white plaster wall, found at Tell Deir Alla in the Jordan Valley. It begins, The book of Balaam son of Beor, a seer of the gods. It is the same name and the same father as the Balaam of Numbers 22:5.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 800 BC. Different experts give dates from about 840 to 700 BC. It was painted long after the time of Moses.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

A Dutch team from Leiden University led by H. J. Franken found it in 1967. An earthquake had knocked the wall down, leaving about 119 pieces of inked plaster. Jacob Hoftijzer and Gerrit van der Kooij put the pieces together and published them in 1976.

WHAT IT SAYS

The gods come to Balaam at night and show him a vision. The Shaddayin, gods whose name sounds like Shaddai, plan a disaster: darkness, no sun and fire. In the morning Balaam fasts and weeps, then tells his people what he saw. Much of the rest is broken and hard to read.

THE LANGUAGE

Scholars still argue. It has some things in common with Aramaic and some with Hebrew and the languages of Canaan. Many call it a local dialect from the east side of the Jordan.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In Amman, the capital of Jordan.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

People east of the Jordan were still telling stories about a famous seer named Balaam son of Beor, centuries after Numbers places him there. Like Numbers 24:4, it connects him with visions and with the name Shaddai.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It says nothing about Israel, Moab, Balak or a talking donkey. Its Balaam serves many gods. It shows the Bible's Balaam was a well known figure in the region, not that the events of Numbers 22 to 24 happened.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

and I watch them from the hills.
Behold, a people dwelling apart,
not reckoning themselves among the nations.
10 Who can count the dust of Jacob or number even a fourth of Israel?
Let me die the death of the righteous;
let my end be like theirs!"

11 Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you here to curse my enemies, and behold, you have only blessed them!"

12 But Balaam replied, "Should I not speak exactly what Yahweh puts in my mouth?"

BALAAM'S SECOND ORACLE

13 Then Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place where you can see them. You will only see the outskirts of their camp—not all of them. And from there, curse them for me."

14 So Balak took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, where he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

15 Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your burnt offering while I meet Yahweh over there."

16 And Yahweh met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth, saying, "Return to Balak and speak what I tell you."

17 So he returned to Balak, who was standing there by his burnt offering with the princes of Moab.

"What did Yahweh say?" Balak asked.

18 Then Balaam lifted up an oracle, saying:

"Arise, O Balak, and listen;
give ear to me, O son of Zippor.
19 God is not a man, that He should lie,
or a son of man, that He should change His mind.
Does He speak and not act?
Does He promise and not fulfill?
20 I have indeed received a command to bless;
He has blessed, and I cannot change it.
21 He considers no disaster for Jacob;
He sees no trouble for Israel.
Yahweh their God is with them,
and the shout of the King is among them.
22 God brought them out of Egypt
with strength like a wild ox.
23 For there is no spell against Jacob and no divination against Israel.
It will now be said of Jacob and Israel,
'What great things God has done!'
24 Behold, the people rise like a lioness;
they rouse themselves like a lion,
not resting until they devour their prey
and drink the blood of the slain."

25 Now Balak said to Balaam, "Then neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!"

26 But Balaam replied, "Did I not tell you that whatever Yahweh says, I must do?"

27 "Please come," said Balak, "I will take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God that you curse them for me from there."

28 And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which overlooks the wasteland.

29 Then Balaam said, "Build for me seven altars here, and prepare for me seven bulls and seven rams."

30 So Balak did as Balaam had instructed, and he offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

Balaam blesses Israel a third time, and Balak is furious. So Balaam gives him a bonus prophecy for free: A star will come out of Jacob, and a scepter will rise out of Israel. Then he prophesies against Moab, Edom and Amalek and goes home. Balak paid for a curse and got a sermon.

BALAAM'S THIRD ORACLE

1 And when Balaam saw that it pleased Yahweh to bless Israel, he did not seek omens as on previous occasions, but he turned his face toward the wilderness. 2 When Balaam looked up and saw Israel encamped tribe by tribe, the Spirit of God came upon him, 3 and he lifted up an oracle, saying:

the prophecy of a man whose eyes are open,
4 the prophecy of one who hears the words of God,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
who bows down with eyes wide open:
5 How lovely are your tents, O Jacob,
your dwellings, O Israel!
6 They spread out like palm groves,
like gardens beside a stream,
like aloes Yahweh has planted,
like cedars beside the waters.
7 Water will flow from his buckets,
and his seed will have abundant water.
His king will be greater than Agag,
and his kingdom will be exalted.
8 God brought him out of Egypt
with strength like a wild ox,
to devour hostile nations and crush their bones,
to pierce them with arrows.
9 He crouches, he lies down like a lion,
like a lioness—who dares to rouse him?
Blessed are those who bless you and cursed are those who curse you."

BALAK DISMISSES BALAAM

10 Then Balak's anger burned against Balaam, and he struck his hands together and said to Balaam, "I summoned you to curse my enemies, but behold, you have persisted in blessing them these three times. 11 Therefore, flee at once to your home! I said I would reward you richly, but instead Yahweh has denied your reward."

12 Balaam answered Balak, "Did I not already tell the messengers you sent me 13 that even if Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything of my own accord, good or bad, to go beyond the command of Yahweh? I must speak whatever Yahweh says. 14 Now I am going back to my people, but come, let me warn you what this people will do to your people in the days to come."

BALAAM'S FOURTH ORACLE

15 Then Balaam lifted up an oracle, saying,

"This is the prophecy of Balaam son of Beor,
the prophecy of a man whose eyes are open,
16 the prophecy of one who hears the words of God,
who has knowledge from the Most High,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
who bows down with eyes wide open:
17 I see him, but not now;
I behold him, but not near.
A star will come forth from Jacob,
and a scepter will arise from Israel.
He will crush the skulls of Moab
and strike down all the sons of Sheth.
18 Edom will become a possession,
as will Seir, his enemy;
but Israel will perform with valor.
19 A ruler will come from Jacob and destroy the survivors of the city."

BALAAM'S FINAL THREE ORACLES

20 Then Balaam saw Amalek and lifted up an oracle, saying:

"Amalek was first among the nations,
but his end is destruction."

21 Next he saw the Kenites and lifted up an oracle, saying:

"Your dwelling place is secure,
and your nest is set in a cliff.
22 Yet Kain will be destroyed
when Asshur takes you captive."

23 Once more Balaam lifted up an oracle, saying:

"Ah, who can live
unless God has ordained it?
24 Ships will come from the coasts of Cyprus;
they will subdue Asshur and Eber,
but they too will perish forever."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

BALAAM

Prophet or Sorcerer?

NUMBERS 22 TO 24 · 31:8, 16 · DEUTERONOMY 23:4 TO 5 · JOSHUA 13:22

WHAT NUMBERS SAYS

Balak, king of Moab, hired Balaam to curse Israel. God spoke to Balaam, the Spirit of God came on him, 24:2, and every time he opened his mouth to curse, a blessing came out. His last prophecy says a star will come out of Jacob, 24:17. Then he went home. But later Israel killed him with the kings of Midian, and Moses said the sin at Peor happened on Balaam's advice, 31:8 and 31:16.

WHAT THE REST OF THE BIBLE SAYS

Deuteronomy 23:4 to 5 and Nehemiah 13:2 say he was hired to curse and God turned it into a blessing. Joshua 13:22 calls him the diviner, a word for a fortune teller. Peter calls him a prophet who loved the wages of wickedness, 2 Peter 2:15 to 16. Jude 11 warns about Balaam's error for profit. Jesus says Balaam taught Balak to lead Israel into idol feasts and sexual sin, Revelation 2:14.

WHO WAS BALAAM?

He came from Pethor, near the Euphrates River, hundreds of miles away, 22:5. Balak's messengers brought him the fee for divination, 22:7, so he was a famous seer for hire. A wall inscription from about 800 BC, found in Jordan, also names Balaam son of Beor. See the Deir Alla Field Notes page, p.260.

THE TALKING DONKEY

Many readers take it as a real miracle, and 2 Peter 2:16 talks about it as something that happened. An old Jewish teaching says the donkey's mouth was one of the things God made on the evening of the sixth day of creation. Maimonides said the whole scene happened in a vision. A few later teachers thought Balaam only heard the donkey's cries as words.

The Star out of Jacob

NUMBERS 24:17 · MATTHEW 2:2 · REVELATION 22:16

A REAL PROPHET WHO WENT BAD

Some say God really spoke through Balaam, as Peter calls him a prophet, but his heart was set on money. He said the right words and still found another way to hurt Israel.

A SORCERER GOD USED ANYWAY

Others say Balaam was a pagan fortune teller, as Joshua 13:22 calls him, and God took over his mouth for a few days to show that nobody can curse what God has blessed.

JEWISH TRADITION

The rabbis remembered him two ways. One old teaching says no prophet like Moses arose in Israel, but one did among the nations, and names Balaam. Another says the students of Abraham have a good eye and a humble spirit, but the students of wicked Balaam have an evil eye, a proud spirit and endless greed.

THE STAR

An old Aramaic translation of 24:17 reads, a king will rise from Jacob, and the Messiah will be anointed from Israel. The Dead Sea Scrolls use the star verse too. About AD 132, Rabbi Akiva called the rebel leader Simon bar Kosiba the star and the Messiah, and his followers called him Bar Kokhba, son of the star. Christians like Origen linked the star to the one the wise men followed, Matthew 2:2.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Balaam was a famous seer from outside Israel, hired to curse, who blessed instead. Outside these chapters the Bible remembers him for greed and for Peor. His star prophecy became one of the most loved Messiah promises.

25

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS

What Balaam could not do with a curse, Moab and Midian do with sin. Israelite men sleep with Moabite women and worship Baal of Peor. A plague breaks out. When an Israelite brings a Midianite woman into his tent in front of everyone, Phinehas stops the plague with a spear. 24,000 die.

MOAB SEDUCES ISRAEL // 1 CORINTHIANS 10:1–13

1 While Israel was staying in Shittim, the men began to indulge in sexual immorality with the daughters of Moab, 2 who also invited them to the sacrifices for their gods.
And the people ate and bowed down to these gods. 3 So Israel joined in worshiping Baal of Peor, and the anger of Yahweh burned against them.

4 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of the people and execute them in broad daylight before Yahweh, so that His fierce anger may turn away from Israel."

5 So Moses told the judges of Israel, "Each of you must kill all of his men who have joined in worshiping Baal of Peor."

THE ZEAL OF PHINEHAS

6 Just then an Israelite man brought to his family a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses and the whole congregation of Israel while they were weeping at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. 7 On seeing this, Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, got up from the assembly, took a spear in his hand, 8 followed the Israelite into the tent, and drove the spear through both of them—through the Israelite and on through the belly of the woman.

So the plague against the Israelites was halted, 9 but those who died in the plague numbered 24,000.

10 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 11 "Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned My wrath away from the Israelites; for he was zealous for My sake among them, so that I did not consume the Israelites in My zeal. 12 Declare, therefore, that I am granting him My covenant of peace. 13 It will be a covenant of permanent priesthood for him and his descendants, because he was zealous for his God and made atonement for the Israelites."

14 The name of the Israelite who was slain with the Midianite woman was Zimri son of Salu, the leader of a Simeonite family. 15 And the name of the slain Midianite woman was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur, a tribal chief of a Midianite family.

16 And Yahweh said to Moses, 17 "Attack the Midianites and strike them dead. 18 For they assailed you deceitfully when they seduced you in the matter of Peor and their sister Cozbi, the daughter of the Midianite leader, the woman who was killed on the day the plague came because of Peor."

26

CHAPTER 26 IN 30 SECONDS

Forty years later, God orders a second census. The new total is 601,730. And of all the men counted at Sinai, only two are still alive besides Moses: Caleb and Joshua, just as God said. A whole generation is gone. The new one is ready.

THE SECOND CENSUS OF ISRAEL // NUMBERS 1:1–4

1 After the plague had ended, Yahweh said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, 2 "Take a census of the whole congregation of Israel by the houses of their fathers—all those twenty years of age or older who can serve in the army of Israel."

3 So on the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho, Moses and Eleazar the priest issued the instruction, 4 "Take a census of the men twenty years of age or older, as Yahweh has commanded Moses."

And these were the Israelites who came out of the land of Egypt:

THE TRIBE OF REUBEN

5 Reuben was the firstborn of Israel. These were the descendants of Reuben:

the Palluite clan from Pallu,
6 the Hezronite clan from Hezron,
and the Carmite clan from Carmi.

7 These were the clans of Reuben, and their registration numbered 43,730.

the Elonite clan from Elon,
and the Jahleelite clan from Jahleel.
27 These were the clans of Zebulun, and their registration numbered 60,500.

THE TRIBE OF MANASSEH

28 The descendants of Joseph included
the clans of Manasseh and Ephraim.
29 These were the descendants of Manasseh:
The Machirite clan from Machir, the father of Gilead,
and the Gileadite clan from Gilead.
30 These were the descendants of Gilead:
the Iezerite clan from Iezer,
the Helekite clan from Helek, 31 the Asrielite clan from Asriel,
the Shechemite clan from Shechem, 32 the Shemidaite clan from Shemida,
and the Hepherite clan from Hepher.
33 Now Zelophehad son of Hepher had no sons but only daughters. The names of his daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
34 These were the clans of Manasseh, and
their registration numbered 52,700.

THE TRIBE OF EPHRAIM

35 These were the descendants of Ephraim
by their clans:
The Shuthelahite clan from Shuthelah,
the Becherite clan from Becher,
and the Tahanite clan from Tahan.
36 And the descendants of Shuthelah were the Eranite clan from Eran.

GOD SPEAKING

37 These were the clans of Ephraim, and
their registration numbered 32,500.
These clans were the descendants of Joseph.

THE TRIBE OF BENJAMIN

38 These were the descendants of Benjamin by their clans:
The Belaite clan from Bela,
the Ashbelite clan from Ashbel,
the Ahiramite clan from Ahiram, 39 the Shuphamite clan from Shupham,
and the Huphamite clan from Hupham.
40 And the descendants of Bela from Ard and Naaman were the Ardite clan from Ard and the Naamite clan from Naaman.
41 These were the clans of Benjamin, and their registration numbered 45,600.

THE TRIBE OF DAN

42 These were the descendants of Dan by their clans:
The Shuhamite clan from Shuham.
These were the clans of Dan. 43 All of them were Shuhamite clans, and their registration numbered 64,400.

THE TRIBE OF ASHER

44 These were the descendants of Asher
by their clans:
The Imnite clan from Imnah,
the Ishvite clan from Ishvi,
and the Beriite clan from Beriah.
45 And these were the descendants of Be-riah:
the Heberite clan from Heber
and the Malchielite clan from Malchiel.
46 And the name of Asher's daughter was Serah.
47 These were the clans of Asher, and their registration numbered 53,400.

THE TRIBE OF NAPHTALI

48 These were the descendants of Naph-tali by their clans:
The Jahzeelite clan from Jahzeel,
the Gunite clan from Guni, 49 the Jezerite clan from Jezer,
and the Shillemite clan from Shillem.
50 These were the clans of Naphtali, and
their registration numbered 45,400.
51 These men of Israel numbered 601,730
in all.

INHERITANCE BY LOT

52 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 53 "The land is to be divided among the tribes as an inheritance, according to the number of names. 54 Increase the inheritance for a large tribe and decrease it for a small one;
each tribe is to receive its inheritance according to the number of those registered.
55 Indeed, the land must be divided by lot;
they shall receive their inheritance according to the names of the tribes of their fathers. 56 Each inheritance is to be divided by lot among the larger and smaller tribes."

THE LEVITES NUMBERED

57 Now these were the Levites numbered
by their clans:
The Gershonite clan from Gershon,
the Kohathite clan from Kohath,
and the Merarite clan from Merari.
58 These were the families of the Levites:
The Libnite clan,
the Hebronite clan,
the Mahlite clan,
the Mushite clan,
and the Korahite clan.
Now Kohath was the father of Amram, 59
and Amram's wife was named Jochebed.
She was also a daughter of Levi, born to Levi in Egypt. To Amram she bore Aaron,
Moses, and their sister Miriam. 60 Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar were born to Aaron, 61 but Nadab and Abihu died when they offered unauthorized fire before Yah-
weh.
62 The registration of the Levites totaled 23,000, every male a month old or more;
they were not numbered among the other Israelites, because no inheritance was given to them among the Israelites.

ONLY CALEB AND JOSHUA REMAIN

63 These were the ones numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they counted the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.

NUM 26:51 [NOTE] The new count is 601,730, almost the same as the first census, 603,550, forty years earlier.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING

64 Among all these, however, there was not one who had been numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they counted the Israelites in the Wilderness of Sinai. 65 For Yahweh had told them that they would surely die in the wilderness. Not one was left except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

Five sisters, the daughters of Zelophehad, ask Moses for their dead father's land, since he had no sons. God says they are right, and it becomes law. Then God shows Moses the land he will not enter, and Moses asks for a new shepherd. God picks Joshua.

THE DAUGHTERS OF ZELOPHEHAD // NUMBERS 36:1–13

1 Now the daughters of Zelophehad son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, belonged to the clans of Manasseh son of Joseph. These were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. They approached 2 the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and the whole congregation, and said, 3 "Our father died in the wilderness, but he was not among the followers of Korah who gathered together against Yahweh. Instead, he died because of his own sin, and he had no sons. 4 Why should the name of our father disappear from his clan because he had no sons? Give us property among our father's brothers."

5 So Moses brought their case before Yahweh, 6 and Yahweh answered him, 7 "The daughters of Zelophehad speak correctly. You certainly must give them property as an inheritance among their father's brothers and transfer their father's inheritance to them.

8 Furthermore, you shall say to the Israelites, 'If a man dies and leaves no son, you are to transfer his inheritance to his daughter. 9 If he has no daughter, give his inheritance to his brothers. 10 If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his father's brothers. 11 And if his father has no brothers, give his inheritance to the next of kin from his clan, that he may take possession of it. This is to be a statutory ordinance for the Israelites, as Yahweh has commanded Moses.'"

MOSES REQUESTS A SUCCESSOR // DEUTERONOMY 3:23–29

12 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go up this mountain of the Abarim range and see the land that I have given the Israelites. 13 After you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was; 14 for when the congregation contended in the Wilderness of Zin, both of you rebelled against My command to show My holiness in their sight regarding the waters." Those were the waters of Meribah in Kadesh, in the Wilderness of Zin.

15 So Moses appealed to Yahweh, 16 "May Yahweh, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation 17 who will go out and come in before them, and who will lead them out and bring them in, so that the congregation of Yahweh will not be like sheep without a shepherd."

JOSHUA TO SUCCEED MOSES // DEUTERONOMY 31:1–8

18 And Yahweh replied to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man with the Spirit in him, and lay your hands on him. 19 Have him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole congregation, and commission him in their sight. 20 Confer on him some of your authority, so that the whole congregation of Israel will obey him. 21 He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who will seek counsel for him before Yahweh by the judgment of the Urim. At his command, he and all the Israelites with him—the entire congregation—will go out and come in."

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS

God's calendar of offerings: two lambs every day, morning and evening, more on the Sabbath, more on the first of each month, then Passover and the Feast of Weeks. Worship was not a once a week thing. It was all day, every day.

THE DAILY OFFERINGS // EXODUS 29:38–44

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Command the Israelites and say to them: See that you present to Me at its appointed time the food for My food offerings, as a pleasing aroma to Me.

3 And tell them that this is the food offering you are to present to Yahweh as a regular burnt offering each day: two unblemished year-old male lambs. 4 Offer one lamb in the morning and the other at twilight, 5 along with two quarts of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with a quart of oil from pressed olives.

6 This is a regular burnt offering established at Mount Sinai as a pleasing aroma, a food offering to Yahweh. 7 The drink offering accompanying each lamb shall be a quart of wine. Pour out the offering of fermented drink to Yahweh in the sanctuary area. 8 And offer the second lamb at twilight, with the same grain offering and drink offering as in the morning. It is a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yah-
weh.

THE SABBATH OFFERINGS

9 On the Sabbath day, present two unblemished year-old male lambs, accompanied by a grain offering of four quarts of fine flour mixed with oil, as well as a drink offering.

10 This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

THE MONTHLY OFFERINGS

11 At the beginning of every month, you are to present to Yahweh a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 12 along with six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil
as a grain offering with each bull, four quarts of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering with the ram, 13 and two quarts of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering with each lamb. This is a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, a food offering to Yahweh.

14 Their drink offerings shall be two quarts of wine with each bull, a third of a gallon
with the ram, and a quart with each lamb.
This is the monthly burnt offering to be made at each new moon throughout the year.

15 In addition to the regular burnt offering with its drink offering, one male goat is to be presented to Yahweh as a sin offering.

PASSOVER AND THE FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD // EXODUS 12:14–28; LEVITICUS 23:4–8; DEUTERONOMY 16:1–8

16 The fourteenth day of the first month is Yahweh's Passover. 17 On the fifteenth day of this month, there shall be a feast; for seven days unleavened bread is to be eaten.

18 On the first day there is to be a sacred assembly; you must not do any regular work. 19 Present to Yahweh a food offering, a burnt offering of two young bulls,
one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all unblemished. 20 The grain offering shall consist of fine flour mixed with oil;
offer six quarts with each bull, four quarts with the ram, 21 and two quarts with each of the seven lambs. 22 Include one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

23 You are to present these in addition to the regular morning burnt offering. 24 Offer
the same food each day for seven days as a food offering, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. It is to be offered with its drink offering and the regular burnt offering.

GOD SPEAKING

25 On the seventh day you shall hold a sacred assembly; you must not do any regular work.

THE FEAST OF WEEKS // DEUTERONOMY 16:9–12

26 On the day of firstfruits, when you present an offering of new grain to Yahweh during the Feast of Weeks, you are to hold a sacred assembly; you must not do any regular work.

27 Present a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old as a pleasing aroma to Yahweh, 28 together with their grain offerings of fine flour mixed with oil—six quarts with each bull, four quarts with the ram, 29 and two quarts with each of the seven lambs.

30 Include one male goat to make atonement for you. 31 Offer them with their drink offerings in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering. The animals must be unblemished.

CHAPTER 29 IN 30 SECONDS

The busy seventh month: the Feast of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement and the Feast of Booths. During Booths the bulls count down each day, thirteen, then twelve, then eleven, all the way to seven. That adds up to seventy bulls in one week. Somebody had a lot of grilling to do.

THE FEAST OF TRUMPETS // LEVITICUS 23:23–25

1 "On the first day of the seventh month, you are to hold a sacred assembly, and you must not do any regular work. This will be a day for you to sound the trumpets.

2 As a pleasing aroma to Yahweh, you are to present a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 3 together with their grain offerings of fine flour mixed with oil—six quarts with the bull, four quarts with the ram, 4 and two quarts with each of the seven male lambs.

5 Include one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you. 6 These are in addition to the monthly and daily burnt offerings with their prescribed grain offerings and drink offerings. They are a pleasing aroma, a food offering to Yahweh.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT // LEVITICUS 16:1–34; LEVITICUS 23:26–32

7 On the tenth day of this seventh month, you are to hold a sacred assembly, and you shall humble yourselves; you must not do any work.

8 Present as a pleasing aroma to Yahweh a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 9 together with their grain offerings of fine flour mixed with oil—six quarts with the bull, four quarts with the ram, 10 and two quarts with each of the seven lambs.

11 Include one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering of atonement and the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES // DEUTERONOMY 16:13–17

12 On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, you are to hold a sacred assembly; you must not do any regular work, and you shall observe a feast to Yahweh for seven days.

13 As a pleasing aroma to Yahweh, you are to present a food offering, a burnt offering of thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 14 along with the grain offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil with each of the thirteen bulls, four quarts with each of the two rams, 15 and two quarts with each of the fourteen lambs. 16 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

17 On the second day you are to present twelve young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 18 along with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams, and lambs, according to the number prescribed. 19 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

20 On the third day you are to present eleven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 21 along with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams, and lambs, according to the number prescribed. 22 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

23 On the fourth day you are to present ten bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 24 along with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams, and lambs, according to the number prescribed. 25 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

26 On the fifth day you are to present nine bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 27 along with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams, and lambs, according to the number prescribed. 28 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

29 On the sixth day you are to present eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 30 along with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams, and lambs, according to the number prescribed. 31 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

32 On the seventh day you are to present seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 33 along with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams, and lambs, according to the number prescribed. 34 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

35 On the eighth day you are to hold a solemn assembly; you must not do any regular work. 36 As a pleasing aroma to Yahweh, you are to present a food offering, a burnt offering of one bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all unblemished, 37 along with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams, and lambs, according to the number prescribed. 38 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

39 You are to present these offerings to Yahweh at your appointed times, in addition to your vow and freewill offerings, whether burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings, or peace offerings."

40 So Moses spoke all this to the Israelites just as Yahweh had commanded him.

30

CHAPTER 30 IN 30 SECONDS

Keep your vows. A man's promise to God stands. A young woman's vow or a wife's vow can be canceled by her father or husband, but only on the day he hears about it. If he says nothing, it stands. God takes your words seriously.

LAWS ABOUT VOWS // MATTHEW 5:33–37

1 Then Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel, "This is what Yahweh has commanded: 2 If a man makes a vow to Yahweh or swears an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he must not break his word; he must do everything he has promised.

3 And if a woman in her father's house during her youth makes a vow to Yahweh or obligates herself by a pledge, 4 and her father hears about her vow or pledge but says nothing to her, then all the vows or pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand. 5 But if her father prohibits her on the day he hears about it, then none of the vows or pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand. Yahweh will absolve her because her father has prohibited her.

6 If a woman marries while under a vow or rash promise by which she has bound herself, 7 and her husband hears of it but says nothing to her on that day, then the vows or pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand. 8 But if her husband prohibits her when he hears of it, he nullifies the vow that binds her or the rash promise she has made, and Yahweh will absolve her.

10 If a woman in her husband's house has made a vow or put herself under an obligation with an oath, 11 and her husband hears of it but says nothing to her and shall stand. 12 But if her husband nullifies them on the day he hears of them, then nothing that came from her lips, whether her vows or pledges, shall stand. Her husband has nullified them, and Yahweh will absolve her.

13 Her husband may confirm or nullify any vow or any sworn pledge to deny herself.
14 But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he confirms all the vows and pledges that bind her. He has confirmed them, because he said nothing to her on the day he heard about them. 15
But if he nullifies them after he hears of them, then he will bear her iniquity." 16 These are the statutes that Yahweh commanded Moses concerning the relationship between a man and his wife, and between a father and a young daughter still in his home.

CHAPTER 31 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Moses to take vengeance on Midian for Peor. Israel sends 12,000 soldiers. They kill the five kings of Midian and Balaam too. Then Moses orders something terribly hard to read about the captives. The plunder is split, and not one Israelite soldier is lost.

VENGEANCE ON MIDIAN

1 And Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Take vengeance on the Midianites for the Israelites. After that, you will be gathered to your people."
3 So Moses told the people, "Arm some of your men for war, that they may go against the Midianites and execute Yahweh's vengeance on them. 4 Send into battle a thousand men from each tribe of Israel."
5 So a thousand men were recruited from each tribe of Israel—twelve thousand armed for war. 6 And Moses sent the thousand from each tribe into battle, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, who took with him the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for signaling.
7 Then they waged war against Midian, as Yahweh had commanded Moses, and they killed every male. 8 Among the slain were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba—the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.
9 The Israelites captured the Midianite women and their children, and they plundered all their herds, flocks, and goods. 10
Then they burned all the cities where the Midianites had lived, as well as all their encampments, 11 and carried away all the plunder and spoils, both people and animals.
12 They brought the captives, spoils, and plunder to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of Israel at the camp on the plains of Moab, by the Jordan across from Jericho. 13 And Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation went to meet them outside the camp.
14 But Moses was angry with the officers of the army—the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds—who were returning from the battle. 15 "Have you spared all the women?" he asked them. 16 "Look, these women caused the sons of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to turn unfaithfully against Yahweh at Peor, so that the plague struck the congregation of Yahweh. 17 So now, kill all the boys, as well as every woman who has had relations with a man, 18 but spare for yourselves every girl who has never had relations with a man.
19 All of you who have killed a person or touched the dead are to remain outside the camp for seven days. On the third day and the seventh day you are to purify both yourselves and your captives. 20 And purify every garment and leather good, everything made of goat's hair, and every article of wood."

21 Then Eleazar the priest said to the soldiers who had gone into battle, "This is the statute of the law which Yahweh has commanded Moses: 22 Only the gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead— 23 everything that can withstand the fire—must be put through the fire, and it will be clean. But it must still be purified with the water of purification. And everything that cannot withstand the fire must pass through the water. 24 On the seventh day you are to wash your clothes, and you will be clean. After that you may enter the camp."

DIVISION OF THE SPOILS

25 Yahweh said to Moses, 26 "You and Eleazar the priest and the family heads of the congregation are to take a count of what was captured, both of man and beast. 27 Then divide the captives between the troops who went out to battle and the rest of the congregation.

28 Set aside a tribute for Yahweh from what belongs to the soldiers who went into battle: one out of every five hundred, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, or sheep. 29 Take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest as an offering to Yahweh.

30 From the Israelites' half, take one out of every fifty, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep, or other animals, and give them to the Levites who keep charge of the tabernacle of Yahweh."

31 So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as Yahweh had commanded Moses, 32 and this plunder remained from the spoils the soldiers had taken:
675,000 sheep,
33 72,000 cattle,
34 61,000 donkeys,
35 and 32,000 women who had not slept with a man.

36 This was the half portion for those who had gone to war:
337,500 sheep, 37 including a tribute to Yahweh of 675,
38 36,000 cattle, including a tribute to Yahweh of 72,
39 30,500 donkeys, including a tribute to Yahweh of 61,
40 and 16,000 people, including a tribute to Yahweh of 32.

41 Moses gave the tribute to Eleazar the priest as an offering for Yahweh, as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

42 From the Israelites' half, which Moses had set apart from the men who had gone to war, 43 this half belonged to the congregation:
337,500 sheep,
44 36,000 cattle,
45 30,500 donkeys,
46 and 16,000 people.

47 From the Israelites' half, Moses took one out of every fifty persons and animals and gave them to the Levites who kept charge of the tabernacle of Yahweh, as Yahweh had commanded him.

THE VOLUNTARY OFFERING

48 Then the officers who were over the units of the army—the commanders of thousands and of hundreds—approached Moses 49 and said, "Your servants have counted the soldiers under our command, and not one of us is missing. 50 So we have brought to Yahweh an offering of the gold articles each man acquired—armlets, bracelets, rings, earrings, and necklaces—to make atonement for ourselves before Yahweh."

51 So Moses and Eleazar the priest received from them all the articles made out of gold. 52 All the gold that the commanders of thousands and of hundreds presented as an offering to Yahweh weighed about 420 pounds. 53 Each of the soldiers had taken plunder for himself. 54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the Tent of Meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before Yahweh.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE WAR ON MIDIAN

One of the Hardest Chapters

NUMBERS 25:1 TO 18 · 31:1 TO 54 · DEUTERONOMY 21:10 TO 14

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

God told Moses to take vengeance on Midian for Peor. Israel sent 12,000 soldiers and killed every man, the five kings of Midian and Balaam. They brought back the women and children. Moses was angry with the officers and ordered them to kill the boys and the women who had slept with a man, and to keep alive the girls who had not, 31:14 to 18. The text says 32,000 girls were spared and no Israelite soldier died.

WHY MIDIAN

At Peor, Moabite and Midianite women led Israel into idol worship and sexual sin, and 24,000 died in the plague, 25:1 to 9. Moses says it was Balaam's advice, 31:16. The text treats the war as God's judgment on that plan.

GOD'S JUDGMENT VIEW

Many Christians, from Augustine to today, say God has the right to judge nations, as He did in the flood and at Sodom. Augustine wrote that in a war God commands, Moses showed obedience, not cruelty. This was a one time judgment, not a pattern for anyone today.

MOSES ADDED IT VIEW

Some point out that God commanded the battle, and that the order about the captives in 31:15 to 18 comes from Moses, in anger, not as God speaking. Even the Jewish teacher Rashi said Moses' anger in this chapter led him into a mistake about another law, in 31:21.

How Christians Read It

JUDGES 6:1 TO 6 · MATTHEW 5:43 TO 44 · LUKE 9:54 TO 55

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE GIRLS?

Many say they became wives or servants, protected by the law in Deuteronomy 21:10 to 14, which gave a captive woman a month to mourn and forbade selling her or treating her as a slave. Others, including some Jewish scholars, say the plain words mean they were taken for sex. Numbers 31 itself does not say.

THE BIG LANGUAGE VIEW

Some scholars, like Paul Copan, say ancient war reports used sweeping words, like we say a team got wiped out. They point out that a few generations later Midian is back and strong, coming like locusts, Judges 6:5. Others answer that the chapter still reads as a real command.

THE LATER STORY VIEW

Many critical scholars say the chapter was written much later as a lesson about purity, and that this war never happened as told. They point to Midian in Judges 6 and to the round numbers, like no soldier lost.

WHAT THE EARLY CHURCH SAID

About AD 144, Marcion said the God of the Old Testament was a different, harsher god than the Father of Jesus. The church rejected that and said it is one God in both testaments. Origen read the Old Testament wars as pictures of our spiritual war against sin.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

This chapter is hard, and honest readers should feel it. It is not a pattern for Christians. Jesus told us to love our enemies, Matthew 5:44, and rebuked His disciples when they wanted to call fire down on a village, Luke 9:54 to 55.

CHAPTER 32 IN 30 SECONDS

The tribes of Reuben and Gad have lots of cattle and like the land east of the Jordan. Moses thinks they are pulling another Kadesh and refusing to fight. They promise to cross over and fight first, then come home. Moses agrees, and warns them: Be assured that your sin will find you out.

THE HEART

THE TRIBES EAST OF THE JORDAN // DEUTERONOMY 3:12–22; JOSHUA 13:8–14

1 Now the Reubenites and Gadites, who had very large herds and flocks, surveyed the lands of Jazer and Gilead, and they saw that the region was suitable for livestock. 2 So the Gadites and Reubenites came to Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the congregation, and said,
3 "Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon, 4 which Yahweh conquered before the congregation of Israel, are suitable for livestock—and your servants have livestock."

5 "If we have found favor in your sight," they said, "let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not make us cross the Jordan."

6 But Moses asked the Gadites and Reubenites, "Shall your brothers go to war
while you sit here? 7 Why are you discouraging the Israelites from crossing into the land that Yahweh has given them? 8 This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to inspect the land.
9 For when your fathers went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the Israelites from entering the land that Yahweh had given them. 10
So the anger of Yahweh was kindled that day, and He swore an oath, saying, 11 'Because they did not follow Me wholeheartedly, not one of the men twenty years of age or older who came out of Egypt will see the land that I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob— 12 not one except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun—because they did follow Yahweh wholeheartedly.' 13 The anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until the whole generation who had done evil in His sight was gone.

14 Now behold, you, a brood of sinners, have risen up in place of your fathers to further stoke the burning anger of Yahweh against Israel. 15 For if you turn away from following Him, He will once again leave this people in the wilderness, and you will be the cause of their destruction."

16 Then the Gadites and Reubenites approached Moses and said, "We want to build sheepfolds here for our livestock and cities for our little ones. 17 But we will arm ourselves and be ready to go ahead of the Israelites until we have brought them into their place. Meanwhile, our little ones will remain in the fortified cities for protection from the inhabitants of the land. 18 We will not return to our homes until every Israelite has taken possession of his inheritance. 19 Yet we will not have an inheritance with them across the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us on the east side of the Jordan."

20 Moses replied, "If you will do this—if you will arm yourselves before Yahweh for battle, 21 and if every one of your armed men crosses the Jordan before Yahweh, until He has driven His enemies out before Him, 22 then when the land is subdued before Yahweh, you may return and be free of obligation to Yahweh and to Israel. And this land will belong to you as a possession before Yahweh. 23 But if you do not do this, you will certainly sin against Yahweh—and be assured that your sin will find you out. 24 Build cities for your little ones and folds for your flocks,
but do what you have promised."

25 The Gadites and Reubenites said to Moses, "Your servants will do just as our lord commands. 26 Our children, our wives,
our livestock, and all our animals will remain here in the cities of Gilead. 27 But your servants are equipped for war, and every man will cross over to the battle before Yahweh, just as our lord says."

28 So Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and to the family leaders of the tribes of Israel. 29 And Moses said to them, "If the Gadites and Reubenites cross the Jordan

NUM 32:7 [HEART] The spies saw the good land and still discouraged the hearts of the people. Moses warns Reuben and Gad not to do it again.

with you, with every man armed for battle before Yahweh, and the land is subdued before you, then you are to give them the land of Gilead as a possession. 30 But if they do not arm themselves and go across with you, then they must accept their possession among you in the land of Canaan."

31 The Gadites and Reubenites replied, "As Yahweh has spoken to your servants, so we will do. 32 We will cross over into the land of Canaan armed before Yahweh, that we may have our inheritance on this side of the Jordan."

33 So Moses gave to the Gadites, to the Reubenites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan—the land including its cities and the territory surrounding them.

34 And the Gadites built up Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, 35 Atroth-shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, 36 Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran as fortified cities, and they built folds for their flocks.

37 The Reubenites built up Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, 38 as well as Nebo and Baal-meon (whose names were changed), and Sibmah. And they renamed the cities they rebuilt.

39 The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it, and drove out the Amorites who were there. 40 So Moses gave Gilead to the clan of Machir son of Manasseh, and they settled there. 41 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, went and captured their villages and called them Havvoth-jair. 42 And Nobah went and captured Kenath and its villages and called it Nobah, after his own name.

CHAPTER 33 IN 30 SECONDS

A travel log of the whole trip from Egypt to the plains of Moab, stop by stop, written down by Moses. Then God says to drive out the people of Canaan and destroy their idols, or they will become thorns in your sides. It is the wilderness road trip in one chapter.

FORTY-TWO JOURNEYS OF THE ISRAELITES

1 These are the journeys of the Israelites when they came out of the land of Egypt by their divisions under the leadership of Moses and Aaron. 2 At Yahweh's command, Moses recorded the stages of their journey. These are the stages listed by their starting points:

3 On the fifteenth day of the first month, on the day after the Passover, the Israelites set out from Rameses. They marched out defiantly in full view of all the Egyptians, 4 who were burying all their firstborn, whom Yahweh had struck down among them; for Yahweh had executed judgment against their gods. 5 The Israelites set out from Rameses and camped at Succoth.

6 They set out from Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness.

7 They set out from Etham and turned back to Pi-hahiroth, opposite Baal-zephon, and they camped near Migdol.

8 They set out from Pi-hahiroth and crossed through the sea, into the wilderness, and they journeyed three days into the Wilderness of Etham and camped at Marah.

9 They set out from Marah and came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.

10 They set out from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.

11 They set out from the Red Sea and camped in the Desert of Sin.

12 They set out from the Desert of Sin and camped at Dophkah.

13 They set out from Dophkah and camped at Alush.

14 They set out from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

15 They set out from Rephidim and camped in the Wilderness of Sinai.

mand, Aaron the priest climbed Mount Hor and died there on the first day of the fifth month, in the fortieth year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt. 39 Aaron was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor.
40 Now the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard that the Israelites were coming. 41 And the Israelites set out from Mount Hor and camped at Zal-monah.
42 They set out from Zalmonah and

47 They set out from Almon-diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim facing Nebo.
48 They set out from the mountains of Abarim and camped on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.
49 And there on the plains of Moab they camped by the Jordan, from Beth-jeshimoth to Abel-shittim.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR OCCUPYING CANAAN

50 On the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, Yahweh said to Moses, 51 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, 52 you must drive out before you all the inhabitants of the land, destroy all their carved images and cast idols, and demolish all their high places.
53 You are to take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given you the land to possess. 54 And you are to divide
the land by lot according to your clans.
Give a larger inheritance to a larger clan
and a smaller inheritance to a smaller one.
Whatever falls to each one by lot will be his. You will receive an inheritance according to the tribes of your fathers.

34

CHAPTER 34 IN 30 SECONDS

God draws the borders of the Promised Land, from the Wilderness of Zin to the sea and up to the north. Then He names the leaders from each tribe who will divide it up. The map is ready. Now they just have to go in.

THE BOUNDARIES OF CANAAN // GENESIS 15:8–21

1 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 2 "Command the Israelites and say to them: When you enter the land of Canaan, it will be allotted to you as an inheritance with these boundaries:

3 Your southern border will extend from the Wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom. On the east, your southern border will run from the end of the Salt Sea, 4 cross south of the Ascent of Akrabbim, continue to Zin, and go south of Kadesh-barnea. Then it will go on to Hazar-addar and proceed to Azmon, 5 where it will turn from Azmon, join the Brook of Egypt, and end at the Sea.

6 Your western border will be the coastline of the Great Sea; this will be your boundary on the west.

7 Your northern border will run from the Great Sea directly to Mount Hor, 8 and from Mount Hor to Lebo-hamath, then extend to Zedad, 9 continue to Ziphron, and end at Hazar-enan. This will be your boundary on the north.

10 And your eastern border will run straight from Hazar-enan to Shepham, 11 then go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain and continue along the slopes east of the Sea of Chinnereth. 12 Then the border will go down along the Jordan and end at the Salt Sea.

NUM 33:55 [PROPHECY] Nations left in the land would become thorns in Israel's sides → JUDG 2:1-3 p.381

This will be your land, defined by its borders on all sides."

13 So Moses commanded the Israelites, "Apportion this land by lot as an inheritance. Yahweh has commanded that it be given to the nine and a half tribes. 14 For the tribes of the Reubenites and Gadites, along with the half-tribe of Manasseh, have already received their inheritance. 15 These two and a half tribes have received their inheritance across the Jordan from Jericho, toward the sunrise."

LEADERS TO DIVIDE THE LAND

16 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 17 "These are the names of the men who are to assign the land as an inheritance for you: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun. 18 Appoint one leader from each tribe to distribute the land. 19 These are their names:

Caleb son of Jephunneh from the tribe of Judah;

20 Shemuel son of Ammihud from the tribe of Simeon;

21 Elidad son of Chislon from the tribe of Benjamin;

22 Bukki son of Jogli, a leader from the tribe of Dan;

23 Hanniel son of Ephod, a leader from the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph;

24 Kemuel son of Shiphtan, a leader from the tribe of Ephraim;

27 Ahihud son of Shelomi, a leader from the tribe of Asher;

28 and Pedahel son of Ammihud, a leader from the tribe of Naphtali."

29 These are the ones whom Yahweh commanded to apportion the inheritance to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

CHAPTER 35 IN 30 SECONDS

The Levites get 48 cities with pastureland. Six of them are cities of refuge, where someone who killed by accident can run and be safe until the high priest dies. A murderer, though, is put to death. Blood pollutes the land, and God lives there with them.

FORTY-EIGHT CITIES FOR THE LEVITES // JOSHUA 21:1–45; 1 CHRONICLES 6:54–81

1 Again Yahweh spoke to Moses on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho: 2 "Command the Israelites to give,
from the inheritance they will possess,
cities for the Levites to live in and pas-turelands around the cities. 3 The cities will be for them to live in, and the pasture-lands will be for their herds, their flocks,
and all their other livestock.

4 The pasturelands around the cities you are to give the Levites will extend 1,500 feet from the wall on every side. 5 You are also to measure 3,000 feet outside the city on the east, 3,000 feet on the south, 3,000 feet on the west, and 3,000 feet on the north, with the city in the center.
These areas will serve as larger pasture-lands for the cities.

6 Six of the cities you give the Levites are to be appointed as cities of refuge, to which a manslayer may flee. In addition to these, give the Levites forty-two other cities. 7 The total number of cities you give the Levites will be forty-eight, with their corresponding pasturelands. 8 The cities that you apportion from the territory of the Israelites should be given to the Levites in proportion to the inheritance of each tribe:
more from a larger tribe and less from a smaller one."

SIX CITIES OF REFUGE // DEUTERONOMY 4:41–43; DEUTERONOMY 19:1–14; JOSHUA 20:1–9

9 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 10 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, 11 designate cities to serve as your cities of refuge, so that a person who kills someone unintentionally may flee there. 12 You are to have these cities as a refuge from the avenger, so that the manslayer will not die until he stands trial before the assembly.

13 The cities you select will be your six cities of refuge. 14 Select three cities across the Jordan and three in the land of Canaan as cities of refuge. 15 These six cities will serve as a refuge for the Israelites and for the foreigner or stranger among them, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there.

16 If, however, anyone strikes a person with an iron object and kills him, he is a mur-derer; the murderer must surely be put to death. 17 Or if anyone has in his hand a stone of deadly size, and he strikes and kills another, he is a murderer; the mur-derer must surely be put to death. 18 If anyone has in his hand a deadly object of wood, and he strikes and kills another, he is a murderer; the murderer must surely
be put to death.

19 The avenger of blood is to put the mur-derer to death; when he finds him, he is to kill him.

20 Likewise, if anyone maliciously pushes another or intentionally throws an object at him and kills him, 21 or if in hostility he strikes him with his hand and he dies, the one who struck him must surely be put to death; he is a murderer. When the avenger of blood finds the murderer, he is to kill him.

22 But if anyone pushes a person suddenly, without hostility, or throws an object at him unintentionally, 23 or without looking drops a heavy stone that kills him, but he was not an enemy and did not intend to harm him, 24 then the congregation must judge between the slayer and the avenger of blood according to these ordinances. 25 The assembly is to protect the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood. Then the assembly will return him to the city of refuge to which he fled, and he must live there until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the manslayer ever goes outside the limits of the city of refuge to which he fled 27 and the avenger of blood finds him outside of his city of refuge and kills him, then the avenger will not be guilty of bloodshed, 28 because the manslayer must remain in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. Only after the death of the high priest may he return to the land he owns. 29 This will be a statutory ordinance for you for the generations to come, wherever you live.

30 If anyone kills a person, the murderer is to be put to death on the testimony of the witnesses. But no one is to be put to death based on the testimony of a lone witness.

31 You are not to accept a ransom for the life of a murderer who deserves to die; he must surely be put to death. 32 Nor should you accept a ransom for the person who flees to a city of refuge and allow him to return and live on his own land before the death of the high priest.

33 Do not pollute the land where you live, for bloodshed pollutes the land, and no atonement can be made for the land on which the blood is shed, except by the blood of the one who shed it. 34 Do not defile the land where you live and where I dwell. For I, Yahweh, dwell among the Israelites."

36

CHAPTER 36 IN 30 SECONDS

The family of Zelophehad's daughters worries that their land will leave the tribe if the sisters marry outside it. So Moses rules that they must marry within their own tribe, and they marry cousins. The book ends on the plains of Moab, across the Jordan from Jericho.

ZELOPHEHAD'S DAUGHTERS MARRY // NUMBERS 27:1–11

1 Now the family heads of the clan of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh, one of the clans of Joseph, approached Moses and the leaders who were the heads of the Israelite families and addressed them, 2 saying, "When Yahweh commanded my lord to give the land as an inheritance to the Israelites by lot, He also commanded him to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters. 3 But if they marry any of the men from the other tribes of Israel, their inheritance will be withdrawn from the portion of our fathers and added to the tribe into which they marry. So our allotted inheritance would be taken away. 4 And when the Jubilee for the Israelites comes, their inheritance will be added to the tribe into which they marry and taken away from the tribe of our fathers."

5 So at the word of Yahweh, Moses commanded the Israelites: "The tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks correctly. 6 This is what Yahweh has commanded concerning the daughters of Zelophehad: They may marry anyone they please, provided they marry within a clan of the tribe of their father. 7 No inheritance in Israel may be transferred from tribe to tribe, because each of the Israelites is to retain the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. 8 Every daughter who possesses an inheritance from any Israelite tribe must marry within a clan of the tribe of her father, so that every Israelite will possess the inheritance of his fathers. 9 No inheritance may be transferred from one tribe to another, for each tribe of Israel must retain its inheritance."

10 So the daughters of Zelophehad did as Yahweh had commanded Moses. 11 Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to cousins on their father's side. 12 They married within the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained within the tribe of their father's clan.

13 These are the commandments and ordinances that Yahweh gave the Israelites through Moses on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

DEUTERONOMY

Moses' last words

AUTHOR	Moses, according to Jewish and Christian tradition. The book says Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the priests 31:9, 31:24, and Jesus quoted it as what Moses said Mark 10:3 to 5. Someone else wrote about Moses' death in chapter 34; the Talmud says Joshua did. Many modern scholars think most of the book was written in the 600s BC, around King Josiah's day.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	On the plains of Moab, across the Jordan from Jericho, in the fortieth year after Egypt. Moses begins speaking on the first day of the eleventh month 1:3. The whole book covers only about two months, ending with thirty days of mourning for Moses 34:8.
DATE WRITTEN	Traditionally about 1406 BC, just before Israel crossed the Jordan. Those who date the Exodus later, in the 1200s BC, move that date down too.
WRITTEN TO	The new generation of Israel, the children of the people who left Egypt, about to go into the Promised Land without Moses.
KEY VERSE	Deuteronomy 6:4 to 5. Hear, O Israel: Yahweh our God, Yahweh is One. And you shall love Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS IN THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS
This is 4QDeut n, called the All Souls Deuteronomy, a Dead Sea Scroll from Cave 4 at Qumran, copied about 30 to 1 BC. This piece holds Deuteronomy 5:1 to 6:1, the Ten Commandments. In its Sabbath command it gives both reasons, the rest after creation from Exodus 20:11 and the slavery in Egypt from Deuteronomy 5:15. Many scholars think it was a copy of favorite passages for study or worship, not the whole book. About thirty copies of Deuteronomy were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls, more than any other book except Psalms. Deuteronomy is one of the books Jesus quoted most. Historical Setting

Forty years have passed. The generation that refused to enter the land has died in the wilderness, and Moses himself will not cross the Jordan. So before he dies, he gathers their children and preaches his heart out. He retells the journey, repeats the Ten Commandments, explains the law for life in the land, and begs them to love God and choose life. The English name comes from the Greek Bible, which turned the words a copy of this law in 17:18 into this second law, deuteronomion. The Hebrew name is Devarim, words, from the first verse.

What Was Going Wrong

A STUBBORN HISTORY. Moses reminds them of the fear at Kadesh and the golden calf. You have been rebelling against Yahweh since the day I came to know you 9:24.
FORGETTING HIM WHEN LIFE IS GOOD. Moses warns that once they are full and rich, they will say, The power and strength of my hands have made this wealth for me 8:12 to 17.
THE IDOLS OF CANAAN. The nations in the land worshiped idols, sorcery and the dead, and God warned that Israel would be pulled in 12:29 to 31, 18:9 to 12.
THE WARNING CAME TRUE. God told Moses that after his death Israel would turn to other gods and break the covenant 31:16 to 21. The rest of the Old Testament shows it happened.
MOSES SLIPPED TOO. Moses was not allowed to enter the land because of what happened at the waters of Meribah, and he begged God to change His mind 3:23 to 27, 32:51.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Deuteronomy is Moses' farewell sermon. He is 120 years old, he knows he will die before Israel crosses the Jordan, and he has one last chance to get through to them. So he tells their story again, from Mount Sinai to the plains of Moab. He reminds them that God chose them out of love, not because they were great or good. He gives them the law for life in the land and the greatest command of all: love Yahweh your God with all your heart. Then he lays out two roads, blessing and curse, life and death, and begs them to choose life. The book ends on Mount Nebo, where God shows Moses the land, and Moses dies with his work done.

Where Jesus Shows Up

DEUTERONOMY 8:3, 6:16, 6:13 When the devil tempted Jesus in the wilderness, all three of Jesus' answers came from Deuteronomy: man does not live on bread alone, do not put God to the test, and worship God only, Matthew 4:4, 7, 10.

DEUTERONOMY 6:4 TO 5 Jesus called this the greatest commandment, Mark 12:29 to 30.

DEUTERONOMY 18:15 TO 19 God promised a Prophet like Moses. Peter and Stephen said this Prophet is Jesus, Acts 3:22 to 23 and 7:37, and the crowds said, Truly this is the Prophet, John 6:14.

DEUTERONOMY 21:23 Anyone hung on a tree is under God's curse. Paul says Christ became a curse for us by hanging on the cross, Galatians 3:13.

DEUTERONOMY 30:12 TO 14 The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart. Paul uses these verses for the message of faith in Christ, Romans 10:6 to 8.

DEUTERONOMY 32:43 Let all God's angels worship Him. Hebrews 1:6 quotes this line about Jesus.

GOD'S NAMES IN DEUTERONOMY
Moses calls God the Rock five times in his song 32:4, 15, 18, 30, 31. He is a consuming fire, a jealous God 4:24, the God of gods and Lord of lords 10:17, and the eternal God whose everlasting arms are underneath 33:27. See Why We Say Yahweh in the Old Testament Introduction.

What to Watch for in Deuteronomy

JESUS QUOTED IT AGAINST THE DEVIL
All three answers Jesus gave Satan in the wilderness came from Deuteronomy 6 and 8.

A NAME FROM A TRANSLATION
Deuteronomy means second law. The Greek Bible got the name from 17:18, where the king must write a copy of this law. The book is not a new law. It is Moses explaining the same law again.

CHILD SACRIFICE WAS BANNED
The nations of Canaan burned their sons and daughters in the fire for their gods. Moses says Yahweh hates it, and no one in Israel may ever do it 12:31, 18:10.

SHAPED LIKE A TREATY
Deuteronomy follows the pattern of ancient treaties between a great king and his people: history, rules, witnesses, then blessings and curses. Scholars compare it to Hittite treaties from the 1300s BC and to Esarhaddon's treaty from 672 BC, and they argue over which it is closer to.

THE OLDEST TEN COMMANDMENTS
The Nash Papyrus, bought in Egypt in 1902, has the Ten Commandments and the Shema. It was the oldest known Bible text in Hebrew until the Dead Sea Scrolls were found. See the Field Notes page, p.292.

A KINDER LAW THAN YOU MIGHT THINK
Put a railing on your roof 22:8. A new husband gets a year off from the army 24:5. Leave some of the harvest for the poor 24:19. Do not muzzle the ox 25:4.

Did Anybody Listen?

For a while. Israel served Yahweh all the days of Joshua, Joshua 24:31. But the next generation forgot, just as Moses warned, Judges 2:10 to 11, and the curses of chapter 28 came true, all the way to exile. Centuries later King Josiah found the Book of the Law in the temple and led the nation back to God, 2 Kings 22 to 23. And Jesus called its command to love God the greatest one of all.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Forty years after Egypt, Moses stands on the plains of Moab and starts his farewell speech. He retells how he picked judges to help him, how twelve spies saw the land, and how the people refused to go in. So God turned them back into the desert. Moses is basically saying, Let's not do that again.

THE COMMAND TO LEAVE HOREB // EXODUS 33:1–6

1 These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel in the wilderness east of the Jordan—in the Arabah opposite
Suph—between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

2 It is an eleven-day journey from Horeb to Kadesh-barnea by way of Mount Seir. 3 In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses proclaimed to the Israelites all that Yahweh had commanded him concerning them. 4 This was after he had defeated Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and then at Edrei had defeated Og king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth.

5 On the east side of the Jordan in the land
of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying:

6 Yahweh our God said to us at Horeb:
"You have stayed at this mountain long enough. 7 Resume your journey and go to the hill country of the Amorites; go to all the neighboring peoples in the Arabah, in the hill country, in the foothills, in the Negev, and along the seacoast to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great River Euphrates.

8 See, I have placed the land before you.
Enter and possess the land that Yahweh swore He would give to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and to their descendants after them."

MOSES APPOINTS LEADERS // EXODUS 18:13–27

9 At that time I said to you, "I cannot carry the burden for you alone. 10 Yahweh your God has multiplied you, so that today you are as numerous as the stars in the sky. 11
May Yahweh, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand times over and bless you as He has promised. 12 But how can I bear your troubles, burdens, and disputes all by myself? 13 Choose for yourselves wise, understanding, and respected men from each of your tribes,
and I will appoint them as your leaders."

14 And you answered me and said, "What you propose to do is good."

15 So I took the leaders of your tribes, wise and respected men, and appointed them
as leaders over you—as commanders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens, and as officers for your tribes.

16 At that time I charged your judges: "Hear the disputes between your brothers, and judge fairly between a man and his brother or a foreign resident. 17 Show no partiality in judging; hear both small and great alike. Do not be intimidated by anyone, for judgment belongs to God. And bring to me any case too difficult for you, and I will hear it."

18 And at that time I commanded you all the things you were to do.

TWELVE SPIES SENT OUT // NUMBERS 13:1–33

19 And just as Yahweh our God had commanded us, we set out from Horeb and went toward the hill country of the Amorites, through all the vast and terrifying wilderness you have seen. When we reached Kadesh-barnea, 20 I said: "You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which Yahweh our God is giving us.
21 See, Yahweh your God has placed the land before you. Go up and take possession of it as Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has told you. Do not be afraid or discouraged."

22 Then all of you approached me and said, "Let us send men ahead of us to search out the land and bring us word of what route to follow and which cities to enter."

23 The plan seemed good to me, so I selected twelve men from among you, one from each tribe. 24 They left and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and spied out the land. 25 They took some of the fruit of the land in their hands, carried it down to us, and brought us word: "It is a good land that Yahweh our God is giving us."

ISRAEL'S REBELLION // NUMBERS 14:1–12

26 But you were unwilling to go up; you rebelled against the command of Yahweh your God. 27 You grumbled in your tents and said, "Because Yahweh hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to be annihilated. 28 Where can we go? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying: 'The people are larger and taller than we are; the cities are large, with walls up to the heavens. We even saw the descendants of the Anakim there.'"

29 So I said to you: "Do not be terrified or afraid of them! 30 Yahweh your God, who goes before you, will fight for you, just as you saw Him do for you in Egypt 31 and in the wilderness, where Yahweh your God carried you, as a man carries his son, all the way by which you traveled until you reached this place."

32 But in spite of all this, you did not trust Yahweh your God, 33 who went before you on the journey, in the fire by night and in the cloud by day, to seek out a place for you to camp and to show you the road to travel.

ISRAEL'S PENALTY // NUMBERS 14:20–35

34 When Yahweh heard your words, He grew angry and swore an oath, saying, 35 "Not one of the men of this evil generation shall see the good land I swore to give your fathers, 36 except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I will give him and his descendants the land on which he has set foot, because he followed Yahweh wholeheartedly."

37 Yahweh was also angry with me on your account, and He said, "Not even you shall enter the land. 38 Joshua son of Nun, who stands before you, will enter it. Encourage him, for he will enable Israel to inherit the land. 39 And the little ones you said would become captives—your children who on that day did not know good from evil—will enter the land that I will give them, and they will possess it. 40 But you are to turn back and head for the wilderness along the route to the Red Sea."

THE DEFEAT AT HORMAH // NUMBERS 14:40–45

41 "We have sinned against Yahweh," you replied. "We will go up and fight, as Yahweh our God has commanded us." Then each of you put on his weapons of war, thinking it easy to go up into the hill country.

42 But Yahweh said to me, "Tell them not to go up and fight, for I am not with you to keep you from defeat by your enemies."

43 So I spoke to you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the command of Yahweh and presumptuously went up into the hill country.

44 Then the Amorites who lived in the hills came out against you and chased you like a swarm of bees. They routed you from Seir all the way to Hormah. 45 And you returned and wept before Yahweh, but He would not listen to your voice or give ear to you.

46 For this reason you stayed in Kadesh for a long time—a very long time.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses retells the long walk around Edom, Moab and Ammon. God says to leave those nations alone, because He gave them their land too. Then Sihon, king of Heshbon, refuses to let Israel pass, and God hands his whole kingdom to Israel. The trip finally starts going somewhere.

WANDERINGS IN THE WILDERNESS

1 Then we turned back and headed for the wilderness by way of the Red Sea, as Yahweh had instructed me, and for many days we wandered around Mount Seir.

DT 1:28 [DEMONIC] The people are taller than we are, and we saw the Anakim

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

2 At this time Yahweh said to me, 3 "You have been wandering around this hill country long enough; turn to the north 4
and command the people: 'You will pass through the territory of your brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir.
They will be afraid of you, so you must be very careful. 5 Do not provoke them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even a footprint, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as his possession. 6
You are to pay them in silver for the food
you eat and the water you drink.'"

7 Indeed, Yahweh your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has watched over your journey through this vast wilderness. Yahweh your God has been with you these forty years, and you have lacked nothing.

8 So we passed by our brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We turned away from the Arabah road, which comes up from Elath and Ezion-geber, and traveled along the road of the Wilderness of Moab. 9 Then Yahweh said to me,
"Do not harass the Moabites or provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as their possession."

10 (The Emites used to live there, a people great and many, as tall as the Anakites. 11
Like the Anakites, they were also regarded as Rephaim, though the Moabites called them Emites. 12 The Horites used to live in Seir, but the descendants of Esau drove them out. They destroyed the Horites from before them and settled in their place, just as Israel did in the land that Yahweh gave them as their possession.)

13 "Now arise and cross over the Brook of Zered."

So we crossed over the Brook of Zered.

14 The time we spent traveling from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed over the Brook of Zered was thirty-eight years, until that entire generation of fighting men had perished from the camp, as Yahweh had sworn to them. 15 Indeed, Yahweh's hand was against them, to eliminate them from the camp, until they had all perished.

16 Now when all the fighting men among the people had died, 17 Yahweh said to me, 18 "Today you are going to cross the border of Moab at Ar. 19 But when you get close to the Ammonites, do not harass them or provoke them, for I will not give you any of the land of the Ammonites. I have given it to the descendants of Lot as their possession."

20 (That too was regarded as the land of the Rephaim, who used to live there, though the Ammonites called them Zamzummites. 21 They were a people great and many, as tall as the Anakites. But Yahweh destroyed them from before the Am-monites, who drove them out and settled in their place, 22 just as He had done for the descendants of Esau who lived in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them. They drove them out and have lived in their place to this day. 23 And the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, were destroyed by the Caphtorites, who came out of Caphtor and settled in their place.)

THE DEFEAT OF SIHON // NUMBERS 21:21–30

24 "Arise, set out, and cross the Arnon Valley. See, I have delivered into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to take possession of it and engage him in battle. 25 This very day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon all the nations under heaven. They will hear the reports of you and tremble in anguish because of you."

26 So from the Wilderness of Kedemoth I sent messengers with an offer of peace to Sihon king of Heshbon, saying, 27 "Let us pass through your land; we will stay on the main road. We will not turn to the right or to the left. 28 You can sell us food to eat and water to drink in exchange for silver.
Only let us pass through on foot, 29 just as the descendants of Esau who live in Seir
and the Moabites who live in Ar did for us, until we cross the Jordan into the land that Yahweh our God is giving us."

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass through, for Yahweh your God had made his spirit stubborn and his heart obstinate, that He might deliver him into your hand, as is the case this day.

31 Then Yahweh said to me, "See, I have begun to deliver Sihon and his land over to you. Now begin to conquer and possess his land."

32 So Sihon and his whole army came out for battle against us at Jahaz. 33 And Yahweh our God delivered him over to us, and we defeated him and his sons and his whole army.

34 At that time we captured all his cities and devoted to destruction the people of every city, including women and children. We left no survivors. 35 We carried off for ourselves only the livestock and the plunder from the cities we captured.

36 From Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley, along with the city in the valley, even as far as Gilead, not one city had walls too high for us. Yahweh our God gave us all of them. 37 But you did not go near the land of the Ammonites, or the land along the banks of the Jabbok River, or the cities of the hill country, or any place that Yahweh our God had forbidden.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Og, king of Bashan, comes out to fight and loses too. His iron bed was 13½ feet long, and it was still kept in Rabbah. Moses gives the land east of the Jordan to Reuben, Gad and half of Manasseh. Then he begs God to let him cross over, and God says, That is enough. Do not bring it up again.

THE DEFEAT OF OG // NUMBERS 21:31–35

1 Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan, and Og king of Bashan and his whole army came out to meet us in battle at Edrei. 2 But Yahweh said to me, "Do not fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, along with all his people and his land. Do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon."

3 So Yahweh our God also delivered Og king of Bashan and his whole army into our hands. We struck them down until no survivor was left.

4 At that time we captured all sixty of his cities. There was not a single city we failed to take—the entire region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. 5 All these cities were fortified with high walls and gates and bars, and there were many more unwalled villages. 6 We devoted them to destruction, as we had done to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city.

7 But all the livestock and plunder of the cities we carried off for ourselves.

8 At that time we took from the two kings of the Amorites the land across the Jordan, from the Arnon Valley as far as Mount Hermon— 9 which the Sidonians call Sirion but the Amorites call Senir— 10 all the cities of the plateau, all of Gilead, and all of Bashan as far as the cities of Salecah and Edrei in the kingdom of Og.

11 (For only Og king of Bashan had remained of the remnant of the Rephaim. His bed of iron, 13½ feet long and 6 feet wide, is still in Rabbah of the Ammonites.)

LAND DIVISION EAST OF THE JORDAN // NUMBERS 32:1–42; JOSHUA 13:8–14

12 So at that time we took possession of this land. To the Reubenites and Gadites I gave the land beyond Aroer along the Arnon Valley, and half the hill country of Gilead, along with its cities.

13 To the half-tribe of Manasseh I gave the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og. (The entire region of Argob, the whole territory of Bashan, used to be called the land of the Rephaim.) 14 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites. He renamed Bashan after himself, Havvoth-jair, by which it is called to this day.

15 To Machir I gave Gilead, 16 and to the Reubenites and Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead to the Arnon Valley (the middle of the valley was the border) and up to the Jabbok River, the border of the Ammonites. 17 The Jordan River in the Arabah bordered it from Chinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea) with the slopes of Pisgah to the east.

18 At that time I commanded you: "Yahweh your God has given you this land to possess. All your men of valor are to cross over, armed for battle, ahead of your brothers, the Israelites. 19 But your wives, your children, and your livestock—I know that you have much livestock—may remain in the cities I have given you, 20 until Yahweh gives rest to your brothers as He has to you, and they too have taken possession of the land that Yahweh your God is giving them across the Jordan. Then each of you may return to the possession I have given you."

21 And at that time I commanded Joshua: "Your own eyes have seen all that Yahweh your God has done to these two kings. Yahweh will do the same to all the kingdoms you are about to enter. 22 Do not be afraid of them, for Yahweh your God Himself will fight for you."

MOSES FORBIDDEN TO CROSS THE JORDAN // NUMBERS 27:12–17

23 At that time I also pleaded with Yahweh: 24 "O Lord Yahweh, You have begun to show Your greatness and power to Your servant. For what god in heaven or on earth can perform such works and mighty acts as Yours? 25 Please let me cross over and see the good land beyond the Jordan—that pleasant hill country as well as Lebanon!"

26 But Yahweh was angry with me on account of you, and He would not listen to me. "That is enough," Yahweh said to me. "Do not speak to Me again about this matter. 27 Go to the top of Pisgah and look to the west and north and south and east. See the land with your own eyes, for you will not cross this Jordan. 28 But commission Joshua, encourage him, and strengthen him, for he will cross over ahead of the people and enable them to inherit the land that you will see."

29 So we stayed in the valley opposite Beth-peor.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses pleads with Israel to obey. God spoke from the fire at Horeb, but they saw no shape, so do not make any idol of Him. If they do, God will scatter them, but if they seek Him with all their heart, they will find Him. No other nation has a God this near.

AN EXHORTATION TO OBEDIENCE // DEUTERONOMY 11:1–7

1 Hear now, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances I am teaching you to follow, so that you may live and may enter and take possession of the land that Yahweh, the God of your fathers, is giving you. 2 You must not add to or subtract from what I command you, so that you may keep the commandments of Yahweh your God that I am giving you.

3 Your eyes have seen what Yahweh did at Baal-peor, for Yahweh your God destroyed from among you all who followed Baal of Peor. 4 But you who held fast to Yahweh your God are alive to this day, every one of you.

5 See, I have taught you statutes and ordinances just as Yahweh my God has commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land that you are about to enter and possess. 6 Observe them carefully, for this will show your wisdom and understanding in the sight of the peoples, who will hear of all these statutes and say, "Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people."

7 For what nation is great enough to have a god as near to them as Yahweh our God is to us whenever we call on Him? 8 And what nation is great enough to have righteous statutes and ordinances like this entire law I set before you today?

9 Only be on your guard and diligently watch yourselves, so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen, and so that they do not slip from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and grandchildren. 10 The day you stood before Yahweh your God at Horeb, Yahweh said to me, "Gather the people before Me to hear My words, so that they may learn to fear Me all the days they live on the earth, and that they may teach them to their children."

11 You came near and stood at the base of the mountain, a mountain blazing with fire to the heavens, with black clouds and deep darkness. 12 And Yahweh spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of the words but saw no form; there was only a voice. 13 He declared to you His covenant, which He commanded you to follow—the Ten Commandments that He wrote on two tablets of stone.

14 At that time Yahweh commanded me to teach you the statutes and ordinances you are to follow in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess.

A WARNING AGAINST IDOLATRY // DEUTERONOMY 12:29–32; EZEKIEL 6:1–7

15 So since you saw no form of any kind on the day Yahweh spoke to you out of the fire at Horeb, be careful 16 that you do not act corruptly and make an idol for yourselves of any form or shape, whether in the likeness of a male or female, 17 of any beast that is on the earth or bird that flies in the air, 18 or of any creature that crawls on the ground or fish that is in the waters below.

19 When you look to the heavens and see the sun and moon and stars—all the host of heaven—do not be enticed to bow down and worship what Yahweh your God has apportioned to all the nations under heaven. 20 Yet Yahweh has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be the people of His inheritance, as you are today.

21 Yahweh, however, was angry with me on account of you, and He swore that I would not cross the Jordan to enter the good land that Yahweh your God is giving you as an inheritance. 22 For I will not be crossing the Jordan, because I must die in this land. But you shall cross over and take possession of that good land.

23 Be careful that you do not forget the covenant of Yahweh your God that He made with you; do not make an idol for yourselves in the form of anything He has forbidden you. 24 For Yahweh your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

25 After you have children and grandchildren and you have been in the land a long time, if you then act corruptly and make an idol of any form—doing evil in the sight of Yahweh your God and provoking Him to anger— 26 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day that you will quickly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You will not live long upon it, but will be utterly destroyed.

27 Then Yahweh will scatter you among the peoples, and only a few of you will survive among the nations to which Yahweh will drive you. 28 And there you will serve man-made gods of wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or eat or smell.

29 But if from there you will seek Yahweh your God, you will find Him if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. 30 When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, then in later days you will return to Yahweh your God and listen to His voice. 31 For Yahweh your God is a merciful God; He will not abandon you or destroy you or forget the covenant with your fathers, which He swore to them by oath.

OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

YAHWEH ALONE IS GOD

32 Indeed, ask now from one end of the heavens to the other about the days that long preceded you, from the day that God created man on earth: Has anything as great as this ever happened or been reported? 33 Has a people ever heard the voice of God speaking out of the fire, as you have, and lived? 34 Or has any god tried to take as his own a nation out of another nation—by trials, signs, wonders, and war, by a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors—as Yahweh your God did for you in Egypt, before your eyes?

35 You were shown these things so that you would know that Yahweh is God; there is no other besides Him.

36 He let you hear His voice from heaven to discipline you, and on earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the fire. 37 Because He loved your fathers, He chose their descendants
after them and brought you out of Egypt by His presence and great power, 38 to drive out before you nations greater and mightier than you, and to bring you into their land and give it to you for your inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day and take to heart that Yahweh is God in heaven above
and on the earth below; there is no other.
40 Keep His statutes and commandments,
which I am giving you today, so that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may live long in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you for all time.

CITIES OF REFUGE // NUMBERS 35:9–34; DEUTERONOMY 19:1–14; JOSHUA 20:1–9

41 Then Moses set aside three cities across the Jordan to the east 42 to which a manslayer could flee after killing his neighbor unintentionally without prior malice.

To save one's own life, he could flee to one of these cities: 43 Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau belonging to the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead belonging to the Gadites, or Golan in Bashan belonging to the Manassites.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LAW

44 This is the law that Moses set before the Israelites. 45 These are the testimonies, statutes, and ordinances that Moses proclaimed to them after they had come out of Egypt, 46 while they were in the valley across the Jordan facing Beth-peor in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon and was defeated by Moses and the Israelites after they had come out of Egypt.

47 They took possession of the land belonging to Sihon and to Og king of Bashan—the two Amorite kings across the Jordan to the east— 48 extending from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley as far as Mount Siyon (that is, Hermon), 49 including all the Arabah on the east side of the Jordan and as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses calls all Israel together and repeats the Ten Commandments that God spoke from the fire. The people were so scared of God's voice that they asked Moses to go near and listen for them. God said they had spoken well. If only they would always have such a heart.

THE COVENANT AT HOREB

1 Then Moses summoned all Israel and said to them:

Hear, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances that I declare in your hearing this day. Learn them and observe them carefully. 2 Yahweh our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.

3 He did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with all of us who are alive
here today. 4 Yahweh spoke with you face to face out of the fire on the mountain.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS // EXODUS 20:1–17

5 At that time I was standing between Yahweh and you to declare to you the word of Yahweh, because you were afraid of the fire and would not go up the mountain.
And He said: 6 "I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

7 You shall have no other gods before Me.
8 You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in the heavens above, on the earth below, or in the waters beneath. 9 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on their children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, 10 but showing loving devotion to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments.
12 Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as Yahweh your God has commanded you. 13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yahweh your God, on which you must not do any work—neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your ox or donkey or any of your livestock, nor the foreigner within your gates, so that your manservant and maidservant may rest as you do. 15 Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and that Yahweh your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. That is why Yahweh your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.
16 Honor your father and your mother, as Yahweh your God has commanded you, so that your days may be long and that it may go well with you in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you.
17 You shall not murder.
18 You shall not commit adultery.
19 You shall not steal.
20 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
21 You shall not covet your neighbor's wife. You shall not covet your neighbor's house or field, or his manservant or maidservant, or his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

MOSES INTERCEDES FOR THE PEOPLE // EXODUS 20:18–21; HEBREWS 12:18–29

22 Yahweh spoke these commandments in a loud voice to your whole assembly out of the fire, the cloud, and the deep darkness on the mountain; He added nothing more. And He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.
23 And when you heard the voice out of the darkness while the mountain was blazing with fire, all the heads of your tribes and your elders approached me, 24 and you said, "Behold, Yahweh our God has shown us His glory and greatness, and we have heard His voice out of the fire. Today we have seen that a man can live even if God speaks with him. 25 But now, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us, and we will die, if we hear the voice of Yahweh our God any longer. 26 For who of all flesh has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the fire, as we have, and survived? 27 Go near and listen to all that Yahweh our God says. Then you can tell us everything Yahweh our God tells you; we will listen and obey."
28 And Yahweh heard the words you spoke to me, and He said to me, "I have heard the words that these people have spoken to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken. 29 If only they had such a heart to fear Me and keep all My commandments always, so that it might be

THE NASH PAPYRUS

DEUTERONOMY 5:6 TO 21 · 6:4 TO 5 · EXODUS 20:2 TO 17

The Nash Papyrus, MS Or.233, Cambridge University Library. Public domain.

WHAT IT IS

A single sheet of papyrus, put together from a few pieces, with 24 lines of Hebrew. It holds the Ten Commandments, a short line of introduction, and the start of the Shema, Deuteronomy 6:4 to 5.

HOW OLD IT IS

Most experts date it to about 150 to 100 BC, by the shape of its letters. That makes it about a hundred years older than Jesus.

HOW BIG

About 5½ inches tall and 2½ inches wide.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

W. L. Nash, secretary of the Society of Biblical Archaeology, bought it from a dealer in Egypt in 1902. It was said to come from the Fayyum. Stanley Cook published it in 1903.

WHAT IT SAYS

The Ten Commandments here mix Exodus 20 and Deuteronomy 5. The Sabbath command gives the reason from Exodus, creation. The order is do not commit adultery, then do not murder, then do not steal, the same order as some copies of the Greek Bible, Luke 18:20 and Romans 13:9.

WHY TOGETHER

In Jesus' day the priests in the temple said the Ten Commandments and the Shema together every morning, Mishnah Tamid 5:1. Many think this sheet was used for prayer or teaching, maybe even from a phylactery, not copied from a whole scroll.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

Cambridge University Library in England, MS Or.233.

THE BIG DEBATE

Cook first dated it to the 100s AD. In 1937 William Albright dated it to the 100s BC, and the Dead Sea Scrolls later backed that up. Scholars still argue over whether it is a Bible text or a prayer sheet.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It does not prove who wrote Deuteronomy or when. It shows the Ten Commandments and the Shema were already being read together before Jesus was born.

well with them and with their children forever. 30 Go and tell them: 'Return to your tents.' 31 But you stand here with Me, that I may speak to you all the commandments and statutes and ordinances you are to teach them to follow in the land that I am giving them to possess."

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

Hear, O Israel: Yahweh our God, Yahweh is One. Love Him with all your heart, soul and strength. Talk about His words at home, on the road, at bedtime and at breakfast. When you get rich in the land, do not forget who got you there. And when your kids ask why, tell them the story.

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT // MATTHEW 22:34–40; MARK 12:28–34

1 These are the commandments and statutes and ordinances that Yahweh your God has instructed me to teach you to follow in the land that you are about to enter and possess, 2 so that you and your children and grandchildren may fear Yahweh your God all the days of your lives by keeping all His statutes and commandments that I give you, and so that your days may be prolonged. 3 Hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe them, so that you may prosper and multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has promised you.

4 Hear, O Israel: Yahweh our God, Yahweh is One. 5 And you shall love Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

6 These words I am commanding you today are to be upon your hearts. 7 And you shall teach them diligently to your children and speak of them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as reminders on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.

10 And when Yahweh your God brings you into the land He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, that He would give you—a land with great and splendid cities that you did not build, 11 with houses full of every good thing with which you did not fill them, with wells that you did not dig, and with vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant—and when you eat and are satisfied, 12 be careful not to forget Yahweh who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

13 Fear Yahweh your God, serve Him only, and take your oaths in His name. 14 Do not follow other gods, the gods of the peoples around you. 15 For Yahweh your God, who is among you, is a jealous God. Otherwise the anger of Yahweh your God will be kindled against you, and He will wipe you off the face of the earth.

16 Do not test Yahweh your God as you tested Him at Massah. 17 You are to diligently keep the commandments of Yahweh your God and the testimonies and statutes He has given you. 18 Do what is right and good in the sight of Yahweh, so that it may be well with you and that you may enter and possess the good land that Yahweh your God swore to give your fathers, 19 driving out all your enemies before you, as Yahweh has said.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel is to destroy the nations of Canaan and their idols and not marry into them. Why did God choose Israel? Not because they were big. They were the fewest of all peoples. He chose them because He loved them and kept His promise. God will drive the nations out little by little.

DRIVE OUT THE NATIONS

1 When Yahweh your God brings you into the land that you are entering to possess, and He drives out before you many nations—the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, seven nations larger and stronger than you— 2 and when Yahweh your God has delivered them over to you to defeat them, then you must devote them to complete destruction. Make no treaty with them and show them no mercy.

3 Do not intermarry with them. Do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons, 4 because they will turn your sons away from following Me to serve other gods. Then the anger of Yahweh will burn against you, and He will swiftly destroy you.

5 Instead, this is what you are to do to them: tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, cut down their Asherah poles, and burn their idols in the fire. 6 For you are a people holy to Yahweh your God. Yahweh your God has chosen you to be a people for His prized possession out of all peoples on the face of the earth.

7 Yahweh did not set His affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous than the other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples. 8 But because Yahweh loved you and kept the oath He swore to your fathers, He brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 Know therefore that Yahweh your God is God, the faithful God who keeps His covenant of loving devotion for a thousand generations of those who love Him and keep His commandments. 10 But those who hate Him He repays to their faces with destruction; He will not hesitate to repay to his face the one who hates Him.

11 So keep the commandments and statutes and ordinances that I am giving you to follow this day.

THE PROMISES OF GOD // EXODUS 23:20–33

12 If you listen to these ordinances and keep them carefully, then Yahweh your God will keep His covenant and the loving devotion that He swore to your fathers. 13 He will love you and bless you and multiply you. He will bless the fruit of your womb and the produce of your land—your grain, new wine, and oil, the young of your herds and the lambs of your flocks—in the land that He swore to your fathers to give you. 14 You will be blessed above all peoples; among you there will be no barren man or woman or livestock.

15 And Yahweh will remove from you all sickness. He will not lay upon you any of the terrible diseases you knew in Egypt, but He will inflict them on all who hate you. 16 You must destroy all the peoples Yahweh your God will deliver to you. Do not look on them with pity. Do not worship their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

17 You may say in your heart, "These nations are greater than we are; how can we drive them out?" 18 But do not be afraid of them. Be sure to remember what Yahweh your God did to Pharaoh and all Egypt: 19 the great trials that you saw, the signs and wonders, and the mighty hand and outstretched arm by which Yahweh your God brought you out. Yahweh your God will do the same to all the peoples you now fear.

20 Moreover, Yahweh your God will send the hornet against them until even the survivors hiding from you have perished. 21 Do not be terrified by them, for Yahweh your God, who is among you, is a great and awesome God.

22 Yahweh your God will drive out these nations before you little by little. You will not be enabled to eliminate them all at once, or the wild animals would multiply around you. 23 But Yahweh your God will give them over to you and throw them into great confusion, until they are destroyed. 24 He will hand their kings over to you, and you will wipe out their names from under heaven. No one will be able to stand against you; you will annihilate them.

25 You must burn up the images of their gods; do not covet the silver and gold that is on them or take it for yourselves, or you will be ensnared by it; for it is detestable to Yahweh your God. 26 And you must not bring any detestable thing into your house, or you, like it, will be set apart for destruction. You are to utterly detest and abhor it, because it is set apart for destruction.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

HOLY WAR AND THE CANAANITES

Do Not Spare Them?

DEUTERONOMY 7:1 TO 6 · 9:4 TO 5 · 20:10 TO 18 · GENESIS 15:16

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

God told Israel to completely destroy the seven nations of Canaan, make no treaty with them, show them no mercy and not marry them, 7:1 to 3. In 20:16 to 18 the rules of war say to leave nothing that breathes alive in those cities, so they would not teach Israel their detestable practices. Cities farther away were to be offered peace first, 20:10 to 15.

THE HEBREW WORD

The word is herem. It means something set apart for God, often by destroying it so no one could take it for themselves. Other nations used the same idea. King Mesha of Moab bragged on a stone monument, about 840 BC, that he devoted a whole Israelite town to his god Chemosh.

WHY, ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE

Not because Israel was better. Moses says it plainly: It is not because of your righteousness, but because of the wickedness of these nations, 9:4 to 5. God told Abraham more than four hundred years earlier that the sin of the Amorites was not yet complete, Genesis 15:16. Moses names the sins in 12:31 and 18:9 to 12: idols, sorcery and burning their children in the fire.

GOD JUDGES ISRAEL TOO

The same chapters warn that if Israel worships idols, God will destroy them the same way, 8:19 to 20. Later He sent Israel into exile for the same sins, 2 Kings 17.

THE HEART MIRACLES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

How Christians Read It

JOSHUA 2 · JOSHUA 11:23 · JUDGES 1:27 TO 36 · MATTHEW 5:44

GOD'S JUDGMENT VIEW

Many Christians, from Augustine to today, say God has the right to judge, as He did at the flood and at Sodom. He waited more than four hundred years, and Israel was His tool for a judgment that happened once, in one place, at one time. It was never a pattern for anyone after.

THE BIG LANGUAGE VIEW

Some scholars, like Paul Copan and Nicholas Wolterstorff, say ancient war reports used sweeping words, the way a fan says his team wiped out the other team. They point out that Joshua says all the land was taken, but Judges 1 says many Canaanites were still living there. Others answer that the commands still read as real commands.

DRIVE OUT, NOT ONLY DESTROY

Some point out that many verses say God would drive the nations out little by little, 7:22, and that people could leave or join Israel. Rahab the Canaanite and her family were saved, Joshua 6:25, and she is in Jesus' family line, Matthew 1:5.

THE LATER STORY VIEW

Many critical scholars say these chapters were written centuries later, in Josiah's day, as a strong warning against idols, and that the conquest did not happen this way.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

These are some of the hardest verses in the Bible, and honest readers should feel that. They are not a command for anyone today. Jesus told us to love our enemies, Matthew 5:44. See also The War on Midian pages in Numbers, p.273.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Remember the desert. God let you go hungry and fed you manna to teach you that man does not live on bread alone. Your clothes did not wear out and your feet did not swell for forty years. When you are full and rich, do not say, I did this myself.

REMEMBER YAHWEH YOUR GOD

1 You must carefully follow every commandment I am giving you today, so that you may live and multiply, and enter and possess the land that Yahweh swore to give your fathers. 2 Remember that these forty years Yahweh your God led you all the way in the wilderness, so that He might humble you and test you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep His commandments.
3 He humbled you, and in your hunger He gave you manna to eat, which neither you nor your fathers had known, so that you might understand that man does not live on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of Yahweh. 4 Your clothing did not wear out and your feet did not swell during these forty years.
5 So know in your heart that just as a man disciplines his son, so Yahweh your God disciplines you. 6 Therefore you shall keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, walking in His ways and fearing Him.
7 For Yahweh your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks and fountains and springs that flow through the valleys and hills; 8 a land of wheat, barley, vines, fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of olive oil and honey; 9 a land where you will eat food without scarcity, where you will lack nothing; a land whose rocks are iron and whose hills are ready to be mined for copper. 10 When you eat and are satisfied, you are to bless Yahweh your God for the good land that He has given you.
11 Be careful not to forget Yahweh your God by failing to keep His commandments and ordinances and statutes, which I am giving you this day. 12 Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses in which to dwell, 13 and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all that you have is multiplied, 14 then your heart will become proud, and you will forget Yahweh your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

15 He led you through the vast and terrifying wilderness with its venomous snakes and scorpions, a thirsty and waterless land. He brought you water from the rock of flint. 16 He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your fathers had not known, in order to humble you and test you, so that in the end He might cause you to prosper.

17 You might say in your heart, "The power and strength of my hands have made this wealth for me." 18 But remember that it is Yahweh your God who gives you the power to gain wealth, in order to confirm His covenant that He swore to your fathers even to this day.

19 If you ever forget Yahweh your God and go after other gods to worship and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will surely perish. 20 Like the nations that Yahweh has destroyed before you, so you will perish if you do not obey Yahweh your God.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Do not think God is giving you the land because you are such good people. You are stubborn. Moses retells the golden calf, how he smashed the tablets, and how he lay face down before God for forty days and nights to beg for their lives. This is not a pep talk. It is an honest one.

ASSURANCE OF VICTORY

1 Hear, O Israel: Today you are about to cross the Jordan to go in and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, with large cities fortified to the heavens. 2 The people are strong and tall, the descendants of the Anakim. You know about them, and you have heard it said, "Who can stand up to the sons of Anak?" 3 But understand that today Yahweh your God goes across ahead of you as a consuming fire; He will destroy them and subdue them before you. And you will drive them out and annihilate them swiftly, as Yahweh has promised you.

4 When Yahweh your God has driven them out before you, do not say in your heart, "Because of my righteousness Yahweh has brought me in to possess this land." Rather, Yahweh is driving out these nations before you because of their wickedness.

5 It is not because of your righteousness or uprightness of heart that you are going in to possess their land, but it is because of their wickedness that Yahweh your God is driving out these nations before you, to keep the promise He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 6 Understand, then, that it is not because of your righteousness that Yahweh your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stiff-necked people.

THE GOLDEN CALF // EXODUS 32:1–35; ACTS 7:39–43

7 Remember this, and never forget how you provoked Yahweh your God in the wilderness. From the day you left the land of Egypt until you reached this place, you have been rebelling against Yahweh.

8 At Horeb you provoked Yahweh, and He was angry enough to destroy you. 9 When I went up on the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant that Yahweh made with you, I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I ate no bread and drank no water.

10 Then Yahweh gave me the two stone tablets, inscribed by the finger of God with the exact words that Yahweh spoke to you out of the fire on the mountain on the day of the assembly. 11 And at the end of forty days and forty nights, Yahweh gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant. 12 And Yahweh said to me, "Get up and go down from here at once, for your people, whom you brought out of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. How quickly they have turned aside from the way that I commanded them! They have made for themselves a molten image."

13 Yahweh also said to me, "I have seen this people, and they are indeed a stiff-necked people. 14 Leave Me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven. Then I will make you into a nation mightier and greater than they are."

15 So I went back down the mountain while it was blazing with fire, with the two tablets of the covenant in my hands. 16 And I saw how you had sinned against Yahweh your God; you had made for yourselves a molten calf. You had turned aside quickly from the way that Yahweh had commanded you. 17 So I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands, shattering them before your eyes.

18 Then I fell down before Yahweh for forty days and forty nights, as I had done the first time. I did not eat bread or drink water because of all the sin you had committed in doing what was evil in the sight of Yahweh and provoking Him to anger. 19 For I was afraid of the anger and wrath that Yahweh had directed against you, enough to destroy you. But Yahweh listened to me this time as well.

20 Yahweh was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him, but at that time I also prayed for Aaron. 21 And I took that sinful thing, the calf you had made, and burned it in the fire. Then I crushed it and ground it to powder as fine as dust, and I cast it into the stream that came down from the mountain.

22 You continued to provoke Yahweh at Taberah, at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah. 23 And when Yahweh sent you out from Kadesh-barnea, He said, "Go up and possess the land that I have given you."

But you rebelled against the command of Yahweh your God. You neither believed Him nor obeyed Him. 24 You have been rebelling against Yahweh since the day I came to know you. 25 So I fell down before Yahweh for forty days and forty nights, because Yahweh had said He would destroy you.

26 And I prayed to Yahweh and said, "O Lord Yahweh, do not destroy Your people, Your inheritance, whom You redeemed through Your greatness and brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 27 Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Overlook the stubbornness of this people and the wickedness of their sin. 28 Otherwise, those in the land from which You brought us out will say, 'Because Yahweh was not able to bring them into the land He had promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.' 29 But they are Your people, Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your great power and outstretched arm."

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Moses to cut two new tablets, and He writes the Ten Commandments again. They go in the ark. Then Moses asks, What does God want? To fear Him, walk in His ways, love Him and serve Him with all your heart. Circumcise your hearts. Love the foreigner, because you were foreigners in Egypt.

NEW STONE TABLETS // EXODUS 34:1–9

1 At that time Yahweh said to me, "Chisel out two stone tablets like the originals, come up to Me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood. 2 And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; and you are to place them in the ark."

3 So I made an ark of acacia wood, chiseled out two stone tablets like the originals, and went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hands. 4 And Yahweh wrote on the tablets what had been written previously, the Ten Commandments that He had spoken to you on the mountain out of the fire on the day of the assembly. Yahweh gave them to me, 5 and I went back down the mountain and placed the tablets in the ark I had made, as Yahweh had commanded me; and there they have remained.

6 The Israelites traveled from Beeroth Bene-jaakan to Moserah, where Aaron died and was buried, and Eleazar his son succeeded him as priest. 7 From there they traveled to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water.

8 At that time Yahweh set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, to stand before Yahweh to serve Him, and to pronounce blessings in His name, as they do to this day. 9 That is why Levi has no portion or inheritance among his brothers; Yahweh is his inheritance, as Yahweh your God promised him.

10 I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights, like the first time, and that time Yahweh again listened to me and agreed not to destroy you.

11 Then Yahweh said to me, "Get up. Continue your journey ahead of the people, that they may enter and possess the land that I swore to their fathers to give them."

A CALL TO OBEDIENCE // JOSHUA 24:14–28

12 And now, O Israel, what does Yahweh your God ask of you but to fear Yahweh your God by walking in all His ways, to love Him, to serve Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul, 13 and to keep the commandments and statutes of Yahweh that I am giving you this day for your own good?

14 Behold, to Yahweh your God belong the heavens, even the highest heavens, and the earth and everything in it. 15 Yet Yahweh has set His affection on your fathers and loved them. And He has chosen you, their descendants after them, above all the peoples, even to this day.

16 Circumcise your hearts, therefore, and stiffen your necks no more. 17 For Yahweh your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, mighty, and awesome God, showing no partiality and accepting no bribe. 18 He executes justice for the fatherless and widow, and He loves the foreigner, giving him food and clothing. 19 So you also must love the foreigner, since you yourselves were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

20 You are to fear Yahweh your God and serve Him. Hold fast to Him and take your oaths in His name. 21 He is your praise and He is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome wonders that your eyes have seen. 22 Your fathers went down to Egypt, seventy in all, and now Yahweh your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Love God and keep His commands, and He will send the rain in its season. Teach these words to your kids and write them on your doorposts. Today you have a choice: a blessing on Mount Gerizim or a curse on Mount Ebal. Choose wisely. There will be a test.

OBEDIENCE AND DISCIPLINE // DEUTERONOMY 4:1–14

1 You shall therefore love Yahweh your God and always keep His charge, His statutes, His ordinances, and His commandments.

2 Know this day that it is not your children who have known and seen the discipline of Yahweh your God: His greatness, His mighty hand, and His outstretched arm; 3 the signs and works He did in Egypt to Pharaoh king of Egypt and all his land; 4 what He did to the Egyptian army and horses and chariots when He made the waters of the Red Sea engulf them as they pursued you, and how He destroyed them completely, even to this day; 5 what He did for you in the wilderness until you reached this place; 6 and what He did in the midst of all the Israelites to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their households, their tents, and every living thing that belonged to them.

7 For it is your own eyes that have seen every great work that Yahweh has done.

DT 10:16 [HEART] God tells Israel to cut away what covers their hearts and stop being stubborn. The heart, not just the body, has to belong to God.

GOD'S GREAT BLESSINGS // JOSHUA 1:1–9

8 You shall therefore keep every commandment I am giving you today, so that you may have the strength to go in and possess the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess, 9 and so that you may live long in the land that Yahweh swore to your fathers to give them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 For the land that you are entering to possess is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and irrigated on foot, like a vegetable garden. 11 But the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess is a land of mountains and valleys that drinks in the rain from heaven. 12 It is a land for which Yahweh your God cares; the eyes of Yahweh your God are always on it, from the beginning to the end of the year.

13 So if you carefully obey the commandments I am giving you today, to love Yahweh your God and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, 14 then I will provide rain for your land in season, the autumn and spring rains, that you may gather your grain, new wine, and oil. 15 And I will provide grass in the fields for your livestock, and you will eat and be satisfied.

16 But be careful that you are not enticed to turn aside to worship and bow down to other gods, 17 or the anger of Yahweh will be kindled against you. He will shut the heavens so that there will be no rain, nor will the land yield its produce, and you will soon perish from the good land that Yahweh is giving you.

REMEMBER GOD'S WORDS

18 Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds; tie them as reminders on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 19 Teach them to your children, speaking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 20 Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates, 21 so that as long as the heavens are above the earth, your days and those of your children may be multiplied in the land that Yahweh swore to give your fathers.

22 For if you carefully keep all these commandments I am giving you to follow—to love Yahweh your God, to walk in all His ways, and to hold fast to Him— 23 then Yahweh will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations greater and stronger than you. 24 Every place where the sole of your foot treads will be yours. Your territory will extend from the wilderness to Lebanon, and from the Euphrates River to the Western Sea. 25 No man will be able to stand against you; Yahweh your God will put the fear and dread of you upon all the land, wherever you set foot, as He has promised you.

A BLESSING AND A CURSE

26 See, today I am setting before you a blessing and a curse— 27 a blessing if you obey the commandments of Yahweh your God that I am giving you today, 28 but a curse if you disobey the commandments of Yahweh your God and turn aside from the path I command you today by following other gods, which you have not known.

29 When Yahweh your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess, you are to proclaim the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal. 30 Are not these mountains across the Jordan, west of the road toward the sunset, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah opposite Gilgal near the Oak of Moreh?

31 For you are about to cross the Jordan to enter and possess the land that Yahweh your God is giving you. When you take possession of it and settle in it, 32 be care-

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

In the land, tear down every pagan shrine. Do not worship God however you want. Bring your offerings to the one place He will choose. You can eat meat at home, just not the blood. And never copy the nations, who even burned their own children for their gods.

ONE PLACE FOR WORSHIP

1 These are the statutes and ordinances you must be careful to follow all the days you live in the land that Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess.

2 Destroy completely all the places where the nations you are dispossessing have served their gods—atop the high mountains, on the hills, and under every green tree. 3 Tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, burn up their Asherah poles, cut down the idols of their gods, and wipe out their names from every place. 4 You shall not worship Yahweh your God in this way.

5 Instead, you must seek the place Yahweh your God will choose from among all your tribes to establish as a dwelling for His Name, and there you must go. 6 To that place you are to bring your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and heave offerings, your vow offerings and freewill offerings, as well as the firstborn of your herds and flocks. 7 There, in the presence of Yahweh your God, you and your households shall eat and rejoice in all you do, because Yahweh your God has blessed you.

8 You are not to do as we are doing here today, where everyone does what seems right in his own eyes. 9 For you have not yet come to the resting place and the inheritance that Yahweh your God is giving you.

10 When you cross the Jordan and live in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you as an inheritance, and He gives you rest from all the enemies around you and you dwell securely, 11 then Yahweh your God will choose a dwelling for His Name. And there you are to bring everything I command you: your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and special gifts, and all the choice offerings you vow to Yahweh. 12 And you shall rejoice before Yahweh your God—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levite within your gates, since he has no portion or inheritance among you.

13 Be careful not to offer your burnt offerings in just any place you see; 14 you must offer them only in the place Yahweh will choose in one of your tribal territories, and there you shall do all that I command you.

15 But whenever you want, you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your gates, according to the blessing Yahweh your God has given you. Both the ceremonially clean and unclean may eat it as they would a gazelle or deer, 16 but you must not eat the blood; pour it on the ground like water.

17 Within your gates you must not eat the tithe of your grain or new wine or oil, the firstborn of your herds or flocks, any of the offerings that you have vowed to give, or your freewill offerings or special gifts. 18 Instead, you must eat them in the presence of Yahweh your God at the place Yahweh your God will choose—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levite within your gates. Rejoice before Yahweh your God in all you do, 19 and be careful not to neglect the Levites as long as you live in your land.

20 When Yahweh your God expands your territory as He has promised, and you crave meat and say, "I want to eat meat," you may eat it whenever you want. 21 If the place where Yahweh your God chooses to put His Name is too far from you, then you may slaughter any of the herd or flock He has given you, as I have commanded you, and you may eat it within your gates whenever you want. 22 Indeed, you may eat it as you would eat a gazelle or deer; both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it. 23 Only be sure not to eat the blood, because the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat. 24 You must not eat the blood; pour it on the ground like water. 25 Do not eat it, so that it may go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is right in the eyes of Yahweh.

26 But you are to take your holy things and your vow offerings and go to the place Yahweh will choose. 27 Present the meat and blood of your burnt offerings on the altar of Yahweh your God. The blood of your other sacrifices must be poured out beside the altar of Yahweh your God, but you may eat the meat. 28 Be careful to obey all these things I command you, so that it may always go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is good and right in the eyes of Yahweh your God.

29 When Yahweh your God cuts off before you the nations you are entering to dispossess, and you drive them out and live in their land, 30 be careful not to be ensnared by their ways after they have been destroyed before you. Do not inquire about their gods, asking, "How do these nations serve their gods? I will do likewise."

31 You must not worship Yahweh your God in this way, because they practice for their gods every abomination which Yahweh hates. They even burn their sons and daughters in the fire as sacrifices to their gods.

32 See that you do everything I command you; do not add to it or subtract from it.

DT 12:29 [DEMONIC] The nations burn their children for their gods

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

If a prophet does a real miracle and then says, Let's follow other gods, do not listen. God is testing you. Not even your brother, your child or your best friend gets a pass if they try to lead you away. A whole town that turns to idols must be destroyed.

IDOLATERS TO BE PUT TO DEATH

1 If a prophet or dreamer of dreams arises among you and proclaims a sign or wonder to you, 2 and if the sign or wonder he has spoken to you comes about, but he says, "Let us follow other gods (which you have not known) and let us worship them," 3 you must not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer. For Yahweh your God is testing you to find out whether you love Him with all your heart and with all your soul. 4 You are to follow Yahweh your God and fear Him. Keep His commandments and listen to His voice; serve Him and hold fast to Him.

5 Such a prophet or dreamer must be put to death, because he has advocated rebellion against Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery; he has tried to turn you from the way in which Yahweh your God has commanded you to walk. So you must purge the evil from among you.

6 If your very own brother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you embrace, or your closest friend secretly entices you, saying, "Let us go and worship other gods" (which neither you nor your fathers have known, 7 the gods of the peoples around you, whether near or far, whether from one end of the earth or the other), 8 you must not yield to him or listen to him. Show him no pity, and do not spare him or shield him.

9 Instead, you must surely kill him. Your hand must be the first against him to put him to death, and then the hands of all the people. 10 Stone him to death for trying to turn you away from Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. 11 Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and will never again do such a wicked thing among you.

IDOLATROUS CITIES TO BE DESTROYED

12 If, regarding one of the cities Yahweh your God is giving you to inhabit, you hear it said 13 that wicked men have arisen from among you and have led the people of their city astray, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods" (which you have not known), 14 then you must inquire, investigate, and interrogate thoroughly. And if it is established with certainty that this abomination has been committed among you, 15 you must surely put the inhabitants of that city to the sword. Devote to destruction all its people and livestock.

16 And you are to gather all its plunder in the middle of the public square, and completely burn the city and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to Yahweh your God. The city must remain a mound of ruins forever, never to be rebuilt.

17 Nothing devoted to destruction shall cling to your hands, so that Yahweh will turn from His fierce anger, grant you mercy, show you compassion, and multiply you as He swore to your fathers, 18 because you obey Yahweh your God, keeping all His commandments I am giving you today and doing what is right in the eyes of Yahweh your God.

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

You are God's children, so no cutting yourselves for the dead. Here is the menu: cows, sheep and goats, yes. Camels, pigs and rabbits, no. Fish with fins and scales, yes. Shrimp, no. Set aside a tithe and throw a feast before God, and every third year share it with the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow.

CLEAN AND UNCLEAN ANIMALS // LEVITICUS 11:1–47; ACTS 10:9–16

1 You are sons of Yahweh your God; do not cut yourselves or shave your foreheads on behalf of the dead, 2 for you are a people holy to Yahweh your God. Yahweh has chosen you to be a people for His prized possession out of all the peoples on the face of the earth.

3 You must not eat any detestable thing. 4 These are the animals that you may eat:
The ox, the sheep, the goat,
5 the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer,
the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope,
and the mountain sheep.

6 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof divided in two and that chews the cud.

7 But of those that chew the cud or have a completely divided hoof, you are not to eat the following:

the camel,
the rabbit,
or the rock badger.
Although they chew the cud, they do not have a divided hoof. They are unclean for you, 8 as well as the pig; though it has a divided hoof, it does not chew the cud. It is unclean for you. You must not eat its meat or touch its carcass.

9 Of all the creatures that live in the water, you may eat anything with fins and scales, 10 but you may not eat anything that does not have fins and scales; it is unclean for you.

11 You may eat any clean bird, 12 but these you may not eat:

the eagle, the bearded vulture, the black vulture,
13 the red kite, the falcon, any kind of kite,
14 any kind of raven,
15 the ostrich, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk,
16 the little owl, the great owl, the white owl,
17 the desert owl, the osprey, the cormorant,
18 the stork, any kind of heron,
the hoopoe, or the bat.

19 All flying insects are unclean for you; they may not be eaten. 20 But you may eat any clean bird.

THE HEART

21 You are not to eat any carcass; you may give it to the foreigner residing within your gates, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a holy people belonging to Yahweh your God.

You must not cook a young goat in its
mother's milk.

GIVING TITHES // LEVITICUS 27:30–34; DEUTERONOMY 26:1–15; NEHEMIAH 13:10–14

22 You must be sure to set aside a tenth of all the produce brought forth each year from your fields. 23 And you are to eat a tenth of your grain, new wine, and oil, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks, in the presence of Yahweh your God at the place He will choose as a dwelling for His Name, so that you may learn to fear Yahweh your God always.

24 But if the distance is too great for you to carry that with which Yahweh your God has blessed you, because the place where Yahweh your God will choose to put His Name is too far away, 25 then exchange it for money, take the money in your hand, and go to the place Yahweh your God will choose. 26 Then you may spend the money on anything you desire:
cattle, sheep, wine, strong drink, or anything you wish. You are to feast there in the presence of Yahweh your God and rejoice with your household. 27 And do not neglect the Levite within your gates, since he has no portion or inheritance among
you.

28 At the end of every three years, bring a tenth of all your produce for that year and lay it up within your gates. 29 Then the Levite (because he has no portion or inheritance among you), the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow within your gates may come and eat and be satisfied.
And Yahweh your God will bless you in all the work of your hands.

15

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Every seventh year, cancel your neighbor's debts. Do not get tightfisted as that year gets close. There will always be poor people, so open your hand wide. Set Hebrew servants free in the seventh year, and do not send them away empty handed. Remember, you were slaves too.

THE SEVENTH YEAR // EXODUS 23:10–13; LEVITICUS 25:1–7

1 At the end of every seven years you must cancel debts. 2 This is the manner of remission: Every creditor shall cancel what he has loaned to his neighbor. He is not to collect anything from his neighbor or brother, because Yahweh's time of release has been proclaimed. 3 You may collect something from a foreigner, but you must forgive whatever your brother owes you.

4 There will be no poor among you, however, because Yahweh will surely bless you in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, 5
if only you obey Yahweh your God and are careful to follow all these commandments
I am giving you today. 6 When Yahweh your God blesses you as He has promised, you will lend to many nations but borrow from none; you will rule over many nations but be ruled by none.

GENEROSITY IN LENDING AND GIVING // MATTHEW 6:1–4

7 If there is a poor man among your brothers within any of the gates in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you, then you are not to harden your heart or shut your hand from your poor brother. 8 Instead,
you are to open your hand to him and freely loan him whatever he needs.

9 Be careful not to harbor this wicked thought in your heart: "The seventh year,
the year of release, is near," so that you look upon your poor brother begrudgingly and give him nothing. He will cry out to Yahweh against you, and you will be guilty of sin.

DT 14:21 [NOTE] This is the third time the Law says it, Exodus 23:19 and 34:26. Later rabbis built the Jewish rule of not mixing meat and milk on these three verses.

DT 15:9 [HEART] Do not let a selfish thought in your heart keep you from helping the poor. Give generously, and do not give with a grudging heart.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW THE HEART

10 Give generously to him, and do not let your heart be grieved when you do so.
And because of this Yahweh your God will bless you in all your work and in everything to which you put your hand. 11 For there will never cease to be poor in the land; that is why I am commanding you to open wide your hand to your brother and to the poor and needy in your land.

HEBREW SERVANTS // EXODUS 21:1–11

12 If a fellow Hebrew, a man or a woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you must set him free.
13 And when you release him, do not send him away empty-handed. 14 You are to furnish him liberally from your flock, your threshing floor, and your winepress. You shall give to him as Yahweh your God has blessed you. 15 Remember that you were slaves in the land of Egypt, and Yahweh your God redeemed you; that is why I am giving you this command today.
16 But if your servant says to you, 'I do not want to leave you,' because he loves you and your household and is well off with you, 17 then take an awl and pierce it through his ear into the door, and he will become your servant for life. And treat your maidservant the same way.
18 Do not regard it as a hardship to set your servant free, because his six years of service were worth twice the wages of a hired hand. And Yahweh your God will bless you in all you do.

FIRSTBORN ANIMALS // EXODUS 13:1–16

19 You must set apart to Yahweh your God every firstborn male produced by your herds and flocks. You are not to put the firstborn of your oxen to work, nor are you to shear the firstborn of your flock. 20 Each year you and your household are to eat it before Yahweh your God in the place Yahweh will choose.
21 But if an animal has a defect, is lame or blind, or has any serious flaw, you must not sacrifice it to Yahweh your God. 22 Eat
it within your gates; both the ceremonially unclean and clean may eat it as they would a gazelle or a deer. 23 But you must not eat the blood; pour it on the ground like water.

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS
Three times a year, every man goes to God's chosen place for Passover, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Booths. Nobody shows up empty judges are to be appointed in every town. No bribes, no favorites. Justice, and only justice.

PASSOVER AND THE FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD // EXODUS 12:14–28; LEVITICUS 23:4–8; NUM-BERS 28:16–25

1 Observe the month of Abib and celebrate the Passover to Yahweh your God, because in the month of Abib Yahweh your God brought you out of Egypt by night.
2 You are to offer to Yahweh your God the Passover sacrifice from the herd or flock in the place Yahweh will choose as a dwelling for His Name. 3 You must not eat
leavened bread with it; for seven days you are to eat with it unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, because you left the land of Egypt in haste—so that you may remember for the rest of your life the day
you left the land of Egypt.
4 No leaven is to be found in all your land for seven days, and none of the meat you sacrifice in the evening of the first day shall remain until morning.
5 You are not to sacrifice the Passover animal in any of the towns that Yahweh your God is giving you. 6 You must only offer
the Passover sacrifice at the place Yahweh your God will choose as a dwelling for His Name. Do this in the evening as the sun sets, at the same time you departed from Egypt. 7 And you shall roast it and eat it in the place Yahweh your God will choose, and in the morning you shall return to your tents.
8 For six days you must eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day you shall hold a solemn assembly to Yahweh your God, and you must not do any work.

THE FEAST OF WEEKS // NUMBERS 28:26–31

9 You are to count off seven weeks from the time you first put the sickle to the standing grain. 10 And you shall celebrate the Feast of Weeks to Yahweh your God with a freewill offering that you give in proportion to how Yahweh your God has blessed you, 11 and you shall rejoice before Yahweh your God in the place He will choose as a dwelling for His Name—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levite within your gates, as well as the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widows among you.

12 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt, and carefully follow these statutes.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES // NUMBERS 29:12–40

13 You are to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days after you have gathered the produce of your threshing floor and your winepress. 14 And you shall rejoice in your feast—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levite, as well as the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widows among you.

15 For seven days you shall celebrate a feast to Yahweh your God in the place He will choose, because Yahweh your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that your joy will be complete.

16 Three times a year all your men are to appear before Yahweh your God in the place He will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles. No one should appear before Yahweh empty-handed. 17 Everyone must appear with a gift as he is able, according to the blessing Yahweh your God has given you.

JUDGES AND JUSTICE

18 You are to appoint judges and officials for your tribes in every town that Yahweh your God is giving you. They are to judge the people with righteous judgment.

19 Do not deny justice or show partiality. Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.

20 Pursue justice, and justice alone, so that you may live, and you may possess the land that Yahweh your God is giving you.

FORBIDDEN FORMS OF WORSHIP

21 Do not set up any wooden Asherah pole next to the altar you will build for Yahweh your God, 22 and do not set up for yourselves a sacred pillar, which Yahweh your God hates.

17

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

Idol worshipers must be put to death, but only on the word of two or three witnesses. Hard cases go to the priests and the judge. If Israel wants a king, he must not collect horses, wives or gold, and he must write out his own copy of God's law and read it every day.

DETESTABLE SACRIFICES

1 You shall not sacrifice to Yahweh your God an ox or a sheep with any defect or serious flaw, for that is detestable to Yahweh your God.

PURGE THE IDOLATER

2 If a man or woman among you in one of the towns that Yahweh your God gives you is found doing evil in the sight of Yahweh your God by transgressing His covenant 3 and going to worship other gods, bowing down to them or to the sun or moon or any of the host of heaven—which I have forbidden— 4 and if it is reported and you hear about it, you must investigate it thoroughly.

If the report is true and such an abomination has happened in Israel, 5 you must bring out to your gates the man or woman who has done this evil thing, and you must stone that person to death. 6 On the testimony of two or three witnesses a man shall be put to death, but he shall not be exe- cuted on the testimony of a lone witness. 7 The hands of the witnesses shall be the first in putting him to death, and after that, the hands of all the people. So you must purge the evil from among you.

COURTS OF LAW

8 If a case is too difficult for you to judge, whether the controversy within your gates is regarding bloodshed, lawsuits, or assaults, you must go up to the place Yahweh your God will choose. 9 You are to go to the Levitical priests and to the judge who presides at that time. Inquire of them, and they will give you a verdict in the case.

10 You must abide by the verdict they give you at the place Yahweh will choose. Be careful to do everything they instruct you, 11 according to the terms of law they give and the verdict they proclaim. Do not turn aside to the right or to the left from the decision they declare to you.

12 But the man who acts presumptuously, refusing to listen either to the priest who stands there to serve Yahweh your God, or to the judge, must be put to death. You must purge the evil from Israel. 13 Then all the people will hear and be afraid, and will no longer behave arrogantly.

GUIDELINES FOR A KING // 1 SAMUEL 8:1–9

14 When you enter the land that Yahweh your God is giving you and have taken possession of it and settled in it, and you say, "Let us set a king over us like all the nations around us," 15 you are to appoint over yourselves the king whom Yahweh your God shall choose. Appoint a king from among your brothers; you are not to set over yourselves a foreigner who is not one of your brothers.

16 But the king must not acquire many horses for himself or send the people back to Egypt to acquire more horses, for Yahweh has said, 'You are never to go back that way again.' 17 He must not take many wives for himself, lest his heart go astray. He must not accumulate for himself large amounts of silver and gold.

18 When he is seated on his royal throne, he must write for himself a copy of this instruction on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests. 19 It is to remain with him, and he is to read from it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear Yahweh his God by carefully observing all the words of this instruction and these statutes. 20 Then his heart will not be exalted above his countrymen, and he will not turn aside from the commandment, to the right or to the left, in order that he and his sons may reign many years over his kingdom in Israel.

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

The priests and Levites get no land; God is their share. Israel must stay away from every kind of fortune telling, sorcery and talking to the dead, and from sacrificing children. Instead, God promises to raise up a Prophet like Moses. Listen to Him.

PROVISION FOR PRIESTS AND LEVITES // 1 CORINTHIANS 9:1–18

1 The Levitical priests—indeed the whole tribe of Levi—shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel. They are to eat the food offerings to Yahweh; that is their inheritance. 2 Although they have no inheritance among their brothers, Yahweh is their inheritance, as He promised them.

3 This shall be the priests' share from the people who offer a sacrifice, whether a bull or a sheep: the priests are to be given the shoulder, the jowls, and the stomach. 4 You are to give them the firstfruits of your grain, new wine, and oil, and the first wool sheared from your flock. 5 For Yahweh your God has chosen Levi and his

6 Now if a Levite moves from any town of residence throughout Israel and comes in all earnestness to the place Yahweh will choose, 7 then he shall serve in the name of Yahweh his God like all his fellow Levites who stand there before Yahweh. 8 They shall eat equal portions, even though he has received money from the sale of his father's estate.

SORCERY FORBIDDEN // ACTS 8:9–25

9 When you enter the land that Yahweh your God is giving you, do not imitate the detestable ways of the nations there. 10 Let no one be found among you who sacrifices his son or daughter in the fire, practices divination or conjury, interprets omens, practices sorcery, 11 casts spells, consults a medium or spiritist, or inquires of the dead. 12 For whoever does these things is detestable to Yahweh. And because of these detestable things, Yahweh your God is driving out the nations before you.

13 You must be blameless before Yahweh your God. 14 Though these nations, which you will dispossess, listen to conjurers and diviners, Yahweh your God has not permitted you to do so.

A PROPHET LIKE MOSES // ACTS 3:11–26

15 Yahweh your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers. You must listen to him. 16 This is what you asked of Yahweh your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, "Let us not hear the voice of Yahweh our God or see this great fire anymore, so that we will not die!"

17 Then Yahweh said to me, "They have spoken well. 18 I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. I will put My words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him. 19 And I will hold accountable anyone who does not listen to My words that the prophet speaks in My name. 20 But if any prophet dares to speak a message in My name that I have not commanded him to speak, or to speak in the name of other gods, that prophet must be put to death."

21 You may ask in your heart, "How can we recognize a message that Yahweh has not spoken?" 22 When a prophet speaks in the name of Yahweh and the message does not come to pass or come true, that is a message Yahweh has not spoken. The prophet has spoken presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him.

THE BIG QUESTION

THE PROPHET LIKE MOSES

Who Is He?

DEUTERONOMY 18:15 TO 19 · 34:10 TO 12 · JOHN 1:21 · JOHN 6:14

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Moses said, Yahweh your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers. You must listen to him, 18:15. God added, I will put My words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him, 18:18. Anyone who will not listen will answer to God, 18:19.

STILL WAITING

The last verses of Deuteronomy say no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom Yahweh knew face to face, 34:10. So whoever wrote that line was still waiting for the Prophet.

IN JESUS' DAY

People asked John the Baptist, Are you the Prophet? He said no, John 1:21. After Jesus fed the five thousand, the crowds said, Truly this is the Prophet who is to come into the world, John 6:14. At the Transfiguration God said, This is My

LIKE MOSES HOW?

At Mount Sinai the people were so afraid of God's voice that they begged for a go between, 18:16. God's answer was this Prophet. Like Moses, He would stand between God and the people, speak God's own words, and lead God's people. Moses also did signs and wonders, and gave Israel a covenant from God, 34:11.

WHAT THE APOSTLES SAID

Peter quoted 18:15 to 19 in the temple and said it was about Jesus, Acts 3:22 to 23. Stephen did the same before he was stoned, Acts 7:37.

One Prophet or Many?

JOSHUA 1:1 TO 2 · JEREMIAH 1:9 · HEBREWS 3:1 TO 6

THE LINE OF PROPHETS VIEW

Many Jewish teachers, like Rashi and Ibn Ezra, read prophet as a kind of person: God would keep sending true prophets, like Joshua, Samuel and Jeremiah, so Israel would not need fortune tellers. The verses right before, 18:9 to 14, are about sorcerers, and the verses after, 18:20 to 22, tell how to spot a false prophet.

THE ONE PROPHET VIEW

Most Christians, from the apostles on, read it as one special Prophet, the Messiah. Jesus spoke God's words, John 12:49, gave a new covenant, and is worthy of more glory than Moses, Hebrews 3:3. Many say both are true: a line of prophets, ending in the greatest one.

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS

The people at Qumran waited for a prophet, and the Messiahs of Aaron and Israel. One scroll, 4QTestimonia, puts 18:18 to 19 next to the star of Jacob from Numbers 24:17.

THE SAMARITANS

The Samaritans, who kept only the five books of Moses, waited for the Taheb, the one who returns, a prophet like Moses. The Samaritan woman told Jesus, I know Messiah is coming. When He comes, He will explain everything to us, John 4:25.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God promised to keep speaking to His people through someone like Moses, and to hold them responsible to listen. Christians believe Jesus is that Prophet, and Jews read it as God's promise of true prophets.

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Three cities of refuge, plus three more later, so a person who kills by accident can run there and be safe. Murderers do not get to hide there. Do not move your neighbor's boundary stone. One witness is not enough to convict, and a false witness gets the punishment he wanted for the other guy.

CITIES OF REFUGE // NUMBERS 35:9–34; DEUTERONOMY 4:41–43; JOSHUA 20:1–9

1 When Yahweh your God has cut off the nations whose land He is giving you, and when you have driven them out and settled in their cities and houses, 2 then you are to set apart for yourselves three cities within the land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess. 3 You are to build roads for yourselves and divide into three regions the land that Yahweh your God is giving you as an inheritance, so that any manslayer can flee to these cities.

4 Now this is the situation regarding the manslayer who flees to one of these cities to save his life, having killed his neighbor accidentally, without intending to harm him: 5 If he goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut timber and swings his axe to chop down a tree, but the blade flies off
the handle and strikes and kills his neighbor, he may flee to one of these cities to save his life.

6 Otherwise, the avenger of blood might pursue the manslayer in a rage, overtake him if the distance is great, and strike him dead though he did not deserve to die, since he did not intend any harm. 7 This is why I am commanding you to set apart for yourselves three cities.

8 And if Yahweh your God enlarges your territory, as He swore to your fathers, and gives you all the land He promised them, 9
and if you carefully keep all these commandments I am giving you today, loving Yahweh your God and walking in His ways at all times, then you are to add three more cities to these three.

10 Thus innocent blood will not be shed in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you as an inheritance, so that you will not be guilty of bloodshed.

11 If, however, a man hates his neighbor and lies in wait, attacks him and kills him, and then flees to one of these cities, 12 the elders of his city must send for him, bring him back, and hand him over to the avenger of blood to die. 13 You must show him no pity. You are to purge from Israel the guilt of shedding innocent blood, that it may go well with you.

14 You must not move your neighbor's boundary marker, which was set up by your ancestors to mark the inheritance you shall receive in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess.

THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES // MATTHEW 18:15–20

15 A lone witness is not sufficient to establish any wrongdoing or sin against a man, regardless of what offense he may have committed. A matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

16 If a false witness testifies against someone, accusing him of a crime, 17 both parties to the dispute must stand in the presence of Yahweh, before the priests and judges who are in office at that time. 18 The judges shall investigate thoroughly, and if the witness is proven to be a liar who has falsely accused his brother, 19 you must do to him as he intended to do to his brother. So you must purge the evil from among you. 20 Then the rest of the people will hear and be afraid, and they will never again do anything so evil among you. 21 You must show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, and foot for foot.

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

Rules for war. The priest tells the army, Do not be afraid. Anyone who just built a house, planted a vineyard or got engaged goes home, and so does anyone who is scared. Offer peace to distant cities first. And do not cut down fruit trees. The trees are not the enemy.

LAWS OF WARFARE

1 When you go out to war against your enemies and see horses, chariots, and an army larger than yours, do not be afraid of them; for Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, is with you. 2 When you are about to go into battle, the priest is to come forward and address the army, 3 saying to them, "Hear, O Israel, today you are going into battle with your enemies. Do not be fainthearted or afraid; do not be alarmed or terrified because of them. 4 For Yahweh your God goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to give you the victory."

5 Furthermore, the officers are to address the army, saying, "Has any man built a new house and not dedicated it? Let him return home, or he may die in battle and another man dedicate it. 6 Has any man planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy its fruit? Let him return home, or he may die in battle and another man enjoy its fruit. 7 Has any man become pledged to a woman and not married her? Let him return home, or he may die in battle and another man marry her."

8 Then the officers shall speak further to the army, saying, "Is any man afraid or fainthearted? Let him return home, so that the hearts of his brothers will not melt like his own."

9 When the officers have finished addressing the army, they are to appoint commanders to lead it.

10 When you approach a city to fight against it, you are to make an offer of peace. 11 If they accept your offer of peace and open their gates, all the people there will become forced laborers to serve you.

12 But if they refuse to make peace with you and wage war against you, lay siege to that city. 13 When Yahweh your God has delivered it into your hand, you must put every male to the sword. 14 But the women, children, livestock, and whatever else is in the city—all its spoil—you may take as plunder, and you shall use the spoil of your enemies that Yahweh your God gives you. 15 This is how you are to treat all the cities that are far away from you and do not belong to the nations nearby.

16 However, in the cities of the nations that Yahweh your God is giving you as an inheritance, you must not leave alive anything that breathes. 17 For you must devote them to complete destruction—the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites—as Yahweh your God has commanded you, 18 so that they cannot teach you to do all the detestable things they do for their gods, and so cause you to sin against Yahweh your God.

19 When you lay siege to a city for an extended time while fighting against it to capture it, you must not destroy its trees by putting an axe to them, because you can eat their fruit. You must not cut them down. Are the trees of the field human, that you should besiege them? 20 But you may destroy the trees that you know do not produce fruit. Use them to build siege works against the city that is waging war against you, until it falls.

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

If a body is found in a field, the nearest town makes atonement. Rules for marrying a captive woman, for protecting the firstborn son of an unloved wife, and for a son who is a stubborn drunk. And a hanged body must be buried the same day, because anyone hung on a tree is under God's curse.

DT 20:18 [DEMONIC] The nations would teach Israel their detestable worship

ATONEMENT FOR AN UNSOLVED MURDER

1 If one is found slain, lying in a field in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him, 2 your elders and judges must come out and measure the distance from the victim to the neighboring cities.

3 Then the elders of the city nearest the victim shall take a heifer that has never been yoked or used for work, 4 bring the heifer to a valley with running water that has not been plowed or sown, and break its neck there by the stream.

5 And the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come forward, for Yahweh your God has chosen them to serve Him and pronounce blessings in His name and to give a ruling in every dispute and case of assault. 6 Then all the elders of the city nearest the victim shall wash their hands by the stream over the heifer whose neck has been broken, 7 and they shall declare, "Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it. 8 Accept this atonement, O Yahweh, for Your people Israel whom You have redeemed, and do not hold the shedding of innocent blood against them."

And the bloodshed will be atoned for. 9 So you shall purge from among you the guilt of shedding innocent blood, since you have done what is right in the eyes of Yahweh.

MARRYING A CAPTIVE WOMAN

10 When you go to war against your enemies and Yahweh your God delivers them into your hand and you take them captive, 11 if you see a beautiful woman among them, and you desire her and want to take her as your wife, 12 then you shall bring her into your house. She must shave her head, trim her nails, 13 and put aside the clothing of her captivity.

After she has lived in your house a full month and mourned her father and mother, you may have relations with her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. 14 And if you are not pleased with her, you are to let her go wherever she wishes. But you must not sell her for money or treat her as a slave, since you have dishonored her.

INHERITANCE RIGHTS OF THE FIRSTBORN

15 If a man has two wives, one beloved and the other unloved, and both bear him sons, but the unloved wife has the firstborn son, 16 when that man assigns his inheritance to his sons he must not appoint the son of the beloved wife as the firstborn over the son of the unloved wife.

17 Instead, he must acknowledge the firstborn, the son of his unloved wife, by giving him a double portion of all that he has. For that son is the firstfruits of his father's strength; the right of the firstborn belongs to him.

A REBELLIOUS SON // LUKE 15:11–32

18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not obey his father and mother and does not listen to them when disciplined, 19 his father and mother are to lay hold of him and bring him to the elders of his city, to the gate of his hometown, 20 and say to the elders, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he does not obey us. He is a glutton and a drunkard."

21 Then all the men of his city will stone him to death. So you must purge the evil from among you, and all Israel will hear and be afraid.

CURSED IS ANYONE HUNG ON A TREE

22 If a man has committed a sin worthy of death, and he is executed, and you hang his body on a tree, 23 you must not leave the body on the tree overnight, but you must be sure to bury him that day, because anyone who is hung on a tree is under God's curse. You must not defile the land that Yahweh your God is giving you as an inheritance.

22

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS

Return your neighbor's lost ox. Help lift his fallen donkey. Put a railing around your flat roof so nobody falls off. Do not mix seeds, plow with an ox and a donkey together, or wear wool and linen together. Then come laws to protect a bride who is falsely accused and to punish adultery and rape.

VARIOUS LAWS

1 If you see your brother's ox or sheep straying, you must not ignore it; be sure to return it to your brother. 2 If your brother does not live near you, or if you do not know who he is, you are to take the animal home to remain with you until your brother comes seeking it; then you can return it to him. 3 And you shall do the same for his donkey, his cloak, or anything your brother has lost and you have found. You must not ignore it.

4 If you see your brother's donkey or ox fallen on the road, you must not ignore it; you must help him lift it up.

5 A woman must not wear men's clothing, and a man must not wear women's clothing, for whoever does these things is detestable to Yahweh your God.

6 If you come across a bird's nest with chicks or eggs, either in a tree or on the ground along the road, and the mother is sitting on the chicks or eggs, you must not take the mother along with the young. 7 You may take the young, but be sure to let the mother go, so that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days.

8 If you build a new house, you are to construct a railing around your roof, so that you do not bring bloodguilt on your house if someone falls from it.

9 Do not plant your vineyard with two types of seed; if you do, the entire harvest will be defiled—both the crop you plant and the fruit of your vineyard.

10 Do not plow with an ox and a donkey yoked together.

11 Do not wear clothes of wool and linen woven together.

12 You are to make tassels on the four corners of the cloak you wear.

MARRIAGE VIOLATIONS

13 Suppose a man marries a woman, has relations with her, and comes to hate her, 14 and he then accuses her of shameful conduct and gives her a bad name, saying, "I married this woman and had relations with her, but I discovered she was not a virgin."

15 Then the young woman's father and mother shall bring the proof of her virginity to the city elders at the gate 16 and say to the elders, "I gave my daughter in marriage to this man, but he has come to hate her. 17 And now he has accused her of shameful conduct, saying, 'I discovered that your daughter was not a virgin.' But here is the proof of her virginity." And they shall spread out the cloth before the city elders.

18 Then the elders of that city shall take the man and punish him. 19 They are also to fine him 2½ pounds of silver and give them to the young woman's father, because this man has given a virgin of Israel a bad name. And she shall remain his wife; he must not divorce her as long as he lives.

20 If, however, this accusation is true, and no proof of the young woman's virginity can be found, 21 she shall be brought to the door of her father's house, and there the men of her city will stone her to death. For she has committed an outrage in Israel by being promiscuous in her father's house. So you must purge the evil from among you.

22 If a man is found lying with another man's wife, both the man who slept with her and the woman must die. You must purge the evil from Israel.

23 If there is a virgin pledged in marriage to a man, and another man encounters her in the city and sleeps with her, 24 you must take both of them out to the gate of that city and stone them to death—the young woman because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he has violated his neighbor's wife. So you must purge the evil from among you.

25 But if the man encounters a betrothed woman in the open country, and he overpowers her and lies with her, only the man who has done this must die. 26 Do nothing to the young woman, because she has committed no sin worthy of death. This case is just like one in which a man attacks his neighbor and murders him. 27 When he found her in the field, the betrothed woman cried out, but there was no one to save her.

28 If a man encounters a virgin who is not pledged in marriage, and he seizes her and lies with her, and they are discovered, 29 then the man who lay with her must pay the young woman's father 1¼ pounds of silver, and she must become his wife because he has violated her. He must not divorce her as long as he lives.

30 A man is not to marry his father's wife, so that he will not dishonor his father's marriage bed.

Who may join the assembly of Yahweh, and who may not. Keep the army camp clean, and yes, there is a rule about bathroom breaks with a shovel. Do not send a runaway slave back to his master. No interest on loans to fellow Israelites. And keep your vows.

EXCLUSION FROM THE CONGREGATION

1 No man with crushed or severed genitals may enter the assembly of Yahweh.

2 No one of illegitimate birth may enter the assembly of Yahweh, nor may any of his descendants, even to the tenth generation.

7 Do not despise an Edomite, for he is your brother. Do not despise an Egyptian, because you lived as a foreigner in his land. 8 The third generation of children born to them may enter the assembly of Yahweh.

UNCLEANNESS IN THE CAMP // LEVITICUS 15:1–12

9 When you are encamped against your enemies, then you shall keep yourself from every wicked thing. 10 If any man among you becomes unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he must leave the camp and stay outside. 11 When evening approaches, he must wash with water, and when the sun sets he may return to the camp.

12 You must have a place outside the camp to go and relieve yourself. 13 And you must have a digging tool in your equipment so that when you relieve yourself you can dig a hole and cover up your excrement.

14 For Yahweh your God walks throughout your camp to protect you and deliver your enemies to you. Your camp must be holy, lest He see anything unclean among you and turn away from you.

MISCELLANEOUS LAWS

15 Do not return a slave to his master if he has taken refuge with you. 16 Let him live among you wherever he chooses, in the town of his pleasing. Do not oppress him.

17 No daughter or son of Israel is to be a shrine prostitute. 18 You must not bring the wages of a prostitute, whether female or male, into the house of Yahweh your God to fulfill any vow, because both are detestable to Yahweh your God.

19 Do not charge your brother interest on money, food, or any other type of loan. 20 You may charge a foreigner interest, but not your brother, so that Yahweh your God may bless you in everything to which you put your hand in the land that you are entering to possess.

21 If you make a vow to Yahweh your God, do not be slow to keep it, because He will surely require it of you, and you will be guilty of sin. 22 But if you refrain from making a vow, you will not be guilty of sin. 23 Be careful to follow through on what comes from your lips, because you have freely vowed to Yahweh your God with your own mouth.

24 When you enter your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, but you must not put any in your basket.

25 When you enter your neighbor's grainfield, you may pluck the heads of grain with your hand, but you must not put a sickle to your neighbor's grain.

Laws about divorce and remarriage. A new husband gets a year off from the army to make his wife happy. Do not take a millstone as a pledge, because that is someone's living. Pay your workers before sunset. Leave some grain, olives and grapes for the foreigner, the orphan and the widow.

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE LAWS // MATTHEW 5:31–32; LUKE 16:18

1 If a man marries a woman, but she becomes displeasing to him because he finds some indecency in her, he may write her a certificate of divorce, hand it to her, and send her away from his house.

2 If, after leaving his house, she goes and becomes another man's wife, 3 and the second man hates her, writes her a certificate of divorce, hands it to her, and sends her away from his house, or if he dies, 4 then the husband who divorced her first may not remarry her after she has been defiled, for that is an abomination to Yah-

weh. You must not bring sin upon the land that Yahweh your God is giving you as an inheritance.

5 If a man is newly married, he must not be sent to war or be pressed into any duty. For one year he is free to stay at home and bring joy to the wife he has married.

ADDITIONAL LAWS

6 Do not take a pair of millstones or even an upper millstone as security for a debt, because that would be taking one's livelihood as security.

7 If a man is caught kidnapping one of his Israelite brothers, whether he treats him as a slave or sells him, the kidnapper must die. So you must purge the evil from among you.

8 In cases of infectious skin diseases, be careful to diligently follow everything the Levitical priests instruct you. Be careful to do as I have commanded them. 9 Remember what Yahweh your God did to Miriam on the journey after you came out of Egypt.

10 When you lend anything to your neighbor, do not enter his house to collect security. 11 You are to stand outside while the man to whom you are lending brings the security out to you. 12 If he is a poor man, you must not go to sleep with the security in your possession; 13 be sure to return it to him by sunset, so that he may sleep in his own cloak and bless you, and this will be credited to you as righteousness before Yahweh your God.

14 Do not oppress a hired hand who is poor and needy, whether he is a brother or a foreigner residing in one of your towns. 15 You are to pay his wages each day before sunset, because he is poor and depends on them. Otherwise he may cry out to Yahweh against you, and you will be guilty of sin.

16 Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children for their fathers; each is to die for his own sin.

17 Do not deny justice to the foreigner or the fatherless, and do not take a widow's cloak as security. 18 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt, and Yahweh your God redeemed you from that place. Therefore I am commanding you to do this.

19 If you are harvesting in your field and forget a sheaf there, do not go back to get it. It is to be left for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, so that Yahweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

20 When you beat the olives from your trees, you must not go over the branches again. What remains will be for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow.

21 When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you must not go over the vines again. What remains will be for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow. 22 Remember that you were slaves in the land of Egypt. Therefore I am commanding you to do this.

No more than forty lashes. Do not muzzle an ox while it treads the grain. If a man dies with no son, his brother should marry the widow, and if he refuses, she pulls off his sandal and spits in his face. Use honest weights. And remember what Amalek did.

FAIRNESS AND MERCY

1 If there is a dispute between men, they are to go to court to be judged, so that the innocent may be acquitted and the guilty condemned.

2 If the guilty man deserves to be beaten, the judge shall have him lie down and be flogged in his presence with the number of lashes his crime warrants. 3 He may receive no more than forty lashes, lest your brother be beaten any more than that and be degraded in your sight.

4 Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.

WIDOWHOOD AND MARRIAGE

5 When brothers dwell together and one of them dies without a son, the widow must not marry outside the family. Her husband's brother is to take her as his wife and fulfill the duty of a brother-in-law for her. 6 The first son she bears will carry on the name of the dead brother, so that his name will not be blotted out from Israel.

7 But if the man does not want to marry his brother's widow, she is to go to the elders at the city gate and say, "My husband's brother refuses to preserve his brother's name in Israel. He is not willing to perform the duty of a brother-in-law for me."

8 Then the elders of his city shall summon him and speak with him. If he persists and says, "I do not want to marry her," 9 his brother's widow shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, remove his sandal, spit in his face, and declare, "This is what is done to the man who will not maintain his brother's line." 10 And his family name in Israel will be called "The House of the Unsandaled."

11 If two men are fighting, and the wife of one comes to rescue her husband from the one striking him, and she reaches out her hand and grabs his genitals, 12 you are to cut off her hand. You must show her no pity.

STANDARD WEIGHTS AND MEASURES // PROVERBS 11:1–3; EZEKIEL 45:10–12

13 You shall not have two differing weights in your bag, one heavy and one light. 14 You shall not have two differing measures in your house, one large and one small.

15 You must maintain accurate and honest weights and measures, so that you may live long in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you. 16 For everyone who behaves dishonestly in regard to these things is detestable to Yahweh your God.

REVENGE ON THE AMALEKITES

17 Remember what the Amalekites did to you along your way from Egypt, 18 how they met you on your journey when you were tired and weary, and they attacked all your stragglers; they had no fear of God.

19 When Yahweh your God gives you rest from the enemies around you in the land that He is giving you to possess as an inheritance, you are to blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven. Do not forget!

26

CHAPTER 26 IN 30 SECONDS

In the land, bring the first of your harvest in a basket and tell the story: My father was a wandering Aramean. Every third year, give the tithe to the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow. Today Israel says, Yahweh is our God, and God says, You are My treasured people.

OFFERING FIRSTFRUITS AND TITHES // LEVITICUS 27:30–34; DEUTERONOMY 14:22–29; NEHEMIAH 13:10–14

1 When you enter the land that Yahweh your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you take possession of it and settle in it, 2 you are to take some of the firstfruits of all your produce from the soil of the land that Yahweh your God is giving you and put them in a basket. Then go to the place Yahweh your God will choose as a dwelling for His Name, 3 to the priest who is serving at that time, and say to him, "I declare today to Yahweh your God that I have entered the land that Yahweh swore to our fathers to give us."

4 Then the priest shall take the basket from your hands and place it before the altar of Yahweh your God, 5 and you are to declare before Yahweh your God, "My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down to Egypt few in number and lived there and became a great nation, mighty and numerous. 6 But the Egyptians mistreated us and afflicted us, putting us to hard labor. 7 So we called out to Yahweh, the God of our fathers; and Yahweh heard our voice and saw our affliction, toil, and oppression. 8 Then Yahweh brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror, signs, and wonders. 9 And He brought us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. 10 And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land that You, O Yahweh, have given me."

Then you are to place the basket before Yahweh your God and bow down before Him. 11 So you shall rejoice—you, the Levite, and the foreigner dwelling among you—in all the good things Yahweh your God has given to you and your household.

12 When you have finished laying aside a tenth of all your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, you are to give it to the Levite, the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat and be filled within your gates.

13 Then you shall declare in the presence of Yahweh your God, "I have removed from my house the sacred portion and have given it to the Levite, the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all the commandments You have given me. I have not transgressed or forgotten Your commandments. 14 I have not eaten any of the sacred portion while in mourning, or removed any of it while unclean, or offered any of it for the dead. I have obeyed Yahweh my God; I have done everything You commanded me. 15 Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the land You have given us as You swore to our fathers—a land flowing with milk and honey."

OBEY YAHWEH'S COMMANDS

16 Yahweh your God commands you this day to follow these statutes and ordinances. You must be careful to follow them with all your heart and with all your soul.

17 Today you have proclaimed that Yahweh is your God and that you will walk in His ways, keep His statutes and commandments and ordinances, and listen to His voice.

18 And today Yahweh has proclaimed that you are His people and treasured possession as He promised, that you are to keep all His commandments, 19 that He will set you high in praise and name and honor above all the nations He has made, and that you will be a holy people to Yahweh your God, as He has promised.

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

After crossing the Jordan, set up big stones on Mount Ebal, coat them with plaster and write the law on them, and build an altar of uncut stones. Half the tribes stand on Mount Gerizim and half on Mount Ebal, and the Levites shout twelve curses. After each one, all the people say Amen.

THE ALTAR ON MOUNT EBAL // JOSHUA 8:30–35

1 Then Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people: "Keep all the commandments I am giving you today.

2 And on the day you cross the Jordan into the land that Yahweh your God is giving you, set up large stones and coat them with plaster. 3 Write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over to enter the land that Yahweh your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has promised you. 4 And when you have crossed the Jordan, you are to set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I am commanding you today, and you are to coat them with plaster.

5 Moreover, you are to build there an altar to Yahweh your God, an altar of stones. You must not use any iron tool on them. 6 You shall build the altar of Yahweh your God with uncut stones and offer upon it burnt offerings to Yahweh your God. 7 There you are to sacrifice your peace offerings, eating them and rejoicing in the presence of Yahweh your God. 8 And you

9 Then Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel: "Be silent, O Israel, and listen! This day you have become the people of Yahweh your God. 10 You shall therefore obey the voice of Yahweh your God and follow His commandments and statutes I am giving you today."

CURSES PRONOUNCED FROM EBAL

11 On that day Moses commanded the people: 12 "When you have crossed the Jordan, these tribes shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. 13 And these tribes shall stand on Mount Ebal to deliver the curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 Then the Levites shall proclaim in a loud voice to every Israelite:

15 'Cursed is the man who makes a carved idol or molten image—an abomination to Yahweh, the work of the hands of a craftsman—and sets it up in secret.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

16 'Cursed is he who dishonors his father or mother.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

17 'Cursed is he who moves his neighbor's boundary stone.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

18 'Cursed is he who lets a blind man wander in the road.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

19 'Cursed is he who withholds justice from the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

20 'Cursed is he who sleeps with his father's wife, for he has violated his father's marriage bed.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

21 'Cursed is he who lies with any animal.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

22 'Cursed is he who sleeps with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

23 'Cursed is he who sleeps with his mother-in-law.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

24 'Cursed is he who strikes down his neighbor in secret.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

25 'Cursed is he who accepts a bribe to kill an innocent person.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

26 'Cursed is he who does not put the words of this law into practice.'
And let all the people say, 'Amen!'

THE MOUNT EBAL ALTAR

DEUTERONOMY 11:29 · 27:2 TO 8 · JOSHUA 8:30 TO 35

The stone structure on Mount Ebal that Adam Zertal called an altar. Photo Hoshvilim, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A large stone platform near the top of Mount Ebal, above the city of Shechem, Nablus today. Moses told Israel to build an altar of uncut stones on Mount Ebal after crossing the Jordan, 27:4 to 8, and Joshua 8:30 to 31 says Joshua did.

HOW OLD IT IS

The pottery is from the early Iron Age, the late 1200s and the 1100s BC. Zertal found an earlier, smaller phase under the big platform, and dated two Egyptian scarabs from the site to the late 1200s BC.

HOW BIG

About 30 by 23 feet and about 10 to 13 feet high, filled with layers of stones, earth, ash and bones. A ramp about 23 feet long leads up to it, not steps. Exodus 20:26 says not to go up to an altar by steps.

DEMONIC

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
Israeli archaeologist Adam Zertal found it during a survey in 1980 and dug it from 1982 to 1989 for the University of Haifa.

WHAT WAS FOUND
Burned bones of young bulls, sheep, goats and fallow deer, all clean animals, and no pigs. The Law never lists deer as a sacrifice, so scholars argue over that. There were also many small stone installations with ash and pottery around the platform.

THE BIG DEBATE
Zertal said it was Joshua's altar. Aharon Kempinski said it was a watchtower, and Israel Finkelstein doubted it too. Amihai Mazar said Zertal may be wrong in the details, but the site does look like a place of worship. Many scholars agree it was a place of worship but not that Joshua built it.

THE LEAD TABLET
In 2022 Scott Stripling's team said a tiny folded lead tablet, found in 2019 by sifting Zertal's old dirt piles, has a curse with God's name in very old letters. Many experts say no letters can be seen, and one said it may be a fishing net weight. The claim is strongly disputed.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE
No inscription names Joshua or Israel, so it does not prove this is the altar of 27:4. It does show a place of worship on Mount Ebal from about the time the Bible places Israel there.

28

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS
Obey, and you will be blessed in the city and in the country, coming in and going out. Disobey, and the curses come: drought, disease, defeat, siege and exile. This is the longest chapter in Deuteronomy, and most of it is curses. Israel's later history reads like it was checking them off.

THE BLESSINGS OF OBEDIENCE // LEVITICUS 25:18–22

1 "Now if you faithfully obey the voice of Yahweh your God and are careful to follow all His commandments I am giving you today, Yahweh your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. 2
And all these blessings will come upon you and overtake you, if you will obey the voice of Yahweh your God:

3 You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country.

4 The fruit of your womb will be blessed,
as well as the produce of your land
and the offspring of your livestock—
the calves of your herds
and the lambs of your flocks.

5 Your basket and kneading bowl will be blessed.

6 You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.

7 Yahweh will cause the enemies who rise up against you to be defeated before you.
They will march out against you in one direction but flee from you in seven.

8 Yahweh will decree a blessing on your barns and on everything to which you put your hand; Yahweh your God will bless you in the land He is giving you. 9 Yahweh will establish you as His holy people, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of Yahweh your God and walk in His ways. 10 Then all the peoples of the earth will see that you are called by the name of Yahweh, and they will stand in awe of you.

11 Yahweh will make you prosper abundantly—in the fruit of your womb, the offspring of your livestock, and the produce of your land—in the land that Yahweh swore to your fathers to give you.

12 Yahweh will open the heavens, His abundant storehouse, to send rain on your land in season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations, but borrow from none.

13 Yahweh will make you the head and not the tail; you will only move upward and never downward, if you hear and carefully follow the commandments of Yahweh
your God, which I am giving you today. 14
Do not turn aside to the right or to the left from any of the words I command you today, and do not go after other gods to serve them.

THE CURSES OF DISOBEDIENCE // LEVITICUS 20:1–9; LEVITICUS 26:14–39

15 If, however, you do not obey Yahweh your God by carefully following all His commandments and statutes I am giving you today, all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:

16 You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country.

17 Your basket and kneading bowl will be cursed.

18 The fruit of your womb will be cursed,
as well as the produce of your land,
the calves of your herds,
and the lambs of your flocks.

19 You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

20 Yahweh will send curses upon you, confusion and reproof in all to which you put your hand, until you are destroyed and quickly perish because of the wickedness you have committed in forsaking Him.

21 Yahweh will make the plague cling to you until He has exterminated you from the land that you are entering to possess.

22 Yahweh will strike you with wasting disease, with fever and inflammation, with scorching heat and drought, and with blight and mildew; these will pursue you until you perish. 23 The sky over your head will be bronze, and the earth beneath you iron.

24 Yahweh will turn the rain of your land into dust and powder; it will descend on you from the sky until you are destroyed.

25 Yahweh will cause you to be defeated before your enemies. You will march out against them in one direction but flee from them in seven. You will be an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. 26 Your corpses will be food for all the birds of the air and beasts of the earth, with no one to scare them away.

27 Yahweh will afflict you with the boils of Egypt, with tumors and scabs and itch from which you cannot be cured.

28 Yahweh will afflict you with madness, blindness, and confusion of mind, 29 and at noon you will grope about like a blind man in the darkness. You will not prosper in your ways. Day after day you will be oppressed and plundered, with no one to save you.

30 You will be pledged in marriage to a woman, but another man will violate her. You will build a house but will not live in it. You will plant a vineyard but will not enjoy its fruit. 31 Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat any of it. Your donkey will be taken away and not returned to you. Your flock will be given to your enemies, and no one will save you.

32 Your sons and daughters will be given to another nation, while your eyes grow weary looking for them day after day, with no power in your hand. 33 A people you do not know will eat the produce of your land and of all your toil. All your days you will be oppressed and crushed. 34 You will be driven mad by the sights you see.

35 Yahweh will afflict you with painful, incurable boils on your knees and thighs, from the soles of your feet to the top of your head.

36 Yahweh will bring you and the king you appoint to a nation neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you will worship other gods—gods of wood and stone. 37 You will become an object of horror, scorn, and ridicule among all the nations to which Yahweh will drive you.

38 You will sow much seed in the field but harvest little, because the locusts will consume it. 39 You will plant and cultivate vineyards, but will neither drink the wine
nor gather the grapes, because worms will eat them. 40 You will have olive trees throughout your territory but will never anoint yourself with oil, because the olives will drop off. 41 You will father sons and daughters, but they will not remain
yours, because they will go into captivity.
42 Swarms of locusts will consume all your trees and the produce of your land.

43 The foreigner living among you will rise higher and higher above you, while you sink down lower and lower. 44 He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him. He will be the head, and you will be the tail.

45 All these curses will come upon you.
They will pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, since you did not obey Yahweh your God and keep the commandments and statutes He gave
you. 46 These curses will be a sign and a wonder upon you and your descendants
forever.

47 Because you did not serve Yahweh your God with joy and gladness of heart in all your abundance, 48 you will serve your enemies Yahweh will send against you in famine, thirst, nakedness, and destitution.
He will place an iron yoke on your neck
until He has destroyed you.

49 Yahweh will bring a nation from afar,
from the ends of the earth, to swoop down upon you like an eagle—a nation whose language you will not understand, 50 a ruthless nation with no respect for the old and no pity for the young. 51 They will eat the offspring of your livestock and the produce of your land until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain or new wine or oil, no calves of your herds or lambs of your flocks, until they have caused you to perish. 52 They will besiege all the cities throughout your land, until the high and fortified walls in which you trust have fallen. They will besiege all your cities throughout the land that Yahweh your God has given you.

53 Then you will eat the fruit of your womb,
the flesh of the sons and daughters whom Yahweh your God has given you, in the siege and distress that your enemy will inflict on you.

54 The most gentle and refined man among you will begrudge his brother, the wife he embraces, and the rest of his children who have survived, 55 refusing to share with any of them the flesh of his children he will eat because he has nothing left in the siege and distress that your enemy will inflict on you within all your gates.

56 The most gentle and refined woman among you, so gentle and refined she would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground, will begrudge the husband she embraces and her son and daughter 57 the afterbirth that comes from between her legs and the children she bears, because she will secretly eat them for lack of anything else in the siege and distress that your enemy will inflict on you within your gates.

58 If you are not careful to observe all the words of this law which are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awesome name—Yahweh your God— 59
He will bring upon you and your descendants extraordinary disasters, severe and lasting plagues, and terrible and chronic sicknesses. 60 He will afflict you again with all the diseases you dreaded in Egypt, and they will cling to you.

61 Yahweh will also bring upon you every sickness and plague not recorded in this

63 Just as it pleased Yahweh to make you prosper and multiply, so also it will please Him to annihilate you and destroy you. And you will be uprooted from the land you are entering to possess.

64 Then Yahweh will scatter you among all the nations, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will worship other gods, gods of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known. 65 Among those nations you will find no repose, not even a resting place for the sole of your foot. There Yahweh will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a despairing soul.

66 So your life will hang in doubt before you, and you will be afraid night and day, never certain of survival. 67 In the morning you will say, 'If only it were evening!' and in the evening you will say, 'If only it were morning!'—because of the dread in your hearts of the terrifying sights you will see.

68 Yahweh will return you to Egypt in ships by a route that I said you should never see again. There you will sell yourselves to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you."

CHAPTER 29 IN 30 SECONDS

For forty years, Moses reminds them, their clothes and sandals did not wear out. Now he renews the covenant on the plains of Moab with everyone there, and with those who are not there today. Anyone who thinks, I will be safe even if I go my own way, is a poisonous root. The secret things belong to God.

THE COVENANT IN MOAB

1 These are the words of the covenant that Yahweh commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant He had made with them at Horeb.

2 Moses summoned all Israel and proclaimed to them, "You have seen with your own eyes everything Yahweh did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to all his land. 3 You saw with your own eyes the great trials, and those miraculous signs and wonders. 4 Yet to this day Yahweh has not given you a heart to understand, eyes to see, or ears to hear.

5 For forty years I led you in the wilderness,
yet your clothes and sandals did not wear out.
6 You ate no bread and drank no wine or strong drink,
so that you might know that I am Yahweh your God.

7 When you reached this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out against us in battle, but we defeated them. 8 We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. 9 So keep and follow the words of this covenant, that you may prosper in all you do.

10 All of you are standing today before Yahweh your God—you leaders of tribes, elders, officials, and all the men of Israel, 11 your children and wives, and the foreigners in your camps who cut your wood

- DT 29:4 [HEART] After forty years of miracles, God had still not given them a heart to understand. Seeing is not the same as believing.

and draw your water— 12 so that you may enter into the covenant of Yahweh your God, which He is making with you today, and into His oath, 13 and so that He may establish you today as His people, and He may be your God as He promised you and as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

14 I am making this covenant and this oath not only with you, 15 but also with those who are standing here with us today in the presence of Yahweh our God, as well as with those who are not here today.

16 For you yourselves know how we lived in the land of Egypt and how we passed through the nations on the way here. 17 You saw the abominations and idols among them made of wood and stone, of silver and gold.

18 Make sure there is no man or woman, clan or tribe among you today whose heart turns away from Yahweh our God to go and worship the gods of those nations. Make sure there is no root among you that bears such poisonous and bitter fruit, 19 because when such a person hears the words of this oath, he invokes a blessing on himself, saying, 'I will have peace, even though I walk in the stubbornness of my own heart.'

This will bring disaster on the watered land as well as the dry. 20 Yahweh will never be willing to forgive him. Instead, His anger and jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse written in this book will fall upon him. Yahweh will blot out his name from under heaven 21 and single him out from all the tribes of Israel for disaster, according to all the curses of the covenant written in this Book of the Law.

22 Then the generation to come—your sons who follow you and the foreigner who comes from a distant land—will see the plagues of the land and the sicknesses Yahweh has inflicted on it. 23 All its soil will be a burning waste of sulfur and salt, unsown and unproductive, with no plant growing on it, just like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which Yahweh overthrew in His fierce anger.

24 So all the nations will ask, 'Why has Yahweh done such a thing to this land? Why this great outburst of anger?'

25 And the people will answer, 'It is because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt. 26 They went and served other gods, and they worshiped gods they had not known—gods that Yahweh had not given to them. 27 Therefore the anger of Yahweh burned against this land, and He brought upon it every curse written in this book. 28 Yahweh uprooted them from their land in His anger, rage, and great wrath, and He cast them into another land, where they are today.'

29 The secret things belong to Yahweh our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever, so that we may follow all the words of this law.

CHAPTER 30 IN 30 SECONDS

Even if Israel ends up scattered, God will bring them back if they return to Him. He will circumcise their hearts so they can love Him. His command is not too hard or too far away. It is in your mouth and in your heart. I set before you life and death. Choose life.

and obey His voice with all your heart and all your soul according to everything I am giving you today, 3 then He will restore you from captivity and have compassion on you and gather you from all the nations to which Yahweh your God has scattered you. 4 Even if you have been banished to the farthest horizon, He will gather you and return you from there.

5 And Yahweh your God will bring you into the land your fathers possessed, and you will take possession of it. He will cause you to prosper and multiply more than your fathers. 6 Yahweh your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants, and you will love Him with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live.

7 Then Yahweh your God will put all these curses upon your enemies who hate you and persecute you. 8 And you will again obey the voice of Yahweh and follow all His commandments I am giving you today. 9 So Yahweh your God will make you abound in all the work of your hands and in the fruit of your womb, the offspring of your livestock, and the produce of your land. Indeed, Yahweh will again delight in your prosperity, as He delighted in that of your fathers, 10 if you obey Yahweh your God by keeping His commandments and statutes that are written in this Book of the Law, and if you turn to Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

THE CHOICE OF LIFE OR DEATH

11 For this commandment I give you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach. 12 It is not in heaven, that you should need to ask, 'Who will ascend into heaven to get it for us and proclaim it, that we may obey it?' 13 And it is not beyond the sea, that you should need to ask, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and proclaim it, that we may obey it?' 14 But the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you may obey it.

15 See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, as well as death and disaster. 16 For I am commanding you today to love Yahweh your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, statutes, and ordinances, so that you may live and increase, and Yahweh your God may bless you in the land that you are entering to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away and you do not listen, but are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them, 18 I declare to you today that you will surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess.

19 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. Therefore choose life, so that you and your descendants may live, 20 and that you may love Yahweh your God, obey Him, and hold fast to Him. For He is your life, and He will prolong your life in the land that Yahweh swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

CHAPTER 31 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses is 120 and cannot go with them. He tells Joshua, Be strong and courageous. He writes the law and orders it read every seven years. Then God tells Moses the hard truth: after you die, they will turn to other gods. So He gives Moses a song to teach them, as a witness against them.

JOSHUA TO SUCCEED MOSES // NUMBERS 27:18–23

3 Yahweh your God Himself will cross over ahead of you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you will dispossess them. Joshua will cross ahead of you, as Yahweh has said. 4 And Yahweh will do to them as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, when He destroyed them along with their land.

5 Yahweh will deliver them over to you, and you must do to them exactly as I have commanded you. 6 Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid or terrified of them, for it is Yahweh your God who goes with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you."

7 Then Moses called for Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you will go with this people into the land that Yahweh swore to their fathers to give them, and you shall give it to them as an inheritance.
8 *Yahweh Himself goes before you; He will be with you. He will never leave you nor forsake
you. Do not be afraid or discouraged.*"

THE READING OF THE LAW // NEHEMIAH 8:1–8

9 So Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of Yahweh,
and to all the elders of Israel.

10 Then Moses commanded them, "At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time in the year of remission of debt, during the Feast of Tabernacles, 11
when all Israel comes before Yahweh your God at the place He will choose, you are to read this law in the hearing of all Israel.

12 Assemble the people—men, women, children, and the foreigners within your gates—so that they may listen and learn to fear Yahweh your God and to follow carefully all the words of this law. 13 Then their children who do not know the law will listen and learn to fear Yahweh your God, as long as you live in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess."

GOD COMMISSIONS JOSHUA

14 Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, the time of your death is near. Call Joshua and present yourselves at the Tent of Meeting, so that I may commission him."

So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the Tent of Meeting.
15 Then Yahweh appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the cloud stood over the entrance to the tent.

16 And Yahweh said to Moses, "You will soon rest with your fathers, and these people will rise up and prostitute themselves with the foreign gods of the land
they are entering. They will forsake Me and break the covenant I have made with
them.

17 On that day My anger will burn against them, and I will abandon them and hide
My face from them, so that they will be consumed, and many troubles and afflictions will befall them.

On that day they will say, 'Have not these disasters come upon us because our God is no longer with us?'

18 And on that day I will surely hide My face because of all the evil they have done by turning to other gods.

19 Now therefore, write down for yourselves this song and teach it to the Israelites; have them recite it, so that it may be a witness for Me against them. 20 When I have brought them into the land that I swore to give their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey, they will eat their fill and prosper. Then they will turn to other gods and worship them, and they will reject Me and break My covenant. 21 And when many troubles and afflictions have come upon them, this song will testify against them, because it will not be forgotten from the lips of their descendants.
For I know their inclination, even before I bring them into the land that I swore to give them."

22 So that very day Moses wrote down this song and taught it to the Israelites.

son of Nun and said, "Be strong and raelites into the land that I swore to give

THE LAW PLACED IN THE ARK

24 When Moses had finished writing in a book the words of this law from beginning to end, 25 he gave this command to the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of Yahweh: 26 "Take this Book of the Law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your God, so that it may remain there as a witness against
you. 27 For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are. If you are already re-belling against Yahweh while I am still alive, how much more will you rebel after my death!

28 Assemble before me all the elders of your tribes and all your officers so that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them. 29 For I know that after my death you will become utterly corrupt and turn from the path I have commanded you. And in the days to come, disaster will befall you because you will do evil in the sight of Yahweh to provoke Him to anger
by the work of your hands."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE SCROLL FOUND IN THE TEMPLE

Lost and Found

DEUTERONOMY 31:24 TO 26 · 2 KINGS 22 TO 23 · 2 CHRONICLES 34

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

About 622 BC, while workers were repairing the temple, the high priest Hilkiah found the Book of the Law. When King Josiah heard it read, he tore his clothes in fear. He asked the prophetess Huldah what it meant, then read it to the whole nation, smashed the idols and high places, and held a Passover like no other since the judges, 2 Kings 22 and 23.

WHY MANY THINK IT WAS DEUTERONOMY

Josiah did what Deuteronomy commands. He shut down worship everywhere except the one place God chose, 12:5. He removed mediums and spiritists, 18:11. He kept the Passover at Jerusalem, 16:5 to 6. And the book is called the Book of the Covenant, like Deuteronomy 29:1.

THE OLD VIEW

Church fathers like Jerome, Athanasius and John Chrysostom already said Josiah's book was Deuteronomy. Some later Jewish and Christian teachers thought it was all five books of Moses.

HOW COULD IT BE LOST?

King Manasseh, Josiah's grandfather, ruled 55 years and filled the temple with idols, 2 Kings 21. Many say the scroll was hidden or forgotten during those years. Deuteronomy 31:26 had said to keep it beside the ark.

Found or Written?

2 KINGS 22:8 TO 13 · 2 KINGS 23:25 · DEUTERONOMY 17:18

THE LOST AND FOUND VIEW

The traditional view: Moses wrote it, it was kept by the priests, and it was neglected or hidden during the evil years. Josiah found an old book, and his reaction shows he believed it was old and true.

THE NEW BOOK VIEW

In 1805 the German scholar W. M. L. de

DT 31:26 [NOTE] LOST AND FOUND. Centuries later a Book of the Law was found in the temple in King Josiah's day. Was it this book? See the Big Question pages The Scroll Found in the Temple, p.326.

DT 31:29 [PROPHECY] After Moses died Israel would turn corrupt and disaster would come → JUDG 2:11-15 p.383

DT 31:29 [DEMONIC] Israel will provoke God with the work of their hands

Wette argued that the book was written not long before it was found, to support Josiah's reforms. Many critical scholars still hold some form of this view and date the core of Deuteronomy to the 600s BC.

THE IN BETWEEN VIEW

Others say the laws and speeches are much older, maybe saved by Levites or prophets in the northern kingdom, and were collected and edited later. They point out that some laws fit an early time, not Josiah's.

THE TREATY CLUE

Deuteronomy is shaped like ancient treaties. Some, like Kenneth Kitchen, say it fits Hittite treaties from the 1300s BC, Moses' general time. Others, like Moshe Weinfeld, say its curses look most like Esarhaddon's Assyrian treaty from 672 BC, in Josiah's century.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

A scroll was found in the temple in Josiah's day, and it changed the nation. Most scholars on every side think it held at least part of Deuteronomy. It shows how God's Word, once forgotten, can bring a whole nation back.

MOSES BEGINS HIS SONG

30 Then Moses recited aloud to the whole assembly of Israel the words of this song from beginning to end:

32

CHAPTER 32 IN 30 SECONDS

The Song of Moses. God is the Rock, and His works are perfect, but His people turned to idols and gods they never knew. God will judge them, and then He will rescue them and judge their enemies. Then God tells Moses to climb Mount Nebo, see the land and die there.

THE SONG OF MOSES // REVELATION 15:1–4

1 Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak;
hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.
2 Let my teaching fall like rain
and my speech settle like dew,
like gentle rain on new grass,
like showers on tender plants.
3 For I will proclaim the name of Yahweh.
Ascribe greatness to our God!
4 He is the Rock, His work is perfect;
all His ways are just.
A God of faithfulness without injustice,
righteous and upright is He.
5 His people have acted corruptly toward Him;
the blemish on them is not that of His children,
but of a perverse and crooked generation.
6 Is this how you repay Yahweh,
O foolish and senseless people?
Is He not your Father and Creator?
Has He not made you and established you?
7 Remember the days of old;
consider the years long past.
Ask your father, and he will tell you,
your elders, and they will inform you.
8 When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance,
when He divided the sons of man,
He set the boundaries of the peoples
according to the number of the sons of God.
9 But Yahweh's portion is His people,
Jacob His allotted inheritance.
10 He found him in a desert land,
in a barren, howling wilderness;
He surrounded him, He instructed him,
He guarded him as the apple of His eye.
11 As an eagle stirs up its nest
and hovers over its young,
He spread His wings to catch them
and carried them on His pinions.
12 Yahweh alone led him,
and no foreign god was with him.
13 He made him ride on the heights of the land
and fed him the produce of the field.
He nourished him with honey from the rock
and oil from the flinty crag, 14 with curds from the herd and milk from the flock,
with the fat of lambs,

with rams from Bashan, and goats,
with the choicest grains of wheat.
From the juice of the finest grapes

15 But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked—becoming fat, bloated, and gorged.
He abandoned the God who made him

16 They provoked His jealousy with foreign gods;
they enraged Him with abominations.
17 They sacrificed to demons, not to God,

18 You ignored the Rock who brought you forth;
you forgot the God who gave you birth.

19 When Yahweh saw this, He rejected them,
provoked to anger by His sons and daughters.
20 He said: "I will hide My face from them;
I will see what will be their end.
For they are a perverse generation—
children of unfaithfulness.
21 They have provoked My jealousy by that which is not God;
they have enraged Me with their worthless idols.
So I will make them jealous by those who are not a people;
I will make them angry by a nation without understanding.
22 For a fire has been kindled by My anger,
and it burns to the depths of Sheol;
it consumes the earth and its produce,
and scorches the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will heap disasters upon them;
I will spend My arrows against them.
24 They will be wasted from hunger
and ravaged by pestilence and bitter plague;
I will send the fangs of wild beasts against them,
with the venom of vipers that slither in the dust.
25 Outside, the sword will take their children,
and inside, terror will strike
the young man and the young woman,
the infant and the gray-haired man.
26 I would have said that I would cut them to pieces
and blot out their memory from mankind, 27 if I had not dreaded the taunt of the enemy,
lest their adversaries misunderstand and say:
'Our own hand has prevailed;
it was not Yahweh who did all this.'"

28 Israel is a nation devoid of counsel,
with no understanding among them.
29 If only they were wise, they would understand it;
they would comprehend their fate.
30 How could one man pursue a thousand,
or two put ten thousand to flight,
unless their Rock had sold them,
unless Yahweh had given them up?
31 For their rock is not like our Rock,
even our enemies concede.
32 But their vine is from the vine of Sodom
and from the fields of Gomorrah.
Their grapes are poisonous;
their clusters are bitter.
33 Their wine is the venom of serpents,
the deadly poison of cobras.

34 "Have I not stored up these things,
sealed up within My vaults?
35 Vengeance is Mine; I will repay.
In due time their foot will slip;
for their day of disaster is near,

Cave 4 at Qumran, where 4QDeut q and hundreds of other scrolls were found. No free photo of the fragment itself is available. Photo Bahnfrend, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

4QDeut q is a small Dead Sea Scroll with part of the Song of Moses, Deuteronomy 32. Its last column ends at 32:43, with blank space after it, so it may have held only the song, not the whole book. The poem is written in short lines, like a song sheet.

HOW OLD IT IS

Copied in the last century before Jesus, about 50 to 1 BC, judging by the shape of its letters.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In Cave 4 at Qumran, near the Dead Sea, in 1952. That one cave held pieces of more than five hundred scrolls.

WHAT IT SAYS

The standard Hebrew text of 32:43 is short: Rejoice, O nations, with His people. This scroll reads, Rejoice, O heavens, with Him, and bow down to Him, all you gods. The Greek Bible is longer still, and some Greek copies say, let all God's angels worship Him. Hebrews 1:6

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

quotes that line about Jesus, and Romans 15:10 quotes the nations line.

THE SONS OF GOD

Another scroll from the same cave, 4QDeut j, reads sons of God in 32:8, where the standard Hebrew text says sons of Israel. The Greek Bible says much the same, angels of God. This Bible follows the older readings in both verses.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Antiquities Authority in Jerusalem keeps it.

THE BIG DEBATE

Many scholars think the scroll keeps the older wording, and later scribes shortened the verse so it would not speak of other gods or heavenly beings. Others think the longer form grew over time. Either way, the scroll shows Hebrews was quoting a real reading of Deuteronomy, not making one up.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It does not change what the Song teaches. The verse in every form calls heaven and earth to praise God, who will judge His enemies and cleanse His land and His people.

MOSES' DEATH FORETOLD

48 On that same day Yahweh said to Moses, 49 "Go up into the Abarim Range to Mount Nebo, in the land of Moab across from Jericho, and view the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites
as their own possession.
50 And there on the mountain that you climb, you will die and be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people.
51 For at the waters of Meribah-kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin, both of you broke faith with Me among the Israelites by failing to treat Me as holy in their presence.
52 Although you shall see from a distance
the land that I am giving the Israelites, you shall not enter it."

CHAPTER 33 IN 30 SECONDS

Before he dies, Moses blesses the tribes one by one, a lot like Jacob did in Genesis 49. Levi gets the priesthood, Benjamin rests on God's shoulders, and Joseph gets the best of the land. The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms.

MOSES BLESSES THE TWELVE TRIBES

1 This is the blessing that Moses the man of God pronounced upon the Israelites before his death. 2 He said:

"Yahweh came from Sinai
and dawned upon us from Seir;
He shone forth from Mount Paran
and came with myriads of holy ones,
with flaming fire at His right hand.
3 Surely You love the people;
all the holy ones are in Your hand,
and they sit down at Your feet;
each receives Your words—
4 the law that Moses gave us,
the possession of the assembly of Jacob.
5 So Yahweh became King in Jeshurun
when the leaders of the people gathered,
when the tribes of Israel came together.

6 Let Reuben live and not die, nor his men be few."

7 And concerning Judah he said:

"O Yahweh, hear the cry of Judah and bring him to his people.
With his own hands he defends his cause,
but may You be a help against his foes."

8 Concerning Levi he said:

"Give Your Thummim to Levi and Your Urim to Your godly one, whom You tested at Massah
and contested at the waters of Meribah.
9 He said of his father and mother,
'I do not consider them.'
He disregarded his brothers and did not know his own sons,

for he kept Your word

10 He will teach Your ordinances to Jacob and Your law to Israel;
he will set incense before You
and whole burnt offerings on Your altar.
11 Bless his substance, O Yahweh,
and accept the work of his hands.
Smash the loins of those who rise against him,
and of his foes so they can rise no more."

12 Concerning Benjamin he said:

"May the beloved of Yahweh rest secure in Him;
God shields him all day long,
and upon His shoulders he rests."

13 Concerning Joseph he said:

"May his land be blessed by Yahweh with the precious dew from heaven above
and the deep waters that lie beneath, 14 with the bountiful harvest from the sun
and the abundant yield of the seasons, 15 with the best of the ancient mountains
and the bounty of the everlasting hills, 16 with the choice gifts of the land and everything in it,
and with the favor of Him who dwelt in the burning bush.
May these rest on the head of Joseph and crown the brow of the prince of his brothers.
17 His majesty is like a firstborn bull,
and his horns are like those of a wild ox.
With them he will gore the nations,
even to the ends of the earth.
Such are the myriads of Ephraim,
and such are the thousands of Manasseh."

18 Concerning Zebulun he said:

"Rejoice, Zebulun, in your journeys,
and Issachar, in your tents.
19 They will call the peoples to a mountain;
there they will offer sacrifices of righteousness.
For they will feast on the abundance of the seas
and the hidden treasures of the sand."

20 Concerning Gad he said:

"Blessed is he who enlarges the domain of Gad!
He lies down like a lion
and tears off an arm or a head.
21 He chose the best land for himself,
because a ruler's portion was reserved for him there.
He came with the leaders of the people;
he administered Yahweh's justice and His ordinances for Israel."

22 Concerning Dan he said:

"Dan is a lion's cub, leaping out of Bashan."

23 Concerning Naphtali he said:

"Naphtali is abounding with favor,
full of the blessing of Yahweh;
he shall take possession of the sea and the south."

24 And concerning Asher he said:

"May Asher be the most blessed of sons;
may he be the most favored among his brothers and dip his foot in oil.
25 May the bolts of your gate be iron and bronze,
and may your strength match your days."

26 "There is none like the God of Jeshurun, who rides the heavens to your aid,
and the clouds in His majesty.
27 The eternal God is your dwelling place,
and underneath are the everlasting arms.

CHAPTER 34 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses climbs Mount Nebo, and God shows him the whole land. Then Moses dies there at 120, his eyes still sharp and his strength not gone. God buries him, and nobody knows where. Israel mourns thirty days, Joshua takes over, and the book ends with this: no prophet has ever been like Moses.

THE DEATH OF MOSES

1 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which faces Jericho. And Yahweh showed him the whole land—from Gilead as far as Dan, 2 all of Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, 3 the Negev, and the region from the Valley of Jericho (the City of Palms) all the way to Zoar.

4 And Yahweh said to him, "This is the land that I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob when I said, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have let you see it with your own eyes, but you will not cross into it."

5 So Moses the servant of Yahweh died there in the land of Moab, as Yahweh had said. 6 And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab facing Beth-peor, and no one to this day knows the location of his grave.

7 Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyes were not weak, and his vitality had not diminished. 8 The Israelites grieved for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, until the time of weeping and mourning for Moses came to an end.

9 Now Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. So the Israelites obeyed him and did as Yahweh had commanded Moses. 10 Since that time, no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom Yahweh knew face to face— 11 no prophet who did all the signs and wonders that Yahweh sent Moses to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh and to all his officials and all his land, 12 and no prophet who performed all the mighty acts of power and awesome deeds that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

WHAT IT IS
Mount Nebo is a ridge in Jordan, about 2,300 feet above sea level, across from Jericho. From here God showed Moses the land, and Moses died nearby, 34:1 to 5. Christians built a church on its western peak, Siyagha, to remember him.

HOW OLD IT IS
A pilgrim named Egeria visited about AD 384 and saw a small church there. It was rebuilt and enlarged in the 500s AD. The mosaic in the photo is dated by its own Greek inscription to about AD 530 and names three artists, Soelos, Kaiomos and Elias.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
The Franciscans bought the site in 1932 and began digging in 1933. In 1976 Father Michele Piccirillo found this mosaic hidden under a plainer mosaic floor in the church's north hall.

WHAT IT SHOWS
A shepherd fights a lion, horsemen hunt a bear and a boar, shepherds guard their flocks, and men lead an ostrich, a zebra and a camel. It decorated the room that also held the church's first baptism font.

THE VIEW
On a clear day you can see the Jordan Valley, Jericho, the Dead Sea and sometimes Jerusalem's hills. Deuteronomy 34:1 to 3 says God showed Moses the land from Gilead to Dan and as far as the western sea, more than eyes alone can see. Many read it as God giving Moses a special view.

WHERE IT IS TODAY
The church, now called the Memorial of Moses, is cared for by the Franciscans. Pope John Paul II visited in 2000, and the church reopened in 2016 after years of work.

THE BIG DEBATE
34:1 says Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah. Some think Pisgah is the Siyagha peak, others a nearby ridge. And nobody knows where Moses is buried. 34:6 says no one knows his grave to this day.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE
The church shows where Christians remembered Moses from the 300s AD on. It does not mark his grave, and nothing on the mountain comes from Moses' own time.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO WROTE DEUTERONOMY?

The Traditional View

DEUTERONOMY 1:1 · 31:9 · 31:24 · 34:5 TO 12 · MARK 10:3 TO 5

WHAT THE BOOK SAYS
These are the words Moses spoke to all Israel, 1:1. Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the priests, 31:9, and when he finished writing the words of this law in a book, he had it put beside the ark, 31:24 to 26. But chapter 34 tells about Moses' death and burial, and says no prophet since has been like him.

MOSES WROTE IT
The traditional Jewish and Christian view is that Moses wrote Deuteronomy, as the book says. Jesus quoted it as what Moses wrote and commanded, Mark 10:3 to 5 and Matthew 19:7 to 8, and Paul did too, Romans 10:19, 1 Corinthians 9:9.

WHO WROTE CHAPTER 34?
The Talmud, Bava Batra 14b to 15a, says Joshua wrote the last eight verses. One rabbi there says Moses wrote them with tears as God told him what would happen. Others say a later prophet or Ezra added them. Philo and Josephus thought Moses wrote of his own death by prophecy.

OTHER LATER TOUCHES
A few lines sound like they were added later, like to this day in 3:14 and 34:6, and the note about Og's bed still being in Rabbah, 3:11. Many who believe Moses wrote the book see these as small updates by a later editor, like Joshua or Samuel.

The Scholarly View

2 KINGS 22 · JOSHUA 1:7 TO 8 · NEHEMIAH 8

THE JOSIAH VIEW

Since de Wette in 1805, many scholars say the core of Deuteronomy, chapters 12 to 26, was written in the 600s BC and is the book found in the temple in 622 BC. They point to its one place of worship rule, its style, and how closely it matches Josiah's reforms. See The Scroll Found in the Temple pages near chapter 31, p.326.

LAYERS OVER TIME

Many think the book grew in layers: old laws, then Josiah's edition, then more chapters added during the exile in Babylon, like 4:25 to 31 and 30:1 to 10, which talk about scattering and coming home. Martin Noth in 1943 linked Deuteronomy with Joshua through 2 Kings as one long history.

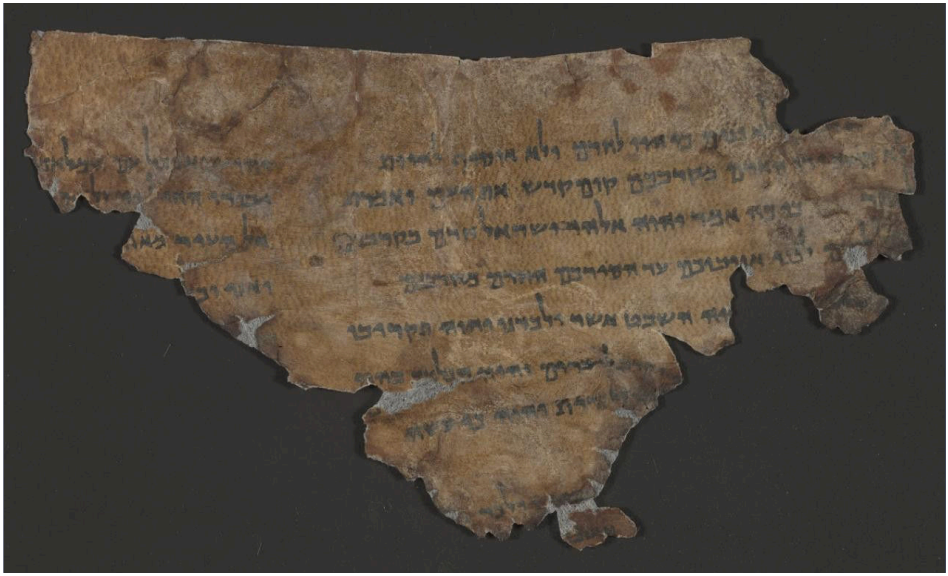
THE EARLY DATE VIEW

Other scholars, like Kenneth Kitchen and Meredith Kline, say its treaty shape fits the 1300s BC, its world fits the time before Israel had a king or a temple, and the book should be read as Moses' words.

WHAT THE OLDEST COPIES SHOW

About thirty copies were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls, from the 100s BC on. They differ in small ways, but they are the same much loved book.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON



Deuteronomy presents itself as Moses' last words, Jesus and the apostles treated it as Scripture, and Christians who disagree on the date still read it as God's Word.

BOOK 6 OF 66 · OLD TESTAMENT · HISTORY

JOSHUA

They finally make it to the Promised Land!

AUTHOR	The book does not name its author. Jewish tradition in the Talmud says Joshua wrote it, Eleazar added Joshua's death, and Phinehas added Eleazar's. Joshua did write some things down, 24:26. Lines like to this day show someone also put it together later. Many modern scholars think it was finished in the 600s or 500s BC.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	From the Jordan crossing to Joshua's death. The Bible does not say how long; the historian Josephus said about 25 years. The fighting took about seven years, 14:7 to 10.
DATE	The early date puts the crossing about 1406 BC, based on 1 Kings 6:1. The late date puts it in the 1200s BC. See When Was the Conquest?
WRITTEN TO	Israel, so every generation would remember that God kept His promise of the land.
KEY VERSE	Joshua 21:45. Not one of all Yahweh's good promises to the house of Israel had failed; everything was fulfilled.

THE OLDEST COPY OF JOSHUA
This is a piece of 4QJosh a, a scroll of Joshua found in Cave 4 at Qumran and copied in the last two centuries before Jesus. 4QJosh a puts the reading of the Law, 8:34 to 35, right after the Jordan crossing, in a different place than most Bibles. A second scroll from the same cave, 4QJosh b, is from about the same time.

After the scrolls, the oldest copies are in Greek, like Codex Vaticanus, and in Coptic, the language of Egypt's early Christians, like a papyrus book of Joshua from the 300s, kept partly in Dublin and partly in Geneva. The Greek Bible's Joshua is a little shorter in places. Photo Shai Halevi, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library, Israel Antiquities Authority.

Historical Setting

Moses is dead, and Israel is camped on the east side of the Jordan, across from Jericho. Forty years earlier their parents refused to go in. Now their children get their turn. Canaan is a land of walled city states, each with its own king, worshiping Baal and other gods. Joshua, Moses' assistant and one of the only two faithful spies, takes over.

What Was Going Wrong

HIDDEN SIN. Achan stole from Jericho and hid it in his tent, and Israel lost at Ai 7:1 to 26.
NOT PRAYING FIRST. Israel made a treaty with the Gibeonites without asking Yahweh 9:14.
HALF FINISHED. Several tribes did not drive out the Canaanites. Judah could not take Jerusalem, and Ephraim and Manasseh let Canaanites stay 15:63, 16:10, 17:12 to 13.
IDOLS IN THE TENT. Even at the end, Joshua had to tell the people to throw away the foreign gods still among them 24:14, 24:23.
A MISUNDERSTANDING. The tribes nearly went to war over an altar that turned out to be a memorial 22:10 to 34.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Joshua is the book where God's promise to Abraham finally comes true. Hundreds of years earlier, God told Abraham, To your offspring I will give this land, Genesis 12:7. Now Abraham's family crosses the Jordan on dry ground, watches Jericho's walls fall, and takes the land city by city. Then, with the fighting mostly done, Joshua divides the land among the twelve tribes, down to the last town and spring. The book ends with an old man calling the nation to choose. Serve the gods your fathers served, or serve Yahweh. As for me and my house, we will serve Yahweh.

Where Jesus Shows Up

JOSHUA 1:1 Joshua and Jesus have the same name. Yehoshua means Yahweh saves. Joshua led Israel into the land; Jesus leads His people into a better rest, Hebrews 4:8 to 10.

JOSHUA 2:18 The scarlet cord in Rahab's window saved everyone inside her house. Clement of Rome, about AD 96, said it showed that redemption would come through the blood of the Lord.

JOSHUA 2:1 Rahab, a Canaanite prostitute, became the great great grandmother of King David and is named in Jesus' family tree, Matthew 1:5.

JOSHUA 5:13 TO 15 The Commander of Yahweh's army accepts Joshua's worship. Many believe this is Jesus before He was born.

JOSHUA 1:5 I will never leave you nor forsake you. Hebrews 13:5 quotes God's promise to every believer.

GOD'S NAMES IN JOSHUA
Joshua calls God the living God 3:10 and the Lord of all the earth 3:11, 13. Rahab confesses that Yahweh your God is God in heaven above and on the earth below 2:11. Joshua warns that He is a holy God and a jealous God 24:19. See Why We Say Yahweh in the Old Testament Introduction.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Moses is dead, and Joshua is in charge. God gives him a pep talk: Be strong and courageous, keep My word on your lips, and I will be with you. Three times God says it, because Joshua needed to hear it three times.

GOD INSTRUCTS JOSHUA // DEUTERONOMY 11:8–17

1 Now after the death of His servant
Moses, Yahweh spoke to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' assistant, saying, 2 "Moses
My servant is dead. Now therefore arise, you and all these people, and cross over the Jordan into the land that I am giving to the children of Israel.

3 I have given you every place where the sole of your foot will tread, just as I promised to Moses. 4 Your territory shall extend from the wilderness and Lebanon to the great River Euphrates—all the land of the Hittites—and west as far as the Great Sea.

5 No one shall stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so will I be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you.

6 Be strong and courageous, for you shall give these people the inheritance of the land that I swore to their fathers I would give them.

7 Above all, be strong and very courageous. Be careful to observe all the law that My servant Moses commanded you.
Do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may prosper wherever you go. 8 This Book of the Law must not depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. For then you will prosper and succeed in all you do.

9 Have I not commanded you to be strong and courageous? Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for Yahweh your God is with you wherever you go."

JOSHUA TAKES CHARGE

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people: 11 "Go through the camp and tell the people, 'Prepare your provisions, for within three days you will cross the Jordan to go in and take possession of the land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess.'"

12 But to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said, 13 "Remember what Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you when he said,
'Yahweh your God will give you rest, and He will give you this land.' 14 Your wives,
your young children, and your livestock may remain in the land that Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan. But all your mighty men of valor must be armed for battle to cross over ahead of your brothers and help them, 15 until Yahweh gives them rest as He has done for you, and your brothers also possess the land that Yahweh your God is giving them. Then you may return to the land of your inheritance and take possession of that which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave you on the east side of the Jordan."

16 So they answered Joshua, "Everything you have commanded us we will do, and everywhere you send us we will go. 17 Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. And may Yahweh your God be with you, as He was with Moses. 18 Anyone who rebels against your order and does not obey your words, all that you command him, will be put to death. Above all, be strong and courageous!"

JOSH 1:1 [FULFILLS] Moses would see the land but not cross over. Joshua would lead the people in ← DT 3:27-28 p.288

JOSH 1:1 [NOTE] JOSHUA'S NAME. Moses renamed him Yehoshua, Yahweh saves, Numbers 13:16. In Greek it is Iesous, the same name as Jesus, so the King James says Jesus in Acts 7:45 and Hebrews 4:8 when it means Joshua.

JOSH 1:5 [QUOTED] Quoted in the New Testament → HEB 13:5 p.1995

JOSH 1:8 [NOTABLE] God's pep talk to a nervous new leader. Success is tied to knowing and doing God's word, and courage comes from God being with you, not from being fearless.

JOSH 1:8 [NOTE] Meditate is the Hebrew hagah, to mutter. Ancient people read out loud, so meditating meant saying God's word over and over under your breath.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Joshua sends two spies into Jericho, and they end up at the house of Rahab, a prostitute. She hides them on her roof, lies to the king's men, and makes a deal: save my family. The sign is a scarlet cord in her window. Not your typical Sunday school hero, but God picked her anyway.

RAHAB WELCOMES THE SPIES // HEBREWS 11:30–31

1 Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Shittim, saying, "Go, inspect the land, especially Jericho." So they went and entered the house of a prostitute named Rahab and stayed there.
2 And it was reported to the king of Jericho: "Behold, some men of Israel have come here tonight to spy out the land."
3 So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab and said, "Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house, for they have come to spy out the whole land."
4 But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. So she said, "Yes, the men did come to me, but I did not know where they had come from. 5 At dusk, when the gate was about to close, the men went out, and I do not know which way they went. Pursue them quickly, and you may catch them!" 6 (But Rahab had taken them up to the roof and hidden them among the stalks of flax that she had laid out there.) 7 So the king's men set out in pursuit of the spies along the road to the fords of the Jordan, and as soon as they had gone out, the gate was shut.

THE PROMISE TO RAHAB

8 Before the spies lay down for the night, Rahab went up on the roof 9 and said to them, "I know that Yahweh has given you this land and that the fear of you has fallen on us, so that all who dwell in the land are melting in fear of you. 10 For we have heard how Yahweh dried up the waters of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to Sihon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites across the Jordan, whom you devoted to destruction. 11 When we heard this, our hearts melted and everyone's courage failed because of you, for Yahweh your God is God in the heavens above and on the earth below.
12 Now therefore, please swear to me by Yahweh that you will indeed show kindness to my family, because I showed kindness to you. Give me a sure sign 13 that you will spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and that you will deliver us from death."
14 "Our lives for your lives!" the men agreed. "If you do not report our mission,
we will show you kindness and faithfulness when Yahweh gives us the land."
15 Then Rahab let them down by a rope through the window, since the house where she lived was built into the wall of the city. 16 "Go to the hill country," she said, "so that your pursuers will not find
you. Hide yourselves there for three days until they have returned; then go on your way."
17 The men said to her, "We will not be bound by this oath you made us swear 18 unless, when we enter the land, you have tied this scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and unless you have brought your father and mother and brothers and all your family into your house. 19 If anyone goes out the door of your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head, and we will be innocent. But if a hand is laid on anyone with you in the house, his blood will

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

RAHAB

God Uses Anyone

JOSHUA 2 · 6:17 TO 25 · MATTHEW 1:5 · HEBREWS 11:31 · JAMES 2:25

WHO SHE WAS

A Canaanite woman living in Jericho's wall. The Hebrew calls her zonah, a prostitute, and so do Hebrews 11:31 and James 2:25. The Jewish historian Josephus, about AD 93, called her an innkeeper, and some old Jewish writers did too, but the plain word is prostitute.

WHAT SHE KNEW

She had heard about the Red Sea and the kings east of the Jordan, and she made one of the clearest statements of faith in the Old Testament: Yahweh your God is God in heaven above and on the earth below, 2:11. Her whole city heard the same news and melted in fear. Only Rahab acted on it.

THE SCARLET CORD

She tied a scarlet cord in her window, 2:18, and everyone inside her house was saved, like the blood on the doors at Passover, Exodus 12:13. Clement of Rome, about AD 96, wrote that the cord showed that redemption would come through the blood of the Lord.

INTO THE FAMILY

Rahab lived among Israel from then on, 6:25. Matthew 1:5 says she married Salmon and became the mother of Boaz, so she was the great great grandmother of King David. Matthew names only four women before Mary in Jesus' family tree: Tamar, Rahab, Ruth and the wife of Uriah, Bathsheba. Every one has a story. A Jewish tradition in the Talmud says instead that she married Joshua.

NEVER UNDERESTIMATE HER

In today's words, never underestimate the OnlyFans girl. God can use anyone. Jesus told the religious leaders that tax collectors and prostitutes were entering the kingdom of God ahead of them, Matthew 21:31. Rahab is proof that your past is not your future.

Every View

JOSHUA 2:4 TO 6 · EXODUS 1:19 TO 20 · HEBREWS 11:31 · JAMES 2:25

WHAT SHE DID

When the king's men came, Rahab hid the spies under flax on her roof and said they had already left, 2:4 to 6. It was a lie, and it saved their lives. The Bible praises her faith but never says a word about the lie itself.

VIEW 1: A LIE IS ALWAYS WRONG

Augustine, about AD 420, said God rewarded Rahab's kindness and faith, not her lie. John Calvin agreed that she was not free from fault. The philosopher Immanuel Kant said in 1797 that you may not lie even to a murderer at your door. These say she should have trusted God or kept silent.

VIEW 2: THE GREATER DUTY

Some teach that when two duties clash, you obey the greater one. Saving innocent life outranks telling the truth to killers. The Hebrew midwives lied to Pharaoh, and God was good to them, Exodus 1:19 to 20. Norman Geisler called this graded absolutism, obeying the bigger rule.

VIEW 3: NO RIGHT TO THE TRUTH

Others say lying means deceiving someone who has a right to the truth. A killer has no right to know where his victims are. Dietrich Bonhoeffer, who stood against Hitler, wrote in 1943 that telling the truth means more than just saying true words.

VIEW 4: WAR IS DIFFERENT

Rahab had already switched sides. In war, hiding and tricking the enemy is expected. God Himself told Joshua to set an ambush at Ai, 8:2.

A REAL QUESTION

Christians who hid Jews from the Nazis faced the same question, and they did not all answer it the same way.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Hebrews 11:31 praises her faith. James 2:25 says she was justified by what she did when she welcomed the spies and sent them off on another route. Her faith acted, and God saved her.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

The priests carry the ark into the Jordan at flood stage. The moment their feet touch the water, the river stops and piles up far upstream at a town called Adam. All Israel walks across on dry ground. Forty years after the Red Sea, God does it again for the kids.

CROSSING THE JORDAN

1 Early the next morning Joshua got up and left Shittim with all the Israelites. They went as far as the Jordan, where they camped before crossing over.

2 After three days the officers went through the camp 3 and commanded the people: "When you see the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your God being carried by the Levitical priests, you are to set out from your positions and follow it. 4 But keep a distance of about three thousand feet between yourselves and the ark. Do not go near it, so that you can see the way to go, since you have never traveled this
way before."

5 Then Joshua told the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow Yahweh will do wonders among you." 6 And he said to the priests, "Take the ark of the covenant and go on ahead of the people."
So they carried the ark of the covenant
and went ahead of them.

7 Now Yahweh said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so they may know that I am with you just as I was with Moses. 8 Command the priests carrying the ark of the covenant:
'When you reach the edge of the waters,
stand in the Jordan.'"

9 So Joshua told the Israelites, "Come here and listen to the words of Yahweh your God." 10 He continued, "This is how you will know that the living God is among you and that He will surely drive out before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Per-izzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites. 11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth will go ahead of you into the Jordan.

12 Now choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe. 13 When the feet of the priests who carry the ark of Yahweh—the Lord of all the earth—touch down in the waters of the Jordan, its flowing waters will be cut off and will stand up in a heap."

14 So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carried the ark of the covenant ahead of them.

15 Now the Jordan overflows its banks throughout the harvest season. But as soon as the priests carrying the ark reached the Jordan and their feet touched the water's edge, 16 the flowing water stood still. It backed up as far upstream as Adam, a city in the area of Zarethan, while the water flowing toward the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea) was completely cut off. So the people crossed over opposite Jericho. 17 The priests carrying the ark of the covenant of Yahweh stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel crossed over the dry ground, until the entire nation had crossed the Jordan.

JOSH 3:14 [MIRACLE] Jordan River stopped flowing while Israel crossed

JOSH 3:16 [NOTE] The water piled up at Adam, about 18 miles upstream. In 1927 an earthquake dropped the high banks near Adam, today Damiya, into the river and stopped the Jordan for about 21 hours. Some think God used something like that here. The Bible's point is the timing, the moment the priests' feet touched the water, 3:15.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Twelve men carry twelve stones out of the river and stack them at Gilgal. When your children ask, What do these stones mean? tell them the story. The priests step out, and the river comes rushing back.

TWELVE STONES FROM THE JORDAN

1 When the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan, Yahweh said to Joshua, 2 "Choose twelve men from among the people, one from each tribe, 3 and command them: 'Take up for yourselves twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan where the priests were standing, carry them with you, and set them down in the place where you spend the night.'"

4 So Joshua summoned the twelve men he had appointed from the Israelites, one from each tribe, 5 and said to them, "Cross over before the ark of Yahweh your God into the middle of the Jordan. Each of you is to take a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of Israel, 6 to serve as a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask, 'What do these stones mean to you?' 7 you are to tell them, 'The waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters were cut off.' Therefore these stones will be a memorial to the Israelites
forever."

8 Thus the Israelites did as Joshua had commanded them. They took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, one for each tribe of Israel, just as Yahweh had told Joshua; and they carried them to the camp, where they set them down.

9 Joshua also set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the priests who carried the ark of the covenant stood. And the stones are there to this day.

10 Now the priests who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until the people had completed everything Yahweh had commanded Joshua to tell them, just as Moses had directed Joshua. The people hurried across, 11 and after everyone had finished crossing, the priests with the ark of Yahweh crossed in the sight of the people. 12 The Reubenites,
the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Man-
asseh crossed over before the Israelites, armed for battle as Moses had instructed them. 13 About 40,000 troops armed for battle crossed over before Yahweh into the plains of Jericho.

14 On that day Yahweh exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they revered him all the days of his life, just as they had revered Moses.

15 Then Yahweh said to Joshua, 16 "Command the priests who carry the ark of the Testimony to come up from the Jordan."

17 So Joshua commanded the priests,
"Come up from the Jordan."

18 When the priests carrying the ark of the covenant of Yahweh came up out of the Jordan and their feet touched the dry land, the waters of the Jordan returned to their course and overflowed all the banks
as before.

THE CAMP AT GILGAL

19 On the tenth day of the first month the people went up from the Jordan and camped at Gilgal on the eastern border of Jericho. 20 And there at Gilgal Joshua set up the twelve stones they had taken from the Jordan.

21 Then Joshua said to the Israelites, "In the future, when your children ask their fathers, 'What is the meaning of these stones?' 22 you are to tell them, 'Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.' 23 For Yahweh your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, just as He did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed over. 24 He did this so that all the peoples of the earth may know that

JOSH 4:6 [NOTABLE] God wanted a pile of rocks that would make kids ask questions. Faith is passed on by telling the story of what God did.

JOSH 4:9 [NOTE] The Hebrew says Joshua also set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, where the priests stood. Many Bibles read it as a second pile; some read it as the same stones.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

The kings of Canaan hear about the river and lose their nerve. Israel's sons born in the desert are circumcised at Gilgal, they keep the Passover, and the manna stops for good. Then a Man with a drawn sword meets Joshua near Jericho. He says He is the Commander of Yahweh's army, and Joshua takes off his sandals.

THE CIRCUMCISION AND PASSOVER AT GILGAL

1 Now when all the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings along the coast heard how Yahweh had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed over, their hearts melted and their spirits failed for fear of the Israelites.

2 At that time Yahweh said to Joshua, "Make flint knives and circumcise the sons of Israel once again." 3 So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the sons of Israel at Gibeath-haaraloth.

4 Now this is why Joshua circumcised them: All those who came out of Egypt—all the men of war—had died on the journey in the wilderness after they had left Egypt. 5 Though all who had come out were circumcised, none of those born in the wilderness on the journey from Egypt had been circumcised.

6 For the Israelites had wandered in the wilderness forty years, until all the nation's men of war who had come out of Egypt had died, since they did not obey Yahweh. So Yahweh vowed never to let them see the land He had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. 7 And He raised up their sons in their place, and these were the ones Joshua circumcised. Until this time they were still uncircumcised, since they had not been circumcised along the way.

8 And after all the nation had been circumcised, they stayed there in the camp until they were healed.

9 Then Yahweh said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." So that place has been called Gilgal to this day.

10 On the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, while the Israelites were camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they kept the Passover. 11 The day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate unleavened bread and roasted grain from the produce of the land.

12 And the day after they had eaten from the produce of the land, the manna ceased. There was no more manna for the Israelites, so that year they began to eat the crops of the land of Canaan.

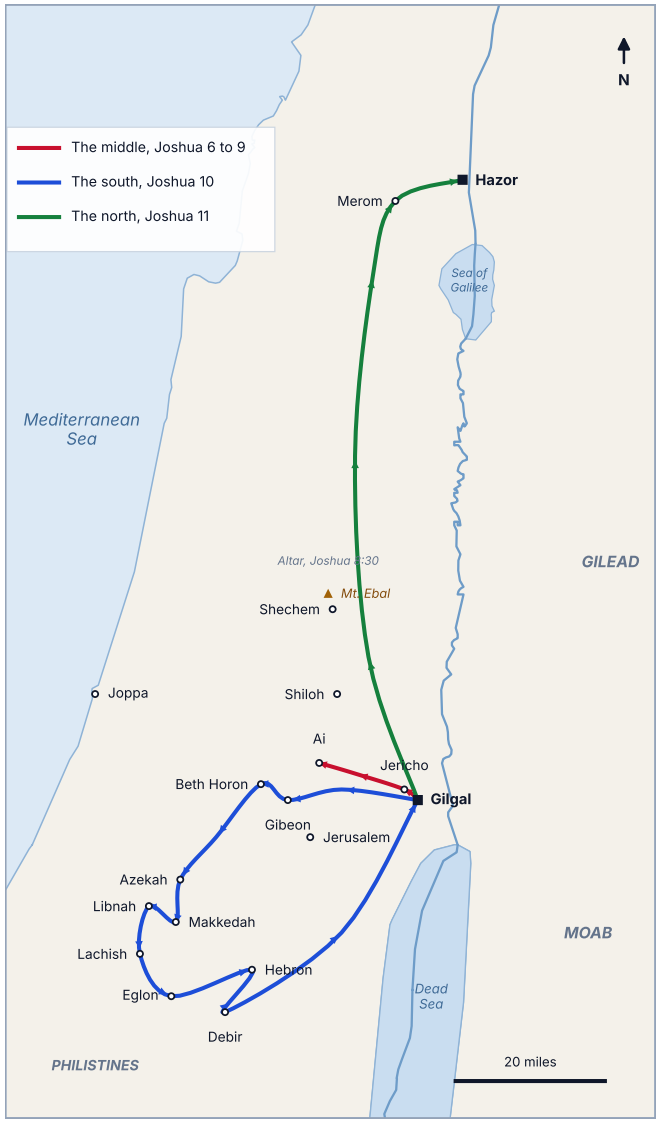
THE COMMANDER OF YAHWEH'S ARMY

13 Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in His hand. Joshua approached Him and asked, "Are You for us or for our enemies?"

14 "Neither," He replied. "I have now come as Commander of Yahweh's army."

Then Joshua fell facedown in reverence and asked Him, "What does my Lord have to say to His servant?"

15 The Commander of Yahweh's army replied, "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy."



And Joshua did so.

Joshua Takes the Land

Three campaigns: the middle, the south and the north

THE MIDDLE Israel crossed the Jordan and camped at Gilgal, Joshua 4:19. Jericho fell first, then Ai, Joshua 6 to 8. Gibeon made peace by a trick, Joshua 9.

THE NORTH Jabin king of Hazor gathered the northern kings at the waters of Merom. Joshua beat them and burned Hazor, Joshua 11:1 to 13.

THE SOUTH Five kings attacked Gibeon. Joshua marched all night from Gilgal, won at Gibeon, chased them past Beth Horon, then took the southern cities, Joshua 10.

ONLY THREE BURNED The book names only three cities burned: Jericho, Ai and Hazor, Joshua 6:24, 8:28 and 11:13. Israel moved into the rest.

Jericho, Gibeon, Lachish and Hazor are certain. Ai, Makkedah, Libnah, Eglon and Merom are debated. Routes are approximate.

God's battle plan: march around Jericho once a day for six days, seven times on the seventh, blow the horns and shout. Nobody would teach this at a military academy. The walls fall, the city is destroyed, and Rahab and her family are saved, just as promised.

THE WALLS OF JERICHO

1 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No one went out and no one came in.

2 And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Behold, I have delivered Jericho into your hand, along with its king and its mighty men of valor. 3 March around the city with all the men of war, circling the city one time. Do this for six days. 4 Have seven priests carry seven rams' horns in front of the ark. Then on the seventh day, march around the city seven times, while the priests blow the horns. 5 And when there is a long blast of the ram's horn and you hear its sound, have all the people give a mighty shout. Then the wall of the city will collapse and all your people will charge straight into the city."

THE BIG QUESTION

WHO WAS THE COMMANDER?

The Man with the Drawn Sword

JOSHUA 5:13 TO 6:2 · EXODUS 3:5 · HEBREWS 2:10

WHAT HAPPENED

Near Jericho, Joshua sees a Man with a drawn sword and asks, Are You for us or for our enemies? He answers, Neither. I have now come as Commander of Yahweh's army. Joshua falls facedown and worships, and the Commander tells him to take off his sandals, because the place is holy, 5:13 to 15.

CLUE 1: HE ACCEPTS WORSHIP

When John fell down before an angel, the angel said, Do not do that! Worship God, Revelation 22:8 to 9. This Commander does not stop Joshua.

CLUE 2: HOLY GROUND

Take off your sandals is almost word for word what God said to Moses at the burning bush, Exodus 3:5. There, the angel of Yahweh in the fire turned out to be God speaking.

CLUE 3: THE NEXT VERSE

Right after this, Yahweh speaks to Joshua and gives him the battle plan for Jericho, 6:2. Many read 6:2 as the same conversation going on.

WHAT THE EARLY CHURCH SAID

Justin Martyr, about AD 155, said this Commander was Christ before He became a man. Origen, about AD 250, said the same in his sermons on Joshua.

THE QUESTION BEHIND THE QUESTION

Joshua asked whose side He was on. The answer was, Neither. The Commander did not come to join Joshua's side. The real question is whether we are on His.

Every View

JOSHUA 5:13 TO 15 · DANIEL 10:13 · 12:1 · REVELATION 12:7

VIEW 1: JESUS BEFORE HIS BIRTH

Many Christians believe this is the Son of God appearing before He was born in Bethlehem. The worship, the holy ground and 6:2 point to Him. Hebrews 2:10 calls Jesus the captain of their salvation in the King James. This is why His words are printed in red.

VIEW 2: THE ARCHANGEL MICHAEL

Daniel calls Michael one of the chief princes and the great prince who stands over Israel, Daniel 10:13 and 12:1, and Revelation 12:7 shows Michael leading God's armies. Some Jewish teachers linked him to Michael. David Kimhi, about AD 1200, explained the Commander by pointing to Michael, the great prince.

VIEW 3: A HIGH ANGEL

Others say He was a high angel. The ground was holy because God was present, and Joshua bowed in respect, as people sometimes bowed to angels and kings.

THE ANGEL OF YAHWEH

Elsewhere the angel of Yahweh speaks as God Himself. Hagar said, You are the God who sees me, Genesis 16:13, and Manoah said, We have seen God, Judges 13:22. Many link the Commander

JOSH 6:5 [PROPHECY] God said the wall of Jericho would fall when the people shouted → JOSH 6:20 p.346

ARCHAEOLOGY BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

to this angel, and many see both as the Son before His birth.

A DIFFERENT TEACHING

Jehovah's Witnesses teach that Jesus is the archangel Michael. Most churches reject that, because Hebrews 1:5 to 6 says God never called an angel His Son and tells all the angels to worship Him.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Joshua was not in charge of this war. God's army was already there before Joshua drew a sword, and the first thing Joshua had to do was bow.

6 So Joshua son of Nun summoned the priests and said, "Take up the ark of the covenant and have seven priests carry seven rams' horns in front of the ark of Yahweh."
7 And he told the people, "Advance and march around the city, with the armed troops going ahead of the ark of Yahweh." 8 After Joshua had spoken to the people,
seven priests carrying seven rams' horns
before Yahweh advanced and blew the horns, and the ark of the covenant of Yahweh followed them. 9 While the horns continued to sound, the armed troops marched ahead of the priests who blew
the horns, and the rear guard followed the ark.
10 But Joshua had commanded the people:
"Do not give a battle cry or let your voice be heard; do not let one word come out of your mouth until the day I tell you to shout. Then you are to shout!" 11 So he had the ark of Yahweh carried around the city, circling it once. And the people returned to the camp and spent the night there.
12 Joshua got up early the next morning,
and the priests took the ark of Yahweh. 13
And the seven priests carrying seven rams' horns kept marching ahead of the ark of Yahweh and blowing the horns. The armed troops went in front of them and the rear guard followed the ark of Yahweh, while the horns kept sounding. 14 So on the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp.
They did this for six days.
15 Then on the seventh day, they got up at dawn and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. That was the only day they circled the city seven times.
16 After the seventh time around, the priests blew the horns, and Joshua commanded the people, "Shout! For Yahweh has given you the city! 17 Now the city and everything in it must be devoted to Yahweh for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute and all those with her in her house will live, because she hid the spies we sent. 18 But keep away from the things devoted to destruction, lest you yourself be set apart for destruction. If you take any of these, you will set apart the camp of Israel for destruction and bring disaster upon it. 19 For all the silver and gold and all the articles of bronze and iron are holy to Yahweh; they must go into His treasury." 20 So when the rams' horns sounded, the people shouted. When they heard the blast of the horn, the people gave a great shout, and the wall collapsed. Then all the people charged straight into the city and captured it. 21 With the edge of the sword they devoted to destruction everything in the city—man and woman, young and old,
oxen, sheep, and donkeys.
22 Meanwhile, Joshua told the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the house of the prostitute and bring out the woman and all who are with her, just as you promised her." 23 So the young spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father and mother and brothers, and all who belonged to her. They brought out her whole family and settled them outside the camp of Israel.

WHAT IT IS

Tell es Sultan, the ruin hill of ancient Jericho, next to a big spring in the Jordan Valley, about 850 feet below sea level. Jericho is one of the oldest towns on earth.

HOW OLD IT IS

People lived here more than 10,000 years ago. A stone tower about 28 feet tall was built about 8000 BC, thousands of years before Joshua. The city walls Joshua's story is about are much later. Their date is the big debate below.

WHERE AND WHEN DUG

Ernst Sellin and Carl Watzinger, 1907 to 1909. John Garstang, 1930 to 1936. Kathleen Kenyon, 1952 to 1958. An Italian and Palestinian team from 1997. In 2023 it was named a World Heritage Site.

WHAT WAS FOUND

A city surrounded by a stone retaining wall with a mudbrick wall on top. A thick layer of ash. Fallen mudbricks piled at the foot of the wall. Many jars still full of grain, burned. Joshua 6 says the city was burned and nothing was to be taken. Grain is usually the first thing an army steals.

THE BIG DEBATE

Garstang said the city fell about 1400 BC, just when the early date puts Joshua. Kenyon redated it to about 1550 BC and said Jericho had no real city around 1400. In 1990 Bryant Wood looked again at the pottery and Egyptian scarabs and argued for about 1400. A 1995 carbon test on burned grain gave about 1560 BC. Most archaeologists still follow Kenyon, but the debate is not over.

THE SPRING

Jericho sits beside a big spring that still flows today, Ein es Sultan. Christians call it Elisha's Spring, because Elisha made its bad water good, 2 Kings 2:19 to 22. That spring is why people lived here for ten thousand years.

LATER JERICHOS

Hiel rebuilt the city in Ahab's day, 1 Kings 16:34. The Jericho of Jesus, where He met Zacchaeus, Luke 19:1 to 10, was a newer town a mile or two to the south, with King Herod's winter palaces.

RIGHT AFTER HARVEST

Joshua 3:15 says the Jordan was flooding at harvest time, in the spring. Those who hold the early date say the full grain jars fit a city taken right after harvest after a short siege, because the food was never eaten up.

RAHAB'S HOUSE

Joshua 2:15 says Rahab's house was built into the city wall. The German team found houses between the inner and outer walls, where a stretch of wall did not fall. Some see Rahab's house there, but most archaeologists date those houses earlier.

THE WALLS FELL OUT

The diggers found mudbricks lying in a heap at the foot of the stone wall, as if the wall above had tumbled outward. A pile like that makes a ramp, and Joshua 6:20 says the people went straight up into the city.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No inscription names Joshua or Israel. It shows a walled city that burned with its grain inside. Whether that was Joshua's Jericho depends on which date is right.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

24 Then the Israelites burned up the city and everything in it. However, they put the silver and gold and articles of bronze and iron into the treasury of Yahweh's house.
25 And Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, with her father's household and all who belonged to her, because she hid the men Joshua had sent to spy out Jericho.
So she has lived among the Israelites to this day.

26 At that time Joshua invoked this solemn oath:

"Cursed before Yahweh is the man who rises up
and rebuilds this city, Jericho;
at the cost of his firstborn
he will lay its foundations;
at the cost of his youngest
he will set up its gates."

27 So Yahweh was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel attacks the little town of Ai and loses. Joshua falls on his face, and God tells him why: someone stole from the things devoted to Him. Achan confesses. I saw, I wanted, I took, I hid. It does not end well for Achan.

THE DEFEAT AT AI

1 The Israelites, however, acted unfaithfully regarding the things devoted to destruction. Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of what was set apart. So the anger of Yahweh burned against the Israelites.

2 Meanwhile, Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven to the east of Bethel, and told them, "Go up and spy out the land." So the men went up and spied out Ai.

3 On returning to Joshua, they reported,
"There is no need to send all the people;
two or three thousand men are enough to go up and attack Ai. Since the people of Ai are so few, you need not wear out all our people there."

4 So about three thousand men went up, but they fled before the men of Ai. 5 And the men of Ai struck down about thirty-six of them, chasing them from the gate as far as the quarries and striking them down on the slopes. So the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

6 Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell facedown before the ark of Yahweh until evening, as did the elders of Israel; and they all sprinkled dust on their heads.

7 "O, Lord Yahweh," Joshua said, "why did You ever bring this people across the Jordan to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to be destroyed? If only we had been content to stay on the other side of the Jordan! 8 O Lord, what can I say, now that Israel has turned its back and run from its enemies? 9 When the Canaanites and all who live in the land hear about this, they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth. Then what will You do for Your great name?"

10 But Yahweh said to Joshua, "Stand up!
Why have you fallen on your face? 11 Israel has sinned; they have transgressed My covenant that I commanded them, and they have taken some of what was devoted to destruction. Indeed, they have stolen and lied, and they have put these things with their own possessions. 12 This is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies. They will turn their backs and run from their enemies, because they themselves have been set apart for destruction. I will no longer be with you unless you remove from among you whatever is devoted to destruction.

13 Get up and consecrate the people, saying, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow,
for this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel,
says: Among you, O Israel, there are things devoted to destruction. You cannot stand against your enemies until you remove them. 14 In the morning you must present yourselves tribe by tribe. The tribe that Yahweh selects shall come forward clan by clan, and the clan that Yahweh selects shall come forward family by family, and the family that Yahweh selects shall come forward man by man. 15 The one who is caught with the things devoted to destruction must be burned, along with all that belongs to him, because he has transgressed the covenant of Yahweh and committed an outrage in Israel.'"

THE SIN OF ACHAN

16 So Joshua arose early the next morning and had Israel come forward tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was selected. 17 He had the clans of Judah come forward, and the clan of the Zerahites was selected. He had the clan of the Zerahites come forward, and the family of Zabdi was selected. 18 And he had the family of Zabdi come forward man by man, and Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was selected.

19 So Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory to Yahweh, the God of Israel, and make a confession to Him. I urge you to tell me what you have done; do not hide it from me."

20 "It is true," Achan replied, "I have sinned against Yahweh, the God of Israel. This is what I did: 21 When I saw among the spoils a beautiful cloak from Shinar, five pounds of silver, and a bar of gold weighing a pound and a quarter, I coveted them and took them. They are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath."

22 So Joshua sent messengers who ran to the tent, and there it all was, hidden in his tent, with the silver underneath. 23 They took the things from inside the tent, brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites, and spread them out before Yahweh.

24 Then Joshua, together with all Israel, took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the cloak, the bar of gold, his sons and daughters, his oxen and donkeys and sheep, his tent, and everything else he owned, and brought them to the Valley of Achor.

25 "Why have you brought this trouble upon us?" said Joshua. "Today Yahweh will bring trouble upon you!" And all Israel stoned him to death. Then they stoned the others and burned their bodies. 26 And they heaped over Achan a large pile of rocks that remains to this day. So Yahweh turned from His burning anger. Therefore that place is called the Valley of Achor to this day.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Round two at Ai. Joshua sets an ambush, pretends to run, and the whole army of Ai chases him out of town. The ambush takes the empty city and burns it. Then Joshua builds an altar on Mount Ebal and reads the whole Law to the people, just as Moses said.

THE CONQUEST OF AI

1 Then Yahweh said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid or discouraged. Take the whole army with you, and go up and attack Ai. See, I have delivered into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land. 2 And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king, except that you may carry off their plunder and livestock for yourselves. Set up an ambush behind the city."

3 So Joshua and the whole army set out to attack Ai. Joshua chose 30,000 mighty men of valor and sent them out at night 4 with these orders: "Pay attention. You are to lie in ambush behind the city, not too far from it. All of you must be ready. 5 Then I and all the troops with me will advance on the city. When they come out against us as they did the first time, we will flee from them. 6 They will pursue us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, 'The Israelites are running away from us as they did before.' So as we flee from them, 7 you are to rise from the ambush and seize the city, for Yahweh your God will deliver it into your hand. 8 And when you have taken the city, set it on fire. Do as Yahweh has commanded! See, I have given you orders."

9 So Joshua sent them out, and they went to the place of ambush and lay in wait between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai. But Joshua spent that night among the people.

10 Joshua got up early the next morning and mobilized his men, and he and the elders of Israel marched before them up to Ai. 11 Then all the troops who were with him marched up and approached the city. They arrived in front of Ai and camped to the north of it, with the valley between them and the city.

12 Now Joshua had taken about five thousand men and set up an ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city. 13 So the forces were stationed with the main camp to the north of the city and the rear guard to the west of the city. And that night Joshua went into the valley.

14 When the king of Ai saw the Israelites, he hurried out early in the morning with the men of the city to engage them in battle at an appointed place overlooking the Arabah. But he did not know that an ambush had been set up against him behind the city. 15 Joshua and all Israel let themselves be beaten back before them, and they fled toward the wilderness. 16 Then all the men of Ai were summoned to pursue them, and they followed Joshua and were drawn away from the city. 17 Not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel, leaving the city wide open while they pursued Israel.

18 Then Yahweh said to Joshua, "Hold out your battle lance toward Ai, for into your hand I will deliver the city." So Joshua held out his battle lance toward Ai, 19 and as soon as he did so, the men in ambush rose quickly from their position. They rushed forward, entered the city, captured it, and immediately set it on fire.

20 When the men of Ai turned and looked back, the smoke of the city was rising into the sky. They could not escape in any direction, and the troops who had fled to the wilderness now turned against their pursuers. 21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men in ambush had captured the city and that smoke was rising from it, they turned around and struck down the men of Ai. 22 Meanwhile, those in the ambush came out of the city against them, and the men of Ai were trapped between the Israelite forces on both sides. So Israel struck them down until no survivor or fugitive remained. 23 But they took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

24 When Israel had finished killing all the men of Ai who had pursued them into the field and wilderness, and when every last one of them had fallen by the sword, all the Israelites returned to Ai and put it to the sword as well. 25 A total of twelve thousand men and women fell that day—all the people of Ai. 26 Joshua did not draw back the hand that held his battle lance until he had devoted to destruction all who lived in Ai. 27 Israel took for themselves only the cattle and plunder of that city, as Yahweh had commanded Joshua.

28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a permanent heap of ruins, a desolation to this day. 29 He hung the king of Ai on a tree until evening, and at sunset Joshua commanded that they take down the body from the tree and throw it down at the entrance of the city gate. And over it they raised a large pile of rocks, which remains to this day.

31 just as Moses the servant of Yahweh had commanded the Israelites. He built it according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses: "an altar of uncut stones on which no iron tool has been used." And on it they offered burnt offerings to Yahweh, and they sacrificed peace offerings.

32 And there in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua inscribed on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written. 33 All Israel, foreigners and citizens alike, with their elders, officers, and judges, stood on both sides of the ark of the covenant of Yahweh facing the Levitical priests who carried it. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of Yahweh had commanded earlier, to bless the people of Israel.

34 Afterward, Joshua read aloud all the words of the law—the blessings and the curses—according to all that is written in the Book of the Law. 35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua failed to read before the whole assembly of Israel, including the women, the little ones, and the foreigners who lived among them.

WHERE WAS AI?

JOSHUA 7:2 · 8:1 TO 29 · GENESIS 12:8

Left, et Tell, the traditional site of Ai, with walls from about 2400 BC. Photo Alex Ostrovski, CC BY SA 4.0. Right, Khirbet el Maqatir. Photo Tom Miller, CC BY SA 2.0.

WHAT IT IS

Ai was a small town east of Bethel, 7:2. Its name means the ruin. Joshua burned it and made it a heap forever, 8:28. The question is which ruin is Ai.

THE TRADITIONAL SITE

Et Tell, about ten miles north of Jerusalem. Judith Marquet Krause dug it from 1933 to 1935 and Joseph Callaway from 1964 to 1972. They found a big city destroyed about 2400 BC, then nothing until a small village about 1200 BC. No city stood there in Joshua's day by either date.

HOW OLD IT IS

Et Tell's walls are from about 3000 to 2400 BC, more than a thousand years before Joshua. That is the problem.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE

Bryant Wood, Scott Stripling and the Associates for Biblical Research dug Khirbet el Maqatir, less than a mile west of et Tell, from 1995 to 2001 and 2009 to 2016. They found a small fort from the Late Bronze Age, about the size the Bible describes, with a gate on the north and signs that it burned. They argue it fits Joshua 7 and 8 better.

THE BIG DEBATE

Most archaeologists say et Tell is Ai and the story is not history, or that the name was given to a ruin people already knew. Some say Bethel itself is in the wrong place, which would move Ai too. Supporters of Maqatir say et Tell was simply the wrong guess. Maqatir also has later ruins, from the time of Jesus and a Byzantine monastery.

WHAT JOSHUA 8 DESCRIBES

A small town. The spies said two or three thousand men could take it, 7:3. Its men chased Israel and left the gates open, 8:17. Joshua burned it and made it a heap, a tel, and piled stones over its king's body at the gate, 8:28 to 29.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No sign at either site says Ai. The debate is about which hill fits the Bible's map and dates.

5:2. Many scholars think the altar story stood there too. The Greek Bible puts it after 9:2. Copies did not all agree on where the story belongs.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

The people of Gibeon show up in worn out sandals with moldy bread and say, We come from a very far country. Israel never asks God and signs a peace treaty. Three days later they find out the Gibeonites live next door. A promise is a promise, so the Gibeonites become woodcutters and water carriers.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE NOTABLE

THE DECEIT OF THE GIBEONITES

1 Now when news of this reached all the kings west of the Jordan—those in the hill country, the foothills, and all along the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon (the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Per-izzites, Hivites, and Jebusites)— 2 they came together to wage war against Joshua and Israel.

3 But the people of Gibeon, having heard
what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, 4 acted deceptively and set out as envoys,
carrying on their donkeys worn-out sacks
and old wineskins, cracked and mended.
5 They put worn, patched sandals on their feet and threadbare clothing on their bodies, and their whole supply of bread was dry and moldy. 6 They went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and the men of Israel, "We have come from a distant land; please make a treaty with us."

7 But the men of Israel said to the Hivites,
"Perhaps you dwell near us. How can we make a treaty with you?"

8 "We are your servants," they said to Joshua.

Then Joshua asked them, "Who are you and where have you come from?"

9 "Your servants have come from a very distant land," they replied, "because of the fame of Yahweh your God. For we have heard the reports about Him: all that He did in Egypt, 10 and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan—Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.
11 So the elders and inhabitants of our land
told us, 'Take provisions for your journey;
go to meet them and say to them: We are your servants. Please make a treaty with us.'

12 This bread of ours was warm when we packed it at home on the day we left to come to you. But look, it is now dry and moldy. 13 These wineskins were new when we filled them, but look, they are cracked.
And these clothes and sandals are worn out from our very long journey."

14 Then the men of Israel sampled their provisions but did not seek the counsel of Yahweh. 15 And Joshua made a treaty of peace with them to let them live, and the leaders of the congregation swore an oath
to them.

16 Three days after they had made the treaty with the Gibeonites, the Israelites learned that they were neighbors, living among them. 17 So the Israelites set out and on the third day arrived at their cities—Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim. 18 But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn an oath to them by Yahweh, the God of Israel. And the whole congregation grumbled against the leaders.

19 All the leaders answered, "We have sworn an oath to them by Yahweh, the God of Israel, and now we cannot touch them. 20 This is how we will treat them: We will let them live, so that no wrath will fall on us because of the oath we swore to them." 21 They continued, "Let them live,
but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for the whole congregation." So the leaders kept their promise.

22 Then Joshua summoned the Gibeonites and said, "Why did you deceive us by telling us you live far away from us, when in fact you live among us? 23 Now therefore you are under a curse and will perpetually serve as woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."

24 The Gibeonites answered, "Your servants were told clearly that Yahweh your God had commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land and wipe out all its inhabitants before you. So we greatly feared for our lives because of you, and that is why we have done this. 25 Now we are in your hands. Do to us whatever seems good and right to you."

The steps cut into the rock inside the great pool at el Jib, ancient Gibeon. Photo PikiWiki Israel, CC BY 2.5.

WHAT IT IS

A round shaft cut into solid rock, about 37 feet across and 35 feet deep, with steps spiraling down the side. A tunnel keeps going down to water, about 80 feet below the top. It is at el Jib, a village about six miles northwest of Jerusalem.

HOW OLD IT IS

It was cut in the Iron Age, the time of Israel's judges and kings, about 1100 to 700 BC. That is after Joshua.

HOW WE KNOW IT IS GIBEON

James Pritchard dug here from 1956 to 1962 and found dozens of jar handles with the name Gibeon scratched on them in old Hebrew letters. The site is no longer a guess.

WHAT ELSE WAS FOUND

Dozens of cellars cut into the rock, which Pritchard thought could hold about 25,000 gallons of wine. Gibeon was a wine town.

IN THE BIBLE

The Gibeonites tricked Joshua, chapter 9, and Joshua's long day happened over Gibeon, 10:12. Later Joab and Abner's men met by the pool of Gibeon, 2 Samuel 2:13, and Jeremiah 41:12 mentions the great pool in Gibeon.

THE BIG DEBATE

Pritchard found tombs from Joshua's age but very little of a town. Some say the town of that time has not been found under the village; others see a problem for the story.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The pool is later than Joshua. It shows that Gibeon was real, was where the Bible says, and kept its name for thousands of years.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Five Amorite kings attack Gibeon, and Joshua marches all night to help. God throws hailstones, and Joshua asks the sun to stand still over Gibeon. It does. The five kings hide in a cave and get found. Then Joshua sweeps through the south.

THE DAY THE SUN STOOD STILL

1 Now Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai and devoted it to destruction—doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king—and that the people of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were living near them. 2 So Adoni-zedek and his people were greatly alarmed, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities; it was larger than Ai, and all its men were mighty.

3 Therefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent word to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia
king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying, 4 "Come up and help me. We will attack Gibeon, because they have made peace with Joshua and the Israelites."

5 So the five kings of the Amorites—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon—joined forces and advanced with all their armies. They camped before Gibeon and made war against it.

JOSH 10:1 [FIELD NOTES] In the 1300s BC a king of Jerusalem named Abdi Heba wrote to Pharaoh for help. See the Amarna Letters Field Notes page, p.355.

MIRACLES GOD SPEAKING

6 Then the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal: "Do not abandon your servants. Come quickly and save us! Help us, because all the kings of the Amorites from the hill country have joined forces against us."
7 So Joshua and his whole army, including all the mighty men of valor, came from Gilgal.
8 Yahweh said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for I have delivered them into your hand. Not one of them shall stand against you."
9 After marching all night from Gilgal, Joshua caught them by surprise. 10 And Yahweh threw them into confusion before Israel, who defeated them in a great slaughter at Gibeon, pursued them along the ascent to Beth-horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah. 11
As they fled before Israel along the descent from Beth-horon to Azekah, Yahweh cast down on them large hailstones from the sky, and more of them were killed by the hailstones than by the swords of the Israelites.
12 On the day that Yahweh gave the Amorites over to the Israelites, Joshua spoke to Yahweh in the presence of Israel:

"O sun, stand still over Gibeon, O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon."

13 So the sun stood still and the moon stopped until the nation took vengeance
upon its enemies.
Is this not written in the Book of Jashar?

"So the sun stopped
in the middle of the sky
and delayed going down
about a full day."

14 There has been no day like it before or since, when Yahweh listened to the voice of a man, because Yahweh fought for Israel.
15 Then Joshua returned with all Israel to
the camp at Gilgal.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DID THE SUN STAND STILL?

Joshua's Long Day

JOSHUA 10:12 TO 14 · HABAKKUK 3:11 · ISAIAH 38:8

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

During the battle for Gibeon, Joshua said, O sun, stand still over Gibeon, O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon. The sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed going down about a full day. There has been no day like it, before or since, 10:12 to 14. Habakkuk 3:11 remembers it too.

WHERE IT HAPPENED

Joshua had marched all night from Gilgal and chased the five kings down the pass of Beth Horon, 10:9 to 11. The sun was over Gibeon in the east and the moon over the Valley of Aijalon in the west. Isaiah 28:21 remembers what God did in the Valley of Gibeon.

THE HEBREW WORDS

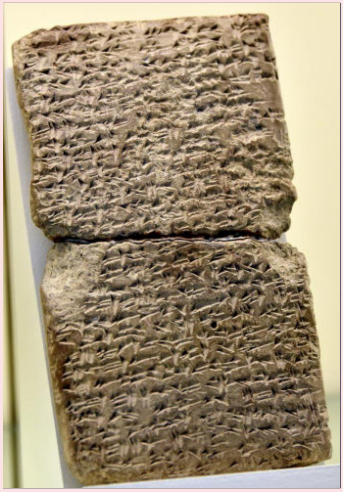
The word for stand still, dom, usually means be silent or be still. In 10:13 the sun stood, amad. Those words are why people read the verse different ways.

A POEM INSIDE THE STORY

The lines Joshua spoke are a poem, and 10:13 says they were written in the Book of Jashar, a lost book of songs. The prose around them says the day was longer than any other.

THE GALILEO FIGHT

Martin Luther, at his dinner table in 1539, laughed off Copernicus' new idea that the earth moves around the sun. Joshua told the sun to stand still, he said, not the earth. Galileo answered with this very verse in his 1615 Letter to the Grand Duchess Christina. The Catholic Church condemned his view in 1616 and put him on trial in 1633.



THE NASA STORY

WHAT IT IS

About 380 clay tablets, mostly letters, written in cuneiform to Pharaohs Amenhotep III and Akhenaten. Many come from kings of Canaanite cities that Joshua names: Jerusalem, Hazor, Gezer, Lachish and Shechem.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 1360 to 1335 BC. That is after Joshua by the early date and before him by the late date.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In 1887 a local woman digging at Tell el Amarna, Akhenaten's capital in Egypt, found them. They are now in museums in Berlin, London, Cairo and elsewhere.

WHAT THEY SAY

The kings fight each other and beg Pharaoh for soldiers. Abdi Heba of Jerusalem writes that the Habiru are plundering all the king's lands, and that the land of Shechem was handed to the Habiru. Joshua 10 says another king of Jerusalem, Adoni Zedek, led five kings against Israel.

WHO WERE THE HABIRU?

The word was used for outsiders, raiders and hired soldiers all over the Near East for hundreds of years, from Syria to Egypt. It sounds like Hebrew, ivri.

THE BIG DEBATE

Some who hold the early date think some Habiru were the Israelites, or that the letters show Canaan in chaos after Joshua. Most scholars say Habiru was a social group, not a people, though the Hebrews may have been counted among them. The letters never name Israel or Joshua.

A SHECHEM CLUE

Joshua never tells of a battle for Shechem, yet Israel gathers at Mount Ebal beside Shechem in 8:30 to 35, and at Shechem itself in 24:1. The Amarna letters show Shechem already working with the Habiru, which some find interesting.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

They do not prove the conquest. They show what Canaan was like: many small kings, walled cities, and no help coming from Egypt.

JOSHUA 10:11 TO 14 · 2 KINGS 20:9 TO 11

VIEW 1: THE EARTH STOPPED

God slowed or stopped the earth's turning and held everything else in place.

~~The God who made the sun can stop it.~~

2 Kings 20:9 to 11 tells of a shadow going backward.

VIEW 2: THE LIGHT STAYED
God did not stop the earth but made the light last, perhaps by bending sunlight, so the land stayed bright for the battle.
VIEW 3: STOP SHINING
Since dom can mean be silent, some say Joshua asked the sun to stop beating down on his tired men, and God sent the hailstorm of 10:11 to cool and darken the sky.
VIEW 4: AN ECLIPSE
In 2017 Colin Humphreys and Graeme Waddington argued that it was an eclipse of the sun visible in Canaan on October 30, 1207 BC. Back in 1918 Robert Dick Wilson of Princeton argued that the Hebrew words meant the sun was eclipsed. Others say an eclipse does not fit a day that lasted longer.
VIEW 5: A SIGN IN THE SKY
John Walton and others point out that ancient peoples read the sun and moon as signs. They think Joshua asked for the sun and moon to be in a position that meant victory for Israel and doom for the enemy.
VIEW 6: POETIC LANGUAGE
Some read it as poetry from the Book of Jashar, the way Judges 5:20 says the stars fought from heaven. The point is that God fought for Israel.
WHAT ALL AGREE ON
Something happened that day that had never happened before. Yahweh listened to a man, because Yahweh fought for Israel, 10:14. And the hailstones killed more than the swords did, 10:11.

THE VICTORY AT MAKKEDAH

16 Now the five kings had fled and hidden in the cave at Makkedah. 17 And Joshua was informed: "The five kings have been found; they are hiding in the cave at Makkedah."
18 So Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and post men there to guard them. 19 But you, do not stop there. Pursue your enemies and attack them from behind. Do not let them reach their cities, for Yahweh your God has delivered them into your hand."
20 So Joshua and the Israelites continued to inflict a terrible slaughter until they had finished them off, and the remaining survivors retreated to the fortified cities. 21
The whole army returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah, and no one dared to utter a word against the Israelites.
22 Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me." 23 So they brought the five kings out of the cave—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon.
24 When they had brought the kings to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the army commanders who had accompanied him, "Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings."
So the commanders came forward and put their feet on their necks.
25 "Do not be afraid or discouraged," Joshua said. "Be strong and courageous,
for Yahweh will do this to all the enemies
you fight."
26 After this, Joshua struck down and killed the kings, and he hung their bodies on five trees and left them there until evening. 27 At sunset Joshua ordered that they be taken down from the trees and thrown into the cave in which they had hidden. Then large stones were placed against the mouth of the cave, and the stones are there to this day.
28 On that day Joshua captured Makkedah
and put it to the sword, along with its king.
He devoted to destruction everyone in the city, leaving no survivors. So he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

CONQUEST OF THE SOUTHERN CITIES

29 Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against Libnah. 30 And Yahweh also delivered that city and its king into the hand of Israel, and Joshua put all the people to the sword, leaving no survivors.
And he did to the king of Libnah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE ARCHAEOLOGY GOD SPEAKING

31 And Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Libnah to Lachish. They laid siege to it and fought against it. 32 And Yahweh delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, and Joshua captured it on the second day. He put all the people to the sword, just as he had done to Libnah.
33 At that time Horam king of Gezer went to help Lachish, but Joshua struck him down along with his people, leaving no survivors.
34 So Joshua moved on from Lachish to Eglon, and all Israel with him. They laid siege to it and fought against it. 35 That day they captured Eglon and put it to the sword, and Joshua devoted to destruction everyone in the city, just as he had done to Lachish.
36 Then Joshua and all Israel with him
went up from Eglon to Hebron and fought against it. 37 They captured it and put to the sword its king, all its villages, and all the people. Joshua left no survivors, just as he had done at Eglon; he devoted to destruction Hebron and everyone in it.
38 Finally Joshua and all Israel with him turned toward Debir and fought against it.
39 And they captured Debir, its king, and all its villages. They put them to the sword and devoted to destruction everyone in the city, leaving no survivors. Joshua did to Debir and its king as he had done to Hebron and as he had done to Libnah and its king.
40 So Joshua conquered the whole region—the hill country, the Negev, the foothills, and the slopes, together with all their kings—leaving no survivors. He devoted to destruction everything that breathed, just as Yahweh, the God of Israel, had commanded. 41 Joshua conquered the area from Kadesh-barnea to Gaza, and the whole region of Goshen as far as Gibeon.
42 And because Yahweh, the God of Israel, fought for Israel, Joshua captured all these kings and their land in one campaign. 43 Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

The kings of the north gather an army like the sand on the seashore, with horses and chariots. God says, Do not be afraid. Joshua wins, burns Hazor, the head of all those kingdoms, and takes the land. And the land had rest from war.

CONQUEST OF THE NORTHERN CITIES

1 Now when Jabin king of Hazor heard about these things, he sent word to Jobab
king of Madon; to the kings of Shimron and Achshaph; 2 to the kings of the north in the mountains, in the Arabah south of Chinnereth, in the foothills, and in Naphoth-dor to the west; 3 to the Canaanites in the east and west; to the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, and Jebusites in the hill country; and to the Hivites at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mizpah.
4 So these kings came out with all their armies, a multitude as numerous as the sand on the seashore, along with a great number of horses and chariots. 5 All these kings joined forces and encamped at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.
6 Then Yahweh said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for by this time tomorrow I will deliver all of them slain before Israel.
You are to hamstring their horses and burn up their chariots."
7 So by the waters of Merom, Joshua and his whole army came upon them suddenly and attacked them, 8 and Yahweh delivered them into the hand of Israel, who struck them down and pursued them all the way to Greater Sidon and Misrephothmaim, and eastward as far as the Valley of Mizpeh. They struck them down, leaving no survivors. 9 Joshua treated them as Yahweh had told him; he hamstrung their horses and burned up their chariots.
10 At that time Joshua turned back and captured Hazor and put its king to the sword, because Hazor was formerly the head of all these kingdoms. 11 The Israelites put everyone in Hazor to the sword, devoting them to destruction. Nothing that breathed remained, and Joshua burned down Hazor itself.

12 Joshua captured all these kings and their cities and put them to the sword. He devoted them to destruction, as Moses Yahweh's servant had commanded. 13 Yet Israel did not burn any of the cities built on their mounds, except Hazor, which Joshua burned.

14 The Israelites took for themselves all the plunder and livestock of these cities, but they put all the people to the sword until they had completely destroyed them, not sparing anyone who breathed. 15 As Yahweh had commanded His servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua. That is what Joshua did, leaving nothing undone of all that Yahweh had commanded Moses.

JOSHUA TAKES THE WHOLE LAND

16 So Joshua took this entire region: the hill country, all the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the western foothills, the Arabah, and the mountains of Israel and their foothills, 17 from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, as far as Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon at the foot of Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and struck them down, putting them to death.

18 Joshua waged war against all these kings for a long period of time. 19 No city made peace with the Israelites except the Hivites living in Gibeon; all others were taken in battle. 20 For it was of Yahweh to harden their hearts to engage Israel in battle, so that they would be set apart for destruction and would receive no mercy, being annihilated as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

21 At that time Joshua proceeded to eliminate the Anakim from the hill country of Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah and of Israel. Joshua devoted them to destruction, along with their cities. 22 No Anakim were left in the land of the Israelites; only in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod did any survive.

23 So Joshua took the entire land, in keeping with all that Yahweh had spoken to Moses. And Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to the allotments to their tribes. Then the land had rest from war.

WHAT IT IS

Tel Hazor, north of the Sea of Galilee, was the biggest Canaanite city in the land, about 200 acres. Joshua 11:10 calls it the head of all those kingdoms, and 11:13 says it was the only northern city Joshua burned.

HOW OLD IT IS

The great Canaanite city lasted from about 1750 BC until a huge fire in the 1200s BC. Hazor's king is even named in letters from the 1700s BC found at Mari in Syria, and in letters from the 1300s BC found in Egypt.

WHAT WAS FOUND

JOSH 11:13 [NOTE] ONLY THREE CITIES BURNED. The book names only three cities Joshua burned: Jericho, 6:24, Ai, 8:28, and Hazor, 11:13. Israel moved into the other cities, Deuteronomy 6:10 to 11. That matters for archaeology. See When Was the Conquest? in the Big Question pages, p.359.

JOSH 11:20 [HEART] God hardened the hearts of the Canaanite kings so they would fight. Some see God confirming a choice they had already made, like Pharaoh's; others see His judgment at work.

basalt slabs cracked and the mudbrick turned partly to glass. Statues of gods and kings were found with their heads and hands cut off, as if the attackers hated the city's religion.

THE BIG DEBATE

Ben Tor thinks the Israelites burned it, and points to the broken idols, Deuteronomy 7:5. Others blame the Egyptians, the Sea Peoples, or a revolt of Hazor's own poor. Those who hold the early date say this 1200s fire was in Deborah's time, Judges 4, and look for Joshua's fire in an earlier layer.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No inscription says who lit the fire. It does show that Hazor was a great city, burned, with its idols smashed, as Joshua 11 describes.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHEN WAS THE CONQUEST?

The Early Date and the Late Date

1 KINGS 6:1 · JUDGES 11:26 · EXODUS 1:11 · JOSHUA 11:13

THE EARLY DATE

1 Kings 6:1 says Solomon began the temple 480 years after Israel left Egypt. Solomon's fourth year was about 966 BC, so the Exodus was about 1446 BC and the Jordan crossing about 1406 BC. Judges 11:26 says Israel had lived in the land for three hundred years by Jephthah's time. John Garstang's Jericho findings in the 1930s fit this date.

THE LATE DATE

Exodus 1:11 says Israel built the city of Rameses, a name tied to pharaohs of the 1200s BC. The Merneptah Stele, about 1208 BC, already names Israel in Canaan. Several cities burned in the 1200s BC. William Albright and many others put the conquest about 1230 BC and read the 480 years as twelve generations of forty years.

THE EXODUS QUESTION

Both dates depend on when the Exodus happened. See When Was the Exodus? in Exodus, p.122, and the Merneptah Stele Field Notes page there, p.138.

A KEY VERSE FOR ARCHAEOLOGY

The book names only three cities that Joshua burned: Jericho, 6:24, Ai, 8:28, and Hazor, 11:13. The rest they moved into. So most cities would not show a burn layer from Joshua at all, and digging for burned cities everywhere misreads the book.

THE BIBLE'S OWN PICTURE

Joshua 11:23 says Joshua took the whole land, but 13:1 says very much land remained, and Judges 1 lists towns never taken. The book describes armies beaten and kings killed, followed by a long, slow settling.

Every View

JOSHUA 11:13 · 13:1 · 24:13 · JUDGES 1

VIEW 1: A REAL CONQUEST

Joshua happened much as written. Early date supporters like Bryant Wood point to Jericho, Khirbet el Maqatir and an earlier burn at Hazor. Late date supporters, like Albright and G. Ernest Wright in the mid 1900s, pointed to cities burned in the 1200s BC.

VIEW 2: A SLOW MOVE IN

Albrecht Alt in 1925 and Martin Noth said Israel's tribes drifted into the empty hill country over many years, mostly in peace, and the battle stories came later.

VIEW 3: A REVOLT

George Mendenhall in 1962 and Norman Gottwald in 1979 said poor Canaanite farmers rose up against their city kings and joined a new faith in Yahweh.

VIEW 4: ISRAEL CAME FROM CANAAN

Israel Finkelstein, William Dever and others say Israel grew up inside Canaan. Surveys found about 250 new villages in the hill country about 1200 to 1000 BC, mostly without pig bones, unlike their neighbors. They see these villages as the first Israelites.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

Critics say Jericho and Ai were empty in Joshua's day. Supporters answer that the dates or the sites are wrong, that 11:13 means few burn layers, and that the villages fit people who moved in after the war.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Most scholars agree that by about 1200 BC a people called Israel lived in the hill country of Canaan, worshiped a God named Yahweh, and remembered that

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

He gave them the land. Joshua 24:13 says it plainly: a land you did not work for, cities you did not build.

A list of the kings Israel defeated: two east of the Jordan under Moses and thirty one west of it under Joshua. It reads like a scoreboard. God kept every promise, and somebody wrote it down.

THE KINGS DEFEATED EAST OF THE JORDAN

1 Now these are the kings of the land whom the Israelites struck down and whose lands they took beyond the Jordan to the east, from the Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon, including all the Arabah
eastward:

2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley, along the middle of the valley, up to the Jabbok River (the border of the Ammonites), that is, half of Gilead, 3 as well as the Arabah east of the Sea of Chinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), eastward through Beth-jeshimoth, and southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

4 And Og king of Bashan, one of the remnant of the Rephaim, who lived in Ashtaroth and Edrei. 5 He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, all of Bashan up to the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

6 Moses, the servant of Yahweh, and the Israelites had struck them down and given their land as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

THE INHERITANCE EAST OF THE JORDAN // NUMBERS 32:1–42; DEUTERONOMY 3:12–22

8 The other half of Manasseh, along with the Reubenites and Gadites, had received the inheritance Moses had given them beyond the Jordan to the east, just as Moses the servant of Yahweh had assigned to them:

9 The area from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley, along with the city in the middle of the valley, the whole plateau of Medeba as far as Dibon, 10 and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the Ammonites;
11 also Gilead and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites, all of Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salecah— 12 the whole kingdom of Og in Bashan, who had reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei and had remained as a remnant of the Rephaim.
Moses had struck them down and dispossessed them, 13 but the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites. So Geshur and Maacath dwell among the Israelites to this day.

14 To the tribe of Levi, however, Moses had given no inheritance. The food offerings to Yahweh, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, just as He had promised them.

REUBEN'S INHERITANCE

15 This is what Moses had given to the clans of the tribe of Reuben:

16 The territory from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley, along with the city in the middle of the valley, to the whole plateau beyond Medeba, 17 to Heshbon and all its cities on the plateau, including Dibon, Bamoth-baal, Beth-baal-meon, 18 Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, 19 Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth-shahar on the hill in the valley, 20 Beth-peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth— 21 all the cities of the plateau and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon until Moses killed him and the chiefs of Midian (Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba), the princes of Sihon who lived in the land.
22 The Israelites also killed the diviner Balaam son of Beor along with the others they put to the sword. 23 And the border of the Reubenites was the bank of the Jordan.

This was the inheritance of the clans of the Reubenites, including the cities and villages.

GAD'S INHERITANCE

24 This is what Moses had given to the clans of the tribe of Gad:

25 The territory of Jazer, all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites as far as Aroer, near Rabbah;
26 the territory from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir;

28 This was the inheritance of the clans of the Gadites, including the cities and villages.

MANASSEH'S EASTERN INHERITANCE

29 This is what Moses had given to the clans of the half-tribe of Manasseh, that is, to half the tribe of the descendants of Manasseh:

30 The territory from Mahanaim through all Bashan—all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, including all the towns of Jair that are in Bashan, sixty cities; 31 half of Gilead; and Ashtaroth and Edrei, the royal cities of Og in Bashan.

All this was for the clans of the descendants of Machir son of Manasseh, that is, half of the descendants of Machir.

32 These were the portions Moses had given them on the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan, east of Jericho.

33 To the tribe of Levi, however, Moses had given no inheritance. Yahweh, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, just as He had promised them.

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Caleb is eighty five and still strong. He reminds Joshua that forty five years ago he gave an honest report, and Moses promised him Hebron. Give me this hill country, he says, giants and all. Retirement is for other people.

LAND DIVISION WEST OF THE JORDAN

1 Now these are the portions that the Israelites inherited in the land of Canaan, as distributed by Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the tribes of Israel. 2 Their inheritance was assigned by lot for the nine and a half tribes, as Yahweh had commanded through Moses. 3 For Moses had given the inheritance east of the Jordan to the other two and a half tribes. But he granted no inheritance among them to the Levites.

4 The descendants of Joseph became two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. And no portion of the land was given to the Levites, except for cities in which to live, along with pasturelands for their flocks and herds.

5 So the Israelites did as Yahweh had commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

CALEB REQUESTS HEBRON

6 Then the sons of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what Yahweh said to Moses the man of God at Kadesh-barnea about you and me. 7 I was forty years old when Moses the servant of Yahweh sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back to him an honest report.

8 Although my brothers who went with me made the hearts of the people melt with fear, I remained loyal to Yahweh my God. 9 On that day Moses swore to me, saying, 'Surely the land on which you have set foot will be an inheritance to you and your children forever, because you have wholly followed Yahweh my God.'

10 Now behold, as Yahweh promised, He has kept me alive these forty-five years since He spoke this word to Moses, while Israel wandered in the wilderness. So here I am today, eighty-five years old, 11 still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me out. As my strength was then, so it is now for war, for going out, and for coming in.

12 Now therefore give me this hill country that Yahweh promised me on that day, for you yourself heard then that the Anakim were there, with great and fortified cities. Perhaps with Yahweh's help I will drive them out, as Yahweh has spoken."

13 Then Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron as his inheritance. 14 Therefore Hebron belongs to

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE DEMONIC

Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite as an inheritance to this day, because he wholly followed Yahweh, the God of Israel. 15 (Hebron used to be called Kiriath-arba, after Arba, the greatest man among the Anakim.)

Then the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Judah's borders, town by town. Caleb drives out three sons of Anak and offers his daughter Achsah to the man who takes Kiriath Sepher. Achsah asks her dad for springs of water, and gets two. But Judah could not drive the Jebusites out of Jerusalem.

JUDAH'S INHERITANCE

1 Now the allotment for the clans of the tribe of Judah extended to the border of Edom, to the Wilderness of Zin at the extreme southern boundary:

2 Their southern border started at the bay
on the southern tip of the Salt Sea, 3 proceeded south of the Ascent of Akrabbim, continued on to Zin, went over to the south of Kadesh-barnea, ran past Hezron up to Addar, and curved toward Karka. 4 It proceeded to Azmon, joined the Brook of Egypt, and ended at the Sea. This was their southern border.

5 The eastern border was the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan.

The northern border started from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan, 6 went up to Beth-hoglah, proceeded north of Beth-arabah, and went up to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben. 7
Then the border went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, turning north to Gilgal, which faces the Ascent of Ad-ummim south of the ravine. It continued along the waters of En-shemesh and came out at En-rogel. 8 From there the border went up the Valley of Benhinnom along the southern slope of the Jebusites (that is, Jerusalem) and ascended to the top of the hill that faces the Valley of Hinnom on the west, at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim. 9 From the hilltop the border curved to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, proceeded to the cities of Mount Ephron, and then bent around toward Baalah (that is, Kiriathjearim). 10 The border curled westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, ran along the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon), went down to Bethshemesh, and crossed to Timnah. 11
Then it went out to the northern slope of Ekron, curved toward Shikkeron, proceeded to Mount Baalah, went on to Jabneel, and ended at the Sea.

12 And the western border was the coastline of the Great Sea.

These are the boundaries around the clans of the descendants of Judah.

CALEB'S PORTION AND CONQUEST // JUDGES 1:8–26

13 According to Yahweh's command to him, Joshua gave Caleb son of Jephunneh a portion among the sons of Judah—Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron.
(Arba was the forefather of Anak.) 14 And Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak—the descendants of Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

15 From there he marched against the inhabitants of Debir (formerly known as Kiriath-sepher). 16 And Caleb said, "To the man who strikes down Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will give my daughter Acsah
in marriage." 17 So Othniel son of Caleb's brother Kenaz captured the city, and Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him in marriage.

18 One day Acsah came to Othniel and urged him to ask her father for a field.
When she got off her donkey, Caleb
asked her, "What do you desire?"

19 "Give me a blessing," she answered.
"Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me springs of water as well."
So Caleb gave her both the upper and lower springs.

THE CITIES OF JUDAH

20 This is the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Judah. 21 These were the

JOSH 15:13 [DEMONIC] Caleb drives out the three sons of Anak from Hebron southernmost cities of the tribe of Judah in the Negev toward the border of Edom:

Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, 22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, 23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, 24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, 25 Hazor-hadattah, Kerioth-hezron (that is, Hazor), 26 Amam, Shema, Moladah, 27 Hazar-gaddah, Heshmon, Beth-pelet, 28 Hazar-shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah, 29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem, 30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah, 31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, 32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon—twenty-nine cities in all, along with their villages.

33 These were in the foothills:

Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, 34 Zanoah, Engannim, Tappuah, Enam, 35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, 36 Shaaraim, Adithaim, and Gederah (or Gederothaim)—fourteen cities, along with their villages.

37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal-gad, 38 Dilan, Mizpeh, Joktheel, 39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, 40 Cabbon, Lahmas, Chitlish, 41 Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah—sixteen cities, along with their villages.

42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan, 43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, 44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah—nine cities, along with their villages.

45 Ekron, with its towns and villages; 46 from Ekron to the sea, all the cities near Ashdod, along with their villages; 47 Ashdod, with its towns and villages; Gaza, with its towns and villages, as far as the Brook of Egypt and the coastline of the Great Sea.

48 These were in the hill country:

Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, 49 Dannah, Kiriath-sannah (that is, Debir), 50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, 51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh—eleven cities, along with their villages.

52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan, 53 Janim, Beth-tappuah, Aphekah, 54 Humtah, Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior—nine cities, along with their villages.

55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, 56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, 57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah—ten cities, along with their villages.

58 Halhul, Beth-zur, Gedor, 59 Maarath, Beth-anoth, and Eltekon—six cities, along with their villages.

60 Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), and Rabbah—two cities, along with their villages.

61 These were in the wilderness:

Beth-arabah, Middin, Secacah, 62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En-gedi—six cities, along with their villages.

63 But the descendants of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. So to this day the Jebusites live there among the descendants of Judah.

16

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

The land for Joseph's sons, starting with Ephraim. Ephraim does not drive out the Canaanites of Gezer, who end up as forced labor. Partial obedience is becoming a pattern.

EPHRAIM'S INHERITANCE

1 The allotment for the descendants of Joseph extended from the Jordan at Jericho to the waters of Jericho on the east, through the wilderness that goes up from Jericho into the hill country of Bethel. 2 It went on from Bethel (that is, Luz) and proceeded to the border of the Archites in Ataroth. 3 Then it descended westward to the border of the Japhletites as far as the border of Lower Beth-horon and on to Gezer, and it ended at the Sea.

4 So Ephraim and Manasseh, the sons of Joseph, received their inheritance. 5 This was the territory of the descendants of Ephraim by their clans:

The border of their inheritance went from Ataroth-addar in the east to Upper Beth-horon 6 and out toward the Sea. From Michmethath on the north it turned eastward toward Taanath-shiloh and passed by it to Janoah on the east. 7 From Janoah it went down to Ataroth and Naarah, and then reached Jericho and came out at the Jordan. 8 From Tappuah the border went JOSH 15:63 [NOTE] Jerusalem stayed a Jebusite city until King David took it centuries later, 2 Samuel 5:6 to 7.

DEMONIC

westward to the Brook of Kanah and ended at the Sea.

This was the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Ephraim, [9] along with all the cities and villages set apart for the descendants of Ephraim within the inheritance of Manasseh. [10] But they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer. So the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites to this day, but they are forced laborers.

17

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

Half of Manasseh gets its land, and the daughters of Zelophehad claim the inheritance Moses promised them. The tribe of Joseph complains that it is too crowded. Joshua says, Then go clear the forest. You are many, you can handle it.

MANASSEH'S WESTERN INHERITANCE

[1] Now this was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh as Joseph's firstborn son, namely for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh and father of the Gileadites, who had received Gilead and Bashan because Machir was a man of war. [2] So this allotment was for the rest of the descendants of Manasseh—the clans of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. These are the other male descendants of the clans of Manasseh son of Joseph.

[3] But Zelophehad son of Hepher (the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh) had no sons but only daughters. These are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. [4] They approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders, and said, "Yahweh commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers."

So Joshua gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers, in keeping with the command of Yahweh. [5] Thus ten shares fell to Manasseh, in addition to the land of Gilead and Bashan beyond the Jordan, [6] because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons. And the land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh.

[7] Now the border of Manasseh went from Asher to Michmethath near Shechem, then southward to include the inhabitants of En-tappuah. [8] The region of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah itself, on the border of Manasseh, belonged to Ephraim. [9] From there the border continued southward to the Brook of Kanah. There were cities belonging to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh, but the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook and ended at the Sea. [10] Ephraim's territory was to the south, and Manasseh's was to the north, having the Sea as its border and adjoining Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

[11] Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh was assigned Beth-shean, Ibleam, Dor (that is, Naphath), Endor, Taanach, and Megiddo, each with their surrounding settlements.

[12] But the descendants of Manasseh were unable to occupy these cities, because the Canaanites were determined to stay in this land. [13] However, when the Israelites grew stronger, they put the Canaanites to forced labor; but they failed to drive them out completely.

[14] Then the sons of Joseph said to Joshua, "Why have you given us only one portion as an inheritance? We have many people, because Yahweh has blessed us abundantly."

[15] Joshua answered them, "If you have so many people that the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, go to the forest and clear for yourself an area in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim."

[16] "The hill country is not enough for us," they replied, "and all the Canaanites who live in the valley have iron chariots, both in Beth-shean with its towns and in the Valley of Jezreel."

[17] So Joshua said to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—"You have many people and great strength. You shall not have just one allotment, [18] because the hill country will be yours as well. It is a forest; clear it, and its farthest limits will be yours. Although the Canaanites have iron chariots and although they are strong, you can drive them out."

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh. Seven tribes still have no land, and Joshua asks, How long will you wait? He sends surveyors to map the land, then casts lots before Yahweh. Benjamin's land lands between Judah and Joseph.

THE REMAINDER DIVIDED

1 Then the whole congregation of Israel assembled at Shiloh and set up the Tent of Meeting there. And though the land was subdued before them, 2 there were still seven tribes of Israel who had not yet received their inheritance.

3 So Joshua said to the Israelites, "How long will you put off entering and possessing the land that Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has given you? 4 Appoint three men from each tribe, and I will send them out to survey the land and map it out, according to the inheritance of each.
Then they will return to me 5 and divide the land into seven portions. Judah shall remain in their territory in the south, and the house of Joseph shall remain in their territory in the north. 6 When you have mapped out the seven portions of land and brought it to me, I will cast lots for you here in the presence of Yahweh our God.

7 The Levites, however, have no portion among you, because their inheritance is the priesthood of Yahweh. And Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have already received the inheritance that Moses the servant of Yahweh gave them
beyond the Jordan to the east."

8 As the men got up to go out, Joshua commanded them to map out the land, saying, "Go and survey the land, map it out, and return to me. Then I will cast lots for you here in Shiloh in the presence of Yahweh."

9 So the men departed and went throughout the land, mapping it city by city into seven portions. Then they returned with the document to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh.

10 And Joshua cast lots for them in the presence of Yahweh at Shiloh, where he distributed the land to the Israelites according to their divisions.

BENJAMIN'S INHERITANCE

11 The first lot came up for the clans of the tribe of Benjamin. Their allotted territory lay between the tribes of Judah and Joseph:

12 On the north side their border began at the Jordan, went up past the northern slope of Jericho, headed west through the hill country, and came out at the wilderness of Beth-aven. 13 From there the border crossed over to the southern slope of Luz (that is, Bethel) and went down to Ataroth-addar on the hill south of Lower Beth-horon.

14 On the west side the border curved southward from the hill facing Bethhoron on the south and came out at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a city of the sons of Judah. This was the western side.

15 On the south side the border began at the outskirts of Kiriath-jearim and extended westward to the spring at the Waters of Nephtoah. 16 Then it went down to the foot of the hill that faces
the Valley of Ben-hinnom at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim and ran down the Valley of Hinnom toward the southern slope of the Jebusites and downward to En-rogel. 17 From there it curved northward and proceeded to En-shemesh and on to Geliloth facing the Ascent of Adum-mim, and continued down to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben. 18 Then it went on to the northern slope of Beth-arabah and went down into the valley.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE

19 The border continued to the northern slope of Beth-hoglah and came out at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the mouth of the Jordan. This was the southern border.
20 On the east side the border was the Jordan.

These were the borders around the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Benjamin.

21 These were the cities of the clans of the tribe of Benjamin:

Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-keziz, 22 Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, 23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, 24 Chephar-ammoni, Ophni, and Geba—twelve cities, along with their villages.

25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, 26 Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, 27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, 28 Zelah, Haeleph, Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriathjearim—fourteen cities, along with their villages.

This was the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Benjamin.

19

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Simeon, Zebulun, Issachar, Asher, Naphtali and Dan get their land. Dan loses part of its land and has to go north to find more. Last of all, Israel gives Joshua the town he asks for. The leader gets his share after everyone else.

SIMEON'S INHERITANCE

1 The second lot came out for the clans of the tribe of Simeon:

Their inheritance lay within the territory of Judah 2 and included Beersheba (or Sheba), Moladah, 3 Hazar-shual, Balah, Ezem, 4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, 5 Ziklag, Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susah, 6 Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen—thirteen cities, along with their villages.

7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan—four cities, along with their villages, 8 and all the villages surrounding these cities as far as Baalath-beer (Ramah of the Negev).

This was the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Simeon. 9 The inheritance of the Simeonites was taken from the territory of Judah, because the share for Judah's descendants was too large for them. So the Simeonites received an inheritance within Judah's portion.

ZEBULUN'S INHERITANCE

10 The third lot came up for the clans of the tribe of Zebulun:

The border of their inheritance stretched as far as Sarid. 11 It went up westward to Maralah, reached Dabbesheth, and met the brook east of Jokneam. 12 From Sarid it turned eastward along the border of Chisloth-tabor and went on to Daberath and up to Japhia. 13 From there it crossed eastward to Gath-hepher and to Eth-kazin; it extended to Rimmon and curved around toward Neah. 14 Then the border circled around the north side of Neah to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah-el. 15 It also included Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem. There were twelve cities, along with their villages.

16 This was the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Zebulun, including these cities and their villages.

ISSACHAR'S INHERITANCE

17 The fourth lot came out for the clans of the tribe of Issachar:

18 Their territory included Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem, 19 Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, 20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, 21 Remeth, En-gannim, En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez. 22 The border reached Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth-shemesh, and ended at the Jordan. There were sixteen cities, along with their villages.

23 This was the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Issachar, including these cities and their villages.

ASHER'S INHERITANCE

24 The fifth lot came out for the clans of the tribe of Asher:

25 Their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph, 26 Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal. On the west the border touched Carmel and Shihor-libnath, 27 then turned eastward toward Beth-dagon, touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah-el, and went north to Beth-emek and Neiel, passing Cabul on the left. 28 It went on to Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon. 29 The border then turned back toward Ramah as far as the fortified city of Tyre, turned toward Hosah, and came out at the Sea in the region of Achzib, 30 Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob. There were twenty-two cities, along with their villages.

31 This was the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Asher, including these cities and their villages.

NAPHTALI'S INHERITANCE

32 The sixth lot came out for the clans of the tribe of Naphtali:

33 Their border started at Heleph and the great tree of Zaanannim, passing Adami-nekeb and Jabneel as far as Lakkum and ending at the Jordan. 34 Then the border turned westward to Aznoth-tabor and ran from there to Hukkok, touching Zebulun on the south side, Asher on the west, and Judah at the Jordan on the east. 35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, 36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, 37 Kedesh, Edrei, En-hazor, 38 Iron, Migdal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh. There were nineteen cities, along with their villages.

39 This was the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Naphtali, including these cities and their villages.

DAN'S INHERITANCE

40 The seventh lot came out for the clans of the tribe of Dan:

41 The territory of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir-shemesh, 42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah, 43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron, 44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, 45 Jehud, Bene-berak, Gath-rimmon, 46 Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, including the territory across from Joppa.

47 (Later, when the territory of the Danites was lost to them, they went up and fought against Leshem, captured it, and put it to the sword. So they took possession of Leshem, settled there, and renamed it after their father Dan.)

48 This was the inheritance of the clans of the tribe of Dan, including these cities and their villages.

JOSHUA'S INHERITANCE

49 When they had finished distributing the land into its territories, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun an inheritance among them, 50 as Yahweh had commanded. They gave him the city of Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim, as he requested. He rebuilt the city and settled in it.

51 These are the inheritances that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families distributed by lot to the tribes of Israel at Shiloh before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. So they finished dividing up the land.

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

Six cities of refuge, three on each side of the Jordan, where someone who kills a person by accident can run and be safe until a fair trial. God built mercy into the map.

SIX CITIES OF REFUGE // NUMBERS 35:9–34; DEUTERONOMY 4:41–43; DEUTERONOMY 19:1–14

1 Then Yahweh said to Joshua, 2 "Tell the Israelites to designate the cities of refuge, as I instructed you through Moses, 3 so that anyone who kills another unintentionally or accidentally may flee there. These will be your refuge from the avenger of blood. 4 When someone flees to one of these cities, stands at the entrance of the city gate, and states his case before its elders, they are to bring him into the city and give him a place to live among them.

5 Now if the avenger of blood pursues him, they must not surrender the manslayer into his hand, because that man killed his neighbor accidentally without prior malice. 6 He is to stay in that city until he stands trial before the assembly and until the death of the high priest serving at that time. Then the manslayer may return to his own home in the city from which he fled."

JOSH 20:2 [NOTE] God first gave this law to Moses, Numbers 35 and Deuteronomy 19. Now it goes on the map.

7 So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

8 And beyond the Jordan, east of Jericho, they designated Bezer on the wilderness plateau from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These are the cities appointed for all the Israelites and foreigners among them, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood prior to standing trial before the assembly.

21

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

The Levites get forty eight towns with pasturelands, spread through every tribe. Then the big summary: Yahweh gave Israel all the land He promised. Not one of His good promises failed. Every one came true.

FORTY-EIGHT CITIES FOR THE LEVITES // NUMBERS 35:1–8; 1 CHRONICLES 6:54–81

1 Now the family heads of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the other tribes of Israel 2 at Shiloh in the land of Canaan and said to them, "Yahweh commanded through Moses that we be given cities in which to live, together with pasturelands for our livestock."

3 So by the command of Yahweh, the Israelites gave the Levites these cities and their pasturelands out of their own inheritance:

4 The first lot came out for the Kohathite clans. The Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest received thirteen cities by lot from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.

5 The remaining descendants of Kohath received ten cities by lot from the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

6 The descendants of Gershon received thirteen cities by lot from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

7 And the descendants of Merari received twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

8 So the Israelites allotted to the Levites these cities, together with their pasturelands, as Yahweh had commanded through Moses.

9 From the tribes of Judah and Simeon, they designated these cities by name 10 to the descendants of Aaron from the Kohathite clans of the Levites, because the first lot fell to them:

11 They gave them Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), with its surrounding pasturelands, in the hill country of Judah. (Arba was the father of Anak.) 12 But they had given the fields and villages around the city to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession.

13 So to the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave these cities, together with their pasturelands: Hebron, a city of refuge for the manslayer, Libnah, 14 Jattir, Eshtemoa, 15 Holon, Debir, 16 Ain, Juttah, and Beth-shemesh—nine cities from these two tribes, together with their pasturelands.

17 And from the tribe of Benjamin they gave them Gibeon, Geba, 18 Anathoth, and Almon—four cities, together with their pasturelands.

19 In all, thirteen cities, together with their pasturelands, were given to the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

20 The remaining Kohathite clans of the Levites were allotted these cities:

From the tribe of Ephraim 21 they were given Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim (a city of refuge for the manslayer), Gezer, 22 Kibzaim, and Beth-horon—four cities, together with their pasturelands.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE THE HEART

23 From the tribe of Dan they were given Elteke, Gibbethon, 24 Aijalon, and Gathrimmon—four cities, together with their pasturelands.
25 And from the half-tribe of Manasseh
they were given Taanach and Gathrimmon—two cities, together with their pasturelands.
26 In all, ten cities, together with their pas-turelands, were given to the rest of the Kohathite clans.
27 This is what the Levite clans of the Gershonites were given:
From the half-tribe of Manasseh they were given Golan in Bashan, a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Beeshterah—two cities, together with
their pasturelands.
28 From the tribe of Issachar they were given Kishion, Daberath, 29 Jarmuth, and En-gannim—four cities, together
with their pasturelands.
30 From the tribe of Asher they were given Mishal, Abdon, 31 Helkath, and Rehob—four cities, together with their pasturelands.
32 And from the tribe of Naphtali they were given Kedesh in Galilee (a city of refuge for the manslayer), Hammoth-dor, and Kartan—three cities, together
with their pasturelands.
33 In all, thirteen cities, together with their pasturelands, were given to the Gershonite clans.
34 This is what the Merarite clan (the rest of the Levites) were given:
From the tribe of Zebulun they were given Jokneam, Kartah, 35 Dimnah, and Nahalal—four cities, together with their pasturelands.
36 From the tribe of Reuben they were given Bezer, Jahaz, 37 Kedemoth, and Mephaath—four cities, together with
their pasturelands.
38 And from the tribe of Gad they were given Ramoth in Gilead, a city of refuge for the manslayer, Mahanaim, 39 Heshbon, and Jazer—four cities in all, together with their pasturelands.
40 In all, twelve cities were allotted to the clans of Merari, the remaining Levite clans.
41 For the Levites, then, there were forty-eight cities in all, together with their pas-turelands, within the territory of the Israelites. 42 Each of these cities had its own surrounding pasturelands; this was true
for all the cities.
43 Thus Yahweh gave Israel all the land He had sworn to give their fathers, and they took possession of it and settled in it.
44 And Yahweh gave them rest on every side, just as He had sworn to their fathers.
None of their enemies could stand against them, for Yahweh delivered all their enemies into their hand.
45 Not one of all Yahweh's good promises to the house of Israel had failed; everything was fulfilled.

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS
The eastern tribes go home and build a huge altar by the Jordan. The other tribes almost go to war, thinking it is rebellion. It turns out to be a memorial, a witness that we serve Yahweh too. Talking first saves a civil war.

THE EASTERN TRIBES RETURN HOME

1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites,
the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh 2 and told them, "You have done all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, and you have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you. 3 All this time you have not deserted your brothers, up to this very day, but have kept the charge given you by Yahweh your God.
4 And now that Yahweh your God has given your brothers rest as He promised them, you may return to your homes in the land that Moses the servant of Yahweh gave you across the Jordan. 5 But be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of Yahweh gave you: to love Yahweh your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul."

6 So Joshua blessed them and sent them on their way, and they went to their homes. 7 (To the half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given land in Bashan, and to the other half Joshua gave land on the west side of the Jordan among their brothers.) When Joshua sent them to their homes he blessed them, 8 saying, "Return to your homes with your great wealth, with immense herds of livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron, and very many clothes. Divide with your brothers the spoil of your enemies."

THE ALTAR OF WITNESS

9 So the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh left the Israelites at Shiloh in the land of Canaan to return to their own land of Gilead, which they had acquired according to the command of Yahweh through Moses. 10 And when they came to Geliloth near the Jordan in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an imposing altar there by the Jordan.

11 Then the Israelites received the report: "Behold, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar on the border of the land of Canaan, at Geliloth near the Jordan on the Israelite side." 12 And when they heard this, the whole congregation of Israel assembled at Shiloh to go to war against them.

13 The Israelites sent Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest to the land of Gilead, to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. 14 With him they sent ten chiefs—one family leader from each tribe of Israel, each the head of a family among the clans of Israel.

15 They went to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh in the land of Gilead and said to them, 16 "This is what the whole congregation of Yahweh says: 'What is this breach of faith you have committed today against the God of Israel by turning away from Yahweh and building for yourselves an altar, that you might rebel against Yahweh this day?

17 Was not the sin of Peor enough for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day? It even brought a plague upon the congregation of Yahweh. 18 And now, would you turn away from Yahweh? If you rebel today against Yahweh, tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.

19 If indeed the land of your inheritance is unclean, then cross over to the land of Yahweh's possession, where Yahweh's tabernacle stands, and take possession of it among us. But do not rebel against Yahweh or against us by building for yourselves an altar other than the altar of Yahweh our God.

20 Was not Achan son of Zerah unfaithful regarding what was set apart for destruction, bringing wrath upon the whole congregation of Israel? Yet it was not only Achan who perished because of his sin!'"

21 Then the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered the leaders of the clans of Israel: 22 "Yahweh, the Mighty One, is God! Yahweh, the Mighty One, is God! He knows, and may Israel also know. If this was in rebellion or breach of faith against Yahweh, do not spare us today. 23 If we have built for ourselves an altar to turn away from Him and to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings on it, or to sacrifice peace offerings on it, may Yahweh Himself hold us accountable.

24 But in fact we have done this for fear that in the future your descendants might say to ours, 'What have you to do with Yahweh, the God of Israel? 25 For Yahweh has made the Jordan a border between us and you Reubenites and Gadites. You

JOSH 22:5 [HEART] Be careful to obey the law, and serve God with all your heart.

JOSH 22:10 [NOTE] The other tribes thought this altar broke God's law of one place of sacrifice, Deuteronomy 12. They were ready to fight, but Phinehas asked questions first.

have no share in Yahweh!' So your descendants could cause ours to stop fearing Yahweh.

26 That is why we said, 'Let us take action and build an altar for ourselves, but not for burnt offerings or sacrifices. 27 Rather, let it be a witness between us and you and the generations to come, that we will worship Yahweh in His presence with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and peace offerings.' Then in the future, your descendants cannot say to ours, 'You have no share in Yahweh!'

28 Therefore we said, 'If they ever say this to us or to our descendants, we will answer: Look at the replica of the altar of Yahweh that our fathers made, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, but as a witness between us and you.'

29 Far be it from us to rebel against Yahweh and turn away from Him today by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings, or sacrifices, other than the altar of Yahweh our God, which stands before His tabernacle."

30 When Phinehas the priest and the chiefs of the congregation—the heads of Israel's clans who were with him—heard what the descendants of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh had to say, they were satisfied. 31 Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest said to the descendants of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh, "Today we know that Yahweh is among us, because you have not committed this breach of faith against Him. Consequently, you have delivered the Israelites from the hand of Yahweh."

32 Then Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, together with the other leaders, returned to the Israelites in the land of Canaan and brought back a report regarding the Reubenites and Gadites in the land of Gilead. 33 The Israelites were satisfied with the report, and they blessed God and spoke no more about going to war against them to destroy the land where the Reubenites and Gadites lived. 34 So the Reubenites and Gadites named the altar Witness, for they said, "It is a witness between us that Yahweh is God."

23

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

Joshua is very old and gathers the leaders. You know with all your heart, he says, that not one promise failed. So love Yahweh, do not mix with the nations or their gods, because the warnings will come true too.

JOSHUA'S CHARGE TO LEADERS

1 A long time after Yahweh had given Israel rest from all the enemies around them, when Joshua was old and well along in years, 2 he summoned all Israel, including its elders, leaders, judges, and officers. "I am old and well along in years," he said, 3 "and you have seen everything that Yahweh your God has done to all these nations for your sake, because it was Yahweh your God who fought for you.

4 See, I have allotted as an inheritance to your tribes these remaining nations, including all the nations I have already cut off, from the Jordan westward to the Great Sea. 5 Yahweh your God will push them out of your way and drive them out before you, so that you can take possession of their land, as Yahweh your God promised you.

6 Be very strong, then, so that you can keep and obey all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, not turning aside from it to the right or to the left. 7 So you are not to associate with these nations that remain among you. You must not call on the names of their gods or swear by them, and you must not serve them or bow down to them. 8 Instead, you shall hold fast to Yahweh your God, as you have done to this day.

9 Yahweh has driven out great and powerful nations before you, and to this day no one can stand against you. 10 One of you can put a thousand to flight, because Yahweh your God fights for you, just as He promised. 11 Therefore watch yourselves carefully, that you love Yahweh your God. 12 For if you turn away and cling to the rest of these nations that remain among you, and if you intermarry and associate with them, 13 know for sure that Yahweh your God will no longer drive out these nations before you. Instead, they will become for you a snare and a trap, a scourge in your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land that Yahweh your God has given you.

14 Now behold, today I am going the way of all the earth, and you know with all your heart and soul that not one of the good promises Yahweh your God made to you has failed. Everything was fulfilled for you; not one promise has failed. 15 But just as every good thing Yahweh your God promised you has come to pass, likewise Yahweh will bring upon you the calamity He has threatened, until He has destroyed you from this good land He has given you. 16 If you transgress the covenant of Yahweh your God, which He commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the anger of Yahweh will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from this good land He has given you."

At Shechem Joshua retells the whole story, from Abraham's idol worshiping family to the land, in God's own words. Then he puts the choice on the table. Choose this day whom you will serve. As for me and my house, we will serve Yahweh. Joshua dies at 110, and Joseph's bones are finally buried at Shechem.

JOSHUA REVIEWS ISRAEL'S HISTORY

1 Then Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges, and officers of Israel, and they presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said to all the people, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'Long ago your fathers, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the Euphrates and worshiped other gods. 3 But I took your father Abraham from beyond the Euphrates and led him through all the land of Canaan, and I multiplied his descendants. I gave him Isaac, 4 and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave Esau Mount Seir to possess, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

5 Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I afflicted the Egyptians by what I did there, and afterward I brought you out. 6 When I brought your fathers out of Egypt and you reached the Red Sea, the Egyptians pursued them with chariots and horsemen as far as the Red Sea. 7 So your fathers cried out to Yahweh, and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, over whom He brought the sea and engulfed them. Your very eyes saw what I did to the Egyptians. Then you lived in the wilderness for a long time.

8 Later, I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived beyond the Jordan. They fought against you, but I delivered them into your hand, that you should possess their land when I destroyed them before you. 9 Then Balak son of Zippor, the king of Moab, set out to fight against Israel. He sent for Balaam son of Beor to curse you, 10 but I would not listen to Balaam. So he blessed you again and again, and I delivered you from his hand.

11 After this, you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The people of Jericho fought against you, as did the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Jebusites, and I delivered them into your hand. 12 I sent the hornet ahead of you, and it drove out the two Amorite kings before you, but not by your own sword or bow. 13 So I gave you a land on which you did not toil and cities that you did not build, and now you live in them and eat from vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.'

CHOOSE WHOM YOU WILL SERVE // DEUTERONOMY 10:12–22

14 Now, therefore, fear Yahweh and serve Him in sincerity and truth; cast aside the gods your fathers served beyond the Euphrates and in Egypt, and serve Yahweh.
15 But if it is unpleasing in your sight to serve Yahweh, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living. As for me and my house, we will serve Yahweh!"

16 The people replied, "Far be it from us to forsake Yahweh to serve other gods! 17 For Yahweh our God brought us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and performed these great signs before our eyes. He also protected us throughout our journey and among all the nations through which we traveled. 18 And Yahweh drove out before us all the nations, including the Amorites who lived in the land. We too will serve Yahweh, because He is our God!"

19 But Joshua said to the people, "You are not able to serve Yahweh, for He is a holy God; He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your rebellion or your sins. 20 If you forsake Yahweh and serve foreign gods,
He will turn and bring disaster on you and consume you, even after He has been good to you."

21 "No!" replied the people. "We will serve Yahweh!"

22 Then Joshua told them, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve Yahweh."

"We are witnesses!" they said.

23 "Now, therefore," he said, "get rid of the foreign gods among you and incline your hearts to Yahweh, the God of Israel."

24 So the people said to Joshua, "We will serve Yahweh our God and obey His voice."

25 On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people, and there at Shechem he established for them a statute and ordinance. 26 Joshua recorded these things in the Book of the Law of God. Then he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak that was near the sanctuary of Yahweh. 27 And Joshua said to all the people,
"You see this stone. It will be a witness against us, for it has heard all the words Yahweh has spoken to us, and it will be a witness against you if you ever deny your God."

28 Then Joshua sent the people away,
each to his own inheritance.

JOSHUA'S DEATH AND BURIAL // JUDGES 2:6–9

29 Some time later, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died at the age of 110.
30 And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. 31 Israel had served Yahweh throughout the days of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had experienced all the works that Yahweh had done for Israel.

32 And the bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought up out of Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the plot of land that Jacob had purchased from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred pieces of silver. So it became an inheritance for Joseph's descendants.

33 Eleazar son of Aaron also died, and they buried him at Gibeah, which had been given to his son Phinehas in the hill country of Ephraim.

The standing stone, top left, above the thick walls of the temple at Tell Balata, ancient Shechem. Photo Daniel Ventura, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A tall slab of white limestone standing in front of a big temple at Tell Balata, the ruins of Shechem, inside the city of Nablus today. Joshua 24:26 says Joshua set up a large stone under the oak by the sanctuary of Yahweh at Shechem, as a witness.

HOW OLD IT IS

The temple was built about 1650 BC and used until about 1100 BC. Its walls are about 17 feet thick. The standing stone belongs to the later phase of the temple, in the Late Bronze Age.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Ernst Sellin dug Shechem in the 1910s and 1920s and found the broken stone. An American team led by G. Ernest Wright dug from 1956 to 1973 and set the stone back up in its socket.

IN THE BIBLE

Abraham built his first altar in the land at Shechem, Genesis 12:6 to 7. Joseph's bones were buried there, Joshua 24:32. Later the temple of Baal Berith, also called El Berith, and its tower burned there, Judges 9:46 to 49.

THE BIG DEBATE

Wright thought this was the temple of Judges 9, and some think the stone could be Joshua's. Others say it was a Canaanite sacred stone, the kind the Law told Israel to tear down, Deuteronomy 7:5.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No writing is on the stone. It shows that Shechem had a temple and a great standing stone in Joshua's era, the kind of place where Joshua 24 says the covenant was made.

BOOK 7 OF 66 · OLD TESTAMENT · HISTORY

JUDGES

12 Tribes, 12 Districts, No King

AUTHOR	The book does not name its author. Jewish tradition in the Talmud says Samuel wrote it. The line In those days there was no king in Israel shows it was written after Israel had kings, and 18:30 mentions the captivity of the land, so someone also finished it later. Many scholars think it was put together in the 600s or 500s BC.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	From Joshua's death until just before Samuel. Jephthah says Israel had been in the land three hundred years, 11:26. Adding up every number in the book gives about 410 years, but some judges lived at the same time in different parts of the land.
DATE	The early date puts the judges from about 1380 to 1050 BC. The late date puts them from about 1200 to 1050 BC. See When Was the Conquest? in Joshua.
WRITTEN TO	Israel, to show what happens when everyone does what is right in his own eyes, and why the nation needed a king who followed God.
KEY VERSE	Judges 21:25. In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

THE OLDEST COPY OF JUDGES
These two pieces of leather come from 4QJudg a, a scroll of Judges found in Cave 4 at Qumran, near the Dead Sea. It was copied about 50 to 25 BC, around the time Herod the Great became king. It is the oldest copy of Judges known.

It holds parts of Judges 6, the call of Gideon. One thing stands out. It goes straight from 6:6 to 6:11 and does not have the prophet's speech in 6:7 to 10. Scholars still argue whether those verses were added to later copies or left out of this one. See the TEXT note at 6:7.

Pieces of two more Judges scrolls were found at Qumran. The Greek Bible has two different forms of Judges, one in Codex Alexandrinus and one in Codex Vaticanus. Photo Shai Halevi, Israel Antiquities Authority, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

Historical Setting

Joshua already split the Promised Land into tribal districts, Joshua 13 to 21. Now Joshua is dead, and no one is in charge. Think of 12 counties in one state, but no governor, no capital and no army. Each tribe runs its own district, and they do not always get along. The Canaanites still live among them, and so do their gods. When trouble comes, God raises up a judge, a local hero, to the rescue.

What Was Going Wrong

HALF FINISHED. Tribe after tribe did not drive out the Canaanites 1:19 to 35.
IDOLS EVERYWHERE. Israel served the Baals and the Ashtoreths again and again 2:11 to 13, 10:6. Even Gideon made a gold ephod that became an idol 8:27.
CHILD SACRIFICE. Jephthah vowed to offer whatever came out his door, and his only daughter came out. Most ancient readers, and most scholars today, say he really sacrificed her; others say she served God for life and never married. God never asked for it and hated child sacrifice Deuteronomy 12:31. Hebrews 11:32 praises Jephthah's faith, not his vow 11:30 to 40.
BROTHER AGAINST BROTHER. Abimelech killed seventy brothers 9:5, Gilead fought Ephraim 12:1 to 6, and all Israel fought Benjamin 20:1 to 48.
NO KING. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes 17:6, 21:25. The book ends with stolen idols, a murdered woman and a civil war (17 to 21).

The Idiot Proof Summary

Judges is the story of what happened after the Promised Land was divided up. The tribes settled into their districts, but they did not finish driving out the Canaanites, and soon they were worshiping Canaanite gods. Then the same thing happened over and over. Israel turned to idols, God let an enemy rule them, they cried out, and God raised up a judge to save them. When the judge died, they went right back. The judges get worse as the book goes on, and the last five chapters have no judge at all. The book's answer is in its last line: Israel needed a king.

Judges at a Glance

CH 1 to 3:6	HALF FINISHED The tribes stop short, and the cycle begins.
CH 3:7 to 5	THE FIRST JUDGES Othniel, Ehud, Shamgar, Deborah, Barak and Jael.
CH 6 to 9	GIDEON AND HIS SON The fleece, the three hundred, and Abimelech.

CH 13 to 16	SAMSON A Nazirite from birth, a lion, foxes and Delilah.
CH 17 to 21	NO KING Micah's idol, Dan moves north, and a civil war.

Where Jesus Shows Up

JUDGES 2:16 Yahweh raised up judges, who saved them. Every judge was a small savior who died. Jesus is the Savior and Judge who never dies, Acts 17:31.

JUDGES 13:3 TO 5 An angel tells a woman she will have a son who will begin to save Israel. Centuries later an angel tells Joseph that Mary will have a Son who will save His people from their sins, Matthew 1:21.

JUDGES 16:30 Samson won his greatest victory in his death, with his arms stretched out between two pillars. Many see a picture of the cross.

JUDGES 21:25 There was no king in Israel. The whole book points ahead to a King, first David, and then the Son of David, Jesus.

GOD'S NAMES IN JUDGES
Gideon called his altar Yahweh Is Peace, 6:24. Jephthah called Him Yahweh, the Judge, 11:27, the only time the book calls God a judge. Again and again the Spirit of Yahweh came upon the judges, 3:10, 6:34, 11:29, 14:6. See Why We Say Yahweh in the Old Testament Introduction.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Joshua is dead, and the tribes go out to finish the job. Judah does well. Then the list turns into a report card full of the same comment: did not drive them out. Benjamin, Manasseh, Ephraim, Zebulun, Asher, Naphtali, Dan. The Canaanites are not going anywhere.

THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN PROCEEDS // JOSHUA 13:1–7

1 After the death of Joshua, the Israelites inquired of Yahweh, "Who will be the first to go up and fight for us against the Canaanites?"

2 "Judah shall go up," answered Yahweh.
"Indeed, I have delivered the land into their hands."

3 Then the men of Judah said to their brothers the Simeonites, "Come up with us to our allotted territory, and let us fight against the Canaanites. And we likewise will go with you to your territory." So the Simeonites went with them.

4 When Judah attacked, Yahweh delivered the Canaanites and Perizzites into their hands, and they struck down ten thousand men at Bezek. 5 And there they found Adoni-bezek and fought against him, striking down the Canaanites and Per-izzites. 6 As Adoni-bezek fled, they pursued him, seized him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes. 7 Then Adoni-bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have gathered the scraps under my table. As I have done to them, so God has repaid me." And they brought him to Jerusalem, where he died.

THE CAPTURE OF JERUSALEM AND HEBRON // JOSHUA 15:13–19

8 Then the men of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it. They put the city to the sword and set it on fire. 9 Afterward, the men of Judah marched down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country, in the Negev, and in the foothills.

10 Judah also marched against the Canaanites who were living in Hebron (formerly known as Kiriath-arba), and they struck down Sheshai, Ahiman, and 11 From there they marched against the inhabitants of Debir (formerly known as

and Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him

15 "Give me a blessing," she answered.
"Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me springs of water as well."

So Caleb gave her both the upper and
lower springs.

16 Now the descendants of Moses' father-in-law, the Kenite, went up with the men of Judah from the City of Palms to the Wilderness of Judah in the Negev near Arad. They went to live among the people.

17 Then the men of Judah went with their brothers the Simeonites, attacked the Canaanites living in Zephath, and devoted the city to destruction. So it was called Hormah. 18 And Judah also captured Gaza, Ashkelon, and Ekron—each with its territory. 19 Yahweh was with Judah, and they took possession of the hill country; but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the plains because they had chariots of iron.

20 Just as Moses had promised, Judah gave Hebron to Caleb, who drove out the descendants of the three sons of Anak.
21 The Benjamites, however, failed to drive out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. So to this day the Jebusites live there among the Benjamites.
22 The house of Joseph also attacked
Bethel, and Yahweh was with them. 23
They sent spies to Bethel (formerly known as Luz), 24 and when the spies saw a man
coming out of the city, they said to him,
"Please show us how to get into the city,
and we will treat you kindly."
25 So the man showed them the entrance to the city, and they put the city to the sword but released that man and all his family. 26 And the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called it Luz, which is its name to this day.

THE FAILURE TO COMPLETE THE CONQUEST

27 At that time Manasseh failed to drive out
the inhabitants of Beth-shean, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, Megiddo, and their villages;
for the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land. 28 When Israel became stronger, they pressed the Canaanites into forced labor, but they never drove them out completely.
29 Ephraim also failed to drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer; so the Canaanites continued to dwell among them in Gezer.
30 Zebulun failed to drive out the inhabitants of Kitron and Nahalol; so the Canaanites lived among them and served as forced laborers.
31 Asher failed to drive out the inhabitants of Acco, Sidon, Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, and Rehob. 32 So the Asherites lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land, because they did not drive them out.
33 Naphtali failed to drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath.
So the Naphtalites also lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land, but the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and Bethanath served them as forced laborers.
34 The Amorites forced the Danites into the hill country and did not allow them to come down into the plain. 35 And the Amorites were determined to dwell in Mount Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim. But when the house of Joseph grew in strength, they pressed the Amorites into forced labor. 36 And the border of the Amorites extended from the Ascent of Akrabbim to Sela and beyond.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

The angel of Yahweh shows up at Bochim and says, You did not obey Me, so these nations will be thorns in your sides. The people cry. Then a new generation grows up that does not know Yahweh, and the cycle begins: sin, slavery, crying out, a judge to the rescue, and back to sin.

ISRAEL REBUKED AT BOCHIM

1 Now the angel of Yahweh went up from Gilgal to Bochim and said, "I brought you up out of Egypt and led you into the land that I had promised to your fathers, and I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you, 2 and you are not to make a covenant

Yet you have not obeyed My voice. What

THE MERNEPTAH STELE

JUDGES 1:1 · 1:18 · 17:6 · EXODUS 12:40 TO 41

The Merneptah Stele in the Egyptian Museum, Cairo. Israel is named near the bottom.

WHAT IT IS

A big slab of black granite, about ten feet tall, carved with a victory poem for Pharaoh Merneptah, the son of Ramesses II. Near the end it lists the enemies he says he beat in Canaan, and one of them is Israel: Israel is laid waste, his seed is not.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 1208 BC, in the fifth year of Merneptah's reign. The date comes from the stone itself. By the early date or the late date, that is the time of the judges.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The British archaeologist Flinders Petrie found it in 1896 in the ruins of Merneptah's temple at Thebes, which is modern Luxor. It is in the Egyptian Museum in Cairo.

A PEOPLE, NOT A KINGDOM

The poem names Ashkelon, Gezer and Yenoam with a sign that means a city or a land. For Israel it uses a different sign, the one for a people. That is the Israel of Judges: twelve tribes in their own districts, with no king and no capital, 17:6.

NAMES FROM JUDGES

Ashkelon, which Judah took in 1:18, and Gezer, where Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites, 1:29, are both in the poem.

THE BIG DEBATE

Frank Yurco argued that battle scenes carved at Karnak show this same war, and that one group in them is Israel. Others think those scenes belong to Ramesses II. A few scholars have asked whether the name reads Israel at all, but nearly everyone agrees it does.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It names no judge and no battle from the book. Merneptah bragged that Israel was wiped out, which turned out to be very wrong. It shows that Israel was already a people living in Canaan by about 1208 BC. See the Exodus page, p.138, for what it means for the date of the Exodus.

they called that place Bochim and offered sacrifices there to Yahweh.

JOSHUA'S DEATH AND BURIAL // JOSHUA 24:29–33

6 After Joshua had dismissed the people,
the Israelites went out to take possession of the land, each to his own inheritance. 7
And the people served Yahweh throughout the days of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him, who had seen all the great works that Yahweh had done for Israel.

8 And Joshua son of Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died at the age of 110. 9 They buried him in the land of his inheritance,

ISRAEL'S UNFAITHFULNESS // ISAIAH 43:22–28; JEREMIAH 2:23–37

10 After that whole generation had also been gathered to their fathers, another generation rose up who did not know Yahweh or the works that He had done for Israel. 11 And the Israelites did evil in the sight of Yahweh and served the Baals.

12 Thus they forsook Yahweh, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they followed after various gods of the peoples around them. They bowed down to them and provoked Yahweh to anger, 13 for they forsook Him and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.

14 Then the anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and He delivered them into the hands of those who plundered them. He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, whom they were no longer able to resist. 15 Wherever Israel marched out, the hand of Yahweh was against them to bring calamity, just as He had sworn to them. So they were greatly distressed.

JUDGES RAISED UP

16 Then Yahweh raised up judges, who saved them from the hands of those who plundered them.

17 Israel, however, did not listen to their judges. Instead, they prostituted themselves with other gods and bowed down to them. They quickly turned from the way of their fathers, who had walked in obedience to Yahweh's commandments; they did not do as their fathers had done.

18 Whenever Yahweh raised up a judge for the Israelites, He was with that judge and saved them from the hands of their enemies while the judge was still alive; for Yahweh was moved to pity by their groaning under those who oppressed them and afflicted them. 19 But when the judge died, the Israelites became even more corrupt than their fathers, going after other gods to serve them and bow down to them. They would not give up their evil practices and stubborn ways.

20 So the anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and He said, "Because this nation has transgressed the covenant I laid down for their fathers and has not heeded My voice, 21 I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations Joshua left when he died. 22 In this way I will test whether Israel will keep the way of Yahweh by walking in it as their fathers did."

23 That is why Yahweh had left those nations in place and had not driven them out immediately by delivering them into the hand of Joshua.

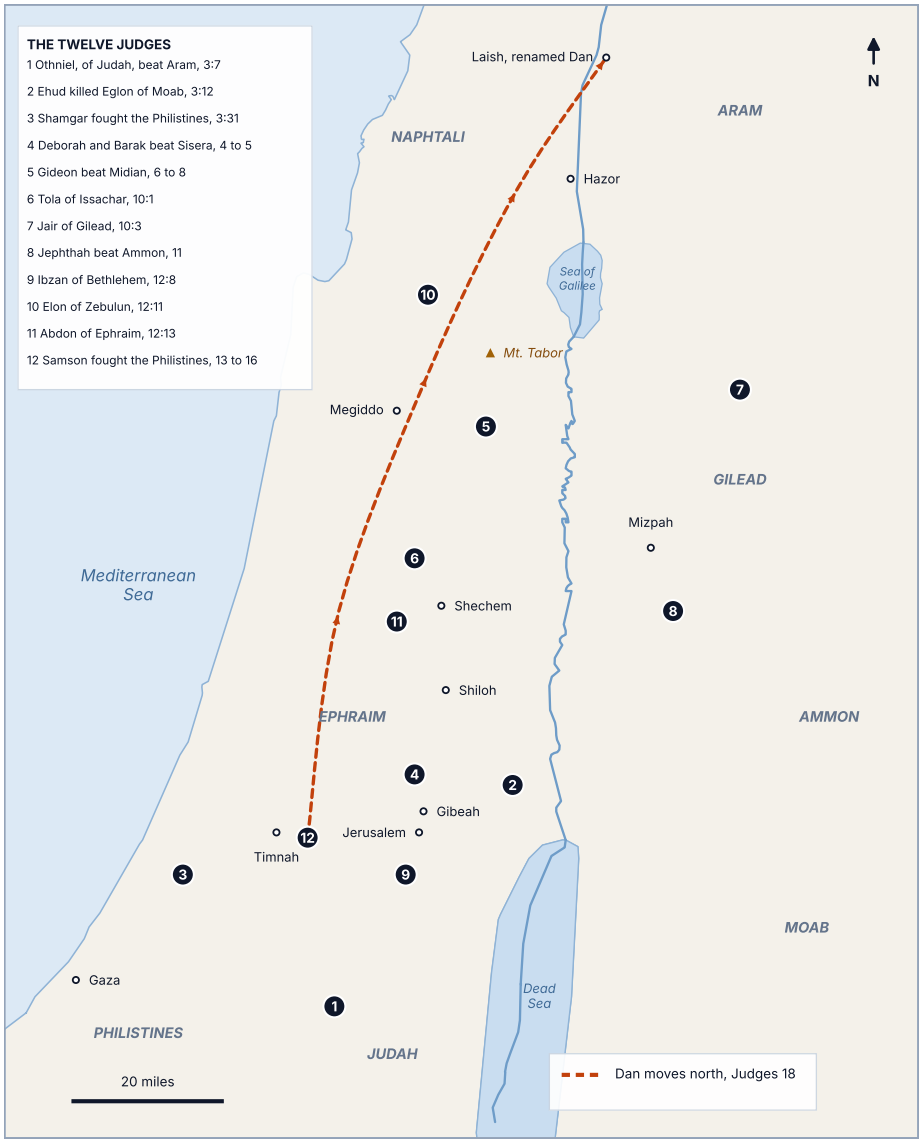
NATIONS LEFT TO TEST ISRAEL



1 These are the nations that Yahweh left to test all the Israelites who had not known any of the wars in Canaan, 2 if only to teach warfare to the subsequent generations of Israel, especially to those who had not known it formerly: 3 the five rulers of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived in the mountains of Lebanon from Mount Baal-hermon to Lebo-hamath.

Twelve judges, twelve hot spots, one cycle that kept repeating

THE CYCLE Israel sins, an enemy takes over, Israel cries out, God sends a judge, there is peace, and then it starts again, Judges 2:16 to 19.

DAN MOVES The tribe of Dan gave up its land near the Philistines and took Laish in the far north, Judges 18.

DEBORAH AND GIDEON Deborah judged under a palm tree between Ramah and Bethel, 4:5. Her battle was at Mount Tabor and the Kishon. Gideon fought at the spring of Harod, 7:1.

NO KING Everyone did what was right in his own eyes, Judges 21:25. The book ends in civil war after a crime at Gibeah, Judges 19 to 20.

PROPHETIC FORESHADOW DEMONIC

4 These nations were left to test the Israelites, to find out whether they would keep the commandments of Yahweh, which He had given their fathers through Moses. 5 Thus the Israelites continued to live among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. 6 And they took the daughters of these people in marriage, gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

OTHNIEL

7 So the Israelites did evil in the sight of Yahweh; they forgot Yahweh their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs. 8 Then the anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim king of Aram-naharaim, and the Israelites served him eight years.

9 But when the Israelites cried out to Yahweh, He raised up Othniel son of Caleb's younger brother Kenaz as a deliverer to save them. 10 The Spirit of Yahweh came upon him, and he became Israel's judge and went out to war. And Yahweh delivered Cushan-rishathaim king of Aram into the hand of Othniel, who prevailed against him.

11 So the land had rest for forty years, until Othniel son of Kenaz died.

EHUD

12 Once again the Israelites did evil in the sight of Yahweh. So He gave Eglon king of Moab power over Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of Yahweh. 13 After enlisting the Ammonites and Amalekites to join forces with him, Eglon attacked and defeated Israel, taking possession of the City of Palms.

14 The Israelites served Eglon king of Moab eighteen years. 15 And again they cried out to Yahweh, and He raised up Ehud son of Gera, a left-handed Benjamite, as their deliverer. So they sent him with tribute to Eglon king of Moab.

16 Now Ehud had made for himself a double-edged sword a foot and a half long. He strapped it to his right thigh under his cloak 17 and brought the tribute to Eglon king of Moab, who was an obese man.

18 After Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he ushered out those who had carried it. 19 But upon reaching the idols near Gilgal, he himself turned back and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

"Silence," said the king, and all his attendants left him.

20 Then Ehud approached him while he was sitting alone in the coolness of his upper room. "I have a word from God for you," Ehud said, and the king rose from his seat.

21 And Ehud reached with his left hand, pulled the sword from his right thigh, and plunged it into Eglon's belly. 22 Even the handle sank in after the blade, and Eglon's fat closed in over it, so that Ehud did not withdraw the sword from his belly. And Eglon's bowels emptied. 23 Then Ehud went out through the porch, closing and locking the doors of the upper room behind him.

24 After Ehud was gone, Eglon's servants came in and found the doors of the upper room locked. "He must be relieving himself in the cool room," they said. 25 So they waited until they became worried and saw that he had still not opened the doors of the upper room. Then they took the key and opened the doors—and there was their lord lying dead on the floor.

26 Ehud, however, had escaped while the servants waited. He passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Jabin of Hazor and his general Sisera have nine hundred iron chariots. Deborah, a prophetess and judge, tells Barak to go fight. He says he will only go if she comes too. She goes, but warns him the honor will go to a woman. Sisera runs away and hides in Jael's tent. That does not end well for Sisera.

DEBORAH AND BARAK

1 After Ehud died, the Israelites again did evil in the sight of Yahweh. 2 So Yahweh sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his forces was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-hagoyim. 3 Then the Israelites cried out to Yahweh, because Jabin had nine hundred chariots of iron, and he had harshly oppressed the Israelites for twenty years.

4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time. 5 And she would sit under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, where the Israelites would go up to her for judgment.

6 She summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, "Surely Yahweh, the God of Israel, is commanding you: 'Go and march to Mount Tabor, taking with you ten thousand men of Naphtali and Zebulun. 7 And I will draw out Sisera the commander of Jabin's army, his chariots, and his troops to the River Kishon, and I will deliver him into your hand.'"

8 Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go."

9 "I will certainly go with you," Deborah replied, "but the road you are taking will bring you no honor, because Yahweh will be selling Sisera into the hand of a woman." So Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh, 10 where he summoned Zebulun and Naphtali. Ten thousand men followed him, and Deborah also went with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite had moved away from the Kenites, the descendants of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent by the great tree of Zaanannim, which was near Kedesh.

12 When Sisera was told that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up Mount Tabor, 13 he summoned all nine hundred of his iron chariots and all the men with him, from Harosheth-hagoyim to the River Kishon.

14 Then Deborah said to Barak, "Arise, for this is the day that Yahweh has delivered Sisera into your hand. Has not Yahweh gone before you?"

So Barak came down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him. 15

And in front of him Yahweh routed with the sword Sisera, all his charioteers, and all his army. Sisera abandoned his chariot and fled on foot.

16 Then Barak pursued the chariots and army as far as Harosheth-hagoyim, and the whole army of Sisera fell by the sword; not a single man was left.

JAEL KILLS SISERA

17 Meanwhile, Sisera had fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. 18 Jael went out to greet Sisera and said to him, "Come in, my lord. Come in with me. Do not be afraid." So he entered her tent, and she covered him with a blanket.

19 Sisera said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a container of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him again.

20 "Stand at the entrance to the tent," he said, "and if anyone comes and asks you, 'Is there a man here?' say, 'No.'"

21 But as he lay sleeping from exhaustion, Heber's wife Jael took a tent peg, grabbed a hammer, and went silently to Sisera. She drove the peg through his temple and into the ground, and he died.

22 When Barak arrived in pursuit of Sisera, Jael went out to greet him and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man you are seeking." So he went in with her, and there lay Sisera dead, with a tent peg through his temple.

23 On that day God subdued Jabin king of Canaan before the Israelites. 24 And the hand of the Israelites grew stronger and stronger against Jabin king of Canaan until they destroyed him.

Deborah and Barak sing a victory song about the same battle. Rain floods the Kishon, the river sweeps the enemy away, and the stars themselves fight against Sisera. The song roasts the tribes that stayed home and ends with Sisera's mother waiting at the window for a son who is never coming back.

3 Listen, O kings! Give ear, O princes!
I will sing to Yahweh;
I will sing praise to Yahweh,
the God of Israel.

when You marched from the land of Edom,

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DEBORAH

A Woman Leading Israel

JUDGES 4 TO 5 · EXODUS 15:20 · 2 KINGS 22:14 · ACTS 21:9

WHO SHE WAS

Deborah was a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, and she was judging Israel, 4:4. She sat under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel, and the Israelites came to her to settle their disputes, 4:5. She is the only judge in the book shown doing the work of a judge in court.

WHAT SHE DID

She called Barak and gave him God's command to fight Sisera, 4:6 to 7. When Barak said he would only go if she went too, she went, 4:8 to 9. After the battle she and Barak sang the Song of Deborah, where she calls herself a mother in Israel, 5:7.

BARAK AND JAEL

Deborah told Barak the honor would go to a woman, 4:9. It did, but not to Deborah. Jael killed Sisera, 4:21. Hebrews 11:32 names Barak in its list of faith, not Deborah.

OTHER WOMEN WHO SPOKE FOR GOD

Miriam, Exodus 15:20. Huldah, who explained the Book of the Law to the king's men, 2 Kings 22:14 to 20. Anna, Luke 2:36. Philip's four daughters, Acts 21:9. And Joel 2:28 says your sons and daughters will prophesy.

WHY THIS COMES UP TODAY

Christians who disagree about women as pastors both talk about Deborah. Read 1 Timothy 2:12, the verse at the center of the debate, and the Big Question pages Women in the Church in 1 Timothy, p.1936.

Every View

JUDGES 4:4 TO 9 · 1 TIMOTHY 2:12 · GALATIANS 3:28 · ACTS 2:17 TO 18

VIEW 1: A SPECIAL CASE

Many churches teach that men should lead as pastors and elders, 1 Timothy 2:12 and 3:2. They say Deborah was a prophet God chose in a time when the men had failed, and point to 4:9 as a rebuke to Barak. They note she sent Barak to lead the army instead of leading it herself, and judged under a tree rather than ruling as a king. This view is often called complementarian.

VIEW 2: A PATTERN FOR TODAY

Other churches teach that every role is open to women. They say God chose Deborah and the Bible never criticizes her, that she led the whole nation, and that God still pours out His Spirit on sons and daughters, Acts 2:17 to 18, and in Christ there is neither male nor female, Galatians 3:28. This view is often called egalitarian.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

The first side says Deborah was a prophet and a judge in Israel, not an elder in the church, so 1 Timothy still applies. The second side says if God could put a woman over all Israel, the New Testament rules must have been about something more local.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

God used Deborah, and the Bible honors her. She spoke God's word, she was brave when a general was scared, and in her song she gave all the credit to Yahweh, 5:2 to 3.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

Midian raids Israel every harvest like locusts. Gideon is hiding in a winepress when the angel of Yahweh calls him a mighty man of valor. Gideon tears down his father's Baal altar at night, then asks for a sign with a wool fleece. Then he asks again, the other way around.

MIDIAN OPPRESSES ISRAEL

1 Again the Israelites did evil in the sight of Yahweh; so He delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years, 2 and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel.

MIRACLES DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

Because of the Midianites, the Israelites prepared shelters for themselves in the mountains, caves, and strongholds.

3 Whenever the Israelites planted their crops, the Midianites, Amalekites, and other people of the east would come up and invade them, 4 encamping against them as far as Gaza and destroying the produce of the land. They left Israel with no sustenance, neither sheep nor oxen nor donkeys. 5 For the Midianites came with their livestock and their tents like a great swarm of locusts. They and their camels were innumerable, and they entered the land to ravage it.

6 Israel was greatly impoverished by Midian, and the Israelites cried out to Yahweh.

7 Now when the Israelites cried out to Yahweh because of Midian, 8 He sent them a prophet, who told them, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: I brought you up out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. 9 I delivered you out of the hands of Egypt and all your oppressors. I drove them out before you and gave you their land. 10 And I said to you: 'I am Yahweh your God. You must not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.' But you did not obey Me."

THE CALL OF GIDEON

11 Then the angel of Yahweh came and sat down under the oak in Ophrah that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress to hide it from the Midianites. 12 And the angel of Yahweh appeared to Gideon and said, "Yahweh is with you, O mighty man of valor."

13 "Please, my Lord," Gideon replied, "if Yahweh is with us, why has all this happened to us? And where are all His wonders of which our fathers told us, saying, 'Has not Yahweh brought us up out of Egypt?' But now Yahweh has forsaken us and delivered us into the hand of Midian."

14 Yahweh turned to him and said, "Go in the strength you have and save Israel from the hand of Midian. Am I not sending you?"

15 "Please, my Lord," Gideon replied, "how can I save Israel? Indeed, my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my father's house."

16 "Surely I will be with you," Yahweh replied, "and you will strike down all the Midianites as one man."

17 Gideon answered, "If I have found favor in Your sight, give me a sign that it is You speaking with me. 18 Please do not depart from this place until I return to You. Let me bring my offering and set it before You."

And Yahweh said, "I will stay until you return."

19 So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat and unleavened bread from half a bushel of flour. He placed the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot and brought them out to present to Him under the oak.

20 And the angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread, lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And Gideon did so.

21 Then the angel of Yahweh extended the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread. And fire flared from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the angel of Yahweh vanished from his sight.

MIRACLES DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

22 When Gideon realized that it was the angel of Yahweh, he said, "Oh no, Lord Yahweh! I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!"

23 But Yahweh said to him, "Peace be with
you. Do not be afraid, for you will not die."

24 So Gideon built an altar to Yahweh there and called it Yahweh Is Peace. To this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

GIDEON DESTROYS BAAL'S ALTAR

25 On that very night Yahweh said to Gideon, "Take your father's young bull and a second bull seven years old, tear down your father's altar to Baal, and cut down the Asherah pole beside it. 26 Then build a proper altar to Yahweh your God on the top of this stronghold. And with the wood of the Asherah pole you cut down, take the second bull and offer it as a burnt offering."

27 So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as Yahweh had told him. But because he was too afraid of his father's household and the men of the city, he did it by night rather than in the daytime.

28 When the men of the city got up in the morning, there was Baal's altar torn down, with the Asherah pole cut down beside it and the second bull offered up on the newly built altar. 29 "Who did this?" they said to one another.

And after they had investigated thoroughly, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash did it."

30 Then the men of the city said to Joash,
"Bring out your son. He must die, because he has torn down Baal's altar and cut down the Asherah pole beside it."

31 But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Are you contending for Baal? Are you trying to save him? Whoever pleads his case will be put to death by morning! If Baal is a god, let him contend for himself with the one who has torn down his altar."

32 So on that day Gideon was called Jerubbaal, that is to say, "Let Baal contend with him," because he had torn down Baal's altar.

THE SIGN OF THE FLEECE

33 Then all the Midianites, Amalekites, and other people of the east gathered together, crossed over the Jordan, and camped in the Valley of Jezreel.

34 So the Spirit of Yahweh came upon Gideon, who blew the ram's horn and rallied the Abiezrites behind him. 35 Calling them to arms, Gideon sent messengers throughout Manasseh, as well as Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, so that they came up to meet him.

36 Then Gideon said to God, "If You are going to save Israel by my hand, as You have said, 37 then behold, I will place a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the fleece and all the ground is dry, then I will know that You are going to save Israel by my hand, as You
have said."

38 And that is what happened. When Gideon arose the next morning, he squeezed the fleece and wrung out the dew—a bowlful of water.

39 Then Gideon said to God, "Do not be angry with me; let me speak one more time. Please allow me one more test with the fleece. This time let it be dry, and the ground covered with dew."

40 And that night God did so. Only the fleece was dry, and dew covered the ground.

Gideon has 32,000 men. God says, Too many. Twenty two thousand scared men go home. Still too many. The ones who lap water like dogs stay: 300 men. They attack at night with rams' horns, torches and clay jars, and the enemy army turns on itself.

GIDEON'S ARMY OF THREE HUNDRED

1 Early in the morning Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the men with him camped beside the spring of Harod. And the camp of Midian was north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh.

2 Then Yahweh said to Gideon, "You have too many men for Me to deliver Midian into their hands, lest Israel glorify themselves over Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' 3 Now, therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the men: 'Whoever is fearful and trembling may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.'"

So twenty-two thousand of them turned back, but ten thousand remained.

4 Then Yahweh said to Gideon, "There are still too many men. Take them down to the water, and I will sift them for you there. If I say to you, 'This one shall go with you,' he shall go. But if I say, 'This one shall not go with you,' he shall not go."

5 So Gideon brought the men down to the water, and Yahweh said to him, "Separate those who lap the water with their tongues like a dog from those who kneel to drink." 6 And the number of those who lapped the water with their hands to their mouths was three hundred men; all the others knelt to drink.

7 Then Yahweh said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men who lapped the water
I will save you and deliver the Midianites into your hand. But all the others are to go home."

8 So Gideon sent the rest of the Israelites to their tents but kept the three hundred men, who took charge of the provisions and rams' horns of the others. And the camp of Midian lay below him in the valley.

JUDG 7:2 [NOTABLE] God cut Gideon's army from 32,000 to 300 so nobody could brag. When the odds are impossible, everyone knows who won the battle.

JUDG 7:5 [NOTE] People have guessed for centuries why the lappers were chosen: more alert, or just fewer. The Bible's reason is 7:2. God wanted so few men that no one could brag.

JUDG 7:7 [PROPHECY] God said He would save Israel from Midian with only three hundred men → JUDG 7:22 p.393

THE SWORD OF GIDEON

9 That night Yahweh said to Gideon, "Get up and go down against the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand. 10 But if you are afraid to do so, then go down to the camp with your servant Purah 11 and listen to what they are saying. Then your hands will be strengthened to attack the camp." So he went with Purah his servant to the outposts where armed men were guarding the camp.

12 Now the Midianites, Amalekites, and all the other people of the east had settled in the valley like a swarm of locusts, and their camels were as countless as the sand on the seashore. 13 And as Gideon arrived, a man was telling his friend about a dream. "Behold, I had a dream," he said,
"and I saw a loaf of barley bread come tumbling into the Midianite camp. It struck the tent so hard that the tent overturned and collapsed."

14 His friend replied: "This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has delivered Midian and the whole camp into his hand."

GIDEON DEFEATS MIDIAN

15 When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship. He returned to the camp of Israel and said,
"Get up, for Yahweh has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand." 16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies and gave each man a ram's horn in one hand and a large jar in the other, containing a torch.

17 "Watch me and do as I do," Gideon said.
"When I come to the outskirts of the camp, do exactly as I do. 18 When I and all who are with me blow our horns, then you are also to blow your horns from all around the camp and shout, 'For Yahweh
and for Gideon!'"

19 Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after the changing of the guard. They blew their horns and broke the jars that were in their hands. 20 The three companies blew their horns and shattered their jars. Holding the torches in their left hands and the horns in their right hands, they shouted, "A sword for Yahweh and for Gideon!"

21 Each Israelite took his position around the camp, and the entire Midianite army fled, crying out as they ran. 22 And when the three hundred rams' horns sounded, Yahweh set all the men in the camp against one another with their swords. The army fled to Beth-shittah toward Zererah as far as the border of Abel-meholah near Tabbath. 23 Then the men of Israel were called out from Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh, and they pursued the Midianites.

24 Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim to say, "Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters of the Jordan ahead of them as far as Beth-barah." So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they captured the waters of the Jordan as far as Beth-barah. 25 They also captured Oreb and Zeeb, the two princes of Midian; and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. So they pursued the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Gideon chases the two kings of Midian, punishes two towns that refused to feed his men, and turns down the job of king. Then he collects gold earrings and makes an ephod that becomes an idol. Not his best ending.

GIDEON DEFEATS ZEBAH AND ZALMUNNA

1 Then the men of Ephraim said to Gideon, "Why have you done this to us? Why did you fail to call us when you went to fight against Midian?" And they contended with him violently.

2 But Gideon answered them, "Now what have I accomplished compared to you? Are not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the grape harvest of Abiezer? 3 God has delivered Oreb and Zeeb, the two princes of Midian, into your hand. What was I able to do compared to you?" When he had said this, their anger against him subsided.

4 Then Gideon and his three hundred men came to the Jordan and crossed it, exhausted yet still in pursuit. 5 So Gideon said to the men of Succoth, "Please give my troops some bread, for they are exhausted, and I am still pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

6 But the leaders of Succoth asked, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your possession, that we should give bread to your army?"

7 "Very well," Gideon replied, "when Yahweh has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will tear your flesh with the thorns and briers of the wilderness!"

8 From there he went up to Penuel and asked the same from them, but the men of Penuel gave the same response as the men of Succoth. 9 So Gideon told the men of Penuel, "When I return in triumph, I will tear down this tower!"

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their army of about fifteen thousand men—all that were left of the armies of the people of the east. A hundred and twenty thousand swordsmen had already fallen. 11 And Gideon went up by way of the caravan route east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and he attacked their army, taking them by surprise. 12 When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, Gideon pursued and captured these two kings of Midian, routing their entire army.

13 After this, Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle along the Ascent of Heres. 14 There he captured a young man of Succoth and interrogated him. The young man wrote down for him the names of the seventy-seven leaders and elders of Succoth.

15 And Gideon went to the men of Succoth and said, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your possession, that we should give bread to your weary men?'" 16 Then he took the elders of the city, and using the thorns and briers of the wilderness, he disciplined the men of Succoth. 17 He also pulled down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

18 Next, Gideon asked Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?"

"Men like you," they answered, "each one resembling the son of a king."

19 "They were my brothers," Gideon replied, "the sons of my mother! As surely as Yahweh lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you."

20 So he said to Jether, his firstborn, "Get up and kill them." But the young man did not draw his sword; he was fearful because he was still a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Get up and kill us yourself, for as the man is, so is his strength." So Gideon got up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and he took the crescent ornaments from the necks of their camels.

GIDEON'S EPHOD

22 Then the Israelites said to Gideon, "Rule over us—you and your son and grandson—for you have saved us from the hand of Midian."

23 But Gideon replied, "I will not rule over you, nor will my son. Yahweh shall rule over you."

24 Then he added, "Let me make a request of you, that each of you give me an earring from his plunder." (For the enemies had gold earrings because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 "We will give them gladly," they replied. So they spread out a garment, and each man threw an earring from his plunder onto it. 26 The weight of the gold earrings he had requested was about 43 pounds, in addition to the crescent ornaments, the pendants, the purple garments of the kings of Midian, and the chains from the necks of their camels.

27 From all this Gideon made an ephod, which he placed in Ophrah, his hometown. But soon all Israel prostituted themselves by worshiping it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his household.

FORTY YEARS OF PEACE

28 In this way Midian was subdued before the Israelites and did not raise its head again. So the land had rest for forty years in the days of Gideon, 29 and he—Jerubbaal son of Joash—returned home and settled down.

30 Gideon had seventy sons of his own, since he had many wives. 31 His concubine, who dwelt in Shechem, also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.

GIDEON'S DEATH

32 Later, Gideon son of Joash died at a ripe old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 And as soon as Gideon was dead, the Israelites turned and prostituted themselves with the Baals, and they set up Baal-berith as their god.

34 The Israelites failed to remember Yahweh their God who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side. 35 They did not show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) for all the good things he had done for Israel.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Gideon's son Abimelech wants to be king, so he kills seventy of his brothers on one stone. Only Jotham escapes, and he tells a story about trees picking a thornbush for king. Three years later Abimelech and Shechem destroy each other, and a woman drops a millstone on his head.

ABIMELECH'S CONSPIRACY

1 Now Abimelech son of Jerubbaal went to his mother's brothers at Shechem and said to them and to all the clan of his mother, 2 "Please ask all the leaders of Shechem, 'Is it better for you that seventy men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, rule over you, or just one man?' Remember that I am your own flesh and blood."

3 And when his mother's brothers spoke all these words about him in the presence of all the leaders of Shechem, their hearts were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother." 4 So they gave him 1¾ pounds of silver from the temple of Baal-berith, with which Abimelech hired some worthless and reckless men to follow him. 5 He went to his father's house in Ophrah, and on one stone murdered his seventy brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, because he hid himself.

6 Then all the leaders of Shechem and Beth-millo gathered beside the oak at the pillar in Shechem and proceeded to make Abimelech their king.

JOTHAM'S PARABLE

7 When this was reported to Jotham, he climbed to the top of Mount Gerizim,
raised his voice, and cried out:

"Listen to me, O leaders of Shechem,
and may God listen to you.

8 One day the trees set out to anoint a king for themselves.
They said to the olive tree,
'Reign over us.'

9 But the olive tree replied,
'Should I stop giving my oil
that honors both God and man,
to hold sway over the trees?'

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree,
'Come and reign over us.'

11 But the fig tree replied,
'Should I stop giving my sweetness
and my good fruit,
to hold sway over the trees?'

12 Then the trees said to the grapevine,
'Come and reign over us.'

13 But the grapevine replied,
'Should I stop giving my wine
that cheers both God and man,
to hold sway over the trees?'

14 Finally all the trees said to the thorn-
bush,
'Come and reign over us.'

15 But the thornbush replied,
'If you really are anointing me as king
over you,
come and find refuge in my shade.
But if not, may fire come out of the thorn-
bush
and consume the cedars of Lebanon.'

16 Now if you have acted faithfully and honestly in making Abimelech king, if you have done well by Jerubbaal and his family, and if you have done to him as he deserves— 17 for my father fought for you and risked his life to deliver you from the hand of Midian, 18 but you have risen up against my father's house this day and killed his seventy sons on a single stone, and you have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the leaders of Shechem because he is your brother— 19
if you have acted faithfully and honestly toward Jerubbaal and his house this day, then may you rejoice in Abimelech, and he
in you.

20 But if not, may fire come from Abimelech and consume the leaders of come from the leaders of Shechem and Beth-millo and consume Abimelech."

21 Then Jotham ran away, escaping to Beer, and he lived there for fear of his brother Abimelech.

GAAL CONSPIRES WITH THE SHECHEMITES

22 After Abimelech had reigned over Israel for three years, 23 God sent a spirit of animosity between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem and caused them to treat Abimelech deceitfully, 24 in order that the crime against the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come to justice and their blood be avenged on their brother Abimelech and on the leaders of Shechem, who had helped him murder his brothers.

25 The leaders of Shechem set up an ambush against Abimelech on the hilltops, and they robbed all who passed by them on the road. So this was reported to Abimelech.

26 Meanwhile, Gaal son of Ebed came with his brothers and crossed into Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem put their confidence in him. 27 And after they had gone out into the fields, gathered grapes from their vineyards, and trodden them, they held a festival and went into the house of their god; and as they ate and drank, they cursed Abimelech.

28 Then Gaal son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his officer? You are to serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem. Why should we serve Abimelech? 29 If only this people were under my authority, I would remove Abimelech; I would say to him, 'Muster your army and come out!'"

THE FALL OF SHECHEM

30 When Zebul the governor of the city heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed, he burned with anger. 31 So he covertly sent messengers to Abimelech to say, "Look, Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem and are stirring up the city against you. 32 Now then, tonight you and the people with you are to come and lie in wait in the fields. 33 And in the morning at sunrise, get up and advance against the city. When Gaal and his men come out against you, do to them whatever you are able."

34 So Abimelech and all his troops set out by night and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 Now Gaal son of Ebed went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate just as Abimelech and his men came out from their hiding places.

36 When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the mountains!"

But Zebul replied, "The shadows of the mountains look like men to you."

37 Then Gaal spoke up again, "Look, people are coming down from the center of the land, and one company is coming by way of the Diviners' Oak."

38 "Where is your gloating now?" Zebul replied. "You said, 'Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?' Are these not the people you ridiculed? Go out now and fight them!"

39 So Gaal went out before the leaders of Shechem and fought against Abimelech, 40 but Abimelech pursued him, and Gaal fled before him. And many Shechemites fell wounded all the way to the entrance of the gate. 41 Abimelech stayed in Arumah, and Zebul drove Gaal and his brothers out of Shechem.

42 The next day the people of Shechem went out into the fields, and this was reported to Abimelech. 43 So he took his men, divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he rose up against them and attacked them.

44 Then Abimelech and the companies with him rushed forward and took their stand at the entrance of the city gate. The other two companies rushed against all who were in the fields and struck them down. 45 And all that day Abimelech fought against the city until he had captured it and killed its people. Then he demolished the city and sowed it with salt.

46 On hearing of this, all the leaders in the tower of Shechem entered the inner chamber of the temple of El-berith. 47 And when Abimelech was told that all the leaders in the tower of Shechem were gathered there, 48 he and all his men went up to Mount Zalmon. Abimelech took his axe in his hand and cut a branch from the trees, which he lifted to his shoulder, saying to his men, "Hurry and do what you have seen me do."

49 So each man also cut his own branch and followed Abimelech. Then they piled the branches against the inner chamber and set it on fire above them, killing everyone in the tower of Shechem, about a thousand men and women.

ABIMELECH'S PUNISHMENT

50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, encamped against it, and captured it. 51 But there was a strong tower inside the city, and all the men, women, and leaders of the city fled there. They locked themselves in and went up to the roof of the tower.

52 When Abimelech came to attack the tower, he approached its entrance to set it on fire. 53 But a woman dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, crushing his skull. 54 He quickly called his armor-bearer, saying, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest they say of me, 'A woman killed him.'"

So Abimelech's armor-bearer ran his sword through him, and he died. 55 And when the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they all went home.

56 In this way God repaid the wickedness that Abimelech had done to his father in murdering his seventy brothers. 57 And God also brought all the wickedness of the men of Shechem back upon their own heads. So the curse of Jotham son of Jerubbaal came upon them.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Two quiet judges, Tola and Jair. Jair had thirty sons riding thirty donkeys. Then Israel worships seven different sets of gods, and God says, Go cry out to the gods you chose. The people throw away their idols, and God could not stand Israel's misery any longer.

TOLA

1 After the time of Abimelech, a man of Issachar, Tola son of Puah, the son of Dodo, rose up to save Israel. He lived in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim.

2 Tola judged Israel twenty-three years, and when he died, he was buried in Shamir.

JAIR

3 Tola was followed by Jair the Gileadite, who judged Israel twenty-two years. 4 He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys. And they had thirty towns in the land of Gilead, which to this day are called Havvoth-jair.

5 When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

OPPRESSION BY THE PHILISTINES AND AMMONITES

6 And again the Israelites did evil in the sight of Yahweh. They served the Baals, the Ashtoreths, the gods of Aram, Sidon, and Moab, and the gods of the Ammonites and Philistines. Thus they forsook Yahweh and did not serve Him.

7 So the anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and Ammonites, 8 who that very year harassed and oppressed the Is-

9 The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim, and Israel was in deep distress.

10 Then the Israelites cried out to Yahweh, saying, "We have sinned against You, for we have indeed forsaken our God and served the Baals."

11 Yahweh replied, "When the Egyptians, Amorites, Ammonites, Philistines, 12 Sidonians, Amalekites, and Maonites oppressed you and you cried out to Me, did I not save you from their hands? 13 But you have forsaken Me and served other gods, so I will no longer save you. 14 Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them save you in your time of trouble."

15 "We have sinned," the Israelites said to Yahweh. "Deal with us as You see fit; but please deliver us today!" 16 So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served Yahweh, and He could no longer bear the misery of Israel.

17 Then the Ammonites were called to arms and camped in Gilead, and the Israelites assembled and camped at Mizpah. 18 And the rulers of Gilead said to one another, "Whoever will launch the attack against the Ammonites will be the head of all who live in Gilead."

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Jephthah, the son of a prostitute, was driven out by his brothers. Now the elders need a fighter, so they come crawling back. He sends the king of Ammon a history lesson, then makes a rash vow, wins the battle, and sees his only daughter come out the door. The saddest chapter so far.

JEPHTHAH DELIVERS ISRAEL

1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor; he was the son of a prostitute, and Gilead was his father. 2 And Gilead's wife bore him sons who grew up, drove Jephthah out, and said to him, "You shall have no inheritance in our father's house, because you are the son of another woman."

3 So Jephthah fled from his brothers and settled in the land of Tob, where worthless men gathered around him and traveled with him.

4 Some time later, when the Ammonites fought against Israel 5 and made war with them, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. 6 "Come," they said, "be our commander, so that we can fight against the Ammonites."

7 Jephthah replied to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me and expel me from my father's house? Why then have you come to me now, when you are in distress?"

8 They answered Jephthah, "This is why we now turn to you, that you may go with us, fight the Ammonites, and become leader over all of us who live in Gilead."

9 But Jephthah asked them, "If you take me back to fight the Ammonites and Yahweh gives them to me, will I really be your leader?"

10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Yahweh is our witness if we do not do as you say."

11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him their leader and commander. And Jephthah repeated all his terms in the presence of Yahweh at Mizpah.

12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites, saying, "What do you have against me that you have come to fight against my land?"

13 The king of the Ammonites answered Jephthah's messengers, "When Israel came up out of Egypt, they seized my land, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and all the way to the Jordan. Now, therefore, restore it peaceably."

14 Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites 15 to tell him, "This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or of the Ammonites. 16 But when Israel came up out of Egypt, they traveled through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh. 17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Please let us pass through your land,' but the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent messengers to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel stayed in Kadesh.

18 Then Israel traveled through the wilderness and bypassed the lands of Edom and Moab. They came to the east side of the land of Moab and camped on the other side of the Arnon. But they did not enter the territory of Moab, since the Arnon was its border.

19 And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, and said to him, 'Please let us pass through your land into our own place.' 20 But Sihon would not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So he gathered all his people, encamped in Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 Then Yahweh, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, who defeated them. So Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites who inhabited that country, 22 seizing all the land from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

23 Now since Yahweh, the God of Israel, has driven out the Amorites from before His people Israel, should you now possess it? 24 Do you not possess whatever your god Chemosh grants you? So also, we possess whatever Yahweh our God has granted us. 25 Are you now so much better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever contend with Israel or fight against them?

May Yahweh, the Judge, decide today between the Israelites and the Ammonites."

28 But the king of the Ammonites paid no heed to the message Jephthah sent him.

JEPHTHAH'S TRAGIC VOW

29 Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, then through Mizpah of Gilead. And from there he advanced against the Ammonites.

30 Jephthah made this vow to Yahweh: "If indeed You will deliver the Ammonites into my hand, 31 then whatever comes out the door of my house to greet me on my triumphant return from the Ammonites will belong to Yahweh, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering."

32 So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them, and Yahweh delivered them into his hand. 33 With a great blow he devastated twenty cities from Aroer to the vicinity of Minnith, as far as Abel-keramim. So the Ammonites were subdued before the Israelites.

34 And when Jephthah returned home to Mizpah, there was his daughter coming out to meet him with tambourines and dancing! She was his only child; he had no son or daughter besides her.

35 As soon as Jephthah saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "No! Not my daughter! You have brought me to my knees! You have brought great misery upon me, 38 "Go," he said. And he sent her away for two months.

So she left with her friends and mourned her virginity upon the mountains. 39 After two months, she returned to her father, and he did to her as he had vowed. And she had never had relations with a man.

So it has become a custom in Israel 40 that each year the young women of Israel go out for four days to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

JEPHTHAH'S VOW

What Happened

JUDGES 11:29 TO 40 · LEVITICUS 27:1 TO 8 · DEUTERONOMY 12:31 · HEBREWS 11:32

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

The Spirit of Yahweh came upon Jephthah, 11:29. Then he vowed that if God gave him the victory, whatever came out the door of his house to meet him would belong to Yahweh, and he would offer it up as a burnt offering, 11:31. He won. His only child, his daughter, came out dancing, 11:34. He tore his clothes. She told him to keep his word, asked for two months to mourn her virginity with her friends, and then he did to her as he had vowed, 11:35 to 39.

THE WORDS OF THE VOW

The Hebrew can mean whatever or whoever comes out. Some say he expected an animal, since families often kept animals in the house. Others say only a person would come out to greet a returning hero.

JUDG 11:39 [NOTE] He did to her as he had vowed. Most ancient readers took this to mean he sacrificed her; others say she was given to God's service for life and never married. See Jephthah's Vow in the Big Question pages, p.400.

WHAT GOD'S LAW SAID

God hated child sacrifice and banned it, Leviticus 18:21, Deuteronomy 12:31 and 18:10. A person vowed to God could be bought back with silver, Leviticus 27:1 to 8. Jephthah never asked.

A YEARLY CUSTOM

Every year the young women of Israel went out for four days to remember Jephthah's daughter, 11:40.

HEBREWS 11:32

The New Testament names Jephthah among the heroes of faith, with Gideon, Barak and Samson. It praises his faith, not his vow.

Every View

JUDGES 11:31 · 11:37 TO 40 · EXODUS 38:8 · 1 SAMUEL 1:11

VIEW 1: HE SACRIFICED HER

Its supporters call this the plain reading. It was held by the Jewish historian Josephus, about AD 93, the old Jewish Aramaic Targum, the early church writers, and Martin Luther, and by most scholars today. A burnt offering means a burnt offering, and he did to her as he had vowed, 11:39. The yearly mourning fits a death. The book is showing how far Israel had fallen.

VIEW 2: SHE SERVED GOD FOR LIFE

Some Jewish teachers in the Middle Ages, like David Kimhi, and some Christian scholars since, say she was given to God's service and never married. She mourned her virginity, not her death, 11:37 to 38. The verse adds that she never had relations with a man, 11:39, which matters most if she lived. Women served at the tabernacle door, Exodus 38:8, and Hannah gave Samuel to God for life, 1 Samuel 1:11.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

The first side says the Hebrew of the vow, a burnt offering, cannot mean a life of service, and that nothing in Israel's law set apart women for lifelong virginity. The second side says God would not have let a man He used be praised in Hebrews after a human sacrifice, and that the and in the vow can mean or.

2 But Jephthah replied, "My people and I save me out of their hands. 3 When I saw that you would not save me, I risked my life and crossed over to the Ammonites,

and Yahweh delivered them into my hand.
Why then have you come today to fight against me?"

4 Jephthah then gathered all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead struck them down because the Ephraimites had said, "You Gileadites are fugitives in Ephraim, living in the territories of Ephraim and Manasseh."

5 The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan leading to Ephraim, and whenever a fugitive from Ephraim would say, "Let me cross over," the Gileadites would ask him, "Are you an Ephraimite?"

If he answered, "No," 6 they told him,
"Please say Shibboleth."

If he said, "Sibboleth," because he could not pronounce it correctly, they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. So at that time 42,000 Ephraimites were killed.

8 After Jephthah, Ibzan of Bethlehem

as thirty daughters whom he gave in marriage to men outside his clan; and for his sons he brought back thirty wives from elsewhere. Ibzan judged Israel seven years. 10 Then Ibzan died, and he was buried in Bethlehem.

11 After Ibzan, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel ten years. 12 Then Elon the Zebulunite died, and he was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

13 After Elon, Abdon son of Hillel, from Pirathon, judged Israel. 14 He had forty sons

And no razor shall touch his head, because the boy will be a Nazirite to God from the womb, and he will begin the deliverance of Israel from the hand of the Philistines."

6 So the woman went and told her husband, "A man of God came to me. His appearance was like the angel of God, exceedingly awesome. I did not ask him where he came from, and he did not tell me his name. 7 But he said to me, 'Behold, you will conceive and give birth to a son. Now, therefore, do not drink wine or strong drink, and do not eat anything unclean, because the boy will be a Nazirite to God from the womb until the day of his death.'"

8 Then Manoah prayed to Yahweh, "Please, O Lord, let the man of God You sent us come to us again to teach us how to raise the boy who is to be born."

9 And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the angel of God returned to the woman as she was sitting in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her. 10 The woman ran quickly to tell her husband, "Behold, the man who came to me the other day has reappeared!"

11 So Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he asked, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?"

"I am," he said.

12 Then Manoah asked, "When your words come to pass, what will be the boy's rule of life and mission?"

13 So the angel of Yahweh answered Manoah, "Your wife is to do everything I told her. 14 She must not eat anything that comes from the vine, nor drink any wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean. She must do everything I have commanded her."

15 "Please stay here," Manoah said to the angel of Yahweh, "and we will prepare a young goat for you."

16 And the angel of Yahweh replied, "Even if I stay, I will not eat your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it to Yahweh." For Manoah did not know that it was the angel of Yahweh.

17 Then Manoah said to the angel of Yahweh, "What is your name, so that we may honor you when your word comes to pass?"

18 "Why do you ask my name," said the angel of Yahweh, "since it is beyond comprehension?"

19 Then Manoah took a young goat and a grain offering and offered them on a rock to Yahweh. And as Manoah and his wife looked on, Yahweh did a marvelous thing. 20 When the flame went up from the altar to the sky, the angel of Yahweh ascended in the flame.

When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell facedown to the ground. 21 And when the angel of Yahweh did not appear again to Manoah and his wife, Manoah realized that it had been the angel of Yahweh.

22 "We are going to die," he said to his wife, "for we have seen God!"

23 But his wife replied, "If Yahweh had intended to kill us, He would not have accepted the burnt offering and the grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things or spoken to us this way."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

SAMSON

The Nazirite Vow

JUDGES 13 TO 16 · NUMBERS 6:1 TO 21

THE RULES

A Nazirite was a person set apart to God. Numbers 6 gave three rules: no wine or anything from grapes, no razor on the head, and no going near a dead body. Most vows lasted a set time, and the person chose it.

SAMSON WAS DIFFERENT

Samson's vow came from God before he was born, and it was for life, 13:5 and 13:7. Even his mother had to stay away from wine and anything unclean while she was pregnant, 13:4. Samuel and John the Baptist were also set apart for God from birth, 1 Samuel 1:11 and Luke 1:15.

WAS THE STRENGTH IN HIS HAIR?

The Bible says the Spirit of Yahweh rushed on Samson, 14:6, 14:19 and 15:14. When his hair was cut, the text says Yahweh had left him, 16:20. The hair was the last sign of his vow. When his hair grew back he prayed, and God answered, 16:22 and 16:28.

HOW MANY RULES DID HE BREAK?

Many think he broke all three. The honey from the lion's carcass, 14:8 to 9. The wedding feast, a drinking party, 14:10. And the haircut, 16:19. Others say the dead body rule was about people, and the text never says he drank. All agree the haircut broke the vow.

Hero or Warning?

JUDGES 14:4 · 16:28 TO 30 · HEBREWS 11:32

VIEW 1: A HERO OF FAITH

Hebrews 11:32 names Samson among the heroes of faith. He fought the Philistines alone when his own tribe handed him over, 15:12. He died praying, and he killed more Philistines in his death than in his life, 16:30. Many Christians see in his death a picture of Christ.

VIEW 2: A WARNING

Samson never led an army, chased women, 14:2, 16:1 and 16:4, and fought mostly for revenge, 15:7 and 15:11. He kept playing with his secret until it was gone. He did not even know that Yahweh had left him, 16:20.

VIEW 3: BOTH

God used a deeply flawed man. His parents did not know that God was at work in his choices, seeking an occasion against the Philistines, 14:4. Samson's story shows God's patience more than Samson's goodness.

SAMSON AND JESUS

Many see a picture of Jesus in Samson. An angel announced both births. Both were set apart from the womb. Both were handed over by their own people, 15:12 to 13, and sold for silver, 16:5. Both were mocked by their enemies, 16:25, and won the victory in their death. The difference matters too. Samson prayed for revenge for his two eyes, 16:28; Jesus prayed, Father, forgive them, Luke 23:34.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Strength is a gift, not a reward. Samson's power came from God, and when he finally knew he was weak, he asked God for help, and God answered, 16:28.

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Samson sees a Philistine woman and says, Get her for me. On the way, he tears a lion apart with his bare hands. At the wedding feast he tells a riddle about it, the guests cheat by pressuring his bride, and Samson pays his bet with the clothes of thirty dead Philistines.

SAMSON'S MARRIAGE

1 One day Samson went down to Timnah, where he saw a young Philistine woman. 2
So he returned and told his father and mother, "I have seen a daughter of the Philistines in Timnah. Now get her for me as a wife."

3 But his father and mother replied, "Can't you find a young woman among your relatives or among any of our people? Must you go to the uncircumcised Philistines to get a wife?"

But Samson told his father, "Get her for me, for she is pleasing to my eyes." 4

MIRACLES

(Now his father and mother did not know this was from Yahweh, who was seeking an occasion to move against the Philistines; for at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel.)

5 Then Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother and came to the vineyards of Timnah. Suddenly a young lion came roaring at him, 6 and the Spirit of Yahweh came powerfully upon him, and he tore the lion apart with his bare hands as one would tear a young goat. But he did not tell his father or mother what he had done. 7 Then Samson continued on his way down and spoke to the woman, because she was pleasing to his eyes.

SAMSON'S RIDDLE

8 When Samson returned later to take her, he left the road to see the lion's carcass, and in it was a swarm of bees, along with their honey. 9 So he scooped some honey into his hands and ate it as he went along. And when he returned to his father and mother, he gave some to them and they ate it. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the lion's carcass.

10 Then his father went to visit the woman, and Samson prepared a feast there, as was customary for the bridegroom. 11 And when the Philistines saw him, they selected thirty men to accompany him.

12 "Let me tell you a riddle," Samson said to them. "If you can solve it for me within the seven days of the feast, I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes. 13 But if you cannot solve it, you must give me thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes."

"Tell us your riddle," they replied. "Let us hear it."

14 So he said to them:

"Out of the eater came something to eat,
and out of the strong came something sweet."

For three days they were unable to explain the riddle. 15 So on the fourth day they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband to explain the riddle to us, or we will burn you and your father's household to death. Did you invite us here to rob us?"

16 Then Samson's wife came to him, weeping, and said, "You hate me! You do not really love me! You have posed to my people a riddle, but have not explained it to me."

"Look," he said, "I have not even explained it to my father or mother, so why should I explain it to you?"

17 She wept the whole seven days of the feast, and finally on the seventh day, because she had pressed him so much, he told her the answer. And in turn she explained the riddle to her people.

18 Before sunset on the seventh day, the men of the city said to Samson:

"What is sweeter than honey?
And what is stronger than a lion?"

So he said to them:

"If you had not plowed with my heifer,
you would not have solved my riddle!"

19 Then the Spirit of Yahweh came mightily upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, killed thirty of their men, took their apparel, and gave their clothes to those who had solved the riddle. And burning with anger, Samson returned to his father's house, 20 and his wife was given to one of the men who had accompanied him.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Samson's wife was given to another man, so he ties torches to the tails of three hundred foxes and burns the Philistine fields. Things escalate. His own people hand him over tied up, the ropes melt like flax, and he kills a thousand men with a donkey's jawbone.

SAMSON'S REVENGE

1 Later on, at the time of the wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat and went to visit his wife. "I want to go to my wife in her room," he said. But her father would not let him enter.

2 "I was sure that you thoroughly hated her," said her father, "so I gave her to one of the men who accompanied you. Is not her younger sister more beautiful than she? Please take her instead."

3 Samson said to them, "This time I will be blameless in doing harm to the Philistines."

4 Then Samson went out and caught three hundred foxes. And he took torches, turned the foxes tail-to-tail, and fastened a torch between each pair of tails. 5 Then he lit the torches and released the foxes into the standing grain of the Philistines, burning up the piles of grain and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.

6 "Who did this?" the Philistines demanded.

"It was Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite," they were told. "For his wife was given to his companion."

So the Philistines went up and burned her and her father to death.

7 And Samson told them, "Because you have done this, I will not rest until I have taken vengeance upon you." 8 And he struck them ruthlessly with a great slaughter, and then went down and stayed in the cave at the rock of Etam.

9 Then the Philistines went up, camped in Judah, and deployed themselves near the town of Lehi.

10 "Why have you attacked us?" said the men of Judah.

The Philistines replied, "We have come to arrest Samson and pay him back for what he has done to us."

11 In response, three thousand men of Judah went to the cave at the rock of Etam, and they asked Samson, "Do you not realize that the Philistines rule over us? What have you done to us?"

"I have done to them what they did to me," he replied.

12 But they said to him, "We have come down to arrest you and hand you over to the Philistines."

Samson replied, "Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves."

13 "No," they answered, "we will not kill you, but we will tie you up securely and hand you over to them." So they bound him with two new ropes and led him up from the rock.

14 When Samson arrived in Lehi, the Philistines came out shouting against him. And the Spirit of Yahweh came mightily upon him. The ropes on his arms became like burnt flax, and the bonds broke loose from his hands. 15 He found the fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and struck down a thousand men. 16 Then Samson said:

"With the jawbone of a donkey
I have piled them into heaps.
With the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men."

17 And when Samson had finished speaking, he cast the jawbone from his hand; and he named that place Ramath-lehi.

18 And being very thirsty, Samson cried out to Yahweh, "You have accomplished this great deliverance through Your servant.

19 So God opened up the hollow place in Lehi, and water came out of it. When Samson drank, his strength returned, and he was revived. That is why he named it En-hakkore, and it remains in Lehi to this day.

20 And Samson judged Israel for twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

Samson carries off the city gates of Gaza. Then he meets Delilah. Three times she tries to learn his secret, three times he lies, and the fourth time he tells her the truth. They shave him, blind him and put him to work grinding grain. His hair grows back, and he brings down Dagon's temple.

SAMSON ESCAPES GAZA

1 One day Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute and went in to spend the night with her.

2 When the Gazites heard that Samson was there, they surrounded that place and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate. They were quiet throughout the night, saying, "Let us wait until dawn; then we will kill him."

3 But Samson lay there only until midnight, when he got up, took hold of the doors of the city gate and both gateposts, and pulled them out, bar and all. Then he put them on his shoulders and took them to the top of the mountain overlooking Hebron.

SAMSON AND DELILAH

4 Some time later, Samson fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. 5 The lords of the Philistines went to her and said, "Entice him and find out the source of his great strength and how we can overpower him to tie him up and subdue him. Then each one of us will give you 27½ pounds of silver."

6 So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me the source of your great strength and how you can be tied up and subdued."

7 Samson told her, "If they tie me up with seven fresh bowstrings that have not been dried, I will become as weak as any other man."

8 So the lords of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings that had not been dried, and she tied him up with them. 9 While the men were hidden in her room, she called out, "Samson, the Philistines are here!"

But he snapped the bowstrings like a strand of yarn seared by a flame. So the source of his strength remained unknown.

10 Then Delilah said to Samson, "You have mocked me and lied to me! Now please tell me how you can be tied up."

11 He replied, "If they tie me up with new ropes that have never been used, I will become as weak as any other man."

12 So Delilah took new ropes, tied him up with them, and called out, "Samson, the Philistines are here!"

But while the men were hidden in her room, he snapped the ropes off his arms like they were threads.

13 Then Delilah said to Samson, "You have mocked me and lied to me all along! Tell me how you can be tied up."

He told her, "If you weave the seven braids of my head into the web of a loom and tighten it with a pin, I will become as weak as any other man."

14 So while he slept, Delilah took the seven braids of his hair and wove them into the web. with a pin and called to him, "Samson, the Philistines are here!"

But he awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin with the loom and the web.

and failed to reveal to me the source of your great strength!"

16 Finally, after she had pressed him daily with her words and pleaded until he was sick to death, 17 Samson told her all that was in his heart: "My hair has never been cut, because I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaved, my strength will leave me, and I will become as weak as any other man."

18 When Delilah realized that he had revealed to her all that was in his heart, she sent this message to the lords of the Philistines: "Come up once more, for he has revealed to me all that is in his heart."

Then the lords of the Philistines came to her, bringing the money in their hands.

19 And having lulled him to sleep on her lap, she called a man to shave off the seven braids of his head. In this way she began to subdue him, and his strength left him. 20 Then she called out, "Samson, the Philistines are here!"

When Samson awoke from his sleep, he thought, "I will escape as I did before and shake myself free." But he did not know that Yahweh had departed from him.

21 Then the Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, where he was bound with bronze shackles and forced to grind grain in the prison.

22 However, the hair of his head began to grow back after it had been shaved.

SAMSON'S VENGEANCE AND DEATH

23 Now the lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon. They rejoiced and said, "Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hands."

24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god, saying:

"Our god has delivered into our hands
our enemy who destroyed our land and multiplied our dead."

25 And while their hearts were merry, they said, "Call for Samson to entertain us." So they called Samson out of the prison to entertain them. And they stationed him between the pillars.

26 Samson said to the servant who held his hand, "Lead me where I can feel the pillars supporting the temple, so I can lean against them."

27 Now the temple was full of men and women; all the lords of the Philistines were there, and about three thousand men and women were on the roof watching Samson entertain them.

28 Then Samson called out to Yahweh: "O Lord Yahweh, please remember me. Strengthen me, O God, just once more, so that with one vengeful blow I may pay back the Philistines for my two eyes."

29 And Samson reached out for the two central pillars supporting the temple. Bracing himself against them with his right hand on one pillar and his left hand on the other, 30 Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines."

Then he pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the lords and all the people in it. So in his death he killed more than he had killed in his life.

WHAT IT IS

Carvings on the walls of the temple of Pharaoh Ramesses III at Medinet Habu, near Luxor in Egypt. They show his war against the Sea Peoples, raiders from across the Mediterranean. One group is the Peleset, the Philistines, shown with tall headdresses.

HOW OLD IT IS

The battle was in the eighth year of Ramesses III, about 1177 BC. Soon after, the Philistines settled on the coast of Canaan, right in Samson's day by both dates for the judges.

WHO THE PHILISTINES WERE

The Bible says they came from Caphtor, Amos 9:7, probably Crete. Their five cities were Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, Ekron and Gath, Joshua 13:3. Their pottery looks like Greek pottery, and they ate pork and even dogs. A 2019 DNA study of graves at Ashkelon found newcomers from southern Europe in the time of the judges.

A TEMPLE WITH TWO PILLARS

At Tell Qasile, in modern Tel Aviv, Amihai Mazar dug a Philistine temple from the 1000s BC. Its roof rested on two wooden pillars on stone bases, standing close together in the middle of the hall. It is the kind of building Judges 16:29 describes, though it is not the temple of Gaza.

DAGON

Dagon was worshiped in Gaza, 16:23, and at Ashdod, where his statue fell before the ark, 1 Samuel 5:1 to 5. He was an old god of the region, probably a grain god, that the Philistines took up.

THE BIG DEBATE

Genesis 21 and 26 name Philistines in Abraham's and Isaac's day, centuries before the Sea Peoples. Some say the writer used the later name for the people living there; others think earlier groups from the Aegean were already on the coast.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing names Samson. It shows that the Philistines were real newcomers who ruled the coast, just when Judges says they ruled over Israel, 14:4.

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

A man named Micah steals about 27 pounds of silver from his mother, gives it back, and she has an idol made from it. Then he hires a traveling Levite as his own private priest. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes, and it shows.

MICAH'S IDOLATRY

1 Now a man named Micah from the hill country of Ephraim 2 said to his mother,
"The 27½ pounds of silver that were taken from you and about which I heard you utter a curse—I have the silver here with me; I took it."

Then his mother said, "Blessed be my son
by Yahweh!"

3 And when he had returned the 27½ pounds of silver to his mother, she said, "I wholly dedicate the silver to Yahweh for my son's benefit, to make a graven image and a molten idol. Therefore I will now return it to you."

5 Now this man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and some household priest. 6 In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young Levite from Bethlehem in Judah who had been residing within the clan of Judah. 8 This man left the city of Bethlehem in Judah to settle where he could find a place. And as he traveled, he came to Micah's house in the hill country of Ephraim.

9 "Where are you from?" Micah asked him.

"I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah," he replied, "and I am on my way to settle wherever I can find a place."

10 "Stay with me," Micah said to him, "and be my father and priest, and I will give you four ounces of silver per year, a suit of clothes, and your provisions."

So the Levite went in 11 and agreed to stay with him, and the young man became like a son to Micah.

12 Micah ordained the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in his house. 13 Then Micah said, "Now I know that Yahweh will be good to me, because a Levite has become my priest."

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

The tribe of Dan is looking for land. Its spies stop at Micah's house, then find Laish, a quiet town far to the north. Six hundred Danites march north, steal Micah's idol and his priest on the way, burn Laish and rename it Dan.

THE DANITES SETTLE IN LAISH

1 In those days there was no king in Israel, and the tribe of the Danites was looking for territory to occupy. For up to that time they had not come into an inheritance
among the tribes of Israel. 2 So the Danites sent out five men from their clans, men of valor from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and explore it. "Go and explore the land," they told them.

The men entered the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah, where they spent the night. 3 And while they were near Micah's house, they recognized the voice of the young Levite; so they went over and asked him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? Why are you here?"

4 "Micah has done this and that for me," he replied, "and he has hired me to be his priest."

5 Then they said to him, "Please inquire of God to determine whether we will have a successful journey."

6 And the priest told them, "Go in peace.
Yahweh is watching over your journey."

7 So the five men departed and came to Laish, where they saw that the people were living securely, like the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting. There was nothing lacking in the land and no oppressive ruler. And they were far away from the Sidonians and had no alliance with anyone.

8 When the men returned to Zorah and Es-htaol, their brothers asked them, "What did you find?"

9 They answered, "Come on, let us go up against them, for we have seen the land, and it is very good. Why would you fail to act? Do not hesitate to go there and take possession of the land! 10 When you enter,
you will come to an unsuspecting people and a spacious land, for God has delivered it into your hand. It is a place where nothing on earth is lacking."

11 So six hundred Danites departed from

of war. 12 They went up and camped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. That is why the place west of Kiriath-jearim is called Ma-haneh-dan to this day. 13 And from there they traveled to the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah's house.

THE DANITES TAKE MICAH'S IDOLS

14 Then the five men who had gone to spy
out the land of Laish said to their brothers,
"Did you know that one of these houses
has an ephod, household gods, a graven image, and a molten idol? Now think about what you should do."

15 So they turned aside there and went to the home of the young Levite, the house of Micah, and greeted him.

16 The six hundred Danites stood at the entrance of the gate, armed with their weapons of war. 17 And the five men who had gone to spy out the land went inside and took the graven image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molten idol, while the priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred armed men.

18 When they entered Micah's house and took the graven image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molten idol, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

19 "Be quiet," they told him. "Put your hand over your mouth and come with us and be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest for the house of one person or a priest for a tribe and family in Israel?"

20 So the priest was glad and took the ephod, the household idols, and the graven image, and went with the people.
21 Putting their small children, their livestock, and their possessions in front of them, they turned and departed.

22 After they were some distance from Micah's house, the men in the houses near Micah's house mobilized and overtook the Danites. 23 When they called out after them, the Danites turned to face
them and said to Micah, "What is the matter with you that you have called out such a company?"

24 He replied, "You took the gods I had made, and my priest, and went away.
What else do I have? How can you say to me, 'What is the matter with you?'"

25 The Danites said to him, "Do not raise your voice against us, or angry men will attack you, and you and your family will lose your lives."

26 So the Danites went on their way, and Micah turned to go back home, because he saw that they were too strong for him.

27 After they had taken Micah's idols and his priest, they went to Laish, to a quiet and unsuspecting people, and they struck them with their swords and burned down
the city. 28 There was no one to deliver them, because the city was far from Sidon and had no alliance with anyone; it was in a valley near Beth-rehob.

And the Danites rebuilt the city and lived there. 29 They named it Dan, after their forefather Dan, who was born to Israel—though the city was formerly named Laish.

30 The Danites set up idols for themselves, and Jonathan son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 So they set up for themselves Micah's graven image, and it was there the whole time the house of God was in Shiloh.

The mud brick gate of Laish at Tel Dan, with its arch over the doorway. The wooden door frame and the shade roof are modern, added to protect it. Photo Hanay, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

A city gate built of mud bricks, with an arched doorway, at Tel Dan in the far north of Israel, beside one of the springs of the Jordan River. Before the tribe of Dan took the city it was called Laish, 18:29. It is one of the oldest arched gates in the world still standing.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 1750 BC, in the Middle Bronze Age, centuries before the Danites came. The gate was soon buried inside the huge earth rampart around the city, and that is why its mud bricks survived.

WHERE AND WHEN DUG

Avraham Biran dug Tel Dan for over thirty years, starting in 1966. His team uncovered the gate in 1979. It has been restored and is now kept under a shade roof.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Laish was a strong, rich city with big walls. Judges 18:7 says its people lived quiet and unsuspecting, far from the Sidonians, with no alliance with anyone.

THE BIG DEBATE

Biran found that in the 1100s BC a new kind of village grew up on top of the old city, full of pits for storing grain. He linked that change to the Danites. Others are not sure who lived in that village. The gate itself was already buried, so the Danites never walked through it.

LATER AT DAN

King Jeroboam set up a golden calf at Dan, 1 Kings 12:29, and the platform of his high place has been dug there. A stone found at Dan in 1993 names the House of David, one of the first mentions of King David outside the Bible.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing from Laish names the Danites or Micah's idol. It shows that Laish was real, was where Judges puts it, and was later called Dan.

JUDG 19:1 [NOTE] A HARD CHAPTER. Chapters 19 to 21 tell the worst things in the book, on purpose. See the Big Question pages The Levite's Concubine, p.413. A concubine was a wife of lower rank.

WHAT IT IS

Tel Shiloh, Khirbet Seilun in Arabic, a hill about 20 miles north of Jerusalem. The tabernacle stood here from Joshua's day until the time of Eli and young Samuel, Joshua 18:1 and 1 Samuel 1 to 4.

HOW WE KNOW IT IS SHILOH

Judges 21:19 says it is north of Bethel, east of the road from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah. The ruins are right there, and the Arabic name Seilun keeps the old name.

HOW OLD IT IS

People first settled here about 1750 BC. Big stone walls were built in the Middle Bronze Age. The town was an Israelite worship center in the time of the judges, and it was destroyed by fire about 1050 BC. Later, Byzantine Christians built churches there.

WHERE AND WHEN DUG

A Danish team led by Hans Kjaer, 1926 to 1932. Israel Finkelstein, 1981 to 1984. Scott Stripling and the Associates for Biblical Research, from 2017.

WHAT WAS FOUND

Finkelstein found buildings full of storage jars from the 1100s BC, burned about 1050 BC. Many link the fire to the Philistines, after they took the ark, 1 Samuel 4. Jeremiah 7:12 says, Go now to the place in Shiloh, and see what I did to it. Stripling's team reports animal bones mostly from the right side, the priests' share in Leviticus 7:32, and pieces that may be from horned altars.

THE BIG DEBATE

Where did the tabernacle stand? Some point to a flat area on the north side of the hill, about the right size, with ledges cut in the rock. Others say no one can tell where a tent stood. Many of the newest finds are not fully published yet.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

A tent leaves no walls. It shows that Shiloh was where the Bible says, that it was busy in the time of the judges, and that it burned.

5 On the fourth day, they got up early in the morning and prepared to depart, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law,
"Refresh your heart with a morsel of bread, and then you can go." 6 So they sat down and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the girl's father said to the man, "Please agree to stay overnight and let your heart be merry." 7 The man got up to depart, but his father-in-law persuaded him, so he stayed there that night.
8 On the fifth day, he got up early in the morning to depart, but the girl's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they waited until late afternoon and the two of them ate. 9 When the man got up to depart with his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him,
"Look, the day is drawing to a close.
Please spend the night. See, the day is almost over. Spend the night here, that your heart may be merry. Then you can get up early tomorrow for your journey home." 10 But the man was unwilling to spend the night. He got up and departed, and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine. 11 When they were near Jebus
and the day was almost gone, the servant
said to his master, "Please, let us stop at this Jebusite city and spend the night
here."
12 But his master replied, "We will not turn aside to the city of foreigners, where there are no Israelites. We will go on to Gibeah." 13 He continued, "Come, let us try to reach one of these towns to spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah."

14 So they continued on their journey, and the sun set as they neared Gibeah in Benjamin. 15 They stopped to go in and lodge in Gibeah. The Levite went in and sat down in the city square, but no one would take them into his home for the night.

16 That evening an old man from the hill country of Ephraim, who was residing in Gibeah (the men of that place were Benjamites), came in from his work in the field. 17 When he looked up and saw the traveler in the city square, the old man asked, "Where are you going, and where have you come from?"

18 The Levite replied, "We are traveling from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote hill country of Ephraim, where I am from. I went to Bethlehem in Judah, and now I am going to the house of Yahweh; but no one has taken me into his home, 19 even though there is both straw and feed for our donkeys, and bread and wine for me and the maidservant and young man with me. There is nothing that we, your servants, lack."

20 "Peace to you," said the old man. "Let me supply everything you need. Only do not spend the night in the square." 21 So he brought him to his house and fed his donkeys. And they washed their feet and ate and drank.

22 While they were enjoying themselves, suddenly the wicked men of the city surrounded the house. Pounding on the door, they said to the old man who owned the house, "Bring out the man who came to your house, so we can have relations with him!"

23 The owner of the house went out and said to them, "No, my brothers, do not do this wicked thing! After all, this man is a guest in my house. Do not commit this outrage. 24 Look, let me bring out my virgin daughter and the man's concubine, and you can use them and do with them as you wish. But do not do such a vile thing to this man."

25 But the men would not listen to him. So the Levite took his concubine and sent her outside to them, and they raped her and abused her throughout the night, and at dawn they let her go. 26 Early that morning, the woman went back to the house where her master was staying, collapsed at the doorway, and lay there until it was light.

27 In the morning, when her master got up and opened the doors of the house to go out on his journey, there was his concubine, collapsed in the doorway of the house, with her hands on the threshold. 28 "Get up," he told her. "Let us go." But there was no response. So the man put her on his donkey and set out for home.

29 When he reached his house, he picked up a knife, took hold of his concubine, cut her limb by limb into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout the territory of Israel. 30 And everyone who saw it said, "Nothing like this has been seen or done from the day the Israelites came out of the land of Egypt until this day. Think it over, take counsel, and speak up!"

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE LEVITE'S CONCUBINE

The Darkest Chapters

JUDGES 19 TO 21 · GENESIS 19:1 TO 11 · HOSEA 9:9

WHAT HAPPENS

A Levite and his concubine, a wife of lower rank, stopped for the night at Gibeah, a town of Benjamin. The men of the town surrounded the house. The Levite pushed her out to them, and they abused her all night. In the morning she lay at the door with her hands on the threshold, and when he told her to get up, there was no answer, 19:22 to 28. He cut her body into twelve pieces and sent them to the tribes, 19:29.

WHAT CAME NEXT

Israel demanded that Benjamin hand

JUDG 19:22 [NOTE] Almost word for word the same as Sodom in Genesis 19:4 to 8. The writer is saying that Israel had become Sodom.

JUDG 19:29 [NOTE] King Saul, from this same town of Gibeah, later cut up a pair of oxen and sent the pieces through Israel to call the tribes to war, 1 Samuel 11:7.

over the guilty men, and Benjamin refused. A civil war killed tens of thousands and left only six hundred men of Benjamin, 20:47. Then, to find them wives, Israel destroyed the town of Jabesh Gilead and let the Benjamites seize the girls dancing at Shiloh, chapter 21.

JUST LIKE SODOM

The words in 19:22 to 24 are almost the same as Genesis 19:4 to 8. The writer is saying Israel had become Sodom.

WHERE WAS GOD?

Israel asked God at Bethel before each battle, and He answered, 20:18, 20:23 and 20:28. Israel still lost twice, and 40,000 of its own men died before it won. Many see God judging the whole nation, not only Benjamin, for the evil they all allowed.

WHY IT IS IN THE BIBLE

The writer does not say any of this was right. He tells it so the reader will be shocked. Everyone who saw it said, Nothing like this has been seen or done since the day the Israelites came out of Egypt. Think it over, take counsel, and speak up, 19:30. Centuries later Hosea still remembered the days of Gibeah as Israel's lowest point, Hosea 9:9 and 10:9.

How Readers Take It

JUDGES 19:1 · 21:25 · 1 SAMUEL 10:26 · PSALM 34:18

VIEW 1: A MIRROR

No one in the story is a hero. The Levite, the old man, the men of Gibeah and the tribes all fail. Many read it as a mirror held up to God's people: this is who we become without Him.

VIEW 2: A CASE FOR A KING

The story starts with a woman from Bethlehem, David's town, and goes wrong in Gibeah, the hometown of King Saul, 1 Samuel 10:26. Many scholars think the writer was pointing ahead: Israel needed a king, and the right kind of king.

VIEW 3: A VOICE FOR THE VICTIM

The woman never speaks and is never named. Writers like Phyllis Trible, in her 1984 book Texts of Terror, ask readers to remember her and grieve for her, and to see how the men around her failed her.

WHY NOT SKIP IT?

The Bible tells the truth about people, even when the truth is ugly. Paul wrote that everything written in the past was written to teach us, Romans 15:4. A Bible that hid its darkest pages would be easier to read, but harder to trust.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Judges records this as evil, not as an example. God is not silent about the hurting. Yahweh is near to the brokenhearted, Psalm 34:18. If anyone reading this has been hurt by someone else, it was not your fault, and God sees you.

20

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

All Israel gathers and demands that Benjamin hand over the men of Gibeah. Benjamin refuses, and a civil war begins. Israel loses twice, then wins, and nearly wipes out the whole tribe of Benjamin. Only six hundred men survive.

THE DECREE OF THE ASSEMBLY

1 Then all the Israelites from Dan to Beersheba and from the land of Gilead came out, and the congregation assembled as one man before Yahweh at Mizpah. 2 The leaders of all the people and all the tribes of Israel presented themselves in the assembly of God's people: 400,000 men on foot, armed with swords. 3 (Meanwhile the Benjamites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.) And the Israelites asked, "Tell us, how did this wicked thing happen?"

4 So the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered: "I and my concubine came to Gibeah in Benjamin to spend the night. 5 And during the night,
the men of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house. They intended to kill me, but they abused my concubine,
and she died. 6 Then I took my concubine, cut her into pieces, and sent her throughout the land of Israel's inheritance, because they had committed a lewd and disgraceful act in Israel. 7 Behold, all you Is-

raelites, give your advice and verdict here and now."

8 Then all the people stood as one man and said, "Not one of us will return to his tent or to his house. 9 Now this is what we will do to Gibeah: We will go against it as the lot dictates. 10 We will take ten men out of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred out of every thousand, and a thousand out of every ten thousand, to supply provisions for the army when they go to Gibeah in Benjamin to punish them for the atrocity they have committed in Israel."

11 So all the men of Israel gathered as one man, united against the city. 12 And the tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What is this wickedness that has occurred among you? 13 Hand over the wicked men of Gibeah so we can put them to death and purge Israel of this evil."

But the Benjamites refused to heed the voice of their fellow Israelites. 14 And from their cities they came together at Gibeah to go out and fight against the Israelites. 15 On that day the Benjamites mobilized 26,000 swordsmen from their cities, in addition to the 700 select men of Gibeah. 16 Among all these soldiers there were 700 select left-handers, each of whom could sling a stone at a hair without missing.

17 The Israelites, apart from Benjamin, mobilized 400,000 swordsmen, each one an experienced warrior.

CIVIL WAR AGAINST BENJAMIN

18 The Israelites set out, went up to Bethel, and inquired of God, "Who of us shall go up first to fight against the Benjamites?"

"Judah will be first," Yahweh replied.

19 The next morning the Israelites set out and camped near Gibeah. 20 And the men of Israel went out to fight against Benjamin and took up their battle positions at Gibeah.

21 And the Benjamites came out of Gibeah and cut down 22,000 Israelites on the battlefield that day.

22 But the Israelite army took courage and again took their battle positions in the same place where they had arrayed themselves on the first day. 23 They went up and wept before Yahweh until evening, inquiring of Him, "Should we again draw near for battle against our brothers the Benjamites?"

And Yahweh answered, "Go up against them."

24 On the second day the Israelites advanced against the Benjamites. 25 That same day the Benjamites came out against them from Gibeah and cut down another 18,000 Israelites, all of them armed with swords.

26 Then the Israelites, all the people, went up to Bethel, where they sat weeping before Yahweh. That day they fasted until evening and presented burnt offerings and peace offerings to Yahweh. 27 And the Israelites inquired of Yahweh. (In those days the ark of the covenant of God was there, 28 and Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, served before it.) The Israelites asked, "Should we again go out to battle against our brothers the Benjamites, or should we stop?"

Yahweh answered, "Fight, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand."

29 So Israel set up an ambush around Gibeah. 30 On the third day the Israelites went up against the Benjamites and arrayed themselves against Gibeah as they had done before. 31 The Benjamites came out against them and were drawn away from the city. They began to attack the people as before, killing about thirty men of Israel in the fields and on the roads, one of which led up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah.

32 "We are defeating them as before," said the Benjamites.

But the Israelites said, "Let us retreat and draw them away from the city onto the roads."

JUDG 20:15 [FULFILLS] Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night divide the spoil ← GEN 49:27 · MEDIUM p.115

JUDG 20:16 [NOTE] A skilled slinger could throw a stone as fast as a big league fastball. Seven hundred left handed slingers who never missed were a deadly unit.

33 So all the men of Israel got up from their places and arrayed themselves at Baal-tamar, and the Israelites in ambush charged from their positions west of Gibeah. 34 Then 10,000 select men from all Israel made a frontal assault against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce. But the Benjamites did not realize that disaster was upon them. 35 Yahweh defeated Benjamin in the presence of Israel, and on that day the Israelites slaughtered 25,100 Benjamites, all armed with swords. 36 Then the Benjamites realized they had been defeated.

Now the men of Israel had retreated before Benjamin because they were relying on the ambush they had set against Gibeah. 37 The men in ambush rushed suddenly against Gibeah; they advanced and put the whole city to the sword.

38 The men of Israel had arranged a signal with the men in ambush: When they sent up a great cloud of smoke from the city, 39 the men of Israel would turn in the battle.

When the Benjamites had begun to strike them down, killing about thirty men of Israel, they said, "They are defeated before us as in the first battle." 40 But when the column of smoke began to go up from the city, the Benjamites looked behind them and saw the whole city going up in smoke.

41 Then the men of Israel turned back on them, and the men of Benjamin were terrified when they realized that disaster had come upon them. 42 So they fled before the men of Israel toward the wilderness,
but the battle overtook them, and the men coming out of the cities struck them down
there. 43 They surrounded the Benjamites, pursued them, and easily overtook them
in the vicinity of Gibeah on the east. 44
And 18,000 Benjamites fell, all men of valor.

45 Then the Benjamites turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rim-mon, and Israel cut down 5,000 men on the roads. And they overtook them at Gidom and struck down 2,000 more.

46 That day 25,000 Benjamite swordsmen fell, all men of valor. 47 But 600 men turned and fled into the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, where they stayed four months. 48 And the men of Israel turned back against the other Benjamites and put to the sword all the cities, including the animals and everything else they found.
And they burned down all the cities in their path.

21

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel had sworn not to give its daughters to Benjamin, and now regrets it. Their fixes are terrible: they wipe out Jabesh Gilead for wives, then tell the Benjamites to grab girls dancing at Shiloh. The book ends where it began. In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

WIVES FOR THE BENJAMITES

1 Now the men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah, saying, "Not one of us will give his daughter in marriage to a Benjamite."

2 So the people came to Bethel and sat
there before God until evening, lifting up their voices and weeping bitterly. 3 "Why, O Yahweh God of Israel," they cried out,
"has this happened in Israel? Today in Israel one tribe is missing!"

4 The next day the people got up early,
built an altar there, and presented burnt offerings and peace offerings. 5 The Israelites asked, "Who among all the tribes of Israel did not come to the assembly before Yahweh?" For they had taken a solemn oath that anyone who failed to come up before Yahweh at Mizpah would surely be put to death.

6 And the Israelites grieved for their brothers, the Benjamites, and said, "Today a tribe is cut off from Israel. 7 What should we do about wives for the survivors, since we have sworn by Yahweh not to give them our daughters in marriage?"

8 So they asked, "Which one of the tribes of Israel failed to come up before Yahweh at Mizpah?" And, in fact, no one from Jabesh-gilead had come to the camp for the assembly. 9 For when the people were counted, none of the residents of Jabesh-gilead were there.

NOTABLE

10 So the congregation sent 12,000 of their most valiant men and commanded them: "Go and put to the sword those living in Jabesh-gilead, including women and children. 11 This is what you are to do: Devote to destruction every male, as well as every female who has had relations with a man."

12 So they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young women who had not had relations with a man, and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh in the land of Canaan.

13 Then the whole congregation sent a message of peace to the Benjamites who were at the rock of Rimmon. 14 And at that time the Benjamites returned and were given the women who were spared from Jabesh-gilead. But there were not enough women for all of them.

15 The people grieved for Benjamin, because Yahweh had made a void in the tribes of Israel.

16 Then the elders of the congregation said, "What should we do about wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?" 17 They added, "There must be heirs for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe of Israel will not be wiped out. 18 But we cannot give them our daughters as wives."

For the Israelites had sworn, "Cursed is he who gives a wife to a Benjamite."

19 "But look," they said, "there is a yearly feast to Yahweh in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel east of the road that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah."

20 So they commanded the Benjamites: "Go, hide in the vineyards 21 and watch. When you see the daughters of Shiloh come out to perform their dances, each of you is to come out of the vineyards, catch for himself a wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. 22 When their fathers or brothers come to us to complain, we will tell them, 'Do us a favor by helping them, since we did not get wives for each of them in the war. Since you did not actually give them your daughters, you have no guilt.'"

23 The Benjamites did as instructed and carried away the number of women they needed from the dancers they caught. They went back to their own inheritance, rebuilt their cities, and settled in them. 24 And at that time, each of the Israelites returned from there to his own tribe and clan, each to his own inheritance.

25 In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

RUTH

From Moab to the Messiah

AUTHOR	The book does not name its author. Jewish tradition in the Talmud says Samuel wrote it. It ends with the name David, so it was written in David's time or later. Many scholars think it was written down after the exile, in the 500s or 400s BC.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	In the days when the judges ruled, 1:1. About ten years in Moab, 1:4, then one harvest season in Bethlehem, from the barley harvest to the end of the wheat harvest, 2:23.
DATE	Counting back three generations from David, about 1100 BC. If Rahab was Boaz's own mother, Matthew 1:5, it was earlier, near the start of the judges. See The Missing Generations in the Big Question pages, p.432.
WRITTEN TO	Israel, to show how God's loyal love worked through ordinary loyal people, and how a Moabite widow became the great grandmother of King David.
KEY VERSE	Ruth 1:16. Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God.

ONE OF THE OLDEST COPIES OF RUTH
This piece of leather comes from 4QRuth a, a scroll of Ruth found in Cave 4 at Qumran, near the Dead Sea. It was copied about 50 BC and holds part of Ruth chapter 1, where the word Moab shows up again and again.

Four scrolls of Ruth were found at Qumran, two in Cave 2 and two in Cave 4. Their wording is very close to the Hebrew text behind this Bible. Most of the differences are small changes in spelling.

In the Hebrew Bible, Ruth is one of five short scrolls read on special days each year. Photo Shai Halevi, Israel Antiquities Authority, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

Historical Setting

Two places. Bethlehem in Judah, a farm town about six miles south of Jerusalem, and Moab, across the Dead Sea to the east, where people worshiped a god named Chemosh. It is the same time as the book of Judges, when everyone did what was right in his own eyes. Ruth is a quiet story about a few people who did what was right in God's eyes.

What Was Going Wrong

FAMINE. There was no bread in Bethlehem, the house of bread 1:1.
LEAVING HOME. Elimelech took his family out of the Promised Land to live in Moab 1:1 to 2.
THREE FUNERALS. Naomi lost her husband and both sons, and she had no grandchildren 1:3 to 5.
BITTERNESS. Naomi said the Almighty had dealt bitterly with her, and she came home empty 1:20 to 21.
A NAME DYING OUT. With no son, the family's land and name would be lost forever 4:5 to 10.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Ruth is a short, beautiful story set in an ugly time. A family from Bethlehem runs from a famine to Moab, and only the women come back: Naomi, bitter and empty, and her Moabite daughter in law Ruth, who refuses to leave her. Ruth gleans leftover grain to keep them alive and lands in the field of Boaz, a relative who can redeem the family. Naomi makes a bold plan, Boaz does everything the right way, and the two marry. Their son Obed is King David's grandfather. God never speaks in Ruth and does no miracles, but His hand is behind every page.

Ruth at a Glance

CH 1	EMPTY A famine, three funerals, and a promise on the road home.
CH 2	GLEANING Ruth works in the field of Boaz.
CH 3	THE THRESHING FLOOR A midnight request.
CH 4:1 to 12	AT THE GATE Boaz buys back the land and marries Ruth.

Where Jesus Shows Up

RUTH 2:12 Boaz prays that Ruth will find shelter under God's wings. Jesus said He longed to gather Jerusalem like a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, Matthew 23:37.

RUTH 4:9 TO 10 Boaz, a close relative, pays the price to buy back the land and the family. Jesus became our relative by becoming human and paid the price to redeem us, Galatians 4:4 to 5 and Ephesians 1:7.

RUTH 4:17 Obed, Jesse, David. Matthew 1:5 to 6 names Boaz, Ruth and Obed in the family line of Jesus, the Son of David.

GOD'S NAMES IN RUTH
Yahweh, eighteen times, mostly in blessings people speak to each other, like Yahweh be with you, 2:4. Naomi calls Him Shaddai, the Almighty, 1:20 to 21. See Why We Say Yahweh in the Old Testament Introduction.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

NO MIRACLES
God never speaks and does no miracle in Ruth. The writer only says Yahweh acted twice, 1:6 and 4:13, yet He is behind the whole story.

MR. SO AND SO
Boaz calls the other redeemer peloni almoni, the Hebrew for Mr. So and So, 4:1.

BOOKS NAMED FOR WOMEN
Ruth and Esther are the only two books in this Bible named for women. Ruth, a foreigner, married a man of Judah. Esther, a Jewish woman, married a foreign king.

READ AT PENTECOST
Jewish people read Ruth every year at Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks, the wheat harvest feast the New Testament calls Pentecost.

How Did It Turn Out?

Naomi went from empty to full. A Moabite widow found a home, a husband and a God. Her great grandson was King David, and Matthew 1:5 puts her in the family line of Jesus. Next comes 1 Samuel, where the last judge anoints David.

DEMONIC NOTABLE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

A famine hits Bethlehem, which means house of bread, so Elimelech moves his family to Moab. Then he dies, and so do both his sons. Naomi heads home with nothing. One daughter in law goes back. The other, Ruth, refuses to leave: Where you go, I will go. Naomi gets back to Bethlehem and says, Don't call me Pleasant. Call me Bitter.

NAOMI BECOMES A WIDOW // 1 TIMOTHY 5:3–16

1 In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land. And a certain man from Bethlehem in Judah, with his wife and two sons, went to reside in the land of Moab. 2 The man's name was Elimelech, his wife's name was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah, and they entered the land of Moab and settled there.

3 Then Naomi's husband Elimelech died, and she was left with her two sons, 4 who took Moabite women as their wives, one named Orpah and the other named Ruth.
And after they had lived in Moab about ten years, 5 both Mahlon and Chilion also died, and Naomi was left without her two sons and without her husband.

RUTH'S LOYALTY TO NAOMI

6 When Naomi heard in Moab that Yahweh had attended to His people by providing them with food, she and her daughters-in-law prepared to leave the land of Moab. 7 Accompanied by her two daughters-in-law, she left the place where she had been living and set out on the road leading back to the land of Judah.

8 Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back, each of you to your mother's home. May Yahweh show you loving devotion, as you have shown to your dead and to me. 9 May Yahweh enable each of you to find rest in the home of your new husband."

And she kissed them as they wept aloud
10 and said, "Surely we will return with you to your people."

11 But Naomi replied, "Return home, my daughters. Why would you go with me?
Are there still sons in my womb to become your husbands? 12 Return home, my daughters. Go on, for I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was hope for me to have a husband tonight and to bear sons, 13 would you wait for them to grow up? Would you refrain from having husbands? No, my daughters, it is much more bitter for me than for you,
because the hand of Yahweh has gone out against me."

14 Again they wept aloud, and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye, but Ruth clung to her.

15 "Look," said Naomi, "your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and her gods; follow her back home."

16 But Ruth replied:

"Do not urge me to leave you
or to turn from following you.
For wherever you go, I will go,
and wherever you live, I will live;
your people will be my people,
and your God will be my God.

- RUTH 1:1 [NOTE] IN THE DAYS WHEN THE JUDGES RULED. Ruth happens in the same dark days as the book of Judges. Bethlehem means house of bread, and the house of bread had no bread.

- RUTH 1:2 [NOTE] Elimelech means my God is king. Naomi means pleasant. Many think Mahlon and Chilion mean sickly and failing, which fits what happened to them. Ephrathites were people from Ephrathah, the old name for the Bethlehem area, Genesis 35:19 and Micah 5:2.
- RUTH 1:4 [NOTE] The Moabites came from Lot, Abraham's nephew, Genesis 19:37. God's law kept Moabites out of the assembly of Yahweh, Deuteronomy 23:3. See the Big Question pages A Moabite in Jesus' Family?, p.423

- RUTH 1:8 [NOTE] LOVING DEVOTION is the Hebrew word hesed: loyal love that keeps showing up. It is the big word of this book, 1:8, 2:20 and 3:10.

- RUTH 1:16 [NOTABLE] One of the greatest promises of loyalty ever spoken, and a Moabite widow said it. Ruth chose Naomi's people and Naomi's God for life. It is still read at weddings.

NOTABLE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

A MOABITE IN JESUS' FAMILY?

The Problem

RUTH 1:4 · DEUTERONOMY 23:3 TO 6 · GENESIS 19:30 TO 38 · NEHEMIAH 13:1 TO 3 · MATTHEW 1:5

WHERE MOAB CAME FROM

The Moabites came from Lot, Abraham's nephew, through his older daughter, Genesis 19:30 to 37. They lived east of the Dead Sea.

THE LAW

No Ammonite or Moabite or any of their descendants may enter the assembly of Yahweh, even to the tenth generation, Deuteronomy 23:3. The reason: they did not meet Israel with bread and water in the wilderness, and they hired Balaam to curse Israel, 23:4. Later, Moabite women led Israel into the worship of Baal of Peor, Numbers 25:1 to 3.

STILL IN FORCE LATER

After the exile, Nehemiah read this law aloud, and the people separated from foreigners, Nehemiah 13:1 to 3. Ezra had the men send away their foreign wives, Ezra 9 to 10.

AND YET

Ruth the Moabitess married Boaz, an important man of Judah, and her great grandson became King David. Matthew 1:5 names her in the family line of Jesus. David even sent his parents to the king of Moab to keep them safe, 1 Samuel 22:3 to 4.

THE QUESTION

How could a Moabite be the great grandmother of Israel's greatest king and an ancestor of the Messiah, when the law kept Moabites out?

Every View

DEUTERONOMY 23:3 · RUTH 1:16 · ISAIAH 56:3 TO 7 · GALATIANS 3:28

VIEW 1: MOABITE MEN, NOT WOMEN

The Mishnah, a Jewish book of law from about AD 200, says the ban was on a Moabite man, not a Moabite woman. Later rabbis in the Talmud gave the reason: Moab did not bring Israel bread and water, and that was the men's job. Jewish teachers used this to explain Ruth.

VIEW 2: FAITH BRINGS YOU IN

Ruth left Chemosh and chose Yahweh: your God will be my God, 1:16. She came under God's wings, 2:12. Many Christians say the law kept out Moab as a nation of enemies, not a person who turned to God, just like Rahab of Jericho. Isaiah 56:3 to 7 says foreigners who hold on to God's covenant will be welcome in His house.

VIEW 3: WHAT THE ASSEMBLY MEANT

Some say the assembly of Yahweh meant the official gathering of Israel for worship and leadership, so the law did not ban marriage. Others point out that the ban lasted to the tenth generation, and David was only the third.

VIEW 4: A STORY WITH A MESSAGE

Many scholars think the book was written, or written down, to answer strict rules against foreign wives in the days of Ezra and Nehemiah. Others date it much earlier, but agree it welcomes outsiders.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

God's grace is bigger than anyone expected. Jesus' family tree in Matthew names four women besides Mary. Rahab and Ruth were foreigners, Tamar was most likely a Canaanite, and Bathsheba had been the wife of Uriah the Hittite. In Christ there is neither Jew nor Greek, Galatians 3:28.

17 Where you die, I will die,
and there I will be buried.
May Yahweh punish me,
and ever so severely,
if anything but death
separates you and me."

18 When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped trying to persuade her.

THE RETURN TO BETHLEHEM

19 So Naomi and Ruth traveled until they came to Bethlehem. When they entered Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them, and the women of the town exclaimed, "Can this be Naomi?"

- RUTH 1:17 [NOTE] Ruth swears by Yahweh, the God of Israel, by name. A Moabite woman is now calling on Naomi's God.
- RUTH 1:19 [FIELD NOTES] A clay seal found in Jerusalem names Bethlehem. See the Bethlehem Field Notes page, p.425.

THE MESHA STELE

RUTH 1:1 · 1:15 · NUMBERS 21:29 · 2 KINGS 3:4 TO 27

The Mesha Stele in the Louvre, Paris. The dark, rough pieces are the original stone. The smooth parts were filled in from a paper copy made before it broke. Public domain photo.

WHAT IT IS

A black stone almost four feet tall, carved for Mesha, king of Moab. In 34 lines he brags about how he won Moab's freedom from Israel. It is also called the Moabite Stone.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 840 BC, in the time of King Ahab's sons. That is two or three centuries after Ruth, but it is Moab speaking in its own words, in a language very close to Hebrew.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

At Dhiban in Jordan, the Bible's Dibon, in 1868. Before it could be bought, local people heated it and poured cold water on it, and it broke into pieces. A paper copy pressed onto it before it broke saved most of the words. The pieces are in the Louvre in Paris.

WHAT IT SAYS

Omri king of Israel humbled Moab many days, because Chemosh was angry with his land. Mesha says Chemosh gave Moab back. He says he took the holy things of Yahweh from Nebo, most likely the temple vessels, and dragged them before Chemosh. It is the oldest sure writing of God's name, YHWH, ever found outside the Bible.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR RUTH

Orpah went back to her people and her gods, 1:15, and Moab's god was Chemosh, Numbers 21:29. Ruth chose the other God on the stone: Your God will be my God, 1:16. The stone shows Moab as a real kingdom with its own king, god and language, right across the Dead Sea from Bethlehem.

THE HOUSE OF DAVID?

In 1994 the French scholar André Lemaire read a broken part of line 31 as the House of David. Some scholars read it as another name, and others say it is too damaged to tell. The debate is not settled.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing on it names Ruth, Naomi or Boaz. It shows that Moab, Chemosh and the God of Israel were real names in Ruth's world.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

20 "Do not call me Naomi," she replied.
"Call me Mara, because the Almighty has dealt quite bitterly with me. 21 I went away full, but Yahweh has brought me back empty. Why call me Naomi? After all, Yahweh has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me."

22 So Naomi returned from the land of Moab with her daughter-in-law Ruth the Moabitess. And they arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

2

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Ruth goes out to pick up leftover grain behind the harvesters, and she just happens to land in the field of Boaz, a rich relative of Naomi's. Boaz tells his young men to leave her alone and drop a little extra on purpose. Ruth comes home with about half a bushel of barley, and Naomi's matchmaking brain wakes up.

BOAZ MEETS RUTH

1 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side, a prominent man of noble character from the clan of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi,
"Please let me go into the fields and glean heads of grain after someone in whose sight I may find favor."

"Go ahead, my daughter," Naomi replied.

3 So Ruth departed and went out into the field and gleaned after the harvesters.
And she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelech.

- RUTH 1:20 [NOTE] Mara means bitter. The Almighty is the Hebrew name Shaddai, the name God used with Abraham, Genesis 17:1. Naomi is honest with God about her pain, and the book does not scold her for it.
- RUTH 1:22 [FIELD NOTES] The barley harvest came in spring, about April. A farm calendar from about the 900s BC gives it a month of its own. See The Gezer Calendar Field Notes page, p.426.
- RUTH 2:2 [NOTE] GLEANING. God's law told farmers to leave the edges of the field and the grain they dropped for the poor, the foreigner and the widow, Leviticus 19:9 to 10 and Deuteronomy 24:19. Ruth was all three.
- RUTH 2:3 [NOTE] She happened to come to the field of Boaz. The writer is smiling here. In this book nothing just happens.

Part of the mosaic floor of Emperor Constantine's Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem, AD 330s. The seal itself is not shown. No free photo of it exists. The wooden frames are modern. Photo Wknight94, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

A tiny lump of clay, called a bulla, smaller than a dime, pressed with a seal. Experts read its three lines of old Hebrew writing as In the seventh, Bethlehem, for the king. One scholar thinks one letter is different and the town is not Bethlehem, but most accept the reading. It is not in the photo. No free photo of it exists.

HOW OLD IT IS

About the 700s or 600s BC, when kings of Judah ruled in Jerusalem. It is the oldest object found in Israel that names Bethlehem. A letter from about 1350 BC, found at Amarna in Egypt, names a town near Jerusalem that some think was Bethlehem, but most scholars doubt it.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

It was found in soil sifted from the City of David dig in Jerusalem, led by Eli Shukron. The Israel Antiquities Authority announced it in 2012.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Many think it sealed a shipment of taxes, like grain or wine, sent from Bethlehem to the king in the seventh year of his reign. Bethlehem was a real farm town of Judah, just as Ruth shows it.

The Gezer Calendar, Istanbul Archaeology Museums. Photo oncenawhile, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

A small limestone tablet, about four inches tall, with seven lines about the farm year scratched into it, and a name scratched at the side. It lists the year month by month. It is one of the oldest writings ever found in a language close to Hebrew.

HOW OLD IT IS

About the 900s BC, around the time of King Solomon. Some scholars say its language is an early form of Hebrew. Others call it Phoenician or a related Canaanite language.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The Irish archaeologist R. A. S. Macalister found it in 1908 at Gezer, between Jerusalem and the coast. It is in Istanbul, because the Ottoman Empire ruled the land then.

WHAT IT SAYS

Two months of gathering, two months of planting, two months of late planting, a month of cutting flax, a month of barley harvest, a month of harvest and measuring, two months of pruning vines, a month of summer fruit.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR RUTH

Naomi and Ruth came home at the beginning of barley harvest, 1:22, and Ruth gleaned through the barley and wheat harvests, 2:23. That is the barley month and the harvest month on this tablet, about April to June.

THE BIG DEBATE

Who wrote it, and why? Many think it was a school exercise, a little song students copied, because the stone was scraped clean and used again. Others think it was a list for collecting taxes.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It names no one from Ruth. It shows the farm year Ruth lived in, the same seasons the book follows.

330s. It is real and ancient, but it is more than a thousand years after Ruth.

BETHLEHEM IN THE BIBLE

Bethlehem means house of bread. Rachel was buried on the way there, Genesis 35:19. Ruth and Boaz lived there, David was born there, 1 Samuel 16:1, and Micah 5:2 said the Messiah would come from there, Matthew 2:1.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The seal is centuries after Ruth and names no one from the book. It shows that Bethlehem was a real town of Judah in Bible times.

4 Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and said to the harvesters, "Yahweh be with you."
"Yahweh bless you," they replied.
5 And Boaz asked the foreman of his harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"

The Mesad Hashavyahu ostracon, Israel Museum, Jerusalem. Photo Paamei Elyon, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A broken piece of pottery with 14 lines of ancient Hebrew written in ink. It is a letter from a farm worker to the official in charge of a small fort.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 630 to 609 BC, in the days of King Josiah. The Israeli scholar Joseph Naveh found it in 1960 at Mesad Hashavyahu, a fort near the coast south of where Tel Aviv is today.

WHAT IT SAYS

The worker says he was harvesting and finished his work, but a man named Hoshayahu son of Shobai took his cloak. His fellow workers in the heat can swear he did nothing wrong. He begs the official to give his cloak back.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR RUTH

It shows what a harvest field was like: hired workers, a foreman, long days in the heat, and poor people who could be pushed around. That is why Boaz ordered his young men not to touch Ruth or shame her, 2:9 and 2:15.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

We do not know if the worker got his cloak back. The letter is centuries after Ruth and has nothing to do with Boaz's field.

6 The foreman answered, "She is the Moabitess who returned with Naomi from the land of Moab. 7 She has said, 'Please let me glean and gather among the sheaves after the harvesters.' So she came out and has continued from morning until now, except that she rested a short time in the shelter."

8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter. Do not go and glean in another field, and do not go away from this place,
but stay here close to my servant girls. 9
Let your eyes be on the field they are harvesting, and follow along after these girls.
Indeed, I have ordered the young men not to touch you. And when you are thirsty, go and drink from the jars the young men have filled."

10 At this, she fell on her face, bowing low to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found such favor in your eyes that you should take notice of me, even though I am a foreigner?"

11 Boaz replied, "I have been made fully aware of all you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and how you came to a people you did not know before. 12 May Yahweh repay your work, and may you receive a rich reward from Yahweh, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have taken refuge."

13 "My lord," she said, "may I continue to find favor in your eyes, for you have comforted and spoken to the heart of your maidservant, though I am not like one of your servant girls."

RUTH 2:12 [NOTABLE] Boaz prays that God will reward Ruth for hiding under His wings. Then Boaz becomes the answer to his own prayer, when Ruth asks him to spread the corner of his garment, the same Hebrew word as wings, over her, 3:9.

RUTH 2:13 [HEART] Ruth says Boaz spoke to her heart. In Hebrew that means he comforted her tenderly, the

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come over here; have some bread and dip it into the vinegar sauce." So she sat down beside the harvesters, and he offered her roasted grain, and she ate and was satisfied and had some left over.

15 When Ruth got up to glean, Boaz ordered his young men, "Even if she gathers
among the sheaves, do not insult her. 16 Rather, pull out for her some stalks from the bundles and leave them for her to gather. Do not rebuke her."

17 So Ruth gathered grain in the field until evening. And when she beat out what she had gleaned, it was about half a bushel of barley. 18 She picked up the grain and went into the town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. And she brought out what she had saved from her meal and gave it to Naomi.

19 Then her mother-in-law asked her,
"Where did you glean today, and where did you work? Blessed be the man who noticed you."

So she told her mother-in-law where she had worked. "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz," she said.

20 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law,
"May he be blessed by Yahweh, who has not withdrawn His kindness from the living or the dead." Naomi continued, "The man is a close relative. He is one of our kinsman-redeemers."

21 Then Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also told me, 'Stay with my young men until they have finished gathering all my harvest.'"

22 And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, "My daughter, it is good for you to work with his young women, so that nothing will happen to you in another field."

23 So Ruth stayed close to the servant girls of Boaz to glean grain until the barley and wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

THE BIG QUESTION

THE KINSMAN REDEEMER

What a Goel Was

RUTH 2:20 · 3:9 TO 13 · 4:1 TO 10 · LEVITICUS 25:25 TO 49 · DEUTERONOMY 25:5 TO 10

THE HEBREW WORD

Goel comes from gaal, to buy back or redeem. A goel was the closest male relative, the one who stepped in when a family was in trouble.

WHAT A REDEEMER DID

He bought back land a poor relative had to sell, Leviticus 25:25. He bought back a relative who had sold himself as a slave, Leviticus 25:47 to 49. In Ruth, redeeming the land also meant marrying the widow, so a son could carry on the dead man's name, 4:5 and 4:10. That is close to the brother in law law of Deuteronomy 25:5 to 10.

THREE THINGS HE NEEDED

Bible teachers often say a redeemer had to be a close relative, able to pay, and willing. The nearer relative was close and able, but not willing, 4:6. Boaz was all three.

WHAT BOAZ DID

He did it in public, at the gate, before ten elders, 4:2 and 4:9. He bought Naomi's land and married Ruth. When Obed was born, the women said, A son has been born to Naomi, 4:17. The family name lived on.

GOD THE REDEEMER

The Old Testament calls God Himself Israel's Redeemer, the same word: I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, Exodus 6:6, and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, Isaiah 41:14. Job said, I know that my Redeemer lives, Job 19:25.

same words used for God's comfort to His people in Isaiah 40:2 and Hosea 2:14.

■ RUTH 2:20 [NOTE] KINSMAN REDEEMER is the Hebrew word goel, a close relative who buys back what a family lost, Leviticus 25:25. See the Big Question pages The Kinsman Redeemer, p.428.

THE HEART BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Is Boaz a Picture of Jesus?

RUTH 4:9 TO 10 · GALATIANS 4:4 TO 5 · EPHESIANS 1:7 · HEBREWS 2:14 TO 17 · 1 PETER 1:18 TO 19

VIEW 1: A PICTURE OF CHRIST

Many Christians, from the early church to today, see Boaz as a picture of Jesus. Jesus became our relative by becoming human, Hebrews 2:14 to 17. He was able and willing to pay the price, not with silver but with His own blood, 1 Peter 1:18 to 19. He came to redeem those under the law, Galatians 4:4 to 5. Ruth, a foreigner, pictures people from every nation brought into God's family. This Bible marks 4:9 to 10 as a messianic foreshadow.

VIEW 2: A TRUE STORY FIRST

Many scholars say Ruth is first of all a true story about loyal love. The New Testament names Ruth and Boaz in Jesus' family tree, Matthew 1:5, but never calls Boaz a picture of Christ. They warn that turning every detail into a symbol can make the Bible say things it does not say.

VIEW 3: THE JEWISH READING

Jewish readers love Boaz as a model of hesed, loyal kindness that goes beyond what the law requires. They read the book as the story of how God prepared the family of King David, who leads to the Messiah.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

The first side says the redeemer idea runs through the whole Bible and ends in Jesus, so it is fair to see Him here. The second side agrees Jesus is the great Redeemer, but says the story should be read for what it meant to its first readers before it is read as a picture.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

God's kindness came through people's kindness. Ruth was loyal to Naomi, Boaz was kind to Ruth, and God used both to bring King David, and later Jesus, into the world.

3

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Naomi has a plan. Take a bath, put on perfume, go to the threshing floor at night, and lie down at Boaz's feet. At midnight Boaz wakes up and finds a woman there. Ruth asks him to spread the corner of his garment over her. Boaz says yes, but there is a closer relative who gets first dibs.

RUTH'S REDEMPTION ASSURED

1 One day Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi said to her, "My daughter, should I not seek a resting place for you, that it may be well with you? 2 Now is not Boaz, with whose servant girls you have been working, a relative of ours? In fact, tonight he is winnowing barley on the threshing floor. 3
Therefore wash yourself, put on perfume, and wear your best clothes. Go down to the threshing floor, but do not let the man know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking. 4 When he lies down, note the place where he lies. Then go in and uncover his feet, and lie down, and he will explain to you what you should do."
5 "I will do everything you say," Ruth answered. 6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law had instructed her to do.
7 After Boaz had finished eating and drinking and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain.
Then Ruth went in secretly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.
8 At midnight, Boaz was startled, turned over, and there lying at his feet was a woman!
9 "Who are you?" he asked.
"I am your servant Ruth," she replied.
"Spread the corner of your garment over me, for you are a kinsman-redeemer."

- RUTH 3:2 [NOTE] A threshing floor was a flat open place where grain was beaten loose and tossed in the evening wind, so the chaff blew away. At harvest time the men slept there to guard the grain.
- RUTH 3:4 [NOTE] UNCOVER HIS FEET. Most readers, Jewish and Christian, take this as a bold but pure way for Ruth to ask Boaz to marry her. Some scholars think the words have a double meaning. See the Big Question pages The Threshing Floor, p.430.
- RUTH 3:7 [HEART] After the harvest meal Boaz's heart was merry. The Hebrew says his heart was good: full, happy and at peace after a hard day's work.
- RUTH 3:9 [NOTE] SPREAD THE CORNER OF YOUR GARMENT. The Hebrew says your wing, kanaf, the same

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

10 Then Boaz said, "May Yahweh bless you, my daughter. You have shown more kindness now than before, because you have not run after the younger men, whether rich or poor. 11 And now do not be afraid, my daughter. I will do for you whatever you request, since all my fellow townspeople know that you are a woman of noble character. 12 Yes, it is true that I am a kinsman-redeemer, but there is a redeemer nearer than I. 13 Stay here tonight,
and in the morning, if he wants to redeem you, good. Let him redeem you. But if he does not want to redeem you, as surely as Yahweh lives, I will. Now lie here until morning."

14 So she lay down at his feet until morning, but she got up before anyone else could recognize her.

Then Boaz said, "Do not let it be known that a woman came to the threshing floor." 15 And he told her, "Bring the shawl you are wearing and hold it out." When she did so, he poured in six measures of barley and placed it on her. Then he went into the city.

16 When Ruth returned to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked her, "How did it go, my daughter?"

Then Ruth told her all that Boaz had done for her. 17 And she said, "He gave me
these six measures of barley, for he said,
'Do not go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'"

18 "Wait, my daughter," said Naomi, "until you find out how things go, for he will not rest unless he has resolved the matter today."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE THRESHING FLOOR

What Happened That Night?

RUTH 3:1 TO 18 · EZEKIEL 16:8 · PROVERBS 31:10

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Naomi told Ruth to wash, put on perfume and her best clothes, go to the threshing floor, wait until Boaz lay down, then uncover his feet and lie down, 3:3 to 4. At midnight Boaz woke up startled and found her at his feet, 3:8. She asked him to spread the corner of his garment over her, for he was a redeemer, 3:9. He said yes, told her to stay until morning, and she left before anyone could recognize her, 3:13 to 14.

WHAT A THRESHING FLOOR WAS

A flat, open place where grain was beaten loose and tossed into the evening breeze. At harvest the men ate there, celebrated and slept beside the grain to guard it.

SPREAD YOUR WING OVER ME

Ruth used the same word Boaz had used in his prayer, the wings of God, 2:12. In Ezekiel 16:8 God spreads the corner of His garment over Jerusalem, a picture of His people, and makes a marriage covenant with her. Ruth was asking Boaz to marry her.

WHY AT NIGHT?

Women did not usually ask men to marry them, and a widow from Moab had no father or brother to ask for her. A private request let Boaz say yes or no without public shame. Boaz kept it quiet to protect her name, 3:14, and then did everything in public at the gate the next morning, 4:1.

A WOMAN OF NOBLE CHARACTER

Boaz blessed her and called her a woman of noble character, 3:10 to 11, the same words as Proverbs 31:10.

word as His wings in 2:12. It was a way to ask for marriage, Ezekiel 16:8. Boaz prayed for God to cover Ruth, and now he can be the answer.

■ RUTH 3:11 [NOTE] A WOMAN OF NOBLE CHARACTER is the same Hebrew phrase as Proverbs 31:10. In the oldest complete Hebrew Bible, Ruth comes right after Proverbs.

■ RUTH 3:15 [NOTE] SIX MEASURES. The Hebrew says only six of barley and does not name the measure. It was a big gift, as much as Ruth could carry home.

Every View

RUTH 3:4 · 3:7 TO 14 · DEUTERONOMY 23:3 · PROVERBS 31:10

VIEW 1: A BOLD BUT PURE PROPOSAL

This is how most Jewish and Christian readers have taken it for centuries. Feet means feet: Ruth uncovered his feet so the cold night air would wake him, and she lay at his feet, 3:14. Old Jewish writings praise Boaz for his self control that night. Boaz blessed her for her kindness, called her a woman of noble character, and waited to marry her until the legal matter was settled. He would not have said those things if she had come to seduce him.

VIEW 2: DOUBLE MEANINGS

Some scholars point out that the Hebrew words for feet, lie down and uncover can sometimes be polite ways to talk about sex. They think the writer used words with a double meaning on purpose, so the reader holds his breath. A few think the two slept together that night. Most who see the double meanings still say the point of the scene is that both acted with honor.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

The first side says the book praises both people again and again, and the text never says anything improper happened. The second side says the writer chose risky words on purpose to build suspense, and the story is about how they handled the risk.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Ruth took a huge risk. Boaz protected her reputation, sent her home with a gift, and settled everything the right way, in public, the next morning. Nobody in the story treats her as cheap. He calls her a woman of noble character.

4

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Boaz goes to the town gate and calls over the closer relative, Mr. So and So. He wants the field until he hears that Ruth comes with it, so he takes off his sandal and backs out. Boaz marries Ruth, and the women of the town name their baby Obed. And Obed? He is King David's grandfather.

BOAZ REDEEMS RUTH

1 Meanwhile, Boaz went to the gate and sat down there. Soon the kinsman-redeemer of whom he had spoken came along, and Boaz said, "Come over here, my friend, and sit down." So he went over and sat down.

2 Then Boaz took ten of the elders of the city and said, "Sit here," and they did so.

3 And he said to the kinsman-redeemer,
"Naomi, who has returned from the land of Moab, is selling the piece of land that belonged to our brother Elimelech. 4 I thought I should inform you that you may buy it back in the presence of those seated here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, do so. But if you will not redeem it, tell me so I may know, because there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am next after you."

"I will redeem it," he replied.

5 Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the land from Naomi and also from Ruth the Moabitess, you must also acquire the widow of the deceased in order to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance."

6 The kinsman-redeemer replied, "I cannot redeem it myself, or I would jeopardize my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption, because I cannot redeem it."

7 Now in former times in Israel, concerning the redemption or exchange of property,
to make any matter legally binding a man would remove his sandal and give it to the other party, and this was a confirmation in Israel. 8 So the kinsman-redeemer removed his sandal and said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself."

9 At this, Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses today that I am buying from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech, Chilion, and Mahlon. 10 More-

- RUTH 4:1 [NOTE] THE GATE was the town courthouse, where the elders settled business. Boaz calls the other man peloni almoni, a Hebrew way of saying Mr. So and So. The man who would not keep a dead man's name alive does not get his own name in the book.
- RUTH 4:7 [NOTE] A custom so old the writer had to explain it. Compare Deuteronomy 25:9, where the widow pulls off the sandal.

over, I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon's widow, as my wife, to raise up the name of the deceased through his inheritance, so that his name will not disappear from among his brothers or from the gate of his home. You are witnesses today."

11 "We are witnesses," said the elders and all the people at the gate. "May Yahweh make the woman entering your home like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you be prosperous in Ephrathah and famous in Bethlehem. 12 And may your house become like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring Yahweh will give you by this young woman."

BOAZ MARRIES RUTH

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. And when he had relations with her, Yahweh enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

14 Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has not left you this day without a kinsman-redeemer. May his name become famous in Israel. 15 He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given him birth."

16 And Naomi took the child, placed him on her lap, and became a nurse to him. 17 The neighbor women said, "A son has been born to Naomi," and they named him Obed. He became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

THE LINE OF DAVID // MATTHEW 1:1–17; LUKE 3:23–38

18 Now these are the generations of Perez:
Perez was the father of Hezron,
19 Hezron was the father of Ram,
Ram was the father of Amminadab,
20 Amminadab was the father of Nahshon,
Nahshon was the father of Salmon,
21 Salmon was the father of Boaz,
Boaz was the father of Obed, 22 Obed was the father of Jesse,
and Jesse was the father of David.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE MISSING GENERATIONS

Ten Names from Perez to David

RUTH 4:18 TO 22 · NUMBERS 1:7 · MATTHEW 1:3 TO 6 · JOSHUA 2

THE LIST

Perez, Hezron, Ram, Amminadab, Nahshon, Salmon, Boaz, Obed, Jesse, David, 4:18 to 22. The same line is in 1 Chronicles 2:5 to 15, Matthew 1:3 to 6 and Luke 3:31 to 33.

THE MATH

Nahshon led the tribe of Judah in the wilderness, Numbers 1:7, so his son Salmon was alive when Israel entered the land. David was born about 1040 BC. By the early date for the Exodus, that leaves more than 350 years for just four men: Salmon, Boaz, Obed and Jesse. By the late date, it leaves about 170 years.

RAHAB

Matthew 1:5 says Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, the woman of Jericho, Joshua 2. If Rahab was really Boaz's mother, then Ruth's story happened early in the days of the judges.

AN OLD JEWISH GUESS

The Talmud says Boaz was the same man as Ibzan of Bethlehem, a judge who had thirty sons and thirty daughters, Judges 12:8 to 10. The Bible does not say so.

WHY THE LIST IS HERE

The story could have ended at 4:17. The list ties Ruth back to Perez and Tamar in Genesis 38 and forward to King David, so the reader sees that a small family story was part of God's big plan.

Every View

MATTHEW 1:8 · GENESIS 5 · GENESIS 11:10 TO 26 · GENESIS 49:10

VIEW 1: SOME NAMES ARE SKIPPED

Bible family lists often skip generations, and father of can mean ancestor of. Matthew 1:8 skips three kings of Judah, which helps him count fourteen generations, 1:17. Lists of ten names, like Genesis 5 and Genesis 11, may be built to be easy to remember. So the list gives the famous names, not every one.

VIEW 2: THE LIST IS COMPLETE

Others say every name is there, and these men had sons late in life. Boaz was clearly older than Ruth, 3:10. With the late date for the Exodus, four generations is easier to fit.

VIEW 3: RAHAB AS AN ANCESTOR

Some say Matthew means Rahab was an ancestor of Boaz, not his own mother, the way father can mean ancestor. Others say Matthew means she really was his mother, and that fits the skipped names view.

THE SAME LIST, FOUR TIMES

Ruth, 1 Chronicles 2, Matthew 1 and Luke 3 agree on these names, with small differences. Luke calls Salmon Sala, calls Ram Arni, and adds a name, Admin.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

The point of the list is that David came from Perez, the son of Judah, the tribe that would hold the scepter, Genesis 49:10. God was keeping His promise across hundreds of years, one ordinary family at a time.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO WROTE RUTH?

The Traditional View

RUTH 1:1 · 4:7 · 4:17 TO 22 · 1 SAMUEL 16:1

THE BOOK DOES NOT SAY

Ruth never names its writer. What we know comes from tradition and clues in the book.

THE TALMUD

An old Jewish teaching in the Talmud, Bava Batra 14b, says Samuel wrote the book that bears his name, Judges and Ruth.

CLUES IN THE BOOK

It starts In the days when the judges ruled, 1:1, looking back on those days. It explains a custom from former times, 4:7. It ends with David's name, 4:17 and 4:22, so it was written after David was born, and many think after he was famous. It never mentions Solomon, so many traditional scholars think it was written in David's time.

WHERE IT SITS

English Bibles put Ruth right after Judges, like the old Greek Bible. The Hebrew Bible puts it in the third section, the Writings, as one of five short scrolls read on special days each year. Ruth is read at Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks.

WHY IT WAS WRITTEN

To show that David's family came from God's hidden kindness, and that a foreign woman who trusted Yahweh was welcomed into His people.

Every View

RUTH 4:18 TO 22 · 1 CHRONICLES 2:5 TO 15 · EZRA 9 TO 10 · NEHEMIAH 13:23 TO 27

VIEW 1: EARLY, IN DAVID'S TIME

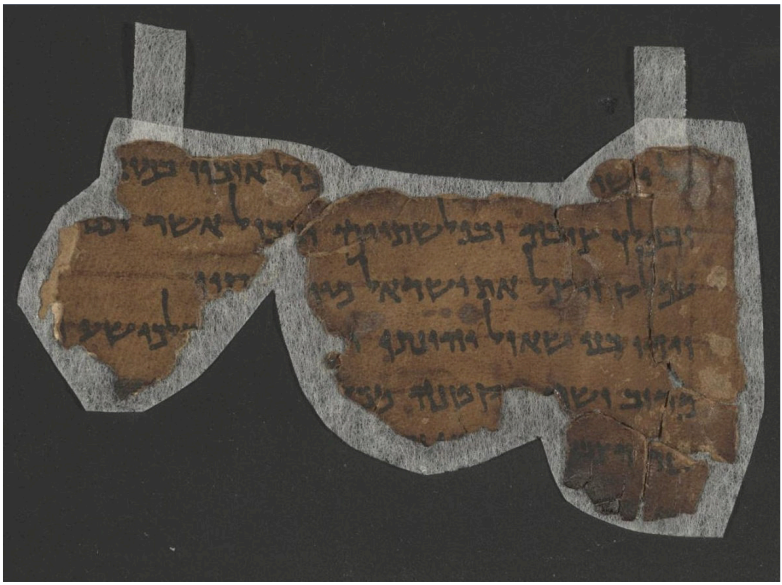
Samuel or someone close to David's court wrote it, to show that David's family was God's choice. Supporters point to the old style of its Hebrew and to the fact that Solomon is never named.

VIEW 2: LATE, AFTER THE EXILE

Many scholars date it to the 500s or 400s BC, pointing to a few later Hebrew words and the way it explains old customs. They think its welcome of a Moabite answered the strict rules about foreign wives in Ezra and Nehemiah's day.

VIEW 3: AN OLD STORY WRITTEN DOWN LATER

Some say the story was told for generations and written down later, and that the family list in 4:18 to 22, which matches 1 Chronicles 2, was added at the end.



WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Whoever wrote it was a master storyteller. God never speaks and does no miracles in the book, yet the reader ends knowing God was in every step, from a famine in Bethlehem to the birth of a king.

1 SAMUEL

Give Us a King

AUTHOR	The book does not name its author. Jewish tradition in the Talmud says Samuel wrote it, and Gad the seer and Nathan the prophet finished it after Samuel died, 25:1. 1 Chronicles 29:29 names the records of Samuel, Nathan and Gad.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	From Samuel's birth to Saul's death, about one hundred years.
DATE	About 1100 to 1010 BC. Saul became king about 1050 BC and died about 1010 BC.
WRITTEN TO	Israel, to show how God gave them kings, why Saul lost the throne, and why God chose David.
KEY VERSE	1 Samuel 16:7. Man sees the outward appearance, but Yahweh sees the heart.

ONE OF THE OLDEST COPIES OF SAMUEL
This piece of leather comes from 4QSam a, a scroll of 1 and 2 Samuel found in Cave 4 at Qumran, near the Dead Sea. It was copied about 50 to 25 BC. The words Israel and Saul can be read on it.

The scroll is broken into hundreds of pieces. Its wording often matches the old Greek Bible instead of the standard Hebrew text. It gives Goliath's height as about six feet nine inches, 17:4, and it has a paragraph about Nahash that the Hebrew text lacks, 10:27.

Historical Setting

The hill country of Israel, from Shiloh and Ramah in the north to Bethlehem in the south, with the Philistines living along the coast to the west. The Philistines controlled the blacksmiths, 13:19, and had five strong cities, and Israel had no king. 1 Samuel opens at the end of the time of the judges and closes on the day Israel's first king dies.

What Was Going Wrong

BAD PRIESTS. Eli's sons stole from the offerings and slept with the women who served at the tabernacle 2:12 to 17, 2:22.
A LUCKY CHARM. Israel carried the ark into battle as if it were magic, and lost it 4:3 to 11.
IDOLS. Israel served the Baals and the Ashtoreths 7:3 to 4.
BRIBES. Samuel's sons took bribes and twisted justice 8:3.
GIVE US A KING. The people wanted a king like the nations, and God said they had rejected Him 8:5 to 7.
A KING WHO WOULD NOT OBEY. Saul offered a sacrifice he was told to wait for, and spared what God told him to destroy 13:8 to 14, 15:9.
JEALOUSY AND MURDER. Saul tried again and again to kill David, and he had 85 priests killed at Nob 18:11, 22:18.
A KING AT A MEDIUM'S DOOR. Saul asked a medium to bring up Samuel from the dead 28:7 to 8.

The Idiot Proof Summary

1 Samuel is the story of how Israel got its first kings. It starts with Hannah, a woman who could not have children, praying at Shiloh. Her son Samuel becomes the last judge and a prophet, and he offers sacrifices like a priest. When Samuel grows old, the people demand a king like the other nations. God gives them Saul, tall and good looking, but Saul does not obey God and loses the kingdom. Then God sends Samuel to Bethlehem to anoint the youngest son of Jesse, a shepherd boy named David. David kills Goliath, wins Israel's heart and spends years running from a jealous King Saul. The book ends with Saul's death on Mount Gilboa, with David still waiting for the throne.

Where Jesus Shows Up

1 SAMUEL 2:10 Hannah sings of God's king and His anointed, the Hebrew word that gives us Messiah. Mary's song in Luke 1:46 to 55 echoes Hannah's.

1 SAMUEL 16:13 Samuel anoints David in Bethlehem. Jesus was born in Bethlehem as the Son of David, the King God promised, Luke 2:4 and 2:11.

1 SAMUEL 21:6 David eats the holy bread. Jesus told this story to show that He is Lord of the Sabbath, Matthew 12:3 to 8.

GOD'S NAMES IN 1 SAMUEL

Yahweh, again and again. Yahweh of Hosts, the armies of heaven, first used in 1:3. Hannah calls Him the Rock, 2:2, and Samuel calls Him the Glory of Israel, 15:29. See Why We Say Yahweh in the Old Testament Introduction.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

YAHWEH OF HOSTS

This name, Yahweh of the armies of heaven, is first used in the Bible in 1:3.

A HEAD TALLER

Saul was a head taller than anyone in Israel, 9:2, and he still hid in the baggage, 10:22.

THE CHEESE DELIVERY

David only came to the battle to bring food to his brothers, 17:17 to 18.

1, 2, 3 AND 4 KINGS

1 and 2 Samuel and 1 and 2 Kings used to be called 1, 2, 3 and 4 Kings, because they tell one long story, from Samuel's birth to the fall of Jerusalem. The old Greek Bible named them 1 to 4 Kingdoms, and Latin Bibles named them 1 to 4 Kings. The King James still calls this book The First Book of Samuel, otherwise called The First Book of the Kings. In the Hebrew Bible, 1 and 2 Samuel are one book.

How Did It Turn Out?

Saul and three of his sons died in battle on Mount Gilboa. The people asked for a king like the nations, and they got one, with all the trouble Samuel warned them about. But God had already chosen a man after His own heart. Next comes 2 Samuel, where David finally becomes king.

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Hannah can't have kids, and her husband's other wife rubs it in every single year. Hannah prays so hard at Shiloh that her lips move with no sound, and Eli the priest thinks she is drunk. God hears her anyway. She has a baby, names him Samuel, and keeps her promise: she gives him back to God.

ELKANAH AND HIS WIVES // PSALM 113:1–9

1 Now there was a man named Elkanah who was from Ramathaim-zophim in the hill country of Ephraim. He was the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. 2 He had two wives, one named Hannah and the other Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none.

3 Year after year Elkanah would go up from his city to worship and sacrifice to Yahweh of Hosts at Shiloh, where Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests to Yahweh. 4 And whenever the day came for Elkanah to present his sacrifice, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters. 5 But to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved her even though Yahweh had closed her womb.

6 Because Yahweh had closed Hannah's womb, her rival would provoke her viciously to taunt her. 7 And this went on year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of Yahweh, her rival taunted her until she wept and would not eat.

8 "Hannah, why are you crying?" her husband Elkanah asked. "Why won't you eat?
Why is your heart so grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

HANNAH PRAYS FOR A SON

9 So after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on a chair by the doorpost of the temple of Yahweh.

10 In her bitter distress, Hannah prayed to Yahweh and wept with many tears. 11 And she made a vow, saying, "O Yahweh of Hosts, if only You will look upon the afflic-tion of Your maidservant and remember me, not forgetting Your maidservant but giving her a son, then I will dedicate him to Yahweh all the days of his life, and no razor shall ever touch his head."

12 As Hannah kept on praying before Yahweh, Eli watched her mouth. 13 Hannah was praying in her heart, and though her lips were moving, her voice could not be heard.

So Eli thought she was drunk 14 and said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Put away your wine!"

15 "No, my lord," Hannah replied. "I am a woman troubled in spirit. I have not had any wine or strong drink, but I have poured out my soul before Yahweh. 16 Do not take your servant for a wicked woman, for all this time I have been praying out of the depth of my anguish and grief."

17 "Go in peace," Eli replied, "and may the God of Israel grant the petition you have asked of Him."

18 "May your maidservant find favor with you," said Hannah. Then she went on her way, and she began to eat, and her face was no longer downcast.

THE BIRTH OF SAMUEL

19 The next morning they got up early to bow in worship before Yahweh, and then they returned home to Ramah.

And Elkanah had relations with his wife
Hannah, and Yahweh remembered her. 20
So in the course of time, Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, saying, "Because I have asked for him from Yahweh."

- 1SA 1:3 [NOTE] YAHWEH OF HOSTS means Yahweh of the armies of heaven. This verse is the first time the Bible uses this name. It is used more than 200 times in the Bible.
- 1SA 1:3 [FIELD NOTES] Shiloh was a real town where the tabernacle stood. See the Shiloh Field Notes page in Judges, p.412.
- 1SA 1:11 [NOTE] NO RAZOR. Hannah promises a son who never cuts his hair, like a Nazirite, Numbers 6:5, and like Samson, Judges 13:5.
- 1SA 1:13 [HEART] Hannah prayed in her heart. Her lips moved but no sound came out. God heard what Eli could not.
- 1SA 1:20 [NOTE] Samuel sounds like the Hebrew for heard by God, or asked of God. His mother asked, and God heard.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES THE HEART NOTABLE

21 Then Elkanah and all his house went up to make the annual sacrifice to Yahweh and to fulfill his vow, 22 but Hannah did not go. "After the boy is weaned," she said to her husband, "I will take him to appear before Yahweh and to stay there permanently."

23 "Do what you think is best," her husband Elkanah replied, "and stay here until you have weaned him. Only may Yahweh confirm His word."

So Hannah stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

24 Once she had weaned him, Hannah took the boy with her, along with a three-year-old bull, half a bushel of flour, and a skin of wine. Though the boy was still young,
she brought him to the house of Yahweh
at Shiloh. 25 And when they had slaughtered the bull, they brought the boy to Eli.

26 "Please, my lord," said Hannah, "as surely as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to Yahweh. 27 I prayed for this boy, and since Yahweh has granted me what I asked of Him, 28 I now dedicate the boy to Yahweh. For as long as he lives, he is dedicated to Yahweh."

So they worshiped Yahweh there.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Hannah sings a song about a God who lifts up the poor and brings down the proud. Meanwhile, Eli's sons are priests who steal the best meat and sleep with the women at the tabernacle door. A man of God shows up with bad news for Eli's family. Little Samuel just keeps growing in favor with God and people.

HANNAH'S PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING // LUKE 1:46–56

1 At that time Hannah prayed:

"My heart rejoices in Yahweh;
my horn is exalted in Yahweh.
My mouth speaks boldly against my enemies,
for I rejoice in Your salvation.

2 There is no one holy like Yahweh.
Indeed, there is no one besides You!
And there is no Rock like our God.

3 Do not boast so proudly,
or let arrogance come from your mouth,
for Yahweh is a God who knows,
and by Him actions are weighed.

4 The bows of the mighty are broken,
but the feeble are equipped with strength.
5 The well-fed hire themselves out for food,
but the starving hunger no more.
The barren woman gives birth to seven,
but she who has many sons pines away.

6 Yahweh brings death and gives life;
He brings down to Sheol and raises up.
7 Yahweh sends poverty and wealth;
He humbles and He exalts.
8 He raises the poor from the dust
and lifts the needy from the ash heap.
He seats them among princes
and bestows on them a throne of honor.

For the foundations of the earth are Yahweh's,
and upon them He has set the world.
9 He guards the steps of His faithful ones,
but the wicked perish in darkness;
for by his own strength shall no man prevail.

10 Those who oppose Yahweh will be shattered.
He will thunder from heaven against
them.
Yahweh will judge the ends of the earth
and will give power to His king.
He will exalt the horn of His anointed."

11 Then Elkanah went home to Ramah, but the boy began ministering to Yahweh before Eli the priest.

- 1SA 2:1 [HEART] My heart rejoices in Yahweh. Hannah's song starts in her heart, not in her circumstances.
- 1SA 2:1 [ALLUDED TO] The New Testament refers to this → LK 1:46-55 p.1646

ELI'S WICKED SONS

12 Now the sons of Eli were wicked men;
they had no regard for Yahweh 13 or for the custom of the priests with the people.
When any man offered a sacrifice, the servant of the priest would come with a three-pronged meat fork while the meat was boiling 14 and plunge it into the pan or kettle or cauldron or cooking pot. And the priest would claim for himself whatever the meat fork brought up. This is how they treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh.
15 Even before the fat was burned, the servant of the priest would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give the priest some meat to roast, because he will not accept boiled meat from you, but only raw."
16 And if any man said to him, "The fat must be burned first; then you may take whatever you want," the servant would reply, "No, you must give it to me right now.
If you refuse, I will take it by force!"
17 Thus the sin of these young men was severe in the sight of Yahweh, for they were treating Yahweh's offering with contempt.
18 Now Samuel was ministering before Yahweh—a boy wearing a linen ephod. 19
Each year his mother would make him a little robe and bring it to him when she went with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice. 20 And Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, saying, "May Yahweh give you children by this woman in place of the one she dedicated to Yahweh." Then they would go home.
21 So Yahweh attended to Hannah, and she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters.
Meanwhile, the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of Yahweh.
22 Now Eli was very old, and he heard about everything his sons were doing to all Israel and how they were sleeping with the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
23 "Why are you doing these things?" Eli said to his sons. "I hear about your wicked deeds from all these people. 24 No, my sons; it is not a good report I hear circulating among Yahweh's people. 25 If a man sins against another man, God can intercede for him; but if a man sins against Yahweh, who can intercede for him?"
But they would not listen to their father, since Yahweh intended to put them to death.
26 And the boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and in favor with Yahweh and with man.

A PROPHECY AGAINST THE HOUSE OF ELI

27 Then a man of God came to Eli and told him, "This is what Yahweh says: 'Did I not clearly reveal Myself to your father's house when they were in Egypt under Pharaoh's house? 28 And out of all the tribes of Israel I selected your father to be My priest, to offer sacrifices on My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod in My presence. I also gave to the house of your father all the food offerings of the Israelites.
29 Why then do you kick at My sacrifice and offering that I have prescribed for My dwelling place? You have honored your sons more than Me by fattening yourselves with the best of all the offerings of My people Israel.'
30 Therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel,
declares:

'I did indeed say that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever.

But now Yahweh declares:
Far be it from Me!
For I will honor those who honor Me,
but those who despise Me will be disdained.

31 Behold, the days are coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your father's house, so that no one in it during house, and he will walk before My

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

God's word is rare in those days. One night a voice calls, Samuel! Samuel runs to Eli three times. Eli finally figures out it is God and tells him to say, Speak, for Your servant is listening. Samuel's first message from God is the hardest one a kid could carry: judgment on Eli's house.

YAHWEH CALLS SAMUEL

1 And the boy Samuel ministered to Yahweh before Eli.
Now in those days the word of Yahweh was rare, and visions were scarce. 2 And at that time Eli, whose eyesight had grown so dim that he could not see, was lying in his room.
3 Before the lamp of God had gone out, Samuel was lying down in the temple of Yahweh, where the ark of God was located.
4 Then Yahweh called to Samuel, and he answered, "Here I am."
5 He ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you have called me."
"I did not call," Eli replied. "Go back and lie down."
So he went and lay down.
6 Once again Yahweh called, "Samuel!"
So Samuel got up, went to Eli, and said,
"Here I am, for you have called me."
"My son, I did not call," Eli replied. "Go back and lie down."
7 Now Samuel did not yet know Yahweh, because the word of Yahweh had not yet been revealed to him. 8 Once again, for the third time, Yahweh called to Samuel. He got up, went to Eli, and said, "Here I am,
for you have called me."
Then Eli realized that it was Yahweh who was calling the boy. 9 "Go and lie down,"
he said to Samuel, "and if He calls you, say, 'Speak, Yahweh, for Your servant is listening.'"
So Samuel went and lay down in his place.
10 Then Yahweh came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!"
And Samuel answered, "Speak, for Your servant is listening."
11 Then Yahweh said to Samuel, "I am about to do something in Israel at which the ears of all who hear it will tingle. 12 On that day I will carry out against Eli everything I have spoken about his house, from beginning to end. 13 I told him that I would judge his house forever for the iniquity of which he knows, because his sons blas-phemed God and he did not restrain them.
14 Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli, 'The iniquity of Eli's house shall never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.'"

SAMUEL SHARES THE VISION

15 Samuel lay down until the morning; then he opened the doors of the house of Yahweh. He was afraid to tell Eli the vision, 16 but Eli called to him and said, "Samuel, my son."

"Here I am," answered Samuel.

17 "What was the message He gave you?"
Eli asked. "Do not hide it from me. May God punish you, and ever so severely, if you hide from me anything He said to
you."

18 So Samuel told him everything and did not hide a thing from him.

"He is Yahweh," replied Eli. "Let Him do what is good in His eyes."

19 And Samuel grew, and Yahweh was with him, and He let none of Samuel's words
fall to the ground.

20 So all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of Yahweh. 21 And Yahweh continued to appear at Shiloh, because there He revealed Himself to Samuel by His word.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel loses a battle to the Philistines, so they bring the ark of God into camp like a lucky charm. It doesn't work. Israel loses again, the ark is captured, and Eli's two sons die. When Eli hears the news, he falls backward and breaks his neck. A baby is born and named Ichabod: the glory is gone.

THE PHILISTINES CAPTURE THE ARK

1 Thus the word of Samuel came to all Israel.

Now the Israelites went out to meet the Philistines in battle and camped at Ebenezer, while the Philistines camped at Aphek. 2 The Philistines arrayed themselves against Israel, and as the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who struck down about four thousand men on the battlefield.

3 When the troops returned to the camp,
the elders of Israel asked, "Why has Yahweh brought defeat on us before the Philistines today? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh from Shiloh, so that it may go with us to save us from the hand of our enemies."

4 So the people sent men to Shiloh, and they brought back the ark of the covenant of Yahweh of Hosts, who sits enthroned between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

WHAT IT IS

A small farm village on a hill about two miles east of Aphek, where the Philistines camped, 4:1. Many scholars think it was Ebenezer, where Israel camped before the battle.

HOW OLD IT IS

It was built in the late 1200s or 1100s BC and left empty around the time of the battle in chapter 4. Some link that to Israel's defeat. Others say it cannot be proved.

THE OSTRACON

A piece of pottery with five lines of letters scratched into it. The bottom line is the alphabet, in order. It was likely a student practicing writing, about 1100 BC. It is one of the oldest alphabet writings ever found in the land.

SILOS

The village had dozens of stone lined pits to store grain, like the one in the photo. Farmers lived here, not soldiers.

WHY IT MATTERS

It shows that simple farmers in the hill country could learn to write in the days of Samuel. It also gives a real place for the battle line between Ebenezer and Aphek.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No sign names the village Ebenezer. The match is a good guess, not a sure thing.

5 When the ark of the covenant of Yahweh entered the camp, all the Israelites raised such a great shout that the ground shook.
6 On hearing the noise of the shout, the Philistines asked, "What is this loud shouting in the camp of the Hebrews?"
And when they realized that the ark of Yahweh had entered the camp, 7 the Philistines were afraid. "The gods have entered their camp!" they said. "Woe to us, for nothing like this has happened before. 8 Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. 9 Take courage and be men, O Philistines! Otherwise, you will serve the Hebrews just as they served you. Now be men and fight!"
10 So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and each man fled to his tent.
The slaughter was very great—thirty thousand foot soldiers of Israel fell. 11 The ark of God was captured, and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

THE DEATH OF ELI

12 That same day a Benjamite ran from the battle line all the way to Shiloh, with his clothes torn and dirt on his head. 13 When he arrived, there was Eli, sitting on his chair beside the road and watching, because his heart trembled for the ark of God.
When the man entered the city to give a report, the whole city cried out.
14 Eli heard the outcry and asked, "Why this commotion?"
So the man hurried over and reported to
Eli. 15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old,
and his gaze was fixed because he could not see.
16 "I have just come from the battle," the man said to Eli. "I fled from there today."
"What happened, my son?" Eli asked.
17 The messenger answered, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people.
Your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are both dead, and the ark of God has been captured."
18 As soon as the ark of God was mentioned, Eli fell backward from his chair by the city gate, and being old and heavy, he broke his neck and died. And Eli had judged Israel forty years.
19 Now Eli's daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and about to give birth. When she heard the news of the capture of God's ark and the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband, she collapsed and gave birth, for her labor pains overtook her.
20 As she was dying, the women attending to her said, "Do not be afraid, for you have given birth to a son!"
But she did not respond or pay any heed.
21 And she named the boy Ichabod, saying,
"The glory has departed from Israel," because the ark of God had been captured and her father-in-law and her husband had been killed.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

The Philistines put the ark in the temple of their god Dagon. Next morning, Dagon is face down on the floor. They stand him back up. Next morning, Dagon is face down again, and this time his head and hands are broken off. Then tumors break out in every city that keeps the ark. Nobody wants it.

THE ARK AFFLICTS THE PHILISTINES

1 After the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod, 2 carried it into the temple of Dagon,
and set it beside his statue.

3 When the people of Ashdod got up early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen on his face before the ark of Yahweh. So they took Dagon and returned him to his place.

4 But when they got up early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen on his face before the ark of Yahweh, with his head and his hands broken off and lying on the threshold. Only the torso remained.
5 That is why, to this day, the priests of Dagon and all who enter the temple of Dagon in Ashdod do not step on the threshold.

6 Now the hand of Yahweh was heavy on the people of Ashdod and its vicinity, ravaging them and afflicting them with tumors. 7 And when the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not stay here with us, because His hand is heavy upon us and upon our god Dagon."

8 So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines and asked, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?"

"It must be moved to Gath," they replied.
So they carried away the ark of the God
of Israel.

9 But after they had moved the ark to Gath, Yahweh's hand was also against that city,
throwing it into great confusion and afflicting the men of the city, both young and old, with an outbreak of tumors.

10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron, but as it arrived, the Ekronites cried out,
"They have brought us the ark of the God of Israel in order to kill us and our people!"

11 Then the Ekronites called together all the rulers of the Philistines and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel. It must return to its place, so that it will not kill us and our people!"

For a deadly confusion had pervaded the city; the hand of God was very heavy upon it. 12 Those who did not die were afflicted with tumors, and the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

6

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

After seven months, the Philistines are done. They send the ark back on a new cart pulled by two mother cows, with a gift of five gold tumors and five gold rats. The cows walk straight to Israel, mooing the whole way. Some men of Beth Shemesh look inside the ark, and it costs them their lives.

THE ARK RETURNED TO ISRAEL

1 When the ark of Yahweh had been in the land of the Philistines seven months, 2 the Philistines summoned the priests and diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of Yahweh? Tell us how to send it back to its place."

3 They replied, "If you return the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it away empty, but by all means return it to Him with a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and you will understand why His hand has not been lifted from you."

4 "What guilt offering should we send back to Him?" asked the Philistines.

"Five gold tumors and five gold rats," they said, "according to the number of rulers of the Philistines, since the same plague has struck both you and your rulers. 5

THE HEART MIRACLES

Make images of your tumors and of the rats that are ravaging the land. Give glory to the God of Israel, and perhaps He will lift His hand from you and your gods and your land.

6 Why harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened theirs? When He afflicted them, did they not send the people out so they could go on their way?

7 Now, therefore, prepare one new cart with two milk cows that have never been yoked. Hitch the cows to the cart, but take their calves away and pen them up. 8 Take the ark of Yahweh, set it on the cart, and in a chest beside it put the gold objects you are sending back to Him as a guilt offering.

Then send the ark on its way, 9 but keep watching it. If it goes up the road to its homeland, toward Beth-shemesh, it is Yahweh who has brought on us this great disaster. But if it does not, then we will know that it was not His hand that punished us and that it happened by chance."

10 So the men did as instructed. They took two milk cows, hitched them to the cart, and penned up their calves. 11 Then they put the ark of Yahweh on the cart, along with the chest containing the gold rats and the images of the tumors.

12 And the cows headed straight up the road toward Beth-shemesh, staying on that one highway and lowing as they went, never straying to the right or to the left. The rulers of the Philistines followed behind them to the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 Now the people of Beth-shemesh were harvesting wheat in the valley, and when they looked up and saw the ark, they were overjoyed at the sight.

14 The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh and stopped there near a large rock. The people chopped up the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to Yahweh. 15 And the Levites took down the ark of Yahweh and the chest containing the gold objects, and they placed them on the large rock. That day the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to Yahweh.

16 And when the five rulers of the Philistines saw this, they returned to Ekron that same day.

17 As a guilt offering to Yahweh, the Philistines had sent back one gold tumor for each city: Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. 18 The number of gold rats also corresponded to the number of Philistine cities belonging to the five rulers—the fortified cities and their outlying villages. And the large rock on which they placed the ark of Yahweh stands to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh.

19 But God struck down some of the people of Beth-shemesh because they looked inside the ark of Yahweh. He struck down seventy men, and the people mourned because Yahweh had struck them with a great slaughter.

20 The men of Beth-shemesh asked, "Who can stand in the presence of Yahweh, this holy God? To whom should the ark go up from here?"

21 So they sent messengers to the people of Kiriath-jearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of Yahweh. Come down and take it up with you."

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Twenty years later Israel finally gets serious. They throw out their idols, and Samuel gathers them at Mizpah to pray. The Philistines attack, God thunders from heaven, and the Philistines run. Samuel sets up a stone and calls it Ebenezer: thus far Yahweh has helped us.

consecrated his son Eleazar to guard the ark of Yahweh.

2 And from that day a long time passed, twenty years in all, as the ark remained at Kiriath-jearim. And all the house of Israel mournfully sought Yahweh.

3 Then Samuel said to all the house of Israel, "If you are returning to Yahweh with all your hearts, then put away the foreign gods and Ashtoreths among you, prepare your hearts for Yahweh, and serve Him only. And He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines."

4 So the Israelites put away the Baals and Ashtoreths and served only Yahweh.

5 Then Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to Yahweh on your behalf."

6 When they had gathered at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out before Yahweh. On that day they fasted, and there they confessed, "We have sinned against Yahweh." And Samuel judged the Israelites at Mizpah.

7 When the Philistines heard that the Israelites had gathered at Mizpah, their rulers marched up toward Israel. And when the Israelites learned of this, they feared the Philistines 8 and said to Samuel, "Do not stop crying out to Yahweh our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines."

9 Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to Yahweh. He cried out to Yahweh on behalf of Israel, and Yahweh answered him. 10 As the Philistines drew near to fight against Israel, Samuel was offering up the burnt offering. But that day Yahweh thundered loudly against the Philistines and threw them into such confusion that they fled before Israel.

11 Then the men of Israel charged out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, striking them down all the way to an area below Beth-car.

12 Afterward, Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, saying, "Thus far Yahweh has helped us."

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they stopped invading the territory of Israel. And the hand of Yahweh was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. 14 The cities from Ekron to Gath, which the Philistines had taken, were restored to Israel, who also delivered the surrounding territory from the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between the Israelites and the Amorites.

15 So Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. 16 Every year he would go on a circuit from Bethel to Gilgal to Mizpah, judging Israel in all these places. 17 Then he would return to Ramah because his home was there, and there he judged Israel and built an altar to Yahweh.

6 But when they said, "Give us a king to judge us," their demand was displeasing in the sight of Samuel; so he prayed to Yahweh.

7 And Yahweh said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you. For it is not you they have rejected, but they have rejected Me as their king. 8 Just as they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt until this day, forsaking Me and serving other gods, so they are doing to you. 9 Now listen to their voice; but you must solemnly warn them and show them the manner of the king who will reign over them."

SAMUEL'S WARNING

10 So Samuel spoke all the words of Yahweh to the people who were asking him for a king. 11 He said, "This will be the manner of the king who will reign over you: He will take your sons and appoint them to serve his own chariots and horses, and to run in front of his chariots.

12 He will appoint some for himself as commanders of thousands and of fifties, and others to plow his ground, to reap his harvest, and to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers.

14 He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive groves and give them to his servants. 15 He will take a tenth of your grain and grape harvest and give it to his officials and servants. 16 And he will take your menservants and maidservants and your best cattle and donkeys and put them to his own use.

17 He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his slaves. 18 When that day comes, you will beg for relief from the king you have chosen, but Yahweh will not answer you on that day."

GOD GRANTS THE REQUEST

19 Nevertheless, the people refused to listen to Samuel. "No!" they said. "We must have a king over us. 20 Then we will be like all the other nations, with a king to judge us, to go out before us, and to fight our battles."

21 Samuel listened to all the words of the people and repeated them in the hearing of Yahweh.

22 "Listen to their voice," Yahweh said to Samuel. "Appoint a king for them."

Then Samuel told the men of Israel, "Everyone must go back to his city."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHY DID ISRAEL WANT A KING?

What Happened

1 SAMUEL 8:1 TO 22 · 10:17 TO 19 · 12:12 TO 19 · DEUTERONOMY 17:14 TO 20

THE ASK

Samuel was old, and his sons took bribes. So the elders came to him at Ramah and said, Give us a king to judge us like all the other nations, 8:5. Later they added, We want a king to go out before us and fight our battles, 8:20.

GOD'S ANSWER

Samuel was upset. God told him, They have not rejected you. They have rejected Me as their king, 8:7. Then God told Samuel to give them a king anyway, but to warn them first.

THE WARNING

A king will take, Samuel said, again and again: your sons for his army, your daughters for his kitchen, your best fields, a tenth of your grain and flocks, and you yourselves will be his servants, 8:11 to 17. The people said, No, we want a king, 8:19.

BUT A KING WAS ALLOWED

Hundreds of years earlier, Deuteronomy 17:14 to 20 said that when Israel asked for a king like the nations, they could have one, if he was the king God chose. He must not pile up horses, wives or gold, and he must copy God's law and read it every day. God had also promised Abraham that kings would come from him, Genesis 17:6.

THE QUESTION

If God allowed a king, why was it wrong to ask for one?

Every View

1 SAMUEL 8:7 · 12:12 · 12:20 TO 24 · GENESIS 49:10 · JUDGES 8:23

VIEW 1: THE WRONG REASON

A king was not the problem. Their reason was. They wanted to be like the nations and trust a man with an army instead of trusting God. When Nahash attacked, they asked for a king even though Yahweh was their king, 12:12. Gideon had said it long before: Yahweh will rule over you, Judges 8:23.

VIEW 2: THE WRONG TIME

God planned a king all along, from the tribe of Judah, Genesis 49:10. Israel jumped ahead of God. They got Saul from Benjamin first, and then God gave them David from Judah, the king He had in mind.

VIEW 3: TWO VOICES

Many scholars notice that some chapters sound for the king, like 9:1 to 10:16, and some sound against it, like 8, 10:17 to 27 and 12. Some think the writer joined older stories. Others say one writer showed both sides on purpose, because a king was both a gift and a danger.

WHAT HAPPENED NEXT

Everything Samuel warned about came true. Solomon took heavy taxes and forced labor, and the kingdom split over it, 1 Kings 12:4. Yet God still worked through the kings and promised David a forever throne, 2 Samuel 7:16.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Samuel told them, Do not be afraid. Serve Yahweh with all your heart, and He will not abandon you, 12:20 to 22. Christians believe the perfect King came at last: Jesus, the Son of David.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Saul is tall, handsome, and out looking for his dad's lost donkeys. He never finds the donkeys. Instead he finds Samuel, who has saved him the best piece of meat at dinner. God had told Samuel the day before: this is the man.

SAUL CHOSEN AS KING

1 Now there was a Benjamite, a powerful man, whose name was Kish son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah of Benjamin. 2 And he had a son named Saul, choice and handsome, without equal among the Israelites—a head taller than any of the people.

3 One day the donkeys of Saul's father Kish wandered off, and Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the servants and go look for the donkeys."

4 So Saul passed through the hill country of Ephraim and then through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find the donkeys. He and the servant went through the region of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then they went through the land of Benjamin, and still they did not find them.

5 When they reached the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant, "Come, let us go back, or my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and start worrying about us."

6 "Look," said the servant, "in this city
there is a man of God who is highly respected; everything he says surely comes to pass. Let us go there now. Perhaps he will tell us which way to go."

7 "If we do go," Saul replied, "what can we give the man? For the bread in our packs is gone, and there is no gift to take to the man of God. What do we have?"

8 The servant answered him again. "Look,"
he said, "I have here in my hand a tenth of an ounce of silver. I will give it to the man of God, and he will tell us our way."

9 (Formerly in Israel, a man on his way to inquire of God would say, "Come, let us go to the seer." For the prophet of today was formerly called the seer.)

10 "Good," said Saul to his servant. "Come, let us go." So they set out for the city where the man of God was. 11 And as they were climbing the hill to the city, they met some young women coming out to draw water and asked, "Is the seer here?"

12 "Yes, he is ahead of you," they answered. "Hurry now, for today he has come to the city because the people have a sacrifice on the high place. 13 As soon as you enter the city, you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; after that, the guests will eat. Go up at once; you will find him."

14 So Saul and his servant went up toward the city, and as they were entering it, there was Samuel coming toward them on his way up to the high place.

15 Now on the day before Saul's arrival, Yahweh had revealed to Samuel, 16 "At this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you are to anoint him ruler over My people Israel; he will save them from the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked upon My people, because their cry has come to Me."

17 When Samuel saw Saul, Yahweh told him, "Here is the man of whom I spoke; he shall rule over My people."

18 Saul approached Samuel in the gateway and asked, "Would you please tell me where the seer's house is?"

19 "I am the seer," Samuel replied. "Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today. And when I send you off in the morning, I will tell you all that is in your heart. 20 As for the donkeys you lost three days ago, do not worry about them, for they have been found. And upon whom is all the desire of Israel, if not upon you and all your father's house?"

21 Saul replied, "Am I not a Benjamite from the smallest tribe of Israel, and is not my clan the least of all the clans of Benjamin? So why would you say such a thing to me?"

22 Then Samuel took Saul and his servant, brought them into the hall, and seated them in the place of honor among those who were invited—about thirty in all. 23 And Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion I gave you and told you to set aside."

24 So the cook picked up the leg and what was attached to it and set it before Saul. Then Samuel said, "Here is what was kept back. It was set apart for you. Eat, for it has been kept for you for this occasion, from the time I said, 'I have invited the people.'" So Saul dined with Samuel that day.

25 And after they had come down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on the roof of his house.

26 They got up early in the morning, and just before dawn Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Get ready, and I will send you on your way!" So Saul got ready, and both he and Samuel went outside together.

27 As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us, but you stay for a while, and I will reveal to you the word of God." So the servant went on.

Zelzah on the border of Benjamin. They will say to you, 'The donkeys you seek have been found, and now your father has stopped worrying about the donkeys and started worrying about you, asking, "What should I do about my son?"'

3 Then you will go on from there until you come to the Oak of Tabor. Three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine. 4 They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from their hands.

5 After that you will come to Gibeah of God, where the Philistines have an outpost. As you approach the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place, preceded by harps, tambourines, flutes, and lyres, and they will be prophesying.

6 Then the Spirit of Yahweh will rush upon you, and you will prophesy with them; and you will be transformed into a different person.

7 When these signs have come, do as the occasion demands, for God is with you. 8 And you shall go before me to Gilgal, and surely I will come to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings. Wait seven days until I come to you and show you what you are to do."

SAMUEL'S SIGNS FULFILLED

9 As Saul turned to leave Samuel, God changed Saul's heart, and all the signs came to pass that day. 10 When Saul and his servant arrived at Gibeah, a group of prophets met him. Then the Spirit of God rushed upon him, and he prophesied along with them.

11 When all those who had formerly known Saul saw him prophesying with the prophets, they asked one another, "What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

12 Then a man who lived there replied, "And who is their father?" So the saying became a proverb: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

13 And when Saul had finished prophesying, he went up to the high place.

14 Now Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where did you go?"

"To look for the donkeys," Saul replied. "When we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel."

15 "Tell me," Saul's uncle asked, "what did Samuel say to you?"

16 And Saul replied, "He assured us that the donkeys had been found." But Saul did not tell his uncle what Samuel had said about the kingship.

SAUL PROCLAIMED KING

17 After this, Samuel summoned the people to Yahweh at Mizpah 18 and said to the Israelites, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'I brought Israel up out of Egypt, and I rescued you from the hands of the Egyptians and of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.'

19 But today you have rejected your God, who saves you from all your troubles and afflictions, and you have said to Him, 'No, set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before Yahweh by your tribes and clans."

20 Thus Samuel had all the tribes of Israel come forward, and the tribe of Benjamin was selected. 21 Then he had the tribe of Benjamin come forward by its clans, and the clan of Matri was selected. Finally, Saul son of Kish was selected. But when they looked for him, they could not find him. 22 So again they inquired of Yahweh, "Has the man come here yet?"

And Yahweh replied, "Behold, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

23 So they ran and brought Saul, and when he stood among the people, he was a head taller than any of the others. 24 Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the one Yahweh has chosen? There is no one like him among all the people."

And all the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

25 Then Samuel explained to the people the rights of kingship. He wrote them on a scroll and laid it up before Yahweh. And Samuel sent all the people away, each to his own home.

26 Saul also went to his home in Gibeah, and the men of valor whose hearts God had touched went with him.

27 But some worthless men said, "How can this man save us?" So they despised him and brought him no gifts; but Saul remained silent about it.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Nahash the Ammonite offers the town of Jabesh Gilead a deal: surrender, and he will gouge out everyone's right eye. Saul hears about it, the Spirit of God comes on him, and he rallies 330,000 men. Jabesh is rescued, and Israel crowns Saul king at Gilgal.

SAUL DEFEATS THE AMMONITES

1 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up and laid siege to Jabesh-gilead. All the men of Jabesh said to him, "Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you."

2 But Nahash the Ammonite replied, "I will make a treaty with you on one condition, that I may put out everyone's right eye and bring reproach upon all Israel."

3 "Hold off for seven days," replied the elders of Jabesh, "and let us send messengers throughout Israel. If there is no one to save us, we will surrender to you."

4 When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and relayed these words in the hearing of the people, they all wept aloud.

5 Just then Saul was returning from the field, behind his oxen. "What troubles the people?" asked Saul. "Why are they weeping?" And they relayed to him the words of the men from Jabesh.

6 When Saul heard their words, the Spirit of God rushed upon him, and he burned with great anger. 7 He took a pair of oxen, cut them into pieces, and sent them by messengers throughout the land of Israel, proclaiming, "This is what will be done to the oxen of anyone who does not march behind Saul and Samuel."

Then the terror of Yahweh fell upon the people, and they came out together as one man. 8 And when Saul numbered them at Bezek, there were 300,000 Israelites and 30,000 men of Judah. 9 So they said to the messengers who had come, "Tell the men of Jabesh-gilead: 'Deliverance will be yours tomorrow by the time the sun is hot.'"

And when the messengers relayed this to the men of Jabesh, they rejoiced.

10 Then the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Tomorrow we will come out, and you can do with us whatever seems good to you."

11 The next day Saul organized the troops into three divisions, and during the morning watch they invaded the camp of the Ammonites and slaughtered them, until the hottest part of the day. And the survivors were so scattered that no two of them were left together.

SAUL CONFIRMED AS KING

12 Then the people said to Samuel, "Who said that Saul should not reign over us? Bring those men here so we can kill them!"

13 But Saul ordered, "No one shall be put to death this day, for today Yahweh has worked salvation in Israel."

14 Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingship there."

1SA 10:27 [TEXT] A MISSING PARAGRAPH? A Dead Sea Scroll, 4QSam a, has a paragraph here that the Hebrew text does not. It says Nahash king of the Ammonites had been cruelly oppressing Gad and Reuben, gouging out each man's right eye, and 7,000 men had escaped to Jabesh Gilead. Josephus tells the same story. The NRSV prints it. Most Bibles, like this one, do not.

MIRACLES DEMONIC

15 So all the people went to Gilgal and confirmed Saul as king in the presence of Yahweh. There they sacrificed peace offerings before Yahweh, and Saul and all the Israelites rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Samuel gives his farewell speech. Did I ever steal from any of you? Nobody can think of a thing. He reminds them that asking for a king was wrong, then he prays, and God sends thunder and rain in the middle of the dry harvest season. The people get the point.

SAMUEL'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

1 Then Samuel said to all Israel, "I have listened to your voice in all that you have said to me, and I have set over you a king.
2 Now here is the king walking before you,
and I am old and gray, and my sons are here with you. I have walked before you from my youth until this day.
3 Here I am. Bear witness against me before Yahweh and before His anointed: Whose ox or donkey have I taken? Whom have I cheated or oppressed? From whose hand have I accepted a bribe and closed my eyes? Tell me, and I will restore it to you."
4 "You have not cheated us or oppressed us," they replied, "nor have you taken anything from the hand of man."
5 Samuel said to them, "Yahweh is a witness against you, and His anointed is a witness today, that you have not found anything in my hand."
"He is a witness," they replied.
6 Then Samuel said to the people, "Yahweh is the One who appointed Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. 7 Now present yourselves, so that I may confront you before Yahweh with all the righteous acts He has done for you and your fathers.
8 When Jacob went to Egypt, your fathers cried out to Yahweh, and He sent them Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place. 9 But they forgot Yahweh their God,
and He sold them into the hand of Sisera
the commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hands of the Philistines and the king of Moab, who fought against them.
10 Then they cried out to Yahweh and said,
'We have sinned, for we have forsaken Yahweh and served the Baals and Ashtoreths. Now deliver us from the hands of our enemies, that we may serve You.'
11 So Yahweh sent Jerubbaal, Barak, Jephthah, and Samuel, and He delivered you from the hands of your enemies on every side, and you dwelt securely. 12 But when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites was moving against you, you said to me, 'No, we must have a king to rule over us'—even though Yahweh your God was your king.
13 Now here is the king you have chosen,
the one you requested. Behold, Yahweh has placed a king over you.
14 If you fear Yahweh and serve Him and obey His voice, and if you do not rebel against the command of Yahweh, and if both you and the king who rules over you follow Yahweh your God, then all will be well. 15 But if you disobey Yahweh and rebel against His command, then the hand of Yahweh will be against you as it was against your fathers.
16 Now, therefore, present yourselves and see this great thing that Yahweh will do before your eyes. 17 Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call on Yahweh to send thunder and rain, so that you will know and see what a great evil you have committed in the sight of Yahweh by asking for a king."
18 So Samuel called to Yahweh, and on that day Yahweh sent thunder and rain.
As a result, all the people greatly feared Yahweh and Samuel. 19 They pleaded with Samuel, "Pray to Yahweh your God for your servants so that we will not die! For we have added to all our sins the evil of asking for a king."

23 As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against Yahweh by ceasing to pray for you. And I will continue to teach you the good and right way.

24 Above all, fear Yahweh and serve Him faithfully with all your heart; consider what great things He has done for you. 25 But if you persist in doing evil, both you and your king will be swept away."

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

The Philistines gather a huge army, and Saul's men start sneaking away. Samuel said to wait seven days. Saul waits, Samuel is late, and Saul offers the sacrifice himself. Samuel walks in as he finishes. Your kingdom will not last, Samuel says. Also, the Philistines won't let Israel have blacksmiths.

WAR WITH THE PHILISTINES

1 Saul was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned over Israel forty-two years. 2 He chose for himself three thousand men of Israel: Two thousand were with Saul at Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And the rest of the troops he sent away, each to his own home.

3 Then Jonathan attacked the Philistine outpost at Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. So Saul blew the ram's horn throughout the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"

4 And all Israel heard the news: "Saul has attacked an outpost of the Philistines, and now Israel has become a stench to the Philistines!" Then the people were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

5 Now the Philistines assembled to fight against Israel with three thousand chariots, six thousand horsemen, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They went up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth-aven.

6 Seeing that they were in danger because their troops were hard-pressed, the men of Israel hid in caves and thickets, among the rocks, and in cellars and cisterns. 7 Some Hebrews even crossed the Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul, however, remained at Gilgal, and all his troops were quaking in fear.

SAUL'S UNLAWFUL SACRIFICE

8 And Saul waited seven days for the time appointed by Samuel, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the troops began to desert Saul. 9 So he said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings." And he offered up the burnt offering.

10 Just as he finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel arrived, and Saul went out to greet him.

11 "What have you done?" Samuel asked.

And Saul replied, "When I saw that the troops were deserting me, and that you did not come at the appointed time and the Philistines were gathering at Michmash, 12 I thought, 'Now the Philistines will descend upon me at Gilgal, and I have not sought the favor of Yahweh.' So I felt compelled to offer the burnt offering."

13 "You have acted foolishly," Samuel declared. "You have not kept the command that Yahweh your God gave you; if you had, Yahweh would have established your kingdom over Israel for all time. 14 But now your kingdom will not endure; Yahweh has sought a man after His own heart and appointed him ruler over His people, because you have not kept the command of Yahweh."

This Bible says thirty, from a few Greek copies. Forty two years is a best guess that adds forty to the two. Acts 13:21 says Saul reigned forty years.

FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: HIGH

THE PIM WEIGHT

1 SAMUEL 13:19 TO 22

A stone weight marked pim in old Hebrew letters. It is in a private collection, and where it was found is not known. Public domain photo.

WHAT IT IS

A small, smooth stone weight, rounded like a dome, used to weigh silver. The Hebrew letters on top spell pim.

HOW OLD IT IS

Most pim weights found so far come from Judah in the 700s and 600s BC, the days of the later kings.

THE MYSTERY WORD

Pim shows up only once in the whole Bible, here in 13:21. For centuries nobody knew what it meant. The King James guessed it was a file, a tool for sharpening.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In the early 1900s, archaeologists began finding little stone weights marked pim at sites in Israel. Many have been found since.

WHAT THEY SHOW

A pim weighs about a quarter of an ounce. So pim was a price: the Philistines charged a pim of silver to sharpen a plow.

WHY IT MATTERS

A word that went out of use was explained by a stone pulled out of the ground. Some scholars also say the word shows the story was written while pim was still a known weight. Others say the dates of the weights do not settle when the book was written.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The weights are from centuries after Saul. They show what the word meant, not who paid it.

15 Then Samuel set out from Gilgal and went up to Gibeah in Benjamin. And Saul numbered the troops who were with him,
about six hundred men.

ISRAEL WITHOUT WEAPONS

16 Now Saul and Jonathan his son and the troops with them were staying in Geba of Benjamin, while the Philistines camped at Michmash. 17 And raiders went out of the Philistine camp in three divisions. One headed toward Ophrah in the land of Shual, 18 another toward Beth-horon, and the third down the border road overlooking the Valley of Zeboim facing the wilderness.

19 And no blacksmith could be found in all the land of Israel, because the Philistines had said, "The Hebrews must not be allowed to make swords or spears." 20 Instead, all the Israelites would go down to the Philistines to sharpen their plowshares, mattocks, axes, and sickles. 21 The charge was a pim, about a quarter ounce of silver, for sharpening a plowshare or mattock, an eighth of an ounce for sharpening a pitchfork or an axe, and an eighth of an ounce for repointing an oxgoad.

1SA 13:19 [NOTE] NO BLACKSMITHS. The Philistines kept iron working to themselves so Israel could not make weapons. Israel had to pay the Philistines even to sharpen a plow.

22 So on the day of battle not a sword or spear could be found in the hands of the troops with Saul and Jonathan; only Saul and his son Jonathan had weapons.
23 And a garrison of the Philistines had gone out to the pass at Michmash.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

SAUL'S LOST KINGDOM

What Saul Did

1 SAMUEL 9:21 · 10:8 · 13:8 TO 14 · 15:9 TO 30

A GOOD START

Saul started humble. He said he was from the smallest tribe, 9:21, and he hid in the baggage when they picked him, 10:22. The Spirit of God came on him, and he saved Jabesh Gilead, 11:6 to 11.

FIRST FAILURE: HE COULD NOT WAIT

Samuel told Saul to wait seven days at Gilgal until he came to offer the sacrifices, 10:8. The Philistines gathered, and Saul's men started slipping away. On the seventh day Saul offered the burnt offering himself. Samuel arrived right as he finished, 13:8 to 10. Your kingdom will not endure, Samuel said, 13:14.

SECOND FAILURE: HALF OBEDIENCE

God told Saul to destroy Amalek completely. Saul spared King Agag and the best animals, then set up a monument for himself, 15:9 and 15:12. He said he had obeyed. Then he blamed the troops, 15:15 and 15:21.

SAMUEL'S ANSWER

To obey is better than sacrifice. Rebellion is like the sin of divination. Because you have rejected the word of Yahweh, He has rejected you as king, 15:22 to 23.

THE QUESTION

David later did worse things, adultery and murder, and kept his throne. Why did Saul lose his?

Every View

1 SAMUEL 15:11 · 15:24 TO 30 · 15:29 · 2 SAMUEL 12:13 · PSALM 51 · GENESIS 49:10

VIEW 1: THE HEART

Saul made excuses and worried about what people thought. I was afraid of the troops, he said, 15:24, and then, honor me before the elders, 15:30. When David was caught, he said, I have sinned against Yahweh, 2 Samuel 12:13, and wrote Psalm 51. God looks at the heart, 16:7.

VIEW 2: THE KING AND THE PROPHET

Some say Saul's sin in chapter 13 was acting like a priest. Others point out that David and Solomon offered sacrifices too, so the real sin was disobeying the prophet's direct command. Either way, Saul put himself above God's word.

VIEW 3: GOD'S BIGGER PLAN

God had promised the scepter to Judah, Genesis 49:10, and Saul was from Benjamin. Some say Saul's family line was never going to last, and his sins showed why God's choice was better.

GOD REGRETTED?

God said, I regret that I made Saul king, 15:11, yet Samuel said God does not change His mind, 15:29. Most teachers say God truly grieves over sin, but His plans and His character never change. The Bible uses human words so we can understand God's heart.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Partial obedience is still disobedience. Being sorry you got caught is not the same as turning back to God. And God was not done with Israel. He had a man after His own heart ready, 13:14.

14

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Jonathan and his armor bearer climb a cliff and take on a whole Philistine outpost by themselves. God shakes the ground, and the Philistines panic. Then Saul makes a silly oath that nobody eats until evening, Jonathan eats some honey without knowing it, and the army has to save Jonathan from his own father.

JONATHAN'S VICTORY OVER THE PHILISTINES

1 One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man bearing his armor, "Come, let us cross over to the Philistine outpost on the other side." But Jonathan did not tell his father.

2 Meanwhile, Saul was staying under the pomegranate tree in Migron on the outskirts of Gibeah. And the troops who were with him numbered about six hundred men, 3 including Ahijah, who was wearing an ephod. He was the son of Ichabod's brother Ahitub son of Phinehas, the son of Eli the priest of Yahweh in Shiloh. But the troops did not know that Jonathan had left.

4 Now there were cliffs on both sides of the pass that Jonathan intended to cross to reach the Philistine outpost. One was named Bozez and the other Seneh. 5 One cliff stood to the north toward Michmash, and the other to the south toward Geba.

6 Jonathan said to the young man bearing his armor, "Come, let us cross over to the outpost of these uncircumcised men. Perhaps Yahweh will work on our behalf. Nothing can hinder Yahweh from saving, whether by many or by few."

7 His armor-bearer replied, "Do all that is in your heart. Go ahead; I am with you heart and soul."

8 "Very well," said Jonathan, "we will cross over toward these men and show ourselves to them. 9 If they say, 'Wait until we come to you,' then we will stay where we are and will not go up to them. 10 But if they say, 'Come on up,' then we will go up, because this will be our sign that Yahweh has delivered them into our hands."

11 So the two of them showed themselves to the outpost of the Philistines, who exclaimed, "Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes in which they were hiding!"

12 So the men of the outpost called out to Jonathan and his armor-bearer, "Come on up, and we will teach you a lesson!"

"Follow me," Jonathan told his armor-bearer, "for Yahweh has delivered them into the hand of Israel."

13 So Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer behind him. And the Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer followed and finished them off. 14 In that first assault, Jonathan and his armor-bearer struck down about twenty men in about half an acre of land.

15 Then panic struck the Philistines in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. Even those in the outposts and raiding parties trembled. Indeed, the earth quaked, and panic spread from God.

16 Now when Saul's watchmen at Gibeah in Benjamin looked and saw the troops melting away and scattering in every direction, 17 Saul said to the troops who were with him, "Call the roll and see who has left us."

And when they had called the roll, they saw that Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there.

18 Then Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God." (For at that time it was with the Israelites.) 19 While Saul was talking to the priest, the commotion in the Philistine camp continued to increase. So Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

20 Then Saul and all his troops assembled and marched to the battle, and they found the Philistines in total confusion, with each man wielding the sword against his neighbor. 21 And the Hebrews who had previously gone up into the surrounding camps to join the Philistines now went over to the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. 22 When all the Israelites who had been hiding in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, they also joined the battle in close pursuit.

23 So Yahweh saved Israel that day, and the battle moved on beyond Beth-aven.

JONATHAN EATS THE HONEY

24 Now the men of Israel were in distress that day, for Saul had placed the troops under an oath, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats any food before evening, before 1SA 14:6 [NOTE] Nothing can hinder Yahweh from saving, whether by many or by few. Jonathan's faith in one sentence.

I have taken vengeance on my enemies."
So none of the troops tasted any food.
25 Then all the troops entered the forest,
and there was honey on the ground. 26
And when they entered the forest and saw the flowing honey, not one of them put his hand to his mouth, because they feared the oath.
27 Jonathan, however, had not heard that his father had bound the people with the oath. So he reached out the end of the staff in his hand, dipped it into the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened. 28 Then one of the soldiers told him, "Your father bound the troops with a solemn oath, saying,
'Cursed is the man who eats food today.'
That is why the people are faint." 29 "My father has brought trouble to the land," Jonathan replied. "Just look at how my eyes have brightened because I tasted
a little of this honey. 30 How much better it would have been if the troops had eaten freely today from the plunder they took from their enemies! Would not the slaughter of the Philistines have been much greater?"
31 That day, after the Israelites had struck down the Philistines from Michmash to Aijalon, the people were very faint. 32 So they rushed greedily to the plunder, taking sheep, cattle, and calves. They slaughtered them on the ground and ate meat with the blood still in it.
33 Then someone reported to Saul: "Look,
the troops are sinning against Yahweh by eating meat with the blood still in it."
"You have broken faith," said Saul. "Roll a large stone over here at once." 34 Then he said, "Go among the troops and tell them,
'Each man must bring me his ox or his sheep, slaughter them in this place, and then eat. Do not sin against Yahweh by eating meat with the blood still in it.'"
So that night everyone brought his ox and slaughtered it there. 35 Then Saul built an altar to Yahweh; it was the first time he had built an altar to Yahweh.
36 And Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until dawn, leaving no man alive!"
"Do what seems good to you," the troops
replied.
But the priest said, "We must consult God
here."

THE PEOPLE SAVE JONATHAN

37 So Saul inquired of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You give them into the hand of Israel?"
But God did not answer him that day.
38 Therefore Saul said, "Come here, all you leaders of the troops, and let us investigate how this sin has occurred today. 39
As surely as Yahweh who saves Israel lives, even if it is my son Jonathan, he must die!"
But not one of the troops said a word.
40 Then Saul said to all Israel, "You stand on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will stand on the other side."
"Do what seems good to you," the troops
replied.
41 So Saul said to Yahweh, the God of Israel, "Why have You not answered Your servant this day? If the fault is with me or my son Jonathan, respond with Urim, but if the fault is with the men of Israel, respond with Thummim." And Jonathan and Saul were selected, but the people were cleared of the charge.
42 Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan." And Jonathan was selected.
43 "Tell me what you have done," Saul commanded him.
So Jonathan told him, "I only tasted a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. And now I must die?" 44 And Saul declared, "May God punish me, and ever so severely, if you, Jonathan, do not surely die!"
45 But the people said to Saul, "Must Jonathan die—he who accomplished such a great deliverance for Israel? Never! As surely as Yahweh lives, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground, for with God's help he has accomplished this today."

So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die. 46 Then Saul gave up his pursuit of the Philistines, and the Philistines returned to their own land.

SAUL'S VICTORIES

47 After Saul had assumed the kingship over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side—the Moabites, the Ammonites, the Edomites, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he routed them. 48 He fought valiantly and defeated the Amalekites, delivering Israel from the hands of its plunderers.

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua. His two daughters were named Merab (his firstborn) and Michal (his younger daughter). 50 His wife's name was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of his army was Abner, the son of Saul's uncle Ner. 51 Saul's father Kish and Abner's father Ner were sons of Abiel.

52 And the war with the Philistines was fierce for all the days of Saul. So whenever he noticed any strong or brave man, Saul would enlist him.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Saul to destroy the Amalekites completely. Saul spares King Agag and keeps the best animals, then builds a monument to himself. When Samuel shows up, Saul blames the troops. To obey is better than sacrifice, Samuel says. God has rejected Saul as king.

SAUL'S DISOBEDIENCE

1 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Yahweh sent me to anoint you king over His people Israel. Now therefore, listen to the words of Yahweh. 2 This is what Yahweh of Hosts says: 'I witnessed what the Amalekites did to the Israelites when they opposed them on their way up from Egypt. 3 Now go and attack the Amalekites and devote to destruction all that belongs to them. Do not spare them, but put to death men and women, children and infants, oxen and sheep, camels and donkeys.'"

4 So Saul summoned the troops and numbered them at Telaim—200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 men of Judah. 5 Saul came to the city of Amalek and lay in wait in the valley. 6 And he warned the Kenites, "Since you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt, go on and get away from the Amalekites. Otherwise I will sweep you away with them."

So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

7 Then Saul struck down the Amalekites all the way from Havilah to Shur, which is east of Egypt. 8 He captured Agag king of Amalek alive, but devoted all the others to destruction with the sword.

9 Saul and his troops spared Agag, along with the best of the sheep and cattle, the fat calves and lambs, and the best of everything else. They were unwilling to devote them to destruction, but they devoted to destruction all that was despised and worthless.

THE AMALEKITES

Who They Were

1 SAMUEL 15:1 TO 9 · EXODUS 17:8 TO 16 · DEUTERONOMY 25:17 TO 19 · GENESIS 36:12

WHO THEY WERE

The Amalekites came from Amalek, a grandson of Esau, Genesis 36:12. They were raiders who lived in the deserts south of Israel.

WHAT THEY DID

When Israel came out of Egypt, Amalek attacked them in the wilderness, Exodus 17:8. They struck from behind, killing the tired and weak who lagged at the back, Deuteronomy 25:18. They kept raiding

GOD'S WORD ABOUT THEM

God swore to blot out the memory of Amalek and to be at war with Amalek from generation to generation, Exodus 17:14 to 16. Hundreds of years later, He told Saul to do it.

THE COMMAND

Devote to destruction all that belongs to them, men and women, children and infants, oxen and sheep, 15:3. The Hebrew word is herem: everything given over to God, with nothing kept for loot. Saul first warned the Kenites to leave, because they had been kind to Israel, 15:6.

THE QUESTION

How could a good God command the death of children? This is one of the hardest questions in the Bible, and Christians have wrestled with it for centuries.

Every View

GENESIS 15:16 · EZEKIEL 18:23 · 1 SAMUEL 27:8 · 30:1 · ESTHER 3:1 · MATTHEW 5:44

VIEW 1: GOD'S JUST JUDGMENT

This is the traditional view. God is the Judge of all the earth and the giver of life. He waited hundreds of years while Amalek kept killing, just as He waited for the Amorites, Genesis 15:16. The command was a judgment on a nation, not a hatred of people. God takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked, Ezekiel 18:23.

VIEW 2: WAR LANGUAGE

Many Christian scholars point out that ancient war reports used total words, like destroy them all, to mean win completely. Amalekites are still around in 27:8 and 30:1, and four hundred of them escape from David on camels, 30:17. They say the command was real, but the words may not mean every last person.

VIEW 3: THE CHILDREN

Many Christians believe children who die go to be with God. Some say God took them before they grew up in a nation that lived to kill. Others admit honestly that this is still hard, and they trust God's goodness where they cannot see the whole picture.

VIEW 4: A MISTAKEN COMMAND

Some modern scholars think Israel believed God wanted this, but did not understand Him rightly. Most Christians and Jews reject this view, because the text says plainly that God commanded it.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

No one today is told to do this to any people. Jesus said, Love your enemies, Matthew 5:44. And the chapter's main lesson is about Saul: To obey is better than sacrifice, 15:22.

SAMUEL DENOUNCES SAUL

10 Then the word of Yahweh came to Samuel, saying, 11 "I regret that I have made Saul king, for he has turned away from following Me and has not carried out My instructions."

And Samuel was distressed and cried out to Yahweh all that night.

12 Early in the morning Samuel got up to confront Saul, but he was told, "Saul has gone to Carmel, and behold, he has set up a monument for himself and has turned and gone down to Gilgal."

13 When Samuel reached him, Saul said to him, "May Yahweh bless you. I have carried out Yahweh's instructions."

14 But Samuel replied, "Then what is this bleating of sheep and lowing of cattle that I hear?"

15 Saul answered, "The troops brought them from the Amalekites; they spared the best sheep and cattle to sacrifice to Yahweh your God, but the rest we devoted to destruction."

16 "Stop!" exclaimed Samuel. "Let me tell you what Yahweh said to me last night."

"Tell me," Saul replied.

17 And Samuel said, "Although you were once small in your own eyes, have you not become the head of the tribes of Israel? Yahweh anointed you king over Israel 18 and sent you on a mission, saying, 'Go and devote to destruction the sinful Amalekites. Fight against them until you have wiped them out.' 19 So why did you not obey Yahweh? Why did you rush upon the plunder and do evil in the sight of Yahweh?"

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE DEMONIC NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

20 "But I did obey Yahweh," Saul replied. "I went on the mission that Yahweh gave me. I brought back Agag king of Amalek and devoted the Amalekites to destruction. 21 The troops took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of the things devoted to destruction, in order to sacrifice them to Yahweh your God at Gilgal."

22 But Samuel declared:

"Does Yahweh delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices
as much as in obedience to His voice?
Behold, obedience is better than sacrifice,
and attentiveness is better than the fat
of rams.
23 For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance is like the wickedness of idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of Yahweh,
He has rejected you as king."

SAUL'S CONFESSION

24 Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; I have transgressed Yahweh's commandment and your instructions, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. 25 Now therefore, please forgive my sin and return with me so I can worship Yahweh."

26 "I will not return with you," Samuel replied. "For you have rejected the word of Yahweh, and He has rejected you as king over Israel."

27 As Samuel turned to go, Saul grabbed the hem of his robe, and it tore. 28 So Samuel said to him, "Yahweh has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to your neighbor who is better than you. 29 Moreover, the Glory of Israel does not lie or change His mind, for He is not a man, that He should change His mind."

30 "I have sinned," Saul replied. "Please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel. Come back with me, so that I may worship Yahweh your God."

31 So Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshiped Yahweh.

32 Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag king of the Amalekites."

Agag came to him cheerfully, for he thought, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

33 But Samuel declared:

"As your sword has made women childless,
so your mother will be childless among women."

And Samuel hacked Agag to pieces before Yahweh at Gilgal.

34 Then Samuel went to Ramah, but Saul went up to his home in Gibeah of Saul. 35 And to the day of his death, Samuel never again visited Saul. Samuel mourned for Saul, and Yahweh regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

16

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

God sends Samuel to Bethlehem to anoint a new king from Jesse's sons. Tall, good looking Eliab seems like the one, but God says, I look at the heart. The youngest, David, is out with the sheep. He gets the oil. Meanwhile, a troubling spirit torments Saul, and they hire a harp player. It is David.

SAMUEL ANOINTS DAVID

1 Now Yahweh said to Samuel, "How long are you going to mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have selected from his sons a king for Myself."

2 "How can I go?" Samuel asked. "Saul will hear of it and kill me!"

1SA 15:22 [NOTABLE] Saul tried to cover disobedience with a big offering. God wants a heart that listens more than a show of religion. Jesus made the same point in Matthew 9:13.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE THE HEART DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Yahweh answered, "Take a heifer with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh.' 3 Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you are to do. You are to anoint for Me the one I indicate."

4 So Samuel did what Yahweh had said and went to Bethlehem. When the elders of the town met him, they trembled and asked, "Do you come in peace?"

5 "In peace," he replied. "I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice."

Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. 6 When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab and said, "Surely here before Yahweh is His anointed."

7 But Yahweh said to Samuel, "Do not consider his appearance or height, for I have rejected him; Yahweh does not see as man does. For man sees the outward appearance, but Yahweh sees the heart."

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab and presented him to Samuel, who said, "Yahweh has not chosen this one either."

9 Next Jesse presented Shammah, but Samuel said, "Yahweh has not chosen this one either."

10 Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, but Samuel told him, "Yahweh has not chosen any of these."

11 And Samuel asked him, "Are these all the sons you have?"

"There is still the youngest," Jesse replied, "but he is tending the sheep."

"Send for him," Samuel replied. "For we will not sit down to eat until he arrives."

12 So Jesse sent for his youngest son and brought him in. He was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. And Yahweh said, "Rise and anoint him, for he is the one."

13 So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers, and the Spirit of Yahweh rushed upon David from that day forward. Then Samuel set out and went to Ramah.

DAVID SERVES SAUL

14 Now the Spirit of Yahweh departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from Yahweh began to torment him. 15 Saul's servants said to him, "Surely an evil spirit from God is tormenting you. 16 Let our lord command your servants here to seek out someone who can skillfully play the harp. Whenever the evil spirit from God is upon you, he is to play it, and you will be well."

17 And Saul commanded his servants, "Find me someone who plays well, and bring him to me."

18 One of the servants answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse of Bethlehem who knows how to play the harp. He is a mighty man of valor, a warrior, eloquent and handsome, and Yahweh is with him."

19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep."

20 And Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and one young goat and sent them to Saul with his son David. 21 When David came to Saul and entered his service, Saul loved him very much, and David became his armor-bearer.

22 Then Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, "Let David remain in my service, for I am pleased with him." 23 And whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would pick up his harp and play. Then

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

Goliath of Gath, a giant in bronze armor, dares Israel to send out one man to fight him. For forty days nobody goes. Then a shepherd boy delivering cheese and bread to his brothers says, Who is this Philistine? David turns down Saul's armor, picks up five smooth stones, and ends it with one.

GOLIATH'S CHALLENGE

1 Now the Philistines gathered their forces for war at Socoh in Judah, and they camped between Socoh and Azekah in Ephes-dammim. 2 Saul and the men of Israel assembled and camped in the Valley of Elah, arraying themselves for battle against the Philistines.

3 The Philistines stood on one hill and the Israelites stood on another, with the valley between them.

4 Then a champion named Goliath, who was from Gath, came out from the Philis-tine camp. He was nine feet nine inches tall, 5 and he had a bronze helmet on his head. He wore a bronze coat of mail weighing 125 pounds, 6 and he had armor of bronze on his legs and a javelin of bronze slung between his shoulders. 7 The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and its iron point weighed fifteen pounds. In addition, his shield bearer went before him.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE EVIL SPIRIT FROM YAHWEH

What the Bible Says

1 SAMUEL 16:14 TO 23 · 18:10 TO 11 · 19:9 TO 10 · JUDGES 9:23 · 1 KINGS 22:19 TO 23

THE VERSE

The Spirit of Yahweh left Saul, and an evil spirit from Yahweh began to torment him, 16:14. The Hebrew says ruach raah, an evil spirit, like the King James. Some Bibles say a spirit of distress.

WHAT IT DID

It terrified Saul. When David played the harp, Saul felt better and the spirit left, 16:23. Later it came on Saul and he raved in his house and threw a spear at David, 18:10 to 11 and 19:9 to 10.

THE SAME WORDS ELSEWHERE

God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem, and they turned on each other, Judges 9:23. In 1 Kings 22:19 to 23 a lying spirit goes out from God's throne to fool wicked King Ahab.

WHAT THE WORD EVIL MEANS

The Hebrew word ra can mean morally wicked, but it can also mean harmful, painful or trouble. The same word is used of a bad fig, Jeremiah 24:2, and of trouble God sends as judgment, Isaiah 45:7.

THE QUESTION

How can a spirit that torments someone come from God? And was it a demon, a judgment, or an illness?

Every View

JOB 1:6 TO 12 · 2 CORINTHIANS 12:7 · PSALM 51:11 · EPHESIANS 4:30

VIEW 1: A REAL DEMON GOD ALLOWED

Many Jewish and Christian readers through history say it was an evil spirit, a demon, that God allowed to trouble Saul, like Satan with Job, Job 1 and 2. Josephus said demons troubled Saul. From Yahweh means God was still in charge, not that God is evil.

VIEW 2: A SPIRIT OF JUDGMENT

Some say it was a harmful spirit God sent as judgment, not one of Satan's

1 SAMUEL 17:1 TO 3 · 17:52 · JOSHUA 15:35 TO 36

Stone walls at Khirbet Qeiyafa, with the farms of the Elah Valley below. Photo Davidbena, CC0.

WHAT IT IS

A small town on a hilltop above the Valley of Elah, surrounded by a strong stone wall. It covers almost six acres. It has two gates, which is very unusual for a town that small.

HOW OLD IT IS

Burned olive pits found there were tested by radiocarbon. They date the town to about 1020 to 980 BC, the days of Saul and David. It was only lived in for a short time.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Yosef Garfinkel and Saar Ganor dug it from 2007 to 2013. It sits on the hills above the valley near Socoh and Azekah, where the two armies faced each other, 17:1 to 3.

WHAT THEY FOUND

A city wall built of huge stones, houses built into the wall, two gates, and a piece of pottery with five lines of ink writing, one of the oldest long writings ever found in the land. They found no pig bones, which many see as a sign that the people kept Israel's food laws.

TWO GATES

Shaaraim means two gates. 1 Samuel 17:52 says the Philistines ran along the Shaaraim road, and Joshua 15:36 lists Shaaraim in this area. The diggers think this town is Shaaraim.

THE BIG DEBATE

Garfinkel thinks it was a town of Judah in David's day. Other scholars think it belonged to Saul's kingdom, to the Philistines, or to Canaanites. The writing on the pottery is also debated.

THE WRITING ON THE POT

The pottery piece has five lines of faded ink in an early alphabet. Some read words like judge, slave, widow and king. Others say too little can be read to be sure.

A PLANNED TOWN

The wall is a double wall with rooms inside it, and the houses use those rooms as back rooms. The diggers say later towns of Judah used the same plan.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing found there names David or Goliath. It shows that a strong, organized town stood above this valley in the time the Bible gives for this battle.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

demons. Saul turned away from God, and God let trouble fill the empty place.

VIEW 3: DEEP DISTRESS

Many modern readers think Saul suffered something like dark depression or rage, and the Bible describes it in spiritual words. Some Bibles say spirit of distress or harmful spirit. Most who hold this view still see God's hand in it.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

The first side says the text calls it a spirit, it came and went, and it moved Saul to murder. The other sides say the Bible often speaks of God sending what He allows, and the point is Saul's broken relationship with God, not the kind of spirit.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Saul's trouble started when he turned from God. God is in control even of the dark things. And music played by a man of faith brought relief, 16:23. David later prayed, Do not take Your Holy Spirit from me, Psalm 51:11.

8 And Goliath stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why do you come out and array yourselves for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants of Saul? Choose one of your men and have him come down against me. 9 If he is able to fight me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and work for us."

10 Then the Philistine said, "I defy the ranks of Israel this day! Give me a man to fight!"

11 On hearing the words of the Philistine, Saul and all the Israelites were dismayed and greatly afraid.

DAVID ACCEPTS THE CHALLENGE

12 Now David was the son of a man named Jesse, an Ephrathite from Bethlehem of Judah who had eight sons. And in the days of Saul, Jesse was old and well along in years. 13 The three older sons of Jesse had followed Saul into battle: The firstborn was Eliab, the second was Abinadab, and the third was Shammah. 14 And David was the youngest.

The three oldest had followed Saul, 15 but David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father's sheep in Bethlehem.

16 For forty days the Philistine came forward every morning and evening to take his stand.

17 One day Jesse said to his son David, "Take this half bushel of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread for your brothers and hurry to their camp. 18 Take also these ten portions of cheese to the commander of their unit. Check on the welfare of your brothers and bring back an assurance from them. 19 They are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines."

20 So David got up early in the morning, left the flock with a keeper, loaded up, and set out as Jesse had instructed him. He reached the camp as the army was marching out to its position and shouting the battle cry. 21 And Israel and the Philistines arrayed in formation against each other.

22 Then David left his supplies in the care of the quartermaster and ran to the battle line. When he arrived, he asked his brothers how they were doing. 23 And as he was speaking with them, suddenly the champion named Goliath, the Philistine from Gath, came forward from the ranks of the Philistines and shouted his usual words, which David also heard.

GATH

WHAT IT IS

Tell es Safi, a big hill of ruins between Jerusalem and the coast. Most scholars agree it is Gath, one of the five Philistine cities and Goliath's hometown, 17:4.

HOW OLD IT IS

People lived there for thousands of years. In the 900s BC, around the time of David and Solomon, Gath was one of the largest cities in the land.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Aren Maeir of Bar Ilan University led digs there every summer from 1996 for more than twenty years.

WHAT THEY FOUND

Philistine pottery, a temple, a city gate, an altar with two horns, and a deep trench dug all the way around the city by an army. Many link the trench to Hazael king of Aram, who took Gath about 830 BC, 2 Kings 12:17.

THE GOLIATH SHARD

In 2005 they found a piece of pottery from about 950 BC with two names scratched on it, Alwat and Walat. They are not Goliath, but they are the same kind of non Hebrew name. Some scholars think the readings or the link are uncertain.

DAVID IN GATH

David ran to Gath and pretended to be crazy, 21:10 to 15. Later King Achish of Gath gave him Ziklag, 27:6.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing found there names Goliath. It shows that Gath was a real Philistine city, big and strong in Bible times.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DAVID AND GOLIATH

How Big Was He?

1 SAMUEL 17:4 TO 11 · 17:40 TO 51 · JOSHUA 11:22 · JUDGES 20:16

TWO HEIGHTS

The standard Hebrew text says about nine feet nine inches, 17:4. The oldest copy of this verse, the Dead Sea Scroll 4QSam a, says about six feet nine inches. The old Greek Bible and Josephus agree with the scroll.

STILL A GIANT

Most men then stood a little over five feet tall. At six feet nine inches, Goliath would still tower over an army. His bronze armor weighed about 125 pounds, and his spear point weighed about fifteen pounds, 17:5 and 17:7.

WHERE HE CAME FROM

Joshua 11:22 says some of the Anakim, the giant clans, were left in Gath, Gaza and Ashdod. Goliath was from Gath.

ONE ON ONE

Sending out one champion to fight for a whole army was a real custom in the ancient world. An Egyptian story, the Tale of Sinuhe, tells of a hero who fights a mighty champion for his tribe and wins.

THE SLING

A sling is not a toy. Armies had trained slingers, and Judges 20:16 says 700 men of Benjamin could sling a stone at a hair and not miss. David was not lucky. He was skilled, and he trusted God.

THE HEART BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Two Puzzles

1 SAMUEL 16:21 TO 23 · 17:55 TO 58 · 2 SAMUEL 21:19 · 1 CHRONICLES 20:5

PUZZLE 1: WHOSE SON IS THIS?

David already played the harp for Saul, 16:21 to 23, yet after the fight Saul asks, Whose son is this young man? 17:55. Some say Saul knew David but asked about his family, since he had promised his daughter to the winner, 17:25. Others say time had passed, or Saul's illness clouded his mind.

THE SHORTER GREEK STORY

The oldest Greek copies leave out more than a third of chapters 17 and 18, including 17:12 to 31 and 17:55 to 18:5, the parts that make the puzzle. Some scholars think the Greek translator cut verses to fix it. Others think the Hebrew joined two old tellings of the story.

PUZZLE 2: WHO KILLED GOLIATH?

In the Hebrew, 2 Samuel 21:19 says Elhanan of Bethlehem killed Goliath the Gittite. This Bible adds the brother of, like the King James, from 1 Chronicles 20:5. 1 Chronicles 20:5 says Elhanan killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath. Most conservative scholars say a copyist slipped in 2 Samuel and Chronicles kept the right reading. Old Jewish teachers said Elhanan was another name for David. Some critical scholars think a later hero's story was told about David.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

Some say the Hebrew is the first form, the puzzles have good answers, and the Greek shortened it. Others say the Hebrew joined two old tellings. Both sides agree the copies we have are very old and the story is the same.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

The point of the story is 17:45 to 47. You come against me with sword and spear, but I come against you in the name of Yahweh of Hosts. The battle is Yahweh's.

24 When all the men of Israel saw Goliath,
they fled from him in great fear.
25 Now the men of Israel had been saying,
"Do you see how this man keeps coming out to defy Israel? To the man who kills him the king will give great riches. And he will give him his daughter in marriage and exempt his father's house from taxation in Israel."
26 David asked the men who were standing with him, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and removes this disgrace from Israel? Just who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?" 27 The people told him about the offer, saying, "That is what will be done for the man who kills him."
28 Now when David's oldest brother Eliab heard him speaking to the men, his anger burned against David. "Why have you come down here?" he asked. "And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and wickedness of heart—you have come down to see the battle!"
29 "What have I done now?" said David.
"Was it not just a question?" 30 Then he turned from him toward another and asked about the offer, and those people answered him just as the first ones had answered.
31 Now David's words were overheard and reported to Saul, who sent for him.
32 And David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail on account of this Philistine.
Your servant will go and fight him!"
33 But Saul replied, "You cannot go out against this Philistine to fight him. You are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth."
34 David replied, "Your servant has been tending his father's sheep, and whenever a lion or a bear came and carried off a lamb from the flock, 35 I went after it, struck it down, and delivered the lamb from its mouth. If it reared up against me, I would grab it by its fur, strike it down, and kill it. 36 Your servant has killed lions and bears; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, for he has defied the armies of the living God."

1SA 17:28 [HEART] Eliab said he knew the wickedness of David's heart. He judged his little brother's heart and got it wrong.

DEMONIC NOTABLE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

37 David added, "Yahweh, who delivered me from the claws of the lion and the bear, will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine."

"Go," said Saul, "and may Yahweh be with
you."

DAVID SLAYS GOLIATH

38 Then Saul clothed David in his own tunic, put a bronze helmet on his head, and dressed him in armor. 39 David strapped
his sword over the tunic and tried to walk,
but he was not accustomed to them.

"I cannot walk in these," David said to Saul. "I am not accustomed to them." So David took them off. 40 And David took his staff in his hand, selected five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag. And with his sling in hand, he approached the Philistine.

41 Now the Philistine came closer and closer to David, with his shield-bearer before him. 42 When the Philistine looked and saw David, he despised him because he was just a boy, ruddy and handsome. 43
"Am I a dog," he said to David, "that you come at me with sticks?" And the Philis-tine cursed David by his gods. 44 "Come here," he called to David, "and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!"

45 But David said to the Philistine, "You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of Yahweh of Hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.
46 This day Yahweh will deliver you into my hand. This day I will strike you down, cut off your head, and give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the creatures of the earth. Then the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel. 47 And all those assembled here will know that it is not by sword or spear that Yahweh saves; for the battle is Yahweh's, and He will give all of you into our hands."

48 As the Philistine started forward to attack him, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet him. 49 Then David reached into his bag, took out a stone, and slung it, striking the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground.

50 Thus David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; without a sword
in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him. 51 David ran and stood over him. He grabbed the Philistine's sword and pulled it from its sheath and killed him, and he cut off his head with the sword.

When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they turned and ran. 52 Then the men of Israel and Judah charged forward with a shout and pursued the Philistines to the entrance of Gath and to the gates of Ekron. And the bodies of the Philistines were strewn along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron.

53 When the Israelites returned from their pursuit of the Philistines, they plundered their camps. 54 David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, and he put Goliath's weapons in his own tent.

55 As Saul had watched David going out to confront the Philistine, he said to Abner
the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?"

"As surely as you live, O king," Abner replied, "I do not know."

56 "Find out whose son this young man is!"
said the king.

57 So when David returned from killing the Philistine, still holding his head in his hand, Abner took him and brought him before Saul.

58 "Whose son are you, young man?"
asked Saul.

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

Jonathan, Saul's son, loves David like his own soul and gives him his robe and his sword. The women sing, Saul has killed his thousands, and David his tens of thousands. Saul does not love this song. He throws a spear at David twice and makes him a deal: marry my daughter for a hundred dead Philistines.

JONATHAN BEFRIENDS DAVID

1 After David had finished speaking with Saul, the souls of Jonathan and David were knit together, and Jonathan loved him as himself. 2 And from that day Saul kept David with him and did not let him return to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as himself. 4
And Jonathan removed the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his tunic, his sword, his bow, and his belt.

SAUL ENVIES DAVID

5 So David marched out and prospered in everything Saul sent him to do, and Saul set him over the men of war. And this was pleasing in the sight of all the people, and of Saul's officers as well.

6 As the troops were returning home after David had killed the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel to meet King Saul with singing and dancing, with joyful songs, and with tambourines and other instruments. 7 And as the women danced, they sang out:

"Saul has slain his thousands,
and David his tens of thousands."

8 And Saul was furious and resented this song. "They have ascribed tens of thousands to David," he said, "but only thousands to me. What more can he have but the kingdom?" 9 And from that day forward Saul kept a jealous eye on David.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DAVID AND JONATHAN

A Covenant Friendship

1 SAMUEL 18:1 TO 4 · 20:14 TO 17 · 20:41 TO 42 · 23:16 TO 18 · 2 SAMUEL 1:26 · 9:1 TO 7

KNIT TOGETHER

After David beat Goliath, the souls of Jonathan and David were knit together, and Jonathan loved him as himself, 18:1. They made a covenant, a sworn promise, 18:3.

THE ROBE AND THE SWORD

Jonathan gave David his robe, tunic, sword, bow and belt, 18:4. Jonathan was the king's son and next in line for the throne. Many see this as Jonathan handing David the things of a prince, as if to say, You should be king, not me.

A FRIEND WHO RISKED HIS LIFE

Jonathan warned David when Saul wanted him dead, 19:2, and his father threw a spear at him for it, 20:33. Later he found David in the wilderness and said, You will be king over Israel, and I will be second to you, 23:17.

A PROMISE FOR THEIR CHILDREN

They swore to be kind to each other's families forever, 20:14 to 17 and 20:42. Years later David kept that promise and gave Jonathan's son Mephibosheth a seat at his table, 2 Samuel 9:7.

THE GOODBYE

They kissed each other and wept, and David wept the most, 20:41. When Jonathan died, David sang, Your love to me was more wonderful than the love of women, 2 Samuel 1:26.

DEMONIC BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Every View

GENESIS 33:4 · 45:14 TO 15 · 1 KINGS 5:1 · PROVERBS 18:24 · JOHN 15:13

VIEW 1: A COVENANT FRIENDSHIP

This is how Jewish and Christian readers have understood it for many centuries. Love in Bible covenants often means loyalty. The Hebrew of 1 Kings 5:1 says King Hiram loved David, where this Bible says friend. Men in the ancient world kissed and wept openly, like Jacob and Esau, Genesis 33:4, and Joseph and his brothers, Genesis 45:14 to 15. Both men married and had children. An old Jewish teaching in the Mishnah calls their love the kind that never ends because it did not depend on getting something.

VIEW 2: SOMETHING MORE

Some modern writers read the story as a romance between two men, pointing to the strong words of love, the kiss and David's line about the love of women.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

Traditional readers answer that the covenant words, the politics of the throne and both men's marriages point to friendship. The other side says love language between men can mean more than loyalty.

MORE THAN THE LOVE OF WOMEN

David had just lost his best friend in battle. Many readers take this line to mean that Jonathan's loyalty was greater than anything David found in his marriages, which were often about politics.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Jonathan should have been king, and he gave it up gladly for the one God chose. He risked his life for his friend. There is a friend who sticks closer than a brother, Proverbs 18:24. Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends, John 15:13.

10 The next day an evil spirit sent from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied inside the house while David played the harp as usual. Now Saul was holding a spear, 11 and he hurled it, thinking, "I will pin David to the wall." But David eluded him twice.

1SA 18:10 [DEMONIC] Evil spirit returned to Saul as he attempted to kill David

12 So Saul was afraid of David, because Yahweh was with David but had departed from Saul. 13 Therefore Saul sent David away and gave him command of a thousand men. David led the troops out to battle and back, 14 and he continued to prosper in all his ways, because Yahweh was
with him.

15 When Saul saw that David was very successful, he was afraid of him. 16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he was leading them out to battle and back.

DAVID MARRIES MICHAL

17 Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab. I will give her to you in marriage. Only be valiant for me and fight Yahweh's battles." But Saul was thinking, "I need not raise my hand against him; let the hand of the Philistines
be against him."

18 And David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my family or my father's clan in Israel, that I should become the son-in-law of the king?" 19 So when it was time to give Saul's daughter Merab to David, she was given in marriage to Adriel of Meholah.

20 Now Saul's daughter Michal loved David, and when this was reported to Saul, it pleased him. 21 "I will give her to David," Saul thought, "so that she may be a snare to him, and the hand of the Philistines may be against him." So Saul said to David, "For a second time now you can be my son-in-law."

22 Then Saul ordered his servants, "Speak to David privately and tell him, 'Behold, the king is pleased with you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore, become his son-in-law.'"

23 But when Saul's servants relayed these words to David, he replied, "Does it seem trivial in your sight to be the son-in-law of the king? I am a poor man and lightly esteemed."

24 And the servants told Saul what David had said.

25 Saul replied, "Say to David, 'The king desires no other dowry but a hundred Philistine foreskins as revenge on his enemies.'" But Saul intended to cause David's death at the hands of the Philistines.

26 When the servants reported these terms to David, he was pleased to become the king's son-in-law. Before the wedding day arrived, 27 David and his men went out and killed two hundred Philistines. He brought their foreskins and presented them as payment in full to become the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave his daughter Michal to David in marriage.

28 When Saul realized that Yahweh was with David and that his daughter Michal loved David, 29 he grew even more afraid of David. So from then on Saul was David's enemy.

30 Every time the Philistine commanders came out for battle, David was more successful than all of Saul's officers, so that his name was highly esteemed.

19

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Saul tells everyone to kill David. Michal helps David escape out a window and puts a household idol in his bed with goat hair on its head. Saul sends men to grab David at Ramah, but the Spirit of God makes them all prophesy. Then Saul goes himself, and the Spirit gets him too.

SAUL TRIES TO KILL DAVID // PSALM 59:1–17

1 Then Saul ordered his son Jonathan and all his servants to kill David.

But Jonathan delighted greatly in David, 2 so he warned David, saying, "My father Saul intends to kill you. Be on your guard in the morning; find a secret place and hide there. 3 I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, so I can ask about you. And if I find out anything, I will tell you."

4 Then Jonathan spoke well of David to his father Saul and said to him, "The king should not sin against his servant David he has not sinned against you. In fact, his actions have been highly beneficial to you. 5 He took his life in his hands when he struck down the Philistine, and Yahweh worked a great salvation for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced, so why would you sin against innocent blood by killing David for no reason?"

6 Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan and swore an oath: "As surely as Yahweh lives, David will not be put to death."

7 So Jonathan summoned David and told him all these things. Then Jonathan brought David to Saul, and David was with Saul as before.

8 When war broke out again, David went out and fought the Philistines and struck them with such a mighty blow that they fled before him.

9 But as Saul was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, an evil spirit from Yahweh came upon him. While David was playing the harp, 10 Saul tried to pin him to the wall with his spear. But David eluded him and the spear struck the wall. And David fled and escaped that night.

11 Then Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him and kill him in the morning. But David's wife Michal warned him, "If you do not run for your life tonight, tomorrow you will be dead!" 12 So Michal lowered David from the window, and he ran away and escaped.

13 Then Michal took a household idol and laid it in the bed, placed some goat hair on its head, and covered it with a garment. 14 When Saul sent the messengers to seize David, Michal said, "He is ill."

15 But Saul sent the messengers back to see David and told them, "Bring him up to me in his bed so I can kill him." 16 And when the messengers entered, there was the idol in the bed with the goat hair on its head.

17 And Saul said to Michal, "Why did you deceive me like this? You sent my enemy away, and he has escaped!"

Michal replied, "He said to me, 'Help me get away, or I will kill you!'"

18 So David ran away and escaped. And he went to Samuel at Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there.

19 When Saul was told that David was at Naioth in Ramah, 20 he sent messengers to seize him. But when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, with Samuel leading them, the Spirit of God came upon them, and Saul's messengers also began to prophesy.

21 When this was reported to Saul, he sent more messengers, but they began to prophesy as well.

So Saul tried again and sent messengers a third time, and even they began to prophesy.

22 Finally, Saul himself left for Ramah and came to the large cistern at Secu, where he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?"

"At Naioth in Ramah," he was told.

23 So Saul went to Naioth in Ramah. But the Spirit of God came upon even Saul, and he walked along prophesying until he came to Naioth in Ramah. 24 Then Saul stripped off his robes and also prophesied before Samuel. And he collapsed and lay naked all that day and night. That is why it is said, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

20

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

David asks Jonathan, What did I do? Jonathan finds out his father really wants David dead. They make a plan with arrows in a field: if Jonathan says the arrows are beyond you, run. He says it. The two friends kiss, weep and say goodbye.

JONATHAN HELPS DAVID

1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah. He came to Jonathan and asked, "What have I done? What is my iniquity? How have I sinned against your father, that he wants to take my life?"

2 "Far from it!" Jonathan replied. "You will not die. Indeed, my father does nothing, great or small, without telling me. So why would he hide this matter from me? This cannot be true!"

3 But David again vowed, "Your father knows very well that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said, 'Jonathan must not know of this, or he will be grieved.' As surely as Yahweh lives and as you yourself live, there is but a step between me and death."

4 Then Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you desire, I will do for you."

5 So David told him, "Look, tomorrow is the New Moon, and I am supposed to dine with the king. Instead, let me go and hide in the field until the third evening from now. 6 If your father misses me at all, tell him, 'David urgently requested my permission to hurry to Bethlehem, his hometown, because there is an annual sacrifice for his whole clan.' 7 If he says, 'Good,' then your servant is safe, but if he is enraged, you will know he has evil intentions. 8 Therefore show kindness to your servant, for you have brought me into a covenant with you before Yahweh. If there is iniquity in me, then kill me yourself; why should you bring me to your father?"

9 "Never!" Jonathan replied. "If I ever found out that my father had evil intentions against you, would I not tell you?"

JONATHAN AND DAVID RENEW THEIR COVENANT

10 Then David asked Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?"

11 "Come," he replied, "let us go out to the field."

So the two of them went out into the field, 12 and Jonathan said, "By Yahweh, the God of Israel, I will sound out my father by this time tomorrow or the next day. If he is favorable toward you, will I not send for you and tell you? 13 But if my father intends to bring evil on you, then may Yahweh punish me, and ever so severely, if I do not tell you and send you on your way in safety. May Yahweh be with you, just as He has been with my father. 14 And as long as I live, treat me with Yahweh's loving devotion, that I may not die, 15 and do not ever cut off your loving devotion from my household—not even when Yahweh cuts off every one of David's enemies from the face of the earth."

16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "May Yahweh hold David's enemies accountable." 17 And Jonathan had David reaffirm his vow out of love for him, for Jonathan loved David as he loved himself.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, "Tomorrow is the New Moon, and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. 19 When you have stayed three days, hurry down to the place you hid on the day this trouble began, and remain beside the stone Ezel. 20 I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as if I were aiming at a target. 21 Then I will send a boy and say, 'Go, find the arrows!' Now, if I expressly say to him, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; bring them,' then come, because as surely as Yahweh lives, it is safe for you, and there is no danger. 22 But if I say to the young man, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then you must go, for Yahweh has sent you away. 23 And as for the matter you and I have discussed, Yahweh is a witness between you and me forever."

24 So David hid in the field, and when the New Moon had come, the king sat down to eat. 25 He sat in his usual place by the wall, opposite Jonathan and beside Abner, but David's place was empty. 26 Saul said nothing that day because he thought, "Something has happened to David to make him ceremonially unclean—surely he is unclean."

27 But on the day after the New Moon, the second day, David's place was still empty, and Saul asked his son Jonathan, "Why hasn't the son of Jesse come to the meal either yesterday or today?"

28 Jonathan answered, "David urgently requested my permission to go to Bethlehem, 29 saying, 'Please let me go, because our clan is holding a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has told me to be there. So now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me go and see my brothers.' That is why he has not come to the king's table."

SAUL SEEKS TO KILL JONATHAN

30 Then Saul's anger burned against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse and rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the mother who bore you? 31 For as long as the son of Jesse lives on this earth, neither you nor your kingdom shall be established. Now send for him and bring him to me, for he must surely die!"

32 "Why must he be put to death?" Jonathan replied. "What has he done?"

33 Then Saul hurled his spear at Jonathan to kill him. So Jonathan knew that his father was determined to kill David. 34 Jonathan got up from the table in fierce anger and did not eat any food that second day of the month, for he was grieved by his father's shameful treatment of David.

35 In the morning Jonathan went out to the field for the appointment with David, and a small boy was with him. 36 He said to the boy, "Run and find the arrows I shoot." And as the boy ran, Jonathan shot an arrow beyond him.

37 When the boy reached the place where Jonathan's arrow had fallen, Jonathan called to him, "Isn't the arrow beyond you?" 38 Then Jonathan cried out, "Hurry! Make haste! Do not delay!" So the boy picked up the arrow and returned to his master.

39 But the boy did not know anything; only Jonathan and David knew the arrangement. 40 Then Jonathan gave his equipment to the boy and said, "Go, take it back to the city."

41 When the young man had gone, David got up from the south side of the stone, fell facedown, and bowed three times. Then he and Jonathan kissed each other and wept together—though David wept more.

42 And Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, for the two of us have sworn in the name of Yahweh, saying, 'May Yahweh be a witness between you and me, and between your descendants and mine forever.'" Then David got up and departed, and Jonathan went back into the city.

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

David is on the run with no food and no sword. At Nob, the priest gives him the holy bread and Goliath's own sword. Then David runs to Gath, Goliath's hometown, of all places. When they recognize him, he pretends to be crazy and drools on his beard. It works.

DAVID TAKES THE CONSECRATED BREAD // MATTHEW 12:1–8; MARK 2:23–28; LUKE 6:1–5

1 Then David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And when Ahimelech met David, he trembled and asked him, "Why are you alone? Why is no one with you?"

2 "The king has given me a mission," David replied. "He told me no one is to know about the mission on which I am sending you. And I have directed my young men to meet me at a certain place. 3 Now then, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever can be found."

4 "There is no common bread on hand," the priest replied, "but there is some consecrated bread—provided that the young men have kept themselves from women."

5 David answered, "Women have indeed been kept from us, as is usual when I set out. And the bodies of the young men are holy even on common missions. How much more so today!"

6 So the priest gave him the consecrated bread, since there was no bread there but the Bread of the Presence, which had been removed from before Yahweh and replaced with hot bread on the day it was taken away.

7 Now one of Saul's servants was there that day, detained before Yahweh. And his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief shepherd for Saul.

DAVID FLEES TO GATH // PSALM 34:1–22; PSALM 56:1–13

8 Then David asked Ahimelech, "Is there not a spear or sword on hand here? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's mission was urgent."

9 The priest replied, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here; it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want, you may take it. For there is no other but this one here."

And David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

10 That day David fled from Saul and went to Achish king of Gath. 11 But the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David, the king of the land? Did they not sing about him in their dances, saying:

'Saul has slain his thousands,
and David his tens of thousands'?"

12 Now David took these words to heart and was very much afraid of Achish the king of Gath. 13 So he changed his behavior before them and feigned madness in their hands; he scratched on the doors of the gate and let his saliva run down his beard.

14 Then Achish said to his servants, "Look, you can see that the man is insane! Why have you brought him to me? 15 Am I in need of madmen, that you have brought this man to rave in my presence? Must this man come into my house?"

22

David hides in a cave at Adullam, and four hundred men in trouble, in debt or just plain bitter join him. Saul finds out the priests at Nob helped David. When his own men refuse to kill priests, Doeg the Edomite does it. Only one priest, Abiathar, escapes to David.

Abiathar was Ahimelech's son, who escaped in 22:20 and became David's high priest. Some think Mark means the days of the better known Abiathar. Others think he means the part of Scripture about Abiathar.

DAVID FLEES TO ADULLAM AND MIZPEH // PSALM 57:1–11; PSALM 142:1–7

1 So David left Gath and took refuge in the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and the rest of his father's household heard about it, they went down to him there. 2
And all who were distressed or indebted or discontented rallied around him, and he became their leader. About four hundred men were with him.

3 From there David went to Mizpeh of Moab, where he said to the king of Moab,
"Please let my father and mother stay with you until I learn what God will do for me."
4 So he left them in the care of the king of Moab, and they stayed with him the whole time David was in the stronghold.

5 Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold. Depart and go into the land of Judah." So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

SAUL SLAYS THE PRIESTS OF NOB // PSALM 52:1–9

6 Soon Saul learned that David and his men had been discovered. At that time Saul was sitting under the tamarisk tree on the hill at Gibeah, with his spear in hand and all his servants standing around
him.

7 Then Saul said to his servants, "Listen, men of Benjamin! Is the son of Jesse giving all of you fields and vineyards and making you commanders of thousands or hundreds? 8 Is that why all of you have conspired against me? Not one of you told me that my own son had made a covenant with the son of Jesse. Not one of you has shown concern for me or revealed to me that my son has stirred up my own servant to lie in wait against me, as is the case today."

9 But Doeg the Edomite, who had stationed himself with Saul's servants, answered: "I saw the son of Jesse come to Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob. 10 Ahim-elech inquired of Yahweh for him and gave him provisions. He also gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

11 Then the king sent messengers to summon Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and his father's whole family, who were priests at Nob. And all of them came to the king. 12 "Listen now, son of Ahitub," said Saul.

"Here I am, my lord," he replied.

13 And Saul asked him, "Why have you and the son of Jesse conspired against me?
You gave him bread and a sword and inquired of God for him so that he could rise up against me to lie in wait, as he is doing today."

14 Ahimelech answered the king, "Who among all your servants is as faithful as David, the king's son-in-law, the captain of your bodyguard and honored in your house? 15 Was that day the first time I inquired of God for him? Far be it from me!
Let not the king accuse your servant or any of my father's household, for your servant knew nothing of this whole affair—not in part or in whole."

16 But the king replied, "You will surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house!"

17 Then the king ordered the guards at his side, "Turn and kill the priests of Yahweh, because they too sided with David. For they knew he was fleeing, but they did not tell me."

But the king's servants would not lift a hand to strike the priests of Yahweh.

18 So the king ordered Doeg, "You turn and strike down the priests!"

And Doeg the Edomite turned and struck down the priests himself. On that day he killed eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod. 19 He also put to the sword Nob, the city of the priests, with its men and women, children and infants, oxen, donkeys, and sheep.

20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech son of Ahitub escaped. His name was Abiathar, and he fled to David. 21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of Yahweh.

1SA 22:18 [FULFILLS] Eli's family line would be cut off and lose its strength ← 1SA 2:31-33 p.440

1SA 22:18 [NOTE] Doeg killed 85 priests. Many see this as part of the judgment on Eli's house, 2:31 to 33. It was finished when Solomon removed Abiathar, 1 Kings 2:27.

GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

22 Then David said to Abiathar, "I knew that Doeg the Edomite was there that day, and that he was sure to tell Saul. I myself am responsible for the lives of everyone in your father's house. 23 Stay with me; do not be afraid, for he who seeks your life is seeking mine as well. You will be safe with me."

23

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

David saves the town of Keilah from the Philistines, and then he finds out they would hand him over to Saul. God tells him the truth, and David leaves. Saul chases him through the wilderness. Just as Saul is closing in, a messenger runs up: The Philistines are raiding! Saul has to go.

DAVID DELIVERS KEILAH

1 Now it was reported to David, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and looting the threshing floors."

2 So David inquired of Yahweh, "Should I go and attack these Philistines?"

And Yahweh said to David, "Go and attack
the Philistines and save Keilah."

3 But David's men said to him, "Look, we are afraid here in Judah; how much more if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"

4 Once again, David inquired of Yahweh, and Yahweh answered him: "Go at once to Keilah, for I will deliver the Philistines into
your hand."

5 Then David and his men went to Keilah, fought against the Philistines, and carried off their livestock, striking them with a mighty blow. So David saved the people of Keilah.

6 (Now Abiathar son of Ahimelech had brought the ephod with him when he fled to David at Keilah.)

SAUL PURSUES DAVID // PSALM 54:1–7

7 When Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah, he said, "God has delivered him into my hand, for he has trapped himself
by entering a town with gates and bars."

8 Then Saul summoned all his troops to go to war at Keilah and besiege David and his men.

9 When David learned that Saul was plot-ting evil against him, he said to Abiathar
the priest, "Bring the ephod."

10 And David said, "O Yahweh, God of Israel, Your servant has heard that Saul intends to come to Keilah and destroy the city on my account. 11 Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? O Yahweh, God of Israel, please tell Your servant."

"He will," said Yahweh.

12 So David asked, "Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?"

"They will," said Yahweh.

13 Then David and his men, about six hundred strong, set out and departed from Keilah, moving from place to place. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he declined to go forth.

14 And David stayed in the wilderness strongholds and in the hill country of the Wilderness of Ziph. Day after day Saul searched for him, but God would not deliver David into his hand.

15 While David was in Horesh in the Wilderness of Ziph, he saw that Saul had come out to take his life. 16 And Saul's son Jonathan came to David in Horesh and strengthened his hand in God, 17 saying,
"Do not be afraid, for my father Saul will never lay a hand on you. And you will be king over Israel, and I will be your second-in-command. Even my father Saul knows this is true."

18 So the two of them made a covenant before Yahweh. And David remained in Horesh, while Jonathan went home.

19 Then the Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Is not David hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah south of Jeshimon? 20 Now, O king, come down whenever your soul desires, and we will be responsible for delivering him into your hand."

21 "May you be blessed by Yahweh," replied Saul, "for you have had compassion on me. 22 Please go and prepare further. Investigate and watch carefully where he goes and who has seen him there, for I am told that he is extremely cunning. 23 Observe and find out all the places where he hides. Then come back to me with certainty, and I will go with you. If he is in the land, I will search him out among all the clans of Judah."

24 So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the Wilderness of Maon in the Arabah south of Jeshimon, 25 and Saul and his men went to seek him. When David was told about it, he went down to the rock and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard of this, he pursued David there.

26 Saul was proceeding along one side of the mountain, and David and his men along the other side. Even though David was hurrying to get away, Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them.

27 Then a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Come quickly, for the Philistines have raided the land!" 28 So Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went to meet the Philistines. That is why that place is called Sela-hammahlekoth. 29 And David went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En-gedi.

24

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

Saul goes into a cave at En Gedi to relieve himself. It happens to be the very cave where David and his men are hiding. David's men say, This is your chance! David sneaks up and cuts off the corner of Saul's robe, and then even that bothers him. He will not touch Yahweh's anointed.

DAVID SPARES SAUL

1 After Saul had returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "David is in the wilderness of En-gedi." 2 So Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and went to look for David and his men in the region of the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

3 Soon Saul came to the sheepfolds along the road, where there was a cave, and he went in to relieve himself. And David and his men were hiding in the recesses of the cave. 4 So David's men said to him, "This is the day about which Yahweh said to you, 'Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do with him as you wish.'"

Then David crept up and stealthily cut off a corner of Saul's robe.

5 Afterward, David's heart struck him because he had cut off the corner of Saul's robe. 6 So he said to his men, "Yahweh forbid that I should do such a thing to my master, Yahweh's anointed. May I never lift my hand against him, since he is Yahweh's anointed."

7 With these words David restrained his men, and he did not let them rise up against Saul. Then Saul left the cave and went on his way.

8 After that, David got up, went out of the cave, and called out to Saul, "My lord the king!"

When Saul looked behind him, David bowed facedown in reverence 9 and said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men who say, 'Look, David intends to harm you'? 10 Behold, this day you have seen with your own eyes that Yahweh delivered you into my hand in the cave. I was told to kill you, but I spared you and said, 'I will not lift my hand against my lord, since he is Yahweh's anointed.'

11 See, my father, look at the corner of your robe in my hand. For I cut it off, but I did not kill you. Know and see that there is no evil or rebellion in my hands. I have not sinned against you, even though you are hunting me down to take my life.

12 May Yahweh judge between you and me, and may Yahweh take vengeance on you, but my hand will never be against you. 13 As the old proverb says, 'Wickedness proceeds from the wicked.' But my hand will never be against you.

1SA 24:5 [HEART] David's heart struck him because he cut the corner of Saul's robe. A soft heart feels even small sins.

1SA 24:6 [NOTE] YAHWEH'S ANOINTED. David will not touch Saul, because God put him there. He waits for God to give him the throne.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

14 Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog? A flea? 15 May Yahweh be our judge and decide between you and me.
May He take notice and plead my case
and deliver me from your hand."

DAVID'S OATH TO SAUL

16 When David had finished saying these things, Saul called back, "Is that your voice, David my son?"

Then Saul wept aloud 17 and said to David,
"You are more righteous than I, for you have rewarded me with good, though I have rewarded you with evil. 18 And you have declared this day how you have treated me well, for when Yahweh delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me. 19 When a man finds his enemy, does he let him go away unharmed? May Yahweh reward you with good for what you have done for me this day.

20 Now I know for sure that you will be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hands. 21 So now, swear to me by Yahweh that you will not cut off my descendants or wipe out my name from my father's house."

22 So David gave his oath to Saul. Then Saul returned home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

25

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS

Samuel dies. David asks a rich man named Nabal for food after protecting his flocks. Nabal, whose name means fool, says no and insults him. David straps on his sword. Nabal's wise wife Abigail rushes out with food and talks him down. Ten days later God strikes Nabal, and David marries Abigail.

THE DEATH OF SAMUEL

1 When Samuel died, all Israel gathered to mourn for him; and they buried him at his home in Ramah.

Then David set out and went down to the Wilderness of Paran.

1SA 25:1 [NOTE] Samuel died. All Israel mourned him at his home in Ramah.

DAVID, NABAL, AND ABIGAIL

2 Now there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel. He was a very wealthy man with a thousand goats and three thousand sheep, which he was shearing in Carmel. 3 His name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. She was an intelligent and beautiful woman, but her husband, a Calebite, was harsh and evil in his dealings.

4 While David was in the wilderness, he heard that Nabal was shearing sheep. 5 So David sent ten young men and instructed them, "Go up to Nabal at Carmel. Greet him in my name 6 and say to him, 'Long life to you, and peace to you and to your house and to all that belongs to you. 7 Now I hear that it is time for shearing. When your shepherds were with us, we did not harass them, and nothing of theirs was missing the whole time they were in Carmel. 8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you. So let my young men find favor with you, for we have come on the day of a feast. Please give whatever you can spare to your servants and to your son David.'"

9 When David's young men arrived, they relayed all these words to Nabal on behalf of David. Then they waited.

10 But Nabal asked them, "Who is David?
Who is this son of Jesse? Many servants these days are breaking away from their masters. 11 Why should I take my bread and water and the meat I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give them to these men whose origin I do not know?"

12 So David's men turned around and went back, and they relayed to him all these words.

13 And David said to his men, "Strap on your swords!" So David and all his men strapped on their swords, and about four hundred men followed David, while two hundred stayed with the supplies.

14 Meanwhile, one of Nabal's young men informed Nabal's wife Abigail, "Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, but he screamed

THE HEART BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

at them. 15 Yet these men were very good to us. When we were in the field, we were not harassed, and nothing of ours went missing the whole time we lived among them. 16 They were a wall around us, both day and night, the whole time we were herding our sheep near them. 17 Now consider carefully what you must do, because disaster looms over our master and all his household. For he is such a scoundrel that nobody can speak to him!"

ABIGAIL INTERCEDES FOR NABAL

18 Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five butchered sheep, a bushel of roasted grain, a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs. She loaded them on donkeys 19 and said to her young men, "Go ahead of me. I will be right behind you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

20 As Abigail came riding her donkey into a mountain ravine, she saw David and his men coming down toward her, and she met them.

21 Now David had just said, "In vain I have protected all that belonged to this man in the wilderness. Nothing that belongs to him has gone missing, yet he has paid me back evil for good. 22 May God punish David, and ever so severely, if I let one male belonging to Nabal survive until morning."

23 When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off the donkey, fell facedown, and bowed before him. 24 She fell at his feet and said, "My lord, may the blame be on me alone, but please let your servant speak to you; hear the words of your servant. 25 My lord should pay no attention to this scoundrel Nabal, for he lives up to his name: His name means Fool, and folly accompanies him. I, your servant, did not see my lord's young men whom you sent.

26 Now, my lord, as surely as Yahweh lives and you yourself live, since Yahweh has held you back from bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, may your enemies and those who seek harm for my lord be like Nabal.

27 Now let this gift your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow you. 28 Please forgive your servant's offense, for Yahweh will surely make a lasting dynasty for my lord, because he fights Yahweh's battles. May no evil be found in you as long as you live.

29 And should someone pursue you and seek your life, then the life of my lord will be bound securely by Yahweh your God in the bundle of the living. But He shall fling away the lives of your enemies like stones from a sling.

30 When Yahweh has done for my lord all the good He promised, and when He has appointed you ruler over Israel, 31 then my lord will have no remorse or guilt of conscience over needless bloodshed and revenge. And when Yahweh has dealt well with my lord, may you remember your servant."

32 Then David said to Abigail, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sent you to meet me this day! 33 Blessed is your discernment, and blessed are you, because today you kept me from bloodshed and from avenging myself by my own hand. 34 Otherwise, as surely as Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives, who has restrained me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, then surely no male belonging to Nabal would have been left alive by morning light."

35 Then David accepted from her hand what she had brought him, and he said to her, "Go home in peace. See, I have heeded your voice and granted your request."

36 When Abigail returned to Nabal, there he was in the house, holding a feast fit for a king, in high spirits and very drunk. So she told him nothing until morning light.

37 In the morning when Nabal was sober, his wife told him about these events, and his heart failed within him, and he became like a stone. 38 About ten days later, Yahweh struck Nabal dead.

1SA 25:25 [NOTE] Nabal means fool. His wife, Abigail, said so herself.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

DAVID MARRIES ABIGAIL

39 On hearing that Nabal was dead, David said, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has upheld my cause against the reproach of Nabal and has restrained His servant from evil. For Yahweh has brought the wickedness of Nabal down upon his own head."

Then David sent word to Abigail, asking her to become his wife. 40 When his servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they said, "David has sent us to take you as his wife."

41 She arose, bowed facedown, and said, "Here is your servant, ready to serve and to wash the feet of my lord's servants."

42 So Abigail hurried and got on a donkey, and attended by five of her maidens, she followed David's messengers and became his wife.

43 David had also married Ahinoam of Jezreel. So she and Abigail were both his wives. 44 But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

26

CHAPTER 26 IN 30 SECONDS

Saul is chasing David again. David and Abishai sneak into Saul's camp at night while everyone is asleep, and they take Saul's spear and water jug. David yells from a hilltop at Abner: Some bodyguard you are! Saul admits, I have sinned. David still doesn't trust him.

DAVID AGAIN SPARES SAUL

1 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Is not David hiding on the hill of Hachilah, opposite Jeshimon?" 2 So Saul, accompanied by three thousand chosen men of Israel, went down to the Wilderness of Ziph to search for David there.

3 Saul camped beside the road at the hill of Hachilah opposite Jeshimon, but David was living in the wilderness. When he realized that Saul had followed him there, 4 David sent out spies to verify that Saul had arrived.

5 Then David set out and went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw the place where Saul and Abner son of Ner, the general of his army, had lain down. Saul was lying inside the inner circle of the camp, with the troops camped around him. 6 And David asked Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, "Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?"

"I will go with you," answered Abishai.

7 That night David and Abishai came to the troops, and Saul was lying there asleep in the inner circle of the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. And Abner and the troops were lying around him.

8 Abishai said to David, "Today God has delivered your enemy into your hand. Now, therefore, please let me thrust the spear through him into the ground with one stroke. I will not need to strike him twice!"

9 But David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him, for who can extend a hand against Yahweh's anointed and be guiltless?" 10 David added, "As surely as Yahweh lives, Yahweh Himself will strike him down; either his day will come and he will die, or he will go into battle and perish. 11 But Yahweh forbid that I should extend my hand against Yahweh's anointed. Instead, take the spear and water jug by his head, and let us go."

12 So David took the spear and water jug by Saul's head, and they departed. No one saw them or knew about it, nor did anyone wake up; they all remained asleep, because a deep sleep from Yahweh had fallen on them.

DAVID REPROVES ABNER

13 Then David crossed to the other side and stood atop the mountain at a distance; there was a wide gulf between them. 14 And David shouted to the troops and to Abner son of Ner, "Will you not answer me, Abner?"

"Who are you who calls to the king?" Abner replied.

1SA 25:37 [HEART] Nabal's heart died within him, and he became like a stone. The man who hardened his heart toward David ended with a heart of stone.

DEMONIC BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

15 So David said to Abner, "You are a man, aren't you? And who in Israel is your equal? Why then did you not protect your lord the king when one of the people came to destroy him? 16 This thing you have done is not good. As surely as Yahweh lives, all of you deserve to die, since you did not protect your lord, Yahweh's anointed. Now look around. Where are the king's spear and water jug that were by his head?"

17 Then Saul recognized David's voice and asked, "Is that your voice, David my son?"

"It is my voice, my lord and king," David
said.

18 And he continued, "Why is my lord pursuing his servant? What have I done?
What evil is in my hand? 19 Now please,
may my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If Yahweh has stirred you up against me, then may He accept an offering. But if men have done it, may they be cursed in the presence of Yahweh! For today they have driven me away from sharing in the inheritance of Yahweh, saying,
'Go, serve other gods.' 20 So do not let my blood fall to the ground far from the presence of Yahweh. For the king of Israel has come out to look for a flea, like one who hunts a partridge in the mountains."

SAUL ACKNOWLEDGES HIS SIN

21 Then Saul replied, "I have sinned. Come back, David my son. I will never harm you again, because today you considered my life precious. I have played the fool and have committed a grave error!"

22 "Here is the king's spear," David answered. "Let one of the young men come over and get it. 23 May Yahweh repay
every man for his righteousness and faithfulness. For Yahweh delivered you into my hand today, but I would not extend my hand against Yahweh's anointed. 24 As surely as I valued your life today, so may Yahweh value my life and rescue me from all trouble."

25 Saul said to him, "May you be blessed, David my son. You will accomplish great things and will surely prevail."

So David went on his way, and Saul returned home.

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

David decides he will be safer living among the Philistines. King Achish of Gath gives him the town of Ziklag. David raids Israel's old enemies, but tells Achish he is raiding Judah. Achish thinks David's own people must hate him now.

DAVID AND THE PHILISTINES

1 David, however, said to himself, "One of these days now I will be swept away by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will stop searching for me all over Israel, and I will slip out of his hand."

2 So David set out with his six hundred men and went to Achish son of Maoch, the king of Gath. 3 David and his men settled in Gath with Achish. Each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives: Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, the widow of Nabal. 4 And when Saul learned that David had fled to Gath,
he no longer searched for him.

5 Then David said to Achish, "If I have found favor in your eyes, let me be assigned a place in one of the outlying towns, so I can live there. For why should your servant live in the royal city with
you?"

6 That day Achish gave him Ziklag, and to this day it still belongs to the kings of Judah. 7 And the time that David lived in Philistine territory amounted to a year and four months.

8 Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites. (From ancient times these people had inhabited the land extending to Shur and Egypt.) 9 Whenever David attacked a territory, he did not leave a man or woman alive, but he took the flocks and herds, the donkeys, camels, and clothing.

Then he would return to Achish, 10 who would ask him, "What have you raided today?"

And David would reply, "The Negev of Judah," or "The Negev of Jerahmeel," or "The Negev of the Kenites."

11 David did not leave a man or woman alive to be brought to Gath, for he said, "Otherwise they will report us, saying, 'This is what David did.'" And this was David's custom the whole time he lived in Philistine territory.

12 So Achish trusted David, thinking, "Since he has made himself an utter stench to his people Israel, he will be my servant forever."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO WROTE 1 SAMUEL?

The Traditional View

1 SAMUEL 9:9 · 25:1 · 27:6 · 1 CHRONICLES 29:29

THE BOOK DOES NOT SAY

1 Samuel never names its writer. It is named for Samuel because he is the main person in the first half and he anointed both kings.

THE TALMUD

An old Jewish teaching in the Talmud, Bava Batra 14b and 15a, says Samuel wrote his book, and that Gad the seer and Nathan the prophet finished it, since Samuel dies in 25:1.

THE RECORDS

1 Chronicles 29:29 says the acts of King David are written in the records of Samuel the seer, Nathan the prophet and Gad the seer. All three men knew David.

CLUES IN THE BOOK

The writer explains old words, like seer, 9:9. He says Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to this day, 27:6, which sounds like a time after the kingdom split into Israel and Judah, after Solomon.

ONE BOOK

In the Hebrew Bible, 1 and 2 Samuel are one book. The old Greek Bible split it into two and joined it with Kings, so 1 and 2 Samuel were 1 and 2 Kingdoms, and 1 and 2 Kings were 3 and 4 Kingdoms. Printed Hebrew Bibles started splitting Samuel in the 1500s.

Every View

1 SAMUEL 13:1 · 17:4 · 10:27 · DEUTERONOMY TO 2 KINGS

VIEW 1: SAMUEL, NATHAN AND GAD

Samuel and the prophets who knew David kept records, and an editor put them together not long after David and Solomon, or soon after the kingdom split. The book knows the land, the names and the places very well.

VIEW 2: PART OF A BIGGER HISTORY

Many scholars think Deuteronomy through 2 Kings were put together as one long history near the time of the exile, in the 500s BC, using much older sources. This idea was first proposed by the German scholar Martin Noth in 1943.

VIEW 3: OLDER STORIES INSIDE

Scholars often see older stories inside the book: the ark story, chapters 4 to 6, and the rise of David, from chapter 16 into 2 Samuel. Many think they were written close to the events.

THE TEXT ITSELF

The Hebrew text of Samuel has more copying problems than most books, like Saul's age in 13:1. The Dead Sea Scroll 4QSam a and the old Greek Bible help with some gaps, like Goliath's height, 17:4. The scroll alone has the Nahash paragraph, 10:27.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Whoever wrote it told the truth about Israel's heroes, faults and all. It shows a God who raises up the humble and brings down the proud, just as Hannah sang, 2:7 to 8.

28

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS

The Philistines gather for war, and Saul is terrified. God will not answer him. So the king who threw the mediums out of the land disguises himself and visits a medium at Endor. Bring up Samuel, he says. What comes up has the worst news of Saul's life: tomorrow you will be with me.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE DEMONIC BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

THE PHILISTINES GATHER AGAINST ISRAEL

1 Now in those days the Philistines gathered their forces for warfare against Israel. So Achish said to David, "You must understand that you and your men are to go out to battle with me."

2 David replied, "Then you will come to know what your servant can do."

"Very well," said Achish. "I will make you my bodyguard for life."

3 Now by this time Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had removed the mediums and spiritists from the land.

4 The Philistines gathered together and camped at Shunem, while Saul gathered all Israel and camped at Gilboa. 5 When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid and trembled violently. 6 He inquired of Yahweh, but Yahweh did not answer him by dreams or Urim or prophets.

SAUL AND THE MEDIUM OF ENDOR

7 Then Saul said to his servants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, so I can go and consult her."

"There is a medium at Endor," his servants replied.

8 So Saul disguised himself by putting on different clothes, and he set out with two of his men. They came to the woman at night, and Saul said, "Consult a spirit for me. Bring up for me the one I name."

9 But the woman replied, "Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has killed the mediums and spiritists in the land. Why have you set a trap to get me killed?"

10 Then Saul swore to her by Yahweh: "As surely as Yahweh lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this."

11 "Whom shall I bring up for you?" the woman asked.

"Bring up Samuel," he replied.

12 But when the woman saw Samuel, she cried out in a loud voice and said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!"

13 "Do not be afraid," the king replied. "What do you see?"

"I see a god coming up out of the earth," the woman answered.

14 "What does he look like?" asked Saul.

"An old man is coming up," she replied. "And he is wearing a robe."

So Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed facedown in reverence.

15 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?"

"I am deeply distressed," replied Saul. "The Philistines are fighting against me, and God has turned away from me. He no longer answers me, either by prophets or by dreams. So I have called on you to tell me what to do."

16 "Why do you consult me," asked Samuel, "since Yahweh has turned away from you and become your enemy? 17 He has done exactly what He spoke through me: Yahweh has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor David. 18 Because you did not obey Yahweh or carry out His burning anger against Amalek, Yahweh has done this to you today. 19 Moreover, Yahweh will deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. And Yahweh will deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE MEDIUM OF ENDOR

What Happened

1 SAMUEL 28:3 TO 25 · LEVITICUS 19:31 · DEUTERONOMY 18:10 TO 12 · 1 CHRONICLES 10:13 TO 14

THE LAW

God's law banned mediums and anyone who calls up the dead, Deuteronomy 18:10 to 12. Saul himself had thrown them out of the land, 28:3.

A KING WITH NO ANSWER

The Philistines gathered at Shunem, and Saul was terrified. He asked Yahweh, but God did not answer him by dreams, by the Urim or by prophets, 28:6. So Saul put on a disguise and went at night to a medium at Endor, 28:8.

WHAT SHE SAW

Saul said, Bring up Samuel. When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed, 28:12. She said, I see a god coming up out of the earth. The Hebrew word is elohim, which can mean a god or a spirit being. She described an old man wrapped in a robe, and Saul bowed down, 28:13 to 14.

THE MESSAGE

Samuel said Yahweh had torn the kingdom from Saul and given it to David, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me, 28:17 to 19. Soon after, Saul and three of his sons died in battle, 31:6.

THE VERDICT

1 Chronicles 10:13 to 14 says Saul died because he was unfaithful to Yahweh, and because he asked a medium for guidance instead of asking Yahweh.

Was It Really Samuel?

1 SAMUEL 28:12 TO 19 · ISAIAH 8:19 · LUKE 16:26 · MATTHEW 17:3

VIEW 1: GOD SENT SAMUEL

Many Jewish and Christian teachers say it really was Samuel, sent by God, not called up by her power. Her scream shows she did not expect it. The writer calls him Samuel again and again, and his words came true. The old Jewish book Sirach says Samuel prophesied even after he died, Sirach 46:20.

VIEW 2: A DEMON IN DISGUISE

Many others, including Martin Luther and John Calvin, said it was an evil spirit pretending to be Samuel. They point out that God's law forbids this, the dead do not come and go at a medium's call, Luke 16:26, and demons can know and use true things.

VIEW 3: A TRICK

A few say the woman faked it, using a hidden voice. Most reject this, because the message was true and Saul was in disguise, yet she found out who he was.

WHAT EACH SIDE ANSWERS

The first side says God can do something rare without blessing the medium's trade, like Moses and Elijah appearing with Jesus, Matthew 17:3. The second side says God would not answer Saul through the very sin He had banned.

WHAT ALL AGREE ON

Saul broke God's law and it did not help him. Isaiah 8:19 says, Should not a people ask their God? Why ask the dead on behalf of the living? Nobody in the Bible is ever told to try this. Ask God.

20 Immediately Saul fell flat on the ground, terrified by the words of Samuel. And his strength was gone, because he had not eaten anything all that day and night.
21 When the woman came to Saul and saw how distraught he was, she said to him,
"Look, your maidservant has obeyed your voice. I took my life in my hands and did as you told me. 22 Now please listen to your servant and let me set a morsel of bread before you so you may eat and have the strength to go on your way." 23 Saul refused, saying, "I will not eat." But his servants joined the woman in urging him, and he heeded their voice. He got up from the ground and sat on the bed.
24 The woman had a fattened calf at her house, and she quickly slaughtered it. She also took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread. 25 She served it to Saul and his servants, and they ate. And that night they got up and left.

29

CHAPTER 29 IN 30 SECONDS

David and his men march out with the Philistine army against Israel. Awkward. The other Philistine lords say, Isn't this the David they sing about? Get him out of here. Achish sends David home. God gets David out of fighting his own people.

THE PHILISTINES REJECT DAVID

1 Now the Philistines brought all their forces together at Aphek, while Israel camped by the spring in Jezreel. 2 As the Philistine leaders marched out with their units of hundreds and thousands, David and his men marched behind them with Achish.

3 Then the commanders of the Philistines
asked, "What about these Hebrews?"

Achish replied, "Is this not David, the servant of King Saul of Israel? He has been with me all these days, even years, and from the day he defected until today I have found no fault in him."

4 But the commanders of the Philistines
were angry with Achish and told him,
"Send that man back and let him return to the place you assigned him. He must not go down with us into battle only to become our adversary during the war. What better way for him to regain the favor of his master than with the heads of our men? 5 Is this not the David about whom they sing in their dances:

'Saul has slain his thousands,
and David his tens of thousands'?"

6 So Achish summoned David and told him, "As surely as Yahweh lives, you have been upright, and it seems right in my sight that you should march in and out with me in the army, because I have found no fault in you from the day you came to me until this day. But you are not good in the sight of the leaders. 7 Therefore turn back now and go in peace, so that you will not do anything to displease the leaders of the Philistines."

8 "But what have I done?" David replied.
"What have you found against your servant, from the day I came to you until today, to keep me from going along to fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

9 Achish replied, "I know that you are as pleasing in my sight as an angel of God.
But the commanders of the Philistines
have said, 'He must not go into battle with us.' 10 Now then, get up early in the morning, along with your master's servants who came with you, and go as soon as it is light."

11 So David and his men got up early in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 30 IN 30 SECONDS

David gets home to Ziklag and finds it burned and every family taken by the Amalekites. His own men talk about stoning him. David finds his strength in Yahweh, asks God what to do, and chases the raiders. He gets back everyone and everything, and he makes sure even the tired men get a share.

THE AMALEKITES RAID ZIKLAG

1 On the third day David and his men arrived in Ziklag, and the Amalekites had raided the Negev, attacked Ziklag, and burned it down. 2 They had taken captive
the women and all who were there, both young and old. They had not killed anyone, but had carried them off as they went on their way.

3 When David and his men came to the city, they found it burned down and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive. 4 So David and the troops with him lifted up their voices and wept until they had no strength left to weep.

5 David's two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel, had been taken captive. 6 And David was greatly distressed because the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of every man grieved for his sons and daughters. But David found strength in Yahweh his God.

1SA 30:6 [NOTABLE] David's lowest day: his town burned, his family taken, and his own men ready to stone him. He did not quit. He found his strength in God first, then he acted.

DAVID DESTROYS THE AMALEKITES

7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod."

So Abiathar brought it to him, 8 and David inquired of Yahweh: "Should I pursue these raiders? Will I overtake them?"

"Pursue them," Yahweh replied, "for you will surely overtake them and rescue the captives."

9 So David and his six hundred men went to the Brook of Besor, where some stayed behind 10 because two hundred men were too exhausted to cross the brook. But David and four hundred men continued in pursuit.

11 Now his men found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David. They gave the man water to drink and food to eat—12 a piece of a fig cake and two clusters of raisins. So he ate and was revived, for he had not had any food or water for three days and three nights.

13 Then David asked him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?"

"I am an Egyptian," he replied, "the slave of an Amalekite. My master abandoned me three days ago when I fell ill. 14 We raided the Negev of the Cherethites, the territory of Judah, and the Negev of Caleb, and we burned down Ziklag."

15 "Will you lead me to these raiders?"
David asked.

And the man replied, "Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or deliver me into the hand of my master, and I will lead
you to them."

16 So he led David down, and there were the Amalekites spread out over all the land, eating, drinking, and celebrating the great amount of plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and the land of Judah. 17 And David struck them down from twilight until the evening of the next day. Not a man escaped, except four hundred young men who fled, riding off on camels.

18 So David recovered everything the Amalekites had taken, including his two wives. 19 Nothing was missing, young or old, son or daughter, or any of the plunder the Amalekites had taken. David brought everything back. 20 And he took all the flocks and herds, which his men drove ahead of the other livestock, calling out,
"This is David's plunder!"

THE SPOILS ARE DIVIDED

21 When David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow him and who were left behind at the Brook of Besor, they came out to meet him and the troops with him. As David approached the men, he greeted them, 22 but all the wicked and worthless men among those who had gone with David said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not share with them the plunder we recovered, except for each man's wife and children. They may take them and go."

23 But David said, "My brothers, you must not do this with what Yahweh has given us. He has protected us and delivered into our hands the raiders who came against us. 24 Who will listen to your proposal? The share of the one who went to battle will match the share of the one who stayed with the supplies. They will share alike."

25 And so it has been from that day forward. David established this statute and ordinance for Israel to this very day.

26 When David arrived in Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, "Here is a gift for you from the plunder of Yahweh's enemies." 27 He sent gifts to those in Bethel, Ramoth Negev, and Jattir; 28 to those in Aroer, Siphmoth, and Eshtemoa; 29 to those in Racal and in the cities of the Jer-ahmeelites and Kenites; 30 to those in Hormah, Bor-ashan, and Athach; 31 and to those in Hebron and in all the places where David and his men had roamed.

The Philistines win on Mount Gilboa. Jonathan and two of his brothers die, and Saul, badly wounded, falls on his own sword. The Philistines hang the bodies on the wall of Beth Shan. The men of Jabesh Gilead, whom Saul rescued in chapter 11, walk all night to bring them home.

SAUL'S OVERTHROW AND DEATH // 2 SAMUEL 1:1–16; 1 CHRONICLES 10:1–6

1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel,
and the men of Israel fled before them,
and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.
2 The Philistines hotly pursued Saul and his sons, and they killed Saul's sons
Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua. 3
When the battle intensified against Saul,
the archers overtook him and wounded
him critically.
4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer,
"Draw your sword and run me through with it, or these uncircumcised men will come and run me through and torture
me!"
But his armor-bearer was terrified and refused to do it. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.
5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his own sword
and died with him.
6 So Saul, his three sons, his armor-bearer,
and all his men died together that same
day.

THE PHILISTINES POSSESS THE TOWNS // 1 CHRONICLES 10:7–10

7 When the Israelites along the valley and those on the other side of the Jordan saw that the army of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their cities and ran away. So the Philistines came and occupied their cities.
8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. 9 They cut off Saul's head, stripped off his armor,
and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temples of their idols and among their people. 10 They put his armor in the temple of the Ashtoreths and hung his body on the wall of Beth-shan.

JABESH-GILEAD'S TRIBUTE TO SAUL // 1 CHRONICLES 10:11–14

11 When the people of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 all their men of valor set out, journeyed all night, and retrieved the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall of Beth-shan.
When they arrived at Jabesh, they burned
the bodies there. 13 Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and they fasted
seven days.

Ruins of the Egyptian governor's house at Tel Beth Shean, from the 1100s BC. The metal frame and the tops of the walls are modern, added to protect the ruins. Photo A. Sobkowski, public domain.

WHAT IT IS

Tel Beth Shean is a huge hill of ruins where the Jezreel Valley meets the Jordan Valley. The Bible calls it Beth Shan. The Philistines hung Saul's body on its wall, 31:10.

HOW OLD IT IS

The city is more than 5,000 years old. For about three hundred years, until about 1130 BC, it was an Egyptian army base that guarded the road.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The University of Pennsylvania dug it from 1921 to 1933. Amihai Mazar of the Hebrew University dug it again from 1989 to 1996.

WHAT THEY FOUND

The Egyptian governor's house in the photo, stone monuments of the Egyptian kings Seti I and Ramesses II, and clay coffins with faces on the lids. Some think the people buried in those coffins were soldiers from the Sea Peoples, like the Philistines.

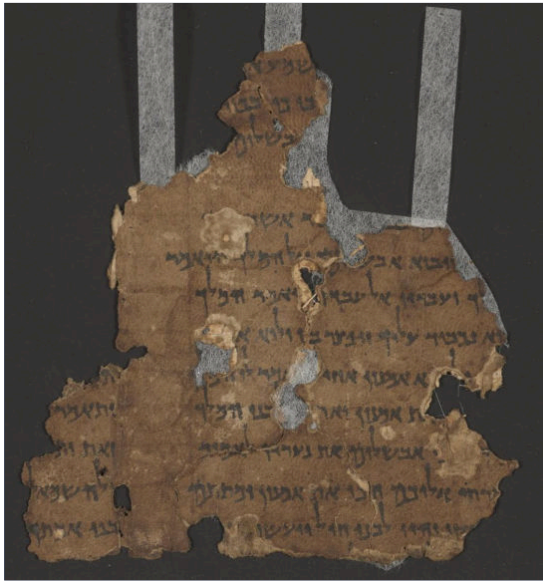
THE TEMPLES

The first diggers found two temples and said they were the temple of the Ashtoreths, 31:10, and the temple of Dagon, 1 Chronicles 10:10. Later scholars are not sure. The dates and who used them are still debated.

JABESH GILEAD

The men of Jabesh walked all night, across the Jordan, to take down the bodies, 31:12. It was a long walk through the night, in the dark and in enemy land.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE



Nothing found there names Saul. It shows that Beth Shan was a strong city in Saul's day, not held by Israel, Judges 1:27.

AUTHOR	The book does not name its author. Jewish tradition in the Talmud says Samuel began the book, and Gad the seer and Nathan the prophet finished it. 1 Chronicles 29:29 names the records of Samuel, Nathan and Gad.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	The forty years David was king, from Saul's death to near the end of David's life.
DATE	About 1010 to 970 BC. David ruled Judah from Hebron for seven and a half years, then all Israel from Jerusalem for thirty three years, 5:5.
WRITTEN TO	Israel, to show how God made David king, the forever promise God gave him, and what David's sin cost his family.
KEY VERSE	2 Samuel 7:16. Your house and kingdom will endure forever before Me, and your throne will be established forever.

ONE OF THE OLDEST COPIES OF 2 SAMUEL
This piece of leather comes from 4QSam a, a scroll of 1 and 2 Samuel found in Cave 4 at Qumran, near the Dead Sea. It was copied about 50 to 25 BC. Its right column holds 2 Samuel 13:24 to 29, where Absalom invites the king's sons to his sheepshearing and tells his servants to strike Amnon. The names Absalom and Amnon can still be read. The white strips are thin modern paper that holds the piece together.

THE OLDEST COPIES. 4QSam c and 4QSam a are the oldest copies of 2 Samuel known so far. 4QSam c is a smaller scroll copied about 100 to 75 BC, even older than 4QSam a, and it holds parts of chapters 14 and 15. 4QSam a often matches the old Greek Bible instead of the standard Hebrew text, and 4QSam c sometimes does too.

Historical Setting

2 Samuel starts in Hebron, in the hills of Judah, where David is crowned by his own tribe. Then David takes Jerusalem from the Jebusites and makes it his capital, the City of David. From there he fights the Philistines on the coast, Moab and Ammon across the Jordan, the Arameans in the north and Edom in the south.

What Was Going Wrong

CIVIL WAR. Saul's house and David's house fought for years 2:12 to 3:1.
MURDERS. Joab murdered Abner and Amasa, and two captains murdered Ish bosheth 3:27, 4:5 to 7, 20:10.
THE WRONG WAY. The ark rode on a cart instead of being carried as God's law said, and Uzzah died 6:3 to 7.
THE KING'S SIN. David took Bathsheba and had her husband Uriah killed 11:4, 11:15 to 17.
RAPE IN THE PALACE. Amnon raped his half sister Tamar, and David did nothing 13:14, 13:21.
A SON'S REVOLT. Absalom killed Amnon, stole Israel's hearts and took his father's throne 13:28 to 29, 15:6 to 12.
BROKEN OATHS. Saul broke Israel's oath to the Gibeonites, and the land suffered a famine 21:1 to 2.
A PROUD COUNT. David counted his fighting men, and a plague followed 24:1 to 15.

The Idiot Proof Summary

2 Samuel is the story of King David, the good, the bad and the very sad. Saul is dead, and David is crowned, first by Judah, then by all twelve tribes. He takes Jerusalem, and God promises him a house and a throne that will last forever. Then, at the top of his success, David takes another man's wife and has the husband killed. The prophet Nathan tells him, You are that man. David repents, and God forgives him, but the sword never leaves his house. His son Absalom even steals the throne, and David weeps when he dies. The book ends with David's song of praise, his last words and an altar on a threshing floor where the temple will one day stand.

Where Jesus Shows Up

2 SAMUEL 7:12 TO 16 God promised David a son whose throne would last forever. The angel told Mary that Jesus would get the throne of His father David, Luke 1:32 to 33.

2 SAMUEL 7:14 I will be his Father, and he will be My son. Hebrews 1:5 uses these words for Jesus, God's Son.

2 SAMUEL 22:50 Paul quotes this in Romans 15:9 to show the Gentiles would praise God through Christ.

GOD'S NAMES IN 2 SAMUEL

Yahweh, again and again, and Yahweh of Hosts, 6:2. In his prayer in chapter 7, David calls Him Lord Yahweh seven times. He calls Him my Rock, 22:2, and the Rock of Israel, 23:3. See Why We Say Yahweh in the Old Testament Introduction.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

1, 2, 3 AND 4 KINGS

1 and 2 Samuel and 1 and 2 Kings used to be called 1, 2, 3 and 4 Kings, because they tell one long story. That makes this book the Second Book of the Kings. The old Greek Bible named it 2 Kingdoms, and Latin Bibles named it 2 Kings. The King James still calls it The Second Book of Samuel, otherwise called The Second Book of the Kings. In old Hebrew Bibles, 1 and 2 Samuel were one book.

HOUSE OF DAVID IN STONE

An enemy king's stone from about 130 years after David names the House of David. See the Tel Dan Stele page.

A SEAT AT THE TABLE

David gave Jonathan's lame son a place at the king's table for life, 9:7 to 13.

How Did It Turn Out?

David ended as king of a united Israel, with a broken family. Next comes 1 Kings, where Solomon builds the temple on David's threshing floor.

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

A young Amalekite runs into David's camp with Saul's crown and a story: I killed Saul for you. He expects a reward. He gets the opposite. Then David writes a song for Saul and Jonathan, How the mighty have fallen, and teaches it to Judah.

SAUL'S DEATH REPORTED TO DAVID // 1 SAMUEL 31:1–6; 1 CHRONICLES 10:1–6

1 After the death of Saul, David returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites and stayed in Ziklag two days. 2 On the third day a man with torn clothes and dust on his head arrived from Saul's camp. When he came to David, he fell to the ground to pay him homage.

3 "Where have you come from?" David
asked.

"I have escaped from the Israelite camp,"
he replied.

4 "What was the outcome?" David asked.
"Please tell me."

"The troops fled from the battle," he replied. "Many of them fell and died. And Saul and his son Jonathan are also dead."

5 Then David asked the young man who had brought him the report, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

6 "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa," he replied, "and there was Saul, leaning on his spear, with the chariots and the cavalry closing in on him. 7 When he turned around and saw me, he called out to me, and I answered, 'Here I am!'

8 'Who are you?' he asked.

So I told him, 'I am an Amalekite.'

9 Then he begged me, 'Stand over me and kill me, for agony has seized me, but my life still lingers.'

10 So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew that after he had fallen he could not survive. And I took the crown that was on his head and the band that was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."

11 Then David took hold of his own clothes and tore them, and all the men who were with him did the same. 12 They mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, and for the people of Yahweh and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

13 And David inquired of the young man who had brought him the report, "Where are you from?"

"I am the son of a foreigner," he answered. "I am an Amalekite."

14 So David asked him, "Why were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy Yahweh's anointed?" 15 Then David summoned one of the young men and said,
"Go, execute him!" So the young man struck him down, and he died. 16 For David had said to the Amalekite, "Your blood be on your own head because your own mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I killed Yahweh's anointed.'"

DAVID'S SONG FOR SAUL AND JONATHAN

17 Then David took up this lament for Saul and his son Jonathan, 18 and he ordered that the sons of Judah be taught the Song of the Bow. It is written in the Book of Jashar:

19 "Your glory, O Israel, lies slain on your heights.
How the mighty have fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gath;
proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon,
lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
and the daughters of the uncircumcised
exult.
21 O mountains of Gilboa,
may you have no dew or rain,
no fields yielding offerings of grain.
For there the shield of the mighty was defiled,

2SA 1:1 [NOTE] SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS. 1 and 2 Samuel were once one book. 2 Samuel picks up the day after Saul died, 1 Samuel 31.

2SA 1:10 [NOTE] WHO KILLED SAUL? 1 Samuel 31:4 says Saul fell on his own sword. This Amalekite says he finished Saul off. Most think he lied to win a reward from David.

the shield of Saul, no longer anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain,
from the fat of the mighty,
the bow of Jonathan did not retreat,
and the sword of Saul did not return empty.
23 Saul and Jonathan, beloved and delightful in life,
were not divided in death.
They were swifter than eagles;
they were stronger than lions.

24 O daughters of Israel,
weep for Saul,
who clothed you in scarlet and luxury,
who decked your garments with ornaments of gold.
25 How the mighty have fallen in the thick of battle!
Jonathan lies slain on your heights.

26 I grieve for you, Jonathan, my brother.
You were delightful to me;
your love to me was extraordinary,
surpassing the love of women.
27 How the mighty have fallen,
and the weapons of war have perished!"

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Judah crowns David king in Hebron, but Abner, Saul's general, makes Saul's son Ish bosheth king of everyone else. The two sides meet at the pool of Gibeon for a contest that turns into a battle. Abner kills Joab's fast little brother Asahel, and that starts a long feud.

DAVID ANOINTED KING OF JUDAH

1 Some time later, David inquired of Yahweh, "Should I go up to one of the towns of Judah?"

"Go up," Yahweh answered.

Then David asked, "Where should I go?"

"To Hebron," replied Yahweh.

2 So David went there with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel. 3 David also took the men who were with him, each with his household, and they settled in the towns near Hebron.

4 Then the men of Judah came to Hebron, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, "It was the men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul."

5 So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead to tell them, "Yahweh bless you, because you showed this kindness to Saul your lord when you buried him. 6 Now may Yahweh show you loving devotion and faithfulness, and I will also show you the same favor because you have done this. 7 Now then, be strong and courageous, for though Saul your lord is dead, the house of Judah has anointed me as their king."

ISH-BOSHETH MADE KING OF ISRAEL

8 Meanwhile, Abner son of Ner, the commander of Saul's army, took Saul's son Ish-bosheth, moved him to Mahanaim, 9 and made him king over Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, and Benjamin—over all Israel.

10 Saul's son Ish-bosheth was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned for two years.

The house of Judah, however, followed David. 11 And the length of time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

THE BATTLE OF GIBEON

12 One day Abner son of Ner and the servants of Ish-bosheth son of Saul marched out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. 13 So Joab son of Zeruiah and the servants of David marched out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. And the two groups took up positions on opposite sides of the pool.

THE POOL OF GIBEON

2 SAMUEL 2:12 TO 17 · JEREMIAH 41:12 · JOSHUA 9:3 · 2 SAMUEL 21:1 TO 9

Visitors stand at the rim of the great rock cut pool at el Jib, ancient Gibeon. Photo Ronnie Kenigsberg, PikiWiki Israel, CC BY 2.5.

WHAT IT IS

A giant round hole cut straight down into solid rock, about 37 feet across and 35 feet deep. A staircase winds down its side. At the bottom it turns into a tunnel and keeps going down to a water room about 80 feet below the ground. There are 79 steps in all.

HOW OLD IT IS

James Pritchard, who dug it, thought it was cut in the early Iron Age, around or before the time of David. Other scholars think it is later, from the 900s to the 700s BC. The date is still debated.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

At el Jib, a village about six miles north of Jerusalem. Pritchard dug there from 1956 to 1962. Thousands of tons of rock had been chipped out by hand to make the pool.

HOW WE KNOW IT IS GIBEON

Inside the pool's fill, the diggers found jar handles with the name Gibeon written on them in old Hebrew letters. So we know for sure this is Gibeon. They also found dozens of rock cut wine cellars. Gibeon made wine.

THE POOL IN THE BIBLE

Joab's men and Abner's men sat on opposite sides of the pool of Gibeon, 2:13. Jeremiah 41:12 also names the great pool in Gibeon.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nobody can be sure this is the exact pool of 2:13. If Pritchard's date is right, it was there in David's day. If the later date is right, the Bible's pool was another one nearby.

14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Let us have the young men get up and compete before us."

"Let them get up," Joab replied.

15 So they got up and were counted off—twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth son of Saul, and twelve for David. 16 Then each man grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his sword into his opponent's side, and they all fell together.
So this place, which is in Gibeon, is called Helkath-hazzurim.

17 The battle that day was intense, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by the servants of David.

18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there:
Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Now Asahel was fleet of foot like a wild gazelle, 19 and he chased Abner, not turning to the right or to the left in his pursuit. 20 And Abner glanced back and said, "Is that you, Asahel?"

"It is," Asahel replied.

21 So Abner told him, "Turn to your right or to your left, seize one of the young men,
and take his equipment for yourself."

But Asahel would not stop chasing him.

22 Once again, Abner warned Asahel,
"Stop chasing me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How could I show my face to your brother Joab?"

23 But Asahel refused to turn away. So Abner thrust the butt of his spear into his stomach, and it came out his back, and he fell dead on the spot. And every man paused when he came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died. 24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner. By sunset, they had gone as far as the hill of Ammah opposite Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 The Benjamites rallied to Abner, formed a single unit, and took their stand atop a hill. 26 Then Abner called out to Joab:
"Must the sword devour forever? Do you not realize that this will only end in bitterness? How long before you tell the troops to stop pursuing their brothers?"

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

27 "As surely as God lives," Joab replied, "if you had not spoken up, the troops would have continued pursuing their brothers until morning."

28 So Joab blew the ram's horn, and all the troops stopped; they no longer pursued Israel or continued to fight. 29 And all that night Abner and his men marched through the Arabah. They crossed the Jordan, marched all morning, and arrived at Mahanaim.

30 When Joab returned from pursuing Abner, he gathered all the troops.

In addition to Asahel, nineteen of David's servants were missing, 31 but they had struck down 360 Benjamites who were with Abner. 32 And they took Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb in Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men marched all night and reached Hebron at daybreak.

3

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

The war drags on, and David's side keeps getting stronger. Abner fights with Ish bosheth and switches to David. David welcomes him and sends him off in peace. Joab, still angry about Asahel, pulls Abner aside at the gate and kills him. David mourns out loud so everyone knows he had nothing to do with it.

THE HOUSE OF DAVID STRENGTHENED // 1 CHRONICLES 3:1–9

1 Now the war between the house of Saul and the house of David was protracted. And David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

2 And sons were born to David in Hebron:

His firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam of Jezreel;

3 his second was Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel;

his third was Absalom, the son of Maacah daughter of King Talmai of Geshur;

4 his fourth was Adonijah, the son of Haggith;

his fifth was Shephatiah, the son of Abital;

5 and his sixth was Ithream, by David's wife Eglah.

These sons were born to David in Hebron.

ABNER JOINS DAVID

6 During the war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner had continued to strengthen his position in the house of Saul. 7 Now Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. So Ish-bosheth questioned Abner, "Why did you sleep with my father's concubine?"

8 Abner was furious over Ish-bosheth's accusation. "Am I the head of a dog that belongs to Judah?" he asked. "All this time I have been loyal to the house of your father Saul, to his brothers, and to his friends. I have not delivered you into the hand of David, but now you accuse me of wrongdoing with this woman! 9 May God punish Abner, and ever so severely, if I do not do for David what Yahweh has sworn to him: 10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and to establish the throne of David over Israel and Judah, from Dan to Beersheba."

11 And for fear of Abner, Ish-bosheth did not dare to say another word to him.

12 Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to say to David, "To whom does the land belong? Make your covenant with me, and surely my hand will be with you to bring all Israel over to you."

13 "Good," replied David, "I will make a covenant with you. But there is one thing I require of you: Do not appear before me unless you bring Saul's daughter Michal when you come to see me."

14 Then David sent messengers to say to Ish-bosheth son of Saul, "Give me back my wife, Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred Philistine foreskins."

15 So Ish-bosheth sent and took Michal from her husband Paltiel son of Laish. 16 Her husband followed her, weeping all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go back." So he returned home.

17 Now Abner conferred with the elders of Israel and said, "In the past you sought

GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

David as your king. 18 Now take action, because Yahweh has said to David, 'Through My servant David I will save My people Israel from the hands of the Philistines and of all their enemies.'"

19 Abner also spoke to the Benjamites. Then he went to Hebron to tell David all that seemed good to Israel and to the whole house of Benjamin. 20 When Abner and twenty of his men came to David at Hebron, David held a feast for them.

21 Then Abner said to David, "Let me go at once, and I will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may rule over all that your heart desires."

So David dismissed Abner, and he went in peace.

JOAB MURDERS ABNER

22 Just then David's soldiers and Joab returned from a raid, bringing with them a great plunder. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, because David had sent him on his way in peace. 23 When Joab and all his troops arrived, he was informed, "Abner son of Ner came to see the king, who sent him on his way in peace."

24 So Joab went to the king and said, "What have you done? Look, Abner came to you. Why did you dismiss him? Now he is getting away! 25 Surely you realize that Abner son of Ner came to deceive you and to track your movements and all that you are doing."

26 As soon as Joab had left David, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David was unaware of it.

27 When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab pulled him aside into the gateway, as if to speak to him privately, and there Joab stabbed him in the stomach. So Abner died on account of the blood of Joab's brother Asahel.

28 Afterward, David heard about this and said, "I and my kingdom are forever guiltless before Yahweh concerning the blood of Abner son of Ner. 29 May it whirl over the head of Joab and over the entire house of his father, and may the house of Joab never be without one having a discharge or skin disease, or one who leans on a staff or falls by the sword or lacks food."

30 (Joab and his brother Abishai murdered Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.)

DAVID MOURNS FOR ABNER

31 Then David ordered Joab and all the people with him, "Tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner." And King David himself walked behind the funeral bier.

32 When they buried Abner in Hebron, the king wept aloud at Abner's tomb, and all the people wept. 33 And the king sang this lament for Abner:

"Should Abner die
the death of a fool?
34 Your hands were not bound,
your feet were not fettered.
As a man falls before the wicked, so also you fell."

And all the people wept over him even more.

35 Then all the people came and urged David to eat something while it was still day, but David took an oath, saying, "May God punish me, and ever so severely, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun sets!"

36 All the people took note and were pleased. In fact, everything the king did pleased them. 37 So on that day all the troops and all Israel were convinced that the king had no part in the murder of Abner son of Ner.

38 Then the king said to his servants, "Do you not realize that a great prince has fallen today in Israel? 39 And I am weak this day, though anointed as king, and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too fierce for me. May Yahweh repay the evildoer according to his evil!"

■ 2SA 3:39 [NOTE] THE SONS OF ZERUIAH are Joab, Abishai and Asahel, David's nephews, 1 Chronicles 2:16. They were tough, loyal and hard to control.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Two of Ish bosheth's own captains sneak into his house during his nap and kill him. They bring his head to David, expecting a reward. Bad idea. David has them executed. We also meet Jonathan's son Mephibosheth, who was dropped by his nurse at age five and is lame in both feet.

THE MURDER OF ISH-BOSHETH

1 Now when Ish-bosheth son of Saul heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israel was dismayed. 2 Saul's son had two men who were leaders of raiding parties. One was named Baanah and the other Rechab; they were sons of Rimmon the Beerothite of the tribe of Benjamin—Beeroth is considered part of Benjamin, 3 because the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have lived there as foreigners to this day.

4 And Jonathan son of Saul had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the report about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, but as she was hurrying to escape, he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

5 Now Rechab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, set out and arrived at the house of Ish-bosheth in the heat of the day, while the king was taking his midday nap. 6 They entered the interior of the house as if to get some wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and his brother Baanah slipped away.

7 They had entered the house while Ish-bosheth was lying on his bed, and having stabbed and killed him, they beheaded him, took his head, and traveled all night by way of the Arabah. 8 They brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ish-bosheth son of Saul, your enemy who sought your life. Today Yahweh has granted vengeance to my lord the king against Saul and his offspring."

THE EXECUTION OF RECHAB AND BAANAH

9 But David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As surely as Yahweh lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress, 10 when someone told me, 'Look, Saul is dead,' and thought he was a bearer of good news, I seized him and put him to death at Ziklag. That was his reward for his news! 11 How much more, when wicked men kill a righteous man in his own house and on his own bed, shall I not now require his blood from your hands and remove you from the earth!"

12 So David commanded his young men, and they killed Rechab and Baanah. They cut off their hands and feet and hung their bodies by the pool in Hebron, but they took the head of Ish-bosheth and buried it in Abner's tomb in Hebron.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

All twelve tribes finally make David king. He takes Jerusalem from the Jebusites, who bragged that even the blind and the lame could keep him out. David moves in, calls it the City of David, and beats the Philistines twice. The second time, God says, Wait for the marching in the treetops.

DAVID ANOINTED KING OF ALL ISRAEL // 1 CHRONICLES 11:1–3

1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, "Here we are, your own flesh and blood. 2 Even in times past, while Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them back. And to you Yahweh said, 'You will shepherd My people Israel, and you will be ruler over them.'"

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, where King David made with them a covenant before Yahweh. And they anointed him king over Israel.

2SA 4:4 [NOTE] MEPHIBOSHETH is called Merib baal in 1 Chronicles 8:34. Bosheth means shame. Many think later writers swapped baal, an idol's name, for shame. Ish bosheth was also called Eshbaal, 1 Chronicles 8:33.

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

4 David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years. 5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

DAVID CONQUERS JERUSALEM // 1 CHRONICLES 11:4–9

6 Now the king and his men marched to Jerusalem against the Jebusites who inhabited the land. The Jebusites said to David: "You will never get in here. Even the blind and lame can repel you." For they thought, "David cannot get in here."

7 Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion (that is, the City of David). 8 On that day he said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites must use the water shaft to reach the lame and blind who are despised by David." That is why it is said, "The blind and the lame will never enter the palace."

9 So David took up residence in the fortress and called it the City of David. He built it up all the way around, from the supporting terraces inward. 10 And David became greater and greater, for Yahweh God of Hosts was with him.

11 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent envoys to David, along with cedar logs, carpenters, and stonemasons, and they built a palace for David.

DAVID'S FAMILY GROWS // 1 CHRONICLES 14:1–7

12 And David realized that Yahweh had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

13 After he had arrived from Hebron, David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, and more sons and daughters were born to him. 14 These are the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, 15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, 16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

TWO VICTORIES OVER THE PHILISTINES // 1 CHRONICLES 14:8–17

17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they all went in search of him; but David learned of this and went down to the stronghold.

18 Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim. 19 So David inquired of Yahweh, "Should I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?"

"Go up," replied Yahweh, "for I will surely deliver the Philistines into your hand."

20 So David went to Baal-perazim, where he defeated the Philistines and said, "Like a bursting flood, Yahweh has burst out against my enemies before me." So he called that place Baal-perazim. 21 There the Philistines abandoned their idols, and David and his men carried them away.

WHAT IT IS
A huge wall of stone steps running down the east side of the hill south of the Temple Mount, the oldest part of Jerusalem. It is about 60 feet tall, one of the biggest buildings from Israel's Iron Age. At its top, Eilat Mazar dug the walls of a large stone building she called the Large Stone Structure.

HOW OLD IT IS
Debated. Many date the stepped wall to about 1100 to 900 BC, around David's time. Others date parts of it later, to the 800s BC or after. Mazar dated the building on top to the 900s BC.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
Parts were dug by R. A. S. Macalister in the 1920s, Kathleen Kenyon in the 1960s and Yigal Shiloh from 1978 to 1985. Mazar dug the building on top from 2005.

THE MILLO
In 5:9 David built from the supporting terraces inward. The Hebrew is the Millo, which means filling. Many think the Millo was a huge filled support like this stepped wall.

DAVID'S PALACE?
Mazar thought the Large Stone Structure was the palace Hiram's workers built for David, 5:11. Others say its walls come from different times, or it was a Jebusite fortress, or something later.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE
No writing found there names David. It shows that a large, strong building stood in the City of David at about the time the Bible gives for David, if the early dates are right.

WARREN'S SHAFT

A rock cut passage inside the Warren's Shaft system in the City of David, lit by modern lamps. Photo Davidbena, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS
A sloping tunnel and a deep shaft, about 43 feet straight down, inside the hill of the City of David. The tunnel leads from inside the old city wall toward the Gihon Spring, Jerusalem's main spring.

HOW OLD IT IS
The tunnel was cut long before Hezekiah's famous tunnel of about 700 BC. Its first date is debated. Newer digs found a huge stone tower guarding the spring. Its diggers dated it to about 1800 BC, but carbon tests in 2017 suggest about 800 BC. The date is still debated.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
Charles Warren, a British army engineer, found it in 1867. Ronny Reich and Eli Shukron dug the area again from 1995.

THE OLD IDEA
For over a hundred years, many thought Joab climbed up this shaft to get inside the Jebusite city, 5:8 and 1 Chronicles 11:6. The Hebrew word in 5:8 is tsinnor, often read as water shaft.

THE NEW FINDINGS
Reich and Shukron found the shaft is a natural crack in the rock. In David's day its top was likely not even reachable, because the tunnel floor was lowered later. People most likely drew water from a rock cut pool near the spring instead.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE
The word tsinnor is rare, and some think

MIRACLES NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

it means a channel, a throat or even a hook. Many still think Joab's men came in through the city's water system, but likely not up this shaft.

22 Once again the Philistines came up and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim. 23 So David inquired of Yahweh, who answered,
"Do not march straight up, but circle around behind them and attack them in front of the balsam trees. 24 As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move quickly, because this will mean that Yahweh has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."
25 So David did as Yahweh had commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

David brings the ark to Jerusalem on a brand new cart. The oxen stumble, Uzzah grabs the ark, and God strikes him dead. Three months later David tries again, the right way, and dances before Yahweh with all his might. His wife Michal watches from a window and is not impressed.

DAVID FETCHES THE ARK // 1 CHRONICLES 13:1–7

1 David again assembled the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand in all. 2 And he and all his troops set out for Baale of Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name—the name of Yahweh of Hosts, who is enthroned between the cherubim that are on it.
3 They set the ark of God on a new cart and brought it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart, 4 bringing with it the ark of God. And Ahio was walking in front of the ark.

- 2SA 5:23 [MIRACLE] Sound of marching in the balsam trees signals David to attack
- 2SA 6:1 [NOTABLE] The ark was being transported wrongly (on a cart, not carried by Kohathites); Uzzah's death shows even good intentions cannot violate God's holiness protocols
- 2SA 6:3 [NOTE] A NEW CART. The Philistines moved the ark this way, 1 Samuel 6:7. God's law said Levites must carry it on their shoulders, Numbers 7:9.

UZZAH TOUCHES THE ARK // 1 CHRONICLES 13:8–14

5 David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before Yahweh with all kinds of wood instruments, harps, stringed instruments, tambourines, sistrums, and cymbals.
6 When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark of God, because the oxen had stumbled. 7 And the anger of Yahweh burned against Uzzah, and God struck him down on the spot for his irreverence,
and he died there beside the ark of God.
8 Then David became angry because Yahweh had burst forth against Uzzah. So he named that place Perez-uzzah, as it is called to this day.
9 That day David feared Yahweh and asked, "How can the ark of Yahweh ever come to me?" 10 So he was unwilling to move the ark of Yahweh to the City of David instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. 11 Thus the ark of Yahweh remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite for three months, and Yahweh blessed him and all his household.

THE ARK BROUGHT TO JERUSALEM // 1 CHRONICLES 15:1–28

12 Now it was reported to King David,
"Yahweh has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God."
So David went and had the ark of God brought up from the house of Obed-edom into the City of David with rejoicing. 13
When those carrying the ark of Yahweh had advanced six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf.
14 And David, wearing a linen ephod,
danced with all his might before Yahweh, 15 while he and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of Yahweh with shouting and the sounding of the ram's horn.

THE HEART BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

UZZAH AND THE ARK

What Happened

2 SAMUEL 6:1 TO 11 · 1 CHRONICLES 13:1 TO 14 · 15:1 TO 15 · NUMBERS 4:15 · 7:9

THE BIG PARADE

David gathered 30,000 men to bring the ark of God up to Jerusalem. They set it on a new cart, and there was music, harps and tambourines, 6:3 to 5. It looked like worship.

THE MOMENT

At the threshing floor of Nacon, the oxen stumbled. Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark. God struck him down, and he died right beside it, 6:6 to 7.

DAVID'S REACTION

David was angry, and then afraid. How can the ark of Yahweh ever come to me? 6:8 to 9. He left it at the house of Obed edom, and God blessed that house for three months.

WHAT THE LAW SAID

The ark was to be carried on the shoulders of Levites from the family of Kohath, Numbers 7:9, using poles, Exodus 25:14. Even they must not touch the holy things, or they would die, Numbers 4:15. A cart was how the Philistines moved it, 1 Samuel 6:7.

THE SECOND TRY

This time the Levites carried it on their shoulders with the poles, 1 Chronicles 15:15, and they offered sacrifices after six steps, 6:13. David later said, Yahweh our God broke out against us because we did not seek Him in the way He ordered, 1 Chronicles 15:13.

THE QUESTION

Uzzah was trying to help. Why did God strike him?

Every View

LEVITICUS 10:1 TO 3 · 1 SAMUEL 6:19 · HEBREWS 12:28 TO 29 · ACTS 5:1 TO 11

VIEW 1: GOD'S HOLINESS IS REAL

Many say the point is that God is holy, and His holiness is not a decoration. The ark was the throne of the God enthroned between the cherubim, 6:2. The rules were not small, and the leaders had ignored them. Like Nadab and Abihu, Leviticus 10, a careless start got a hard warning.

VIEW 2: UZZAH SHOULD HAVE KNOWN

The ark had been in Uzzah's family's house for many years, at least twenty, 1 Samuel 7:1 to 2. Some think he had grown too used to it, and treated it like furniture. The text says God struck him for his irreverence, 6:7.

VIEW 3: THE WHOLE PLAN WAS WRONG

Others put the blame on David and the leaders. They copied the Philistines' cart instead of asking how God said to do it. Uzzah paid for a plan that was wrong from the start, and David learned from it, 1 Chronicles 15:13.

THE HARD PART

It still feels unfair to many readers. Some answer that God's mercy is the surprise, not His judgment: sinful people live near a holy God every day only because He makes a way. Christians point to Jesus, who made a way to come near, Hebrews 10:19 to 22.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Good intentions are not enough when God has said how to come to Him. David did not give up. He tried again, God's way, and danced before Yahweh with all his might, 6:14.

MICHAL'S CONTEMPT FOR DAVID // 1 CHRONICLES 15:29–16:3

16 As the ark of Yahweh was entering the City of David, Saul's daughter Michal looked down from a window and saw King David leaping and dancing before Yahweh, and she despised him in her heart.

2SA 6:16 [HEART] Michal watched David dance before Yahweh, and she despised him in her heart. The joy was outside, the contempt was inside.

2SA 6:16 [NOTE] MICHAL was Saul's daughter and David's first wife. See the Big Question pages Michal and David, p.502.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

17 So they brought the ark of Yahweh and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Yahweh.

18 When David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh of Hosts. 19 Then he distributed to every man and woman among the multitude of Israel a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake. And all the people departed, each to his own home.

20 When David returned home to bless his own household, Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet him. "How the king of Israel has distinguished himself today!"
she said. "He has uncovered himself today in the sight of the maidservants of his subjects, like a vulgar person would do."

21 But David said to Michal, "I was dancing before Yahweh, who chose me over your father and all his house when He appointed me ruler over Yahweh's people Israel. I will celebrate before Yahweh, 22 and I will humiliate and humble myself even more than this. Yet I will be honored by the maidservants of whom you have spoken."

23 And Michal the daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

MICHAL AND DAVID

Her Story

1 SAMUEL 18:20 TO 28 · 19:11 TO 17 · 25:44 · 2 SAMUEL 3:13 TO 16 · 6:16 TO 23

SHE LOVED DAVID

Michal is the only woman in the Bible's stories who is said to love a man, 1 Samuel 18:20. Saul gave her to David, hoping the price would get David killed. It didn't.

SHE SAVED HIS LIFE

When Saul sent men to kill David, Michal let him down through a window and put a household idol in his bed, 1 Samuel 19:11 to 17.

SHE WAS GIVEN AWAY

While David was on the run, Saul gave her to another man, Paltiel, 1 Samuel 25:44. David had married Abigail and Ahinoam by then.

SHE WAS TAKEN BACK

When David was about to become king of all Israel, he demanded Michal back. Her husband Paltiel followed her, weeping, until Abner sent him home, 3:13 to 16. The Bible never says how Michal felt.

THE WINDOW AGAIN

When the ark came in, Michal looked out a window and saw David leaping and dancing before Yahweh, and she despised him in her heart, 6:16. She met him with sarcasm: the king uncovered himself like a vulgar person, 6:20.

DAVID'S ANSWER

It was before Yahweh, who chose me over your father, 6:21. I will be even more humble than this. Then the chapter ends: Michal had no children to the day of her death, 6:23.

THE QUESTION

Who was right, and why did she have no children?

Every View

2 SAMUEL 6:14 · 6:20 TO 23 · 21:8 · PROVERBS 16:18 · MATTHEW 23:12

WHAT WAS WRONG WITH THE DANCE?

David wore a linen ephod, a short priestly garment, 6:14. Michal said he uncovered himself in front of servant girls. Some think he was barely covered. Others think she meant he set aside his royal robes and acted like a common man.

VIEW 1: SHE DESPISED WORSHIP

The traditional view. Michal cared more about royal dignity than about God. David humbled himself before Yahweh, and she looked down on it. Pride looks down, and the Bible says God brings the proud low.

VIEW 2: A WOUNDED WOMAN

Many readers also feel for her. She was traded between men, separated from Paltiel and brought back to a husband with other wives. Some think her bitterness came from years of being used by Saul and by David.

WHY NO CHILDREN?

Some say God closed her womb as a

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES THE HEART OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

judgment. Others say David never slept with her again. Others say the verse simply tells us Saul's line would not come to the throne through her. The text does not say which.

ABOUT 21:8

Most Hebrew copies of 21:8 say Michal had five sons. This Bible follows the copies that say Merab, her sister, who married Adriel, so 6:23 stands.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Worship that looks silly to people can be precious to God. And the Bible tells Michal's story honestly, with her love, her losses and her contempt.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

David says, I live in a cedar house, and God's ark lives in a tent. Let me build Him a house. That night God tells Nathan: No, I will build you a house. Your son will build My temple, and your throne will last forever. David sits before Yahweh and says, Who am I?

GOD'S COVENANT WITH DAVID // 1 CHRONICLES 17:1–15

1 After the king had settled into his palace and Yahweh had given him rest from all his enemies around him, 2 he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am, living in a house of cedar, while the ark of God remains in a tent."

3 And Nathan replied to the king, "Go and do all that is in your heart, for Yahweh is
with you."

4 But that night the word of Yahweh came to Nathan, saying, 5 "Go and tell My servant David that this is what Yahweh says:
Are you the one to build for Me a house to dwell in? 6 For I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt until this day, but I have moved about with a tent as My dwelling. 7
In all My journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever asked any of the leaders I appointed to shepherd My people Israel,
'Why haven't you built Me a house of cedar?'

8 Now then, you are to tell My servant
David that this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: I took you from the pasture, from following the flock, to be the ruler over My people Israel. 9 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make for you a name like that of the greatest in the land.

10 And I will provide a place for My people Israel and will plant them so that they may dwell in a place of their own and be disturbed no more. No longer will the sons of wickedness oppress them as they did at the beginning 11 and have done since the day I appointed judges over My people Israel. I will give you rest from all your enemies.

Yahweh declares to you that He Himself will establish a house for you. 12 And when your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will raise up your descendant after you, who will come from your own body, and I will establish his kingdom. 13 He will build a house for My Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. 14 I will be his Father, and he will be My son. When he does wrong, I will discipline him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.

15 But My loving devotion will never be removed from him as I removed it from Saul, whom I removed from before you. 16 Your house and kingdom will endure forever

THE TEL DAN STELE

2 SAMUEL 7:16 · 2 KINGS 8:28 TO 29 · 9:14 TO 28 · 1 KINGS 15:20

The Tel Dan Stele in the Israel Museum. The white letters near the middle of the right side spell the House of David. Photo Oren Rozen, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

Pieces of a black stone monument with writing in Aramaic, the language of Israel's neighbors in Damascus. A king of Aram, most likely Hazael, set it up to brag about beating Israel and Judah.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 840 BC, around 130 years after David died.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

At Tel Dan in the far north of Israel. Gila Cook, a surveyor on Avraham Biran's dig, spotted the biggest piece in a later wall in July 1993. Two more pieces were found in 1994. It is in the Israel Museum in Jerusalem.

WHAT IT SAYS

The king says he killed the king of Israel, son of [Ahab], and the king of the House of David, [Ahazi]ah son of [Jehoram]. The words in brackets are broken off and filled in by scholars. The letters BYTDWD mean House of David.

WHY IT MATTERS

It is the first clear mention of David ever found outside the Bible. It shows that about 130 years after his death, even Israel's enemies called Judah's royal family the House of David, just as God promised David a house in 7:16.

THE BIG DEBATE

A few scholars first argued BYTDWD meant a place or a god, because the words are written without the dot this stone uses to split words. Most scholars now read it as House of David. The Bible says Jehu killed Joram and Ahaziah, 2 Kings 9. Hazael may have taken credit, or Jehu may have worked for him. Some also see House of David on the Mesha Stele, but that is less sure.

BROKEN ON PURPOSE

The stone was smashed long ago, and its pieces were reused as building stones. Many think the men of Israel broke it when they took Dan back from Aram.

HOW THE PIECES FIT

The biggest piece has thirteen broken lines. The two smaller pieces fit each other, and most scholars place them to the left of the big piece, but a few think they belong somewhere else on the stone.

NOTABLE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

before Me, and your throne will be established forever."

17 So Nathan relayed to David all the words of this entire revelation.

THE BIG QUESTION

GOD'S PROMISE TO DAVID

What God Promised

2 SAMUEL 7:1 TO 17 · 1 CHRONICLES 17:1 TO 15 · PSALM 89:3 TO 4 · PSALM 132:11 TO 12

DAVID'S IDEA

David lived in a cedar palace while the ark of God sat in a tent. So he wanted to build God a house, a temple. Nathan the prophet said, Go for it, 7:3.

GOD'S ANSWER

That night God told Nathan: You will not build Me a house. I will build you a house, 7:11. A house here means a family line of kings, a dynasty.

FIVE PROMISES

1. A great name, 7:9. 2. A safe place for Israel, 7:10. 3. A son from David's own body who would build God's house, 7:12 to 13. 4. God would be his Father, and he would be God's son, 7:14. 5. David's house, kingdom and throne would last forever, 7:16.

A COVENANT

The chapter never uses the word covenant, but the Bible calls it one later. David calls it an everlasting covenant in 23:5, and Psalm 89:3 says, I have made a covenant with My chosen one, I have sworn to David My servant.

WHEN HE DOES WRONG

God said He would discipline this son when he did wrong, but He would never take His loving devotion away, as He did from Saul, 7:14 to 15. The promise did not depend on the sons being good.

DAVID'S PRAYER

David went in, sat before Yahweh and said, Who am I? 7:18. He did not ask for more. He thanked God and asked Him to do what He said.

THE QUESTION

Who is the son in this promise? Solomon, Jesus, or both?

Every View

LUKE 1:32 TO 33 · ACTS 2:29 TO 36 · ACTS 13:22 TO 23 · HEBREWS 1:5 · ISAIAH 9:6 TO 7 · JEREMIAH 33:17

VIEW 1: SOLOMON FIRST, THEN JESUS

Most Christians through history read it this way. Solomon built the temple and sinned, so the part about wrongdoing fits him. But no son of David lasted forever until Jesus, the Son of David who rose from the dead and rules forever. The promise was fulfilled in part by Solomon and fully by Jesus.

VIEW 2: ABOUT JESUS FROM THE START

Some say the forever part was always about the Messiah. The New Testament quotes it for Jesus, Hebrews 1:5, and the angel told Mary, The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David, Luke 1:32.

VIEW 3: A ROYAL PROMISE FOR ISRAEL

Many Jewish readers see it as God's promise to the kings of Judah and a future Messiah from David's line who has not yet come. Many critical scholars see it as a promise that supported David's dynasty, later read as about a coming king.

THE GAP

Judah's last king was taken to Babylon in 586 BC, and no son of David sat on a throne for centuries. Psalm 89:38 to 51 cries out, You have renounced the covenant. The prophets kept the hope alive: a shoot from the stump of Jesse, Isaiah 11:1, and a righteous Branch for David, Jeremiah 23:5.

HOW THE NEW TESTAMENT USES IT

Matthew 1:1 calls Jesus the son of David. Peter says David knew God swore to seat one of his descendants on his throne, and he saw the resurrection ahead of time, Acts 2:30 to 31. Paul says Jesus was a descendant of David, Romans 1:3.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

This chapter is one of the biggest in the Old Testament. It is where the hope of a Messiah, an anointed King from David's family, takes its shape.

weh, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far? 19 And as if this was a small thing in Your eyes, O Lord Yahweh, You have also spoken about the future of the house of Your servant. Is this Your custom with man, O Lord Yahweh? 20 What more can David say to You? For You know Your servant, O Lord Yahweh. 21 For the sake of Your word and according to Your own heart, You have accomplished this great thing and revealed it to Your servant.

22 How great You are, O Lord Yahweh! For there is none like You, and there is no God but You, according to everything we have heard with our own ears. 23 And who is like Your people Israel—the one nation on earth whom God went out to redeem as a people for Himself and to make a name for Himself? You performed great and awesome wonders by driving out nations and their gods from before Your people, whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt. 24 For You have established Your people Israel as Your very own forever, and You, O Yahweh, have become their God.

25 And now, O Yahweh God, confirm forever the word You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house. Do as You have promised, 26 so that Your name will be magnified forever when it is said, 'Yahweh of Hosts is God over Israel.' And the house of Your servant David will be established before You. 27 For You, O Yahweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, have revealed this to Your servant when You said, 'I will build a house for you.' Therefore Your servant has found his heart to offer this prayer to You.

28 And now, O Lord Yahweh, You are God! Your words are true, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant. 29 Now therefore, may it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You. For You, O Lord Yahweh, have spoken, and with Your blessing the house of Your servant will be blessed forever."

- 2SA 7:18 [NOTABLE] God just promised David a house forever, and David does not brag. He sits before Yahweh and asks, Who am I? Real thanks starts with being amazed at grace.
- 2SA 7:21 [HEART] God made His promise to David because of His own word and His own heart, not because David earned it.
- 2SA 7:27 [HEART] David found his heart to pray this prayer. God's promise gave him the courage to ask.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

David wins everywhere: the Philistines, Moab, Zobah, the Arameans and Edom. Kings send him gifts, and he gives the gold and silver to Yahweh. The chapter ends with a list of David's officials, like the staff page of a new kingdom.

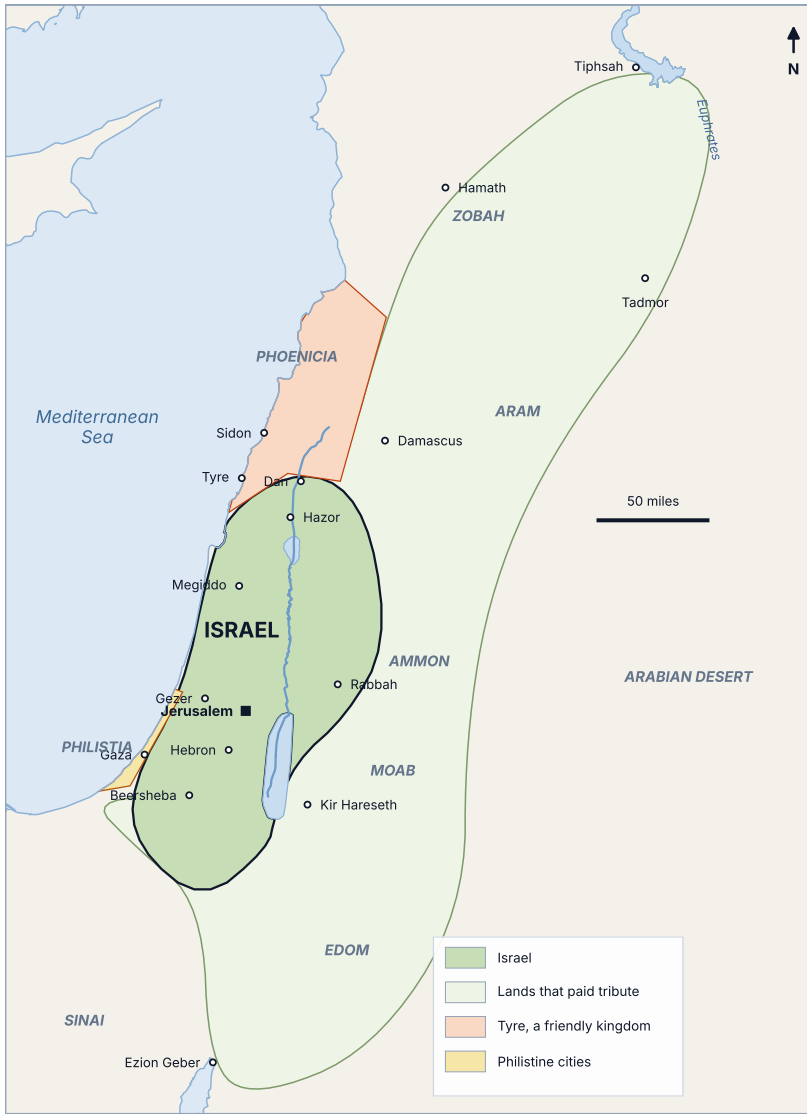
DAVID'S TRIUMPHS // 1 CHRONICLES 18:1–13; PSALM 60:1–12

1 Some time later, David defeated the Philistines, subdued them, and took Metheg-ammah from the hand of the Philistines.

2 David also defeated the Moabites, made them lie down on the ground, and measured them off with a cord. He measured off with two lengths those to be put to death, and with one length those to be spared. So the Moabites became subject to David and brought him tribute.

3 David also defeated Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah, who had marched out to restore his dominion along the Euphrates River. 4 David captured from him a thousand chariots, seven thousand charioteers, and twenty thousand foot soldiers, and he hamstrung all the horses except a hundred he kept for the chariots.

5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help King Hadadezer of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of their men. 6 Then he placed garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to David and brought him tribute. So Yahweh made David victorious wherever he went.



7 And David took the gold shields that belonged to the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem. 8 And from

Israel at its biggest, about 1000 to 930 BC

A NEW CAPITAL David ruled from Hebron for seven and a half years, then took Jerusalem from the Jebusites and made it his capital, 2 Samuel 5:5 to 9.

SOLOMON'S REACH Solomon ruled from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines and the border of Egypt, 1 Kings 4:21. Hiram of Tyre was his friend and partner, 1 Kings 5.

DAVID'S WARS David beat the Philistines, Moab, Aram, Edom and Ammon, 2 Samuel 8 and 10. Their lands paid him tribute.

BUILDINGS AND SHIPS Solomon built up Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer, 1 Kings 9:15, and sent ships from Ezion Geber on the Red Sea, 1 Kings 9:26.

Borders are approximate. Lands outside Israel were ruled through tribute and treaties, not settled by Israel.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

David asks, Is anyone left from Saul's family I can be kind to, for Jonathan's sake? They find Mephibosheth, Jonathan's lame son, who shows up scared to death. David gives him back Saul's land and a permanent seat at the king's table.

DAVID AND MEPHIBOSHETH

1 Then David asked, "Is there anyone left from the house of Saul to whom I can show kindness for the sake of Jonathan?"
2 And there was a servant of the house of Saul named Ziba. They summoned him to David, and the king inquired, "Are you Ziba?"
"I am your servant," he replied.
3 So the king asked, "Is there anyone left of the house of Saul to whom I can show
the kindness of God?"
Ziba answered, "There is still Jonathan's son, who is lame in both feet."
4 "Where is he?" replied the king.
And Ziba said, "Indeed, he is in Lo-debar
at the house of Machir son of Ammiel." 5 So King David had him brought from the house of Machir son of Ammiel in Lo-debar. 6 And when Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David,
he fell facedown in reverence.
Then David said, "Mephibosheth!"
"I am your servant," he replied.
7 "Do not be afraid," said David, "for surely I will show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan. I will restore to you all the land of your grandfather Saul, and you will always eat at my table."
8 Mephibosheth bowed down and said,
"What is your servant, that you should show regard for a dead dog like me?"
9 Then the king summoned Saul's servant Ziba and said to him, "I have given to your master's grandson all that belonged to Saul and to all his house. 10 You and your sons and servants are to work the ground

Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. 11 And Ziba said to the king, "Your servant will do all that my lord the king has commanded."

So Mephibosheth ate at David's table like one of the king's own sons. 12 And Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica, and all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth. 13 So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, because he always ate at the king's table, and he was lame in both feet.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

The new Ammonite king thinks David's sympathy messengers are spies. He shaves off half their beards, cuts their robes off at the hips and sends them home. David tells them to stay in Jericho until their beards grow back. Then war, and the Ammonites and their hired Arameans lose.

DAVID'S MESSENGERS DISGRACED // 1 CHRONICLES 19:1–9

1 Some time later, the king of the Ammonites died and was succeeded by his son Hanun. 2 And David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me."

So David sent some of his servants to console Hanun concerning his father. But when they arrived in the land of the Ammonites, 3 the princes of the Ammonites said to Hanun their lord, "Just because David has sent you comforters, do you really believe he is showing respect for your father? Has not David instead sent his servants to explore the city, spy it out, and overthrow it?"

4 So Hanun took David's servants, shaved off half of each man's beard, cut off their garments at the hips, and sent them away.

5 When this was reported to David, he sent messengers to meet the men, since they had been thoroughly humiliated. The king told them, "Stay in Jericho until your beards have grown back, and then return."

6 When the Ammonites realized that they had become a stench to David, they hired twenty thousand Aramean foot soldiers from Beth-rehob and Zoba, as well as a thousand men from the king of Maacah and twelve thousand men from Tob.

7 On hearing this, David sent Joab and the entire army of mighty men. 8 The Ammonites marched out and arrayed themselves for battle at the entrance of the city gate, while the Arameans of Zobah and Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the open country.

DAVID DEFEATS AMMON AND ARAM // 1 CHRONICLES 19:10–19

9 When Joab saw the battle lines before him and behind him, he selected some of the best men of Israel and arrayed them against the Arameans. 10 And he placed the rest of the troops under the command of his brother Abishai, who arrayed them against the Ammonites.

11 "If the Arameans are too strong for me," said Joab, "then you will come to my rescue. And if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come to your rescue. 12 Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and for the cities of our God. May Yahweh do what is good in His sight."

13 So Joab and his troops advanced to fight the Arameans, who fled before him. 14 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they too fled before Abishai, and they entered the city. So Joab returned from fighting against the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

15 When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they regrouped. 16 Hadadezer sent messengers to bring more Arameans from beyond the Euphrates, and they came to Helam with Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army leading them.

17 When this was reported to David, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan, and went to Helam. Then the Arameans arrayed themselves against David and fought against him. 18 But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers. He also struck down Shobach the commander of their army, who died there.

19 When all the kings who were subject to Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became subject to them. So the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites anymore.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

In the spring, when kings go to war, David stays home. From his roof he sees Bathsheba bathing, sends for her, and she becomes pregnant. Her husband Uriah is one of David's best soldiers. David tries to cover it up, then has Uriah sent to the front line to die. It works. God sees it.

DAVID AND BATHSHEBA

1 In the spring, at the time when kings march out to war, David sent out Joab and his servants with the whole army of Israel. They destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah, but David remained in Jerusalem.

2 One evening David got up from his bed and strolled around on the roof of the palace. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing—a very beautiful woman. 3 So David sent and inquired about the woman, and he was told, "This is Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam and the wife of Uriah the Hittite."

4 Then David sent messengers to get her, and when she came to him, he slept with her. (Now she had just purified herself from her uncleanness.) Then she returned home. 5 And the woman conceived and sent word to David, saying, "I am pregnant."

6 At this, David sent orders to Joab: "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent him to David.

7 When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab and the troops were doing and how the war was going. 8 Then he said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet."

So Uriah left the palace, and a gift from the king followed him. 9 But Uriah slept at the door of the palace with all his master's servants; he did not go down to his house.

10 And David was told, "Uriah did not go home."

"Haven't you just arrived from a journey?" David asked Uriah. "Why didn't you go home?"

11 Uriah answered, "The ark and Israel and Judah are dwelling in tents, and my master Joab and his soldiers are camped in the open field. How can I go to my house to eat and drink and sleep with my wife? As surely as you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do such a thing!"

12 "Stay here one more day," David said to Uriah, "and tomorrow I will send you back." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next.

13 Then David invited Uriah to eat and drink with him, and he got Uriah drunk. And in the evening Uriah went out to lie down on his cot with his master's servants, but he did not go home.

DAVID ARRANGES URIAH'S DEATH

14 The next morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah. 15 In the letter he wrote: "Put Uriah at the front of the fiercest battle; then withdraw from him, so that he may be struck down and killed."

16 So as Joab besieged the city, he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew the strongest enemy soldiers were. 17 And when the men of the city came out and fought against Joab, some of David's servants fell, and Uriah the Hittite also died.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

18 Joab sent to David a full account of the battle 19 and instructed the messenger,
"When you have finished giving the king a full account of the battle, 20 if the king's anger flares, he may ask you, 'Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Did you not realize they would shoot from atop the wall? 21 Who struck Abimelech son of Jerubbesheth? Was it not a woman who dropped an upper millstone on him
from the wall, so that he died in Thebez?
Why did you get so close to the wall?'
If he asks you this, then you are to say,
'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead as well.'"

22 So the messenger set out and reported to David all that Joab had sent him to say.
23 The messenger said to David, "The men overpowered us and came out against us in the field, but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate. 24 Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall, and some of the king's servants were killed.
And your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead
as well."

25 Then David told the messenger, "Say this to Joab: 'Do not let this matter upset you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city and demolish it.' Encourage him with these words."

DAVID MARRIES BATHSHEBA

26 When Uriah's wife heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for him. 27
And when the time of mourning was over, David had her brought to his house, and
she became his wife and bore him a son.
But the thing that David had done was evil
in the sight of Yahweh.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DAVID AND BATHSHEBA

What Happened

2 SAMUEL 11:1 TO 27 · 12:1 TO 25 · PSALM 51 · MATTHEW 1:6

HE STAYED HOME

In the spring, when kings went to war, David sent Joab and stayed in Jerusalem, 11:1. One evening he walked on his roof and saw a beautiful woman bathing, 11:2.

HE ASKED, AND HE SENT

David asked who she was. He was told: Bathsheba, the wife of Uriah the Hittite, 11:3. He sent messengers to get her, and he slept with her. She became pregnant, 11:4 to 5.

THE COVER UP

David called Uriah home and told him to go to his house, hoping he would sleep with his wife. Uriah would not, because his fellow soldiers were camping in the field, 11:11. The next night David got him drunk, and he still would not go home, 11:13. So David sent a letter by Uriah's own hand telling Joab to put him on the front line and pull back, 11:14 to 15.

THE MURDER

Uriah died, and other soldiers died with him, 11:17. After her mourning, David married Bathsheba. But the thing David had done was evil in the sight of Yahweh, 11:27.

THE STORY

God sent Nathan with a story about a rich man who stole a poor man's one little lamb. David said that man deserves to die. Nathan said, You are that man, 12:7. David said, I have sinned against Yahweh, 12:13.

THE QUESTION

Was Bathsheba a willing partner, or a victim of a powerful king?

■ 2SA 11:27 [NOTE] EVIL IN THE SIGHT OF YAHWEH. The narrator says almost nothing about God in this chapter until this last line. It says enough.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Every View

2 SAMUEL 12:1 TO 14 · 12:24 · 1 KINGS 1:11 TO 31 · PSALM 51 · MATTHEW 1:6

VIEW 1: A SIN OF POWER

Many today read it this way. David was the king. He sent men, and she came. A woman could hardly say no to the king's messengers. Nathan's story blames only the rich man, and the lamb did nothing wrong, 12:1 to 4. God's words in 12:9 blame David alone.

VIEW 2: BOTH SINNED

The older common view. Some say she should not have bathed where she could be seen, or she could have refused. Others answer that she was washing as the law required, 11:4, likely in her own courtyard, and the king was the one on the roof.

WHAT THE TEXT STRESSES

The verbs are David's: he saw, he sent, he took, he slept. God's judgment falls on David: the sword will never depart from your house, 12:10. The story never blames Bathsheba.

REPENTANCE

David did not excuse himself. Psalm 51 is his prayer: Against You, You only, have I sinned. Create in me a clean heart, O God. God forgave him, 12:13, but the baby died, and the trouble in his family followed.

GRACE

Bathsheba became the mother of Solomon, the next king, 12:24. She is named in Jesus' family line as the wife of Uriah, Matthew 1:6. God brought His promise through broken people.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Even the man after God's own heart fell hard. Sin hides, grows and hurts many people, and God sees it all. Real repentance is met with real forgiveness.

12

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Nathan tells David a story about a rich man who stole a poor man's only lamb. David is furious: that man deserves to die! Nathan says, You are that man. David says, I have sinned. God forgives him, but the baby dies, and the sword will never leave his house. Then Solomon is born.

NATHAN REBUKES DAVID // PSALM 51:1–19

1 Then Yahweh sent Nathan to David, and when he arrived, he said, "There were two men in a certain city, one rich and the other poor. 2 The rich man had a great number of sheep and cattle, 3 but the poor man had nothing except one small ewe lamb that he had bought. He raised it, and it grew up with him and his children. It shared his food and drank from his cup; it slept in his arms and was like a daughter
to him.

4 Now a traveler came to the rich man, who refrained from taking one of his own
sheep or cattle to prepare for the traveler who had come to him. Instead, he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for his guest."

5 David burned with anger against the man and said to Nathan: "As surely as Yahweh lives, the man who did this deserves to die! 6 Because he has done this thing and has shown no pity, he must pay for the lamb four times over."

7 Then Nathan said to David, "You are that man! This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'I anointed you king over Israel,
and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.
8 I gave your master's house to you and your master's wives into your arms. I gave you the house of Israel and Judah, and if that was not enough, I would have given you even more.

9 Why then have you despised the command of Yahweh by doing evil in His sight? You put Uriah the Hittite to the sword and took his wife as your own. You have slain him with the sword of the Am-monites. 10 Now, therefore, the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your own.'

2SA 12:7 [NOTABLE] Four words that broke a king. Nathan told a story, let David judge it, then turned the story around. Sin we condemn in others is often sin we hide in ourselves.

2SA 12:10 [PROPHECY] Nathan told David the sword would never depart from his house; his child by Bathsheba would die; his wives would be publicly violated → 2SA 12:18 (child dies); 2SA 16:21-22 (Absalom takes David's concubines on the roof); ongoing strife in David's family p.513

2SA 12:10 [DEMONIC] Sword shall never depart from David's house due to Bathsheba sin

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

11 This is what Yahweh says: 'I will raise up adversity against you from your own house. Before your very eyes I will take your wives and give them to another, and he will lie with them in broad daylight. 12 You have acted in secret, but I will do this thing in broad daylight before all Israel.'"

DAVID'S LOSS AND REPENTANCE

13 Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against Yahweh."

"Yahweh has taken away your sin," Nathan replied. "You will not die. 14 Nevertheless, because by this deed you have shown utter contempt for the word of Yahweh, the son born to you will surely die."

15 After Nathan had gone home, Yahweh struck the child that Uriah's wife had borne to David, and he became ill. 16 David pleaded with God for the boy. He fasted and went into his house and spent the night lying in sackcloth on the ground. 17 The elders of his household stood beside him to help him up from the ground, but he was unwilling and would not eat anything with them.

18 On the seventh day the child died. But David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Look, while the child was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not listen to us. So how can we tell him the child is dead? He may even harm himself."

19 When David saw that his servants were whispering to one another, he perceived that the child was dead. So he asked his servants, "Is the child dead?"

"He is dead," they replied.

20 Then David got up from the ground, washed and anointed himself, changed his clothes, and went into the house of Yahweh and worshiped. Then he went to his own house, and at his request they set food before him, and he ate.

21 "What is this you have done?" his servants asked. "While the child was alive, you fasted and wept, but when he died, you got up and ate."

22 David answered, "While the child was alive, I fasted and wept, for I said, 'Who knows? Yahweh may be gracious to me and let him live.' 23 But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me."

SOLOMON'S BIRTH

24 Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and he went to her and lay with her. So she gave birth to a son, and they named him Solomon.

Now Yahweh loved the child 25 and sent word through Nathan the prophet to name him Jedidiah because Yahweh loved him.

THE CAPTURE OF RABBAH // 1 CHRONICLES 20:1–3

26 Meanwhile, Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and captured the royal fortress. 27 Then Joab sent messengers to David to say, "I have fought against Rabbah and have captured the water supply of the city. 28 Now, therefore, assemble the rest of the troops, lay siege to the city, and capture it. Otherwise I will capture the city, and it will be named after me."

29 So David assembled all the troops and went to Rabbah; and he fought against it and captured it. 30 Then he took the crown from the head of their king. It weighed 75 pounds of gold and was set with precious stones, and it was placed on David's head. And David took a great amount of plunder from the city.

31 David brought out the people who were there and put them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes, and he made them

WHAT IT IS

Rabbah, also called Rabbath Ammon, was the capital of the Ammonites. It is Amman, the capital of Jordan today. Its old high hill, the Amman Citadel, still has ruins from many centuries.

HOW OLD IT IS

People lived on the Citadel hill long before David. The Ammonite stone statues found in and around Amman, like the one shown here, come from about the 800s to 600s BC, after David's time.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The statues were found in Amman during the 1900s. A stone with Ammonite writing, the Amman Citadel Inscription, was found on the hill in 1961 and likely names the god Milcom.

THE HEAVY CROWN

The crown David took weighed about 75 pounds, 12:30. That is too heavy to wear for long. The Hebrew says their king, malkam. The Greek and many scholars read it as Milcom, the Ammonite god. Then the crown sat on an idol's statue, and David wore it only for a moment.

URIAH'S LAST BATTLE

Uriah the Hittite died at the wall of Rabbah, 11:16 to 17. Joab took the water supply of the city, 12:27, and then David came and took the rest.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The statue shown is not the crown of 12:30 or a statue of Milcom. It shows how the Ammonites pictured kings or gods with tall crowns.

work at the brick kilns. He did the same to all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all his troops returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

David's son Amnon falls for his half sister Tamar, tricks her into his room and rapes her. Then he throws her out. David is angry but does nothing. Her brother Absalom waits two years, throws a party and has Amnon killed. Absalom runs away to his grandfather in Geshur.

AMNON AND TAMAR

1 After some time, David's son Amnon fell in love with Tamar, the beautiful sister of David's son Absalom. 2 Amnon was sick with frustration over his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed implausible for him to do anything to her.

3 Now Amnon had a friend named Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah.
Jonadab was a very shrewd man, 4 and he asked Amnon, "Why are you, the son of the king, so depressed morning after morning? Won't you tell me?"

Amnon replied, "I am in love with Tamar,
my brother Absalom's sister."

5 Jonadab told him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend you are ill. When your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare it in my sight so I may watch her and eat it from her hand.'"

2SA 12:31 [NOTE] SAWS AND PICKS. Some old Bibles, like the King James, read this as torture. Most Bibles today read it as forced labor, as this Bible does.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

6 So Amnon lay down and feigned illness. When the king came to see him, Amnon said, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my sight, so that I may eat from her hand."

7 Then David sent word to Tamar at the palace: "Please go to the house of Amnon your brother and prepare a meal for him."

8 So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon, who was lying down. She took some dough, kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked them. 9 Then she brought the pan and set it down before him, but he refused to eat. "Send everyone away!" said Amnon. And everyone went out.

10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, so that I may eat it from your hand."

Tamar took the cakes she had made and went to her brother Amnon's bedroom. 11 And when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said, "Come lie with me, my sister!"

12 "No, my brother!" she cried. "Do not violate me, for such a thing should never be done in Israel. Do not do this disgraceful thing! 13 Where could I ever take my shame? And you would be like one of the fools in Israel! Please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you."

14 But Amnon refused to listen to her, and being stronger, he violated her and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated Tamar with such intensity that his hatred was greater than the love he previously had. "Get up!" he said to her. "Be gone!"

16 "No," she replied, "sending me away is worse than this great wrong you have already done to me!"

But he refused to listen to her. 17 Instead, he called to his attendant and said, "Throw this woman out and bolt the door behind her!"

18 So Amnon's attendant threw her out and bolted the door behind her. Now Tamar was wearing a robe of many colors, because this is what the king's virgin daughters wore. 19 And Tamar put ashes on her head and tore her robe. And putting her hand on her head, she went away crying aloud.

20 Her brother Absalom said to her, "Has your brother Amnon been with you? Be quiet for now, my sister. He is your brother. Do not take this thing to heart."

So Tamar lived as a desolate woman in the house of her brother Absalom.

21 When King David heard all this, he was furious. 22 And Absalom never said a word to Amnon, either good or bad, because he hated Amnon for violating his sister Tamar.

ABSALOM'S REVENGE ON AMNON

23 Two years later, when Absalom's sheepshearers were at Baal-hazor near Ephraim, he invited all the sons of the king. 24 And he went to the king and said, "Your servant has just hired shearers. Will the king and his servants please come with me?"

25 "No, my son," the king replied, "we should not all go, or we would be a burden to you." Although Absalom urged him, he was not willing to go, but gave him his blessing.

26 "If not," said Absalom, "please let my brother Amnon go with us."

"Why should he go with you?" the king asked.

27 But Absalom urged him, so the king sent Amnon and the rest of his sons.

28 Now Absalom had ordered his young men, "Watch Amnon until his heart is merry with wine, and when I order you to strike Amnon down, you are to kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and valiant!"

29 So Absalom's young men did to Amnon just as Absalom had ordered. Then all the other sons of the king got up, and each one fled on his mule.

■ 2SA 13:12 [NOTE] Tamar said no. This was rape, and the Bible calls it a disgrace. David's silence, 13:21, opened the door to Absalom's revenge. See the Big Question pages Absalom's Revolt, p.518.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

30 While they were on the way, a report reached David: "Absalom has struck down all the sons of the king; not one of them is left!"
31 Then the king stood up, tore his clothes, and lay down on the ground. And all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.
32 But Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, spoke up: "My lord must not think they have killed all the sons of the king, for only Amnon is dead. In fact, Absalom has planned this since the day Am-non violated his sister Tamar. 33 So now, my lord the king, do not take to heart the report that all the sons of the king are dead. Only Amnon is dead."

ABSALOM FLEES TO GESHUR

34 Meanwhile, Absalom had fled. When the young man standing watch looked up, he saw many people coming down the road west of him, along the side of the hill. And the watchman went and reported to the king, "I see men coming from the direction of Horonaim, along the side of the hill." 35 So Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the sons of the king have arrived! It is just as your servant said."
36 And as he finished speaking, the sons of the king came in, wailing loudly. Then the king and all his servants also wept
very bitterly.
37 Now Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. But David mourned for his son every day.
38 After Absalom had fled and gone to Geshur, he stayed there three years. 39
And King David longed to go to Absalom, for he had been consoled over Amnon's
death.

14

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Joab sees David missing Absalom, so he sends a wise woman from Tekoa with a made up story to change the king's mind. It works. Absalom comes home, but David won't see him for two years. Absalom gets Joab's attention by setting his barley field on fire. Father and son finally kiss.

ABSALOM'S RETURN TO JERUSALEM

1 Now Joab son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart longed for Absalom. 2 So Joab sent to Tekoa to bring a wise woman from there. He told her, "Please pretend to be a mourner; put on clothes for mourning and do not anoint yourself with oil. Act like a woman who has mourned for the dead a long time. 3 Then go to the king and speak these words to him." And Joab put the words in her mouth.
4 When the woman from Tekoa went to the king, she fell facedown in homage and said, "Help me, O king!"
5 "What troubles you?" the king asked her.
"Indeed," she said, "I am a widow, for my husband is dead. 6 And your maidservant had two sons who were fighting in the field with no one to separate them, and one struck the other and killed him. 7 Now
the whole clan has risen up against your maidservant and said, 'Hand over the one who struck down his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of the brother whom he killed. Then we will cut off the heir as well!' So they would extinguish my one remaining ember by not preserving my husband's name or posterity on the earth."
8 "Go home," the king said to the woman,
"and I will give orders on your behalf."
9 But the woman of Tekoa said to the king,
"My lord the king, may any blame be on me and on my father's house, and may the king and his throne be guiltless."
10 "If anyone speaks to you," said the king,
"bring him to me, and he will not trouble
you again!"
11 "Please," she replied, "may the king invoke Yahweh your God to prevent the avenger of blood from increasing the devastation, so that my son may not be destroyed!"
"As surely as Yahweh lives," he vowed,
"not a hair of your son's head will fall to the ground."
12 Then the woman said, "Please, may your servant speak a word to my lord the king?"

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

"Speak," he replied.

13 The woman asked, "Why have you devised a thing like this against the people of God? When the king says this, does he not convict himself, since he has not brought back his own banished son? 14 For we will surely die and be like water poured out on the ground, which cannot be recovered. Yet God does not take away a life, but He devises ways that the banished one may not be cast out from Him.

15 Now therefore, I have come to present this matter to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. Your servant thought, 'I will speak to the king. Perhaps he will grant the request of his maidservant. 16 For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who would cut off both me and my son from God's inheritance.'

17 And now your servant says, 'May the word of my lord the king bring me rest, for my lord the king is able to discern good and evil, just like the angel of God. May Yahweh your God be with you.'"

18 Then the king said to the woman, "I am going to ask you something; do not conceal it from me!"

"Let my lord the king speak," she replied.

19 So the king asked, "Is the hand of Joab behind all this?"

The woman answered, "As surely as you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything that my lord the king says. Yes, your servant Joab is the one who gave me orders; he told your maidservant exactly what to say. 20 Joab your servant has done this to bring about this change of affairs, but my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God, to know everything that happens in the land."

21 Then the king said to Joab, "I hereby grant this request. Go, bring back the young man Absalom."

22 Joab fell facedown in homage and blessed the king. "Today," said Joab, "your servant knows that he has found favor in your eyes, my lord the king, because the king has granted his request."

23 So Joab got up, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. 24 But the king added, "He may return to his house, but he must not see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, but he did not see the face of the king.

25 Now there was not a man in all Israel as handsome and highly praised as Absalom. From the sole of his foot to the top of his head, he did not have a single flaw. 26 And when he cut the hair of his head—he shaved it every year because his hair got so heavy—he would weigh it out to be five pounds, according to the royal standard.

27 Three sons were born to Absalom, and a daughter named Tamar, who was a beautiful woman.

ABSALOM RECONCILED TO DAVID

28 Now Absalom lived in Jerusalem two years without seeing the face of the king. 29 Then he sent for Joab to send him to the king, but Joab refused to come to him.

So Absalom sent a second time, but Joab still would not come.

30 Then Absalom said to his servants, "Look, Joab's field is next to mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire!"

And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab came to Absalom's house and demanded, "Why did your servants set my field on fire?"

32 "Look," said Absalom, "I sent for you and said, 'Come here. I want to send you to the king to ask: Why have I come back from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there.' So now, let me see the king's face, and if there is iniquity in me, let him kill me."

33 So Joab went and told the king, and David summoned Absalom, who came to him and bowed facedown before him. Then the king kissed Absalom.

■ 2SA 14:26 [NOTE] FIVE POUNDS OF HAIR a year. Many think his long hair is how he got stuck in a tree in 18:9.

15

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Absalom sits at the city gate, shakes hands, kisses people and tells them, If I were judge, you would get justice. He steals the hearts of Israel. Then he declares himself king in Hebron. David runs from Jerusalem barefoot, weeping, up the Mount of Olives.

ABSALOM'S CONSPIRACY

1 Some time later, Absalom provided for himself a chariot with horses and fifty men to run ahead of him. 2 He would get up early and stand beside the road leading to the city gate.

Whenever anyone had a grievance to bring before the king for a decision, Absalom would call out and ask, "What city are you from?" And if he replied, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel," 3 Absalom would say, "Look, your claims are good and right, but the king has no
deputy to hear you."

4 And he would add, "If only someone would appoint me judge in the land, then everyone with a grievance or dispute could come to me, and I would give him justice."

5 Also, when anyone approached to bow down to him, Absalom would reach out his hand, take hold of him, and kiss him. 6 Absalom did this to all the Israelites who came to the king for justice. In this way he stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 After four years had passed, Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go to Hebron to fulfill a vow I have made to Yahweh. 8 For your servant made a vow while dwelling in Geshur of Aram, saying: 'If indeed Yahweh brings me back to Jerusalem, I will worship Yahweh in Hebron.'"

9 "Go in peace," said the king. So Absalom got up and went to Hebron.

10 Then Absalom sent spies throughout the tribes of Israel with this message: "When you hear the sound of the horn, you are to say, 'Absalom reigns in Hebron!'"

11 Two hundred men from Jerusalem accompanied Absalom. They had been invited as guests and they went along innocently, for they knew nothing about the matter. 12 While Absalom was offering the sacrifices, he sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, to come from his hometown of Giloh.

So the conspiracy gained strength, and Absalom's following kept increasing.

DAVID FLEES JERUSALEM // PSALM 3:1–8

13 Then a messenger came to David and reported, "The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

ABSALOM'S REVOLT

How It Happened

2 SAMUEL 12:10 TO 12 · 13:1 TO 39 · 14:1 TO 33 · 15:1 TO 12

THE SWORD

After David's sin, God said through Nathan: the sword will never depart from your house, and I will raise up trouble against you from your own house, 12:10 to 11. Then it began.

AMNON AND TAMAR

David's oldest son, Amnon, raped his half sister Tamar, 13:14. David was furious, but he did nothing, 13:21. Tamar lived in her brother Absalom's house, a desolate woman, 13:20.

ABSALOM'S REVENGE

Absalom waited two years. Then he had Amnon killed at a sheep shearing party and ran to Geshur for three years, 13:28 to 38.

HALFWAY HOME

Joab used a wise woman from Tekoa to get Absalom brought back. But David would not see his son for two more years, 14:24 to 28. Absalom set Joab's field on fire to get a meeting, and David finally kissed him, 14:30 to 33.

STEALING HEARTS

For four years, Absalom rose early,

2SA 15:6 [HEART] Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel with handshakes, kisses and promises.

2SA 15:6 [NOTE] HE STOLE THE HEARTS. See the Big Question pages Absalom's Revolt, p.518.

2SA 15:7 [TEXT] FOUR OR FORTY? The standard Hebrew text says forty years. Some Greek copies, the Syriac and Josephus say four, and this Bible follows them. Forty does not fit Absalom's age.

2SA 15:13 [HEART] The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom. The stolen hearts followed the thief.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

stood by the city gate, shook hands, kissed people and said, If only I were judge. He stole the hearts of the men of Israel, 15:6. Then he had himself crowned in Hebron, 15:10.

THE QUESTION

How much of this was David's fault, and why did he still weep for Absalom?

Every View

2 SAMUEL 16:21 TO 22 · 18:5 · 18:9 TO 15 · 18:33 · 1 KINGS 1:5 TO 6

VIEW 1: GOD'S JUDGMENT

Many see the revolt as the sword Nathan promised, step by step. Even Absalom sleeping with David's concubines on the palace roof, 16:22, was exactly what God said would happen in broad daylight, 12:11 to 12.

VIEW 2: A FATHER WHO DID NOT ACT

Others stress David's choices. He did not punish Amnon. He let Absalom stay away, then would not see him. Later, 1 Kings 1:6 says of another son, his father had never once corrected him. Silence at home left room for anger to grow.

VIEW 3: ABSALOM'S OWN PRIDE

Absalom was handsome, popular and proud. He even built a monument to himself, 18:18. Some think he would have reached for the throne no matter what David did.

ALL THREE AT ONCE

Many readers say the text holds all three together. God's judgment came through real choices by David, Amnon, Absalom, Joab and Ahithophel, and each one was responsible.

O ABSALOM, MY SON

David told his generals, Be gentle with the young man Absalom, 18:5. Joab killed him anyway. David wept, If only I had died instead of you, 18:33. Many Christians see a picture of God the Father, who loves rebel children, and of Jesus, who did die in our place.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Sin in a family does not stay small. And a father's love can outlast a son's rebellion.

14 And David said to all the servants with him in Jerusalem, "Arise and let us flee, or we will not escape from Absalom! We must leave quickly, or he will soon overtake us, heap disaster on us, and put the city to the sword."

15 The king's servants replied, "Whatever our lord the king decides, we are your servants."

16 Then the king set out, and his entire household followed him. But he left behind ten concubines to take care of the palace.

17 So the king set out with all the people following him. He stopped at the last house, 18 and all his servants marched past him—all the Cherethites and Pelethites, and six hundred Gittites who had followed him from Gath.

19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why should you also go with us? Go back and stay with the new king, since you are both a foreigner and an exile from your homeland. 20 In fact, you arrived only yesterday; should I make you wander around with us today while I do not know where I am going? Go back and take your brothers with you. May Yahweh show you loving devotion and faithfulness."

21 But Ittai answered the king, "As surely as Yahweh lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether it means life or death, there will your servant be!"

22 "March on then," said David to Ittai. So Ittai the Gittite marched past with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.

23 Everyone in the countryside was weeping loudly as all the people passed by. And as the king crossed the Kidron Valley, all the people also passed toward the way of the wilderness.

24 Zadok was also there, and all the Levites with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar offered sacrifices until all the people had passed out of the city.

25 Then the king said to Zadok, "Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in the eyes of Yahweh, He will bring me back and let me see both it and His dwelling place again. 26 But if He should say, 'I do not delight in you,' then here I am; let Him do to me whatever seems good to Him."

27 The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace—you with your son Ahimaaz, and Abiathar with his son Jonathan. 28 See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."

29 So Zadok and Abiathar returned the ark of God to Jerusalem and stayed there.

DAVID WEEPS AT THE MOUNT OF OLIVES // PSALM 63:1–11

30 But David continued up the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went up. His head was covered, and he was walking barefoot. And all the people with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went.

31 Now someone told David: "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom."

So David pleaded, "O Yahweh, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!"

32 When David came to the summit, where he used to worship God, Hushai the Archite was there to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head.

33 David said to him, "If you go on with me, you will be a burden to me. 34 But you can thwart the counsel of Ahithophel for me if you return to the city and say to Absalom: 'I will be your servant, my king; in the past I was your father's servant, but now I will be your servant.'

35 Will not Zadok and Abiathar the priests be there with you? Report to them everything you hear from the king's palace. 36 Indeed, their two sons, Ahimaaz son of Zadok and Jonathan son of Abiathar, are there with them. Send them to me with everything you hear."

37 So David's friend Hushai arrived in Jerusalem just as Absalom was entering the city.

2SA 15:30 [NOTE] THE MOUNT OF OLIVES. About a thousand years later, Jesus wept over Jerusalem and was betrayed on the same hill, Luke 19:41 and 22:39.

16

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

On the road, Ziba brings David food and accuses his master Mephibosheth. Shimei from Saul's family throws rocks and curses David the whole way, and David lets him. In Jerusalem, Absalom takes Ahithophel's advice and sleeps with David's concubines on the roof, just as Nathan said.

DAVID AND ZIBA

1 When David had gone a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth was there to meet him. He had a pair of saddled donkeys loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred clusters of raisins, a hundred summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

2 "Why do you have these?" asked the king.

Ziba replied, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride, the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine is to refresh those who become exhausted in the wilderness."

3 "Where is your master's grandson?" asked the king.

And Ziba answered, "Indeed, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he has said, 'Today, the house of Israel will restore to me the kingdom of my grandfather.'"

4 So the king said to Ziba, "All that belongs to Mephibosheth is now yours!"

"I humbly bow before you," said Ziba. "May I find favor in your eyes, my lord the king!"

SHIMEI CURSES DAVID

5 As King David approached Bahurim, a man from the family of the house of Saul was just coming out. His name was Shimei son of Gera, and as he approached, he kept yelling out curses. 6 He threw stones at David and at all the servants of the king, though the troops and all the mighty men were on David's right and left.

7 And as he yelled curses, Shimei said, "Get out, get out, you worthless man of bloodshed! 8 Yahweh has paid you back for all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned, and Yah-

weh has delivered the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. See, you have come to ruin because you are a man of bloodshed!"

9 Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and cut off his head!"

10 But the king replied, "What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah? If he curses me because Yahweh told him, 'Curse David,' who can ask, 'Why did you do this?'"

11 Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "Behold, my own son, my own flesh and blood, seeks my life. How much more, then, this Benjamite! Leave him alone and let him curse me, for Yahweh has told him so. 12 Perhaps Yahweh will see my affliction and repay me with good for the cursing I receive today."

13 So David and his men proceeded along the road as Shimei went along the ridge of the hill opposite him. As Shimei went, he yelled curses, threw stones, and flung dust at David. 14 Finally, the king and all the people with him arrived, exhausted. And there he refreshed himself.

THE COUNSEL OF AHITHOPHEL AND HUSHAI

15 Then Absalom and all the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him. 16 And David's friend Hushai the Archite went to Absalom and said to him, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

17 "Is this the loyalty you show your friend?" Absalom replied. "Why did you not go with your friend?"

18 "Not at all," Hushai answered. "For the one chosen by Yahweh, by this people, and by all the men of Israel—his I will be, and with him I will remain. 19 Furthermore, whom should I serve if not his son? As I served in your father's presence, so also I will serve in yours."

20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give me counsel. What should we do?"

21 Ahithophel replied, "Sleep with your father's concubines, whom he has left to take care of the palace. When all Israel hears that you have become a stench to your father, then the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened."

22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and he slept with his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 Now in those days the advice of Ahithophel was like the consultation of the word of God. Such was the regard that both David and Absalom had for Ahithophel's advice.

17

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

Ahithophel says, Give me 12,000 men and I'll catch David tonight. Hushai, David's secret friend, says, Wait and gather all Israel. Absalom picks Hushai's plan, because God was making Ahithophel's good advice fail. Two young messengers hide in a well to warn David. Ahithophel goes home and hangs himself.

HUSHAI COUNTERS AHITHOPHEL'S ADVICE

1 Furthermore, Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me choose twelve thousand men and set out tonight in pursuit of David. 2 I will attack him while he is weak and weary; I will throw him into a panic, and all the people with him will flee; I will strike down only the king 3 and bring all the people back to you as a bride returning to her husband. You seek the life of only one man; then all the people will be at peace."

4 This proposal seemed good to Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then Absalom said, "Summon Hushai the Archite as well, and let us hear what he too has to say."

6 So Hushai came to Absalom, who told him, "Ahithophel has spoken this proposal. Should we carry it out? If not, what do you say?"

7 Hushai replied, "This time the advice of Ahithophel is not sound."

8 He continued, "You know your father and his men. They are mighty men, and as fierce as a wild bear robbed of her cubs. Moreover, your father is a man of war who will not spend the night with the troops. 9 Surely by now he is hiding in a cave or some other location. If some of your troops fall first, whoever hears of it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the troops who follow Absalom.' 10 Then even the most valiant soldier with the heart of a lion will melt with fear, because all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man who has valiant men with him.

11 Instead, I advise that all Israel from Dan to Beersheba—a multitude like the sand on the seashore—be gathered to you, and that you yourself lead them into battle. 12 Then we will attack David wherever we find him, and we will descend on him like dew on the ground. And of all the men with him, not even one will remain.

13 If he retreats to a city, all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it down to the valley until not even a pebble can be found there."

14 Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than that of Ahithophel." For Yahweh had purposed to thwart the good counsel of Ahithophel in order to bring disaster on Absalom.

HUSHAI'S WARNING SAVES DAVID // PSALM 55:1–23

15 So Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, "This is what Ahithophel has advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and this is what I have advised. 16 Now send quickly and tell David, 'Do not spend the night at the fords of the wilderness, but be sure to cross over. Otherwise the king and all the people with him will be swallowed up.'"

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel, where a servant girl would come and pass along information to them. They in turn would go and inform King David, for they dared not be seen entering the city. 18 But a young man did see them and told Absalom. So the two left quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, and they climbed down into it. 19 Then the man's wife took a covering, spread it over the mouth of the well, and scattered grain over it so nobody would know a thing.

20 When Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they asked, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

"They have crossed over the brook," she replied. The men searched but did not find them, so they returned to Jerusalem.

21 After the men had gone, Ahimaaz and Jonathan climbed up out of the well and went to inform King David, saying, "Get up and cross over the river at once, for Ahithophel has given this advice against you."

22 So David and all the people with him got up and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, there was no one left who had not crossed the Jordan.

23 When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out for his house in his hometown. He put his affairs in order and hanged himself. So he died and was buried in his father's tomb.

24 Then David went to Mahanaim, and Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel. 25 Absalom had appointed Amasa over the army in place of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra, the Ishmaelite who had married Abigail, the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah the mother of Joab. 26 So the Israelites and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

27 When David came to Mahanaim, he was met by Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, Machir son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim. 28 They brought beds, basins, and earthen vessels, as well as wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, 29 honey, curds, sheep, and cheese from the herd for David and his people to eat. For they said, "The people have become hungry, exhausted, and thirsty in the wilderness."

18

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

David's army fights Absalom's in the forest of Ephraim. David tells his generals, Be gentle with Absalom. Absalom's head gets caught in an oak tree while his mule keeps going. Joab kills him anyway. When David hears, he cries, O my son Absalom, if only I had died instead of you.

ABSALOM KILLED

1 Then David reviewed his troops and appointed over them commanders of thousands and of hundreds. 2 He sent out the troops, a third under Joab, a third under Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and a third under Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the troops, "I will surely march out with you as well."

3 But the people pleaded, "You must not go out! For if we have to flee, they will not care about us. Even if half of us die, they will not care. But you are worth ten thousand of us. It is better now if you support us from the city."

4 "I will do whatever seems best to you," the king replied. So he stood beside the gate, while all the troops marched out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 Now the king had commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, "Treat the young man Absalom gently for my sake." And all the people heard the king's orders to each of the commanders regarding Absalom.

6 So David's army marched into the field to engage Israel, and the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim. 7 There the people of Israel were defeated by David's servants, and the slaughter was great that day—twenty thousand men. 8 The battle spread over the whole countryside, and that day the forest devoured more people than the sword.

9 Now Absalom was riding on his mule when he met the servants of David, and as the mule went under the thick branches of a large oak, Absalom's head was caught fast in the tree. The mule under him kept going, so that he was suspended in midair. 10 When one of the men saw this, he told Joab, "I just saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree!"

11 "You just saw him!" Joab exclaimed. "Why did you not strike him to the ground right there? I would have given you four ounces of silver and a warrior's belt!"

12 The man replied, "Even if 25 pounds of silver were weighed out into my hands, I would not raise my hand against the son of the king. For we heard the king command you and Abishai and Ittai, 'Protect the young man Absalom for my sake.' 13 If I had jeopardized my own life—and nothing is hidden from the king—you would have abandoned me."

14 But Joab declared, "I am not going to wait like this with you!" And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the oak tree. 15 And ten young men who carried Joab's armor surrounded Absalom, struck him, and killed him.

16 Then Joab blew the ram's horn, and the troops broke off their pursuit of Israel because Joab had restrained them. 17 They took Absalom, cast him into a large pit in the forest, and piled a huge mound of stones over him. Meanwhile, all the Israelites fled, each to his home.

18 During his lifetime, Absalom had set up for himself a pillar in the King's Valley, for he had said, "I have no son to preserve the memory of my name." So he gave the pillar his name, and to this day it is called Absalom's Monument.

DAVID MOURNS FOR ABSALOM

19 Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, "Please let me run and tell the king the good news that Yahweh has avenged him of his enemies."

20 But Joab replied, "You are not the man to take good news today. You may do it another day, but you must not do so today, because the king's son is dead."

21 So Joab said to a Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed to Joab and took off running.

22 Ahimaaz son of Zadok, however, persisted and said to Joab, "No matter what, please let me also run behind the Cushite!"

"My son," Joab replied, "why do you want to run, since you will not receive a reward?"

23 "No matter what, I want to run!" he replied.

"Then run!" Joab told him.

So Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and outran the Cushite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates when the watchman went up to the roof of the gateway by the wall, looked out, and saw a man running alone. 25 So he called out and told the king.

"If he is alone," the king replied, "he bears good news."

As the first runner drew near, 26 the watchman saw another man running, and he called out to the gatekeeper, "Look! Another man is running alone!"

"This one also brings good news," said the king.

27 The watchman said, "The first man appears to me to be running like Ahimaaz son of Zadok."

"This is a good man," said the king. "He comes with good news."

28 Then Ahimaaz called out to the king, "All is well!" And he bowed facedown before the king.

He continued, "Blessed be Yahweh your God! He has delivered up the men who raised their hands against my lord the king."

29 The king asked, "Is the young man Absalom all right?"

And Ahimaaz replied, "When Joab sent the king's servant and your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I do not know what it was."

30 "Move aside," said the king, "and stand here."

So he stepped aside.

31 Just then the Cushite came and said, "May my lord the king hear the good news: Today Yahweh has avenged you of all who rose up against you!"

32 The king asked the Cushite, "Is the young man Absalom all right?"

And the Cushite replied, "May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rise up against you to harm you be like that young man."

33 The king was shaken and went up to the chamber over the gate and wept. And as he walked, he cried out, "O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!"

19

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

The army sneaks back like it lost, because the king is weeping. Joab tells David to get up or lose everyone. David returns to Jerusalem, forgives Shimei, hears Mephibosheth's side, and thanks old Barzillai. Then Judah and Israel argue about who loves the king more.

JOAB REPROVES DAVID

1 Then it was reported to Joab, "The king is weeping and mourning over Absalom."
2 And that day's victory was turned into mourning for all the people, because on that day they were told, "The king is grieving over his son."

3 So they returned to the city quietly that day, as people steal away in humiliation after fleeing a battle. 4 But the king covered his face and cried out at the top of his voice, "O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!"

5 Then Joab went into the house and said to the king, "Today you have disgraced all your servants who have saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters, of your wives, and of your concubines. 6

2SA 18:33 [NOTABLE] One of the saddest cries in the Bible. Absalom tried to kill his father and take his throne, and David still wished he had died in his place. A father's love does not quit.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

You love those who hate you and hate those who love you! For you have made it clear today that the commanders and soldiers mean nothing to you. I know today that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead, it would have pleased you!
7 Now therefore get up! Go out and speak comfort to your servants, for I swear by Yahweh that if you do not go out, not a man will remain with you tonight. This will be worse for you than all the adversity that has befallen you from your youth until now!"

DAVID RESTORED AS KING

8 So the king got up and sat in the gate, and all the people were told: "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate." So they all came before the king.

Meanwhile, the Israelites had fled, each man to his home. 9 And all the people throughout the tribes of Israel were arguing, "The king rescued us from the hand of our enemies and delivered us from the hand of the Philistines, but now he has fled the land because of Absalom. 10 But Absalom, the man we anointed over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about restoring the king?"

11 Then King David sent this message to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests: "Say to the elders of Judah, 'Why should you be the last to restore the king to his palace, since the talk of all Israel has reached the king at his quarters? 12 You are my brothers, my own flesh and blood. So why should you be the last to restore the king?'
13 And say to Amasa, 'Aren't you my flesh and blood? May God punish me, and ever so severely, if from now on you are not the commander of my army in place of Joab!'"

14 So he swayed the hearts of all the men of Judah as though they were one man,
and they sent word to the king: "Return,
you and all your servants."

15 So the king returned, and when he arrived at the Jordan, the men of Judah came to Gilgal to meet him and escort him across the Jordan.

SHIMEI PARDONED

16 Then Shimei son of Gera, a Benjamite from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David, 17 along with a thousand men of Benjamin, as well as Ziba the steward of the house of Saul and his fifteen sons and twenty servants.

They rushed down to the Jordan before the king 18 and crossed at the ford to carry over the king's household and to do what was good in his sight.

When Shimei son of Gera crossed the Jordan, he fell down before the king 19 and said, "My lord, do not hold me guilty, and do not remember your servant's wrongdoing on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. May the king not take it to heart. 20 For your servant knows that I have sinned, so here I am today as the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king."

21 But Abishai son of Zeruiah said,
"Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this,
because he cursed Yahweh's anointed?"

22 And David replied, "Sons of Zeruiah, what have I to do with you, that you should be my adversaries today? Should any man be put to death in Israel today?
Am I not indeed aware that today I am king over Israel?"

23 So the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king swore an oath to him.

MEPHIBOSHETH EXCUSED

24 Then Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson, went down to meet the king. He had not cared for his feet or trimmed his mustache or washed his clothes from the day
the king had left until the day he returned safely. 25 And he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, who asked him, "Mephibosheth, why did you not go with me?"

26 "My lord the king," he replied, "because I am lame, I said, 'I will have my donkey saddled so that I may ride on it and go with the king.' But my servant Ziba deceived me, 27 and he has slandered your servant to my lord the king.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Yet my lord the king is like the angel of God, so do what is good in your eyes. 28
For all the house of my grandfather deserves death from my lord the king, yet you have set your servant among those who eat at your table. What further right, then, do I have to keep appealing to the king?"

29 The king replied, "Why say any more? I hereby declare that you and Ziba are to divide the land."

30 And Mephibosheth said to the king, "Instead, since my lord the king has safely
come to his own house, let Ziba take it all!"

DAVID'S KINDNESS TO BARZILLAI

31 Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim to cross the Jordan
with the king and send him on his way from there. 32 Barzillai was quite old, eighty years of age, and since he was a very wealthy man, he had provided for the king while he stayed in Mahanaim.

33 The king said to Barzillai, "Cross over with me, and I will provide for you at my side in Jerusalem."

34 But Barzillai replied, "How many years of my life remain, that I should go up to Jerusalem with the king? 35 I am now eighty years old. Can I discern what is good and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats or drinks? Can I still hear the voice of singing men and women? Why should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

36 Your servant will go with the king only a short distance past the Jordan; why should the king repay me with such a reward? 37 Please let your servant return, that I may die in my own city near the tomb of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham. Let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what is good in your sight."

38 The king replied, "Chimham will cross over with me, and I will do for him what is good in your sight, and I will do for you whatever you desire of me."

39 So all the people crossed the Jordan, and then the king crossed over. The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and Barzillai returned home.

40 Then the king crossed over to Gilgal, and Chimham crossed over with him. All the troops of Judah and half the troops of Israel escorted the king.

CONTENTION OVER THE KING

41 Soon all the men of Israel came to the king and asked, "Why did our brothers,
the men of Judah, take you away secretly
and bring the king and his household across the Jordan, together with all of David's men?"

42 And all the men of Judah replied to the men of Israel, "We did this because the king is our relative. Why does this anger you? Have we ever eaten at the king's expense or received anything for ourselves?"

43 "We have ten shares in the king," answered the men of Israel, "so we have more claim to David than you. Why then do you despise us? Were we not the first to speak of restoring our king?"

But the men of Judah spoke more fiercely than the men of Israel.

20

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

A troublemaker named Sheba blows a horn and says, We have no share in David! Israel follows him. Joab kills Amasa, the new general, with a fake friendly kiss, and chases Sheba to the town of Abel. A wise woman talks to Joab from the wall, and Sheba's head comes over it.

SHEBA'S REBELLION

1 Now a worthless man named Sheba son of Bichri, a Benjamite, happened to be there, and he blew the ram's horn and shouted:

"We have no share in David,
no inheritance in Jesse's son.
Every man to his tent,
O Israel!"

2 So all the men of Israel deserted David to follow Sheba son of Bichri. But the men of

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Judah stayed by their king all the way from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

3 When David returned to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines he had left to take care of the palace, and he placed them in a house under guard. He provided for them, but he no longer slept with them. They were confined until the day of their death, living as widows.

4 Then the king said to Amasa, "Summon the men of Judah to come to me within three days, and be here yourself."

5 So Amasa went to summon Judah, but he took longer than the time allotted him.

6 And David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba
the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your lord's servants and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities and elude us."

7 So Joab's men, along with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty men, marched out of Jerusalem in pursuit of Sheba son of Bichri. 8 And while they were at the great stone in Gibeon, Amasa joined them.

Now Joab was dressed in military attire, with a dagger strapped to his belt. And as he stepped forward, he slipped the dagger from its sheath. 9 "Are you well, my brother?" Joab asked Amasa. And with his right hand Joab grabbed Amasa by the beard to kiss him.

10 Amasa was not on guard against the dagger in Joab's hand, and Joab stabbed him in the stomach and spilled out his intestines on the ground. And Joab did not need to strike him again, for Amasa was dead. Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bichri.

11 One of Joab's young men stood near Amasa and said, "Whoever favors Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab!" 12 But Amasa wallowed in his blood in the middle of the road, and when the man saw that all the troops were stopping there, he dragged the body off the road
into a field and threw a garment over it. 13
As soon as Amasa's body was removed from the road, all the men went on with Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

14 Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel-beth-maacah and through the entire region of the Berites, who gathered together and followed him.

15 And Joab's troops came and besieged Sheba in Abel-beth-maacah and built a siege ramp against the outer rampart of
the city.

As all the troops with Joab were battering
the wall to topple it, 16 a wise woman called out from the city, "Listen! Listen!
Please tell Joab to come here so that I may speak with him."

17 When he had come near to her, the woman asked, "Are you Joab?"

"I am," he replied.

"Listen to the words of your servant," she
said.

"I am listening," he answered.

18 Then the woman said, "Long ago they used to say, 'Seek counsel at Abel,' and that is how disputes were settled. 19 I am among the peaceable and faithful in Israel, but you are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up Yahweh's inheritance?"

20 "Far be it!" Joab declared. "Far be it from me to swallow up or destroy! 21 That is not the case. But a man named Sheba son of Bichri, from the hill country of Ephraim, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Deliver him alone, and I will depart from the city."

"Look," the woman replied, "his head will be thrown to you over the wall."

22 Then the woman went to all the people with her wise counsel, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. So he blew the ram's horn and his men dispersed from the city, each to his own home. And Joab returned to the king in Jerusalem.

23 Now Joab was over the whole army of Israel; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites; 24 Adoram was in charge of the forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder; 25 Sheva was the scribe; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; 26 and Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

A famine lasts three years. God says it is because Saul killed the Gibeonites. They ask for seven of Saul's sons and grandsons, and David hands them over. Rizpah, the mother of two of them, guards their bodies for months. Then David's men kill four Philistine giants, one with six fingers on each hand.

DAVID AVENGES THE GIBEONITES

1 During the reign of David there was a famine for three successive years, and David sought the face of Yahweh.

And Yahweh said, "It is because of the blood shed by Saul and his family, because he killed the Gibeonites."

2 At this, David summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not Israelites, but a remnant of the Amorites. The Israelites had taken an oath concerning them, but in his zeal for Israel and Judah, Saul had sought to kill them.)

3 So David asked the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? How can I make amends so that you may bless the inheritance of Yahweh?"

4 The Gibeonites said to him, "We need no silver or gold from Saul or his house, nor should you put to death anyone in Israel for us."

"Whatever you ask, I will do for you," he replied.

5 And they answered the king, "As for the man who consumed us and plotted against us to exterminate us from existing within any border of Israel, 6 let seven of his male descendants be delivered to us so that we may hang them before Yahweh at Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Yahweh."

"I will give them to you," said the king.

7 Now the king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath before Yahweh between David and Jonathan son of Saul. 8 But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons whom Rizpah daughter of Aiah had borne to Saul, as well as the five sons whom Merab daughter of Saul had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite. 9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before Yahweh. So all seven of them fell together; they were put to death in the first days of the harvest, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on a rock. From the beginning of the harvest until the rain from heaven poured down on the bodies, she did not allow the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 When David was told what Saul's concubine Rizpah, daughter of Aiah, had done, 12 he went and took the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan where the Philistines had hung the bodies after they had struck down Saul at Gilboa.

13 So David had the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan brought from there, and they also gathered the bones of those who had been hanged. 14 And they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in Zela in the land of Benjamin, in the tomb of Saul's father Kish.

After they had done everything the king had commanded, God answered their prayers for the land.

■ 2SA 21:1 [NOTE] THE GIBEONITES tricked Joshua into a peace treaty, Joshua 9, and Israel swore by Yahweh to spare them. Saul broke that oath. See the Big Question pages Saul's Sons and the Gibeonites, p.529.

■ 2SA 21:8 [TEXT] MERAB OR MICHAL? Most Hebrew copies say Michal. A few Hebrew copies and some Greek copies say Merab, and this Bible follows them. Merab was the one who married Adriel, 1 Samuel 18:19. Michal had no children, 6:23.

■ 2SA 21:9 [NOTE] NOT CHILD SACRIFICE. These were grown men put to death for the bloodshed of Saul's house, not children offered to a god.

DEMONIC BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

SAUL'S SONS AND THE GIBEONITES

What Happened

2 SAMUEL 21:1 TO 14 · JOSHUA 9:3 TO 27 · NUMBERS 35:33 · DEUTERONOMY 24:16

A THREE YEAR FAMINE

David asked Yahweh why. God said, It is because of the blood shed by Saul and his family, because he killed the Gibeonites, 21:1.

WHO WERE THE GIBEONITES?

Canaanites who tricked Joshua into a peace treaty hundreds of years earlier. Israel swore by Yahweh not to kill them, Joshua 9:15 to 20. Saul tried to wipe them out anyway, 21:2. The Bible does not tell that story anywhere else.

WHAT THEY ASKED

The Gibeonites did not want money. They asked for seven of Saul's male descendants to put to death before Yahweh at Gibeah, Saul's town, 21:4 to 6. David agreed, but he spared Mephibosheth because of his oath to Jonathan, 21:7.

RIZPAH

Two of the seven were sons of Rizpah, Saul's concubine. She spread sackcloth on a rock and guarded their bodies from birds and wild animals from the barley harvest until the rain came, 21:10.

THE END

David heard what Rizpah did. He gathered the bones of the seven, and he buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan in the family tomb of Kish. After that, God answered prayer for the land, 21:14.

THE QUESTION

Why did seven men die for what Saul did? Did God want this?

Every View

DEUTERONOMY 24:16 · EZEKIEL 18:20 · JOSHUA 9:19 TO 20 · NUMBERS 35:33 · PSALM 15:4

A BROKEN OATH

Everyone agrees the first problem was Saul breaking an oath made in God's name. The land was stained by blood that was never answered for, Numbers 35:33. God takes promises seriously, even promises made to people who tricked you, Joshua 9:19.

VIEW 1: JUSTICE THE GIBEONITES ASKED FOR

Some say God named the cause, but the Gibeonites chose the price, and David agreed. The text does not say God asked for seven men. The famine ended only after the bones were buried, 21:14, not right after the deaths.

VIEW 2: SAUL'S HOUSE SHARED THE GUILT

Others point to the words Saul and his house, or family, of blood, 21:1. They think some of these men took part in the killing, so they were not innocent.

VIEW 3: A HARD STORY TOLD HONESTLY

Others say it is right to be troubled. Deuteronomy 24:16 says children must not be put to death for their fathers' sins. Some think David was wrong to agree, and the Bible reports it without praising it.

NOT CHILD SACRIFICE

These were grown men executed for blood guilt, not children offered to a god. God hated child sacrifice, Deuteronomy 12:31.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Rizpah is the hero of the chapter. A grieving mother's love moved the king to give Saul's family an honorable burial. After that, God answered prayer for the land, 21:14.

FOUR BATTLES AGAINST THE PHILISTINES // 1 CHRONICLES 20:4–8

15 Once again the Philistines waged war against Israel, and David and his servants went down and fought against the Philistines. But David became exhausted.

sword, resolved to kill David. 17 But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to his aid, struck the Philistine, and killed him.

Then David's men swore to him, "You must never again go out with us to battle, so that the lamp of Israel may not be extinguished."

18 Some time later at Gob, there was another battle with the Philistines. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, a descendant of Rapha.

19 Once again there was a battle with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan son of Jair the Bethlehemite killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was also a battle at Gath, where there was a man of great stature with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot—twenty-four in all. He too was descended from Rapha, 21 and when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of David's brother Shimei killed him.

22 So these four descendants of Rapha in Gath fell at the hands of David and his servants.

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS

David's song of thanks for the day God saved him from all his enemies and from Saul. Yahweh is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer. The earth shakes, God rides on the wings of the wind, and He reaches down and pulls David out of deep waters. The same song is Psalm 18.

DAVID'S SONG OF DELIVERANCE // PSALM 18:1–50

1 And David sang this song to Yahweh on the day Yahweh had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. 2 He said:

"Yahweh is my rock,
my fortress, and my deliverer.
3 My God is my rock, in whom I take refuge,
my shield, and the horn of my salvation.
My stronghold, my refuge, and my Savior,
You save me from violence.
4 I will call upon Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised;
so shall I be saved from my enemies.

5 For the waves of death engulfed me;
the torrents of chaos overwhelmed me.
6 The cords of Sheol entangled me;
the snares of death confronted me.
7 In my distress I called upon Yahweh;
I cried out to my God.
And from His temple He heard my voice,
and my cry for help reached His ears.

8 Then the earth shook and quaked;
the foundations of the heavens trembled;
they were shaken because He burned with anger.
9 Smoke rose from His nostrils,
and consuming fire came from His mouth;
glowing coals blazed forth.

10 He parted the heavens and came down with dark clouds beneath His feet.
11 He mounted a cherub and flew;
He soared on the wings of the wind.
12 He made darkness a canopy around Him,
a gathering of water and thick clouds.
13 From the brightness of His presence
coals of fire blazed forth.

14 Yahweh thundered from heaven;
the voice of the Most High resounded.
15 He shot His arrows and scattered the foes;
He hurled lightning and routed them.
16 The channels of the sea appeared,
and the foundations of the world were exposed
at the rebuke of Yahweh,
at the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

17 He reached down from on high and took hold of me;

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

He drew me out of deep waters.
18 He rescued me from my powerful enemy,
from foes too mighty for me.
19 They confronted me in my day of calamity,
but Yahweh was my support.
20 He brought me out into the open;
He rescued me because He delighted in me.

21 Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness;
He has repaid me according to the cleanness of my hands.
22 For I have kept the ways of Yahweh
and have not wickedly departed from my God.
23 For all His ordinances are before me;
I have not disregarded His statutes.
24 And I have been blameless before Him
and kept myself from iniquity.
25 So Yahweh has repaid me according to my righteousness,
according to my cleanness in His sight.

26 To the faithful You show Yourself faithful, to the blameless You show Yourself blameless; 27 to the pure You show Yourself pure,
but to the crooked You show Yourself shrewd.
28 You save an afflicted people,
but Your eyes are on the haughty to bring them down.

29 For You, O Yahweh, are my lamp;
Yahweh lights up my darkness.
30 For in You I can charge an army;
with my God I can scale a wall.
31 As for God, His way is perfect;
the word of Yahweh is flawless.
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

32 For who is God besides Yahweh?
And who is the Rock except our God?
33 God is my strong fortress,
and He makes my way clear.
34 He makes my feet like those of a deer
and stations me upon the heights.
35 He trains my hands for battle;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

36 You have given me Your shield of salvation,
and Your gentleness exalts me.
37 You broaden the path beneath me
so that my ankles do not give way.
38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them;
I did not turn back until they were consumed.
39 I devoured and crushed them so they could not rise;
they have fallen under my feet.

40 You have armed me with strength for battle;
You have subdued my foes beneath me.
41 You have made my enemies retreat before me;
I destroyed those who hated me.
42 They looked, but there was no one to save them—
to Yahweh, but He did not answer.
43 I ground them as the dust of the earth;
I crushed and trampled them like mud in the streets.

44 You have delivered me from the strife of my people;
You have preserved me as the head of nations;
a people I had not known shall serve me.
45 Foreigners cower before me;
when they hear me, they obey me.
46 Foreigners lose heart
and come trembling from their strongholds.

47 Yahweh lives, and blessed be my Rock!
And may God, the Rock of my salvation, be exalted—48 the God who avenges me
and brings down nations beneath me, 49 who frees me from my enemies.
You exalt me above my foes;
You rescue me from violent men.

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

David's last words: a king who rules with justice is like the sunrise after rain. Then a list of David's mighty men and their wild stories. One killed a lion in a pit on a snowy day. Three broke through the Philistine lines just to bring David a drink from the well at Bethlehem. The last name on the list is Uriah the Hittite.

DAVID'S LAST SONG

1 These are the last words of David:

"The oracle of David son of Jesse,
the oracle of the man raised on high,
the one anointed by the God of Jacob,
and the sweet psalmist of Israel:

2 The Spirit of Yahweh spoke through me;
His word was on my tongue.
3 The God of Israel spoke;
the Rock of Israel said to me,
'He who rules the people with justice,
who rules in the fear of God,
4 is like the light of the morning
at sunrise of a cloudless dawn,
the glistening after the rain
on the sprouting grass of the earth.'

5 Is not my house right with God?
For He has established with me an everlasting covenant,
ordered and secured in every part.
Will He not bring about my full salvation
and my every desire?

6 But the worthless are all like thorns raked aside,
for they can never be gathered by hand.
7 The man who touches them must be armed with iron
or with the shaft of a spear.
The fire burns them to ashes
in the place where they lie."

DAVID'S MIGHTY MEN // 1 CHRONICLES 11:10–47

8 These are the names of David's mighty men:

Josheb-basshebeth the Tahchemonite was chief of the Three. He wielded his spear against eight hundred men, whom he killed at one time.

9 Next in command was Eleazar son of Dodo the Ahohite. As one of the three mighty men, he went with David to taunt the Philistines who had gathered for battle at Pas-dammim. The men of Israel retreated, 10 but Eleazar stood his ground and struck the Philistines until his hand grew weary and stuck to his sword. Yahweh brought about a great victory that day. Then the troops returned to him, but only to plunder the dead.

11 And after him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. When the Philistines had banded together near a field full of lentils, Israel's troops fled from them. 12 But Shammah took his stand in the middle of the field, defended it, and struck down the Philistines. So Yahweh brought about a great victory.

TWO BOOKS, ONE STORY

1 Chronicles 11 to 21 tells many of the same stories as 2 Samuel. It was written later, after the exile, and often copies Samuel word for word. That is why small differences stand out.

charioteers. A Dead Sea Scroll of Samuel and the Greek match Chronicles, and this Bible follows them.

10:18
Samuel's standard Hebrew text says 700 charioteers and 40,000 horsemen. This Bible says foot soldiers, like 1 Chronicles 19:18, which says 7,000 charioteers.

23:8
Samuel says the chief of the Three killed 800 men. 1 Chronicles 11:11 says 300. Verse 18 says Abishai killed 300, so some think an eye slipped.

24:9
Samuel says 800,000 in Israel and 500,000 in Judah. 1 Chronicles 21:5 says 1,100,000 and 470,000, and adds that Joab did not count Levi and Benjamin, 21:6.

24:13 AND 24:24
The Hebrew of Samuel says seven years of famine, and Chronicles says three. This Bible follows the Greek, which says three. Samuel says David paid 1¼ pounds of silver for the floor and oxen. Chronicles says about 15 pounds of gold for the site.

THE QUESTION
Do these differences mean the Bible has mistakes?

Every View
JEREMIAH 36:27 TO 32 · PSALM 12:6 · 2 TIMOTHY 3:16 · DEUTERONOMY 4:2

VIEW 1: COPYING SLIPS
The most common answer among Bible believing scholars. Old Hebrew wrote numbers as words or as letters, and a hundred or a thousand could be misread by a tired copyist over many centuries. They say the first writings had no errors, and copies picked up small slips.

VIEW 2: DIFFERENT WAYS OF COUNTING
Some differences may be real, not mistakes. 24:9 may count only the trained army in one book and every man of age in the other. 24:24 may be the price of the floor and oxen in Samuel, and of the whole hilltop in Chronicles.

VIEW 3: THE WRITERS ROUNDED OR CHANGED
Many critical scholars think the writer of Chronicles used a copy of Samuel that read differently, and sometimes rounded or raised numbers to make a point.

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS HELP
4QSam a, a scroll of Samuel from about 50 to 25 BC, often matches Chronicles where today's Hebrew of Samuel is different. That suggests Chronicles copied a good old text of Samuel, and some differences came in later.

WHAT IS NOT AT STAKE
No teaching about God, salvation or Jesus depends on any of these numbers. The copies agree on almost every word.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
The Bible's copyists left these differences in instead of fixing them. That honesty is one reason scholars can study the text so carefully today.

13 At harvest time, three of the thirty chief men went down to David at the cave of Adullam, while a company of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.
14 At that time David was in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was at Bethlehem. 15 David longed for water and said, "Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!"
16 So the three mighty men broke through the Philistine camp, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem, and brought it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out to Yahweh, 17 saying, "Far be it from me, O Yahweh, to do this! Is this not the blood of the men who risked their lives?" So he refused to drink it.
Such were the exploits of the three mighty
men.
18 Now Abishai, the brother of Joab and son of Zeruiah, was chief of the Three,
and he wielded his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name along with the Three. 19 Was he not more honored than the Three? And he became their commander, even though he was not included among the Three.

2SA 23:16 [NOTE] He poured it out to Yahweh. David would not drink water his men had risked their lives for. He gave it to God as an offering.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

20 And Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a man of valor from Kabzeel, a man of many exploits. He struck down two champions of Moab, and on a snowy day he went down into a pit and killed a lion. 21 He also struck down an Egyptian, a huge man. Although the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club, snatched the spear from his hand,
and killed the Egyptian with his own spear.
22 These were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, who won a name along with the three mighty men. 23 He was most honored among the Thirty, but he did not become one of the Three. And David appointed him over his guard.

24 Now these were members of the Thirty:
Asahel the brother of Joab,
Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem,
25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,
26 Helez the Paltite,
Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,
27 Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,
28 Zalmon the Ahohite,
Maharai the Netophathite,
29 Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

David orders a census of his fighting men. Even Joab says, Why do this? Afterward David's heart strikes him. God gives him three choices, and David says, Let me fall into Yahweh's hands. A plague hits, and the angel stops at Araunah's threshing floor. David buys it and builds an altar. I will not give God something that costs me nothing.

DAVID'S MILITARY CENSUS // EXODUS 30:11–16; 1 CHRONICLES 21:1–6

1 Again the anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and He stirred up David against them, saying, "Go and take a census of Israel and Judah."

2 So the king said to Joab the commander of his army, who was with him, "Go now throughout the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beersheba and register the troops, so that I may know their number."

3 But Joab replied to the king, "May Yahweh your God multiply the troops a hundred times over, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord
the king want to do such a thing?"

4 Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab and against the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army departed from the presence of the king to register the troops
of Israel.

5 They crossed the Jordan and camped near Aroer, south of the town in the middle of the valley, and proceeded toward Gad and Jazer. 6 Then they went to Gilead and the land of Tahtim-hodshi, and on to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon. 7 They went toward the fortress of Tyre and all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites.
Finally, they went on to the Negev of Judah, to Beersheba.

8 At the end of nine months and twenty days, having gone through the whole land, they returned to Jerusalem. 9 And

THE HEART BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Joab reported to the king the total number of the troops. In Israel there were 800,000 men of valor who drew the sword, and in Judah there were 500,000.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO CAUSED THE CENSUS?

Two Accounts

2 SAMUEL 24:1 TO 17 · 1 CHRONICLES 21:1 TO 17 · EXODUS 30:12

2 SAMUEL SAYS

Again the anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and He stirred up David against them, saying, Go and take a census of Israel and Judah, 24:1.

1 CHRONICLES SAYS

Then Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel, 1 Chronicles 21:1. The Hebrew word satan means adversary, and here it has no the in front of it.

WHAT DAVID DID

He sent Joab to count the fighting men. Joab pushed back: why does my lord want to do this? 24:3. It took almost ten months, 24:8.

WHY WAS IT WRONG?

The Bible does not say exactly. Many think David was trusting in the size of his army instead of in God. Some point to Exodus 30:12, where a count needed a ransom payment to avoid a plague. Afterward David's own heart struck him, and he said, I have sinned greatly, 24:10.

THREE CHOICES

God offered three years of famine, three months of running from enemies, or three days of plague. David said, Let us fall into the hand of Yahweh, for His mercies are great, 24:14.

THE QUESTION

Who stirred David up, God or Satan? How can both books be right?

Every View

JOB 1:6 TO 12 · 2:1 TO 7 · 1 KINGS 22:19 TO 23 · JAMES 1:13 · GENESIS 50:20

VIEW 1: GOD ALLOWED, SATAN DID

The most common Christian view. Like Job 1 and 2, God allowed Satan to test David. 2 Samuel names the One who is over everything, and Chronicles names the one who did it. James 1:13 says God tempts no one, so God allowed it, and Satan tempted.

VIEW 2: GOD USED IT FOR JUDGMENT

God was already angry with Israel, 24:1, likely for the revolts of Absalom and Sheba. He used David's pride to bring that judgment. Chronicles adds who stood behind the temptation. God can use even evil for His purposes, Genesis 50:20.

VIEW 3: AN ADVERSARY, NOT THE DEVIL

Some scholars note that satan without the can mean an adversary, maybe a human enemy or an accusing angel. They think Chronicles, written later, explains the story so God is not the one doing wrong.

VIEW 4: TWO WRITERS, TWO AIMS

Many critical scholars say the later writer of Chronicles changed the earlier story on purpose, as Jewish thinking about Satan grew. Others reply that both writers tell the truth from different sides, and both books are God's word.

THE GOOD ENDING

Both books end at the same threshing floor. The angel stopped there, David built an altar there, and the temple was built there, 1 Chronicles 22:1 and 2 Chronicles 3:1. God turned the place of judgment into the place of worship.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God is in charge, sin is real, and David took the blame himself: I, the shepherd, have sinned, but these sheep, what have they done? 24:17.

JUDGMENT FOR DAVID'S SIN // 1 CHRONICLES 21:7–13

take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly."

11 When David got up in the morning, the word of Yahweh had come to Gad the prophet, David's seer: 12 "Go and tell David that this is what Yahweh says: 'I am offering you three options. Choose one of them, and I will carry it out against you.'"

13 So Gad went and said to David, "Do you choose to endure three years of famine in your land, three months of fleeing the pursuit of your enemies, or three days of plague upon your land? Now then, think it over and decide how I should reply to Him who sent me."

14 David answered Gad, "I am deeply distressed. Please, let us fall into the hand of Yahweh, for His mercies are great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men."

A PLAGUE ON ISRAEL // 1 CHRONICLES 21:14–17

15 So Yahweh sent a plague upon Israel from that morning until the appointed time, and seventy thousand of the people from Dan to Beersheba died.

16 But when the angel stretched out his hand to destroy Jerusalem, Yahweh relented from the calamity and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "Enough! Withdraw your hand now!" At that time the angel of Yahweh was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

17 When David saw the angel striking down the people, he said to Yahweh, "Surely I, the shepherd, have sinned and acted wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Please, let Your hand fall upon me and my father's house."

DAVID BUILDS AN ALTAR // 1 CHRONICLES 21:18–30

18 And that day Gad came to David and said to him, "Go up and build an altar to Yahweh on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." 19 So David went up at the word of Gad, just as Yahweh had commanded.

20 When Araunah looked out and saw the king and his servants coming toward him, he went out and bowed facedown before the king. 21 "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" Araunah said.

"To buy your threshing floor," David replied, "that I may build an altar to Yahweh, so that the plague upon the people may be halted."

22 Araunah said to David, "May my lord the king take whatever seems good to him and offer it up. Here are the oxen for a burnt offering and the threshing sledges and ox yokes for the wood. 23 O king, Araunah gives all these to the king." He also said to the king, "May Yahweh your God accept you."

24 "No," replied the king, "I insist on paying a price, for I will not offer to Yahweh my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for 1¼ pounds of silver. 25 And there he built an altar to Yahweh and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

Then Yahweh answered the prayers on behalf of the land, and the plague upon Israel was halted.

WHAT IT IS

A threshing floor was a flat, open place on a windy hill where farmers beat grain loose and tossed it in the air so the wind blew the chaff away. Araunah the Jebusite had one on the hill north of the City of David.

HOW OLD IT IS

The rock itself is natural bedrock. The bare rock top shown here is the highest point of the Temple Mount and is often called the Foundation Stone.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

The angel stopped at Araunah's threshing floor, 24:16. David bought it and built an altar, 24:24 to 25. Solomon built the temple there, on Mount Moriah, 2 Chronicles 3:1, the same name as the land where Abraham offered Isaac, Genesis 22:2.

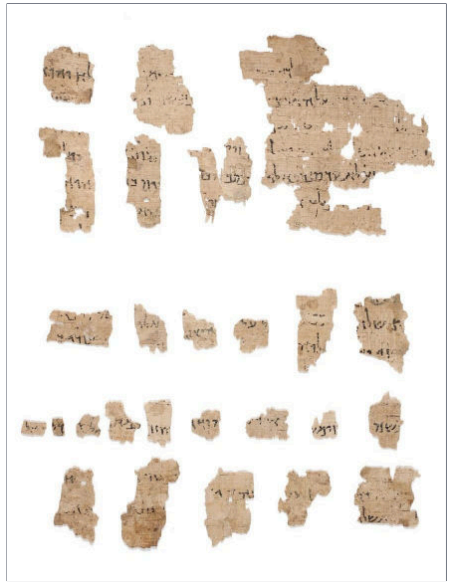
THE TRADITION

Jewish tradition says the Holy of Holies stood on the Foundation Stone, and many think the altar or the threshing floor was near it.

WHY NOBODY HAS DUG

Digging on the Temple Mount is not allowed, because it is holy to Jews and Muslims, so scholars still debate exactly where the temple and David's altar stood.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE



No sign marks David's altar. What is sure is that the temple stood on this hill, 2 Chronicles 3:1.

BOOK 11 OF 66 · OLD TESTAMENT · HISTORY

1 KINGS

The King Solomon Show

AUTHOR	The book does not name its author. Jewish tradition in the Talmud says Jeremiah wrote Kings. Many scholars think a writer during the exile put it together from older records the book names, like the Book of the Acts of Solomon, 11:41.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	About 120 years, from David's last days to the death of Ahab and the start of his son Ahaziah's reign.
DATE	About 970 to 850 BC. Solomon reigned forty years, 11:42, and the kingdom split in two about 930 BC.
WRITTEN TO	God's people, most likely in exile, to show why the kingdoms fell: their kings turned away from God.
KEY VERSE	1 Kings 9:4 to 5. As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, with integrity of heart and uprightness, I will establish your royal throne.

ONE OF THE OLDEST COPIES OF KINGS
These pieces of papyrus, a kind of paper made from a tall water plant, come from 6QpapKings, a scroll of Kings found in Cave 6 at Qumran, near the Dead Sea. It was copied about 150 to 75 BC, more than a thousand years older than the oldest complete Hebrew Bibles, and it is one of the oldest copies of Kings known. Its pieces hold bits of 1 Kings 3, 12 and 22 and of 2 Kings 5 to 10.

Pieces of two more Kings scrolls were found at Qumran, in Caves 4 and 5. The old Greek Bible's Kings is different in places. It has extra passages in 1 Kings 2, 12 and 16, and it puts chapters 20 and 21 in the other order.

Historical Setting

1 Kings starts in Jerusalem, where Solomon builds the temple and rules a kingdom that reaches from the Euphrates River toward Egypt. After the split, Judah stays in the south with Jerusalem. Israel in the north rules from Shechem, then Tirzah, then the new city of Samaria. Elijah's story moves from Gilead to a brook, to Zarephath on the coast of Sidon, to Mount Carmel, to Jezreel, and all the way south to Mount Horeb.

What Was Going Wrong

A FIGHT FOR THE THRONE. Adonijah tried to make himself king before David died 1:5 to 10.
TOO MANY WIVES. Solomon's 700 wives turned his heart to other gods 11:1 to 4.
CHILD SACRIFICE. Solomon built a high place for Molech, the god whose worship burned children 11:7. Hiel rebuilt Jericho at the cost of his oldest and youngest sons. Many think he sacrificed them; others think Joshua's curse struck them 16:34.
A HARSH KING. Rehoboam promised an even heavier yoke, and ten tribes walked away 12:14 to 16.
GOLDEN CALVES. Jeroboam set up calves at Bethel and Dan so his people would not go to Jerusalem 12:28 to 30.
KINGS KILLING KINGS. Baasha, Zimri and Omri all took the throne by force 15:27, 16:9 to 10, 16:16 to 18.
BAAL AND JEZEBEL. Ahab married Jezebel, built a temple for Baal, and she killed the prophets of Yahweh 16:31 to 32, 18:4.
MURDER FOR A VINEYARD. Jezebel had Naboth stoned so Ahab could take his land 21:8 to 16.

The Idiot Proof Summary

1 Kings is the story of the wisest king who ever lived and how he fell. David is old, and Solomon takes the throne. God offers Solomon anything, and he asks for wisdom. He builds the temple, and God's glory fills it. Kings and queens come to hear him, and gold pours in. But Solomon's many wives turn his heart to other gods. After he dies, the kingdom splits in two: Israel in the north, Judah in the south. Israel's kings get worse and worse, until Ahab and Jezebel make Baal the national god. Then a prophet named Elijah shows up. He stops the rain, calls down fire on Mount Carmel, runs for his life, and hears God in a whisper. Near the end of the book, Ahab dies in battle, just as God's prophets said.

Where Jesus Shows Up

1 KINGS 10:1 TO 10 The queen of Sheba came from far away to hear Solomon's wisdom. Jesus said, One greater than Solomon is here, Matthew 12:42.

1 KINGS 8:10 TO 11 God's glory filled the temple. John says the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, John 1:14. Jesus called His body a temple, John 2:19 to 21.

1 KINGS 17:8 TO 24 Elijah fed a widow and raised her son. Jesus pointed to this widow, Luke 4:25 to 26, and raised a widow's only son at Nain, Luke 7:11 to 17.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

1, 2, 3 AND 4 KINGS

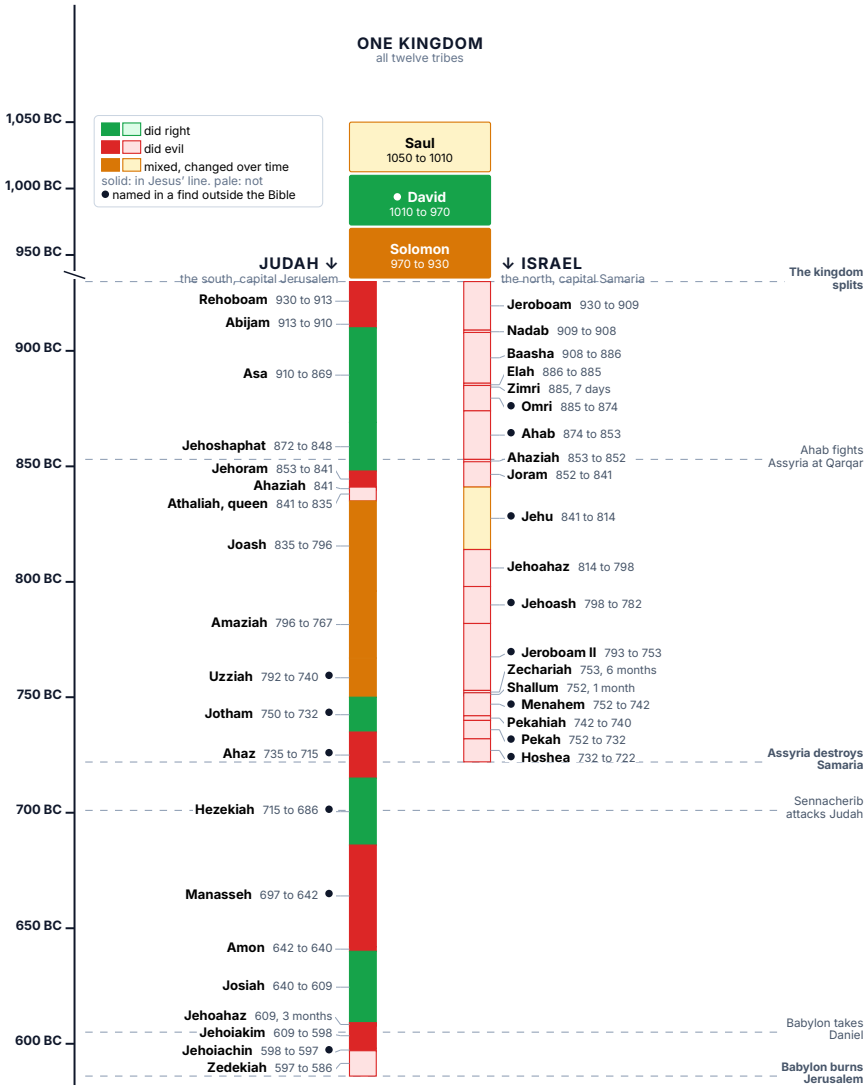
In old Greek and Latin Bibles, 1 and 2 Samuel and 1 and 2 Kings were counted as four books of Kingdoms or Kings, because they tell one long story. That makes this book the Third Book of the Kings. The old Greek Bible named it 3 Kingdoms, and Latin Bibles named it 3 Kings. The King James calls it The First Book of the Kings, commonly called The Third Book of the Kings.

AHAB IN STONE

An Assyrian king's stone names Ahab the Israelite and his 2,000 chariots. See the Kurkh Monolith page.

FIRE ON CARMEL

Elijah soaked his altar with water, and fire from heaven burned it all up, 18:38.



How Did It Turn Out?

The kingdom ended split in two, and Ahab died just as Elijah said. Next comes 2 Kings, where Elijah goes up in a whirlwind and both kingdoms fall.

SAMUEL · KINGS · CHRONICLES

The Kings of Israel and Judah

Who ruled, for how long, and how God judged them

HOW TO READ IT Time runs down the page. Each bar is one reign. Green kings did what was right, red did evil, and gold started one way and ended another.

FOUND OUTSIDE THE BIBLE A dot means the king is named on a stone, seal or royal record found by archaeologists, like the Tel Dan Stele, the Black Obelisk or Hezekiah's seal.

JESUS' FAMILY LINE Solid bars are kings in Jesus' family line through Joseph, Matthew 1. Matthew skips Ahaziah, Joash, Amaziah and Jehoiakim, but they were still in the line.

TWO KINGS AT ONCE Some sons ruled beside their fathers for a few years, so some dates overlap. That is why the numbers in Kings can be hard to add up.

Dates are approximate. Manasseh did great evil but repented late in life, 2 Chronicles 33:12 to 13. Tibni, who fought Omri for the throne, is left out. Shallum ruled one month, and the Bible gives no verdict on him.

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

King David is old and cold, and his son Adonijah throws himself a party and says, I will be king. Nathan the prophet and Bathsheba hurry to remind David of his promise. David says, Solomon will be king, today. Trumpets blow, the people shout, and Adonijah's party guests suddenly remember they have other plans.

ABISHAG CARES FOR DAVID

1 Now King David was old and well along in years, and though they covered him with blankets, he could not keep warm. 2
So his servants said to him, "Let us search for a young virgin for our lord the king, to attend to him and care for him and lie by his side to keep him warm."

3 Then they searched throughout Israel for a beautiful girl, and they found Abishag
the Shunammite and brought her to the king. 4 The girl was unsurpassed in beauty; she cared for the king and served him, but he had no relations with her.

ADONIJAH USURPS THE KINGDOM

5 At that time Adonijah, David's son by Haggith, began to exalt himself, saying, "I will be king!" And he acquired chariots and horsemen and fifty men to run ahead
of him.

6 (His father had never once reprimanded
him by saying, "Why do you act this way?"
Adonijah was also very handsome, born next after Absalom.)

7 So Adonijah conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, who supported him. 8 But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and David's mighty men would not join Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fattened calves near the stone of Zoheleth, which is next to En-rogel. He invited all his royal brothers and all the men of Judah who were servants of the king.

10 But he did not invite Nathan the prophet,
Benaiah, the mighty men, or his brother
Solomon.

NATHAN AND BATHSHEBA BEFORE DAVID

11 Then Nathan said to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, "Have you not heard that Adonijah son of Haggith has become king, and our lord David does not know it?
12 Now please, come and let me advise you. Save your own life and the life of your son Solomon. 13 Go at once to King David and say, 'My lord the king, did you not swear to your maidservant, "Surely your son Solomon will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?' 14 Then, while you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your
words."

15 So Bathsheba went to see the king in his bedroom. Since the king was very old, Abishag the Shunammite was serving him.
16 And Bathsheba bowed down in homage to the king, who asked, "What is your desire?"

17 "My lord," she replied, "you yourself swore to your maidservant by Yahweh your God: 'Surely your son Solomon will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne.' 18 But now, behold, Adonijah has become king, and you, my lord the king,
do not know it. 19 And he has sacrificed an abundance of oxen, fattened calves, and sheep, and has invited all the other sons of the king, as well as Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army. But he has not invited your servant Solomon.
20 And as for you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you to tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 21 Otherwise, when my lord
the king rests with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be counted as criminals."

22 And just then, while Bathsheba was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet arrived. 23 So the king was told,
"Nathan the prophet is here." And Nathan went in and bowed facedown before the king.

■ 1KI 1:1 [NOTE] THIRD BOOK OF THE KINGS. 1 and 2 Kings were once one book. 1 Kings picks up near the end of David's life, about 970 BC.
■ 1KI 1:5 [NOTE] ADONIJAH was David's fourth son, born after Absalom, 2 Samuel 3:4. His older brothers Amnon and Absalom were dead, and Kileab is never heard of again, so he thought the throne was his.

NOTABLE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

24 "My lord the king," said Nathan, "did you say, 'Adonijah will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne'? 25 For today he has gone down and sacrificed an abundance of oxen, fattened calves, and sheep, and has invited all the sons of the king, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest. And behold, they are eating and drinking before him, saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!' 26 But me your servant he has not invited, nor Zadok the priest, nor Benaiah son of Jehoiada, nor your servant
Solomon. 27 Has my lord the king let this happen without informing your servant
who should sit on the throne after my lord
the king?"

DAVID RENEWS HIS OATH TO BATHSHEBA

28 Then King David said, "Call in Bathsheba for me." So she came into the king's presence and stood before him.

29 And the king swore an oath, saying, "As surely as Yahweh lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress, 30 I will carry out this very day exactly what I swore to you by Yahweh, the God of Israel: Surely your son Solomon will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place."

31 Bathsheba bowed facedown in homage to the king and said, "May my lord King David live forever!"

SOLOMON ANOINTED KING // 1 CHRONICLES 29:21–25

32 Then King David said, "Call in for me
Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada." So they came before the king.

33 "Take my servants with you," said the king. "Set my son Solomon on my own mule and take him down to Gihon. 34 There Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet are to anoint him king over Israel. You are to blow the ram's horn and declare, 'Long live King Solomon!' 35 Then you shall go up with him, and he is to come and sit on my throne and reign in my place. For I have appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah."

36 "Amen," replied Benaiah son of Jehoiada. "May Yahweh, the God of my lord
the king, so declare it. 37 Just as Yahweh was with my lord the king, so may He be with Solomon and make his throne even greater than that of my lord King David."

38 Then Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada,
along with the Cherethites and Pelethites,
went down and set Solomon on King David's mule, and they escorted him to Gihon. 39 Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the ram's horn, and all the people proclaimed, "Long live King Solomon!"

40 All the people followed him, playing flutes and rejoicing with such a great joy
that the earth was split by the sound.

ADONIJAH LEARNS OF SOLOMON'S KINGSHIP

41 Now Adonijah and all his guests were finishing their feast when they heard the sound of the ram's horn. "Why is the city
in such a loud uproar?" asked Joab.

42 As he was speaking, suddenly Jonathan
the son of Abiathar the priest arrived.
"Come in," said Adonijah, "for you are a man of valor. You must be bringing good news."

43 "Not at all," Jonathan replied. "Our lord
King David has made Solomon king. 44
And with Solomon, the king has sent Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, along with the Cherethites and Pelethites, and they have set him on the king's mule. 45 Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon, and they have gone up from there with rejoicing that rings out in the city. That is the noise you hear.

46 Moreover, Solomon has taken his seat
on the royal throne.

47 The king's servants have also gone to congratulate our lord King David, saying,
'May your God make the name of Solomon more famous than your own name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne.'

1KI 1:39 [NOTABLE] Solomon's anointing establishes him as David's successor and stops Adonijah's coup

GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

And the king has bowed in worship on his bed, 48 saying, 'Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel! Today He has provided one to sit on my throne, and my eyes have seen it.'"

49 At this, all the guests of Adonijah arose in terror and scattered. 50 But Adonijah, in fear of Solomon, got up and went to take hold of the horns of the altar.

51 It was reported to Solomon: "Behold, Adonijah fears King Solomon, and he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon first swear to me not to put his servant to the sword.'"

52 And Solomon replied, "If he is a man of character, not a single hair of his will fall to the ground. But if evil is found in him, he will die."

53 So King Solomon summoned Adonijah down from the altar, and he came and bowed down before King Solomon, who said to him, "Go to your home."

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

David gives Solomon his last advice: be strong, keep God's law, and deal with a few old enemies. Then David dies. Adonijah asks to marry David's last companion, Abishag, and Solomon sees it as a grab for the throne. Adonijah, Joab and Shimei are put to death, and the kingdom is firmly in Solomon's hands.

DAVID INSTRUCTS SOLOMON // PSALM 37:1–40

1 As the time drew near for David to die, he charged his son Solomon, 2 "I am about to go the way of all the earth. So be strong and prove yourself a man. 3 And keep the charge of Yahweh your God to walk in His ways and to keep His statutes, commandments, ordinances, and decrees, as written in the Law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all you do and wherever you turn, 4 and so that Yahweh may fulfill His promise to me: 'If your descendants take heed to walk faithfully before Me with all their heart and soul, you will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

5 Moreover, you know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me—what he did to Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether, the two commanders of the armies of Israel. He killed them in peacetime to avenge the blood of war. He stained with the blood of war the belt around his waist and the sandals on his feet. 6 So act according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace.

7 But show loving devotion to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, because they stood by me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

8 Keep an eye on Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim who is with you. He called down bitter curses against me on the day I went to Mahanaim, but when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by Yahweh: 'I will never put you to the sword.' 9 Now therefore, do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man. You know what you ought to do to him to bring his gray head down to Sheol in blood."

DAVID'S REIGN AND DEATH // 1 CHRONICLES 29:26–30

10 Then David rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. 11 The length of David's reign over Israel was forty years—seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

12 So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was firmly established.

THE EXECUTION OF ADONIJAH

13 Now Adonijah son of Haggith went to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, and she asked, "Do you come in peace?"

"Yes, in peace," he replied. 14 Then he said, "I have something to tell you."

"Say it," she answered.

15 "You know that the kingship was mine," he said. "All Israel expected that I should reign, but the kingship has turned to my brother, for it has come to him from Yahweh. 16 So now I have just one request of you; do not deny me."

"State your request," she told him.

■ 1KI 2:5 [NOTE] JOAB killed Abner and Amasa during times of peace, 2 Samuel 3:27 and 20:10. David never punished him, and he left it to Solomon.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

17 Adonijah replied, "Please speak to King
Solomon, since he will not turn you down.
Let him give me Abishag the Shunammite
as my wife."

18 "Very well," Bathsheba replied. "I will speak to the king for you."

19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. The king stood up to greet her, bowed to her, and sat down on his throne. Then the king had a throne brought for his mother, who sat down at his right hand.

20 "I have just one small request of you,"
she said. "Do not deny me."

"Make your request, my mother," the king replied, "for I will not deny you."

21 So Bathsheba said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah as his wife."

22 King Solomon answered his mother,
"Why do you request Abishag the Shu-nammite for Adonijah? Since he is my older brother, you might as well request the kingdom for him and for Abiathar the priest and for Joab son of Zeruiah!"

23 Then King Solomon swore by Yahweh:
"May God punish me, and ever so severely, if Adonijah has not made this request at the expense of his life. 24 And now, as surely as Yahweh lives—the One who established me, who set me on the throne of my father David, and who founded for me a dynasty as He promised—surely Adonijah shall be put to death today!"

25 So King Solomon gave orders to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he struck down
Adonijah and he died.

26 Then the king said to Abiathar the priest, "Go back to your fields in Anathoth.
Even though you deserve to die, I will not put you to death at this time, since you carried the ark of the Lord Yahweh before my father David, and you suffered through all that my father suffered." 27 So Solomon banished Abiathar from the priesthood of Yahweh and thus fulfilled the word that Yahweh had spoken at Shiloh against the house of Eli.

THE EXECUTION OF JOAB

28 When the news reached Joab, who had conspired with Adonijah but not with Absalom, he fled to the tent of Yahweh and took hold of the horns of the altar.

29 It was reported to King Solomon: "Joab has fled to the tent of Yahweh and is now beside the altar."

So Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down!"

30 And Benaiah entered the tent of Yahweh and said to Joab, "The king says, 'Come
out!'"

But Joab replied, "No, I will die here."

So Benaiah relayed the message to the king, saying, "This is how Joab answered
me."

31 And the king replied, "Do just as he says. Strike him down and bury him, and so remove from me and from the house of my father the innocent blood that Joab shed. 32 Yahweh will bring his bloodshed back upon his own head, for without the knowledge of my father David he struck down two men more righteous and better than he when he put to the sword Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel's army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah's army. 33 Their blood will come back upon the heads of Joab and his descendants forever; but for David, his descendants, his house, and his throne,
there shall be peace from Yahweh forever."

34 So Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up, struck down Joab, and killed him. He was buried at his own home in the wilderness.
35 And the king appointed Benaiah son of Jehoiada in Joab's place over the army, and he appointed Zadok the priest in Abiathar's place.

THE EXECUTION OF SHIMEI

36 Then the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem and live there, but do not go anywhere else. 37 On the day you go out and cross the Kidron Valley, know for sure that you will die; your blood will be on your own head."

38 "The sentence is fair," Shimei replied. "Your servant will do as my lord the king has spoken." And Shimei lived in Jerusalem for a long time.

39 After three years, however, two of Shimei's slaves ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. And Shimei was told, "Look, your slaves are in Gath."

40 So Shimei saddled his donkey and set out to Achish at Gath in search of his slaves, and he brought them back from Gath.

41 When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned, 42 the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by Yahweh and warn you, 'On the day you leave and go elsewhere, know for sure that you will die'? And you told me, 'The sentence is fair; I will comply.' 43 So why have you not kept your oath to Yahweh and the command that I gave you?"

44 The king also said, "You know in your heart all the evil that you did to my father David. Therefore Yahweh will bring your evil back upon your head. 45 But King Solomon will be blessed and David's throne will remain secure before Yahweh forever."

46 Then the king commanded Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck Shimei down, and he died. Thus the kingdom was firmly established in the hand of Solomon.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

God appears to Solomon in a dream and says, Ask for anything. Solomon asks for an understanding heart to lead God's people. God is so pleased He throws in riches and honor too. Then two women fight over one baby, and Solomon calls for a sword. The real mother is the one who would rather give her baby away than see him hurt.

SOLOMON'S PRAYER FOR WISDOM // 2 CHRONICLES 1:1–13; PSALM 45:1–17; PSALM 72:1–20

1 Later, Solomon formed an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt by marrying his daughter. Solomon brought her to the City of David until he had finished building his palace and the house of Yahweh, as well as the wall around Jerusalem.

2 The people, however, were still sacrificing on the high places because a house for the Name of Yahweh had not yet been built. 3 And Solomon loved Yahweh and walked in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

4 Now the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for it was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on the altar there.

5 One night at Gibeon Yahweh appeared to Solomon in a dream, and God said, "Ask, and I will give it to you!"

6 Solomon replied, "You have shown much loving devotion to Your servant, my father David, because he walked before You in faithfulness, righteousness, and uprightness of heart. And You have maintained this loving devotion by giving him a son to sit on his throne this very day.

7 And now, O Yahweh my God, You have made Your servant king in my father David's place. But I am only a little child, not knowing how to go out or come in. 8 Your servant is here among the people You have chosen, a people too numerous to count or number.

9 Therefore give Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people and to discern between good and evil. For who is able to govern this great people of Yours?"

10 Now it pleased the Lord that Solomon had made this request. 11 So God said to him, "Since you have asked for this instead of requesting long life or wealth for yourself or death for your enemies—but you have asked for discernment to administer justice— 12 behold, I will do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so that there will never have been another like you, nor will there ever be.

13 Moreover, I will give you what you did not request—both riches and honor—so that during all your days no man in any kingdom will be your equal. 14 So if you walk in My ways and keep My statutes and commandments, just as your father David did, I will prolong your days."

15 Then Solomon awoke, and indeed it had been a dream. So he returned to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. Then he held a feast for all his servants.

SOLOMON JUDGES WISELY

16 At that time two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.

17 One woman said, "Please, my lord, this woman and I live in the same house, and I gave birth while she was in the house. 18 On the third day after I gave birth, this woman also had a baby. We were alone, with no one in the house but the two of us. 19 During the night this woman's son died because she rolled over on him. 20 So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while I was asleep. She laid him in her bosom and put her dead son at my bosom. 21 The next morning, when I got up to nurse my son, I discovered he was dead. But when I examined him, I realized that he was not the son I had borne."

22 "No," said the other woman, "the living one is my son and the dead one is your son."

But the first woman insisted, "No, the dead one is yours and the living one is mine." So they argued before the king.

23 Then the king replied, "This woman says, 'My son is alive and yours is dead,' but that woman says, 'No, your son is dead and mine is alive.'"

24 The king continued, "Bring me a sword." So they brought him a sword, 25 and the king declared, "Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other."

26 Then the woman whose son was alive spoke to the king because she yearned with compassion for her son. "Please, my lord," she said, "give her the living baby. Do not kill him!"

But the other woman said, "He will be neither mine nor yours. Cut him in two!"

27 Then the king gave his ruling: "Give the living baby to the first woman. By no means should you kill him; she is his mother."

28 When all Israel heard of the judgment the king had given, they stood in awe of him, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Solomon's officials, his twelve district governors, and his daily grocery list, which is huge. Judah and Israel are as many as the sand by the sea, eating, drinking and happy. Solomon's wisdom is greater than all the wise men of the east, and he speaks 3,000 proverbs and 1,005 songs.

SOLOMON'S PRINCES

1 So King Solomon ruled over Israel, 2 and these were his chief officials:

Azariah son of Zadok was the priest;
3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, were secretaries;
Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder;
4 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in charge of the army;
Zadok and Abiathar were priests;
5 Azariah son of Nathan was in charge of the governors;

1KI 3:12 [HEART] God gave Solomon what he asked for: a wise and discerning heart, like no one before or after him.

1KI 3:16 [NOTE] TWO PROSTITUTES. Even the poorest and most looked down on people could bring their case to the king, and Solomon gave them justice.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Zabud son of Nathan was a priest and adviser to the king;
6 Ahishar was in charge of the palace;
and Adoniram son of Abda was in charge of the forced labor.

SOLOMON'S TWELVE OFFICERS

7 Solomon had twelve governors over all Israel to provide food for the king and his household. Each one would arrange provisions for one month of the year, 8 and these were their names:

Ben-hur in the hill country of Ephraim;
9 Ben-deker in Makaz, in Shaalbim, in Beth-shemesh, and in Elon-beth-hanan;
10 Ben-hesed in Arubboth (Socoh and all the land of Hepher belonged to him);
11 Ben-abinadab in Naphath-dor (Taphath, a daughter of Solomon, was his wife);
12 Baana son of Ahilud in Taanach, in Megiddo, and in all of Beth-shean next to Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah and on past Jokmeam;
13 Ben-geber in Ramoth-gilead (the villages of Jair son of Manasseh in Gilead belonged to him, as well as the region of Argob in Bashan with its sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars);
14 Ahinadab son of Iddo in Mahanaim;
15 Ahimaaz in Naphtali (he had married Basemath, a daughter of Solomon);
16 Baana son of Hushai in Asher and in Aloth;
17 Jehoshaphat son of Paruah in Issachar;
18 Shimei son of Ela in Benjamin;
19 Geber son of Uri in the land of Gilead, including the territories of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan.

There was also one governor in the land of Judah.

SOLOMON'S PROSPERITY

20 The people of Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand on the seashore, and they were eating and drinking and rejoicing. 21 And Solomon reigned over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. These kingdoms offered tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 Solomon's provisions for a single day were 180 bushels of fine flour, 360 bushels of meal, 23 ten fat oxen, twenty range oxen, and a hundred sheep, as well as deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened poultry. 24 For Solomon had dominion over everything west of the Euphrates—over all the kingdoms from Tiphsah to Gaza—and he had peace on all sides. 25 Throughout the days of Solomon, Judah and Israel dwelt securely from Dan to Beersheba, each man under his own vine and his own fig tree.

26 Solomon had 4,000 stalls for his chariot horses and 12,000 horses. 27 Each month the governors in turn provided food for King Solomon and all who came to his table. They saw to it that nothing was lacking. 28 Each one also brought to the required place their quotas of barley and straw for the chariot horses and other horses.

SOLOMON'S KINGDOM

FROM THE EUPHRATES TO EGYPT

Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines and the border of Egypt, 4:21. That is the land God promised Abraham, Genesis 15:18.

WHAT IT MEANS

Most scholars read this as a ring of smaller kingdoms that paid Solomon tribute, not land Israel lived on. Israel itself was still from Dan to Beersheba, 4:25.

THE RICHES

About 25 tons of gold a year, 10:14, plus gold from Ophir and gifts from Sheba, 9:28 and 10:10. Ships that came every three years with gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks, 10:22. Horses and chariots bought from Egypt and Kue, 10:28 to 29.

THE BUILDING

The temple, Solomon's palace, the House of the Forest of Lebanon, the wall of Jerusalem, and the cities of Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer, 9:15.

THE QUESTION

Was Solomon's kingdom really this big and rich? What do the diggers say?

WHY IT IS DEBATED

No writing from outside the Bible names Solomon. And the dates of buildings from his time are argued over by 50 to 100 years, which makes a big difference.

Every View

1 KINGS 9:15 · 10:1 TO 13 · 11:14 TO 25 · 2 SAMUEL 8

VIEW 1: A REAL KINGDOM, AS DESCRIBED

Many scholars, like Amihai Mazar and William Dever, think the gates of Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer, the big walls at Khirbet Qeiyafa and the big buildings in Jerusalem show a real kingdom with a strong king in the 900s BC. The finds fit the Bible's picture of a kingdom ruled from Jerusalem.

VIEW 2: SMALLER THAN IT SOUNDS

Some say Solomon was a real king, but his kingdom was smaller and poorer than later readers imagined. The words of 4:21 may describe a time of tribute from neighbors, not a big empire with an army in every land.

VIEW 3: A LOCAL CHIEFDOM

Israel Finkelstein and others in the low chronology school redate many big buildings to about 50 to 100 years later, the time of Omri and Ahab. They think Solomon's Jerusalem was a small hill town, and the golden age stories grew bigger later.

WHAT THE DIG SAYS SO FAR

Carbon dating at many sites has narrowed the debate. Many now place the six room gate at Gezer in the 900s BC. Khirbet Qeiyafa, a fortified town from about 1000 BC that many think was Judean, surprised many skeptics. The debate is not over.

WHY SILENCE IS NOT PROOF

Egypt and Assyria were weak in Solomon's day, so there were no great empires writing about their neighbors. Very little writing from that whole region in the 900s BC has survived at all.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

A kingdom called the House of David existed by the 800s BC, Tel Dan Stele. Israel had a royal family, a capital in Jerusalem and a temple. The size of Solomon's power is the question, not whether there was a kingdom.

SOLOMON'S WISDOM

29 And God gave Solomon wisdom, exceedingly deep insight, and largeness of heart, like the sand on the seashore. 30 Solomon's wisdom was greater than that of all the men of the East, greater than all the wisdom of Egypt. 31 He was wiser than all men—wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and wiser than Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame spread throughout the surrounding nations.

32 Solomon composed three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered a thousand and five. 33 He spoke of trees, from the cedar in Lebanon to the hyssop growing in the wall, and he taught about animals, birds, reptiles, and fish.

34 So men of all nations came to listen to Solomon's wisdom, sent by all the kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

PREPARATIONS FOR THE TEMPLE // 2 CHRONICLES 2:1–10

1 Now when Hiram king of Tyre heard that Solomon had been anointed king in his father's place, he sent envoys to Solomon for Hiram had always been a friend of David.
2 And Solomon relayed this message to Hiram:
3 "As you are well aware, due to the wars waged on all sides against my father David, he could not build a house for the Name of Yahweh his God until Yahweh had put his enemies under his feet. 4 But now Yahweh my God has given me rest on every side, and there is no adversary or crisis.
5 So behold, I plan to build a house for the Name of Yahweh my God, according to what Yahweh said to my father David: 'I will put your son on your throne in your place, and he will build the house for My Name.'
6 Now therefore, order that cedars of Lebanon be cut down for me. My servants will be with your servants, and I will pay your servants whatever wages
you set, for you know that there are none among us as skilled in logging as the Sidonians."

HIRAM'S REPLY TO SOLOMON // 2 CHRONICLES 2:11–18

7 When Hiram received Solomon's message, he rejoiced greatly and said,
"Blessed be Yahweh this day! He has given David a wise son over this great people!" 8 Then Hiram sent a reply to Solomon, saying:
"I have received your message; I will do all you desire regarding the cedar and cypress timber. 9 My servants will haul the logs from Lebanon to the Sea, and I will float them as rafts by sea to the place you specify. There I will separate the logs, and you can take them away. And in exchange, you can meet my needs by providing my household with food."
10 So Hiram provided Solomon with all the cedar and cypress timber he wanted, 11
and year after year Solomon would provide Hiram with 120,000 bushels of wheat as food for his household, as well as 110,000 gallons of pure olive oil.
12 And Yahweh gave Solomon wisdom, as He had promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty.

SOLOMON'S LABOR FORCE

13 Then King Solomon conscripted a labor force of 30,000 men from all Israel. 14 He sent them to Lebanon in monthly shifts of 10,000 men, so that they would spend one month in Lebanon and two months at home. And Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor.
15 Solomon had 70,000 porters and 80,000 stonecutters in the mountains, 16 not including his 3,300 foremen who supervised the workers.
17 And the king commanded them to quarry large, costly stones to lay the foundation of the temple with dressed stones. 18 So Solomon's and Hiram's builders, along with the Gebalites, quarried the stone and prepared the timber and stone for the construction of the temple.

6

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

Solomon builds the temple, starting 480 years after the Exodus. The stones are cut at the quarry, so no hammer is heard at the building site. Inside it is all cedar and gold, with two giant cherubim in the Most Holy Place. Seven years later it is finished.

TEMPLE CONSTRUCTION BEGINS // 2 CHRONICLES 3:1–2

1 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, the second month, he began to build the house of Yahweh.

■ 1KI 5:11 [TEXT] HOW MUCH OIL? The standard Hebrew text says about 1,100 gallons of oil. The Greek and 2 Chronicles 2:10 say about 110,000 gallons, and this Bible follows them.
■ 1KI 5:16 [TEXT] 3,300 OR 3,600? 2 Chronicles 2:18 says 3,600 foremen. But add the 550 chief officers in 9:23, and Kings has 3,850 in all. Chronicles has 3,600 plus 250 in 2 Chronicles 8:10, also 3,850. The two books count the same men in different groups.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

2 The house that King Solomon built for Yahweh was 90 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 45 feet high. 3 The portico at the front of the main hall of the temple was 30 feet long, extending across the width of the temple and projecting out 15 feet in front of the temple.

4 He also had narrow windows framed high in the temple.

THE CHAMBERS

5 Against the walls of the temple and the inner sanctuary, Solomon built a chambered structure around the temple, in which he constructed the side rooms. 6
The bottom floor was 7½ feet wide, the middle floor 9 feet, and the third floor 10½ feet. He also placed offset ledges around the outside of the temple, so that nothing would be inserted into its walls.

7 The temple was constructed using finished stones cut at the quarry, so that no hammer or chisel or any other iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built.

8 The entrance to the bottom floor was on the south side of the temple. A stairway led up to the middle level, and from there to the third floor.

9 So Solomon built the temple and finished it, roofing it with beams and planks of cedar. 10 He built chambers all along the temple, each 7½ feet high and attached to the temple with beams of cedar.

SOLOMON'S TEMPLE AND AIN DARA

1 KINGS 6:1 TO 38 · 7:13 TO 51 · 2 CHRONICLES 3 TO 4 · EZEKIEL 40 TO 42

Giant footprints carved into the doorway of the Ain Dara temple in Syria, photographed before the temple was damaged in 2018. Photo Verity Cridland, CC BY 2.0.

WHAT IT IS

No stone of Solomon's temple has ever been found. It stood on the Temple Mount, where nobody is allowed to dig. But a temple found at Ain Dara in northern Syria has almost the same floor plan, so scholars use it to picture what Solomon built.

HOW OLD IT IS

The Ain Dara temple was first built about 1300 BC and was rebuilt and used until about 740 BC. So it was standing in Solomon's day, about 960 BC.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

A huge stone lion was found by chance in 1955. Feisal Seirafi dug there in the 1950s and 1960s, and Ali Abu Assaf uncovered the temple from 1980 to 1985. In 2018 bombs badly damaged it during the war in Syria.

THE SAME PLAN

Both temples had three rooms in a row: a porch, a main hall, and an inner room for the god. Both stood on a raised platform with two pillars at the front, like Jachin and Boaz, 7:21. Both had side rooms built against the outer walls, 6:5. Both were decorated with lions, cherubim like creatures, palm trees and flowers, 6:29 and 7:29.

THE FOOTPRINTS

Giant footprints, each about three feet long, are carved into the doorway, as if the god had walked in to live there. Israel's God did not need a footprint. His glory filled His house in a cloud, 8:10 to 11.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Ain Dara was built for a pagan god, not for Yahweh, and it does not prove Solomon's temple was real. It shows that a temple like the one 1 Kings describes fits the time and place the Bible gives.

GOD'S PROMISE TO SOLOMON

11 Then the word of Yahweh came to Solomon, saying: 12 "As for this temple you are building, if you walk in My statutes, carry out My ordinances, and keep all My commandments by walking in them, I will fulfill through you the promise I made to your father David. 13 And I will dwell among the Israelites and will not abandon My people Israel."

THE TEMPLE'S INTERIOR // 2 CHRONICLES 3:5–9

14 So Solomon built the temple and finished it. 15 He lined the interior walls with cedar paneling from the floor of the temple to the ceiling, and he covered the floor with cypress boards.

16 He partitioned off the 30 feet at the rear of the temple with cedar boards from floor to ceiling to form within the temple an inner sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. 17 And the main hall in front of this room was 60 feet long.

18 The cedar paneling inside the temple was carved with gourds and open flowers. Everything was cedar; not a stone could be seen.

19 Solomon also prepared the inner sanctuary within the temple to set the ark of the covenant of Yahweh there. 20 The inner sanctuary was 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 30 feet high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold, and he also overlaid the altar of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the inside of the temple with pure gold, and he extended gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, which was overlaid with gold. 22 So he overlaid with gold the whole interior of the temple, until everything was completely finished. He also overlaid with gold the entire altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary.

THE CHERUBIM // 2 CHRONICLES 3:10–13

23 In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim, each 15 feet high, out of olive wood. 24 One wing of the first cherub was 7½ feet long, and the other wing was 7½ feet long as well. So the full wingspan was 15 feet. 25 The second cherub also measured 15 feet; both cherubim had the same size and shape, 26 and the height of each cherub was 15 feet.

27 And he placed the cherubim inside the innermost room of the temple. Since their wings were spread out, the wing of the first cherub touched one wall, while the wing of the second cherub touched the other wall, and in the middle of the room their wingtips touched. 28 He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29 Then he carved the walls all around the temple, in both the inner and outer sanctuaries, with carved engravings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers. 30 And he overlaid the temple floor with gold in both the inner and outer sanctuaries.

THE DOORS

31 For the entrance to the inner sanctuary, Solomon constructed doors of olive wood with five-sided doorposts. 32 The double doors were made of olive wood, and he carved into them cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers and overlaid the cherubim and palm trees with hammered gold.

33 In the same way he made four-sided doorposts of olive wood for the sanctuary entrance. 34 The two doors were made of cypress wood, and each had two folding panels. 35 He carved into them cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and he overlaid them with gold hammered evenly over the carvings.

THE COURTYARD

36 Solomon built the inner courtyard with three rows of dressed stone and one row of trimmed cedar beams.

37 The foundation of the house of Yahweh was laid in the fourth year of Solomon's reign, in the month of Ziv. 38 In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, the eighth month, the temple was finished in every detail and according to every specification. So he built the temple in seven years.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Solomon spends thirteen years on his own palace, plus a great hall called the House of the Forest of Lebanon. A bronze worker named Huram makes two huge pillars, named Jachin and Boaz, a giant bronze basin called the Sea, ten bronze stands on wheels, and the rest of the temple tools.

SOLOMON'S PALACE COMPLEX

1 Solomon, however, took thirteen years to complete the construction of his entire palace.

2 He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon 150 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high, with four rows of cedar pillars supporting the cedar beams.

3 The house was roofed with cedar above
the beams that rested on the pillars—forty-five beams, fifteen per row.
4 There were three rows of high windows facing one another in three tiers. 5 All the doorways had rectangular frames, with the openings facing one another in three tiers.

6 Solomon made his colonnade 75 feet long and 45 feet wide, with a portico in front of it and a canopy with pillars in front of the portico.

7 In addition, he built a hall for the throne,
the Hall of Justice, where he was to judge. It was paneled with cedar from floor to ceiling.

8 And the palace where Solomon would live, set further back, was of similar construction. He also made a palace like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.

9 All these buildings were constructed with costly stones, cut to size and trimmed with saws inside and out from the foundation to the eaves, and from the outside to the great courtyard. 10 The foundations were laid with large, costly stones, some 15 feet long and some 12 feet long. 11 Above these were costly stones, cut to size, and cedar beams.

12 The great courtyard was surrounded by three rows of dressed stone and a row of trimmed cedar beams, as were the inner courtyard and portico of the house of Yahweh.

THE PILLARS AND CAPITALS // 2 CHRONICLES 3:14–17

13 Now King Solomon sent to bring Huram from Tyre. 14 He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a craftsman in bronze.
Huram had great skill, understanding, and knowledge for every kind of bronze work.
So he came to King Solomon and carried out all his work.

15 He cast two pillars of bronze, each 27
feet high and 18 feet in circumference. 16
He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on top of the pillars, each capital 7½ feet high. 17 For the capitals on top of the pillars he made a network of lattice, with wreaths of chainwork, seven for each capital.

18 Likewise, he made the pillars with two rows of pomegranates around each grating to cover each capital atop the pillars.
19 And the capitals atop the pillars in the portico were shaped like lilies, six feet high. 20 On the capitals of both pillars, just above the rounded projection next to the network, were the two hundred pomegranates in rows encircling each capital.

21 Thus he set up the pillars at the portico of the temple. The pillar to the south he named Jachin, and the pillar to the north he named Boaz. 22 And the tops of the pillars were shaped like lilies. So the work of the pillars was completed.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

THE MOLTEN SEA // 2 CHRONICLES 4:1–5

23 He also made the Sea of cast metal. It was circular in shape, measuring 15 feet from rim to rim, 7½ feet in height, and 45 feet in circumference. 24 Below the rim, ornamental buds encircled it, ten every half yard all the way around the Sea, cast in two rows as a part of the Sea.

25 The Sea stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The Sea rested on them, with all their hindquarters toward the center. 26 It was three inches thick, and its rim was fashioned like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It could hold 11,000 gallons.

THE TEN BRONZE STANDS

27 In addition, he made ten movable stands of bronze, each six feet long, six feet wide, and 4½ feet high.

28 This was the design of the stands: They had side panels attached to uprights, 29
and on the panels between the uprights were lions, oxen, and cherubim. On the uprights was a pedestal above, and below
the lions and oxen were wreaths of beveled work.

30 Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles and a basin resting on four supports, with wreaths at each side. 31 The opening to each stand inside the crown at the top was 18 inches deep, with a round opening like the design of a pedestal, 27 inches wide. And around its opening were engravings, but the panels of the stands were square, not round.

32 There were four wheels under the panels, and the axles of the wheels were attached to the stand; each wheel was 27 inches in diameter. 33 The wheels were made like chariot wheels; their axles, rims, spokes, and hubs were all of cast metal.

34 Each stand had four handles, one for each corner, projecting from the stand. 35
At the top of each stand was a circular band nine inches high. The supports and panels were cast as a unit with the top of the stand.

36 He engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees on the surfaces of the supports and panels, wherever each had space, with wreaths all around. 37 In this way he made the ten stands, each with the same casting, dimensions, and shape.

THE TEN BRONZE BASINS // 2 CHRONICLES 4:6–8

38 He also made ten bronze basins, each holding 220 gallons and measuring six feet across, one basin for each of the ten stands.

39 He set five stands on the south side of the temple and five on the north, and he put the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner of the temple.

COMPLETION OF THE BRONZE WORKS // 2
CHRONICLES 4:11–18

40 Additionally, Huram made the pots,
shovels, and sprinkling bowls.

So Huram finished all the work that he had undertaken for King Solomon in the house of Yahweh:

41 the two pillars;
the two bowl-shaped capitals atop the pillars;
the two sets of network covering both
bowls of the capitals atop the pillars; 42 the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network covering both the bowl-shaped capitals atop the pillars); 43 the ten stands;
the ten basins on the stands;
44 the Sea;
the twelve oxen underneath the Sea;
45 and the pots, shovels, and sprinkling bowls.

All the articles that Huram made for King Solomon in the house of Yahweh were made of burnished bronze. 46 The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan. 47 Solomon left all these articles unweighed, because there were so many. The weight of the bronze could not be determined.

COMPLETION OF THE GOLD FURNISHINGS // 2 CHRONICLES 4:19–22

48 Solomon also made all the furnishings for the house of Yahweh:

the golden altar;
the golden table on which was placed the Bread of the Presence; 49 the lampstands of pure gold in front of the inner sanctuary, five on the right side and five on the left;
the gold flowers, lamps, and tongs;
50 the pure gold basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, ladles, and censers;
and the gold hinges for the doors of the inner temple (that is, the Most Holy Place) as well as for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

51 So all the work that King Solomon had performed for the house of Yahweh was completed.

Then Solomon brought in the items his father David had dedicated—the silver, the gold, and the furnishings—and he placed them in the treasuries of the house of Yahweh.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

The priests carry the ark into the Most Holy Place, and the cloud of God's glory fills the temple so thick the priests cannot keep working. Solomon prays a long prayer: heaven cannot contain You, much less this house, but please hear us when we pray toward it. Then a party with 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep.

THE ARK ENTERS THE TEMPLE // 2 CHRONICLES 5:1–14

1 At that time Solomon assembled before him in Jerusalem the elders of Israel—all the tribal heads and family leaders of the Israelites—to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh from Zion, the City of David. 2 And all the men of Israel came together to King Solomon at the feast in the seventh month, the month of Ethanim.

3 When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the priests took up the ark, 4 and they brought up the ark of Yahweh and the Tent of Meeting with all its sacred furnishings. So the priests and Levites carried them up.

5 There, before the ark, King Solomon and the whole congregation of Israel who had assembled with him sacrificed so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

6 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, beneath the wings of the cherubim. 7 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and overshadowed the ark and its poles.

8 The poles extended far enough that their ends were visible from the Holy Place in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are there to this day.

9 There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where Yahweh had made a covenant with the Israelites after they had come out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the priests came out of the Holy Place, the cloud filled the house of Yahweh 11 so that the priests could not stand there to minister because of the cloud. For the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh.

GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

14 And as the whole assembly of Israel stood there, the king turned around and blessed them all 15 and said:

"Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel,
who has fulfilled with His own hand what
He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying, 16 'Since the day I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house so that My Name would be there. But I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.'

17 Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the Name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. 18 But Yahweh said to my father David, 'Since it was in your heart to build a house for My Name, you have done well to have this in your heart. 19 Nevertheless, you are not the one to build it; but your son, your own offspring, will build the house for My Name.'

20 Now Yahweh has fulfilled the word that He spoke. I have succeeded my father David, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised. I have built the house for the Name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. 21 And there I have provided a place for the ark, which contains the covenant of Yahweh that He made with our fathers when He brought them out of the land of Egypt."

THE BIG QUESTION

THE TEMPLE

What It Was

1 KINGS 6 TO 8 · 2 CHRONICLES 3 TO 7 · EXODUS 25 TO 27 · HEBREWS 9:1 TO 12

A HOUSE FOR GOD'S NAME

David wanted to build God a house, and God said his son would do it, 2 Samuel 7:13. Solomon began in his fourth year, 6:1, on Mount Moriah, where Yahweh appeared to David, 2 Chronicles 3:1. It took seven years, 6:38.

THE SHAPE

The building was 90 feet long, 30 wide and 45 high, 6:2. It had a porch, a main hall called the Holy Place, and an inner room 30 feet on every side, the Most Holy Place, 6:20. It was twice the size of the tabernacle Moses built, with the same plan.

INSIDE

Cedar walls carved with cherubim, palm trees and open flowers, all covered in gold, 6:29 to 30. In the Most Holy Place stood two cherubim of olive wood 15 feet tall, with wings touching wall to wall, over the ark, 6:23 to 28.

OUTSIDE

Two bronze pillars named Jachin, He establishes, and Boaz, In Him is strength, 7:21. A huge bronze basin called the Sea, resting on twelve bronze bulls, 7:23 to 25. Ten bronze stands on wheels for washing, 7:27 to 39.

THE GLORY

When the ark was brought in, a cloud filled the house, and the priests could not stand to minister, for the glory of Yahweh filled it, 8:10 to 11. The same thing happened at the tabernacle, Exodus 40:34 to 35.

THE QUESTION

If heaven cannot contain God, 8:27, why build Him a house? What was the temple for?

What It Meant

JOHN 1:14 · 2:19 TO 21 · 1 CORINTHIANS 3:16 · 6:19 · REVELATION 21:22

A PLACE TO MEET

Solomon knew God does not live in a building, 8:27. He prayed that God's eyes would be on this house, and that He would hear prayers prayed toward it, 8:29 to 30. The temple was where heaven and earth met, where sins were covered by sacrifice.

A PICTURE OF EDEN

Many scholars see the garden of Eden in the temple: cherubim guarding the way in, Genesis 3:24, palm trees and flowers on the walls, and an entrance facing east. God's presence among His people was being restored.

WHAT HAPPENED TO IT

Babylon burned Solomon's temple in 586 BC, 2 Kings 25:9. A smaller second temple was built about 70 years later, Ezra 6:15. Herod made that one huge, and 1KI 8:15 [NOTE] Solomon quotes God's promise to David in 8:16, 8:18 to 19 and 8:25. God's own words print red, even when someone else quotes them.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

Rome destroyed it in AD 70, just as Jesus said, Matthew 24:2.

JESUS, THE TRUE TEMPLE

John says the Word became flesh and dwelt, or tabernacled, among us, John 1:14. Jesus said, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. He was speaking about His body, John 2:19 to 21.

GOD'S PEOPLE, THE TEMPLE

Paul says believers together are God's temple, and God's Spirit lives in them, 1 Corinthians 3:16. In the new Jerusalem there is no temple, because God and the Lamb are its temple, Revelation 21:22.

A THIRD TEMPLE?

Some Christians and many Jews expect a rebuilt temple in Jerusalem before the end, from Ezekiel 40 to 48 and 2 Thessalonians 2:4. Others read those passages as pictures of Christ and His church. Christians disagree, and this Bible does not take a side.

SOLOMON'S PRAYER OF DEDICATION // 2 CHRONICLES 6:12–42

22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of Yahweh in front of the whole assembly of Israel, spread out his hands toward heaven, 23 and said:

"O Yahweh, God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth below, keeping Your covenant of loving devotion with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts. 24 You have kept Your promise to Your servant, my father David. What You spoke with Your mouth You have fulfilled with Your hand this day.

25 Therefore now, O Yahweh, God of Israel, keep for Your servant, my father David, what You promised when You said: 'You will never fail to have a man to sit before Me on the throne of Israel, if only your descendants guard their way to walk before Me as you have done.' 26 And now, O God of Israel, please confirm what You promised to Your servant, my father David.

27 But will God indeed dwell upon the earth? The heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain You, much less this temple I have built. 28 Yet regard the prayer and plea of Your servant, O Yahweh my God, so that You may hear the cry and the prayer that Your servant is praying before You today.

29 May Your eyes be open toward this temple night and day, toward the place of which You said, 'My Name shall be there,' so that You may hear the prayer that Your servant prays toward this place. 30 Hear the plea of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. May You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place. May You hear and forgive.

31 When a man sins against his neighbor and is required to take an oath, and he comes to take an oath before Your altar in this temple, 32 then may You hear from heaven and act. May You judge Your servants, condemning the wicked man by bringing down on his own head what he has done, and justifying the righteous man by rewarding him according to his righteousness.

33 When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they return to You and confess Your name, praying and pleading with You in this temple, 34 then may You hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel. May You restore them to the land You gave to their fathers.

35 When the skies are shut and there is no rain because Your people have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and they turn from their sins because You have afflicted them, 36 then may You hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, so that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk. May You send rain on the land that You gave Your people as an inheritance.

37 When famine or plague comes upon the land, or blight or mildew or locusts or grasshoppers, or when their enemy besieges them in their cities, whatever plague or sickness may come, 38 then may whatever prayer or petition Your people Israel make—each knowing his own afflictions and spreading out his hands toward this temple— 39 be heard by You from heaven, Your dwelling place. And may You forgive and act, and repay each man according to all his ways, since You know his heart—for You alone know the hearts of all men— 40 so that they may fear You all the days they live in the land that You gave to our fathers.

41 And as for the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of Your name— 42 for they will hear of Your great name and mighty hand and outstretched arm—when he comes and prays toward this temple, 43 then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You. Then all the peoples of the earth will know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and they will know that this house I have built is called by Your Name.

44 When Your people go to war against their enemies, wherever You send them, and when they pray to Yahweh in the direction of the city You have chosen and the house I have built for Your Name, 45 then may You hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and may You uphold their cause.

46 When they sin against You—for there is no one who does not sin—and You become angry with them and deliver them to an enemy who takes them as captives to his own land, whether far or near, 47 and when they take it to heart in the land to which they were taken, and they repent and plead with You in the land of their captors, saying, 'We have sinned and done wrong; we have acted wickedly,' 48 and when they return to You with all their heart and soul in the land of the enemies who took them captive, and when they pray to You in the direction of the land that You gave to their fathers, the city You have chosen, and the house I have built for Your Name, 49 then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, their prayer and petition, and may You uphold their cause. 50 May You forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all the transgressions they have committed against You, and may You grant them compassion in the eyes of their captors to show them mercy.

51 For they are Your people and Your inheritance; You brought them out of Egypt, out of the furnace for iron. 52 May Your eyes be open to the pleas of Your servant and of Your people Israel, and may You listen to them whenever they call to You. 53 For You, O Lord Yahweh, have set them apart from all the peoples of the earth as Your inheritance, as You spoke through Your servant Moses when You brought our fathers out of Egypt."

SOLOMON'S BENEDICTION

54 Now when Solomon had finished praying this entire prayer and petition to Yahweh, he got up before the altar of Yahweh, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven. 55 And he stood and blessed the whole assembly of Israel in a loud voice, saying:

56 "Blessed be Yahweh, who has given rest to His people Israel according to all that He promised. Not one word has failed of all the good promises He made through His servant Moses.

57 May Yahweh our God be with us, as He was with our fathers. May He never leave us or forsake us. 58 May He incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways and to keep the commandments and statutes and ordinances He commanded our fathers.

59 And may these words with which I have made my petition before Yahweh be near to Yahweh our God day and night, so that

He may uphold the cause of His servant
and of His people Israel as each day requires, 60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that Yahweh is God.
There is no other!

61 So let your heart be fully devoted to Yahweh our God, as it is this day, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments."

SACRIFICES OF DEDICATION // 2 CHRONICLES 7:4–10

62 Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before Yahweh. 63 And Solomon offered as peace offerings to Yahweh 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep.
So the king and all the Israelites dedicated the house of Yahweh.

64 On that same day the king consecrated the middle of the courtyard in front of the house of Yahweh, and there he offered
the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, since the bronze altar before Yahweh was too small to contain all these offerings.

65 So at that time Solomon and all Israel with him—a great assembly of people from Lebo-hamath to the Brook of Egypt—kept the feast before Yahweh our God for seven days and seven more days—fourteen days in all.

66 On the fifteenth day Solomon sent the people away. So they blessed the king and went home, joyful and glad in heart for all the good things that Yahweh had done for His servant David and for His people Israel.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

God appears to Solomon a second time: I have heard your prayer. Walk with Me, and your throne will last. Turn away, and this temple will become a heap of ruins. Solomon builds cities and gates, uses forced labor, and starts a navy on the Red Sea that brings back gold from Ophir.

YAHWEH'S RESPONSE TO SOLOMON // 2 CHRONICLES 7:11–22

1 Now when Solomon had finished building
the house of Yahweh and the royal palace, and had achieved all that he had desired to do, 2 Yahweh appeared to him a second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. 3 And Yahweh said to him:

"I have heard your prayer and petition before Me. I have consecrated this temple, which you have built, by putting My Name
there forever; My eyes and My heart will be there for all time.

4 And as for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, with a heart of integrity and uprightness, doing all I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and ordinances, 5 then I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever, as I promised your father David when I said, 'You will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

6 But if indeed you or your sons turn away from following Me and do not keep the commandments and statutes I have set before you, and if you go off to serve and worship other gods, 7 then I will cut off Israel from the land that I have given them, and I will banish from My presence this temple I have sanctified for My Name.
Then Israel will become an object of scorn and ridicule among all peoples.

8 And when this temple has become a heap of rubble, all who pass by it will be appalled and will hiss and say, 'Why has Yahweh done such a thing to this land and to this temple?' 9 And others will answer,
'Because they have forsaken Yahweh their God who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshiping and serving them—because of this, Yahweh has brought all this disaster upon them.'"

SOLOMON'S ADDITIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS // 2 CHRONICLES 8:1–18

10 Now at the end of the twenty years during which Solomon built these two houses, the house of Yahweh and the royal palace, 11 King Solomon gave twenty towns in the land of Galilee to Hiram king of Tyre, who had supplied him with cedar and cypress logs and gold for his every desire. 12 So Hiram went out from Tyre to inspect the towns that Solomon had given him, but he was not pleased with them.

13 "What are these towns you have given me, my brother?" asked Hiram, and he called them the Land of Cabul, as they are called to this day.

14 And Hiram had sent the king 4½ tons of gold.

15 This is the account of the forced labor that King Solomon imposed to build the house of Yahweh, his own palace, the supporting terraces, and the wall of Jerusalem, as well as Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 Pharaoh king of Egypt had attacked and captured Gezer. He had set it on fire, killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife. 17 So Solomon rebuilt Gezer, Lower Beth-horon, 18 Baalath, and Tamar in the Wilderness of Judah, 19 as well as all the store cities that Solomon had for his chariots and horses—whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and throughout the land of his dominion.

20 As for all the people who remained of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites (the people who were not Israelites)— 21 their descendants who remained in the land, those whom the Israelites were unable to devote to destruction—Solomon conscripted these people to be forced laborers, as they are to this day.

22 But Solomon did not consign any of the Israelites to slavery, because they were his men of war, his servants, his officers, his captains, and the commanders of his chariots and cavalry. 23 They were also the chief officers over Solomon's projects: 550 supervisors over the people who did the work.

24 As soon as Pharaoh's daughter had come up from the City of David to the palace that Solomon had built for her, he built the supporting terraces.

25 Three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar he had built for Yahweh, burning incense with them before Yahweh. So he completed the temple.

SOLOMON'S GATES

1 KINGS 9:15 TO 19 · 2 CHRONICLES 8:1 TO 6 · JOSHUA 16:10

The six room gate at Tel Gezer. The low stone walls mark the rooms on each side of the passage. Photo Ian Scott, CC BY SA 2.0.

WHAT IT IS

City gates with six rooms, three on each side of the road through the gate. Guards stood in the rooms, and elders sat there to judge cases. Gates with the same plan and almost the same size were found at Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer, the three cities named in 9:15.

HOW OLD IT IS

Debated. Yigael Yadin dated the gates to the 900s BC, the time of Solomon. Israel Finkelstein and others date them about 50 to 100 years later, to the time of Omri and Ahab. Newer carbon tests at Gezer support the earlier date, but the debate goes on.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Megiddo's gate was dug in the 1930s. Yadin found the Hazor gate in the 1950s. He then spotted the Gezer gate in old drawings from R. A. S. Macalister's dig, which had called it a Maccabean castle. William Dever's team dug it out in the late 1960s and early 1970s and found he was right.

THE MATCHING GATES

1 Kings 9:15 says Solomon built Jerusalem's wall, Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer. Finding the same gate plan at all three cities made many think one king's builders made them all.

THE BIG DEBATE

Six room gates have also been found at Lachish, Ashdod and other places, some from later times. So the plan may have been popular for a long time, not just Solomon's design. Some also think the Megiddo gate is later than the walls next to it.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No writing on the gates names Solomon. If the early date is right, they are a strong match for 9:15. If the later date is right, Solomon's gates are still under the ground or gone.

26 King Solomon also assembled a fleet of ships at Ezion-geber, which is near Eloth
in Edom, on the shore of the Red Sea. 27
And Hiram sent his servants, sailors who knew the sea, to serve in the fleet with Solomon's servants. 28 They sailed to Ophir and imported gold from there—about 16 tons—and delivered it to Solomon.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

The queen of Sheba comes with a long camel train to test Solomon with hard questions. He answers every one, and she is left breathless. Solomon's gold pours in, about 25 tons a year. Silver is as common as stones in Jerusalem. Everyone wants to hear his wisdom.

THE QUEEN OF SHEBA // 2 CHRONICLES 9:1–12

1 Now when the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon concerning the name of Yahweh, she came to test him with difficult questions. 2 She arrived in Jerusalem with a very large caravan—with camels bearing spices, gold in great abundance, and precious stones.

And she came to Solomon and spoke to him all that was in her heart. 3 And Solomon answered all her questions;
nothing was too difficult for the king to explain.

4 When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon, the palace he had built, 5 the food at his table, the seating of his servants, the service and attire of his attendants, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he presented at the house of Yahweh, it took her breath away.

6 She said to the king, "The report I heard

SOLOMON'S WEALTH AND SPLENDOR // 2 CHRONICLES 1:14–17; 2 CHRONICLES 9:13–28

14 The weight of gold that came to Solomon each year was about 25 tons, 15 not including the revenue from the merchants, traders, and all the Arabian kings and governors of the land.

16 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; 15 pounds of gold went into each shield. 17 He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold; 3¾ pounds of gold went into each shield. And the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

18 Additionally, the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold. 19 The throne had six steps, and its back had a rounded top. There were armrests on both sides of the seat, with a lion standing beside each armrest. 20 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like this had ever been made for any kingdom.

21 All King Solomon's drinking cups were gold, and all the utensils of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. There was no silver, because it was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon. 22 For the king had the ships of Tarshish at sea with Hiram's fleet, and once every three years the ships of Tarshish would arrive bearing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

23 So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. 24 The whole world sought an audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom that God had put in his heart. 25 Year after year, each visitor would bring his tribute: articles of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

26 Solomon accumulated 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses, which he stationed in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem. 27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as abundant as sycamore in the foothills.

28 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and Kue; the royal merchants purchased them from Kue. 29 A chariot could be imported from Egypt for 15 pounds of silver, and a horse for 3¾ pounds. Likewise, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Solomon loves many foreign women: 700 wives and 300 concubines. When he is old, they turn his heart to their gods, and he builds high places for Chemosh and Molech. God says, I will tear the kingdom away from your son, but not all of it. The prophet Ahijah tears his new cloak into twelve pieces and hands ten to Jeroboam.

SOLOMON'S FOREIGN WIVES

1 King Solomon, however, loved many foreign women along with the daughter of Pharaoh—women of Moab, Ammon, Edom, and Sidon, as well as Hittite

1KI 10:14 [NOTE] 666. In the Hebrew, the number here is 666, the same number as Revelation 13:18. Most see no link beyond the number. Some see Solomon's piles of gold as part of his fall, because the king was told not to gather great amounts of gold, Deuteronomy 17:17.

1KI 10:23 [FULFILLS] God promised Solomon unmatched wisdom plus riches and honor ← 1KI 3:12-13 p.548

women. 2 These women were from the nations about which Yahweh had told the Israelites, "You must not intermarry with them, for surely they will turn your hearts after their gods." Yet Solomon clung to these women in love. 3 He had seven hundred wives of royal birth and three hundred concubines—and his wives turned his heart away.

4 For when Solomon grew old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, and he was not wholeheartedly devoted to Yahweh his God, as his father David had been. 5 Solomon followed Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. 6 So Solomon did evil in the sight of Yahweh; unlike his father David, he did not follow Yahweh completely.

7 At that time on a hill east of Jerusalem, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab and for Molech the abomination of the Ammonites. 8 He did the same for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

GOD'S ANGER AGAINST SOLOMON

9 Now Yahweh grew angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from Yahweh, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice. 10 Although He had warned Solomon explicitly not to follow other gods, Solomon did not keep Yahweh's command.

11 Then Yahweh said to Solomon, "Because you have done this and have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant.

12 Nevertheless, for the sake of your father David, I will not do it during your lifetime; I will tear it out of the hand of your son. 13 Yet I will not tear the whole kingdom away from him. I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

SOLOMON'S WISDOM AND 700 WIVES

What Happened

1 KINGS 3:5 TO 14 · 4:29 TO 34 · 11:1 TO 13 · DEUTERONOMY 17:14 TO 17

THE BEST START

God said to young Solomon, Ask for whatever you want. Solomon asked for an understanding heart to lead God's people well, 3:9. God gave him wisdom like no one before or after, and riches and honor too, 3:12 to 13.

THE WISEST MAN

Solomon spoke 3,000 proverbs and 1,005 songs. He taught about trees, animals, birds and fish, 4:32 to 33. Kings sent people to hear him, 4:34, and the queen of Sheba said she had not heard the half of it, 10:7.

THE RULES FOR KINGS

Long before, Moses wrote that a king must not gather many horses, especially from Egypt, must not take many wives, or his heart would turn away, and must not pile up silver and gold, Deuteronomy 17:16 to 17.

SOLOMON BROKE ALL THREE

He bought horses from Egypt, 10:28. Silver became as common as stones in Jerusalem, 10:27. And he had 700 wives of royal birth and 300 concubines, 11:3.

THE FALL

When Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart after other gods. He built high places for Chemosh and Molech on a hill east of Jerusalem, 11:4 to 8. God was angry, because He had appeared to Solomon twice, 11:9.

1KI 11:2 [DEMONIC] Solomon's wives turn his heart to Ashtoreth, Chemosh, and Molech

1KI 11:3 [NOTE] 700 WIVES. The king was told not to take many wives, or his heart would turn away, Deuteronomy 17:17. See the Big Question pages Solomon's Wisdom and 700 Wives, p.564.

1KI 11:4 [HEART] Solomon's wives turned his heart away. His heart was not fully devoted like David's.

1KI 11:7 [NOTE] MOLECH. Worship of Molech included burning children in the fire. God's law forbade it, Leviticus 18:21. The wisest king built a shrine for that god. About 300 years later, King Josiah tore it down, 2 Kings 23:13.

1KI 11:9 [HEART] Yahweh was angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away, even though God had appeared to him twice.

1KI 11:11 [PROPHECY] God told Solomon the kingdom would be torn from his son but one tribe spared for David's sake → 1KI 12 p.567

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

THE QUESTION
How could the wisest man who ever lived do something so foolish?

Every View
NEHEMIAH 13:26 · PROVERBS 4:23 · ECCLESIASTES 2:1 TO 11 · 12:13 · JAMES 1:5

VIEW 1: WISDOM IS NOT THE SAME AS OBEYING
Many say Solomon knew what was right but stopped doing it. Wisdom is a gift, but it does not keep working on its own. Guard your heart, for out of it flow the springs of life, Proverbs 4:23. Solomon did not guard his.

VIEW 2: A SLOW DRIFT
The fall did not happen in one day. It started with a marriage to Pharaoh's daughter for politics, 3:1, then more treaties sealed by marriages. Each wife came with her own gods. Little by little, his heart was divided.

VIEW 3: POWER AND MONEY
Some point to the riches. A king with everything may start to think the rules are for other people. Solomon's forced labor and heavy taxes also show a king who used people, 5:13 and 12:4.

700 WIVES?
Many royal marriages in that world sealed treaties between kingdoms. Some scholars think the numbers are rounded or count every woman in the palace. Others take them as written. Either way, the Bible does not praise it. It blames it.

DID HE TURN BACK?
The Bible does not say. Many Jewish and Christian teachers think Solomon wrote Ecclesiastes in old age, looking back on a life chasing everything under the sun, and ending with fear God and keep His commands, Ecclesiastes 12:13. Others think a later writer wrote Ecclesiastes in Solomon's voice.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
Nehemiah 13:26 says it plainly: there was no king like Solomon, loved by his God, and yet foreign women made even him sin. A good start does not guarantee a good finish.

HADAD'S RETURN

14 Then Yahweh raised up against Solomon an adversary, Hadad the Edomite, from the royal line of Edom.
15 Earlier, when David was in Edom, Joab
the commander of the army had gone to bury the dead and had struck down every male in Edom. 16 Joab and all Israel had stayed there six months, until he had killed every male in Edom. 17 But Hadad, still just a young boy, had fled to Egypt,
along with some Edomites who were servants of his father.
18 Hadad and his men set out from Midian and went to Paran. They took men from Paran with them and went to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house and land and provided him with food.
19 There Hadad found such great favor in the sight of Pharaoh that he gave to him in marriage the sister of Queen Tahpenes, his own wife. 20 And the sister of Tahpenes bore Hadad a son named Genubath. Tahpenes herself weaned him in Pharaoh's palace, and Genubath lived there among the sons of Pharaoh.
21 When Hadad heard in Egypt that David had rested with his fathers and that Joab, the commander of the army, was dead, he said to Pharaoh, "Let me go, that I may return to my own country." 22 But Pharaoh asked him, "What have you lacked here with me that you suddenly want to go back to your own country?"
"Nothing," Hadad replied, "but please let me go."

REZON'S HOSTILITY

23 And God raised up against Solomon another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, Hadadezer king of Zobah, 24 and had gathered men to himself. When David killed the Zobaites, Rezon captained a band of raiders and went to Damascus, where they settled and gained control.
25 Rezon was Israel's enemy throughout the days of Solomon, adding to the trouble caused by Hadad. So Rezon ruled over Aram with hostility toward Israel.

JEROBOAM'S REBELLION

26 Now Jeroboam son of Nebat was an Ephraimite from Zeredah whose mother was a widow named Zeruah. Jeroboam was a servant of Solomon, but he rebelled against the king, 27 and this is the account of his rebellion against the king.

Solomon had built the supporting terraces and repaired the gap in the wall of the city of his father David. 28 Now Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor. So when Solomon noticed that the young man was industrious, he put him in charge of the whole labor force of the house of Joseph.

29 During that time, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met Jeroboam on the road as he was going out of Jerusalem. Now Ahijah had wrapped himself in a new cloak, and the two of them were alone in the open field.

30 And Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing, tore it into twelve pieces, 31 and said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and I will give you ten tribes. 32 But one tribe will remain for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.

33 For they have forsaken Me to worship Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites. They have not walked in My ways, nor done what is right in My eyes, nor kept My statutes and judgments, as Solomon's father David did.

34 Nevertheless, I will not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon's hand, because I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of David My servant, whom I chose because he kept My commandments and statutes. 35 But I will take ten tribes of the kingdom from the hand of his son and give them to you. 36 I will give one tribe to his son, so that My servant David will always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I chose to put My Name. 37 But as for you, I will take you, and you shall reign over all that your heart desires, and you will be king over Israel.

38 If you listen to all that I command you, walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight in order to keep My statutes and commandments as My servant David did, then I will be with you. I will build you a lasting dynasty just as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you. 39 Because of this, I will humble David's descendants—but not forever.'"

40 Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, where he remained until the death of Solomon.

THE DEATH OF SOLOMON // 2 CHRONICLES 9:29–31

41 As for the rest of the acts of Solomon—all that he did, as well as his wisdom—are they not written in the Book of the Acts of Solomon? 42 Thus the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

43 And Solomon rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David. And his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO WROTE KINGS?

What the Book Says

1 KINGS 11:41 · 14:19 · 14:29 · 6:1 · 2 KINGS 25:27 TO 30

ONE BOOK

1 and 2 Kings were one book in the Hebrew Bible. The Greek translation split it in two, and later Hebrew Bibles did the same.

1KI 11:31 [PROPHECY] Ahijah tore his cloak into twelve pieces and gave Jeroboam ten tribes → 1KI 12:16; 1KI 12:20 p.568

1KI 11:41 [NOTE] THE BOOK OF THE ACTS OF SOLOMON is one of the old sources the writer of Kings names. It has been lost. See the Big Question pages Who Wrote Kings?, p.566

NO NAME
The book never says who wrote it. It ends in Babylon about 560 BC, when King Jehoiachin is let out of prison, 2 Kings 25:27 to 30. So it was finished during the exile or soon after.

ITS SOURCES
The writer names three older books: the Book of the Acts of Solomon, 11:41, the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel, 14:19, and the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah, 14:29. They are lost. Many think they were royal records kept at court.

THE PATTERN
Each king gets a short report card: when he began, how long he reigned, and whether he did right or evil in Yahweh's eyes. The kings of Israel all fail. Only a few kings of Judah do right.

480 YEARS
6:1 says Solomon started the temple 480 years after the Exodus. This number is the main reason many date the Exodus about 1446 BC.

THE QUESTION
Who put this book together, and how should we read the 480 years?

Every View
JEREMIAH 52 · 2 KINGS 24:18 TO 25:30 · EXODUS 1:11 · JUDGES 11:26

VIEW 1: JEREMIAH
The Talmud, Bava Batra 15a, says Jeremiah wrote Kings. Jeremiah lived when Jerusalem fell, and the last chapter of Kings is almost the same as Jeremiah 52. But Jeremiah was likely in Egypt, not Babylon, at the end, Jeremiah 43.

VIEW 2: A PROPHET IN EXILE
Many think a prophet or scribe among the exiles in Babylon put the book together from the royal records and the stories of the prophets. Its message fits a people asking why God let them lose everything.

VIEW 3: THE DEUTERONOMY SCHOOL
Martin Noth, in 1943, thought one writer in the exile wrote Deuteronomy through Kings as one history, judging every king by Deuteronomy's laws. Many critical scholars since think it came out in two or more editions.

THE 480 YEARS: EARLY DATE
Read as written, Solomon's fourth year, about 966 BC, plus 480 gives an Exodus about 1446 BC. Judges 11:26 says Israel had been in the land 300 years by Jephthah's day, which fits an early date.

THE 480 YEARS: LATE DATE
Many scholars date the Exodus about 1270 BC, because Exodus 1:11 names the city of Rameses, and they read 480 as twelve generations of forty years, a round number. Others answer that the name Rameses may be an updated place name.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
Kings is history told with a purpose: to show that God keeps His word, both His warnings and His promises. Even the last scene leaves hope, a son of David still alive and eating at the king's table, 2 Kings 25:29.

12

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS
Solomon's son Rehoboam is asked to lighten the people's heavy load. He listens to his young friends instead of the wise old advisers: My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. Ten tribes walk away and make Jeroboam king. Jeroboam is afraid they will go back to Jerusalem to worship, so he makes two golden calves.

REBELLION AGAINST REHOBOAM // 2 CHRONICLES 10:1–15

1 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone there to make him king. 2
When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard about this, he was still in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon and had been living ever since. 3 So they sent for Jer-oboam, and he and the whole assembly of Israel came to Rehoboam and said, 4 "Your father put a heavy yoke on us. But now you must lighten the burden of your father's service and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you."

5 Rehoboam answered, "Go away for three days and then return to me." So the people departed.

6 Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. "How do you advise me to respond to these people?" he
asked.

7 They replied, "If you will be a servant to these people and serve them this day, and if you will respond by speaking kind words to them, they will be your servants
forever."

8 But Rehoboam rejected the advice of the elders; instead, he consulted the young men who had grown up with him and served him. 9 He asked them, "What message do you advise that we send back to these people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke your father put on us'?"

10 The young men who had grown up with him replied, "This is how you should answer these people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you must make it lighter.' This is what you should tell them: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist! 11 Whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. Whereas my father scourged you with whips, I will scourge
you with scorpions.'"

12 After three days, Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, since the king had said, "Come back to me on the third day." 13 And the king answered the people harshly. He rejected the advice of the elders 14 and spoke to them as the young men had advised, saying,
"Whereas my father made your yoke heavy, I will add to your yoke. Whereas my father scourged you with whips, I will scourge you with scorpions."

15 So the king did not listen to the people, and indeed this turn of events was from Yahweh, to fulfill the word He had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah
the Shilonite.

THE KINGDOM DIVIDED // 2 CHRONICLES 10:16–19

16 When all Israel saw that the king had refused to listen to them, they answered the
king:

"What portion do we have in David,
and what inheritance in the son of Jesse?
To your tents, O Israel!
Look now to your own house, O David!"

So the Israelites went home, 17 but Rehoboam still reigned over the Israelites living in the cities of Judah.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent out Adoram, who was in charge of the forced labor, but all Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste and escaped to Jerusalem. 19 So to this day Israel has been in rebellion against
the house of David.

SHEMAIAH'S PROPHECY // 2 CHRONICLES 11:1–4

20 When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they summoned him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel.
Only the tribe of Judah followed the house of David.

21 And when Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mobilized the whole house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin—180,000 chosen warriors—to fight against the house of Israel and restore the kingdom to Rehoboam son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah
the man of God: 23 "Tell Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah, all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and the rest of the people 24 that this is what Yahweh says:
'You are not to go up and fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Each of you must return home, for this is My doing.'"

So they listened to the word of Yahweh and turned back according to the word of Yahweh.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHY THE KINGDOM SPLIT

What Happened

1 KINGS 11:9 TO 13 · 11:26 TO 40 · 12:1 TO 24 · 2 CHRONICLES 10 TO 11

GOD'S WARNING

Because Solomon turned to other gods, God said, I will tear the kingdom away from you, but not in your lifetime, and not all of it. One tribe would stay with his son for David's sake, 11:11 to 13.

THE TORN CLOAK

The prophet Ahijah met Jeroboam, one of Solomon's work bosses, tore his new cloak into twelve pieces, and told him to take ten, 11:29 to 31. Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, and he ran to Egypt, 11:40.

THE MEETING AT SHECHEM

After Solomon died, the people asked Rehoboam to lighten the heavy yoke his father put on them. The old advisers said, Serve them, and they will serve you forever. His young friends said, Tell them my little finger is thicker than my father's waist, 12:7 to 10.

THE ANSWER

Rehoboam took the young men's advice. Israel answered, What portion do we have in David? To your tents, O Israel! 12:16. Ten tribes made Jeroboam king. Only Judah, with Benjamin, stayed with Rehoboam, 12:20 to 21.

THE CIVIL WAR THAT DID NOT HAPPEN

Rehoboam gathered an army to win the tribes back, but God told the prophet Shemaiah, Do not fight your brothers, for this is My doing, 12:24. They listened.

THE QUESTION

Who caused the split: Solomon, Rehoboam, Jeroboam, or God?

Every View

1 KINGS 12:15 · 2 SAMUEL 19:41 TO 43 · 20:1 TO 2 · EZEKIEL 37:15 TO 28

VIEW 1: SOLOMON'S IDOLS

The Bible's main answer. God tore the kingdom away because Solomon worshiped other gods, 11:33. The split was God's judgment.

VIEW 2: REHOBOAM'S PRIDE

Rehoboam could have kept the kingdom with kind words, 12:7. He chose to show off his power. The Bible says the turn of events was from Yahweh, to fulfill His word, 12:15. God used a proud king's foolish choice.

VIEW 3: AN OLD CRACK

The north and the south had argued for a long time. They fought under David, 2 Samuel 2 to 4, and again when Sheba cried, We have no share in David, 2 Samuel 20:1. Rehoboam's heavy taxes broke an old crack wide open.

JEROBOAM'S FEAR

God promised Jeroboam a lasting house if he obeyed, 11:38. But he was afraid the people would go back to Jerusalem, so he made the golden calves, 12:26 to 30. The north never recovered from that sin.

WHAT CAME NEXT

The two kingdoms lasted side by side for about 200 years. Israel in the north fell to Assyria in 722 BC. Judah in the south fell to Babylon in 586 BC.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God kept His promise to David even through the split: a lamp always before Him in Jerusalem, 11:36. The prophets looked ahead to a day when the two would become one again under one King, Ezekiel 37:22 to 24.

JEROBOAM'S IDOLATRY

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. And from there he went out and built Penuel.
26 Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom might revert to the house of David. 27 If these people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem, their hearts will return to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah; then they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah."
28 After seeking advice, the king made two golden calves and said to the people,
"Going up to Jerusalem is too much for 1KI 12:26 [HEART] Jeroboam said in his heart that the people might go back to David's family. Fear in his heart led him to make the golden calves.

you. Here, O Israel, are your gods, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt." 29 One calf he set up in Bethel, and the other in Dan. 30 And this thing became a sin; the people walked as far as Dan to worship before one of the calves.
31 Jeroboam also built shrines on the high places and appointed from every class of people priests who were not Levites. 32
And Jeroboam ordained a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the feast that was in Judah, and he offered sacrifices on the altar; he made this offering in Bethel to sacrifice to the calves he had set up, and he installed priests in Bethel for the high places he had set up.
33 On the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing, Jer-oboam offered sacrifices on the altar he had set up in Bethel. So he ordained a feast for the Israelites, offered sacrifices
on the altar, and burned incense.

THE HIGH PLACE AT DAN

1 KINGS 12:25 TO 33 · JUDGES 18:30 TO 31 · AMOS 8:14 · 2 KINGS 10:29

The high place at Tel Dan. The stone platform with steps is at the right. The metal frame in the middle is modern and shows the size of the altar that once stood there. Photo Mboesch, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A big square platform of cut stone, about 60 feet on each side, with a wide stairway up its front. In front of it was a walled yard with a large altar. Diggers found small altars, three iron shovels for ashes, incense stands and bones of animals offered there.

HOW OLD IT IS

The diggers dated the first platform to the late 900s BC, the time of Jeroboam I. They think it was made bigger in the 800s BC, likely under Ahab, and the stairway was added in the 700s BC. Scholars still discuss who built each stage.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

At Tel Dan, in the far north of Israel by one of the springs of the Jordan River. Avraham Biran dug there from 1966 to 1999. The same dig found the Tel Dan Stele and the old gate of Laish.

THE GOLDEN CALF

Jeroboam set up one golden calf at Bethel and one at Dan, 12:29. He built houses on the high places and made priests who were not Levites, 12:31. This sin is named again and again for the rest of Kings.

Amos, about 170 years later, warned those who swear by the god of Dan, Amos 8:14. Even Jehu, who wiped out Baal worship, kept the calves at Bethel and Dan, 2 Kings 10:29.

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

A man of God from Judah cries out against Jeroboam's altar and names a future king, Josiah. The altar splits, and Jeroboam's hand dries up and is healed. The man of God was told not to eat there, but an old prophet lies to him and invites him to dinner. On the way home, a lion kills him and then just stands there next to the donkey.

MAP · 1 KINGS 12

The Kingdom Splits in Two

Israel in the north, Judah in the south, from about 930 BC

WHY IT SPLIT Rehoboam promised heavier burdens, so ten tribes made Jeroboam their king, 1 Kings 12:14 to 20. Judah and Benjamin stayed with David's family, 12:21.

MOVING CAPITALS Israel's capital moved from Shechem to Tirzah, then King Omri built Samaria, 1 Kings 16:24. Judah kept Jerusalem the whole time.

TWO GOLDEN CALVES So his people would not go to Jerusalem to worship, Jeroboam set up golden calves at Bethel and Dan, 1 Kings 12:28 to 29.

HOW IT ENDED Assyria destroyed Israel in 722 BC, 2 Kings 17. Babylon destroyed Judah and Jerusalem about 586 BC, 2 Kings 25.

The border between Israel and Judah moved over the years. This shows it about 900 BC. Borders are approximate.

JEROBOAM'S HAND WITHERS // 2 KINGS 23:4–20; 2 CHRONICLES 34:3–7

1 Suddenly, as Jeroboam was standing beside the altar to burn incense, there came a man of God from Judah to Bethel by the word of Yahweh. 2 And he cried out against the altar by the word of Yahweh,
"O altar, O altar, this is what Yahweh says:
'A son named Josiah will be born to the house of David, and upon you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense upon you, and human bones will be burned upon you.'"

3 That day the man of God gave a sign, saying, "Yahweh has spoken this sign:
'Surely the altar will be split apart, and the ashes upon it will be poured out.'"

4 Now when King Jeroboam, who was at the altar in Bethel, heard the word that the man of God had cried out against it, he stretched out his hand and said, "Seize him!" But the hand he stretched out toward him withered, so that he could not pull it back. 5 And the altar was split apart, and the ashes poured out, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of Yahweh.

6 Then the king responded to the man of God, "Intercede with Yahweh your God and pray for me that my hand may be restored."

So the man of God interceded with Yahweh, and the king's hand was restored to him as it was before.

7 Then the king said to the man of God,
"Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."

8 But the man of God replied, "If you were to give me half your possessions, I still would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water in this place. 9 For this is what I was commanded by the word of Yahweh: 'You must not eat bread or drink water or return by the way you came.'"

10 So the man of God went another way and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

THE OLD PROPHET AND THE MAN OF GOD

11 Now a certain old prophet was living in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the deeds that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. They also told their father the words that the man had spoken to the king.

12 "Which way did he go?" their father
asked.

And his sons showed him the way taken by the man of God, who had come from Judah. 13 So the prophet said to his sons,
"Saddle the donkey for me."

Then they saddled the donkey for him, and he mounted it 14 and went after the man of God. He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

"I am," he replied.

15 So the prophet said to the man of God,
"Come home with me and eat some bread."

16 But the man replied, "I cannot go home with you, and I will not eat bread or drink water with you in this place. 17 For I have been told by the word of Yahweh: 'You must not eat bread or drink water there or return by the way you came.'"

18 Then the prophet replied, "I too am a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the word of Yahweh, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, so that he may eat bread and drink water.'"

The old prophet was lying to him, 19 but the man of God went back with him, ate bread in his house, and drank water.

20 While they were sitting at the table, the word of Yahweh came to the prophet who had brought him back, 21 and the prophet cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, "This is what Yahweh says: 'Because you have defied the word of Yahweh and have not kept the commandment that Yahweh your God gave you, 22 but you went back and ate bread and drank water in the place where He told you not to do so, your body shall never reach the tomb of your fathers.'"

23 And after the man of God had finished eating and drinking, the old prophet who had brought him back saddled the donkey for him. 24 As he went on his way, a lion met him on the road and killed him, and his body was left lying in the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it.

25 And there were men passing by who saw the body lying in the road with the lion standing beside it, and they went and reported this in the city where the old prophet lived.

26 When the prophet who had brought him back from his journey heard this, he said, "It is the man of God who disobeyed the command of Yahweh. Therefore Yahweh has delivered him to the lion, and it has mauled him and killed him, according to the word that Yahweh had spoken to him."

27 Then the old prophet instructed his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled it, 28 and he went and found the body lying in the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it. The lion had not eaten the body or mauled the donkey. 29 So the old prophet lifted up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to his own city to mourn for him and bury him. 30 Then he laid the body in his own tomb, and they lamented over him, "Oh, my brother!"

31 After he had buried him, the prophet said to his sons, "When I die, you must bury me in the tomb where the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones, 32 for the message that he cried out by the word of Yahweh against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines on the high places in the cities of Samaria will surely come to pass."

33 Even after these events, Jeroboam did not repent of his evil ways, but again he appointed priests for the high places from every class of people. He ordained anyone who desired to be a priest of the high places. 34 And this was the sin of the house of Jeroboam that led to its extermination and destruction from the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Jeroboam's son is sick, so his wife puts on a disguise to visit the blind prophet Ahijah. It does not work. God tells Ahijah she is coming, and the news is bad. In Judah, Rehoboam's people build idol shrines, and Shishak king of Egypt carries off the treasures of the temple and the palace, and Solomon's gold shields. Rehoboam replaces them with bronze.

AHIJAH'S PROPHECY AGAINST JEROBOAM

1 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became ill, 2 and Jeroboam said to his wife, "Now get up, disguise yourself so they will not recognize you as my wife, and go to Shiloh. For Ahijah the prophet is there; it was he who spoke about my kingship over this people. 3 Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will become of the boy."

4 Jeroboam's wife did as instructed; she arose and went to Shiloh and arrived at Ahijah's house. Now Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were dim because of his age. 5 But Yahweh had said to Ahijah, "Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to ask you about her son, for he is ill. You are to say such and such to her, because when she arrives, she will be disguised."

6 So when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet entering the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you disguised? For I have been sent to you with bad news. 7 Go, tell Jeroboam that this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'I raised you up from among the people and

8 I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you. But you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and followed Me with all his heart, doing only what was right in My eyes.
9 You have done more evil than all who came before you. You have proceeded to make for yourself other gods and molten images to provoke Me, and you have flung Me behind your back. 10 Because of all this, behold, I am bringing disaster on the house of Jeroboam:

I will cut off from Jeroboam every male,
both slave and free,
in Israel;
I will burn up the house of Jeroboam
as one burns up dung until it is gone!
11 Anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies
in the city
will be eaten by dogs,
and anyone who dies in the field
will be eaten by the birds of the air.'
For Yahweh has spoken.

12 As for you, get up and go home. When your feet enter the city, the child will die.
13 All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. For this is the only one belonging to Jeroboam who will receive a proper burial, because only in him has Yahweh, the God of Israel, found any good in the house of Jeroboam.
14 Moreover, Yahweh will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will cut off the house of Jeroboam. This is the day—yes, even today! 15 For Yahweh will strike Israel as a reed is shaken in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land that He gave their fathers, and He will scatter them beyond the Euphrates, because they have made their Asherah poles, provoking Yahweh to anger. 16 So He will give Israel over on account of the sins Jeroboam has committed and has caused Israel to commit."

17 Then Jeroboam's wife got up and departed for Tirzah, and as soon as she stepped over the threshold of the house,
the boy died. 18 And they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word that Yahweh had spoken through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

how he waged war and how he reigned,

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Abijam rules Judah for three years and does not follow God with his whole heart. His son Asa is different. He gets rid of the idols and even removes his grandmother as queen mother for her Asherah pole. In Israel, Baasha kills Jeroboam's son and wipes out Jeroboam's family.

ABIJAM REIGNS IN JUDAH // 2 CHRONICLES 13:1–3

1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam became king of Judah, 2 and he reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

3 And Abijam walked in all the sins that his father before him had committed, and his heart was not as fully devoted to Yahweh his God as the heart of David his forefather had been. 4 Nevertheless, for the sake of David, Yahweh his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem by raising up a son to succeed him and to make Jerusalem strong. 5 For David had done what was right in the eyes of Yahweh and had not turned aside from anything Yahweh commanded all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was war between the houses of Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of Abijam's life.

7 As for the rest of the acts of Abijam, along with all his accomplishments, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

11 And Asa did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, as his father David had done. 12 He banished the male shrine prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. 13 He also removed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother because she had made a detestable Asherah pole. Asa chopped down the pole and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

GOLD TO BRONZE

Shishak carried off the gold shields Solomon had made, and Rehoboam made bronze shields to take their place, 14:26 to 27. Whenever the king went to the temple, the guards carried them and then put them back in the guardroom, 14:28. Gold to bronze in five years shows how fast the glory faded.

THE FIELD OF ABRAM?

One name in the Negev part of the list may read the Field of Abram. Some think it is the oldest mention of Abraham's name outside the Bible, but the reading is debated.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The list does not tell the story the way the Bible does, and scholars debate the route the army took. It does show that a pharaoh named Sheshonq raided this land at about the time 1 Kings gives.

WHAT IT IS

A giant carving on an outside wall of the temple of Amun at Karnak, in Luxor, Egypt. It shows Pharaoh Sheshonq I, the Bible's Shishak, and long rows of tied up prisoners. Each prisoner stands for a town, with its name written in an oval.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 925 BC. Sheshonq I ruled Egypt from about 943 to 922 BC. His raid came in the fifth year of Rehoboam, 14:25.

WHAT IT SAYS

Over 150 places are listed. Readable names include Megiddo, Taanach, Beth Shean, Gibeon and Mahanaim, plus many towns in the Negev. Jerusalem is not named in the parts that can still be read. 2 Chronicles 12:7 to 9 says Rehoboam humbled himself, and Shishak took the treasures instead of destroying the city.

MORE PROOF

A broken piece of a victory stone with Sheshonq's name was found at Megiddo in the 1920s. Jeroboam had once run away to Shishak in Egypt, 11:40.

WHO WAS SHISHAK?

He started a new family of pharaohs, the 22nd Dynasty, whose fathers had come to Egypt from Libya. Egypt had been weak for years, and he wanted to make it strong again.

THE BUBASTITE GATE

The carving is beside a temple gate called the Bubastite Portal, named after Bubastis, the Nile Delta city his family was said to come from. The rest of his building work there was never finished.

STILL ON THE WALL

It is still on the temple wall at Karnak, where visitors can see it today. Many of the town names have worn away in the 2,900 years since it was carved.

BOTH KINGDOMS

Many towns on the list, like Megiddo and Beth Shean, were in Jeroboam's northern kingdom, even though Jeroboam had once hidden at Shishak's court. The raid hit both kingdoms, not only Judah.

BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

vent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.

18 So Asa withdrew all the silver and gold that remained in the treasuries of the house of Yahweh and the royal palace. He entrusted it to his servants and sent them with this message to Ben-hadad son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus: 19 "Let there be a treaty between me and you as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. Now go and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

20 And Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, conquering Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah, and the whole land of Naphtali, including the region of Chinnereth.

21 When Baasha learned of this, he stopped fortifying Ramah and withdrew to Tirzah. 22 Then King Asa summoned all the men of Judah, with no exceptions, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and the timbers Baasha had used for building. And with these materials King Asa built up Geba of Benjamin, as well as Mizpah.

JEHOSHAPHAT SUCCEEDS ASA // 2 CHRONICLES 17:1–19

23 Now the rest of the acts of Asa, along with all his might, all his accomplishments, and the cities he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? In his old age, however, he became diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of his father David, and his son Jehoshaphat reigned in his place.

THE ARAD SHRINE

1 KINGS 15:14 · 22:43 · 2 KINGS 18:4 AND 22 · DEUTERONOMY 12:5 TO 14

The holy of holies from the shrine at Arad, with its two incense altars and standing stone, in the Israel Museum. Photo Yair Haklai, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A small temple inside a Judean fort at Arad in the Negev desert. It had a yard with an altar for burnt offerings and a small back room, a holy of holies, with two stone incense altars and at least one standing stone. The Leviticus Field Notes page shows the same shrine.

HOW OLD IT IS

Most now date the shrine to the 700s BC. It was used for only a short time and then carefully buried and covered over.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Yohanan Aharoni dug Tel Arad from 1962 to 1967. Writing on broken pottery found in the fort mentions the house of Yahweh, most likely the temple in Jerusalem.

HIGH PLACES

God told Israel to bring their offerings to the one place He would choose, Deuteronomy 12:5. But the people kept offering on local high places. Even good kings like Asa and Jehoshaphat did not remove them, 15:14 and 22:43.

WHO CLOSED IT?

Many think the shrine was closed when King Hezekiah removed the high places and told Judah to worship only in Jerusalem, 2 Kings 18:4 and 22. Others link it to Josiah's reforms or to other causes.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Arad is not named in 1 Kings, and its

shrine is later than Asa. It shows what a high place for Yahweh in Judah looked like, the kind 1 Kings says was not removed.

NADAB REIGNS IN ISRAEL

25 In the second year of Asa's reign over Judah, Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel, and he reigned two years. 26 And he did evil in the sight of Yahweh and walked in the way of his father and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

27 Then Baasha son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against Nadab, and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon of the Philistines while Nadab and all Israel were besieging the city. 28 In the third year of Asa's reign over Judah, Baasha killed Nadab and reigned in his place.

29 As soon as Baasha became king, he struck down the entire household of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam anyone who breathed, but destroyed them all according to the word that Yahweh had spoken through His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, 30 because of the sins Jeroboam had committed and had caused Israel to commit, and because he had provoked Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger.

31 As for the rest of the acts of Nadab, along with all his accomplishments, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? 32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their days.

BAASHA REIGNS IN ISRAEL

33 In the third year of Asa's reign over Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king of all Israel, and he reigned in Tirzah twenty-four years.

34 And Baasha did evil in the sight of Yahweh and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

Kings come and go fast in Israel. Zimri rules for seven days, then burns the palace down on himself. Omri builds a new capital, Samaria. His son Ahab marries Jezebel and builds a temple for Baal. He does more to anger God than all the kings before him.

JEHU'S PROPHECY AGAINST BAASHA

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha, saying: 2 "Even though I lifted you out of the dust and made you ruler over My people Israel,
you have walked in the way of Jeroboam
and have caused My people Israel to sin
and to provoke Me to anger by their sins.
3 So now I will consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat:

the city
will be eaten by dogs,
and anyone who dies in the field
will be eaten by the birds of the air."

5 As for the rest of the acts of Baasha, along with his accomplishments and might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? 6 And Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah, and his son Elah reigned in his place.

7 Moreover, the word of Yahweh came through the prophet Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, because of all the evil he had done in the sight of Yahweh, provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands and becoming like the house of Jeroboam, and also because Baasha had struck down the house of Jeroboam.

ard of his household there, Elah's servant Zimri, the commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. 10 So in the twenty-seventh year of Asa's reign over Judah, Zimri went in, struck Elah down, and killed him. And Zimri reigned in his place.

11 As soon as Zimri began to reign and was seated on the throne, he struck down the entire household of Baasha. He did not leave a single male, whether a kinsman or friend. 12 So Zimri destroyed the entire household of Baasha, according to the word that Yahweh had spoken against Baasha through Jehu the prophet. 13 This happened because of all the sins Baasha and his son Elah had committed and had caused Israel to commit, provoking Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their worthless idols.

14 As for the rest of the acts of Elah, along with all his accomplishments, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

ZIMRI REIGNS IN ISRAEL

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa's reign over Judah, Zimri reigned in Tirzah for seven days. Now the troops were encamped against Gibbethon of the Philistines, 16 and the people in the camp heard that Zimri had conspired against the king and struck him down. So there in the camp that very day, all Israel proclaimed Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel.

17 Then Omri and all the Israelites marched up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah. 18 When Zimri saw that the city was captured, he entered the citadel of the royal palace and burned it down upon himself. So he died 19 because of the sins he had committed, doing evil in the sight of Yahweh and following the example of Jeroboam and the sin he had committed and had caused Israel to commit.

20 As for the rest of the acts of Zimri and the treason he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

OMRI REIGNS IN ISRAEL

21 At that time the people of Israel were divided: Half of the people supported Tibni son of Ginath as king, and half supported Omri. 22 But the followers of Omri proved stronger than those of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.

23 In the thirty-first year of Asa's reign over Judah, Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned twelve years, six of them in Tirzah. 24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for 150 pounds of silver and built a city there, calling it Samaria after the name of Shemer, who had owned the hill.

25 But Omri did evil in the sight of Yahweh and acted more wickedly than all who were before him. 26 For he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in his sins, which he caused Israel to commit, provoking Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their worthless idols.

27 As for the rest of the acts of Omri, along with his accomplishments and the might he exercised, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

28 And Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria, and his son Ahab reigned in his place.

30 However, Ahab son of Omri did evil in the sight of Yahweh, more than all who were before him. 31 And as if it were not enough for him to walk in the sins of Jer-oboam son of Nebat, he even married Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and he then proceeded to serve and worship Baal.

32 First, Ahab set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he had built in Samaria. 33 Then he set up an Asherah pole. Thus Ahab did more to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel before him.

34 In Ahab's days, Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt Jericho. At the cost of Abiram his first-born he laid its foundation, and at the cost of Segub his youngest he set up its gates,
according to the word that Yahweh had spoken through Joshua son of Nun.

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

Elijah walks into the story and tells King Ahab: no rain until I say so. God feeds Elijah by a brook using ravens, then sends him to a widow in Zarephath. Her flour and oil do not run out. When her son dies, Elijah stretches out on him three times and prays, and the boy comes back to life.

THE RAVENS FEED ELIJAH

1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, who was among the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As surely as Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there will be neither dew nor rain in these years except at my word!"

2 Then a revelation from Yahweh came to Elijah: 3 "Leave here, turn eastward, and hide yourself by the Brook of Cherith, east of the Jordan. 4 And you are to drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

5 So Elijah did what Yahweh had told him, and he went and lived by the Brook of Cherith, east of the Jordan. 6 The ravens would bring him bread and meat in the morning and evening, and he would drink from the brook. 7 Some time later, however, the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land.

THE WIDOW OF ZAREPHATH

8 Then the word of Yahweh came to Elijah:
9 "Get up and go to Zarephath of Sidon, and stay there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to provide for
you."

10 So Elijah got up and went to Zarephath.
When he arrived at the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks. Elijah called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup, so that I may drink." 11
And as she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a piece of bread."

12 But she replied, "As surely as Yahweh your God lives, I have no bread—only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. Look, I am gathering a couple of sticks to take home and prepare a meal for myself and my son, so that we may eat
it and die."

13 "Do not be afraid," Elijah said to her. "Go and do as you have said. But first make me a small cake of bread from what you have, and bring it out to me. Afterward, make some for yourself and your son, 14
for this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel,
says: 'The jar of flour will not be ex-

15 So she went and did according to the word of Elijah, and there was food every day for Elijah and the woman and her household. 16 The jar of flour was not ex-

according to the word that Yahweh had spoken through Elijah.

ELIJAH RAISES THE WIDOW'S SON

17 Later, the son of the woman who owned the house became ill, and his sickness grew worse and worse, until no breath remained in him. 18 "O man of God," said the woman to Elijah, "what have you done to me? Have you come to remind me of my iniquity and cause the death of my son?"

19 But Elijah said to her, "Give me your
son."

So he took him from her arms, carried him
to the upper room where he was staying,
and laid him on his own bed. 20 Then he cried out to Yahweh, "O Yahweh my God, have You also brought tragedy on this widow who has opened her home to me, by causing her son to die?" 21 Then he stretched himself out over the child three times and cried out to Yahweh, "O Yahweh my God, please let this boy's life return to him!"

22 And Yahweh listened to the voice of Elijah, and the child's life returned to him, and he lived. 23 Then Elijah took the child,
brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. "Look, your son is alive," Elijah declared.

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

Three years later, Elijah challenges 450 prophets of Baal to a showdown on Mount Carmel. Two altars, two bulls, no matches. Baal's prophets shout and dance all day. Nothing. Elijah soaks his altar with water, prays one short prayer, and fire falls from heaven. Then it rains.

ELIJAH'S MESSAGE TO AHAB

1 After a long time, in the third year of the drought, the word of Yahweh came to Elijah: "Go and present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain upon the face of the earth."

2 So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. The famine was severe in Samaria, 3 and Ahab summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of the palace.

(Now Obadiah greatly feared Yahweh, 4 for when Jezebel had slaughtered the prophets of Yahweh, Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets and hidden them, fifty men per cave, providing them with food and water.)

5 Then Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go throughout the land to every spring and every valley. Perhaps we will find grass to keep the horses and mules alive so that we will not have to destroy any livestock."

6 So they divided the land to explore. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went the other way by himself.

7 Now as Obadiah went on his way, Elijah suddenly met him. When Obadiah recognized him, he fell facedown and said, "Is it you, my lord Elijah?"

8 "It is I," he answered. "Go tell your master, 'Elijah is here!'"

9 But Obadiah replied, "How have I sinned, that you are handing your servant over to Ahab to put me to death? 10 As surely as Yahweh your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent someone to search for you. When they said, 'He is not here,' he made that kingdom or nation swear that they had not found you. 11 And now you say, 'Go tell your master that Elijah is here!'

12 I do not know where the Spirit of Yahweh may carry you off when I leave you.

THE KURKH MONOLITH

1 KINGS 16:29 · 20:1 TO 34 · 22:1 TO 4

The Kurkh Monolith of Shalmaneser III in the British Museum. The king stands before the signs of his gods, and cuneiform writing covers the stone. Photo Osama Shukir Muhammed Amin, CC BY SA 4.0.

A MESSY STONE

The writing has many copying mistakes, so scholars use its numbers with care. Shalmaneser told this battle again on later stones, and the number of enemies he says he killed grows each time, from 14,000 to 25,000 and more.

NEAR THE BLACK OBELISK

It stands in the British Museum's Assyrian rooms, not far from the Black Obelisk, which shows Jehu, the man who killed Ahab's son Joram, 2 Kings 9.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Shalmaneser said he won, but he did not march on for years, so many think the battle was closer than he admits. The stone is one of the oldest mentions of a king of Israel outside the Bible.

WHAT IT IS

A tall stone with a carving of King Shalmaneser III of Assyria, covered in wedge shaped cuneiform writing about his wars.

HOW OLD IT IS

It tells about the battle of Qarqar in 853 BC and was made soon after, about 852 BC.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

At Kurkh, near Diyarbakir in southeast Turkey, by J. G. Taylor, the British consul there, in 1861. It is in the British Museum in London.

AHAB THE ISRAELITE

The stone says twelve kings fought Shalmaneser at Qarqar in Syria and names eleven of them. One is Ahab the Israelite, with 2,000 chariots and 10,000 soldiers, the most chariots of anyone. Some think 2,000 is a copying slip for 200. Either way, Ahab was a strong king.

THE BIBLE AND QARQAR

The Bible does not tell about this battle. But 1 Kings 22:1 says there were three years without war between Aram and Israel, and 20:34 says Ahab made a treaty with Ben hadad. Many think that is when Israel and Aram fought side by side against Assyria.

WHO ELSE FOUGHT

Hadadezer of Damascus brought 1,200 chariots, 1,200 horsemen and 20,000 soldiers. Others came from Hamath, Egypt and Arabia. Gindibu the Arab brought 1,000 camels, the first known mention of Arabs in any record.

AHAB IN THE BIBLE

1 Kings says Ahab built an ivory house and many cities, 22:39, and fought Aram more than once, chapters 20 and 22. A king with that many chariots fits a strong, rich Israel, even though the Bible cares more about his idols than his army.

A DATE TO COUNT FROM

Assyria named every year after an official, and one of those years had a solar eclipse that we know happened in 763 BC. Counting from there, Qarqar was 853 BC, so Ahab's reign can be dated within a few years. It is one of the anchor dates for all the kings of Israel and Judah.

DEMONIC

Then when I go and tell Ahab and he does not find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared Yahweh from my youth. 13 Was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel slaughtered the prophets of Yahweh? I hid a hundred prophets of Yahweh, fifty men per cave, and I provided them with food and water. 14 And now you say, 'Go tell your lord that Elijah is here!' He will kill me!"

15 Then Elijah said, "As surely as Yahweh of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will present myself to Ahab today."

ELIJAH ON MOUNT CARMEL

16 So Obadiah went to inform Ahab, who went to meet Elijah. 17 When Ahab saw Elijah, he said to him, "Is that you, O troubler of Israel?"

18 "I have not troubled Israel," Elijah replied, "but you and your father's house have, for you have forsaken the commandments of Yahweh and have followed the Baals. 19 Now summon all Israel to meet me on Mount Carmel, along with the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table."

20 So Ahab summoned all the Israelites and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel. 21 Then Elijah approached all the people and said, "How long will you waver between two opinions? If Yahweh is God, follow Him. But if Baal is God, follow him."

But the people did not answer a word.

22 Then Elijah said to the people, "I am the only remaining prophet of Yahweh, but Baal has four hundred and fifty prophets. 23 Get two bulls for us. Let the prophets of Baal choose one bull for themselves, cut it into pieces, and place it on the wood but not light the fire. And I will prepare the other bull and place it on the wood but not light the fire. 24 Then you may call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Yahweh. The God who answers by fire, He is God."

And all the people answered, "What you say is good."

25 Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Since you are so numerous, choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first. Then call on the name of your god, but do not light the fire."

26 And they took the bull that was given them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, shouting, "O Baal, answer us!"

But there was no sound, and no one answered as they leaped around the altar they had made.

27 At noon Elijah began to taunt them, saying, "Shout louder, for he is a god! Perhaps he is deep in thought, or occupied, or on a journey. Perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened!"

28 So they shouted louder and cut themselves with knives and lances, as was their custom, until the blood gushed over them.

29 Midday passed, and they kept on raving until the time of the evening sacrifice. But there was no response; no one answered, no one paid attention.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

ELIJAH ON MOUNT CARMEL

What Happened

1 KINGS 17:1 · 18:1 TO 46 · DEUTERONOMY 11:16 TO 17 · JAMES 5:17 TO 18

WHY BAAL?

Baal was the Canaanite storm god. People believed he sent the rain and made crops grow. Ahab and Jezebel made Baal worship the religion of Israel, 16:31 to 33.

THE DROUGHT

Elijah told Ahab there would be no dew or rain except at his word, 17:1. If Baal was the god of rain, three dry years were a public insult to him. Moses had warned that turning to other gods would shut up the sky, Deuteronomy 11:16 to 17.

1KI 18:18 [DEMONIC] Elijah challenges the prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel

1KI 18:19 [NOTE] MOUNT CARMEL is a ridge by the sea in northern Israel. See the Big Question pages Elijah on Mount Carmel, p.583.

1KI 18:21 [NOTABLE] Elijah's challenge still lands today. You cannot keep one foot in each camp. Pick a side. The people did not answer a word.

1KI 18:27 [NOTE] OCCUPIED. The Hebrew word may be a polite way of saying Baal had gone off to relieve himself. Elijah was mocking them.

THE HEART MIRACLES GOD SPEAKING

THE CHALLENGE
Elijah called 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of Asherah to Mount Carmel. Two bulls, two altars, no fire. The god who answers by fire, He is God, 18:24.

BAAL'S TURN
They shouted from morning until noon and danced around the altar. Elijah mocked them: Shout louder! Maybe he is busy, or traveling, or asleep! They cut themselves until the blood flowed. No answer, 18:26 to 29.

ELIJAH'S TURN
He rebuilt Yahweh's altar with twelve stones, dug a trench, and had twelve jars of water poured on it all. He prayed a short prayer. Fire fell and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones, the dust and the water, 18:30 to 38.

THE QUESTION
Was the fire a real miracle? And why did Elijah have the prophets of Baal killed?

Every View
DEUTERONOMY 13:1 TO 5 · 18:20 · LUKE 9:51 TO 56 · ROMANS 12:19

VIEW 1: A REAL MIRACLE
Most Christians and Jews through history read it as written: God sent fire from heaven in front of everyone. The people fell on their faces and said, Yahweh, He is God! 18:39.

VIEW 2: LIGHTNING SENT BY GOD
Some think God sent a bolt of lightning, the fire of God, Job 1:16, right before the storm that ended the drought, 18:45. Even then, the timing and the soaked altar make it no less a miracle.

VIEW 3: A STORY TOLD TO TEACH
Many critical scholars see the story as told to show Yahweh rules the rain and fire, not Baal, without saying how much happened as written.

THE KILLING OF BAAL'S PROPHETS
Elijah had the 450 prophets of Baal killed at the brook Kishon, 18:40. Under Moses' law, a prophet who led Israel to other gods was to die, Deuteronomy 13:5. Jezebel had already killed Yahweh's prophets, 18:4. Many see it as Israel's law, not personal revenge.

NOT FOR TODAY
When James and John wanted to call down fire like Elijah, Jesus turned and rebuked them, Luke 9:54 to 55. Christians do not use violence for God. Vengeance belongs to God, Romans 12:19.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
The question on Carmel is still the question: How long will you waver between two opinions? If Yahweh is God, follow Him, 18:21.

30 Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people approached him, and he repaired the altar of Yahweh
that had been torn down.
31 And Elijah took twelve stones, one for each tribe of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Yahweh had come and said,
"Israel shall be your name." 32 And with the stones, Elijah built an altar in the name of Yahweh. Then he dug a trench around the altar large enough to hold about four gallons of seed.
33 Next, he arranged the wood, cut up the bull, placed it on the wood, 34 and said,
"Fill four waterpots and pour the water on the offering and on the wood."
"Do it a second time," he said, and they did it a second time.
"Do it a third time," he said, and they did it
a third time.
35 So the water ran down around the altar
and even filled the trench.

ELIJAH'S PRAYER

36 At the time of the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet approached the altar and said, "O Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant and have done all these things at Your command. 37 Answer me, O Yahweh!
Answer me, so that this people will know that You, Yahweh, are God, and that You have turned their hearts back again."

1KI 18:36 [MIRACLE] Fire from heaven burns up Elijah's soaked sacrifice on Mount Carmel 1KI 18:37 [HEART] Elijah prayed that the people would know God was turning their hearts back to Him. The fire was for their hearts.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE MIRACLES DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

38 Then the fire of Yahweh fell and consumed the sacrifice, the wood, the stones, and the dust, and it licked up the water in the trench.

39 When all the people saw this, they fell facedown and said, "Yahweh, He is God! Yahweh, He is God!"

40 Then Elijah ordered them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let a single one escape." So they seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the Kishon Valley and slaughtered them there.

YAHWEH SENDS RAIN

41 And Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a heavy rain."

42 So Ahab went up to eat and drink. But Elijah climbed to the summit of Carmel, bent down on the ground, and put his face between his knees. 43 "Go and look toward the sea," he said to his servant.

So the servant went and looked, and he said, "There is nothing there."

Seven times Elijah said, "Go back."

44 On the seventh time the servant reported, "There is a cloud as small as a man's hand rising from the sea."

And Elijah replied, "Go and tell Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.'"

45 Meanwhile, the sky grew dark with clouds and wind, and a heavy rain began to fall. So Ahab rode away and went to Jezreel.

46 And the hand of Yahweh came upon Elijah, and he tucked his cloak into his belt and ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Jezebel threatens to kill Elijah, and the great prophet runs for his life and asks God to let him die. An angel feeds him, and he walks forty days to Mount Horeb. God is not in the wind, the earthquake or the fire. Then comes a still, small voice. Then Elijah throws his cloak on Elisha.

ELIJAH FLEES FROM JEZEBEL

1 Now Ahab told Jezebel everything that Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. 2 So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "May the gods deal with me, and ever so severely, if by this time tomorrow I have not made your life like the lives of those you killed!"

3 And Elijah was afraid and ran for his life. When he came to Beersheba in Judah, he left his servant there, 4 while he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness. He sat down under a broom tree and prayed that he might die. "I have had enough, Yahweh," he said. "Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers."

5 Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep.

Suddenly an angel touched him and said, "Get up and eat."

6 And he looked around, and there by his head was a cake of bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank and lay down again.

7 A second time the angel of Yahweh returned and touched him, saying, "Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you."

8 So he got up and ate and drank. And strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

YAHWEH SPEAKS TO ELIJAH AT HOREB

9 There Elijah entered a cave and spent the night. And the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

10 *"I have been very zealous for Yahweh, the God of Hosts," he replied, "but the Israelites
have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I am the only one left, and they are seeking my life as well."*

11 Then Yahweh said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before Yahweh. Behold, Yahweh is about to pass by."

And a great and mighty wind tore into the mountains and shattered the rocks before Yahweh, but Yahweh was not in the wind.

After the wind there was an earthquake,
but Yahweh was not in the earthquake.

12 After the earthquake there was a fire,
but Yahweh was not in the fire.

And after the fire came a still, small voice.

13 When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his

at the mouth of the cave. Suddenly a voice came to him and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

14 *"I have been very zealous for Yahweh, the God of Hosts," he replied, "but the Israelites
have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I am the only one left, and they are seeking my life as well."*

15 Then Yahweh said to him, "Go back by the way you came, and go to the Desert of Damascus. When you arrive, you are to anoint Hazael as king over Aram. 16 You are also to anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel and Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel-meholah to succeed you as prophet.

17 Then Jehu will put to death whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death whoever escapes the sword of Jehu.

18 Nevertheless, I have reserved seven thousand in Israel—all whose knees have not bowed to Baal and whose mouths have not kissed him."

- 1KI 19:11 [MIRACLE] Wind, earthquake, fire, then the still small voice
- 1KI 19:12 [NOTABLE] God was not in the wind, the earthquake or the fire. He came to a tired, scared prophet in a whisper. Big shows are not the only way God speaks.
- 1KI 19:12 [NOTE] A STILL, SMALL VOICE. The Hebrew can also mean a gentle whisper or a sound of thin silence. See the Big Question pages The Still Small Voice, p.586.
