1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in the land of Egypt—in Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis—and in the land of Pathros: 2 "This is what Yahweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the disaster that I brought against Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah; and behold, they lie today in ruins and desolation 3 because of the evil they have done.

They provoked Me to anger by continuing to burn incense and to serve other gods that neither they nor you nor your fathers ever knew. 4 Yet I sent you all My servants the prophets again and again, saying: 'Do not do this detestable thing that I hate.'

5 But they did not listen or incline their ears; they did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods. 6 Therefore My wrath and anger poured out and burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, so that they have become the desolate ruin they are today.

7 So now, this is what Yahweh God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Why are you doing such great harm to yourselves by cutting off from Judah man and woman, child and infant, leaving yourselves without a remnant? 8 Why are you provoking Me to anger by the work of your hands by burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to reside?

As a result, you will be cut off and will become an object of cursing and reproach among all the nations of the earth. 9 Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers and of the kings of Judah and their wives, as well as the wickedness that you and your wives committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10 To this day they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed My instruction or the statutes that I set before you and your fathers.

11 Therefore this is what Yahweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will set My face to bring disaster and to cut off all Judah. 12 And I will take away the remnant of Judah who have resolved to go to the land of Egypt to reside there; they will meet their end. They will all fall by the sword or be consumed by famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine; and they will become an object of cursing and horror, of vilification and reproach.

13 I will punish those who live in the land of Egypt, just as I punished Jerusalem, by sword and famine and plague, 14 so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone to reside in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, where they long to return and live; for none will return except a few fugitives."

THE STUBBORNNESS OF THE PEOPLE

15 Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, and all the women standing by—a great assembly—along with all the people living in the land of Egypt and in Pathros, said to Jeremiah, 16 "As for the word you have spoken to us in the name of Yahweh, we will not listen to you! 17 Instead, we will do everything we vowed to do: We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and offer drink offerings to her, just as we, our fathers, our kings, and our officials did in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem.

At that time we had plenty of food and good things, and we saw no disaster. 18

But from the time we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been perishing by sword and famine."

19 "Moreover," said the women, "when we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, was it without our husbands' knowledge that we made sacrificial cakes in her image and poured out drink offerings to her?"

CALAMITY FOR THE JEWS

20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were answering him, 21 "As for the incense you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem—you, your fathers, your kings, your officials, and the people of the land—did Yahweh not remember and bring this to mind? 22 So Yahweh could no longer endure the evil deeds and detestable acts you committed, and your land became a desolation, a horror, and an object of cursing, without inhabitant, as it is this day. 23 Because you burned incense and sinned against Yahweh and did not obey the voice of Yahweh or walk in His instruction, His statutes, and His testimonies, this disaster has befallen you, as you see today."

24 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, "Hear the word of Yahweh, all those of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. 25 This is what Yahweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: As for you and your wives, you have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands your words: 'We will surely perform our vows that we have made to burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and to pour out drink offerings to her.' Go ahead, then, do what you have promised! Keep your vows!

26 Nevertheless, hear the word of Yahweh, all you people of Judah living in Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by My great name, says Yahweh, that never again will any man of Judah living in the land of Egypt invoke My name or say, 'As surely as the Lord Yahweh lives.'

27 I am watching over them for harm and not for good, and every man of Judah who is in the land of Egypt will meet his end by sword or famine, until they are finished off.

28 Those who escape the sword will return from Egypt to Judah, few in number, and the whole remnant of Judah who went to dwell in the land of Egypt will know whose word will stand, Mine or theirs!

29 This will be a sign to you that I will punish you in this place, declares Yahweh, so that you may know that My threats of harm against you will surely stand. 30 This is what Yahweh says: Behold, I will deliver Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hands of his enemies who seek his life, just as I delivered Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the enemy who was seeking his life."

CHAPTER 45 IN 30 SECONDS

A short note to Baruch, who is tired and sad. God says, Are you looking for great things for yourself? Do not. I will give you your life wherever you go.

JEREMIAH'S MESSAGE TO BARUCH

1 This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch son of Neriah when he wrote these words on a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

2 "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: 3 You have said, 'Woe is me because Yahweh has added sorrow to my pain! I am worn out with groaning and have found no rest.'"

WHO HE WAS

Wahibre, king of Egypt about 589 to 570 BC. The Greeks called him Apries; the Bible calls him Hophra. He is the last pharaoh named in the Bible.

IN THE BIBLE

His army marched out while Babylon besieged Jerusalem, and the Babylonians pulled back for a while, 37:5. Jeremiah said Egypt would go home and Babylon would return, 37:7. It did.

WHAT HAPPENED TO HIM

The Greek writer Herodotus says his army rebelled and made his general Amasis king. Apries fought him, lost, and was killed by the Egyptian people a few years after 570 BC, Histories 2.161 to 169. Jeremiah 44:30 said he would be handed over to his enemies who sought his life.

WHAT IS LEFT

Statues, sphinxes, and ruins of his palace at Memphis carry his name.

4 Thus Jeremiah was to say to Baruch:
"This is what Yahweh says: Throughout the land I will demolish what I have built and uproot what I have planted. 5 But as for you, do you seek great things for yourself? Stop seeking! For I will bring disaster on every living creature, declares Yahweh, but wherever you go, I will grant your life
as a spoil of war."

The nations start here. Egypt marches to Carchemish and loses to Babylon. Egypt is a pretty heifer, but a horsefly from the north is coming.

They are terrified,
they are retreating;
their warriors are defeated,
they flee in haste without looking back;
terror is on every side!"
declares Yahweh.
6 "The swift cannot flee,
and the warrior cannot escape!
In the north by the River Euphrates
they stumble and fall.
7 Who is this, rising like the Nile,

8 Egypt rises like the Nile,
and its waters churn like rivers,

I will destroy the cities and their people.'

Let the warriors come forth—

14 "Announce it in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol; proclaim it in Memphis and Tahpanhes:
'Take your positions and prepare yourself,
for the sword devours those around you.'
15 Why have your warriors been laid low?
They cannot stand, for Yahweh has thrust them down.
16 They continue to stumble;
indeed, they have fallen over one another.
They say, 'Get up! Let us return to our people and to the land of our birth, away from the sword of the oppressor.'
17 There they will cry out:
'Pharaoh king of Egypt was all noise;
he has let the appointed time pass him by.'

whose name is Yahweh of Hosts,
there will come one who is like Tabor among the mountains and like Carmel by the sea.
19 Pack your bags for exile,

For Memphis will be laid waste, destroyed and uninhabited.
20 Egypt is a beautiful heifer,
but a gadfly from the north is coming against her.

They too will turn back;

1 This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet about the Philistines before Pharaoh struck down Gaza. 2 This is what Yahweh says:

"See how the waters are rising from the north and becoming an overflowing torrent.
They will overflow the land and its fullness,
the cities and their inhabitants.
The people will cry out,
and all who dwell in the land will wail 3 at the sound of the galloping hooves of stallions,
the rumbling of chariots,
and the clatter of their wheels.
The fathers will not turn back for their sons;
their hands will hang limp.

4 For the day has come to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon

CHAPTER 48 IN 30 SECONDS

Moab, proud and lazy like wine left on its dregs, finally gets shaken. Its god Chemosh will be put to shame. But in the latter days God will restore Moab's fortunes.

JUDGMENT ON MOAB // ISAIAH 15:1–9

1 Concerning Moab, this is what Yahweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, says:

"Woe to Nebo,
for it will be devastated.
Kiriathaim will be captured and disgraced;
the fortress will be shattered and dismantled.
2 There is no longer praise for Moab;
in Heshbon they devise evil against her:
'Come, let us cut her off from nationhood.'

You too, O people of Madmen, will be silenced;
the sword will pursue you.
3 A voice cries out from Horonaim:
'Devastation and great destruction!'
4 Moab will be shattered;
her little ones will cry out.

5 For on the ascent to Luhith
they weep bitterly as they go, and on the descent to Horonaim cries of distress resound over the destruction:
6 'Flee! Run for your lives!
Become like a juniper in the desert.'

7 Because you trust in your works and treasures,
you too will be captured, and Chemosh will go into exile with his priests and officials.
8 The destroyer will move against every city,
and not one town will escape.
The valley will also be ruined,
and the high plain will be destroyed,
as Yahweh has said.

9 Put salt on Moab,
for she will be laid waste;
her cities will become desolate,
with no one to dwell in them.
10 Cursed is the one who is remiss
in doing the work of Yahweh, and cursed is he who withholds
his sword from bloodshed.

11 Moab has been at ease from youth, settled like wine on its dregs;
he has not been poured from vessel to vessel or gone into exile.
So his flavor has remained the same,
and his aroma is unchanged.
12 Therefore behold, the days are coming,
declares Yahweh,
when I will send to him wanderers,
who will pour him out.
They will empty his vessels and shatter his jars.
13 Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, just as the house of Israel was ashamed
when they trusted in Bethel.

14 How can you say, 'We are warriors, mighty men ready for battle'?
15 Moab has been destroyed and its towns have been invaded;
the best of its young men have gone down in the slaughter, declares the King,
whose name is Yahweh of Hosts.
16 Moab's calamity is at hand,
and his affliction is rushing swiftly.
17 Mourn for him, all you who surround him,
everyone who knows his name;
tell how the mighty scepter is shattered—
the glorious staff!

18 Come down from your glory; sit on parched ground,
O daughter dwelling in Dibon,
for the destroyer of Moab has come against you;
he has destroyed your fortresses.

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

'What has happened?'
20 Moab is put to shame, for it has been shattered.
Wail and cry out!
Declare by the Arnon
that Moab is destroyed.
21 Judgment has come upon the high plain—upon Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath, 22 upon Dibon, Nebo, and Beth-diblathaim, 23 upon Kiriathaim, Beth-gamul, and Beth-meon,
24 upon Kerioth, Bozrah, and all the towns of Moab,
those far and near.
25 The horn of Moab has been cut off, and his arm is broken,"
declares Yahweh.
26 "Make him drunk,
because he has magnified himself against Yahweh;
so Moab will wallow in his own vomit,
and he will also become a laughing-
stock.
27 Was not Israel your object of ridicule?
Was he ever found among thieves?
For whenever you speak of him
you shake your head.
28 Abandon the towns and settle among the rocks,
O dwellers of Moab!
Be like a dove
that nests at the mouth of a cave.
29 We have heard of Moab's pomposity, his exceeding pride and conceit, his proud arrogance and haughtiness of heart.
30 I know his insolence,"
declares Yahweh,
"but it is futile.
His boasting is as empty as his deeds.
31 Therefore I will wail for Moab;
I will cry out for all of Moab;
I will moan for the men of Kir-heres.
32 I will weep for you, O vine of Sibmah, more than I weep for Jazer.
Your tendrils have extended to the sea;
they reach even to Jazer.
The destroyer has descended on your summer fruit and grape harvest.
33 Joy and gladness are removed from the orchard
and from the fields of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine from the presses;
no one treads them with shouts of joy;
their shouts are not for joy.
34 There is a cry from Heshbon to Elealeh;
they raise their voices to Jahaz, from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah;
for even the waters of Nimrim have dried up.
35 In Moab, declares Yahweh,
I will bring an end to those who make offerings on the high places
and burn incense to their gods.
36 Therefore My heart laments like a flute for Moab;
it laments like a flute for the men of Kirheres,
because the wealth they acquired has perished.
37 For every head is shaved and every beard is clipped;
on every hand is a gash,
and around every waist is sackcloth.
38 On all the rooftops of Moab and in the public squares,
everyone is mourning;
for I have shattered Moab like an unwanted jar,"
declares Yahweh.
39 "How shattered it is! How they wail!
How Moab has turned his back in shame!
Moab has become an object of ridicule and horror
to all those around him."
40 For this is what Yahweh says:

"Behold, an eagle swoops down and spreads his wings against Moab.

and the strongholds seized.

will be like the heart of a woman in labor.
42 Moab will be destroyed as a nation
because he vaunted himself against Yahweh.
43 Terror and pit and snare await you, O dweller of Moab,"
declares Yahweh.
44 "Whoever flees the panic will fall into the pit,
and whoever climbs from the pit will be caught in the snare.
For I will bring upon Moab
the year of their punishment,"
declares Yahweh.
45 "Those who flee will stand helpless in Heshbon's shadow, because fire has gone forth from Heshbon and a flame from within Sihon.
It devours the foreheads of Moab and the skulls of the sons of tumult.
46 Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh have perished;
for your sons have been taken into exile
and your daughters have gone into captivity.
47 Yet in the latter days I will restore Moab from captivity,"
declares Yahweh.

Here ends the judgment on Moab.

CHAPTER 49 IN 30 SECONDS

Ammon, Edom, Damascus, Kedar, Hazor and Elam each get a message. Edom will be like Sodom. Elam's bow will break, but God will restore Elam too.

JUDGMENT ON THE AMMONITES

1 Concerning the Ammonites, this is what Yahweh says:

"Has Israel no sons?
Is he without heir?
Why then has Milcom taken possession of Gad?
Why have his people settled in their cities?
2 Therefore, behold, the days are coming,
declares Yahweh,
when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah of the Ammonites.
It will become a heap of ruins,
and its villages will be burned.
Then Israel will drive out their dispossessors, says Yahweh.
3 Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai has been destroyed;
cry out, O daughters of Rabbah!
Put on sackcloth and mourn;
run back and forth within your walls,
for Milcom will go into exile together with his priests and officials.
4 Why do you boast of your valleys—
your valleys so fruitful,
O faithless daughter?
You trust in your riches and say,
'Who can come against me?'
5 Behold, I am about to bring terror upon you, declares the Lord Yahweh of Hosts,
from all those around you.
You will each be driven headlong,
with no one to regather the fugitives.
6 Yet afterward I will restore the Ammonites from captivity,"
declares Yahweh.

JUDGMENT ON EDOM // OBADIAH 1:1–14

7 Concerning Edom, this is what Yahweh of Hosts says:

"Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom decayed?
8 Turn and run!
Lie low, O dwellers of Dedan, for I will bring disaster on Esau
at the time I punish him.

and he will be unable to conceal himself.
His descendants will be destroyed along with his relatives and neighbors, and he will be no more.

11 Abandon your orphans; I will preserve their lives.
Let your widows trust in Me."

12 For this is what Yahweh says: "If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, can you possibly remain unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for you must drink it too. 13 For by Myself I have sworn, declares Yahweh, that Bozrah will become a desolation, a disgrace, a ruin, and a curse, and all her cities will be in ruins forever."

14 I have heard a message from Yahweh;
an envoy has been sent to the nations:
"Assemble yourselves to march against her!
Rise up for battle!"

15 "For behold, I will make you small among nations, despised among men.
16 The terror you cause and the pride of your heart
have deceived you,
O dwellers in the clefts of the rocks,
O occupiers of the mountain summit.
Though you elevate your nest like the eagle,
even from there I will bring you down,"
declares Yahweh.

17 "Edom will become an object of horror.
All who pass by will be appalled and will scoff at all her wounds.
18 As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown along with their neighbors,"
says Yahweh,
"no one will dwell there;
no man will abide there.
19 Behold, one will come up like a lion
from the thickets of the Jordan to the watered pasture.
For in an instant I will chase Edom from her land.
Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?
For who is like Me, and who can challenge Me?
What shepherd can stand against Me?"

20 Therefore hear the plans that Yahweh has drawn up against Edom
and the strategies He has devised against the people of Teman:
Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged away;
certainly their pasture will be made desolate because of them.
21 At the sound of their fall the earth will quake;
their cry will resound to the Red Sea.
22 Look! An eagle will soar and swoop down, spreading its wings over Bozrah.

will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

and destroy the people of the east!
29 They will take their tents and flocks,
their tent curtains and all their goods.
They will take their camels for themselves.
They will shout to them: 'Terror is on every side!'

30 Run! Escape quickly!
Lie low, O residents of Hazor,"
declares Yahweh,
"for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has drawn up a plan against you;
he has devised a strategy against you.

31 Rise up, advance against a nation at ease,
one that dwells securely,"
declares Yahweh.
"They have no gates or bars;
they live alone.

32 Their camels will become plunder,
and their large herds will be spoil.
I will scatter to the wind in every direction
those who shave their temples;
I will bring calamity on them from all sides,"
declares Yahweh.
33 "Hazor will become a haunt for jackals,
a desolation forever.
No one will dwell there;
no man will abide there."

JUDGMENT ON ELAM

34 This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah. 35 This is what Yahweh of Hosts says:

"Behold, I will shatter Elam's bow,
the mainstay of their might.
36 I will bring the four winds against Elam from the four corners of the heavens, and I will scatter them
to all these winds.
There will not be a nation
to which Elam's exiles will not go.
37 So I will shatter Elam before their foes,
before those who seek their lives.
I will bring disaster upon them,
even My fierce anger,"
declares Yahweh.
"I will send out the sword after them until I finish them off.
38 I will set My throne in Elam, and destroy its king and officials,"
declares Yahweh.
39 "Yet in the last days,
I will restore Elam from captivity,"
declares Yahweh.

Now Babylon itself. The hammer of the whole earth will be shattered. Israel's sheep were scattered, but the Redeemer is strong, Yahweh of Hosts is His name.

A PROPHECY AGAINST BABYLON

1 This is the word that Yahweh spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon and the land of the Chaldeans:

2 "Announce and declare to the nations;
lift up a banner and proclaim it;
hold nothing back when you say,
'Babylon is captured;
Bel is put to shame;
Marduk is shattered,
her images are disgraced,
her idols are broken in pieces.'

3 For a nation from the north will come against her;
it will make her land a desolation.
No one will live in it;
both man and beast will flee."

HOPE FOR ISRAEL AND JUDAH

4 "In those days and at that time,
declares Yahweh,
the children of Israel and the children of Judah will come together, weeping as they come,
and will seek Yahweh their God.
5 They will ask the way to Zion and turn their faces toward it.
They will come and join themselves to Yahweh
in an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten.

6 My people are lost sheep;
their shepherds have led them astray,
causing them to roam the mountains.
They have wandered from mountain to hill;
they have forgotten their resting place.
7 All who found them devoured them,
and their enemies said,
'We are not guilty,
for they have sinned against Yahweh,
their true pasture,
Yahweh, the hope of their fathers.'

8 Flee from the midst of Babylon;
depart from the land of the Chaldeans;
be like the he-goats that lead the flock.
9 For behold, I stir up and bring against Babylon
an assembly of great nations from the land of the north.
They will line up against her;
from the north she will be captured.
Their arrows will be like skilled warriors who do not return empty-handed.
10 Chaldea will be plundered;
all who plunder her will have their fill,"
declares Yahweh.

JER 50:9 [PROPHECY] An alliance of great nations from the north would capture Babylon → HISTORY: Cyrus, with Persians and Medes from the north, took Babylon in 539 BC. Found in the Nabonidus Chronicle and Cyrus Cylinder.

BABYLON'S FALL IS CERTAIN

11 "Because you rejoice, because you sing in triumph—
you who plunder My inheritance—because you frolic like a heifer treading grain
and neigh like stallions, 12 your mother will be greatly ashamed;
she who bore you will be disgraced.
Behold, she will be the least of the nations,
a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of Yahweh,
she will not be inhabited;
she will become completely desolate.
All who pass through Babylon will be horrified
and will hiss at all her wounds.

14 Line up in formation around Babylon,
all you who draw the bow!
Shoot at her! Spare no arrows!
For she has sinned against Yahweh.
15 Raise a war cry against her on every side!
She has thrown up her hands in surrender;
her towers have fallen;
her walls are torn down.

Since this is the vengeance of Yahweh, take out your vengeance upon her;
as she has done,
do the same to her.
16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one who wields the sickle at harvest time.
In the face of the oppressor's sword,
each will turn to his own people,
each will flee to his own land.

REDEMPTION FOR GOD'S PEOPLE

17 Israel is a scattered flock, chased away by lions.
The first to devour him
was the king of Assyria;
the last to crush his bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon."

18 Therefore this is what Yahweh of Hosts,
the God of Israel, says:

GOD SPEAKING

"I will punish the king of Babylon and his land
as I punished the king of Assyria.
19 I will return Israel to his pasture,
and he will graze on Carmel and Bashan;
his soul will be satisfied
on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days and at that time,
declares Yahweh,
a search will be made for Israel's guilt,
but there will be none,
and for Judah's sins,
but they will not be found;
for I will forgive
the remnant I preserve.

THE DESTRUCTION OF BABYLON

21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, and against the residents of Pekod.
Kill them and devote them to destruction.
Do all that I have commanded you,"
declares Yahweh.
22 "The noise of battle is in the land—
the noise of great destruction.
23 How the hammer of the whole earth lies broken and shattered!
What a horror Babylon has become
among the nations!

24 I laid a snare for you, O Babylon,
and you were caught before you knew it.
You were found and captured because you challenged Yahweh.
25 Yahweh has opened His armory and brought out His weapons of wrath, for this is the work of the Lord Yahweh of Hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the farthest border.
Break open her granaries;
pile her up like mounds of grain.
Devote her to destruction;
leave her no survivors.
27 Kill all her young bulls;
let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them, for their day has come—
the time of their punishment.

28 Listen to the fugitives and refugees from the land of Babylon, declaring in Zion the vengeance of Yahweh our God,
the vengeance for His temple.
29 Summon the archers against Babylon,
all who string the bow.
Encamp all around her;
let no one escape.
Repay her according to her deeds;
do to her as she has done.
For she has defied Yahweh,
the Holy One of Israel.
30 Therefore, her young men will fall in the streets,
and all her warriors will be silenced in that day,"
declares Yahweh.
31 "Behold, I am against you, O arrogant one,"
declares the Lord Yahweh of Hosts,
"for your day has come,
the time when I will punish you.
32 The arrogant one will stumble and fall with no one to pick him up.
And I will kindle a fire in his cities to consume all those around him."

33 This is what Yahweh of Hosts says:

"The sons of Israel are oppressed, and the sons of Judah as well.
All their captors hold them fast,
refusing to release them.
34 Their Redeemer is strong;
Yahweh of Hosts is His name.
He will fervently plead their case
so that He may bring rest to the earth,
but turmoil to those who live in Babylon.

35 A sword is against the Chaldeans,
declares Yahweh,
against those who live in Babylon,
and against her officials and wise men.
36 A sword is against her false prophets,
and they will become fools.
A sword is against her warriors,
and they will be filled with terror.
37 A sword is against her horses and chariots and against all the foreigners in her midst,
and they will become like women.
A sword is against her treasuries,

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN HISTORY GOD SPEAKING

and they will be plundered.
38 A drought is upon her waters,
and they will be dried up.
For it is a land of graven images,
and the people go mad over idols.

39 So the desert creatures and hyenas will live there and ostriches will dwell there.
It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah
along with their neighbors,"
declares Yahweh,
"no one will dwell there;
no man will abide there.

41 Behold, an army is coming from the north;
a great nation and many kings are stirred up
from the ends of the earth.
42 They grasp the bow and spear;
they are cruel and merciless.
Their voice roars like the sea,
and they ride upon horses,
lined up like men in formation against you, O Daughter of Babylon.
43 The king of Babylon has heard the report,
and his hands hang limp.
Anguish has gripped him,
pain like that of a woman in labor.

44 Behold, one will come up like a lion
from the thickets of the Jordan to the watered pasture.
For in an instant I will chase Babylon from her land.
Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?
For who is like Me, and who can challenge Me?
What shepherd can stand against Me?"

45 Therefore hear the plans that Yahweh has drawn up against Babylon
and the strategies He has devised against the land of the Chaldeans:
Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged away;
certainly their pasture will be made desolate because of them.
46 At the sound of Babylon's capture the earth will quake;
a cry will be heard among the nations.

JER 50:38 [DEMONIC] Babylon is a land that goes mad over idols

51

CHAPTER 51 IN 30 SECONDS

Babylon is a golden cup that made the nations drunk, and it will fall. Jeremiah writes it all on a scroll, has it read in Babylon, tied to a stone and thrown into the Euphrates.

JUDGMENT ON BABYLON

1 This is what Yahweh says:

"Behold, I will stir up against Babylon and against the people of Leb-kamai
the spirit of a destroyer.
2 I will send strangers to Babylon to winnow her and empty her land; for they will come against her from every side
in her day of disaster.

3 Do not let the archer bend his bow or put on his armor.
Do not spare her young men;
devote all her army to destruction!
4 And they will fall slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and pierced through in her streets.
5 For Israel and Judah have not been abandoned by their God, Yahweh of Hosts, though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel."

6 Flee from Babylon! Escape with your lives!
Do not be destroyed in her punishment.
For this is the time of Yahweh's vengeance;
He will pay her what she deserves.
7 Babylon was a gold cup in the hand of Yahweh, making the whole earth drunk.

The nations drank her wine;
therefore the nations have gone mad.

8 Suddenly Babylon has fallen and been shattered.
Wail for her; get her balm for her pain;
perhaps she can be healed.

9 "We tried to heal Babylon,
but she could not be healed.
Abandon her!
Let each of us go to his own land,
for her judgment extends to the sky and reaches to the clouds."

10 "Yahweh has brought forth our vindication;
come, let us tell in Zion
what Yahweh our God has accomplished."

11 Sharpen the arrows!
Fill the quivers!
Yahweh has aroused the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because His plan is aimed at Babylon to destroy her,
for it is the vengeance of Yahweh—vengeance for His temple.

12 Raise a banner against the walls of Babylon;
post the guard;
station the watchmen;
prepare the ambush.
For Yahweh has both devised and accomplished
what He spoke against the people of Babylon.
13 You who dwell by many waters,
rich in treasures,
your end has come;
the thread of your life is cut.

14 Yahweh of Hosts has sworn by Himself:

"Surely I will fill you up with men as with locusts, and they will shout in triumph over you."

PRAISE TO THE GOD OF JACOB // ISAIAH 25:1–12

15 Yahweh made the earth by His power;
He established the world by His wisdom and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.
16 When He thunders,
the waters in the heavens roar;
He causes the clouds to rise
from the ends of the earth.
He generates the lightning with the rain and brings forth the wind from His storehouses.

17 Every man is senseless and devoid of knowledge;
every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols.
For his molten images are a fraud,
and there is no breath in them.
18 They are worthless, a work to be mocked.
In the time of their punishment they will perish.
19 The Portion of Jacob is not like these,
for He is the Maker of all things, and of the tribe of His inheritance—
Yahweh of Hosts is His name.

BABYLON'S PUNISHMENT

20 "You are My war club,
My weapon for battle.
With you I shatter nations;
with you I bring kingdoms to ruin.
21 With you I shatter the horse and rider;
with you I shatter the chariot and driver.
22 With you I shatter man and woman;
with you I shatter the old man and the youth;
with you I shatter the young man and the maiden.
23 With you I shatter the shepherd and his flock;
with you I shatter the farmer and his oxen;
with you I shatter the governors and officials.

24 Before your very eyes I will repay Babylon and all the dwellers of Chaldea for all the evil they have done in Zion,"

Appoint a captain against her;
bring up horses like swarming locusts.
28 Prepare the nations for battle against her—

and all the lands they rule.

29 The earth quakes and writhes because Yahweh's intentions against Babylon stand:
to make the land of Babylon a desolation,

Their strength is exhausted;
they have become like women.
Babylon's homes have been set ablaze,

and messenger follows messenger,
to announce to the king of Babylon that his city has been captured from end to end.
32 The fords have been seized,

and the soldiers are terrified."

33 For this is what Yahweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, says:

"The Daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor
at the time it is trampled.
In just a little while her harvest time will come."

34 "Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured me;

He has set me aside like an empty vessel;
he has swallowed me like a monster;
he filled his belly with my delicacies

35 May the violence done to me and to my flesh

says the dweller of Zion.

"May my blood be on the dwellers of Chaldea," says Jerusalem.

36 Therefore this is what Yahweh says:

"Behold, I will plead your case and take vengeance on your behalf;
I will dry up her sea
and make her springs run dry.
37 Babylon will become a heap of rubble,
a haunt for jackals,
an object of horror and scorn,

JEREMIAH'S MESSAGE TO SERAIAH

59 This is the message that Jeremiah the prophet gave to the quartermaster Seraiah son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah in the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign. 60 Jeremiah had written on a single scroll about all the disaster that would come upon Babylon—all these words that had been written concerning Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud, 62 and say, 'O Yahweh, You have promised to cut off this place so that no one will remain—neither man nor beast. Indeed, it will be desolate forever.'

63 When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and cast it into the Euphrates. 64 Then you are to say, 'In the same way Babylon will sink and never rise again, because of the disaster I will bring upon her. And her people will grow weary.'"

Here end the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER 52 IN 30 SECONDS

The fall of Jerusalem told one more time: the walls broken, the temple burned, the bronze pillars hauled away. But the last scene is a small light: King Jehoiachin, a captive for 37 years, is set free to eat at the king's table.

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM RECOUNTED // PSALM 74:1–23; PSALM 79:1–13; 2 KINGS 24:18–20; 2 CHRONICLES 36:11–14

1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.

2 And Zedekiah did evil in the sight of Yahweh, just as Jehoiakim had done. 3 For because of the anger of Yahweh, all this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He finally banished them from His presence.

And Zedekiah also rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his entire army. They encamped outside the city and built a siege wall all around it. 5 And the city was kept under siege until King Zedekiah's eleventh year.

6 By the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine in the city was so severe that the people of the land had no food. 7 Then the city was breached; and though the Chaldeans had surrounded the city, all the men of war fled the city by night by way of the gate between the two walls near the king's garden.

They headed toward the Arabah, 8 but the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and his whole army deserted him.

9 The Chaldeans seized the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on Zedekiah.

10 There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he also killed all the officials of Judah. 11 Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon, where he kept him in custody until his dying day.

THE TEMPLE DESTROYED // 2 KINGS 25:8–17

12 On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign over Babylon, Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem. 13 He burned down the house of Yahweh, the royal palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem—every significant building. 14 And the whole army of the Chaldeans under the captain of the guard broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

15 Then Nebuzaradan captain of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon and the rest of the craftsmen. 16 But Nebuzaradan captain of the guard left behind some of the poorest of the land to tend the vineyards and fields.

17 Moreover, the Chaldeans broke up the bronze pillars and stands and the bronze Sea in the house of Yahweh, and they carried all the bronze to Babylon. 18 They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes, and all the articles of bronze used in the temple service. 19 The captain of the guard also took away the basins, censers, sprinkling bowls, pots, lampstands, pans, and drink offering bowls—anything made of pure gold or fine silver.

20 As for the two pillars, the Sea, the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the movable stands that King Solomon had made for the house of Yahweh, the weight of the bronze from all these articles was beyond measure. 21 Each pillar was 27 feet tall and 18 feet around; each was hollow, three inches thick. 22 The bronze capital atop one pillar was 7½ feet high, with a network of bronze pomegranates all around. The second pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar. 23 Each capital had ninety-six pomegranates on the sides, and a total of a hundred pomegranates were above the surrounding network.

24 The captain of the guard also took away Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest of second rank, and the three doorkeepers. 25 Of those still in the city, he took a court official who had been appointed over the men of war, as well as seven trusted royal advisers. He also took the scribe of the captain of the army, who had enlisted the people of the land, and sixty men who were found in the city.

26 Nebuzaradan captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 27 There at Riblah in the land of Hamath, the king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death. So Judah was taken into exile, away from its own land.

28 These are the people Nebuchadnezzar carried away:

in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;
29 in Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year,
832 people from Jerusalem;

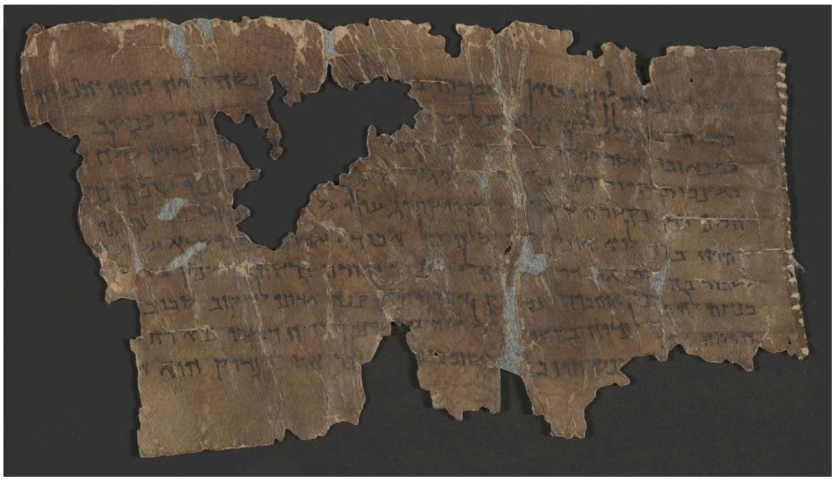
So in all, 4,600 people were taken away.

JEHOIACHIN RELEASED FROM PRISON // 2 KINGS 25:27–30

31 On the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the first year of the reign of Evil-merodach king of Babylon, he pardoned Jehoiachin king of Judah and released him from prison. 32 And he spoke kindly to Jehoiachin and set his throne above the thrones of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.



33 So Jehoiachin changed out of his prison clothes, and he dined regularly at the king's table for the rest of his life. 34 And the king of Babylon provided Jehoiachin a daily portion for the rest of his life, until the day of his death.

LAMENTATIONS

Hope in the Ashes

AUTHOR	The book does not name its writer. Tradition says Jeremiah, the weeping prophet. See Did Jeremiah Write It?
DATE	Soon after Babylon burned Jerusalem in 586 BC, about 586 to 550 BC.
WRITTEN TO	People whose world has fallen apart, and anyone who has lost something they thought could never be lost.
KEY VERSE	Lamentations 3:22 to 23. Because of the loving devotion of Yahweh we are not consumed, for His mercies never fail. They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness!

THE OLDEST COPIES OF LAMENTATIONS
The biggest piece of 4QLam, from Qumran Cave 4, copied about 30 to 1 BC. It holds Lamentations 1:1 to 18 and a few words of 2:5. Three more Lamentations scrolls were found near Qumran: 3QLam and 5QLam a and b. See The Lamentations Scrolls.

Historical Setting

Jerusalem has just fallen. After a long siege, the Babylonian army broke through the wall, burned the temple and the houses, and took the people away to Babylon, 2 Kings 25. Lamentations is five poems of grief written in the ashes. Four of them are alphabet poems. They do not explain the pain away. They bring it to God.

What Went Wrong

SIN. Jerusalem has sinned greatly, 1:8. The prophets had warned for years.
FALSE PROPHETS. Their visions were empty and misleading, 2:14.
BAD LEADERS. The sins of her prophets and the guilt of her priests, 4:13.

TRUSTING THE WRONG FRIENDS. Her lovers betrayed her, 1:2 and 1:19; the help they watched for never came, 4:17.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Lamentations is five sad songs about the fall of Jerusalem. In chapter 1 the city cries like a widow. In chapter 2 the poet sees that God Himself let the walls fall because of the people's sin. In chapter 3 one man tells his own pain, and right in the middle of the book he remembers that God's mercies are new every morning. Chapter 4 looks back at the terrible siege. Chapter 5 is a prayer: bring us back to You. It is not the book to read at a birthday party, but it is the book to read when your heart is broken.

Lamentations at a Glance

CH 1	THE CITY WEEPS Jerusalem alone like a widow, with no one to comfort her.
CH 2	THE WALLS FALL God lets His own city fall; pour out your heart to the Lord.
CH 3	THE MAN AND THE MORNING His worst days, then: His mercies are new every morning.
CH 4	THE GOLD GROWS DIM The siege, the leaders, and a promise of an end.
CH 5	A PRAYER Remember us. Restore us. Renew our days.

Where Jesus Shows Up

LAMENTATIONS 1:12 Is any sorrow like mine? The words are about Jerusalem, but Christians have long heard Jesus on the cross, where people passed by and mocked, Matthew 27:39.

LAMENTATIONS 3:22 TO 23 God's loyal love and new mercies. Jesus came full of grace and truth, John 1:14, and His mercy is new for anyone who comes to Him.

LAMENTATIONS 3:30 Let him offer his cheek to the one who strikes him. Jesus taught it, Matthew 5:39, and when He was struck He did not strike back, Matthew 26:67 and 1 Peter 2:23.

LAMENTATIONS 5:21 Restore us to Yourself. Jesus came to bring people back to God, 2 Corinthians 5:18 to 19.

DAUGHTER OF ZION
A loving name for Jerusalem and its people, used over and over in the book, like calling a city she.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

ALPHABET POEMS
Chapters 1, 2 and 4 have 22 verses, one for each Hebrew letter. Chapter 3 has 66, three for each letter. Chapter 5 has 22 verses but no letters.

PE BEFORE AYIN
In chapters 2, 3 and 4 the letter Pe comes before Ayin, the other way around from the usual order. In the oldest scroll, 4QLam, chapter 1 does it too. Some very old Hebrew alphabets written on pottery have the same order.

READ EVERY YEAR
Jews read Lamentations every year on Tisha B'Av, the day that remembers the fall of both temples. See Tisha B'Av.

ONE RED LINE
God's own words show up only once, when the poet remembers Him saying Do not be afraid, 3:57.

How Does It End?

With a prayer, not a happy ending. Restore us to Yourself, O Yahweh, 5:21. But the hope is real: about fifty years later Cyrus let the exiles go home, Ezra 1, and the temple was built again.

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Jerusalem sits alone like a widow and cries all night. Her friends are gone and nobody comes to the feasts anymore. The hardest part: she knows she brought it on herself.

HOW LONELY LIES THE CITY! // 2 KINGS 24:10–17

א ALEPH

1 How lonely lies the city,
once so full of people!
She who was great among the nations has become a widow.
The princess of the provinces has become a slave.

ב BETH

2 She weeps aloud in the night, with tears upon her cheeks.
Among all her lovers
there is no one to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her;
they have become her enemies.

ג GIMEL

3 Judah has gone into exile under affliction and harsh slavery;
she dwells among the nations
but finds no place to rest.
All her pursuers have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

ד DALETH

4 The roads to Zion mourn, because no one comes to her appointed feasts.
All her gates are deserted;
her priests groan,
her maidens grieve,
and she herself is bitter with anguish.

ה HE

5 Her foes have become her masters;
her enemies are at ease.
For Yahweh has brought her grief because of her many transgressions.
Her children have gone away
as captives before the enemy.

ו WAW

6 All the splendor has departed from the Daughter of Zion.
Her princes are like deer that find no pasture;
they lack the strength to flee
in the face of the hunter.

ז ZAYIN

7 In the days of her affliction and wandering Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers in days of old.
When her people fell into enemy hands
she received no help.
Her enemies looked upon her,
laughing at her downfall.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DID JEREMIAH WRITE IT?

The Weeping Prophet and the Weeping Book

LAMENTATIONS 1:1 · 3:1 · 3:53 · 4:20

WHY IT IS A QUESTION

The book never names its writer. In Christian Bibles it comes right after Jeremiah. In the Hebrew Bible it sits with the Writings, as one of the five short scrolls read on special days of the year.

THE OLD TRADITION

The Greek Bible starts the book with a line: Jeremiah sat weeping and sang this lament over Jerusalem. The Talmud says Jeremiah wrote his book, Kings and Lamentations, Bava Batra 15a. 2 Chronicles 35:25 says Jeremiah wrote laments for King Josiah.

THE CLUES FOR JEREMIAH

He saw Jerusalem fall. He wished his eyes were a fountain of tears, Jeremiah

LAM 1:1 [FULFILLS] Jerusalem's men would fall by the sword and Zion would sit in ruin ← IS 3:25-26 · MEDIUM p.1066

LAM 1:1 [NOTE] HOW! The Hebrew name of the book is Eikhah, How!, its first word. It is the cry of someone who cannot believe what happened. 2:1 and 4:1 start the same way.

LAM 1:1 [NOTE] AN ALPHABET POEM. Chapters 1 to 4 are written in the Hebrew alphabet, one letter after another, like an ABC poem. The small letters above the verses show it. Grief from A to Z.

LAM 1:2 [NOTE] NO ONE TO COMFORT HER. These words come five times in chapter 1, 1:2, 9, 16, 17 and 21. Her lovers are the nations Judah trusted instead of God, like Egypt.

LAM 1:3 [NOTE] INTO EXILE. Babylon took the people away in waves, in 605, 597 and 586 BC, Daniel 1 and 2 Kings 24 and 25. The poet writes after the last one, when Jerusalem burned.

LAM 1:5 [NOTE] WHY IT HAPPENED. The book is honest: Yahweh brought this grief because of her many sins. The prophets had warned for years, Jeremiah 25:8 to 11.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW

9:1. He was thrown into a pit, Jeremiah 38:6, like the man in 3:53 to 55. Both books talk about false prophets and about eyes flowing with tears, Jeremiah 14:17 and Lamentations 1:16.

Every View

2 CHRONICLES 35:25 · JEREMIAH 9:1 · JEREMIAH 38:6

VIEW 1: JEREMIAH WROTE IT

The view of the Greek Bible, the Talmud, the early church and many readers today. The man of chapter 3 sounds like Jeremiah's own life.

VIEW 2: SOMEONE NEAR JEREMIAH

Some think his helper Baruch or another singer from the same days wrote it. The book of Baruch, 4:5 to 5:9, also mourns Jerusalem as a mother who lost her children.

VIEW 3: MORE THAN ONE POET

Many scholars today think the five poems were written by different people soon after 586 BC. They point to the different styles of each chapter. Some note that 4:17 and 4:20 sound like someone who trusted Egypt and the king, which Jeremiah did not.

THE LAMENTS FOR JOSIAH

2 Chronicles 35:25 says those songs were written in the Laments. Most think that was a different collection, since this book is about the fall of the city, not Josiah's death.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The poems were written by someone who lived through the fall of Jerusalem and grieved it before God. Jews have read them as Scripture for more than 2,000 years, and Christians have read them from the very start.

ח HETH

8 Jerusalem has sinned greatly;
therefore she has become an object of scorn.
All who honored her now despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness;
she herself groans and turns away.

■ LAM 1:8 [NOTE] SHAMED. Jerusalem is pictured as a woman disgraced in front of everyone. It is a picture of shame, not a story about one person.

ט TETH

9 Her uncleanness stains her skirts;
she did not consider her end.
Her downfall was astounding;
there was no one to comfort her.
Look, O Yahweh, on my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!

For she has seen the nations

They have traded their treasures for food to keep themselves alive.
Look, O Yahweh, and consider,
for I have become despised.

I am churning within;
my heart is pounding within me,
for I have been most rebellious.

For my groans are many,
and my heart is faint.

THE LAMENT FOR UR

LAMENTATIONS 1:1 · 1:16 · 2:7 · 2:9

A clay tablet with a Sumerian lament over the ruin of Ur, about 1800 BC. Louvre, Paris, AO 6446. Photo Dror Feitelson, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A long Sumerian poem that weeps over the city of Ur, which many link with Abraham's home, Genesis 11:31, after enemies from Elam destroyed it about 2000 BC. It is one of five city laments, with Sumer and Ur, Nippur, Eridu and Uruk.

HOW OLD IT IS

Written soon after Ur fell, about 2000 BC. The clay copies we have were mostly made about 1900 to 1700 BC, more than a thousand years before Lamentations.

WHAT IT SAYS

The goddess Ningal weeps over her city like a mother. The gods leave their temples, the gates are broken, and people lie in the streets. It sounds a lot like Jerusalem weeping in chapter 1.

WHAT IS DIFFERENT

In the Sumerian poems the gods' storm is a decree that cannot be explained. Lamentations gives a reason, sin, 1:5 and 1:18, says God is righteous, and holds on to His loyal love, 3:22. The answer is to turn back to Him, 3:40.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Weeping over a fallen city was an old way to grieve. God let His people use the songs of their world to bring their pain to Him.

O Daughter of Jerusalem?
To what can I liken you,
that I may console you,
O Virgin Daughter of Zion?
For your wound is as deep as the sea.
Who can ever heal you?

נ NUN

14 The visions of your prophets were empty and deceptive;
they did not expose your guilt
to ward off your captivity.
The burdens they envisioned for you were empty and misleading.

ס SAMEKH

15 All who pass by clap their hands at you in scorn.
They hiss and shake their heads
at the Daughter of Jerusalem:
"Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty,
the joy of all the earth?"

פ PE

16 All your enemies
open their mouths against you.
They hiss and gnash their teeth,
saying, "We have swallowed her up.
This is the day for which we have waited.
We have lived to see it!"

ע AYIN

17 Yahweh has done what He planned;
He has accomplished His decree,
which He ordained in days of old;
He has overthrown you without pity.
He has let the enemy gloat over you and exalted the horn of your foes.

LAM 2:14 [NOTE] EMPTY VISIONS. The false prophets said peace, peace, when there was no peace, Jeremiah 6:14 and 23:16 to 17. They told people what they wanted to hear.

LAM 2:15 [NOTE] SHAKE THEIR HEADS. Passersby mocked the city, the way they later shook their heads at Jesus on the cross, Matthew 27:39.

THE LAMENTATIONS SCROLLS

LAMENTATIONS 1:1 TO 18 · 2:5 · 3:53 TO 62 · 4:5 TO 5:17

A second piece of 4QLam, with more of Lamentations 1, copied about 30 to 1 BC. Photo Israel Antiquities Authority, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

WHAT THEY ARE

Four Dead Sea Scrolls with parts of Lamentations: 3QLam from Cave 3, 4QLam from Cave 4, and 5QLam a and b from Cave 5, in caves near Qumran by the Dead Sea.

HOW OLD THEY ARE

4QLam was copied about 30 to 1 BC. The others were copied between about 30 BC and AD 70. That is about 1,000 years older than the oldest complete Hebrew Bible.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

All three caves were found in 1952. The small scrolls from Caves 3 and 5 were published in 1962. Frank Moore Cross published 4QLam in 2000.

WHAT IS IN THEM

4QLam: 1:1 to 18 and a little of 2:5.
3QLam: parts of 1:10 to 12 and 3:53 to 62.
5QLam a: parts of chapters 4 and 5.
5QLam b: a few words of 4:17 to 20.

PE BEFORE AYIN

In 4QLam, the Pe verse of chapter 1 comes before the Ayin verse, 1:17 then 1:16. That is the same order as chapters 2, 3 and 4 in every Hebrew Bible. Some old Hebrew alphabets written on pottery put Pe first too.

YAHWEH, NOT LORD

In a few places 4QLam writes Yahweh where the later Hebrew text has Adonai, Lord. The copyist may have changed it, or the later text may have. Either way, it shows how carefully scholars compare every letter.

SMALL DIFFERENCES

4QLam has spelling differences and a few words that are not the same. At 1:11 the verse does not start with Kaph, so the alphabet slips there. Most of the changes are small.

WHAT THEY SHOW

The poems were copied as Scripture before Jesus' time, and the words are mostly the same as the Hebrew Bible today. Lamentations was being read and grieved over at Qumran more than five hundred years after Jerusalem burned.

THE HEART

צ TZADE

18 The hearts of the people cry out to the Lord.
O wall of the Daughter of Zion, let your tears run down like a river day and night.
Give yourself no relief,
and your eyes no rest.

ק KOPH

19 Arise, cry out in the night from the first watch of the night.
Pour out your heart like water in the presence of the Lord.
Lift up your hands to Him for the lives of your children who are fainting from hunger on the corner of every street.

ר RESH

20 Look, O Yahweh, and consider:
Whom have You ever treated like this?
Should women eat their offspring,
the infants they have nurtured?
Should priests and prophets be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

ש SIN

21 Both young and old lie together in the dust of the streets.
My young men and maidens have fallen by the sword.
You have slain them in the day of Your anger;
You have slaughtered them without compassion.

ת TAW

22 You summoned my terrors on every side,
as for the day of an appointed feast.
In the day of Yahweh's anger
no one escaped or survived;
my enemy has destroyed
those I nurtured and reared.

LAM 2:19 [HEART] Pour out your heart like water before the Lord. God wants your honest tears, not a brave face.

LAM 2:19 [NOTE] POUR OUT YOUR HEART. Not a brave face. God invites honest tears, prayed out loud, for the children and for the city, Psalm 62:8.

LAM 2:20 [NOTE] THE WORST OF THE SIEGE. The poet asks God to look at how bad the hunger became. Moses had warned that a siege could bring this, Deuteronomy 28:53. The Bible does not hide it, but it tells it with grief, not detail.

THE BIG QUESTION

WHERE WAS GOD?

When Life Falls Apart

LAMENTATIONS 2:17 · 3:1 TO 33 · 5:19 TO 22

THE QUESTION

When terrible things happen, people ask: where was God? Lamentations asks it too, more honestly than almost any book in the Bible. Why have You forgotten us forever? 5:20.

GOD WAS NOT ABSENT

The book says God was there the whole time. He warned for years, and He kept His word, 2:17. The fall of Jerusalem did not happen because He was weak or asleep.

SIN IS REAL

The city admits: I rebelled, 1:18. Some pain comes from our own choices or the choices of people around us, and Lamentations does not hide that.

What Lamentations Teaches

PSALM 13:1 TO 2 · PSALM 62:8 · ROMANS 8:28 · JOHN 11:35

TWO WAYS TO HEAR IT

Readers differ. Some stress that the pain was God's just discipline. Others hear mostly honest protest and mystery. Lamentations itself holds both.

BUT NOT ALL PAIN

The Bible also says not every hurt is a punishment. Job suffered though he was blameless, Job 1:1, and Jesus said the blind man's blindness was not because of sin, John 9:3. So be careful when you look at someone else's pain.

HONEST GRIEF IS FAITH

The poet cries, complains and asks hard questions, and it is all prayer. Pour out your heart like water before the Lord, 2:19. Bringing your pain to God is trusting Him.

HOPE IN THE MIDDLE

Right in the center of the book: His mercies are new every morning, 3:22 to 23. Hope does not come after the grief is over. It comes in the middle of it.

GOD DOES NOT ENJOY IT

He does not afflict from His heart, 3:33.

LAM 2:22 [NOTE] THE DAY OF YAHWEH'S ANGER. Chapter 2 ends with no comfort at all. Lamentations lets grief be grief before it talks about hope.

NOTABLE

Discipline is not the same as cruelty. Jesus Himself wept at a friend's grave, John 11:35.

WHAT TO DO

Tell God the truth, remember His faithfulness, wait for Him quietly, 3:26, and ask Him to bring you back, 5:21.

3

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

One man tells about his worst days, when it felt like God had turned against him. Then, right in the middle of the book, the lights come on: His mercies are new every morning. Great is Your faithfulness!

THE PROPHET'S AFFLICTIONS

א ALEPH

1 I am the man who has seen affliction under the rod of God's wrath.
2 He has driven me away and made me walk in darkness instead of light.
3 Indeed, He keeps turning His hand against me all day long.

ב BETH

4 He has worn away my flesh and skin;
He has shattered my bones.
5 He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
6 He has made me dwell in darkness like those dead for ages.

ג GIMEL

7 He has walled me in so I cannot escape;
He has weighed me down with chains.
8 Even when I cry out and plead for help,
He shuts out my prayer.
9 He has barred my ways with cut stones;
He has made my paths crooked.

ד DALETH

10 He is a bear lying in wait,
a lion hiding in ambush.
11 He forced me off my path and tore me to pieces;
He left me without help.
12 He bent His bow
and set me as the target for His arrow.

ה HE

13 He pierced my kidneys with His arrows.
14 I am a laughingstock to all my people;
they mock me in song all day long.
15 He has filled me with bitterness;
He has intoxicated me with wormwood.

ו WAW

16 He has ground my teeth with gravel and trampled me in the dust.
17 My soul has been deprived of peace;
I have forgotten what prosperity is.
18 So I say, "My strength has perished, along with my hope from Yahweh."

THE PROPHET'S HOPE

ז ZAYIN

19 Remember my affliction and wandering, the wormwood and the gall.
20 Surely my soul remembers and is humbled within me.
21 Yet I bring this back to my heart,
and therefore I have hope:

ח HETH

22 Because of the loving devotion of Yahweh we are not consumed, for His mercies never fail.
23 They are new every morning;
great is Your faithfulness!
24 "Yahweh is my portion," says my soul,
"therefore I will hope in Him."

ט TETH

25 Yahweh is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him.

■ LAM 3:1 [NOTE] I AM THE MAN. Now one man speaks, like someone who stands for the whole people. Many think it is Jeremiah, who was beaten, jailed and thrown into a pit, Jeremiah 20:2, 37:15 and 38:6. See Did Jeremiah Write It?

■ LAM 3:15 [NOTE] WORMWOOD. A very bitter plant. Wormwood and gall, 3:19, mean the bitterest taste of life. At the cross they offered Jesus wine mixed with gall, Matthew 27:34.

LAM 3:21 [NOTABLE] Hope in the middle of the ruins. God's mercy does not run out, and every morning brings a fresh supply. The source of the hymn Great Is Thy Faithfulness.

■ LAM 3:21 [TEXT] MY HEART. The Hebrew says I bring this back to my heart. Many Bibles say I call this to mind. The meaning is the same: he chooses what to think about.

■ LAM 3:22 [NOTE] THE TURN. Right in the middle of the book, hope shows up. Loving devotion is chesed, God's loyal love. See Great Is Thy Faithfulness.

■ LAM 3:24 [NOTE] MY PORTION. The priests got no land; Yahweh was their portion, Numbers 18:20. With everything lost, he still has God.

THE HEART NOTABLE

26 It is good to wait quietly for the salvation of Yahweh.

THE BIG QUESTION

GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS

A Hymn From the Ruins

LAMENTATIONS 3:21 TO 26

THE BRIGHTEST VERSES

In the darkest book of the Bible, the brightest lines sit right in the middle: His mercies never fail. They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness! 3:22 to 23.

THE WORDS

Loving devotion is chesed, God's loyal love that keeps His promises. Mercies is rachamim, a word close to the Hebrew for a mother's womb, the tender love a mother has for her baby. Faithfulness is emunah, being steady and true.

WE ARE NOT CONSUMED

The Hebrew of 3:22 can be read two ways: we are not consumed, like the KJV, or the loyal love of Yahweh never ends, like many newer Bibles. Both say the same thing: God's love is still here.

The Story of the Song

PSALM 36:5 · PSALM 89:1 · PSALM 30:5 · 2 TIMOTHY 2:13

THE HYMN

Thomas Chisholm wrote the words of Great Is Thy Faithfulness in 1923, and William Runyan wrote the music. Chisholm was a plain man who was often sick and never rich. He said the song came from seeing God's faithfulness day after day, not from one big event.

HOW IT SPREAD

Moody Bible Institute loved the song, and later George Beverly Shea sang it at Billy Graham's meetings around the world. Today it is one of the most loved hymns in churches everywhere.

MORNING BY MORNING

The hymn's line morning by morning new mercies I see comes straight from 3:23. Every new day is a fresh supply, like the manna that came again each morning.

FOR YOU

You do not need a perfect day to sing it. The man who first wrote 3:23 was sitting in the ashes of his city.

27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke while he is still young.

י YODH

28 Let him sit alone in silence,
for Yahweh has laid it upon him.
29 Let him bury his face in the dust—
perhaps there is still hope.
30 Let him offer his cheek to the one who would strike him;
let him be filled with reproach.

כ KAPH

31 For the Lord will not cast us off forever.
32 Even if He causes grief, He will show compassion
according to His abundant loving devotion.
33 For He does not afflict from His heart or grieve the sons of men.

ל LAMEDH

34 To crush underfoot
all the prisoners of the land, 35 to deny a man justice before the Most High, 36 to subvert a man in his lawsuit—
of these the Lord does not approve.

GOD'S JUSTICE

מ MEM

37 Who has spoken and it came to pass, unless the Lord has ordained it?
38 Do not both adversity and good come from the mouth of the Most High?
39 Why should any mortal man complain,

- LAM 3:26 [NOTE] WAIT QUIETLY. Hope is not pretending it does not hurt. It is waiting for God to act, even when you cannot see Him yet.
- LAM 3:30 [NOTE] OFFER HIS CHEEK. Jesus taught the same, Matthew 5:39, and lived it when He was struck and did not strike back, Matthew 26:67 and 1 Peter 2:23.
- LAM 3:31 [NOTE] NOT FOREVER. Hard seasons have an end. God may let grief come, but His compassion is bigger, 3:32.
- LAM 3:33 [HEART] God does not hurt people from His heart. Even when He disciplines, it is not what He wants most.
- LAM 3:33 [TEXT] FROM HIS HEART. The Hebrew says millibbo, from His heart. The KJV says willingly. God disciplines, but hurting people is not what He wants.
- LAM 3:38 [NOTE] ADVERSITY AND GOOD. Nothing happens outside God's rule, Job 2:10 and Isaiah 45:7. That is hard to hear, but it also means no pain is out of His reach.

THE HEART GOD SPEAKING

in view of his sins?

נ NUN

40 Let us examine and test our ways,
and turn back to Yahweh.
41 Let us lift up our hearts and hands
to God in heaven:
42 "We have sinned and rebelled;
You have not forgiven."

ס SAMEKH

43 You have covered Yourself in anger and pursued us;
You have killed without pity.
44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud that no prayer can pass through.
45 You have made us scum and refuse
among the nations.

פ PE

46 All our enemies
open their mouths against us.
47 Panic and pitfall have come upon us—devastation and destruction.
48 Streams of tears flow from my eyes over the destruction of the daughter of my people.

ע AYIN

49 My eyes overflow unceasingly, without relief,
50 until Yahweh
looks down from heaven and sees.
51 My eyes bring grief to my soul because of all the daughters of my city.

צ TZADE

52 Without cause my enemies hunted me like a bird.
53 They dropped me alive into a pit and cast stones upon me.
54 The waters flowed over my head,
and I thought I was going to die.

ק KOPH

55 I called on Your name, O Yahweh, out of the depths of the Pit.
56 You heard my plea:
"Do not ignore my cry for relief."
57 You drew near when I called on You;
You said, "Do not be afraid."

ר RESH

58 You defend my cause, O Lord;
You redeem my life.
59 You have seen, O Yahweh, the wrong done to me;
vindicate my cause!
60 You have seen all their malice,
all their plots against me.

ש SIN

61 O Yahweh, You have heard their insults,
all their plots against me—
62 the slander and murmuring of my assailants
against me all day long.
63 When they sit and when they rise,
see how they mock me in song.

ת TAW

64 You will pay them back what they deserve, O Yahweh, according to the work of their hands.
65 Put a veil of anguish over their hearts;
may Your curse be upon them!
66 You will pursue them in anger and exterminate them from under Your heavens, O Yahweh.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

The gold has lost its shine and the city has run out of food. The priests and prophets led everyone the wrong way. Still, the chapter ends with a promise: the punishment will not last forever.

■ LAM 3:40 [NOTE] TEST OUR WAYS. The way back to God starts with an honest look in the mirror, 2 Corinthians 13:5.
■ LAM 3:41 [HEART] Lift up your hearts and your hands to God. Real prayer comes from the inside out.
■ LAM 3:53 [NOTE] INTO A PIT. Jeremiah was let down into a muddy cistern, Jeremiah 38:6. Many read this as Jeremiah's own story. Others hear a picture of the whole people sinking.
■ LAM 3:55 [NOTE] OUT OF THE DEPTHS. The poet looks back on a time God answered him in the pit, 3:55 to 58, the same God he is praying to now.
■ LAM 3:57 [NOTE] DO NOT BE AFRAID. The poet quotes what God said to him, so those words are red. It is one of the most repeated things God says in the Bible, Isaiah 41:10.
■ LAM 3:64 [NOTE] PAY THEM BACK. The poet asks God to judge, instead of taking revenge himself, Romans 12:19.

- LAM 4:10 [FULFILLS] In siege, people would eat their own children ← LEV 26:29 p.217
- LAM 4:10 [NOTE] THE HUNGER OF THE SIEGE. Babylon surrounded the city for about a year and a half, 2 Kings 25:1 to 3, until there was no food at all. Moses had warned of this, Leviticus 26:29. The poet tells it as a broken heart, not as a story to linger on.

LAMENTATIONS 2:3 · 4:11 · 2 KINGS 25:8 TO 10 · JEREMIAH 52:13

Area G in the City of David, Jerusalem. The House of Ahiel, burned in 586 BC, is at the bottom with its stone pillars. The steel beams are modern. Photo Deror_avi, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

A layer of ash, burned wood and fallen stones on the slope of the City of David, from the day Babylon set Jerusalem on fire, 2 Kings 25:9. He burned every great house, the Bible says.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Yigal Shiloh dug here from 1978 to 1985. On the slope he found houses buried under the ruins: the Burnt Room, the House of Ahiel and the House of the Bullae.

WHAT WAS FOUND

Charred beams, ash, broken jars, and arrowheads of iron and bronze. Some bronze arrowheads are a kind used by armies from the north and east, like Babylon's. In the House of the Bullae lay about fifty clay seals, baked hard by the fire, so they lasted. One names Gemaryahu son of Shaphan, Jeremiah 36:10.

MORE FIRE

Other digs found the same fire layer in other parts of the city, including a big building in the Givati Parking Lot, where scientists studied how the fire started and spread through the building.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

A prayer from all the people: Remember us, Lord. Twenty two verses, like the alphabet, but no ABCs this time. It ends with the big ask: bring us back and make our days new again.

A PRAYER FOR RESTORATION

1 Remember, O Yahweh, what has happened to us.
Look and see our disgrace!
2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,
our houses to foreigners.
3 We have become fatherless orphans;
our mothers are widows.
4 We must buy the water we drink;
our wood comes at a price.
5 We are closely pursued;
we are weary and find no rest.

6 We submitted to Egypt and Assyria to get enough bread.
7 Our fathers sinned and are no more,
but we bear their punishment.
8 Slaves rule over us;
there is no one to deliver us from their hands.
9 We get our bread at the risk of our lives because of the sword in the wilderness.
10 Our skin is as hot as an oven with fever from our hunger.

11 Women have been ravished in Zion, virgins in the cities of Judah.
12 Princes have been hung up by their hands;
elders receive no respect.
13 Young men toil at millstones;
boys stagger under loads of wood.
14 The elders have left the city gate;
the young men have stopped their music.
15 Joy has left our hearts;
our dancing has turned to mourning.
16 The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!

17 Because of this, our hearts are faint;
because of these, our eyes grow dim—18 because of Mount Zion, which lies desolate, patrolled by foxes.

19 You, O Yahweh, reign forever;
Your throne endures from generation to generation.
20 Why have You forgotten us forever?
Why have You forsaken us for so long?
21 Restore us to Yourself, O Yahweh, so we may return;
renew our days as of old, 22 unless You have utterly rejected us and remain angry with us beyond measure.

THE BIG QUESTION

TISHA B'AV

The Saddest Day of the Year

LAMENTATIONS 1:4 · 5:1 TO 22

WHAT IT IS

Tisha B'Av means the ninth of Av, a month in summer. It is the saddest day of the Jewish year, a fast day that remembers the fall of both temples: Solomon's temple, burned by Babylon in 586 BC, and the second temple, burned by Rome in AD 70.

WHY THE NINTH

2 Kings 25:8 says the seventh day of the month and Jeremiah 52:12 says the tenth. The rabbis taught that the burning began late on the ninth and went into the

LAM 5:1 [NOTE] NO ALPHABET. Chapter 5 has 22 verses like the alphabet, but the letters are gone. It is a prayer of the whole people, we and us.

LAM 5:7 [NOTE] OUR FATHERS SINNED. The people felt they were paying for their parents' sins. In 5:16 they also say: we have sinned. Ezekiel 18 talks about this.

LAM 5:11 [NOTE] THE WOMEN OF ZION. War brought cruel harm to the women of the city. The Bible names it so we know God sees it, and does not tell more.

tenth, so the fast is on the ninth, Taanit 29a. The Mishnah lists five sad events on that day, Taanit 4:6.

How Lamentations Is Read

2 KINGS 25:8 · JEREMIAH 52:12 · ZECHARIAH 8:19

HOW IT IS KEPT

People fast, sit on the floor or on low stools, and chant Lamentations to a slow, sad tune. Many also read kinot, later sad poems.

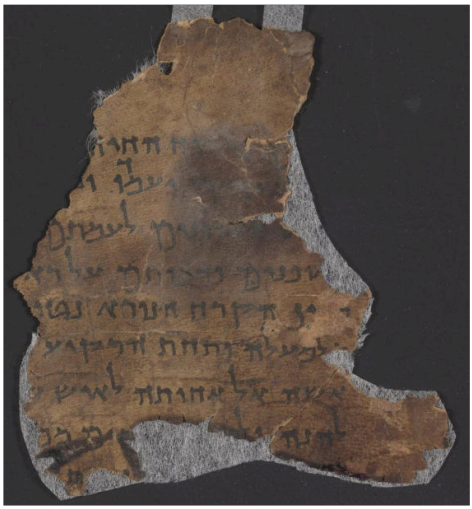
FASTS IN THE BIBLE

God's people fasted in the fifth month, the month of Av, for seventy years, Zechariah 7:3 and 7:5. God promised that fast would one day become a joyful feast, 8:19.

THE LAST VERSE

When the book is read, 5:21 is read again after 5:22, so it ends with Restore us, not with God's anger.

FOR CHRISTIANS



Jesus wept over Jerusalem and warned that the second temple would fall, Luke 19:41 to 44. Some churches read Lamentations in the days before Easter, as they think about His suffering.

Historical Setting

Babylon has already taken Judah's king, Jehoiachin, and thousands of leading people away, 2 Kings 24. Ezekiel, a young priest, lives with the exiles by the Kebar canal in Babylonia. Back home, Zedekiah rules Jerusalem, and false prophets promise the exile will end soon. For about seven years Ezekiel's message is: No, Jerusalem will fall. In 586 BC it does, and his message turns to hope.

What Went Wrong

IDOLS IN THE TEMPLE. Secret idols, women weeping for Tammuz, and men bowing to the sun, all in the temple, 8:5 to 16.
CHILD SACRIFICE. They gave their own children to idols, 16:20 to 21, 20:26, 20:31 and 23:37 to 39. God calls them My children.
FALSE PROPHETS. They said peace when there was no peace, 13:10.
BAD SHEPHERDS. Leaders who fed themselves and not the sheep, 34:2 to 3.
BLAMING THE PARENTS. The fathers have eaten sour grapes, 18:2. God says each person answers for himself.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Ezekiel is the book of the glory of God. It opens with a priest in exile seeing God's throne on wheels in Babylon: God is not stuck in Jerusalem. For years Ezekiel warns that Jerusalem will fall, often by acting out the message, and in a vision he watches God's glory leave the temple because of the idols there. Then the city falls. From then on his message is hope: God will be the Shepherd Himself, give His people a new heart, raise dry bones to life and defeat every enemy. The book ends with the glory coming back to a new temple and a river of life flowing out of it.

Ezekiel at a Glance

CH 1 to 3	THE CALL God's throne in Babylon; Ezekiel eats a scroll and becomes a watchman.
CH 4 to 24	JERUSALEM WILL FALL Signs acted out, the glory leaves the temple, the siege begins.
CH 25 to 32	THE NATIONS Ammon, Moab, Edom, Philistia, Tyre, Sidon and Egypt.
CH 33 to 39	HOPE The city falls; a Shepherd, a new heart, dry bones, Gog defeated.
CH 40 to 48	THE NEW TEMPLE The glory returns, a river of life, and a city called Yahweh Is There.

Where Jesus Shows Up

EZEKIEL 1:26 A figure like a man on God's throne. Christians see the Son, who became a man, John 1:14, and whom John saw shining like this, Revelation 1:13 to 16.

EZEKIEL 17:22 TO 23 A tender twig from David's tree grows into a great tree where birds nest. Jesus told of a kingdom that grows the same way, Matthew 13:31 to 32.

EZEKIEL 34:11 TO 16, 23 I Myself will search for My sheep. Jesus said, I am the good shepherd, John 10:11, and came to seek and save the lost, Luke 19:10.

EZEKIEL 36:26 TO 27 A new heart and God's Spirit inside. Jesus told Nicodemus you must be born of water and the Spirit, John 3:5.

EZEKIEL 47:1 TO 12 A river of life from the temple. Jesus offered living water, John 7:37 to 39, and Revelation 22:1 to 2 shows the river flowing from His throne.

Then you will know that I am Yahweh, or words close to it, comes more than 60 times. God's goal is that people know Him.

SON OF MAN
God calls Ezekiel son of man about 93 times. Jesus used the same title for Himself, from Daniel 7:13.

THE ACTING PROPHET
He lay on his side for months, cooked siege bread, shaved with a sword and dug through a wall, all as live sermons.

How Does It End?

With a city named YAHWEH IS THERE, 48:35. The glory that left in chapter 10 is home for good. The exiles did go home under Cyrus, Ezra 1, but the river and the city point further ahead, to Revelation 21 and 22.

MIRACLES BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Ezekiel is sitting by a canal in Babylon when the sky opens. He sees a storm, four living creatures with four faces each, wheels full of eyes, and above it all a throne. He does the only sensible thing: he falls on his face.

EZEKIEL'S VISION BY THE RIVER KEBAR // PSALM 137:1–9

1 In the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was among the exiles by the River Kebar, the heavens opened and I saw visions of God.

2 On the fifth day of the month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—
3 the word of Yahweh came directly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the River Kebar. And there Yahweh's hand was upon him.

THE FOUR LIVING CREATURES

4 I looked and saw a whirlwind coming from the north, a great cloud with fire flashing back and forth and brilliant light all around it. In the center of the fire was a gleam like amber, 5 and within it was the form of four living creatures.

And this was their appearance: They had a human form, 6 but each had four faces and four wings. 7 Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the hooves of a calf, gleaming like polished bronze.

8 Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. All four living creatures had faces and wings, 9 and their wings were touching one another. They did not turn as they moved; each one went straight ahead.

10 The form of their faces was that of a man, and each of the four had the face of a lion on the right side, the face of an ox on the left side, and also the face of an eagle. 11 Such were their faces.

Their wings were spread upward; each had two wings touching the wings of the creature on either side, and two wings covering its body. 12 Each creature went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they moved.

13 In the midst of the living creatures was the appearance of glowing coals of fire, or of torches. Fire moved back and forth between the living creatures; it was bright, and lightning flashed out of it. 14 The creatures were darting back and forth as quickly as flashes of lightning.

THE FOUR WHEELS

15 When I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each creature with its four faces. 16 The workmanship of the wheels looked like the gleam of beryl, and all four had the same likeness. Their workmanship looked like a wheel within a wheel. 17 As they moved, they went in any of the four directions, without pivoting as they moved. 18 Their rims were high and awesome, and all four rims were full of eyes all around. 19 So as the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them, and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose.

20 Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, and the wheels would rise alongside them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. 21 When the creatures moved, the wheels moved; when the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still; and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose alongside them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

- EZK 1:1 [NOTE] THE THIRTIETH YEAR. Probably Ezekiel's age. Levites began their work at the tabernacle at thirty, Numbers 4:3. Instead of a temple, he got a canal in Babylon, and God showed up there.
- EZK 1:2 [NOTE] KING JEHOIACHIN. Babylon took him away in 597 BC, with Ezekiel and thousands more, 2 Kings 24:12 to 16. Babylonian tablets list his food rations, see The Jehoiachin Ration Tablets, 2 Kings, p.662.
- EZK 1:3 [NOTE] THE RIVER KEBAR. A big canal near the city of Nippur in Babylonia. Tablets from Nippur name a canal Kabaru, which may mean the great canal.
- EZK 1:4 [MIRACLE] Ezekiel sees a storm and four living creatures
- EZK 1:5 [NOTE] LIVING CREATURES. In chapter 10 Ezekiel learns they are cherubim, 10:20. John sees four like them around God's throne, Revelation 4:6 to 8. See The Wheels and the Living Creatures.
- EZK 1:10 [ALLUDED TO] The New Testament refers to this → REV 4:7 p.2090
- EZK 1:16 [NOTE] WHEELS WITHIN WHEELS. Wheels that roll any way without turning. God's throne is not stuck in Jerusalem; it goes wherever He wants, even to Babylon.

MIRACLES

THE DIVINE GLORY

22 Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was the likeness of an awesome expanse, gleaming like crystal. 23 And under the expanse, their wings stretched out toward one another. Each one also had two wings covering its body.

24 When the creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings like the roar of many waters, like the voice of the Almighty, like the tumult of an army.

When they stood still, they lowered their wings. 25 And there came a voice from above the expanse over their heads as they stood still with their wings lowered.

26 Above the expanse over their heads was the likeness of a throne with the appearance of sapphire, and on the throne high above was a figure like that of a man. 27 From what seemed to be His waist up, I saw a gleam like amber, with what looked like fire within it all around. And from what seemed to be His waist down, I saw what looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded Him.

28 The appearance of the brilliant light all around Him was like that of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yahweh. And when I saw it, I fell facedown and heard a voice speaking.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE WHEELS AND THE LIVING CREATURES

What Did Ezekiel See?

EZEKIEL 1:4 TO 28 · 10:1 TO 22

WHAT HE SAW

A storm cloud full of fire. Four living creatures, each with four faces, a man, a lion, an ox and an eagle, and four wings. Beside each, a wheel within a wheel, rims full of eyes. Above them a shining dome, and above that a throne with a figure like a man, glowing like fire, with a rainbow around Him.

HOW EZEKIEL TELLS IT

He keeps saying like, looked like, the appearance of the likeness. He is describing something words cannot hold. At the end he says what it was: the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yahweh, 1:28.

THEY WERE CHERUBIM

When he sees them again he says, I knew that they were cherubim, 10:20. Cherubim guarded Eden, Genesis 3:24, and gold cherubim stood over the ark, Exodus 25:18 to 22.

Every View

REVELATION 4:6 TO 8 · ISAIAH 6:2 · EXODUS 25:18 TO 22

VIEW 1: GOD'S THRONE CHARIOT

Most Jewish and Christian readers see a moving throne, a royal chariot for the King of heaven. Jewish tradition calls it the merkavah, the chariot. The point: God is not stuck in Jerusalem. He came to the exiles in Babylon.

VIEW 2: PICTURES

Many read each detail as a picture: four faces for the best of creation, wings and wheels for God's speed and reach, eyes for His knowing everything, 2 Chronicles 16:9.

VIEW 3: THE FOUR GOSPELS

From Irenaeus, about AD 180, many Christians linked the four faces with the four Gospels. Jerome's version became the most common: Matthew the man, Mark the lion, Luke the ox and John the eagle.

MODERN IDEAS

In the 1970s a few books claimed Ezekiel saw a spaceship. Bible scholars of every kind reject it: Ezekiel says it was the glory of Yahweh, 1:28, and he fell on his face to worship.

A WARNING FROM THE RABBIS

The Mishnah says the chariot should not be taught even to one student, unless he is already wise enough to understand it on his own, Hagigah 2:1. They took it very seriously.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Ezekiel saw the glory of God, and it knocked him to the ground. John saw

EZK 1:26 [MIRACLE] A likeness of a man on a throne with a rainbow around Him something like it, Revelation 4. God is greater than words can tell.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

God calls Ezekiel to speak to a stubborn people. They may listen or they may not, but either way they will know a prophet was among them. Then a hand holds out a scroll with writing on both sides.

EZEKIEL'S CALL

1 "Son of man," He said to me, "stand up on your feet and I will speak to you." 2 And as He spoke to me, the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard Him speaking to me.

3 "Son of man," He said to me, "I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against Me. To this very day they and their fathers have rebelled against Me. 4 They are obstinate and hard-hearted children. I am sending you to them, and you are to say to them,
'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.'

5 And whether they listen or refuse to listen—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet has been among them.

6 But you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not be afraid, though briers and thorns surround you, and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words or dismayed by their presence, though they are a rebellious house. 7 But speak My words to them, whether they listen or refuse to listen, for they are rebellious.

8 And you, son of man, listen to what I tell you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I give you."

9 Then I looked and saw a hand reaching out to me, and in it was a scroll, 10 which He unrolled before me. And written on the front and back of it were words of lamentation, mourning, and woe.

3

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Ezekiel eats the scroll, and it tastes like honey. God makes him a watchman: warn the people, and you have done your job. Then he is told to stay home and stay quiet until God opens his mouth.

EZEKIEL EATS THE SCROLL // REVELATION 10:1–11

1 "Son of man," He said to me, "eat what you find here. Eat this scroll, then go and speak to the house of Israel."

2 So I opened my mouth, and He fed me
the scroll.

3 "Son of man," He said to me, "eat and fill your stomach with this scroll I am giving
you."

So I ate, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

4 Then He said to me, "Son of man, go now to the house of Israel and speak My words to them. 5 For you are not being sent to a people of unfamiliar speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel— 6 not to the many peoples of unfamiliar speech and difficult language whose words you cannot understand.
Surely if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you.

7 But the house of Israel will be unwilling to listen to you, since they are unwilling to listen to Me. For the whole house of Israel is hard-headed and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I will make your face as hard as their faces, and your forehead as hard as their foreheads. 9 I will make your forehead like a diamond, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or dismayed at their presence, even though they are a rebellious house."

- EZK 2:1 [NOTE] SON OF MAN. God calls Ezekiel this about 93 times. It means a human being, a mortal, standing before God's glory. Jesus took the title for Himself, from Daniel 7:13.
- EZK 2:4 [TEXT] HARD HEARTED. The Hebrew says strong of heart, chizqei lev. The KJV says stiffhearted. Many Bibles say stubborn.
- EZK 2:8 [ALLUDED TO] The New Testament refers to this → REV 10:9-10 p.2096
- EZK 2:9 [NOTE] A SCROLL. Written on front and back, full of laments and woe, 2:10. Scrolls were usually written on one side. Compare Revelation 5:1.

- EZK 3:3 [NOTE] SWEET AS HONEY. God's word tasted sweet even though the message was hard, Psalm 119:103. John ate a scroll too, sweet in the mouth, Revelation 10:9 to 10.

ARCHAEOLOGY GOD SPEAKING

10 "Son of man," He added, "listen carefully to all the words I speak to you, and take them to heart. 11 Go to your people, the exiles; speak to them and tell them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says,' whether they listen or refuse to listen."

12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a great rumbling sound behind me: "Blessed be the glory of Yahweh in His dwelling place!" 13 It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures brushing against one another and the sound of the wheels beside them, a great rumbling sound.

14 So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness and in the anger of my spirit, with the strong hand of Yahweh upon me. 15 I came to the exiles at Tel-abib who dwelt by the River Kebar. And for seven days I sat where they sat and remained there among them, overwhelmed.

A WATCHMAN FOR ISRAEL

16 At the end of seven days the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. Whenever you hear a word from My mouth, give them a warning from Me.

18 If I say to the wicked man, 'You will surely die,' but you do not warn him or speak out to warn him from his wicked way to save his life, that wicked man will die in his iniquity, and I will hold you responsible for his blood. 19 But if you warn a wicked man and he does not turn from his wickedness and his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity, but you will have saved yourself.

20 Now if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I put a stumbling block before him, he will die. If you did not warn him, he will die in his sin, and the righteous acts he did will not be remembered. And I will hold you responsible for his blood. 21 But if you warn the righteous man not to sin, and he does not sin, he will indeed live because he heeded your warning, and you will have saved yourself."

THE AL YAHUDU TABLETS

EZEKIEL 1:1 TO 3 · 3:15 · JEREMIAH 29:5 · PSALM 137:1

A clay tablet from the town of Al Yahudu, written in Babylonian cuneiform, on show at the Bible Lands Museum, Jerusalem. Photo Amit Avidan, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT THEY ARE

About 200 clay tablets, mostly everyday records like loans, sales and rent, from villages in Babylonia where exiles from Judah lived. One village was called Al Yahudu, the town of Judah.

HOW OLD THEY ARE

The oldest is dated 572 BC, in Nebuchadnezzar's 33rd year, while Ezekiel was still alive. The newest is from 477 BC, in the days of the Persian king Xerxes.

WHAT THEY SAY

Many people have Hebrew names built on Yahweh, written in Babylonian wedge writing. One family can be followed for four or five generations. They rented land, paid taxes and borrowed money, just as Jeremiah told the exiles to build houses and plant gardens, Jeremiah 29:5.

WHERE THEY CAME FROM

They were not found in a dig. They came through the antiques market, so no one knows exactly where Al Yahudu was, somewhere in the farmland of Babylonia, perhaps near Babylon or Nippur. Laurie Pearce and Cornelia Wunsch published about a hundred of them in 2014.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING

WHAT THEY SHOW

Ezekiel lived among people like these, by the Kebar canal, 3:15. Far from home, the exiles kept God's name alive in the names of their children.

22 And there the hand of Yahweh was upon me, and He said to me, "Get up, go out to the plain, and there I will speak with you."

23 So I got up and went out to the plain, and behold, the glory of Yahweh was present there, like the glory I had seen by the River Kebar, and I fell facedown.

24 Then the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. He spoke with me and said, "Go, shut yourself inside your house. 25 And you, son of man, they will tie with ropes, and you will be bound so that you cannot go out among the people. 26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, and you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, though they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you are to tell them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.' Whoever listens, let him listen; and whoever refuses, let him refuse, for they are a rebellious house.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Ezekiel builds a tiny model of Jerusalem under siege, like a kid with toy soldiers, only it is not a game. He lies on his side for months and eats measured bread. God lets him swap the cooking fuel for something less gross.

A SIGN OF JERUSALEM'S SIEGE

1 "Now you, son of man, take a brick, place it before you, and draw on it the city of Jerusalem. 2 Then lay siege against it: Construct a siege wall, build a ramp to it, set up camps against it, and place battering rams around it on all sides. 3 Then take an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between yourself and the city. Turn your face toward it so that it is under siege, and besiege it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Then lie down on your left side and place the iniquity of the house of Israel upon yourself. You are to bear their iniquity for the number of days you lie on your side. 5 For I have assigned to you 390 days, according to the number of years of their iniquity. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 When you have completed these days, lie down again, but on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have assigned to you 40 days, a day for each year. 7 You must turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared, and prophesy against it.

8 Now behold, I will tie you up with ropes so you cannot turn from side to side until you have finished the days of your siege.

THE DEFILED BREAD

9 But take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them in a single container and make them into bread for yourself. This is what you are to eat during the 390 days you lie on your side. 10 You are to weigh out eight ounces of food to eat each day, and you are to eat it at set times.

11 You are also to measure out two thirds of a quart of water to drink, and you are to drink it at set times. 12 And you shall eat the food as you would a barley cake, after you bake it over dried human excrement in the sight of the people."

- EZK 3:26 [NOTE] SILENT. Ezekiel would speak only when God gave him a message, until the news came that Jerusalem fell, 24:27 and 33:22.
- EZK 4:1 [PROPHECY] Ezekiel acted out the siege of Jerusalem on a clay brick → 2KI 25:1-2 p.660
- EZK 4:1 [NOTE] ACTING IT OUT. Ezekiel preached with his body: a model city, lying on his side, a strange haircut, packed bags. People who would not listen might still watch.
- EZK 4:5 [NOTE] 390 AND 40 DAYS. A day for each year of sin, for Israel and for Judah. He probably lay down for part of each day, since he also cooks, 4:9 to 12. Scholars count the years in different ways.
- EZK 4:12 [NOTE] COOKING FUEL. Dried dung was a normal cooking fuel then. Human waste would have made

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

13 Then Yahweh said, "This is how the Israelites will eat their defiled bread among the nations to which I will banish them."

14 "Ah, Lord Yahweh," I said, "I have never defiled myself. From my youth until now I have not eaten anything found dead or mauled by wild beasts. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth."

15 "Look," He replied, "I will let you use cow dung instead of human excrement, and you may bake your bread over that."

16 Then He told me, "Son of man, I am going to cut off the supply of food in Jerusalem. They will anxiously eat bread rationed by weight, and in despair they will drink water by measure. 17 So they will lack food and water; they will be appalled at the sight of one another wasting away in their iniquity.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Ezekiel to shave his head and beard with a sword and split the hair into three piles. Each pile shows what will happen to the city. It is a haircut nobody forgets.

THE RAZOR OF JUDGMENT

1 "As for you, son of man, take a sharp sword, use it as a barber's razor, and shave your head and beard. Then take a set of scales and divide the hair. 2 When the days of the siege have ended, you are to burn up a third of the hair inside the city; you are also to take a third and slash it with the sword all around the city; and you are to scatter a third to the wind. For I will unleash a sword behind them.

3 But you are to take a few strands of hair and secure them in the folds of your garment. 4 Again, take a few of these, throw them into the fire, and burn them. From there a fire will spread to the whole house of Israel.

5 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'This is Jerusalem, which I have set in the center of the nations, with countries all around her. 6 But she has rebelled against My ordinances more wickedly than the nations, and against My statutes worse than the countries around her. For her people have rejected My ordinances and have not walked in My statutes.'

7 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'You have been more insubordinate than the nations around you; you have not walked in My statutes or kept My ordinances, nor have you even conformed to the ordinances of the nations around you.'

8 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I Myself am against you, Jerusalem, and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations. 9 Because of all your abominations, I will do to you what I have never done before and will never do again. 10 As a result, fathers among you will eat their sons, and sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments against you and scatter all your remnant to every wind.'

FAMINE, SWORD, AND DISPERSION

11 Therefore as surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable idols and abominations, I Myself will withdraw My favor; I will not look upon you with pity, nor will I spare you.

12 A third of your people will die by plague or be consumed by famine within you, a third will fall by the sword outside your walls, and a third I will scatter to every wind and unleash a sword behind them.

13 And when My anger is spent and I have vented My wrath against them, I will be appeased. And when I have spent My wrath on them, they will know that I, Yahweh, in My zeal have spoken.

THE HEART DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

14 I will make you a ruin and a disgrace among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by. 15 So you will be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and a horror to the nations around you, when I execute judgments against you in anger, wrath, and raging fury. I, Yahweh, have spoken.

16 When I shower you with the deadly arrows of famine and destruction that I will send to destroy you, I will intensify the famine against you and cut off your supply of food. 17 I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will leave you childless. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring a sword against you. I, Yahweh, have spoken."

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

Ezekiel turns toward the mountains of Israel, where idols stood on every hill. The idols will fall, and the few who survive will remember God. Over and over: then you will know that I am Yahweh.

JUDGMENT AGAINST IDOLATRY // DEUTERONOMY 4:15–31; DEUTERONOMY 12:29–32

1 And the word of Yahweh came to me,
saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them.

3 You are to say: 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh! This is what the Lord Yahweh says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. 4 Your altars will be demolished and your incense altars will be smashed; and I will cast down your slain before your idols. 5 I will lay the corpses of the Israelites before their idols and scatter your bones around your altars.

6 Wherever you live, the cities will be laid waste and the high places will be demolished, so that your altars will be laid waste and desecrated, your idols smashed and obliterated, your incense altars cut down, and your works blotted out. 7 The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

A REMNANT TO BE BLESSED

8 Yet I will leave a remnant, for some of you will escape the sword when you are scattered among the nations and throughout the lands.

9 Then in the nations to which they have been carried captive, your survivors will remember Me—how I have been grieved by their adulterous hearts that turned away from Me, and by their eyes that lusted after idols. So they will loathe themselves for the evil they have done and for all their abominations. 10 And they will know that I am Yahweh; I did not declare in vain that I would bring this calamity upon them.

11 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: Clap your hands, stomp your feet, and cry out
"Alas!" because of all the wicked abomi-nations of the house of Israel, who will fall by sword and famine and plague. 12 He who is far off will die by the plague, he who is near will fall by the sword, and he who remains will die by famine. So I will vent My fury upon them.

13 Then you will know that I am Yahweh,
when their slain lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, and under every green tree and leafy oak—the places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols. 14 I will stretch out My hand against them, and wherever they live I will make the land a desolate waste, from the wilderness to Diblah. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.'"

GOD SPEAKING

THE HOUR OF DOOM

1 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "O son of man, this is what the Lord Yahweh says to the land of Israel:

'The end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.
3 The end is now upon you,
and I will unleash My anger against you.
I will judge you according to your ways
and repay you for all your abominations.
4 I will not look on you with pity,
nor will I spare you,
but I will punish you for your ways
and for the abominations among you.
Then you will know that I am Yahweh.'

5 This is what the Lord Yahweh says:

'Disaster! An unprecedented disaster—behold, it is coming!
6 The end has come!
The end has come!
It has roused itself against you.
Behold, it has come!
7 Doom has come to you,
O inhabitants of the land.
The time has come;
the day is near;
there is panic on the mountains
instead of shouts of joy.
8 Very soon I will pour out My wrath upon
you
and vent My anger against you;
I will judge you according to your ways
and repay you for all your abominations.
9 I will not look on you with pity,
nor will I spare you,
but I will punish you for your ways
and for the abominations among you.
Then you will know that it is I, Yahweh,
who strikes the blow.
10 Behold, the day is here!
It has come!
Doom has gone out,
the rod has budded,
arrogance has bloomed.
11 Their violence has grown into a rod to punish their wickedness.
None of them will remain:
none of their multitude,
none of their wealth,
and nothing of value.
12 The time has come;
the day has arrived.
Let the buyer not rejoice
and the seller not mourn,
for wrath is upon the whole multitude.
13 The seller will surely not recover what he sold
while both remain alive.
For the vision concerning the whole multitude
will not be revoked,
and because of their iniquity,
not one of them will preserve his life.

THE DESOLATION OF ISRAEL

14 They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready,
but no one goes to war,
for My wrath is upon the whole multitude.
15 The sword is outside;
plague and famine are within.
Those in the country will die by the sword,
and those in the city will be devoured
by famine and plague.
16 The survivors will escape
and live in the mountains, moaning like doves of the valley,
each for his own iniquity.
17 Every hand will go limp,
and every knee will turn to water.
18 They will put on sackcloth,
and terror will overwhelm them.
Shame will cover all their faces,
and all their heads will be shaved.
19 They will throw their silver into the streets,
and their gold will seem unclean.
Their silver and gold cannot save them in the day of the wrath of Yahweh.
They cannot satisfy their appetites or fill their stomachs with wealth, for it became the stumbling block that brought their iniquity.

their vile images and detestable idols.
Therefore I will make these into something unclean for them.
21 And I will hand these things over as plunder to foreigners and loot to the wicked of the earth,
who will defile them.
22 I will turn My face away from them,
and they will defile My treasured place.
Violent men will enter it,
and they will defile it.

23 Forge the chain,
for the land is full of crimes of bloodshed,
and the city is full of violence.
24 So I will bring the most wicked of nations to take possession of their houses.
I will end the pride of the mighty,
and their holy places will be profaned.

25 Anguish is coming!
They will seek peace, but find none.
26 Disaster upon disaster will come,
and rumor after rumor.
Then they will seek a vision from a prophet,
but instruction from the priests will perish,
as will counsel from the elders.
27 The king will mourn,
the prince will be clothed with despair,
and the hands of the people of the land will tremble.
I will deal with them according to their conduct,
and I will judge them by their own standards.
Then they will know that I am Yahweh.'"

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

The Spirit lifts Ezekiel by his hair and carries him in a vision to Jerusalem. Behind the temple walls he finds secret idols, women weeping for a false god, and men bowing to the sun. Each room is worse than the last.

THE VISION OF IDOLATRY IN THE TEMPLE

1 In the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month, I was sitting in my house, and the elders of Judah were sitting before me; and there the hand of the Lord Yahweh fell upon me.

2 Then I looked and saw a figure like that of a man. From His waist down His appearance was like fire, and from His waist up He was as bright as the gleam of amber. 3 He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. Then the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and carried me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes jealousy was seated.

4 And there I saw the glory of the God of Israel, like the vision I had seen in the plain. 5 "Son of man," He said to me, "now lift up your eyes to the north."

So I lifted up my eyes to the north, and in the entrance north of the Altar Gate I saw this idol of jealousy.

6 "Son of man," He said to me, "do you see what they are doing—the great abominations that the house of Israel is committing—to drive Me far from My sanctuary? Yet you will see even greater abominations."

7 Then He brought me to the entrance to the court, and I looked and saw a hole in the wall.

8 "Son of man," He told me, "dig through the wall."

So I dug through the wall and discovered a doorway.

9 Then He said to me, "Go in and see the wicked abominations they are committing here."

10 So I went in and looked, and engraved all around the wall was every kind of crawling creature and detestable beast, along with all the idols of the house of Israel. 11 Before them stood seventy elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had a censer in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising.

12 "Son of man," He said to me, "do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his own idol? For they are saying, 'Yahweh does not see us; Yahweh has forsaken the land.'"

13 Again, He told me, "You will see them committing even greater abominations."

14 Then He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of Yahweh, and I saw women sitting there, weeping for Tammuz.

15 "Son of man," He said to me, "do you see this? Yet you will see even greater abominations than these."

16 So He brought me to the inner court of the house of Yahweh, and there at the entrance to the temple of Yahweh, between the portico and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs to the temple of Yahweh and their faces toward the east; and they were bowing to the east in worship of the sun.

17 "Son of man," He said to me, "do you see this? Is it not enough for the house of Judah to commit the abominations they are practicing here, that they must also fill the land with violence and continually provoke Me to anger? Look, they are even putting the branch to their nose! 18 Therefore I will respond with wrath. I will not look on them with pity, nor will I spare them. Although they shout loudly in My ears, I will not listen to them."

Six men come to bring judgment, and a man in linen marks the foreheads of everyone who grieves over the city's sin. Those with the mark are spared. Ezekiel falls down and begs God for mercy.

EXECUTION OF THE IDOLATERS

1 Then I heard Him call out in a loud voice, saying, "Draw near, O executioners of the city, each with a weapon of destruction in hand."

2 And I saw six men coming from the direction of the Upper Gate, which faces north, each with a weapon of slaughter in his hand. With them was another man clothed in linen who had a writing kit at his side. And they came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 Then the glory of the God of Israel rose from above the cherubim, where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. And He called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side. 4 "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem," said Yahweh, "and put a mark on the foreheads of the men sighing and groaning over all the abominations committed there."

5 And as I listened, He said to the others, "Follow him through the city and start

TAMMUZ, THE DYING GOD

EZEKIEL 8:14 TO 15

Ishtar's Descent to the Underworld, a clay tablet from the library of Ashurbanipal at Nineveh, 600s BC. British Museum, K.162. Photo Marie Lan Nguyen, CC BY 2.5.

WHO HE WAS

Tammuz, called Dumuzi in Sumerian, was a god of shepherds and spring growth in Mesopotamia. In the old stories he was the husband of the goddess Inanna, called Ishtar.

HOW OLD IT IS

Songs about Dumuzi go back before 2000 BC. This copy of Ishtar's Descent was made in the 600s BC, less than a hundred years before Ezekiel.

THE STORY

Ishtar goes down to the land of the dead and is held there. In the older Sumerian telling, someone must take her place, and Dumuzi is sent down. This Babylonian copy ends with Tammuz and with mourners wailing for him.

THE WEEPING

Every summer, women wept for Tammuz as if he had just died. The fourth month of the Jewish calendar is still called Tammuz, a name picked up in Babylon.

WHY IT WAS SO BAD

Women sat at the north gate of God's own house weeping for a false god, 8:14. They mourned a god who could not save, while the living God stood in the temple.

So they began with the elders who were before the temple.

7 Then He told them, "Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth!"

So they went out and began killing throughout the city.

8 While they were killing, I was left alone. And I fell facedown and cried out, "Oh, Lord Yahweh, when You pour out Your wrath on Jerusalem, will You destroy the entire remnant of Israel?"

9 He replied, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great. The land is full of bloodshed, and the city is full of perversity. For they say, 'Yahweh has forsaken the land; Yahweh does not them with pity, nor will I spare them. I will

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

The wheels and creatures from chapter 1 come back, and now Ezekiel knows they are cherubim. Then the glory of Yahweh lifts off the temple and moves to the door. God is getting ready to leave.

GOD'S GLORY EXITS THE TEMPLE

1 And I looked and saw above the expanse, above the heads of the cherubim, the likeness of a throne of sapphire. 2 And Yahweh said to the man clothed in linen, "Go inside the wheelwork beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And as I watched, he went in.

3 Now when the man went in, the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple, and a cloud filled the inner court. 4 Then the glory of Yahweh rose from above the cherubim and stood over the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the glory of Yahweh. 5 The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when He speaks.

6 When Yahweh commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from within the wheelwork, from among the cherubim," the man went in and stood beside a wheel. 7 Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand and took some of the fire that was among them. And he put it into the hands of the man clothed in linen, who received it and went out. 8 (The cherubim appeared to have the form of human hands under their wings.)

9 Then I looked and saw four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub. And the wheels gleamed like a beryl stone. 10 As for their appearance, all four had the same form, like a wheel within a wheel. 11 When they moved, they would go in any of the four directions, without turning as they moved. For wherever the head faced, the cherubim would go in that direction, without turning as they moved.

12 Their entire bodies, including their backs, hands, and wings, were full of eyes all around, as were their four wheels. 13 I heard the wheels being called "the whirling wheels."

14 Each of the cherubim had four faces: the first face was that of a cherub, the second that of a man, the third that of a lion, and the fourth that of an eagle.

15 Then the cherubim rose upward. These were the living creatures I had seen by the River Kebar. 16 When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them, and even when they spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not veer away from their side. 17 When the cherubim stood still, the wheels also stood still, and when they ascended, the wheels ascended with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

18 Then the glory of Yahweh moved away from the threshold of the temple and stood above the cherubim. 19 As I watched, the cherubim lifted their wings and rose up from the ground, with the wheels beside them as they went. And they stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the house of Yahweh, with the glory of the God of Israel above them.

20 These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the River Kebar, and I knew that they were cherubim. 21 Each had four faces and four wings, with what looked like human hands under their wings. 22 Their faces looked like the faces I had seen by the River Kebar. Each creature went straight ahead.

The city is the cooking pot, and we are the meat.' 4 Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, O son of man!"

5 And the Spirit of Yahweh fell upon me and told me to declare that this is what Yahweh says: "That is what you are thinking, O house of Israel; and I know the thoughts that arise in your minds. 6 You have multiplied those you killed in this city and filled its streets with the dead.

7 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: The slain you have laid within this city are the meat, and the city is the pot; but I will remove you from it. 8 You fear the sword, so I will bring the sword against you, declares the Lord Yahweh. 9 I will bring you out of the city and deliver you into the hands of foreigners, and I will execute judgments against you. 10 You will fall by the sword, and I will judge you even to the borders of Israel. 13 Now as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out in a loud voice, "Oh, Lord Yahweh, will You bring the remnant of Israel to a complete end?"

14 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 15 "Son of man, your brothers—your relatives, your fellow exiles, and the whole house of Israel—are those of whom the people of Jerusalem have said, 'They are far away from Yahweh; this land has been given to us as a possession.'

16 Therefore declare that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary for them in the countries to which they have gone.'

17 Therefore declare that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you from the countries to which you have been scattered, and I will give back to you the land of Israel.'

18 When they return to it, they will remove all its detestable things and all its abominations. 19 And I will give them singleness of heart and put a new spirit within them; I will remove their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh, 20 so that they may follow My statutes, keep My ordinances, and practice them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for those whose hearts pursue detestable things and abominations, I will bring their conduct down upon their own heads, declares the Lord Yahweh."

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Ezekiel packs his bags in broad daylight and digs through a wall at night, a picture of the king running away. People had a saying that visions never come true. God says: not anymore.

SIGNS OF THE COMING CAPTIVITY

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, you are living in a rebellious house. They have eyes to see but do not see, and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, son of man, pack your bags for exile. In broad daylight, set out from your place and go to another as they watch. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house. 4 Bring out your baggage for exile by day, as they watch. Then in the evening, as they watch, go out like those who go into exile.

5 As they watch, dig through the wall and carry your belongings out through it. 6 And as they watch, lift your bags to your shoulder and take them out at dusk; cover your face so that you cannot see the land. For I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."

7 So I did as I was commanded. I brought out my bags for exile by day, and in the evening I dug through the wall by hand. I took my belongings out at dusk, carrying them on my shoulder as they watched.

8 And in the morning the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, hasn't the rebellious house of Israel asked you, 'What are you doing?' 10 Tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are there.'

11 You are to say, 'I am a sign to you.' Just as it happened here, so will it be done to them; they will go into exile as captives. 12 And at dusk the prince among them will lift his bags to his shoulder and go out. They will dig through the wall to bring him out. He will cover his face so he cannot see the land. 13 But I will spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, and there he will die.

14 And I will scatter to every wind all the attendants around him and all his troops, and I will draw a sword to chase after them. 15 And they will know that I am Yahweh, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them throughout the countries.

16 But I will spare a few of them from sword and famine and plague, so that in the nations to which they go, they can recount all their abominations. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

17 Moreover, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, eat your bread with trembling, and drink your water with quivering and anxiety. 19 Then tell the people of the land that this is what the Lord Yahweh says about those living in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: 'They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water in dread, for their land will be stripped of everything in it because of the violence of all who dwell in it. 20 The inhabited cities will be laid waste, and the land will become desolate. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.'"

THE PRESUMPTUOUS PROVERB

21 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 22 "Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel:

and every vision fails'?

26 Furthermore, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 27 "Son of man, take note that the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision that he sees is for many years from now; he prophesies about the distant future.'

28 Therefore tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'None of My words will be delayed any longer. The message I speak will be fulfilled, declares the Lord Yahweh.'"

God takes on the false prophets who say peace when there is no peace. They are like men painting a shaky wall white. When the storm comes, the wall and the paint both come down.

REPROOF OF FALSE PROPHETS // MICAH 2:6–11

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are now prophesying. Tell those who prophesy out of their own hearts: Hear the word of Yahweh! 3 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit yet have seen nothing. 4 Your prophets, O Israel, are like foxes among the ruins. 5 You did not go up to the gaps or restore the wall around the house of Israel so that it would stand in the battle on the Day of Yahweh.

6 They see false visions and speak lying divinations. They claim, 'Thus declares Yahweh,' when Yahweh did not send them; yet they wait for the fulfillment of their message.

7 Haven't you seen a false vision and spoken a lying divination when you proclaim, 'Thus declares Yahweh,' even though I have not spoken?

8 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Because you have uttered vain words and seen false visions, I am against you, declares the Lord Yahweh. 9 My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and speak lying divinations. They will not belong to the council of My people or be recorded in the register of the house of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.

10 Because they have led My people astray, saying, 'Peace,' when there is no peace, and whitewashing any flimsy wall that is built, 11 tell those whitewashing the wall that it will fall. Rain will come in torrents, I will send hailstones plunging down, and a windstorm will burst forth. 12 Surely when the wall has fallen, you will not be asked, 'Where is the whitewash with which you covered it?'

13 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: In My wrath I will release a windstorm, and in My anger torrents of rain and hail will fall with destructive fury. 14 I will tear down the wall you whitewashed and level it to the ground, so that its foundation is exposed. The city will fall, and you will be destroyed within it. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

15 And after I have vented My wrath against the wall and against those who whitewashed it, I will say to you: 'The wall is gone, and so are those who whitewashed it— 16 those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw a vision of peace for her when there was no peace, declares the Lord Yahweh.'

REPROOF OF FALSE PROPHETESSES

17 Now, O son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own hearts. Prophesy against them 18 and tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their wrists and make veils for the heads of people of every height, in order to ensnare their souls. Will you ensnare the souls of My people but preserve your own? 19 You have profaned Me among My people for handfuls of barley and scraps of bread. By lying to My people who would listen, you have killed those who should not have died and spared those who should not have lived.

20 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh
says: See, I am against the magic charms with which you ensnare souls like birds, and I will tear them from your arms. So I will free the souls you have ensnared like birds. 21 I will also tear off your veils and deliver My people from your hands, so that they will no longer be prey in your hands. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

22 Because you have made the heart of the righteous sad with your lies, even though I have caused them no grief, and because you have encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways to save their lives, 23 therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will deliver My people from your hands. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Some elders come to ask God a question while keeping idols in their hearts. God says even Noah, Daniel and Job could save only themselves. Each person must turn back to God for himself.

IDOLATROUS ELDERS CONDEMNED // ROMANS 14:13–23; 1 CORINTHIANS 8:1–13

1 Then some of the elders of Israel came and sat down before me. 2 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and put wicked stumbling blocks before their faces. Should I consult with them in any way?

4 Therefore speak to them and tell them
that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:
'When any Israelite sets up idols in his heart and puts a wicked stumbling block before his face, and then comes to the prophet, I Yahweh will answer him according to his great idolatry, 5 so that I may take hold of the hearts of the people of Israel. For because of their idols, they are all estranged from Me.'

6 Therefore tell the house of Israel that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Repent and turn away from your idols; turn your faces away from all your abominations. 7
For when any Israelite or any foreigner dwelling in Israel separates himself from Me, sets up idols in his heart, and puts a wicked stumbling block before his face, and then comes to the prophet to inquire of Me, I Yahweh will answer him Myself. 8 I will set My face against that man and make him a sign and a proverb; I will cut him off from among My people. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

9 But if the prophet is enticed to speak a message, then it was I Yahweh who enticed him, and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel. 10 They will bear their punishment—the punishment of the inquirer will be the same as that of the prophet— 11 in order that the house of Israel may no longer stray from Me and no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions. Then they will be My people and I will be their God, declares the Lord Yahweh.'"

FOUR DIRE JUDGMENTS

12 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 13 "Son of man, if a land sins against Me by acting unfaithfully, and I stretch out My hand against it to cut off its supply of food, to send famine upon it, and to cut off from it both man and beast,
14 then even if these three men—Noah,
Daniel, and Job—were in it, their righteousness could deliver only themselves,
declares the Lord Yahweh.
15 Or if I send wild beasts through the land to leave it childless and desolate, with no man passing through it for fear of the beasts, 16 then as surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, even if these three men were in it, they could not deliver their own sons or daughters. They alone would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.
17 Or if I bring a sword against that land and say, 'Let a sword pass through it,' so that I cut off from it both man and beast, 18 then as surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, even if these three men were in it, they could not deliver their own sons or daughters. They alone would be delivered.
19 Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out My wrath upon it through bloodshed, cutting off from it both man and beast, 20 then as surely as I live, declares
the Lord Yahweh, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, they could not deliver their own sons or daughters. Their righteousness could deliver only themselves.
21 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says:
'How much worse will it be when I send against Jerusalem My four dire judgments—sword, famine, wild beasts, and plague—in order to cut off from it both man and beast?
22 Yet, behold, some survivors will be left in it—sons and daughters who will be brought out. They will come out to you, and when you see their conduct and actions, you will be comforted regarding the disaster I have brought upon Jerusalem—all that I have brought upon it.
23 They will bring you consolation when you see their conduct and actions, and you will know that it was not without cause that I have done all these things within it,' declares the Lord Yahweh."

EZK 14:14 [NOTE] NOAH, DANIEL AND JOB. Many read Daniel as the prophet, already known in Babylon for wisdom, Daniel 1 and 2. The Hebrew spelling is Danel, so some think of Danel, a just king in an old story from Ugarit. On Job, see When Did Job Live?, Job, p.839.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

A grapevine is great for grapes, but its wood is useless, not even good for a peg to hang a pot on. Jerusalem has become like that wood. Short chapter, sharp point.

JERUSALEM THE USELESS VINE

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, how does the wood of the vine surpass any other branch among the trees in the forest? 3 Can wood be taken from it to make something useful? Or can one make from it a peg on which to hang utensils?
4 No, it is cast into the fire for fuel. The fire devours both ends, and the middle is charred. Can it be useful for anything? 5 Even when it was whole, it could not be made useful. How much less can it ever be useful when the fire has consumed it and charred it!
6 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the people of Jerusalem. 7 And I will set My face against them. Though they may have escaped the fire, yet another fire will consume them. And when I set My face against them, you will know that I am Yahweh.
8 Thus I will make the land desolate, because they have acted unfaithfully,' declares the Lord Yahweh."

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells the story of Jerusalem as an abandoned baby girl He rescued, raised and married. She ran after other gods and broke His heart. Still, the chapter ends with a promise: He will remember His covenant.

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

JERUSALEM'S UNFAITHFULNESS

1 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her abominations 3 and tell her that this is what the Lord Yahweh says to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. 4 On the day of your birth your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water for cleansing. You were not rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. 5 No one cared enough for you to do even one of these things out of compassion for you. Instead, you were thrown out into the open field, because you were despised on the day of your birth.

6 Then I passed by and saw you wallowing in your blood, and as you lay there in your blood I said to you, 'Live!' There I said to you, 'Live!' 7 I made you thrive like a plant of the field. You grew up and matured and became very beautiful. Your breasts were formed and your hair grew, but you were naked and bare.

8 Then I passed by and saw you, and you were indeed old enough for love. So I spread My cloak over you and covered your nakedness. I pledged Myself to you, entered into a covenant with you, and you became Mine, declares the Lord Yahweh. 9 Then I bathed you with water, rinsed off your blood, and anointed you with oil. 10 I clothed you in embroidered cloth and gave you sandals of fine leather. I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. 11 I adorned you with jewelry, and I put bracelets on your wrists and a chain around your neck. 12 I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head.

13 So you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was made of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You became very beautiful and rose to be queen. 14 Your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect in the splendor I bestowed on you, declares the Lord Yahweh.

15 But because of your fame, you trusted in your beauty and played the harlot. You lavished your favors on everyone who passed by, and your beauty was theirs for the asking. 16 You took some of your garments and made colorful high places for yourself, and on them you prostituted yourself. Such things should not have happened; never should they have occurred!

17 You also took the fine jewelry of gold and silver I had given you, and you made male idols with which to prostitute yourself. 18 You took your embroidered garments to cover them, and you set My oil and incense before them. 19 And you set before them as a pleasing aroma the food I had given you—the fine flour, oil, and honey that I had fed you. That is what happened, declares the Lord Yahweh.

20 You even took the sons and daughters you bore to Me and sacrificed them as food to idols. Was your prostitution not enough? 21 You slaughtered My children and delivered them up through the fire to idols.

22 And in all your abominations and acts of prostitution, you did not remember the days of your youth when you were naked and bare, wallowing in your own blood.

23 Woe! Woe to you, declares the Lord Yahweh. And in addition to all your other wickedness, 24 you built yourself a mound and made yourself a lofty shrine in every public square. 25 At the head of every street you built your lofty shrines and degraded your beauty. With increasing promiscuity, you spread your legs to all who passed by. 26 You prostituted yourself with your lustful neighbors, the Egyptians, and increased your promiscuity to provoke Me to anger.

27 Therefore I stretched out My hand against you and reduced your portion. I gave you over to the desire of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd conduct. 28 Then you prostituted yourself with the Assyrians, because you were not yet satisfied. Even after that, you were still not satisfied. 29 So you extended your promiscuity to Chaldea, the land of merchants—but even with this you were not satisfied!

30 How weak-willed is your heart, declares the Lord Yahweh, while you do all these things, the acts of a shameless prostitute! 31 But when you built your mounds at the head of every street and made your lofty shrines in every public square, you were not even like a prostitute, because you scorned payment.

32 You adulterous wife! You receive strangers instead of your own husband! 33 Men give gifts to all their prostitutes, but you gave gifts to all your lovers. You bribed them to come to you from everywhere for your illicit favors. 34 So your prostitution is the opposite of that of other women: No one solicited your favors, and you paid a fee instead of receiving one; so you are the very opposite!

JUDGMENT ON JERUSALEM

35 Therefore, O prostitute, hear the word of Yahweh! 36 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: Because you poured out your wealth and exposed your nakedness in your promiscuity with your lovers and with all your detestable idols, and because of the blood of your children which you gave to them, 37 therefore I will surely gather all the lovers with whom you found pleasure, all those you loved and all those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and expose you before them, and they will see you completely naked. 38 And I will sentence you to the punishment of women who commit adultery and those who shed blood; so I will bring upon you the wrath of your bloodshed and jealousy.

39 Then I will deliver you into the hands of your lovers, and they will level your mounds and tear down your lofty shrines. They will strip off your clothes, take your fine jewelry, and leave you naked and bare. 40 They will bring a mob against you, who will stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords. 41 Then they will burn down your houses and execute judgment against you in the sight of many women.

I will put an end to your prostitution, and you will never again pay your lovers. 42 So I will lay to rest My wrath against you, and My jealousy will turn away from you. Then I will be calm and no longer angry.

43 Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but enraged Me with all these things, I will surely bring your deeds down upon your own head, declares the Lord Yahweh. Have you not committed this lewdness on top of all your other abominations?

44 Behold, all who speak in proverbs will quote this proverb about you:

'Like mother, like daughter.'

45 You are the daughter of your mother, who despised her husband and children. You are the sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite. 46 Your older sister was Samaria, who lived with her daughters to your north; and your younger sister was Sodom, who lived with her daughters to your south. 47 And you not only walked in their ways and practiced their abominations, but soon you were more depraved than they were.

48 As surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did as you and your daughters have done. 49 Now this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters were arrogant, overfed, and complacent; they did not help the poor and needy. 50 Thus they were haughty and committed abominations before Me. Therefore I removed them, as you have seen.

51 Furthermore, Samaria did not commit half the sins you did. You have multiplied your abominations beyond theirs, and all the abominations you have committed have made your sisters appear righteous. 52 So now you must bear your disgrace, since you have brought justification for your sisters. For they appear more righteous than you, because your sins were more vile than theirs. So you too must bear your shame and disgrace, since you have made your sisters appear righteous.

53 But I will restore Sodom and her daughters from captivity, as well as Samaria and her daughters. And I will restore you along with them. 54 So you will bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you did to comfort them.

55 And your sisters, Sodom with her daughters and Samaria with her daughters, will return to their former state. You and your daughters will also return to your former state. 56 Did you not treat your sister Sodom as an object of scorn in the day of your pride, 57 before your wickedness was uncovered? Even so, you are now scorned by the daughters of Edom and all those around her, and by the daughters of the Philistines—all those around you who despise you. 58 You will bear the consequences of your lewdness and your abominations, declares Yahweh.

THE COVENANT REMEMBERED

59 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says: I will deal with you according to your deeds, since you have despised the oath by breaking the covenant. 60 But I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. 61 Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your older and younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of My covenant with you.

62 So I will establish My covenant with you, and you will know that I am Yahweh, 63 so that when I make atonement for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed and never again open your mouth because of your disgrace, declares the Lord Yahweh."

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

A riddle about two eagles and a vine. It is really about Judah's king breaking his promise to Babylon and running to Egypt for help. Then God plants a tender twig on a high mountain, and it grows into a great tree.

THE PARABLE OF TWO EAGLES AND A VINE // MATTHEW 13:24–30

1 Now the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, pose a riddle; speak a parable to the house of Israel 3 and tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

'A great eagle with great wings and long pinions, full of feathers of many colors,
came to Lebanon
and took away the top of the cedar.
4 He plucked off its topmost shoot, carried it to the land of merchants,
and planted it in a city of traders.
5 He took some of the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil;
he placed it by abundant waters
and set it out like a willow.
6 It sprouted and became a spreading vine,
low in height, with branches turned toward him;
yet its roots remained where it stood.

■ EZK 16:49 [NOTE] THE SIN OF SODOM. Pride, plenty of food, easy comfort, and no help for the poor and needy, then detestable things, 16:50. Genesis 19 tells the rest.

■ EZK 16:60 [NOTE] I WILL REMEMBER. After all that, God promises an everlasting covenant. Grace gets the last word, Jeremiah 31:31 to 34.

■ EZK 17:3 [NOTE] THE RIDDLE. The first eagle is Nebuchadnezzar, the cedar top King Jehoiachin, the vine Zedekiah, and the second eagle Pharaoh, 17:12 to 15.

So it became a vine and yielded branches and sent out shoots.

7 But there was another great eagle with great wings and many feathers.
And behold, this vine bent its roots toward
him.
It stretched out its branches to him from its planting bed,
so that he might water it.
8 It had been planted in good soil
by abundant waters
in order to yield branches and bear fruit and become a splendid vine.'

9 So you are to tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

'Will it flourish?
Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit
so that it shrivels?
All its foliage will wither!
It will not take a strong arm or many people
to pull it up by its roots.
10 Even if it is transplanted,
will it flourish?
Will it not completely wither when the east
wind strikes?
It will wither on the bed where it sprouted.'"

THE PARABLE EXPLAINED

11 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 12 "Now say to this rebellious house: 'Do you not know what these things mean?'

Tell them, 'Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, carried off its king and officials, and brought them back with him to Babylon. 13 He took a member of the royal family and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. Then he carried away the leading men of the land, 14 so that the kingdom would be brought low, unable to lift itself up, surviving only by keeping his covenant.

15 But this king rebelled against Babylon by sending his envoys to Egypt to ask for horses and a large army. Will he flourish? Will the one who does such things escape? Can he break a covenant and yet escape?'

16 'As surely as I live,' declares the Lord Yahweh, 'he will die in Babylon, in the land of the king who enthroned him, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke. 17 Pharaoh with his mighty army and vast horde will not help him in battle, when ramps are built and siege walls constructed to destroy many lives. 18 He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Seeing that he gave his hand in pledge yet did all these things, he will not escape!'

HOW OLD IT IS

Built about 575 BC, in the very years Ezekiel lived among the exiles.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Robert Koldewey's German team dug Babylon from 1899 to 1917 and found thousands of broken glazed bricks. The front part of the gate was put back together in Berlin and opened in 1930. The bigger back gate was too large to rebuild.

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

People blamed their parents: the fathers ate sour grapes, and the kids' teeth are on edge. God says each person answers for his own choices. And He takes no pleasure in anyone's death, so turn and live.

THE SOUL WHO SINS WILL DIE

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel:

'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the teeth of the children are set on edge'?

3 As surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel. 4 Behold, every soul belongs to Me; both father and son are Mine. The soul who sins is the one who will die.

5 Now suppose a man is righteous and does what is just and right:

6 He does not eat at the mountain
or look to the idols of the house of Israel.
He does not defile his neighbor's wife
or approach a woman during her period.
7 He does not oppress another,
but restores the pledge to the debtor.
He does not commit robbery,
but gives his bread to the hungry
and covers the naked with clothing.
8 He does not engage in usury or take excess interest,
but he withholds his hand from iniquity and executes true justice between men.
9 He follows My statutes and faithfully keeps My ordinances.

surely he will live,
declares the Lord Yahweh.

10 Now suppose that man has a violent son, who sheds blood or does any of these things, 11 though the father has done
none of them:

Indeed, the son eats at the mountain and defiles his neighbor's wife.
12 He oppresses the poor and needy;
he commits robbery
and does not restore a pledge.
He lifts his eyes to idols;
he commits abominations.
13 He engages in usury
and takes excess interest.

Will this son live? He will not! Since he has committed all these abominations, he will surely die; his blood will be on his own head.

14 Now suppose this son has a son who sees all the sins his father has committed, considers them, and does not do likewise:

15 He does not eat at the mountain
or look to the idols of the house of Israel.
He does not defile his neighbor's wife.
16 He does not oppress another,
or retain a pledge, or commit robbery.
He gives his bread to the hungry
and covers the naked with clothing.
17 He withholds his hand from harming the poor and takes no interest or usury.
He keeps My ordinances and follows My statutes.

Such a man will not die for his father's iniquity. He will surely live.

18 As for his father, he will die for his own iniquity, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what was wrong among his people.

19 Yet you may ask, 'Why shouldn't the son bear the iniquity of his father?'

Since the son has done what is just and right, carefully observing all My statutes, he will surely live.

20 The soul who sins is the one who will die. A son will not bear the iniquity of his father, and a father will not bear the iniquity of his son. The righteousness of the righteous man will fall upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked man will fall upon him.

21 But if the wicked man turns from all the sins he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does what is just and right, he will surely live; he will not die. 22 None of the transgressions he has committed will be held against him. Because of the righteousness he has practiced, he will live. 23 Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Lord Yahweh. Wouldn't I prefer that he turn from his ways and live?

24 But if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, committing the same abominations as the wicked, will he live? None of the righteous acts he did will be remembered. Because of the unfaithfulness and sin he has committed, he will die.

25 Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.'

Hear now, O house of Israel: Is it My way that is unjust? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

26 If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, he will die for this. He will die because of the iniquity he has committed.

27 But if a wicked man turns from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he will save his life. 28 Because he considered and turned from all the transgressions he had committed, he will surely live; he will not die.

29 Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not just.'

Are My ways unjust, O house of Israel? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

THE BIG QUESTION

DO CHILDREN PAY?

For Their Parents' Sins

EZEKIEL 18:1 TO 32

THE SAYING

The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge, 18:2. The exiles were blaming their parents for their trouble.

GOD'S ANSWER

The soul who sins is the one who will die. A son will not bear the iniquity of his father, 18:20. Ezekiel walks through three generations: a good father, a bad son and a good grandson. Each one is judged for his own life.

BUT WHAT ABOUT EXODUS 20:5?

God said He visits the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me. So how do the two fit?

EXODUS 20:5 TO 6 · DEUTERONOMY 24:16 · GALATIANS 3:13 · 2 CORINTHIANS 5:17

CONSEQUENCES AND GUILT

Most teachers say Exodus is about consequences: a parent's sin can hurt a family for years. Ezekiel is about guilt before God: no one is punished for a sin he did not choose. And Exodus says of those who hate Me, children who keep doing the same sin.

THE PATTERN CAN BE BROKEN

The grandson in 18:14 to 17 sees his father's sins and does not do them. He will surely live. No family story is too strong for God to change.

GENERATIONAL CURSES

Some Christians teach that family curses must be broken in prayer. Others say Ezekiel 18, and Christ becoming a curse for us, Galatians 3:13, mean believers are already free. Both agree: turn to God and walk in His ways.

TURN AND LIVE

God takes no pleasure in anyone's death, 18:32. Make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit, 18:31. That is the real answer to the sour grapes.

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

A sad song about two young lions, Judah's kings, caught in nets and hauled away with hooks. Then a strong vine is pulled up and burned. A funeral song for the royal family.

A LAMENT FOR THE PRINCES OF ISRAEL

1 "As for you, take up a lament for the princes of Israel 2 and say:

'What was your mother?
A lioness among the lions!
She lay down among the young lions;
she reared her cubs.
3 She brought up one of her cubs,
and he became a young lion.
After learning to tear his prey,
he devoured men.
4 When the nations heard of him,
he was trapped in their pit.
With hooks they led him away
to the land of Egypt.

5 When she saw that she had waited in vain,
that her hope was lost,
she took another of her cubs
and made him a young lion.
6 He prowled among the lions,
and became a young lion.
After learning to tear his prey,
he devoured men.
7 He broke down their strongholds and devastated their cities.

The land and everything in it shuddered at the sound of his roaring.

8 Then the nations set out against him from the provinces on every side.
They spread their net over him;
he was trapped in their pit.
9 With hooks they caged him and brought him to the king of Babylon.
They brought him into captivity
so that his roar was heard no longer
on the mountains of Israel.

10 Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard, planted by the water;
it was fruitful and full of branches
because of the abundant waters.
11 It had strong branches, fit for a ruler's scepter.
It towered high above the thick branches, conspicuous for its height and for its dense foliage.

12 But it was uprooted in fury,
cast down to the ground,
and the east wind dried up its fruit.
Its strong branches were stripped off
and they withered;
the fire consumed them.

13 Now it is planted in the wilderness,
in a dry and thirsty land.
14 Fire has gone out from its main branch and devoured its fruit;
on it no strong branch remains fit for a ruler's scepter.'
This is a lament and shall be used as a lament."

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

The elders come to ask God something again. Instead He walks them through their whole history of rebellion, from Egypt on. Still, He promises to gather them and accept them again.

ISRAEL'S REBELLION IN EGYPT

1 In the seventh year, on the tenth day of the fifth month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh, and they sat down before me.

2 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Have you come to inquire of Me? As surely as I live, I will not be consulted by you, declares the Lord Yahweh.

4 Will you judge them, will you judge them, son of man? Confront them with the abominations of their fathers 5 and tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt. With an uplifted hand I said to them, 'I am Yahweh your God.'

6 On that day I swore to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands. 7 And I said to them: 'Each of you must throw away the abominations before his eyes, and you must not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.'

8 But they rebelled against Me and refused to listen. None of them cast away the abominations before their eyes, and they did not forsake the idols of Egypt. So I resolved to pour out My wrath upon them and vent My anger against them in the land of Egypt. 9 But I acted for the sake of My name, that it should not be profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they were living, in whose sight I had revealed Myself to Israel by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

ISRAEL'S REBELLION IN THE WILDERNESS

10 So I brought them out of the land of Egypt and led them into the wilderness. 11 And I gave them My statutes and made known to them My ordinances—for the man who does these things will live by them. 12 I also gave them My Sabbaths as a sign between us, so that they would know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies them.

13 Yet the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not follow My statutes and they rejected My ordinances—though the man who does these things will live by them—and they utterly profaned My Sabbaths. Then I resolved to pour out My wrath upon them and put an end to them in the wilderness. 14 But I acted for the sake of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

15 Moreover, with an uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land that I had given them—a land flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands— 16 because they kept rejecting My ordinances, refusing to walk in My statutes, and profaning My Sabbaths; for their hearts continually went after their idols. 17 Yet I looked on them with pity and did not destroy them or bring them to an end in the wilderness.

18 In the wilderness I said to their children: 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers or keep their ordinances or defile yourselves with their idols. 19 I am Yahweh your God; walk in My statutes, keep My ordinances, and practice them. 20 Keep My Sabbaths holy, that they may be a sign between us, so that you may know that I am Yahweh your God.'

21 But the children rebelled against Me. They did not walk in My statutes or carefully observe My ordinances—though the man who does these things will live by them—and they profaned My Sabbaths. So I resolved to pour out My wrath upon them and vent My anger against them in the wilderness. 22 But I withheld My hand and acted for the sake of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

23 However, with an uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands. 24 For they did not practice My ordinances, but they rejected My statutes and profaned My Sabbaths, fixing their eyes on the idols of their fathers.

25 I also gave them over to statutes that were not good and ordinances by which they could not live. 26 And I pronounced them unclean through their gifts—the sacrifice of every firstborn in the fire—so that I might devastate them, in order that they would know that I am Yahweh.

ISRAEL'S REBELLION IN THE LAND

27 Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: In this way also your fathers blasphemed Me by their unfaithfulness against Me. 28 When I brought them into the land that I swore to give them and they saw any high hill or leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices, presented offerings that provoked Me, sent up their fragrant incense, and poured out their drink offerings. 29 So I asked them: 'What is this high place to which you go?'

(And to this day it is called Bamah.)

30 Therefore tell the house of Israel that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Will you defile yourselves the way your fathers did, prostituting yourselves with their abominations? 31 When you offer your gifts, sacrificing your sons in the fire, you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. So should I be consulted by you, O house of Israel? As surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, I will not be consulted by you!

32 When you say, 'Let us be like the nations, like the peoples of the lands, serving wood and stone,' what you have in mind will never come to pass.

JUDGMENT AND RESTORATION

33 As surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, with a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath I will rule over you. 34 With a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you from the lands to which you have been scattered. 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the nations, where I will enter into judgment with you face to face.

36 Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, declares the Lord Yahweh. 37 I will make you pass under the rod and will bring you into the bond of the covenant. 38 And I will purge you of those who rebel and transgress against Me. I will bring them out of the land in which they dwell, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

39 And as for you, O house of Israel, this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Go and serve your idols, every one of you. But afterward, you will surely listen to Me, and you will no longer defile My holy name with your gifts and idols.

40 For on My holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the Lord Yahweh, there the whole house of Israel, all of them, will serve Me in the land. There I will accept them and will require your offerings and choice gifts, along with all your holy sacrifices.

41 When I bring you from the peoples and gather you from the lands to which you have been scattered, I will accept you as a pleasing aroma. And I will show My holiness through you in the sight of the nations. 42 Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the land that I swore to give your fathers.

43 There you will remember your ways and all the deeds with which you have defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evils you have done. 44 Then you will know, O house of Israel, that I am Yahweh, when I have dealt with you for the sake of My name and not according to your wicked ways and corrupt acts, declares the Lord Yahweh."

A PROPHECY AGAINST THE SOUTH

45 Now the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 46 "Son of man, set your face toward the south, preach against it, and prophesy against the forest of the Negev. 47 Say to the forest of the Negev: Hear the word of Yahweh! This is what the Lord Yahweh says: I am about to ignite in you a fire, and it will devour all your trees, both green and dry. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and by it every face from south to north will be scorched. 48 Then all people will see that I, Yahweh, have kindled it; it will not be quenched."

49 Then I said, "Ah, Lord Yahweh, they are saying of me, 'Is he not just telling parables?'" wicked. 4 Because I will cut off both the righteous and the wicked, My sword will be unsheathed against everyone from south to north. 5 Then all flesh will know that I, Yahweh, have taken My sword from 6 But you, son of man, groan! Groan before their eyes with a broken heart and bitter grief. 7 And when they ask, 'Why are you groaning?' you are to say, 'Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt, and every hand will go limp. Every spirit will faint, and every knee will turn to water.' Yes, it is coming and it will surely happen, declares the Lord Yahweh."

8 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, prophesy and tell them that this is what the Lord says:

'A sword, a sword,
sharpened and polished—
10 it is sharpened for the slaughter, polished to flash like lightning!
Should we rejoice in the scepter of My son?
The sword despises every such stick.
11 The sword is appointed to be polished,
to be grasped in the hand.
It is sharpened and polished,
to be placed in the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry out and wail,
O son of man,
for the sword is wielded against My people;
it is against all the princes of Israel!
They are tossed to the sword with My people;
therefore strike your thigh.
13 Surely testing will come!
And what if even the scepter,
which the sword despises,
does not continue?'
declares the Lord Yahweh.
14 'So then, son of man, prophesy and strike your hands together.
Let the sword strike two times,
even three.
It is a sword that slays,
a sword of great slaughter
closing in on every side!

15 So that their hearts may melt and many may stumble,
I have appointed at all their gates
a sword for slaughter.
Yes, it is ready to flash like lightning;
it is drawn for slaughter.
16 Slash to the right;
set your blade to the left—wherever your blade is directed.

17 I too will strike My hands together, and I will satisfy My wrath.'
I, Yahweh, have spoken."

18 Then the word of Yahweh came to me,
saying, 19 "Now you, son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to take, both starting from the same land. And make a signpost where the road branches off to each city. 20 Mark out one road for the sword to come against Rabbah of the Ammonites, and another against Judah into fortified Jerusalem.

21 For the king of Babylon stands at the fork in the road, at the junction of the two roads, to seek an omen: He shakes the arrows, he consults the idols, he examines the liver.

22 In his right hand appears the portent for Jerusalem, where he is to set up battering rams, to call for the slaughter, to lift a battle cry, to direct the battering rams against the gates, to build a ramp, and to erect a siege wall. 23 It will seem like a false omen to the eyes of those who have sworn allegiance to him, but it will draw attention to their guilt and take them captive.

24 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh
says: 'Because you have drawn attention to your guilt, exposing your transgressions, so that your sins are revealed in all your deeds—because you have come to remembrance—you shall be taken in hand.

27 A ruin, a ruin,

And it will not be restored

THE SINS OF JERUSALEM

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "As for you, son of man, will you judge her? Will you pass judgment on the city of bloodshed? Then confront her with all her abominations 3 and tell her that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'O city who brings her own doom by shedding blood within her walls and making idols to defile herself, 4 you are guilty of the blood you have shed, and you are defiled by the idols you have made. You have brought your days to a close and have come to the end of your years. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations and a mockery to all the lands. 5 Those near and far will mock you, O infamous city, full of turmoil.

6 See how every prince of Israel within you has used his power to shed blood. 7 Father and mother are treated with contempt. Within your walls the foreign resident is exploited, the fatherless and the widow are oppressed.

8 You have despised My holy things and profaned My Sabbaths. 9 Among you are slanderous men bent on bloodshed; within you are those who eat on the mountain shrines and commit acts of indecency.

10 In you they have uncovered the nakedness of their fathers; in you they violate women during their menstrual impurity. 11 One man commits an abomination with his neighbor's wife; another wickedly defiles his daughter-in-law; and yet another violates his sister, his own father's daughter.

12 In you they take bribes to shed blood. You engage in usury, take excess interest, and extort your neighbors. But Me you have forgotten, declares the Lord Yahweh.

THE REFINING FURNACE

17 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are copper, tin, iron, and lead inside the furnace; they are but the dross of silver.

19 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because all of you have become dross, behold, I will gather you into Jerusalem. 20 Just as one gathers silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin into the furnace to melt with a fiery blast, so I will gather you in My anger and wrath, leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yes, I will gather you together and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you will be melted within the city. 22 As silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted within the city. Then you will know that I,

you.'"

ISRAEL'S WICKED LEADERS

23 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, say to her, 'In the day of indignation, you are a land that has not been cleansed, upon which no rain has fallen.'

25 The conspiracy of the princes in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing its prey.
They devour the people, seize the treasures and precious things, and multiply the widows within her.

26 Her priests do violence to My law and profane My holy things. They make no distinction between the holy and the common, and they fail to distinguish between the clean and the unclean. They disregard My Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

27 Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey, shedding blood, and destroying lives for dishonest gain.

28 Her prophets whitewash these deeds by false visions and lying divinations, saying,
'This is what the Lord Yahweh says,' when Yahweh has not spoken.

29 The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery. They have oppressed the poor and needy and have exploited the foreign resident without justice.

30 I searched for a man among them to repair the wall and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, so that I should not destroy it. But I found no one. 31 So I have poured out My indignation upon them and consumed them with the fire of My fury. I have brought their ways down upon their own heads, declares the Lord Yahweh."

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

*Two sisters, Samaria and Jerusalem, chase foreign powers and their gods instead of God. It is a hard picture of unfaithfulness. The point is clear:
you cannot be married to God and to idols at the same time.*

THE TWO ADULTEROUS SISTERS

1 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother, 3 and they played in Egypt, prostituting themselves from their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their virgin bo-soms caressed. 4 The older was named birth to sons and daughters. As for their identities, Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

5 Oholah prostituted herself while she was still Mine. She lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians—warriors 6 clothed in blue, governors and commanders, all desirable young men, horsemen mounted on steeds. 7 She offered sexual favors to all the elite of Assyria. She defiled herself with all the idols of those for whom she lusted.

8 She did not give up the prostitution she began in Egypt, when men slept with her in her youth, caressed her virgin bosom, and poured out their lust upon her. 9 Therefore I delivered her into the hands of her lovers, the Assyrians for whom she lusted. 10 They exposed her nakedness, seized her sons and daughters, and put her to the sword. Thus she became a byword among women, and they executed judgment against her.

11 Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet in her lust and prostitution she was more depraved than her sister. 12 She too lusted after the Assyrians—governors and commanders, warriors dressed in splendor, horsemen riding on steeds, all desirable young men. 13 And I saw that she too had defiled herself; both of them had taken the same path.

14 But Oholibah carried her prostitution even further. She saw the men portrayed on the wall, images of the Chaldeans, engraved in vermilion, 15 wearing belts on their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like officers of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. 16 At the sight of them, she lusted for them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. 17 Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and in their lust they defiled her. But after she had been defiled by them, she turned away in disgust.

18 When Oholibah openly prostituted herself and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister. 19 Yet she multiplied her promiscuity, remembering the days of her youth, when she had prostituted herself in the land of Egypt 20 and lusted after their lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of stallions. 21 So you revisited the indecency of your youth, when the Egyptians caressed your bosom and pressed your young breasts.

OHOLIBAH TO BE PLAGUED

22 Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'I will incite your lovers against you, those from whom you turned away in disgust. And I will bring them against you from every side— 23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, the men of Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them—all desirable young men, governors and commanders, officers and men of renown, mounted on horses.

24 They will come against you with a host of peoples, with weapons, chariots, and wagons. They will array themselves against you on every side with buckler and shield and helmet. I will delegate judgment to them, and they will punish you according to their own standards. 25 And I will set My jealous rage against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will seize your sons and daughters, and your remnant will be consumed by fire. 26 They will strip off your clothes and take your fine jewelry. 27 So I will put an end to your indecency and prostitution, which began in the land of Egypt, and you will not lift your eyes to them or remember Egypt anymore.'

28 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Surely I will deliver you into the hands of those you hate, from whom you turned away in disgust. 29 They will treat you with hatred, take all for which you have worked, and leave you naked and bare, so that the shame of your prostitution will be exposed. Your indecency and promiscuity 30 have brought these things upon you, because you have prostituted yourself with the nations and defiled yourself with their idols. 31 Because you have followed the path of your sister, I will put her cup into your hand.'

32 This is what the Lord Yahweh says:

'You will drink your sister's cup,
a cup deep and wide.
It will bring scorn and derision,
for it holds so much.
33 You will be filled with drunkenness and grief,
with a cup of devastation and desolation,
the cup of your sister Samaria.
34 You will drink it and drain it;
you will dash it to pieces,
and tear your breasts.
For I have spoken,'
declares the Lord Yahweh.

35 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because you have forgotten Me and have cast Me behind your back, you must bear the consequences of your indecency and prostitution.'"

JUDGMENT ON BOTH SISTERS

36 Then Yahweh said to me: "Son of man, will you pass judgment against Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. 37 For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols. They have even sacrificed their children, whom they bore to Me, in the fire as food for their idols.

38 They have also done this to Me: On that very same day, they defiled My sanctuary and profaned My Sabbaths. 39 On the very day they slaughtered their children for their idols, they entered My sanctuary to profane it. Yes, they did this inside My house.

40 Furthermore, you sisters sent messengers for men who came from afar; and behold, when they arrived, you bathed for them, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry. 41 You sat on a couch of luxury with a table spread before it, on which you had set My incense and My oil, 42 accompanied by the sound of a carefree crowd. Drunkards were brought in from the desert along with men from the rabble, who put bracelets on your wrists and beautiful crowns on your head.

43 Then I said of her who had grown old in adulteries: 'Now let them use her as a prostitute, for that is all she is!'

44 And they slept with her as with a prostitute; they slept with Oholah and Oholibah, those lewd women. 45 But righteous men will sentence them to the punishment of those who commit adultery and bloodshed, because they are adulteresses with blood on their hands.

46 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Bring a mob against them and consign them to terror and plunder. 47 The mob will stone them and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses. 48 So I will put an end to indecency in the land, and all the women will be admonished not to imitate your behavior. 49 They will repay you for your indecency, and you will bear the consequences of your sins of idolatry. Then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.'"

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

The siege of Jerusalem begins the very day God tells Ezekiel. Then the hardest moment in the book: Ezekiel's wife dies, and God tells him not to mourn in public, as a sign. The people's grief will be too big for tears.

THE PARABLE OF THE COOKING POT

1 In the ninth year, on the tenth day of the tenth month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, write down today's date, for on this very day the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem. 3 Now speak a parable to this rebellious house and tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

'Put the pot on the fire;
put it on and pour in the water.
4 Put in the pieces of meat, every good piece—
thigh and shoulder—
fill it with choice bones.
5 Take the choicest of the flock and pile the fuel beneath it.
Bring it to a boil
and cook the bones in it.'

6 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

'Woe to the city of bloodshed,
to the pot now rusted,
whose rust will not come off!
Empty it piece by piece;
cast no lots for its contents.
7 For the blood she shed is still within her;
she poured it out on the bare rock;
she did not pour it on the ground to cover it with dust.
8 In order to stir up wrath
and take vengeance,
I have placed her blood on the bare rock,
so that it would not be covered.'

9 Yes, this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

'Woe to the city of bloodshed!
I, too, will pile the kindling high.
10 Pile on the logs and kindle the fire;
cook the meat well
and mix in the spices;
let the bones be burned.
11 Set the empty pot on its coals until it becomes hot and its copper glows.
Then its impurity will melt within;
its rust will be consumed.
12 It has frustrated every effort;
its thick rust has not been removed,
even by the fire.
13 Because of the indecency of your uncleanness
I tried to cleanse you,
but you would not be purified
from your filthiness.
You will not be pure again
until My wrath against you has subsided.
14 I, Yahweh, have spoken;
the time is coming, and I will act.
I will not refrain or show pity,
nor will I relent.
I will judge you
according to your ways and deeds,'
declares the Lord Yahweh."

EZEKIEL'S WIFE DIES

15 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 16 "Son of man, behold, I am about to take away the desire of your eyes with a fatal blow. But you must not mourn or weep or let your tears flow. 17 Groan quietly; do not mourn for the dead. Put on your turban and strap your sandals on your feet; do not cover your lips or eat the bread of mourners."

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And the next morning I did as I had been commanded.

19 Then the people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things you are doing mean to us?"

20 So I answered them, "The word of Yahweh came to me, saying: 21 Tell the house of Israel that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'I am about to desecrate My sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and the delight of your soul. And the sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword.'

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS
Ammon, Moab, Edom and the Philistines laughed when Jerusalem fell. God says: I saw that. Each one gets its own short message.

A PROPHECY AGAINST AMMON

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them. 3 Tell the Ammonites to hear the word of the Lord Yahweh, for this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because you exclaimed, "Aha!" when My sanctuary was profaned, when the land of Israel was laid waste, and when the house of Judah went into exile, 4 therefore I will indeed give you as a possession to the people of the East. They will set up their camps and pitch their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk. 5 I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels, and Ammon a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.'

6 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because you clapped your hands and stomped your feet and rejoiced over the land of Israel with a heart full of contempt, 7 therefore I will indeed stretch out My hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and exterminate you from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am Yahweh.'

A PROPHECY AGAINST MOAB

8 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because Moab and Seir said, "Look, the house of Judah is like all the other nations," 9 therefore I will indeed expose the flank of Moab beginning with its frontier cities—Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim—the glory of the land. 10 I will give it along with the Ammonites as a possession to the people of the East, so that the Ammonites will no longer be remembered among the nations. 11 So I will execute judgments on Moab, and they will know that I am Yahweh.'

A PROPHECY AGAINST EDOM

12 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Because Edom acted vengefully against the house of Judah, and in so doing incurred grievous guilt, 13 therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: I will stretch out My hand against Edom and cut off from it both man and beast. I will make it a wasteland, and from Teman to Dedan they will fall by the sword. 14 I will take My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, and they will deal with Edom according to My anger and wrath. Then they will know My vengeance, declares the Lord Yahweh.'

Tyre, the rich island city, cheered when Jerusalem fell. God says many nations will come against her like waves, and her stones will be thrown into the sea. Keep reading; history has a twist.

A PROPHECY AGAINST TYRE // ISAIAH 23:1–18

1 In the eleventh month of the twelfth year, on the first day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said of Jerusalem, 'Aha! The gate to the nations is broken; it has swung open to me; now that she lies in ruins I will be filled,' 3 therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, O Tyre, I am against you, and I will raise up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves. 4 They will destroy the walls of Tyre and demolish her towers. I will scrape the soil from her and make her a bare rock. 5 She will become a place to spread nets in the sea, for I have spoken, declares the Lord Yahweh. She will become plunder for the nations, 6 and the villages on her mainland will be slain by the sword. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.'

7 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I will bring against Tyre from the north Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses and chariots, with cavalry and a great company of troops. 8 He will slaughter the villages of your mainland with the sword; he will set up siege works against you, build a ramp to your walls, and raise his shields against you. 9 He will direct the blows of his battering rams against your walls and tear down your towers with his axes. 10 His multitude of horses will cover you in their dust.

When he enters your gates as an army entering a breached city, your walls will shake from the noise of cavalry, wagons, and chariots. 11 The hooves of his horses will trample all your streets. He will slaughter your people with the sword, and your mighty pillars will fall to the ground. 12 They will plunder your wealth and pillage your merchandise. They will demolish your walls, tear down your beautiful homes, and throw your stones and timber and soil into the water.

13 So I will silence the sound of your songs, and the music of your lyres will no longer be heard. 14 I will make you a bare rock, and you will become a place to spread the fishing nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I, Yahweh, have spoken, declares the Lord Yahweh.'

TYRE AND THE CAUSEWAY

EZEKIEL 26:3 TO 14 · 29:17 TO 20

The Roman colonnaded street on what was once the island of Tyre, Lebanon. Photo Heretiq, CC BY SA 2.5.

WHAT IT IS

Tyre, the great port of the Phoenicians, had two parts: an old town on the mainland and a walled city on a rocky island about half a mile offshore. Ezekiel said many nations would come against her like waves, 26:3.

HOW OLD IT IS

Tyre was already old in Joshua's day, Joshua 19:29, and Hiram of Tyre helped David and Solomon build, 1 Kings 5. The ruins in the photo are later, from Roman and Byzantine times.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S SIEGE

Josephus, quoting old records of Tyre, says Babylon besieged it for thirteen years, about 586 to 573 BC. The mainland towns fell, 26:8, but the island held out. Tyre seems to have given in at last, but Nebuchadnezzar got little loot, and Ezekiel 29:18 says so.

ALEXANDER'S CAUSEWAY

In 332 BC Alexander the Great could not reach the island. So his army tore down old mainland Tyre and dumped its stones, timber and soil into the sea to build a road out to the island. After seven months the city fell. Arrian and Diodorus tell the story. Compare 26:12: they will throw your stones, timber and soil into the water.

A PLACE FOR NETS

Over the centuries sand piled up along Alexander's road, so the island is now joined to the land. Ezekiel said Tyre would be a place to spread fishing nets, 26:5 and 26:14.

HONEST QUESTIONS

A town called Tyre stands today on the old island. Readers explain you will never be rebuilt, 26:14, in different ways: the old mainland city, or Tyre as a great power, or the many nations of 26:3 coming one wave after another. Some critics say the words about Nebuchadnezzar did not fully come true; Ezekiel himself reports that he got no wages there, 29:18.

TYRE IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

Jesus went to the region of Tyre and healed a Gentile mother's daughter, Mark 7:24 to 30. Paul stayed a week with the believers in Tyre, Acts 21:3 to 7.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Tyre's wealth and island walls could not keep it safe. Wave after wave of armies came, just as Ezekiel said.

GOD SPEAKING

saying, 2 "Now you, son of man, take up a lament for Tyre. 3 Tell Tyre, who dwells at the gateway to the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coasts, that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

You have said, O Tyre,
'I am perfect in beauty.'
4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas;
your builders perfected your beauty.
5 They constructed all your planking with cypress from Senir.
They took a cedar from Lebanon
to make a mast for you.
6 Of oaks from Bashan
they made your oars;
of wood from the coasts of Cyprus
they made your deck, inlaid with ivory.
7 Of embroidered fine linen from Egypt
they made your sail,
which served as your banner.
Of blue and purple from the coasts of El-ishah
they made your awning.

8 The men of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen.
Your men of skill, O Tyre,
were there as your captains.
9 The elders of Gebal were aboard as shipwrights,
repairing your leaks.
All the ships of the sea and their sailors came alongside to barter for your merchandise.

10 Men of Persia, Lydia, and Put served as warriors in your army.
They hung their shields and helmets on your walls;
they gave you splendor.
11 Men of Arvad and Helech manned your walls all around,
and the men of Gammad
were in your towers.
They hung their shields around your walls;
they perfected your beauty.

12 Tarshish was your merchant because of your great wealth of goods; they exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your wares.
13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your merchants. They exchanged slaves and bronze utensils for your merchandise.

14 The men of Beth-togarmah exchanged horses, war horses, and mules for your wares.
15 The men of Dedan were your clients;
many coastlands were your market;
they paid you with ivory tusks and ebony.
16 Aram was your customer because of your many products; they exchanged turquoise, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies for your
wares.
17 Judah and the land of Israel traded with you; they exchanged wheat from Min-nith, cakes and honey, oil and balm for your merchandise.
18 Because of your many products and your great wealth of goods, Damascus traded with you wine from Helbon, wool from Zahar, 19 and casks of wine from Izal for your wares. Wrought iron, cassia, and sweet cane were exchanged for your merchandise.
20 Dedan was your merchant in saddle-cloths for riding.
21 Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your customers, trading in lambs, rams, and goats.
22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you; for your wares they exchanged gold, the finest of all spices, and precious stones.
23 Haran, Canneh, and Eden traded with you, and so did the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad. 24 In your marketplace they traded with you fine garments of blue, embroidered work, and multicolored rugs with cords tightly twisted and knotted.

25 The ships of Tarshish carried your merchandise.
And you were filled with heavy cargo
in the heart of the sea.
26 Your oarsmen have brought you onto the high seas,
but the east wind will shatter you
in the heart of the sea.
27 Your wealth, wares, and merchandise,
your sailors, captains, and shipwrights,
your merchants and all the warriors within
you,
with all the other people on board,
will sink into the heart of the sea
on the day of your downfall.

28 The countryside will shake when your sailors cry out.
29 All who handle the oars will abandon their ships.
The sailors and all the captains of the sea will stand on the shore.
30 They will raise their voices for you and cry out bitterly.
They will throw dust on their heads and roll in ashes.
31 They will shave their heads for you and wrap themselves in sackcloth.
They will weep over you with anguish of soul and bitter mourning.

32 As they wail and mourn over you,
they will take up a lament for you:

'Who was ever like Tyre,
silenced in the middle of the sea?
33 When your wares went out to sea,
you satisfied many nations.
You enriched the kings of the earth with your abundant wealth and merchandise.
34 Now you are shattered by the seas
in the depths of the waters;
your merchandise and the people among
you
have gone down with you.
35 All the people of the coastlands are appalled over you.
Their kings shudder with fear;
their faces are contorted.
36 Those who trade among the nations
hiss at you;
you have come to a horrible end
and will be no more.'"

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN HISTORY GOD SPEAKING

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS

The ruler of Tyre thinks he is a god. Then comes a strange lament about a guardian cherub in Eden, perfect until pride was found in him. Readers have wondered ever since who that is really about.

A PROPHECY AGAINST THE RULER OF TYRE

1 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, tell the ruler of Tyre
that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

Your heart is proud,
and you have said,
'I am a god;
I sit in the seat of gods
in the heart of the sea.'
Yet you are a man and not a god, though you have regarded your heart
as that of a god.

3 Behold, you are wiser than Daniel;
no secret is hidden from you!
4 By your wisdom and understanding you have gained your wealth and amassed gold and silver for your treasuries.
5 By your great skill in trading you have increased your wealth, but your heart has grown proud because of it.

6 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh
says:

Because you regard your heart
as the heart of a god, 7 behold, I will bring foreigners against
you,
the most ruthless of nations.
They will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and will defile your splendor.
8 They will bring you down to the Pit, and you will die a violent death
in the heart of the seas.

9 Will you still say, 'I am a god,'
in the presence of those who slay you?
You will be only a man, not a god,
in the hands of those who wound you.
10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised
at the hands of foreigners.

For I have spoken,
declares the Lord Yahweh."

A LAMENT FOR THE KING OF TYRE

11 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 12 "Son of man, take up a lament for the king of Tyre and tell him that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

'You were the seal of perfection,
full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
13 You were in Eden,
the garden of God.
Every kind of precious stone adorned you:
ruby, topaz, and diamond,
beryl, onyx, and jasper,
sapphire, turquoise, and emerald.
Your mountings and settings were crafted
in gold,
prepared on the day of your creation.

14 You were anointed as a guardian cherub,
for I had ordained you.
You were on the holy mountain of God;
you walked among the fiery stones.
15 From the day you were created you were blameless in your ways—until wickedness was found in you.

16 By the vastness of your trade, you were filled with violence, and you sinned.
So I drove you in disgrace
from the mountain of God, and I banished you, O guardian cherub,
from among the fiery stones.
17 Your heart grew proud of your beauty;
you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor;

so I cast you to the earth;
I made you a spectacle before kings.
18 By the multitude of your iniquities and the dishonesty of your trading you have profaned your sanctuaries.

I reduced you to ashes on the ground

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO IS THE PRINCE OF TYRE?

Ezekiel 28 and the Fall of Satan

EZEKIEL 28:1 TO 19

TWO MESSAGES

28:1 to 10 speaks to the ruler of Tyre, a man who says I am a god, 28:2. Then 28:11 to 19 is a lament for the king of Tyre, and the words grow strange: perfect in beauty, in Eden, the garden of God, a guardian cherub on God's holy mountain, blameless until wickedness was found in you.

THE KING IN EZEKIEL'S DAY

Tyre's king then was Ithobaal III, rich and proud of his trading, 28:5.

WHY IT IS A QUESTION

No human king lived in Eden or was a cherub. So readers ask: is Ezekiel using big poetry about a man, or looking past the man to someone else?

Every View

ISAIAH 14:12 TO 15 · GENESIS 3 · 1 TIMOTHY 3:6 · LUKE 10:18

VIEW 1: SATAN BEHIND THE KING

Many Christians, from early writers like Tertullian and Origen to many today, read 28:12 to 19 as the fall of Satan: created good, lifted up by pride and thrown down. Paul warns about the devil's pride, 1 Timothy 3:6, and Isaiah 14:12 to 15 is often read the same way.

VIEW 2: A KING PICTURED AS ADAM

Many scholars read it as the human king pictured like Adam: placed in a garden, dressed in glory, thrown out for pride.

The Greek Bible reads you were with the cherub, not you were the cherub.

VIEW 3: BOTH

Some say it speaks to the real king, but the pride behind him is Satan's, the way Jesus spoke to Satan through Peter, Matthew 16:23.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Pride ruins. Beauty, wisdom and wealth turned into I am a god. God opposes the proud and gives grace to the humble, James 4:6.

A PROPHECY AGAINST SIDON

20 Then the word of Yahweh came to me,
saying, 21 "Son of man, set your face
against Sidon and prophesy against her.
22 And you are to declare that this is what
the Lord Yahweh says:

'Behold, I am against you, O Sidon, and I will be glorified within you.
They will know that I am Yahweh
when I execute judgments against her and demonstrate My holiness through her.
23 I will send a plague against her and shed blood in her streets;
the slain will fall within her,
while the sword is against her on every side.

Then they will know that I am Yahweh.
24 For the people of Israel will no longer face a pricking brier or a painful thorn from all around them who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.'

THE RESTORATION OF ISRAEL // JEREMIAH 30:1–17

25 This is what the Lord Yahweh says:
'When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they have been scattered, I will show Myself holy among them in the sight of the nations.
Then they will dwell in their own land,
which I have given to My servant Jacob.
26 And there they will dwell securely, build houses, and plant vineyards. They will dwell securely when I execute judgments

CHAPTER 29 IN 30 SECONDS

Pharaoh is a big monster in the Nile who says the river is his. God will drag him out with hooks. Egypt was always a weak reed for Israel to lean on.

A PROPHECY AGAINST PHARAOH

1 In the tenth year, on the twelfth day of the tenth month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. 3 Speak to him and tell him that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

Behold, I am against you,
O Pharaoh king of Egypt,
O great monster who lies
among his rivers,
who says, 'The Nile is mine;
I made it myself.'

4 But I will put hooks in your jaws and cause the fish of your streams to cling to your scales.
I will haul you up out of your rivers,
and all the fish of your streams will cling to your scales.
5 I will leave you in the desert,
you and all the fish of your streams.
You will fall on the open field and will not be taken away or gathered for burial.
I have given you as food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the air.
6 Then all the people of Egypt
will know that I am Yahweh.

For you were only a staff of reeds
to the house of Israel.
7 When Israel took hold of you with their hands,
you splintered, tearing all their shoulders;
when they leaned on you,
you broke, and their backs were wrenched.

THE DESOLATION OF EGYPT

8 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: I will bring a sword against you and cut off from you man and beast. 9 The land of Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

Because you said, 'The Nile is mine; I made it,' 10 therefore I am against you and against your rivers. I will turn the land of Egypt into a ruin, a desolate wasteland from Migdol to Syene, and as far as the border of Cush. 11 No foot of man or beast will pass through, and it will be uninhabited for forty years.

12 I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among desolate lands, and her cities will lie desolate for forty years among the ruined cities. And I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them throughout the countries.

13 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says:
At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations to which they were scattered. 14 I will restore Egypt from captivity and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin. There they will be a lowly kingdom.

15 Egypt will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the nations. For I will diminish Egypt so that it will never again rule over the nations. 16 Egypt will never again be an object of trust for the house of Israel, but will remind them of their iniquity in turning to the Egyptians. Then they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

EGYPT THE REWARD OF NEBUCHADNEZZAR

17 In the twenty-seventh year, on the first day of the first month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to labor strenuously against Tyre.
Every head was made bald and every shoulder made raw. But he and his army received no wages from Tyre for the labor
they expended on it.

19 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh
says: I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will carry off its wealth, seize its spoil, and remove its plunder. This will be the wages for his army. 20 I have given him the land of Egypt as the reward for his labor, because it was done for Me, declares the Lord Yahweh.

21 In that day I will cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth to speak among them. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

The day of Yahweh comes for Egypt and her friends. God breaks Pharaoh's arm, and it will not heal. Babylon's arm gets stronger.

A LAMENT FOR EGYPT

1 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy and declare that this is what the Lord Yahweh
says:

Wail, 'Alas
for that day!'
3 For the day is near,
the Day of Yahweh is near.
It will be a day of clouds,
a time of doom for the nations.
4 A sword will come against Egypt, and there will be anguish in Cush
when the slain fall in Egypt,
its wealth is taken away,
and its foundations are torn down.
5 Cush, Put, and Lud,
and all the various peoples,
as well as Libya and the men of the covenant land,
will fall with Egypt by the sword.

6 For this is what Yahweh says:

The allies of Egypt will fall,
and her proud strength will collapse.
From Migdol to Syene
they will fall by the sword within her,
declares the Lord Yahweh.
7 They will be desolate among desolate lands,
and their cities will lie among ruined cities.
8 Then they will know that I am Yahweh
when I set fire to Egypt and all her helpers are shattered.
9 On that day messengers will go out from Me in ships to frighten Cush out of complacency. Anguish will come upon them on the day of Egypt's doom. For it is indeed coming.

10 This is what the Lord Yahweh says:

I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
11 He and his people with him,
the most ruthless of the nations,
will be brought in to destroy the land.
They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.
12 I will make the streams dry up and sell the land to the wicked.
By the hands of foreigners I will bring desolation
upon the land and everything in it.
I, Yahweh, have spoken.

PHARAOH'S POWER BROKEN

20 In the eleventh year, on the seventh day of the first month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. See, it has not been bound up for healing, or splinted for strength to hold the sword.

22 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break his arms, both the strong one and the one already broken, and will make the sword fall from his hand. 23 I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands.

24 I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king and place My sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, who will groan before him like a mortally wounded man. 25 I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king, but Pharaoh's arms will fall limp.

Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I place My sword in the hand of Babylon's king, and he wields it against the land of Egypt. 26 I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

CHAPTER 31 IN 30 SECONDS

Assyria was once like a giant cedar, the tallest tree in the garden of God. It fell anyway. Pharaoh, take note.

EGYPT WILL FALL LIKE ASSYRIA

1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the third month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

'Who can be compared to your greatness?
3 Look at Assyria, a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches that shaded the forest.
It towered on high;
its top was among the clouds.
4 The waters made it grow;
the deep springs made it tall, directing their streams all around its base and sending their channels to all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore it towered higher than all the trees of the field.
Its branches multiplied,
and its boughs grew long as it spread them out
because of the abundant waters.
6 All the birds of the air
nested in its branches,
and all the beasts of the field gave birth beneath its boughs;

all the great nations

7 It was beautiful in its greatness,
in the length of its limbs,
for its roots extended to abundant waters.
8 The cedars in the garden of God
could not rival it;
the cypresses could not compare with its branches,
nor the plane trees match its boughs.
No tree in the garden of God could compare with its beauty.
9 I made it beautiful with its many branches,
the envy of all the trees of Eden,
which were in the garden of God.'

10 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Since it became great in height and set its top among the clouds, and its heart grew proud of its height, 11 I delivered it into the hand of the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with it according to its wickedness. I have banished it.

12 Foreigners, the most ruthless of the nations, cut it down and left it. Its branches have fallen on the mountains and in every valley; its boughs lay broken in all the earth's ravines. And all the peoples of the earth left its shade and abandoned it.

13 All the birds of the air nested on its fallen trunk, and all the beasts of the field lived among its boughs. 14 This happened so that no other trees by the waters would become great in height and set their tops among the clouds, and no other well-watered trees would reach them in height. For they have all been consigned to death, to the depths of the earth, among the mortals who descend to the Pit.'

15 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'On the day it was brought down to Sheol, I caused mourning. I covered the deep because of it; I held back its rivers; its abundant waters were restrained. I made Lebanon mourn for it, and all the trees of the field fainted because of it. 16 I made the nations quake at the sound of its downfall, when I cast it down to Sheol with those who descend to the Pit.

Then all the trees of Eden, the choicest and best of Lebanon, all the well-watered trees, were consoled in the earth below. 17 They too descended with it to Sheol, to those slain by the sword. As its allies they had lived in its shade among the nations.

18 Who then is like you in glory and greatness among the trees of Eden? You also will be brought down to the depths of the earth to be with the trees of Eden. You will lie among the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, declares the Lord Yahweh.'"

8 All the shining lights in the heavens

9 'I will trouble the hearts of many peoples,

10 I will cause many peoples to be appalled over you,
and their kings will shudder in horror because of you when I brandish My sword before them.

11 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

12 I will make your hordes fall

the most ruthless of all nations.
They will ravage the pride of Egypt

when I strike down all who live there,
then they will know that I am Yahweh.'

16 This is the lament they will chant for her;
the daughters of the nations will chant it.
Over Egypt and all her multitudes they will chant it, declares the Lord Yahweh."

EGYPT CAST INTO THE PIT

17 In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, wail for the multitudes of Egypt, and consign her and the daughters of the mighty nations to the depths of the earth with those who descend to the Pit:

19 Whom do you surpass in beauty?

CHAPTER 33 IN 30 SECONDS

God makes Ezekiel a watchman again. Then the news arrives: the city has fallen. People love to hear Ezekiel, like a good singer, but they do not do what he says.

EZEKIEL THE WATCHMAN FOR ISRAEL

1 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, speak to your people and tell them: 'Suppose I bring the sword against a land, and the people of that land choose a man from among them, appointing him as their watchman, 3 and he sees the sword coming against that land and blows the ram's horn to warn the people.

4 Then if anyone hears the sound of the horn but fails to heed the warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. 5 Since he heard the sound of the horn but failed to heed the warning, his blood will be on his own head. If he had heeded the warning, he would have saved his life.

6 But if the watchman sees the sword coming and fails to blow the horn to warn the people, and the sword comes and takes away a life, then that one will be taken away in his iniquity, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood.'

7 As for you, O son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word from My mouth and give them the warning from Me. 8 If I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' but you do not speak out to dissuade him from his way, then that wicked man will die in his iniquity, yet I will hold you accountable for his blood. 9 But if you warn the wicked man to turn from his way, and he does not turn from it, he will die in his iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE DEMONIC NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING

THE MESSAGE OF THE WATCHMAN

10 Now as for you, son of man, tell the house of Israel that this is what they have said: 'Our transgressions and our sins are heavy upon us, and we are wasting away because of them! How can we live?'

11 Say to them: 'As surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked should turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! For why should you die, O house of Israel?'

12 Therefore, son of man, say to your people: 'The righteousness of the righteous man will not deliver him in the day of his transgression; neither will the wickedness of the wicked man cause him to stumble on the day he turns from his wickedness. Nor will the righteous man be able to survive by his righteousness on the day he sins.'

13 If I tell the righteous man that he will surely live, but he then trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, then none of his righteous works will be remembered; he will die because of the iniquity he has committed.

14 But if I tell the wicked man, 'You will surely die,' and he turns from his sin and does what is just and right— 15 if he restores a pledge, makes restitution for what he has stolen, and walks in the statutes of life without practicing iniquity—then he will surely live; he will not die. 16 None of the sins he has committed will be held against him. He has done what is just and right; he will surely live.

17 Yet your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' But it is their way that is not just. 18 If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die for it. 19 But if a wicked man turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live because of this.

20 Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' But I will judge each of you according to his ways, O house of Israel."

WORD OF JERUSALEM'S FALL

21 In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a fugitive from Jerusalem came to me and reported, "The city has been taken!"

22 Now the evening before the fugitive arrived, the hand of Yahweh was upon me, and He opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.

23 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, those living in the ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as a possession.'

25 Therefore tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'You eat meat with the blood in it, lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. Should you then possess the land? 26 You have relied on your swords, you have committed detestable acts, and each of you has defiled his neighbor's wife. Should you then possess the land?'

27 Tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'As surely as I live, those in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the open field I will give to be devoured by wild animals, and those in the strongholds and caves will die by plague. 28 I will make the land a desolate waste, and the pride of her strength will come to an end. 30 As for you, son of man, your people are talking about you near the city walls and in the doorways of their houses. One speaks to another, each saying to his brother, 'Come and hear the message that has come from Yahweh!'

31 So My people come to you as usual, sit before you, and hear your words; but they do not put them into practice. Although they express love with their mouths, their hearts pursue dishonest gain. 32 Indeed, you are to them like a singer of love songs with a beautiful voice, who skillfully plays an instrument. They hear your words but do not put them into practice. 33 So when it comes to pass—and surely it will come—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

CHAPTER 34 IN 30 SECONDS

God takes on the bad shepherds, Israel's leaders, who fed themselves and not the sheep. So God will be the Shepherd Himself. He will set over them one Shepherd, My servant David.

A PROPHECY AGAINST ISRAEL'S SHEPHERDS

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Woe to the shepherds of Israel, who only feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed their flock? 3 You eat the fat, wear the wool, and butcher the fattened sheep, but you do not feed the flock.

4 You have not strengthened the weak, healed the sick, bound up the injured, brought back the strays, or searched for the lost. Instead, you have ruled them with violence and cruelty. 5 They were scattered for lack of a shepherd, and when they were scattered they became food for all the wild beasts. 6 My flock went astray on all the mountains and every high hill. They were scattered over the face of all the earth, with no one to search for them or seek them out.'

7 Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: 8 'As surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, because My flock lacks a shepherd and has become prey and food for every wild beast, and because My shepherds did not search for My flock but fed themselves instead, 9 therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh!'

10 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will demand from them My flock and remove them from tending the flock, so that they can no longer feed themselves. For I will deliver My flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.'

THE GOOD SHEPHERD // PSALM 23:1–6; JOHN 10:1–21

11 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I Myself will search for My flock and seek them out. 12 As a shepherd looks for his scattered sheep when he is among the flock, so I will look for My flock.

I will rescue them from all the places to which they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness. 13 I will bring them out from the peoples, gather them from the countries, and bring them into their own land. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines, and in all the settlements of the land. 14 I will feed them in good pasture, and the lofty mountains of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in a good grazing land; they will feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

15 I will tend My flock and make them lie down, declares the Lord Yahweh. 16 I will seek the lost, bring back the strays, bind up the broken, and strengthen the weak; but the sleek and strong I will destroy. I will shepherd them with justice.'

17 This is what the Lord Yahweh says to you, My flock: 'I will judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and the goats. 18 Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of the pasture with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink the clear waters? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? 19 Why must My flock feed on what your feet have trampled, and drink what your feet have muddied?'

20 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says to them: 'Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. 21 Since you shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak ones with your horns until you have scattered them abroad, 22 I will save My flock, and they will no longer be prey. I will judge between one sheep and another. 23 I will appoint over them one shepherd, My servant David, and he will feed them. He will feed them and be their shepherd. 24 I, Yahweh, will be their God, and My servant David will be a prince among them. I, Yahweh, have spoken.

THE COVENANT OF PEACE

25 I will make with them a covenant of peace and rid the land of wild animals, so that they may dwell securely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest. 26 I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. I will send down showers in season—showers of blessing. 27 The trees of the field will give their fruit, and the land will yield its produce; My flock will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I have broken the bars of their yoke and delivered them from the hands that enslaved them.

28 They will no longer be prey for the nations, and the beasts of the earth will not consume them. They will dwell securely, and no one will frighten them.

29 And I will raise up for them a garden of renown, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land or bear the scorn of the nations. 30 Then they will know that I, Yahweh their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people,' declares the Lord Yahweh.

31 'You are My flock, the sheep of My pasture, My people, and I am your God,' declares the Lord Yahweh."

CHAPTER 35 IN 30 SECONDS

Edom, Israel's old rival, wanted the land for itself. God says Mount Seir will become a wasteland. Gloating does not age well.

A PROPHECY AGAINST MOUNT SEIR

1 Moreover, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it, 3 and declare that this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

O Mount Seir.

5 Because you harbored an ancient hatred and delivered the Israelites over to the sword in the time of their disaster at the final stage of their punishment, 6 therefore as surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, I will give you over to bloodshed and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, it will pursue you.

7 I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and will cut off from it those who come and go. 8 I will fill its mountains with the slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. 9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

10 Because you have said, 'These two nations and countries will be ours, and we will possess them,' even though Yahweh was there, 11 therefore as surely as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh, I will treat you according to the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred against them, and I will make Myself known among them when I judge you.

12 Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have heard every contemptuous word you uttered against the mountains of Israel when you said, 'They are desolate; they are given to us to devour!' 13 You boasted against Me with your mouth and multiplied your words against Me. I heard it Myself!

14 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. 15 As you rejoiced when the inheritance of the house of Israel became desolate, so will I do to you. You will become a desolation, O Mount Seir, and so will all of Edom. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

CHAPTER 36 IN 30 SECONDS

The mountains of Israel will be green again and full of people. Then one of the best promises in the Bible: a new heart and a new spirit. God will put His own Spirit inside His people.

A PROPHECY TO THE MOUNTAINS OF ISRAEL

1 "And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say: O mountains of Israel, hear the word of Yahweh. 2 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: Because the enemy has said of you, 'Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession,' 3 therefore prophesy and declare that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Because they have made you desolate and have trampled you on every side, so that you became a possession of the rest of the nations and were taken up in slander by the lips of their talkers, 4 therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh.

This is what the Lord Yahweh says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and abandoned cities, which have become a spoil and a mockery to the rest of the nations around you. 5 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Surely in My burning zeal I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who took My land as their own possession with wholehearted joy and utter contempt, so that its pastureland became plunder.

6 Therefore, prophesy concerning the land of Israel and tell the mountains and hills, the ravines and valleys, that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Behold, I have spoken in My burning zeal because you have endured the reproach of the nations.

7 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: I have sworn with an uplifted hand that surely the nations around you will endure reproach of their own. 8 But you, O mountains of Israel, will produce branches and bear fruit for My people Israel, for they will soon come home.

9 For behold, I am on your side; I will turn toward you, and you will be tilled and sown. 10 I will multiply the people upon you—the house of Israel in its entirety. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. 11 I will fill you with people and animals, and they will multiply and be fruitful. I will make you as inhabited as you once were, and I will make you prosper more than before. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

12 Yes, I will cause My people Israel to walk upon you; they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will no longer deprive them of their children.

13 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Because people say to you, 'You devour men and deprive your nation of its children,' 14 therefore you will no longer devour men or deprive your nation of its children, declares the Lord Yahweh. 15 I will no longer allow the taunts of the nations to be heard against you, and you will no longer endure the reproach of the peoples or cause your nation to stumble, declares the Lord Yahweh."

A NEW HEART AND A NEW SPIRIT // ROMANS 8:9–11; GALATIANS 5:16–26

16 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, when the people of Israel lived in their land, they defiled it by their own ways and deeds. Their behavior before Me was like the uncleanness of a woman's impurity. 18 So I poured out My wrath upon them because of the blood they had shed on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols.

19 I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered throughout the lands. I judged them according to their ways and deeds. 20 And wherever they went among the nations, they profaned My holy name, because it was said of them, 'These are the people of Yahweh, yet they had to leave His land.' 21 But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations to which they had gone.

22 Therefore tell the house of Israel that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: It is not for your sake that I will act, O house of Israel, but for My holy name, which you profaned among the nations to which you went. 23 I will show the holiness of My great name, which has been profaned among the nations—the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh, declares the Lord Yahweh, when I show My holiness in you before their eyes.

24 For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all the countries, and I will bring you back into your own land. 25 I will also sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your impurities and all your idols. 26 I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will remove your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. 27 And I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes and to carefully observe My ordinances.

28 Then you will live in the land that I gave your forefathers; you will be My people, and I will be your God. 29 I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and make it plentiful, and I will not bring famine upon you. 30 I will also make the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field plentiful, so that you will no longer bear reproach among the nations on account of famine.

31 Then you will remember your evil ways and wicked deeds, and you will loathe yourselves for your iniquities and abominations. 32 It is not for your sake that I will act, declares the Lord Yahweh— let it be known to you. Be ashamed and disgraced for your ways, O house of Israel!

33 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: On the day I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be resettled and the ruins to be rebuilt. 34 The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass through. 35 Then they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. The cities that were once ruined, desolate, and destroyed are now fortified and inhabited.'

A valley full of dry bones. God asks, Can these bones come to life? Ezekiel preaches, the bones rattle together, and God's breath makes them a living army. Then two sticks become one: one nation under one King.

THE VALLEY OF DRY BONES

1 The hand of Yahweh was upon me, and He brought me out by His Spirit and set me down in the middle of the valley, and it was full of bones. 2 He led me all around among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, and indeed, they were very dry.

3 Then He asked me, "Son of man, can these bones come to life?"

"O Lord Yahweh," I replied, "only You know."

4 And He said to me, "Prophesy concerning these bones and tell them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of Yahweh! 5 This is what the Lord Yahweh says to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you will come to life. 6 I will attach tendons to you and make flesh grow upon you and cover you with skin. I will put breath within you so that you will come to life. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.'"

7 So I prophesied as I had been commanded. And as I prophesied, there was suddenly a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to bone. 8 As I looked on, tendons appeared on them, flesh grew, and skin covered them; but there was no breath in them.

9 Then He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, son of man, and tell the breath that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe into these slain, so that they may live!"

10 So I prophesied as He had commanded me, and the breath entered them, and they came to life and stood on their feet—a vast army.

11 Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Look, they are saying, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope has perished; we are cut off.'

12 Therefore prophesy and tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'O My people, I will open your graves and bring you up from them, and I will bring you back to the land of Israel. 13 Then you, My people, will know that I am Yahweh, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. 14 I will put My Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken, and I will do it, declares Yahweh.'" rael, 37:11. The exiles said, Our bones are dried up and our hope has perished. God promises to open their graves and bring them home, 37:12.

BREATH, WIND, SPIRIT

The Hebrew word ruach means all three, and it runs through the chapter. Life comes in two steps: first bodies, then breath.

Every View

JOHN 5:28 TO 29 · JOHN 20:22 · EPHESIANS 2:1 TO 5 · ROMANS 11:15

VIEW 1: THE RETURN FROM EXILE

Many say the first meaning was this: Israel, dead as a nation in Babylon, came back to life when Cyrus let the exiles go home in 538 BC, Ezra 1.

VIEW 2: MODERN ISRAEL

Many Christians see the rebirth of Israel in 1948 here, in two steps: first a people gathered back to the land, then a spiritual awakening when God pours out His Spirit, 37:14 and 39:29.

VIEW 3: THE RESURRECTION

Early church writers like Irenaeus and Tertullian read it as a picture of the resurrection of the dead, John 5:28 to 29. The rabbis debated whether it really happened or was a parable, Sanhedrin 92b.

VIEW 4: NEW LIFE BY THE SPIRIT

Many preachers read it as God bringing dead hearts to life by His Spirit, like Jesus breathing on His disciples, John 20:22, and Ephesians 2:1 to 5.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Nothing is too dead for God. O Lord Yahweh, only You know, Ezekiel said, 37:3, and then he did what God told him.

ONE NATION WITH ONE KING

15 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 16 "And you, son of man, take a single stick and write on it: 'Belonging to Judah and to the Israelites associated with him.' Then take another stick and write on it: 'Belonging to Joseph—the stick of Ephraim—and to all the house of Israel associated with him.' 17 Then join them together into one stick, so that they become one in your hand.

18 When your people ask you, 'Won't you explain to us what you mean by these?' 19 you are to tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel associated with him, and I will put them together with the stick of Judah. I will make them into a single stick, and they will become one in My hand.'

20 When the sticks on which you write are in your hand and in full view of the people, 21 you are to tell them that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'I will take the Israelites out of the nations to which they have gone, and I will gather them from all around and bring them into their own land. 22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will rule over all of them. Then they will no longer be two nations and will never again be divided into two kingdoms.

23 They will no longer defile themselves with their idols or detestable images, or with any of their transgressions. I will save them from all their apostasies by which they sinned, and I will cleanse them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God. 24 My servant David will be king over them, and there will be one shepherd for all of them. They will follow My ordinances and keep and observe My statutes.

25 They will live in the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They will live there forever with their children and grandchildren, and My servant David will be their prince forever. 26 And I will make a covenant of peace with

The synagogue at Masada, partly rebuilt; the black line on the wall marks where the ancient stones end. The Ezekiel scroll was buried in a pit under the floor of a small room here. Photo Oren Rozen, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT THEY ARE

Seven ancient Hebrew scrolls of Ezekiel: six from caves near Qumran, called 1QEzek, 3QEzek, 4QEzek a, b and c, and 11QEzek, and one from the fortress of Masada.

HOW OLD THEY ARE

The oldest, 4QEzek a, was copied about 50 BC. The others were copied before AD 73. That is about a thousand years older than the oldest complete Hebrew Ezekiel.

THE MASADA SCROLL

In 1963 Yigael Yadin's team found pieces of an Ezekiel scroll buried in a pit in the floor of a small room in the Masada synagogue. People buried worn out holy scrolls instead of throwing them away. It holds parts of chapters 35 to 38, with the valley of dry bones.

A MESSAGE UNDER THE FLOOR

Masada fell to Rome in AD 73 or 74, and its defenders died. But under the synagogue floor the words were waiting: Can these bones come to life? 37:3.

THE QUMRAN SCROLLS

4QEzek b has part of the living creatures in chapter 1, shown in the introduction. 4QEzek a has parts of chapters 10, 11, 23 and 41. 11QEzek was so stuck together that it could hardly be opened.

WHAT THEY SHOW

The scrolls agree closely with the Hebrew text used today, with mostly small spelling differences. The Masada scroll matches it almost letter for letter.

WHY BURY A SCROLL

A scroll with God's name in it was too holy to throw away. When one wore out, people buried it, often in a room called a genizah. Burying it is what saved this one.

WHERE THEY ARE TODAY

Most of the pieces are kept by the Israel Antiquities Authority in Jerusalem. Many can be seen online in the Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

WHAT THEY DO NOT PROVE

They show how carefully Ezekiel was copied. They do not, by themselves, tell us when it was first written.

CHAPTER 38 IN 30 SECONDS

Gog of the land of Magog gathers a huge army against Israel in the latter days. They expect easy loot. God shows up instead.

A PROPHECY AGAINST GOG

1 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Gog of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Prophesy against him 3 and declare that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. 4 I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws, and bring you out with all your army—your horses, your horsemen in full armor, and a great company armed with shields and bucklers, all brandishing their swords. 5 Persia, Cush, and Put will accompany them, all with shields and helmets, 6 as well as Gomer with all its troops, and Beth-togarmah from the far north with all its troops—the many nations with you.

7 Get ready; prepare yourself, you and all your company gathered around you; you will be their guard. 8 After a long time you will be summoned. In the latter years you will enter a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and all now dwell securely. 9 You and all your troops, and many peoples with you will go up, advancing like a thunderstorm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

10 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: On that day, thoughts will arise in your heart, and you will devise an evil plan. 11 You will say, 'I will go up against a land of unwalled villages; I will come against a quiet people who dwell securely, all of them living without walls or bars or gates— 12 in order to seize the spoil and carry off the plunder, to turn a hand against the desolate places now inhabited and against a people gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and possessions and who live at the center of the land.'

13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all its villages will ask, 'Have you come to capture the plunder? Have you assembled your hordes to carry away loot, to make off with silver and gold, to take cattle and goods, to seize great spoil?'

14 Therefore prophesy, son of man, and tell Gog that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: On that day when My people Israel are dwelling securely, will you not take notice of this? 15 And you will come from your place out of the far north—you and many peoples with you, all riding horses—a mighty horde, a huge army. 16 You will advance against My people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the latter days, O Gog, that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me when I show Myself holy in you before their eyes.

17 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: Are you the one of whom I have spoken in former days through My servants, the prophets of Israel, who in those times prophesied for years that I would bring you against them? 18 Now on that day when Gog comes against the land of Israel, declares the Lord Yahweh, My wrath will flare up.

19 In My zeal and fiery rage I proclaim that on that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. 20 The fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the beasts of the field, every creature that crawls upon the ground, and all mankind on the face of the earth will tremble at My presence. The mountains will be thrown down, the cliffs will collapse, and every wall will fall to the ground.

21 And I will summon a sword against Gog on all My mountains, declares the Lord Yahweh, and every man's sword will be against his brother. 22 I will execute judgment upon him with plague and bloodshed. I will pour out torrents of rain, hailstones, fire, and sulfur on him and on his troops and on the many nations with him. 23 I will magnify and sanctify Myself, and I will reveal Myself in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

THE BIG QUESTION

GOG AND MAGOG

The Battle of the Latter Days

EZEKIEL 38 TO 39

AN END TIMES PROPHECY

Ezekiel says it happens in the latter days, 38:16, after Israel has been gathered from the nations and lives in the land, 38:8. A huge army from the far north and its allies attack, and God Himself destroys them with earthquake, hail and fire, 38:19 to 22. Many readers today place it at the end of the age.

WHO GOG IS

Gog is a leader from the land of Magog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, 38:2. Magog was a son of Japheth, Genesis 10:2. Meshech and Tubal were peoples in what is now Turkey. Some link the name Gog with Gyges, a king of Lydia in the 600s BC; others see a title for a future enemy.

ROSH AND RUSSIA

Some Bibles, like the NASB, say prince of Rosh, and some teachers have linked Rosh with Russia. Many Hebrew scholars read rosh as chief, as this Bible does, and say the two names only sound alike.

When, and Who?

REVELATION 19:17 TO 18 · REVELATION 20:7 TO 9 · GENESIS 10:2

EARLY IN THE END

Some place it before or near the start of the last seven years, Daniel 9:27, while Israel lives at peace, 38:11.

AT ARMAGEDDON

Others see it as the battle of Revelation 19, where birds are called to eat the fallen armies, a feast like Ezekiel 39:17 to 20.

AFTER THE THOUSAND YEARS

Revelation 20:7 to 9 names Gog and Magog in the last revolt after the millennium. Some put Ezekiel's battle there; others see Revelation borrowing his names. See The Millennium, Revelation, p.2111.

MORE THAN ONE BATTLE

Some think Ezekiel 38 and 39 and Revelation 20 are two different battles with the same kind of enemy.

OTHER READINGS

A smaller group reads it as already past, or as a picture of every enemy God's people face, defeated by God in the end.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God wins, and He does it Himself, so the nations will know that I am Yahweh, 38:23.

against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. 2 I will turn you around, drive you along, bring you up from the far north, and send you against the mountains of Israel. 3 Then I will strike the bow from your left hand and dash down the arrows from your right hand.

4 On the mountains of Israel you will fall—you and all your troops and the nations with you. I will give you as food to every kind of ravenous bird and wild beast. 5 You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken, declares the Lord Yahweh.

6 I will send fire on Magog and on those who dwell securely in the coastlands, and they will know that I am Yahweh. 7 So I will make My holy name known among My people Israel and will no longer allow it to be profaned. Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel. 8 Yes, it is coming, and it will surely happen, declares the Lord Yahweh. This is the day of which I have spoken.

9 Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out, kindle fires, and burn up the weapons—the bucklers and shields, the bows and arrows, the clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel. 10 They will not gather wood from the countryside or cut it from the forests, for they will use the weapons for fuel. They will loot those who looted them and plunder those who plundered them, declares the Lord Yahweh.

11 And on that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel, the Valley of the Travelers, east of the Sea. It will block those who travel through, because Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So it will be called the Valley of Hamon-gog. 12 For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land. 13 All the people of the land will bury them, and it will bring them renown on the day I display My glory, declares the Lord Yahweh.

14 And men will be employed to continually pass through the land to cleanse it by burying the invaders who remain on the ground. At the end of the seven months they will begin their search. 15 As they pass through the land, anyone who sees a human bone will set up a pillar next to it, until the gravediggers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog. 16 (Even the city will be named Hamonah.) And so they will cleanse the land.

17 And as for you, son of man, this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Call out to every kind of bird and to every beast of the field: 'Assemble and come together from all around to the sacrificial feast that I am preparing for you, a great feast on the mountains of Israel. There you will eat flesh and drink blood. 18 You will eat the flesh of the mighty and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as though they were rams, lambs, goats, and bulls—all the fattened animals of Bashan. 19 At the sacrifice I am preparing, you will eat fat until you are gorged and drink blood until you are drunk. 20 And at My table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, of mighty men and warriors of every kind,' declares the Lord Yahweh.

ISRAEL TO BE RESTORED

21 I will display My glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the judgment that I execute and the hand that I lay upon them. 22 From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am Yahweh their God. 23 And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile for their iniquity, because they were unfaithful to Me. So I hid My face from them and delivered them into the hands of their enemies, so that they all fell by the sword. 24 I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and transgressions, and I hid My face from them.

25 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Now I will restore Jacob from captivity and will have compassion on the

CHAPTER 40 IN 30 SECONDS

Years after the city fell, Ezekiel sees a new temple on a very high mountain. A man who looks like bronze measures everything with a measuring rod. Bring a tape measure; there are a lot of numbers.

THE MAN WITH A MEASURING ROD // ZECHARIAH 2:1–5

1 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month—in the fourteenth year after Jerusalem had been struck down—on that very day the hand of Yahweh was upon me, and He took me there. 2 In visions of God He took me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, on whose southern slope was a structure that resembled a city.

3 So He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze. He was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand. 4 "Son of man," he said to me, "look with your eyes, hear with your ears, and set your heart on everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Report to the house of Israel everything you see."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

EZEKIEL'S TEMPLE

Future, Symbol, or Never Built?

EZEKIEL 40 TO 48

WHAT HE SAW

Nine chapters of measurements: a temple on a very high mountain, gates, courts, an altar, priests and offerings, a river of life, and the land divided among the tribes with the city in the middle.

THE BIG PUZZLES

It was never built. The second temple, finished about 516 BC, did not follow these plans, Ezra 6:15. Some rules here are different from the laws of Moses. And it has animal sacrifices, which Hebrews says Jesus finished once for all, Hebrews 10:12 to 14.

A FAMOUS STORY

The Talmud says the rabbis almost set the book aside because of these differences, until Hananiah son of Hezekiah sat with 300 jars of lamp oil and worked them out, Shabbat 13b.

REVELATION 21:22 TO 22:2 · HEBREWS 10:11 TO 14 · JOHN 2:19 TO 21

VIEW 1: A FUTURE TEMPLE

Many premillennial Christians, especially dispensationalists, expect this temple in the thousand year reign of Christ. Its offerings would look back to the cross as a memorial, the way the Lord's Supper does.

VIEW 2: A PICTURE OF GOD WITH HIS PEOPLE

Many others read it as a picture fulfilled in Jesus, the true temple, John 2:19 to 21, in His church, 1 Corinthians 3:16, and in the new creation, where John saw no temple because God and the Lamb are its temple, Revelation 21:22, and the same river flows, Revelation 22:1 to 2.

VIEW 3: A PLAN FOR THE EXILES

Some think it was a real plan for the returning exiles, given on a condition, if

JEWISH HOPE

Many Jews expect a third temple in the days of the Messiah and read Ezekiel's plan as its pattern.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The point is in the last words: Yahweh is there, 48:35. God wants to live with His people, and life flows out from where He is.

THE EAST GATE

5 And I saw a wall surrounding the temple area. Now the measuring rod in the man's hand was 10½ feet long, and he measured the wall to be 10½ feet thick and 10½ feet high.

6 Then he came to the gate facing east and climbed its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate to be 10½ feet deep.
7 Each gate chamber was 10½ feet long and 10½ feet wide, and there were 8¾ feet between the gate chambers. The inner threshold of the gate by the portico facing inward was 10½ feet deep. 8 Then he measured the portico of the gateway inside; 9 it was 14 feet deep, and its jambs were 3½ feet thick. And the portico of the gateway faced the temple.

10 There were three gate chambers on each side of the east gate, each with the same measurements, and the gateposts on either side also had the same measurements. 11 And he measured the width of the gateway entrance to be 17½ feet, and its length was 22¾ feet.

12 In front of each gate chamber was a wall
21 inches high, and the gate chambers were 10½ feet square. 13 Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one gate chamber to the roof of the opposite one; the distance was 43¾ feet from doorway to doorway.

14 Next he measured the gateposts to be 105 feet high. The gateway extended around to the gatepost of the courtyard. 15
And the distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its inner portico was 87½ feet.

16 The gate chambers and their side pillars had beveled windows all around the inside of the gateway. The porticos also had windows all around on the inside. Each side pillar was decorated with palm trees.

THE OUTER COURT

17 Then he brought me into the outer court,
and there were chambers and a pavement laid out all around the court. Thirty chambers faced the pavement, 18 which flanked the gateways and corresponded to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the distance from the front of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court; it was 175 feet on the east side as well as on the north.

THE NORTH GATE

20 He also measured the length and width of the gateway of the outer court facing north. 21 Its three gate chambers on each side, its side pillars, and its portico all had the same measurements as the first gate: 87½ feet long and 43¾ feet wide. 22 Its windows, portico, and palm trees had the same measurements as those of the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them.

23 There was a gate to the inner court facing the north gate, just as there was on the east. He measured the distance from gateway to gateway to be 175 feet.

THE SOUTH GATE

24 Then he led me to the south side, and I saw a gateway facing south. He measured its side pillars and portico, and they had the same measurements as the others. 25
Both the gateway and its portico had windows all around, like the other windows. It was 87½ feet long and 43¾ feet wide. 26
Seven steps led up to it, and its portico was opposite them; it had palm trees on its side pillars, one on each side.

27 The inner court also had a gate facing south, and he measured the distance from

EZK 40:5 [TEXT] THE LONG MEASURE. Ezekiel's measuring unit was the usual elbow to fingertip length plus a hand's width, about 21 inches. Every measure in chapters 40 to 48 is given in feet, inches and miles by that long unit. The measuring rod was six of them, 10½ feet.

gateway to gateway toward the south to be 175 feet.

THE GATES OF THE INNER COURT

28 Next he brought me into the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it had the same measurements as the others. 29 Its gate chambers, side pillars, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both the gateway and its portico had windows all around; it was 87½ feet long and 43¾ feet wide. 30 (The porticoes around the inner court were 43¾ feet long and 8¾ feet deep.) 31 Its portico faced the outer court, and its side pillars were decorated with palm trees. Eight steps led up to it.

32 And he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gateway; it had the same measurements as the others. 33 Its gate chambers, side pillars, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both the gateway and its portico had windows all around. It was 87½ feet long and 43¾ feet wide. 34 Its portico faced the outer court, and its side pillars were decorated with palm trees on each side. Eight steps led up to it.

35 Then he brought me to the north gate and measured it. It had the same measurements as the others, 36 as did its gate chambers, side pillars, and portico. It also had windows all around. It was 87½ feet long and 43¾ feet wide. 37 Its portico faced the outer court, and its side pillars were decorated with palm trees on each side. Eight steps led up to it.

EIGHT TABLES FOR SACRIFICES

38 There was a chamber with a doorway by the portico in each of the inner gateways. There the burnt offering was to be washed. 39 Inside the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings were to be slaughtered.

40 Outside, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gateway, there were two tables on one side and two more tables on the other side of the gate's portico. 41 So there were four tables inside the gateway and four outside—eight tables in all—on which the sacrifices were to be slaughtered.

42 There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offering, each 31½ inches long, 31½ inches wide, and 21 inches high. On these were placed the utensils used to slaughter the burnt offerings and the other sacrifices.

43 The double-pronged hooks, each three inches long, were fastened all around the inside of the room, and the flesh of the offering was to be placed on the tables.

CHAMBERS FOR MINISTRY

44 Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two chambers, one beside the north gate and facing south, and another beside the south gate and facing north.

45 Then the man said to me: "The chamber that faces south is for the priests who keep charge of the temple, 46 and the chamber that faces north is for the priests who keep charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, the only Levites who may approach Yahweh to minister before Him."

THE INNER COURT

47 Next he measured the court. It was square, 175 feet long and 175 feet wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

48 Then he brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the side pillars of the portico to be 8¾ feet on each side. The width of the gateway was 24½ feet and its sidewalls were 5¼ feet on either side. 49 The portico was 35 feet wide and 21 feet deep, and ten steps led up to it. There were columns by the side pillars, one on each side.

CHAPTER 41 IN 30 SECONDS

The man measures the temple itself, all the way in to the Most Holy Place. The walls are carved with cherubim and palm trees. Every room has its place.

INSIDE THE TEMPLE

1 Then the man brought me into the outer sanctuary and measured the side pillars to be 10½ feet wide on each side. 2 The width of the entrance was 17½ feet, and the sides of the entrance were 8¾ feet on each side. He also measured the length of the outer sanctuary to be 70 feet, and the width to be 35 feet.

3 And he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the side pillars at the entrance to be 3½ feet wide. The entrance was 10½ feet wide, and the walls on each side were 12¼ feet wide. 4 Then he measured the room adjacent to the inner sanctuary to be 35 feet long and 35 feet wide. And he said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

OUTSIDE THE TEMPLE

5 Next he measured the wall of the temple to be 10½ feet thick, and the width of each side room around the temple was 7 feet. 6 The side rooms were arranged one above another in three levels of thirty rooms each. There were ledges all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports would not be fastened into the wall of the temple itself. 7 The side rooms surrounding the temple widened at each successive level, because the structure surrounding the temple ascended by stages corresponding to the narrowing of the temple wall as it rose upward. And so a stairway went up from the lowest story to the highest, through the middle one.

8 I saw that the temple had a raised base all around it, forming the foundation of the side rooms. It was a full 10½ feet high. 9 The outer wall of the side rooms was 8¾ feet thick, and the open area between the side rooms of the temple 10 and the outer chambers was 35 feet wide all around the temple. 11 The side rooms opened into this area, with one entrance on the north and another on the south. The open area was 8¾ feet wide all around.

12 Now the building that faced the temple courtyard on the west was 122½ feet wide, and the wall of the building was 8¾ feet thick all around, with a length of 157½ feet.

13 Then he measured the temple to be 175 feet long, and the temple courtyard and the building with its walls were also 175 feet long. 14 The width of the temple courtyard on the east, including the front of the temple, was 175 feet.

THE INTERIOR STRUCTURES

15 Next he measured the length of the building facing the temple courtyard at the rear of the temple, including its galleries on each side; it was 175 feet. The outer sanctuary, the inner sanctuary, and the porticoes facing the court, 16 as well as the thresholds and the beveled windows and the galleries all around with their three levels opposite the threshold, were overlaid with wood on all sides. They were paneled from the ground to the windows, and the windows were covered.

17 In the space above the outside of the entrance to the inner sanctuary on all the walls, spaced evenly around the inner and outer sanctuary, 18 were alternating carved cherubim and palm trees. Each cherub had two faces: 19 the face of a man was toward the palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion was toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved all the way around the temple. 20 Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall of the outer sanctuary from the floor to the space above the entrance.

21 The outer sanctuary had a rectangular doorframe, and the doorframe of the sanctuary was similar.

22 There was an altar of wood 5¼ feet high and 3½ feet square. Its corners, base, and sides were of wood. And the man told me, "This is the table that is before Yahweh."

23 Both the outer sanctuary and the inner sanctuary had double doors, 24 and each door had two swinging panels. There were two panels for one door and two for the other. 25 Cherubim and palm trees like those on the walls were carved on the doors of the outer sanctuary, and there was a wooden canopy outside, on the front of the portico. 26 There were beveled windows and palm trees on the sidewalls of the portico. The side rooms of the temple also had canopies.

42

CHAPTER 42 IN 30 SECONDS
Rooms for the priests, then the outer wall. It is a perfect square, 875 feet on each side, to separate the holy from the common.

CHAMBERS FOR THE PRIESTS

1 Then the man led me out northward into the outer court, and he brought me to the group of chambers opposite the temple courtyard and the outer wall on the north side. 2 The building with the door facing north was 175 feet long and 87½ feet wide. 3 Gallery faced gallery in three levels opposite the 35 feet that belonged to the inner court and opposite the pavement that belonged to the outer court.

4 In front of the chambers was an inner walkway 17½ feet wide and 175 feet long. Their doors were on the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were smaller because the galleries took more space from the chambers on the lower and middle floors of the building. 6 For they were arranged in three stories, and unlike the courts, they had no pillars. So the upper chambers were set back further than the lower and middle floors. 7 An outer wall in front of the chambers was 87½ feet long and ran parallel to the chambers and the outer court. 8 For the chambers on the outer court were 87½ feet long, while those facing the temple were 175 feet long. 9 And below these chambers was the entrance on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.

10 On the south side along the length of the wall of the outer court were chambers adjoining the courtyard and opposite the building, 11 with a passageway in front of them, just like the chambers that were on the north. They had the same length and width, with similar exits and dimensions. 12 And corresponding to the doors of the chambers that were facing south, there was a door in front of the walkway that was parallel to the wall extending eastward.

13 Then the man said to me, "The north and south chambers facing the temple courtyard are the holy chambers where the priests who approach Yahweh will eat the most holy offerings. There they will place the most holy offerings—the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings—for the place is holy. 14 Once the priests have entered the holy area, they must not go out into the outer court until they have left behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they approach the places that are for the people."

THE OUTER MEASUREMENTS

15 Now when the man had finished measuring the interior of the temple area, he led me out by the gate that faced east, and he measured the area all around:

16 With a measuring rod he measured the east side to be 875 feet long.
17 He measured the north side to be 875 feet long.
18 He measured the south side to be 875 feet long.
19 And he came around and measured the west side to be 875 feet long.

20 So he measured the area on all four sides. It had a wall all around, 875 feet long and 875 feet wide, to separate the holy from the common.

The glory of Yahweh comes back through the east gate and fills the temple. God says, This is the place of My throne. The glory that left in chapter 10 is home.

THE GLORY OF YAHWEH RETURNS TO THE TEMPLE

1 Then the man brought me back to the gate that faces east, 2 and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east.

Yahweh entered the temple through the

up and brought me into the inner court, and the glory of Yahweh filled the temple.
6 While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple, 7 and He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place for the soles of My feet, where I will dwell among the Israelites forever.
The house of Israel will never again defile
My holy name—neither they nor their kings—by their prostitution and by the funeral offerings for their kings at their deaths. 8 When they placed their threshold next to My threshold and their doorposts beside My doorposts, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy name by the abominations they committed. Therefore I have consumed them in My anger. 9 Now let them remove far from Me their prostitution and the funeral offerings for their kings, and I will dwell among them forever.

temple to the people of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. Let them measure the plan, 11 and if they are ashamed of all they have done, then make

CHAPTER 44 IN 30 SECONDS

The east gate stays shut, because God came in through it. Rules for the priests, the sons of Zadok, who stayed faithful. God Himself will be their inheritance.

THE EAST GATE ASSIGNED TO THE PRINCE

1 The man then brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary that faced east, but it was shut. 2 And Yahweh said to me, "This gate is to remain shut. It shall not be opened, and no man shall enter through it, because Yahweh, the God of Israel, has entered through it. Therefore it will remain shut. 3 Only the prince himself may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of Yahweh. He must enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way."

4 Then the man brought me to the front of the temple by way of the north gate. I looked and saw the glory of Yahweh filling His temple, and I fell facedown. 5 Yahweh said to me: "Son of man, set your heart on this; look carefully with your eyes and listen closely with your ears to everything I tell you concerning all the statutes and laws of the house of Yahweh. Set your heart on the entrance to the temple, along with all the exits of the sanctuary.

REPROOF OF THE LEVITES

6 Tell the rebellious house of Israel that this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'I have had enough of all your abominations, O house of Israel. 7 In addition to all your other abominations, you brought in foreigners uncircumcised in both heart and flesh to occupy My sanctuary; you defiled My temple when you offered My food—the fat and the blood; you broke My covenant. 8 And you have not kept charge of My holy things, but have appointed others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you.'

9 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh may enter My sanctuary—not even a foreigner who lives among the Israelites.

10 Surely the Levites who wandered away from Me when Israel went astray, and who wandered away from Me after their idols, will bear the consequences of their iniquity. 11 Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having charge of the gates of the temple and ministering there. They shall slaughter the burnt offerings and other sacrifices for the people and stand before them to minister to them.

12 Because they ministered before their idols and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I swore with an uplifted hand concerning them that they would bear the consequences of their iniquity, declares the Lord Yahweh. 13 They must not approach Me to serve Me as priests or come near any of My holy things or the most holy things. They will bear the shame of the abominations they have committed. 14 Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of all the work for the temple and everything to be done in it.

of My sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from Me, are to approach Me to minister before Me. They will stand before Me to offer Me fat and blood, declares the Lord Yahweh. 16 They alone shall enter My sanctuary and draw near to My table to minister before Me. They will keep My charge.

17 When they enter the gates of the inner court, they are to wear linen garments; they must not wear anything made of wool when they minister at the gates of the inner court or inside the temple. 18 They are to wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments around their waists. They must not wear anything that makes them perspire.

19 When they go out to the outer court, to the people, they are to take off the garments in which they have ministered, leave them in the holy chambers, and dress in other clothes so that they do not transmit holiness to the people with their garments.

20 They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but must carefully trim their hair. 21 No priest may drink wine before he enters the inner court. 22 And they shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman, but must marry a virgin of the descendants of the house of Israel, or a widow of a priest. 23 They are to teach My people the difference between the holy and the common and show them how to discern between the clean and the unclean.

24 In any dispute, they shall officiate as judges and judge according to My ordinances. They must keep My laws and statutes regarding all My appointed feasts, and they must keep My Sabbaths holy.

25 A priest must not defile himself by going near a dead person. However, for a father, a mother, a son, a daughter, a brother, or an unmarried sister, he may do so, 26 and after he is cleansed, he must count off seven days for himself. 27 And on the day he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he must present his sin offering, declares the Lord Yahweh.

28 In regard to their inheritance, I am their inheritance. You are to give them no possession in Israel, for I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Everything in Israel devoted to Yahweh will belong to them. 30 The best of all the firstfruits and of every contribution from all your offerings will belong to the priests. You are to give your first batch of dough to the priest, so that a blessing may rest upon your homes. 31 The priests may not eat any bird or animal found dead or torn by wild beasts.

CHAPTER 45 IN 30 SECONDS

The land gets a holy portion for God, the priests and the city. Leaders must use honest scales and honest measures. No thumb on the scale.

CONSECRATION OF THE LAND

1 "When you divide the land by lot as an inheritance, you are to set aside a portion for Yahweh, a holy portion of the land about 8⅓ miles long and about 6⅔ miles wide. This entire tract of land will be holy.

2 Within this area there is to be a section for the sanctuary 875 feet square, with 87½ feet around it for open land.

3 From this holy portion, you are to measure off a length of about 8⅓ miles and a width of about 3⅓ miles, and in it will be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. 4 It will be a holy portion of the land to be used by the priests who minister in the sanctuary, who draw near to minister before Yahweh. It will be a place for their houses, as well as a holy area for the sanctuary.

5 An adjacent area about 8⅓ miles long and about 3⅓ miles wide shall belong to the Levites who minister in the temple; it will be their possession for towns in which to live.

6 As the property of the city, you are to set aside an area about 1⅓ miles wide and about 8⅓ miles long, adjacent to the holy district. It will belong to the whole house of Israel.

THE PRINCE'S PORTION

7 Now the prince will have the area bordering each side of the area formed by the holy district and the property of the city, extending westward from the western side and eastward from the eastern side, running lengthwise from the western boundary to the eastern boundary and parallel to one of the tribal portions. 8 This land will be his possession in Israel.

And My princes will no longer oppress My people, but will give the rest of the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes. 9 For this is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'Enough, O princes of Israel! Cease your violence and oppression, and do what is just and right. Stop dispossessing My people, declares the Lord Yahweh.'

HONEST SCALES // DEUTERONOMY 25:13–16; PROVERBS 11:1–3

10 You must use honest scales, an honest dry measure, and an honest liquid measure.

11 The dry measure and the liquid measure shall be the same size, so that each one holds a tenth of the large measure; the large measure will be the standard for both.

12 Your standard weight will be two fifths of an ounce, made up of twenty small weights. Eight ounces plus ten ounces plus six ounces will make your larger weight of 1½ pounds.

OFFERINGS AND FEASTS

13 This is the contribution you are to offer: about three quarts from every six bushels of wheat, and about three quarts from every six bushels of barley. 14 The prescribed portion of oil is about two quarts from every 55 gallons (55 gallons is ten liquid measures, the same as one large measure). 15 And one sheep shall be given from each flock of two hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These are for the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for the people, declares the Lord Yahweh.

16 All the people of the land must participate in this contribution for the prince in Israel. 17 And it shall be the prince's part to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings for the feasts, New Moons, and Sabbaths—for all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He will provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel.

18 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'On the first day of the first month you are to take a young bull without blemish and purify the sanctuary. 19 And the priest is to take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the inner court. 20 You must do the same thing on the seventh day of the month for anyone who strays unintentionally or in ignorance. In this way you will make atonement for the temple.

21 On the fourteenth day of the first month you are to observe the Passover, a feast of seven days, during which unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22 On that day the prince shall provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land. 23 Each day during the seven days of the feast, he shall provide seven bulls and seven rams without blemish as a burnt offering to Yahweh, along with a male goat for a sin offering. 24 He shall also provide as a grain offering half a bushel for each bull and half a bushel for each ram, along with a gallon of olive oil for each half bushel of grain. 25 During the seven days of the feast that begins on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, he is to make Rules for worship on Sabbaths, new moons and feasts. Even which gate to use: come in one way, go out the other. Nobody turns around in the crowd.

THE PRINCE'S OFFERINGS

1 "This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'The gate of the inner court that faces east must be kept shut during the six days of work, but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon it shall be opened. 2 The prince is to enter from the outside through the portico of the gateway and stand by the gatepost, while the priests sacrifice his burnt offerings and peace offerings. He is to bow in worship at the threshold of the gate and then depart, but the gate must not be shut until evening. 3 On the Sabbaths and New Moons the people of the land are also to bow in worship before Yahweh at the entrance to that gateway.

4 The burnt offering that the prince presents to Yahweh on the Sabbath day shall be six unblemished male lambs and an unblemished ram. 5 The grain offering with the ram shall be half a bushel, and the grain offering with the lambs shall be as much as he is able, along with a gallon of oil per half bushel. 6 On the day of the New Moon he shall offer a young, unblemished bull, six lambs, and a ram without blemish. 7 He is to provide a grain offering of half a bushel with the bull, half a bushel with the ram, and as much as he is able with the lambs, along with a gallon of oil per half bushel. 8 When the prince enters, he shall go in through the portico of the gateway, and he shall go out the same way.

9 When the people of the land come before Yahweh at the appointed feasts, whoever enters by the north gate to worship must go out by the south gate, and whoever enters by the south gate must go out by the north gate. No one is to return through the gate by which he entered, but each must go out by the opposite gate.

10 When the people enter, the prince shall go in with them, and when they leave, he shall leave. 11 At the festivals and appointed feasts, the grain offering shall be half a bushel with a bull, half a bushel with a ram, and as much as one is able to give with the lambs, along with a gallon of oil per half bushel.

12 When the prince makes a freewill offering to Yahweh, whether a burnt offering or a peace offering, the gate facing east must be opened for him. He is to offer his burnt offering or peace offering just as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and the gate must be closed after he goes out.

13 And you shall provide an unblemished year-old lamb as a daily burnt offering to Yahweh; you are to offer it every morning. 14 You are also to provide with it every morning a grain offering of about three quarts with a third of a gallon of oil to moisten the fine flour—a grain offering to Yahweh. This is a permanent statute. 15 Thus they shall provide the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil every morning as a regular burnt offering.'

16 This is what the Lord Yahweh says: 'If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons as an inheritance, it will belong to his descendants. It will become their property by inheritance. 17 But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it will belong to that servant until the year of freedom; then it will revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs only to his sons; it shall be theirs.

18 The prince must not take any of the inheritance of the people by evicting them from their property. He is to provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people will be displaced from his property.'"

■ EZK 46:9 [NOTE] IN ONE GATE, OUT THE OTHER. Whoever comes in by the north gate leaves by the south. No one goes back the way they came. Many see a picture: meeting God changes your direction.

19 Then the man brought me through the entrance at the side of the gate into the holy chambers facing north, which belonged to the priests, and he showed me a place there at the far western end 20 and said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them into the outer court and transmit holiness to the people."

21 Then he brought me into the outer court and led me around to its four corners, and I saw a separate court in each of its corners. 22 In the four corners of the outer court there were enclosed courts, each 70 feet long and 52½ feet wide. Each of the four corner areas had the same dimensions. 23 Around the inside of each of the four courts was a row of masonry with ovens built at the base of the walls on all sides.

24 And he said to me, "These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple will cook the sacrifices offered by the people."

CHAPTER 47 IN 30 SECONDS

A river flows out from the temple, ankle deep, then knee deep, then too deep to cross. Wherever it goes, things come alive, even the Dead Sea. Trees on its banks bear fruit every month and have healing leaves.

WATERS FROM UNDER THE TEMPLE

1 Then the man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple,
south of the altar.

2 Next he brought me out through the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and there I saw the water trickling out from the south side.

3 As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off 1,750 feet and led me through ankle-deep water.

4 Then he measured off 1,750 feet and led me through knee-deep water.

Again he measured 1,750 feet and led me through waist-deep water.

5 Once again he measured off 1,750 feet, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough for swimming—a river that could not be crossed on foot.

6 "Son of man, do you see this?" he asked.
Then he led me back to the bank of the river.

7 When I arrived, I saw a great number of trees along both banks of the river. 8 And he said to me, "This water flows out to the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah. When it empties into the Dead Sea, the water there becomes fresh. 9 Wherever the river flows, there will be swarms of living creatures and a great number of fish, because it flows there and makes the waters fresh; so wherever the river flows, everything will flourish.

10 Fishermen will stand by the shore; from En-gedi to En-eglaim they will spread their nets to catch fish of many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea.

11 But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt.

12 Along both banks of the river, fruit trees of all kinds will grow. Their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. Each month they will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them.
Their fruit will be used for food and their leaves for healing."

GOD SPEAKING

THE BORDERS OF THE LAND

13 This is what the Lord Yahweh says:
"These are the boundaries by which you are to divide the land as an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel; Joseph shall receive two portions. 14 You are to divide it equally among them. Because I swore with an uplifted hand to give it to your forefathers, this land will fall to you as an inheritance.

15 This shall be the boundary of the land:
On the north side it will extend from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon through Lebo-hamath to Zedad, 16 Berothah, and Sibraim (which is on the border between Damascus and Hamath), as far as Hazerhatticon, which is on the border of Hau-ran. 17 So the border will run from the Sea to Hazar-enan, along the northern border of Damascus, with the territory of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern boundary.
18 On the east side the border will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the Eastern Sea and as far as Tamar. This will be the eastern boundary.
19 On the south side it will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, and along the Brook of Egypt to the Great Sea. This will be the southern boundary.
20 And on the west side, the Great Sea will be the boundary up to a point opposite Lebo-hamath. This will be the western boundary.

21 You are to divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. 22
You shall allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners who dwell among you and who have children.
You are to treat them as native-born Israelites; along with you, they shall be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. 23 In whatever tribe a foreigner dwells, you are to assign his inheritance
there," declares the Lord Yahweh.

48

CHAPTER 48 IN 30 SECONDS

The land is divided among the twelve tribes, with the city in the middle. It has twelve gates named for the tribes. Its new name says it all: Yahweh Is There.

THE PORTIONS FOR THE TRIBES

1 "Now these are the names of the tribes:
At the northern frontier, Dan will have one portion bordering the road of Hethlon to Lebo-hamath and running on to Hazarenan on the border of Damascus with Hamath to the north, and extending from the east side to the west side.
2 Asher will have one portion bordering the territory of Dan from east to west.
3 Naphtali will have one portion bordering the territory of Asher from east to west.
4 Manasseh will have one portion bordering the territory of Naphtali from east to west.
5 Ephraim will have one portion bordering the territory of Manasseh from east to west.
6 Reuben will have one portion bordering the territory of Ephraim from east to west.
7 Judah will have one portion bordering the territory of Reuben from east to west.

THE PORTIONS FOR THE PRIESTS AND LEVITES

8 Bordering the territory of Judah, from east to west, will be the portion you are to set apart. It will be about 8⅓ miles wide, and the length of a tribal portion from east to west. In the center will be the sanctuary.

9 The special portion you set apart to Yahweh shall be about 8⅓ miles long and about 3⅓ miles wide.

10 This will be the holy portion for the priests. It will be about 8⅓ miles long on the north side, about 3⅓ miles wide on the west side, about 3⅓ miles wide on the east side, and about 8⅓ miles long on the south side. In the center will be the sanctuary of Yahweh. 11 It will be for the consecrated priests, the descendants of Zadok, who kept My charge and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray. 12 It will be a special portion for them set apart from the land, a most holy portion adjacent to the territory of the Levites.

13 Bordering the territory of the priests, the Levites shall have an area about 8⅓ miles long and about 3⅓ miles wide. The whole length will be about 8⅓ miles, and the width about 3⅓ miles. 14 They must not sell or exchange any of it, and they must not transfer this best part of the land, for it is holy to Yahweh.

THE COMMON PORTION

15 The remaining area, about 1⅔ miles wide and about 8⅓ miles long, will be for common use by the city, for houses, and for pastureland. The city will be in the center of it 16 and will have these measurements: about 1½ miles on the north side, about 1½ miles on the south side, about 1½ miles on the east side, and about 1½ miles on the west side.

17 The pastureland of the city will extend 437½ feet to the north, 437½ feet to the south, 437½ feet to the east, and 437½ feet to the west.

18 The remainder of the length bordering the holy portion and running adjacent to it will be about 3⅓ miles on the east side and about 3⅓ miles on the west side. Its produce will supply food for the workers of the city. 19 The workers of the city who cultivate it will come from all the tribes of Israel.

20 The entire portion will be a square, about 8⅓ miles by about 8⅓ miles. You are to set apart the holy portion, along with the city property.

THE PORTION FOR THE PRINCE

21 The remaining area on both sides of the holy portion and of the property of the city will belong to the prince. He will own the land adjacent to the tribal portions, extending eastward from the holy district, about 8⅓ miles wide, toward the eastern border, and westward from it to the western border. And in the center of them will be the holy portion and the sanctuary of the temple.

22 So the Levitical property and the city property will lie in the center of the area belonging to the prince—the area between the borders of Judah and Benjamin.

THE PORTIONS FOR THE REMAINING TRIBES

23 As for the rest of the tribes:

Benjamin will have one portion extending from the east side to the west side.

24 Simeon will have one portion bordering the territory of Benjamin from east to west.

25 Issachar will have one portion bordering the territory of Simeon from east to west.

26 Zebulun will have one portion bordering the territory of Issachar from east to west.

27 And Gad will have one portion bordering the territory of Zebulun from east to west.

28 The southern border of Gad will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, then along the Brook of Egypt and out to the Great Sea. 29 This is the land you are to allot as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these will be their portions," declares the Lord Yahweh.

THE CITY GATES AND DIMENSIONS

30 "These will be the exits of the city:

Beginning on the north side, which will be about 1½ miles long, 31 the gates of the city will be named after the tribes of Israel. On the north side there will be three gates: the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah, and the gate of Levi.

32 On the east side, which will be about 1½ miles long, there will be three gates: the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin, and the gate of Dan.

Historical Setting

Babylon is the superpower. In 605 BC it takes Daniel and other young men from Judah's best families to train them for the king's service. Daniel lives and serves in Babylon for almost seventy years, under Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, and then the Persians when Babylon falls in 539 BC. Chapters 1 to 6 are stories about staying faithful in a pagan world. Chapters 7 to 12 are visions of empires to come and God's kingdom at the end. Part of the book, 2:4 to 7:28, is written in Aramaic, the rest in Hebrew.

What Went Wrong

PRIDE. Nebuchadnezzar boasted in what he built, 4:30, and Belshazzar drank from God's temple cups, 5:2 to 4.
IDOLS. A gold statue everyone had to bow to, 3:5 to 6, and gods of gold and silver praised at a party, 5:4.

TRAPS AT WORK. Jealous officials used the law to trap Daniel because of his prayers, 6:4 to 7.
A PROUD KING. A proud ruler who stops the sacrifices and sets up an abomination in the temple, 8:11 and 11:31.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Daniel is a book about who is really in charge. In the first half, Daniel and his friends live in the most powerful city on earth and stay faithful to God: they refuse the king's food, survive a furnace and a lions' den, and watch God humble two proud kings. In the second half, Daniel sees the future: empire after empire rising and falling, a proud ruler fighting God's people, and at the end one like a son of man receiving a kingdom that will never end. Kings rise and kings fall, but God's kingdom stands.

Daniel at a Glance

CH 1	FAITHFUL AT THE TABLE Daniel and his friends say no to the king's food.
CH 2 to 6	FAITHFUL IN BABYLON A dream statue, the fiery furnace, a humbled king, the writing on the wall, the lions' den.
CH 7 to 8	BEASTS AND HORNS Four beasts, the Son of Man, a ram and a goat.
CH 9	SEVENTY WEEKS Daniel's prayer and Gabriel's answer.
CH 10 to 12	THE LAST VISION Kings of the north and south, Michael, and the dead rising.

Where Jesus Shows Up

DANIEL 2:34 TO 35, 44 A stone not cut by human hands becomes a mountain that fills the earth. Jesus called Himself the stone the builders rejected, Luke 20:17 to 18.

DANIEL 3:25 A fourth man in the fire, like a son of the gods. Many Christians see Christ with His people in the fire.

DANIEL 7:13 TO 14 One like a son of man receives an everlasting kingdom. Jesus claimed these words at His trial, Mark 14:62.

DANIEL 9:25 TO 26 The Messiah will be cut off. Many Christians see the timing of Jesus' coming and His death here.

DANIEL 12:2 Many who sleep in the dust will wake. Jesus promised the same resurrection, John 5:28 to 29.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Babylon takes the best young men of Judah to train for the king's service. Daniel and his three friends politely turn down the king's food and ask for vegetables and water. Ten days later they look better than everyone else.

DANIEL REMOVED TO BABYLON

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged
it. 2 And the Lord delivered into his hand Jehoiakim king of Judah, along with some of the articles from the house of God. He carried these off to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, where he put them in the treasury of his god.

3 Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, the chief of his court officials, to bring in some Israelites from the royal family and the nobility— 4 young men without blemish, handsome, gifted in all wisdom, knowledgeable, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king's palace—and to teach them the language and literature of the Chaldeans.

5 The king assigned them daily provisions of the royal food and wine. They were to be trained for three years, after which they were to enter the king's service.

6 Among these young men were some from Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 7 The chief official gave them
new names: To Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

- DAN 1:2 [DEMONIC] Nebuchadnezzar puts God's temple vessels in his idol's temple
- DAN 1:2 [NOTE] THE TEMPLE VESSELS. Babylon put the articles from God's temple in its own god's temple, as if to say our god beat yours. They come back in 5:2, at Belshazzar's party.
- DAN 1:3 [FULFILLS] Isaiah told Hezekiah his descendants would be carried to Babylon as eunuchs ← 2KI 20:16-18 p.649
- DAN 1:4 [NOTE] THE BEST AND BRIGHTEST. Babylon trained young leaders from the lands it took, so they would serve Babylon. Isaiah had warned Hezekiah of this, 2 Kings 20:18.

DANIEL'S FAITHFULNESS

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's food or wine. So he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself.

9 Now God had granted Daniel favor and compassion from the chief official, 10 but he said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink.
For why should he see your faces looking thinner than those of the other young men your age? You would endanger my head before the king!"

11 Then Daniel said to the steward whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12
"Please test your servants for ten days.
Let us be given only vegetables to eat and water to drink. 13 Then compare our appearances with those of the young men who are eating the royal food, and deal with your servants according to what you see."

14 So he consented to this and tested them for ten days. 15 And at the end of ten days, they looked healthier and better nourished than all the young men who were eating the king's food. 16 So the steward continued to withhold their choice food and the wine they were to drink, and he gave them vegetables instead.

THE BIG QUESTION

THE DANIEL FAST

What Daniel Ate, and Why

DANIEL 1:8 TO 16 · 10:2 TO 3

THE FIRST TEST

Daniel asked for vegetables and water for ten days, 1:12. The Hebrew word means things grown from seed, so it could include grains and beans.

- DAN 1:7 [NOTE] NEW NAMES. Daniel means God is my judge. Babylon renamed him Belteshazzar, after the name of the king's god, 4:8. Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah became Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. They took the names but kept their God.
- DAN 1:8 [HEART] Daniel decided in his heart not to defile himself, before the pressure came. Faithfulness starts on the inside.
- DAN 1:8 [TEXT] PURPOSED IN HIS HEART. The Hebrew says he set it on his heart, like the KJV.
- DAN 1:8 [NOTE] WHY REFUSE THE FOOD? Some of it was likely not kosher, Leviticus 11, and some may have been offered to idols. Daniel asked politely and offered a test. See The Daniel Fast.

DEMONIC

WHY HE SAID NO
The king's meat was likely not kosher and may have been offered to idols. Some also think eating at the king's table meant owing him your loyalty. Daniel said no without being rude.

What It Means Today
MATTHEW 6:16 TO 18 · ROMANS 14:17 · 1 CORINTHIANS 8:8

THE SECOND FAST
Years later Daniel mourned for three weeks: no rich food, no meat, no wine, no oil on his skin, 10:2 to 3. It was a season of prayer, not a diet.

THE MODERN DANIEL FAST
Many churches hold a 21 day Daniel Fast: fruits, vegetables, whole grains, beans and water, no meat, sweets or wine. It comes from putting 1:12 and 10:3 together.

WHAT IT GETS RIGHT AND WRONG
Fasting to seek God is good, Matthew 6:16 to 18. But the Bible does not command this exact menu, and food itself does not make anyone holier, Romans 14:17. The point was Daniel's heart, not his plate.

FOR YOU
Daniel purposed in his heart before he faced the menu, 1:8. Decide what you will stand for before the pressure comes.

DANIEL'S WISDOM

17 To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding in every kind of literature and wisdom. And Daniel had insight into all kinds of visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the time specified by the king, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. 19 And the king spoke with them, and among all the young men he found no one equal to Daniel, Hana-niah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they entered the king's service.

20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king consulted them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his entire kingdom. 21 And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHEN WAS DANIEL WRITTEN?

About 530 BC or About 165 BC?
DANIEL 1:1 · 7:28 · 12:4

WHY IT IS A QUESTION
Daniel tells of kings and wars hundreds of years ahead, especially in chapter 11, in great detail. Some say how a reader dates the book depends on whether he believes God can tell the future that clearly.

THE OLD VIEW
Jews and Christians long held that Daniel wrote it himself in the 500s BC. Jesus spoke of the abomination of desolation, spoken of by the prophet Daniel, Matthew 24:15. The book says Daniel wrote down his dream, 7:1.

THE LATE VIEW
Porphyry, a pagan writer about AD 270, said the book was written in the days of Antiochus IV, about 165 BC, after many of the events. Many scholars today agree, and some think the stories in chapters 1 to 6 are older.

Every View
MATTHEW 24:15 · EZEKIEL 14:14 · 1 MACCABEES 1:54

THE CASE FOR EARLY
Ezekiel names Daniel as famous for righteousness and wisdom, Ezekiel 14:14 and 28:3. The Aramaic is like the Aramaic of the empire in the 500s and 400s BC. The book knows Belshazzar, whom later Greek writers had forgotten. Copies were at Qumran within decades of 165 BC. Many Christians see Daniel 9 and 2 pointing past Antiochus to Jesus and to Rome, which a writer in 165 BC could not have seen.

THE CASE FOR LATE
Chapter 11 is very detailed up to Antiochus IV and then becomes general. Three Greek instrument names show up in 3:5. Daniel sits with the Writings, not the Prophets, in the Hebrew Bible. Some see Darius the Mede as a mistake.

ANSWERS BOTH WAYS

Early date scholars say Greek trade words came east long before Alexander, and that the Hebrew Bible's order was set later for other reasons. Late date scholars answer that the Qumran copies fit a quick spread of a new book, and that Ezekiel's Daniel is an older hero named Danel.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The book was finished before the Daniel scrolls from Qumran were copied, it was loved and trusted by Jews before Jesus, and its message is the same either way: God rules, and His kingdom will outlast every empire.

2

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

King Nebuchadnezzar has a dream and wants his wise men to tell him the dream itself, not just the meaning. Nobody can, so he plans to kill them all. God shows Daniel the dream: a giant statue, and a rock that smashes it.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S TROUBLING DREAM

1 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams that troubled his spirit, and sleep escaped him. 2 So the king gave orders to summon the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and astrologers to explain his dreams. When they came and stood before the king, 3 he said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand it."

4 Then the astrologers answered the king in Aramaic, "O king, may you live forever!
Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."

5 The king replied to the astrologers, "My word is final: If you do not tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will be cut into pieces and your houses will be reduced to rubble. 6 But if you tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. So tell me the dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered a second time, "Let the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will give the interpretation."

8 The king replied, "I know for sure that you are stalling for time because you see that my word is final. 9 If you do not tell me the dream, there is only one decree for you. You have conspired to speak before me false and fraudulent words, hoping the situation will change. Therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can give me its interpretation."

10 The astrologers answered the king, "No one on earth can do what the king requests! No king, however great and powerful, has ever asked anything like this of any magician, enchanter, or astrologer. 11
What the king requests is so difficult that no one can tell it to him except the gods, whose dwelling is not with mortals."

12 This response made the king so angry and furious that he gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 So the decree went out that the wise men were to be executed, and men went to look for Daniel and his friends to execute them.

THE DREAM REVEALED TO DANIEL

14 When Arioch, the commander of the king's guard, went out to execute the wise men of Babylon, Daniel responded with discretion and tact. 15 "Why is the decree from the king so harsh?" he asked.

Then Arioch explained the situation to Daniel. 16 So Daniel went in and asked the king to give him some time, so that he could give him the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 18 urging them to plead for mercy from the God of

THE DANIEL SCROLLS

DANIEL 1 TO 12 · 2:4 · 8:1

Cave 4 near Qumran, where most of the Daniel scrolls were found in 1952. Photo James Emery, CC BY 2.0.

WHAT THEY ARE

Eight copies of Daniel found in the caves near Qumran: two from Cave 1, five from Cave 4, called 4QDan a to e, and one on papyrus from Cave 6.

HOW OLD THEY ARE

One of the oldest, 4QDan c, was copied in the late 100s BC, which makes it one of the oldest Bible scrolls ever found. The others were copied before AD 70.

THE LANGUAGE SWITCH

The scrolls switch languages just where today's Bibles do. One Cave 1 copy changes from Hebrew to Aramaic at 2:4, and Cave 4 copies change back to Hebrew at 8:1.

DANIEL THE PROPHET

Another Qumran scroll, called the Florilegium, quotes Daniel 12:10 as written in the book of Daniel the prophet. Jesus also called him Daniel the prophet, Matthew 24:15.

A FAVORITE BOOK

Eight copies is a lot. By one count, only seven books had more: the five books of Moses, Psalms and Isaiah. Other Qumran scrolls tell new stories about Daniel and Babylon, like The Prayer of Nabonidus.

WHAT IS NOT THERE

None of the scrolls has the Greek additions: the Prayer of Azariah, Susanna, or Bel and the Dragon. Those are found in the Greek Bible.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR THE DATE

If the book was finished about 165 BC, as many scholars think, it was copied and loved very quickly. If it is older, the scrolls fit that too. See When Was Daniel Written?

HOW THEY WERE FOUND

Bedouin shepherds found the first cave in 1947. In 1952 they found Cave 4, in the photo, right beside the ruins of Qumran, and archaeologists soon took over, digging out thousands of pieces from its floor.

WHERE THEY ARE TODAY

Most of the pieces are kept by the Israel Antiquities Authority in Jerusalem. Many can be seen online in the Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

WHAT THEY SHOW

The text of Daniel used today is very close to these copies from more than 2,000 years ago.

heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his friends would not be killed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 During the night, the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision, and he blessed the God of heaven 20 and declared:

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
for wisdom and power belong to Him.
21 He changes the times and seasons;
He removes kings and establishes them.
He gives wisdom to the wise
and knowledge to the discerning.
22 He reveals the deep and hidden things;
He knows what lies in darkness,
and light dwells with Him.
23 To You, O God of my fathers,
I give thanks and praise,
because You have given me wisdom and power.
And now You have made known to me
what we have requested, for You have made known to us
the dream of the king."

DANIEL INTERPRETS THE DREAM

24 Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, "Do not execute the wise men of Babylon! Bring me before the king, and I will give him the interpretation."

25 Arioch hastily brought Daniel before the king and said to him, "I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who will tell the king the interpretation."

26 The king responded to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to tell me what I saw in the dream, as well as its interpretation?"

27 Daniel answered the king, "No wise man, enchanter, medium, or magician can explain to the king the mystery of which he inquires. 28 But there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the latter days. Your dream and the visions that came into your mind as you lay on your bed were these:

29 As you lay on your bed, O king, your thoughts turned to the future, and the Revealer of Mysteries made known to you what will happen. 30 And to me this mystery has been revealed, not because I have more wisdom than any man alive, but in order that the interpretation might be made known to the king, and that you may understand the thoughts of your heart.

31 As you, O king, were watching, a great statue appeared. A great and dazzling statue stood before you, and its form was awesome. 32 The head of the statue was pure gold, its chest and arms were silver, its belly and thighs were bronze, 33 its legs were iron, and its feet were part iron and part clay.

34 As you watched, a stone was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and crushed them. 35 Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were shattered and became like chaff on the threshing floor in summer. The wind carried them away, and not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that had struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

36 This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation.

37 You, O king, are the king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given sovereignty, power, strength, and glory. 38 Wherever the sons of men or beasts of the field or birds of the air dwell, He has given them into your hand and has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold.

39 But after you, there will arise another kingdom, inferior to yours.

Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule the whole earth.

40 Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom as strong as iron; for iron shatters and crushes all things, and like iron that crushes all things, it will shatter and crush all the others. 41 And just as you saw that the feet and toes were made partly of fired clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom, yet some of the strength of iron will be in it—just as you saw the iron mixed with clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. 43 As you saw the iron mixed with clay, so the peoples will mix with one another but will not hold together any more than iron mixes with clay.

44 In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will shatter all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, but will itself stand forever. 45 And just as you saw a stone being cut out of the mountain without human hands, and it shattered the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold, so the great God has told the king what will happen in the future.

The dream is true, and its interpretation is trustworthy."

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S GOLDEN STATUE

1 King Nebuchadnezzar made a golden statue 90 feet tall and 9 feet wide, and he set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. 2 Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to assemble the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other officials of the provinces to attend the dedication of the statue he had set up.

3 So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before it.

4 Then the herald loudly proclaimed, "O people of every nation and language, this is what you are commanded: 5 As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. 6 And whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into the blazing fiery furnace."

7 Therefore, as soon as all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and all kinds of music, the people of every nation and language would fall down and worship the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

SHADRACH, MESHACH, AND ABEDNEGO ACCUSED

8 At this time some astrologers came forward and maliciously accused the Jews, 9 saying to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, may you live forever! 10 You, O king, have issued a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music must fall down and worship the golden statue, 11 and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into the blazing fiery furnace. 12 But there are some Jews you have appointed to manage the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—who have ignored you, O king, and have refused to serve your gods or worship the golden statue you have set up."

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, furious with rage, summoned Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king, 14 and Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden statue I have set up? 15 Now when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, if you are ready to fall down and worship the statue I have made, very good. But if you refuse to worship, you will be thrown at once into the blazing fiery furnace. Then what god will be able to deliver you from my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17 If the God whom we serve exists, then He is able to deliver us from the blazing fiery furnace and from your hand,

THE FIERY FURNACE

19 At this, Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave orders to heat the furnace seven times hotter than usual, 20 and he commanded some mighty men of valor in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the blazing fiery furnace.

21 So they were tied up, wearing robes, trousers, turbans, and other clothes, and they were thrown into the blazing fiery furnace.

22 The king's command was so urgent and the furnace so hot that the fiery flames killed the men who carried up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, firmly bound, fell into the blazing fiery furnace.

24 Suddenly King Nebuchadnezzar jumped up in amazement and asked his advisers, "Did we not throw three men, firmly bound, into the fire?"

"Certainly, O king," they replied.

25 "Look!" he exclaimed. "I see four men, unbound and unharmed, walking around in the fire—and the fourth looks like a son of the gods!"

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar approached the door of the blazing fiery furnace and called out, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out!"

So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire, 27 and when the satraps, prefects, governors, and royal advisers had gathered around, they saw that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men. Not a hair of their heads was singed, their robes were unaffected, and there was no smell of fire on them.

28 Nebuchadnezzar declared, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent His angel and delivered His servants who trusted in Him. They violated the king's command and risked their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. 29 Therefore I decree that the people of any nation or language who say anything offensive against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be cut into pieces and their houses reduced to rubble. For there is no other god who can deliver in this way."

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Nebuchadnezzar tells his own story. He dreams of a great tree cut down, and Daniel warns him to turn from his pride. A year later he brags about Babylon, loses his mind and lives like an animal until he looks up to God.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR CONFESSES GOD'S KINGDOM

1 King Nebuchadnezzar,

To the people of every nation and language who dwell in all the earth:

May your prosperity be multiplied. 2 I am pleased to declare the signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed for me.

3 How great are His signs,
how mighty His wonders!
His kingdom is an eternal kingdom;
His dominion endures from generation to generation.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DREAM OF A GREAT TREE

4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. 5 I had a dream, and it frightened me; while I was in my bed, the images and visions in my mind alarmed me. 6 So I issued a decree that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret the dream for me. 7 When the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, and diviners came in, I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me.

8 But at last, into my presence came Daniel (whose name is Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods). And I told him the dream: 9 "O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery baffles you. So explain to me the visions I saw in my dream, and their interpretation. 10 In these visions of my mind as I was lying in bed, I saw this come to pass:

There was a tree in the midst of the land,
and its height was great.
11 The tree grew large and strong;
its top reached the sky,
and it was visible
to the ends of the earth.
12 Its leaves were beautiful,
its fruit was abundant,
and upon it was food for all.
Under it the beasts of the field found shelter,
in its branches the birds of the air nested,
and from it every creature was fed.

13 As I lay on my bed, I also saw in the visions of my mind a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven. 14 He called out in a loud voice:

'Cut down the tree and chop off its
branches;
strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit.
Let the beasts flee from under it,
and the birds from its branches.
15 But leave the stump with its roots in the ground,
with a band of iron and bronze around
it,
in the tender grass of the field.

Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven

watchers,
the verdict declared by the holy ones,
so that the living will know that the Most High rules over the kingdom of mankind
and gives it to whom He wishes, setting over it the lowliest of men.'

18 This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because none of the wise men of my kingdom can interpret it for me. But you are able, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

DANIEL INTERPRETS THE SECOND DREAM

19 For a time, Daniel, who was also known as Belteshazzar, was perplexed, and his thoughts alarmed him.

So the king said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you."

"My lord," replied Belteshazzar, "may the dream apply to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies!

20 The tree you saw that grew large and strong, whose top reached the sky and was visible to all the earth, 21 whose foliage was beautiful and whose fruit was abundant, providing food for all, under which the beasts of the field lived, and in whose branches the birds of the air nested— 22 you, O king, are that tree! For you have become great and strong; your greatness has grown to reach the sky, and your dominion extends to the ends of the earth.

23 And you, O king, saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying:

'Cut down the tree and destroy it,
but leave the stump with its roots in the
ground,
with a band of iron and bronze around it,
in the tender grass of the field.
Let him be drenched with the dew of
heaven,
and graze with the beasts of the field
till seven times pass him by.'

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree that the Most High has issued against my lord the king:

25 You will be driven away from mankind, and your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field. You will feed on grass like an ox and be drenched with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass you by, until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdom of mankind and gives it to whom He wishes.

26 As for the command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots, your kingdom will be restored to you as soon as you acknowledge that Heaven rules. 27 Therefore, may my advice be pleasing to you, O king. Break away from your sins by doing what is right, and from your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed. Perhaps there will be an extension of your prosperity."

THE SECOND DREAM FULFILLED

28 All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. 29 Twelve months later, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, 30 the king exclaimed, "Is this not Babylon the Great, which I myself have built as a royal residence by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?"

31 While the words were still in the king's mouth, a voice came from heaven: "It is decreed to you, King Nebuchadnezzar, that the kingdom has departed from you. 32 You will be driven away from mankind to

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S BRICKS

DANIEL 4:29 TO 30

A baked brick stamped with the name and titles of Nebuchadnezzar II. Museum of Antiquities, Turin. Photo Marie Lan Tay Pamart, public domain.

WHAT THEY ARE
Baked bricks stamped with Nebuchadnezzar's name and titles. Millions were made for his walls, palaces, temples and gates.

HOW OLD THEY ARE
Made in his reign, 605 to 562 BC, the very years of Daniel 1 to 4.

WHAT THEY SAY
A common stamp reads, more or less: Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, who cares for the temples Esagila and Ezida, eldest son of Nabopolassar, king of Babylon.

WHERE FOUND
All over the ruins of Babylon. German diggers found them by the thousands from 1899 on, and museums around the world have them.

WHAT IT SHOWS
Is this not Babylon the great, which I myself have built? 4:30. The boast in Daniel matches the man who stamped his name on so many of the bricks in the city.

33 At that moment the sentence against Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from mankind. He ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird.

DAN 4:33 [NOTE] LIKE AN ANIMAL. Some doctors have described a rare illness where a person believes he is an animal. The Bible simply says God took his mind for seven times, and gave it back. See The Prayer of Nabonidus.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR RESTORED

34 But at the end of those days I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my sanity was restored to me. Then I praised the Most High, and I honored and glorified Him who lives forever:

"For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom endures from generation to generation.

and the peoples of the earth.

36 At the same time my sanity was restored, my honor and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my throne, and surpassing greatness was added to me. 37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven, for all His works are true and all His ways are just. THE PRAYER OF NABONIDUS

DANIEL 4:1 TO 37

The Prayer of Nabonidus, 4Q242, from Qumran Cave 4. Photo Israel Antiquities Authority, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

WHAT IT IS

A small Aramaic scroll from Qumran Cave 4. In it King Nabonidus of Babylon says he was struck with a terrible sickness for seven years, until a Jewish exile, a diviner, forgave his sin and told him to honor the Most High God.

HOW OLD IT IS

Copied about 75 to 25 BC. The story itself may be older.

WHY IT MATTERS

It sounds a lot like Daniel 4: a king of Babylon, seven years of trouble, a Jewish helper, and praise for the true God.

But it names Nabonidus, not Nebuchadnezzar, and the place is Tayma in Arabia.

TWO WAYS TO READ IT

Some scholars think the story was first told about Nabonidus, who really did stay away at Tayma for about ten years, and was later told about the more famous Nebuchadnezzar. Others think the Qumran writer mixed up the two kings or retold Daniel 4 in his own way.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Jews before Jesus' time knew and retold stories about a Babylonian king humbled by God.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

King Belshazzar throws a party and drinks from the cups taken from God's temple. A hand writes on the wall, and nobody can read it but Daniel. That very night the king is killed and Babylon falls.

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST

1 Later, King Belshazzar held a great feast for a thousand of his nobles, and he drank wine with them. 2 Under the influence of the wine, Belshazzar gave orders to bring in the gold and silver vessels that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king could drink from them, along with his nobles, his wives, and his concubines.
3 Thus they brought in the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king drank from them, along with his nobles, his wives, and his concubines. 4 As they drank the wine, they praised their gods of gold and silver, bronze and iron, wood and stone.

7 The king called out for the enchanters, astrologers, and diviners to be brought in, and he said to these wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this inscription and tells me its interpretation will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around his neck, and he will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

8 So all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the inscription or interpret it for him. 9 Then King Belshazzar became even more terrified, his face grew even more pale, and his nobles were bewildered.

10 Hearing the outcry of the king and his nobles, the queen entered the banquet hall. "O king, may you live forever!" she said. "Do not let your thoughts terrify you, or your face grow pale. 11 There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father he was found to have insight, intelligence, and wisdom like that of the gods. Your father, King Nebuchadnezzar, appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, and diviners. Your own father, the king, 12 did this because Daniel, the one he named Belteshazzar, was found to have an extraordinary spirit, as well as knowledge, understanding, and the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Summon Daniel, therefore, and he will give you the interpretation."

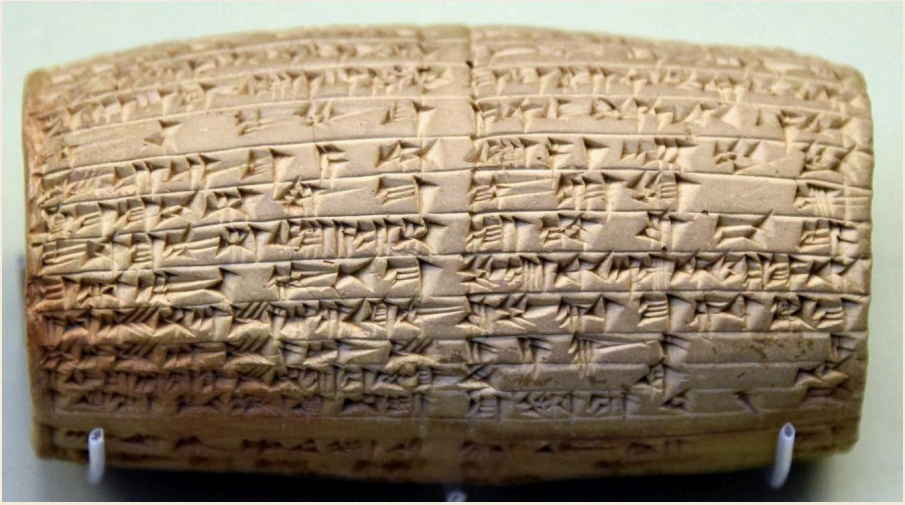
DANIEL INTERPRETS THE HANDWRITING

13 So Daniel was brought before the king, who asked him, "Are you Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah? 14 I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that you have insight, intelligence, and extraordinary wisdom.

15 Now the wise men and enchanters were brought before me to read this inscription and interpret it for me, but they could not give its interpretation. 16 But I have heard about you, that you are able to give interpretations and solve difficult problems. Therefore, if you can read this inscription and give me its interpretation, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

17 In response, Daniel said to the king, "You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the inscription for the king and interpret it for him. 18 As for you, O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness, glory and honor. 19 Because of the greatness that He bestowed on him, the people of every nation and language trembled in fear before him. He killed whom he wished and kept alive whom he wished; he exalted whom he wished and humbled whom he wished.

20 But when his heart became arrogant and his spirit was hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne, and his glory was taken from him. 21 He was driven away from mankind, and his heart was like that of a beast. He lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven until he acknowledged that the Most High God rules over the kingdom of mankind, setting over it whom He wishes.



22 But you his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. 23 Instead, you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven. The vessels from His house were brought to you, and as you drank wine from them with your nobles, wives, and concubines, you praised your gods of silver and gold,

WHAT IT IS

Clay cylinders that King Nabonidus buried in the corners of the temple tower of the moon god at Ur. They tell how he repaired it, and end with a prayer for himself and for Belshazzar, his eldest son.

HOW OLD IT IS

Made in the reign of Nabonidus, Babylon's last king, 556 to 539 BC, while Daniel was still living in Babylon.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

J. G. Taylor, the British vice consul at Basra, dug them out of the corners of the tower at Ur in 1854. They are in the British Museum.

THE MISSING KING

For centuries Belshazzar was known only from Daniel and books that used it. The Greek historians and the Babylonian priest Berossus named Nabonidus as the last king. Some critics said Daniel had made Belshazzar up. These cylinders, and later tablets, named him.

THE THIRD RULER

Another text, the Verse Account of Nabonidus, says Nabonidus entrusted the kingship to his eldest son and went to live at Tayma in Arabia. Other records say he stayed about ten years. So Belshazzar was the second ruler, and the best he could offer Daniel was third place, 5:7, 5:16 and 5:29.

SON OF NEBUCHADNEZZAR?

Daniel calls Nebuchadnezzar his father, 5:2 and 5:11. In the Bible's languages father can mean forefather or an earlier king on the same throne. Some think Belshazzar's mother was Nebuchadnezzar's daughter, but that is only a guess.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The cylinders prove Belshazzar was real and ruled with his father. They do not tell us about the feast or the writing on the wall.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Daniel knew something about Babylon's last days that later Greek writers had forgotten: a king named Belshazzar ruled in Babylon in its last years.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

Jealous officials trick King Darius into a law: pray only to the king for thirty days. Daniel keeps praying three times a day, as always. He spends a night with the lions and walks out without a scratch.

THE PLOT AGAINST DANIEL

1 Now it pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom, 2 and over them three administrators, including Daniel, to whom these satraps were accountable so that the king would not suffer loss. 3 Soon, by his extraordinary spirit, Daniel distinguished himself among the administrators and satraps. So the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.

A Babylonian tablet, the Nabonidus Chronicle, that records the years of Nabonidus, Babylon's last king, and the coming of Cyrus of Persia.

HOW OLD IT IS

The copy we have was written down some time after 539 BC, in the Persian period.

DEMONIC NOTABLE

WHAT IT SAYS
In October 539 BC, the army of Cyrus, led by Ugbaru, entered Babylon without a battle. A few weeks later Cyrus himself came in peace. The tablet says the king's son was in Akkad during the years Nabonidus stayed away.

THE FEAST
The Greek writers Herodotus and Xenophon say the Persians got in while the city was celebrating a festival. Xenophon adds that the king was killed. Compare 5:30: That very night Belshazzar king of the Chaldeans was slain.

WHAT IT DOES NOT SAY
The tablet never names Belshazzar; it calls him only the king's son, and it does not name Darius the Mede. See Who Was Darius the Mede?

WHAT IT SHOWS
Babylon, which looked like it could never fall, fell in one night, just as Isaiah and Jeremiah had said, Isaiah 21:9 and Jeremiah 51:39.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO WAS DARIUS THE MEDE?

A King Missing From the Records

DANIEL 5:31 · 6:1 TO 28 · 9:1 · 11:1

THE QUESTION
Daniel says Darius the Mede received the kingdom at age 62, 5:31, and set up 120 governors, 6:1. Persian kings named Darius came later. No record outside the Bible names a Darius the Mede yet.

Every View

ISAIAH 13:17 · JEREMIAH 51:11

VIEW 1: GUBARU
Ugbaru led Cyrus's army into Babylon, and a governor named Gubaru ruled the region after it. Some say one of them ruled Babylon under Cyrus and was called Darius.

VIEW 2: CYRUS HIMSELF
Donald Wiseman suggested that 6:28 can be read the reign of Darius, that is, the reign of Cyrus the Persian. Ancient writers put Cyrus near 62 in 539 BC, and Herodotus says his mother was a Mede.

VIEW 3: CYAXARES
The Greek writer Xenophon says a Median king named Cyaxares, Cyrus's uncle, shared the rule. Some link him to Darius.

VIEW 4: A MISTAKE OR A LATER MEMORY
Many critical scholars think the writer mixed up the order of kings, or followed a belief that a Median empire came between Babylon and Persia.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
The Medes and Persians took Babylon together, as Isaiah 13:17 and Jeremiah 51:11 said, and the book shows Daniel serving the new rulers faithfully.

4 Thus the administrators and satraps sought a charge against Daniel concerning the kingdom, but they could find no charge or corruption, because he was trustworthy, and no negligence or corruption was found in him. 5 Finally these men said, "We will never find any charge against this Daniel unless we find something against him concerning the law of his God."

6 So the administrators and satraps went together to the king and said, "O King Darius, may you live forever! 7 All the royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers, and governors have agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce a decree that for thirty days anyone who petitions any god or man except you, O king, will be thrown into the den of lions. 8 Therefore, O king, establish the decree and sign the document so that it cannot be changed—in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."

9 Therefore King Darius signed the written decree.

DANIEL IN THE LIONS' DEN

10 Now when Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went into his house, where the windows of his upper room opened toward Jerusalem, and three times a day he got down on his knees, prayed, and gave thanks to his God, just as he had done before. 11 Then these men went as a group and found Daniel petitioning and imploring his God. 12 So they approached the king and asked about his royal decree: "Did you not sign a decree that for thirty days any man who petitions any god or man except you, O king, will be thrown into the den of lions?"

The king replied, "According to the law of the Medes and Persians the order stands, and it cannot be repealed."

13 Then they told the king, "Daniel, one of the exiles from Judah, shows no regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you have signed. He still makes his petition three times a day."

14 As soon as the king heard this, he was deeply distressed and set his mind on delivering Daniel, and he labored until sundown to rescue him.

15 Then the men approached the king together and said to him, "Remember, O king, that by the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or ordinance established by the king can be changed."

16 So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the den of lions.

The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!"

17 A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that nothing concerning Daniel could be changed.

18 Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. No entertainment was brought before him, and sleep fled from him.

19 At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the den of lions. 20 When he reached the den, he cried out in a voice of anguish, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?"

21 Then Daniel replied, "O king, may you live forever! 22 My God sent His angel and shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, for I was found innocent in His sight, and I have done no wrong against you, O king."

23 The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den, and when Daniel was lifted out of the den, no wounds whatsoever were found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

24 At the command of the king, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the den of lions—they and their children and wives. And before they had reached the bottom of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

DARIUS HONORS GOD

25 Then King Darius wrote to the people of every nation and language throughout the land: "May your prosperity abound. 26 I hereby decree that in every part of my kingdom, men are to tremble in fear before the God of Daniel:

For He is the living God,
and He endures forever;
His kingdom will never be destroyed,
and His dominion will never end.
27 He delivers and rescues;
He performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth, for He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions."

28 So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Daniel's own dream: four beasts rise out of the sea, and a little horn speaks proud words. Then the Ancient of Days takes His throne, and one like a son of man comes with the clouds to receive a kingdom that never ends.

DANIEL'S VISION OF THE FOUR BEASTS // REVELATION 13:1–10

1 In the first year of the reign of Belshazzar over Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he lay on his bed. He wrote down the dream, and this is the summary of his account.

2 Daniel declared: "In my vision in the night I looked, and suddenly the four winds of heaven were churning up the great sea. 3 Then four great beasts came up out of the sea, each one different from the others:

4 The first beast was like a lion, and it had the wings of an eagle. I watched until its wings were torn off and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man and given the heart of a man.

5 Suddenly another beast appeared, which looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. So it was told, 'Get up and gorge yourself on flesh!'

6 Next, as I watched, suddenly another beast appeared. It was like a leopard, and on its back it had four wings like those of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.

7 After this, as I watched in my vision in the night, suddenly a fourth beast appeared, and it was terrifying—dreadful and extremely strong—with large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed; then it trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the beasts before it, and it had ten horns. 8 While I was contemplating the horns, suddenly another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like those of a man and a mouth that spoke words of arrogance.

DANIEL'S VISION OF THE ANCIENT OF DAYS

9 As I continued to watch, thrones were set in place,

and the Ancient of Days took His seat.
His clothing was white as snow,
and the hair of His head was like pure wool.
His throne was flaming with fire,
and its wheels were all ablaze.
10 A river of fire was flowing, coming out from His presence.
Thousands upon thousands attended Him,
and myriads upon myriads stood before Him.
The court was convened,
and the books were opened.

11 Then I kept watching because of the arrogant words the horn was speaking. As I continued to watch, the beast was slain, and its body was destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire. 12 As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was removed, but they were granted an extension of life for a season and a time.

DANIEL'S VISION OF THE SON OF MAN

13 In my vision in the night I continued to watch, and I saw One like the Son of Man coming with the clouds of heaven.

THE BIG QUESTION

WHO IS THE SON OF MAN?

One Like a Son of Man

DANIEL 7:13 TO 14 · 7:18 · 7:27

WHAT DANIEL SAW

One like a son of man came with the clouds of heaven to the Ancient of Days and was given an everlasting kingdom, and all peoples served Him, 7:13 to 14. In the Old Testament, riding the clouds is something God does, Psalm 104:3 and Isaiah 19:1.

JESUS' OWN TITLE

Jesus called Himself the Son of Man more than any other name. At His trial the high priest asked if He was the Messiah. Jesus said, I am, and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming with the clouds of heaven. The high priest tore his clothes and said blasphemy, Mark 14:61 to 64.

How It Has Been Read

MARK 14:61 TO 64 · MATTHEW 26:64 · REVELATION 1:7

THE CHRISTIAN READING

From the first Christians on, the Son of Man is Jesus, a real man who is also divine, receiving the kingdom from the Father, Acts 7:56 and Revelation 1:13.

THE PEOPLE OF GOD

Daniel 7:18 and 7:27 give the kingdom to the saints of the Most High. Many Jewish and some Christian readers say the figure stands for God's people. Christians answer that the King and His people share the kingdom, Revelation 3:21.

THE MESSIAH IN JEWISH TRADITION

Many ancient Jewish writers also read him as the Messiah. The Talmud says if Israel is worthy, the Messiah comes with the clouds of heaven, as in Daniel, and if not, humble and riding on a donkey, as in Zechariah 9:9, Sanhedrin 98a.

WHAT IT MEANS FOR YOU

The One who will receive all power once stood on trial and died. The kingdom He receives He shares with those who trust Him.

DANIEL'S VISIONS INTERPRETED

15 I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit, and the visions in my mind alarmed me. 16 I approached one of those who were standing there, and I asked him the true meaning of all this.

So he told me the interpretation of these things: 17 'These four great beasts are four kings who will arise from the earth. 18 But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess it forever—yes, forever and ever.'

19 Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others—extremely terrifying—devouring and crushing with iron teeth and bronze claws, then trampling underfoot whatever was left. 20 I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and the other horn that came up, before which three of them fell—the horn whose appearance was more imposing than the others, with eyes and with a mouth that spoke words of arrogance. 21 As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and prevailing against them, 22 until the Ancient of Days arrived and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for them to possess the kingdom.

23 This is what he said: 'The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on the earth, different from all the other kingdoms, and it will devour the whole earth, trample it down, and crush it. 24 And the ten horns are ten kings who will rise from this kingdom. After them another king, different from the earlier ones, will rise and subdue three kings. 25 He will speak out against the Most High and oppress the saints of the Most High, intending to change the appointed times and laws; and the saints will be given into his hand for a time, and times, and half a time.

26 But the court will convene, and his dominion will be taken away and completely destroyed forever. 27 Then the sovereignty, dominion, and greatness of the kingdoms under all of heaven will be given to the people, the saints of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey Him.'

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

A ram with two horns and a goat with one big horn. The goat wins, its horn breaks into four, and a little horn grows proud and stops the sacrifices. Gabriel explains it, and Daniel feels sick for days.

DANIEL'S VISION OF THE RAM AND THE GOAT

1 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, subsequent to the one that had appeared to me earlier. 2 And in the vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa, in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal.

3 Then I lifted up my eyes and saw a ram with two horns standing beside the canal. The horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one grew up later. 4 I saw the ram charging toward the west and the north and the south. No animal could stand against him, and there was no deliverance from his power. He did as he pleased and became great.

5 As I was contemplating all this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between his eyes came out of the west, crossing the surface of the entire earth without touching the ground. 6 He came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and rushed at him with furious power. 7 I saw him approach the ram in a rage against him, and he struck the ram and shattered his two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against him, and the goat threw him to the ground and trampled him, and no one could deliver the ram from his power.

8 Thus the goat became very great, but at the height of his power, his large horn was broken off, and four prominent horns came up in its place, pointing toward the four winds of heaven.

9 From one of these horns a little horn emerged and grew extensively toward the south and the east and toward the Beautiful Land. 10 It grew as high as the host of heaven, and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the earth and trampled them. 11 It magnified itself, even to the Prince of the host; it removed His daily sacrifice and overthrew the place of His sanctuary. 12 And in the rebellion, the host and the daily sacrifice were given over to the horn, and it flung truth to the ground and prospered in whatever it did.

13 Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to him, "How long until the fulfillment of the vision of the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the surrender of the sanctuary and of the host to be trampled?"

14 He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be properly restored."

GABRIEL INTERPRETS DANIEL'S VISION

15 While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there stood before me one having the appearance of a man. 16 And I heard the voice of a man calling from between the banks of the Ulai: "Gabriel, explain the vision to this man."

17 As he came near to where I stood, I was terrified and fell facedown.

"Son of man," he said to me, "understand that the vision concerns the time of the end."

18 While he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face to the ground.

Then he touched me, helped me to my feet, 19 and said, "Behold, I will make known to you what will happen in the latter time of wrath, because it concerns the appointed time of the end.

20 The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia. 21 The shaggy goat represents the king of Greece, and the large horn between his eyes is the first king. 22 The four horns that replaced the broken one represent four kingdoms that will rise from that nation but will not have the same power.

23 In the latter part of their reign, when the rebellion has reached its full measure, an insolent king, skilled in intrigue, will come to the throne. 24 His power will be great, but it will not be his own. He will cause terrible destruction and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty men along with the holy people. 25 Through his craft and by his hand, he will cause deceit to prosper, and in his own heart he will make himself great. In a time of peace he will destroy many, and he will even stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be broken off, but not by human hands.

26 The vision of the evenings and the mornings that has been spoken is true. Now you must seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future."

27 I, Daniel, was exhausted and lay ill for days. Then I got up and went about the king's business. I was confounded by the vision; it was beyond understanding.

ANTIOCHUS IV

Antiochus IV Epiphanes, a Greek king of Syria, 175 to 164 BC, banned the Law, stopped the sacrifices and set up a pagan altar in the temple in 167 BC, 1 Maccabees 1:41 to 64. The Maccabees fought back, and the temple was cleansed in 164 BC.

VIEW 1: CHAPTER 8 IS ANTIOCHUS, CHAPTER 7 IS THE ANTICHRIST

Many evangelicals say chapter 8 and 11:21 to 35 fit Antiochus, but chapter 7 and 11:36 to 45 point to a final ruler at the end, the man of lawlessness, 2 Thessalonians 2:3 to 4.

VIEW 2: ANTIOCHUS AS A PREVIEW

Others say Antiochus fulfilled these chapters in part and is a picture of a worse enemy still to come. Jesus spoke of the abomination as still future in His day, Matthew 24:15.

VIEW 3: ALL ANTIOCHUS

Many scholars read every little horn as Antiochus and chapter 11 as his career to the end. Others answer that 11:40 to 45 does not match how Antiochus died, in Persia in 164 BC.

VIEW 4: THE TURKS OR THE PAPACY

Luther came to read the little horn of chapter 7 as the Turks, and he saw the pope in the proud king of 11:36. Many later Protestants read the little horn as the papacy. Few hold these views today, but they shaped Protestant history.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Daniel reads Jeremiah and learns the exile will last seventy years. He prays a long, humble prayer for his people. Gabriel comes with an answer about seventy weeks and the Messiah.

DANIEL'S PRAYER FOR HIS PEOPLE

1 In the first year of Darius son of Xerxes, a Mede by descent, who was made ruler over the kingdom of the Chaldeans— 2 in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the sacred books, according to the word of Yahweh to Jeremiah the prophet, that the desolation of Jerusalem would last seventy years. 3 So I turned my attention to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and petition, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

4 And I prayed to Yahweh my God and confessed, "O, Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of loving devotion to those who love Him and keep His commandments, 5 we have sinned and done wrong. We have acted wickedly and rebelled. We have turned away from Your commandments and ordinances. 6 We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, leaders, fathers, and all the people of the land.

7 To You, O Lord, belongs righteousness, but this day we are covered with shame—the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, and all Israel near and far, in all the countries to which You have driven us because of our unfaithfulness to You. 8 O Yahweh, we are covered with shame—our kings, our leaders, and our fathers—because we have sinned against
You.

9 To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, even though we have rebelled against Him 10 and have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh our God to walk in His laws, which He set before us through His servants the prophets.

11 All Israel has transgressed Your law and turned away, refusing to obey Your voice;
so the oath and the curse written in the Law of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us, because we have sinned against You. 12 You have carried out the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing upon us a great disaster. For under all of heaven, nothing has ever been done like what has been done to Jerusalem.

13 Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us, yet we have not sought the favor of Yahweh our God by turning from our iniquities and giving attention to Your truth. 14 Therefore Yahweh has kept the calamity in store and brought it upon us. For Yahweh our God is righteous in all He does; yet we have not obeyed His voice.

15 Now, O Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and who made for Yourself a name renowned to this day, we have sinned; we have acted wickedly. 16 O Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, I pray that Your anger and wrath may turn away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people are a reproach to all around us.

17 So now, our God, hear the prayers and petitions of Your servant. For Your sake, O Lord, cause Your face to shine upon Your desolate sanctuary. 18 Incline Your ear, O my God, and hear; open Your eyes and see the desolation of the city that bears Your name. For we are not presenting our petitions before You because of our righteous acts, but because of Your great compassion.

19 O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For Your sake, O my God, do not delay, because Your city and Your people bear Your name."

GABRIEL'S PROPHECY OF THE SEVENTY WEEKS

20 While I was speaking, praying, confessing my sin and that of my people Israel, and presenting my petition before Yahweh
my God concerning His holy mountain—21 while I was still praying, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice. 22 He instructed me and spoke with me, saying: "O Daniel, I have come now to give you insight and understanding. 23 At the beginning of your petitions, an answer went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are highly precious. So consider the message and understand the vision:

24 Seventy weeks are decreed for your people and your holy city to stop their transgression, to put an end to sin, to make atonement for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy Place.

25 Know and understand this: From the issuance of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Messiah, the Prince, there will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of distress.

26 Then after the sixty-two weeks the Messiah will be cut off and will have nothing.

Then the people of the prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood, and until the end there will be war; desolations have been decreed. 27 And he will confirm a covenant with many for one week, but in the middle of the week he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of the temple will come the abomination that causes desolation, until the decreed destruction is poured out upon him."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE SEVENTY WEEKS

The Countdown to the Messiah

DANIEL 9:24 TO 27

THE PROPHECY

Seventy weeks, seventy sevens, are decreed. From the word to rebuild Jerusalem until the Messiah, the Prince, there will be seven weeks and sixty two weeks. Then the Messiah will be cut off, and the city and the sanctuary will be destroyed. One last week follows, 9:24 to 27.

THE MATH

Most read the weeks as sevens of years: 490 years in all, with 483 years to the Messiah. The hard part is where to start and how to count.

Every View

EZRA 7:11 TO 26 · NEHEMIAH 2:1 TO 8 · MATTHEW 24:15 · LUKE 21:20

VIEW 1: FROM ARTAXERXES TO JESUS

Start with Artaxerxes' decree to Ezra in 458 or 457 BC, Ezra 7. 483 years later is about AD 26 or 27, when Jesus was baptized. He was cut off in the middle of the last week.

VIEW 2: FROM NEHEMIAH, WITH A GAP

Start with Nehemiah's permission in 445 or 444 BC and count 360 day years, as Sir Robert Anderson and Harold Hoehner did, to the week Jesus rode into Jerusalem. The last week is still future, after a gap, when a coming ruler makes a covenant and breaks it.

VIEW 3: TO ANTIOCHUS

Many scholars start with Jeremiah's word or Cyrus's decree and end with Antiochus, 171 to 164 BC; the anointed one cut off is the high priest Onias III, murdered in 171 BC.

VIEW 4: A SYMBOLIC NUMBER

Some read seventy sevens as a full, perfect time leading to Christ's work and the fall of Jerusalem in AD 70, without exact year counts.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God set a timetable for His people, and an anointed one would be cut off before the city and the sanctuary fell. Many Christians point out that the temple fell in AD 70.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Daniel fasts for three weeks and then sees a man dressed in linen, shining like lightning. He learns there was a battle in the unseen world that delayed the answer. He is told he is greatly loved.

DANIEL'S VISION BY THE TIGRIS

1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, who was called Belteshazzar. The message was true, and it concerned a great conflict. And the understanding of the message was given to him in a vision.

2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three full weeks. 3 I ate no rich food, no meat or wine entered my mouth, and I did not anoint myself with oil until the three weeks were completed.

4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris, 5 I lifted up my eyes, and behold, there was a certain man dressed in linen, with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist. 6 His body was like beryl, his face like the brilliance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of polished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a multitude.

7 Only I, Daniel, saw the vision; the men with me did not see it, but a great terror fell upon them, and they ran and hid themselves.

8 So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision. No strength remained in me; my face grew deathly pale, and I was powerless. 9 I heard the sound of his words, and as I listened, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face to the ground.

10 Suddenly, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. 11 He said to me, "Daniel, you are a man who is highly precious. Consider carefully the words that I am about to say to you. Stand up, for I have now been sent to you."

And when he had said this to me, I stood up trembling.

12 "Do not be afraid, Daniel," he said, "for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. 13 However, the prince of the kingdom of Persia opposed me for twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia. 14 Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision concerns those days."

15 While he was speaking these words to me, I set my face toward the ground and became speechless. 16 And suddenly one with the likeness of a man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and said to the one standing before me, "My lord, because of the vision, I am overcome with anguish, and I have no strength. 17 How can I, your servant, speak with you, my lord? Now I have no strength, nor is any breath left in me."

18 Again the one with the likeness of a man touched me and strengthened me. 19 "Do not be afraid, you who are highly precious," he said. "Peace be with you! Be strong now; be very strong!"

As he spoke with me, I was strengthened and said, "Speak, my lord, for you have strengthened me."

20 "Do you know why I have come to you?" he said. "I must return at once to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I have gone forth, behold, the prince of Greece will come. 21 But first I will tell you what is inscribed in the Book of Truth. Yet no one has the courage to support me against these, except Michael your prince.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

One of the most detailed prophecies in the Bible: kings of the north and kings of the south fighting for centuries. Then a proud king who exalts himself above every god. Bring a map and a scorecard.

KINGS OF THE SOUTH AND NORTH

1 "And I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, stood up to strengthen and protect him.

2 Now then, I will tell you the truth: Three more kings will arise in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all the others. By the power of his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

- DAN 10:5 [ALLUDED TO] The New Testament refers to this → REV 1:13-15 p.2080
- DAN 10:5 [NOTE] A MAN DRESSED IN LINEN. Some see Christ here, compare Revelation 1:13 to 15. Others see a mighty angel, since he needed Michael's help, 10:13. His words stay black.
- DAN 10:10 [MIRACLE] A hand touches Daniel and a heavenly messenger speaks
- DAN 10:12 [HEART] From the first day Daniel set his heart to understand and humble himself, his prayer was heard.

- DAN 10:13 [DEMONIC] Prince of Persia, Prince of Greece — territorial demonic principalities
- DAN 10:13 [NOTE] THE PRINCE OF PERSIA. A spiritual power over Persia that fought against God's messenger for 21 days, until Michael came. Paul says our battle is not against flesh and blood, Ephesians 6:12.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN HISTORY

3 Then a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great authority and do as he pleases. 4 But as soon as he is established, his kingdom will be broken up and parceled out toward the four winds of heaven. It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the authority with which he ruled, because his kingdom will be uprooted and given to others.

5 The king of the South will grow strong,
but one of his commanders will grow even stronger and will rule his own kingdom with great authority.

6 After some years they will form an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to seal the agreement. But his daughter will not retain her position of power, nor will his strength endure. At that time she will be given up, along with her royal escort and her father and the one who supported
her.

7 But one from her family line will rise up in his place, come against the army of the king of the North, and enter his fortress, fighting and prevailing. 8 He will take even their gods captive to Egypt, with their metal images and their precious vessels of silver and gold. For some years he will stay away from the king of the North, 9 who will invade the realm of the king of the South and then return to his own land.

10 But his sons will stir up strife and assemble a great army, which will advance forcefully, sweeping through like a flood, and will again carry the battle as far as his fortress. 11 In a rage, the king of the South will march out to fight the king of the North, who will raise a large army, but it will be delivered into the hand of his enemy.

12 When the army is carried off, the king of the South will be proud in heart and will cast down tens of thousands, but he will not triumph. 13 For the king of the North will raise another army, larger than the first, and after some years he will advance with a great army and many supplies.

14 In those times many will rise up against the king of the South. Violent ones among your own people will exalt themselves in fulfillment of the vision, but they will fail.

15 Then the king of the North will come, build up a siege ramp, and capture a fortified city. The forces of the South will not stand; even their best troops will not be able to resist. 16 The invader will do as he pleases, and no one will stand against him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land, with destruction in his hand. 17
He will resolve to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and will reach an agreement with the king of the South. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom, but his plan will not succeed or help him.

18 Then he will turn his face to the coast-lands and capture many of them. But a commander will put an end to his reproach and will turn it back upon him. 19
After this, he will turn back toward the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall and be no more.

Alexander's empire split four ways after 323 BC. Recorded by Herodotus and Arrian.
- DAN 11:2 [NOTE] KINGS OF PERSIA AND GREECE. Chapter 11 tracks history so closely that many readers have matched it king by king: Persia, Alexander, then the Ptolemies in Egypt, the south, and the Seleucids in Syria, the north.
- DAN 11:6 [PROPHECY] The daughter of the king of the South would marry the king of the North and be given up, then her brother would take revenge and carry off their gods to Egypt → HISTORY: Berenice of Egypt married Antiochus II of Syria and was killed about 246 BC. Her brother Ptolemy III then invaded Syria and brought idols back to Egypt. Recorded by Appian and Jerome.

- DAN 11:17 [PROPHECY] The king of the North would give a daughter in marriage to the king of the South, but his plan would fail → HISTORY: Antiochus III of Syria gave his daughter Cleopatra to Ptolemy V of Egypt as his wife, about 193 BC. But she stood with her husband. Recorded by Appian, Syrian Wars 5, and Livy.
- DAN 11:18 [PROPHECY] The king of the North would take coastlands, be stopped by a commander, then fall in his own land → HISTORY: A Roman army under Scipio beat Antiochus III at Magnesia in 190 BC. He was killed in 187 BC while robbing a temple in Elymais, in his own kingdom. Recorded by Livy and Diodorus.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN THE APOCRYPHA

20 In his place one will arise who will send out a tax collector for the glory of the kingdom; but within a few days he will be destroyed, though not in anger or in battle.

21 In his place a despicable person will arise; royal honors will not be given to him, but he will come in a time of peace and seize the kingdom by intrigue. 22 Then a flood of forces will be swept away before him and destroyed, along with a prince of the covenant.

23 After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully; for he will rise to power with only a few people. 24 In a time of peace, he will invade the richest provinces and do what his fathers and forefathers never did. He will lavish plunder, loot, and wealth on his followers, and he will plot against the strongholds—but only for a time.

25 And with a large army he will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South, who will mobilize a very large and powerful army but will not withstand the plots devised against him. 26 Those who eat from his provisions will seek to destroy him; his army will be swept away,
and many will fall slain.

27 And the two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will speak lies at the same table, but to no avail, for still the end will come at the appointed time. 28 The king of the North will return to his land with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant; so he will do damage and return to his own land.

29 At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time will not be like the first. 30 Ships of Kittim will come against him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and rage against the holy covenant and do damage. So he will return and show favor to those who forsake the holy covenant. 31 His forces will rise up and desecrate the temple fortress. They will abolish the daily sacrifice and set up the abomination of desolation.

32 With flattery he will corrupt those who violate the covenant, but the people who know their God will be strong and do exploits. 33 Those with insight will instruct many, though for a time they will fall by sword or flame, or be captured or plundered.

cerely. 35 Some of the wise will fall so that they may be refined, purified, and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

THE KING WHO EXALTS HIMSELF

36 Then the king will do as he pleases and will exalt and magnify himself above every god, and he will speak monstrous things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been decreed must be accomplished. 37 He will show no regard for the gods of his fathers, nor for the one desired by women, nor for any other god, because he will magnify himself above them all.

38 And in their place, he will honor a god of fortresses—a god his fathers did not know—with gold, silver, precious stones, and riches. 39 He will attack the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him, making them rulers over many and distributing the land for a price.

40 At the time of the end, the king of the South will engage him in battle, but the king of the North will storm out against him with chariots, horsemen, and many ships, invading many countries and sweeping through them like a flood. 41 He will also invade the Beautiful Land, and many countries will fall. But these will be delivered from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the leaders of the Ammonites.

42 He will extend his power over many countries, and not even the land of Egypt will escape. 43 He will gain control of the treasures of gold and silver and over all the riches of Egypt, and the Libyans and Cushites will also submit to him.

44 But news from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will go out with great fury to destroy many and devote them to destruction. 45 He will pitch his royal tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain, but he will meet his end with no one to help him.

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Michael stands up, there is a time of trouble, and many who sleep in the dust will wake. The wise will shine like the stars. Daniel is told to seal the book and rest, for he will rise at the end of the days.

THE END TIMES // REVELATION 1:1–3

1 "At that time Michael, the great prince who stands watch over your people, will rise up. There will be a time of distress, the likes of which will not have occurred from the beginning of nations until that time. But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered.

2 And many who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, but others to shame and everlasting contempt. 3 Then the wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever and ever.

4 But you, Daniel, shut up these words and seal the book until the time of the end. Many will roam to and fro, and knowledge will increase."

5 Then I, Daniel, looked and saw two others standing there, one on this bank of the river and one on the opposite bank. 6 One of them said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long until the fulfillment of these wonders?"

7 And the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and I heard him swear by Him who lives forever, saying, "It will be for a time, and times, and half a time. When the power of the holy people has finally been shattered, all these things will be completed."

8 I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, "My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?"

9 "Go on your way, Daniel," he replied, "for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. 10 Many will be purified, made spotless, and refined, but the wicked will continue to act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.

HOSEA

The Prophet Who Married a Prostitute

AUTHOR	Hosea son of Beeri, a prophet in Israel, the northern kingdom. His name means salvation. It was Joshua's name before Moses changed it, Numbers 13:16.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	About 755 to 715 BC, from the last years of Jeroboam II of Israel into the reign of Hezekiah of Judah.
DATE WRITTEN	About 750 to 715 BC. His words were likely gathered in Judah after Samaria fell in 722 BC.
WRITTEN TO	Israel, which Hosea often calls Ephraim after its leading tribe, with warnings for Judah too.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Hosea is in three Qumran copies of the Twelve Prophets and two Qumran commentaries on Hosea, all copied before or about the time of Jesus.
KEY VERSE	Hosea 3:1. Love her as Yahweh loves the Israelites, though they turn to other gods.

THE OLDEST COPIES OF HOSEA
A piece of 4QXII d, a scroll of the Twelve Prophets from Qumran Cave 4, copied about a hundred years before Jesus. It holds part of Hosea 1:6 to 2:3, the names of Hosea's children. Hosea is in two more Qumran copies of the Twelve, and two Qumran commentaries explain it line by line. See The Hosea Scrolls.

Historical Setting

When Hosea starts preaching, King Jeroboam II has made Israel rich and strong. Then it all falls apart. After Jeroboam dies, six kings rule in about thirty years, and four of them are murdered. Israel pays Assyria, then begs Egypt, and in 722 BC Assyria destroys Samaria and carries the people away. Through it all the people worship Baal next to Yahweh and bow to the golden calves. Hosea's own broken marriage becomes God's picture of Israel.

What Went Wrong

BAAL AND YAHWEH TOGETHER. They thanked Baal for the grain, wine and oil God gave, 2:8, and even called Yahweh my Baal, 2:16.
THE CALVES. They kissed calf idols made by craftsmen, 8:5 to 6 and 13:2.
KINGS WITHOUT GOD. They set up kings God did not choose, 8:4, and one king after another fell, 7:7.

NO KNOWLEDGE OF GOD. Lying, murder, stealing and adultery everywhere, 4:1 to 2, and priests who fed on the people's sin, 4:8.
HUMAN SACRIFICE. 13:2 can be read they offer human sacrifice, the very thing God hated, 2 Kings 17:17. The Hebrew can also mean those who sacrifice.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Hosea is a love story with a broken heart. God tells the prophet to marry Gomer, a woman who will cheat on him, and later to go buy her back. Their marriage is a living picture of God and Israel: God loved His people and gave them everything, and they ran off after Baal. The middle of the book is God's case against them, full of hard words and wild pictures, a half baked cake, a silly dove, a morning mist. But God cannot let them go. How could I give you up? He asks. The book ends with an open door: return, and I will heal you.

Where Jesus Shows Up

HOSEA 11:1 Out of Egypt I called My son. Matthew 2:15 sees Jesus, God's Son, coming out of Egypt and reliving Israel's story.

HOSEA 6:6 I desire mercy, not sacrifice. Jesus quoted it twice, Matthew 9:13 and 12:7.

HOSEA 1:10 AND 2:23 Not My People will be called My people. Paul and Peter see Jews and Gentiles brought to God through Jesus, Romans 9:25 to 26 and 1 Peter 2:10.

HOSEA 6:2 On the third day He will raise us up. Many see a picture of Jesus rising on the third day, 1 Corinthians 15:4.

HOSEA 13:14 Where, O Death, are your plagues? Where, O Sheol, is your sting? Paul shouts it over death itself, because Jesus rose, 1 Corinthians 15:54 to 57.

HOSEA 3:1 TO 2 A husband buys back his unfaithful bride. Christians see the price Jesus paid for His people, 1 Peter 1:18 to 19.

LO RUHAMAH
No Compassion, Hosea's daughter, 1:6.

LO AMMI
Not My People, his younger son, 1:9.

BETH AVEN
House of wickedness, a nickname for Bethel, 4:15.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

NAMES THAT PREACH
Hosea's children were named Jezreel, God Sows; Lo ruhamah, No Compassion; and Lo ammi, Not My People. In 2:22 to 23 God turns every name around.

FIRST OF THE TWELVE
Hosea comes first in the Book of the Twelve, the twelve shorter prophets that were copied together on one scroll.

SOW THE WIND
The saying sow the wind, reap the whirlwind comes from Hosea 8:7.

GOD DOES THE TALKING
God speaks most of the book in His own voice, so most of Hosea prints in red.

How Does It End?

Israel did not listen, and Assyria took Samaria in 722 BC, just as Hosea warned, 13:16. But the book ends with God's promise to heal His people and love them freely, 14:4, and a word for every reader: whoever is wise, let him understand these things, 14:9.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Hosea to marry a woman who will cheat on him. He marries Gomer, and they have three children with names that sound like bad news: God Sows, No Compassion and Not My People. Then God promises to undo every name.

HOSEA'S WIFE AND CHILDREN

1 This is the word of Yahweh that came to Hosea son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and of Jeroboam son of Jehoash, king of Israel.

2 When Yahweh first spoke through Hosea, He told him, "Go, take a prostitute as your wife and have children of adultery, because this land is flagrantly prostituting itself by departing from Yahweh."

3 So Hosea went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

4 Then Yahweh said to Hosea, "Name him Jezreel, for soon I will bring the bloodshed of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel. 5 And on that day I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

6 Gomer again conceived and gave birth to a daughter, and Yahweh said to Hosea, "Name her Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have compassion on the house of Israel, that I should ever forgive them. 7 Yet I will have compassion on the house of Judah, and I will save them—not by bow or sword or war, not by horses and cavalry, but by Yahweh their God."

8 After she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, Gomer conceived and gave birth to a son. 9 And Yahweh said, "Name him Lo-ammi, for you are not My people, and I am not your God.

10 Yet the number of the Israelites will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted. And it will happen that in the very place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.' 11 Then the people of Judah and of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint for themselves one leader, and will go up out of the land. For great will be the day of Jezreel.

DEBATED · THE BIG QUESTION

DID GOD REALLY TELL HOSEA TO MARRY A PROSTITUTE?

A Hard Command

HOSEA 1:2 TO 3 · 3:1 TO 3

WHAT THE TEXT SAYS

Go, take a prostitute as your wife and have children of adultery, 1:2. The Hebrew says a woman of whoredoms. Hosea married Gomer. Later God said, Go show love to your wife again, though she is an adulteress, 3:1.

WHY IT IS HARD

God hates unfaithfulness, and the law told priests not to marry a prostitute, Leviticus 21:7. Many readers ask how a holy God could ask this of His prophet.

- HOS 1:1 [NOTE] FOUR KINGS OF JUDAH, ONE OF ISRAEL. Hosea preached in Israel, the northern kingdom, but dates his book by Judah's kings too. Jeroboam II died about 753 BC; Hezekiah began to reign about 715 BC.

- HOS 1:9 [ALLUDED TO] The New Testament refers to this → 1PE 2:10 p.2013
- HOS 1:9 [NOTE] LO AMMI. Not My People, the reverse of God's promise, I will be your God, and you will be My people, Leviticus 26:12.

- HOS 1:10 [QUOTED] Quoted in the New Testament → ROM 9:25-26 p.1811
- HOS 1:10 [TEXT] VERSE NUMBERS. In Hebrew Bibles 1:10 to 11 is 2:1 to 2, so every verse in chapter 2 is two numbers higher there. In the same way 11:12 is 12:1 and 13:16 is 14:1, so chapters 12 and 14 are one number higher. The words are the same.

Every View

LEVITICUS 21:7 · EZEKIEL 4:4 TO 6 · ISAIAH 20:2 TO 3

VIEW 1: IT HAPPENED AS WRITTEN

Many, from Irenaeus in the early church to many today, take it plainly. God let Hosea feel what God feels. Hosea was not a priest, so Leviticus 21:7 did not bind him.

VIEW 2: SHE BECAME UNFAITHFUL LATER

Many say Gomer was faithful when they married, and 1:2 looks back from the end of the story, the way you might say a man married his future boss. Children of adultery would be the children she had later.

VIEW 3: A VISION OR A PARABLE

Some Jewish scholars, like Ibn Ezra and Maimonides, and Christians like John Calvin, said it happened in a vision or was a story told to teach. Others answer that Gomer and her father have real names, 1:3.

VIEW 4: A WOMAN OF HER TIMES

Some think a woman of whoredoms means a woman from a people chasing idols, or one caught up in the sex rituals of Baal worship, not a woman who sold herself.

PROPHETS WHO ACTED IT OUT

God also had Isaiah walk barefoot for three years, Isaiah 20:2 to 3, and Ezekiel lie on his side for over a year, Ezekiel 4:4 to 6. The message was lived, not just spoken.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The marriage is a picture of God's love. Israel was the unfaithful wife, and God kept loving her and bought her back, 3:1 to 2.

2

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

God speaks like a heartbroken husband taking His unfaithful wife to court. She chased other lovers and thanked Baal for gifts God gave. But God will take her back to the wilderness, speak to her heart and marry her forever.

ISRAEL'S ADULTERY REBUKED

1 "Say of your brothers, 'My people,' and of your sisters, 'My loved one.'

2 Rebuke your mother, rebuke her,
for she is not My wife,
and I am not her husband.
Let her remove the adultery from her face and the unfaithfulness from between her breasts.
3 Otherwise, I will strip her naked and expose her like the day of her birth.
I will make her like a desert and turn her into a parched land,
and I will let her die of thirst.
4 I will have no compassion on her children,
because they are the children of adultery.
5 For their mother has played the harlot and has conceived them in disgrace.
For she thought,
'I will go after my lovers,
who give me bread and water,
wool and linen, oil and drink.'
6 Therefore, behold,
I will hedge up her path with thorns;
I will enclose her with a wall,
so she cannot find her way.
7 She will pursue her lovers but not catch them;
she will seek them but not find them.
Then she will say,
'I will return to my first husband,
for then I was better off than now.'
8 For she does not acknowledge that it was I who gave her grain,
new wine, and oil,
who lavished on her silver and gold—
which they crafted for Baal.
9 Therefore I will take back My grain in its time and My new wine in its season;
I will take away My wool and linen,
which were given to cover her nakedness.

THE SAMARIA OSTRACA

HOSEA 2:5 · 2:8 · 2:16 TO 17 · 12:8

Five of the Samaria Ostraca, ink notes on broken pottery, as photographed for the Harvard dig report of 1924. Public domain.

WHAT THEY ARE

More than a hundred pieces of broken pottery with short notes written in ink, found in a storeroom building at Samaria, Israel's capital. More than sixty can still be read.

HOW OLD THEY ARE

Most scholars date them to the early 700s BC, many to the reign of Jeroboam II, the king of Israel in Hosea 1:1. They are dated by the year of a king they do not name. Some scholars date them a little earlier.

WHAT THEY SAY

They are shipping notes for jars of old wine and fine oil sent to Samaria from farms and clans around it. A typical note gives the year, the place or clan, the man who received it, and the jar.

THE NAMES

The notes name dozens of people. Many names are built on Yahweh, ending in yau, like Gaddiyau and Shemaryau. But others are built on Baal, like Abibaal, Baala and Meribaal.

BAAL OR MASTER?

Baal also means master or lord, so some parents may have used it as a title for Yahweh. That is just what God says He will stop in Hosea 2:16: you will no longer call Me my Baal.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

A Harvard team led by George Reisner dug them up in 1910, in a building next to the royal palace, now called the Ostraca House. The land was then ruled by the Ottoman Turks, so the ostraca went to the Istanbul Archaeology Museums.

WHY POTTERY?

Broken pottery was the scrap paper of the ancient world. It cost nothing, ink wrote on it well, and it lasts for thousands of years.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The notes do not name Hosea or tell any event in the book.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Real records from Hosea's century: wine and oil flowing into the capital in the rich years, the same gifts Israel thanked Baal for, 2:5 and 2:8, and families naming children after both Yahweh and Baal.

of the Baals;
no longer will their names be invoked.

YAHWEH AND HIS ASHERAH

HOSEA 2:16 TO 17 · 4:12 TO 13

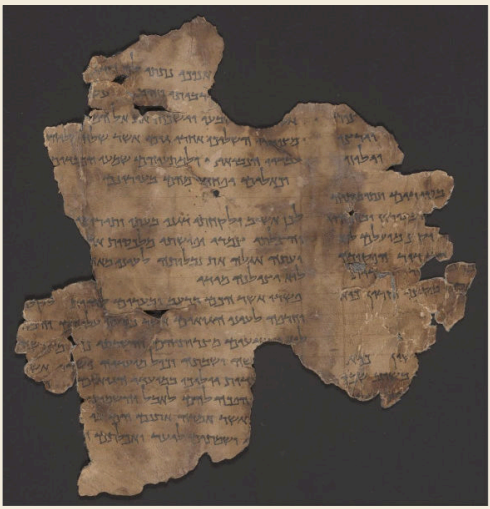
A modern drawing of the paintings and writing on Jar A from Kuntillet Ajrud. Wikimedia Commons.

WHAT IT IS
Two big storage jars from Kuntillet Ajrud, a desert stopping place in the Sinai, painted with figures and written with blessings. One says, I bless you by Yahweh of Samaria and by his asherah.

HOW OLD IT IS
About 800 BC, a generation before Hosea.

WHERE FOUND
Archaeologist Zeev Meshel dug the site in 1975 and 1976.

WHAT IT MEANS
Asherah was a goddess, and also the name for the wooden pole that stood for her. Either way, some Israelites worshiped Yahweh with something beside Him, and Yahweh of Samaria ties it to Hosea's own capital.



OTHER VIEWS
Some scholars think asherah here means only a sacred tree or pole, not a goddess. Some think the figures under the words show Yahweh and Asherah. Others say they are the Egyptian god Bes and may not go with the blessing at all.

WHAT IT SHOWS
Hosea was not exaggerating. God says, you will call Me my Husband, and I will remove the names of the Baals from her lips, 2:16 to 17.

THE HOSEA SCROLLS

HOSEA 1 TO 14 · 2:6 TO 12 · 5:13 TO 15

4Q166, Pesher Hosea, a Qumran commentary on Hosea 2:6 to 12. Photo Shai Halevi, Israel Antiquities Authority, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

WHAT THEY ARE

Copies of Hosea and commentaries on it from the caves near Qumran. Hosea is in three scrolls of the Twelve Prophets from Cave 4, called 4QXII c, d and g. Two more scrolls, 4Q166 and 4Q167, are commentaries called Pesher Hosea.

HOW OLD THEY ARE

The copies of the Twelve were made in the hundred years before Jesus. The commentary in the photo, 4Q166, was copied in the Herodian period, between about 30 BC and the time of Jesus.

WHAT A PESHER IS

Pesher means interpretation. The writer quotes a few words of Scripture, then says, its interpretation is, and explains how the words fit his own day.

THE UNFAITHFUL WIFE

4Q166 quotes Hosea 2:6 to 12, numbered 2:8 to 14 in Hebrew Bibles, the wife who chased her lovers, and reads her as the people of its own time who forgot God and followed the ways of the nations.

THE LION OF WRATH

4Q167 comments on Hosea 5:14, I will be like a lion to Ephraim. It speaks of the Lion of Wrath and of a last priest who would strike Ephraim. Many scholars think the Lion of Wrath was the Jewish king Alexander Jannaeus, who ruled about 103 to 76 BC.

HOW THEY WERE FOUND

Bedouin shepherds found Cave 4 in 1952, right beside the ruins of Qumran. They dug out most of its thousands of scroll pieces before archaeologists arrived and found more. Scholars spent years fitting them together.

A SCROLL OF TWELVE

The twelve shorter prophets fit on one scroll, so Jews counted them as one book, the Book of the Twelve. Hosea comes first, as it does in Bibles today.

WHAT THE COPIES SHOW

The Hosea text in the scrolls is very close to the Hebrew text used today, with small differences, mostly in spelling.

WHY IT MATTERS

Jews before Jesus already read Hosea as a living word for their own day. Matthew and Paul read it that way too, Matthew 2:15 and Romans 9:25 to 26.

WHERE THEY ARE TODAY

The Israel Antiquities Authority keeps the pieces in Jerusalem. Anyone can look at them online in the Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

The shortest chapter, and maybe the sweetest. God tells Hosea to go love his wife again. Hosea buys her back, and Israel learns it will go many days without a king before coming home to God and David their king.

HOSEA REDEEMS HIS WIFE // ZECHARIAH 2:6–13

1 Then Yahweh said to me, "Go show love to your wife again, though she is loved by another and is an adulteress. Love her as Yahweh loves the Israelites, though they turn to other gods and love to offer raisin cakes to idols."

2 So I bought her for six ounces of silver and nine bushels of barley. 3 Then I said to her, "You must live with me for many days; you must not be promiscuous or belong to another, and I will do the same for you."

4 For the Israelites must live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, and without ephod or idol. 5 Afterward, the people of Israel will return and seek Yahweh their God and David their king. They will come trembling to Yahweh and to His goodness in the last days.

Many Christians say the many days are the long years since AD 70, with no temple and no sacrifice, and no king for far longer, and the return is still to come, when Israel turns to Jesus, Romans 11:25 to 27.

VIEW 2: AFTER THE EXILE

Some say it began to come true when the exiles came home, and came true fully when Jews followed Jesus, the Son of David.

VIEW 3: GOD'S PEOPLE IN CHRIST

Others say the return happens all through history, as Jews and Gentiles come to Christ and become one people, Ephesians 2:14.

JEWISH READINGS

The Aramaic Targum reads David their king as the Messiah, the son of David. Many Jews today still wait for that King and a rebuilt temple.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The many days of loss lead to a return, and the return is to God and to David's royal Son.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

God takes His people to court: no truth, no love, no knowledge of God. The priests are as bad as the people. They ask advice from sticks and worship on every hill.

GOD'S CASE AGAINST HIS PEOPLE

1 Hear the word of Yahweh,
O children of Israel,
for Yahweh has a case against the people of the land:

"There is no truth, no loving devotion,
and no knowledge of God in the land!
2 Cursing and lying,
murder and stealing,
and adultery are rampant;
one act of bloodshed follows another.
3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it will waste away with the beasts of the field and the birds of the air;
even the fish of the sea disappear.

4 But let no man contend;
let no man offer reproof;
for your people are like those who contend with a priest.
5 You will stumble by day,
and the prophet will stumble with you by night;
so I will destroy your mother—
6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I will also reject you as My priests.
Since you have forgotten the law of your God,
I will also forget your children.

7 The more they multiplied,
the more they sinned against Me;
they exchanged their Glory
for a thing of disgrace.
8 They feed on the sins of My people and set their hearts on iniquity.
9 And it shall be like people, like priest.
I will punish both of them for their ways
and repay them for their deeds.
10 They will eat but not be satisfied;
they will be promiscuous but not multiply.
For they have abandoned Yahweh to give themselves 11 to promiscuity, wine, and new wine, which take away the heart.

12 My people consult their wooden idols,
and their divining rods inform them.
For a spirit of prostitution leads them astray

HOS 4:1 [NOTE] A LAWSUIT. The Hebrew word rib means a lawsuit. Chapters 4 to 14 read like God's case against His people.

HOS 4:6 [NOTABLE] Not knowing God is not a small problem. Ignoring His word destroys people; knowing Him gives life.

HOS 4:6 [NOTE] LACK OF KNOWLEDGE. Not a lack of schooling. In Hosea, knowing God means knowing Him personally, the way a husband knows his wife, 2:20.

HOS 4:11 [TEXT] TAKE AWAY THE HEART. The Hebrew says take away the heart, like the KJV. Many Bibles say understanding.

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

and they have played the harlot against their God.
13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn offerings on the hills,
under oak, poplar, and terebinth,
because their shade is pleasant.
And so your daughters turn to prostitution
and your daughters-in-law to adultery.
14 I will not punish your daughters
when they prostitute themselves, nor your daughters-in-law
when they commit adultery.
For the men themselves go off with prostitutes and offer sacrifices with shrine prostitutes.
So a people without understanding will come to ruin.

15 Though you prostitute yourself, O Israel,
may Judah avoid such guilt!
Do not journey to Gilgal,
do not go up to Beth-aven,
and do not swear on oath,
'As surely as Yahweh lives!'
16 For Israel is as obstinate as a stubborn heifer.
Can Yahweh now shepherd them
like lambs in an open meadow?
17 Ephraim is joined to idols;
leave him alone!
18 When their liquor is gone,
they turn to prostitution;
their rulers dearly love disgrace.
19 The whirlwind has wrapped them in its wings,
and their sacrifices will bring them shame.

5

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Priests, people and the royal family all get called out. When Israel feels sick, it runs to Assyria for medicine instead of to God. God says He will go away until they come looking for Him.

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL AND JUDAH

1 "Hear this, O priests!
Take heed, O house of Israel!
Give ear, O royal house!
For this judgment is against you because you have been a snare at Mizpah,
a net spread out on Tabor.
2 The rebels are deep in slaughter;
but I will chastise them all.
3 I know all about Ephraim,
and Israel is not hidden from Me.
For now, O Ephraim,
you have turned to prostitution;
Israel is defiled.

4 Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God,
for a spirit of prostitution is within them,
and they do not know Yahweh.
5 Israel's arrogance testifies against them;
Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity;
even Judah stumbles with them.
6 They go with their flocks and herds to seek Yahweh,
but they do not find Him;
He has withdrawn Himself from them.
7 They have been unfaithful to Yahweh;
for they have borne illegitimate children.
Now the New Moon will devour them along with their land.

8 Blow the ram's horn in Gibeah,
the trumpet in Ramah;
raise the battle cry in Beth-aven:
Lead on, O Benjamin!
9 Ephraim will be laid waste
on the day of rebuke.
Among the tribes of Israel
I proclaim what is certain.
10 The princes of Judah are like those who move boundary stones;
I will pour out My fury
upon them like water.
11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment,
for he is determined to follow worthless idols.

HOS 4:12 [DEMONIC] God's people consult wooden idols and sacrifice on the hilltops

HOS 4:15 [NOTE] BETH AVEN. House of wickedness. Most think it is Hosea's nickname for Bethel, house of God, where one of the golden calves stood, 1 Kings 12:29. A real town named Beth Aven also stood nearby, Joshua 7:2.

HOS 4:17 [DEMONIC] Ephraim is joined to idols, so God says leave him alone

HOS 5:11 [DEMONIC] Ephraim is crushed because he chose to follow worthless idols

12 So I am like a moth to Ephraim, and like decay to the house of Judah.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah his wound, then Ephraim turned to Assyria and sent to the great king.
But he cannot cure you or heal your wound.
14 For I am like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will tear them to pieces and then go away.
I will carry them off
where no one can rescue them.
15 Then I will return to My place until they admit their guilt and seek My face;
in their affliction they will earnestly seek Me."

6

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

The people say, let us return, He will heal us on the third day. God answers that their love vanishes like the morning dew. What He wants is mercy, not sacrifice.

THE UNREPENTANCE OF ISRAEL AND JUDAH

1 Come, let us return to Yahweh.

For He has torn us to pieces,
but He will heal us;
He has wounded us,
but He will bind up our wounds.
2 After two days He will revive us;
on the third day He will raise us up,
that we may live in His presence.
3 So let us know—
let us press on to know Yahweh.
As surely as the sun rises,
He will appear;
He will come to us like the rain,
like the spring showers that water the earth.

4 What shall I do with you, O Ephraim?
What shall I do with you, O Judah?
For your loyalty is like a morning mist,
like the early dew that vanishes.
5 Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets;
I have slain them by the words of My mouth,
and My judgments go forth like lightning.
6 For I desire mercy, not sacrifice,
and the knowledge of God
rather than burnt offerings.

DEBATED · THE BIG QUESTION

THE THIRD DAY

Hosea 6:2 and the Resurrection

HOSEA 6:1 TO 4

THE VERSE

After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will raise us up, that we may live in His presence, 6:2. The people speak these words, 6:1 to 3.

WHY IT COMES UP

Paul says Christ was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 1 Corinthians 15:4, and Jesus said it was written that the Messiah would rise on the third day, Luke 24:46. No Old Testament verse says that plainly, so many look here and to Jonah, Matthew 12:40.

Every View

1 CORINTHIANS 15:4 · LUKE 24:46 · JONAH 1:17

VIEW 1: A PICTURE OF THE RESURRECTION

Many early Christian writers read it this way. Jesus, the true Israel, rose on the third day, and His people are raised with Him, Ephesians 2:6.

VIEW 2: SOON

Two days, then the third, can be a Hebrew way of saying in a short time. The people expected God to heal them quickly.

GOD SPEAKING

VIEW 3: A SHALLOW PRAYER

God's answer in 6:4 says their love is like a morning mist. Some say 6:1 to 3 is a quick, cheap repentance that God does not accept.

JEWISH READINGS

The old Aramaic Targum reads the third day as the day of the resurrection of the dead. Later rabbis linked the third day with many rescues in Scripture.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God heals what He has torn, 6:1, and the hope of rising again runs through the whole Bible.

7 But they, like Adam, have transgressed the covenant;
there they were unfaithful to Me.
8 Gilead is a city of evildoers,
tracked with footprints of blood.
9 Like raiders who lie in ambush,
so does a band of priests;
they murder on the way to Shechem;
surely they have committed atrocities.
10 In the house of Israel
I have seen a horrible thing:
Ephraim practices prostitution there,
and Israel is defiled.

11 Also for you, O Judah,
a harvest is appointed,
when I restore
My people from captivity.

7

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel is a hot oven, a half baked cake and a silly dove flapping between Egypt and Assyria. Kings keep falling, and nobody calls on God. They even cry out to Him without meaning it.

EPHRAIM'S INIQUITY

1 When I heal Israel,
the iniquity of Ephraim will be exposed,
as well as the crimes of Samaria.
For they practice deceit and thieves break in;
bandits raid in the streets.
2 But they fail to consider in their hearts that I remember all their evil.
Now their deeds are all around them;
they are before My face.

3 They delight the king with their evil,
and the princes with their lies.
4 They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by a baker who needs not stoke the fire from the kneading to the rising of the dough.
5 The princes are inflamed with wine
on the day of our king;
so he joins hands
with those who mock him.
6 For they prepare their heart like an oven
while they lie in wait;
all night their anger smolders;
in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.
7 All of them are hot as an oven,
and they devour their rulers.
All their kings fall;
not one of them calls upon Me.

8 Ephraim mixes with the nations;
Ephraim is an unturned cake.
9 Foreigners consume his strength,
but he does not notice.
Even his hair is streaked with gray,
but he does not know.
10 Israel's arrogance testifies against them,
yet they do not return to Yahweh their God;
despite all this, they do not seek Him.

11 So Ephraim has become like a silly dove without heart—calling out to Egypt, then turning to Assyria.
12 As they go, I will spread My net over them;

■ HOS 6:7 [NOTE] LIKE ADAM. The first man, who broke God's command, or a town named Adam by the Jordan, Joshua 3:16, or simply like men, as the KJV says. Some say the word there points to a place.

■ HOS 7:4 [NOTE] AN OVEN. Their passions burn like a baker's oven left hot all night. Of Israel's last six kings, four were murdered, 2 Kings 15.

■ HOS 7:8 [NOTE] A HALF BAKED CAKE. Burnt on one side and raw on the other. Ephraim mixed with the nations and was good for nothing.

■ HOS 7:11 [TEXT] WITHOUT HEART. The Hebrew says a silly dove without heart, like the KJV.

■ HOS 7:11 [NOTE] EGYPT, THEN ASSYRIA. King Hoshea paid Assyria, then secretly asked Egypt for help, 2 Kings 17:3 to 4. See Pekah and Hoshea, 2 Kings, p.632.

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

I will bring them down like birds of the air.
I will chastise them
when I hear them flocking together.

13 Woe to them, for they have strayed from Me!
Destruction to them, for they have rebelled against Me!
Though I would redeem them,
they speak lies against Me.
14 They do not cry out to Me from their hearts
when they wail upon their beds.
They slash themselves for grain and new wine,
but turn away from Me.
15 Although I trained and strengthened their arms,
they plot evil against Me.
16 They turn, but not to the Most High;
they are like a faulty bow.
Their leaders will fall by the sword for the cursing of their tongue;
for this they will be ridiculed
in the land of Egypt.

8

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Sound the alarm. Israel made kings without God and a calf of silver and gold. They sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind.

ISRAEL WILL REAP THE WHIRLWIND

1 Put the ram's horn to your lips!
An eagle looms over the house of Yahweh, because the people have transgressed My covenant and rebelled against My law.
2 Israel cries out to Me,
"O our God, we know You!"
3 But Israel has rejected good;
an enemy will pursue him.

4 They set up kings, but not by Me.
They make princes, but without My approval.
With their silver and gold they make themselves idols,
to their own destruction.
5 He has rejected your calf, O Samaria.
My anger burns against them.
How long will they be incapable of innocence?
6 For this thing is from Israel—a craftsman made it, and it is not God.
It will be broken to pieces, that calf of Samaria.

7 For they sow the wind,
and they shall reap the whirlwind.
There is no standing grain;
what sprouts fails to yield flour.
Even if it should produce,
the foreigners would swallow it up.

WHAT IT IS

A small bronze bull, about seven inches long, found at a hilltop shrine in northern Samaria now called the Bull Site.

HOW OLD IT IS

From the 1100s BC, the time of the judges, long before Hosea.

WHERE FOUND

A passerby found it in the 1970s, and archaeologist Amihai Mazar dug the site soon after. It is in the Israel Museum.

WHY A BULL

In Canaan the bull stood for strength and for gods like El and Baal. Jeroboam I set up golden calves at Bethel and Dan and said, Here are your gods, 1 Kings 12:28.

HOSEA'S CALF

Hosea mocks the calf of Samaria: a craftsman made it, and it is not God, 8:6. People kiss calves, 13:2, and its priests will weep when it is carried to Assyria, 10:5 to 6.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

This bull is much older and smaller than Jeroboam's calves, and no one knows which god it stood for. It shows what such an image looked like.

8 Israel is swallowed up!
Now they are among the nations

9 For they have gone up to Assyria

Ephraim has hired lovers.
10 Though they hire allies among the nations,
I will now round them up,
and they will begin to diminish
under the oppression of the king of princes.

11 Though Ephraim multiplied the altars for sin,
they became his altars for sinning.
12 Though I wrote for them the great things of My law,
they regarded them as something strange.
13 Though they offer sacrifices as gifts to Me,
and though they eat the meat,
Yahweh does not accept them.
Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins:
They will return to Egypt.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

No more party. Israel will go into exile and lose its harvests and its children. Hosea himself asks God to give them wombs that miscarry, a hard prayer that some hear as mercy.

ISRAEL'S PUNISHMENT

1 Do not rejoice, O Israel, with exultation like the nations,
for you have played the harlot against your God;
you have made love for hire on every threshing floor.
2 The threshing floor and winepress will not feed them,
and the new wine will fail them.
3 They will not remain in the land of Yahweh;
Ephraim will return to Egypt and eat unclean food in Assyria.

4 They will not pour out wine offerings to Yahweh, and their sacrifices will not please Him,
but will be to them like the bread of mourners;
all who eat will be defiled.
For their bread will be for themselves;
it will not enter the house of Yahweh.
5 What will you do on the appointed day,
on the day of Yahweh's feast?
6 For even if they flee destruction, Egypt will gather them
and Memphis will bury them.
Their precious silver will be taken over by thistles,
and thorns will overrun their tents.

7 The days of punishment have come;
the days of retribution have arrived—
let Israel know it.
The prophet is called a fool,
and the inspired man insane,
because of the greatness
of your iniquity and hostility.

yet the snare of the fowler lies on all his paths.
Hostility is in the house of his God!
9 They have deeply corrupted themselves
as in the days of Gibeah;
He will remember their guilt;
He will punish their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness.
I saw your fathers as the firstfruits of the fig tree in its first season.
But they went to Baal-peor,
and consecrated themselves to Shame;
so they became as detestable
as the thing they loved.
11 Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird,
with no birth, no pregnancy, and no conception.
12 Even if they raise their children,
I will bereave them of each one.
Yes, woe be to them
when I turn away from them!
13 I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a meadow.
But Ephraim will bring out his children for slaughter.
14 Give them, O Yahweh—what will You give?
Give them wombs that miscarry
and breasts that dry up!

15 All their evil appears at Gilgal,
for there I hated them.
I will drive them from My house for the wickedness of their deeds.
I will no longer love them;
all their leaders are rebellious.
16 Ephraim is struck down;
their root is withered;
they cannot bear fruit.
Even if they bear children,
I will slay the darlings of their wombs.
17 My God will reject them because they have not obeyed Him;
and they shall be wanderers
among the nations.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

The richer Israel got, the more altars it built. The calf will be carried off to Assyria, and the people will beg the mountains to fall on them. Time to break up the hard ground and seek God.

RETRIBUTION FOR ISRAEL'S SIN

1 Israel was a luxuriant vine, yielding fruit for himself.
The more his fruit increased,
the more he increased the altars.
The better his land produced,
the better he made the sacred pillars.
2 Their hearts are devious;
now they must bear their guilt.
Yahweh will break down their altars and demolish their sacred pillars.

3 Surely now they will say,
"We have no king,
for we do not revere Yahweh.
What can a king do for us?"
4 They speak mere words;
with false oaths they make covenants.
So judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

5 The people of Samaria will fear for the calf of Beth-aven.
Indeed, its people will mourn over it with its idolatrous priests—
those who rejoiced in its glory—
for it has been taken from them into exile.
6 Yes, it will be carried to Assyria
as tribute to the great king.
Ephraim will be seized with shame;
Israel will be ashamed of its wooden idols.
7 Samaria will be carried off with her king and there you have remained.

Did not the battle in Gibeah overtake the sons of iniquity?
10 I will chasten them when I please; nations will be gathered against them
to put them in bondage for their double transgression.

11 Ephraim is a well-trained heifer that loves to thresh;
but I will place a yoke on her fair neck.
I will harness Ephraim, Judah will plow,

you have eaten the fruit of lies.
Because you have trusted in your own way

OUT OF EGYPT I CALLED MY SON // MATTHEW 2:13–15

1 When Israel was a child, I loved him,
and out of Egypt I called My son.
2 But the more I called Israel,
the farther they departed from Me.
They sacrificed to the Baals and burned incense to carved images.
3 It was I who taught Ephraim to walk,
taking them by the arms,
but they never realized that it was I who healed them.
4 I led them with cords of kindness,
with ropes of love;
I lifted the yoke from their necks
and bent down to feed them.

THE HEART GOD SPEAKING

when He sent Moses to Pharaoh, Exodus 4:22.

How It Has Been Read

EXODUS 4:22 · MATTHEW 3 TO 4 · MATTHEW 2:17 TO 18

VIEW 1: JESUS RELIVES ISRAEL'S STORY

Most Christian scholars say Matthew saw a pattern. Jesus goes down to Egypt and comes out, passes through water at His baptism, and is tested forty days in the wilderness, answering with Deuteronomy, Matthew 3 and 4. Where Israel failed, the true Son obeyed.

VIEW 2: HOSEA LOOKED AHEAD

Some note that Hosea speaks of a new exodus, 11:10 to 11, and of David their king, 3:5, so the son called out of Egypt also points ahead to the Messiah.

VIEW 3: FILLED FULL

In Matthew, fulfill can mean to fill up the meaning of a story, not only to make a prediction come true. Matthew uses Jeremiah 31:15 the same way, Matthew 2:17 to 18.

VIEW 4: A JEWISH WAY OF READING

Some scholars say Matthew read Scripture the way many Jews of his day did, finding new events in old words, like the Qumran commentaries. See The Hosea Scrolls.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Hosea 11:1 is about Israel at the exodus, and Matthew knew it. He saw Jesus as the Son who sums up Israel's whole story.

5 Will they not return to the land of Egypt and be ruled by Assyria because they refused to repent?
6 A sword will flash through their cities;
it will destroy the bars of their gates and consume them in their own plans.
7 My people are bent on turning from Me.
Though they call to the Most High,
He will by no means exalt them.

GOD'S LOVE FOR ISRAEL

8 How could I give you up, O Ephraim?
How could I surrender you, O Israel?
How could I make you like Admah?
How could I treat you like Zeboiim?
My heart is turned within Me;
My compassion is stirred!
9 I will not execute the full fury of My anger;
I will not destroy Ephraim again.
For I am God and not man—
the Holy One among you—and I will not come in wrath.
10 They will walk after Yahweh;
He will roar like a lion.
When He roars,
His children will come trembling from the west.
11 They will come trembling like birds from Egypt and like doves from the land of Assyria.
Then I will settle them in their homes,
declares Yahweh.

12 Ephraim surrounds Me with lies,
the house of Israel with deceit;
but Judah still walks with God and is faithful to the Holy One.

12

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel is just like its ancestor Jacob, a grabber who had to wrestle with God. Ephraim brags about getting rich. God reminds them who brought them out of Egypt.

A REPROOF OF EPHRAIM, JUDAH, AND JACOB

1 Ephraim feeds on the wind and pursues the east wind all day long;
he multiplies lies and violence;
he makes a covenant with Assyria and sends olive oil to Egypt.
2 Yahweh has a charge to bring against Judah.
He will punish Jacob according to his ways and repay him according to his deeds.
3 In the womb he grasped his brother's heel,
and in his vigor he wrestled with God.
4 Yes, he struggled with the angel and prevailed;

HOS 11:8 [HEART] God's own heart is turned within Him. His people deserve judgment, but His compassion will not let them go.

HOS 11:8 [NOTE] ADMAH AND ZEBOIIM. Two towns destroyed with Sodom and Gomorrah, Deuteronomy 29:23. God cannot bear to treat His people that way.

HOS 12:3 [NOTE] JACOB. Hosea retells Jacob's story, Genesis 25:26 and 32:24 to 30. These are Hosea's words, so they are black. Israel is just like its father: a grabber who still needs to wrestle with God.

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

he wept and sought His favor;
he found Him at Bethel
and spoke with Him there—5 Yahweh God of Hosts,
Yahweh is His name of renown.
6 But you must return to your God;
maintain love and justice,
and always wait on your God.

7 A merchant loves to defraud with dishonest scales in his hands.
8 And Ephraim boasts: "How rich I have become!
I have found wealth for myself.
In all my labors, they can find in me
no iniquity that is sinful."

9 But I am Yahweh your God
ever since the land of Egypt.
I will again make you dwell in tents,
as in the days of the appointed feast.
10 I spoke through the prophets and multiplied their visions;
I gave parables through the prophets.
11 Is there iniquity in Gilead?
They will surely come to nothing.
Do they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal?
Indeed, their altars will be heaps of stones
in the furrows of the field.

12 Jacob fled to the land of Aram and Israel worked for a wife—
for a wife he tended sheep.
13 But by a prophet Yahweh brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.

14 Ephraim has provoked bitter anger,
so his Lord will leave his bloodguilt upon him and repay him for his contempt.

13

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel went from proud to dead through Baal. God will meet them like a lion, a leopard and a bear robbed of her cubs. Yet He asks, O Death, where are your plagues?

GOD'S ANGER AGAINST ISRAEL

1 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling;
he was exalted in Israel.
But he incurred guilt through Baal,
and he died.

2 Now they sin more and more and make for themselves cast images, idols skillfully made from their silver,
all of them the work of craftsmen.
People say of them,
"They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves!"
3 Therefore they will be like the morning mist,
like the early dew that vanishes,
like chaff blown from a threshing floor,
like smoke through an open window.

4 Yet I am Yahweh your God
ever since the land of Egypt;
you know no God but Me,
for there is no Savior besides Me.
5 I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of drought.
6 When they had pasture,
they became satisfied;
when they were satisfied,
their hearts became proud,
and as a result they forgot Me.
7 So like a lion I will pounce on them;
like a leopard I will lurk by the path.
8 Like a bear robbed of her cubs I will attack them,
and I will tear open the covering of their heart.
There I will devour them like a lion,
like a wild beast tearing them apart.

DEATH AND RESURRECTION // 1 CORINTHIANS 15:50–58

9 You are destroyed, O Israel, because you are against Me—
against your helper.

10 Where is your king now
to save you in all your cities,

■ HOS 12:9 [NOTE] TENTS AGAIN. Like the Feast of Booths, when Israel lived in tents to remember the wilderness, Leviticus 23:42 to 43.
HOS 12:11 [DEMONIC] Israel sacrifices bulls at Gilgal on altars that will become rubble

HOS 13:1 [DEMONIC] Ephraim makes silver idols, offers human sacrifice, and kisses calves ■ HOS 13:2 [TEXT] HUMAN SACRIFICE? The Hebrew can mean they offer human sacrifice, or those who sacrifice. Either way, people kissed calves made by hands.
■ HOS 13:8 [TEXT] THE COVERING OF THEIR HEART. The Hebrew says the enclosure of their heart; the KJV says the caul of their heart.

and the rulers to whom you said,
"Give me a king and princes"?
11 So in My anger I gave you a king,
and in My wrath I took him away.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is stored up.
13 Labor pains come upon him, but he is an unwise son.
When the time arrives,
he fails to present himself at the opening of the womb.

14 I will ransom them from the power of Sheol;
I will redeem them from Death.
Where, O Death, are your plagues?
Where, O Sheol, is your sting?

Compassion is hidden from My eyes.

JUDGMENT ON SAMARIA

15 Although he flourishes among his brothers,
an east wind will come—a wind from Yahweh rising up from the desert.
His fountain will fail,
and his spring will run dry.
The wind will plunder his treasury of every precious article.

16 Samaria will bear her guilt because she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword;
their little ones will be dashed to pieces,
and their pregnant women ripped open.

14

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS
The last call: come home. God will heal them and love them freely, and Israel will bloom like a lily.

A CALL TO REPENTANCE // JEREMIAH 3:11–25; ZECHARIAH 1:1–6

1 Return, O Israel, to Yahweh your God, for you have stumbled by your iniquity.
2 Bring your confessions and return to Yahweh.
Say to Him: "Take away all our iniquity and receive us graciously, that we may present
the fruit of our lips.
3 Assyria will not save us,
nor will we ride on horses.
We will never again say, 'Our gods!'
to the work of our own hands.
For in You the fatherless find compassion."

A PROMISE OF GOD'S BLESSING

4 I will heal their apostasy;
I will freely love them,
for My anger has turned away from them.
5 I will be like the dew to Israel;
he will blossom like the lily and take root like the cedars of Lebanon.
6 His shoots will sprout, and his splendor will be like the olive tree,
his fragrance like the cedars of Lebanon.
7 They will return and dwell in his shade;
they will grow grain and blossom like the vine.
His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

8 O Ephraim, what have I to do anymore with idols?
It is I who answer and watch over him.
I am like a flourishing cypress;
your fruit comes from Me.

9 Whoever is wise, let him understand these things;
whoever is discerning, let him know
them.
For the ways of Yahweh are right,
and the righteous walk in them
but the rebellious stumble in them.

BOOK 29 OF 66 · OLD TESTAMENT · MINOR PROPHETS

JOEL

Bugs, Then Blessings

AUTHOR	Joel son of Pethuel, 1:1. His name means Yahweh is God. That is all we know about him.
DATE	Not stated. Joel names no king. Dates from about 830 BC to about 350 BC have been suggested: see When Was Joel Written?
WRITTEN TO	Judah and Jerusalem: the elders, the farmers and the priests at the temple.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Joel is in a Qumran scroll of the Twelve Prophets copied before the time of Jesus, and in the Hebrew scroll of the Twelve from Wadi Murabbaat.
KEY VERSE	Joel 2:28. I will pour out My Spirit on all people.

THE OLDEST COPIES OF JOEL
Pieces of 4QXII c, a scroll of the Twelve Prophets from Qumran Cave 4, copied about 75 BC. It holds parts of Joel and other prophets. The last part of Joel is also in the Hebrew scroll of the Twelve found at Wadi Murabbaat. See The Murabbaat Scroll.

Historical Setting

A locust swarm strips the land bare: the fields, the vines, the fig trees, even the grain and wine for the temple offerings. Joel calls everyone, drunks, farmers and priests, to weep and fast. He sees the plague as a preview of a bigger day, the Day of Yahweh. Then God answers His people: He will drive the invader away, pay back the years the locusts ate, pour out His Spirit on all people, and judge the nations that hurt them.

What Went Wrong

A LAND STRIPPED BARE. Locusts ate everything, 1:4, and drought and fire finished the job, 1:19 to 20.
PARTY PEOPLE. The drunkards were the first to notice the wine was gone, 1:5.
TORN CLOTHES, NOT HEARTS. God wanted real repentance, not a show of grief, 2:13.
NATIONS THAT SOLD GOD'S PEOPLE. Tyre, Sidon and Philistia sold boys and girls of Judah as slaves, 3:3 to 6.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Joel starts with bugs. A plague of locusts has eaten the whole country, and Joel says this is a wake up call: the Day of Yahweh is coming, and it will be worse. But it is not too late. Return to Me with all your heart, says God. Then the book turns. God promises to pay back the years the locusts ate, to pour out His Spirit on every kind of person, and to judge the nations that hurt His people. Bugs, then blessings.

Where Jesus Shows Up

JOEL 2:28 TO 29 I will pour out My Spirit on all people. Peter says this happened at Pentecost, after Jesus rose and went to heaven, Acts 2:16 to 21 and 2:33.

JOEL 2:32 Everyone who calls on the name of Yahweh will be saved. Paul applies it to calling on Jesus as Lord, Romans 10:9 to 13.

JOEL 2:31 The sun dark and the moon blood. Jesus spoke of signs in the sun and moon before He returns, Matthew 24:29.

JOEL 3:13 Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Revelation pictures Christ's final harvest of the earth, Revelation 14:14 to 20.

THE DAY OF YAHWEH
The day God steps in to judge and to save, 1:15 and 2:31.

THE VALLEY OF DECISION
Joel's other name for the Valley of Jehoshaphat, 3:14.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

THE SPIRIT FOR EVERYONE
In the Old Testament the Spirit came on a few, like prophets and kings. Joel promised Him to sons and daughters, old and young, even servants.

BEST KNOWN AT PENTECOST
Joel is the prophet Peter quoted in the very first Christian sermon, Acts 2.

A REAL PLAGUE IN 1915
Locusts swept through the same land in 1915, climbing walls and crawling through windows just as Joel described. See The Locust Plague of 1915.

A BORROWED LINE
Joel 2:13 echoes God's own description of Himself to Moses, Exodus 34:6: gracious and compassionate, slow to anger. Jonah uses the same line, Jonah 4:2.

How Does It End?

With a promise: Judah will be lived in forever, and Yahweh will live in Zion with His people, 3:20 to 21. The book that began with nothing left to eat ends with mountains dripping with sweet wine, 3:18.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Locusts. Billions of them. Wave after wave eats the crops, the vines and even the bark off the trees. Joel tells the drunks to cry, the farmers to cry and the priests to cry, because the Day of Yahweh is coming.

THE INVASION OF LOCUSTS

1 This is the word of Yahweh that came to Joel son of Pethuel:

2 Hear this, O elders;
and give ear, all who dwell in the land.
Has anything like this ever happened in your days
or in the days of your fathers?
3 Tell it to your children;
let your children tell it to their children,
and their children to the next generation.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHEN WAS JOEL WRITTEN?

A Book With No Date

JOEL 1:1 · 1:13 TO 14 · 3:1 TO 6

WHY IT IS A QUESTION

Most prophets name the king of their day. Joel names none. So scholars look for clues: who leads the people, which enemies are named, and which other prophets Joel sounds like.

Every View

2 KINGS 11 TO 12 · OBADIAH 1:17 · AMOS 1:2

VIEW 1: ABOUT 830 BC

Many older scholars put Joel in the days of young King Joash, when the priest Jehoiada ran the country, 2 Kings 11 to 12. That would explain why elders and priests lead and no king is named. The enemies are Tyre, Sidon, Philistia, Egypt and Edom, not Assyria or Babylon. And Joel sits among the early prophets in the Hebrew Bible.

VIEW 2: AFTER THE EXILE

Many modern scholars date it about 500 to 350 BC. The temple stands, there is no king, the Greeks are named as slave traders, 3:6, and 3:1 speaks of God restoring Judah, words that can point back to the exile. Joel also seems to quote other prophets, like Obadiah 1:17 in 2:32.

VIEW 3: JUST BEFORE THE EXILE

Some place Joel about 600 BC, near the time of Jeremiah and Zephaniah, who also warn of the Day of Yahweh.

THE BORROWING QUESTION

Joel and Amos share a line, Yahweh roars from Zion, Joel 3:16 and Amos 1:2. Early date scholars say Amos borrowed from Joel; late date scholars say Joel borrowed from Amos.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The date does not change the message. Disaster is a call to come back to God, and God answers with mercy.

4 What the devouring locust has left,
the swarming locust has eaten;
what the swarming locust has left,
the young locust has eaten;
and what the young locust has left,
the destroying locust has eaten.

5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep;
wail, all you drinkers of wine,
because of the sweet wine,
for it has been cut off from your mouth.
6 For a nation has invaded My land, powerful and without number;
its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and its fangs are the fangs of a lioness.
7 It has laid waste My grapevine and splintered My fig tree.
It has stripped off the bark and thrown it away;
the branches have turned white.

- JOEL 1:1 [NOTE] JOEL. His name means Yahweh is God. We know nothing else about him but his father's name.
- JOEL 1:3 [NOTABLE] What God does, and what He teaches us through hard times, is meant to be passed down from one generation to the next.
- JOEL 1:3 [NOTE] TELL YOUR CHILDREN. A disaster to remember for generations, and a lesson to pass on.
- JOEL 1:4 [ARCHAEOLOGY] An Assyrian palace relief from Nineveh shows servants carrying locusts on sticks to a royal feast, see Locusts on a Stick Field Notes box, p.1377 FIELD NOTES p.1377
- JOEL 1:4 [TEXT] FOUR KINDS OF LOCUSTS. Joel uses four Hebrew words for locusts. They may be different kinds, or stages of one locust's life, or just a way to say wave after wave.
- JOEL 1:5 [NOTE] WAKE UP, YOU DRUNKARDS. The first ones to notice: no grapes, no wine.
- JOEL 1:6 [NOTE] MY LAND, MY VINE. God Himself breaks in to speak of His land, so these lines are red, like 2:1, My holy mountain. The nation is the locust swarm.

LOCUSTS ON A STICK

JOEL 1:4 · LEVITICUS 11:22 · MATTHEW 3:4

Servants carrying locusts on sticks and pomegranates, a drawing of a palace relief from Nineveh, from Layard's book Nineveh and Babylon, 1853. Public domain.

WHAT IT IS

A carved stone panel from an Assyrian palace at Nineveh. Servants carry food to a royal feast: strings of pomegranates and locusts stuck on sticks.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 700 BC, in the time of King Sennacherib. The drawing is from the book of Austen Henry Layard, who dug it up between 1847 and 1851.

LOCUSTS AS FOOD

People in the ancient Near East ate locusts. The law of Moses allowed four kinds, Leviticus 11:22, and John the Baptist lived on locusts and wild honey, Matthew 3:4.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Locusts were part of daily life, as food on a good day and as a disaster on a bad one. In Joel the locusts eat the people's food.

A CALL TO MOURNING

8 Wail like a virgin dressed in sackcloth, grieving for the husband of her youth.
9 Grain and drink offerings have been cut off from the house of Yahweh;
the priests are in mourning,
those who minister before Yahweh.
10 The field is ruined;
the land mourns.
For the grain is destroyed,
the new wine is dried up, and the oil fails.
11 Be dismayed, O farmers, wail, O vinedressers,
over the wheat and barley,
because the harvest of the field has perished.
12 The grapevine is dried up, and the fig tree is withered;
the pomegranate, palm, and apple—
all the trees of the orchard—are withered.
Surely the joy of mankind has dried up.

A CALL TO REPENTANCE // AMOS 5:4–15; ZEPHANIAH 2:1–3; LUKE 13:1–5

13 Put on sackcloth and lament, O priests;
wail, O ministers of the altar.
Come, spend the night in sackcloth,
O ministers of my God,
because the grain and drink offerings are withheld from the house of your God.
14 Consecrate a fast;
proclaim a solemn assembly!
Gather the elders
and all the residents of the land to the house of Yahweh your God,
and cry out to Yahweh.

15 Alas for the day!
For the Day of Yahweh is near,
and it will come
as destruction from the Almighty.
16 Has not the food been cut off

18 How the cattle groan!
The herds wander in confusion
because they have no pasture.
Even the flocks of sheep are suffering.

19 To You, O Yahweh, I call, for fire has consumed the open pastures
and flames have scorched all the trees of the field.
20 Even the beasts of the field pant for You,
for the streams of water have dried up,
and fire has consumed the open pastures.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

The locusts march like an army, climbing walls and crawling in through windows. Then God says it is not too late: return to Me with all your heart. He promises to pay back the years the locusts ate and to pour out His Spirit on everyone.

THE ARMY OF LOCUSTS // AMOS 7:1–9

1 Blow the ram's horn in Zion;
sound the alarm on My holy mountain!
Let all who dwell in the land tremble,
for the Day of Yahweh is coming;
indeed, it is near—2 a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and blackness.
Like the dawn overspreading the mountains
a great and strong army appears,
such as never was of old,
nor will ever be in ages to come.

3 Before them a fire devours, and behind them a flame scorches.
The land before them is like the Garden of Eden,
but behind them, it is like a desert wasteland—
surely nothing will escape them.
4 Their appearance is like that of horses,
and they gallop like swift steeds.
5 With a sound like that of chariots
they bound over the mountaintops, like the crackling of fire consuming stubble,
like a mighty army deployed for battle.

6 Nations writhe in horror before them;
every face turns pale.
7 They charge like mighty men;
they scale the walls like men of war.
Each one marches in formation,
not swerving from the course.
8 They do not jostle one another;
each proceeds in his path.
They burst through the defenses,
never breaking ranks.
9 They storm the city;
they run along the wall;
they climb into houses,
entering through windows like thieves.

10 Before them the earth quakes;
the heavens tremble.
The sun and moon grow dark,
and the stars lose their brightness.
11 Yahweh raises His voice in the presence of His army.
Indeed, His camp is very large,
for mighty are those who obey His command.
For the Day of Yahweh is great and very dreadful.
Who can endure it?

THE LOCUST PLAGUE OF 1915

JOEL 1:4 · 2:3 TO 10 · 2:25

The Garden of Gethsemane in Jerusalem before and after the locusts of 1915. American Colony photographers, Library of Congress, public domain.

WHAT IT IS

Photographs of a real locust plague that hit the land of Israel, then part of the Ottoman Empire, in 1915. Photographers of the American Colony in Jerusalem recorded it from the first swarms to the bare fields.

HOW OLD IT IS

Not ancient: 1915, during World War I. It is here because it shows, in our own times, what Joel saw.

WHAT HAPPENED

In the spring of 1915 huge swarms flew in and darkened the sun. They laid eggs, and the young locusts that hatched marched across the land, eating everything green and stripping the bark off trees.

JUST LIKE JOEL

The young locusts marched in straight lines, climbed walls and went into houses through the windows, the way Joel 2:7 to 9 says. Trees were left white, as in 1:7. John Whiting of the American Colony wrote about it in National Geographic and quoted Joel.

FIGHTING BACK

The Ottoman governor ordered every man from 15 to 60 to bring in about 44 pounds of locust eggs or pay a fine. It was not enough.

WHAT IT COST

Most of that year's fruit and vegetables were lost. With the war already cutting off food, many people in the land went hungry.

THE DESERT LOCUST

A kind of grasshopper that changes when crowded: it turns color and starts to swarm. The United Nations food agency says a swarm one square kilometer in size can eat as much food in a day as about 35,000 people.

LOCUSTS IN THE BIBLE

Locusts were the eighth plague on Egypt, Exodus 10:12 to 15. Solomon prayed about them when he dedicated the temple, 1 Kings 8:37, and Amos saw them in a vision, Amos 7:1 to 3.

WHY GETHSEMANE

The photos show the old olive garden at the foot of the Mount of Olives, where Jesus prayed the night before He died. Same trees, same spot, before and after.

WHERE THE PHOTOS ARE

The American Colony photos are kept in the Library of Congress, in the Matson Collection, and anyone can see them online.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Joel was not writing fantasy. A locust army can turn a garden like Eden into a desert, Joel 2:3, as the photos of Gethsemane show.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

REAL LOCUSTS OR AN army?

What Did Joel See?

JOEL 1:4 TO 7 · 2:1 TO 11 · 2:20 · 2:25

THE PUZZLE

Chapter 1 is clearly about locusts. Chapter 2 describes an army that looks like horses, charges like soldiers, scales walls and enters houses, and God calls it His army, 2:11 and 2:25. Is it the same locusts, or something else?

Every View

REVELATION 9:1 TO 11 · ISAIAH 13:6 TO 10

VIEW 1: REAL LOCUSTS BOTH TIMES

Chapter 2 uses like again and again: like horses, like mighty men. Joel is comparing the locusts to an army. People who saw the 1915 plague said the young locusts moved exactly this way.

VIEW 2: CHAPTER 2 IS A HUMAN ARMY

Some say the northern army, 2:20, means an invader from the north, like Assyria or Babylon, since locusts usually came from the south or east. The locusts of chapter 1 were the warning; the army was coming next.

VIEW 3: BOTH

Many say the real locust plague is a preview of a coming invasion and of the great Day of Yahweh. One disaster points to a bigger one.

VIEW 4: THE END TIMES

Some connect Joel's army with the locusts from the abyss in Revelation 9:1 to 11 and with the armies of the last days.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God is in charge even of disasters, and He uses them to call people back to Himself. And He promises to pay back what was lost, 2:25.

RETURN WITH ALL YOUR HEART

12 "Yet even now,"
declares Yahweh,
"return to Me with all your heart,
with fasting, weeping, and mourning."

13 So rend your hearts and not your garments, and return to Yahweh your God.
For He is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion.
And He relents from sending disaster.
14 Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave a blessing behind Him—grain and drink offerings for Yahweh your God.

15 Blow the ram's horn in Zion,
consecrate a fast,
proclaim a sacred assembly.
16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the aged, gather the children,
even those nursing at the breast.
Let the bridegroom leave his room,
and the bride her chamber.
17 Let the priests who minister before Yahweh weep between the portico and the altar, saying, "Spare Your people, O Yahweh,
and do not make Your heritage a reproach,
an object of scorn among the nations.
Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?'"

RESTORATION PROMISED

18 Then Yahweh became jealous for His land, and He spared His people.

19 And Yahweh answered His people:

"Behold, I will send you
grain, new wine, and oil,

THE MURABBAAT SCROLL

JOEL 2:20 TO 3:16 · AMOS TO ZECHARIAH

Nahal Darga, called Wadi Murabbaat in Arabic, the canyon in the Judean Desert where the caves are. The scroll itself is not shown. Photo Ester Inbar, free with credit.

WHAT IT IS

A Hebrew scroll of the Twelve Prophets, called Mur 88, found in a cave in Wadi Murabbaat, a canyon in the Judean Desert south of Qumran. It holds parts of ten of the twelve books, starting in Joel 2:20.

HOW OLD IT IS

Copied in the late first or early second century AD, not long after the time of the apostles.

HOW IT WAS FOUND

Bedouin found it in 1955 in one of the caves where Jews had hidden during the Bar Kokhba revolt against Rome, AD 132 to 135. Nearby caves in the same canyon held letters signed by Simon bar Kosiba, the leader of the revolt.

WHAT IS IN IT

Pieces of Joel, 2:20 and 2:26 to 3:16, then Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai and the start of Zechariah, in the same order as Hebrew Bibles today.

WHAT THE TEXT SHOWS

The words are almost exactly the same as the Hebrew text used today, the Masoretic text, letter for letter in most places. By then Jewish scribes were copying one standard text with great care.

THE OLDER COPIES

Older Qumran copies of the Twelve, from before the time of Jesus, hold pieces of Joel too. See The Hosea Scrolls, Hosea, p.1360.

THE CAVES

The caves sit high in the cliffs of the canyon, about eleven miles south of Qumran. Archaeologists Roland de Vaux and Lankester Harding explored them in 1952. People had sheltered there from the Stone Age to Roman times.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Antiquities Authority keeps it in Jerusalem.

WHY IT MATTERS

Refugees fleeing for their lives probably took this scroll with them into the desert. It shows how much the people valued the prophets, and how carefully the words were kept.

THE BIG QUESTION

DID PENTECOST FULFILL JOEL 2?

This Is What Joel Said

JOEL 2:28 TO 32 · ACTS 2:1 TO 21

WHAT PETER SAID

On the day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit came on Jesus' followers, and they spoke in other languages. People thought they were drunk. Peter stood up and said, This is what was spoken by the prophet Joel, and quoted 2:28 to 32, Acts 2:16 to 21.

IN THE LAST DAYS

Joel says afterward. Peter says in the last days, Acts 2:17. The first Christians believed the last days began with Jesus.

How It Has Been Read

ACTS 10:44 TO 45 · MATTHEW 24:29 · REVELATION 6:12

FIRST: FULFILLED AT PENTECOST

Most Christians say Pentecost was the fulfillment Joel promised: the Spirit poured out on men and women, young and old. It kept spreading, to Samaritans and then to Gentiles, Acts 8 and 10:44 to 45. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord can be saved, Acts 2:21.

THE SUN AND THE MOON

Some say the signs in the sky are picture language for a world shaking event, like the darkness at the cross, Luke 23:44 to 45. Others say those signs are still to come before Jesus returns, Matthew 24:29 and Revelation 6:12.

BEGUN, NOT FINISHED

Many say Pentecost began the fulfillment, and the last part, the great and awesome day, comes at the end.

A FUTURE OUTPOURING ON ISRAEL

Some, especially dispensational teachers, say Joel's promise will be fully kept when Israel as a nation turns to the Lord, Zechariah 12:10.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Peter said this is that. God keeps His promises, and His Spirit is for every kind of person who calls on Him.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

God calls the nations to the Valley of Jehoshaphat for judgment. Swords instead of plowshares this time. But for His people the ending is sweet: mountains dripping with wine, hills flowing with milk, and God living in Zion.

YAHWEH JUDGES THE NATIONS

1 "Yes, in those days and at that time, when I restore Judah and Jerusalem
from captivity,
2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
There I will enter into judgment against
them
concerning My people, My inheritance, Israel,
whom they have scattered among the nations
as they divided up My land.
3 They cast lots for My people;
they bartered a boy for a prostitute and sold a girl for wine to drink.

THE BIG QUESTION

THE VALLEY OF JEHOSHAPHAT

Where the Nations Are Judged

JOEL 3:2 · 3:12 TO 16

WHAT JOEL SAYS

God will gather all the nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat and judge them for what they did to His people, 3:2 and 3:12. Joel also calls it the valley of decision, 3:14.

THE NAME

Jehoshaphat means Yahweh judges. No valley is called this anywhere else in the Old Testament.

JOEL 3:1 [PROPHECY] I will gather all nations, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; I will enter into judgment with them → STILL TO COME

JOEL 3:2 [NOTE] THE VALLEY OF JEHOSHAPHAT. The name means Yahweh judges. See The Valley of Jehoshaphat.

JOEL 3:3 [NOTE] A BOY FOR A PROSTITUTE. The nations treated God's people as cheap goods, trading children for a night out or a drink.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN HISTORY · END TIMES PROPHECIES · GOD SPEAKING

How It Has Been Read

ZECHARIAH 14:2 TO 4 · REVELATION 14:14 TO 20 · REVELATION 16:14 TO 16

FIRST: THE END TIMES

Many Christians read it as the final battle and judgment, when the nations gather against Jerusalem and the Lord comes, Zechariah 14:2 to 4. Revelation uses Joel's pictures, the sickle and the winepress, Revelation 14:14 to 20, and gathers the kings for battle at Armageddon, Revelation 16:14 to 16. Many link Jesus' words about judging the nations, Matthew 25:31 to 32.

WHERE IS IT?

Since the 300s AD, people have placed it in the Kidron Valley between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives. Tens of thousands of Jewish graves cover the Mount of Olives, and Muslim graves line the city wall across the valley, waiting for the judgment and the rising of the dead.

OTHER VIEWS

Some say it is a symbolic name, the place where Yahweh judges, not a spot on a map. Others link it to the valley where King Jehoshaphat saw God win a battle without a fight, 2 Chronicles 20:22 to 26. Some see it fulfilled in God's judgments on Tyre, Philistia, Egypt and Edom long ago.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God sees how the nations treat His people, and He will judge with justice. But Yahweh will be a refuge for His people, 3:16.

4 Now what do you have against Me, O Tyre, Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you rendering against Me a recompense? If you retaliate against Me, I will swiftly and speedily return your recompense upon your heads. 5 For you took My silver and gold and carried off My finest treasures to your temples. 6 You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, to send them far from their homeland.

7 Behold, I will rouse them from the places to which you sold them; I will return your recompense upon your heads. 8 I will sell your sons and daughters into the hands of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans—to a distant nation."
Indeed, Yahweh has spoken.

9 Proclaim this among the nations:

"Prepare for war;
rouse the mighty men;
let all the men of war
advance and attack!
10 Beat your plowshares into swords
and your pruning hooks into spears.
Let the weak say, 'I am strong!'
11 Come quickly, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves.
Bring down Your mighty ones,
O Yahweh.

12 Let the nations be roused and advance to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit down
to judge all the nations on every side.
13 Swing the sickle,
for the harvest is ripe.
Come, trample the grapes,
for the winepress is full;
the wine vats overflow
because their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes
in the valley of decision!
For the Day of Yahweh is near
in the valley of decision.

- JOEL 3:10 [NOTE] PLOWSHARES INTO SWORDS. The opposite of Isaiah 2:4 and Micah 4:3. Before the peace comes the final battle.
- JOEL 3:11 [NOTE] BRING DOWN YOUR MIGHTY ONES. Joel's own prayer breaks in, so these words are black.
- JOEL 3:12 [PROPHECY] Beat your plowshares into swords; multitudes in the valley of decision, for the day of Yahweh is near → STILL TO COME
- JOEL 3:13 [ALLUDED TO] The New Testament refers to this → REV 14:19-20 p.2104
- JOEL 3:13 [NOTE] SWING THE SICKLE. Revelation uses the same harvest and winepress pictures for the final judgment, Revelation 14:15 to 20.
- JOEL 3:14 [NOTE] THE VALLEY OF DECISION. Most read it as God's decision, His verdict on the nations, not people deciding.

a stronghold for the people of Israel.

BLESSINGS FOR GOD'S PEOPLE

17 Then you will know that I am Yahweh

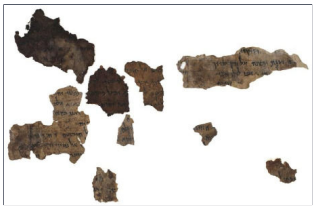
who dwells in Zion, My holy mountain.
Jerusalem will be holy,
never again to be overrun by foreigners.



18 And in that day the mountains will drip

AMOS

Rich People, Hear This

AUTHOR	Amos, a sheep breeder and fig grower from Tekoa in Judah, 1:1 and 7:14. God sent him north to Israel.
DATE	About 760 to 750 BC, in the days of King Uzziah of Judah and King Jeroboam II of Israel, two years before the earthquake, 1:1.
WRITTEN TO	Israel, the northern kingdom: the rich in Samaria and the worshipers at Bethel. The nations around hear their own warnings first.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Amos is in Qumran scrolls of the Twelve Prophets and in a small Amos scroll from Qumran Cave 5, copied before or about the time of Jesus, and in the Hebrew scroll of the Twelve from Wadi Murabbaat.
KEY VERSE	Amos 5:24. Let justice roll on like a river, and righteousness like an ever flowing stream.

THE OLDEST COPIES OF AMOS
Pieces of 4QXII g, a scroll of the Twelve Prophets from Qumran Cave 4, copied in the last years before Jesus. It holds more of Amos than any other Qumran copy, though the plate does not mark which pieces are Amos. Amos is also in 4QXII c, in a small Amos scroll from Cave 5, and in the Murabbaat scroll of the Twelve.

Historical Setting

Israel has never had it so good. King Jeroboam II has won back land, and the rich build winter houses and summer houses with ivory inside. Worship is booming at Bethel and Gilgal. But the poor are being sold for a pair of sandals, judges take bribes, and merchants cheat with false scales. God sends a farmer from Judah to tell the party it is over.

What Went Wrong

CRUSHING THE POOR. They sold the needy, trampled the poor and cheated in the market, 2:6 to 7, 4:1 and 8:4 to 6.
BRIBES IN COURT. Judges took bribes and turned justice into poison, 5:10 to 12 and 6:12.
WORSHIP WITHOUT JUSTICE. Busy feasts and songs, but God said I hate them, 4:4 to 5 and 5:21 to 23.
IDOLS AND STAR GODS. Sakkuth and Kaiwan, 5:26, and the calf at Dan, 8:14. The Greek Bible reads Moloch in 5:26, the god of child sacrifice, and Stephen quotes it that way, Acts 7:43.
SHUSHING THE PROPHETS. They told the prophets not to prophesy, 2:12 and 7:12 to 13.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Amos is the farmer who crashed the party. Israel was rich, religious and sure that God was on its side. Amos starts by condemning the nations around them, and the crowd cheers.

Then he turns on Judah, and then on Israel itself. God is not impressed by songs and sacrifices from people who sell the poor for sandals. What He wants is justice rolling on like a river. After locusts, fire, a plumb line and a basket of fruit, the book ends with a promise: God will rebuild the fallen tent of David.

Amos at a Glance

CH 1 to 2	THE NATIONS ON TRIAL For three sins, even four: seven nations, then Israel.
CH 3 to 6	HEAR THIS WORD Israel's sins and a funeral song.
CH 7:1 to 9:10	FIVE VISIONS Locusts, fire, a plumb line, summer fruit, the Lord at the altar.
CH 9:11 to 15	THE TENT REBUILT David's house restored and the land made fruitful.

Where Jesus Shows Up

AMOS 9:11 TO 12 I will restore the fallen tent of David. James quotes it at the Jerusalem council to show that Gentiles are welcome in God's people through Jesus, Acts 15:13 to 18.

AMOS 5:25 TO 27 Stephen quotes Amos to show that Israel turned to idols even in the wilderness, Acts 7:42 to 43.

AMOS 8:9 TO 10 The sun going down at noon and mourning for an only son. Many Christians think of the darkness from noon until three, when Jesus, God's only Son, died, Matthew 27:45 to 50. Others read it only as judgment on Israel.

AMOS 5:24 Justice and righteousness. Jesus said the weightier matters of the law are justice, mercy and faithfulness, Matthew 23:23.

THE GOD OF HOSTS
Yahweh, commander of heaven's armies. Amos uses the title again and again.

THE DAY OF YAHWEH
The day God steps in to judge, darkness and not light, 5:18 to 20.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

A FARMER, NOT A PREACHER
Amos says he was not a prophet or the son of a prophet, just a herdsman and fig grower God took from the flock, 7:14 to 15.

THE TRAP
Amos lists Israel's enemies one by one, and then the eighth nation on the list is Israel itself, 2:6.

A FAMOUS LINE
Martin Luther King Jr. quoted Amos 5:24 in his I Have a Dream speech: until justice rolls down like waters.

THE EARTHQUAKE
Amos dated his book by an earthquake, 1:1, and Zechariah still remembered it about 250 years later, Zechariah 14:5. See Amos's Earthquake.

How Does It End?

About 30 to 40 years after Amos, Assyria destroyed Samaria and carried Israel away, 722 BC, 2 Kings 17:6. But Amos ends with hope: God will rebuild David's fallen tent, make the hills drip with sweet wine, and plant His people in their land, never to be uprooted again, 9:11 to 15.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

A farmer from Judah stands up in Israel and starts reading God's charges against the neighbors: Damascus, Gaza, Tyre, Edom, Ammon. The crowd loves it. Get them, Amos!

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL'S NEIGHBORS // JEREMIAH 12:14–17

1 These are the words of Amos, who was among the sheepherders of Tekoa—what he saw concerning Israel two years before the earthquake, in the days when Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Jehoash was king of Israel. 2 He said:

"Yahweh roars from Zion and raises His voice from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds mourn,
and the summit of Carmel withers."

3 This is what Yahweh says:

"For three transgressions of Damascus,
even four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because they threshed Gilead with sledges of iron.
4 So I will send fire upon the house of Hazael
to consume the citadels of Ben-hadad.
5 I will break down the gates of Damascus;
I will cut off the ruler from the Valley of Aven
and the one who wields the scepter in Beth-eden.
The people of Aram will be exiled to Kir,"
says Yahweh.

6 This is what Yahweh says:

"For three transgressions of Gaza, even four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because they exiled a whole population,
delivering them up to Edom.
7 So I will send fire upon the walls of Gaza,
to consume its citadels.
8 I will cut off the ruler of Ashdod
and the one who wields the scepter in Ashkelon.
I will turn My hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord Yahweh.

9 This is what Yahweh says:

"For three transgressions of Tyre, even
four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because they delivered up a whole congregation of exiles to Edom and broke a covenant of brotherhood.
10 So I will send fire upon the walls of Tyre
to consume its citadels."

11 This is what Yahweh says:

"For three transgressions of Edom, even
four,
I will not revoke My judgment, because he pursued his brother with the sword
and stifled all compassion;
his anger raged continually,
and his fury flamed incessantly.
12 So I will send fire upon Teman to consume the citadels of Bozrah."

WHAT IT IS

A great earthquake that shook Israel and Judah in the 700s BC. Amos dates his book by it: two years before the earthquake, 1:1.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 760 BC, give or take some years, in the days of Uzziah and Jeroboam II.

WHAT WAS FOUND

At Hazor, Yigael Yadin's team found a layer from the 700s BC with tilted walls, fallen pillars and roofs caved in on the rooms, the kind of damage an earthquake leaves. Archaeologists have reported damage from about the same time at other sites in Israel and Judah too.

REMEMBERED FOR CENTURIES

About 250 years later Zechariah could still say, You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, Zechariah 14:5.

A LEGEND

The Jewish historian Josephus, about AD 93, linked the quake to the day King Uzziah went into the temple to burn incense and was struck with leprosy, 2 Chronicles 26:16 to 21. The Bible does not say that.

HOW BIG?

In 2000 the geologist Steven Austin and two others argued it was about magnitude 8, one of the biggest in the region's history, and dated it about 750 BC. Other scholars think it was smaller, or that the damage at different sites came from more than one quake.

THE SHAKING IN AMOS

Amos sees the land quake and heave like the Nile, 8:8, and the Lord ordering the pillars struck so that the thresholds shake, 9:1. The ruins in the photo show stone pillars like those.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Amos was a real man in a real time and place. His words came true soon enough that people remembered the shaking.

WHERE IS HAZOR?

North of the Sea of Galilee, on the main road from Egypt to Damascus. Solomon built it up as a fortress city, 1 Kings 9:15, and Assyria captured it about 732 BC, 2 Kings 15:29.

WHY STONE PILLARS?

Rows of stone pillars held up the roof of long halls used to store goods, or by some views to stable horses. When the ground shook, pillars and walls like these fell over.

Moab next, then Judah. Still cheering? Then the trap closes: Israel itself. They sell the poor for a pair of sandals and tell the prophets to be quiet. Nobody will outrun what is coming.

JUDGMENT ON MOAB, JUDAH, AND ISRAEL

1 This is what Yahweh says:

"For three transgressions of Moab, even four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because he burned to lime
the bones of Edom's king.
2 So I will send fire against Moab to consume the citadels of Kerioth.
Moab will die in tumult,
amid war cries and the sound of the ram's horn.
3 I will cut off the ruler of Moab and kill all the officials with him,"
says Yahweh.

4 This is what Yahweh says:

"For three transgressions of Judah, even four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because they reject the Law of Yahweh and fail to keep His statutes;
they are led astray by the lies in which their fathers walked.
5 So I will send fire upon Judah to consume the citadels of Jerusalem."

6 This is what Yahweh says:

"For three transgressions of Israel, even four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because they sell the righteous for silver
and the needy for a pair of sandals.
7 They trample on the heads of the poor as on the dust of the earth;
they push the needy out of their way.
A man and his father

And in the house of their God,
they drink wine obtained through fines.

9 Yet it was I who destroyed
the Amorite before them,

and he was as strong as the oaks.
Yet I destroyed his fruit above

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Because God chose Israel, He will hold Israel to account. Amos asks a string of riddles: a lion does not roar for nothing, and a prophet does not speak for nothing. The fancy houses of ivory will come down.

WITNESSES AGAINST ISRAEL

1 Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt:

2 "Only you have I known from all the families of the earth;
therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities."

3 Can two walk together without agreeing where to go?
4 Does a lion roar in the forest
when he has no prey?
Does a young lion growl in his den
if he has caught nothing?
5 Does a bird land in a snare
where no bait has been set?
Does a trap spring from the ground
when it has nothing to catch?
6 If a ram's horn sounds in a city,
do the people not tremble?
If calamity comes to a city,
has not Yahweh caused it?

7 Surely the Lord Yahweh does nothing without revealing His plan to His servants the prophets.
8 The lion has roared—who will not fear?
The Lord Yahweh has spoken—
who will not prophesy?

9 Proclaim to the citadels of Ashdod and to the citadels of Egypt:
"Assemble on the mountains of Samaria;
see the great unrest in the city and the acts of oppression in her midst."

10 "For they know not how to do right,"
declares Yahweh.
"They store up violence and destruction
in their citadels."

11 Therefore this is what the Lord Yahweh
says:

"An enemy will surround the land;
he will pull down your strongholds and plunder your citadels."

12 This is what Yahweh says:

"As the shepherd snatches from the mouth of the lion
two legs or a piece of an ear, so the Israelites dwelling in Samaria will be rescued
having just the corner of a bed or the cushion of a couch.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

A funeral song for a nation that is still alive. Seek Me and live, says God. He hates their noisy feasts. What He wants instead: let justice roll on like a river.

A LAMENTATION AGAINST ISRAEL

1 Hear this word, O house of Israel, this lamentation I take up against you:

2 "Fallen is Virgin Israel, never to rise again.
She lies abandoned on her land,
with no one to raise her up."

3 This is what the Lord Yahweh says:

"The city that marches out a thousand strong
will have but a hundred left,
and the one that marches out a hundred strong will have but ten left in the house of Israel."

A CALL TO REPENTANCE // JOEL 1:13–20; ZEPHANIAH 2:1–3; LUKE 13:1–5

4 For this is what Yahweh says to the house of Israel:

"Seek Me and live!

5 Do not seek Bethel or go to Gilgal;
do not journey to Beersheba,
for Gilgal will surely go into exile,
and Bethel will come to nothing.
6 Seek Yahweh and live, or He will sweep like fire through the house of Joseph;
it will devour everything,
with no one at Bethel to extinguish it.

7 There are those who turn justice into who turns darkness into dawn

and darkens day into night, who summons the waters of the sea and pours them over the face of the earth—
Yahweh is His name—
9 He flashes destruction on the strong,
so that fury comes upon the stronghold.

10 There are those who hate the one who reproves in the gate and despise him who speaks with integrity.
11 Therefore, because you trample on the poor
and exact from him a tax of grain,
you will never live in the stone houses you have built;
you will never drink the wine from the lush vineyards you have planted.

12 For I know that your transgressions are many
and your sins are numerous.
You oppress the righteous by taking bribes;
you deprive the poor of justice in the gate.

VIEW 1: NOT WITHOUT JUSTICE

Most Christians and Jews say God did not throw out the sacrifices. He rejected worship from people who crushed the poor. Samuel said the same, To obey is better than sacrifice, 1 Samuel 15:22.

VIEW 2: WHAT REALLY HAPPENED IN THE WILDERNESS

Some read 5:25 to 26 as saying that in the wilderness Israel's offerings were half hearted, or that they carried star gods along. Stephen reads it that way: they offered to idols, Acts 7:42 to 43.

1 Woe to those at ease in Zion

2 Cross over to Calneh and see;

4 You lie on beds inlaid with ivory,

5 You improvise songs on the harp like

9 And if there are ten men left in one house, they too will die. 10 And when the relative who is to burn the bodies picks them up to remove them from the house, he will call to one inside, "Is anyone else with you?"

"None," that person will answer.

"Silence," the relative will retort, "for the name of Yahweh must not be invoked."

11 For Yahweh gives a command:

"The great house will be smashed to

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Three visions: locusts, fire and a plumb line. Amos prays, and God holds back twice, but not the third time. The priest of Bethel tells Amos to go home. Amos says, I am just a farmer God sent.

THE LOCUSTS, FIRE, AND PLUMB LINE // JOEL 2:1–11

1 This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me: He was preparing swarms of locusts just after the king's harvest, as the late spring crop was coming up. 2 And when the locusts had eaten every green plant in the land, I said, "Lord Yahweh, please forgive! How will Jacob survive, since he is so small?"

3 So Yahweh relented from this plan. "It will not happen," He said.

4 This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me: The Lord Yahweh was calling for judgment by fire. It consumed the great deep and devoured the land. 5 Then I said, "Lord Yahweh, please stop! How will Jacob survive, since he is so small?"

6 So Yahweh relented from this plan. "It will not happen either," said the Lord Yahweh.

7 This is what He showed me: Behold, the Lord was standing by a wall true to plumb, with a plumb line in His hand. 8 "Amos, what do you see?" asked Yahweh.

"A plumb line," I replied.

"Behold," said the Lord, "I am setting a plumb line among My people Israel; I will no longer spare them:

9 The high places of Isaac will be deserted, and the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste;
and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with My sword."

AMAZIAH ACCUSES AMOS

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent word to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land cannot bear all his words, 11 for this is what Amos has said:

'Jeroboam will die by the sword,
and Israel will surely go into exile,
away from their homeland.'"

12 And Amaziah said to Amos, "Go away, you seer! Flee to the land of Judah; earn your bread there and do your prophesying there. 13 But never prophesy at Bethel again, because it is the sanctuary of the king and the temple of the kingdom."

14 "I was not a prophet," Amos replied, "nor was I the son of a prophet; rather, I was a herdsman and a tender of sycamore-fig trees. 15 But Yahweh took me from following the flock and said to me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.'

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW | PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE | GOD SPEAKING

What He Meant
2 KINGS 2:3 · 1 SAMUEL 10:5

SONS OF THE PROPHETS
In Israel there were groups of prophets in training, called the sons of the prophets, 2 Kings 2:3. Some prophets were paid. Amos says he was not one of those. He did not prophesy for a living.

WAS OR AM?
The Hebrew has no verb here, so it can mean I am not a prophet or I was not a prophet. Either way, Amos says God called him, not a school or a paycheck: Yahweh took me from following the flock, 7:15.

THE FIG TREES
Sycamore figs had to be nicked with a knife to ripen. It was humble seasonal work, and these trees did not grow up in the hills at Tekoa, so Amos may have traveled to lower land to do it.

A SHEEP BREEDER
The word for Amos's job in 1:1 is used in 2 Kings 3:4 for King Mesha of Moab, a sheep breeder who paid huge flocks as tribute. So Amos may have run a business, not just watched a few sheep.

WHAT IT SHOWS
God can call anyone, a farmer with no religious title, to speak for Him.

16 Now, therefore, hear the word of Yahweh. You say:

'Do not prophesy against Israel;
do not preach against the house of Isaac.'

17 Therefore this is what Yahweh says:

'Your wife will become a prostitute in the city,
and your sons and daughters will fall by the sword.
Your land will be divided by a measuring line,
and you yourself will die on pagan soil.
And Israel will surely go into exile,

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS
A basket of summer fruit means the end is near. The merchants cannot wait for the holy day to end so they can cheat again. God warns of a famine, not of bread, but of hearing His word.

THE BASKET OF SUMMER FRUIT

1 This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me: I saw a basket of summer fruit.

2 "Amos, what do you see?" He asked.

"A basket of summer fruit," I replied.

So Yahweh said to me, "The end has come for My people Israel; I will no longer spare them."

3 "In that day," declares the Lord Yahweh, "the songs of the temple will turn to wailing. Many will be the corpses, strewn in silence everywhere!"

4 Hear this, you who trample the needy, who do away with the poor of the land, 5 asking, "When will the New Moon be over,
that we may sell grain?
When will the Sabbath end,
that we may market wheat?
Let us shrink the measure and boost the price;
let us cheat with dishonest scales.
6 Let us buy the poor with silver
and the needy for a pair of sandals,
selling even the chaff with the wheat!"

7 Yahweh has sworn by the Pride of Jacob:

"I will never forget any of their deeds.

8 Will not the land quake for this,
and all its dwellers mourn?
All of it will swell like the Nile;
it will surge and then subside
like the Nile in Egypt.

9 And in that day,
declares the Lord Yahweh,
I will make the sun go down at noon,

THE ECLIPSE OF 763 BC

AMOS 8:9 · 1:1 · 2 KINGS 14:23

WHAT IT IS

An eclipse of the sun recorded by the Assyrians. Each Assyrian year was named after an official. For the year named after Bur Sagale, the list says: revolt in the city of Ashur; in the month Simanu the sun was eclipsed.

WHEN IT HAPPENED

Astronomers can work out when eclipses happened. This one was on June 15, 763 BC.

WHY IT MATTERS

It pins the whole Assyrian list of years to an exact date. From that list scholars date the kings of Israel and Judah who meet Assyrian kings, like Ahab and Jehu.

IN AMOS'S DAY

It came during the reign of Jeroboam II, around the time Amos preached. Some think the day the sun went dark was in people's minds when Amos said, I will make the sun go down at noon, 8:9. Others say Amos was using picture language. See The Sun at Noon.

Every View

MATTHEW 27:45 · LUKE 23:44 TO 45 · JOEL 2:31

VIEW 1: THE ECLIPSE OF 763 BC

Some think Amos's hearers would remember the eclipse in Jeroboam's reign and take it as a warning sign. See The Eclipse of 763 BC.

VIEW 2: THE DARKNESS AT THE CROSS

Many Christians see a deeper fulfillment when darkness covered the land from noon until three as Jesus died, Matthew 27:45. They note Amos's words mourning for an only son. Jesus died at Passover, at full moon, when an eclipse of the sun cannot happen.

VIEW 3: PICTURE LANGUAGE

Many scholars say it is a word picture for disaster, the day Israel's bright world went dark, which came true when Assyria destroyed Israel.

VIEW 4: THE END TIMES

Some link it to the signs in the sky before the great Day of Yahweh, Joel 2:31 and Matthew 24:29.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

When God judges, even the sun cannot stay bright, and that day will be full of mourning.

11 Behold, the days are coming,
declares the Lord Yahweh,
when I will send a famine on the land—
not a famine of bread or a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the words of Yahweh.
12 People will stagger from sea to sea and roam from north to east, seeking the word of Yahweh,
but they will not find it.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Amos sees the Lord standing by the altar, and there is nowhere to hide. Then, at the very end, hope: God will rebuild the fallen tent of David and plant His people in their land for good.

THE DESTRUCTION OF ISRAEL

1 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and He said:

"Strike the tops of the pillars
so that the thresholds shake.
Topple them on the heads of all the people,
and I will kill the rest with the sword.
None of those who flee will get away;
none of the fugitives will escape.
2 Though they dig down to Sheol,
from there My hand will take them;
and though they climb up to heaven,
from there I will pull them down.
3 Though they hide themselves atop Carmel,
there I will track them and seize them;
and though they hide from Me at the bottom of the sea,
there I will command the serpent to bite
them.
4 Though they are driven by their enemies into captivity,
there I will command the sword to slay
them.
I will fix My eyes upon them for harm and not for good."

5 The Lord Yahweh of Hosts,
He who touches the earth and it melts,
and all its dwellers mourn—
all the land rises like the Nile, then sinks like the river of Egypt—
6 He builds His upper rooms in the heavens
and founds His vault upon the earth.
He summons the waters of the sea and pours them over the face of the earth.
Yahweh is His name.

7 "Are you not like the Cushites to Me, O children of Israel?"
declares Yahweh.
"Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt,
the Philistines from Caphtor,
and the Arameans from Kir?
8 Surely the eyes of the Lord Yahweh are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth.
Yet I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,"
declares Yahweh.
9 "For surely I will give the command,
and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations
as grain is sifted in a sieve;
but not a pebble will reach the ground.
10 All the sinners among My people will die by the sword—
all those who say,
'Disaster will never draw near or confront us.'"

THE FALLEN TENT AT QUMRAN

AMOS 9:11 · 5:26 TO 27 · ACTS 7:42 TO 43 · 15:16 TO 17

4Q174, a Qumran collection of Bible promises with comments, which quotes Amos 9:11. Photo Shai Halevi, Israel Antiquities Authority, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

WHAT IT IS

A scroll from Qumran Cave 4, called 4Q174 or the Florilegium, which means a bouquet of verses. It strings together promises from the Bible and explains them.

HOW OLD IT IS

Copied in the Herodian period, between about 30 BC and the time of Jesus.

WHAT IT SAYS

It quotes God's promise to David in 2 Samuel 7, then Amos 9:11, I will raise up the fallen tent of David. It says the tent is the Branch of David, a coming King who will rise up to save Israel in the last days.

THE DAMASCUS DOCUMENT

Another writing of the same community quotes Amos 5:26 to 27 and 9:11 together. It reads the fallen tent as the books of the law. Copies were found at Qumran, and two medieval copies turned up in the 1890s in the storeroom of an old synagogue in Cairo.

THE SAME TWO PASSAGES

The New Testament quotes the very same two places in Amos: Stephen quotes 5:25 to 27, Acts 7:42 to 43, and James quotes 9:11 to 12, Acts 15:16 to 17.

WHY IT MATTERS

Some Jews before Jesus already read Amos 9:11 as a promise of the coming Son of David. When James quoted it, he was using a verse some already read as about the Messiah.

THE AMOS COPIES

Amos itself is in Qumran scrolls of the Twelve, in a small Amos scroll from Cave 5, and in the Murabbaat scroll. See The Murabbaat Scroll, Joel, p.1381.

WHO COPIED IT

The people of Qumran, a strict Jewish group living by the Dead Sea. Most scholars think they were Essenes, a group described by Josephus; some disagree.

TWO LEADERS

4Q174 says the Branch of David will rise with the Interpreter of the Law. The community expected a royal Messiah from David's line.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Antiquities Authority keeps it in Jerusalem.

THE BIG QUESTION

REBUILDING DAVID'S FALLEN TENT

What James Saw in Amos

AMOS 9:11 TO 15 · ACTS 15:13 TO 18

WHAT AMOS SAID

In that day I will restore the fallen tent of David... that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations that bear My name, 9:11 to 12. The tent is David's royal house, fallen like a shack.

WHAT JAMES SAID

At the Jerusalem council the question was whether Gentile believers had to become Jews. James quoted Amos 9:11 to 12 to show that God planned all along to bring in the nations, Acts 15:13 to 18.

THE GREEK WORDING

James quotes words close to the Greek Bible: so that the remnant of men may seek the Lord, Acts 15:17. The Hebrew says possess the remnant of Edom. In Hebrew letters, Edom and adam, mankind, look almost the same, and so do possess and seek.

How It Has Been Read

2 SAMUEL 7:12 TO 16 · LUKE 1:32 TO 33

FIRST: FULFILLED IN JESUS AND THE CHURCH

Most Christians follow James: Jesus is the Son of David who rebuilt David's house, Luke 1:32 to 33, and Gentiles coming to faith are the nations that bear God's name.

A FUTURE KINGDOM TOO

Many, especially dispensational teachers, say Acts 15 shows the start, and the full rebuilding comes when Jesus returns and Israel is restored in its land, as 9:14 to 15 promises. They note James's words, After this I will return, Acts 15:16.

A JEWISH READING

The Talmud calls the Messiah the son of the fallen, from this verse, Sanhedrin 96b. One Qumran scroll, 4Q174, also reads it as about a coming King. See The Fallen Tent at Qumran.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Amos's last word is hope. God keeps His promise to David, and His kingdom is bigger than one nation.

Historical Setting

Jacob and Esau were twins who fought from before they were born. Their families, Israel and Edom, kept fighting for a thousand years. When Babylon burned Jerusalem, Edom did not help its brother. It stood and watched, cheered, looted the city and caught the people who tried to escape. Proud Edom, safe in its cliffs, thought no one could touch it. Obadiah says God will.

What Went Wrong

PRIDE. Edom thought its mountain cliffs made it untouchable, 1:3 to 4.
VIOLENCE AGAINST A BROTHER. Edom turned on Jacob, its own family, 1:10.
GLOATING. Edom laughed and boasted on Judah's worst day, 1:12.
LOOTING AND BETRAYAL. Edom grabbed the loot and handed over the refugees, 1:13 to 14.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Obadiah is the shortest book in the Old Testament, one chapter of 21 verses, and it has one target: Edom. Edom was Israel's brother nation, but when Jerusalem fell, Edom cheered, looted and caught the refugees. God says pride goes before a fall, and what you do to others will come back on you. The book ends looking past Edom to the day when God's people come home and the kingdom belongs to Yahweh.

OBADIAH 1:17 Deliverance on Mount Zion. Hebrews 12:22 says believers have come to Mount Zion, the city of the living God.

EDOM AND ESAU
Edom means red. Esau was born red and hairy and sold his birthright for red stew, Genesis 25:25 and 30.

THE SHORTEST BOOK
21 verses, shorter than many single chapters elsewhere in the Bible.

A TWIN PASSAGE
Obadiah 1 to 9 and Jeremiah 49:7 to 22 share many lines, word for word in places.

HEROD WAS AN EDOMITE
By Jesus' day Edom's people were called Idumeans, and King Herod the Great came from them. The Edomite king tried to kill the newborn King of the Jews, Matthew 2:16. See Herodium: Herod's Palace Fortress, Matthew, p.1552.

SEPHARDIC JEWS
Sepharad in 1:20 later became the Hebrew name for Spain, so Jews from Spain are called Sephardic.

How Does It End?

Edom lost its kingdom to Babylon and its land to Arab peoples. Its people moved into southern Judah, were forced to become Jews about 125 BC, and after Rome destroyed Jerusalem in AD 70 they vanish from history. Obadiah's last line still stands: the kingdom will belong to Yahweh.

1 This is the vision of Obadiah:

This is what the Lord Yahweh says about Edom—

THE BIG QUESTION

ESAU AND JACOB

Twins at War

GENESIS 25 TO 36 · NUMBERS 20:14 TO 21

THE TWINS

Rebekah's twins fought inside her, and God said two nations were in her womb, Genesis 25:22 to 23. Esau was born first, red and hairy. Jacob came out holding his heel.

THE STEW AND THE BLESSING

Esau sold his birthright for a bowl of red stew, which is why he was called Edom, red, Genesis 25:30 to 34. Later Jacob tricked their father Isaac into giving him the blessing, and Esau planned to kill him, Genesis 27:41.

A Thousand Year Feud

DEUTERONOMY 23:7 · 2 SAMUEL 8:14 · MALACHI 1:2 TO 3

MAKING UP

Twenty years later the brothers met and Esau hugged Jacob, Genesis 33:4. Esau's family settled in the hills of Seir and became Edom, Genesis 36:8 to 9.

BROTHERS ON THE MAP

Moses called Edom your brother, Israel, Numbers 20:14, but Edom refused to let Israel pass. God still told Israel, Do not despise an Edomite, for he is your brother, Deuteronomy 23:7.

WAR AFTER WAR

David conquered Edom, 2 Samuel 8:14. Edom broke free under Jehoram, 2 Kings 8:20 to 22, and the two fought on and off for centuries.

THE LAST STRAW

When Babylon burned Jerusalem, Edom joined in, Psalm 137:7. That is the sin Obadiah names: violence against your brother Jacob, 1:10.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Old family grudges can last for generations. God takes it personally when we turn on our own.

3 The pride of your heart has deceived you,
O dwellers in the clefts of the rocks
whose habitation is the heights,
who say in your heart,
'Who can bring me down to the ground?'

BOZRAH, EDOM'S CAPITAL

Ruins on the hill of Buseirah, ancient Bozrah, in southern Jordan. Photo Bashar Tabbah, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

The ruins of Bozrah, Edom's capital, at the village of Buseirah in southern Jordan, a few miles from the rock of Sela.

HOW OLD IT IS

The big buildings are from the 700s to the 500s BC, when Edom was strongest, under Assyrian rule.

WHAT WAS FOUND

Crystal Bennett led a British team there between 1971 and 1980. She found a palace and a large public building, perhaps a temple, built in Assyrian style, with city walls around the hilltop.

IN THE BIBLE

The prophets name Bozrah when they warn Edom, Amos 1:12 and Jeremiah 49:13. Isaiah 63:1 asks, Who is this coming from Edom, from Bozrah, with crimson stained garments?

WHAT IT SHOWS

Edom was a real, rich kingdom in the time of the later prophets, with a capital worth bragging about. Bozrah was later left in ruins.

would they not steal only what they wanted?
If grape gatherers came to you,
would they not leave some gleanings?
6 But how Esau will be pillaged,
his hidden treasures sought out!
7 All the men allied with you will drive you to the border;
the men at peace with you will deceive and overpower you.
Those who eat your bread will set a trap for you without your awareness of it.
8 In that day, declares Yahweh, will I not destroy the wise men of Edom and the men of understanding in the mountains of Esau?
9 Then your mighty men, O Teman, will be terrified,
so that everyone in the mountains of Esau will be cut down in the slaughter.

10 Because of the violence against your brother Jacob,
you will be covered with shame
and cut off forever.

EDOM'S GOD, QOS

OBADIAH 1:8 · 2 CHRONICLES 25:14 TO 15

A clay goddess with three horns from the Edomite shrine at Horvat Qitmit, 600s BC. Israel Museum, Jerusalem. Photo Chamberi, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

A clay head of a goddess with three horns, found at Horvat Qitmit, an Edomite shrine in the Negev desert south of Arad.

HOW OLD IT IS

The shrine was used in the 600s and early 500s BC, as Edom pushed into Judah's southern land.

HOW IT WAS FOUND

Itzhak Beit Arieh dug the shrine from 1984 to 1987. It held clay figures of gods, people and animals, altars, and pieces of pottery with Edomite writing.

QOS

Edom's national god was Qos. Edomite names were built on it, the way Israelite names were built on Yahweh. Assyrian records name two kings of Edom, Qaus malaka and Qaus gabri, and the name Qos was found written at Qitmit.

GODS OF EDOM

The Bible never names Qos, but it tells of King Amaziah bringing home the gods of the people of Seir, Edom, and bowing to them, 2 Chronicles 25:14 to 15.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Obadiah's quarrel with Edom was not only about borders. Edom served other gods, and the book ends with the kingdom belonging to Yahweh, 1:21.

11 On the day you stood aloof while strangers carried off his wealth and foreigners entered his gate

you were just like one of them.

THE ROCK OF SELA

OBADIAH 1:3 TO 4 · 2 KINGS 14:7 · JEREMIAH 49:16

The great rock of es Sela in southern Jordan, seen from the village above it. Photo Uri Juda, public domain.

WHAT IT IS

A huge rock fortress in the mountains of Edom, near the town of Tafilah in southern Jordan. Its cliffs rise hundreds of feet above the valleys around it, and the only way up is a staircase cut into a narrow crack in the rock.

THE CLEFTS OF THE ROCK

Sela means rock. Obadiah says to Edom, you who live in the clefts of the rock, whose home is the heights, who say, Who can bring me down? 1:3. Jeremiah uses the same words, Jeremiah 49:16.

A KING CARVED IN THE CLIFF

Halfway up the steepest face is a carving of a king in Babylonian dress, with a tall cap and a long staff, facing symbols of the moon, the sun and a star. A long cuneiform inscription around it is too worn to read. Scholars made it widely known in the 1990s.

WHO IS IT?

The symbols are the favorite signs of Nabonidus, the last king of Babylon, who led an army through Edom and on into Arabia about 553 BC. Most scholars think the carving marks his conquest of Edom.

HOW OLD IT IS

The carving is from the 500s BC. People used the rock as a refuge for many centuries before and after.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Edom's safest stronghold could not keep out Babylon. The king of the nation that had burned Jerusalem carved his picture into Edom's own rock. Even from there I will bring you down, 1:4.

WHICH ROCK?

The Bible says King Amaziah of Judah captured Sela, 2 Kings 14:7. Many think it was this rock. Others point to Umm el Biyara, a high rock at Petra. Es Sela has not been fully excavated.

NOT PETRA

Petra's famous carved buildings are later. They were made by the Nabataeans, who took over Edom's land after the Edomites left. See What Happened to Edom?

THE ROAD TO ARABIA

Sela sat by the King's Highway, the old trade road from Damascus to the Red Sea and Arabia, Numbers 20:17. Whoever held the road grew rich on the caravans of incense and spice, and Nabonidus wanted it.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHEN WAS OBADIAH WRITTEN?

A Book With No Date

OBADIAH 1:10 TO 14 · PSALM 137:7

WHY IT IS A QUESTION

Obadiah names no king. The clue is 1:11 to 14: strangers carried off Jerusalem's wealth and cast lots for the city while Edom stood by and joined in. Which day was that?

Every View

2 KINGS 8:20 TO 22 · 2 CHRONICLES 21:16 TO 17 · LAMENTATIONS 4:21 TO 22

VIEW 1: SOON AFTER 586 BC

Most scholars say it was when Babylon destroyed Jerusalem. Psalm 137:7, Lamentations 4:21 to 22 and Ezekiel 35 all blame Edom for that day, and Obadiah shares lines with Jeremiah, who lived then.

VIEW 2: ABOUT 845 BC

Many older scholars point to King Jehoram's day, when Edom rebelled, 2 Kings 8:20 to 22, and Philistines and Arabs raided Jerusalem and carried off the king's goods, 2 Chronicles 21:16 to 17. That would make Obadiah one of the earliest prophets, which fits its place in the Hebrew order of the Twelve.

A JEWISH TRADITION

The Talmud says Obadiah was the same man as Obadiah who hid the prophets from Ahab and Jezebel, 1 Kings 18:3 to 4, and even that he was an Edomite who joined Israel. Few scholars today accept that.

THE JEREMIAH QUESTION

Obadiah and Jeremiah 49 share many lines. Some say Jeremiah borrowed from Obadiah, some say the other way, and some say both used an older prophecy.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Edom turned on its brother in his worst hour, and God saw it.

THE DELIVERANCE OF ISRAEL

15 For the Day of Yahweh is near
for all the nations.
As you have done, it will be done to you;
your recompense will return upon your own head.
16 For as you drank on My holy mountain,
so all the nations will drink continually.
They will drink and gulp it down;
they will be as if they had never existed.
17 But on Mount Zion there will be deliverance,
and it will be holy,
and the house of Jacob
will reclaim their possession.
18 Then the house of Jacob will be a blazing fire,
and the house of Joseph a burning flame;
but the house of Esau will be stubble—
Jacob will set it ablaze and consume it.
Therefore no survivor will remain from the house of Esau."
For Yahweh has spoken.

THE BIG QUESTION

WHAT HAPPENED TO EDOM?

No Survivor From Esau

OBADIAH 1:4 · 1:10 · 1:18

WHAT OBADIAH SAID

Edom would be brought down from its heights and cut off forever, and no survivor would remain from the house of Esau, 1:4, 1:10 and 1:18.

How It Came True

MALACHI 1:3 TO 4 · MARK 3:8 · MATTHEW 2:1 TO 16

FIRST: THE KINGDOM FELL

About 553 BC Nabonidus of Babylon marched through Edom, and Edom's kingdom probably came to an end then. By Malachi's day, about a hundred years later, Edom's land lay in ruins, Malachi 1:3 to 4. See The Rock of Sela.

THE LAND TAKEN

Arab peoples moved into Edom's hills.

- OBAD 1:15 [NOTABLE] What we do to others comes back to us. Edom gloated over its brother's fall, and the same fall came on Edom.
- OBAD 1:15 [NOTE] AS YOU HAVE DONE. What goes around comes around. Paul said the same: a man reaps what he sows, Galatians 6:7.
- OBAD 1:16 [NOTE] DRANK ON MY HOLY MOUNTAIN. Many think this means Edom celebrated on Mount Zion. Now the nations will drink the cup of God's anger.
- OBAD 1:18 [PROPHECY] The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Esau for stubble; there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau → 1 Maccabees 5:3; 1 Maccabees 5:65
- OBAD 1:18 [NOTE] NO SURVIVOR. See What Happened to Edom?

END TIMES PROPHECIES

By 312 BC the Nabataeans held the region of Petra, as the Greek historian Diodorus records. Many Edomites moved west into southern Judah, which the Greeks called Idumea.

A PEOPLE ABSORBED

About 125 BC the Jewish ruler John Hyrcanus conquered Idumea and made its people be circumcised and keep the law of Moses, Josephus, Antiquities 13.9.1. Herod the Great was an Idumean. Idumeans came to hear Jesus, Mark 3:8.

GONE

Idumeans fought in the war against Rome, AD 66 to 70. After Jerusalem fell they disappear from history as a people. No nation today traces itself to Edom.

OTHER READINGS

Some say Esau's house was cut off as a nation even though some people blended into other nations. Some also see a last fulfillment still to come, at the end. See Who Is Edom Today?

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Proud Edom, so sure no one could bring it down, is gone. The people it betrayed are still here.

19 Those from the Negev will possess the mountains of Esau;
those from the foothills will possess the land of the Philistines.
They will occupy the fields of Ephraim and Samaria,
and Benjamin will possess Gilead.
20 And the exiles of this host of the Israelites will possess the land of the Canaanites
as far as Zarephath;
and the exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
will possess the cities of the Negev.
21 The deliverers will ascend Mount Zion to rule over the mountains of Esau.

And the kingdom will belong to Yahweh.

- OBAD 1:20 [NOTE] SEPHARAD. Nobody is sure where it was. Many think Sardis in Asia Minor. Later Jews took it to mean Spain, which is why Jews from Spain are called Sephardic Jews.
- OBAD 1:21 [PROPHECY] Deliverers would go up on Mount Zion and the kingdom would belong to Yahweh → STILL TO COME · MEDIUM
- OBAD 1:21 [NOTE] THE KINGDOM WILL BELONG TO YAHWEH. The last words of the book. Revelation 11:15 says the same of the end: the kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO IS EDOM TODAY?

Is the Story Over?

OBADIAH 1:15 TO 21

THE QUESTION

Obadiah moves from Edom to the Day of Yahweh on all the nations, 1:15, and ends with the kingdom belonging to Yahweh. Is Edom only a nation from long ago, or does it stand for something more?

Every View

ISAIAH 63:1 TO 6 · PSALM 83:6 · DANIEL 11:41 · REVELATION 11:15

VIEW 1: HISTORY ONLY

Many say the prophecy came true when Edom fell and disappeared. The lesson stays: God judges pride and cruelty.

VIEW 2: A CODE NAME FOR ROME

After Rome destroyed the temple, Jewish teachers began to use Edom and Esau as names for Rome, and later for the Christian nations of Europe. In that reading Obadiah promises the fall of every empire that crushes Israel.

VIEW 3: THE END TIMES

Some Christians link Edom with end times passages, Isaiah 63:1 to 6, Psalm 83:6 and Daniel 11:41, and see it as the lands of southern Jordan or the nations that hate Israel in the last days.

VIEW 4: A PICTURE

Others see Edom as a picture of pride that sets itself against God's people. Every Edom falls, and Christ's kingdom wins, Revelation 11:15.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The book's last line: the kingdom will belong to Yahweh, 1:21.

JONAH

AUTHOR	Not stated. The book is about Jonah son of Amittai, 1:1, a prophet from Gath hepher in Galilee, 2 Kings 14:25. Tradition says he wrote it; many think someone else wrote it later.
DATE	Jonah lived in the days of Jeroboam II, about 793 to 753 BC. Many scholars date the writing later.
WRITTEN TO	God's people, who needed to learn that God loves even their enemies.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Parts of Jonah are in 4QXII a, one of the oldest Qumran scrolls of the Twelve Prophets, copied about 150 to 125 BC, in other Qumran copies, in the Greek scroll of the Twelve from Nahal Hever and in the Hebrew scroll from Wadi Murabbaat.
KEY VERSE	Jonah 2:9. Salvation is from Yahweh!

THE OLDEST COPIES OF JONAH
Pieces of 4QXII a, a scroll of the Twelve Prophets from Qumran Cave 4 and one of the oldest copies of them, about 150 to 125 BC. It holds parts of Jonah, though the plate does not mark which pieces are Jonah. Some think this scroll put Jonah last, after Malachi; others doubt it. Historical Setting Assyria was the bully of the ancient world, famous for cruelty, and Nineveh was one of its great cities. Israel feared and hated it. Then God told an Israelite prophet to go to Nineveh and warn it. Jonah knew what that could mean: if Nineveh turned, God might forgive it. So he ran.

What Went Wrong

RUNNING AWAY. Jonah tried to flee from the presence of Yahweh, 1:3.
NINEVEH'S VIOLENCE. Its wickedness had come up before God, 1:2, and the king named the violence in their hands, 3:8.
IDOLS. The sailors each cried to their own god, 1:5, and Jonah says those who cling to worthless idols forsake His loving devotion, 2:8.
A HARD HEART. Jonah wanted his enemies judged, not saved, and was angry enough to die over it, 4:1 to 9.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Jonah is the prophet everyone knows and almost nobody would want to be. God sends him to Israel's worst enemy, and he runs. God chases him with a storm and a fish, gives him a second chance, and Nineveh turns to God. But Jonah is angry, because he wanted Nineveh destroyed. The book ends with God asking whether He should not care about a city full of people. Jesus called His own death and resurrection the sign of Jonah.

THE SAILORS AND THE CITY
Every outsider in the book obeys God faster than the prophet does: the sailors, the king, the people and even the fish.

THE SHORTEST SERMON
Jonah's sermon in 3:4 is five words in Hebrew, and a whole city turned.

JONAH AND PETER
Jonah sailed from Joppa. Centuries later Peter, the son of Jonah, Matthew 16:17, was in Joppa when God sent him to the outsiders, Acts 10. See Joppa.

A FAVORITE OF THE FIRST CHRISTIANS
Jonah was one of the stories early Christians painted and carved most, as a picture of the resurrection. See The Jonah Marbles.

How Does It End?

Nineveh was spared, but not for good. About 40 to 60 years later Assyria destroyed Israel, and later Nahum warned Nineveh again. In 612 BC Babylon and the Medes destroyed it. The book ends with a question God asks Jonah, and every reader since.

Jonah's World

God said go east. Jonah went west.

FROM GATH HEPHER Jonah came from Gath Hepher in Galilee and prophesied in the days of King Jeroboam II, 2 Kings 14:25.

WHERE WAS TARSHISH? Most think Tarshish was Tartessos in southern Spain, about 2,200 miles west. Others say Tarsus in Turkey or the island of Sardinia.

THE WRONG WAY God sent him to Nineveh, about 500 miles to the east. Jonah went down to Joppa and bought a ticket to Tarshish, the far edge of the known world, Jonah 1:3.

A GREAT CITY Nineveh was a great city of Assyria, a three day visit, Jonah 3:3. Later, as the capital, its walls ran about 7.5 miles around.

Gath Hepher, Joppa and Nineveh are certain. The place of Tarshish is debated. The route to Nineveh is approximate.

WHAT IT IS

Joppa, today's Jaffa, the old harbor town on the south side of Tel Aviv in Israel. It was the old port nearest Jerusalem, used for thousands of years.

THE SHIP

Ships of Tarshish were the big trading ships of the Phoenicians, the great sailors of the age. The carving shows a warship of that time, most think Phoenician, with rowers in two rows and a deck above.

IN THE BIBLE

Cedar logs for Solomon's temple were floated to Joppa, 2 Chronicles 2:16. Peter raised Tabitha there, then God sent him from Joppa to Cornelius, a Roman centurion, Acts 9:36 to 10:23.

From the same port, one prophet ran from God's call to the outsiders, and centuries later another went to them.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

God tells Jonah to go east to Nineveh and preach against it. Jonah buys a ticket west. God sends a storm, the pagan sailors pray harder than the prophet, and the lot falls on Jonah. Throw me overboard, he says. They do, the sea goes calm, and a great fish swallows him whole.

JONAH FLEES FROM YAHWEH // NAHUM 1:1–15

1 Now the word of Yahweh came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying, 2 "Get up! Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before Me."

3 Jonah, however, got up to flee to Tarshish, away from the presence of Yahweh. He went down to Joppa and found a ship bound for Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went aboard to sail for Tarshish, away from the presence of Yahweh.

THE GREAT STORM // ACTS 27:13–26

the sea, and such a violent storm arose that the ship was in danger of breaking apart. 5 The sailors were afraid, and each cried out to his own god. And they threw the ship's cargo into the sea to lighten the load. But Jonah had gone down to the lowest part of the vessel, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep.

6 The captain approached him and said, "How can you sleep? Get up and call upon your God. Perhaps this God will consider us, so that we may not perish."

7 "Come!" said the sailors to one another. "Let us cast lots to find out who is responsible for this calamity that is upon us."

So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

8 "Tell us now," they demanded, "who is to blame for this calamity that is upon us? What is your occupation, and where have you come from? What is your country, and who are your people?"

9 "I am a Hebrew," replied Jonah. "I worship Yahweh, the God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land."

10 Then the men were even more afraid and said to him, "What have you done?" The men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of Yahweh, because he had told them.

JONAH CAST INTO THE SEA

11 Now the sea was growing worse and worse, so they said to Jonah, "What must we do to you to calm this sea for us?"

12 "Pick me up," he answered, "and cast me into the sea, so it may quiet down for you. For I know that I am to blame for this violent storm that has come upon you."

13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get back to dry land, but they could not, for the sea was raging against them more and more.

14 So they cried out to Yahweh: "Please, O Yahweh, do not let us perish on account of this man's life! Do not charge us with innocent blood! For You, O Yahweh, have done as You pleased."

15 Then they picked up Jonah and cast him into the sea, and the raging sea grew calm.

16 Then the men feared Yahweh greatly, and they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh and made vows to Him.

17 Now Yahweh had appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah spent three days and three nights in the belly of the fish.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Jonah prays from inside the fish, and it sounds a lot like the Psalms. He was sinking to the bottom, and God pulled him up. Salvation is from Yahweh! Then the fish throws up Jonah onto dry land, which is probably the only time a fish has gotten seasick from a prophet.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Yahweh appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah spent three days and three nights inside it, 1:17. Then Yahweh commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land, 2:10.

Every View
MATTHEW 12:40 · JONAH 2:2

VIEW 1: A REAL MIRACLE
Most Jews and Christians through history read it as a true event. The book says God appointed the fish, so it is a miracle, not nature doing its normal thing. Jesus spoke of Jonah in the fish as a real event and tied it to His own resurrection, Matthew 12:40.

VIEW 2: A TEACHING STORY
Many scholars read the book as a story told to teach a lesson, like a parable, with a real prophet at the center. They point to the funny, larger than life details: a fish, a giant city, cows in sackcloth, a plant that grows in a day.

VIEW 3: JONAH DIED
Some who take it as history think Jonah actually died, since he says he cried from the belly of Sheol, the place of the dead, 2:2, and God raised him. That would make the sign of Jonah even closer to Jesus.

THE WHALE TALES
You may hear of a sailor named James Bartley who lived after a whale swallowed him, a story first printed in 1891. The historian Edward Davis found that his ship, the Star of the East, was not a whaler and had no James Bartley on its crew, and the captain's wife called the story untrue. It is a legend and proves nothing either way.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
The point is not the fish. The point is a God who will not give up on a runaway, and the mercy that follows him.

"In my distress I called to Yahweh, and He answered me.
From the belly of Sheol I called for help,
and You heard my voice.
3 For You cast me into the deep,
into the heart of the seas,
and the current swirled about me;
all Your breakers and waves swept over me.
4 At this, I said,
'I have been banished from Your sight;
yet I will look once more toward Your holy temple.'
5 The waters engulfed me to take my life;
the watery depths closed around me;
the seaweed wrapped around my head.
6 To the roots of the mountains I descended;
the earth beneath me barred me in forever!
But You raised my life from the pit,
O Yahweh my God!
7 As my life was fading away,
I remembered Yahweh.
My prayer went up to You,
to Your holy temple.
8 Those who cling to worthless idols forsake His loving devotion.
9 But I, with the voice of thanksgiving, will sacrifice to You.
I will fulfill what I have vowed.
Salvation is from Yahweh!"
10 And Yahweh commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

MATTHEW 12:38 TO 41 · 16:4 · LUKE 11:29 TO 32

WHAT JESUS SAID
When leaders asked for a sign, Jesus said none would be given but the sign of the prophet Jonah. As Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth, Matthew 12:39 to 40.

JON 2:2 [NOTE] THE BELLY OF SHEOL. Sheol is the place of the dead. Jonah felt as good as dead. Some think he really did die and was brought back.

JON 2:4 [NOTE] YOUR HOLY TEMPLE. From the bottom of the sea, Jonah still turns toward the temple in Jerusalem, as Solomon asked, 1 Kings 8:38 to 39.

THE JONAH MARBLES

JONAH 1:17 · 2:10 · 4:6 · MATTHEW 12:40

Jonah Swallowed and Jonah Cast Up, marble, Asia Minor, about AD 280 to 290. Cleveland Museum of Art, public domain open access, CC0.

WHAT IT IS

A set of small marble statues that tell Jonah's story: the sea monster swallowing him, the monster spitting him out, Jonah praying, and Jonah resting under his plant. They are said to have been found together with a statue of the Good Shepherd and six portrait busts, three pairs of a Roman couple.

HOW OLD IT IS

About AD 280 to 290, a generation before Christianity became legal in the Roman Empire.

WHERE THEY CAME FROM

They were carved in Asia Minor, today's Turkey, possibly for a Christian family's tomb or home. The Cleveland Museum of Art bought the group in 1965.

THE SEA MONSTER

The artist did not carve a whale. He carved a ketos, the Greek sea monster with a dog's head, curly tail and fins, the same word Matthew 12:40 uses.

JONAH EVERYWHERE

Jonah is one of the Bible stories early Christians pictured most. He is painted again and again on the walls of the catacombs in Rome and carved on stone coffins.

WHY JONAH?

Jesus called His death and rising the sign of Jonah, Matthew 12:40. For Christians burying their dead, Jonah coming up alive from the monster was a picture of the resurrection.

JONAH RESTING

Jonah under his plant often looks like Endymion, a sleeping hero in Greek stories. Christians borrowed the familiar pose to show rest and peace in God.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Before Christians could worship openly, ordinary Christians knew Jonah's story and read it as a promise that death would not win.

THE PLANT IN STONE

Another piece in the group, Jonah Under the Gourd Vine, shows Jonah lying back under his vine, the plant of 4:6.

MATTHEW 27:62 TO 64 · MARK 8:31 · 1 CORINTHIANS 15:4

VIEW 1: JEWISH COUNTING
Jews counted any part of a day as a day. A rabbi from about AD 100 said a day and a night make one unit, and part of one counts as the whole. Friday, Saturday and Sunday make three days, so Friday to Sunday fits. Most churches hold this view.

VIEW 2: A THURSDAY CROSS
Some say Jesus died on Thursday, because there was more than one Sabbath that week, the Passover Sabbath and the weekly one, John 19:31. That gives three nights in the tomb.

VIEW 3: A WEDNESDAY CROSS
Others count exactly 72 hours, from Wednesday evening to Saturday evening, so Jesus rose just before the first day began.

VIEW 4: THE SIGN IS THE MESSAGE
Luke says Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, Luke 11:30. Some say the sign is Jonah himself, a man back from death preaching repentance, more than the exact count of hours.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
Jesus pointed to Jonah to predict His own death and resurrection. The tomb was empty, and One greater than Jonah is here, Matthew 12:41.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS
Second chance. This time Jonah goes. His whole sermon is eight words in English: Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned. And it works. The whole city fasts, even the king and the cows wear sackcloth, and God holds back the disaster.

THE NINEVITES REPENT // MATTHEW 12:38–42; LUKE 11:29–32

1 Then the word of Yahweh came to Jonah a second time: 2 "Get up! Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message that I give you."

3 This time Jonah got up and went to Nineveh, in accordance with the word of Yahweh.

Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, requiring a three-day journey. 4 On the first day of his journey, Jonah set out into the city and proclaimed, "Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned!"

5 And the Ninevites believed God. They proclaimed a fast and dressed in sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least.

6 When word reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 Then he issued a proclamation in Nineveh:

"By the decree of the king and his nobles:
Let no man or beast, herd or flock, taste anything at all. They must not eat or drink. 8 Furthermore, let both man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and have everyone call out earnestly to God. Let each one turn from his evil ways and from the violence in his hands. 9 Who knows? God may turn and relent; He may turn from His fierce anger, so that we will not perish."

10 When God saw their actions—that they had turned from their evil ways—He re-

THE WALLS OF NINEVEH

JONAH 3:3 · 4:11 · GENESIS 10:11 · NAHUM 2:6 TO 8

Nineveh's western city wall, now a long mound, on the right, with the palace mound of Kuyunjik ahead. The gate at far right was rebuilt in modern times. Photo Fredarch, 1990, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

The ruins of Nineveh, beside the Tigris River across from Mosul in Iraq. Long mounds still show where its walls ran, with two big ruin mounds inside: Kuyunjik, the palace hill, and Nebi Yunus.

HOW OLD IT IS

People lived at Nineveh for thousands of years. The great walls were built by King Sennacherib, about 700 BC, a few generations after Jonah.

HOW BIG

Sennacherib's walls ran about seven and a half miles around, with fifteen gates. He boasted that he made the city far bigger than before.

WHAT WAS FOUND

Austen Henry Layard and others dug at Nineveh from the 1840s on. They found palaces lined with carved stone pictures and the library of King Ashurbanipal, thousands of clay tablets now in the British Museum.

REAL OR REBUILT?

Most of the walls today are earth mounds. Iraq rebuilt a few gates in modern times, such as the Mashki and Adad Gates, so photos of tall brick gates show modern work on old foundations. ISIS damaged several in 2015 and 2016.

AN EXCEEDINGLY GREAT CITY

Jonah 3:3 says it took three days to go through. Some think that counts the whole Nineveh area with its towns, some think a three day visit. In the Hebrew it is literally a great city to God, which may just mean very great, or a city great in God's eyes.

THE KING OF NINEVEH

In Jonah's day the Assyrian king usually lived at Kalhu, today called Nimrud. Some think the king of Nineveh means the king of Assyria, others a ruler of the city.

THE END OF NINEVEH

More than a century after Jonah, Nahum warned of its fall. In 612 BC Babylon and the Medes broke through these walls and burned the city.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Jonah's great city was real, and it was huge. The God who spared it once later judged it, just as the prophets said.

THE PALACE UNDER JONAH'S TOMB

JONAH 3:6 · 2 KINGS 19:37

Iraqi archaeologists dig the grand entrance of an Assyrian building on Nebi Yunus in 1990, with the mosque of the prophet Jonah behind, destroyed in 2014. Photo Fredarch, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

Nebi Yunus, the prophet Jonah, is the second big ruin mound inside Nineveh's walls. For centuries a mosque on top was said to hold Jonah's tomb, and before that there was a church.

THE TOMB

No one knows where Jonah was buried. Another old tradition puts his grave near his hometown, Gath hepher. The mosque was a holy place for Muslims, Christians and Jews.

THE PALACE

Under the mound lay an Assyrian palace and arsenal used by King Esarhaddon, Sennacherib's son, in the 600s BC. Iraqi teams dug parts of it, like the entrance in the photo.

2014 AND 2017

ISIS blew up the mosque in July 2014 and dug tunnels into the mound to steal and sell artifacts. After Mosul was freed in 2017, archaeologists went into the tunnels and found palace walls, carved stone figures and inscriptions of Esarhaddon.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Jonah's name stayed tied to Nineveh for well over a thousand years, and the city's buried palaces are still giving up their secrets.

lented from the disaster He had threatened to bring upon them.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DID NINEVEH REALLY REPENT?

A Whole City Turns

JONAH 3:5 TO 10

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

The people believed God, fasted and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least. The king left his throne and sat in ashes, and God relented from the disaster, 3:5 to 10.

THE QUESTION

No Assyrian record tells of a prophet from Israel or a city turning to Israel's God. Did it really happen, and did it last?

Every View

MATTHEW 12:41 · NAHUM 3:1 TO 7 · 2 KINGS 17:5 TO 6

VIEW 1: IT HAPPENED

Many take it as real history. Jesus said the men of Nineveh will stand at the judgment with His generation and condemn it, because they repented at Jonah's preaching, Matthew 12:41. Kings did not usually record their own humbling, so silence in the records is no surprise.

TROUBLED TIMES

Assyria went through hard years after about 770 BC. Its records list revolts, plague and a total eclipse of the sun in 763 BC. Some think a scared city would be ready to listen to a prophet. See The Eclipse of 763 BC, Amos, p.1400.

VIEW 2: A TEACHING STORY

Scholars who read Jonah as a teaching story say the city's turning is part of the lesson: if even Nineveh can turn, anyone can.

JON 3:10 [NOTE] DISASTER HELD BACK. God's warnings are often a call to turn. When people turn, He can hold back what He threatened, Jeremiah 18:7 to 8.

MIRACLES GOD SPEAKING

VIEW 3: REAL BUT SHORT
Others note that it did not last. Assyria destroyed Israel within about 40 to 60 years of Jonah's day, 2 Kings 17:5 to 6, and Nahum later describes Nineveh as full of lies and blood, Nahum 3:1.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
God takes a turning heart seriously, even in an enemy city, and He would rather forgive than destroy.

4

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS
Jonah is furious that God was nice to his enemies. I knew You were gracious, he says, that's why I ran! He sulks outside the city. God grows a plant for shade, sends a worm to kill it, and asks the last question of the book: You cared about a plant. Should I not care about a city full of people?

JONAH'S ANGER AT YAHWEH'S COMPASSION

1 Jonah, however, was greatly displeased, and he became angry. 2 So he prayed to Yahweh, saying, "O Yahweh, is this not what I said while I was still in my own country? This is why I was so quick to flee toward Tarshish. I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion—One who relents from sending disaster. 3 And now, O Yahweh, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live."

4 But Yahweh replied, "Have you any right to be angry?"

5 Then Jonah left the city and sat down east of it, where he made himself a shelter and sat in its shade to see what would happen to the city. 6 So Yahweh God appointed a vine, and it grew up to provide shade over Jonah's head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was greatly pleased with the plant.

JON 4:1 [NOTE] ANGRY AT MERCY. Jonah was glad to be saved by grace in chapter 2 and angry that Nineveh got the same grace in chapter 4. See Why Was Jonah Angry?

JON 4:2 [NOTE] GRACIOUS AND COMPASSIONATE. Jonah is describing God, not quoting Him, so it prints black. His words come from God's own words to Moses, Exodus 34:6. Joel 2:13 uses the same line.

JON 4:6 [MIRACLE] Plant grew up in a day; worm destroyed it

THE BIG QUESTION

WHY WAS JONAH ANGRY?

Mad at Mercy

JONAH 4:1 TO 11

WHAT HE SAID
Jonah finally tells God why he ran: I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion, 4:2. He was not afraid God would fail. He was afraid God would forgive.

THE QUESTION
Why would a prophet of God be angry enough to die because a city was spared?

A Closer Look

EXODUS 34:6 · LUKE 15:25 TO 32 · MATTHEW 5:44

A CRUEL ENEMY
Assyria was known for terrible cruelty to the peoples it conquered, and it was the great threat to Israel. Jonah may have known that a spared Assyria could one day destroy his own people, and within about 40 to 60 years it did.

PROUD OF HIS PEOPLE
Jonah loved Israel and wanted God's mercy to stay with Israel. Many see his anger as national pride that left no room for outsiders.

HIS REPUTATION
Some think he felt like a false prophet, since he said Nineveh would fall in forty days and it did not.

GOD'S ANSWER
God does not yell. He grows a plant, takes it away, and asks a question: You cared about the plant, which you neither tended nor made grow. So should I not care about the great city of Nineveh, which has more than 120,000 people, and many cattle as well? 4:10 to 11.

THE OLDER BROTHER
Jesus told of a son who came home and an older brother who was angry at the party, Luke 15:28. Like Jonah's book, that story ends without telling us what the angry one did.

WHAT IT SHOWS
It is easy to love grace for yourself and

JON 4:6 [NOTE] THE PLANT. In Hebrew, qiqayon, maybe a castor bean plant or a gourd. Augustine says a church nearly rioted when Jerome called it ivy.

MIRACLES NOTABLE GOD SPEAKING

hate it for your enemies. God loves people we would rather see judged.

7 When dawn came the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the plant so that it withered.

8 As the sun was rising, God appointed a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he grew faint and wished to die, saying, "It is better for me to die than to live."

9 Then God asked Jonah, "Have you any right to be angry about the plant?"

"I do," he replied. "I am angry enough to die!"

10 But Yahweh said, "You cared about the plant, which you neither tended nor made grow. It sprang up in a night and perished in a night. 11 So should I not care about the great city of Nineveh, which has more than 120,000 people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, and many cattle as well?"

JON 4:11 [NOTABLE] The book ends with God's question and no answer from Jonah. God cares about people His prophet wanted judged, and the reader has to answer too.

BOOK 33 OF 66 · OLD TESTAMENT · MINOR PROPHETS

MICAH

Who is like Yahweh?

AUTHOR	Micah of Moresheth, a farm town about 25 miles southwest of Jerusalem 1:1, 1:14. A small town preacher who took on the big city.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	About 740 to 700 BC, while Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah ruled Judah.
DATE WRITTEN	About 735 to 700 BC.
WRITTEN TO	Samaria, capital of the northern kingdom of Israel, and Jerusalem, capital of Judah.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Micah appears in several Dead Sea Scroll era copies of the Twelve Prophets, including the Hebrew scroll from Wadi Murabbaat and the Greek scroll from Nahal Hever, plus a commentary on Micah from Qumran Cave 1.
KEY VERSE	Micah 6:8. Act justly, love mercy, walk humbly with your God.

ONE OF THE OLDEST COPIES OF MICAH

This is a piece of the Greek Minor Prophets Scroll, first brought out by Bedouin in 1952 and traced to the Cave of Horror at Nahal Hever, near the Dead Sea. It was copied by hand about 50 BC to AD 50, around the time Jesus was born. This piece holds part of Micah 5, including the promise that a ruler would come out of Bethlehem Ephrathah, 5:2. Look for God's name, YHWH, written in the old Hebrew letters right in the middle of the Greek words.

Hebrew pieces of Micah from about the same time were also found in Cave 4 at Qumran. A Hebrew scroll of the Minor Prophets from Wadi Murabba'at, copied around AD 100, holds most of Micah. Photo Shai Halevi, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library, Israel Antiquities Authority.

Historical Setting

Assyria is the superpower of the day, and it is hungry. In 722 BC it wipes out Samaria and the northern kingdom, just as Micah warned in 1:6. In 701 BC King Sennacherib invades Judah, destroys the fortress city of Lachish and surrounds Jerusalem. Micah preaches through all of it, at the same time as Isaiah. The two even share a famous passage, Micah 4:1 to 3 and Isaiah 2:2 to 4.

What Was Going Wrong

IDOLS EVERYWHERE. Samaria and Jerusalem were full of carved images, sacred pillars and Asherah poles 1:5 to 7, 5:12 to 14. God says He will smash every one.
CHILD SACRIFICE. King Ahaz, who ruled during Micah's ministry, burned his own son as a sacrifice 2 Kings 16:3. That is why Micah 6:7 asks, Shall I present my firstborn for my transgression? God's answer in 6:8 is a hard no.
WITCHCRAFT. Sorcery and fortune tellers were big business 5:12.
LAND GRABS. The rich schemed at night to seize fields and houses from families 2:1 to 2.
BOUGHT JUDGES AND PREACHERS. Leaders took bribes, priests taught for a price, and prophets preached for money 3:11.
FAKE WEIGHTS. Merchants cheated customers with rigged scales 6:10 to 11.

The Idiot Proof Summary

The people of God have become just like everybody else. The rich cheat the poor, judges take bribes, and preachers say whatever pays. God warns that judgment is coming for both Samaria and Jerusalem. But judgment is never the last word. God promises to gather His people again, and to send a Ruler from little Bethlehem who will shepherd them and be their peace. Micah is seven short chapters, and it swings back and forth between doom and hope like a courtroom drama with a happy ending.

Micah at a Glance: Three Rounds of Hear This

CH 1 to 2 ROUND 1: HEAR, O PEOPLES 1:2
Judgment on Samaria and Judah, then a promise to gather the remnant.

CH 3 to 5 ROUND 2: HEAR NOW, O LEADERS 3:1
Corrupt leaders exposed, then the last days and the Ruler from Bethlehem.

CH 6 to 7 ROUND 3: HEAR NOW WHAT YAHWEH SAYS 6:1
God's courtroom case, then the God who throws sins into the sea.

Where Jesus Shows Up

MICAH 5:2 A Ruler born in Bethlehem whose origins are from eternity. Quoted to Herod in Matthew 2:5 to 6.

MICAH 5:1 The Judge of Israel struck on the cheek. Compare Matthew 27:30.

MICAH 5:4 TO 5 The Shepherd who will be our peace. Compare John 10:11 and Ephesians 2:14.

MICAH 7:6 Jesus quotes this line in Matthew 10:35 to 36.

GOD'S NAMES IN MICAH
Micah uses Yahweh, God's personal name, again and again. In 1:2 he says Adonai Yahweh, printed here as Lord Yahweh, which means Master Yahweh. In 4:4 he says Yahweh of Hosts, which means Yahweh who commands the armies of heaven. Elohim, printed God, is the mighty Creator.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

A SERMON THAT SAVED A LIFE
About a hundred years after Micah, Jeremiah was on trial for his life. The elders stood up and quoted Micah 3:12, and Jeremiah was spared. Read it in Jeremiah 26:18 to 19.

SWORDS INTO PLOWSHARES
The words of Micah 4:3 gave their name to a famous statue in the garden of the United Nations in New York, Let Us Beat Swords into Plowshares. It was a gift from the Soviet Union in 1959, so an officially atheist government ended up quoting the Bible.

A PROPHET WHO PUNS
Micah 1:10 to 15 is a string of wordplays on town names. Beth Leaphrah means house of dust, so its people are told to roll in the dust.

HIS NAME IS THE QUESTION
Micah is short for Micaiah, which means Who is like Yahweh? The book ends with the same question in 7:18. Who is a God like You?

Did Anybody Listen?

Yes. King Hezekiah took Micah seriously. He smashed the idols and sacred pillars and even broke up the bronze snake Moses had made, because people had started worshiping it 2 Kings 18:4. A century later Jeremiah 26:19 says Hezekiah feared Yahweh and God held back the disaster. One small town preacher helped turn a whole nation around.

JUDGMENT TO COME // ISAIAH 7:17–25

1 This is the word of Yahweh that came to Micah the Moreshite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah—what he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem:

2 Hear, O peoples, all of you;
listen, O earth, and everyone in it!
May the Lord Yahweh bear witness against you,
the Lord from His holy temple.
3 For behold, Yahweh comes forth from His dwelling place;
He will come down and tread
on the high places of the earth.
4 The mountains will melt beneath Him,
and the valleys will split apart,
like wax before the fire,
like water rushing down a slope.

5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob and the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
And what is the high place of Judah?
Is it not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria
a heap of rubble in the open field,
a planting area for a vineyard.
I will pour her stones into the valley and expose her foundations.
7 All her carved images will be smashed to pieces;
all her wages will be burned in the fire,
and I will destroy all her idols.
Since she collected the wages of a prostitute,
they will be used again on a prostitute.

WEEPING AND MOURNING

8 Because of this I will lament and wail;
I will walk barefoot and naked.
I will howl like a jackal

9 For her wound is incurable;
it has reached even Judah;
it has approached the gate of my people,
as far as Jerusalem itself.

10 Do not tell it in Gath; do not weep at all.
Roll in the dust in Beth-leaphrah.
11 Depart in shameful nakedness,
O dwellers of Shaphir.
The dwellers of Zaanan
will not come out.
Beth-ezel is in mourning;
its support is taken from you.
12 For the dwellers of Maroth pined for good,
but calamity came down from Yahweh,
even to the gate of Jerusalem.

13 Harness your chariot horses,
O dweller of Lachish.
You were the beginning of sin to the Daughter of Zion,
for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.
14 Therefore, send farewell gifts to More-sheth-gath;
the houses of Achzib will prove deceptive
to the kings of Israel.
15 I will again bring a conqueror against
you,
O dweller of Mareshah.
The glory of Israel will come to Adullam.
16 Shave yourselves bald and cut off your make yourselves as bald as an eagle,

WHAT IT IS

A series of carved stone panels from the palace of the Assyrian king Sennacherib. They show his army attacking the walled city of Lachish in Judah: siege ramps, battering rams, archers, and families of Judah being led away into exile.

HOW OLD IT IS

Carved about 700 to 690 BC for Sennacherib's palace, soon after his army captured Lachish in 701 BC.

WHAT MICAH WARNED VS WHAT THE STONE SHOWS

Micah 1:13 tells Lachish to hitch up the chariot horses and run. The reliefs show Lachish under attack and falling. Micah 1:16 says the people will go into exile. The reliefs show families of Judah marched away. Micah 1:9 says the disaster reaches the gate of Jerusalem. Sennacherib's own record says he trapped Hezekiah in Jerusalem but never says he took it.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Dug up by the British explorer Austen Henry Layard in the 1840s in the ruins of Sennacherib's palace at Nineveh, in modern Iraq.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The British Museum in London, Room 10.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

The Bible says the king of Assyria attacked Lachish and sent messengers from there to Hezekiah in Jerusalem. Sennacherib was so proud of taking Lachish that he put it on his palace walls.

THE DIRT AGREES

Archaeologists at Tel Lachish in Israel found the actual Assyrian siege ramp, arrowheads, and sling stones from the battle.

THE PART HE LEFT OUT

Sennacherib's prism brags that he shut Hezekiah up in Jerusalem like a bird in a cage, but it never claims he took the city. The Bible explains why in 2 Kings 19:35 to 36.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Micah never names Sennacherib or gives a date. Most scholars read Micah 1:10 to 16 as the Assyrian march through the Judean foothills, and the reliefs show that march at Lachish.

GOD SPEAKING

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

The rich are lying awake at night plotting how to take their neighbor's house, which is basically a real estate deal with extra steps. When Micah calls it out, the crowd tells him to stop preaching. Micah fires back that if a guy showed up promising free wine and beer, they would hire him as pastor on the spot.

WOE TO OPPRESSORS

1 Woe to those who devise iniquity and plot evil on their beds!
At morning's light they accomplish it because the power is in their hands.
2 They covet fields and seize them;
they take away houses.
They deprive a man of his home,
a fellow man of his inheritance.

3 Therefore this is what Yahweh says:

"I am planning against this nation a disaster from which you cannot free your necks.
Then you will not walk so proudly,
for it will be a time of calamity.
4 In that day they will take up a proverb against you and taunt you with this bitter lamentation:
'We are utterly ruined!
He has changed the portion of my people.
How He has removed it from me!
He has allotted our fields to traitors.'"

5 Therefore, you will have no one in the assembly of Yahweh to divide the land by lot.

REPROOF OF FALSE PROPHETS // EZEKIEL 13:1–16

6 "Do not preach," they preach.
"Do not preach these things;
disgrace will not overtake us."
7 Should it be said, O house of Jacob,
"Is the Spirit of Yahweh impatient?
Are these the things He does?"

Do not My words bring good to him who walks uprightly?
8 But of late My people have risen up like an enemy:
You strip off the splendid robe
from unsuspecting passersby like men returning from battle.
9 You drive the women of My people from their pleasant homes.
You take away My blessing from their children forever.

10 Arise and depart,
for this is not your place of rest,
because its defilement brings destruction—
a grievous destruction!
11 If a man of wind were to come and say falsely,
"I will preach to you of wine and strong drink,"
he would be just the preacher for this people!

THE REMNANT OF ISRAEL // MICAH 5:7–15

12 I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob;
I will collect the remnant of Israel.
I will bring them together like sheep in a pen,
like a flock in the midst of its pasture—
a noisy throng.
13 One who breaks open the way
will go up before them;
they will break through the gate,
and go out by it.
Their King will pass through before them,
Yahweh as their leader.

You chop them up like flesh for the cooking pot,
like meat in a cauldron."

4 Then they will cry out to Yahweh,
but He will not answer them.
At that time He will hide His face from them because of the evil they have done.

5 This is what Yahweh says:

"As for the prophets who lead My people astray, who proclaim peace
while they chew with their teeth, but declare war against one who puts nothing in their mouths:
6 Therefore night will come over you without visions,
and darkness without divination.
The sun will set on these prophets,
and the daylight will turn black over them.
7 Then the seers will be ashamed and the diviners will be disgraced.
They will all cover their mouths
because there is no answer from God."

8 As for me, however, I am filled with power
by the Spirit of Yahweh,
with justice and courage, to declare to Jacob his transgression
and to Israel his sin.

9 Now hear this, O leaders of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel, who despise justice
and pervert all that is right, 10 who build Zion with bloodshed and Jerusalem with iniquity.
11 Her leaders judge for a bribe,
her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets practice divination for money.
Yet they lean upon Yahweh, saying,
"Is not Yahweh among us?
No disaster can come upon us."

MIC 3:6 [DEMONIC] False prophets lose their visions and the diviners are disgraced

12 Therefore, because of you,
Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
and the temple mount a wooded ridge.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Plot twist. After all the doom, Micah zooms out to the last days, when the nations stream to God and melt their weapons into farm tools. Everybody gets their own vine and fig tree, and nobody has to lock the door. Then he tells Jerusalem they are headed to Babylon, which is a strange travel brochure, but God promises to rescue them there.

THE MOUNTAIN OF THE HOUSE OF YAHWEH // ISAIAH 2:1–4

1 In the last days the mountain of the house of Yahweh will be established as the chief of the mountains;
it will be raised above the hills,
and the peoples will stream to it.

2 And many nations will come and say:

"Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh,
to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us His ways,
so that we may walk in His paths."

For the law will go forth from Zion and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.
3 Then He will judge between many peoples and arbitrate for strong nations far and wide.
Then they will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will no longer take up the sword against nation,
nor will they train anymore for war.
4 And each man will sit under his own vine
and under his own fig tree,
with no one to frighten him.

THE RESTORATION OF ZION // ZECHARIAH 8:1–23

6 "On that day," declares Yahweh,
"I will gather the lame;
I will assemble the outcast,
even those whom I have afflicted.
7 And I will make the lame into a remnant,
the outcast into a strong nation.
Then Yahweh will rule over them in Mount Zion from that day and forever.
8 And you, O watchtower of the flock,
O stronghold of the Daughter of Zion—
the former dominion will be restored to you;
sovereignty will come to the Daughter of Jerusalem."

9 Why do you now cry aloud?
Is there no king among you?
Has your counselor perished
so that anguish grips you like a woman in labor?
10 Writhe in agony, O Daughter of Zion, like a woman in labor.
For now you will leave the city and camp in the open fields.
You will go to Babylon;
there you will be rescued;
there Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies!

11 But now many nations have assembled against you, saying, "Let her be defiled,
and let us feast our eyes on Zion."
12 But they do not know the thoughts of Yahweh or understand His plan, for He has gathered them
like sheaves to the threshing floor.
13 Rise and thresh, O Daughter of Zion,

Then you will devote their gain to Yahweh,

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

The most famous chapter in the book. A tiny town called Bethlehem, so small it barely made the map, gets picked to produce a Ruler whose origins go back to eternity. About seven hundred years later the chief priests quoted this exact verse to King Herod, which did not make Herod's week any better.

A RULER FROM BETHLEHEM // MATTHEW 2:1–12

1 Now, O daughter of troops, mobilize your troops;
for a siege is laid against us!
With a rod they will strike the cheek
of the judge of Israel.
2 But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are small among the clans of Judah,
out of you will come forth for Me
One to be ruler over Israel—
One whose origins are of old,
from the days of eternity.
3 Therefore Israel will be abandoned until she who is in labor has given birth;
then the rest of His brothers will return to the children of Israel.

4 He will stand and shepherd His flock
in the strength of Yahweh,
in the majestic name of Yahweh His God.
And they will dwell securely, for then His greatness will extend
to the ends of the earth.
5 And He will be our peace when Assyria invades our land and tramples our citadels.

THE REMNANT OF JACOB // MICAH 2:12–13

7 Then the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples
like dew from Yahweh,
like showers on the grass,
which do not wait for man or linger for mankind.
8 Then the remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
in the midst of many peoples,

so that you will no longer bow down to the work of your own hands.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

God takes His people to court, and the mountains are the jury. His opening question is basically, What did I ever do to you? The people wonder if God wants rams, rivers of oil or even their firstborn, and God answers with the simplest job description ever written: do justice, love mercy, walk humbly.

THE CASE AGAINST ISRAEL

1 Hear now what Yahweh says:

"Arise, plead your case before the mountains,
and let the hills hear your voice.
2 Hear, O mountains, Yahweh's indictment,
you enduring foundations of the earth.
For Yahweh has a case against His people,
and He will argue it against Israel:

3 'My people, what have I done to you?
Testify against Me how I have wearied you!
4 For I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery.
I sent Moses before you,
as well as Aaron and Miriam.
5 My people, remember what Balak king of Moab counseled and what Balaam son of Beor answered.
Remember your journey from Shittim to Gilgal,
so that you may acknowledge the righteousness of Yahweh.'"

6 With what shall I come before Yahweh when I bow before the God on high?
Should I come to Him with burnt offerings,
with year-old calves?
7 Would Yahweh be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I present my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He has shown you, O man, what is good.

but to act justly, to love mercy,

THE PUNISHMENT OF ISRAEL

9 The voice of Yahweh calls out to the city
(and it is sound wisdom to fear Your name):
"Heed the rod
and the One who ordained it.
10 Can I forget any longer,
O house of the wicked,
the treasures of wickedness
and the short measure, which is accursed?
11 Can I excuse dishonest scales or bags of false weights?
12 For the wealthy of the city are full of violence,
and its residents speak lies;
their tongues are deceitful in their mouths.
13 Therefore I am striking you severely, to ruin you because of your sins.
14 You will eat but not be satisfied,
and your hunger will remain with you.
What you acquire, you will not preserve;
and what you save, I will give to the sword.
15 You will sow but not reap;
you will press olives but not anoint yourselves with oil;
you will tread grapes but not drink the wine.
16 You have kept the statutes of Omri and all the practices of Ahab's house;
you have followed their counsel.
Therefore I will make you a desolation,
and your inhabitants an object of contempt;
you will bear the scorn of the nations."

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Micah looks around and cannot find one honest person, not even at the family dinner table. But he refuses to quit: I will look to Yahweh. The book ends by asking the same question Micah's own name asks, Who is a God like You? He is the God who throws your sins into the deepest part of the sea, and as Corrie ten Boom put it, then posts a sign that says No Fishing.

ISRAEL'S GREAT MISERY // MATTHEW 10:34–39; LUKE 12:49–53

1 Woe is me!
For I am like one gathering summer fruit
at the gleaning of the vineyard;
there is no cluster to eat,
no early fig that I crave.
2 The godly man has perished from the earth;
there is no one upright among men.
They all lie in wait for blood;
they hunt one another with a net.
3 Both hands are skilled at evil;
the prince and the judge demand a bribe.
When the powerful utters his evil desire,
they all conspire together.
4 The best of them is like a brier;
the most upright is sharper than a hedge of thorns.
The day for your watchmen has come,
the day of your visitation.
Now is the time of their confusion.
5 Do not rely on a friend;
do not trust in a companion.
Seal the doors of your mouth
from her who lies in your arms.
6 For a son dishonors his father,
a daughter rises against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.
A man's enemies are the members of his own household.

GOD SPEAKING

I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.

8 Do not gloat over me, my enemy!
Though I have fallen, I will arise;
though I sit in darkness,
Yahweh will be my light.
9 Because I have sinned against Him,
I must endure the rage of Yahweh, until He argues my case
and executes justice for me.
He will bring me into the light;
I will see His righteousness.
10 Then my enemy will see and will be covered with shame—
she who said to me,
"Where is Yahweh your God?"
My eyes will see her;
at that time she will be trampled like mud in the streets.

11 The day for rebuilding your walls will come—
the day for extending your boundary.
12 On that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, even from Egypt to the Euphrates,
from sea to sea and mountain to mountain.
13 Then the earth will become desolate
because of its inhabitants,
as the fruit of their deeds.

GOD'S COMPASSION ON ISRAEL

14 Shepherd with Your staff Your people,
the flock of Your inheritance.
They live alone in a woodland,
surrounded by pastures.
Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead,
as in the days of old.

15 As in the days when you came out of Egypt,
I will show My wonders.
16 Nations will see and be ashamed, deprived of all their might.
They will put their hands over their mouths,
and their ears will become deaf.
17 They will lick the dust like a snake,
like reptiles slithering on the ground.
They will come trembling from their strongholds
in the presence of Yahweh our God;
they will tremble in fear of You.

18 Who is a God like You,
who pardons iniquity and passes over the transgression of the remnant of His inheritance—who does not retain His anger forever,
because He delights in loving devotion?
19 He will again have compassion on us;
He will vanquish our iniquities.
You will cast out all our sins
into the depths of the sea.
20 You will show faithfulness to Jacob and loving devotion to Abraham, as You swore to our fathers
from the days of old.

AUTHOR	Nahum the Elkoshite, 1:1. His name means comfort. Nothing else is known about him.

Historical Setting

For more than a century Assyria had ruled the Near East by terror. It wiped out Israel, squeezed Judah for tribute and sacked cities as far away as Thebes in Egypt. Jonah's Nineveh had turned to God, but that was long ago. Now Nahum announces that the bully's time is up.

What Went Wrong

CRUELTY. Nineveh is the city of blood, full of lies and plunder, 3:1, and everyone has felt its constant cruelty, 3:19.
PLOTTING AGAINST GOD. A counselor of wickedness plotted evil against Yahweh, 1:11.
IDOLS. God will cut off the carved image and cast idol from the house of its gods, 1:14.
SORCERY. Nineveh is called the mistress of sorcery who betrays nations by her prostitution and clans by her witchcraft, 3:4.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Nahum is the sequel to Jonah. More than a century after Nineveh repented, it was back to its old ways, and worse. Nahum announces that God, who is slow to anger, will not leave the guilty unpunished. He describes Nineveh's fall like a war correspondent, and history agrees: in 612 BC the Babylonians and Medes destroyed it. For Judah it was the best news in a hundred years: the bully is gone.

Nahum at a Glance

CH 1:1 to 15 THE JUDGE
God is slow to anger but will judge, and good news for Judah.

CH 2:1 to 13 THE ATTACK

CH 3:1 to 19 THE WOE
The city of blood falls like Thebes, and the world claps.

NAHUM 1:4 He rebukes the sea. Jesus rebuked the wind and the sea, and it was perfectly calm, Mark 4:39.

NAHUM 1:7 A stronghold in the day of distress. Jesus' words are the rock to build on when the storm hits, Matthew 7:24 to 25.

NAHUM
His name means comfort. The same root is in Nehemiah, Yahweh comforts.

BOTH END WITH A QUESTION
Jonah ends with God asking a question, and so does Nahum: who has not felt your constant cruelty? 3:19.

How Does It End?

Just as Nahum said. In 612 BC the Babylonians and Medes broke into Nineveh and burned it, and the last Assyrian king disappears from history a few years later. Nineveh was never a great city again. About two hundred years later a Greek soldier marched past its ruins and did not even record its name.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Nahum opens with a storm of a poem: God is slow to anger, but He will not let the guilty walk. He is a safe place for those who trust Him and a flood for those who fight Him. Then the good news: Judah's chains are coming off, and Nineveh's name is going in the grave.

1 This is the burden against Nineveh, the book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite:

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHERE WAS ELKOSH?

NAHUM 1:1

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Only that Nahum was the Elkoshite, 1:1. Elkosh is never named anywhere else in the Bible, and no one knows for sure where it was.

Every View

MATTHEW 4:13 · JOHN 7:52

VIEW 1: ALQOSH IN IRAQ

A town called Alqosh, north of Mosul, has a tomb said to be Nahum's. Jews kept it as a holy place for centuries, until they left Iraq around 1950. It was restored in recent years. The tradition is first known from about the 1500s.

VIEW 2: A VILLAGE IN GALILEE

Jerome, about AD 400, said Elkosh was a small village in Galilee, still known in his day.

VIEW 3: CAPERNAUM

Capernaum means village of Nahum in Hebrew. Some think it was named for the prophet, though Nahum was a common name.

VIEW 4: SOUTHERN JUDAH

An old book called the Lives of the Prophets places Elkosh in southern Judah, near Beth Guvrin, in the land of Simeon.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

We know Nahum's message far better than his address.

2 Yahweh is a jealous and avenging God;
Yahweh is avenging and full of wrath.
Yahweh takes vengeance on His foes
and reserves wrath for His enemies.
3 Yahweh is slow to anger and great in power; Yahweh will by no means
leave the guilty unpunished.
His path is in the whirlwind and storm, and clouds are the dust beneath His feet.
4 He rebukes the sea and dries it up;
He makes all the rivers run dry.
Bashan and Carmel wither,
and the flower of Lebanon wilts.
5 The mountains quake before Him,
and the hills melt away;
the earth trembles at His presence—
the world and all its dwellers.
6 Who can withstand His indignation?
Who can endure His burning anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire;
even rocks are shattered before Him.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHY JUDGE NINEVEH AFTER JONAH?

The Same City Twice

NAHUM 1:3 · JONAH 3:10 · 4:2

THE PUZZLE

In Jonah, Nineveh repents and God spares it, Jonah 3:10. In Nahum, more than a century later, God says He will destroy it. Did God change His mind?

- NAH 1:1 [NOTE] NAHUM. His name means comfort. His message was terrible news for Nineveh and comfort for Judah. See Where Was Elkosh?
- NAH 1:1 [NOTE] NINEVEH. The same city Jonah preached to more than a century earlier. See The Walls of Nineveh, Jonah, p.1424, and Why Judge Nineveh After Jonah?
- NAH 1:2 [TEXT] AN ALPHABET POEM. In Hebrew, 1:2 to 8 is a broken acrostic: the lines start with the letters of the alphabet from aleph to kaph, with some letters missing or out of order.
- NAH 1:2 [NOTE] A HYMN, NOT A QUOTE. 1:2 to 11 is Nahum praising God, not God speaking, so it prints black. See Is God Vengeful?
- NAH 1:3 [NOTABLE] Jonah quoted the mercy half of Exodus 34:6 to 7; Nahum quotes the justice half. God is patient, but His patience has an end.
- NAH 1:3 [NOTE] SLOW TO ANGER, BUT. Jonah quoted the mercy in God's words to Moses, Exodus 34:6, Jonah 4:2. Nahum repeats slow to anger, then goes on to the justice: He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, Exodus 34:7.
- NAH 1:4 [NOTE] HE REBUKES THE SEA. Jesus rebuked the wind and the sea, and it was perfectly calm, Mark 4:39.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN HISTORY NOTABLE

THE TWO HALVES
Exodus 34:6 to 7 says Yahweh is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, but He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. Jonah stopped at the mercy, Jonah 4:2. Nahum repeats slow to anger and goes on to the justice, 1:3.

Every View
EXODUS 34:6 TO 7 · JEREMIAH 18:7 TO 10 · 2 KINGS 17:5 TO 6

VIEW 1: THE REPENTANCE DID NOT LAST
Most say Nineveh turned back to evil. After Jonah, Assyria destroyed Israel in 722 BC, 2 Kings 17:5 to 6, attacked Judah, and boasted of its cruelty. God spared one generation, not every generation after it.

VIEW 2: GOD'S RULE
God told Jeremiah that if a nation turns from evil He will relent, and if it turns to evil He will change His plans for good, Jeremiah 18:7 to 10. Nineveh went both ways.

VIEW 3: A PAIR OF BOOKS
Many read Jonah and Nahum together on purpose. Jonah shows God's patience with enemies, Nahum shows that His patience has an end.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
God did not change. Nineveh did, twice.

7 Yahweh is good,
a stronghold in the day of distress;
He cares for those who trust in Him.
8 But with an overwhelming flood
He will make an end of Nineveh and pursue His enemies into darkness.

NAH 1:7 [NOTABLE] In the middle of a poem about God's anger is one of the Bible's most comforting promises. The same God is a flood to His enemies and a fortress to those who trust Him.
NAH 1:7 [NOTE] A STRONGHOLD. The same God who is a flood to His enemies is a fortress for those who trust Him.
NAH 1:8 [PROPHECY] With an overflowing flood He will make an utter end of Nineveh → HISTORY: The Babylonians and Medes took Nineveh in 612 BC. A Greek writer says a flooded river broke down part of the city wall. Recorded in the Babylonian Chronicle and by Diodorus 2.27. · MEDIUM

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

IS GOD VENGEFUL?

A Jealous and Avenging God
NAHUM 1:2 TO 8

WHAT IT SAYS
Yahweh is a jealous and avenging God, full of wrath, 1:2. To many readers today that sounds like a bad temper, not a good God.

THE QUESTION
What does it mean that God is jealous and takes vengeance, and how does that fit with God is love?

Every View
EXODUS 20:5 · DEUTERONOMY 32:35 · ROMANS 12:19 · REVELATION 6:10

JEALOUS
In the Bible God's jealousy is like a faithful husband's: He will not share His people with idols, Exodus 20:5. It is love that refuses to let go.

VENGEANCE
Vengeance means justice for victims. Nineveh had crushed nation after nation, 3:19. If God did nothing, He would not be good. Because vengeance belongs to God, His people do not have to take it themselves, Deuteronomy 32:35 and Romans 12:19.

AN OLD OBJECTION
About AD 140 a teacher named Marcion said the angry God of the Old Testament was a different god from the Father of Jesus. The church rejected his teaching. Jesus Himself warned of judgment, and in Revelation the martyrs cry out to God for justice, Revelation 6:10.

VIEW: STILL HARD
Many Christians admit these words are hard to read. They answer that God's anger is aimed at evil, and that 1:3 and 1:7 stand right beside 1:2: slow to anger, and good to those who trust Him.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
Nahum's God is slow to anger and good, 1:3 and 1:7, but He is not soft on evil.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Nahum gives a play by play of Nineveh's fall like a war reporter. Red shields, flashing chariots, the river gates burst open and the palace melts. The proud city of lions, which fed on the whole world, is now an empty den. And God says, I am against you.

THE OVERTHROW OF NINEVEH

1 One who scatters advances against you, O Nineveh.
Guard the fortress!
Watch the road!
Brace yourselves!
Summon all your strength!

2 For Yahweh will restore the splendor of Jacob
like the splendor of Israel, though destroyers have laid them waste and ruined the branches of their vine.

3 The shields of his mighty men are red;
the valiant warriors are dressed in scarlet.
The fittings of the chariots flash like fire on the day they are prepared,
and the spears of cypress
have been brandished.
4 The chariots dash through the streets;
they rush around the plazas,
appearing like torches,
darting about like lightning.
5 He summons his nobles;
they stumble as they advance.
They race to its wall;
the protective shield is set in place.
6 The river gates are thrown open and the palace collapses.

7 It is decreed that the city be exiled and carried away;
her maidservants moan like doves,
and beat upon their hearts.

8 Nineveh has been like a pool of water
throughout her days,
but now it is draining away.
"Stop! Stop!" they cry,
but no one turns back.

THE BIG QUESTION

HOW DID NINEVEH FALL?

What Nahum Said

NAHUM 1:8 · 2:6 · 3:13 · 3:15

WHAT NAHUM SAID

God would make an end of Nineveh with an overwhelming flood, 1:8. The river gates would open and the palace collapse, 2:6. The gates would be wide open and fire would consume their bars, 3:13. Fire would devour the city, 3:15.

How It Came True

DIODORUS 2.26 TO 27 · XENOPHON, ANABASIS 3.4

FIRST: IT FELL

In 612 BC the Babylonians and Medes took Nineveh after a siege of about three months, plundered it and left it a heap of ruins. See The Fall of Nineveh Chronicle.

FIRE

Archaeologists found thick burn layers in Nineveh's palaces. At the Halzi Gate a team digging in 1989 and 1990 found the gate hastily narrowed, and the bones of people who died there in the attack.

FLOOD: THE GREEK STORY

Diodorus, a Greek writer of the first century BC, said a river flood broke down part of the wall in the third year of the siege. His story comes from an older writer and gets things wrong, like calling the river the Euphrates, so many scholars doubt it.

FLOOD: OTHER READINGS

Some think the attackers dammed and released the Khosr River, which ran through the city and its gates. Others read the flood of 1:8 as a picture of an army pouring in like water.

NEVER AGAIN

About 401 BC the Greek soldier Xenophon marched past the ruins and did not even record Nineveh's name.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The city that seemed too big to fall was gone within a few years of Nahum's words, and it was never a great city again.

9 "Plunder the silver!
Plunder the gold!"
There is no end to the treasure,
an abundance of every precious thing.
10 She is emptied!
Yes, she is desolate and laid waste!
Hearts melt, knees knock,
bodies tremble, and every face grows pale!

11 Where is the lions' lair or the feeding ground of the young lions,
where the lion and lioness prowled with their cubs,
with nothing to frighten them away?
12 The lion mauled enough for its cubs and strangled prey for the lioness.
It filled its dens with the kill,
and its lairs with mauled prey.

13 "Behold, I am against you,"
declares Yahweh of Hosts.
"I will reduce your chariots to cinders,
and the sword will devour your young lions.
I will cut off your prey from the earth,
and the voices of your messengers will no longer be heard."

ASHURBANIPAL'S LION HUNT

NAHUM 2:11 TO 13

Dying lions from King Ashurbanipal's lion hunt, North Palace, Nineveh, about 645 to 635 BC. British Museum. Photo Zunkir, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

Carved stone panels from the palace of Ashurbanipal, the last great king of Assyria, showing him hunting and killing lions.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 645 to 635 BC, just a few decades before Nineveh fell, around Nahum's day.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In the North Palace at Nineveh, dug up by Hormuzd Rassam in the 1850s. They are in the British Museum.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Assyria's kings proudly showed themselves as lion killers and strong as lions. Nahum turns the picture around: where is the lions' den now? The Lion is dead, and God says, I am against you, 2:11 to 13.

3

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Woe to the city of blood. Nineveh is told to remember Thebes, the great Egyptian city it had crushed. Its soldiers will fold, its merchants will fly away like locusts, and when the news of its fall spreads, the whole world claps. Jonah ended with a question, and so does Nahum.

JUDGMENT ON NINEVEH

1 Woe to the city of blood,
full of lies,
full of plunder,
never without prey.
2 The crack of the whip,
the rumble of the wheel,
galloping horse
and bounding chariot!
3 Charging horseman,
flashing sword,
shining spear;
heaps of slain,
mounds of corpses,
dead bodies without end—
they stumble over their dead—4 because of the many harlotries of the harlot, the seductive mistress of sorcery,
who betrays nations by her prostitution and clans by her witchcraft.

5 "Behold, I am against you,"
declares Yahweh of Hosts.
"I will lift your skirts over your face.

THE NAHUM COMMENTARY

NAHUM 2:11 TO 13 · 3:1 TO 5 · DANIEL 11

The biggest surviving piece of 4Q169, the Nahum Commentary, shown in two rows. Photo Shai Halevi, Israel Antiquities Authority, Leon Levy Dead Sea Scrolls Digital Library.

WHAT IT IS

A scroll from Qumran Cave 4, called 4Q169 or Pesher Nahum. Pesher means interpretation. It quotes a few words of Nahum, then says what they mean, line after line.

HOW OLD IT IS

It was copied in the last decades before Jesus. The events it talks about happened about 90 BC.

REAL NAMES

Almost no Dead Sea Scroll names real people, but this one does. It names Demetrius king of Greece, who tried to enter Jerusalem, and speaks of the kings of Greece from Antiochus until the rulers of the Kittim, most likely the Romans.

THE LION OF WRATH

On Nahum 2:12, about the lion that tears its prey, it tells of a Lion of Wrath who hanged men alive. Most scholars think this is the Jewish king Alexander Jannaeus. The historian Josephus says that after Demetrius III invaded about 88 BC, Jannaeus crucified 800 of his Jewish enemies.

THE SEEKERS OF SMOOTH THINGS

The scroll blames a group it calls the seekers of smooth things, people who looked for easy answers. Most think it means the Pharisees.

WHY IT MATTERS

It shows how some Jews before Jesus read the prophets: as messages about their own day. If hanging men alive means crucifixion, as most think, it also shows a Jewish king used it, long before Rome crucified Jesus.

HOW IT WAS FOUND

Bedouin and archaeologists found thousands of scroll pieces in Cave 4 in 1952. John Allegro first published part of this scroll in 1956.

NAHUM'S OWN WORDS

Because it quotes Nahum before each comment, it is also one of the oldest witnesses to Nahum's text.

WHO WROTE IT

The people of Qumran, a strict Jewish group. Most scholars think they were Essenes.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Antiquities Authority keeps it in Jerusalem.

THEBES

NAHUM 3:8 TO 10 · JEREMIAH 46:25 · EZEKIEL 30:14 TO 16

The great hall of columns in the temple of Amun at Karnak, ancient Thebes, built about 1290 to 1220 BC. Photo Vyacheslav Argenberg, CC BY 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

Thebes, No Amon in Hebrew, was the great city of southern Egypt, on the Nile at today's Luxor. Its temples of Karnak and Luxor are some of the biggest ruins on earth.

WHAT HAPPENED

About 663 BC the Assyrian king Ashurbanipal marched up the Nile, drove out the Cushite pharaoh Tantamani and plundered Thebes. His own records boast of the silver, gold and two great obelisks he carried off.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Nahum's point: if mighty Thebes, with the Nile around her and Cush and Egypt behind her, could fall to Assyria, Assyria can fall too.

I will show your nakedness to the nations and your shame to the kingdoms.
6 I will pelt you with filth
and treat you with contempt;
I will make a spectacle of you.
7 Then all who see you will recoil from you and say,
'Nineveh is devastated;
who will grieve for her?'
Where can I find comforters for you?"

8 Are you better than Thebes, stationed by the Nile with water around her,
whose rampart was the sea,
whose wall was the water?

9 Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength;
Put and Libya were her allies.
10 Yet she became an exile;
she went into captivity.
Her infants were dashed to pieces
at the head of every street.
They cast lots for her dignitaries,
and all her nobles were bound in chains.
11 You too will become drunk;
you will go into hiding
and seek refuge from the enemy.

12 All your fortresses are fig trees with the first ripe figs;
when shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater!

13 Look at your troops—
they are like your women!

THE FALL OF NINEVEH CHRONICLE

NAHUM 2:9 · 3:7 · 3:13 · 3:19

The Fall of Nineveh Chronicle, a Babylonian clay tablet, British Museum, BM 21901. Photo Zunkir, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT DOES NOT SAY

The tablet does not mention a flood or the river gates of 2:6. See How Did Nineveh Fall?

THE NEXT CHAPTER

Assyria's end moved the Bible story along. In 609 BC Pharaoh Neco marched north to help the last Assyrian king, and King Josiah of Judah died trying to stop him, 2 Kings 23:29.

SEE ALSO

The Babylonian Chronicle, 2 Kings, p.659, a tablet from the same series about Jerusalem in 597 BC.

WHAT IT IS

A clay tablet from Babylon's own yearly records. It tells the war that ended the Assyrian Empire, from 616 to 609 BC.

HOW OLD IT IS

It is a later Babylonian copy of records kept when it happened.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The British Museum bought it in 1896. C. J. Gadd published it in 1923 in a book called The Fall of Nineveh.

WHAT IT SAYS

In 612 BC Nabopolassar king of Babylon and the king of the Medes joined forces and besieged Nineveh for about three months. They took the city, carried off great spoil from the city and the temple, and turned it into a heap of ruins.

HOW THE WAR WENT

The tablet tells year by year how the enemies closed in. In 614 BC the Medes took Ashur, Assyria's old holy city, and there the kings of Babylon and the Medes made a pact. Two years later they turned on Nineveh.

THE END OF ASSYRIA

The Assyrian king Sin shar ishkun apparently died when the city fell, though the tablet is broken there. A new king, Ashur uballit II, fled west to Harran. He lost Harran in 610 BC and failed to win it back in 609 BC, and Assyria is never heard of again.

IN NAHUM

Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold! 2:9. Nineveh is devastated, 3:7. There is no healing for your injury, 3:19.

THE MEDES

The Medes came from the mountains of today's Iran. The tablet calls their king Umakishtar, the man Greek writers called Cyaxares. Nahum's attackers with red shields, 2:3, were these two armies.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Nahum's enemy really fell, the way he said, at the hands of Babylon, the next great power.

Historical Setting

Judah had a good king, Josiah, and then bad ones. Violence and injustice filled the land. Out east, Babylon had crushed Assyria and was beating Egypt, and it was coming next. Habakkuk does not preach to the people like other prophets. He takes his questions straight to God.

What Was Going Wrong

VIOLENCE. Destruction and violence are before me, 1:3.
BROKEN JUSTICE. The law is paralyzed, and justice never goes forth, 1:4.
PRIDE. Babylon's own strength is its god, 1:11, and it even sacrifices to its fishing net, 1:16.
IDOLS. Woe to him who says to wood, Awake! 2:19.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Habakkuk is the book for anyone who has asked God, Why? Habakkuk sees evil winning and asks God how long. God's answer shocks him: Babylon is coming. So he argues again, and God answers that the proud will fall but the righteous will live by faith. The book starts with a complaint and ends with a song.

Habakkuk at a Glance

CH 1:1 to 17 THE COMPLAINTS
Why is evil winning? God's answer, and an even harder question.

CH 2:1 to 20 THE ANSWER
Write the vision, the righteous will live by faith, and five woes.

CH 3:1 to 19 THE SONG
Habakkuk remembers God's power and chooses joy.

Where Jesus Shows Up

HABAKKUK 2:4 The righteous will live by faith. Paul builds the gospel on this line, Romans 1:17 and Galatians 3:11.

HABAKKUK 2:3 TO 4 The vision will surely come. Hebrews 10:37 to 38 quotes these verses from the old Greek as He who is coming will come, and reads them about Jesus' return.

HABAKKUK 1:5 Paul quoted this verse to warn his listeners when he preached Jesus, Acts 13:41.

HABAKKUK
Maybe from a Hebrew word for embrace, or from the name of a garden plant in Babylonian.

CHALDEANS
Tribes of southern Babylonia. The name came to be used for Babylon's kings, Nabopolassar and Nebuchadnezzar, and their people.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

LUTHER'S VERSE
The righteous will live by faith changed Martin Luther's life and helped light the fuse of the Reformation. See The Righteous Will Live by Faith.

A PROPHET WHO ARGUES
Most prophets speak for God to the people. Habakkuk speaks to God for the people, and God answers him.

A SONG WITH MUSIC NOTES
Chapter 3 is a psalm with Selah and a note for the choirmaster, like the book of Psalms.

THE OLDEST COMMENTARY ON HABAKKUK
One of the first seven Dead Sea Scrolls explains Habakkuk line by line. See The Habakkuk Commentary.

How Did It Turn Out?

Babylon came, just as God said. It took Jerusalem in 597 BC and burned it in 586 BC. But Babylon fell too, in 539 BC, to the Medes and Persians, as the woes said it would. And Habakkuk's line, the righteous will live by faith, outlived them all.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW GOD SPEAKING

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Habakkuk does something brave: he complains to God out loud. Why is evil winning in Judah? God answers that He is sending Babylon to deal with it. Habakkuk is even more confused. Babylon is worse! So he files a second complaint.

HABAKKUK'S FIRST COMPLAINT

1 This is the burden that Habakkuk the prophet received in a vision:

2 How long, O Yahweh, must I call for help but You do not hear,
or cry out to You, "Violence!"
but You do not save?
3 Why do You make me see iniquity?
Why do You tolerate wrongdoing?
Destruction and violence are before me.
Strife is ongoing, and conflict abounds.
4 Therefore the law is paralyzed,
and justice never goes forth.
For the wicked hem in the righteous,
so that justice is perverted.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHY DOES GOD ALLOW EVIL?

Habakkuk's Two Complaints

HABAKKUK 1:2 TO 17 · 2:3 TO 4

THE FIRST COMPLAINT

How long, O Yahweh, must I call for help but You do not hear? 1:2. Habakkuk sees violence and broken justice in Judah, and God seems to do nothing.

GOD'S ANSWER

I am doing a work in your days that you would never believe, 1:5. God is not asleep. He is raising up Babylon to judge Judah.

THE SECOND COMPLAINT

Your eyes are too pure to look upon evil. Why are You silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than themselves? 1:13. Babylon is worse than Judah. How can that be fair?

Every View

HABAKKUK 3:17 TO 18 · JOB 38:1 TO 4 · ROMANS 8:28 · REVELATION 21:4

VIEW 1: GOD IS ALREADY WORKING

God's first answer is that He is not silent at all. He is at work in ways people cannot see yet, 1:5. The vision awaits an appointed time, 2:3.

VIEW 2: PEOPLE CHOOSE EVIL

Many say God gave people real choices, and evil comes from what they choose. Babylon chose to make its own strength its god, 1:11, and God holds it guilty.

VIEW 3: JUSTICE IS COMING

The five woes say evil will not win in the end, 2:6 to 19. God's timing is slower than ours, but it will surely come, 2:3. Revelation ends with every tear wiped away, Revelation 21:4.

VIEW 4: TRUST WITHOUT ALL THE ANSWERS

Habakkuk never gets a full explanation, just like Job, Job 38 to 41. He gets God instead, and he chooses to trust: the righteous will live by faith, 2:4, and I will exult in Yahweh, 3:18.

THE HARD QUESTION

Thinkers have asked it for thousands of years: if God is good and all powerful, why does evil happen? Many people who leave the faith name this question. The Bible does not hide from it. Habakkuk asked it out loud.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

It is not wrong to ask God why. See also Why Do Good People Suffer?, Job, p.878, and Can You Argue With God?, Jeremiah, p.1166.

YAHWEH'S ANSWER

5 "Look at the nations and observe—

Most date the book to about 609 to 597 BC, in the days of King Jehoiakim, when Judah was full of violence, Jeremiah 22:13 to 17, and Babylon beat Egypt at Carchemish in 605 BC.

VIEW 2: JUST BEFORE BABYLON ROSE

Some think it was a little earlier, before 605 BC, because God says nobody would believe it, 1:5. Babylon's rise would still be a surprise.

VIEW 3: UNDER MANASSEH

An old Jewish chronicle, Seder Olam, places Habakkuk in the days of King Manasseh, several decades earlier.

VIEW 4: A MUCH LATER DATE

A few scholars more than a century ago thought the Chaldeans stood for Alexander the Great's Greeks. Almost no one holds that today.

A LEGEND

A story added to Daniel in the Greek Bible says an angel carried Habakkuk by his hair to Babylon to feed Daniel in the lions' den, Bel and the Dragon 33 to 39. Most see it as a legend. In the oldest Greek version, its heading calls Habakkuk a Levite, which may fit the music notes of 3:19.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Babylon was rising and Judah's judgment was near.

HABAKKUK'S SECOND COMPLAINT // PSALM 11:1–7

12 Are You not from everlasting,
O Yahweh, my God, my Holy One?
We will not die.
O Yahweh, You have appointed them
to execute judgment;
O Rock, You have established them
for correction.
13 Your eyes are too pure to look upon evil,
and You cannot tolerate wrongdoing.
So why do You tolerate the faithless?
Why are You silent
while the wicked swallow up

those more righteous than themselves?
14 You have made men like the fish of the sea,
like creeping things that have no ruler.
15 The foe pulls all of them up with a hook;
he catches them in his dragnet,
and gathers them in his fishing net;
so he rejoices gladly.
16 Therefore he sacrifices to his dragnet and burns incense to his fishing net, for by these things his portion is sumptuous and his food is rich.
17 Will he, therefore, empty his net
and continue to slay nations without mercy?

THE BIG QUESTION

WHY USE BABYLON?

A Worse Nation as God's Tool

HABAKKUK 1:6 · 1:12 TO 13 · 2:8

THE PUZZLE

God says He is raising up the Chaldeans, 1:6. Habakkuk answers: O Rock, You have established them for correction, 1:12. But why use a nation more wicked than the one being punished, 1:13?

WHO THEY WERE

The Chaldeans were tribes of southern Babylonia. Nabopolassar became king of Babylon in 626 BC and broke free of Assyria, and his son Nebuchadnezzar beat Egypt at Carchemish in 605 BC.

What the Bible Says

ISAIAH 10:5 TO 12 · JEREMIAH 25:9 TO 12 · ISAIAH 45:1 · DANIEL 5:30 TO 31

GOD USES NATIONS

The Bible says this more than once. Assyria was the rod of My anger, Isaiah 10:5. God calls Nebuchadnezzar My servant, Jeremiah 25:9, and the Persian Cyrus His anointed, Isaiah 45:1.

USED, NOT APPROVED

Using Babylon did not mean God liked its cruelty. They are guilty, 1:11. The tool is still judged: because you have plundered many nations, the remnant of the people will plunder you, 2:8, and Isaiah 10:12.

A TIME LIMIT

Jeremiah said Babylon would rule for seventy years, then be punished itself, Jeremiah 25:11 to 12. It fell to the Medes and Persians in 539 BC. See The Night Babylon Fell, Daniel, p.1338.

WHAT IT TEACHES

God rules over the nations even when it does not look like it. He can use even evil people for His plan without being guilty of their evil.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Babylon did not get the last word. God did.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Habakkuk climbs the watchtower and waits. God tells him to write the answer big enough to read on the run: the proud will fall, but the righteous will live by faith. Then come five woes on the bully, and a call for the whole earth to be silent before God.

YAHWEH ANSWERS AGAIN

1 I will stand at my guard post and station myself on the ramparts.
I will watch to see what He will say to me,
and how I should answer when corrected.

2 Then Yahweh answered me:

"Write down this vision
and clearly inscribe it on tablets,
so that a herald may run with it.
3 For the vision awaits an appointed time;
it testifies of the end and does not lie.
Though it lingers, wait for it,
since it will surely come and will not delay.

WRITING TABLETS

HABAKKUK 2:2 · ISAIAH 30:8 · LUKE 1:63

Two ivory writing boards from Nimrud, Assyria, about 721 to 705 BC. The scratches held the wax. Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. Public domain, CC0.

WHAT IT IS

Two hinged ivory boards. The sunken panels were filled with wax, and a scribe wrote in the wax with a pointed stick. Scratch it smooth, and the board could be used again.

HOW OLD IT IS

From the reign of the Assyrian king Sargon II, about 721 to 705 BC, about a century before Habakkuk.

WHERE FOUND

At Nimrud, an old capital of Assyria in today's Iraq.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Habakkuk's tablets could have been clay, stone or boards like these. God wanted the message written down plain, so it would last until it came true, 2:3. Zechariah wrote John's name on a tablet, probably one like this, Luke 1:63.

4 Look at the proud one; his soul is not upright—
but the righteous will live by faith—
5 and wealth indeed betrays him.
He is an arrogant man never at rest.
He enlarges his appetite like Sheol,
and like Death, he is never satisfied.
He gathers all the nations to himself and collects all the peoples as his own.

THE RIGHTEOUS WILL LIVE BY FAITH

Habakkuk 2:4 in the New Testament

HABAKKUK 2:4 · ROMANS 1:17 · GALATIANS 3:11 · HEBREWS 10:37 TO 38

WHAT HABAKKUK HEARD

Look at the proud one; his soul is not upright, but the righteous will live by faith, 2:4. The proud trust themselves and fall. The righteous trust God and live.

PAUL

Paul quotes it twice. In Romans 1:17 the gospel shows God's way of making people right, by faith from start to finish. In Galatians 3:11 no one is made right with God by the law, because the righteous will live by faith.

HEBREWS

Hebrews 10:37 to 38 quotes 2:3 to 4 about Jesus' return: He who is coming will come and will not delay. My righteous one will live by faith.

LUTHER'S TOWER

Martin Luther, a monk and Bible teacher, was terrified of God's righteousness. Studying Romans 1:17, he saw it as a gift God gives to those who trust Him. He later said he felt born again and that the gates of paradise opened. This became the Reformation's cry, faith alone. See Luther's Breakthrough, Romans, p.1800.

Faith or Faithfulness?
GENESIS 15:6 · JAMES 2:17 TO 24

FAITH OR FAITHFULNESS?
The Hebrew word, emunah, means steady trust or faithfulness. Paul's Greek word, pistis, can mean faith or faithfulness too.

VIEW 1: TRUST
Paul and most Christians read it as trusting God, the kind of faith that then shows itself in a faithful life.

VIEW 2: FAITHFULNESS
Many Jewish readers and some scholars read it as staying loyal to God through hard times. The Habakkuk Commentary read it as loyalty to the law and to its Teacher.

VIEW 3: WHOSE FAITH?
The Hebrew says by his faith. The old Greek translation says by My faithfulness, meaning God's. Hebrews says My righteous one will live by faith.

ONE COMMAND
A famous saying in the Talmud says Moses gave 613 commands, and Habakkuk summed them all up in one: the righteous will live by his faith.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
The righteous lean on God, not on themselves. See also Faith and Works, James, p.2004.

WOE TO THE CHALDEANS

6 Will not all of these take up a taunt
against him,
speaking with mockery and derision:
'Woe to him who amasses what is not his
and makes himself rich with many loans!
How long will this go on?'
7 Will not your creditors suddenly arise and those who disturb you awaken?
Then you will become their prey.
8 Because you have plundered many nations,
the remnant of the people will plunder
you—
because of your bloodshed against man and your violence against the land, the city,
and all their dwellers.
9 Woe to him who builds his house
by unjust gain,
to place his nest on high
and escape the hand of disaster!
10 You have plotted shame for your house by cutting off many peoples and forfeiting your life.
11 For the stones will cry out from the wall, and the rafters will echo it from the woodwork.
12 Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed and establishes a town by iniquity!
13 Is it not indeed from Yahweh of Hosts that the labor of the people only feeds
the fire,
and the nations weary themselves in vain?
14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Yahweh
as the waters cover the sea.
15 Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbors, pouring it from the wineskin until they are drunk,
in order to gaze at their nakedness!
16 You will be filled with shame instead of glory.
You too must drink
and expose your uncircumcision!
The cup in Yahweh's right hand
will come around to you,

THE HABAKKUK COMMENTARY

HABAKKUK 1:1 TO 2:20 · 1:16 · 2:4 · 2:15

Part of the Habakkuk Commentary, 1QpHab, the real scroll. Israel Museum, Jerusalem. Public domain.

WHAT IT IS

A scroll from Qumran Cave 1 called 1QpHab, or Pesher Habakkuk. Pesher means interpretation. It quotes a few words of Habakkuk, then says what they mean, line after line, through chapters 1 and 2.

HOW OLD IT IS

It was copied in the last decades before Jesus. Most date the handwriting to the second half of the first century BC.

HOW IT WAS FOUND

Bedouin shepherds found it in 1947 with the Great Isaiah Scroll and the Community Rule. It is one of the first seven Dead Sea Scrolls. In 1954 Yigael Yadin bought it for Israel, after the scrolls were offered for sale in an ad in the Wall Street Journal.

THE TEACHER AND THE WICKED PRIEST

The scroll reads Habakkuk as a message about its own group. The righteous man is the Teacher of Righteousness, their leader. The wicked man is the Wicked Priest, most likely a high priest in Jerusalem. Scholars still argue about who these men were.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

On 2:15 it says the Wicked Priest chased the Teacher to his place of exile and showed up on the Day of Atonement to make them stumble.

THE KITTIM

Habakkuk's Chaldeans become the Kittim, swift and fearsome, who sacrifice to their standards, 1:16. Most think it means the Romans, whose soldiers honored their army standards.

THE RIGHTEOUS WILL LIVE

The righteous will live by faith means those who keep the law, whom God will save because of their suffering and their loyalty to the Teacher of Righteousness. Paul read the same verse very differently.

GOD'S NAME IN OLD LETTERS

The scroll is written in the square Hebrew letters used today, but every time it quotes God's name, YHWH, it switches to the old Hebrew letters, out of respect.

WHERE IS CHAPTER 3?

The scroll stops after 2:20 and leaves most of the last column blank. Some think chapter 3 was not part of Habakkuk yet. Most say the writer simply stopped, because chapter 3 is in the Murabbaat scroll and the Greek scroll.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Museum in Jerusalem. It is shown in the Shrine of the Book only a few months at a time. The rest of the time it rests in the dark to keep it safe.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Habakkuk ends with a song. He remembers God marching out to save His people long ago, and he shakes just thinking about it. Then he makes one of the boldest promises in the Bible: even if the crops fail and the barns are empty, I will still rejoice in God.

HABAKKUK'S PRAYER

1 This is a prayer of Habakkuk the prophet,
according to Shigionoth:

2 O Yahweh, I have heard the report of
You;
I stand in awe, O Yahweh, of Your deeds.
Revive them in these years;
make them known in these years.
In Your wrath, remember mercy!

3 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran.
Selah
His glory covered the heavens, and His praise filled the earth.
4 His radiance was like the sunlight;
rays flashed from His hand,
where His power is hidden.
5 Plague went before Him,
and fever followed in His steps.
6 He stood and measured the earth;
He looked and startled the nations;
the ancient mountains crumbled;
the perpetual hills collapsed.
His ways are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in distress;
the curtains of Midian were trembling.
8 Were You angry at the rivers, O Yahweh?
Was Your wrath against the streams?
Did You rage against the sea
when You rode on Your horses,
on Your chariots of salvation?
9 You brandished Your bow;
You called for many arrows.
Selah
You split the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw You and quaked;
torrents of water swept by.
The deep roared with its voice and lifted its hands on high.
11 Sun and moon stood still in their places
at the flash of Your flying arrows,
at the brightness of Your shining spear.
12 You marched across the earth with fury;
You threshed the nations in wrath.
13 You went forth for the salvation of Your people,
to save Your anointed.
You crushed the head of the house of the wicked
and stripped him from head to toe.

ZEPHANIAH

Judgment Day, Then a Love Song

AUTHOR	Zephaniah son of Cushi, 1:1, maybe a great great grandson of King Hezekiah.
DATE	In the days of King Josiah, 640 to 609 BC, most likely before his reform of 622 BC. See When Was Zephaniah Written?
WRITTEN TO	Judah and Jerusalem, with messages about the nations around them.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Parts are in the Hebrew scroll of the Twelve from Wadi Murabbaat, the Greek scroll of the Twelve from Nahal Hever, and scrolls of the Twelve from Qumran Cave 4.
KEY VERSE	Zephaniah 3:17. He will rejoice over you with singing.

A piece of 4QXII b, a scroll of the Twelve Prophets from Qumran Cave 4, copied about 150 to 125 BC. The top lines are the last words of Zephaniah, 3:20: at that time I will gather you... before your very eyes. Below them, Haggai begins: in the second year of the reign of Darius. Another piece of the same scroll has 2:13 to 15. See The Murabbaat Scroll, Joel, p.1381.

Historical Setting

King Manasseh reigned 55 years and filled Judah with idols. His grandson Josiah became king at eight years old. People bowed to Baal, the stars and Milcom, and still swore by Yahweh. Assyria was getting weak, and Babylon was not yet in sight. Into that, Zephaniah announced the Day of Yahweh.

What Was Going Wrong

MIXED WORSHIP. Those who bow down and swear by Yahweh but also swear by Milcom, 1:5.
COMPLACENCY. Yahweh will do nothing, either good or bad, 1:12.
PRIDE. Nineveh said I am it, and there is none besides me, 2:15.
CORRUPT LEADERS. Her princes are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves, 3:3.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Zephaniah is a short book with a big swing. It starts with the darkest picture of the Day of Yahweh in the Bible: a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress. God will judge Judah and every nation around it. But it ends in a song. God will gather a humble people, take away their punishment and live among them, and He will rejoice over them with singing.

Zephaniah at a Glance

CH 1:1 to 18 THE DAY IS NEAR
God will sweep away the idols, and the day is near.

CH 2:1 to 15 THE NATIONS
Seek Yahweh, then judgment on the neighbors and Nineveh.

CH 3:1 to 20 JERUSALEM AND THE REMNANT
Judgment comes home, then God sings over His people.

Where Jesus Shows Up

ZEPHANIAH 3:15 Israel's King, Yahweh, is among you. Jesus is called the King of Israel, John 1:49 and 12:13.

ZEPHANIAH 3:9 Pure lips for the nations to call on His name. Many see a first step at Pentecost, Acts 2.

ZEPHANIAH 1:14 TO 15 The great Day of Yahweh. The New Testament says the day of the Lord will come like a thief, 2 Peter 3:10.

ZEPHANIAH
Yahweh hides, or Yahweh treasures.

CUSHI
His father's name. It means a man from Cush, the land south of Egypt.

MILCOM
The god of the Ammonites, 1:5, often thought to be the same god as Molech.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

A ROYAL PROPHET?
Zephaniah traces his family four generations back to Hezekiah. If that is the king, a prince preached judgment on the palace. See Was Zephaniah a Prince?

DIES IRAE
Zephaniah 1:15 gave the church its most famous funeral hymn, Day of Wrath. Mozart and Verdi wrote music for it, and the tune still shows up in movies.

THE WHOLE ALPHABET
The rabbis noticed that 3:8 uses every letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

GOD SINGS
3:17 is one of the very few places in the Bible where God Himself sings. See Does God Really Sing Over Us?

How Did It Turn Out?

Josiah cleaned out the idols in 622 BC, but after he died the idols came back. Nineveh fell in 612 BC, Ashkelon in 604 BC, and Jerusalem in 586 BC, as Zephaniah said. A remnant came home from Babylon. And the promise that God would live among His people waited for its biggest answer.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Zephaniah opens with the scariest weather report in the Bible: God is going to sweep everything away. Judah is bowing to Baal, the stars and Milcom, and calling it faith. The Day of Yahweh is coming, and no amount of silver or gold will buy a way out.

ZEPHANIAH PROPHESIES JUDGMENT ON JUDAH // MATTHEW 13:36–43

1 This is the word of Yahweh that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah:

2 "I will completely sweep away everything from the face of the earth,"
declares Yahweh.
3 "I will sweep away man and beast;
I will sweep away the birds of the air,
and the fish of the sea,
and the idols with their wicked worshipers.
I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth,"
declares Yahweh.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WAS ZEPHANIAH A PRINCE?

The Family Tree

ZEPHANIAH 1:1 · 2 KINGS 20:21

THE CLUE

Zephaniah son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, 1:1. Most prophets name only their father. Zephaniah names four generations.

WHY IT MATTERS

If this Hezekiah is the king, then Zephaniah was royalty, a distant cousin of King Josiah, preaching against the princes and the sons of the king, 1:8.

Every View

2 KINGS 21:18 TO 19 · MATTHEW 1:9 TO 10 · JEREMIAH 13:23

VIEW 1: KING HEZEKIAH

Many scholars think so. Why else go back four generations, unless to reach a famous name? The dates can work: Josiah was Hezekiah's great grandson, and Zephaniah would be his great great grandson, one step younger.

VIEW 2: ANOTHER HEZEKIAH

The text does not say king, and no Amariah is listed among Hezekiah's sons. Hezekiah was a common name.

VIEW 3: TO EXPLAIN CUSHI

His father's name means a man from Cush, the land south of Egypt. Some think the long family tree was given to show Zephaniah was a true Israelite. Others think he had African family, which would make him one of the first prophets with roots in Africa.

WHY THE UNDERLINE

This Bible underlines Hezekiah in 1:1 as part of Jesus' family line, Matthew 1:9 to 10, because most think he is the king. If he is not, Zephaniah is still a prophet of royal-sounding courage.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Zephaniah spoke boldly to the most powerful people in Jerusalem.

4 "I will stretch out My hand against Judah and against all who dwell in Jerusalem.
I will cut off from this place every remnant of Baal,
the names of the idolatrous and pagan priests—
5 those who bow on the rooftops to worship the host of heaven,

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHEN WAS ZEPHANIAH WRITTEN?

The Clues

ZEPHANIAH 1:1 · 1:4 TO 6

THE KING

In the days of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah, 1:1. Josiah ruled from 640 to 609 BC.

THE CLUES

Baal worship, star worship and Milcom are still everywhere, 1:4 to 5. Nineveh is still standing, 2:13. Nineveh fell in 612 BC.

Every View

2 KINGS 22:3 TO 23:25 · 2 CHRONICLES 34:3 · NAHUM 3:7

VIEW 1: BEFORE THE REFORM

Most date Zephaniah to about 630 to 622 BC. The idols he names are the very things Josiah tore out in 622 BC, when the Book of the Law was found, 2 Kings 23:4 to 13. Many think Zephaniah's preaching helped start the reform.

VIEW 2: DURING THE REFORM

Josiah began to seek God at about 16 and started cleaning out idols at about 20, 2 Chronicles 34:3, in 632 and 628 BC. Zephaniah may have preached alongside these first steps.

VIEW 3: AFTER THE REFORM

A few think it came after 622 BC, when some idol worship had come back in secret. Nineveh still had to be standing, so it was before 612 BC.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Zephaniah preached in Josiah's day, before Nineveh fell. Every date puts him with Jeremiah, Nahum and the prophetess Huldah.

THE DAY OF YAHWEH // MALACHI 4:1–6; 1 THESSALONIANS 5:1–11; 2 PETER 3:8–13

7 Be silent in the presence of the Lord Yahweh,
for the Day of Yahweh is near.
Indeed, Yahweh has prepared a sacrifice;
He has consecrated His guests.

8 "On the Day of Yahweh's sacrifice
I will punish the princes,
the sons of the king,
and all who are dressed in foreign apparel.
9 On that day I will punish all who leap over the threshold, who fill the house of their master
with violence and deceit.
10 On that day," declares Yahweh,
"a cry will go up from the Fish Gate,
a wail from the Second District,
and a loud crashing from the hills.
11 Wail, O dwellers of the Hollow, for all your merchants will be silenced;
all who weigh out silver will be cut off.
12 And at that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men settled in complacency, who say in their hearts,
'Yahweh will do nothing,
either good or bad.'
13 Their wealth will be plundered and their houses laid waste.
They will build houses but not inhabit them,
and plant vineyards but never drink their wine.

14 The great Day of Yahweh is near—near and coming quickly.
Listen, the Day of Yahweh!
Then the cry of the mighty will be bitter.
15 That day will be a day of wrath,
a day of trouble and distress,

THE BIG QUESTION

WHAT IS THE DAY OF THE LORD?

Zephaniah's Picture

ZEPHANIAH 1:7 · 1:14 TO 18 · 3:11 TO 17

THE PICTURE

That day will be a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of destruction and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom, 1:15. No prophet paints it darker than Zephaniah.

BUT ALSO

The same book calls the future on that day a day when the remnant will not be put to shame, 3:11, and when God will rejoice over His people, 3:16 to 17.

DIES IRAE

The Latin of 1:15 begins dies irae, dies illa. The medieval hymn Day of Wrath, from this verse, was sung at funerals for centuries.

Every View

AMOS 5:18 TO 20 · JOEL 2:31 · ACTS 2:20 · 1 THESSALONIANS 5:2 · 2 PETER 3:10

VIEW 1: A DAY IN HISTORY

For Judah, the day came when Babylon burned Jerusalem in 586 BC. The prophets used the Day of Yahweh for any time God steps in to judge.

VIEW 2: THE LAST DAY

The New Testament uses the same words for the end of the age: the day of the Lord will come like a thief, 1 Thessalonians 5:2 and 2 Peter 3:10. The whole earth will be consumed, 1:18, sounds bigger than one city.

VIEW 3: BOTH

Most Christians say both. Like a mountain range seen from far away, near and far peaks look like one. Jerusalem's fall was a preview of the final day.

VIEW 4: ALREADY STARTED

Peter said Pentecost began what Joel said about the great and glorious Day of the Lord, Acts 2:16 to 20. Some see the last days as running from Jesus to His return.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God will judge evil, and the humble who seek Him have hope, 2:3. Amos warned that the day would be darkness, not light, Amos 5:18 to 20.

17 I will bring such distress on mankind that they will walk like the blind,
because they have sinned against Yahweh.
Their blood will be poured out like dust
and their flesh like dung.
18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them on the Day of Yahweh's wrath.
The whole earth will be consumed
by the fire of His jealousy."

For indeed, He will make a sudden end of all who dwell on the earth.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Zephaniah begs the humble to seek God before it is too late. Then he takes a tour of the neighbors: the Philistine cities, Moab and Ammon, Cush, and finally proud Nineveh, the city that said there is no one but me. All of them will fall.

A CALL TO REPENTANCE // JOEL 1:13–20; AMOS 5:4–15; LUKE 13:1–5

ZEPH 1:15 [NOTE] DIES IRAE. In Latin this verse begins dies irae, dies illa, that day is a day of wrath. ASHKELON, 604 BC

ZEPHANIAH 2:4 TO 7 · JEREMIAH 47:5 TO 7 · JEREMIAH 36:9

The great earth rampart and gate of ancient Ashkelon, first built about 1850 BC, at Tel Ashkelon National Park. Photo Ian Scott, CC BY SA 2.0.

WHAT IT IS

Ashkelon was the great Philistine seaport on the coast north of Gaza. Zephaniah said it would be left in ruins, 2:4, and that the people of Judah would one day lie down among its houses, 2:7.

WHAT THE TABLET SAYS

A Babylonian chronicle tablet in the British Museum says that in the month of Kislev in Nebuchadnezzar's first year, late 604 BC, he marched to Ashkelon, captured its king, plundered it, and turned the city into a ruin heap. See The Babylonian Chronicle, 2 Kings, p.659.

WHAT THE DIGGERS FOUND

The Leon Levy Expedition from Harvard dug at Ashkelon from 1985 to 2016, led by Lawrence Stager and then Daniel Master. They found the city of 604 BC burned and buried where it fell: shops in the market still full of wine jars and goods, a winery, and weights for the scales.

THE PEOPLE

In the burned rubble lay the bones of people caught when the city fell, among them a woman of about 35. Stager said the burned city was like a moment frozen in time.

NO ONE CAME TO HELP

A papyrus letter found at Saqqara in Egypt has a Philistine king, named Adon, begging Pharaoh to send an army, because the army of the king of Babylon had already reached Aphek. Most think it came from Ekron or Ashkelon in these same years. No help from Egypt saved the city.

WHAT IT MEANT FOR JERUSALEM

In that same month, Kislev 604 BC, Jerusalem held a public fast, Jeremiah 36:9. Many think the news from Ashkelon had just arrived. Jeremiah had also warned Ashkelon, Jeremiah 47:5 to 7.

WHAT THE PHOTO SHOWS

The mud brick gate and the huge sloping rampart of the city, built about 1,250 years before Nebuchadnezzar. The rampart still circles the ruin by the sea.

AFTER 604 BC

Ashkelon stayed empty for decades. Later it was rebuilt under the Persians, and Herod the Great's family was said to come from there. Today the old city is a national park beside the modern city.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Jerusalem is no better than the nations, so judgment comes home too. But then the book turns. God promises to purify the nations, keep a humble remnant, and live among His people. It ends with God Himself singing over them.

JUDGMENT ON JERUSALEM

1 Woe to the city of oppressors, rebellious and defiled!
2 She heeded no voice;
she accepted no correction.
She does not trust in Yahweh;
she has not drawn near to her God.
3 Her princes are roaring lions;
her judges are evening wolves,
leaving nothing for the morning.
4 Her prophets are reckless,
faithless men.
Her priests profane the sanctuary;
they do violence to the law.
5 Yahweh within her is righteous;
He does no wrong.
He applies His justice morning by morning;
He does not fail at dawn,
yet the unjust know no shame.

PURIFICATION OF THE NATIONS

6 "I have cut off the nations;
their corner towers are destroyed.
I have made their streets deserted with no one to pass through.
Their cities are laid waste,
with no man, no inhabitant.
7 I said, 'Surely you will fear Me and accept correction.'
Then her dwelling place would not be cut off despite all for which I punished her.
But they rose early to corrupt all their deeds.
8 Therefore wait for Me,"
declares Yahweh,
"until the day
I rise to testify.
For My decision is to gather nations,
to assemble kingdoms,
to pour out upon them My indignation—
all My burning anger.
For all the earth will be consumed
by the fire of My jealousy.

A FAITHFUL REMNANT

9 For then I will restore pure lips to the peoples, that all may call upon the name of Yahweh
and serve Him shoulder to shoulder.
10 From beyond the rivers of Cush
My worshipers, My scattered people, will bring Me an offering.
11 On that day you will not be put to shame for any of the deeds
by which you have transgressed against Me.
For then I will remove from among you those who rejoice in their pride, and you will never again be haughty
on My holy mountain.
12 But I will leave within you a meek and humble people, and they will trust in the name of Yahweh.

Zephaniah 3:17

ZEPHANIAH 3:14 TO 17

THE VERSE

Yahweh your God is among you; He is mighty to save. He will rejoice over you with gladness; He will quiet you with His love; He will rejoice over you with singing, 3:17.

WHO IS SINGING

In 3:14 the people are told to sing. In 3:17 God sings back. It is one of the very few places in the Bible where God Himself sings.

What It Means

LUKE 15:7 · ISAIAH 62:5 · HEBREWS 2:12

QUIET IN HIS LOVE

The Hebrew says He will be silent in His love. Some read it as love too deep for words, like a parent watching a sleeping child. Others read it as God no longer bringing up their sins. The old Greek says He will renew you in His love.

A LOUD JOY

Rejoice over you with singing uses a word for a loud ringing shout of joy, the same kind of joy God asks of His people in 3:14.

THE SAME HEART IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

Jesus said there is joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, Luke 15:7. Isaiah says God rejoices over His people like a groom over his bride, Isaiah 62:5. Hebrews pictures Jesus singing praise in the middle of the church, Hebrews 2:12.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

The book that started with the Day of wrath ends with God's joy over His people. Yes, by the Bible's own words, God sings.

18 "I will gather those among you who grieve
over the appointed feasts,
so that you will no longer suffer reproach.
19 Behold, at that time,
I will deal with all who afflict you.
I will save the lame
and gather the scattered;
and I will appoint praise and fame
for the disgraced throughout the earth.
20 At that time I will bring you in;
yes, at that time I will gather you.
For I will give you fame and praise among all the peoples of the earth when I restore your captives before your very eyes,"
says Yahweh.

Historical Setting

In 538 BC Cyrus let the Jews go home. They built the altar and laid the temple foundation, then the neighbors scared them off, and the work stopped for about 16 years. The temple lay in ruins while people built their own homes. Then, in 520 BC, God sent Haggai.

What Was Going Wrong

WRONG PRIORITIES. Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins? 1:4.
A LEAKY LIFE. You earn wages to put into a bag pierced through, 1:6.
DISCOURAGEMENT. Does it not appear to you like nothing in comparison? 2:3.
UNCLEAN WORK. Whatever they offer there is defiled, 2:14.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Haggai is the second shortest book in the Old Testament, four short sermons in less than four months. The people back from Babylon had put God's house on hold and their own houses first. Haggai told them to get their priorities straight, and they did. He told them not to judge the new temple by its size, because God would fill it with glory. And he gave Zerubbabel, David's heir, a promise that pointed far beyond him.

Haggai at a Glance

CH 1:1 to 15 BUILD MY HOUSE
Set your heart on your ways, and the people obey.

CH 2:1 to 9 GREATER GLORY
Be strong and work, for I am with you.

CH 2:10 to 19 CLEAN AND UNCLEAN
A quiz for the priests, then a blessing.

CH 2:20 to 23 THE SIGNET RING
A promise to Zerubbabel.

Where Jesus Shows Up

HAGGAI 2:9 The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former. Jesus was brought to this temple as a baby and taught in it, Luke 2:27 to 32 and 19:47.

HAGGAI 2:23 Zerubbabel, God's signet ring, is in Jesus' family line, Matthew 1:12 to 13 and Luke 3:27.

HAGGAI 2:6 Hebrews 12:26 to 28 quotes the shaking of heaven and earth for the end, and says believers receive a kingdom that cannot be shaken.

HAGGAI
Festive, or born on a feast day. From the Hebrew chag, a feast.

ZERUBBABEL
Most likely seed of Babylon, probably because he was born there.

JOSHUA
Yahweh saves. The high priest, son of Jehozadak. Not the Joshua of Jericho.

DATED TO THE DAY
Every message has a date, so we know them on our calendar: August 29, September 21, October 17 and December 18, 520 BC.

23 DAYS
From the first sermon to the first day of work took only 23 days, 1:15.

THE KING'S TIMBER
In the same years, King Darius was hauling cedar and gold from all over his empire for his own palace. See Darius's Building Charter.

THE RING GOES BACK ON
God took the signet ring off Jehoiachin, Jeremiah 22:24, and put it back on his grandson Zerubbabel, 2:23.

How Did It Turn Out?

The people finished the temple in 515 BC, Ezra 6:15, and Darius helped pay for it, Ezra 6:8. Zerubbabel never became king, and he drops out of the story. Herod later made the temple huge, and Jesus walked its courts. The Romans burned it in AD 70.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

The exiles came home and laid the temple foundation, then quit for about 16 years. Meanwhile they built nice houses for themselves. So God asks a simple question: how is that working out for you? Their crops fail and their paychecks leak. They listen, and in 23 days the work starts again.

A CALL TO REBUILD THE TEMPLE // EZRA 5:1–5

1 In the second year of the reign of Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of Yahweh came through Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, stating 2 that this is what Yahweh of Hosts says:

"These people say, 'The time has not yet come to rebuild the house of Yahweh.'"

3 Then the word of Yahweh came through Haggai the prophet, saying:

4 "Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?"

5 Now this is what Yahweh of Hosts says:

"Set your heart on your ways.

6 You have planted much but harvested little.
You eat but never have enough.
You drink but never have your fill.
You put on clothes but never get warm.
You earn wages to put into a bag pierced through."

- HAG 1:2 [NOTE] NOT YET. The work had stopped since about 536 BC, Ezra 4:24. The people quoted here sound busy and sensible. See Why Build a Temple First?
- HAG 1:4 [NOTE] PANELED HOUSES. Wood paneling was a luxury. The same Hebrew word is used for the roofing of Solomon's temple and palace, 1 Kings 6:9 and 7:3.
- HAG 1:5 [NOTABLE] Hard work, empty wallet. When God's house came last, nothing the people did was ever enough. Haggai says stop and think about where your life is going.
- HAG 1:5 [NOTE] SET YOUR HEART. The Hebrew says set your heart on your ways. Haggai says it five times. Stop and think about where your life is going.
- HAG 1:6 [NOTE] A BAG WITH HOLES. Hard work, empty wallet. Five pictures of trying and never getting ahead.

THE BIG QUESTION

WHY BUILD A TEMPLE FIRST?

The Problem

HAGGAI 1:2 TO 11

THE EXCUSE

The time has not yet come, 1:2. The people were poor, the neighbors were hostile, and the harvests were bad. Waiting sounded wise.

GOD'S ANSWER

Look at your own paneled houses, 1:4. The harvests were bad because God's house was in ruins, 1:9 to 11. They had it backwards.

What It Teaches

MATTHEW 6:33 · 1 CORINTHIANS 3:16 · 1 CORINTHIANS 6:19 · EZRA 4:24

WHY A BUILDING MATTERED

The temple was the place where God promised to live among His people. The altar was already in use, Ezra 3:3 to 6, but God's own house lay in ruins. That said God could wait.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Jesus said seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you, Matthew 6:33. Haggai is the Old Testament version.

NOT A BLESSING FOR CASH

Haggai does not promise riches for giving. He says putting God last was why nothing worked. The blessing came when they obeyed, 2:19.

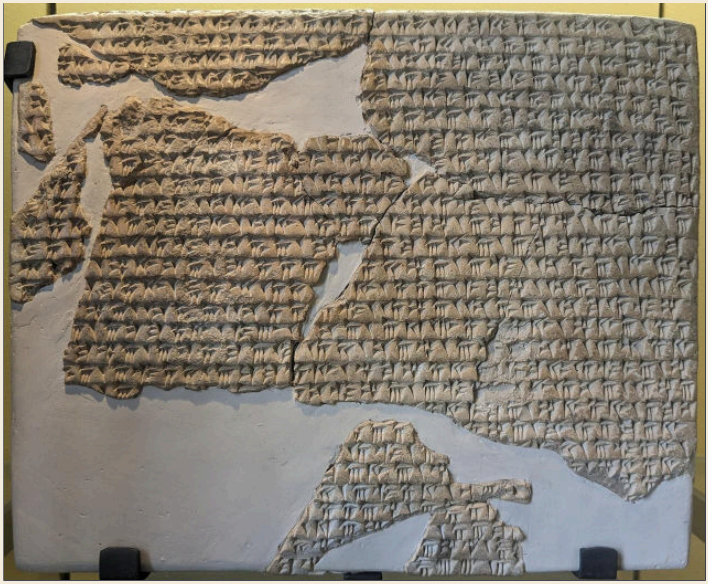
GOD'S HOUSE TODAY

The New Testament says believers are now God's temple, 1 Corinthians 3:16 and 6:19. Many Christians apply Haggai to their time, money and church. Others warn against using it to push building programs.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God wanted first place, not leftovers. The people listened, and the work began in 23 days.

7 This is what Yahweh of Hosts says:



"Set your heart on your ways.

8 Go up into the hills,
bring down lumber, and build the house,

DARIUS'S BUILDING CHARTER

HAGGAI 1:1 · 1:8 · 2:7 TO 8 · EZRA 6:3 TO 12

Pieces of Darius's foundation charter for his palace at Susa, set in a modern backing, Louvre Museum, Paris. Photo Shonagon, public domain (CC0).

WHAT IT IS

A foundation charter of King Darius I, the Darius of Haggai 1:1. In it the king tells how he built his palace at Susa, and where every material came from. It was written in three languages, Old Persian, Elamite and Babylonian. This tablet is in Old Persian.

HOW OLD IT IS

A few years after 520 BC, about the time the temple in Jerusalem was being rebuilt. French archaeologists found pieces of the charter at Susa in the first decades of the 1900s.

WHAT IT SAYS

The cedar timber came from a mountain called Lebanon. People from Assyria brought it to Babylon, and from there men from Caria and Ionian Greeks brought it to Susa. The gold came from Sardis and Bactria. The silver and ebony came from Egypt. Nation after nation brought something.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR HAGGAI

While God's people said it was not time to build, 1:2, the king of the world was hauling lumber across his empire. Haggai told them to go up into the hills and bring down lumber, 1:8. When they first laid this temple's foundation, years before, they had brought cedar from Lebanon too, Ezra 3:7.

THE SILVER IS MINE

Darius boasted that the nations brought their gold and silver to his palace. God said the silver and the gold are Mine, 2:8, and the nations would come with their treasures to His house, 2:7.

DARIUS PAYS

The same Darius found Cyrus's decree and ordered the temple costs paid from the royal treasury, Ezra 6:1 to 12. The temple was finished in his sixth year, 515 BC.

WHAT THE PHOTO SHOWS

The real broken pieces of the tablet, fitted into a modern plaster backing so they stay in place. The wedge shaped writing is Old Persian cuneiform.

so that I may take pleasure in it and be glorified,

9 You expected much,
but behold, it amounted to little.

Because My house still lies in ruins,

10 Therefore, on account of you
the heavens have withheld their dew

11 I have summoned a drought

THE PEOPLE OBEY

12 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, as well as all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Yahweh their God and the words of the prophet Haggai, because Yahweh their God had sent him. So the people feared Yahweh.

13 Haggai, the messenger of Yahweh, delivered the message of Yahweh to the people:

"I am with you,"
declares Yahweh.

14 So Yahweh stirred the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, as well as the spirit of all the remnant of the people. And they came and began the work on the house of Yahweh of Hosts, their God, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

The new temple looks like nothing next to Solomon's, and the old men know it. God says be strong and keep working: He will shake the nations and fill this house with glory. Then a quick quiz for the priests on clean and unclean, a promise to bless the crops, and a ring for Zerubbabel.

THE COMING GLORY OF GOD'S HOUSE

1 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of Yahweh came through Haggai the prophet, saying: 2 "Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and also to the remnant of the people. Ask them, 3 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Does it not appear to you like nothing in comparison?'

4 But now be strong, O Zerubbabel,
declares Yahweh.
Be strong, O Joshua son of Jehozadak,
the high priest.
And be strong, all you people of the land,
declares Yahweh.
Work! For I am with you,
declares Yahweh of Hosts.
5 This is the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt.
And My Spirit remains among you;
do not be afraid."

DEBATED · THE BIG QUESTION

WHAT IS THE DESIRE OF ALL NATIONS?

Two Translations

HAGGAI 2:6 TO 8 · KJV HAGGAI 2:7

THE KJV

I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, 2:7. Many Christians read the desire of all nations as the Messiah.

MOST NEW BIBLES

They will come with all their treasures, like this Bible. The Hebrew word chemdat means a desirable thing, and its verb is plural, they will come.

Every View

HEBREWS 12:26 TO 28 · ISAIAH 60:5 TO 11 · LUKE 2:32

VIEW 1: THE MESSIAH

The Latin Vulgate made it a person, the desired one, and the KJV followed with the desire of all nations. The church sang it for centuries. Charles Wesley wrote Dear desire of every nation in Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus. Jesus is the one the nations long for, a light for the Gentiles, Luke 2:32.

VIEW 2: THE TREASURES

The next verse says the silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, 2:8. Isaiah 60:5 to 11 also pictures the wealth of the nations coming to God's house. Persian kings did pay for the temple, Ezra 6:8.

VIEW 3: BOTH

Some say God gave the treasures then and gave the true treasure later. Hebrews 12:26 to 28 points the shaking to the end, when a kingdom that cannot be shaken remains.

WHY IT IS DEBATED

The Hebrew can be read either way, and the oldest Greek says the chosen things of all the nations.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God will shake the nations, and His house will be filled with glory.

9 The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,
says Yahweh of Hosts.
And in this place I will provide peace,

THE BIG QUESTION

WAS THE SECOND TEMPLE GREATER?

The Promise

HAGGAI 2:3 · 2:7 TO 9 · EZRA 3:12

THE PROMISE

The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former, 2:9. But the new temple looked like nothing next to Solomon's, 2:3.

WHAT IT LACKED

The Jewish Talmud lists five things the second temple did not have: the ark of the covenant, the fire from heaven, the glory cloud, the Holy Spirit, and the Urim and Thummim, Yoma 21b.

Every View

LUKE 2:27 TO 32 · JOHN 2:19 TO 21 · MALACHI 3:1 · MATTHEW 24:2

VIEW 1: JESUS CAME TO IT

Most Christians say the glory was Jesus Himself. Simeon held the baby Jesus in this temple, Luke 2:27 to 32, and Jesus taught there, Luke 19:47. Malachi 3:1 says the Lord will suddenly come to His temple.

VIEW 2: HEROD'S TEMPLE
Herod the Great rebuilt it on a huge scale starting about 20 BC. The rabbis said whoever had not seen Herod's building had never seen a beautiful building, Bava Batra 4a. Jewish tradition also says it stood longer than Solomon's, Bava Batra 3a.

VIEW 3: STILL TO COME
Some read 2:6 to 9 as the end times, when God shakes the nations once more, Hebrews 12:26 to 27, and fills His house for good.

THE SAME HOUSE
Jesus called His body this temple, John 2:19 to 21. Haggai calls the building this house in 2:3, 2:7 and 2:9, Solomon's, Zerubbabel's and later Herod's, one house rebuilt. That is why Jesus could stand in it. The Romans destroyed it in AD 70, Matthew 24:2. See The Temple Stones of AD 70, Matthew, p.1588.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON
Its glory did not come from its size. In this place I will provide peace, 2:9.

BLESSINGS FOR A DEFILED PEOPLE

10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 "This is what Yahweh of Hosts says: 'Ask the priests for a ruling. 12
If a man carries consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and it touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any other food, does that item become holy?'"

"No," replied the priests.

13 So Haggai asked, "If one who is defiled by contact with a corpse touches any of these, does it become defiled?"

"Yes, it becomes defiled," the priests answered.

14 Then Haggai replied, "So it is with this people and this nation before Me, declares Yahweh, and so it is with every work of their hands; whatever they offer
there is defiled.

15 Now set your hearts from this day forward: Before one stone was placed on another in the temple of Yahweh, 16 from that time, when one came expecting a heap of ten bushels of grain, there were but five.
When one came to the winepress to draw out 275 gallons, there were but 110. 17 I struck you—all the work of your hands—with blight, mildew, and hail, but you did not turn to Me, declares Yahweh.

18 Set your hearts from this day forward—from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, the day the foundation of Yahweh's temple was laid—set your hearts: 19 Is there still seed in the barn?
The vine, the fig, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yet yielded fruit.
But from this day on, I will bless you."

ZERUBBABEL YAHWEH'S SIGNET RING

20 For the second time that day, the twenty-fourth day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to Haggai, saying, 21 "Tell Zerubbabel governor of Judah that I am about to shake the heavens and the earth:

22 I will overturn royal thrones and destroy the power of the kingdoms of the nations.
I will overturn chariots and their riders;
horses and their riders will fall,
each by the sword of his brother.
23 On that day,
declares Yahweh of Hosts,
I will take you, My servant,
Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel,
declares Yahweh,
and I will make you like My signet ring,
for I have chosen you,
declares Yahweh of Hosts."

- HAG 2:11 [NOTE] A QUIZ FOR THE PRIESTS. Teaching clean and unclean was the priests' job, Leviticus 10:10 to 11.
- HAG 2:12 [NOTE] HOLY DOES NOT RUB OFF. Holy meat makes holy only what it touches directly, Leviticus 6:27. It does not pass along to a second thing.

THE BIG QUESTION

THE SIGNET RING

Taken Off, Put Back On

HAGGAI 2:20 TO 23 · JEREMIAH 22:24 TO 30

WHAT A SIGNET RING WAS

A king's ring with his seal. Pressed into soft clay, it signed his letters and laws. Whoever wore it acted with the king's authority.

TAKEN OFF

God told King Jehoiachin, also called Coniah, that even if he were the signet ring on God's right hand, God would pull him off, Jeremiah 22:24. None of his sons would sit on David's throne, 22:30.

What It Means

MATTHEW 1:12 TO 16 · LUKE 3:27 · 1 CHRONICLES 3:17 TO 19

PUT BACK ON

Zerubbabel was Jehoiachin's grandson, Matthew 1:12. God said I will make you like My signet ring, for I have chosen you, 2:23. David's line was not finished.

ZERUBBABEL NEVER RULED AS KING

He was a governor under Persia, then he drops out of the story. So most Christians see the promise pointing past him to Jesus, his descendant, Matthew 1:12 to 16 and Luke 3:27.

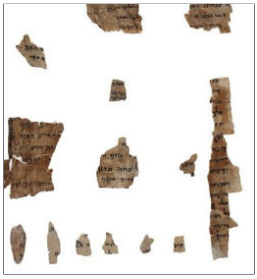
THE CURSE AND THE RING

Some say the ring reverses the curse on Jehoiachin's line. Others say the curse stands, and Jesus is David's heir by law through Joseph and by blood through Mary. See the Jeremiah 22:30 note, p.1179.

A FAMILY PUZZLE

Most lists call Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, but 1 Chronicles 3:19 lists him under Shealtiel's brother Pedaiah. Many think Pedaiah raised a son for his brother, Deuteronomy 25:5 to 6, or that Shealtiel adopted him.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON



God kept His promise to David alive, even with no king on the throne.

Historical Setting

Zechariah started preaching two months after Haggai, in 520 BC. The temple was going up again, slowly. The Persian Empire ruled the world, Jerusalem had no walls, and the people wondered if God's big promises were still alive.

What Was Going Wrong

RELIGION FOR SHOW. Was it really for Me that you fasted? 7:5.
BAD SHEPHERDS. My anger burns against the shepherds, 10:3.
DISCOURAGEMENT. Who has despised the day of small things? 4:10.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Zechariah is the longest of the twelve Minor Prophets and the most quoted of them in the story of Jesus' last week. It starts with eight strange visions in one night, all saying God has not forgotten His people. Then it looks ahead to a King riding on a donkey, a shepherd sold for thirty pieces of silver, a pierced One mourned by His people, and the day Yahweh's feet stand on the Mount of Olives.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

ONE NIGHT, EIGHT VISIONS
All eight visions in chapters 1 to 6 came on one night, February 15, 519 BC.

A FLYING BILLBOARD
The flying scroll in 5:2 is 30 feet by 15 feet, the size of the porch of Solomon's temple.

Chapter 9 moves down the same road Alexander the Great marched in 333 and 332 BC. See Alexander the Great.

JOSHUA AND JESUS

How Did It Turn Out?

The temple was finished in 515 BC. About 500 years later a King rode into Jerusalem on a donkey, was sold for thirty pieces of silver, and was pierced on a cross. The rest of chapters 12 to 14 many still wait for.

A CALL TO REPENTANCE // JEREMIAH 3:11–25; HOSEA 14:1–3

1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, saying:

2 "Yahweh was very angry with your fathers. 3 So tell the people that this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: 'Return to Me, declares Yahweh of Hosts, and I will return to you, says Yahweh of Hosts.'

4 Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed that this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: 'Turn now from your evil ways and deeds.'

But they did not listen or pay attention to Me, declares Yahweh.

5 Where are your fathers now? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6 But did not My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, overtake your fathers? They repented and said, 'Just as Yahweh of Hosts purposed to do to us according to our ways and deeds, so He has done to us.'"

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHICH ZECHARIAH WAS MURDERED?

The Puzzle

MATTHEW 23:35 · LUKE 11:51 · 2 CHRONICLES 24:20 TO 22

THE PUZZLE

Jesus spoke of the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar, Matthew 23:35. But the Zechariah killed in the temple court in 2 Chronicles 24:20 to 22 was the son of Jehoiada. Berechiah was the prophet's father, 1:1.

LUKE'S VERSION

Luke 11:51 just says the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary.

Every View

ZECHARIAH 1:1 · 2 CHRONICLES 24:20 TO 22

VIEW 1: JEHOIADA'S SON

Most think Jesus meant the priest of 2 Chronicles 24. In the usual Jewish order, the Hebrew Bible ends with Chronicles, so from Abel to Zechariah means from the first murder to the last one in the Bible, like A to Z.

VIEW 2: A FAMILY NAME

Some think Jehoiada was his grandfather and Berechiah his father, since son of can mean grandson.

VIEW 3: A COPYIST

Some think an early copyist added son of Berechiah, thinking of the famous prophet. Luke does not have it.

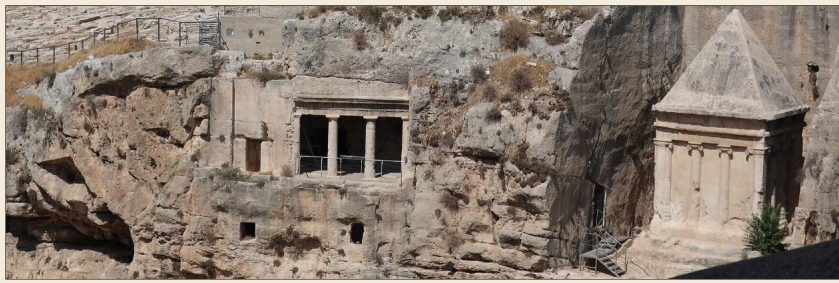
VIEW 4: THE PROPHET

An old Jewish Targum on Lamentations 2:20 says the prophet Zechariah son of Iddo was killed in the temple. Some think Jesus meant him.

VIEW 5: A LATER MARTYR

Josephus tells of a Zechariah son of Baris murdered in the temple in AD 67 to 68. A few think the Gospel points ahead to him, but most think that is too late.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON



God's messengers were often killed by the people they came to warn, and Jesus held that generation responsible.

THE TOMB OF ZECHARIAH

ZECHARIAH 1:1 · 14:4 · MATTHEW 23:29 TO 35

The monument called the Tomb of Zechariah, right, and the tomb of the priestly family of Hezir, left, in the Kidron Valley, Jerusalem. Photo Davidbena, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

A solid block of rock with a pyramid roof, cut out of the cliff in the Kidron Valley, between the Temple Mount and the Mount of Olives. It has no burial room inside. It is a monument.

HOW OLD IT IS

It was carved around the time of Jesus, in the first century BC or the first century AD, so it was likely standing when Jesus walked past it to the Mount of Olives.

WHOSE IS IT

No inscription names it. Jewish tradition, recorded since the Middle Ages, linked it to Zechariah son of Jehoiada, killed in the temple court, 2 Chronicles 24:20 to 22. Some linked it to the prophet. Nobody really knows.

NEXT DOOR

The tomb with pillars carries a Hebrew inscription naming the priestly family of Hezir, 1 Chronicles 24:15.

WHY IT MATTERS

Jesus said, You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous, Matthew 23:29. Monuments like these stood in plain sight. See Which Zechariah Was Murdered?

THE VISION OF THE HORSES

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo.

8 I looked out into the night and saw a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in the hollow, and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.

9 "What are these, my lord?" I asked.

And the angel who was speaking with me replied, "I will show you what they are."

10 Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, "They are the ones Yahweh has sent to patrol the earth."

11 And the riders answered the angel of Yahweh who was standing among the myrtle trees, "We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and tranquil."

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE GOD SPEAKING

1. THE HORSEMEN, 1:8 TO 17
The earth is quiet, but God is coming back to Jerusalem with mercy.
2. FOUR HORNS AND FOUR CRAFTSMEN, 1:18 TO 21
The nations that scattered God's people will be broken.
3. THE MEASURING LINE, 2:1 TO 13
Jerusalem will be too big for walls. God Himself will be its wall of fire.

What They Mean
REVELATION 6:1 TO 8 · REVELATION 11:4

4. CLEAN CLOTHES, 3:1 TO 10
Joshua the high priest is cleaned up while Satan accuses him. The Branch is coming.
5. THE LAMPSTAND, 4:1 TO 14
Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit. Zerubbabel will finish the temple.
6. THE FLYING SCROLL, 5:1 TO 4
God's curse goes after thieves and liars.
7. THE WOMAN IN THE BASKET, 5:5 TO 11
Wickedness is shut in and flown back to Babylon.
8. FOUR CHARIOTS, 6:1 TO 8
God's patrols cover the whole earth. Revelation 6 has four horses too.
THE SHAPE
The visions make a pattern: horses at the start and end, and the priest and the governor in the middle, 3 and 4. Then a real crown goes on Joshua's head, 6:9 to 15.

12 Then the angel of Yahweh said, "How long, O Yahweh of Hosts, will You withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which You have been angry these seventy years?"

13 So Yahweh spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who was speaking with me.

14 Then the angel who was speaking with me said, "Proclaim this word: This is what Yahweh of Hosts says: 'I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion, 15 but I am fiercely angry with the nations that are at ease. For I was a little angry, but they have added to the calamity.'

16 Therefore this is what Yahweh says: 'I will return to Jerusalem with mercy, and there My house will be rebuilt, declares Yahweh of Hosts, and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.'

17 Proclaim further that this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: 'My cities will again overflow with prosperity; Yahweh will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.'"

THE VISION OF THE HORNS AND THE CRAFTSMEN

18 Then I looked up and saw four horns. 19 So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these?"

And he told me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20 Then Yahweh showed me four craftsmen.

21 "What are these coming to do?" I asked.

And He replied, "These are the horns that scattered Judah so that no one could raise his head; but the craftsmen have come to terrify them and throw down these horns of the nations that have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it."

THE VISION OF JOSHUA THE HIGH PRIEST

2 And Yahweh said to Satan: "Yahweh rebukes you, Satan! Indeed, Yahweh, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebukes you! Is not this man a firebrand snatched from the fire?"

3 Now Joshua was dressed in filthy garments as he stood before the angel. 4 So the angel said to those standing before him, "Take off his filthy clothes!"

Then he said to Joshua, "See, I have removed your iniquity, and I will clothe you with splendid robes."

5 Then I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So a clean turban was placed on his head, and they clothed him, as the angel of Yahweh stood by.

THE VISION OF THE LAMPSTAND AND OLIVE TREES

1 Then the angel who was speaking with me returned and woke me, as a man is awakened from his sleep.

"I see a solid gold lampstand," I replied, "with a bowl at the top and seven lamps on it, with seven spouts to the lamps. 3 There are also two olive trees beside it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on its left."

4 "What are these, my lord?" I asked the angel who was speaking with me.

"No, my lord," I answered.

8 Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will complete it. Then you will know that Yahweh of Hosts has sent me to you. 10 For who has despised the day of small things? But these seven eyes of Yahweh, which scan the whole earth, will rejoice when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel."

11 Then I asked the angel, "What are the two olive trees on the right and left of the lampstand?" 12 And I questioned him further, "What are the two olive branches beside the two gold pipes from which the golden oil pours?"

13 "Do you not know what these are?" he inquired.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

Four chariots with colored horses patrol the earth. Then Zechariah makes a crown and puts it on Joshua the high priest. Here is a man whose name is the Branch: a priest and a king on one throne.

THE VISION OF THE FOUR CHARIOTS

1 And again I lifted up my eyes and saw four chariots coming out from between two mountains—mountains of bronze. 2 The first chariot had red horses, the second black horses, 3 the third white horses, and the fourth dappled horses—all of them strong.

4 So I inquired of the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5 And the angel told me, "These are the four spirits of heaven, going forth from their station before the Lord of all the earth. 6 The one with the black horses is going toward the land of the north, the one with the white horses toward the west, and the one with the dappled horses toward the south."

7 As the strong horses went out, they were eager to go and patrol the earth; and Yahweh said, "Go and patrol the earth." So they patrolled the earth.

8 Then Yahweh summoned me and said, "Behold, those going to the land of the north have given rest to My Spirit in the land of the north."

THE CROWN AND THE TEMPLE

9 The word of Yahweh also came to me, saying, 10 "Take an offering from the exiles—from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon—and go that same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. 11 Take silver and gold, make an ornate crown, and set it on the head of the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak.

WHAT IT IS

A tiny gold chariot with a driver and a rider, pulled by four horses, made in the Persian Empire. It is part of the Oxus Treasure, about 180 pieces of gold and silver found near the Oxus River, in today's Tajikistan.

HOW OLD IT IS

The 400s or 300s BC, while Persia still ruled the world, soon after Zechariah's day.

WHAT IT SHOWS

A small open chariot with big spoked wheels, the kind Persian nobles rode on the king's roads. The riders wear Persian clothes.

WHY IT MATTERS

Persia kept its huge empire together with fast horses and riders. Zechariah's visions show God's own horses and chariots patrolling the whole earth, 1:10 and 6:7. The real ruler of the world was not in Persia. See The King's Couriers, Esther, p.826.

And He will be a priest on His throne, and there will be peaceful counsel between the two.'

14 The crown will reside in the temple of Yahweh as a memorial to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and the gracious son of Zephaniah. 15 Even those far away will come and build the temple of Yahweh, and you will know that Yahweh of Hosts has sent Me to you. THE BIG QUESTION

WHO IS THE BRANCH?

A Name for the King

ZECHARIAH 3:8 · 6:11 TO 13 · ISAIAH 11:1 · JEREMIAH 23:5

THE NAME

The prophets called the coming King from David's line the Branch, Isaiah 4:2 and 11:1, Jeremiah 23:5 and 33:15. Zechariah says I am going to bring My servant, the Branch, 3:8.

THE CROWN

God tells Zechariah to put a crown on Joshua the high priest and say, Here is a man whose name is the Branch... He will be a priest on His throne, 6:11 to 13.

Every View

HEBREWS 5:5 TO 6 · 7:1 TO 3 · 8:1 · PSALM 110:4

VIEW 1: JESUS

Most Christians say the Branch is Jesus, the King who is also the Priest, Hebrews 7 to 8. Joshua is a picture of Him, and they even share a name, Yeshua.

VIEW 2: ZERUBBABEL FIRST

Many scholars think the Branch meant Zerubbabel, David's heir, who was building the temple, 4:9. Some think his name was in the crown scene at first. Many Christians see a first answer in Zerubbabel and the full answer in Jesus.

PRIEST AND KING

In Israel, kings came from Judah and priests from Levi, and no one was supposed to be both. King Uzziah was struck with a skin disease when he burned incense like a priest, 2 Chronicles 26:16 to 21. Much later the Maccabee rulers made themselves priests and kings, and many Jews hated it. Psalm 110:4 promised a King who is a priest forever, like Melchizedek.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Zechariah pictures a coming ruler who will build God's house and bring peace between the throne and the priesthood.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Some people ask if they still need to fast for the temple that burned down. God's answer: when you fasted, was it really for Me? Do justice, show mercy, and stop plotting evil. Your fathers made their hearts like flint.

A CALL TO JUSTICE AND MERCY

1 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev. 2 Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, along with their men, to plead before Yahweh 3
by asking the priests of the house of Yahweh of Hosts, as well as the prophets,
"Should I weep and fast in the fifth month,
as I have done these many years?"

4 Then the word of Yahweh of Hosts came to me, saying, 5 "Ask all the people of the land and the priests, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months for these seventy years, was it really for Me that you fasted? 6 And when you were eating and drinking, were you not doing so simply for yourselves? 7 Are these not the words that Yahweh proclaimed through the earlier prophets, when Jerusalem and its surrounding towns were populous and prosperous, and the Negev and the foothills were inhabited?'"

8 Then the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah, saying, 9 "This is what Yahweh of Hosts says: 'Administer true justice.
Show loving devotion and compassion to one another. 10 Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the foreigner or the poor. And do not plot evil in your hearts against one another.'

11 But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder; they stopped up their ears from hearing. 12 They made

3 This is what Yahweh says: "I will return to Zion and dwell in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of Yahweh of Hosts will be called the Holy Mountain."

4 This is what Yahweh of Hosts says: "Old men and old women will again sit along the streets of Jerusalem, each with a staff in hand because of great age. 5 And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing there."

6 This is what Yahweh of Hosts says: "If this is impossible in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be impossible in My eyes?" declares Yahweh of Hosts.

7 This is what Yahweh of Hosts says: "I will save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west. 8 I will bring them back to dwell in Jerusalem, where they will be My people, and I will be their faithful and righteous God."

9 This is what Yahweh of Hosts says: "Let your hands be strong, you who now hear these words spoken by the prophets who were present when the foundations were laid to rebuild the temple, the house of Yahweh of Hosts. 10 For before those days neither man nor beast received wages, nor was there safety from the enemy for anyone who came or went, for I had turned every man against his neighbor. 11 But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as I did in the past," declares Yahweh of Hosts.

12 "For the seed will be prosperous, the vine will yield its fruit, the ground will yield its produce, and the skies will give their dew. To the remnant of this people I will give all these things as an inheritance. 13 As you have been a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid; let your hands be strong."

14 For this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: "Just as I resolved to bring disaster upon you when your fathers provoked Me to anger, and I did not relent," says Yahweh of Hosts, 15 "so now I have resolved to do good again to Jerusalem and Judah. Do not be afraid. 16 These are the things you must do: Speak truth to one another, render true and sound judgments in your gates, 17 do not plot evil in your hearts against your neighbor, and do not love to swear falsely, for I hate all these things," declares Yahweh.

18 Then the word of Yahweh of Hosts came to me, saying, 19 "This is what Yahweh of Judgment rolls down the coast through Tyre and the Philistines. Then the big one: your King is coming, humble and riding on a donkey. He will speak peace to the nations, and the prisoners of hope will go free.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHO WROTE CHAPTERS 9 TO 14?

Why People Ask

ZECHARIAH 1:1 · 9:1 · 12:1 · MALACHI 1:1

WHY PEOPLE ASK

Chapters 1 to 8 have dates, visions and Zechariah's name. Chapters 9 to 14 have no dates, no visions and no name, and each part starts with The burden of the word of Yahweh, 9:1 and 12:1, like Malachi 1:1.

WHERE IT STARTED

In the 1600s the English scholar Joseph Mede suggested chapters 9 to 11 were written by Jeremiah, because Matthew 27:9 names him.

Every View

MATTHEW 27:9 · ZECHARIAH 9:13

VIEW 1: ZECHARIAH WROTE IT ALL

The traditional view, held by Jews and Christians for most of history. A prophet can change style when he writes later in life, and the book has the same themes all the way through: the temple, the shepherd, Jerusalem and the nations.

VIEW 2: A SECOND ZECHARIAH

Many scholars think chapters 9 to 14 came later, some say after Alexander, about 330 to 300 BC, because 9:13 names Greece. Others answer that Greeks were already Persia's great enemies by about 490 BC.

VIEW 3: THREE PARTS

Some split it three ways, chapters 1 to 8, 9 to 11 and 12 to 14.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

No ancient copy splits it into two books. One Dead Sea scroll, 4QXII e, has pieces of both chapters 1 to 8 and chapter 12. Jesus and the apostles quoted chapters 9 to 14 as Scripture.

righteous and victorious,

Ephraim

Then He will proclaim peace to the na-

His dominion will extend from sea to and from the Euphrates

to the ends of the earth.
11 As for you,
because of the blood of My covenant,
I will release your prisoners
from the waterless pit.
12 Return to your stronghold,
O prisoners of hope;
even today I declare that I will restore to you double.

I will rouse your sons, O Zion,

I will make you like the sword and His arrow will go forth like lightning.

The Lord Yahweh will sound the ram's

They will destroy and conquer with they will drink and roar as with wine.

ALEXANDER THE GREAT

ZECHARIAH 9:1 TO 8 · 9:13 · EZEKIEL 26 · DANIEL 8:5 TO 8

Alexander the Great on his horse Bucephalus, from the Alexander Mosaic found at Pompeii, National Archaeological Museum, Naples. Public domain.

WHAT IT IS

The most famous picture of Alexander the Great, a floor made of more than a million tiny stones. It shows Alexander charging King Darius III of Persia in battle, most likely at Issus in 333 BC.

HOW OLD IT IS

Made about 100 BC for a rich house in Pompeii, the House of the Faun, probably copying a Greek painting from about 300 BC. It was found in 1831 and moved to the museum in Naples. The one in Pompeii today is a copy.

THE ROUTE IN ZECHARIAH 9

After Issus, Alexander marched south. Damascus fell, Sidon gave up, and Tyre held out on its island for seven months before it fell in 332 BC. Then Gaza fell after a two month siege. Zechariah 9:1 to 7 moves the same way, from north to south: Hadrach and Damascus, Hamath, Tyre and Sidon, then the Philistine cities Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron and Ashdod.

TYRE

She has heaped up silver like dust... the Lord will cast her wealth into the sea, and she will be consumed by fire, 9:3 to 4. Alexander built a causeway to the island, took the city, and killed or sold its people. See Tyre and the Causeway, Ezekiel, p.1285.

GAZA

There will cease to be a king in Gaza, 9:5. The Roman writer Curtius says Gaza's commander, Batis, was dragged to death behind Alexander's chariot.

JERUSALEM SPARED

I will camp around My house because of an army, 9:8. Jerusalem was not attacked. The Jewish historian Josephus says Alexander even came to the city and bowed to the high priest, but many scholars doubt that story.

THE DATE QUESTION

Many believers see Zechariah foretelling this about 200 years ahead. Many scholars think chapters 9 to 14 were written later. See Who Wrote Chapters 9 to 14?

WHAT THE PHOTO SHOWS

Alexander on his horse Bucephalus, a small part of the whole mosaic, which is about 17 feet wide, or 19 feet with its border.

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Ask Yahweh for rain, not the idols. The leaders are bad shepherds, so God will shepherd His flock Himself. He will whistle, and His scattered people will come home from everywhere.

JUDAH AND ISRAEL WILL BE RESTORED

1 Ask Yahweh for rain in springtime;
Yahweh makes the storm clouds,
and He will give everyone showers of rain and crops in the field.
2 For idols speak deceit
and diviners see illusions;
they tell false dreams
and offer empty comfort.
Therefore the people wander like sheep,
oppressed for lack of a shepherd.

3 "My anger burns against the shepherds,
and I will punish the leaders.
For Yahweh of Hosts attends to His flock,
the house of Judah;
He will make them
like His royal steed in battle.
4 The cornerstone will come from Judah,
the tent peg from him,
as well as the battle bow
and every ruler together.
5 They will be like mighty men in battle, trampling the enemy in the mire of the streets.
They will fight because Yahweh is with
them,
and they will put the horsemen to
shame.

6 I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph.
I will restore them because I have compassion on them,
and they will be as though I had not rejected them.
For I am Yahweh their God,
and I will answer them.
7 Ephraim will be like a mighty man, and their hearts will be glad as with wine.
Their children will see it and be joyful;
their hearts will rejoice in Yahweh.

8 I will whistle for them to gather,
for I have redeemed them;
and they will be as numerous as they once were.
9 Though I sow them among the nations,
they will remember Me in distant lands;
they and their children will live and return.
10 I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them to Gilead and Lebanon until no more room is found for them.
11 They will pass through the sea of distress
and strike the waves of the sea;
all the depths of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt will depart.
12 I will strengthen them in Yahweh, and in His name they will walk,"
declares Yahweh.

THE DOOMED FLOCK

1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may consume your cedars!
2 Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen;
the majestic trees are ruined!
Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
for the dense forest has been cut down!
3 Listen to the wailing of the shepherds,
for their glory is in ruins.
Listen to the roaring of the young lions,
for the thickets of the Jordan are destroyed.

4 This is what Yahweh my God says: "Pasture the flock marked for slaughter, 5 whose buyers slaughter them without remorse. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be Yahweh, for I am rich!' Even their own shepherds have no compassion on them.
6 For I will no longer have compassion on the people of the land, declares Yahweh, but behold, I will cause each man to fall into the hands of his neighbor and his king, who will devastate the land, and I will not deliver it from their hands."
7 So I pastured the flock marked for slaughter, especially the afflicted of the flock. Then I took for myself two staffs, calling one Favor and the other Union, and I pastured the flock. 8 And in one month I dismissed three shepherds.
My soul grew impatient with the flock, and their souls also detested me. 9 Then I said, "I will no longer shepherd you. Let the dying die, and the perishing perish; and let those who remain devour one another's flesh."

THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER // MATTHEW 27:3–10

10 Next I took my staff called Favor and cut it in two, revoking the covenant I had made with all the nations. 11 It was revoked on that day, and so the afflicted of the flock who were watching me knew that it was the word of Yahweh.
12 Then I told them, "If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them." So they weighed out my wages, thirty pieces of silver.
13 And Yahweh said to me, "Throw it to the potter"— this magnificent price at which they valued me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of Yahweh.
14 Then I cut in two my second staff called Union, breaking the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHY DOES MATTHEW SAY JEREMIAH?

The Puzzle

ZECHARIAH 11:12 TO 13 · MATTHEW 27:3 TO 10

THE PUZZLE

Judas threw down thirty pieces of silver, and the priests bought the potter's field. Matthew 27:9 says this fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet. But the thirty pieces of silver and the potter come from Zechariah 11:12 to 13.

WHAT MATTHEW ADDS

Matthew speaks of a field bought with the money. Zechariah has no field. Jeremiah has a potter's house, 18:1 to 4, a potter's jar broken in the valley, 19:1 to 13, and a field bought for silver, 32:6 to 15.

JEREMIAH 18:1 TO 4 · 19:1 TO 13 · 32:6 TO 15 · MARK 1:2 TO 3

VIEW 1: A BLEND

Most scholars say Matthew blends Zechariah with Jeremiah and names the bigger prophet. Mark 1:2 to 3 does the same, quoting Malachi and Isaiah under the name Isaiah.

VIEW 2: THE SCROLL'S NAME

Some say Jeremiah stood first among the prophets in an old Jewish order, Bava Batra 14b, so the whole collection of the prophets could be called by his name.

VIEW 3: A COPYIST

A few old copies read Zechariah or leave the name out. Most experts think those were later fixes.

VIEW 4: SPOKEN, NOT WRITTEN

Matthew says spoken through Jeremiah. Some think Jeremiah said it out loud and Zechariah later wrote it down.

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Jerusalem becomes a heavy stone that hurts every nation that tries to lift it. Then God pours out a spirit of grace, and they look on Me, the One they have pierced, and mourn like a family at a funeral.

THE COMING DELIVERANCE OF JERUSALEM

1 This is the burden of the word of Yahweh concerning Israel.

Thus declares Yahweh, who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth, who forms the spirit of man within him:

2 "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples. Judah will be besieged, as well as Jerusalem.

3 On that day, when all the nations of the earth gather against her, I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who would heave it away will be severely injured.

4 On that day, declares Yahweh, I will strike every horse with panic, and every rider with madness. I will keep a watchful eye on the house of Judah, but I will strike with blindness all the horses of the nations.

5 Then the leaders of Judah will say in their hearts: 'The people of Jerusalem are my strength, for Yahweh of Hosts is their God.'

6 On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among the sheaves; they will consume all the peoples around them on the right and on the left, while the people of Jerusalem remain secure there.

7 Yahweh will save the tents of Judah first,
so that the glory of the house of David and of the people of Jerusalem may not be greater than that of Judah. 8 On that day Yahweh will defend the people of Jerusalem, so that the weakest among them will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of Yahweh going before them.

10 Then I will pour out on the house of Davia and on the people of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and prayer, and they will look on Me, the One they have pierced. They will mourn for Him as one mourns for an only child, and grieve bitterly for Him as one grieves for a

THE BIG QUESTION

THE PIERCED ONE

They Will Look on Me

ZECHARIAH 12:10 · JOHN 19:34 TO 37

THE VERSE

They will look on Me, the One they have pierced. They will mourn for Him as one mourns for an only child, 12:10.

THE SURPRISE

God is speaking, and He says Me. Then it says Him. The One pierced is God Himself, and yet someone they mourn for.

What It Means

REVELATION 1:7 · ROMANS 11:26 · SUKKAH 52A

JESUS ON THE CROSS

When a soldier pierced Jesus' side, John says, as another Scripture says, They will look on the One they have pierced, John 19:34 to 37.

JESUS' RETURN

Every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him, Revelation 1:7. Many see Israel turning to Jesus at the end, Romans 11:26.

JEWISH READINGS

The Talmud applies this verse to a Messiah who is killed, Sukkah 52a. Some Jewish translators read look to Me about the one they pierced, making two different people.

THE SHEPHERD STRUCK, THE SHEEP SCATTERED // MATTHEW 26:31–35; MARK 14:27–31

7 Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, against the man who is My Companion,
declares Yahweh of Hosts.
Strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered,
and I will turn My hand against the little ones.
8 And in all the land,
declares Yahweh,
two-thirds will be cut off and perish,
but a third will be left in it.
9 This third I will bring through the fire;
I will refine them like silver and test them like gold.
They will call on My name,
and I will answer them.
I will say, 'They are My people,'
and they will say, 'Yahweh is our God.'"

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

The last battle. Yahweh's feet stand on the Mount of Olives, and it splits in two. Living water flows from Jerusalem, Yahweh is King over all the earth, and even the horse bells say holy to Yahweh, and every cooking pot is holy.

THE DESTROYERS OF JERUSALEM DESTROYED

1 Behold, a day of Yahweh is coming when your plunder will be divided in your presence. 2 For I will gather all the nations for battle against Jerusalem, and the city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be removed from the city.

3 Then Yahweh will go out to fight against those nations, as He fights in the day of battle. 4 On that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half the mountain moving to the north and half to the south. 5 You will flee by My mountain valley, for it will extend to Azal. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then Yahweh my God will come, and all the holy ones with Him.

6 On that day there will be no light, no cold or frost. 7 It will be a unique day known only to Yahweh, without day or night; but when evening comes, there will be light.

8 And on that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it toward the Eastern Sea and the other half toward the Western Sea, in summer and winter alike.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Yahweh will become King over all the earth, Yahweh alone, and His name alone, 14:9.

10 All the land from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem will be turned into a plain, but Jerusalem will be raised up and will remain in her place, from the Benjamin Gate to the site of the First Gate to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses. 11 People will live there, and never again will there be an utter destruction. So Jerusalem will dwell securely.

12 And this will be the plague with which Yahweh strikes all the peoples who have warred against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

13 On that day a great panic from Yahweh will come upon them, so that each will seize the hand of another, and the hand of one will rise against the other. 14 Judah will also fight at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected—gold, silver, and apparel in great abundance. 15 And a similar plague will strike the horses and mules, camels and donkeys, and all the animals in those camps.

ALL NATIONS WILL WORSHIP THE KING // LEVITICUS 23:33–44; NEHEMIAH 8:13–18

16 Then all the survivors from the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, Yahweh of Hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. 17 And should any of the families of the earth not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yahweh of Hosts, then the rain will not fall on them. 18 And if the people of Egypt will not go up and enter in, then the rain will not fall on them; this will be the plague with which Yahweh strikes the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. 19 This will be the punishment of Egypt and of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

MALACHI

The Last Word

AUTHOR	Malachi, 1:1. His name means My messenger. Nothing else is certain about him.
DATE	About 460 to 430 BC, in Persian times. The temple was rebuilt and running, a governor ruled, 1:8, and the sins match the ones Nehemiah fought, Nehemiah 13.
WRITTEN TO	The people of Judah back from Babylon, and their priests.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Pieces of 2:10 to 4:6 are in 4QXII a, a scroll of the Twelve Prophets from Qumran Cave 4, copied about 150 to 125 BC.
KEY VERSE	Malachi 3:1. Behold, I will send My messenger, who will prepare the way before Me.

THE OLDEST COPIES OF MALACHI
A piece of 4QXII a, a scroll of the Twelve Prophets from Qumran Cave 4, copied about 150 to 125 BC. These lines are from the end of Malachi, about 4:2 to 4 in this Bible, Remember the law of My servant Moses. The Hebrew counts them as 3:20 to 22. Some scholars think Jonah came right after Malachi in this scroll.

Historical Setting

The exiles had come home, and the temple had been finished in 515 BC. But two or three generations later the excitement was gone. The priests were bored, the offerings were cheap, and people wondered if serving God was worth it. Malachi is the last prophet of the Old Testament.

What Was Going Wrong

CHEAP SACRIFICES. You bring offerings that are stolen, lame, or sick! 1:13.
LAZY PRIESTS. Your instruction has caused many to stumble, 2:8.
BROKEN MARRIAGES. Men broke faith with the wife of their youth and married women who served foreign gods, 2:11 and 2:14.
ROBBING GOD. Holding back the tithes and offerings, 3:8.
WHY BOTHER?. It is futile to serve God, 3:14.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Malachi reads like an argument. God makes a point, the people talk back, But you ask, How?, and God answers. They had grown cold: cheap sacrifices, broken marriages, skipped tithes, and a shrug about right and wrong. God still says I have loved you. Then He promises a messenger to prepare the way, the Lord coming to His temple, and Elijah before the great day. After this, no prophet speaks for about 400 years.

Where Jesus Shows Up

MALACHI 3:1 My messenger is John the Baptist, Matthew 11:10, Mark 1:2 and Luke 7:27. Then the Lord came to His temple: Jesus as a baby, Luke 2:22 to 32, and as a man, John 2:13 to 17.

MALACHI 4:5 TO 6 Jesus said John was the Elijah who was to come, Matthew 11:14 and 17:12 to 13. The angel said John would turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, Luke 1:17.

MALACHI 4:2 The sun of righteousness. Zechariah the priest sang that the Dawn would visit us from on high, Luke 1:78 to 79.

MALACHI
My messenger. From the Hebrew malakh, messenger or angel.

ELIJAH
My God is Yahweh. The prophet taken up to heaven, 2 Kings 2.

LEVI
Jacob's son. The priests came from his tribe. God's covenant with Levi, 2:4 to 8.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

SIX ARGUMENTS
God speaks, the people ask How?, and God answers, six times. It reads like a courtroom.

THE GOVERNOR'S COIN
A tiny silver coin from Persian Judah is stamped Yehezqiyah the governor, the same Hebrew word as your governor in 1:8.

THE LAST WORD
The Old Testament ends with Moses, Elijah and a promise. The New Testament picks up right there: Mark's gospel starts with Malachi 3:1.

ELIJAH'S CUP
At the Passover meal many Jewish families still pour a cup for Elijah and open the door for him, because of 4:5.

How Did It Turn Out?

Nehemiah fought the same sins, Nehemiah 13. Then the prophets went quiet for about 400 years. See The 400 Silent Years. Then John the Baptist came in the spirit and power of Elijah, and Jesus came to His temple.

YAHWEH'S LOVE FOR ISRAEL // GENESIS 25:19–28; ROMANS 9:6–29

1 This is the burden of the word of Yahweh to Israel through Malachi:

2 "I have loved you," says Yahweh.
But you ask, "How have You loved us?"
"Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares Yahweh. "Yet Jacob I have loved, 3 but Esau I have hated, and I have made his mountains a wasteland and left his inheritance to the desert jackals."

4 Though Edom may say, "We have been devastated, but we will rebuild the ruins," this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: "They may build, but I will demolish. They will be called the Land of Wickedness, and a people with whom Yahweh is indignant forever. 5 You will see this with your own eyes, and you yourselves will say, 'Yahweh is great—even beyond the borders of Israel.'"

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

JACOB I LOVED, ESAU I HATED?

What It Says

MALACHI 1:2 TO 5 · GENESIS 25:23 · GENESIS 29:30 TO 31

THE WORDS

Yet Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated, 1:2 to 3. Paul quotes it in Romans 9:13. It sounds harsh, so people have argued about it for 2,000 years.

TWO NATIONS

Malachi is talking about nations. The next words are about Edom's mountains and land, 1:3 to 4. Before the twins were born, God told Rebekah, Two nations are in your womb, Genesis 25:23.

A HEBREW WAY OF TALKING

In Hebrew, love and hate can mean choose and not choose, or love more and love less. Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah, and this Bible says Leah was unloved, but the Hebrew word is hated, Genesis 29:30 to 31. Jesus said to hate your father and mother, Luke 14:26, and Matthew says do not love them more than Me, Matthew 10:37.

VIEW 1: GOD CHOOSES PEOPLE

Reformed or Calvinist Christians say Paul uses this verse to show that God chooses who will be saved by His mercy alone, before they are born or have done anything good or bad, Romans 9:11 to 16.

VIEW 2: GOD CHOOSES NATIONS FOR A JOB

Arminian or free will Christians say God chose Israel, not Edom, to carry His promise and bring the Messiah. It is about a role in history, not who goes to heaven. Malachi talks about nations and land.

Many say hated is the Hebrew way of saying loved less or not chosen, like Leah, so it is not anger or spite. This view fits with either of the first two.

THE POLLUTED OFFERINGS

6 "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. But if I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is your fear of Me?" says Yahweh of Hosts to you priests who despise My name.

"But you ask, 'How have we despised Your name?'

7 By presenting defiled food on My altar.

But you ask, 'How have we defiled You?'

By saying that the table of Yahweh is contemptible.

8 When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is it not wrong? And when you present the lame and sick ones, is it not wrong? Try offering them to your governor! Would he be pleased with you or show you favor?" asks Yahweh of Hosts.

9 "But ask now for God's favor. Will He be gracious? Since this has come from your hands, will He show you favor?" asks Yahweh of Hosts.

10 "Oh, that one of you would shut the temple doors, so that you would no longer kindle useless fires on My altar! I take no pleasure in you," says Yahweh of Hosts, "and I will accept no offering from your hands.

11 For My name will be great among the nations, from where the sun rises to where it sets. In every place, incense and pure offerings will be presented in My name, because My name will be great among the nations," says Yahweh of Hosts. 12 "But you profane it when you say, 'The table of the Lord is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food is contemptible.'

13 You also say: 'Oh, what a nuisance!' And you turn up your nose at it," says Yahweh of Hosts.

"You bring offerings that are stolen, lame, or sick! Should I accept these from your hands?" asks Yahweh.

14 "But cursed is the deceiver who has an acceptable male in his flock and vows to give it, but sacrifices a defective animal to the Lord. For I am a great King," says Yahweh of Hosts, "and My name is to be feared among the nations.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS
The priests get a warning: they were supposed to teach the truth, and instead they made people stumble. Then the husbands get one too. They are walking out on the wives of their youth, and Malachi says God was a witness at the wedding.

A WARNING TO THE PRIESTS

1 "And now this decree is for you, O priests:

2 If you do not listen, and if you do not take it to heart to honor My name," says Yahweh of Hosts, "I will send a curse among you, and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have already begun to curse them, because you are not taking it to heart.

3 Behold, I will rebuke your descendants, and I will spread dung on your faces, the waste from your feasts, and you will be carried off with it.

4 Then you will know that I have sent you this commandment so that My covenant with Levi may continue," says Yahweh of Hosts. 5 "My covenant with him was one of life and peace, which I gave to him; it called for reverence, and he revered Me and stood in awe of My name.

THE GOVERNOR'S COIN

MALACHI 1:8 · HAGGAI 1:1 · NEHEMIAH 5:14 TO 15

A tiny silver coin of Yehezqiyah the governor, Judah in Persian times, front and back, shown many times larger than life. Photo Classical Numismatic Group, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

A tiny silver coin made in Judah when it was a province of the Persian Empire. One side shows a face looking straight out. The other side shows an owl, copied from the famous coins of Athens. Beside the owl are old Hebrew letters that read Yehezqiyah the governor.

HOW OLD IT IS

About 350 to 330 BC, the last years of Persian rule, and some may be a little later. That is a few generations after Malachi.

HOW BIG IT IS

Smaller than a fingernail, about a quarter of an inch across, and it weighs less than a paper clip. It was small change, not a fortune.

THE WORD GOVERNOR

The Hebrew word on the coin is pechah, governor. It is the same word Malachi uses, Try offering them to your governor! 1:8. The Bible uses it for Zerubbabel, Haggai 1:1, and for Nehemiah, Nehemiah 5:14.

WHO WAS HE?

Yehezqiyah is the Hebrew form of Hezekiah, but he is not King Hezekiah, who lived more than 300 years earlier. He was a local governor under Persia, and no Bible book names him. Josephus quotes a Greek writer, Hecataeus, about a Jewish chief priest named Ezekias who moved to Egypt after Alexander's time. Some think it is the same man or his family. Others disagree.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR MALACHI

The governors before Nehemiah took food and silver from the people, Nehemiah 5:15. Nobody would hand the governor a blind or lame animal. Yet the priests gave God their worst. If you would not give it to the boss, do not give it to God.

YEHUD

Other small coins from these years are stamped YHD, Yehud, the name the Persians used for Judah. The king's own gold coins were the big money. See Persian Gold Coins, Ezra, p.768.

THE HONEST SIDE

We do not know which governor ruled in Malachi's day. This coin shows the office, not the man Malachi meant.

The front and the back of one of the governor's coins.

DEMONIC GOD SPEAKING

6 True instruction was in his mouth, and nothing false was found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity. 7 For the lips of a priest should preserve knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, because he is the messenger of Yahweh of Hosts.

8 But you have departed from the way, and your instruction has caused many to stumble. You have violated the covenant of Levi," says Yahweh of Hosts. 9 "So I in turn have made you despised and humiliated before all the people, because you have not kept My ways, but have shown partiality in matters of the law."

JUDAH'S UNFAITHFULNESS

10 Do we not all have one Father? Did not one God create us? Why then do we break faith with one another so as to profane the covenant of our fathers?

11 Judah has broken faith; an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned Yahweh's beloved sanctuary by marrying the daughter of a foreign god. 12 As for the man who does this, may Yahweh cut off from the tents of Jacob everyone who is awake and aware—even if he brings an offering to Yahweh of Hosts.

13 And this is another thing you do: You cover the altar of Yahweh with tears, with weeping and groaning, because He no longer regards your offerings or receives them gladly from your hands.

14 Yet you ask, "Why?"

It is because Yahweh has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have broken faith, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

15 Has not Yahweh made them one, having a portion of the Spirit? And why one? Because He seeks godly offspring. So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not break faith with the wife of your youth.

16 "For I hate divorce," says Yahweh, the God of Israel. "He who divorces his wife covers his garment with violence," says Yahweh of Hosts. So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not break faith.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

DOES GOD HATE DIVORCE?

Two Translations

MALACHI 2:13 TO 16 · KJV MALACHI 2:16

THE SETTING

Men were breaking faith with the wife of your youth, 2:14, and many were marrying women who served other gods, 2:11. Ezra and Nehemiah fought the same thing, Ezra 9 to 10 and Nehemiah 13:23 to 27.

THE OLDER WORDING

For I hate divorce, says Yahweh, like this Bible, the NASB and the NIV of 1984. The KJV says he hateth putting away.

THE NEWER WORDING

Some newer Bibles read it as the man who hates and divorces his wife does wrong, like the NIV of 2011 and the CSB. The ESV says the man who does not love his wife but divorces her. The Hebrew says he hates, send away, and the grammar can go either way.

A CLUE FROM EGYPT

Jewish marriage contracts from Elephantine in Egypt, from the 400s BC, use the words I hate as the legal way to say I divorce. See The Elephantine Papyri, Nehemiah, p.793.

VIEW 1: GOD HATES DIVORCE ITSELF

The older reading. Marriage is a covenant God witnesses, 2:14, and Jesus said what God has joined together, let man not separate, Matthew 19:6.

VIEW 2: GOD HATES CRUEL DIVORCE

The newer reading. God condemns the man who coldly throws away a faithful wife. The law allowed divorce, Deuteronomy 24:1 to 4, and God even pictured Himself giving unfaithful Israel a certificate of divorce, Jeremiah 3:8.

WHAT JESUS SAID

Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of your hardness of heart, Matthew 19:8. Jesus named sexual immorality as a reason, 19:9. Paul said a believer deserted by an unbelieving spouse is not bound, 1 Corinthians 7:15. Churches differ on what that allows, and on remarriage.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God takes marriage vows seriously, He sees the one who is hurt, and He calls husbands to be faithful. So guard yourselves in your spirit, 2:16.

17 You have wearied Yahweh with your words; yet you ask, "How have we wearied Him?"

By saying, "All who do evil are good in the sight of Yahweh, and in them He delights," or, "Where is the God of justice?"

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

God promises to send His messenger, and then the Lord Himself will come to His temple like a refiner's fire. Next question: Will a man rob God? Bring the full tithe and test Me. A few faithful friends talk about God, and He writes their names in a book.

I WILL SEND MY MESSENGER // MATTHEW 11:7–19; LUKE 7:24–35

2 But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He will be like a refiner's fire, like a launderer's soap.

3 And He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will present offerings to Yahweh in righteousness.

4 Then the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will please Yahweh, as in days of old and years gone by.

5 "Then I will draw near to you for judgment. And I will be a swift witness against sorcerers and adulterers and perjurers, against oppressors of the widowed and fatherless, and against those who defraud laborers of their wages and deny justice to the foreigner but do not fear Me," says Yahweh of Hosts.

ROBBING GOD

6 "Because I, Yahweh, do not change, you descendants of Jacob have not been destroyed. 7 Yet from the days of your fathers, you have turned away from My statutes and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of Hosts.

"But you ask, 'How can we return?'

8 Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me!

But you ask, 'How do we rob You?'

In tithes and offerings. 9 You are cursed with a curse, yet you—the whole nation—are still robbing Me. 10 Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house. Test Me in this," says Yahweh of Hosts. "See if I will not

ROBBING GOD?

Malachi 3:8 to 12 in Its Day

MALACHI 3:7 TO 12 · NEHEMIAH 10:37 TO 39 · NEHEMIAH 13:10 TO 12 · DEUTERONOMY 6:16

WHAT GOD SAID

Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! ... In tithes and offerings, 3:8. Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, 3:10.

THE STOREHOUSE

Store rooms in the temple courts held the grain, wine and oil the people brought, to feed the Levites and priests, Nehemiah 10:37 to 39. In Nehemiah's day the gifts stopped, and the Levites had to go back to their fields, Nehemiah 13:10 to 12.

TEST ME

The Bible says, Do not test Yahweh your God, Deuteronomy 6:16. Here God Himself says Test Me in this, 3:10. He promises open windows of heaven and no more crop eating pests, 3:11.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Before the money comes this: Return to Me, and I will return to you, 3:7. God wanted their hearts back.

TODAY

Many churches teach this passage as a lasting promise for giving. Others say it was for Israel under the Law and its temple. Christians disagree. For the history and every view, see Does the Tithe Still Apply?, Leviticus, p.219.

12 "Then all the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight," says Yahweh of Hosts.

THE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

13 "Your words against Me have been harsh," says Yahweh. "Yet you ask, 'What have we spoken against You?'

14 You have said, 'It is futile to serve God. What have we gained by keeping His requirements and walking mournfully before Yahweh of Hosts? 15 So now we call the arrogant blessed. Not only do evildoers prosper, they even test God and escape.'"

16 At that time those who feared Yahweh spoke with one another, and Yahweh listened and heard them. So a scroll of remembrance was written before Him regarding those who feared Yahweh and honored His name.

17 "They will be Mine," says Yahweh of Hosts, "on the day when I prepare My treasured possession. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him. 18 So you will again distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not."

THE BIG QUESTION

WHO IS ELIJAH?

The Promise

MALACHI 4:4 TO 6 · 2 KINGS 2:11 · JOHN 1:21

THE PROMISE

Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and awesome Day of Yahweh, 4:5. He will turn the hearts of fathers and children back to each other, 4:6.

WHY ELIJAH?

Elijah never died. A chariot of fire came between him and Elisha, and a whirlwind took him up to heaven, 2 Kings 2:11. So people expected him to come back. Sirach 48:10 says he is ready to come and turn the heart of the father to the son.

THEY ASKED JOHN

Priests from Jerusalem asked John the Baptist, Are you Elijah? He said, I am not, John 1:21.

Every View

MATTHEW 11:14 · MATTHEW 17:3 TO 13 · LUKE 1:17 · REVELATION 11:3 TO 6

VIEW 1: JOHN THE BAPTIST

Jesus said it plainly: if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come, Matthew 11:14, and Elijah has already come, 17:12 to 13. The angel said John would go in the spirit and power of Elijah, Luke 1:17. John even dressed like Elijah, 2 Kings 1:8 and Matthew 3:4.

WHY JOHN SAID NO

Most say John was not Elijah come back in person, but he did Elijah's job in Elijah's spirit.

VIEW 2: ELIJAH STILL TO COME

Jesus also said Elijah does indeed come, and he will restore all things, Matthew 17:11. Many believe Elijah will come again before Jesus returns, maybe as one of the two witnesses, who shut the sky so that no rain will fall, Revelation 11:3 to 6, like Elijah, 1 Kings 17:1.

ON THE MOUNTAIN

Malachi ends with Moses and Elijah, and both appeared with Jesus on the mountain, Matthew 17:3.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

God sends a messenger first to turn hearts back. See Elijah's Whirlwind, 2 Kings, p.603.

THE BIG QUESTION

THE 400 SILENT YEARS

No Prophet in the Land

MALACHI 4:5 · 1 MACCABEES 4:46 · 1 MACCABEES 9:27 · 1 MACCABEES 14:41

THE LAST PROPHET

Malachi spoke about 430 BC. The next prophet in the Bible is John the Baptist, about AD 28. That gap, about 450 years, is often called the 400 silent years.

NO PROPHET

Jewish writers knew it. 1 Maccabees says the people stored the stones of a defiled altar until a prophet should come, 4:46. It speaks of great distress such as had not been since prophets stopped appearing, 9:27. Simon was made leader until a trustworthy prophet should arise, 14:41.

THE RABBIS

The Talmud says that after Haggai,

- MAL 4:6 [NOTE] THE LAST WORD. The last word of the Old Testament is curse. When Jews read Malachi aloud in the synagogue, they read 4:5 again after it, so the reading ends with hope.

Zechariah and Malachi, the Holy Spirit departed from Israel. Josephus said the exact line of prophets stopped after the Persian king Artaxerxes.

What Happened

DANIEL 11 · JOHN 10:22 · GALATIANS 4:4

PERSIA TO GREECE

Alexander the Great took the land in 332 BC. See Alexander the Great, Zechariah, p.1499. After he died, the Greek kings of Egypt and Syria fought over it for about 150 years, the wars Daniel 11 describes.

THE GREEK BIBLE

In Egypt, Jews translated the Scriptures into Greek, starting with the five books of Moses about 250 BC. Most of the apostles' quotes come from it.

THE MACCABEES

In 167 BC the Syrian king Antiochus IV set up pagan worship in the temple. The Maccabee family led a revolt and cleansed the temple in 164 BC, 1 Maccabees 4:52 to 59. Jews still remember it at Hanukkah, the Feast of Dedication Jesus went to, John 10:22.

ROME

The Roman general Pompey took Jerusalem in 63 BC, and Rome made Herod king in 40 BC.

NOT REALLY SILENT

Synagogues spread, the Pharisees and Sadducees began, and scribes copied the Dead Sea Scrolls. The stage was being set: when the time had fully come, God sent His Son, Galatians 4:4.

BETWEEN THE TESTAMENTS · THE BOOKS SOME BIBLES ADD

About the Apocrypha

The Truth About the "Extra Books"

WHAT THEY ARE	Mostly Jewish books written from about 300 BC to AD 135. Most come from the quiet years between Malachi and Jesus.
HOW MANY	The 1611 King James Bible printed 14 of them between the Testaments. Catholic Bibles have 7 extra books plus extra chapters in Esther and Daniel. Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles have more.
LANGUAGES	Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek.
IN THIS BIBLE	Not included. This Bible has the 66 books. This section tells you what the other books are, so you are never caught off guard.
OUR VIEW	The same as Martin Luther's: good and useful to read, but not equal to Holy Scripture.

Why This Section Is Here

Pick up a Catholic Bible and you will find books like Tobit and Judith between Nehemiah and Job. Pick up an Ethiopian Bible and you will find the Book of Enoch. Go online and someone will tell you these books were taken out of the Bible to hide secrets from you.

So here is the whole story. Where these books came from, who reads them and why, what each one says, and why this Bible, like Martin Luther, says they are good to read but are not Scripture.

The 400 Quiet Years

Malachi was the last prophet of the Old Testament, about 430 BC. After him, about 400 years go by with no new prophet. The Jews themselves said so. 1 Maccabees, written about 100 BC, says three times that there was no prophet in its day, 4:46, 9:27 and 14:41. About AD 95 the Jewish historian Josephus wrote that books written after the time of Artaxerxes, Nehemiah's king, were not trusted like the earlier ones, because the line of prophets had stopped.

The years were quiet for prophets, but not for history. The Persians ruled until Alexander the Great swept through in 332 BC. After that, Greek became the language of trade and government all over the world. In Judea most people spoke Aramaic, and scholars still read and wrote Hebrew. Alexander's generals split his empire, and the Jews were ruled first from Egypt and then from Syria.

In 167 BC the Syrian king Antiochus IV outlawed the Jewish faith and set up an altar to Zeus in the temple. A priest named Mattathias and his sons, the Maccabees, fought back. In 164 BC they took back the temple and dedicated it again. That is the start of Hanukkah. Then in 63 BC Rome took Jerusalem, and the stage was set for Jesus.

Almost all of the extra books were written in these years. They are real windows into the world Jesus was born into. But they came after the prophets had gone quiet.

The Septuagint: the Greek Old Testament

So many Jews lived in Egypt and spoke Greek that they needed their Bible in Greek. About 250 BC, Jewish scholars in Alexandria began translating the five books of Moses. The rest of the Old Testament was translated over the next hundred years or more. A legend said 72 scholars did the work, so the Greek Bible is called the Septuagint, from the Latin word for seventy, and it is written LXX.

The early church spoke Greek, so the Septuagint became its Old Testament. Over time, Greek copies also carried other Jewish books. The oldest full Greek Bibles we have are Christian books from the 300s and 400s AD, like Codex Sinaiticus. They do not even agree with each other on which extra books to include. Many scholars now doubt that the Jews ever had a separate, bigger Greek Bible list. The extra books simply traveled with the Greek copies.

Apocrypha or Deuterocanonical?

The same books go by different names, and the names tell you what each church believes about them.

APOCRYPHA. This Greek word means hidden or set apart. About AD 391 Jerome, who translated the Bible into Latin, used it for books that were not in the Hebrew Bible. Protestants still call them the Apocrypha.

DEUTEROCANONICAL. This means second canon, a second list. A Catholic scholar named Sixtus of Siena first used the word in 1566. The Catholic Church made the list official at the Council of Trent on April 8, 1546. Earlier councils, like Carthage in 397, had already listed them. To Catholics they are fully Scripture, only added to the list later.

THE READABLE BOOKS. Many Orthodox teachers call them the anagignoskomena, a Greek word for the books that are read. They are honored and read in church, but many Orthodox put them a step below the Hebrew books.

PSEUDEPIGRAPHA. This means falsely titled. It is used for books written under the name of a famous person who lived long before, like Enoch. Protestants and Catholics put 1 Enoch and Jubilees in this group. The Ethiopian church counts them as Scripture.

Were They Taken Out of the Bible?

Not the way the internet tells it. Here is what happened.

LUTHER, 1534. In his German Bible, Luther moved the extra books out of the Old Testament into their own section, with this heading: 'Apocrypha. These are books which are not held equal to the Holy Scriptures, and yet are useful and good to read.' He did not throw them away. He put them in their place.

THE KING JAMES BIBLE, 1611. The first King James Bible printed 14 of these books between the Testaments, under the title Apocrypha. The Church of England said in its Articles of Religion that they are read for example of life and instruction of manners, but not used to establish any doctrine. So even in 1611 they were not treated as Scripture.

LEFT OUT OVER TIME. Printers often left the section out to make Bibles smaller and cheaper. In 1826 the British and Foreign Bible Society stopped paying for Bibles that had it. When the Revised Version came out, its Apocrypha was printed on its own in 1895. Nobody stole them. Protestants never counted them as Scripture, and over time they simply stopped printing them.

Jesus Never Quoted Them as Scripture

Jesus and the writers of the New Testament quote the Old Testament around 300 times. They say It is written, or Scripture says, or as the prophet said. Not once do they quote one of the 14 Apocrypha books that way. The closest the New Testament comes to any extra book is Jude, below.

Jesus named the parts of His Bible in Luke 24:44: the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms. Those are the three parts of the Hebrew Bible, the same books as our 39. In Matthew 23:35 He spoke of the blood of the prophets from Abel to Zechariah. Abel is killed in Genesis, and a Zechariah is stoned in 2 Chronicles 24:20 to 21, the last book of the Hebrew Bible. Many scholars think He meant from the first page to the last.

To be fair, here is what the New Testament does with the extra books.

ECHOES. Some lines sound like them. Hebrews 11:35 speaks of people tortured who would not accept release, to gain a better resurrection. Many think of the mother and seven sons in 2 Maccabees 7. Hebrews 1:3 calls Jesus the radiance of God's glory, and Wisdom 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light. Romans 1 and Wisdom 13 to 14 both say idol makers have no excuse. Paul and the writer of Hebrews knew these books, but they never call them Scripture.

AN EVENT. John 10:22 says Jesus was in the temple at the Feast of Dedication. That is Hanukkah, from 1 Maccabees 4. Being at a feast is not quoting a book.

JUDE AND ENOCH. Jude 14 to 15 quotes 1 Enoch 1:9 and says Enoch prophesied. This is the closest the New Testament comes. But 1 Enoch is not one of the 14 books, and quoting one true line does not make a whole book Scripture. Paul quoted Greek poets too, in Acts 17:28, 1 Corinthians 15:33 and Titus 1:12, and nobody thinks their poems belong in the Bible.

The Prophecy Test

God gave Israel a test for anyone who claimed to speak for Him. If what he says does not come true, the LORD has not spoken it, Deuteronomy 18:21 to 22. And God points to prophecy as His own signature: I declare the end from the beginning, Isaiah 46:9 to 10.

The editors of this Bible counted every prophecy and foreshadow in the 66 books and in the extra books. The difference is huge.

THE 66 BOOKS	1,051 prophecies and foreshadows. More than 400 point to Jesus. About 116 others came true in history, like the fall of Babylon. About 195 are about the end of the age and are still waiting to be fulfilled.
THE EXTRA BOOKS	One that points ahead to something that happened after it was written: Wisdom of Solomon 2:12 to 20.
WHERE THE EXTRA BOOKS FIT	1 and 2 Maccabees record 24 prophecies from the 66 books coming true: 19 from Daniel 8, 9 and 11, plus Ezekiel 25, Obadiah 18 and Zechariah 9. The extra books are where the Bible's predictions come true, not where the predictions come from.

Where the Prophecy Actually Is

The extra books are not empty of the future. Here is every place they look ahead, and what happened.

WISDOM 2:12 TO 20. A righteous man calls God his Father and is mocked: if he is God's son, God will help him. Then he is condemned to a shameful death. At the cross the leaders said, He trusts in God, let God deliver Him now, Matthew 27:43. Many Christians see Jesus here. To be honest, the writer may have meant any righteous person, and Matthew's words are closest to Psalm 22:8, written by David about 1,000 years before Jesus.

TOBIT 13 TO 14. Tobit foretells the fall of Nineveh, the exile and the return. But Tobit was written about 400 years after Nineveh fell, so the writer already knew. He also sees a Jerusalem built of sapphires and emeralds, and all nations turning to God. That is still future, and it is borrowed from Isaiah 54:11 to 12 and Isaiah 60. Revelation 21 shows the same city.

BARUCH 4:36 TO 5:9. Jerusalem's children come home from east and west, and the mountains are made low. This echoes Isaiah 40:4. The return from Babylon had already happened when it was written. The final gathering of God's people is still future, and Isaiah said it first.

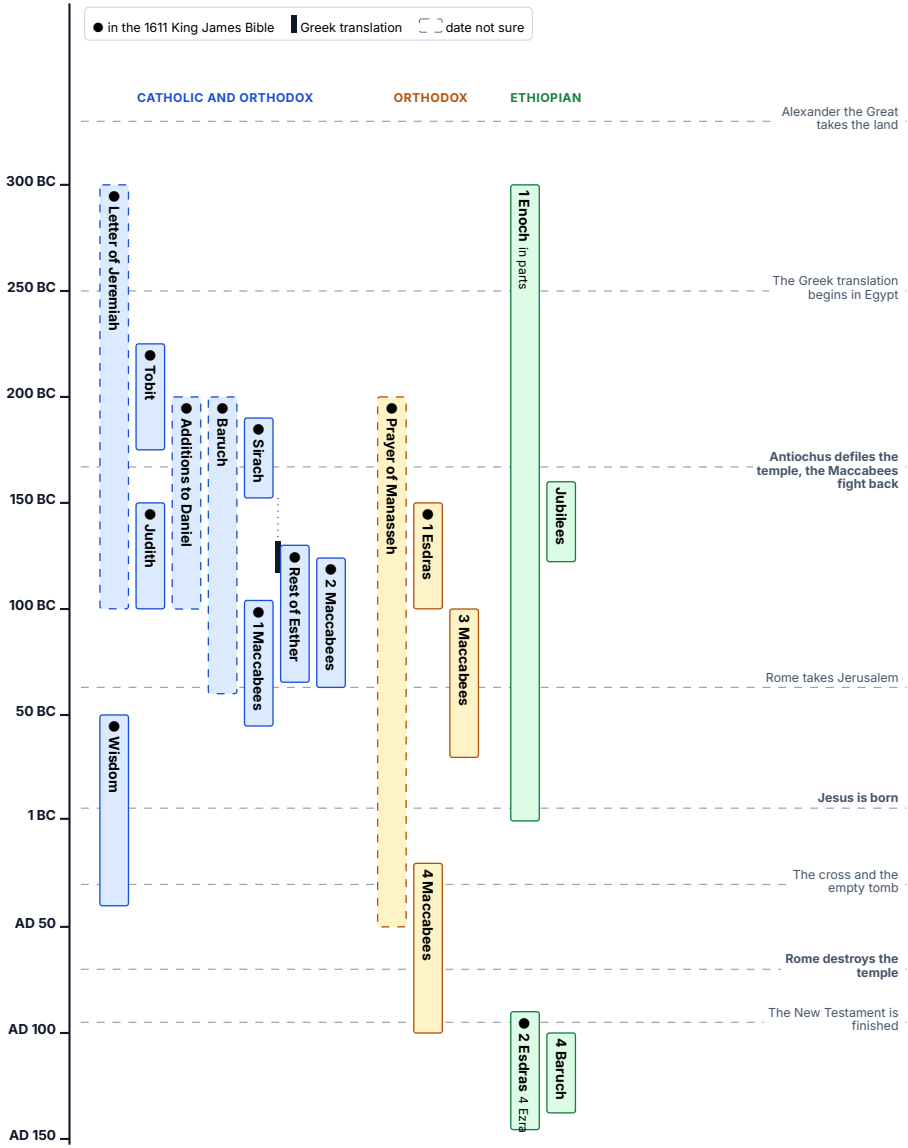
SIRACH 48:10. Elijah will come to turn the hearts of fathers to their children. This repeats Malachi 4:5 to 6. Jesus said it was fulfilled in John the Baptist, Matthew 11:14 and 17:12.

WISDOM 3:7 TO 8 AND JUDITH 16:17. The righteous will judge the nations, and God will punish the enemies of His people with fire and worms on the day of judgment. These are end times hopes that are still waiting. They come from Daniel 7:22 and Isaiah 66:24. Paul says the same in 1 Corinthians 6:2.

2 ESDRAS 7:28 TO 29 AND 11 TO 13. Visions of God's son the Messiah, an eagle that stands for Rome, and a man rising from the sea. But this book was written about AD 100, after Jesus came. It says the Messiah will reign 400 years and then die with everyone else. That did not happen, and it is not what the Bible teaches. The eagle vision even says it is reworking Daniel's fourth kingdom, 2 Esdras 12:11.

1 ENOCH 1:9. The Lord comes with ten thousands of His holy ones to judge. Jude quotes it, and it is still waiting for the return of Jesus. It agrees with Zechariah 14:5

and Revelation 19. Other parts of 1 Enoch tell Israel's history up to the Maccabees as if it were prophecy, but those parts were written in the 160s BC, after the events.



JUBILEES 23. A day will come when people return to God's law and live close to a thousand years. Still waiting, and the book was written about 160 to 150 BC.

THE PATTERN	Almost every look ahead in the extra books does one of three things. It was written after the event, it repeats a prophecy from the 66 books, or it never came true.
THE COUNT	Of the 195 end times prophecies still waiting, every one we counted is in the 66 books. The extra books add no new prophecy of their own that has come true, except possibly Wisdom 2.

TIMELINE

When the Extra Books Were Written

In the quiet years after Malachi, and some after Jesus

HOW TO READ IT Time runs down the page. Each bar shows about when a book was written, not when its story is set. Dashed bars mean scholars are not sure.

AFTER MALACHI Every one of these books was written after Malachi, about 430 BC, when the Jews said the prophets had gone quiet.

THE DOT A dot before a name means the book was one of the 14 printed between the Testaments in the 1611 King James Bible.

NOT SHOWN Psalm 151, printed at the end of Psalms in this Bible. The Ethiopian Meqabyan books, whose dates no one knows.

Dates are approximate and many are debated. Sirach has two marks: the Hebrew book, and the Greek translation by Ben Sira's grandson.

The Books One by One

Here is every book from the 1611 King James Apocrypha, plus the extra books in Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles. Each one says when it was written and which churches read it as Scripture. Catholic Bibles have the books marked Catholic.

1 Esdras

WRITTEN	About 150 to 100 BC, in Greek.
WHO READS IT	Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles. Catholics keep it in an appendix, called 3 Esdras.
SET IN	About 622 to 458 BC.

Esdras is the Greek form of Ezra. This book retells the end of 2 Chronicles, most of Ezra and part of Nehemiah, from King Josiah's Passover to Ezra reading the law.

THE NEW PART. Its one big new story is a contest between three bodyguards of King Darius. Which is strongest: wine, the king or women? The third, Zerubbabel, adds truth and wins. Truth is great and stronger than all things, 4:35. As his prize, he asks Darius to let the Jews rebuild Jerusalem.

WORTH KNOWING. The Jewish historian Josephus used this book when he told the story of the return. But it mixes up the order of the Persian kings, and the contest story does not appear in Ezra.

2 Esdras

WRITTEN	Chapters 3 to 14 about AD 100, by a Jewish writer. Chapters 1, 2, 15 and 16 were added later by Christians. The full book survives only in Latin. Chapters 3 to 14 also survive in Syriac, Ethiopic and other languages.
WHO READS IT	The Ethiopian Bible counts chapters 3 to 14 as Ezra Sutuel, from 3:1, where Ezra is also called Salathiel. Russian Orthodox Bibles print it as 3 Esdras. Catholics keep it in an appendix as 4 Esdras.
SET IN	557 BC, thirty years after Jerusalem fell, 3:1.

Ezra sits in Babylon and argues with God. Why did He let wicked Babylon destroy His people? Ezra has seven visions, and the angel Uriel answers him in the first three. Babylon is really a code name for Rome, which had just burned the temple in AD 70.

WORTH KNOWING. It is a cry of grief, and a lot like Job. The old Latin prayer for the dead, Eternal rest grant them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine on them, comes from 2 Esdras 2:34 to 35.

THE PROBLEM. It was written about AD 100, 500 years after Ezra. It says the Messiah will reign 400 years and then die, 7:28 to 29, which the Bible never teaches. And it says Ezra rewrote the whole lost Bible by dictating 94 books in 40 days, 24 for everyone and 70 kept secret, 14:44 to 46.

Tobit

WRITTEN	About 225 to 175 BC, probably in Aramaic. Pieces in Aramaic and Hebrew were found in the Dead Sea Scrolls.
WHO READS IT	Catholic, Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles.
SET IN	Nineveh, after 722 BC.

Tobit is a faithful Jew carried off to Assyria. He buries the dead and gives to the poor, but he goes blind when bird droppings fall in his eyes. His son Tobias travels to collect a debt, with a guide who is really the angel Raphael. Along the way Tobias marries Sarah, whose first seven husbands were each killed on the wedding night by a demon named Asmodeus. The smoke of a fish's heart and liver drives the demon away, and the fish's gall heals Tobit's eyes.

WORTH KNOWING. It has a version of the Golden Rule: What you hate, do not do to anyone, 4:15. It shows a family that prays, gives and stays faithful far from home.

THE PROBLEMS. Tobit says he was young when the northern tribes broke away from David's family, 1:4. That was 930 BC, about 200 years before he was carried off. It calls Sennacherib the son of Shalmaneser, 1:15, but his father was Sargon II. And it says giving to the poor saves from death and purges away every sin, 12:9. Protestants say only Jesus' blood does that, 1 John 1:7. Catholics read it as showing how love and repentance go together.

Judith

WRITTEN	About 150 to 100 BC, probably in Hebrew. Only the Greek survives.
WHO READS IT	Catholic, Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles.
SET IN	Nobody can say. The book mixes up centuries.

An army led by the general Holofernes surrounds the Jewish town of Bethulia. The leaders are ready to give up. Then Judith, a godly widow, dresses in her best, walks into the enemy camp, wins Holofernes' trust, and cuts off his head while he lies drunk. The army runs.

WORTH KNOWING. It is a story of courage and prayer, a lot like Jael in Judges 4 to 5. Judith's song, chapter 16, is beautiful.

THE PROBLEMS. The first verse calls Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians, ruling in Nineveh. He was king of Babylon, and Nineveh had already fallen before he became king. No one has found Bethulia. And Judith wins by lying, 11:5 to 19. Many Catholic scholars today read it as a story meant to teach, not as history.

The Rest of Esther

WRITTEN	About 130 to 78 BC, in Greek. A note at the end says it was brought to Egypt in the fourth year of a King Ptolemy.
WHO READS IT	Catholic and Orthodox Bibles, and the Ethiopian Bible.
SET IN	Persia, about 483 to 473 BC.

The Hebrew book of Esther never mentions God by name. The Greek version adds 107 verses in six places: a dream of Mordecai and what it means, the king's two letters, the prayers of Mordecai and Esther, and Esther's visit to the king. With them, God is named over and over.

WORTH KNOWING. The prayers are moving. Esther prays, Help me, for I am alone and have no helper but You, Rest of Esther 14:3.

WHY IT IS NOT SCRIPTURE. These verses were added to a finished book, about 300 years later. The Hebrew Esther shows God working quietly behind the scenes. The Greek writer wanted to say it out loud. Jerome noticed they were not in the Hebrew and moved them to the end of Esther.

Wisdom of Solomon

WRITTEN	About 50 BC to AD 40, in Greek, probably in Alexandria, Egypt.
WHO READS IT	Catholic, Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles.
SET IN	No story. It is a book of teaching.

The writer speaks as if he were King Solomon, 9:7 to 8. But Solomon did not write it. It was written in Greek about 900 years after Solomon, and it uses ideas from Greek thinkers, like the four virtues of self control, good sense, justice and courage, 8:7. Writing in a famous person's voice was a common style back then. Even an early Christian list, the Muratorian Fragment, says it was written by friends of Solomon in his honor.

WORTH KNOWING. Chapter 2 is the one look ahead in the extra books that many Christians see fulfilled in Jesus, a righteous man mocked as God's son and condemned to a shameful death. Chapter 3 begins, The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God. Chapters 13 to 15 mock idols the way Isaiah 44 does.

THE PROBLEM. It says God made the world out of formless matter, 11:17, an idea from Greek thinkers. Hebrews 11:3 says the world was not made out of things that can be seen.

Sirach

WRITTEN	About 190 to 180 BC, in Hebrew, in Jerusalem. The writer's grandson translated it into Greek in Egypt after 132 BC.
WHO READS IT	Catholic, Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles.
ALSO CALLED	Ecclesiasticus, and the Wisdom of Ben Sira.

Think of it as Proverbs part two. Its writer tells us his name, Jesus son of Eleazar son of Sira, 50:27. Jesus was a common name, the Greek form of Yeshua. He was a teacher in Jerusalem, and his 51 chapters give wise advice on friends, money, work, the tongue, parents, doctors and the fear of the Lord.

READ IN THE EARLY CHURCH. Christians read it so much that its Latin name, Ecclesiasticus, means the church book. The rabbis quoted it too, even though it was not in their Bible. Chapters 44 to 50, Let us now praise famous men, walk through Israel's heroes from Enoch to the high priest Simon, a lot like Hebrews 11.

FOUND AGAIN. The Hebrew was lost for centuries. Then pages turned up in an old Cairo storeroom in 1896, and a scroll of it was found at Masada in 1964.

THE PROBLEMS. Its grandson admits his translation may not be perfect, in his foreword. And some lines about women are harsh, like 25:24 and 42:14. Ben Sira himself does not claim to be a prophet. He is a wise teacher.

Baruch and the Letter of Jeremiah

WRITTEN	Baruch: about 200 to 60 BC, maybe in Hebrew. The Letter: about 300 to 100 BC. A piece of it in Greek was found in Dead Sea Scroll Cave 7.
WHO READS IT	Catholic, Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles. Catholic Bibles print the Letter as Baruch chapter 6.
SET IN	Babylon, 582 BC, five years after Jerusalem burned, 1:2.

Baruch was Jeremiah's real secretary, Jeremiah 36:4. This book claims to be his letter from Babylon. It has a prayer confessing Israel's sins, a lot like Daniel 9, a poem saying God's wisdom is His law, and words of comfort for Jerusalem.

THE LETTER OF JEREMIAH. It warns the exiles not to worship the idols of Babylon. They cannot speak, see or save. Bats and birds sit on their heads. It sounds a lot like Jeremiah 10.

THE PROBLEMS. Baruch borrows heavily from Daniel's prayer in Daniel 9, which is set in 539 BC, more than 40 years after Baruch says he wrote. The real Jeremiah 29 is a letter to the exiles, but this is not that letter. Many scholars think different writers put the book together.

The Additions to Daniel

WRITTEN	About 200 to 100 BC. They survive in Greek.
WHO READS IT	Catholic, Orthodox and Ethiopian Bibles. Catholic Bibles print them as Daniel 3:24 to 90, Daniel 13 and Daniel 14.
THE THREE	The Prayer of Azariah and the Song of the Three Young Men, Susanna, and Bel and the Dragon.

THE SONG OF THE THREE. A long prayer and song inside the fiery furnace of Daniel 3. Azariah, who is Abednego, confesses Israel's sins, and then all three sing, Bless the Lord, all works of the Lord. Churches still sing it as the Benedicite.

SUSANNA. Two old judges try to force a godly wife named Susanna to sleep with them, and when she refuses they accuse her of adultery. Young Daniel questions them one at a time: under what tree did you see it? One says a mastic tree, the other a holm oak, and their lie falls apart. It is often called one of the first detective stories.

BEL AND THE DRAGON. Daniel proves the priests of the idol Bel are eating its food by spreading ashes on the floor. In the morning there are footprints. Then he kills a dragon the Babylonians worship by feeding it cakes of tar, fat and hair, and he is thrown to the lions again. The prophet Habakkuk is carried by an angel by his hair to bring him lunch.

THE PROBLEM. None of these are in the Hebrew Daniel. Around AD 240 a Christian scholar named Julius Africanus pointed out that the Susanna story is built on Greek puns, so it was likely written in Greek, not by Daniel.

The Prayer of Manasseh

WRITTEN	Sometime between about 200 BC and AD 50, likely in Greek.
WHO READS IT	Orthodox Bibles. The Ethiopian Bible prints it inside 2 Chronicles. Catholics keep it in an appendix.
SET IN	Sometime about 680 to 648 BC, King Manasseh in chains.

Manasseh was Judah's most evil king. 2 Chronicles 33:12 to 13 says that when the Assyrians dragged him away, he humbled himself and prayed, and God brought him home. Verse 18 says his prayer was written in the records of the kings of Israel. This 15 verse prayer was written to fill that gap.

WORTH KNOWING. It is one of the most beautiful prayers of repentance ever written. I have sinned more than the sand of the sea. I bend the knee of my heart. It shows that no one is too far gone for God's mercy, which is true. 1 John 1:9.

WHY IT IS NOT SCRIPTURE. The real prayer was lost. This one was written hundreds of years later to imagine what he said. It is a good prayer, but it is not Manasseh's.

1 Maccabees

WRITTEN	About 100 BC, in Hebrew. Only the Greek survives.
WHO READS IT	Catholic and Orthodox Bibles. The Ethiopian Bible has the Meqabyan books instead.
SET IN	175 to 134 BC.

The best history book of the quiet years. Antiochus IV outlaws circumcision and the Sabbath and sets up the abomination on the temple altar in 167 BC, 1:54. The old priest Mattathias refuses to sacrifice to idols and flees to the hills with his five sons. His son Judas, called Maccabeus, the hammer, leads the fight, and his brothers Jonathan and Simon follow.

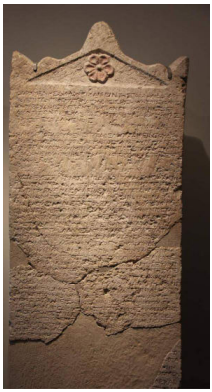
THE ROOT OF HANUKKAH. In 164 BC Judas cleans the temple and dedicates a new altar with eight days of celebration, and the people decide to keep the feast every year, 4:52 to 59. That is the Feast of Dedication, Hanukkah, and Jesus was in the temple for it, John 10:22. The story of one day of oil lasting eight days is not in Maccabees. It comes from the Talmud, written centuries later.

24 PROPHECIES COME TRUE. Daniel 8 and 11 described a proud king who would stop the daily sacrifice and set up an abomination in the temple, more than 350 years before it happened by the traditional date. 1 and 2 Maccabees record it happening, 24 fulfillments in all from Daniel, Ezekiel, Obadiah and Zechariah. Even if you take the latest date critics give for Daniel, Zechariah 9:13 still names Greece, and most scholars date it before the Maccabees.

WHY IT IS NOT SCRIPTURE. It is careful history, and it never claims to be more. It says there was no prophet in its day and that the people were waiting for one, 4:46, 9:27 and 14:41.

A silver four drachma coin of Antiochus IV. The back reads King Antiochus, God Manifest, Bringer of Victory. Photo by Classical Numismatic Group, CC BY SA 2.5.

2 Maccabees



WRITTEN	About 124 to 63 BC, in Greek. It is a short version of a five book history by Jason of Cyrene, 2:23.
WHO READS IT	Catholic and Orthodox Bibles.
SET IN	About 180 to 161 BC.

It covers some of the same years as 1 Maccabees, with more miracles and more preaching. A Syrian official named Heliodorus tries to rob the temple treasury and is beaten back by a heavenly horseman, chapter 3. A stone letter naming Heliodorus, dated 178 BC, is in the Israel Museum.

THE MARTYRS. An old teacher named Eleazar dies rather than pretend to eat pork, chapter 6. A mother watches her seven sons die one by one rather than break God's law, and then dies herself, chapter 7. Their faith in the resurrection is strong: the King of the world will raise us up to everlasting life, 7:9. The mother also says God made heaven and earth from things that did not exist, 7:28.

2 MACCABEES 12 AND PURGATORY. After a battle, Judas finds idol charms under the clothes of his dead soldiers. He takes up an offering and sends it to Jerusalem for a sin offering, so that they might be set free from their sin, 12:39 to 46. The Catholic Church points to this passage as support for praying for the dead, and for its teaching on purgatory, which was defined at the Councils of Lyon in 1274 and Florence in 1439. Protestants answer that the passage does not mention purgatory or a place of cleansing fire, that these men died in the sin of idolatry, and that the book itself is not Scripture. Hebrews 9:27 says it is appointed for man to die once, and after that the judgment.

THE WRITER'S OWN WORDS. He ends, If it is well told, that is what I wanted. If it is poorly done, it was the best I could do, 15:38. A prophet speaking for God does not talk like that.

Extra Books in Orthodox Bibles

Orthodox Bibles have the books above, plus these. Most leave out 2 Esdras, and the list differs a little from church to church.

3 Maccabees

WRITTEN	About 100 to 30 BC, in Greek, probably in Egypt.
WHO READS IT	Orthodox Bibles.
SET IN	About 217 BC.

Despite its name, it is not about the Maccabees. It is set 50 years before them. King Ptolemy IV of Egypt wins a battle at Raphia in 217 BC and tries to walk into the Holy of Holies in Jerusalem. God strikes him down. Back in Egypt he takes revenge by rounding up the Jews to be trampled by drunken elephants. Two angels appear, and the elephants turn on the king's own soldiers.

WORTH KNOWING. The battle of Raphia really happened. The rest is a story of God protecting His people far from home, a lot like Esther. Josephus tells a similar elephant story, but he puts it under a later king, Ptolemy VIII.

4 Maccabees

WRITTEN	About AD 20 to 100, in Greek.
WHO READS IT	Printed in an appendix in Greek Orthodox Bibles. It is in Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Alexandrinus.
SET IN	A sermon about the martyrs of 2 Maccabees 6 to 7.

It reads like a speech. Its big idea is that reason, guided by God's law, can master the passions. Its proof is Eleazar, the mother and her seven sons, who stayed faithful under torture.

WORTH KNOWING. Early Christians loved this book in times of persecution. It praises the martyrs' blood as a ransom for the nation, 17:21 to 22, an idea the New Testament says only Jesus fulfills, Mark 10:45. It speaks of the souls of the righteous living with God, but says little about the body rising.

PSALM 151. A short psalm in David's voice, about being the youngest son, keeping sheep and beating Goliath. It is in the Greek Bible and in a Hebrew Psalms scroll from the Dead Sea, but not in the Hebrew Bible, which ends at 150. This Bible prints it in brackets at the end of Psalms, so you can read it there.

THE ODES. Greek Bibles often add a set of 14 songs after the Psalms, used in worship. Most come from the Bible itself, like the songs of Moses, Hannah and Mary. Others are the Prayer of Manasseh and the songs of the three young men in the furnace.

Extra Books in the Ethiopian Bible

The Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church has the biggest Bible in the world, 81 books. Ethiopia was far from Rome and Constantinople, and it kept books the rest of the church let go. It counts 1 Esdras and 2 Esdras, the Prayer of Manasseh inside 2 Chronicles, and most of the books above, plus these.

1 Enoch

WRITTEN	In parts, from about 300 BC to near the time of Jesus, in Aramaic. The full book survives only in Ge'ez, the old Ethiopian language.
WHO READS IT	The Ethiopian Bible. Pieces were found in the Dead Sea Scrolls.
SET IN	Before the Flood, Genesis 5.

Enoch walked with God and was taken, Genesis 5:24. This book claims to be his visions. It tells how 200 fallen angels called Watchers came down, married women and fathered giants, the Nephilim of Genesis 6:4. It describes tours of heaven and the place of judgment, the movements of the sun and moon, and a figure called the Son of Man who will judge the world.

WORTH KNOWING. Jude 14 to 15 quotes 1 Enoch 1:9 and says Enoch prophesied. 2 Peter 2:4 and Jude 6 speak of angels kept in chains for judgment, which sounds like 1 Enoch too. Many early Christians read it. Ethiopia kept the only complete copy alive.

WHY IT IS NOT SCRIPTURE. Enoch did not write it. It was written thousands of years after him, by several writers over 300 years. Jews never put it in their Bible, and Jesus never quoted it. Jude quoting one line shows that line is true, not that the whole book is.

The first page of 1 Enoch in Ge'ez, the old church language of Ethiopia, from a book copied about 1500, British Library Oriental MS 485. Public domain.

Jubilees

WRITTEN	About 160 to 150 BC, in Hebrew. Pieces of about 15 copies were found in the Dead Sea Scrolls. The full book survives in Ge'ez.
WHO READS IT	The Ethiopian Bible.
SET IN	Mount Sinai. An angel tells Moses the story from creation to the Exodus.

It retells Genesis and the start of Exodus, and it divides all of history into jubilees, blocks of 49 years. It teaches a calendar of 364 days, so the feasts always fall on the same day of the week. It says the patriarchs kept the law of Moses long before Sinai.

WORTH KNOWING. It shows what Jewish teachers in the time of the Maccabees believed about angels, the calendar and the law. The people of the Dead Sea Scrolls read it a lot.

WHY IT IS NOT SCRIPTURE. It adds many details Genesis does not have, and it was written more than 1,000 years after Moses.

1, 2 and 3 Meqabyan

WRITTEN	No one knows. Many scholars think in Ethiopia, centuries after Jesus. They survive only in Ge'ez.
WHO READS IT	The Ethiopian Bible, in place of the Greek 1 and 2 Maccabees.
SET IN	Not clear.

Meqabyan is the Ethiopian word for Maccabees, but these are different books. The first tells of a man named Maccabeus from the tribe of Benjamin and his sons, who stand up to a cruel king. The second and third are mostly teaching and warnings, with stories from Israel's past.

WORTH KNOWING. They are treasured in Ethiopia and almost unknown everywhere else. Very few scholars have studied them, and full English translations are new.

4 Baruch

WRITTEN	About AD 100 to 135, after the temple was destroyed.
WHO READS IT	The Ethiopian Bible, as the Rest of the Words of Baruch. Also called the Paralipomena of Jeremiah.
SET IN	The fall of Jerusalem, 586 BC, and the return.

Before Jerusalem falls, Jeremiah sends his friend Abimelech, the Ebed Melech of Jeremiah 38, out to pick figs. Abimelech sits under a tree and falls asleep for 66 years. When he wakes, the figs are still fresh. It is a sign that God keeps His people safe until He brings them home.

WHY IT IS NOT SCRIPTURE. It was written more than 600 years after Jeremiah, after Jesus, and its ending was shaped by Christians.

THE BROADER ETHIOPIAN LIST. The church also has a broader way of counting to 81 that adds church books to the New Testament: the Sinodos, the Book of the Covenant, an Ethiopian book of Clement and the Didascalia. Its Old Testament can also include Josippon, a history of the Jews. These are kept in their own books and are not printed in the church's Bible. For why some English editions claim 88 books, see the Bonus Section, Why Do Some Bibles Have More Books?

So What Do We Do With Them?

Read them the way Martin Luther said to: useful and good to read, but not equal to Holy Scripture.

READ THEM FOR HISTORY. 1 Maccabees tells you why Jesus was in the temple at Hanukkah and how Daniel's prophecies came true. These books show the world of the Pharisees, the Sadducees and the Roman roads Jesus walked.

READ THEM FOR WISDOM. Sirach has good advice on money, friends and the tongue. The Prayer of Manasseh can teach you how to repent. The martyrs of 2 Maccabees can teach you courage.

DO NOT BUILD DOCTRINE ON THEM. No teaching should stand on a book Jesus never quoted as Scripture, that was not in the Bible of His people, that admits it has no prophet, and that carries no prophecy of its own that came true. If a teaching needs Tobit or 2 Maccabees to stand up, it is standing on sand.

Luther was right. Jesus said the Scriptures testify about Him, John 5:39, and He meant the Law, the Prophets and the Psalms. That is where more than a thousand prophecies wait and come true. Those are the books in your hands. Now turn the page. After 400 quiet years, God is about to speak again.

BOOKS 40 TO 66 · 27 BOOKS · WRITTEN IN GREEK

THE NEW TESTAMENT

The promise kept

BOOKS	27 books: 4 Gospels, 1 book of history, 21 letters and 1 book of prophecy.
WRITTEN	About AD 45 to 95, by apostles of Jesus and their close companions.
LANGUAGE	Koine Greek, the everyday Greek spoken all over the Roman Empire.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	More than 5,800 Greek manuscripts, plus thousands of early copies in Latin, Syriac and Coptic. No other ancient book comes close.
EARLIEST MANUSCRIPT	Papyrus 52, a scrap of John 18, usually dated about AD 125 to 175.
THE LIST OF 27	The churches used these books from the start. In AD 367 Athanasius, a bishop in Egypt, listed the same 27 books we have today.

What Does Testament Mean

Testament is an old word for covenant, a binding promise. The Old Testament is the story of God's covenant with Israel. The New Testament is the new covenant Jeremiah promised in Jeremiah 31:31, sealed by the blood of Jesus. On the night before He died, Jesus lifted the cup and said, This cup is the new covenant in My blood.

Why Four Gospels

Each Gospel writer had a different audience. Matthew wrote for Jewish readers and shows Jesus as the promised King. Mark wrote fast and short, likely for Romans, and shows Jesus as the Servant who acts. Luke, a doctor, wrote a careful history for a Greek reader and shows Jesus as the Savior of everyone. John wrote last and shows Jesus as God in the flesh. Four witnesses, one Jesus. In court, four matching witnesses who each add their own details are more believable than four who repeat the same script.

The Three Oldest Bibles

The next three pages show the three oldest Bibles that still hold most of the New Testament, oldest first: Codex Vaticanus, Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Alexandrinus. Older pieces of single books survive on papyrus, like Papyrus 52, but these three held the whole Bible in one book, and they are the copies scholars check first.

400 Quiet Years

Between Malachi and Matthew, about 400 years pass with no new prophet. A lot happens. The Persians hand the world to Alexander the Great, and Greek becomes the language of everything. The Jews translate their Scriptures into Greek. The Maccabees win a war for the temple, which is where Hanukkah comes from. Then Rome takes over in 63 BC. By the time Jesus is born, the roads are Roman, the language is Greek, and the people are waiting for the Messiah. The stage is set.

How It Is Organized

THE GOSPELS	Matthew, Mark, Luke, John. Four accounts of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, built on eyewitness testimony.
HISTORY	Acts. How the church spread from Jerusalem to Rome.

PAUL'S LETTERS	Romans to Philemon. 13 letters from Paul to churches and friends.
GENERAL LETTERS	Hebrews to Jude. 8 letters from other leaders, including Peter, James and John.
PROPHECY	Revelation. How the story ends: Jesus wins.

Why We Say Yahweh

God told Moses His personal name in Exodus 3:15. In Hebrew it is spelled YHWH, and it shows up about 6,800 times in the Old Testament. Out of respect, Jewish readers stopped saying it out loud and said Lord instead, so most English Bibles print LORD in capital letters. The Owner's Manual puts His name back. Where you see Yahweh, the Hebrew says YHWH. Where you see Lord, the Hebrew usually says Adonai, which means master. Where you see God, the Hebrew usually says Elohim, the mighty Creator.

Jesus Is Yeshua

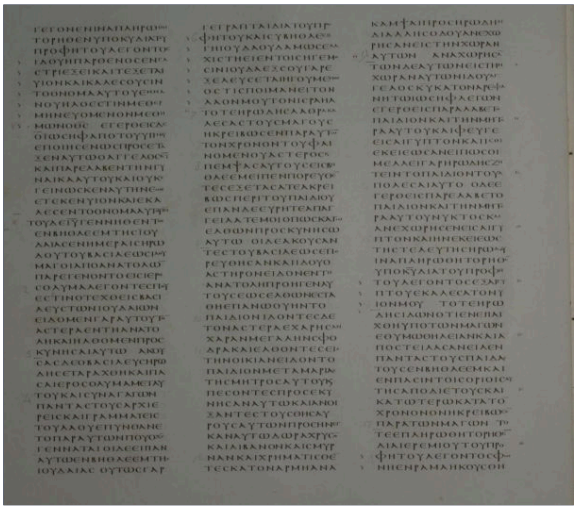
Jesus is the English form of the Hebrew name Yeshua. It is the same name as Joshua, the man who led Israel into the promised land. The name means Yahweh saves. That is why the angel says in Matthew 1:21, You are to give Him the name Jesus, because He will save His people from their sins.

Lord in the New Testament

The New Testament was written in Greek. God is Theos and Lord is Kyrios. When Jesus quotes the Old Testament, the Hebrew behind Lord is often YHWH, but the Greek says Lord, so this Bible keeps Lord in the New Testament. When you see Lord in a quote from the Old Testament, you can look up the verse and find Yahweh there.

How This Bible Marks the New Testament

QUOTES. When a New Testament writer quotes the Old Testament, the quoted words are printed in italics. The Old Testament verse is in italics too, so you can see both ends. When a writer only points back to an Old Testament verse without quoting it, you get a note but no italics.



FULFILLED. When a verse fulfills a prophecy, the note at the bottom of the column says FULFILLS and points back to the prophecy.

JESUS SPEAKING. The words of Jesus are printed in red, and so are the words of God the Father. Only the words they actually said are red.

THE FAMILY LINE. Names in the bloodline of Jesus are underlined in red in the family trees in Matthew 1 and Luke 3.

CODEX VATICANUS

Codex Vaticanus, Matthew 1:22 to 2:18, three columns on a page. Public domain.

WHAT IT IS

A handwritten Bible in Greek, and probably the oldest Bible in the world that still has most of its pages. Codex means a book with pages instead of a scroll. The words are written in three columns on each page, and in two columns in the poetry books like Psalms and Job.

HOW OLD IT IS

It was copied about AD 300 to 350, and many scholars narrow that to about 300 to 325. That makes it a little older than Codex Sinaiticus, or about the same age. Its text of Luke and John matches Papyrus 75, a copy usually dated about AD 175 to 225, almost word for word. So those Gospels were copied with great care.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In the Vatican Library in Rome, where it is called Vat. gr. 1209. That is where the name Vaticanus comes from. 759 leaves survive out of about 830. Every page is free to view at digi.vatlib.it.

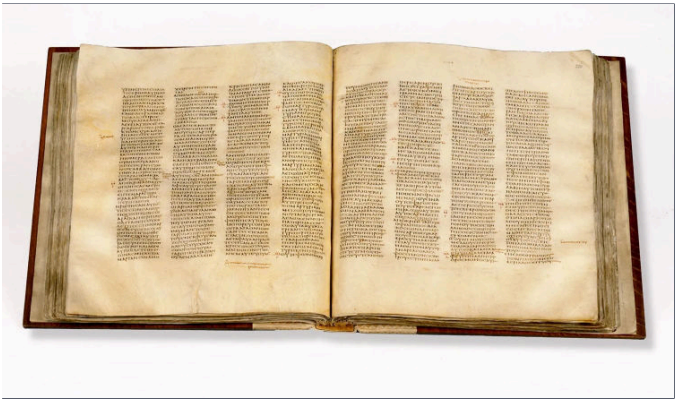
HOW IT GOT THERE

Nobody knows where it was made. It was probably in the library's first catalogue in 1475, and it is certainly listed in 1481. Napoleon's armies carried it off to Paris after a treaty in 1797, and it came home to Rome in 1815.

WHAT IS IN IT

The Old Testament in Greek, plus Baruch, the Letter of Jeremiah, Judith, Tobit, Wisdom of Solomon, Sirach and 1 Esdras. It has no 1 to 4 Maccabees and no Prayer of Manasseh. In the New Testament it has the four Gospels, then Acts, then the letters of James to Jude, then Paul's letters, with Hebrews right after 2 Thessalonians.

WHAT IS NOT IN IT



The first pages are gone, so Genesis starts at 46:28. A few verses of 2 Samuel 2 and Psalm 106:27 to 138:6 are lost too. At the other end it stops in the middle of a word in Hebrews 9:14. The rest of Hebrews, 1 and 2 Timothy, Titus, Philemon and Revelation are lost. In the 1400s someone added the end of Hebrews and Revelation in a much newer hand, but that part is a separate, later copy.

VERSES THAT ARE NOT THERE

Mark ends at 16:8. Then the scribe left the next column empty before Luke begins. Some think he knew of a longer ending and left room for it. John 7:53 to 8:11, the woman caught in adultery, is not there, and neither is Acts 8:37. This Bible prints those in [brackets].

THE THREE OLDEST BIBLES · 2 OF 3 · FIELD NOTES · CONFIDENCE: HIGH

CODEX SINAITICUS

Codex Sinaiticus, open to two of its pages. Every surviving page can be viewed free at codexsinaiticus.org/en.

WHAT IT IS

A handwritten Bible in Greek, copied about AD 330 to 360, a little after Codex Vaticanus or about the same time. It is the oldest complete copy of the New Testament in the world, because Vaticanus has lost its last pages. It also held the Old Testament in Greek, and about half of that part survives. The words are written in four neat columns on each page.

MADE FROM ANIMALS

Its pages are parchment, made from animal skins. It took about 200 animals or more, mostly calves with some sheep. That made it a hugely expensive book.

WHO HAD IT MADE

Nobody knows for sure. In AD 331 Constantine, the first Christian emperor, ordered fifty Bibles for the churches of his new capital. Some scholars think this could be one of them, and others disagree.

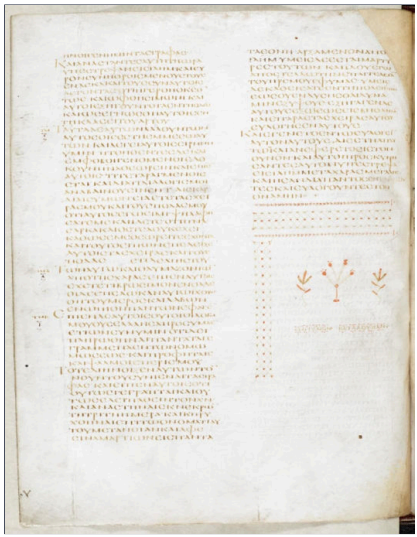
FOUND BY ANOTHER CONSTANTINE

The man who found it was a German scholar named Constantin von Tischendorf, who shared his name with that emperor. In 1844 he visited Saint Catherine's Monastery at the foot of Mount Sinai in Egypt and left with 43 leaves. He said they were in a basket waiting to be burned, but the monks dispute that story. In 1859 he was shown the rest of the book and took it to the Tsar of Russia. The monks say it was only a loan.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In 1933 the Soviet government sold most of it to the British Museum for 100,000 British pounds. In 1975 the monks found more pages in a storage room under a chapel. Today it is split among four places: the British Library in London, Leipzig University in Germany, the National Library of Russia and Saint Catherine's Monastery. In 2009 all four put every surviving page online for free at codexsinaiticus.org/en.

HOW IS IT DIFFERENT



It has all 27 New Testament books we have today, plus two extra books at the end, the Letter of Barnabas and part of the Shepherd of Hermas. Early Christians read those two, but the church later left them out. The order is different too. Paul's letters come right after the Gospels, Hebrews sits after 2 Thessalonians, and Acts comes after Paul's letters. Later scribes made about 23,000 corrections to it over the centuries.

VERSES THAT ARE NOT THERE

Mark ends at 16:8, and the woman caught in adultery, John 7:53 to 8:11, is missing. About 16 single verses found in the King James Version are missing too, like Acts 8:37. This and other early copies suggest scribes added those verses later. This Bible prints them in [brackets] so you can see them and decide. None of them changes a core teaching of the faith.

CODEX ALEXANDRINUS

Codex Alexandrinus, the last page of Luke, two columns on a page, with a decorated ending and the title The Gospel According to Luke. British Library. Public domain.

WHAT IT IS

A handwritten Bible in Greek, the youngest of the three great old Bibles. It is written in two columns on each page.

HOW OLD IT IS

It was copied in the early 400s, about AD 400 to 440. That is roughly 75 years after Codex Sinaiticus.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In the British Library in London, bound in four volumes called Royal MS 1 D V to VIII. 773 leaves survive. Its name comes from Alexandria in Egypt, where it was kept before it left for Europe. Its New Testament volume was photographed and put online in full in 2012.

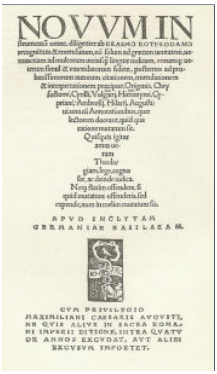
HOW IT CAME TO ENGLAND

Cyril Lucaris, who had led the church of Alexandria, probably brought it to Constantinople around 1621, after he became the Patriarch there. In 1624 he offered it to King James I, but James died in 1625. It reached his son, King Charles I, in 1627. The King James Version came out in 1611, so its translators never saw it.

WHAT IS IN IT

The Old Testament in Greek, with 1 to 4 Maccabees, Psalm 151 and the Odes, a set of songs from the Bible gathered after the Psalms. Its table of contents also lists the Psalms of Solomon, but those pages are lost. The New Testament runs in this order: Gospels, Acts, James to Jude, Paul's letters with Hebrews after 2 Thessalonians, and Revelation. At the end it adds 1 Clement, a letter from the church in Rome written about AD 96, and part of 2 Clement. Early Christians read those two, but the church did not keep them in the Bible.

WHAT IS NOT IN IT



Some pages are lost: Matthew 1:1 to 25:6, John 6:50 to 8:52 and 2 Corinthians 4:13 to 12:6. Scholars counted the lines that fit on the lost pages of John and found there was not enough room for the story of the woman caught in adultery, John 7:53 to 8:11.

WHAT IS DIFFERENT

Unlike the two older Bibles, it has the long ending of Mark, 16:9 to 20. It does not have the extra words in 1 John 5:7 that the King James Version has. In the Gospels its wording is mostly the kind found in the many later Greek copies, while in the letters and Revelation it is closer to the oldest copies.

TEXTUAL CRITICISM

NOVVM IN APVD INCLYTAM
GERMANIAE BASILEAM.
CVM PRIVILEGIO

The title page of Erasmus's Greek New Testament, printed in Basel in 1516. It became the start of the Textus Receptus. Public domain.

IT DOES NOT MEAN CRITICIZING THE BIBLE
Textual criticism sounds like people picking the Bible apart. It is the opposite. The word criticism comes from the Greek word krino, which means to judge carefully. A jeweler judges which diamond is real. A textual critic judges which wording is the original. It is the careful work of comparing copies to find the exact words the apostles wrote.

WHY WE NEED IT
The original pages Paul and John wrote wore out long ago. What we have is more than 5,800 handwritten Greek copies. No two are exactly alike, because every copy was made by hand. Most differences are spelling, word order or a skipped word. Comparing thousands of copies lets scholars spot the slips.

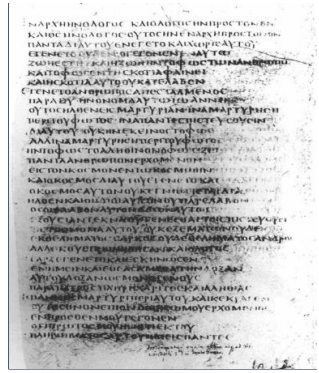
HOW IT WORKS
Older copies usually carry more weight, but not always. Scholars also ask where the copies came from, how many places share a reading, and which reading best explains how the others came about. A reading found early in Egypt, Italy and Syria at the same time is hard to argue with.

THREE FAMILIES OF COPIES
The Alexandrian copies come from Egypt and are the oldest, like Vaticanus and Sinaiticus. The Byzantine copies come from the Greek speaking church and are by far the most numerous, but most were made after AD 800. The Western copies, like Codex Bezae, often add extra words.

1516: ERASMUS
The Dutch scholar Erasmus printed the first Greek New Testament for sale, in Basel, with the printer Johann Froben. He rushed it out using a handful of late copies. His only copy of Revelation was missing its last page, so he translated the last six verses back into Greek from the Latin.

1519 TO 1535: MORE EDITIONS
Erasmus put out four more editions. Luther used the 1519 edition for his German New Testament in 1522. The 1522 edition added the famous words in 1 John 5:7 about the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit, from a single Greek copy made around 1520. Later editions borrowed readings from the Complutensian Polyglot, a giant Spanish Bible printed in 1514.

1546 TO 1551: STEPHANUS
The Paris printer Robert Estienne, called Stephanus, printed four editions. His 1550 edition was the first to list differences between manuscripts in the margins. His 1551 edition was the first to split the New Testament into the numbered verses we still use.



1565 TO 1604: BEZA
Theodore Beza, who took over for John Calvin in Geneva, published nine editions. He owned Codex Bezae, the old Greek and Latin copy shown on the next page, but hardly used it. The King James translators leaned mostly on Beza's 1588 and 1598 editions. Beza's text also has a guess at Revelation 16:5, and so far no one has found a Greek copy that supports it.

1633: THE NAME
The Elzevir family, printers in Leiden, Netherlands, said in their 1633 preface that readers now had the text received by all. In Latin, that is textus receptus, and the name stuck.

1881: SCRIVENER
The English scholar F. H. A. Scrivener rebuilt the Greek text that the King James translators actually followed, choice by choice. It came out in 1881, and a new printing came out in 1894. Churches that use the Textus Receptus today usually print his text.

THREE GREEK TEXTS

Codex Bezae, John 1:1 to 16 in Greek, copied around AD 400. Theodore Beza gave it to Cambridge University in 1581. Public domain.

THE TEXTUS RECEPTUS
The Greek text from Erasmus, Stephanus, Beza and the Elzevirs, built from a handful of late copies. It stands behind Luther's German Bible, the Geneva Bible, the King James Version and the New King James. In a few places it has words almost no Greek copy has, like the ending of Revelation that Erasmus translated from Latin.

THE CRITICAL TEXT
Built by comparing all the copies and giving the oldest ones the most weight. 1831: Karl Lachmann became the first to print a Greek text that broke from the Textus Receptus. 1844 and 1859: Constantin von Tischendorf found Codex Sinaiticus. 1881: Westcott and Hort published their famous edition. 1898: Eberhard Nestle's first edition. 1966: the United Bible Societies' Greek New Testament, made for translators. 2012: the 28th edition of Nestle and Aland, the one most scholars use. Work still goes on today. The NIV, ESV, NASB, CSB and NLT are translated from this text.

THE MAJORITY TEXT
Follows whatever reading most Greek copies have, which usually means the Byzantine copies. Zane Hodges and Arthur Farstad printed one in 1982, and Maurice Robinson and William Pierpont printed another in 1991, updated in 2005. The Greek Orthodox Church uses a similar text, printed in 1904. Supporters say God kept His word safe in the church's many copies. Critics answer that most of those copies are late.

HOW BIG ARE THE DIFFERENCES
The Textus Receptus and the Majority Text differ in about 1,800 places. The critical text and the Majority Text differ in about 6,500. That sounds like a lot, but most are spelling, word order or a little word like the. Only a small number change the meaning of a sentence at all.

THE FAMOUS ONES
Mark 16:9 to 20 and John 7:53 to 8:11 are in the Textus Receptus and the Majority Text but missing from the oldest copies. 1 John 5:7 to 8, about the three in heaven, and Acts 8:37 are in the Textus Receptus only. In 1 Timothy 3:16, the Textus Receptus and Majority Text say God was manifest. The oldest copies say He who was manifest. In Revelation 22:19, the Textus Receptus says book of life, and the Greek copies say tree of life.

NO DIFFERENCE IN DOCTRINE
Not one teaching of the Christian faith depends on a verse in dispute. The Trinity is taught without 1 John 5:7, in Matthew 28:19 and 2 Corinthians 13:14. Jesus is called God in John 1:1 and 20:28 in every text. All three texts tell the same gospel: Jesus died for our sins, was buried and rose again. Even the skeptical scholar Bart Ehrman wrote that his book does not stand against the view of his teacher Bruce Metzger, that the essential Christian beliefs are not affected by these differences.

WHICH ONE THIS BIBLE USES
The New Testament in The Owner's Manual is translated from the critical text, the oldest copies. But it does not delete the extra words found in the Textus Receptus and the Majority Text. It prints them in [square brackets], so you can see all three at once: Matthew 6:13, Mark 16:9 to 20, John 7:53 to 8:11, Acts 8:37 and 1 John 5:7. In a few places, like 1 Timothy 3:16, this Bible uses the King James wording and a TEXT note tells you what the oldest copies say. Every change is listed in the change log.

WHEN WERE THE GOSPELS WRITTEN?

TWO DATES AGAIN

Just like the Old Testament, many New Testament book intros give two dates: the traditional date first, then the date many critical scholars give. The gap here is much smaller, usually 10 to 30 years. Almost everything hangs on one event: the Romans destroying the temple in Jerusalem in AD 70.

THE TRADITIONAL DATES

Mark in the 50s or 60s. Matthew and Luke in the 60s. Acts around AD 62. John around AD 85 to 95. Paul's letters from about AD 48 to 64.

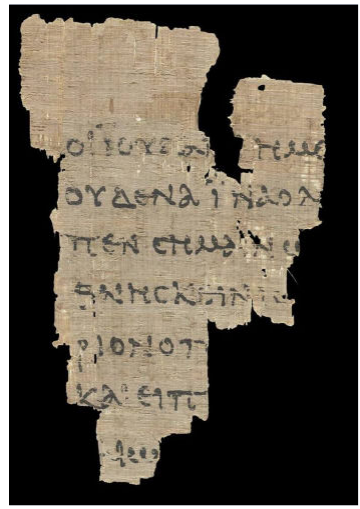
THE CRITICAL DATES

Mark around AD 66 to 70. Matthew and Luke around AD 80 to 90. Acts around AD 80 to 90, and some say the early 100s. John around AD 90 to 110. Almost all scholars agree that Paul wrote at least seven letters, in the AD 50s and early 60s, about 20 to 30 years after the cross.

WHY CRITICS DATE LATER: 1, THE TEMPLE

Jesus said not one stone of the temple would be left on another, Mark 13:2, and that Jerusalem would be surrounded by armies, Luke 21:20. Some scholars do not believe anyone can predict the future. Others point to details, like Luke saying armies would surround Jerusalem, Luke 21:20, and say these sound like the writer already knew what happened. That is why many date Mark near AD 70 and Matthew and Luke after it.

2, WHO COPIED WHOM



Most scholars think Matthew and Luke used Mark, and Luke says others had already written before him, Luke 1:1 to 3. So if Mark is dated around AD 70, Matthew and Luke have to come later.

3, BIG IDEAS TAKE TIME

Some scholars think big teachings about Jesus, like John calling Him God, took a long time to grow, so John must be late. They also point to verses about believers being put out of the synagogue, John 9:22, which they think fit a later time.

HOW THIS BIBLE WORKS · DATING THE BOOKS · CONFIDENCE: HONEST

THE CASE FOR EARLY GOSPELS

Papyrus 52, often called the oldest known scrap of the New Testament, holding words from John 18. It is usually dated about AD 125 to 175. Public domain.

THE ANSWER TO 1

If Jesus is who He said He is, predicting the temple's fall is not a problem. The Gospels never describe the temple burning or name Titus. Some point to Matthew 22:7, where a king burns a city, but that kind of picture was common in the Old Testament. Jesus told His followers to flee to the mountains when they saw armies around Jerusalem, Luke 21:20 to 21. The historian Eusebius says the Jerusalem church left before the war and went to a town called Pella, across the Jordan River.

THE ANSWER TO 2, THE ACTS CLUE

Acts ends with Paul under house arrest in Rome, around AD 62. It never tells of Nero's attack on Christians in AD 64, Paul's death in the mid 60s, the death of James, the brother of Jesus, in AD 62, or the temple's fall. Many say the simplest reason is that Acts was finished around AD 62. Others think Luke simply chose to end the story with Paul preaching in Rome. Luke wrote his Gospel before Acts, Acts 1:1, and if he used Mark, then Mark is earlier still.

THE ANSWER TO 3

Paul's letters, which almost everyone dates to the 50s and early 60s, already call Jesus Lord and treat Him as God, Philippians 2:6 to 11. And Paul passes on a creed about Jesus' death and resurrection that he received within a few years of the cross, 1 Corinthians 15:3 to 7. The big ideas were there from the start.

A SURPRISE WITNESS

In 1976, a liberal English bishop and scholar named John A. T. Robinson wrote Redating the New Testament. He argued that every book of the New Testament was written before AD 70, mostly because none of them talks about the temple's fall as something that already happened. Most scholars did not agree with him, but some conservative scholars did, and his questions are still asked.

WHAT ABOUT JOHN

Papyrus 52, a scrap of John 18 bought in Egypt in 1920, is usually dated to about AD 125 to 175. John's Gospel had to be written, copied and carried to Egypt before then. This rules out the very late dates some scholars once gave John, around AD 160.

WHY IT MATTERS

Even the later dates put Mark about 40 years after Jesus, and all four Gospels within about 60 to 80 years. People who saw Jesus were still alive when the first ones were written. The best sources we have for Alexander the Great, like Arrian and Plutarch, were written more than 400 years after he died, and historians still trust them.

THIS BIBLE'S RULE

Each book intro gives the traditional date first, then the critical view in one honest line.

HOW THE BOOKS ARE ARRANGED

WHY THE BOOKS ARE NOT IN TIME ORDER

SORTED BY TYPE

Like the Old Testament, the New Testament is sorted by type, not by date. It has five shelves: the Gospels, Acts, Paul's letters, the general letters and Revelation.

THE GOSPELS

Matthew comes first because the early church believed it was written first, and because its family tree ties Jesus to Abraham and David. That makes it a bridge from the Old Testament. Most scholars today think Mark was written first.

PAUL'S LETTERS, LONGEST FIRST

Paul's letters are not in the order he wrote them. Letters to churches come first, Romans to 2 Thessalonians. Then come letters to people, 1 Timothy to Philemon. Each set runs roughly from longest to shortest. Romans is first because it is the longest, not because it was written first. Galatians or 1 Thessalonians was likely his first.

THE GENERAL LETTERS

James to Jude are called general letters because most were written to the church at large, not to one city. They are named for who wrote them, not who got them. Hebrews sits with them because no one knows for sure who wrote it.

WHAT CAME FIRST

James, Galatians and 1 Thessalonians were written about AD 45 to 51, likely before any of the Gospels. The first Christians had the Old Testament, the stories of the apostles and a few letters.

WHAT CAME LAST

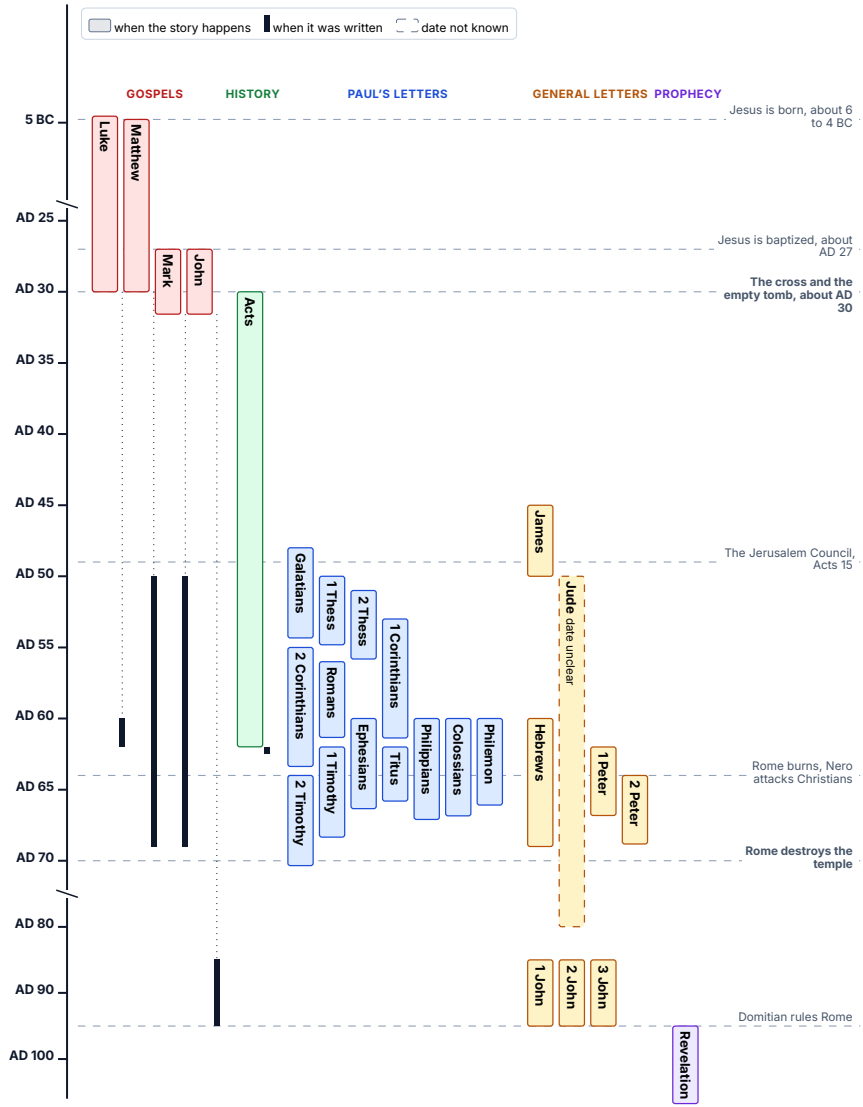
John's Gospel, his three letters and Revelation came last, about AD 85 to 95. John was likely the last apostle still alive.

WHY A PERFECT ORDER IS IMPOSSIBLE

Many books overlap. Paul wrote most of his letters during the years of Acts 13 to 28. Four Gospels tell the same three years. And scholars argue about the dates of many books, so any list is a best guess. The next page shows them all on one timeline.

SHELF BY SHELF

Gospels: the story runs about 6 BC to AD 30, written about AD 50 to 95. Acts: the story runs AD 30 to 62. Paul's letters: about AD 48 to 67. General letters: about AD 45 to 95. Revelation: about AD 95. These are the dates in each book's introduction.



THE ORDER WAS NOT ALWAYS THE SAME

Old Bibles did not all agree. Codex Sinaiticus puts Paul's letters right after the Gospels. Codex Vaticanus puts James to Jude right after Acts. Our order comes mostly from the Latin Bibles of the Middle Ages, which the first printed Bibles followed. The order was never part of the inspired text. The books are.

TIMELINE

The New Testament in Time Order

From the birth of Jesus to the last letters of John

HOW TO READ IT Time runs down the page, oldest at the top. A colored bar shows when a book's story happens. The thin dark bar beside it shows when the book was written.

THE GOSPELS CAME LATER Jesus' story ends about AD 30, but the Gospels were written 20 to 60 years later. Paul's first letters were likely written before any Gospel we have.

LETTERS A letter is its own story, so the bars for the letters show when each one was written.

TWO SETS OF DATES This chart uses the dates in each book's introduction, the earlier ones many conservative scholars hold. Many other scholars date the Gospels, Acts and some letters later. Revelation may be AD 68 instead of 95.

Dates are approximate. The scale is squeezed above the top zigzag and below the bottom one, where fewer books were written.

MATTHEW

The King has arrived

AUTHOR	Matthew, also called Levi, a tax collector who left his booth to follow Jesus 9:9. The book does not name its author, but the early church, starting with Papias around AD 125, credited it to Matthew.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	About 6 BC to AD 30, from the birth of Jesus to His resurrection.
DATE WRITTEN	Many conservative scholars say the AD 50s or 60s. Many others say AD 70 to 90.
WRITTEN TO	Mostly Jewish believers. Matthew quotes the Old Testament more than any other Gospel to prove Jesus is the promised King.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Matthew was the most quoted Gospel in the early church and survives in thousands of Greek manuscripts.
KEY VERSE	Matthew 5:17. I have not come to abolish the Law or the Prophets, but to fulfill them.

THE OLDEST PIECE OF MATTHEW
This scrap of papyrus is called Papyrus 104. It holds a few lines of Matthew 21 in Greek and was dug up in the trash heaps of the Egyptian town of Oxyrhynchus. Most experts date it to about AD 150 to 200, which makes it the oldest known copy of any part of Matthew. You can still read Greek words from the parable of the tenants in Matthew 21:34 to 37, like apekteinan, they killed, and palin apesteilen, again he sent. It shows Matthew was being copied and read far from Israel within about a hundred years of when it was written. Other early scraps, Papyrus 64 and Papyrus 67, from about AD 200, hold parts of Matthew 3, 5 and 26.

Historical Setting

Israel is under Roman occupation. King Herod runs things for Rome, taxes are crushing, and the people are waiting for the Messiah to show up and kick the Romans out. The religious leaders are split between Pharisees, who add rules on top of rules, and Sadducees, who run the temple and do not believe in the resurrection. Into all of this walks a carpenter from Nazareth who says the kingdom of heaven has come near.

What Was Going Wrong

RELIGION WITHOUT HEART. Leaders honored God with their lips while their hearts were far from Him 15:8.
RULES ON TOP OF RULES. Traditions were treated like Scripture, and heavy loads were put on people's shoulders 23:4.
A TEMPLE FOR PROFIT. The house of prayer had become a den of robbers 21:13.
WRONG KIND OF MESSIAH. People wanted a warrior to beat Rome, not a Savior to die for sin 16:21 to 23.
OUTSIDERS PUSHED OUT. Tax collectors, sinners and Gentiles were treated as beyond God's reach 9:10 to 13.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Jesus is the King the Old Testament promised. Matthew proves it over and over, showing prophecy after prophecy coming true. Jesus is born in Bethlehem, heals the sick, teaches with authority and calls ordinary people to follow Him. The religious leaders reject Him and hand Him over to be crucified. But the grave cannot hold Him. The risen King sends His followers into the whole world to make disciples.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

FULFILLED, FULFILLED, FULFILLED
Matthew uses the phrase to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet again and again. He is building a legal case, and this Bible marks every exhibit.

A SCANDALOUS FAMILY TREE
Jesus' genealogy names four women besides Mary: Tamar, Rahab, Ruth and the wife of Uriah. Three were foreigners and at least two had messy stories. God put grace right in the family tree.

FIVE SERMONS LIKE FIVE BOOKS
Each of the five big sermons ends with the words When Jesus had finished. Many scholars think Matthew is echoing the five books of Moses.

A TAX MAN WRITES ABOUT MONEY
The former tax collector records more teaching about money, debts and treasure than you might expect, including the coin in the fish's mouth in 17:27.

Did Anybody Listen?

The disciples took the Great Commission seriously. Within a few decades the good news had spread across the Roman Empire, and today followers of Jesus live in nearly every nation on earth. The last words of the book are still in force: I am with you always, to the end of the age.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Matthew opens with a family tree, which sounds boring until you notice who is in it: a con man, a widow who dressed up to trick her father in law, a foreign prostitute and a king who stole another man's wife. God's family has always had some explaining to do. Then a virgin is pregnant, and Joseph has the most confusing week of his life.

THE GENEALOGY OF JESUS // RUTH 4:18–22; LUKE 3:23–38

1 This is the record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham:

2 Abraham was the father of Isaac,
Isaac the father of Jacob,
and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers.

3 Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez the father of Hezron,
and Hezron the father of Ram.

4 Ram was the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon,
and Nahshon the father of Salmon.

5 Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth,
Obed the father of Jesse,
6 and Jesse the father of David the king.

Next:

David was the father of Solomon by Uriah's wife,
7 Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah,
and Abijah the father of Asa.

8 Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram,
and Joram the father of Uzziah.

9 Uzziah was the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz,
and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah.

10 Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh,
Manasseh the father of Amon,
Amon the father of Josiah,
11 and Josiah the father of Jeconiah and his brothers
at the time of the exile to Babylon.

12 After the exile to Babylon:

Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel,
Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel,
13 Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim,
and Eliakim the father of Azor.

14 Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim,
and Achim the father of Eliud.

15 Eliud was the father of Eleazar,
Eleazar the father of Matthan,
Matthan the father of Jacob,
16 and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary,
of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 In all, then, there were fourteen generations from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Christ.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS // ISAIAH 7:10–16; LUKE 2:1–7

18 This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about: His mother Mary was pledged in marriage to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. 19 Because Joseph her husband was a righteous man and was unwilling to disgrace her publicly, he resolved to divorce her quietly.

20 But after he had pondered these things, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to embrace Mary as your wife, for the One conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. 21 She will give birth to a Son, and you are to give Him the name

Wise men from the east follow a star and ask the one question you never ask a paranoid king: Where is the newborn King? Herod does not take it well. An angel sends Joseph's family to Egypt, which is the first recorded case of a family vacation that was really witness protection.

THE PILGRIMAGE OF THE MAGI // MICAH 5:1–6

1 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, 2 asking, "Where is the One who has been born King of the Jews? We saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him."
3 When King Herod heard this, he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 And when he had assembled all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Christ was to be born.
5 "In Bethlehem in Judea," they replied,
"for this is what the prophet has written:
6 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah,
for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of My people Israel.'"
7 Then Herod called the Magi secretly and learned from them the exact time the star had appeared. 8 And sending them to Bethlehem, he said: "Go and search carefully for the Child, and when you find Him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship Him."
9 After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen in the east went ahead of them until it stood over the place where the Child was. 10
When they saw the star, they rejoiced with great delight. 11 On coming to the house, they saw the Child with His mother Mary,
and they fell down and worshiped Him.
Then they opened their treasures and presented Him with gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh.
12 And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they withdrew to their country by another route.

THE FLIGHT TO EGYPT // HOSEA 11:1–7

13 When the Magi had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream.
"Get up!" he said. "Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I

WEEPING AND GREAT MOURNING // JEREMIAH 31:1–25

16 When Herod saw that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was filled with rage. Sending orders, he put to death all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, according to the time he had learned from the Magi.
17 Then what was spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

18 "A voice is heard in Ramah,
weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more."

THE RETURN TO NAZARETH // LUKE 2:39–40

19 After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt.
20 "Get up!" he said. "Take the Child and His mother and go to the land of Israel, for those seeking the Child's life are now dead."
21 So Joseph got up, took the Child and His mother, and went to the land of Israel.
22 But when he learned that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And having been warned in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee, 23 and he went and lived in a town called Nazareth.
So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophets: "He will be called a Nazarene."

HERODIUM: HEROD'S PALACE FORTRESS

MATTHEW 2:1 TO 16

Herodium from the air. The round palace fortress Herod built on top of the hill.

WHAT IT IS
A huge palace fortress King Herod built on a cone shaped hill a few miles south-east of Bethlehem. From the top you can see Bethlehem.

HOW OLD IT IS
Built by Herod about 23 to 15 BC. Herod died in 4 BC and was buried there, though whether the tomb Netzer found is really his is disputed.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
Excavated for decades by Israeli archaeologist Ehud Netzer. In 2007 he announced he had found Herod's tomb on the slope of the hill.

WHERE IT IS TODAY
Herodium National Park. Many finds were shown at the Israel Museum in Jerusalem.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS
Herod the Great was a real king, a massive builder and famously paranoid. The historian Josephus says he killed his own wife and several of his sons. A man like that killing the boys of Bethlehem fits exactly who he was.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE
No record outside the Bible mentions the killing of the boys of Bethlehem, which was a small village. Some scholars also question whether the tomb Netzer found is really Herod's.

Herod's kingdom, split among his sons, under the eye of Rome

HEROD THE GREAT Herod ruled the whole land for Rome when Jesus was born, Matthew 2:1. When he died, about 4 BC, Rome split his kingdom among three sons.

JESUS' HOME BASE Jesus grew up in Nazareth, Luke 2:51, then made Capernaum His home, Matthew 4:13. He went up to Jerusalem for the feasts, John 2:13 and 7:10.

THE RULERS IN LUKE 3:1 Herod Antipas ruled Galilee, and Perea too. Philip ruled the northeast. Judea and Samaria had a Roman governor, Pontius Pilate.

THE SAMARIA PROBLEM Jews and Samaritans did not get along, John 4:9. Some Jews went around by the Jordan Valley road, but many went straight through, as Jesus did, John 4:4.

City locations are well known. Borders are approximate and changed several times in these years.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

John the Baptist lives in the desert, wears camel hair, eats bugs and calls the religious leaders a pack of snakes. Somehow crowds still show up. Then Jesus comes to be baptized, the heavens open, and God the Father personally announces who His Son is.

THE MISSION OF JOHN THE BAPTIST // ISAIAH 40:1–5; MARK 1:1–8; LUKE 3:1–20; JOHN 1:19–28

1 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea 2 and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near." 3 This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah:

"A voice of one calling in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for Him.'"

4 John wore a garment of camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. 5 People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region around the Jordan. 6 Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River.

7 But when John saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his place of baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? 8 Produce fruit, then, in keeping with repentance. 9 And do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. 10 The axe lies ready at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

11 I baptize you with water for repentance, but after me will come One more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. 12 His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and to gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS // MARK 1:9–11; LUKE 3:21–22; JOHN 1:29–34

13 At that time Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. 14 But John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?"

15 "Let it be so now," Jesus replied. "It is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness in this way." Then John permitted Him.

16 As soon as Jesus was baptized, He went up out of the water. Suddenly the heavens were opened, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and resting on Him. 17 And a voice from heaven said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased!"

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus fasts forty days and the devil shows up with three offers, even quoting Scripture to do it. Jesus answers every one with Deuteronomy. Then He walks up to some fishermen and says Follow Me, and they leave their nets on the spot, which is still the greatest job interview in history.

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS // MARK 1:12–13; LUKE 4:1–13

1 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2
After fasting forty days and forty nights,
He was hungry.

3 The tempter came to Him and said, "If You are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."

4 But Jesus answered, "It is written:

'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

8 Again, the devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. 9 "All this I will give You," he said, "if You will fall down and worship me."

10 "Away from Me, Satan!" Jesus told him. "For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.'"

11 Then the devil left Him, and angels came and ministered to Him.

JESUS BEGINS HIS MINISTRY // ISAIAH 9:1–7; MARK 1:14–15; LUKE 4:14–15

12 When Jesus heard that John had been imprisoned, He withdrew to Galilee. 13 Leaving Nazareth, He went and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

15 "Land of Zebulun
and land of Naphtali,
the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles—16 the people living in darkness
have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of the shadow of death,
a light has dawned."

17 From that time on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

THE FIRST DISCIPLES // MARK 1:16–20; LUKE 5:1–11; JOHN 1:35–42

18 As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. 19 "Come, follow Me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." 20 And at once they left their nets and followed Him.

21 Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. Jesus called them, 22 and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed Him.

JESUS HEALS THE MULTITUDES // MARK 3:7–12; LUKE 6:17–19

23 Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. 24 News about Him spread all over Syria, and people brought to Him all who were ill with various diseases, those suffering acute pain, the demon-possessed, those having seizures, and the paralyzed, and He healed them.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES THE HEART JESUS SPEAKING

WHAT IT IS
One of the oldest synagogues ever found in Galilee, from the town of Magdala on the Sea of Galilee, the hometown of Mary Magdalene.

HOW OLD IT IS
Built around the time of Jesus, about the early first century AD. A coin from AD 29 was found inside it, and it was used until about AD 67, when the Romans attacked Galilee.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND
Found in 2009 by the Israel Antiquities Authority during construction on the shore of the Sea of Galilee.

WHAT WAS INSIDE
A carved stone block called the Magdala Stone, showing a seven branched menorah like the one in the temple.

WHERE IT IS TODAY
The ruins are at the Magdala site near Migdal, Israel, on the shore of the Sea of Galilee.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS
The synagogue was in use in the first century. Matthew says Jesus went throughout Galilee teaching in their synagogues. This is exactly the kind of building He taught in, in a town He passed through.

25 Large crowds followed Him, having come from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

5

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS
The Sermon on the Mount begins. Jesus says the poor in spirit, the mourners and the persecuted are the blessed ones, which is the opposite of every self help book ever written. Then He raises the bar: anger is like murder and lust is like adultery. Nobody in the crowd is feeling great about themselves.

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

1 When Jesus saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain and sat down. His disciples came to Him, 2 and He began to teach them, saying:

THE BEATITUDES // PSALM 1:1–6; LUKE 6:20–23

3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
5 Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.
8 Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called sons of God.
10 Blessed are those who are persecuted
because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
11 Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me. 12 Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets before you.

SALT AND LIGHT // MARK 9:49–50; LUKE 14:34–35; PHILIPPIANS 2:12–18

13 You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its savor, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled by men.
14 You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket. Instead, they set it on a stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. 16 In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

THE FULFILLMENT OF THE LAW

17 Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them. 18 For I tell you truly, until heaven and earth pass away, not a single jot, not a stroke of a

19 So then, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do likewise will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever practices and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

ANGER AND RECONCILIATION // LUKE 12:57–59

21 You have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'Do not murder' and 'Anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.' 22 But I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to his brother, 'Raca,' will be subject to the Sanhedrin. But anyone who says, 'You fool!' will be subject to the fire of hell.

23 So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift.

25 Reconcile quickly with your adversary, while you are still on the way to court. Otherwise, he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. 26 Truly I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.

ADULTERY // LEVITICUS 18:1–30

27 You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' 28 But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. 30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to depart into hell.

DIVORCE // DEUTERONOMY 24:1–5; LUKE 16:18

31 It has also been said, 'Whoever divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.' 32 But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, brings adultery upon her. And he who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

OATHS AND VOWS // NUMBERS 30:1–16

33 Again, you have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'Do not break your oath, but fulfill your vows to the Lord.' 34 But I tell you not to swear at all: either by heaven, for it is God's throne; 35 or by the earth, for it is His footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. 36 Nor should you swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. 37 Simply let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No.' Anything more comes from the evil one.

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES // LEVITICUS 24:17–23; LUKE 6:27–36

38 You have heard that it was said, 'Eye for eye and tooth for tooth.' 39 But I tell you not to resist an evil person. If someone slaps you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also; 40 if someone wants to sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well; 41 and if someone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. 42 Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

43 You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor' and 'Hate your enemy.' 44 But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the

Jesus says do your good deeds quietly, pray without putting on a show, and stop worrying about tomorrow. He teaches the Lord's Prayer and points at the birds, who have never once stressed about groceries. Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also, which is a problem for anyone with a storage unit.

GIVING TO THE NEEDY // DEUTERONOMY 15:7–11

1 "Be careful not to perform your righteous acts before men to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

2 So when you give to the needy, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by men. Truly I tell you, they already have their full reward. 3 But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

THE LORD'S PRAYER // LUKE 11:1–4

5 And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by men. Truly I tell you, they already have their full reward. 6 But when you pray, go into your inner room, shut your door, and pray to your Father, who is unseen. And your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

7 And when you pray, do not babble on like pagans, for they think that by their many words they will be heard. 8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

9 So then, this is how you should pray:

'Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be Your name.
10 Your kingdom come,
Your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
11 Give us this day our daily bread.
12 And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
13 And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.' [For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.]

14 For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive yours.

PROPER FASTING

16 When you fast, do not be somber like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces to show men they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they already have their full reward. 17 But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, 18 so that your fasting will not be obvious to men, but only to your Father, who is unseen. And your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

TREASURES IN HEAVEN // LUKE 12:32–34

19 Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

THE LAMP OF THE BODY // LUKE 11:33–36

22 The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are good, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eyes are bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 No one can serve two masters: Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

DO NOT WORRY // LUKE 12:22–31

25 Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? 26 Look at the birds of the air: They do not sow or reap or gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? 27 Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?

28 And why do you worry about clothes? Consider how the lilies of the field grow: They do not labor or spin. 29 Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was adorned like one of these. 30 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

31 Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' 32 For the Gentiles strive after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you.

34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Today has enough trouble of its own.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Do not judge, take the log out of your own eye, ask and it will be given. The chapter ends with two builders, one on rock and one on sand. The crowd is amazed because Jesus teaches like someone who actually has authority, not like a guy reading from his notes.

JUDGING OTHERS // LUKE 6:37–42; ROMANS 14:1–12

1 "Do not judge, or you will be judged. 2 For with the same judgment you pronounce, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

3 Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye but fail to notice the beam in your own eye? 4 How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' while there is still a beam in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite! First take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

6 Do not give dogs what is holy; do not throw your pearls before swine. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces.

ASK, SEEK, KNOCK // LUKE 11:5–13

7 Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.

9 Which of you, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone? 10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? 11 So if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!

12 In everything, then, do to others as you would have them do to you. For this is the essence of the Law and the Prophets.

Verse 5 says to take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to help your brother. He is saying do not judge people for things you are guilty of yourself.
- MT 7:6 [NOTABLE] Right after do not judge, Jesus says use good sense. Do not keep pushing holy things on people who mock them and attack you. Move on, like He told the disciples in 10:14.
- MT 7:7 [NOTABLE] Ask, seek, knock. In Greek these mean keep asking, keep seeking, keep knocking. Prayer is not one try and quit.
- MT 7:8 [NOTABLE] This is a promise. Everyone who keeps asking receives. God always answers, even when the answer is not what we expected.
- MT 7:9 [NOTABLE] A round stone looked a lot like a small loaf of bread. No good father would trick his hungry child.

THE NARROW GATE // LUKE 13:22–30

13 Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many enter through it.
14 But small is the gate and narrow the way that leads to life, and only a few find it.

A TREE AND ITS FRUIT // LUKE 6:43–45

15 Beware of false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. 16 By their fruit you will recognize them. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? 17 Likewise, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 So then, by their fruit you will recognize them.

21 Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord,

but only he who does the will of My Fa-demons and perform many miracles?'

23 Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you workers

THE HOUSE ON THE ROCK // LUKE 6:46–49

24 Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them is like a wise man who built his house on the rock.
25 The rain fell, the torrents raged, and the winds blew and beat against that house;
yet it did not fall, because its foundation
was on the rock.

26 But everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not act on them is like a foolish man who built his house on sand.
27 The rain fell, the torrents raged, and the
winds blew and beat against that house,
and it fell—and great was its collapse!"

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS

28 When Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were astonished at His teaching, 29 because He taught as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Now Jesus backs up the sermon with action. He touches a leper, heals a Roman officer's servant from a distance, calms a storm with a word and sends a legion of demons into a herd of pigs. The pig farmers ask Him to leave, which is the most on brand response to a miracle ever recorded.

THE LEPER'S PRAYER // LEVITICUS 14:1–32; MARK 1:40–45; LUKE 5:12–16

1 When Jesus came down from the moun-denly a leper came and knelt before Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

3 Jesus reached out His hand and touched the man. "I am willing," He said. "Be clean!" And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

THE FAITH OF THE CENTURION // LUKE 7:1–10; JOHN 4:43–54

5 When Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came and pleaded with Him, 6 "Lord, my servant lies at home, paralyzed and in terrible agony."

7 "I will go and heal him," Jesus replied.

8 The centurion answered, "Lord, I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. 9 For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell one to go, and he goes, and another to come, and he comes. I tell my servant to do something, and he does it."

10 When Jesus heard this, He marveled and said to those following Him, "Truly I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith. 11 I say to you that many will come from the east and the west to share the banquet with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. 12 But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! As you have believed, so will it be done for you." And his servant was healed at that very hour.

JESUS HEALS AT PETER'S HOUSE // MARK 1:29–34; LUKE 4:38–41

14 When Jesus arrived at Peter's house, He saw Peter's mother-in-law sick in bed with a fever. 15 So He touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve Him.

16 When evening came, many who were demon-possessed were brought to Jesus, and He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick. 17 This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

"He took up our infirmities and carried our diseases."

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP // LUKE 9:57–62; LUKE 14:25–33; JOHN 6:59–66

18 When Jesus saw a large crowd around Him, He gave orders to cross to the other side of the sea. 19 And one of the scribes came to Him and said, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."

20 Jesus replied, "Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head."

21 Another of His disciples requested, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

22 But Jesus told him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

JESUS CALMS THE STORM // PSALM 107:1–43; MARK 4:35–41; LUKE 8:22–25

23 When He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him. 24 Suddenly a violent storm came up on the sea, so that the boat was engulfed by the waves. But Jesus was sleeping. 25 The disciples went and woke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

26 "You of little faith," Jesus replied, "why are you so afraid?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it was perfectly calm.

27 The men were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the sea obey Him!"

THE DEMONS AND THE PIGS // MARK 5:1–20; LUKE 8:26–39

28 When Jesus arrived on the other side in the region of the Gadarenes, He was met by two demon-possessed men coming from the tombs. They were so violent that no one could pass that way.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus forgives a paralyzed man's sins, then heals him to prove He can. He calls Matthew, a tax collector, and throws a party with other sinners, which scandalizes the religious crowd. Jesus says the sick need a doctor, not the healthy. He then raises a dead girl and heals the blind and the mute.

JESUS HEALS A PARALYTIC // MARK 2:1–12; LUKE 5:17–26

1 Jesus got into a boat, crossed over, and came to His own town. 2 Just then some men brought to Him a paralytic lying on a mat. When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Take courage, son; your sins are forgiven."

3 On seeing this, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming!"

4 But Jesus knew what they were thinking and said, "Why do you harbor evil in your hearts? 5 Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'?
6 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." Then He said to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your mat, and go home." 7 And the man got up and went home.

8 When the crowds saw this, they were filled with awe and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

JESUS CALLS MATTHEW // MARK 2:13–17; LUKE 5:27–32

9 As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax booth. "Follow Me," He told him, and Matthew got up and followed Him.

10 Later, as Jesus was dining at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with Him and His disciples.
11 When the Pharisees saw this, they asked His disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

12 On hearing this, Jesus said, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. 13
But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

QUESTIONS ABOUT FASTING // MARK 2:18–20; LUKE 5:33–35

14 Then John's disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Why is it that we and the Pharisees fast so often, but Your disciples do not fast?"

15 Jesus replied, "How can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while He is with them? But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.

THE PATCHES AND THE WINESKINS // MARK 2:21–22; LUKE 5:36–39

16 No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. For the patch will pull away from the garment, and a worse tear will result.

17 Neither do men pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will spill, and the wineskins will be ruined. Instead, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

THE HEALING TOUCH OF JESUS // MARK 5:21–43; LUKE 8:40–56

Him. "My daughter has just died," he said.

to herself, "If only I touch His cloak, I will be healed."

22 Jesus turned and saw her. "Take courage, daughter," He said, "your faith has healed you." And the woman was healed from that very hour.

23 When Jesus entered the house of the synagogue leader, He saw the flute players and the noisy crowd. 24 "Go away," He told them. "The girl is not dead, but asleep." And they laughed at Him.

25 After the crowd had been put outside, Jesus went in and took the girl by the hand, and she got up. 26 And the news about this spread throughout that region.

JESUS HEALS THE BLIND AND MUTE // MARK 7:31–37

27 As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

28 After Jesus had entered the house, the blind men came to Him. "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" He asked.

"Yes, Lord," they answered.

29 Then He touched their eyes and said,
"According to your faith will it be done to you." 30 And their eyes were opened. Jesus warned them sternly, "See that no one finds out about this!" 31 But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout the land.

32 As they were leaving, a demon-possessed man who was mute was brought to Jesus. 33 And when the demon had been driven out, the man began to speak.
The crowds were amazed and said,
"Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!"

34 But the Pharisees said, "It is by the prince of demons that He drives out demons."

THE LORD OF THE HARVEST // LUKE 10:1–12

35 Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness. 36
When He saw the crowds, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

37 Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.
38 Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore,
to send out workers into His harvest."

Jesus gave them authority over unclean his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

THE REWARD OF SERVICE // 2 KINGS 4:8–17

40 He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives the One who sent Me. 41 Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is My disciple, truly I tell you, he will never lose his reward."

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

John the Baptist, now in prison, sends a message asking if Jesus is really the One. Jesus points to the evidence: the blind see, the lame walk and the dead are raised. Then He offers the best deal in the whole book: Come to Me, all you who are weary, and I will give you rest.

JOHN'S INQUIRY // LUKE 7:18–23

1 After Jesus had finished instructing His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and preach in their cities.

2 Meanwhile John heard in prison about the works of Christ, and he sent his disciples 3 to ask Him, "Are You the One who was to come, or should we look for someone else?"

4 Jesus replied, "Go back and report to John what you hear and see: 5 The blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor. 6 Blessed is the one who does not fall away on account of Me."

JESUS TESTIFIES ABOUT JOHN // MALACHI 3:1–5; LUKE 7:24–35

7 As John's disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John:
"What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind? 8 Otherwise, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Look, those who wear fine clothing are found in kings' palaces. 9 What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 10 This is the one about whom it is written:

'Behold, I will send My messenger ahead of
You,
who will prepare Your way before You.'

11 Truly I tell you, among those born of women there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet even the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been subject to violence, and the violent lay claim to it. 13 For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. 14 And if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come.

15 He who has ears, let him hear.

16 To what can I compare this generation?
They are like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling out to others:

17 'We played the flute for you,
and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge,
and you did not mourn.'

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon!' 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look at this glutton and drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'
But wisdom is vindicated by her actions."

WOE TO THE UNREPENTANT // LUKE 10:13–16

20 Then Jesus began to denounce the cities in which most of His miracles had been performed, because they did not repent. 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been per-

REST FOR THE WEARY // LUKE 10:21–24

25 At that time Jesus declared, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. 26 Yes, Father, for this was well-pleasing in Your sight.

27 All things have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him.

28 Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. 29 Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

The Pharisees get furious that Jesus heals on the Sabbath, because apparently healing a man's hand counts as work. Jesus tells them the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath. They ask for a sign, and He gives them one: the sign of Jonah, three days and three nights.

THE LORD OF THE SABBATH // 1 SAMUEL 21:1–7; MARK 2:23–28; LUKE 6:1–5

1 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick the heads of grain and eat them. 2 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, "Look, Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath."

3 Jesus replied, "Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? 4 He entered the house of God, and he and his companions ate the consecrated bread, which was not lawful for them to eat, but only for the priests.

5 Or haven't you read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple break the Sabbath and yet are innocent? 6 But I tell you that One greater than the temple is here.

7 If only you had known the meaning of 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the innocent. 8 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH // MARK 3:1–6; LUKE 6:6–11

9 Moving on from there, Jesus entered their synagogue, 10 and a man with a withered hand was there. In order to accuse Jesus, they asked Him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

11 He replied, "If one of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not take hold of it and lift it out? 12 How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

13 Then Jesus said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out, and it was restored to full use, just like the other. 14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

GOD'S CHOSEN SERVANT // ISAIAH 42:1–9

15 Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all, 16 warning them not to make Him known. 17 This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

whom I have chosen,

A HOUSE DIVIDED // MARK 3:20–27; LUKE 11:14–23

22 Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Jesus, and He healed the man so that he could speak and see. 23 The crowds were astounded and asked, "Could this be the Son of David?"

24 But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, "Only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, does this man drive out demons."

25 Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be laid waste, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand. 26 If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand? 27 And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. 28 But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

29 Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man's house and steal his possessions, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can plunder his house.

30 He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

THE UNPARDONABLE SIN // MARK 3:28–30

31 Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. 32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the one to come.

GOOD AND BAD FRUIT // LUKE 6:43–45

33 Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is known by its fruit. 34 You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 The good man brings good things out of his good store of treasure, and the evil man brings evil things out of his evil store of treasure. 36 But I tell you that men will give an account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. 37 For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned."

THE SIGN OF JONAH // JONAH 3:1–10; LUKE 11:29–32

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

39 Jesus replied, "A wicked and adulterous generation demands a sign, but none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. 40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nineveh will stand at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now One greater than Jonah is here. 42 The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and now One greater than Solomon is here.

46 While Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to Him. 47 Someone told Him, "Look, Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to You."

48 But Jesus replied, "Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?" 49 Pointing to His disciples, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers. 50 For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

Parables. Seeds and soils, weeds and wheat, a mustard seed, yeast, hidden treasure and a pearl. The disciples ask why He talks in stories, and Jesus explains the stories open the eyes of people who want to see. Then His hometown rejects Him, because nobody takes the carpenter's kid seriously.

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER // MARK 4:1–9; LUKE 8:4–8

1 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the sea. 2 Such large crowds gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat down, while all the people stood on the shore.

3 And He told them many things in parables, saying, "A farmer went out to sow his seed. 4 And as he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it.

5 Some fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly because the soil was shallow. 6 But when the sun rose, the seedlings were scorched, and they withered because they had no root.

7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the seedlings.

8 Still other seed fell on good soil and produced a crop—a hundredfold, sixtyfold, or thirtyfold.

9 He who has ears, let him hear."

THE PURPOSE OF JESUS' PARABLES // ISAIAH 6:1–13; MARK 4:10–12; LUKE 8:9–10

10 Then the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Why do You speak to the people in parables?"

11 He replied, "The knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them. 12 Whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 13 This is why I speak to them in parables:

'Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.'

14 In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled:

'You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.
15 For this people's heart has grown callous;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts,
and turn, and I would heal them.'

16 But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. 17 For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER EXPLAINED // MARK 4:13–20; LUKE 8:11–15

evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the seed sown along the path.

20 The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. 21 But since he has no root, he remains for only a season. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, he quickly falls away.

22 The seed sown among the thorns is the one who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

23 But the seed sown on good soil is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and produces a crop—a hundredfold, sixtyfold, or thirtyfold."

THE PARABLE OF THE WEEDS // EZEKIEL 17:1–10

24 Jesus put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. 25 But while everyone was asleep, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and slipped away. 26 When the wheat sprouted and bore grain, then the weeds also appeared.

27 The owner's servants came to him and said, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?'

28 'An enemy did this,' he replied.

So the servants asked him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?'

29 'No,' he said, 'if you pull the weeds now, you might uproot the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat into my barn.'"

THE PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED // MARK 4:30–34; LUKE 13:18–19

31 He put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man took and planted in his field. 32 Although it is the smallest of all seeds, yet it grows into the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

THE PARABLE OF THE LEAVEN // LUKE 13:20–21

33 He told them still another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and mixed into eighteen quarts of flour, until all of it was leavened."

I WILL OPEN MY MOUTH IN PARABLES // PSALM 78:1–72

34 Jesus spoke all these things to the crowds in parables. He did not tell them anything without using a parable. 35 So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet:

"I will open My mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world."

THE PARABLE OF THE WEEDS EXPLAINED // ZEPHANIAH 1:1–6

36 Then Jesus dismissed the crowds and went into the house. His disciples came to Him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."

37 He replied, "The One who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 The field is the world, and the good seed represents the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, 39 and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.

40 As the weeds are collected and burned in the fire, so will it be at the end of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will weed out of His kingdom every cause of sin and all who practice lawlessness. 42 And they will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father.

THE PARABLES OF THE TREASURE AND THE PEARL

44 The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and in his joy he went and sold all he had and bought that field.

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. 46 When he found one very precious pearl, he went away and sold all he had and bought it.

THE PARABLE OF THE NET

47 Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea and caught all kinds of fish. 48 When it was full,
the men pulled it ashore. Then they sat down and sorted the good fish into containers, but threw the bad away.

49 So will it be at the end of the age: The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous 50 and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 Have you understood all these things?"

"Yes," they answered.

52 Then He told them, "For this reason,

THE REJECTION AT NAZARETH // MARK 6:1–6; LUKE 4:16–30

53 When Jesus had finished these parables, He withdrew from that place. 54 Coming to His hometown, He taught the people in their synagogue, and they were astonished. "Where did this man get such wisdom and miraculous powers?" they asked. 55 "Isn't this the carpenter's son?
Isn't His mother's name Mary, and aren't His brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? 56 Aren't all His sisters with us as well? Where then did this man get all these things?" 57 And they took offense at Him.

But Jesus said to them, "Only in his hometown and in his own household is a prophet without honor." 58 And He did not do many miracles there, because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Herod beheads John the Baptist at a birthday party, which is a terrible party. Jesus feeds five thousand men with five loaves and two fish. Then He walks on water, Peter joins Him for a few steps, looks at the waves and sinks. We have all been Peter.

THE BEHEADING OF JOHN // MARK 6:14–29; LUKE 9:7–9

1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the reports about Jesus 2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

3 Now Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, 4 because John had been telling him,
"It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 Although Herod wanted to kill John, he was afraid of the people, because they regarded John as a prophet.

6 On Herod's birthday, however, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod 7 so much that he promised with an oath to give to her whatever she asked.

8 Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist."

9 The king was grieved, but because of his oaths and his guests, he ordered that her wish be granted 10 and sent to have John beheaded in the prison.

11 John's head was brought in on a platter and presented to the girl, who carried it to her mother.

12 Then John's disciples came and took his body and buried it. And they went and informed Jesus.

THE FEEDING OF THE FIVE THOUSAND // MARK 6:30–44; LUKE 9:10–17; JOHN 6:1–15

13 When Jesus heard about John, He withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. But the crowds found out about it and followed Him on foot from the towns. 14 When He stepped ashore and saw a large crowd, He had compassion on them and healed their sick.

15 When evening came, the disciples came to Him and said, "This is a desolate place, and the hour is already late. Dismiss the crowds so they can go to the villages and buy themselves some food."

16 "They do not need to go away," Jesus replied. "You give them something to eat."

17 "We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered.

18 "Bring them here to Me," Jesus said. 19 And He directed the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, He spoke a blessing. Then He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.

20 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. 21 About five thousand men were fed, besides women and children.

JESUS WALKS ON WATER // MARK 6:45–52; JOHN 6:16–21

22 Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowds. 23 After He had dismissed them, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone, 24 but the boat was already far from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.

25 During the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went out to them, walking on the sea. 26 When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified. "It's a ghost!" they said, and cried out in fear.

27 But Jesus spoke up at once: "Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid."

28 "Lord, if it is You," Peter replied, "command me to come to You on the water."

29 "Come," said Jesus.

Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water, and came toward Jesus. 30 But when he saw the strength of the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!"

31 Immediately Jesus reached out His hand and took hold of Peter. "You of little faith," He said, "why did you doubt?"

32 And when they had climbed back into the boat, the wind died down. 33 Then those who were in the boat worshiped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God!"

JESUS HEALS AT GENNESARET // MARK 6:53–56

34 When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place recognized Jesus, they sent word to all the surrounding region. People brought all the sick to Him 36 and begged Him just to let them touch the fringe of His cloak. And all who touched Him were healed.

say that if anyone says to his father or mother, 'Whatever you would have received from me is a gift devoted to God,' 6 he need not honor his father or mother with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. 7 You hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied correctly about you:

8 'These people honor Me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from Me.
9 They worship Me in vain;
they teach as doctrine the precepts of men.'"

WHAT DEFILES A MAN // MARK 7:14–23

10 Jesus called the crowd to Him and said, "Listen and understand. 11 A man is not defiled by what enters his mouth, but by what comes out of it."

12 Then the disciples came to Him and said, "Are You aware that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?"

13 But Jesus replied, "Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by its roots. 14 Disregard them! They are blind guides. If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit."

15 Peter said to Him, "Explain this parable to us."

16 "Do you still not understand?" Jesus asked. 17 "Do you not yet realize that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then is eliminated? 18 But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these things defile a man. 19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, and slander. 20 These are what defile a man, but eating with unwashed hands does not defile him."

THE FAITH OF THE CANAANITE WOMAN // MARK 7:24–30

21 Leaving that place, Jesus withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And a Canaanite woman from that region came to Him, crying out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is miserably possessed by a demon."

23 But Jesus did not answer a word. So His disciples came and urged Him, "Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us."

24 He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25 The woman came and knelt before Him. "Lord, help me!" she said.

26 But Jesus replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to the dogs."

27 "Yes, Lord," she said, "even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their master's table."

28 "O woman," Jesus answered, "your faith is great! Let it be done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

THE FEEDING OF THE FOUR THOUSAND // 2 KINGS 4:42–44; MARK 8:1–10

29 Moving on from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up on a mountain and sat down. 30 Large crowds came to Him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others, and laid them at His feet, and He healed them. 31 The crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled restored, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Then Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, "I have compassion for this crowd, because they have already been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may faint along the way."

33 The disciples replied, "Where in this desolate place could we find enough bread to feed such a large crowd?"

34 "How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.

"Seven," they replied, "and a few small fish."

on the ground. 36 Taking the seven loaves and the fish, He gave thanks and broke them. Then He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.
37 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. 38 A total of four thousand men were fed, besides women and children.
39 After Jesus had dismissed the crowds,
He got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus asks who people say He is, and Peter nails it: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. A few verses later Peter tells Jesus He does not have to die, and Jesus calls him Satan. Peter goes from star student to detention in the same conversation.

THE DEMAND FOR A SIGN // MARK 8:11–13; LUKE 12:54–56

1 Then the Pharisees and Sadducees came and tested Jesus by asking Him to show them a sign from heaven.
2 But He replied, "When evening comes, you say, 'The weather will be fair, for the sky is red,' 3 and in the morning, 'Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but not the signs of the times. 4 A wicked and adulterous generation demands a sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah." Then
He left them and went away.

THE LEAVEN OF THE PHARISEES AND SADDUCEES // MARK 8:14–21; LUKE 12:1–3

5 When they crossed to the other side, the disciples forgot to take bread. 6 "Watch out!" Jesus told them. "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
7 They discussed this among themselves and concluded, "It is because we did not bring any bread."
8 Aware of their conversation, Jesus said,
"You of little faith, why are you debating among yourselves about having no bread? 9 Do you still not understand? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered? 10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many basket-fuls you gathered? 11 How do you not understand that I was not telling you about bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
12 Then they understood that He was not telling them to beware of the leaven used in bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

PETER'S CONFESSION OF CHRIST // MARK 8:27–30; LUKE 9:18–20; JOHN 6:67–71

13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, He questioned His disciples: "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"
14 They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets."
15 "But what about you?" Jesus asked.
"Who do you say I am?"
16 Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."
17 Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by My Father in heaven. 18 And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. 19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."
20 Then He admonished the disciples not to tell anyone that He was the Christ.

CHRIST'S PASSION FORETOLD // MARK 8:31–33; LUKE 9:21–22

21 From that time on Jesus began to show
His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and that He must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.

22 Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. "Far be it from You, Lord!" he said. "This shall never happen to You!"

23 But Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me. For you do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."

TAKE UP YOUR CROSS // MARK 8:34–38; LUKE 9:23–27

24 Then Jesus told His disciples, "If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. 25 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26 What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? 27 For the Son of Man will come in His Father's glory with His angels, and then He will repay each one according to what he has done.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

PETER AND THE ROCK

Who Is the Rock?

MATTHEW 16:13 TO 20 · JOHN 1:42 · ISAIAH 22:22

WHAT JESUS SAID

Peter says, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God, 16:16. Jesus answers: you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, 16:18. Then He gives Peter the keys of the kingdom of heaven, 16:19. Few verses have split Christians more.

THE WORDPLAY

In Greek, Peter is Petros and rock is petra. In Aramaic, the language Jesus spoke, both words would be Kepha, which is why Jesus names him Cephas, John 1:42, and Paul calls him Cephas, Galatians 2:9. So it sounds a lot like: you are Rock, and on this rock I will build.

THE CATHOLIC VIEW

Peter is the rock. The keys echo Isaiah 22:22, where the king's chief steward holds the key of the house. Peter led the church and died in Rome, and the bishops of Rome carry on his office. About AD 180 Irenaeus listed the bishops of Rome one after another (Against Heresies 3.3). In 1870 the First Vatican Council said the pope cannot err when he formally defines a teaching on faith or morals for the whole church.

THE ORTHODOX VIEW

Peter was first among the apostles, and Rome was first in honor among the great churches. But the rock is the faith Peter confessed, and every faithful bishop shares it. Rome and the East split in 1054.

PETER IN ROME

About AD 96, 1 Clement 5 says Peter died a martyr. Later writers, like Dionysius of Corinth about AD 170 and Tertullian about AD 200, say it was in Rome under Nero, about AD 64 to 68. The Bible never says he was there, unless Babylon in 1 Peter 5:13 is a code name for Rome, as many think. In 1968 Pope Paul VI announced that bones found under St. Peter's Basilica were likely Peter's. Others doubt it.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES MIRACLES JESUS SPEAKING

The Rock and the Keys

MATTHEW 16:18 TO 19 · 18:18 · 1 CORINTHIANS 3:11 · 10:4 · EPHESIANS 2:20

THE ROCK IS PETER'S CONFESSION

Many Protestants say the rock is what Peter said: You are the Christ. The church is built on that truth. Luther attacked the papacy in 1520 on this ground.

THE ROCK IS CHRIST

Others say Jesus pointed to Himself. Paul says no one can lay any foundation but Jesus Christ, 1 Corinthians 3:11, and the rock was Christ, 10:4. Peter himself calls Jesus the living stone, 1 Peter 2:4 to 8.

WHAT THE KEYS DID

Keys open doors. Peter opened the door of the church to the Jews at Pentecost, Acts 2, and to the Gentiles at Cornelius' house, Acts 10. Many Protestants say that was the job of the keys.

THE ROCK IS PETER, BUT NO SUCCESSOR

Many Protestant scholars today, like Oscar Cullmann in 1952, agree the rock is Peter, the first leader of the church, as in Acts 2 and 10. But they say nothing here passes his role to anyone after him, and Rome is never mentioned.

THE EARLY CHURCH WAS SPLIT TOO

Augustine, about AD 427, said he had explained this verse both ways, as Peter and as Christ, and let the reader choose which was more likely (Retractations 1.21).

THINGS EVERY READER SHOULD SEE

Jesus gives the same power to bind and loose to all the disciples in 18:18. Paul corrects Peter to his face, Galatians 2:11. James speaks last at the Jerusalem council, Acts 15:13 to 21. The church rests on the apostles and prophets, with Christ the cornerstone, Ephesians 2:20.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Jesus builds His church, and the gates of Hades will not stop it.

17

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus takes Peter, James and John up a mountain and is transfigured, shining like the sun, while Moses and Elijah show up. Peter offers to build tents, because when in doubt, start a building project. Then God speaks from a cloud: This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him.

THE TRANSFIGURATION // MARK 9:1–13; LUKE 9:28–36; 2 PETER 1:16–21

1 After six days Jesus took with Him Peter, James, and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. 2 There He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light.

3 Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared before them, talking with Jesus. 4 Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You wish, I will put up three shelters—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 While Peter was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him!" 6
When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown in terror.

7 Then Jesus came over and touched them. "Get up," He said. "Do not be afraid." 8 And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.

9 As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Do not tell anyone about this vision until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

10 The disciples asked Him, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

11 Jesus replied, "Elijah does indeed come, and he will restore all things. 12 But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they him whatever they wished. In the same way, the Son of Man will suffer at their hands."

13 Then the disciples understood that He was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

THE BOY WITH A DEMON // MARK 9:14–29; LUKE 9:37–42

14 When they came to the crowd, a man came up to Jesus and knelt before Him. 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son," he said. "He has seizures and is suffering terribly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. 16 I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not heal him."

17 "O unbelieving and perverse generation!" Jesus replied. "How long must I remain with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy here to Me." 18 Then Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, and he was healed from that moment.

THE POWER OF FAITH // LUKE 17:5–10

19 Afterward the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

20 "Because you have so little faith," He answered. "For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you." 21 [But this kind does not come out except by prayer and fasting.]

THE SECOND PREDICTION OF THE PASSION // MARK 9:30–32; LUKE 9:43–45

22 When they gathered together in Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men. 23 They will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised to life." And the disciples were deeply grieved.

THE TEMPLE TAX

24 After they had arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and asked, "Does your Teacher pay the temple tax?"

25 "Yes," he answered.

When Peter entered the house, Jesus preempted him. "What do you think, Simon?" He asked. "From whom do the kings of the earth collect customs and taxes: from their own sons, or from others?"

26 "From others," Peter answered.

"Then the sons are exempt," Jesus said to him. 27 "But so that we may not offend them, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take the first fish you catch. When you open its mouth, you will find a large silver coin. Take it and give it to them for My tax and yours."

18

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

The disciples argue about who is greatest, and Jesus puts a child in front of them. He talks about lost sheep, church discipline and forgiveness. Peter asks if forgiving seven times is enough, and Jesus says seventy seven times, which is Jesus's way of saying stop counting.

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM // MARK 9:33–41; LUKE 9:46–50

1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who then is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

2 Jesus invited a little child to stand among them. 3 "Truly I tell you," He said, "unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. 4 Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoever welcomes a little child like this in My name welcomes Me.

7 Woe to the world for the causes of sin. These stumbling blocks must come, but woe to the man through whom they come!

8 If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than to have two hands and two feet and be thrown into the eternal fire. 9 And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.

THE PARABLE OF THE LOST SHEEP // LUKE 15:1–7

10 See that you do not look down on any of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of My Father in heaven. 11 [For the Son of Man came to save the lost.]

12 What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go out to search for the one that is lost? 13 And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices more over that one sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. 14 In the same way, your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should perish.

A BROTHER WHO SINS // DEUTERONOMY 19:15–21

15 If your brother sins against you, go and confront him privately. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over. 16 But if he will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.' 17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, regard him as you would a pagan or a tax collector.

18 Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

ASK IN MY NAME // JOHN 16:23–33

19 Again, I tell you truly that if two of you on the earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by My Father in heaven. 20 For where two or three gather together in My name, there am I with them."

THE UNFORGIVING SERVANT // ROMANS 12:14–21

21 Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother who sins against me? Up to seven times?"

22 Jesus answered, "I tell you, not just seven times, but seventy-seven times!

23 Because of this, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. 24 As he began the settlements, a debtor owing ten thousand bags of gold was brought to him. 25 Since the man was unable to pay, the master ordered that he be sold to pay his debt, along with his wife and children and everything he owned.

26 Then the servant fell on his knees before him. 'Have patience with me,' he begged, 'and I will pay back everything.'

27 His master had compassion on him, forgave his debt, and released him.

28 But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred days' wages. He grabbed him and began to choke him, saying, 'Pay back what you owe me!'

29 So his fellow servant fell down and begged him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you back.'

30 But he refused. Instead, he went and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay his debt.

31 When his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and recounted all of this to their master.

32 Then the master summoned him and said, 'You wicked servant! I forgave all your debt because you begged me. 33 Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had on you?' 34 In anger his master turned him over to the

Jesus teaches on marriage and divorce and welcomes the little children. A rich young man asks what good thing he must do, and walks away sad when Jesus tells him to sell it all. Then Jesus says it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom.

TEACHINGS ABOUT DIVORCE // MARK 10:1–12

1 When Jesus had finished saying these things, He left Galilee and went into the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. 2 Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

3 Then some Pharisees came and tested Him by asking, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?"

4 Jesus answered, "Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator 'made them male and female,' 5 and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh'? 6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate."

7 "Why then," they asked, "did Moses order a man to give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?"

8 Jesus replied, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of your hardness of heart. But it was not this way from the beginning. 9 Now I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another woman commits adultery."

10 His disciples said to Him, "If this is the case between a man and his wife, it is better not to marry."

11 "Not everyone can accept this word," He replied, "but only those to whom it has been given. 12 For there are eunuchs who were born that way; others were made that way by men; and still others live like eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it."

JESUS BLESSES THE CHILDREN // MARK 10:13–16; LUKE 18:15–17

13 Then little children were brought to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them and pray for them. And the disciples rebuked those who brought them. 14 But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them! For the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." 15 And after He had placed His hands on them, He went on from there.

THE RICH YOUNG MAN // MARK 10:17–31; LUKE 18:18–30

16 Just then a man came up to Jesus and inquired, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to obtain eternal life?"

17 "Why do you ask Me about what is good?" Jesus replied. "There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, keep the commandments."

18 "Which ones?" the man asked.

Jesus answered, "'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, 19 honor your father and mother, and love your neighbor as yourself.'"

20 "All these I have kept," said the young man. "What do I still lack?"

21 Jesus told him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me."

22 When the young man heard this, he went away in sorrow, because he had great wealth.

27 "Look," Peter replied, "we have left everything to follow You. What then will there be for us?"

28 Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, in the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or fields for the sake of My name will receive a hundredfold and will inherit eternal life. 30 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

A landowner pays workers who started at five in the afternoon the same as the ones who started at dawn, and the early crew files a complaint. That is grace, and it is not fair, thankfully. James and John's mother asks for VIP seats for her sons, and Jesus says greatness means serving.

THE PARABLE OF THE WORKERS

1 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. 2 He agreed to pay them the usual day's wage and sent them into his vineyard.

3 About the third hour he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. 4 'You also go into my vineyard,' he said, 'and I will pay you whatever is right.' 5 So they went.

He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did the same thing.

6 About the eleventh hour he went out and found still others standing around. 'Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?' he asked.

7 'Because no one has hired us,' they answered.

So he told them, 'You also go into my vineyard.'

8 When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last ones hired and moving on to the first.'

9 The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a full day's wage. 10 So when the original workers came, they assumed they would receive more. But each of them also received a full day's wage.

11 On receiving their pay, they began to grumble against the landowner. 12 'These men who were hired last worked only one hour,' they said, 'and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the scorching heat of the day.'

13 But he answered one of them, 'Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Did you not agree with me on a day's wage? 14 Take your pay and go. I want to give this last man the same as I gave you. 15 Do I not have the right to do as I please with what is mine? Or are you envious because I am generous?'

16 So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

THE THIRD PREDICTION OF THE PASSION // MARK 10:32–34; LUKE 18:31–34

17 As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside and said, 18 "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and scribes. They will condemn Him to death 19 and will deliver Him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified. And on the third day He will be raised to life."

A MOTHER'S REQUEST // MARK 10:35–45

20 Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Jesus with her sons and knelt down to make a request of Him.
21 "What do you want?" He inquired.
She answered, "Declare that in Your kingdom one of these two sons of mine may sit at Your right hand, and the other at Your left."
22 "You do not know what you are asking," Jesus replied. "Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?"
"We can," the brothers answered.
23 "You will indeed drink My cup," Jesus said. "But to sit at My right or left is not Mine to grant. These seats belong to those for whom My Father has prepared
them."
24 When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers. 25
But Jesus called them aside and said,
"You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their superiors exercise authority over them. 26 It shall not be this way among you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, 27 and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave—28 just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many."

THE BLIND MEN BY THE ROAD // MARK 10:46–52; LUKE 18:35–43

29 As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. 30 And there were two blind men sitting beside the road.
When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"
31 The crowd admonished them to be silent, but they cried out all the louder,
"Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"
32 Jesus stopped and called them. "What do you want Me to do for you?" He asked.
33 "Lord," they answered, "let our eyes be opened."
34 Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes, and at once they received their sight and followed Him.

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus rides into Jerusalem on a donkey while the crowds shout Hosanna, exactly as Zechariah said. Then He flips over the money changers' tables in the temple. He curses a fig tree for having no fruit, and the religious leaders are running out of ways to trap Him.

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY // ZECHARIAH 9:9–13; MARK 11:1–11; LUKE 19:28–40; JOHN 12:12–19

1 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent out two disciples, 2 saying to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt beside her. Untie them and bring them to Me. 3 If anyone questions you, tell him that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away."
4 This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

5 "Say to the Daughter of Zion,
'See, your King comes to you,
gentle and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"

6 So the disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. 7 They brought the donkey and the colt and laid their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them.
8 A massive crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.
9 The crowds that went ahead of Him and those that followed were shouting:

"Hosanna to the Son of David!"

Jerusalem in Jesus' Last Week

From the palm branches to the empty tomb

SUNDAY Jesus rode a donkey down the Mount of Olives into the city as crowds waved branches, Matthew 21:1 to 11. He spent His nights in Bethany, Matthew 21:17.

FRIDAY Jesus stood before Pilate, was sent to Herod Antipas and back, Luke 23:7 to 11, and was crucified at Golgotha, near the city, John 19:20, outside the gate, Hebrews 13:12.

THURSDAY NIGHT After the Last Supper in an upper room, Jesus prayed in Gethsemane and was arrested, then taken to the high priest Caiaphas, Matthew 26.

SUNDAY MORNING The tomb was in a garden near the place He was crucified, John 19:41. On the third day it was empty, Matthew 28:6.

Simple plan, not exact. Most scholars place Golgotha at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. The Upper Room, Caiaphas's house and Pilate's headquarters are traditional or debated sites.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES MIRACLES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW JESUS SPEAKING

"Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!"

"Hosanna in the highest!"

10 When Jesus had entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?"

11 The crowds replied, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE // MARK 11:15–19; LUKE 19:45–48; JOHN 2:12–25

12 Then Jesus entered the temple courts and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling doves. 13 And He declared to them, "It is written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer.' But you are making it 'a den of robbers.'"

14 The blind and the lame came to Him at the temple, and He healed them. 15 But the chief priests and scribes were indignant when they saw the wonders He performed and the children shouting in the temple courts, "Hosanna to the Son of David!"

16 "Do You hear what these children are saying?" they asked.

"Yes," Jesus answered. "Have you never read:

'From the mouths of children and infants You have ordained praise'?"

17 Then He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where He spent the night.

THE BARREN FIG TREE // MARK 11:12–14; MARK 11:20–25

18 In the morning, as Jesus was returning to the city, He was hungry. 19 Seeing a fig tree by the road, He went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. "May you never bear fruit again!" He said. And immediately the tree withered.

20 When the disciples saw this, they marveled and asked, "How did the fig tree wither so quickly?"

21 "Truly I tell you," Jesus replied, "if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it will happen. 22 If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."

JESUS' AUTHORITY CHALLENGED // MARK 11:27–33; LUKE 20:1–8

23 When Jesus returned to the temple courts and began to teach, the chief priests and elders of the people came up to Him. "By what authority are You doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave You this authority?"

24 "I will also ask you one question," Jesus replied, "and if you answer Me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 25 What was the source of John's baptism? Was it from heaven or from men?"

They deliberated among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26 But if we say, 'From men,' we are afraid of the people, for they all regard John as a prophet." 27 So they answered, "We do not know."

And Jesus replied, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

THE PARABLE OF THE TWO SONS

28 But what do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first one and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.'

29 'I will not,' he replied. But later he changed his mind and went.

30 Then the man went to the second son and told him the same thing.

'I will, sir,' he said. But he did not go.

31 Which of the two did the will of his father?"

"The first," they answered.

Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. 32 For

THE PARABLE OF THE WICKED TENANTS // MARK 12:1–12; LUKE 20:9–18

33 Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a tower. Then he rented it out to some tenants and went away on a journey.

34 When the harvest time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his share of the fruit. 35 But the tenants seized his servants. They beat one, killed another, and stoned a third.

36 Again, he sent other servants, more than the first group. But the tenants did the same to them.

37 Finally, he sent his son to them. 'They will respect my son,' he said.

38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and take his inheritance.' 39 So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

40 Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard returns, what will he do to those tenants?"

41 "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end," they replied, "and will rent out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him his share of the fruit at harvest time."

42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

'The stone the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
This is from the Lord,
and it is marvelous in our eyes'?

43 Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit. 44 He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed."

45 When the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they knew that Jesus was speaking about them. 46 Although they wanted to arrest Him, they were afraid of the crowds, because the people regarded Him as a prophet.

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS

The Pharisees and Sadducees take turns trying to trap Jesus with trick questions about taxes, the resurrection and the greatest commandment. He answers every one and then stumps them with one question of His own about Psalm 110. After that, nobody dared to ask Him anything.

THE PARABLE OF THE BANQUET // LUKE 14:15–24

1 Once again, Jesus spoke to them in parables: 2 "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. 3 He sent his servants to call those he had invited to the banquet, but they refused to come.

4 Again, he sent other servants and said, 'Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened cattle have been killed, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.'

5 But they paid no attention and went away, one to his field, another to his business. 6 The rest seized his servants, mistreated them, and killed them.

7 The king was enraged, and he sent his troops to destroy those murderers and burn their city. 8 Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited were not worthy. 9 Go therefore to the crossroads and invite to the banquet as many as you can find.'

10 So the servants went out into the streets and gathered everyone they could find, both evil and good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11 But when the king came in to see the guests, he spotted a man who was not dressed in wedding clothes. 12 'Friend,' he asked, 'how did you get in here without wedding clothes?'

But the man was speechless.

13 Then the king told the servants, 'Tie him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

14 For many are called, but few are chosen."

PAYING TAXES TO CAESAR // MARK 12:13–17; LUKE 20:19–26

15 Then the Pharisees went out and conspired to trap Jesus in His words. 16 They sent their disciples to Him along with the Herodians. "Teacher," they said, "we know that You are honest and that You teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You seek favor from no one, because You pay no attention to external appearance. 17 So tell us what You think: Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

18 But Jesus knew their evil intent and said, "You hypocrites, why are you testing Me? 19 Show Me the coin used for the tax."

And they brought Him a Roman coin.

20 "Whose image is this," He asked, "and whose inscription?"

21 "Caesar's," they answered.

So Jesus told them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."

22 And when they heard this, they were amazed. So they left Him and went away.

THE SADDUCEES AND THE RESURRECTION // MARK 12:18–27; LUKE 20:27–40

23 That same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and questioned Him. 24 "Teacher," they said, "Moses declared that if a man dies without having children, his brother is to marry the widow and raise up offspring for him. 25 Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died without having children. So he left his wife to his brother. 26 The same thing happened to the second and third brothers, down to the seventh. 27 And last of all, the woman died. 28 In the resurrection, then, whose wife will she be of the seven? For all of them were married to her."

29 Jesus answered, "You are mistaken because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God. 30 In the resurrection, people will neither marry nor be given in marriage. Instead, they will be like the angels in heaven. 31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what God said to you: 32 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

33 When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT // DEUTERONOMY 6:1–19; MARK 12:28–34

34 And when the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they themselves gathered together. 35 One of them, an expert in the law, tested Him with a question: 36 "Teacher, which commandment is the greatest in the Law?"

37 Jesus declared, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

WHOSE SON IS THE CHRIST? // MARK 12:35–37; LUKE 20:41–44

41 While the Pharisees were assembled, Jesus questioned them: 42 "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is He?"

"David's," they answered.

43 Jesus said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord'? For he says:

44 "'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand
until I put Your enemies
under Your feet."'

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus unloads a string of woes on the scribes and Pharisees: hypocrites, blind guides, whitewashed tombs. It is the most direct sermon in the book. It ends with Jesus weeping over Jerusalem, longing to gather her children like a hen gathers her chicks.

WOES TO SCRIBES AND PHARISEES // LUKE 11:37–54

1 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples: 2 "The scribes and Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. 3 So practice and observe everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach. 4 They tie up heavy, burdensome loads and lay them on men's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

5 All their deeds are done for men to see. They broaden their phylacteries and lengthen their tassels. 6 They love the places of honor at banquets, the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 the greetings in the marketplaces, and the title of 'Rabbi' by which they are addressed.

8 But you are not to be called 'Rabbi,' for you have one Teacher, and you are all brothers. 9 And do not call anyone on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. 10 Nor are you to be called instructors, for you have one Instructor, the Christ. 11 The greatest among you shall be your servant. 12 For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

13 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let in those who wish to enter. 14 [Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You defraud widows of their houses, and for a show make lengthy prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.]

15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You traverse land and sea to win a single convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as you are.

16 Woe to you, blind guides! You say, 'If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath.' 17 You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes it sacred? 18 And you say, 'If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gift on it, he is bound by his oath.' 19 You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes it sacred? 20 So then, he who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it. 21 And he who swears by the temple swears by it and by the One who dwells in it. 22 And he who swears by heaven swears by God's throne and by the One who sits on it.

23 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You pay tithes of mint, dill, and cumin. But you have disregarded the weightier matters of the law: justice, mercy, and faithfulness. You should have practiced the latter, without neglecting the former. 24 You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.

25 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. 26 Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, so that the outside may become clean as well.

27 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men's bones and every kind of impurity. 28 In the same way, on the outside you appear to be righteous, but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness.

29 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous. 30 And you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.' 31 So you testify against yourselves that you are the sons of those who murdered the prophets. 32 Fill up, then, the measure of the sin of your fathers. 33 You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape the sentence of hell?

34 Because of this, I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify, and others you will flog in your synagogues and persecute from town to town. 35 And so upon you will come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. 36 Truly I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.

LAMENT OVER JERUSALEM // LUKE 13:31–35

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were unwilling! 38 Look, your house is left to you desolate. 39 For I tell you that you will not see Me again until you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

The disciples admire the temple stones, and Jesus says not one will be left on another. About forty years later the Romans proved Him right. Then He gives the Olivet Discourse about the end of the age and His return, and says nobody knows the day or hour, which has not stopped people from guessing.

TEMPLE DESTRUCTION AND OTHER SIGNS // MARK 13:1–8; LUKE 21:5–9

1 As Jesus left the temple and was walking away, His disciples came up to Him to point out its buildings.

2 "Do you see all these things?" He replied. "Truly I tell you, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

3 While Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?"

4 Jesus answered, "See to it that no one deceives you. 5 For many will come in My name, claiming, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. 6 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. These things must happen, but the end is still to come. 7 Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 12 Because of the multiplication of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold. 13 But the one who perseveres to the end will be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION // MARK 13:14–23; LUKE 21:20–24

15 So when you see standing in the holy place 'the abomination of desolation,' spoken of by the prophet Daniel (let the reader understand), 16 then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 17 Let no one on the housetop come down to retrieve anything from his house. 18 And let no one in the field return for his cloak.

19 How miserable those days will be for pregnant and nursing mothers! 20 Pray that your flight will not occur in the winter or on the Sabbath. 21 For at that time there will be great tribulation, unseen from the beginning of the world until now, and never to be seen again. 22 If those days had not been cut short, nobody would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be cut short.

23 At that time, if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There He is!' do not believe it. 24 For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders to deceive even the elect, if that were possible. 25 See, I have told you in advance.

THE RETURN OF THE SON OF MAN // MARK 13:24–27; LUKE 21:25–28

26 So if they tell you, 'There He is, in the wilderness,' do not go out, or, 'Here He is, in the inner rooms,' do not believe it. 27 For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 28 Wherever there is a carcass, there the vultures will gather.

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days:

'The sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light;
the stars will fall from the sky,
and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.'

30 At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. 31 And He will send out His angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

THE LESSON OF THE FIG TREE // MARK 13:28–31; LUKE 21:29–33

32 Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its branches become tender and sprout leaves, you know that summer is near. 33 So also, when you see all these things, you will know that He is near, right at the door. 34 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

THE TEMPLE STONES OF AD 70

MATTHEW 24:1 TO 2

Fallen temple stones on the street below Robinson's Arch, Jerusalem.

WHAT IT IS

Massive stones from the top of the temple walls, still lying where Roman soldiers pushed them down onto the street below.

HOW OLD IT IS

Herod's builders set these stones in place starting about 20 BC. The Romans threw them down in AD 70.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Uncovered in excavations led by Benjamin Mazar beginning in 1968, next to Robinson's Arch at the southwest corner of the Temple Mount.

Left in place in the Jerusalem Archaeological Park.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Jesus said not one stone would be left on another. About forty years later, in AD 70, the Roman army under Titus destroyed the temple. The Jewish historian Josephus describes it, and the stones are still lying in the street.

WHAT JOSEPHUS SAW

Josephus watched the siege. He wrote that Titus ordered the whole city and temple torn down, leaving only three tall towers, to show later people how strong the city had been, and part of the city wall on the west side for his soldiers' camp. Jewish War 7.1.1.

HOW BIG THEY ARE

Many of the fallen stones weigh several tons each. Deeper in the Western Wall, one stone Herod's men set in place is about 44 feet long, one of the biggest building blocks people ever moved.

FOUND IN THE SAME PILE

One stone that fell here was carved with the words to the place of trumpeting, where a priest blew the trumpet for the Sabbath. See The Place of Trumpeting in Hebrews, p.1988. The Arch of Titus in Rome still shows the soldiers carrying off the temple lampstand. See The Temple Treasures in Rome in Hebrews, p.1989.

THE STREET BELOW

The stones crashed onto a paved street that ran along the bottom of the western wall, lined with shops. They hit so hard that some paving stones cracked and sank.

READINESS AT ANY HOUR // GENESIS 6:1–7; MARK 13:32–37; LUKE 12:35–48

36 No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. 37 As it was in the days of Noah, so will it be at the coming of the Son of Man. 38 For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark. 39 And they were oblivious until the flood came and swept them all away. So will it be at the coming of the Son of Man. 40 Two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. 41 Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left.

42 Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day on which your Lord will come. 43 But understand this: If the homeowner had known in which watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into. 44 For this reason, you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour you do not expect.

45 Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of his household, to give the others their food at the proper time? 46 Blessed is that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. 47 Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

48 But suppose that servant is wicked and says in his heart, 'My master will be away a long time.' 49 And he begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. 50 The master of that servant will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not anticipate. 51
Then he will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS

Three stories about being ready: ten bridesmaids and their oil lamps, three servants with their bags of gold, and the sheep and the goats. The take-away is that what you do for the least of these, you do for Jesus. The guy who buried his money in the backyard does not come off well.

THE PARABLE OF THE TEN VIRGINS

1 "At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3 The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take along any extra oil. 4 But the wise ones took oil in flasks along with their lamps. 5 When the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

6 At midnight the cry rang out: 'Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!'

7 Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. 8 The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.'

9 'No,' said the wise ones, 'or there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.'

10 But while they were on their way to buy it, the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet, and the door was shut.

11 Later the other virgins arrived and said,
'Lord, lord, open the door for us!'

12 But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.'

13 Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THIS GENERATION

When Did Jesus Say It Would Happen?

MATTHEW 24:1 TO 51 · MARK 13:30 TO 32 · LUKE 21:20 TO 32

WHAT JESUS SAID

Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened, 24:34. C. S. Lewis called the same words in Mark 13:30 certainly the most embarrassing verse in the Bible, then pointed to the next verses: no one knows the day or hour, not even the Son. Here is how Christians read it.

IT HAPPENED IN AD 70

All these things means the fall of the temple Jesus had just predicted, 24:2. About forty years later, in AD 70, Rome burned the temple. Best case: in Matthew this generation always means the people alive then, 11:16 and 23:36.

WHAT THE CHRISTIANS DID

Jesus said to flee when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, Luke 21:20 to 21. Eusebius says the Christians of Jerusalem fled to Pella before the war (Church History 3.5.3).

SPLIT IN TWO

Verses 4 to 35 are about AD 70. From 24:36, that day and hour, Jesus turns to His second coming. Best case: it explains both the near and the far.

THE GENERATION THAT SEES THE SIGNS

The people alive when the signs start will see the end. Hal Lindsey in 1970 tied it to Israel's rebirth in 1948 and suggested about forty years. In 1988 Edgar Whisenant sent out millions of copies of 88 Reasons Why the Rapture Will Be in 1988. 1988 came and went. Best case: it keeps the words for the future.

THIS RACE

Generation can also mean a people: the Jewish people will last until the end. Best case: the word allows it.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

No one knows the day or hour, 24:36. Be ready, 24:44. See also Four Ways to Read Revelation, p.2082.

THE PARABLE OF THE BAGS OF GOLD // LUKE 19:11–27

14 For it is just like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted them with his possessions. 15 To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bag—each according to his own ability. And he went on his journey. 16 The servant who had received the five bags of gold went at once and put them to work and gained five more. 17 Likewise, the one with the two bags of gold gained two more. 18 But the servant who had received the one bag of gold went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.

19 After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. 20 The servant who had received the five bags of gold came and presented five more. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.'

21 His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your master!'

22 The servant who had received the two bags of gold also came and said, 'Master, you entrusted me with two bags of gold. See, I have gained two more.'

24 Finally, the servant who had received the one bag of gold came and said, 'Master, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. 25 So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, you have what belongs to you.'

26 'You wicked, lazy servant!' replied his master. 'You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed. 27 Then you should have deposited my money with the bankers,

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES | PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE | END TIMES PROPHECIES | JESUS SPEAKING

and on my return I would have received it back with interest.

28 Therefore take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten bags of gold. 29 For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. But the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 30 And throw that worthless servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

THE SHEEP AND THE GOATS

31 When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, He will sit on His glorious throne. 32 All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate the people one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 He will place the sheep on His right and the goats on His left.

34 Then the King will say to those on His right, 'Come, you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35 For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me something to drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in, 36 I was naked and you clothed Me, I was sick and you looked after Me, I was in prison and you visited Me.'

37 Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You something to drink? 38 When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You? 39 When did we see You sick or in prison and visit You?'

40 And the King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of Mine, you did for Me.'

41 Then He will say to those on His left, 'Depart from Me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. 42 For I was hungry and you gave Me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me nothing to drink, 43 I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, I was naked and you did not clothe Me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after Me.'

44 And they too will reply, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to You?'

45 Then the King will answer, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me.'

46 And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS // MARK 14:1–2; LUKE 22:1–2; JOHN 11:45–57

1 When Jesus had finished saying all these things, He told His disciples, 2 "You know that the Passover is two days away, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

3 At that time the chief priests and elders of the people assembled in the courtyard of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas, 4 and they conspired to arrest Jesus covertly and kill Him. 5 "But not during the feast," they said, "or there may be a riot among the people."

8 When the disciples saw this, they were indignant and asked, "Why this waste? 9 This perfume could have been sold at a high price, and the money given to the poor."

10 Aware of this, Jesus asked, "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful deed to Me. 11 The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have Me. 12 By pouring this perfume on Me, she has prepared My body for burial. 13 Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS // MARK 14:10–11; LUKE 22:3–6

14 Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests 15 and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?" And they set out for him thirty pieces of silver. 16 So from then on Judas looked for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

PREPARING THE PASSOVER // MARK 14:12–16; LUKE 22:7–13

17 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

18 He answered, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him that the Teacher says, 'My time is near. I will keep the Passover with My disciples at your house.'" 19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

THE LAST SUPPER // MARK 14:17–26; LUKE 22:14–23; 1 CORINTHIANS 11:17–34

20 When evening came, Jesus was reclining with the twelve disciples. 21 And while they were eating, He said to them, "Truly I tell you, one of you will betray Me."

22 They were deeply grieved and began to ask Him one after another, "Surely not I, Lord?"

23 Jesus answered, "The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with Me will betray Me. 24 The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed. It would be better for him if he had not been born."

25 Then Judas, who would betray Him, said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?"

Jesus answered, "You have said it yourself."

26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, spoke a blessing and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is My body."

27 Then He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28 This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. 29 I tell you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it anew with you in My Father's kingdom."

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THIS IS MY BODY

The Lord's Supper

MATTHEW 26:26 TO 29 · 1 CORINTHIANS 11:23 TO 29 · JOHN 6:53 TO 63

WHAT JESUS SAID

Take and eat; this is My body. This is My blood of the covenant, 26:26 to 28. Luke and Paul add, do this in remembrance of Me, Luke 22:19 and 1 Corinthians 11:24. Christians agree Jesus said it. They split over what it means.

THE EARLY CHURCH

About AD 110 Ignatius warned against people who do not confess the Eucharist to be the flesh of our Savior (Smyrnaeans 7). About AD 155 Justin Martyr said it is not common bread (First Apology 66). They did not try to explain how.

CATHOLIC

The bread and wine truly become the body and blood of Christ. Only the look and taste of bread and wine remain. This is called transubstantiation, a word used at the Fourth Lateran Council in 1215 and defined at the Council of Trent in 1551.

ORTHODOX

The bread and wine truly become His body and blood, but it is a holy mystery. They do not explain it with philosophy.

JOHN 6

Jesus said, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you, John 6:53. Many disciples left Him over it, 6:66. Some read it as being about the supper; others say it is about believing, since He adds, the words I have spoken to you are spirit and life, 6:63.

LUTHER

Christ's real body and blood are truly present in, with and under the bread and wine, and the bread is still bread. Lutherans call it the real presence. They reject the label consubstantiation.

Marburg, 1529

MATTHEW 26:26 · JOHN 10:9 · 1 CORINTHIANS 10:16 · 11:24 TO 29

THE FIGHT AT MARBURG

In October 1529 Prince Philip of Hesse brought Luther and the Swiss reformer Ulrich Zwingli together to unite the Protestants. Luther wrote Hoc est corpus meum, this is my body, in chalk on the table. They agreed on 14 of 15 points. This was the one they could not settle.

ZWINGLI

Is means stands for, the way Jesus said I am the door, John 10:9. The supper is a memorial that remembers His death. Most Baptists and many evangelicals hold this view today, and often call it an ordinance.

CALVIN

Christ is truly received, but in a spiritual way. By faith and through the Holy Spirit, believers really feed on Christ. Reformed and Presbyterian churches hold this view.

OTHER GROUPS

Anglicans and Methodists hold a range of views. Quakers and the Salvation Army do not keep the supper with bread and wine at all. Churches also differ on how often: the early church met to break bread on the first day of the week, Acts 20:7. Some churches give it to all believers; others only to their own members.

THE KEY VERSES EACH SIDE USES

Real presence: this is My body; the cup is a sharing in the blood of Christ, 1 Corinthians 10:16; whoever eats in an unworthy way sins against the body and blood, 11:27. Symbol: in remembrance of Me, 11:24; the Spirit gives life, the flesh profits nothing, John 6:63.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Jesus commanded it. It proclaims His death until He comes, 1 Corinthians 11:26. Examine yourself first, 11:28.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL // ZECHARIAH 13:7–9; MARK 14:27–31; LUKE 22:31–38; JOHN 13:36–38

31 Then Jesus said to them, "This very night you will all fall away on account of Me. For it is written:

'I will strike the Shepherd,

and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

32 But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

33 Peter said to Him, "Even if all fall away on account of You, I never will."

34 "Truly I tell you," Jesus declared, "this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

35 Peter replied, "Even if I have to die with You, I will never deny You." And all the other disciples said the same thing.

JESUS PRAYS AT GETHSEMANE // MARK 14:32–42; LUKE 22:39–46

36 Then Jesus went with His disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and He told them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."

37 He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee and began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed. 38 Then He said to them, "My soul is consumed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with Me."

39 Going a little farther, He fell facedown and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I will,
but as You will."

40 Then Jesus returned to the disciples and found them sleeping. "Were you not able to keep watch with Me for one hour?"
He asked Peter. 41 "Watch and pray so that you will not enter into temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak."

42 A second time He went away and prayed, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass unless I drink it, may Your will be done." 43 And again Jesus returned and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

44 So He left them and went away once more and prayed a third time, saying the same thing. 45 Then He returned to the disciples and said, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour is near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Rise, let us go! See, My betrayer is approaching!"

THE BETRAYAL OF JESUS // MARK 14:43–52; LUKE 22:47–53; JOHN 18:1–14

47 While Jesus was still speaking, Judas,
one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now the betrayer had arranged a signal
with them: "The One I kiss is the man; arrest Him." 49 Going directly to Jesus, he said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

50 "Friend," Jesus replied, "do what you came for."

Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus, and arrested Him. 51 At this, one of Jesus' companions drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

52 "Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him. "For all who draw the sword will die by the sword. 53 Are you not aware that I can call on My Father, and He will at once put at My disposal more than twelve legions of angels? 54 But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?"

55 At that time Jesus said to the crowd,
"Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would an outlaw? Every day I sat teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest Me. 56
But this has all happened so that the writings of the prophets would be fulfilled."

THE CAIAPHAS OSSUARY

MATTHEW 26:57 · JOHN 18:13 · ACTS 4:6

The Caiaphas ossuary on display at the Israel Museum, Jerusalem.

WHAT IT IS

An ornate limestone bone box, called an ossuary, inscribed with the name Joseph son of Caiaphas.

HOW OLD IT IS

First century AD. Caiaphas was high priest from about AD 18 to 36, and the box was likely made around the time of his death.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Found in 1990 by workers building a park in Jerusalem, in a family burial cave.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Museum in Jerusalem.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Josephus gives the high priest's full name as Joseph Caiaphas. Most scholars believe this box held the bones of the man who put Jesus on trial.

THE BONES INSIDE

The box held the bones of six people, among them a man about 60 years old. Many think he was Caiaphas himself. The bones were buried again on the Mount of Olives.

A COIN IN A SKULL

In the same burial cave, a bronze coin of King Herod Agrippa I, from about AD 42 or 43, was found inside the skull of a woman, in another bone box in the same cave marked Miriam daughter of Simon. That helps date the cave to Caiaphas' time.

CAIAPHAS IN THE BIBLE

He told the council it was better for one man to die for the people than for the whole nation to be lost, John 11:49 to 50. He led the trial of Jesus, Matthew 26:57 to 68, and was among the leaders who questioned Peter and John, Acts 4:6.

THE NAME ON THE BOX

The name is scratched on the box twice, Yehosef bar Qayafa on the long side and Yehosef bar Qafa on one short end, in rough letters, not by a skilled carver.

A FAMILY OF PRIESTS

Caiaphas was the son in law of Annas, who had been high priest a few years before him, John 18:13. Five of Annas' sons also became high priest, Antiquities 20.9.1.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

A few scholars question the identification, but it is widely accepted.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES JESUS SPEAKING

Then all the disciples deserted Him and fled.

JESUS BEFORE THE SANHEDRIN // MARK 14:53–65; LUKE 22:66–71; JOHN 18:19–24

57 Those who had arrested Jesus led Him away to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and elders had gathered. 58 But Peter followed Him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest. And he went in and sat down with the guards to see the outcome.

59 Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were seeking false testimony against Jesus in order to put Him to death. 60 But they did not find any, though many false witnesses came forward.

Finally two came forward 61 and declared, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"

62 So the high priest stood up and asked Him, "Have You no answer? What are these men testifying against You?"

63 But Jesus remained silent.

Then the high priest said to Him, "I charge You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God."

64 "You have said it yourself," Jesus answered. "But I say to all of you, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."

65 At this, the high priest tore his clothes and declared, "He has blasphemed! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy. 66 What do you think?"

"He deserves to die," they answered.

67 Then they spit in His face and struck Him. Others slapped Him 68 and said, "Prophesy to us, Christ! Who hit You?"

PETER DENIES JESUS // MARK 14:66–72; LUKE 22:54–62; JOHN 18:15–18

69 Meanwhile, Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, and a servant girl came up to him. "You also were with Jesus the Galilean," she said.

70 But he denied it before them all: "I do not know what you are talking about."

71 When Peter had gone out to the gateway, another servant girl saw him and said to the people there, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth."

72 And again he denied it with an oath: "I do not know the man!"

73 After a little while, those standing nearby came up to Peter. "Surely you are one of them," they said, "for your accent gives you away."

74 At that he began to curse and swear to them, "I do not know the man!"

And immediately a rooster crowed.

75 Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had spoken: "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went outside and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

Judas regrets it too late. Pilate washes his hands, the crowd chooses Barabbas, and the soldiers mock and beat Jesus. He is crucified between two robbers, the sky goes dark, the earth shakes and the temple curtain tears in two. A Roman centurion says it best: Truly this was the Son of God.

JESUS DELIVERED TO PILATE // MARK 15:1–5

1 When morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people conspired against Jesus to put Him to death. 2 They bound Him, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate the governor.

JUDAS HANGS HIMSELF // ZECHARIAH 11:10–17

3 When Judas, who had betrayed Him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was filled with remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders. 4 "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood," he said.

"What is that to us?" they replied. "You bear the responsibility."

5 So Judas threw the silver into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.

6 The chief priests picked up the pieces of silver and said, "It is unlawful to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money." 7 After conferring together, they used the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. 8 That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day.
9 Then what was spoken through Jeremiah
the prophet was fulfilled:

"They took the thirty pieces of silver,
the price set on Him by the people of Israel, 10 and they gave them for the potter's field,
as the Lord had commanded me."

JESUS BEFORE PILATE // LUKE 23:1–5; JOHN 18:28–40

11 Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, who questioned Him: "Are You the King of the Jews?"

"You have said so," Jesus replied.

12 And when He was accused by the chief priests and elders, He gave no answer.

13 Then Pilate asked Him, "Do You not hear how many charges they are bringing against You?"

14 But Jesus gave no answer, not even to a single charge, much to the governor's amazement.

THE CROWD CHOOSES BARABBAS // MARK 15:6–11; LUKE 23:13–25

15 Now it was the governor's custom at the feast to release to the crowd a prisoner of their choosing. 16 At that time they were holding a notorious prisoner named Barabbas. 17 So when the crowd had assembled, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18 For he knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to him.

19 While Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him this message:
"Have nothing to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered terribly in a dream today because of Him."

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus put to death.

21 "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" asked the governor.

"Barabbas," they replied.

22 "What then should I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" Pilate asked.

They all answered, "Crucify Him!"

23 "Why?" asked Pilate. "What evil has He done?"

But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify
Him!"

PILATE WASHES HIS HANDS // MARK 15:12–15

24 When Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but that instead a riot was breaking out, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd. "I am innocent of this man's blood," he said. "You bear the responsibility."

25 All the people answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!"

26 So Pilate released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed Him over to be crucified.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS // ISAIAH 50:4–11; MARK 15:16–20; LUKE 22:63–65; JOHN 19:1–15

27 Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company around Him. 28 They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him. 29 And they twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on His head. They put a staff in His right hand, knelt down before Him, and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30 Then they spit on Him and took the staff and struck Him on the head repeatedly.

31 After they had mocked Him, they removed the robe and put His own clothes back on Him. Then they led Him away to crucify Him.

THE CRUCIFIXION // PSALM 22:1–31; MARK 15:21–32; LUKE 23:26–43; JOHN 19:16–27

32 Along the way they found a man from Cyrene, named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross of Jesus.

33 And when they came to a place called Golgotha, which means The Place of the Skull, 34 they offered Him wine to drink, mixed with gall; but after tasting it, He refused to drink it.

35 When they had crucified Him, they divided up His garments by casting lots. 36 And sitting down, they kept watch over Him there.

37 Above His head they posted the written charge against Him:

THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Two robbers were crucified with Him, one on His right and the other on His left.

39 And those who passed by heaped abuse on Him, shaking their heads 40 and saying, "You who are going to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"

41 In the same way, the chief priests, scribes, and elders mocked Him, saying, 42 "He saved others, but He cannot save Himself. He is the King of Israel! Let Him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in Him. 43 He trusts in God. Let God deliver Him now if He wants Him. For He said, 'I am the Son of God.'"

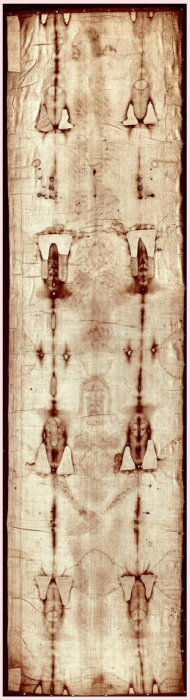
44 In the same way, even the robbers who were crucified with Him berated Him.

THE DEATH OF JESUS // PSALM 22:1–31; MARK 15:33–41; LUKE 23:44–49; JOHN 19:28–30

45 From the sixth hour until the ninth hour darkness came over all the land. 46 About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

47 When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "He is calling Elijah."

48 One of them quickly ran and brought a sponge. He filled it with sour wine, put it on a reed, and held it up for Jesus to drink.



49 But the others said, "Leave Him alone. Let us see if Elijah comes to save Him."

DEBATED FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: DEBATED, LOW TO MEDIUM

THE SHROUD OF TURIN

MATTHEW 27:59 · MARK 15:46 · LUKE 23:53 · JOHN 19:40

The whole Shroud, front and back, photographed by Giuseppe Enrie in 1931. The light triangles are patches sewn over fire damage.

WHAT IT IS

A linen cloth about 14 feet long and 3 and a half feet wide. On it is the faint front and back image of a man who was whipped, cut around the head, nailed through the wrists and feet, and stabbed in the side. Those are the wounds the Gospels describe. Many Christians believe it is the cloth Joseph of Arimathea wrapped Jesus in.

HOW OLD IT IS

This is the big fight. Carbon dating in 1988 said about AD 1260 to 1390. Supporters say it is about 2,000 years old. Its written history only starts about AD 1355. Both sides are on the next page.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

It first shows up for sure about 1355 in Lirey, a village in France, owned by a knight named Geoffroi de Charny. Some think it is the same cloth as the Image of Edessa, a cloth with Jesus' face known in the East for centuries, but that link is not proven. In 1532 it was burned in a church fire in Chambéry, and in 1534 nuns sewed patches over the holes.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In Turin Cathedral in Italy, sealed in a bulletproof glass case filled with argon gas. The royal Savoy family owned it for more than 400 years and gave it to the Pope in 1983. It is rarely shown in public. The last big showing was in 2015.

THE GREEK WORD

Matthew, Mark and Luke say Jesus was wrapped in a sindon, one linen sheet. That fits one long cloth like this. John 19:40 says linen cloths, plural, and John 20:7 mentions a separate cloth for His head. Supporters say John's word can mean linen in general. Critics say it points to more than one piece.

A CLOTH BEFORE CAMERAS

In 1898 an Italian lawyer named Secondo Pia took the first photo of the Shroud. When he looked at his glass negative, where light and dark are flipped, he saw a clear, lifelike face. The image on the cloth acts like a photo negative, hundreds of years before anyone invented photography.

WHERE THE WOUNDS ARE

The stains line up with the Gospels: many small wounds around the head, like a crown of thorns, Matthew 27:29; well over a hundred small marks across the back and legs, like a Roman whip with weighted tips, John 19:1; and a large wound in the right side, John 19:34. Skeptics answer that a medieval forger also knew the Gospels.

WHAT THE CHURCH SAYS

The Catholic Church owns it but has never said it is or is not the real burial cloth. Popes have called it an icon that points people to Jesus' suffering.

THE SHROUD: FOR AND AGAINST

MATTHEW 27:59 · MARK 15:46 · LUKE 23:53 · JOHN 19:40

THE CASE FOR

In 1978 about 30 American scientists, called STURP, studied the cloth for five days. They reported no paint, dye or brush strokes making the image, and said the red stains are real blood. The image sits only on the very top fibers of the threads, thinner than a hair, and no one has fully copied it. A 1976 image analyzer showed the light and dark in the image hold 3D information, which normal paintings do not. The nail wounds are in the wrists, where Romans nailed people, not in the palms like most medieval art.

DOUBTS ABOUT THE 1988 TEST

Supporters say the 1988 sample came from one corner that may have been repaired after the fire. A 2019 study of the raw lab data said the results did not agree with each other as well as they should. A 2022 Italian X ray test of the linen suggested it could be from the first century, but it used only one thread.

THE CASE AGAINST

In 1988 three labs, at Oxford, Zurich and Arizona, each carbon dated pieces of the cloth to about AD 1260 to 1390. Many scientists still see this as the strongest evidence. In 1389 Bishop Pierre d'Arcis wrote to the Pope that an artist had confessed to painting it. Microscope expert Walter McCrone said he found red paint, though other STURP members disagreed. A 2018 study by Matteo Borrini and Luigi Garlaschelli said the blood trails do not fit a real body. In 2025 Brazilian 3D designer Cicero Moraes argued the image fits a flat carving pressed onto cloth better than a real body. Shroud experts answered that the idea is old and ignores the blood and how thin the image is.

THE NEWEST STUDIES

Two DNA studies came out in 2026. A team at the University of Padua, led by Gianni Barcaccia, found DNA from many people, much of it tied to the Near East and India. A University of Lancashire team led by Noemi Procopio found DNA from people, crops, farm animals and even red coral. Both say this shows who and what touched the cloth over the centuries, not how old it is. Other experts warn these tests are easily fooled by contamination.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Even if it were proven to be from the first century, nothing on it can prove the man was Jesus. Our faith does not rest on a cloth. It rests on the empty tomb, where the linen was left lying behind John 20:5 to 7.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES ARCHAEOLOGY MIRACLES NOTABLE

50 When Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, He yielded up His spirit. 51 At that moment the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth quaked, and the rocks were split. 52 The tombs broke open, and the bodies of many saints who had fallen asleep were raised. 53 After Jesus' resurrection, when they had come out of the tombs, they entered the holy city and appeared to many people.

54 When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified and said, "Truly this was the Son of God."

55 And many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to minister to Him. 56 Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS // ISAIAH 53:9–12; MARK 15:42–47; LUKE 23:50–56; JOHN 19:38–42

57 When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who himself was a disciple of Jesus. 58 He went to Pilate to ask for the body of Jesus, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him. 59 So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut into the rock. Then he rolled a great stone across the entrance to the tomb and went away.
61 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.

THE GUARDS AT THE TOMB

62 The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and Pharisees assembled before Pilate. 63 "Sir," they said,
"we remember that while He was alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.' 64 So give the order that the tomb be secured until the third day. Otherwise, His disciples may come and steal Him away and tell the people He has risen from the dead. And this last deception would be worse than the first."

65 "You have a guard," Pilate said. "Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how." 66 So they went and secured the tomb by sealing the stone and posting the guard.

28

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS

The tomb is empty. An angel rolls away the stone and sits on it, which is a flex. The first witnesses are women, the guards are paid to lie, and the risen Jesus meets His disciples on a mountain and gives them the Great Commission: go make disciples of all nations.

THE RESURRECTION // MARK 16:1–8; LUKE 24:1–12; JOHN 20:1–9

1 After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

2 Suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, rolled away the stone, and sat on it. 3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. 4 The guards trembled in fear of him and became like dead men.

5 But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. 6 He is not here; He has risen, just as He said! Come, see the place where He lay. 7 Then go quickly and tell His disciples, 'He has

See, I have told you."

8 So they hurried away from the tomb in fear and great joy, and ran to tell His disciples. 9 Suddenly Jesus met them and said,
"Greetings!" They came to Him, grasped His feet, and worshiped Him. 10 "Do not be afraid," said Jesus. "Go and tell My brothers to go to Galilee. There they will see Me."

THE REPORT OF THE GUARDS

11 While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests all that had happened. 12 And after the chief priests had met with the elders and formed a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money 13 and instructed them: "You are to say, 'His disciples came by night and stole Him away while we were asleep.' 14 If this report reaches the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble."
15 So the guards took the money and did as they were instructed. And this account has been circulated among the Jews to this very day.

THE GREAT COMMISSION // MARK 16:14–18

16 Meanwhile, the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain Jesus had designated. 17 When they saw Him, they worshiped Him, but some doubted.
18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey all that I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

THE BIG QUESTION

THE TRINITY

One God, Three Persons

MATTHEW 28:19 · 3:16 TO 17 · DEUTERONOMY 6:4 · 2 CORINTHIANS 13:14

WHAT JESUS SAID

Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 28:19. One name, not three names, and three persons in it.

WHAT IT MEANS

There is one God, Deuteronomy 6:4. The Father is God. The Son is God, John 1:1 and 20:28. The Holy Spirit is God, Acts 5:3 to 4. They are not three gods, and not one person wearing three masks. Catholic, Orthodox and Protestant churches all teach it.

ALL THREE IN ONE SCENE

At Jesus' baptism the Son comes up out of the water, the Spirit comes down like a dove, and the Father speaks from heaven, 3:16 to 17. Paul blesses in all three names, 2 Corinthians 13:14.

HINTS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

God says, let Us make man in Our image, Genesis 1:26. Christians see a hint of the Trinity; Jewish readers say it is a royal we or God speaking to His heavenly court. Isaiah 48:16 has the Lord God and His Spirit sending someone.

PICTURES THAT BREAK

Every simple picture breaks somewhere. Water, ice and steam sounds like one person changing forms, which is the Oneness view. The three leaf clover tied to St. Patrick is a later legend. The church says it is a mystery we can state but not fully picture.

WHERE THE WORD CAME FROM

About AD 180 Theophilus, bishop of Antioch, used the Greek word trias, a group of three, for God, His Word and His Wisdom (To Autolycus 2.15). About AD 213 Tertullian of Carthage used the Latin word trinitas and spoke of three persons and one substance (Against Praxeas). The Council of Nicaea in AD 325 said the Son is of the same being as the Father, and Constantinople in AD 381 confessed the Holy Spirit as Lord, worshiped with the Father and the Son.

- MT 28:19 [NOTE] THE TRINITY. See The Trinity.

So Is the Trinity Made Up?

MATTHEW 28:19 · JOHN 1:1 · 1 THESSALONIANS 4:17

THE CLAIM

The word Trinity is not in the Bible, so the church made it up.

TRUE, BUT

The word is not there. Neither is the word Bible. Rapture comes from the Latin of 1 Thessalonians 4:17. A word is a handle for an idea. The real question is whether the Bible teaches the idea, and the church chose the word to sum up what it found all over the New Testament.

WHO SAYS OTHERWISE

Oneness Pentecostals: one God who shows up as Father, Son and Spirit, much like Sabellius taught about AD 215. Jehovah's Witnesses: the Son is the first thing God created, close to Arius about AD 318. Latter-day Saints: three separate beings. Islam: do not say three, Quran 4:171. Judaism: God is one, and Jesus is not God.

A DISPUTED SOURCE

Eusebius, about AD 300, sometimes quoted 28:19 as go and make disciples of all nations in My name, and some say the longer wording was added. But every Greek copy of Matthew that has this verse has Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and the Didache, from about AD 100, already baptizes in all three names (Didache 7).

WHAT ABOUT 1 JOHN 5:7?

The King James Version has the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. Almost no Greek copies have it, so most modern Bibles leave it out. The Trinity does not depend on it. See 1 John p.2045. For John 1:1 and a god, see the John pages, p.1698.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

There is one God, and the Bible must decide.

BOOK 41 OF 66 · NEW TESTAMENT · GOSPELS

MARK

The Servant who came to give His life

AUTHOR	John Mark, a young man from Jerusalem whose mother's house was a meeting place for the church Acts 12:12. The book does not name its author, but Papias, around AD 125, said Mark wrote down what Peter preached.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	About AD 26 to 30, from the preaching of John the Baptist to the resurrection of Jesus.
DATE WRITTEN	Many conservative scholars say the AD 50s or 60s. Many others say about AD 65 to 70. Most scholars think it was the first Gospel written.
WRITTEN TO	Mostly Gentile believers, likely in Rome. Mark explains Jewish customs and translates Aramaic words, which Jewish readers would not need.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Mark survives in well over a thousand Greek manuscripts.
KEY VERSE	Mark 10:45. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.

THE OLDEST COPIES OF MARK
Papyrus 45 is a book of papyrus pages from Egypt that once held all four Gospels and Acts. It is dated about AD 250 and is kept at the Chester Beatty Library in Dublin, Ireland. It still has pieces of Mark 4 to 12. An even smaller scrap, Papyrus 137, has a few words from Mark 1 and was published in 2018. Its editors dated it to the late 100s or early 200s. Some had claimed it was from the first century, but that date did not hold up.

Historical Setting

Rome rules the world, and in the 60s things turn ugly for Christians there. In AD 64 a fire burns much of the city, and Emperor Nero blames the Christians. Tradition says Peter was killed there. Mark writes for believers who are suffering and scared, and he shows them a Savior who also suffered, and then walked out of His tomb.

What Was Going Wrong

HARD HEARTS. Even after seeing miracles, people and the disciples did not understand 6:52; 8:17.
TRADITION OVER GOD. Leaders set aside God's command to keep their own rules 7:8 to 9.
A TEMPLE FOR PROFIT. The house of prayer for all nations had become a den of robbers 11:17.
CHASING GREATNESS. The disciples kept arguing about who was greatest 9:34; 10:37.
FEAR. When things got hard, the disciples ran away and Peter denied Jesus 14:50; 14:71.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Mark is the short, fast Gospel. It moves like an action movie, jumping from one scene to the next. Jesus heals, casts out demons, calms storms and teaches, and people keep asking, Who is this? Halfway through, Peter gets it right: He is the Christ. Then the story turns toward Jerusalem, where the King serves by dying on a cross. Three days later the tomb is empty.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

IMMEDIATELY
The Greek word for immediately shows up about forty times in Mark. Mark is in a hurry.

JESUS' OWN WORDS
Mark keeps some of the Aramaic words Jesus actually spoke: Talitha koum 5:41, Ephphatha 7:34, Abba 14:36 and Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani 15:34.

THE STREAKER IN THE GARDEN
Only Mark tells about a young man who ran away naked when Jesus was arrested 14:51 to 52. Many think it was Mark himself, but nobody knows.

KEEP IT QUIET
Jesus keeps telling people not to tell who He is. He did not want a crowd that only wanted a show. They told everyone anyway.

PETER LOOKS BAD
If Mark got his stories from Peter, Peter let him include his worst moments, like being called Satan and denying Jesus three times. He knew he was forgiven.

Did Anybody Listen?

Most scholars believe Matthew and Luke used Mark when they wrote. Tradition says Mark started the church in Alexandria, Egypt. In AD 828 merchants from Venice smuggled what they believed were his bones out of Egypt under pork, so the guards would not look. They rest in St. Mark's Basilica in Venice.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Mark skips the baby stories and the family tree and starts running. John baptizes, the heavens tear open, the devil tempts, fishermen drop their nets, demons scream and a leper is healed, all in one chapter. Mark says immediately so often you get out of breath reading it.

THE MISSION OF JOHN THE BAPTIST // ISAIAH 40:1–5; MATTHEW 3:1–17; LUKE 3:1–22; JOHN 1:19–34

1 This is the beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. 2 As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

"Behold, I will send My messenger ahead of You,
who will prepare Your way."

3 "A voice of one calling in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for Him.'"

4 John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. 5 People went out to him from all of Jerusalem and the countryside of Judea. Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River.

6 John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. 7 And he proclaimed: "After me will come One more powerful than I, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. 8 I baptize you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

9 In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. 10 As soon as Jesus came up out of the water, He saw the heavens breaking open and the Spirit descending on Him like a dove. 11 And a voice came from heaven: "You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased."

THE TEMPTATION AND PREACHING OF JESUS // MATTHEW 4:1–17; LUKE 4:1–15

12 At once the Spirit drove Jesus into the wilderness, 13 and He was there for forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels ministered to Him.

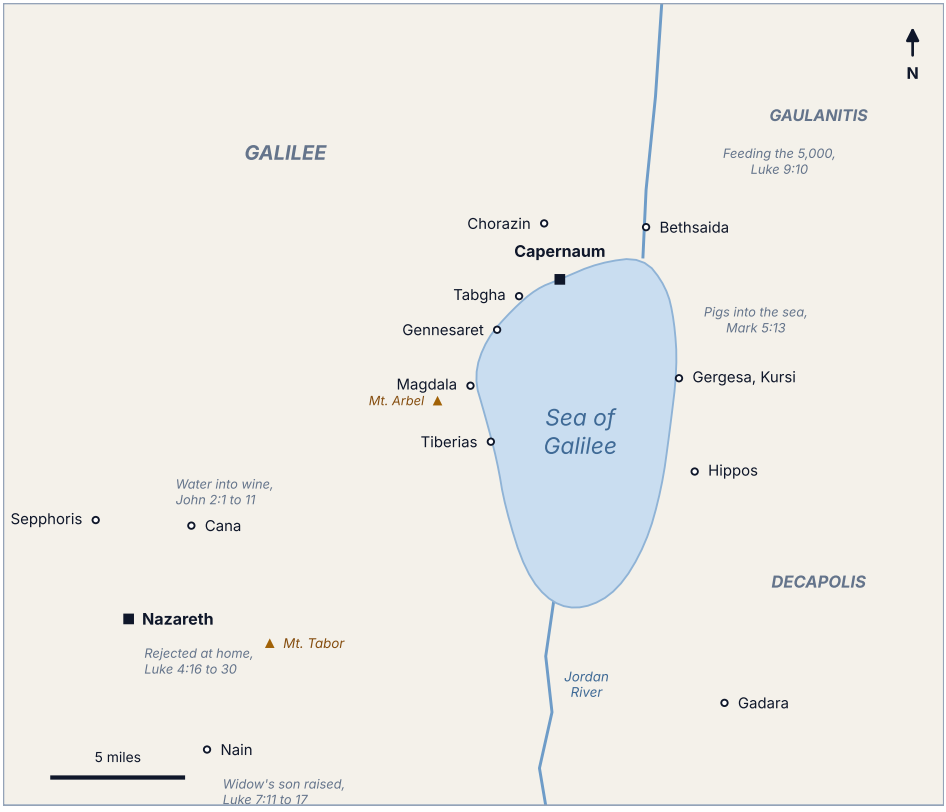
14 After the arrest of John, Jesus went into Galilee and proclaimed the gospel of God. 15 "The time is fulfilled," He said, "and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe in the gospel!"

THE FIRST DISCIPLES // MATTHEW 4:18–22; LUKE 5:1–11; JOHN 1:35–42

16 As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. 17 "Come, follow Me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." 18 And at once they left their nets and followed Him.

19 Going on a little farther, He saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat, mending their nets. 20 Immediately Jesus called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed Him.

JESUS EXPELS AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT // LUKE 4:31–37



21 Then Jesus and His companions went to Capernaum, and right away Jesus entered the synagogue on the Sabbath and began to teach. 22 The people were astonished at His teaching, because He taught as one who had authority, and not as the scribes.

Jesus Around the Sea of Galilee

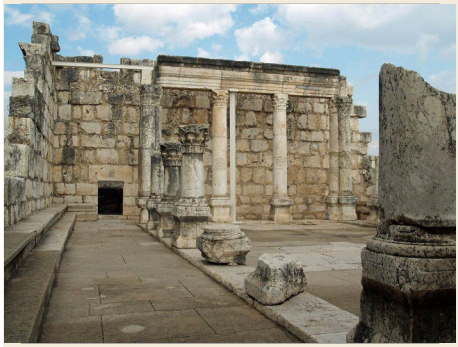
Most of His miracles happened within a day's walk of Capernaum

HOME BASE Jesus moved to Capernaum, Matthew 4:13. Peter and Andrew lived there, and Jesus healed Peter's mother in law in their house, Mark 1:29 to 31.

ACROSS THE LAKE On the east side He calmed a storm and freed a man with many demons, and the pigs ran into the sea, Mark 4:35 to 5:20.

THE TRIANGLE Jesus did most of His miracles in Capernaum, Bethsaida and Chorazin, and warned them for not repenting, Matthew 11:20 to 24.

A SMALL LAKE The Sea of Galilee is about 13 miles long and 8 miles wide, and it sits about 700 feet below sea level. Sudden storms still sweep down on it, Mark 4:37.



Capernaum, Magdala, Tiberias and Nazareth are certain. Bethsaida, Cana and the place of the pigs are debated.

THE CAPERNAUM SYNAGOGUE

MARK 1:21 TO 28 · LUKE 7:5

Inside the white limestone synagogue at Capernaum.

WHAT IT IS

A large white limestone synagogue in Capernaum, Jesus' home base on the Sea of Galilee. Under it is a floor and walls of black basalt, the dark local stone, from an older building.

HOW OLD IT IS

The white synagogue is from about AD 350 to 450, which is about 300 years after Jesus. Some scholars once dated it about AD 200, so the date has been argued. The black basalt floor under it is older. The Franciscan diggers dated it to the first century, the time of Jesus, but not everyone agrees.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The ruins were spotted in 1838 and first dug by German archaeologists in 1905. Franciscan archaeologists Virgilio Corbo and Stanislao Loffreda dug there from 1968 on.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

Still standing at Capernaum, now called Kfar Nahum, on the north shore of the Sea of Galilee. Visitors can walk inside it.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Capernaum was a real fishing town with a synagogue, just as Mark says. Jesus taught there, and Luke says a Roman officer paid to build the town's synagogue.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

The white building is not the one Jesus stood in. Many believe the black basalt floor belongs to the synagogue of His day. This is likely, but it is still debated.

23 Suddenly a man with an unclean spirit cried out in the synagogue: 24 "What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth?
Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"
25 But Jesus rebuked the spirit. "Be silent!"
He said. "Come out of him!" 26 At this, the unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and came out with a loud shriek.
27 All the people were amazed and began to ask one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!" 28 And the news about Jesus spread quickly through the whole region of Galilee.

JESUS HEALS AT PETER'S HOUSE // MATTHEW 8:14–17; LUKE 4:38–41

29 As soon as Jesus and His companions had left the synagogue, they went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew. 30 Simon's mother-in-law was sick in bed with a fever, and they promptly told Jesus about her. 31 So He went to her,
took her by the hand, and helped her up.
The fever left her, and she began to serve
them.
32 That evening, after sunset, people brought to Jesus all the sick and demon-possessed, 33 and the whole town gathered at the door. 34 And He healed many who were ill with various diseases and drove out many demons. But He would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.

JESUS PRAYS AND PREACHES // LUKE 4:42–44

35 Early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up and went out to a solitary place to pray. 36 Simon and his companions went to look for Him, 37 and when they found Him, they said, "Everyone is looking for You!"

demons.

THE HOUSE OF PETER

MARK 1:29 TO 34 · MARK 2:1

Ruins of the eight sided church built over the house of Peter at Capernaum.

WHAT IT IS

A simple house of black basalt stone with rooms around a courtyard, a short walk from the synagogue in Capernaum. One room was later turned into a meeting place for Christians.

HOW OLD IT IS

The house was built about 100 years before Jesus. Later in the first century one room got plastered walls and floors, which was rare in a fishing house, and the diggers think it became a church meeting room then. That early date is debated. A bigger house church was built around it by about AD 350, and an eight sided church was built over it about AD 450.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Found by Franciscan archaeologists Virgilio Corbo and Stanislao Loffreda in 1968, under the ruins of the eight sided church.

WHAT WAS INSIDE

Over a hundred prayers and words scratched into the plaster by early visitors, in Greek, Aramaic, Syriac and Latin. Some mention Jesus as Lord and Christ. A few scholars read the name Peter, but that reading is disputed.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

Still at Capernaum. A modern church built in 1990 floats above the ruins on pillars, with a glass floor so you can look straight down into the house.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Early Christians honored this house as Peter's home. A pilgrim named Egeria visited around AD 380 and wrote that Peter's house had been made into a church. It fits Mark's story of Jesus staying at Peter's house and healing his mother in law.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No sign says Peter lived here. It is likely the house the early church honored as his, but this cannot be proven.

THE LEPER'S PRAYER // LEVITICUS 14:1–32; MATTHEW 8:1–4; LUKE 5:12–16

40 Then a leper came to Jesus, begging on his knees: "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

41 Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out His hand and touched the man. "I am willing," He said. "Be clean!" 42 And immediately the leprosy left him, and the man was cleansed.

43 Jesus promptly sent him away with a stern warning: 44 "See that you don't tell anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and present the offering Moses prescribed for your cleansing, as a testimony to them."

45 But the man went out and openly began to proclaim and spread the news.

Consequently, Jesus could no longer enter a town in plain view, but He stayed out in solitary places. Yet people came to Him from every quarter.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Four friends cannot get their paralyzed buddy through the crowd, so they dig a hole in somebody's roof and lower him down. Jesus forgives his sins and then tells him to walk home. He eats with tax collectors and sinners, and the religious leaders start keeping a list.

JESUS HEALS A PARALYTIC // MATTHEW 9:1–8; LUKE 5:17–26

1 A few days later Jesus went back to Capernaum. And when the people heard that He was home, 2 they gathered in such large numbers that there was no more room, not even outside the door, as Jesus spoke the word to them.

3 Then a paralytic was brought to Him, carried by four men. 4 Since they were unable to get to Jesus through the crowd, they uncovered the roof above Him, made an opening, and lowered the paralytic on his mat.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

6 But some of the scribes were sitting there and thinking in their hearts, 7 "Why does this man speak like this? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

8 At once Jesus knew in His spirit that they were thinking this way within themselves.
"Why are you thinking these things in your hearts?" He asked. 9 "Which is easier: to say to a paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, pick up your mat, and walk'? 10 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." He said to the paralytic, 11 "I tell you, get up, pick up your mat, and go home."

12 And immediately the man got up, picked up his mat, and walked out in front of them all. As a result, they were all astounded and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

JESUS CALLS LEVI // MATTHEW 9:9–13; LUKE 5:27–32

13 Once again Jesus went out beside the sea. All the people came to Him, and He taught them there.

14 As He was walking along, He saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth.
"Follow Me," He told him, and Levi got up and followed Him.

15 While Jesus was dining at Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners were eating with Him and His disciples—for there were many who followed Him. 16 When the scribes who were Pharisees saw Jesus eating with these people, they asked His disciples, "Why does He eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

17 On hearing this, Jesus told them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

QUESTIONS ABOUT FASTING // MATTHEW 9:14–15; LUKE 5:33–35

18 Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were often fasting. So people came to Jesus and asked, "Why don't Your disciples fast like John's disciples and those of the Pharisees?"

19 Jesus replied, "How can the guests of the bridegroom fast while He is with them? As long as He is with them, they cannot fast. 20 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.

THE PATCHES AND THE WINESKINS // MATTHEW 9:16–17; LUKE 5:36–39

21 No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If he does, the new piece will pull away from the old, and a worse tear will result.

22 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined. Instead, new wine is poured into new wineskins."

THE HEART MIRACLES DEMONIC JESUS SPEAKING

THE LORD OF THE SABBATH // 1 SAMUEL 21:1–7; MATTHEW 12:1–8; LUKE 6:1–5

23 One Sabbath Jesus was passing through the grainfields, and His disciples began to pick the heads of grain as they walked along. 24 So the Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"

25 Jesus replied, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need? 26 During the high priesthood of Abiathar, he entered the house of God and ate the consecrated bread, which was lawful only for the priests. And he gave some to his companions as well."

27 Then Jesus declared, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. 28 Therefore, the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath."

3

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus heals a man's hand on the Sabbath, and the Pharisees respond by plotting to kill Him, which seems like an overreaction. He picks twelve apostles. His own family thinks He has lost His mind and comes to take Him home.

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH // MATTHEW 12:9–14; LUKE 6:6–11

1 Once again Jesus entered the synagogue, and a man with a withered hand was there. 2 In order to accuse Jesus, they were watching to see if He would heal on the Sabbath.

3 Then Jesus said to the man with the withered hand, "Stand up among us." 4
And He asked them, "Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?"

But they were silent.

5 Jesus looked around at them with anger and sorrow at their hardness of heart.
Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out, and it was restored.

6 At this, the Pharisees went out and began plotting with the Herodians how they might kill Jesus.

JESUS HEALS THE MULTITUDES // MATTHEW 4:23–25; LUKE 6:17–19

7 So Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea, accompanied by a large crowd from Galilee, Judea, 8 Jerusalem, Idumea, the region beyond the Jordan, and the vicinity of Tyre and Sidon. The large crowd came to Him when they heard what great things He was doing.

9 Jesus asked His disciples to have a boat ready for Him so that the crowd would not crush Him. 10 For He had healed so many that all who had diseases were pressing forward to touch Him. 11 And when the unclean spirits saw Him, they fell down before Him and cried out, "You are the Son of God!" 12 But He warned them sternly not to make Him known.

THE TWELVE APOSTLES // MATTHEW 10:1–4; LUKE 6:12–16

13 Then Jesus went up on the mountain and called for those He wanted, and they came to Him. 14 He appointed twelve of them, whom He designated as apostles, to accompany Him, to be sent out to preach, 15 and to have authority to drive out demons.

16 These are the twelve He appointed: Simon (whom He named Peter), 17 James son of Zebedee and his brother John (whom He named Boanerges, meaning "Sons of Thunder"), 18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, 19 and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Jesus.

A HOUSE DIVIDED // MATTHEW 12:22–30; LUKE 11:14–23

20 Then Jesus went home, and once again a crowd gathered, so that He and His disciples could not even eat. 21 When His family heard about this, they went out to take custody of Him, saying, "He is out of His mind."

22 And the scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and, "By the prince of the demons He drives out demons."

23 So Jesus called them together and began to speak to them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan? 24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, it cannot stand. 25 If a house is divided against itself, it cannot stand. 26 And if Satan is divided and rises against himself, he cannot stand; his end has come. 27 Indeed, no one can enter a strong man's house to steal his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder his house.

THE UNPARDONABLE SIN // MATTHEW 12:31–32

28 Truly I tell you, the sons of men will be forgiven all sins and blasphemies, as many as they utter. 29 But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; he is guilty of eternal sin."

30 Jesus made this statement because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

JESUS' MOTHER AND BROTHERS // MATTHEW 12:46–50; LUKE 8:19–21

31 Then Jesus' mother and brothers came and stood outside. They sent someone in to summon Him, 32 and a crowd was sitting around Him. "Look," He was told, "Your mother and brothers are outside, asking for You."

33 But Jesus replied, "Who are My mother and My brothers?" 34 Looking at those seated in a circle around Him, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! 35 For whoever does the will of God is My brother and sister and mother."

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus teaches in parables: the sower and the soils, a lamp under a basket and a tiny mustard seed that grows huge. Then He falls asleep in a boat during a storm. He tells the wind to hush, and now they are more scared of Him than of the storm.

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER // MATTHEW 13:1–9; LUKE 8:4–8

1 Once again Jesus began to teach beside the sea, and such a large crowd gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat in it, while all the people crowded along the shore.

2 And He taught them many things in parables, and in His teaching He said, 3 "Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seed. 4 And as he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it.

5 Some fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly because the soil was shallow. 6 But when the sun rose, the seedlings were scorched, and they withered because they had no root.

7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the seedlings, and they yielded no crop.

8 Still other seed fell on good soil, where it sprouted, grew up, and produced a crop—one bearing thirtyfold, another sixtyfold, and another a hundredfold."

9 Then Jesus said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

THE PURPOSE OF JESUS' PARABLES // ISAIAH 6:1–13; MATTHEW 13:10–17; LUKE 8:9–10

10 As soon as Jesus was alone with the Twelve and those around Him, they asked Him about the parable.

11 He replied, "The mystery of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to those on the outside everything is expressed in parables, 12 so that,

'they may be ever seeing but never perceiving, and ever hearing but never understanding;
otherwise they might turn and be forgiven.'"

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER EXPLAINED // MATTHEW 13:18–23; LUKE 8:11–15

13 Then Jesus said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand any of the parables?

14 The farmer sows the word. 15 Some are like the seeds along the path, where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, Satan comes and takes away the word that was sown in them.

16 Some are like the seeds sown on rocky ground. They hear the word and at once receive it with joy. 17 But they themselves have no root, and they remain for only a season. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.

18 Others are like the seeds sown among the thorns. They hear the word, 19 but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

20 Still others are like the seeds sown on good soil. They hear the word, receive it, and produce a crop—thirtyfold, sixtyfold, or a hundredfold."

THE LESSON OF THE LAMP // LUKE 8:16–18

21 Jesus also said to them, "Does anyone bring in a lamp to put it under a basket or under a bed? Doesn't he set it on a stand? 22 For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be brought to light.

23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."

24 He went on to say, "Pay attention to what you hear. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you, and even more will be added to you. 25 For whoever has will be given more. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

THE SEED GROWING SECRETLY

26 Jesus also said, "The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground. 27 Night and day he sleeps and wakes, and the seed sprouts and grows, though he knows not how. 28 All by itself the earth produces a crop—first the stalk, then the head, then grain that ripens within. 29 And as soon as the grain is ripe, he swings the sickle, because the harvest has come."

THE PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED // MATTHEW 13:31–32; LUKE 13:18–19

30 Then He asked, "To what can we compare the kingdom of God? With what parable shall we present it? 31 It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds sown upon the earth. 32 But after it is planted, it grows to be the largest of all garden plants and puts forth great branches, so that the birds of the air nest in its shade."

33 With many such parables Jesus spoke the word to them, to the extent that they could understand. 34 He did not tell them anything without using a parable. But privately He explained everything to His own disciples.

JESUS CALMS THE STORM // PSALM 107:1–43; MATTHEW 8:23–27; LUKE 8:22–25

35 When that evening came, He said to His disciples, "Let us cross to the other side." 36 After they had dismissed the crowd, they took Jesus with them, since He was already in the boat. And there were other boats with Him.

37 Soon a violent windstorm came up, and the waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was being swamped. 38 But Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. So they woke Him and said, "Teacher, don't You care that we are perishing?"

39 Then Jesus got up and rebuked the wind and the sea. "Silence!" He commanded. "Be still!" And the wind died down, and it was perfectly calm.

40 "Why are you so afraid?" He asked. "Do you still have no faith?"

41 Overwhelmed with fear, they asked one another, "Who is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

A wild man in the tombs has a legion of demons. Jesus sends them into two thousand pigs, who run off a cliff, and the town asks Jesus to please leave. Then a sick woman touches His robe and is healed, and He raises a dead girl by taking her hand and saying, Little girl, get up.

THE DEMONS AND THE PIGS // MATTHEW 8:28–34; LUKE 8:26–39

1 On the other side of the sea, they arrived in the region of the Gerasenes. 2 As soon as Jesus got out of the boat, He was met by a man with an unclean spirit, who was coming from the tombs. 3 This man had been living in the tombs and could no longer be restrained, even with chains. 4 Though he was often bound with chains and shackles, he had broken the chains and shattered the shackles. Now there was no one with the strength to subdue him. 5 Night and day in the tombs and in the mountains he kept crying out and cutting himself with stones.

6 When the man saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees before Him. 7 And he shouted in a loud voice,
"What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You before God not to torture me!" 8 For Jesus had already declared, "Come out of this man,
you unclean spirit!"

9 "What is your name?" Jesus asked.
"My name is Legion," he replied, "for we are many." 10 And he begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of that region.

11 There on the nearby hillside a large herd of pigs was feeding. 12 So the demons begged Jesus, "Send us to the pigs, so that we may enter them."

13 He gave them permission, and the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs, and the herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned in the water.

14 Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened. 15 When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons sitting there, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

16 Those who had seen it described what had happened to the demon-possessed man and also to the pigs. 17 And the people began to beg Jesus to leave their region.

18 As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed by the demons begged to go with Him. 19 But Jesus would not allow him. "Go home to your own people," He said, "and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and what mercy
He has shown you."

20 So the man went away and began to proclaim throughout the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And everyone was amazed.

THE HEALING TOUCH OF JESUS // MATTHEW 9:18–26; LUKE 8:40–56

21 When Jesus had again crossed by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him beside the sea. 22 A synagogue leader named Jairus arrived, and seeing Jesus, he fell at His feet 23 and pleaded with Him urgently, "My little daughter is near death. Please come and place Your hands on her, so that she will be healed and live."

24 So Jesus went with him, and a large crowd followed and pressed around Him.
25 And a woman was there who had suffered from bleeding for twelve years. 26
She had borne much agony under the care of many physicians and had spent all she had, but to no avail. Instead, her condition had only grown worse.

27 When the woman heard about Jesus,
she came up through the crowd behind Him and touched His cloak. 28 For she kept saying, "If only I touch His garments, I will be healed." 29 Immediately her bleeding stopped, and she sensed in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

30 At once Jesus was aware that power had gone out from Him. Turning to the crowd, He asked, "Who touched My garments?"

31 His disciples answered, "You can see the crowd pressing in on You, and yet You ask, 'Who touched Me?'"

32 But He kept looking around to see who had done this. 33 Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him trembling in fear, and she told Him the whole truth.

34 "Daughter," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be free of your affliction."

35 While He was still speaking, messengers from the house of Jairus arrived and said, "Your daughter is dead; why bother the Teacher anymore?"

36 But Jesus overheard their conversation and said to Jairus, "Do not be afraid; just believe." 37 And He did not allow anyone to accompany Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.

38 When they arrived at the house of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw the commotion and the people weeping and wailing loudly. 39 He went inside and asked, "Why all this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead, but asleep." 40 And they laughed at Him.

After He had put them all outside, He took the child's father and mother and His own companions, and went in to see the child. 41 Taking her by the hand, Jesus said, "Talitha koum!" which means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!" 42 Immediately the girl got up and began to walk around (she was twelve years old). And at once they were utterly astounded. 43 Then Jesus gave strict orders that no one should know about this, and He told them to give her something to eat.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

His hometown only sees the carpenter, so He does few miracles there. He sends out the Twelve two by two. Herod throws a birthday party that ends with John the Baptist's head on a platter. Then Jesus feeds five thousand and walks on water.

THE REJECTION AT NAZARETH // MATTHEW 13:53–58; LUKE 4:16–30

1 Jesus went on from there and came to His hometown, accompanied by His disciples. 2 When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard Him were astonished. "Where did this man get these ideas?" they asked. "What is this wisdom He has been given? And how can He perform such miracles? 3 Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? Aren't His sisters here with us as well?" And they took offense at Him.

4 Then Jesus said to them, "Only in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his own household is a prophet without honor." 5 So He could not perform any miracles there, except to lay His hands on a few of the sick and heal them. 6 And He was amazed at their unbelief.

And He went around from village to village, teaching the people.

THE MINISTRY OF THE TWELVE // MATTHEW 10:5–15; LUKE 9:1–6

7 Then Jesus called the Twelve to Him and began to send them out two by two, giving them authority over unclean spirits. 8 He instructed them to take nothing but a staff for the journey—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts— 9 and to wear sandals, but not a second tunic.

MK 6:4 [NOTABLE] The people who know you best are often the last to listen. His own town knew Jesus as the carpenter, and even His brothers did not believe at first, John 7:5. If friends and family brush off your faith, you are in good company. Later His brother James led the church in Jerusalem.

10 And He told them, "When you enter a house, stay there until you leave that area.
11 If anyone will not welcome you or listen to you, shake the dust off your feet when 12 So they set out and preached that the people should repent. 13 They also drove out many demons and healed many of the sick, anointing them with oil.

THE BEHEADING OF JOHN // MATTHEW 14:1–12; LUKE 9:7–9

14 Now King Herod heard about this, for Jesus' name had become well known, and people were saying, "John the Baptist has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him." 15 Others were saying, "He is Elijah," and still others, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old."

16 But when Herod heard this, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has risen from the dead!" 17 For Herod himself had ordered that John be arrested and bound and imprisoned, on account of his brother Philip's wife Herodias, whom Herod had married. 18 For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife!"

19 So Herodias held a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she had been unable, 20 because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man. When he heard John's words, he was greatly perplexed; yet he listened to him gladly.

21 On Herod's birthday, her opportunity arose. Herod held a banquet for his nobles and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee. 22 When the daughter of Herodias came and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests, and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it to you." 23 And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask of me, I will give you, up to half my kingdom!"

24 Then she went out and asked her mother, "What should I request?"

And her mother answered, "The head of John the Baptist."

25 At once the girl hurried back to the king with her request: "I want you to give me the head of John the Baptist on a platter immediately."

26 The king was consumed with sorrow, but because of his oaths and his guests, he did not want to refuse her. 27 So without delay, the king commanded that John's head be brought in. He sent an executioner, who went and beheaded him in the prison. 28 The man brought John's head on a platter and presented it to the girl, who gave it to her mother.

29 When John's disciples heard about this, they came and took his body and placed it in a tomb.

WHO JOSEPHUS WAS

A Jewish priest and general, born about AD 37, who went over to the Romans in the war of AD 66 to 70. He wrote his Antiquities of the Jews in Rome about AD 93 to 94.

JESUS SPEAKING

ANTIQUITIES 18.5.2

2. Now, some of the Jews thought that the destruction of Herod's army came from God, and that very justly, as a punishment of what he did against John, that was called the Baptist; for Herod slew him, who was a good man, and commanded the Jews to exercise virtue, both as to righteousness towards one another, and piety towards God, and so to come to baptism; for that the washing [with water] would be acceptable to him, if they made use of it, not in order to the putting away [or the remission] of some sins [only,] but for the purification of the body: supposing still that the soul was thoroughly purified beforehand by righteousness. Now, when [many] others came to crowd about him, for they were greatly moved [or pleased] by hearing his words, Herod, who feared lest the great influence John had over the people might put it into his power and inclination to raise a rebellion (for they seemed ready to do anything he should advise), thought it best, by putting him to death, to prevent any mischief he might cause, and not bring himself into difficulties, by sparing a man who might make him repent of it when it should be too late. Accordingly he was sent a prisoner, out of Herod's suspicious temper, to Macherus, the castle I before mentioned, and was there put to death. Now the Jews had an opinion that the destruction of this army was sent as a punishment upon Herod, and a mark of God's displeasure against him.

Mark and Josephus Side by Side

MARK 6:17 TO 29 · MATTHEW 14:3 TO 12 · JOSEPHUS, ANTIQUITIES 18.5.1 TO 4

WHAT MARK SAYS

John told Herod it was not lawful to have his brother's wife, Herodias, 6:18. She held a grudge. At Herod's birthday party her daughter danced, and Herod promised her anything. Her mother told her to ask for John's head, 6:24.

WHAT JOSEPHUS SAYS

Herod was afraid that John's huge influence over the people could lead to a rebellion, so he struck first, and John was killed at Machaerus. Just before this, Josephus tells how Herod divorced the daughter of King Aretas of Arabia to marry Herodias. Aretas later wiped out Herod's army, about AD 36, and many Jews said it was God punishing Herod for killing John.

WHO WAS WHO

Herodias was Herod's niece and the wife of his half brother. She was not his daughter in law. The girl who danced was her daughter; Josephus names her Salome (18.5.4). Mark calls the first husband Philip and Josephus calls him Herod. Many think he was Herod Philip, with two names; others count it as a difference between the two.

DO THEY CLASH?

Not necessarily. Josephus gives the public, political reason. Mark gives the private story of how it happened. Matthew 14:5 has both: Herod wanted to kill John but was afraid of the people. A ruler can fear a revolt and still be pushed over the edge by his wife.

ONE REAL DIFFERENCE

Josephus says John's baptism was not for forgiving sins but for cleansing the body, after the soul was already made right. Mark says it was a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, 1:4. Josephus wrote for Roman readers and may have toned it down.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

John was a real, popular preacher of baptism and righteousness, killed by Herod Antipas. Nearly all scholars accept this passage as genuine, unlike the debated passage about Jesus in 18.3.3.

THE FEEDING OF THE FIVE THOUSAND //
MATTHEW 14:13–21; LUKE 9:10–17; JOHN 6:1–15

30 Meanwhile, the apostles gathered around Jesus and brought Him news of all they had done and taught. 31 And He said to them, "Come with Me privately to a solitary place, and let us rest for a while." For many people were coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.

32 So they went away in a boat by themselves to a solitary place. 33 But many people saw them leaving and recognized them. They ran together on foot from all the towns and arrived before them. 34 When Jesus stepped ashore and saw a large crowd, He had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. And He began to teach them many things.

35 By now the hour was already late. So the disciples came to Jesus and said, "This is a desolate place, and the hour is already late. 36 Dismiss the crowd so they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."

37 But Jesus told them, "You give them something to eat."

They asked Him, "Should we go out and spend more than half a year's wages to give all of them bread to eat?"

38 "Go and see how many loaves you have," He told them.

And after checking, they said, "Five—and two fish."

39 Then Jesus directed them to have the people sit in groups on the green grass. 40 So they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties.

41 Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, Jesus spoke a blessing and broke the loaves. Then He gave them to His disciples to set before the people. And He divided the two fish among them all.

42 They all ate and were satisfied, 43 and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces of bread and fish. 44 And there were five thousand men who had eaten the loaves.

JESUS WALKS ON WATER // MATTHEW 14:22–33; JOHN 6:16–21

45 Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of Him to Bethsaida, while He dismissed the crowd. 46 After bidding them farewell, He went up on the mountain to pray.

47 When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and Jesus was alone on land. 48 He could see that the disciples were straining to row, because the wind was against them. About the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went out to them, walking on the sea. He intended to pass by them, 49 but when they saw Him walking on the sea, they cried out, thinking He was a ghost— 50 for they all saw Him and were terrified.

But Jesus spoke up at once: "Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid." 51 Then He climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. And the disciples were utterly astounded, 52 for they had not understood about the loaves, but their hearts had been hardened.

JESUS HEALS AT GENNESARET // MATTHEW 14:34–36

53 When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and moored the boat. 54 As soon as they got out of the boat, the people recognized Jesus 55 and ran through that whole region, carrying the sick on mats to wherever they heard He was. 56 And wherever He went—villages and towns and countrysides—they laid the sick in the marketplaces and begged Him just to let them touch the fringe of His cloak. And all who touched Him were healed.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

The Pharisees fuss about handwashing, and Jesus says the real dirt comes from the heart. A Gentile mother answers Him so well that He heals her daughter from a distance. Then He puts His fingers in a deaf man's ears, says Ephphatha, which means be opened, and the man hears and speaks.

THE TRADITION OF THE ELDERS // MATTHEW 15:1–9

1 Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, 2 and they saw some of His disciples eating with hands that were defiled—that is, unwashed.

THE HEART MIRACLES DEMONIC OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW JESUS SPEAKING

3 Now in holding to the tradition of the elders, the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat until they wash their hands ceremonially. 4 And on returning from the market, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other traditions for them to observe, including the washing of cups, pitchers, kettles, and couches for dining.

5 So the Pharisees and scribes questioned Jesus: "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders? Instead, they eat with defiled hands."

6 Jesus answered them, "Isaiah prophesied correctly about you hypocrites, as it is written:

'These people honor Me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from Me.
7 They worship Me in vain;
they teach as doctrine the precepts of men.'

8 You have disregarded the commandment of God to keep the tradition of men."

9 He went on to say, "You neatly set aside the command of God to maintain your own tradition. 10 For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother' and 'Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.' 11 But you say that if a man says to his father or mother, 'Whatever you would have received from me is Corban' (that is, a gift devoted to God), 12 he is no longer permitted to do anything for his father or mother. 13 Thus you nullify the word of God by the tradition you have handed down. And you do so in many such matters."

WHAT DEFILES A MAN // MATTHEW 15:10–20

14 Once again Jesus called the crowd to Him and said, "All of you, listen to Me and understand: 15 Nothing that enters a man from the outside can defile him; but the things that come out of a man, these are what defile him." 16 [If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.]

17 After Jesus had left the crowd and gone into the house, His disciples inquired about the parable.

18 "Are you still so dull?" He asked. "Do you not understand? Nothing that enters a man from the outside can defile him, 19 because it does not enter his heart, but it goes into the stomach and then is eliminated." (Thus all foods are clean.)

20 He continued: "What comes out of a man, that is what defiles him. 21 For from within the hearts of men come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, 22 greed, wickedness, deceit, debauchery, envy, slander, arrogance, and foolishness. 23 All these evils come from within, and these are what defile a man."

THE FAITH OF THE GENTILE WOMAN // MATTHEW 15:21–28

24 Jesus left that place and went to the region of Tyre. Not wanting anyone to know He was there, He entered a house, but was unable to escape their notice. 25 Instead, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit soon heard about Jesus, and she came and fell at His feet. 26 Now she was a Greek woman of Syrophoenician origin, and she kept asking Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter.

27 "First let the children have their fill," He said. "For it is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to the dogs."

28 "Yes, Lord," she replied, "even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

29 Then Jesus told her, "Because of this answer, you may go. The demon has left your daughter." 30 And she went home and found her child lying on the bed, and the demon was gone.

THE DEAF AND MUTE MAN // MATTHEW 9:27–34

31 Then Jesus left the region of Tyre and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee and into the region of the Decapolis. 32 Some people brought to Him a man who was deaf and hardly able to speak, and they begged Jesus to place His hand on him.

were opened and his tongue was released, and he began to speak plainly.
36 Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone.
But the more He ordered them, the more widely they proclaimed it. 37 The people were utterly astonished and said, "He has

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus feeds four thousand, and soon the disciples are worried about bread. He heals a blind man in two steps. Then Peter says You are the Christ, and a few minutes later tells Jesus He does not have to die. Jesus says, Get behind Me, Satan. Rough afternoon for Peter.

THE FEEDING OF THE FOUR THOUSAND // 2 KINGS 4:42–44; MATTHEW 15:29–39

1 In those days the crowd once again became very large, and they had nothing to eat. Jesus called the disciples to Him and said, 2 "I have compassion for this crowd, because they have already been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. 3 If I send them home hungry, they will faint along the way. For some of them have come a great distance."
4 His disciples replied, "Where in this desolate place could anyone find enough bread to feed all these people?"
5 "How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.
"Seven," they replied.
6 And He instructed the crowd to sit down on the ground. Then He took the seven loaves, gave thanks and broke them, and gave them to His disciples to set before the people. And they distributed them to the crowd. 7 They also had a few small fish, and Jesus blessed them and ordered that these be set before them as well.
8 The people ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. 9 And about four thousand men were present.
And when Jesus had dismissed the crowd, 10 He immediately got into the boat with His disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

THE DEMAND FOR A SIGN // MATTHEW 16:1–4; LUKE 12:54–56

11 Then the Pharisees came and began to argue with Jesus, testing Him by demanding from Him a sign from heaven.
12 Jesus sighed deeply in His spirit and said, "Why does this generation demand a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation." 13 And He left them, got back into the boat, and crossed to the other side.

THE LEAVEN OF THE PHARISEES AND OF HEROD // MATTHEW 16:5–12; LUKE 12:1–3

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat. 15 "Watch out!" He cautioned them. "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of Herod." 16 So they began to discuss with one another the fact that they had no bread.
17 Aware of their conversation, Jesus asked them, "Why are you debating about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Do you have such hard hearts? 18 'Having eyes, do you not see?
And having ears, do you not hear?' And do you not remember? 19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many basketfuls of broken pieces did you collect?"
"Twelve," they answered.
20 "And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many basketfuls of broken pieces did you collect?"
"Seven," they said.

THE BLIND MAN AT BETHSAIDA

22 When they arrived at Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man and begged Jesus to touch him. 23 So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village. Then He spit on the man's eyes and placed His hands on him. "Can you see anything?" He asked.

24 The man looked up and said, "I can see the people, but they look like trees walking around."

25 Once again Jesus placed His hands on the man's eyes, and when he opened them his sight was restored, and he could see everything clearly. 26 Jesus sent him home and said, "Do not go back into the village."

PETER'S CONFESSION OF CHRIST // MATTHEW 16:13–20; LUKE 9:18–20; JOHN 6:67–71

27 Then Jesus and His disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way, He questioned His disciples: "Who do people say I am?"

28 They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets."

29 "But what about you?" Jesus asked. "Who do you say I am?"

Peter answered, "You are the Christ."

30 And Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

CHRIST'S PASSION FORETOLD // MATTHEW 16:21–23; LUKE 9:21–22

31 Then He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and that He must be killed and after three days rise again. 32 He spoke this message quite frankly, and Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

33 But Jesus, turning and looking at His disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind Me, Satan! For you do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."

TAKE UP YOUR CROSS // MATTHEW 16:24–28; LUKE 9:23–27

34 Then Jesus called the crowd to Him along with His disciples, and He told them, "If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. 35 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and for the gospel will save it.

36 What does it profit a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? 37 Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? 38 If anyone is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in His Father's glory with the holy angels."

And Elijah and Moses appeared before them, talking with Jesus.

5 Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 6 For they were all so terrified that Peter did not know what else to say.

7 Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him!" 8 Suddenly, when they looked around, they saw no one with them except Jesus.

9 As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus admonished them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. 10 So they kept this matter to themselves, discussing what it meant to rise from the dead. 11 And they asked Jesus, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

12 He replied, "Elijah does indeed come first, and he restores all things. Why then is it written that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected? 13 But I tell you that Elijah has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they wished, just as it is written about him."

THE BOY WITH AN EVIL SPIRIT // MATTHEW 17:14–18; LUKE 9:37–42

14 When they returned to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. 15 As soon as all the people saw Jesus, they were filled with awe and ran to greet Him.

16 "What are you disputing with them?" He asked.

17 Someone in the crowd replied, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a spirit that makes him mute. 18 Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked Your disciples to drive it out, but they were unable."

19 "O unbelieving generation!" Jesus replied. "How long must I remain with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy to Me."

20 So they brought him, and seeing Jesus, the spirit immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.

21 Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has this been with him?"

"From childhood," he said. 22 "It often throws him into the fire or into the water, trying to kill him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

23 "If You can?" echoed Jesus. "All things are possible to him who believes!"

24 Immediately the boy's father cried out, "I do believe; help my unbelief!"

25 When Jesus saw that a crowd had come running, He rebuked the unclean spirit. "You deaf and mute spirit," He said, "I command you to come out and never enter him again."

26 After shrieking and convulsing him violently, the spirit came out. The boy became like a corpse, so that many said, "He is dead." 27 But Jesus took him by the hand and helped him to his feet, and he stood up.

28 After Jesus had gone into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

29 Jesus answered, "This kind cannot come out, except by prayer."

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM // MATTHEW 18:1–5; LUKE 9:46–50

33 Then they came to Capernaum. While Jesus was in the house, He asked them, "What were you discussing on the way?"
34 But they were silent, for on the way they had been arguing about which of them was the greatest.

35 Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be the last of all and the servant of all."

36 Then He had a little child stand among them. Taking the child in His arms, He said to them, 37 "Whoever welcomes one of these little children in My name welcomes Me, and whoever welcomes Me welcomes not only Me, but the One who sent Me."

38 John said to Him, "Teacher, we saw someone else driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not accompany us."

39 "Do not stop him," Jesus replied. "For no one who performs a miracle in My name can turn around and speak evil of Me. 40 For whoever is not against us is for us. 41 Indeed, if anyone gives you even a cup of water because you bear the name of Christ, truly I tell you, he will never lose his reward.

TEMPTATIONS AND TRESPASSES // MATTHEW 18:6–9; LUKE 17:1–4

TEACHINGS ABOUT DIVORCE // MATTHEW 19:1–12

1 Then Jesus left that place and went into the region of Judea, beyond the Jordan. Again the crowds came to Him and He taught them, as was His custom.

2 Some Pharisees came to test Him. "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" they inquired.

3 "What did Moses command you?" He replied.

4 They answered, "Moses permitted a man to write his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away."

5 But Jesus told them, "Moses wrote this commandment for you because of your hardness of heart. 6 However, from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' 7 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, 8 and the two will become one flesh.' So they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate."

13 Now people were bringing the little children to Jesus for Him to place His hands who brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw this, He was indignant and told them, "Let the little children

the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 15 Truly I tell you, anyone who does not receive the kingdom of God like a little

17 As Jesus started on His way, a man ran up and knelt before Him. "Good Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

18 "Why do you call Me good?" Jesus replied. "No one is good except God
alone. 19 You know the commandments:
'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, do not cheat others, honor your father and mother.'"

20 "Teacher," he replied, "all these I have kept from my youth."

21 Jesus looked at him, loved him, and said to him, "There is one thing you lack: Go, sell everything you own and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me."

22 But the man was saddened by these words and went away in sorrow, because he had great wealth.

23 Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!"

24 And the disciples were amazed at His words.

But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 They were even more astonished and said to one another, "Who then can be saved?"

27 Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but not with God.
For all things are possible with God."

28 Peter began to say to Him, "Look, we have left everything and followed You."

29 "Truly I tell you," Jesus replied, "no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for My sake and for the gospel 30 will fail to receive a hundredfold in the present age—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and fields, along come, eternal life. 31 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

THE THIRD PREDICTION OF THE PASSION // MATTHEW 20:17–19; LUKE 18:31–34

32 As they were going up the road to Jerusalem, Jesus was walking ahead of them. The disciples were amazed, but those who followed were afraid. Again Jesus took the Twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him: 33 "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be de-

THE REQUEST OF JAMES AND JOHN // MATTHEW 20:20–28

35 Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and declared, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask."

36 "What do you want Me to do for you?" He inquired.

37 They answered, "Grant that one of us may sit at Your right hand and the other at Your left in Your glory."

38 "You do not know what you are asking," Jesus replied. "Can you drink the cup I will drink, or be baptized with the baptism I will undergo?"

39 "We can," the brothers answered.

"You will drink the cup that I drink," Jesus said, "and you will be baptized with the baptism that I undergo. 40 But to sit at My right or left is not Mine to grant. These seats belong to those for whom they have been prepared."

41 When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John. 42 So Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their superiors exercise authority over them. 43 But it shall not be this way among you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, 44 and whoever wants to be first must be the slave of all. 45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many."

JESUS HEALS BARTIMAEUS // MATTHEW 20:29–34; LUKE 18:35–43

46 Next, they came to Jericho. And as Jesus and His disciples were leaving Jericho with a large crowd, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, was sitting beside the road. 47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

48 Many people admonished him to be silent, but he cried out all the louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

49 Jesus stopped and said, "Call him."

So they called the blind man. "Take courage!" they said. "Get up! He is calling for you."

50 Throwing off his cloak, Bartimaeus jumped up and came to Jesus.

51 "What do you want Me to do for you?" Jesus asked.

"Rabboni," said the blind man, "let me see again."

1 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent out two of His disciples 2 and said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. 3 If anyone asks, 'Why are you doing this?' tell him, 'The Lord needs it and will return it shortly.'"

4 So they went and found the colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. They untied it, 5 and some who were standing there asked, "Why are you untying the colt?"

8 Many in the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut from the fields. 9 The ones who went ahead and those who followed were shouting:

"Hosanna!"

"Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!"

10 "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!"

"Hosanna in the highest!"

11 Then Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courts. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

JESUS CURSES THE FIG TREE // MATTHEW 21:18–22; MARK 11:20–25

12 The next day, when they had left Bethany, Jesus was hungry. 13 Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if there was any fruit on it. But when He reached it, He found nothing on it except leaves, since it was not the season for figs. 14 Then He said to the tree, "May no one ever eat of your fruit again." And His disciples heard this statement.

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE // MATTHEW 21:12–17; LUKE 19:45–48; JOHN 2:12–25

15 When they arrived in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple courts and began to drive out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling doves. 16 And He would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. 17 Then Jesus began to teach them, and He declared, "Is it not written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it 'a den of robbers.'"

18 When the chief priests and scribes heard this, they looked for a way to kill Him. For they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching.

19 And when evening came, Jesus and His disciples went out of the city.

THE WITHERED FIG TREE // MATTHEW 21:18–22; MARK 11:12–14

20 As they were walking back in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered from its roots. 21 Peter remembered it and said, "Look, Rabbi! The fig tree You cursed has withered."

22 "Have faith in God," Jesus said to them. 23 "Truly I tell you that if anyone says to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and has no doubt in his heart but believes that it will happen, it will be done for him. 24 Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

25 And when you stand to pray, if you hold anything against another, forgive it, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your trespasses as well." 26 [But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your trespasses.]

JESUS' AUTHORITY CHALLENGED // MATTHEW 21:23–27; LUKE 20:1–8

27 After their return to Jerusalem, Jesus was walking in the temple courts, and the chief priests, scribes, and elders came up to Him. 28 "By what authority are You doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave You the authority to do them?"

29 "I will ask you one question," Jesus replied, "and if you answer Me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 30 John's baptism—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me!"

31 They deliberated among themselves what they should answer: "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32 But if we say, 'From men'..." they were afraid of the people, for they all held that John truly was a prophet. 33 So they answered, "We do not know."

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

The leaders try trick questions about taxes, the resurrection and the greatest commandment, and Jesus answers every one. Then a poor widow drops in two tiny coins, and Jesus says she gave more than all the rich people put together.

THE PARABLE OF THE WICKED TENANTS // MATTHEW 21:33–46; LUKE 20:9–18

1 Then Jesus began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a wine vat, and built a watchtower. Then he rented it out to some tenants and went away on a journey.
2 At harvest time, he sent a servant to the tenants to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. 3 But they seized the servant, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.
4 Then he sent them another servant, and they struck him over the head and treated him shamefully.
5 He sent still another, and this one they killed.
He sent many others; some they beat and others they killed.
6 Finally, having one beloved son, he sent him to them. 'They will respect my son,'
he said.
7 But the tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 So they seized the son, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.
9 What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others. 10 Have you never read this Scripture:

'The stone the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
11 This is from the Lord,
and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"

12 At this, the leaders sought to arrest Jesus, for they knew that He had spoken this parable against them. But fearing the crowd, they left Him and went away.

PAYING TAXES TO CAESAR // MATTHEW 22:15–22; LUKE 20:19–26

13 Later, they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to catch Jesus in His words. 14 "Teacher," they said, "we know that You are honest and seek favor from no one. Indeed, You are impartial and teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay them or not?"
15 But Jesus saw through their hypocrisy and said, "Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a Roman coin to inspect." 16 So they brought it, and He asked them, "Whose image is this? And whose inscription?"
"Caesar's," they answered.
17 Then Jesus told them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."
And they marveled at Him.

THE SADDUCEES AND THE RESURRECTION // MATTHEW 22:23–33; LUKE 20:27–40

18 Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and questioned Him: 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man is to marry his brother's widow and raise up offspring for him. 20 Now there were seven brothers.
The first one married and died, leaving no children. 21 Then the second one married the widow, but he also died and left no children. And the third did likewise. 22 In this way, none of the seven left any children. And last of all, the woman died. 23 In the resurrection, then, whose wife will she be? For all seven were married to her." 24 Jesus said to them, "Aren't you mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God? 25 When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. Instead, they will be like the angels in heaven.

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT // DEUTERONOMY 6:1–19; MATTHEW 22:34–40

28 Now one of the scribes had come up and heard their debate. Noticing how well Jesus had answered them, he asked Him,
"Which commandment is the most important of all?"

29 Jesus replied, "This is the most important: 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is One. 30 Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' 31 The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' No other commandment is greater than these."

32 "Right, Teacher," the scribe replied. "You have stated correctly that God is One and there is no other but Him, 33 and to love Him with all your heart and with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself. This is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

34 When Jesus saw that the man had answered wisely, He said, "You are not far from the kingdom of God."

And no one dared to question Him any further.

WHOSE SON IS THE CHRIST? // MATTHEW 22:41–46; LUKE 20:41–44

35 While Jesus was teaching in the temple courts, He asked, "How can the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David? 36 Speaking by the Holy Spirit, David himself declared:

*'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand
until I put Your enemies
under Your feet."'*

37 David himself calls Him 'Lord.' So how can He be David's son?"

And the large crowd listened to Him with delight.

BEWARE OF THE SCRIBES // LUKE 20:45–47

38 In His teaching Jesus also said, "Watch out for the scribes. They like to walk around in long robes, to receive greetings in the marketplaces, 39 and to have the chief seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets. 40 They defraud widows of their houses, and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will receive greater condemnation."

THE WIDOW'S OFFERING // LUKE 21:1–4

41 As Jesus was sitting opposite the treasury, He watched the crowd putting money into it. And many rich people put in large amounts. 42 Then one poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, worth only a tiny part of a day's wage.

43 Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more than all the others into the treasury. 44 For they all contributed out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on."

1 As Jesus was leaving the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, look at the magnificent stones and buildings!"

2 "Do you see all these great buildings?"
Jesus replied. "Not one stone here will be

Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James,
John, and Andrew asked Him privately, 4
"Tell us, when will these things happen?

about to be fulfilled?"

5 Jesus began by telling them, "See to it that no one deceives you. 6 Many will come in My name, claiming, 'I am He,' and will deceive many. 7 When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. These things must happen, but the end is still to come. 8 Nation will rise

dom. There will be earthquakes in various places, as well as famines. These are the nesses to them. 10 And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all the nations. 11 But when they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry beforehand what to say. In-who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 15 Let no one on the housetop go back in-this will not occur in the winter. 19 For those will be days of tribulation unseen

now, and never to be seen again. 20 If the Lord had not cut short those days, nobody would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom He has chosen, He has cut them short.

21 At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There He is!' do not believe it. 22 For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform signs and wonders to deceive even the elect, if that were possible. 23 So be on your guard;

34 It is like a man going on a journey who left his house, put each servant in charge of his own task, and instructed the doorkeeper to keep watch. 35 Therefore keep watch, because you do not know when the master of the house will return—whether in the evening, at midnight, when the rooster crows, or in the morning. 36 Otherwise, he may arrive without notice and find you sleeping. 37 And what I say to you, I say to everyone: Keep watch!"

A woman pours expensive perfume on Jesus, and Judas goes to sell Him out. After the Last Supper, Jesus prays in the garden while His friends sleep. He is arrested, a young man runs off without his clothes, and Peter denies Jesus three times.

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS // MATTHEW 26:1–5; LUKE 22:1–2; JOHN 11:45–57

1 Now the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were two days away, and the chief priests and scribes were looking for a covert way to arrest Jesus and kill Him. 2 "But not during the feast," they said, "or there may be a riot among the people."

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY // MATTHEW 26:6–13; LUKE 7:36–50; JOHN 12:1–8

3 While Jesus was in Bethany reclining at the table in the home of Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke open the jar and poured it on Jesus' head.

4 Some of those present, however, expressed their indignation to one another: "Why this waste of perfume? 5 It could have been sold for more than a year's wages and the money given to the poor." And they scolded her.

6 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone; why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful deed to Me. 7 The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them whenever you want. But you will not always have Me. 8 She has done what she could to anoint My body in advance of My burial. 9 And truly I tell you, wherever the gospel is preached in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

Follow him, 14 and whichever house he enters, say to the owner, 'The Teacher asks: Where is My guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?' 15 And he will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. THE LAST SUPPER // MATTHEW 26:20–30; LUKE 22:14–23; 1 CORINTHIANS 11:17–34

17 When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve. 18 And while they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, one of you who is eating with Me will betray Me."

19 They began to be grieved and to ask Him one after another, "Surely not I?"

20 He answered, "It is one of the Twelve—the one who is dipping his hand into the bowl with Me. 21 The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed! It would be better for him if he had not been born."

22 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, spoke a blessing and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, saying, "Take it; this is My body."

23 Then He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. 24 He said to them, "This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. 25 Truly I tell you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."

26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

27 Then Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away, for it is written:

'I will strike the Shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered.'

28 But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

29 Peter declared, "Even if all fall away, I never will."

30 "Truly I tell you," Jesus replied, "this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."

31 But Peter kept insisting, "Even if I have to die with You, I will never deny You." And all the others said the same thing.

JESUS PRAYS AT GETHSEMANE // MATTHEW 26:36–46; LUKE 22:39–46

32 Then they came to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus told His disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

33 He took with Him Peter, James, and John, and began to be deeply troubled and distressed. 34 Then He said to them, "My soul is consumed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch."

35 Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour would pass from Him. 36 "Abba, Father," He said, "all things are possible for You. Take this cup from Me. Yet not what I will, but what You will."

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES JESUS SPEAKING

37 Then Jesus returned and found them sleeping. "Simon, are you asleep?" He asked. "Were you not able to keep watch for one hour? 38 Watch and pray so that you will not enter into temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak."

39 Again He went away and prayed, saying the same thing. 40 And again Jesus returned and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. And they did not know what to answer Him.

41 When Jesus returned the third time, He said, "Are you still sleeping and resting?
That is enough! The hour has come. Look,
the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands
of sinners. 42 Rise, let us go. See, My betrayer is approaching!"

THE BETRAYAL OF JESUS // MATTHEW 26:47–56; LUKE 22:47–53; JOHN 18:1–14

43 While Jesus was still speaking, Judas,
one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, scribes, and elders.

44 Now the betrayer had arranged a signal
with them: "The One I kiss is the man; arrest Him and lead Him away securely." 45 Going directly to Jesus, he said, "Rabbi!"
and kissed Him.

46 Then the men seized Jesus and arrested Him. 47 And one of the bystanders drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

48 Jesus asked the crowd, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would an outlaw? 49 Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest Me. But this has happened that the Scriptures would be fulfilled."

50 Then everyone deserted Him and fled.
51 One young man who had been following Jesus was wearing a linen cloth around his body. They caught hold of him, 52 but he pulled free of the linen cloth and ran away naked.

JESUS BEFORE THE SANHEDRIN // MATTHEW 26:57–68; LUKE 22:66–71; JOHN 18:19–24

53 They led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests, elders, and scribes assembled. 54 Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he sat with the officers and warmed himself by the fire.

55 Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were seeking testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but they did not find any. 56 For many bore false witness against Jesus, but their testimony was inconsistent.

57 Then some men stood up and testified falsely against Him: 58 "We heard Him say,
'I will destroy this man-made temple, and in three days I will build another that is made without hands.'" 59 But even their testimony was inconsistent.

60 So the high priest stood up before them and questioned Jesus, "Have You no answer? What are these men testifying against You?"

61 But Jesus remained silent and made no reply.

Again the high priest questioned Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"

62 "I am," said Jesus, "and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming with the clouds of heaven."

63 At this, the high priest tore his clothes and declared, "Why do we need any more witnesses? 64 You have heard the blasphemy. What is your verdict?"

68 But he denied it. "I do not know or even understand what you are talking about," he said. Then he went out to the gateway, and the rooster crowed.

69 There the servant girl saw him and again said to those standing nearby, "This man is one of them."

70 But he denied it again.

After a little while, those standing nearby said once more to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you too are a Galilean."

71 But he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this man of whom you speak!"

72 And immediately the rooster crowed a second time.

Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." And he broke down and wept.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Pilate hands Jesus over, the crowd picks Barabbas, and soldiers mock Him. Jesus is crucified and cries out, My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? The temple curtain tears in two, and a Roman centurion says, Truly this man was the Son of God.

JESUS DELIVERED TO PILATE // MATTHEW 27:1–2

1 Early in the morning, the chief priests, elders, scribes, and the whole Sanhedrin devised a plan. They bound Jesus, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate.

2 So Pilate questioned Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

"You have said so," Jesus replied.

3 And the chief priests began to accuse Him of many things.

4 Then Pilate questioned Him again, "Have You no answer? Look how many charges they are bringing against You!"

5 But to Pilate's amazement, Jesus made no further reply.

THE CROWD CHOOSES BARABBAS // MATTHEW 27:15–23; LUKE 23:13–25

6 Now it was Pilate's custom at the feast to release to the people a prisoner of their choosing. 7 And a man named Barabbas was imprisoned with the rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection. 8 So the crowd went up and began asking Pilate to keep his custom.

9 "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" Pilate asked. 10 For he knew it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over.

11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas to them instead.

PILATE DELIVERS UP JESUS // MATTHEW 27:24–26

12 So Pilate asked them again, "What then do you want me to do with the One you call the King of the Jews?"

13 And they shouted back, "Crucify Him!"

14 "Why?" asked Pilate. "What evil has He done?"

But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify Him!"

15 And wishing to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed Him over to be crucified.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS // ISAIAH 50:4–11; MATTHEW 27:27–31; LUKE 22:63–65; JOHN 19:1–15

16 Then the soldiers led Jesus away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium) and called the whole company together. 17 They dressed Him in a purple robe, twisted together a crown of thorns, and set it on His head. 18 And they began to salute Him: "Hail, King of the Jews!"

19 They kept striking His head with a staff and spitting on Him. And they knelt down and bowed before Him. 20 After they had mocked Him, they removed the purple robe and put His own clothes back on Him. Then they led Him out to crucify Him.

THE CRUCIFIXION // PSALM 22:1–31; MATTHEW 27:32–44; LUKE 23:26–43; JOHN 19:16–27

21 Now Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was passing by on his way in from the country, and the soldiers forced him to carry the cross of Jesus.

22 They brought Jesus to a place called Golgotha, which means The Place of the Skull. 23 There they offered Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it.

24 And they crucified Him.

They also divided His garments by casting lots to decide what each of them would take.

25 It was the third hour when they crucified Him. 26 And the charge inscribed against Him read:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 Along with Jesus, they crucified two robbers, one on His right and one on His left. 28 [And the Scripture was fulfilled that says, "He was numbered with the transgressors."]

29 And those who passed by heaped abuse on Him, shaking their heads and saying, "Aha! You who are going to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, 30 come down from the cross and save Yourself!"

31 In the same way, the chief priests and scribes mocked Him among themselves, saying, "He saved others, but He cannot save Himself! 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see and believe!" And even those who were crucified with Him berated Him.

THE DEATH OF JESUS // PSALM 22:1–31; MATTHEW 27:45–56; LUKE 23:44–49; JOHN 19:28–30

33 From the sixth hour until the ninth hour darkness came over all the land. 34 At the ninth hour, Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

35 When some of those standing nearby heard this, they said, "Behold, He is calling Elijah."

36 And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine. He put it on a reed and held it up for Jesus to drink, saying, "Leave Him alone. Let us see if Elijah comes to take Him down."

37 But Jesus let out a loud cry and breathed His last. 38 And the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

39 When the centurion standing there in front of Jesus saw how He had breathed His last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

40 And there were also women watching from a distance. Among them were Mary

THE HEART ARCHAEOLOGY MIRACLES DEMONIC NOTABLE

Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. 41 These women had followed Jesus and ministered to Him while He was in Galilee, and there were many other women who had come up to Jerusalem with Him.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS // ISAIAH 53:9–12; MATTHEW 27:57–61; LUKE 23:50–56; JOHN 19:38–42

42 Now it was already evening. Since it was Preparation Day (that is, the day before the Sabbath), 43 Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent Council member who himself was waiting for the kingdom of God, boldly went to Pilate to ask for the body of Jesus.

44 Pilate was surprised to hear that Jesus was already dead, so he summoned the centurion to ask if this was so. 45 When Pilate had confirmed it with the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

46 So Joseph bought a linen cloth, took down the body of Jesus, wrapped it in the cloth, and placed it in a tomb that had been cut out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb. 47 Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where His body was placed.

16

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

Three women come to the tomb and find the stone already moved. A young man in white says, He has risen! The oldest copies end there. Later copies go on with Jesus sending His disciples into all the world.

THE RESURRECTION // MATTHEW 28:1–10; LUKE 24:1–12; JOHN 20:1–9

1 When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so they could go and anoint the body of Jesus. 2 Very early on the first day of the week, just after sunrise, they went to the tomb. 3 They were asking one another, "Who will roll away the stone from the entrance of the tomb?" 4 But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, even though it was extremely large.

5 When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed. 6 But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here! See the place where they put Him. 7 But go, tell His disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you.'"

8 So the women left the tomb and ran away, trembling and bewildered. And in their fear they did not say a word to anyone.

JESUS APPEARS TO MARY MAGDALENE // JOHN 20:10–18

9 [Early on the first day of the week, after Jesus had risen, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom He had driven out seven demons. 10 She went and told those who had been with Him, who were mourning and weeping. 11 And when they heard that Jesus was alive and she had seen Him, they did not believe it.

JESUS APPEARS TO TWO DISCIPLES // LUKE 24:13–35

12 After this, Jesus appeared in a different form to two of them as they walked along in the country.

13 And they went back and reported it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

THE GREAT COMMISSION // MATTHEW 28:16–20

14 Later, as they were eating, Jesus appeared to the Eleven and rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

THE ENDING OF MARK

Does Mark Stop at 16:8?

MARK 16:8 TO 20

WHY THE BRACKETS

Mark 16:9 to 20 is in brackets because many scholars think it was not part of what Mark first wrote. Every reader should know why.

THE CASE FOR STOPPING AT 16:8

The two oldest nearly complete Bibles, Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus, from the 300s, end at 16:8. Vaticanus leaves a blank column after it, the only one in its New Testament, as if the copyist knew something more existed. About AD 320 Eusebius wrote that the accurate copies end at 16:8, and Jerome said the same about AD 406. Many of the words in 9 to 20 are not found anywhere else in Mark, and 16:9 introduces Mary Magdalene as if for the first time.

THE CASE FOR 9 TO 20

Nearly all Greek copies, well over a thousand, have it. About AD 180 Irenaeus quoted 16:19 as Mark's words (Against Heresies 3.10), which is older than any copy we have. Tatian put it in his blend of the four Gospels, the Diatessaron, about AD 170.

OTHER ENDINGS

A few copies add a one sentence short ending. Codex Washingtonianus adds an extra saying of Jesus after 16:14, called the Freer Logion.

WHY WOULD MARK STOP THERE?

Some say he meant to, leaving the women afraid and the reader to finish the story. Some say the last page was lost. Many think 9 to 20 was written early to fill the gap, using the other Gospels and Acts.

WHAT THIS BIBLE DOES

Like most modern Bibles, it keeps 9 to 20 but puts it in brackets, so you can read it and know it is debated. The King James Version prints it with no mark, because the Greek copies its translators used in 1611 had it.

Mark 16:17 to 18

MARK 16:17 TO 18 · ACTS 28:3 TO 6 · MATTHEW 4:5 TO 7

WHAT IT SAYS

They will pick up snakes with their hands, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not harm them, 16:18.

THE SNAKE HANDLERS

About 1910 George Went Hensley began handling rattlesnakes at church services in Tennessee. Small Holiness churches in Appalachia, often called Signs Following churches, still do it. Tennessee banned it in 1947. Dozens have died, including Jamie Coots, a Kentucky pastor seen on a TV show, who died of a bite in 2014.

WHAT PAUL DID

A viper bit Paul on Malta and he shook it off unharmed, Acts 28:3 to 6. He did not go looking for it. When Satan told Jesus to jump from the temple because God would protect Him, Jesus said, do not put the Lord your God to the test, Matthew 4:7.

HOW CHRISTIANS READ IT

It is Scripture, and it promises protection when danger comes, not a command to test God; this is what most who accept 9 to 20 believe. It is not what Mark first MK 16:14 [HEART] Jesus rebuked the eleven for their unbelief and hardness of heart.

MK 16:17 [DEMONIC] These signs will follow those who believe — cast out demons in My name wrote, so no teaching should rest on it alone. It is a command to obey literally, as the snake handlers believe. The Catholic Church counts it as Scripture, whoever wrote it.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Nothing in 9 to 20 changes any core teaching. The empty tomb is already in 16:6. Casting out demons, new tongues and healing are taught in Acts and 1 Corinthians 12.

BOOK 42 OF 66 · NEW TESTAMENT · GOSPELS

LUKE

The Savior of everybody

AUTHOR	Luke, a doctor and a friend of Paul Colossians 4:14. He was probably a Gentile, which makes him the only writer of a Gospel who was not Jewish. The early church named him as the author by about AD 180.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	About 7 BC to AD 30, from the promise of John the Baptist's birth to Jesus going up into heaven.
DATE WRITTEN	Many conservative scholars say about AD 60 to 62, before Acts ends with Paul still alive in Rome. Many others say AD 75 to 90.
WRITTEN TO	Theophilus, a man whose name means friend of God. Luke wrote Acts to him too. The book speaks to Gentiles, the poor and anyone who felt left out.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Luke survives in thousands of Greek manuscripts and is quoted by early writers like Irenaeus around AD 180.
KEY VERSE	Luke 19:10. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.

THE OLDEST COPY OF LUKE
This page is from Papyrus 75, the oldest known copy of Luke. It holds most of Luke and John in Greek and is usually dated about AD 175 to 225, though a few scholars argue it is a little later. The Swiss collector Martin Bodmer bought it in the 1950s, and since 2007 it has been kept in the Vatican Library. This page holds Luke 14:3 to 14, where Jesus heals a man on the Sabbath and tells the guests to take the lowest seat. Papyrus 75 matches the great Codex Vaticanus, copied about 150 years later, almost word for word, which shows how carefully Luke was copied. Papyrus 4, from about the same time, holds parts of Luke 1 to 6.

Historical Setting

Rome rules the world, and Caesar Augustus can move a whole nation just by ordering a census. Herod the Great rules Judea for Rome, and later his sons and Pontius Pilate take over. The Jewish people are waiting for the Messiah. Into this world Luke, a careful doctor, sets out to check the facts. He talks to eyewitnesses and writes an orderly account so his friend Theophilus can be sure what he was taught is true.

What Was Going Wrong

THE POOR WERE IGNORED. The rich feasted while beggars like Lazarus lay at the gate 16:19 to 21.
WOMEN WERE PUSHED ASIDE. Their word did not count for much, and even the apostles called the women's report nonsense 24:11.
OUTSIDERS WERE HATED. Jews and Samaritans would not even share a cup, so a good Samaritan sounded like a joke 10:33.
PRIDE IN RELIGION. Some trusted in their own goodness and looked down on everyone else 18:9.
LOVE OF MONEY. People served money instead of God, and the leaders laughed at Jesus for saying so 16:13 to 14.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Jesus is the Savior of everybody. Luke shows Him reaching the people nobody else wanted: shepherds, lepers, widows, tax collectors, Samaritans and a thief on a cross. He is born in a feeding trough, heals the sick and tells stories of lost things being found. Then He walks steadily toward Jerusalem, where He dies for sinners and rises again. The book ends with Jesus explaining that the whole Old Testament was about Him.

LUKE 1:32 TO 33 God will give Him the throne of His father David, and His kingdom will never end. Fulfills 2 Samuel 7:16.

LUKE 4:18 TO 21 Today this Scripture is fulfilled. Jesus reads Isaiah 61:1 to 2 and says it is about Him.

LUKE 24:44 Everything written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

WOMEN ALL OVER THE STORY
Elizabeth, Mary, Anna, the widow of Nain, Mary and Martha, and the women who paid for Jesus' ministry 8:1 to 3. Luke names more women than any other Gospel.

ONLY IN LUKE
The good Samaritan, the prodigal son, Zacchaeus, the rich man and Lazarus, Jesus at twelve in the temple, the thief on the cross and the road to Emmaus. Without Luke we would not have any of them.

PART ONE OF TWO
Luke and Acts are one story in two books, both written to Theophilus. Together they make up more than a quarter of the New Testament, more than Paul wrote.

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS SONGS
Mary's song, Zechariah's song, the angels' Glory to God and Simeon's song are all in chapters 1 and 2. Churches have sung them for almost two thousand years.

Did Anybody Listen?

Luke tells us in his second book. In Acts, the same disciples who hid on Friday preach in Jerusalem fifty days later, and about three thousand people are baptized in one day. The good news spreads to Samaritans, Romans and Greeks, and the book ends with Paul preaching in Rome. Luke's Savior for everybody really did reach everybody.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Luke opens like a doctor writing a report: I checked everything carefully. Then an angel tells an old priest his wife is having a baby, he doubts it, and he loses his voice for nine months. Next the same angel visits a teenage girl in Nazareth, and Mary says yes to God. Two moms, two miracle babies, and a lot of singing.

DEDICATION TO THEOPHILUS // ACTS 1:1–3

1 Many have undertaken to compose an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, 2 just as they were handed down to us by the initial eyewitnesses and servants of the word. 3 Therefore, having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, it seemed good also to me to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, 4 so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.

GABRIEL FORETELLS JOHN'S BIRTH

5 In the time of Herod king of Judea there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah, and whose wife Elizabeth was a descendant of Aaron. 6 Both of them were righteous in the sight of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and decrees of the Lord. 7 But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both well along in years.

8 One day while Zechariah's division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, 9 he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense. 10 And at the hour of the incense offering, the whole congregation was praying outside.

11 Just then an angel of the Lord appeared to Zechariah, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. 12 When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and gripped with fear.

13 But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to give him the name John. 14 He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice at his birth, 15 for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He shall never take wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb.
16 Many of the sons of Israel he will turn back to the Lord their God. 17 And he will go on before the Lord in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

18 "How can I be sure of this?" Zechariah asked the angel. "I am an old man, and my wife is well along in years."

19 "I am Gabriel," replied the angel. "I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. 20 And now you will be silent and unable to speak until the day this comes to pass, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled at their proper time."

21 Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he took so long in the temple. 22 When he came out and was unable to speak to them, they realized he had seen a vision in the temple.
He kept making signs to them but remained unable to speak. 23 And when the days of his service were complete, he returned home.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES ARCHAEOLOGY MIRACLES

24 After these days, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and for five months remained in seclusion. She declared, 25 "The Lord has done this for me. In these days He has shown me favor and taken away my disgrace among the people."

GABRIEL FORETELLS JESUS' BIRTH

26 In the sixth month, God sent the angel Gabriel to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, 27 to a virgin pledged in marriage to a man named Joseph, who was of the house of David. And the virgin's name was Mary. 28 The angel appeared to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you."

NAZARETH IN THE TIME OF JESUS

LUKE 1:26 · LUKE 2:39 · JOHN 1:46

Remains of ancient Nazareth homes cut into the rock, under the Church of the Annunciation. Photo by gugganij, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

The remains of a small farming village. Digs in Nazareth have found houses, cisterns, storage pits, farm terraces and tombs from the time of Jesus.

HOW OLD IT IS

The house found in 2009 dates to the first century AD, the time of Jesus. Pottery and broken stone cups from that time were found inside. Some of the homes under the Church of the Annunciation are older still.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In December 2009 archaeologist Yardenna Alexandre of the Israel Antiquities Authority found a house with two rooms and a courtyard right next to the Church of the Annunciation. Other remains under the church were dug from the 1950s on.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In Nazareth, at the International Marian Center and under the Church of the Annunciation.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Some critics said Nazareth did not exist in the time of Jesus. A 2008 book even called it a myth. The digs show a real village was there. It was tiny, probably a few hundred people, which fits Nathanael's question in John 1:46: Can anything good come from Nazareth?

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing ties any of these houses to Mary, Joseph or Jesus. A first century house under the Sisters of Nazareth convent nearby is called the house of Joseph by some, but that is tradition, not proof.

29 Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. 30 So the angel told her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. 31 Behold, you will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to give Him the name Jesus. 32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David, 33 and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever. His kingdom will never end!"

34 "How can this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?"

35 The angel replied, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the 38 "I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May it happen to me according to your word." Then the angel left her.

MARY VISITS ELIZABETH

39 In those days Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judah, 40 where she entered the home of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

41 When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. 42 In a loud voice she exclaimed, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! 43 And why am I so honored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 For as soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. 45 Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord's word to her will be fulfilled."

46 Then Mary said:

"My soul magnifies the Lord,
47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior!

From now on all generations will call me blessed.

but has sent the rich away empty.
54 He has helped His servant Israel, remembering to be merciful, 55 as He promised to our fathers, to Abraham and his descendants forever."

56 Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned home.

THE BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

57 When the time came for Elizabeth to have her child, she gave birth to a son. 58 Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her great mercy, and they rejoiced with her.

59 On the eighth day, when they came to circumcise the child, they were going to name him after his father Zechariah. 60 But his mother replied, "No! He shall be called John."

61 They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who bears this name." 62 So they made signs to his father to find out what he wanted to name the child.

63 Zechariah asked for a tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And they were all amazed. 64 Immediately Zechariah's mouth was opened and his tongue was released, and he began to speak, praising God.

65 All their neighbors were filled with awe, and people throughout the hill country of Judea were talking about these events. 66 And all who heard this wondered in their hearts and asked, "What then will this

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Caesar orders a census, so Joseph and a very pregnant Mary travel to Bethlehem, and there is no room for them. The King of the universe sleeps in a feeding trough. Angels announce it to shepherds, who were not exactly the town's top citizens. Twelve years later Jesus stays behind at the temple and His parents panic for three days.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS // MATTHEW 1:18–25

1 Now in those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that a census should be taken of the whole empire. 2 This was the first census to take place while Quirinius was governor of Syria. 3 And everyone went to his own town to register.

4 So Joseph also went up from Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, since he was from the house and line of David. 5 He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to him in marriage and was expecting a child.

6 While they were there, the time came for her Child to be born. 7 And she gave birth to her firstborn, a Son. She wrapped Him in swaddling cloths and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

DEBATED FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: HIGH FOR QUIRINIUS, DEBATED FOR THE DATE

QUIRINIUS AND THE CENSUS

LUKE 2:1 TO 3 · ACTS 5:37

The Aemilius Secundus inscription, which names Quirinius and a census. Photo by Mongolo1984, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

A Latin gravestone for a Roman officer named Quintus Aemilius Secundus. It says that by order of Quirinius, the governor of Syria, he took a census of the city of Apamea and counted 117,000 people.

HOW OLD IT IS

Early first century AD. The census it describes was part of Quirinius' work as governor of Syria, around AD 6.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

It was known in Venice by the 1600s. Some thought it was a fake until a missing piece turned up in Venice in 1880. A second stone found near Tivoli, Italy, in 1764 praises a man who governed Syria twice. Many think he was Quirinius, but the name is broken off.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The National Archaeological Museum in Venice, Italy.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Quirinius was real, he governed Syria, and Rome really did count people in that region the way Luke 2 describes. The historian Josephus also tells about Quirinius and a census.

THE DEBATE

Josephus dates Quirinius' census to AD 6, about ten years after Herod died. Luke puts Jesus' birth while Herod was still king. Some scholars say Luke 2:2 can be read as before Quirinius was governor. Others think Quirinius held an earlier post in Syria, which the Tivoli stone may hint at. Others think Luke got the date wrong. See Exhibit A at the back of this Bible.

13 And suddenly there appeared with the 15 When the angels had left them and gone

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WAS JESUS BORN ON DECEMBER 25?

Shepherds in the Fields

LUKE 2:1 TO 20 · MATTHEW 2:1 · ROMANS 14:5 TO 6

WHAT LUKE SAYS

Shepherds were living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks by night, 2:8. Luke gives no date, and neither does any other book of the Bible.

THE YEAR

Jesus was born while Herod the Great was king, Matthew 2:1. Herod died about 4 BC, so Jesus was born about 6 to 4 BC. Our calendar was worked out by a monk named Dionysius Exiguus in AD 525, and he was a few years off.

THE SEASON

Some say shepherds would not be out at night in a cold, rainy December, so it was spring to fall. Others answer that Bethlehem's winters are mild enough, and a Jewish writing, the Mishnah Shekalim 7:4, suggests some flocks near Jerusalem stayed outdoors all year.

EARLY GUESSES

Hippolytus, a teacher in Rome, about AD 204, is the first writer to name December 25, though some think a later hand added it to his book. Clement of Alexandria, about the same time, shows Christians were already arguing about the day, Stromata 1.21.

THE PAGAN HOLIDAY THEORY

A Roman calendar from AD 354 is the first sure record of a Christmas feast on December 25, at Rome by AD 336. The same calendar lists that day as the birthday of the Unconquered Sun, a sun god Emperor Aurelian made official in AD 274. Some say the church took over the pagan day. The Roman feast of Saturnalia was a week earlier, December 17 to 23.

THE COUNTING THEORY

Others say Christians counted it. Some early writers dated Jesus' death to March 25 and believed He was conceived on the same date; nine months later is December 25. Tertullian already gives March 25 for the cross, about AD 200.

EVERY DATE PEOPLE HAVE PICKED

Here is every view with a real following, so you can weigh them yourself.

DECEMBER 25

Kept by Catholics, most Protestants and many Orthodox. It is the oldest date we can prove a church kept, at Rome by AD 336. Best case: the counting theory below, and a tradition that goes back to at least the early 300s.

JANUARY 6 AND JANUARY 7

In the 300s many churches in the East, like Egypt and Syria, kept the birth on January 6. The Armenian church still does. When the East took up December 25 in the late 300s, January 6 became Epiphany, the day of the wise men and Jesus' baptism. Russian, Serbian, Coptic and Ethiopian churches celebrate on January 7, because they follow older calendars. For most of them it is still December 25 on the old Roman calendar.

SPRING

Clement of Alexandria, about AD 200, listed dates others had worked out that match May 20, and April 19 or 20 from a group the church called heretics. His own count of years points to about November 18, 3 BC. Some today point to lambing season in the spring, when shepherds watched the flocks at night.

FALL AND THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

Some count from Zechariah's turn to serve in the temple, the division of Abijah, 1:5, and from Jesus being born about six months after John, 1:26 and 1:36. That can put the birth in September or October, near the Feast of Tabernacles. They point to John 1:14, the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, where dwelt means pitched His tent. Problem: nobody knows for sure how the priest turns lined up with the calendar that year.

LK 2:19 [HEART] Mary treasured these things and pondered them in her heart.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

THE SIGN IN REVELATION 12

The historian Ernest Martin argued that the sign in Revelation 12:1 to 2, a woman clothed with the sun with the moon under her feet, matched the night sky on September 11, 3 BC. But Matthew says Jesus was born while Herod was alive, and most scholars put Herod's death in 4 BC, before that date. Martin argued Herod died in 1 BC, but few accept it.

WHAT CONSTANTINE HAD TO DO WITH IT

Constantine was the first Christian emperor. In AD 313 he and his co emperor Licinius gave Christians full freedom to worship. In AD 321 he made Sunday, the day of the sun, a day of rest. He had honored the Unconquered Sun before he turned to Christ, and the sun god stayed on some of his coins for years. The first sure record of a Christmas feast on December 25 comes from Rome in AD 336, the year before he died. No writing says Constantine picked the date. But under him the church could worship in the open, build big churches and hold public feasts, so the Christmas feast at Rome took root in his time and spread from there. That is why so many people tie December 25 to Constantine.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

No one knows the real day. The Puritans banned Christmas in Massachusetts from 1659 to 1681, and some Christians still skip it. Paul says one person regards a day as special and another does not; each should be sure in his own mind, Romans 14:5 to 6. What matters is that He came, 2:11.

JESUS PRESENTED AT THE TEMPLE

21 When the eight days before His circumcision had passed, He was named Jesus, the name the angel had given Him before He was conceived.

22 And when the time of purification according to the Law of Moses was complete, His parents brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord 23 (as it is written in the Law of the Lord: "Every firstborn male shall be consecrated to the Lord"), 24 and to offer the sacrifice specified in the Law of the Lord: "A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

THE PROPHECY OF SIMEON

25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26 The Holy Spirit had revealed to him that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 Led by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. And when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for Him what was customary under the Law, 28 Simeon took Him in his arms and blessed God, saying:

29 "Sovereign Lord, as You have promised,
You now dismiss Your servant in peace.
30 For my eyes have seen Your salvation, 31 which You have prepared in the sight of all people,
32 a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to Your people Israel."

33 The Child's father and mother were amazed at what was spoken about Him. 34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to His mother Mary:

"Behold, this Child is appointed to cause
the rise and fall of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against,
35 so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed—
and a sword will pierce your soul as well."

THE PROPHECY OF ANNA

36 There was also a prophetess named Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher, who was well along in years. She had been married for seven years, 37 and then was a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple, but worshiped night and day, fasting and praying.

38 Coming forward at that moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the Child to all who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

THE RETURN TO NAZARETH // MATTHEW 2:19–23

39 When Jesus' parents had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

40 And the Child grew and became strong.
He was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon Him.

THE BOY JESUS AT THE TEMPLE

41 Every year His parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover.
42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up according to the custom of the Feast.

43 When those days were over and they were returning home, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but His parents were unaware He had stayed. 44 Assuming He was in their company, they traveled on for a day before they began to look for Him among their relatives and friends.

45 When they could not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for Him. 46 Finally, after three days they found Him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. 47 And all who heard Him were astounded at His understanding and His answers.

48 When His parents saw Him, they were astonished. "Child, why have You done this to us?" His mother asked. "Your father and I have been anxiously searching for
You."

49 "Why were you looking for Me?" He asked. "Did you not know that I had to be in My Father's house?" 50 But they did not understand the statement He was making
to them.

51 Then He went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. But His mother treasured up all these things in her heart.

52 And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature,
and in favor with God and man.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS
John the Baptist preaches by the Jordan and does not do small talk. He calls the crowd a brood of vipers and tells soldiers and tax men to quit cheating. Jesus is baptized, the Spirit comes down like a dove, and God speaks from heaven. Then Luke gives the family tree, running all the way back to Adam.

THE MISSION OF JOHN THE BAPTIST // ISAIAH 40:1–5; MATTHEW 3:1–12; MARK 1:1–8; JOHN 1:19–28

1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, while Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

3 He went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, 4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah
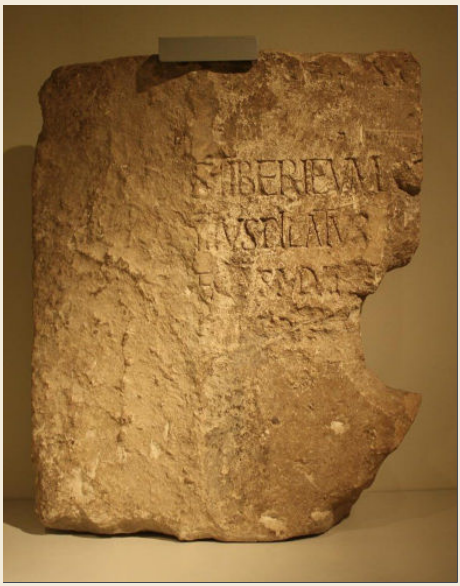
the prophet:



"A voice of one calling in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for Him.
5 Every valley shall be filled in,
and every mountain and hill made low.
The crooked ways shall be made straight,
and the rough ways smooth.

THE PILATE STONE

LUKE 3:1 · LUKE 23:1 TO 25

The Pilate Stone at the Israel Museum. The middle line reads TIUS PILATUS.

WHAT IT IS

A limestone block carved in Latin with the name Pontius Pilate and his title, Prefect of Judea. It was part of a building Pilate dedicated to the emperor Tiberius.

HOW OLD IT IS

About AD 26 to 36, the years Pilate ruled Judea. That is the same time Jesus was preaching and was crucified.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Found in 1961 by an Italian team led by Antonio Frova in the ruins of the Roman theater at Caesarea Maritima, on the coast of Israel. Builders had reused it later as a step.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Israel Museum in Jerusalem. A copy stands at Caesarea.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Luke 3:1 says John began preaching in the fifteenth year of Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea. This stone puts both names together in Pilate's own time. It is the first object ever found carved with Pilate's name.

WHAT IT ADDS

Roman writer Tacitus called Pilate a procurator. The stone shows his title in those years was prefect, a military governor. Luke simply calls him governor, which fits either one.

WHAT THE WORDS SAY

The stone is broken, so some letters are missing. Scholars fill the gaps in different ways. One reading says Pontius Pilate, Prefect of Judea, dedicated this Tiberieum to the gods. Another says he rebuilt the Tiberieum for sailors. A Tiberieum was a building that honored the emperor Tiberius. Some think it was a small temple. Others think it was a lighthouse tower for sailors at Caesarea's harbor.

PILATE IN OTHER BOOKS

Josephus tells how Pilate brought images of the emperor into Jerusalem and used temple money to build an aqueduct, which set off riots, Antiquities 18.3.1 to 2. Philo of Alexandria, who lived at the same time, calls him stubborn and cruel. Luke 13:1 tells of Galileans whose blood Pilate mixed with their sacrifices.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES MIRACLES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW JESUS SPEAKING BLOODLINE OF CHRIST

6 And all humanity will see God's salvation.'"

7 Then John said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? 8 Produce fruit, then, in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. 9 The axe lies ready at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

10 The crowds asked him, "What then should we do?"

11 John replied, "Whoever has two tunics should share with him who has none, and whoever has food should do the same."

12 Even tax collectors came to be baptized.
"Teacher," they asked, "what should we do?"

13 "Collect no more than you are authorized," he answered.

14 Then some soldiers asked him, "And what should we do?"

"Do not take money by force or false accusation," he said. "Be content with your wages."

15 The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John could be the Christ. 16 John answered all of them: "I baptize you with water, but One more powerful than I will come, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. 17 His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and to gather the wheat into His barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18 With these and many other exhortations, John proclaimed the good news to the people. 19 But when he rebuked Herod the tetrarch regarding his brother's wife Herodias and all the evils he had done, 20
Herod added this to them all: He locked
John up in prison.

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS // MATTHEW 3:13–17; MARK 1:9–11; JOHN 1:29–34

21 When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as He was praying, heaven was opened, 22 and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in a bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased."

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

The devil tempts Jesus in the wilderness for forty days and loses every round. Back home in Nazareth, Jesus reads from Isaiah and says, Today this is fulfilled. The hometown crowd loves it for about a minute, then tries to throw Him off a cliff. He walks right through them and goes to Capernaum to heal the sick.

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS // MATTHEW 4:1–11; MARK 1:12–13

1 Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, 2 where for forty days He was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they had ended, He was hungry.

3 The devil said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread."

4 But Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone.'"

5 Then the devil led Him up to a high place and showed Him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. 6 "I will give You authority over all these kingdoms and all their glory," he said. "For it has been relinquished to me, and I can give it to anyone I wish. 7 So if You worship me, it will all be Yours."

8 But Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.'"

9 Then the devil led Him to Jerusalem and set Him on the pinnacle of the temple. "If You are the Son of God," he said, "throw Yourself down from here. 10 For it is written:

'He will command His angels concerning You to guard You carefully, 11 and they will lift You up in their hands,
so that You will not strike Your foot against a stone.'"

12 But Jesus answered, "It also says, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

13 When the devil had finished every temptation, he left Him until an opportune time.

THE REJECTION AT NAZARETH // ISAIAH 61:1–11; MATTHEW 13:53–58; MARK 6:1–6

16 Then Jesus came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. As was His custom, He entered the synagogue on the Sabbath. And when He stood up to read, 17 the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. Unrolling it, He found the place where it was written:

18 "The Spirit of the Lord is on Me,
because He has anointed Me

20 Then He rolled up the scroll, returned it to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on Him, 21 and He began by saying, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

22 All spoke well of Him and marveled at the gracious words that came from His lips. "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" they asked.

23 Jesus said to them, "Surely you will quote this proverb to Me: 'Physician, heal yourself! Do here in Your hometown what we have heard that You did in Capernaum.'"

24 Then He added, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in his hometown. 25 But I tell you truthfully that there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the sky was shut for three and a half years and great famine swept over all the land. 26 Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to the widow of Zarephath in Sidon. 27 And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet. Yet not one of them was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian."

28 On hearing this, all the people in the synagogue were enraged. 29 They got up, drove Him out of the town, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which the town was built, in order to throw Him over the cliff. 30 But Jesus passed through the crowd and went on His way.

JESUS EXPELS AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT // MARK 1:21–28

31 Then He went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath He began to teach the people. 32 They were astonished at His teaching, because His message had authority.

33 In the synagogue there was a man possessed by the spirit of an unclean demon. He cried out in a loud voice, 34 "Ha! What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"

35 But Jesus rebuked the demon. "Be silent!" He said. "Come out of him!" At this, the demon threw the man down before them all and came out without harming him.

36 All the people were overcome with amazement and asked one another, "What is this message? With authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" 37 And the news about Jesus spread throughout the surrounding region.

JESUS HEALS AT PETER'S HOUSE // MATTHEW 8:14–17; MARK 1:29–34

38 After Jesus had left the synagogue, He went to the home of Simon, whose mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever. So they appealed to Jesus on her behalf, 39 and He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And she got up at once and began to serve them.

40 At sunset, all who were ill with various diseases were brought to Jesus, and laying His hands on each one, He healed them. 41 Demons also came out of many people, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But He rebuked the demons and would not allow them to speak, because they knew He was the Christ.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Peter fishes all night and catches nothing. Jesus says try again, and the nets nearly break. Peter falls at His feet, and Jesus says from now on you will catch men. A leper is healed, friends lower a paralyzed man through a roof, and Levi the tax collector throws a party full of sinners.

THE FIRST DISCIPLES // MATTHEW 4:18–22; MARK 1:16–20; JOHN 1:35–42

1 On one occasion, while Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret with the crowd pressing in on Him to hear the word of God, 2 He saw two boats at the edge of the lake. The fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. 3 Jesus got into the boat belonging to Simon and asked him to put out a little from shore. And sitting down, He taught the people from the boat.

4 When Jesus had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and let down your nets for a catch."

5 "Master," Simon replied, "we have worked hard all night without catching anything. But because You say so, I will let down the nets." 6 When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to tear. 7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees. "Go away from me, Lord," he said, "for I am a sinful man." 9 For he and his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, 10 and so were his partners James and John, the sons of Zebedee.

"Do not be afraid," Jesus said to Simon. "From now on you will catch men." 11 And when they had brought their boats ashore, they left everything and followed Him.

THE LEPER'S PRAYER // LEVITICUS 14:1–32; MATTHEW 8:1–4; MARK 1:40–45

12 While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along who was covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell face-down and begged Him, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

13 Jesus reached out His hand and touched the man. "I am willing," He said. "Be clean!" And immediately the leprosy left him.

14 "Do not tell anyone," Jesus instructed him. "But go, show yourself to the priest and present the offering Moses prescribed for your cleansing, as a testimony to them."

15 But the news about Jesus spread all the more, and great crowds came to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses. 16 Yet He frequently withdrew to the wilderness to pray.

JESUS HEALS A PARALYTIC // MATTHEW 9:1–8; MARK 2:1–12

17 One day Jesus was teaching, and the Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. People had come from Jerusalem and from every village of Galilee and Judea, and the power of the Lord was present for Him to heal the sick.

18 Just then some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a mat. They tried to bring him inside to set him before Jesus, 19 but they could not find a way through the crowd. So they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

20 When Jesus saw their faith, He said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven."

21 But the scribes and Pharisees began thinking to themselves, "Who is this man who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

THE GALILEE BOAT

LUKE 5:1 TO 11 · LUKE 8:22 TO 25

The Galilee Boat on display at the Yigal Allon Center, Kibbutz Ginosar.

WHAT IT IS

A wooden fishing boat that worked on the Sea of Galilee in the time of Jesus. It is about 27 feet long and 7 and a half feet wide, big enough for about 15 people.

HOW OLD IT IS

Carbon dating and the pottery and nails found with it date the boat to about 50 BC to AD 50. That covers the years Jesus and the fishermen worked this lake.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In January 1986 a drought made the lake drop. Two brothers from Kibbutz Ginosar, Moshe and Yuval Lufan, spotted it in the mud. Archaeologists dug it out in 11 days, wrapped it in foam and floated it to shore. It then soaked in a chemical bath for years so the wood would not crumble.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Yigal Allon Center at Kibbutz Ginosar, on the shore of the Sea of Galilee.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

It shows the kind of boat Peter, James and John fished from. It was built from many kinds of wood and patched again and again, the boat of working men who could not afford a new one.

HOW IT WAS BUILT

The builders made the outside shell first, joining the planks edge to edge with wooden tongues fitted into slots, and then added the ribs inside. Experts found twelve kinds of wood in it, mostly cedar planks and oak ribs. Many pieces were patched in or reused from older boats.

FISHING IN JESUS' DAY

Fishermen on this lake used a net thrown by hand, a long net dragged to shore, and nets set in deep water at night. Peter says, We worked hard all night and caught nothing, 5:5. Night was the best time to fish.

STORMS ON THE LAKE

The Sea of Galilee lies about 700 feet below sea level, with hills all around it. Cool winds can rush down the valleys and whip up sudden storms, like the one in 8:22 to 25.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

People call it the Jesus Boat, but nothing ties it to Jesus or Peter. It is a boat from their time and their lake.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES THE HEART MIRACLES JESUS SPEAKING

22 Knowing what they were thinking, Jesus replied, "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? 23 Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? 24 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins..." He said to the paralytic, "I tell you, get up, pick up your mat, and go home."

25 And immediately the man stood up before them, took what he had been lying on, and went home glorifying God. 26 Everyone was taken with amazement and glorified God. They were filled with awe and said, "We have seen remarkable things today."

JESUS CALLS LEVI // MATTHEW 9:9–13; MARK 2:13–17

27 After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax booth. "Follow Me," He told him, 28 and Levi got up, left everything, and followed Him.

29 Then Levi hosted a great banquet for Jesus at his house. A large crowd of tax collectors was there, along with others who were eating with them. 30 But the Pharisees and their scribes complained to Jesus' disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

31 Jesus answered, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."

QUESTIONS ABOUT FASTING // MATTHEW 9:14–15; MARK 2:18–20

33 Then they said to Him, "John's disciples and those of the Pharisees frequently fast and pray, but Yours keep on eating and drinking."

34 Jesus replied, "Can you make the guests of the bridegroom fast while He is with them? 35 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast."

THE PATCHES AND THE WINESKINS // MATTHEW 9:16–17; MARK 2:21–22

36 He also told them a parable: "No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and sews it on an old one. If he does, he will tear the new garment as well, and the patch from the new will not match the old.

37 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will spill, and the wineskins will be ruined. 38 Instead, new wine is poured into new wineskins. 39 And no one after drinking old wine wants new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

The Pharisees get mad about Sabbath rules again. Jesus picks twelve apostles and preaches a sermon on a level place: blessed are the poor, love your enemies, do not judge, and build your house on the rock. It is a lot like the Sermon on the Mount, with a few extra woes for the comfortable.

THE LORD OF THE SABBATH // 1 SAMUEL 21:1–7; MATTHEW 12:1–8; MARK 2:23–28

1 One Sabbath Jesus was passing through the grainfields, and His disciples began to pick the heads of grain, rub them in their hands, and eat them. 2 But some of the Pharisees asked, "Why are you doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"

3 Jesus replied, "Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? 4 He entered the house of God, took the consecrated bread and gave it to his companions, and ate what is lawful only for the priests to eat."

5 Then Jesus declared, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH // MATTHEW 12:9–14; MARK 3:1–6

6 On another Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was withered. 7 Looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, the scribes and Pharisees were watching Him closely to see if He would heal on the Sabbath.

8 But Jesus knew their thoughts and said to the man with the withered hand, "Get up and stand among us." So he got up and stood there.
9 Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you,
which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?" 10 And after looking around at all of them, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and it was restored.
11 But the scribes and Pharisees were filled with rage and began to discuss with one another what they might do to Jesus.

THE TWELVE APOSTLES // MATTHEW 10:1–4; MARK 3:13–19

12 In those days Jesus went out to the mountain to pray, and He spent the night in prayer to God. 13 When daylight came,
He called His disciples to Him and chose twelve of them, whom He also designated as apostles: 14 Simon, whom He named Peter, and his brother Andrew; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; 15 Matthew and Thomas; James son of Alphaeus and Simon called the Zealot; 16 Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

JESUS HEALS THE MULTITUDES // MATTHEW 4:23–25; MARK 3:7–12

17 Then Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples was there, along with a great number of people from all over Judea, Jerusalem, and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. 18 They had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases, and those troubled by unclean spirits were healed. 19
The entire crowd was trying to touch Him, because power was coming from Him and healing them all.

THE BEATITUDES // PSALM 1:1–6; MATTHEW 5:3–12

20 Looking up at His disciples, Jesus said:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.
21 Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you will be filled.
Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.
22 Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil because of the Son of Man. 23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For their fathers treated the prophets in the same way.

WOES TO THE SATISFIED // AMOS 6:1–7

24 But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort.
25 Woe to you who are well fed now,
for you will hunger.
Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will mourn and weep.
26 Woe to you when all men speak well of
you,
for their fathers treated the false
prophets in the same way.

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES // MATTHEW 5:38–48

27 But to those of you who will listen, I say:
Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. 29 If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to him the other also. And if someone takes your cloak, do not withhold your tunic as well. 30 Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what is yours, do not demand it back. 31 Do to others as you would have them do to you.
32 If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. 33 If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. 34
And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full.
35 But love your enemies, do good to them,
and lend to them, expecting nothing in return. Then your reward will be great, and LK 6:27 [NOTABLE] Anybody can love their friends. Jesus says love the people who hate you, and then shows what that looks like: do good to them, bless them and pray for them. Love is something you do, not just something you feel. Verse 31 is the Golden Rule. Jesus lived this on the cross when He prayed for the men killing Him, Luke 23:34.

you will be sons of the Most High; for He is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. 36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

JUDGING OTHERS // MATTHEW 7:1–6; ROMANS 14:1–12

37 Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. 38 Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you."

39 Jesus also told them a parable: "Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? 40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

41 Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye but fail to notice the beam in your own eye? 42 How can you say, 'Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye,' while you yourself fail to see the beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

A TREE AND ITS FRUIT // MATTHEW 7:15–23; MATTHEW 12:33–37

43 No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. 44 For each tree is known by its own fruit. Indeed, figs are not gathered from thornbushes, nor grapes from brambles. 45 The good man brings good things out of the good treasure of his heart, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil treasure of his heart. For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks.

THE HOUSE ON THE ROCK // MATTHEW 7:24–27

46 Why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' but do not do what I say? 47 I will show you what he is like who comes to Me and hears My words and acts on them: 48 He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid his foundation on the rock. When the flood came, the torrent crashed against that house but could not shake it, because it was well built.

49 But the one who hears My words and does not act on them is like a man who built his house on ground without a foundation. The torrent crashed against that house, and immediately it fell—and great was its destruction!"

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

A Roman officer has so much faith that Jesus is amazed. At Nain, Jesus stops a funeral by raising a widow's only son. John the Baptist sends questions from prison. Then a sinful woman crashes a dinner party, washes Jesus' feet with her tears, and the religious host learns a hard lesson about forgiveness.

THE FAITH OF THE CENTURION // MATTHEW 8:5–13; JOHN 4:43–54

1 When Jesus had concluded His discourse in the hearing of the people, He went to Capernaum. 2 There a highly valued servant of a centurion was sick and about to die. 3 When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to ask Him to come and heal his servant. 4 They came to Jesus and pleaded with Him earnestly, "This man is worthy to have You grant this, 5 for he loves our nation and has built our synagogue."

6 So Jesus went with them. But when He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends with the message: "Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. 7 That is why I did not consider myself worthy to come to You. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. 8 For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell one to go, and he goes, and another to come, and he comes. I tell my servant to do something, and he does it."

9 When Jesus heard this, He marveled at the centurion. Turning to the crowd following Him, He said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith." 10 And when the messengers returned to the house, they found the servant in good health.

JESUS RAISES A WIDOW'S SON

11 Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain. His disciples went with Him, accompanied by a large crowd. 12 As He approached the town gate, He saw a dead man being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her.

13 When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said, "Do not weep." 14 Then He went up and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stood still. "Young man," He said, "I tell you, get up!" 15 And the dead man sat up and began to speak! Then Jesus gave him back to his mother.

16 A sense of awe swept over all of them, and they glorified God. "A great prophet has appeared among us!" they said. "God has visited His people!" 17 And the news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding region.

JOHN'S INQUIRY // MATTHEW 11:1–6

18 Then John's disciples informed him about all these things. 19 So John called two of his disciples and sent them to ask the Lord, "Are You the One who was to come, or should we look for someone else?"

20 When the men came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to ask, 'Are You the One who was to come, or should we look for someone else?'"

21 At that very hour Jesus healed many people of their diseases, afflictions, and evil spirits, and He gave sight to many who were blind. 22 So He replied, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor. 23 Blessed is the one who does not fall away on account of Me."

JESUS TESTIFIES ABOUT JOHN // MALACHI 3:1–5; MATTHEW 11:7–19

24 After John's messengers had left, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind? 25 Otherwise, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Look, those who wear elegant clothing and live in luxury are found in palaces.

26 What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 27 This is the one about whom it is written:

'Behold, I will send My messenger ahead of You,
who will prepare Your way before You.'

28 I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John, yet even the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 All the people who heard this, even the tax collectors, acknowledged God's justice. For they had received the baptism of John. 30 But the Pharisees and experts in the law rejected God's purpose for themselves, because they had not been baptized by John.

31 "To what, then, can I compare the men of this generation? What are they like? 32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to one another:

'We played the flute for you,
and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge,
and you did not weep.'

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon!' 34 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look at this glutton and drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' 35 But wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

ARCHAEOLOGY DEMONIC JESUS SPEAKING

A SINFUL WOMAN ANOINTS JESUS // MATTHEW 26:6–13; MARK 14:3–9; JOHN 12:1–8

36 Then one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to eat with him, and He entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table.
37 When a sinful woman from that town learned that Jesus was dining there, she brought an alabaster jar of perfume. 38 As she stood behind Him at His feet weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears and wipe them with her hair. Then she kissed His feet and anointed them with the perfume.

39 When the Pharisee who had invited Jesus saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, He would know who this is and what kind of woman is touching Him—for she is a sinner!"

40 But Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you."

"Tell me, Teacher," he said.

41 "Two men were debtors to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred days' wages, and the other fifty. 42 When they were unable to repay him, he forgave both of them. Which one, then, will love him more?"

43 "I suppose the one who was forgiven more," Simon replied.

"You have judged correctly," Jesus said.

44 And turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? When I entered your house, you did not give Me water for My feet, but she wet My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. 45 You did not greet Me with a kiss, but she has not stopped kissing My feet since I arrived. 46 You did not anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with perfume. 47 Therefore I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven, for she has loved much. But he who has been forgiven little loves little."

48 Then Jesus said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

49 But those at the table began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

50 And Jesus told the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Women who had been healed travel with Jesus and pay for the ministry. He teaches the parable of the sower, calms a storm, and sends a legion of demons into pigs. A woman touches His cloak and is healed, and a synagogue leader's daughter is raised from the dead while the mourners laugh.

WOMEN MINISTER TO JESUS

1 Soon afterward, Jesus traveled from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with Him, 2 as well as some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities:
Mary called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, 3 Joanna the wife of Herod's household manager Chuza, Susanna, and many others. These women were ministering to them out of their own means.

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER // MATTHEW 13:1–23; MARK 4:1–20

4 While a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from town after town, He told them this parable: 5 "A farmer went out to sow his seed. And as he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, where it was trampled, and the birds of the air devoured it.

6 Some fell on rocky ground, and when it came up, the seedlings withered because they had no moisture.

7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the seedlings.

8 Still other seed fell on good soil, where it sprang up and produced a crop—a hundredfold."

As Jesus said this, He called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

9 Then His disciples asked Him what this parable meant.

THE HEART MIRACLES DEMONIC OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW JESUS SPEAKING

10 He replied, "The knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to others I speak in parables, so that,

'though seeing, they may not see;
though hearing, they may not understand.'

11 Now this is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God. 12 The seeds along the path are those who hear, but the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved.

13 The seeds on rocky ground are those who hear the word and receive it with joy, but they have no root. They believe for a season, but in the time of testing, they fall away.

14 The seeds that fell among the thorns are those who hear, but as they go on their way, they are choked by the worries, riches, and pleasures of this life, and their fruit does not mature.

15 But the seeds on good soil are those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, cling to it, and by persevering produce a crop.

THE LESSON OF THE LAMP // MARK 4:21–25

16 No one lights a lamp and covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, he sets it on a stand, so those who enter can see the light. 17 For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be made known and brought to light.

18 Pay attention, therefore, to how you listen. Whoever has will be given more, but whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him."

JESUS' MOTHER AND BROTHERS // MATTHEW 12:46–50; MARK 3:31–35

19 Then Jesus' mother and brothers came to see Him, but they were unable to reach Him because of the crowd. 20 He was told, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You."

21 But He replied, "My mother and brothers are those who hear the word of God and carry it out."

JESUS CALMS THE STORM // PSALM 107:1–43; MATTHEW 8:23–27; MARK 4:35–41

22 One day Jesus said to His disciples, "Let us cross to the other side of the lake." So He got into a boat with them and set out.

23 As they sailed, He fell asleep, and a windstorm came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in great danger. 24 The disciples went and woke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!"

Then Jesus got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waters, and they subsided, and all was calm. 25 "Where is your faith?" He asked.

Frightened and amazed, they asked one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!"

THE DEMONS AND THE PIGS // MATTHEW 8:28–34; MARK 5:1–20

26 Then they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, across the lake from Galilee. 27 When Jesus stepped ashore, He was met by a demon-possessed man from the town. For a long time this man had not worn clothing or lived in a house, but he stayed in the tombs.

28 When the man saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before Him, shouting in a loud voice, "What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You not to torture me!" 29 For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was bound with chains and shackles, he had broken the chains and been driven by the demon into solitary places.

30 "What is your name?" Jesus asked.

"Legion," he replied, because many demons had gone into him. 31 And the demons kept begging Jesus not to order them to go into the Abyss.

32 There on the hillside a large herd of pigs was feeding. So the demons begged Je-gave them permission.

33 Then the demons came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.
34 When those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported this in the town and countryside. 35 So the people went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man whom the demons had left, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind;
and they were afraid. 36 Meanwhile, those who had seen it reported how the demon-possessed man had been healed.
37 Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to depart from them, because great fear had taken hold of them. So He got into the boat and started back.
38 The man whom the demons had left begged to go with Jesus. But He sent him away, saying, 39 "Return home and describe how much God has done for you."
So the man went away and proclaimed all over the town how much Jesus had done for him.

THE HEALING TOUCH OF JESUS // MATTHEW 9:18–26; MARK 5:21–43

40 When Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they had all been waiting for Him. 41 Just then a synagogue leader named Jairus came and fell at Jesus' feet.
He begged Him to come to his house, 42 because his only daughter, who was about twelve, was dying.
As Jesus went with him, the crowds pressed around Him, 43 including a woman who had suffered from bleeding for twelve years. She had spent all her money on physicians, but no one was able to heal her. 44 She came up behind Jesus and touched the fringe of His cloak, and immediately her bleeding stopped.
45 "Who touched Me?" Jesus asked.
But they all denied it. "Master," said Peter,
"the people are crowding and pressing against You."
46 But Jesus declared, "Someone touched Me, for I know that power has gone out from Me."
47 Then the woman, seeing that she could not escape notice, came trembling and fell down before Him. In the presence of all the people, she explained why she had touched Him and how she had immediately been healed.
48 "Daughter," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you. Go in peace."
49 While He was still speaking, someone arrived from the house of the synagogue leader. "Your daughter is dead," he told Jairus. "Do not bother the Teacher anymore."
50 But Jesus overheard them and said to Jairus, "Do not be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed."
51 When He entered the house, He did not allow anyone to go in with Him except Peter, John, James, and the child's father and mother. 52 Meanwhile, everyone was weeping and mourning for her. But Jesus said, "Stop weeping; she is not dead but asleep." 53 And they laughed at Him,
knowing that she was dead.
54 But Jesus took her by the hand and called out, "Child, get up!" 55 Her spirit returned, and at once she got up. And He directed that she be given something to eat. 56 Her parents were astounded, but Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone
what had happened.

THE MINISTRY OF THE TWELVE // MATTHEW 10:5–15; MARK 6:7–13

1 Then Jesus called the Twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons, and power to cure diseases. 2
And He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. 3
"Take nothing for the journey," He told them, "no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, no second tunic. 4 Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that area. 5 If anyone does not welcome you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that town, as a testimony against them."

6 So they set out and went from village to village, preaching the gospel and healing people everywhere.

HEROD TRIES TO SEE JESUS // MATTHEW 14:1–12; MARK 6:14–29

7 When Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, he was perplexed.
For some were saying that John had risen from the dead, 8 others that Elijah had appeared, and still others that a prophet of old had arisen.

9 "I beheaded John," Herod said, "but who is this man I hear such things about?" And he kept trying to see Jesus.

THE FEEDING OF THE FIVE THOUSAND // MATTHEW 14:13–21; MARK 6:30–44; JOHN 6:1–15

10 Then the apostles returned and reported to Jesus all that they had done. Taking them away privately, He withdrew to a town called Bethsaida. 11 But the crowds found out and followed Him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and He healed those who needed healing.

12 As the day neared its end, the Twelve came to Jesus and said, "Dismiss the crowd so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside for lodging and provisions. For we are in a desolate place here."

13 But Jesus told them, "You give them something to eat."

"We have only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered, "unless we go and buy food for all these people." 14
(There were about five thousand men.)
He told His disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each." 15 They did so, and everyone was seated.

16 Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, Jesus spoke a blessing and broke them. Then He gave them to the disciples to set before the people.

17 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

PETER'S CONFESSION OF CHRIST // MATTHEW 16:13–20; MARK 8:27–30; JOHN 6:67–71

18 One day as Jesus was praying in private and the disciples were with Him, He questioned them: "Who do the crowds say I am?"

19 They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, that a prophet of old has arisen."

20 "But what about you?" Jesus asked.
"Who do you say I am?"

Peter answered, "The Christ of God."

CHRIST'S PASSION FORETOLD // MATTHEW 16:21–23; MARK 8:31–33

21 Jesus strictly warned them not to tell this to anyone. 22 "The Son of Man must suffer many things," He said. "He must be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and He must be killed and on the third day be raised to life."

TAKE UP YOUR CROSS // MATTHEW 16:24–28; MARK 8:34–38

23 Then Jesus said to all of them, "If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me. 24 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.

25 What does it profit a man to gain the whole world, yet lose or forfeit his very

THE TRANSFIGURATION // MATTHEW 17:1–13; MARK 9:1–13; 2 PETER 1:16–21

28 About eight days after Jesus had said these things, He took with Him Peter, John, and James, and went up on a mountain to pray. 29 And as He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothes became radiantly white. 30 Suddenly two men, Moses and Elijah, began talking with Jesus. 31 They appeared in glory and spoke about His departure, which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 Meanwhile Peter and his companions were overcome by sleep, but when they awoke, they saw Jesus' glory and the two men standing with Him. 33 As Moses and Elijah were leaving, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." (He did not know what he was saying.)

34 While Peter was speaking, a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. 35 And a voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, whom I have chosen. Listen to Him!"

36 After the voice had spoken, only Jesus was present with them. The disciples kept this to themselves, and in those days they did not tell anyone what they had seen.

THE BOY WITH AN EVIL SPIRIT // MATTHEW 17:14–18; MARK 9:14–29

37 The next day, when they came down from the mountain, Jesus was met by a large crowd. 38 Suddenly a man in the crowd cried out, "Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, for he is my only child. 39 A spirit keeps seizing him, and he screams abruptly. It throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It keeps mauling him and rarely departs from him. 40 I begged Your disciples to drive it out, but they were unable."

41 "O unbelieving and perverse generation!" Jesus replied. "How long must I remain with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."

42 Even while the boy was approaching, the demon slammed him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

THE SECOND PREDICTION OF THE PASSION // MATTHEW 17:22–23; MARK 9:30–32

43 And they were all astonished at the greatness of God.

While everyone was marveling at all that Jesus was doing, He said to His disciples, 44 "Let these words sink into your ears: The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men." 45 But they did not understand this statement. It was veiled from them so that they could not comprehend it, and they were afraid to ask Him about it.

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM // MATTHEW 18:1–5; MARK 9:33–41

46 Then an argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest. 47 But Jesus, knowing the thoughts of their hearts, had a little child stand beside Him. 48 And He said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in My name welcomes Me, and whoever welcomes Me welcomes the One who sent Me. For whoever is the least among all of you, he is the greatest."

THE SAMARITANS REJECT JESUS

51 As the day of His ascension approached, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. 52 He sent messengers on ahead, who went into a village of the Samaritans to make arrangements for Him. 53 But the people there refused to welcome Him, because He was heading for Jerusalem.

54 When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, "Lord, do You want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?"

55 But Jesus turned and rebuked them. 56 And He and His disciples went on to another village.

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP // MATTHEW 8:18–22; LUKE 14:25–33; JOHN 6:59–66

57 As they were walking along the road, someone said to Jesus, "I will follow You wherever You go."

58 Jesus replied, "Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head."

59 Then He said to another man, "Follow Me."

The man replied, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

60 But Jesus told him, "Let the dead bury their own dead. You, however, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

61 Still another said, "I will follow You, Lord; but first let me bid farewell to my family."

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus sends out seventy two in pairs. A lawyer tries to find a loophole in love your neighbor, and Jesus tells the story of the good Samaritan, the last guy anyone expected to be the hero. Then Martha works hard in the kitchen while Mary sits and listens, and Jesus says Mary picked the better thing.

JESUS SENDS THE SEVENTY-TWO // MATTHEW 9:35–38

1 After this, the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of Him to every town and place He was about to visit. 2 And He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest.

3 Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. 4 Carry no purse or bag or sandals. Do not greet anyone along the road.

5 Whatever house you enter, begin by saying, 'Peace to this house.' 6 If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; if not, it will return to you. 7 Stay at the same house, eating and drinking whatever you are offered. For the worker is worthy of his wages. Do not move around from house to house.

8 If you enter a town and they welcome you, eat whatever is set before you. 9 Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God is near you.'

10 But if you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go into the streets and declare, 11 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off as a testimony against you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.' 12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

15 And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades!

16 Whoever listens to you listens to Me; whoever rejects you rejects Me; and whoever rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me."

THE JOYFUL RETURN

17 The seventy-two returned with joy and said, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in Your name."

18 So He told them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will harm you. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

JESUS' PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING // MATTHEW 11:25–30

21 At that time Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and declared, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was well-pleasing in Your sight.

22 All things have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

23 Then Jesus turned to the disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. 24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."

THE PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

25 One day an expert in the law stood up to test Him. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

26 "What is written in the Law?" Jesus replied. "How do you read it?"

27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind' and 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus said. "Do this and you will live."

29 But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30 Jesus took up this question and said, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.

31 Now by chance a priest was going down the same road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 So too, when a Levite came to that spot and saw him, he passed by on the other side.

33 But a Samaritan on a journey came upon him, and when he saw him, he had compassion. 34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 The next day he took out two days' wages and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Take care of him,' he said, 'and on my return I will repay you for any additional expense.'

36 Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?"

37 "The one who showed him mercy," replied the expert in the law.

Then Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

The disciples ask Jesus to teach them to pray, and He gives them the Lord's Prayer and a story about a friend knocking at midnight. Critics say He casts out demons by Satan, which makes no sense. At a dinner He calls out the Pharisees for cleaning the outside of the cup while the inside is filthy.

THE LORD'S PRAYER // MATTHEW 6:5–15

1 One day in a place where Jesus had just finished praying, one of His disciples requested, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

2 So Jesus told them, "When you pray, say:

'Father, hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.
3 Give us each day our daily bread.
4 And forgive us our sins,
for we also forgive everyone who sins against us.
And lead us not into temptation.'"

ASK, SEEK, KNOCK // MATTHEW 7:7–12

5 Then Jesus said to them, "Suppose one of you goes to his friend at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, 6 because a friend of mine has come to me on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him.'

7 And suppose the one inside answers, 'Do not bother me. My door is already shut, and my children and I are in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.'

8 I tell you, even though he will not get up to provide for him because of his friendship, yet because of the man's persistence, he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

9 So I tell you: Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. 10 For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.

11 What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? 12 Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? 13 So if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

A HOUSE DIVIDED // MATTHEW 12:22–30; MARK 3:20–27

14 One day Jesus was driving out a demon that was mute. And when the demon was gone, the man who had been mute spoke. The crowds were amazed, 15 but some of them said, "It is by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons, that He drives out demons." 16 And others tested Him by demanding a sign from heaven.

17 Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be laid waste, and a house divided against a house will fall. 18 If Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? After all, you say that I drive out demons by Beelzebul. 19 And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. 20 But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his house, his possessions are secure. 22

LK 11:2 [NOTABLE] The disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, and this is what He gave them. It is a pattern, not just words to repeat: put God first, ask for His kingdom, trust Him for today's needs, ask forgiveness and give it, and ask Him to keep you from temptation. Notice verse 4. We ask God to forgive us because we forgive others. Matthew 6:9 to 13 has the longer version.

LK 11:2 [TEXT] Many later manuscripts and the KJV say Our Father in heaven and add Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. The oldest copies of Luke, like Papyrus 75, have this shorter prayer. Matthew 6:9 to 13 has the longer one.

AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT RETURNS // MATTHEW 12:43–45

24 When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' 25 On its return, it finds the house swept clean and put in order. 26 Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and dwell there. And the final plight of that man is worse than the first."

TRUE BLESSEDNESS

27 As Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said, "Blessed is the womb that bore You, and blessed are the breasts that nursed You!"

28 But He replied, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it."

THE SIGN OF JONAH // JONAH 3:1–10; MATTHEW 12:38–42

29 As the crowds were increasing, Jesus said, "This is a wicked generation. It demands a sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah. 30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so the Son of Man will be a sign to this generation.

31 The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and now One greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh will stand at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now One greater than Jonah is here.

THE LAMP OF THE BODY // MATTHEW 6:22–24

33 No one lights a lamp and puts it in a cellar or under a basket. Instead, he sets it on a stand, so those who enter can see the light.

34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are good, your whole body also is full of light. But when they are bad, your body is full of darkness. 35 Be careful, then, that the light within you is not darkness. 36 So if your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, you will be radiant, as though a lamp were shining on you."

WOES TO PHARISEES AND EXPERTS IN THE LAW // MATTHEW 23:1–36

37 As Jesus was speaking, a Pharisee invited Him to dine with him; so He went in and reclined at the table. 38 But the Pharisee was surprised to see that Jesus did not first wash before the meal.

39 Then the Lord said, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. 40 You fools! Did not the One who made the outside make the inside as well? 41 But give as alms the things that are within you, and behold, everything will be clean for you.

42 Woe to you Pharisees! For you pay tithes of mint, rue, and every herb, but you disregard justice and the love of God. You should have practiced the latter without neglecting the former.

43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the chief seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces. 44 Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, which men walk over without even noticing."

45 One of the experts in the law told Him, "Teacher, when You say these things, You insult us as well."

46 "Woe to you as well, experts in the law!" He replied. "For you weigh men down with heavy burdens, but you yourselves will not lift a finger to lighten their load.

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus warns about greed with the story of a rich fool who builds bigger barns the night before he dies. Do not worry, look at the ravens and the lilies. Be ready, because the Master comes when you least expect it. To whom much is given, much will be required, which makes everyone a little nervous.

THE LEAVEN OF THE PHARISEES // MATTHEW 16:5–12; MARK 8:14–21

1 In the meantime, a crowd of many thousands had gathered, so that they were trampling one another. Jesus began to speak first to His disciples: "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known. 3
What you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in the inner rooms will be proclaimed from the housetops.

FEAR GOD ALONE // MATTHEW 10:26–31

4 I tell you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more. 5 But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear the One who, after you have been killed, has authority to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear Him!

nies? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God. 7 And even the very hairs of your afraid; you are worth more than many

CONFESSING CHRIST // MATTHEW 10:32–33

8 I tell you, everyone who confesses Me before men, the Son of Man will also confess him before the angels of God. 9 But whoever denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God. 10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.
11 When you are brought before synagogues, rulers, and authorities, do not worry about how to defend yourselves or what to say. 12 For at that time the Holy Spirit will teach you what you should say."

THE PARABLE OF THE RICH FOOL

13 Someone in the crowd said to Him,
"Teacher, tell my brother to divide the in-14 But Jesus replied, "Man, who appointed Me judge or executor between you?" 15

And He said to them, "Watch out! Guard yourselves against every form of greed, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions." 16 Then He told them a parable: "The ground of a certain rich man produced an

and will build bigger ones, and there I will store up all my grain and my goods. 19 Then I will say to myself, "You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take it easy. Eat, drink, and be merry!"'

20 But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be required of you. Then who will own what you have accumulated?'

21 This is how it will be for anyone who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich toward God."

DO NOT WORRY // MATTHEW 6:25–34

22 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. 23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. 24 Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storehouse or barn; yet God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than the birds!

25 Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life? 26 So if you cannot do such a small thing, why do you worry about the rest?

27 Consider how the lilies grow: They do not labor or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory was adorned like one of these. 28 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith!

29 And do not be concerned about what you will eat or drink. Do not worry about it. 30 For the Gentiles of the world strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them. 31 But seek His kingdom, and these things will be added unto you.

TREASURES IN HEAVEN // MATTHEW 6:19–21

32 Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide yourselves with purses that will not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

READINESS AT ANY HOUR // MATTHEW 24:36–51; MARK 13:32–37

35 Be dressed for service and keep your lamps burning. 36 Then you will be like servants waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks, they can open the door for him at once. 37 Blessed are those servants whom the master finds on watch when he returns. Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve and will have them recline at the table, and he himself will come and wait on them. 38 Even if he comes in the second or third watch of the night and finds them alert, those servants will be blessed.

39 But understand this: If the homeowner had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. 40 You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour you do not expect."

41 "Lord," said Peter, "are You addressing this parable to us, or to everyone else as well?"

42 And the Lord answered, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their portion at the proper time? 43 Blessed is that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. 44 Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

45 But suppose that servant says in his heart, 'My master will be a long time in coming,' and he begins to beat the menservants and maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk. 46 The master of that servant will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not anticipate. Then he will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

47 That servant who knows his master's will but does not get ready or follow his instructions will be beaten with many blows. 48 But the one who unknowingly

NOT PEACE BUT DIVISION // MICAH 7:1–6; MATTHEW 10:34–39

49 I have come to ignite a fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! 50 But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished!

51 Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but division. 52 From now on, five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three. 53 They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

INTERPRETING THE PRESENT TIME // MATTHEW 16:1–4; MARK 8:11–13

54 Then Jesus said to the crowds, "As soon as you see a cloud rising in the west, you say, 'A shower is coming,' and that is what happens. 55 And when the south wind blows, you say, 'It will be hot,' and it is. 56 You hypocrites! RECONCILING WITH AN ADVERSARY // MATTHEW 5:21–26

57 And why don't you judge for yourselves what is right? 58 Make every effort to reconcile with your adversary while you are on your way to the magistrate. CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus says unless you repent, you will all perish too, which is not a feel good opener. He heals a woman bent over for eighteen years, on the Sabbath of course. The kingdom is like a mustard seed, the door is narrow, and Jesus weeps over Jerusalem like a hen longing to gather her chicks.

A CALL TO REPENTANCE // JOEL 1:13–20; AMOS 5:4–15; ZEPHANIAH 2:1–3

1 At that time some of those present told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2 To this He replied, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered this way? 3 No, I tell you. But unless you repent, you too will all perish. 4 Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam collapsed on them: Do you think that they were more sinful than all the others living in Jerusalem? 5 No, I tell you. But unless you repent, you too will all perish."

THE PARABLE OF THE BARREN FIG TREE // ISAIAH 5:1–7

6 Then Jesus told this parable: "A man had a fig tree that was planted in his vineyard. He went to look for fruit on it but did not find any. 7 So he said to the keeper of the vineyard, 'Look, for the past three years I have come to search for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Therefore cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?'

8 'Sir,' the man replied, 'leave it alone again this year, until I dig around it and fertilize it. 9 If it bears fruit next year, fine. But if not, you can cut it down.'"

JESUS HEALS A DISABLED WOMAN

10 One Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues, 11 and a woman there had been disabled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was hunched over and could not stand up straight. 12 When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your disability." 13 Then He placed His hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and began to glorify God.

14 But the synagogue leader was indignant that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath.
"There are six days for work," he told the crowd. "So come and be healed on those days and not on the Sabbath."

15 "You hypocrites!" the Lord replied.
"Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it to water? 16 Then should not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has kept bound for eighteen long years, be released from her bondage on the Sabbath day?"

17 When Jesus said this, all His adversaries were humiliated. And the whole crowd rejoiced at all the glorious things He was doing.

THE PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED //
MATTHEW 13:31–32; MARK 4:30–34

18 Then Jesus asked, "What is the kingdom of God like? To what can I compare it? 19 It is like a mustard seed that a man tossed into his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air
nested in its branches."

THE PARABLE OF THE LEAVEN // MATTHEW 13:33

20 Again He asked, "To what can I compare the kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven that a woman took and mixed into eighteen quarts of flour, until all of it was leavened."

THE NARROW DOOR // MATTHEW 7:13–14

22 Then Jesus traveled throughout the towns and villages, teaching as He made His way toward Jerusalem. 23 "Lord," someone asked Him, "will only a few people be saved?"

Jesus answered, 24 "Make every effort to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. 25 After the master of the house gets up and shuts the door, you will stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.'

But he will reply, 'I do not know where you are from.'

26 Then you will say, 'We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.'

27 And he will answer, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers.'

28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves are thrown out. 29 People will come from east and west and north and south, and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God. 30 And indeed, some who are last will be first,
and some who are first will be last."

LAMENT OVER JERUSALEM // MATTHEW 23:37–39

31 At that very hour, some Pharisees came to Jesus and told Him, "Leave this place and get away, because Herod wants to kill
You."

32 But Jesus replied, "Go tell that fox,
'Look, I will keep driving out demons and healing people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach My goal.' 33 Nevertheless, I must keep going today and tomorrow and the next day, for it is not admissible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem.

34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her, how often I have longed to gather your children together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were unwilling! 35 Look, your house is left to you desolate. And I tell you that you will not

MIRACLES JESUS SPEAKING

14

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

At a dinner party Jesus heals a man and then gives everyone seating advice: take the lowest seat. Invite the poor, not just people who can invite you back. He tells of a great banquet where the invited guests all make excuses. Then He says count the cost before you follow Him.

JESUS HEALS A MAN WITH DROPSY

1 One Sabbath, Jesus went to eat in the home of a leading Pharisee, and those in attendance were watching Him closely. 2 Right there before Him was a man with dropsy. 3 So Jesus asked the experts in the law and the Pharisees, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?"
4 But they remained silent.
Then Jesus took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him on his way. 5 And He asked them, "Which of you whose son or ox falls into a pit on the Sabbath day will not immediately pull him out?"
6 And they were unable to answer these questions.

THE PARABLE OF THE GUESTS

7 When Jesus noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, He told them a parable: 8 "When you are invited to a wedding banquet, do not sit in the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited. 9 Then the host who invited both of you will come and tell you, 'Give this man your seat.' And in humiliation, you will have to take the last place.
10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the last place, so that your host will come and tell you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honored in front of everyone at the table with you. 11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."
12 Then Jesus said to the man who had invited Him, "When you host a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or brothers or relatives or rich neighbors.
Otherwise, they may invite you in return,
and you will be repaid. 13 But when you host a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind, 14 and you will be blessed. Since they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

THE PARABLE OF THE BANQUET // MATTHEW 22:1–14

15 When one of those reclining with Him heard this, he said to Jesus, "Blessed is everyone who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God."
16 But Jesus replied, "A certain man prepared a great banquet and invited many guests. 17 When it was time for the banquet, he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.'
18 But one after another they all began to make excuses. The first one said, 'I have bought a field, and I need to go see it.
Please excuse me.'
19 Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out.
Please excuse me.'
20 Still another said, 'I have married a wife,
so I cannot come.'
21 The servant returned and reported all this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city, and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.'
22 'Sir,' the servant replied, 'what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.'
23 So the master told his servant, 'Go out to the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full. 24 For I tell you, not one of those men who were invited will taste my banquet.'"

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP // MATTHEW 8:18–22; LUKE 9:57–62; JOHN 6:59–66

25 Now large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and He turned and said to them, 26
"If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters—yes, even his own life—he cannot be My disciple. 27 And whoever does not carry his cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

28 Which of you, wishing to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost to see if he has the resources to complete it? 29 Otherwise, if he lays the foundation and is unable to finish the work, everyone who sees it will ridicule him, 30 saying, 'This man could not finish what he started to build.'

31 Or what king on his way to war with another king will not first sit down and consider whether he can engage with ten thousand men the one coming against him with twenty thousand? 32 And if he is unable, he will send a delegation while the other king is still far off, to ask for terms of peace.

33 In the same way, any one of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be My disciple.

GOOD SALT // MATTHEW 5:13–16; MARK 9:49–50

34 Salt is good, but if the salt loses its savor, with what will it be seasoned? 35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile, and it is thrown out.

He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

15

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Three lost things: a sheep, a coin and a son. The younger son blows his inheritance, ends up feeding pigs, and comes home rehearsing a speech. His father runs to him before he can finish. The older brother pouts outside the party, and the story ends without telling us if he ever came in.

THE PARABLE OF THE LOST SHEEP // MATTHEW 18:10–14

1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were gathering around to listen to Jesus. 2 So the Pharisees and scribes began to grumble: "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."

3 Then Jesus told them this parable: 4 "What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the pasture and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? 5 And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders, 6 comes home, and calls together his friends and neighbors to tell them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my lost sheep!' 7 I tell you that in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous ones who do not need to repent.

THE PARABLE OF THE LOST COIN

8 Or what woman who has ten silver coins and loses one of them does not light a lamp, sweep her house, and search carefully until she finds it? 9 And when she finds it, she calls together her friends and neighbors to say, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my lost coin.' 10 In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of God's angels over one sinner who repents."

THE PARABLE OF THE PRODIGAL SON // DEUTERONOMY 21:18–21

11 Then Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons. 12 The younger son said to him, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.

13 After a few days, the younger son got everything together and journeyed to a distant country, where he squandered his wealth in wild living.

14 After he had spent all he had, a severe famine swept through that country, and he began to be in need. 15 So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed the pigs. 16 He longed to fill his belly with the pods the pigs were eating, but no one would give him a thing.

17 Finally he came to his senses and said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have plenty of food, but here I am, starving to death! 18 I will get up and go back to my father and say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. 19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants."'

20 So he got up and went to his father. But while he was still in the distance, his father saw him and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him.

21 The son declared, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. 23 Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let us feast and celebrate. 24 For this son of mine was dead and is alive again! He was lost and is found!' So they began to celebrate.

25 Meanwhile the older son was in the field, and as he approached the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 So he called one of the servants and asked what was going on.

27 'Your brother has returned,' he said, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has him back safe and sound.'

28 The older son became angry and refused to go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him.

29 But he answered his father, 'Look, all these years I have served you and never disobeyed a commandment of yours. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. 30 But when this son of yours returns from squandering your wealth with prostitutes, you kill the fattened calf for him!'

31 'Son, you are always with me,' the father said, 'and all that is mine is yours. 32 But it was fitting to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'"

16

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

A dishonest manager gets praised for being shrewd, which confuses every reader ever. You cannot serve God and money. Then the rich man and Lazarus: one feasts, one begs, both die, and everything flips. The rich man begs for a warning to his brothers, and Abraham says they have Moses and the Prophets.

THE PARABLE OF THE SHREWD MANAGER

1 Jesus also said to His disciples, "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. 2 So he called him in to ask, 'What is this I hear about you? Turn in an account of your management, for you cannot be manager any longer.'

3 The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking away my position? I am too weak to dig and too ashamed to beg. 4 I know what I will do so that after my removal from management, people will welcome me into their homes.'

5 And he called in each one of his master's debtors. 'How much do you owe my master?' he asked the first.

6 'Five hundred fifty gallons of olive oil,' he answered.

'Take your bill,' said the manager, 'sit down quickly, and write two hundred seventy five.'

7 Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?'

'Six hundred bushels of wheat,' he replied.

'Take your bill and write four hundred eighty,' he told him.

8 The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the sons of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the sons of light. 9 I tell you, use worldly wealth to make friends for yourselves so that when it is gone, they will welcome you into eternal dwellings.

10 Whoever is faithful with very little will also be faithful with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. 11 So if you have not been faithful with worldly wealth, who will entrust you with true riches? 12 And if you have not been faithful with the belongings of another, who will give you belongings of your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

THE HEART NOTABLE JESUS SPEAKING

THE LAW AND THE PROPHETS

14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all of this and were scoffing at Jesus. 15 So He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is prized among men is detestable before God.

16 The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the gospel of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for a single stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.

18 Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and he who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS // JOHN 5:39–47

19 Now there was a rich man dressed in purple and fine linen, who lived each day in joyous splendor. 20 And a beggar named Lazarus lay at his gate, covered with sores 21 and longing to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table.
Even the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 One day the beggar died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. And the rich man also died and was buried. 23
In Hades, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham from afar, with Lazarus by his side.

24 So he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue. For I am in agony in this fire.'

25 But Abraham answered, 'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things. But now he is comforted here, while you are in agony. 26 And besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that even those who wish cannot cross from here to you, nor can anyone cross from there to us.'

27 'Then I beg you, father,' he said, 'send Lazarus to my father's house, 28 for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also end up in this place of torment.'

29 But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let your brothers listen
to them.'

30 'No, father Abraham,' he said, 'but if someone is sent to them from the dead,
they will repent.'

31 Then Abraham said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.'"

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

Do not cause others to stumble, forgive again and again, and faith as small as a mustard seed can move a tree. Ten lepers are healed, but only one comes back to say thank you, and he is a Samaritan. Jesus says His coming will be sudden, like the days of Noah and Lot.

TEMPTATIONS AND TRESPASSES // MATTHEW 18:6–9; MARK 9:42–48

1 Jesus said to His disciples, "It is inevitable that stumbling blocks will come, but woe to the one through whom they come! 2 It would be better for him to have a millstone hung around his neck and to be thrown into the sea than to cause one of these little ones to stumble.

3 Watch yourselves. If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.
4 Even if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times returns to say, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."

THE POWER OF FAITH // MATTHEW 17:19–20

5 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!"

6 And the Lord answered, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it will obey
you.

THE TEN LEPERS // 2 KINGS 5:1–14

11 While Jesus was on His way to Jerusalem, He was passing between Samaria and Galilee. 12 As He entered one of the villages, He was met by ten lepers.
They stood at a distance 13 and raised their voices, shouting, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

14 When Jesus saw them, He said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And as they were on their way, they were cleansed.

15 When one of them saw that he was healed, he came back, praising God in a loud voice. 16 He fell facedown at Jesus' feet in thanksgiving to Him—and he was a Samaritan.

17 "Were not all ten cleansed?" Jesus asked. "Where then are the other nine? 18 Was no one found except this foreigner to return and give glory to God?"

19 Then Jesus said to him, "Rise and go;
your faith has made you well!"

THE COMING OF THE KINGDOM // GENESIS 19:24–29

20 When asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, "The kingdom of God will not come with observable signs. 21 Nor will people say, 'Look, here it is,' or 'There it is.' For you see, the kingdom of God is in your midst."

22 Then He said to the disciples, "The time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it. 23 People will tell you, 'Look, there He is!' or 'Look, here He is!' Do not go out or chase after them. 24 For just as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other, so will be the Son of Man in His day. 25 But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

26 Just as it was in the days of Noah, so also will it be in the days of the Son of Man: 27 People were eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 It was the same in the days of Lot: People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building. 29 But on the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.

30 It will be just like that on the day the Son of Man is revealed. 31 On that day, let no one on the housetop come down to retrieve his possessions. Likewise, let no one in the field return for anything he has left behind. 32 Remember Lot's wife! 33
Whoever tries to save his life will lose it,
but whoever loses his life will preserve it.
34 I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed: one will be taken and the other left. 35 Two women will be grinding grain together: one will be taken and the other left." 36 [Two men will be in the field.

OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW NOTABLE JESUS SPEAKING

18

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

A widow wears down an unjust judge, so keep praying. A proud Pharisee and a humble tax collector pray, and the wrong one goes home forgiven. Jesus blesses the children. A rich ruler walks away sad, and a blind man by the road gets his sight back because he would not stop yelling.

THE PARABLE OF THE PERSISTENT WIDOW

1 Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray at all times and not lose heart: 2 "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected men. 3 And there was a widow in that town who kept appealing to him,
'Give me justice against my adversary.'
4 For a while he refused, but later he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear God nor respect men, 5 yet because this widow keeps pestering me, I will give her justice.
Otherwise, she will wear me out with her perpetual requests.'" 6 And the Lord said, "Listen to the words of the unjust judge. 7 Will not God bring about justice for His elect who cry out to Him day and night? Will He delay in helping them? 8 I tell you, He will promptly carry out justice on their behalf. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth?"

THE PHARISEE AND THE TAX COLLECTOR

9 To some who trusted in their own righteousness and viewed others with contempt, He also told this parable: 10 "Two men went up to the temple to pray. One was a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men—swindlers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector.
12 I fast twice a week and pay tithes of all that I acquire.'
13 But the tax collector stood at a distance, unwilling even to lift up his eyes to heaven. Instead, he beat his breast and said, 'God, have mercy on me, a sinner!' 14
I tell you, this man, rather than the Pharisee, went home justified. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

JESUS BLESSES THE CHILDREN // MATTHEW 19:13–15; MARK 10:13–16

15 Now people were even bringing their babies to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them. And when the disciples saw this, they rebuked those who brought
them.
16 But Jesus called the children to Him and said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them! For the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 17 Truly I tell you, anyone who does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."

THE RICH YOUNG RULER // MATTHEW 19:16–30; MARK 10:17–31

18 Then a certain ruler asked Him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
19 "Why do you call Me good?" Jesus replied. "No one is good except God
alone. 20 You know the commandments:
'Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not bear false witness, honor your father and mother.'"
21 "All these I have kept from my youth," he said.
22 On hearing this, Jesus told him, "You still lack one thing: Sell everything you own and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me."
23 But when the ruler heard this, he became very sad, because he was extremely wealthy.
24 Seeing the man's sadness, Jesus said,
"How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God! 25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."
26 Those who heard this asked, "Who then can be saved?"

27 But Jesus said, "What is impossible with man is possible with God."

28 "Look," said Peter, "we have left all we had to follow You."

THE THIRD PREDICTION OF THE PASSION // MATTHEW 20:17–19; MARK 10:32–34

31 Then Jesus took the Twelve aside and said to them, "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything the prophets have written about the Son of Man will be fulfilled. 32 He will be delivered over to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon. 33 They will flog Him and kill Him, and on the third day He will rise again."

34 But the disciples did not understand any of these things. The meaning was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend what He was saying.

JESUS HEALS A BLIND BEGGAR // MATTHEW 20:29–34; MARK 10:46–52

35 As Jesus drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting beside the road, begging. 36 When he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening.

37 "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by," they told him.

38 So he called out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

39 Those who led the way admonished him to be silent, but he cried out all the louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

40 Jesus stopped and directed that the man be brought to Him. When he had come near, Jesus asked him, 41 "What do you want Me to do for you?"

"Lord," he said, "let me see again."

42 "Receive your sight!" Jesus replied. "Your faith has healed you." 43 Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Zacchaeus is short, rich and hated, so he climbs a tree to see Jesus. Jesus invites Himself over, and Zacchaeus pays everyone back four times over. Jesus rides into Jerusalem on a colt, weeps over the city, and clears the money changers out of the temple.

JESUS AND ZACCHAEUS // NUMBERS 5:5–10

1 Then Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. 2 And there was a man named Zacchaeus, a chief tax collector, who was very wealthy. 3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, but could not see over the crowd because he was small in stature. 4 So he ran on ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see Him, since Jesus was about to pass that way.

5 When Jesus came to that place, He looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry down, for I must stay at your house today."

6 So Zacchaeus hurried down and welcomed Him joyfully. 7 And all who saw this began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to be the guest of a sinful man!"

8 But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, half of my possessions I give to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone, I will repay it fourfold."

9 Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

THE PARABLE OF THE TEN POUNDS // MATTHEW 25:14–30

birth went to a distant country to lay claim to his kingship and then return. 13 Beforehand, he called ten of his servants and gave them ten pounds. 'Conduct business with this until I return,' he said.

14 But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, 'We do not want this man to rule over us.'

15 When he returned from procuring his kingship, he summoned the servants to whom he had given the money, to find out what each one had earned.

16 The first servant came forward and said, 'Master, your pound has produced ten more pounds.'

17 His master replied, 'Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, you shall have authority over ten cities.'

18 The second servant came and said, 'Master, your pound has made five pounds.'

19 And to this one he said, 'You shall have authority over five cities.'

20 Then another servant came and said, 'Master, here is your pound, which I have laid away in a piece of cloth. 21 For I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh man. You withdraw what you did not deposit and reap what you did not sow.'

22 His master replied, 'You wicked servant, I will judge you by your own words. So you knew that I am a harsh man, withdrawing what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow? 23 Why then did you not deposit my money in the bank, and upon my return I could have collected it with interest?'

24 Then he told those standing by, 'Take the pound from him and give it to the one who has ten pounds.'

25 'Master,' they said, 'he already has ten!'

26 He replied, 'I tell you that everyone who has will be given more; but the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 27 And these enemies of mine who were unwilling for me to rule over them, bring them here and slay them in front of me.'"

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY // ZECHARIAH 9:9–13; MATTHEW 21:1–11; MARK 11:1–11; JOHN 12:12–19

28 After Jesus had said this, He went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

29 As He approached Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, He sent out two of His disciples, 30 saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. 31 If anyone asks, 'Why are you untying it?' tell him, 'The Lord needs it.'"

32 So those who were sent went out and found it just as Jesus had told them. 33 As they were untying the colt, its owners asked, "Why are you untying the colt?"

34 "The Lord needs it," they answered. 35 Then they led the colt to Jesus, threw their cloaks over it, and put Jesus on it.

36 As He rode along, the people spread their cloaks on the road. 37 And as He approached the descent from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of disciples began to praise God joyfully in a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen:

38 "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord!"

"Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

39 But some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples!"

40 "I tell you," He answered, "if they remain silent, the very stones will cry out."

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE // MATTHEW 21:12–17; MARK 11:15–19; JOHN 2:12–25

45 Then Jesus entered the temple courts and began to drive out those who were selling there. 46 He declared to them, "It is written: 'My house will be a house of prayer.' But you have made it 'a den of robbers.'"

47 Jesus was teaching at the temple every day, but the chief priests, scribes, and leaders of the people were intent on killing Him. 48 Yet they could not find a way to do so, because all the people hung on His words.

20

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

The leaders ask who gave Jesus His authority, and He answers with a question they are afraid to answer. The parable of the tenants hits too close to home. They try to trap Him on taxes and the resurrection, and He wins both rounds.

JESUS' AUTHORITY CHALLENGED // MATTHEW 21:23–27; MARK 11:27–33

1 One day as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courts and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and scribes, together with the elders, came up to Him. 2 "Tell us," they said, "by what authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority?"

3 "I will also ask you a question," Jesus replied. "Tell Me: 4 John's baptism—was it from heaven, or from men?"

5 They deliberated among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Why did you not believe him?' 6 But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are convinced that John was a prophet."

7 So they answered that they did not know where it was from.

8 And Jesus replied, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

THE PARABLE OF THE WICKED TENANTS // MATTHEW 21:33–46; MARK 12:1–12

9 Then He proceeded to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, rented it out to some tenants, and went away for a long time. 10 At harvest time, he sent a servant to the tenants to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat the servant and sent him away empty-handed.

11 So he sent another servant, but they beat him and treated him shamefully, sending him away empty-handed.

12 Then he sent a third, but they wounded him and threw him out.

13 'What shall I do?' asked the owner of the vineyard. 'I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him.'

14 But when the tenants saw the son, they discussed it among themselves and said, 'This is the heir. Let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others."

And when the people heard this, they said, "May such a thing never happen!"

17 But Jesus looked directly at them and said, "Then what is the meaning of that which is written:

'The stone the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone'?

18 Everyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed."

PAYING TAXES TO CAESAR // MATTHEW 22:15–22; MARK 12:13–17

19 When the scribes and chief priests realized that Jesus had spoken this parable against them, they sought to arrest Him that very hour. But they were afraid of the people.

20 So they watched Him closely and sent spies who pretended to be sincere. They were hoping to catch Him in His words in order to hand Him over to the rule and authority of the governor. 21 "Teacher," they inquired, "we know that You speak and teach correctly. You show no partiality but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. 22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

23 But Jesus saw through their duplicity and said to them, 24 "Show Me a Roman coin. Whose image and inscription are on it?"

"Caesar's," they answered.

25 So Jesus told them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."

26 And they were unable to trap Him in His words before the people. And amazed at His answer, they fell silent.

THE SADDUCEES AND THE RESURRECTION // MATTHEW 22:23–33; MARK 12:18–27

27 Then some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to question Him. 28 "Teacher," they said, "Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man is to marry his brother's widow and raise up offspring for him. 29 Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a wife but died childless. 30 Then the second 31 and the third married the widow, and in the same way all seven died, leaving no children. 32 And last of all, the woman died. 33 So then, in the resurrection, whose wife will she be? For all seven were married to her."

34 Jesus answered, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. 35 But those who are considered worthy to share in the age to come and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage. 36 In fact, they can no longer die, because they are like the angels. And since they are sons of the resurrection, they are sons of God.

37 Even Moses demonstrates that the dead are raised, in the passage about the burning bush. For he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' 38 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to Him all are alive."

39 Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, You have spoken well!" 40 And they did not dare to question Him any further.

WHOSE SON IS THE CHRIST? // MATTHEW 22:41–46; MARK 12:35–37

41 Then Jesus declared, "How can it be said that the Christ is the Son of David? 42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms:

'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand
43 until I make Your enemies
a footstool for Your feet."'

44 Thus David calls Him 'Lord.' So how can He be David's son?"

BEWARE OF THE SCRIBES // MARK 12:38–40

45 In the hearing of all the people, Jesus said to His disciples, 46 "Beware of the scribes. They like to walk around in long robes, and they love the greetings in the marketplaces, the chief seats in the synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets. 47 They defraud widows of their houses, and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will receive greater condemnation."

TEMPLE DESTRUCTION AND OTHER SIGNS //
MATTHEW 24:1–8; MARK 13:1–8

5 As some of the disciples were remarking how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and consecrated gifts, Jesus said, 6 "As for what you see here, the time will come when not one stone will be left down."

7 "Teacher," they asked, "when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?"

8 Jesus answered, "See to it that you are not deceived. For many will come in My those in the city get out, and let those in these are the days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written.

23 How miserable those days will be for pregnant and nursing mothers! For there will be great distress upon the land and

Judas makes a deal, and Jesus shares the Passover with His friends, giving them the bread and the cup. The disciples argue about who is greatest. Jesus is arrested with a kiss, and Peter denies Him three times. Then the rooster crows and Jesus looks right at him.

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS // MATTHEW 26:1–5; MARK 14:1–2; JOHN 11:45–57

1 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was approaching, 2 and the chief priests and scribes were looking for a way to put Jesus to death, for they feared the people.

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS // MATTHEW 26:14–16; MARK 14:10–11

3 Then Satan entered Judas Iscariot, who was one of the Twelve. 4 And Judas went to discuss with the chief priests and temple officers how he might betray Jesus to them. 5 They were delighted and agreed to give him money. 6 Judas consented, and began to look for an opportunity to betray Jesus to them in the absence of a crowd.

PREPARING THE PASSOVER // MATTHEW 26:17–19; MARK 14:12–16

7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb was to be sacrificed. 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

9 "Where do You want us to prepare it?" they asked.

10 He answered, "When you enter the city, a man carrying a jug of water will meet you. Follow him to the house he enters, 11 and say to the owner of that house, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?' 12 And he will show you a large upper room, already furnished. it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

17 After taking the cup, He gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves. 18 For I tell you that I will not drink of the fruit of the vine from now on until the kingdom of God comes."

19 And He took the bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body, given for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

20 In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you.

21 Look! The hand of My betrayer is with Mine on the table. 22 Indeed, the Son of Man will go as it has been determined, but woe to that man who betrays Him."

23 Then they began to question among themselves which of them was going to do this.

WHO IS THE GREATEST?

24 A dispute also arose among the disciples as to which of them should be considered the greatest. 25 So Jesus declared, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in authority over them call themselves benefactors. 26 But you shall not be like them. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who leads like the one who serves. 27 For who is greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines? But I am among you as one who serves.

28 You are the ones who have stood by Me in My trials. 29 And I bestow on you a kingdom, just as My Father has bestowed one on Me, 30 so that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

33 "Lord," said Peter, "I am ready to go with You even to prison and to death."

34 But Jesus replied, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me."

35 Then Jesus asked them, "When I sent you out without purse or bag or sandals, did you lack anything?"

"Nothing," they answered.

36 "Now, however," He told them, "the one with a purse should take it, and likewise a bag; and the one without a sword should sell his cloak and buy one. 37 For I tell you that this Scripture must be fulfilled in Me: 'And He was numbered with the transgressors.' For what is written about Me is reaching its fulfillment."

38 So they said, "Look, Lord, here are two swords."

"That is enough," He answered.

41 And He withdrew about a stone's throw beyond them, where He knelt down and prayed, 42 "Father, if You are willing, take this cup from Me. Yet not My will, but Yours be done."

43 [Then an angel from heaven appeared to Him and strengthened Him. 44 And in His anguish, He prayed more earnestly, and His sweat became like drops of blood falling to the ground.]

45 When Jesus rose from prayer and returned to the disciples, He found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow. 46 "Why are you sleeping?" He asked. "Get up and pray so that you will not enter into temptation."

THE BETRAYAL OF JESUS // MATTHEW 26:47–56; MARK 14:43–52; JOHN 18:1–14

47 While He was still speaking, a crowd arrived, led by the man called Judas, one of the Twelve. He approached Jesus to kiss Him. 48 But Jesus asked him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49 Those around Jesus saw what was about to happen and said, "Lord, should we strike with our swords?" 50 And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear.

51 But Jesus answered, "No more of this!" And He touched the man's ear and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, temple officers, and elders who had come for Him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against an outlaw? 53 Every day I was with you in the temple courts, and you did not lay a hand on Me. But this hour belongs to you and to the power of darkness."

PETER DENIES JESUS // MATTHEW 26:69–75; MARK 14:66–72; JOHN 18:15–18

54 Then they seized Jesus, led Him away, and took Him into the house of the high priest. And Peter followed at a distance.

55 When those present had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat down among them. 56 A servant girl saw him seated in the firelight and looked intently at him. "This man also was with Him," she said.

57 But Peter denied it. "Woman, I do not know Him," he said.

58 A short time later, someone else saw him and said, "You also are one of them."

But Peter said, "Man, I am not."

59 About an hour later, another man insisted, "Certainly this man was with Him, for he too is a Galilean."

60 "Man, I do not know what you are talking about," Peter replied.

And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed. 61 And the Lord turned and looked at Peter.

Then Peter remembered the word that the Lord had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times." 62 And he went outside and wept bitterly.

JESUS SPEAKING

JESUS BEFORE THE SANHEDRIN // MATTHEW 26:57–68; MARK 14:53–65; JOHN 18:19–24

66 At daybreak the council of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and scribes, met together. They led Jesus into their Sanhedrin and said, 67 "If You are the Christ, tell us."

Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe. 68 And if I ask you a question, you will not answer. 69 But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

70 So they all asked, "Are You then the Son of God?"

He replied, "You say that I am."

71 "Why do we need any more testimony?"
they declared. "We have heard it for ourselves from His own lips."

23

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

Pilate and Herod find nothing wrong with Jesus, but the crowd picks Barabbas. On the cross Jesus forgives His killers and promises a dying thief paradise. The sky goes dark and the curtain tears.

JESUS BEFORE PILATE // MATTHEW 27:11–14; JOHN 18:28–40

1 Then the whole council rose and led Jesus away to Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this man subverting our nation, forbidding payment of taxes to Caesar, and proclaiming Himself to be Christ, a King."

3 So Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

"You have said so," Jesus replied.

4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

5 But they kept insisting, "He stirs up the people all over Judea with His teaching.
He began in Galilee and has come all the way here."

JESUS BEFORE HEROD

6 When Pilate heard this, he asked if the man was a Galilean. 7 And learning that Jesus was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who himself was in Jerusalem at that time.

8 When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased. He had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had heard about Him and was hoping to see Him perform a miracle. 9 Herod questioned Jesus at great length, but He gave no answer.

10 Meanwhile, the chief priests and scribes stood there, vehemently accusing Him. 11
And even Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked Him. Dressing Him in a fine robe, they sent Him back to Pilate.

12 That day Herod and Pilate became friends; before this time they had been enemies.

THE CROWD CHOOSES BARABBAS // MATTHEW 27:15–23; MARK 15:6–11

13 Then Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, 14 and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined Him here in your presence and found Him not guilty of your charges against Him. 15 Neither has Herod, for he sent Him back to us. As you can see, He has done nothing deserving of death. 16 Therefore I will punish Him and release Him." 17 [Now Pilate was obligated to release to the people one prisoner at
the feast.]

18 But they all cried out in unison: "Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!" 19 (Barabbas had been imprisoned for an insurrection in the city, and for murder.)

20 Wanting to release Jesus, Pilate addressed them again, 21 but they kept shouting, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!"

22 A third time he said to them, "What evil has this man done? I have found in Him no offense worthy of death. So after I punish Him, I will release Him."

23 But they were insistent, demanding with loud voices for Jesus to be crucified. And their clamor prevailed. 24 So Pilate sentenced that their demand be met. 25 As they had requested, he released the one imprisoned for insurrection and murder, and he handed Jesus over to their will.

32 Two others, who were criminals, were also led away to be executed with Jesus.

33 When they came to the place called The Skull, they crucified Him there, along with the criminals, one on His right and the other on His left.

34 Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." And they divided up His garments by casting lots.

35 The people stood watching, and the rulers sneered at Him, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ of God, the Chosen One."

36 The soldiers also mocked Him and came up to offer Him sour wine. 37 "If You are the King of the Jews," they said, "save Yourself!"

38 Above Him was posted an inscription:

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 One of the criminals who hung there heaped abuse on Him. "Are You not the Christ?" he said. "Save Yourself and us!"

40 But the other one rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same judgment? 41 We are punished justly, for we are receiving what our actions deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong." 42 Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when You come into Your kingdom!"

50 Now there was a Council member named Joseph, a good and righteous man, 51 who had not consented to their decision or action. He was from the Judean town of Arimathea and was waiting for the kingdom of God. 52 He went to Pilate to ask for the body of Jesus. 53 Then he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and placed it in a tomb cut into the rock, where no one had yet been laid. 54 It was Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was beginning.

55 The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how His body was placed. 56 Then they returned to prepare spices and perfumes. And they rested on the Sabbath, according to the commandment.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU DIE?

Today in Paradise

LUKE 23:43 · 16:19 TO 31 · PHILIPPIANS 1:23 · 2 CORINTHIANS 5:8

WHAT JESUS SAID

To the thief on the cross: Truly I tell you, today you will be with Me in Paradise, 23:43. Earlier He told of a rich man and a beggar named Lazarus. Lazarus died and was carried by angels to Abraham's side; the rich man was in torment in Hades, with a great chasm between them, 16:22 to 26.

WHERE THE COMMA GOES

The oldest Greek copies have almost no punctuation. Almost every Bible reads: I tell you, today you will be with Me in Paradise. The Jehovah's Witnesses' New World Translation reads: I tell you today, You will be with me in Paradise, meaning later, at the resurrection. Best case for the usual reading: Jesus says truly I tell you many times in the Gospels, and never uses I tell you today as a set phrase anywhere else; in Mark 14:30 today belongs with what follows. Best case for the other: the words can be split that way.

STORY OR REAL EVENT?

The rich man and Lazarus is the only parable where a person is named, so some say it is a real event and shows what the afterlife is like. Others say it is a parable using pictures Jews already knew, and its point is riches, mercy and listening to Moses and the prophets, 16:29 to 31. Many say it can teach real things even as a parable.

THE THIEF

The man had no time to be baptized, join a church or do good works. He simply asked, Jesus, remember me, 23:42. Many see him as the clearest picture of being saved by grace through faith.

THE WORDS

Hades is the Greek word for the place of the dead, like Sheol in Hebrew. Paradise is a Persian word for a garden or park; Paul uses it for the third heaven, 2 Corinthians 12:2 to 4.

Between Death and the Resurrection

PHILIPPIANS 1:21 TO 23 · ECCLESIASTES 9:5 · JOHN 11:11 TO 14 · 1 CORINTHIANS 15:51 TO 53

WITH CHRIST RIGHT AWAY

Believers go to be with the Lord the moment they die, and get their new bodies at the resurrection. Paul says to depart and be with Christ is far better, Philippians 1:23, and to be away from the body is to be at home with the Lord, 2 Corinthians 5:8. Souls under the altar speak in Revelation 6:9 to 10. Most Protestants hold this view.

SOUL SLEEP

The dead are not aware of anything until the resurrection. The dead know nothing, Ecclesiastes 9:5. Jesus said Lazarus has fallen asleep, John 11:11. Seventh-day Adventists and Jehovah's Witnesses teach this. Martin Luther often spoke of the dead as sleeping, though scholars argue how far he meant it.

PURGATORY

The Catholic Church teaches that those who die in God's grace but are not yet fully made pure are cleansed before heaven. It points to prayer for the dead in 2 Maccabees 12:46 and to being saved but only as through fire, 1 Corinthians 3:15. It was taught at the Councils of Lyon in 1274 and Florence in 1439, and confirmed at Trent in 1563. Luther's 95 Theses in 1517 began as a protest against selling indulgences for souls in purgatory. The Orthodox pray for the dead but do not accept purgatory as Rome defines it.

WHAT ABOUT REINCARNATION?

Hinduism, Buddhism and many New Age teachers say we come back in new lives. The Bible says it is appointed for people to die once, and after that to face judgment, Hebrews 9:27.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Death is not the end. Jesus holds the keys of death and Hades, Revelation 1:18. The body will be raised, 1 Corinthians 15:52, and everyone will face judgment. For hell, see Is Hell Forever? in Revelation, p.2112.

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

The tomb is empty, and the apostles call it nonsense. Two followers walk to Emmaus with a stranger who turns out to be Jesus. He eats fish to prove He is no ghost, then goes up into heaven.

THE RESURRECTION // MATTHEW 28:1–10; MARK 16:1–8; JOHN 20:1–9

1 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women came to the tomb, bringing the spices they had prepared. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were puzzling over this, suddenly two men in radiant apparel stood beside them.

5 As the women bowed their faces to the ground in terror, the two men asked them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? 6 He is not here; He has risen! Remember how He told you while He was still in Galilee: 7 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.'"

8 Then they remembered His words. 9 And when they returned from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. 11 But their words seemed like nonsense to them, and they did not believe the women.

12 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. And after bending down and seeing only the linen cloths, he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

THE ROAD TO EMMAUS // MARK 16:12–13

13 That same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15 And as they talked and deliberated, Jesus Himself came up and walked along with them. 16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing Him.

17 He asked them, "What are you discussing so intently as you walk along?"

They stood still, with sadness on their faces. 18 One of them, named Cleopas, asked Him, "Are You the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in recent days?"

19 "What things?" He asked.

"The events involving Jesus of Nazareth," they answered. "This man was a prophet, powerful in speech and action before God and all the people. 20 Our chief priests and rulers delivered Him up to the sentence of death, and they crucified Him. 21 But we were hoping He was the One who would redeem Israel. And besides all this, it is the third day since these things took place.

22 Furthermore, some of our women astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, 23 but they did not find His body. They came and told us they had seen a vision of angels, who said that Jesus was alive. 24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had described. But Him they did not see."

25 Then Jesus said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and then to enter His glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He explained to them what was written in all the Scriptures about Himself.

28 As they approached the village where they were headed, He seemed to be going farther. 29 But they pleaded with Him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over."

So He went in to stay with them. 30 While He was reclining at the table with them, He took bread, spoke a blessing and broke it, and gave it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened and they recognized Jesus—and He disappeared from their sight.

32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us as He spoke with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 And they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem.

There they found the Eleven and those with them, gathered together 34 and saying, "The Lord has indeed risen and has appeared to Simon!"

35 Then the two told what had happened on the road, and how they had recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

JESUS APPEARS TO THE DISCIPLES // JOHN 20:19–23; 1 JOHN 1:1–4

36 While they were describing these events, Jesus Himself stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." 37 But they were startled and frightened, thinking they had seen a spirit.

38 "Why are you troubled," Jesus asked, "and why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39 Look at My hands and My feet. It is I Myself. Touch Me and see—for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have." 40 And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and feet.

41 While they were still in disbelief because of their joy and amazement, He asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" 42 So they gave Him a piece of broiled fish, 43 and He took it and ate it in front of them.

44 Jesus said to them, "These are the words I spoke to you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms." 45 Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

46 And He told them, "This is what is written: The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, 47 and in His name repentance and forgiveness of sins will be proclaimed to all nations, beginning in Jerusalem. 48 You are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you. But remain in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

So that you may believe

AUTHOR	John, the son of Zebedee, a fisherman and one of the Twelve, who calls himself the disciple whom Jesus loved 21:20 to 24. Irenaeus named him as the author about AD 180. Many scholars today think a close follower of John wrote it down.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	About AD 27 to 30. John mentions three Passovers, which is how we know Jesus' ministry lasted about three years.
DATE WRITTEN	Most say about AD 85 to 95, making it the last Gospel written. A few scholars say before AD 70, because 5:2 says the pool is there, not was there.
WRITTEN TO	Believers and seekers everywhere. Church tradition says John wrote it in Ephesus, a big city in what is now Turkey.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	John survives in thousands of Greek manuscripts. It has more very early papyrus copies than any other Gospel.
KEY VERSE	John 20:31. These are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name.

THE OLDEST PIECE OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

This scrap is Papyrus 52, about the size of a credit card. The front holds John 18:31 to 33, where Pilate tells the leaders to judge Jesus themselves. The back holds John 18:37 to 38, where Pilate asks, What is truth? It was bought in Egypt in 1920 and is kept in the John Rylands Library in Manchester, England. Most experts date it by the handwriting to about AD 125 to 175, though a few argue it could be later. That makes it the oldest known piece of any New Testament book. Papyrus 66, from about AD 200, holds most of John, and Papyrus 75 holds most of Luke and John. Both match the John we read today very closely.

Historical Setting

Rome rules, the temple still stands in Jerusalem, and the Jewish feasts set the calendar. John builds his story around those feasts: Passover, Tabernacles and Dedication. At each one Jesus shows He is what the feast was pointing to. Matthew, Mark and Luke had already been written. So John, now an old man, does not repeat most of their stories. He tells new ones and goes deeper into who Jesus really is.

What Was Going Wrong

THE LIGHT CAME AND PEOPLE HID. Light came into the world, but people loved the darkness because what they did was evil 3:19.
RULES OVER PEOPLE. The leaders were angrier about a healing on the Sabbath than happy that a man could walk 5:16 and a blind man could see 9:16.
SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES BUT MISSING THE POINT. They studied the Scriptures every day but would not come to the One the Scriptures were about 5:39 to 40.
AFRAID OF WHAT PEOPLE THINK. Even some leaders believed but kept quiet, because they loved praise from men more than praise from God 12:42 to 43.
FAMILY DID NOT BELIEVE. Even His own brothers did not believe in Him at first 7:5.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Jesus is God in the flesh. John says it in the very first verse, which echoes Genesis 1:1, and spends the whole book proving it. He picks seven signs, like water into wine and a dead man walking out of his grave. He records Jesus saying I AM, the name God gave Moses at the burning bush. Then Jesus lays down His life on the cross and takes it up again three days later. John tells you exactly why he wrote it: so you will believe and have life.

Where Jesus Shows Up

JOHN 1:29 Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. Points back to the Passover lamb, Exodus 12, and Isaiah 53:7.

JOHN 3:14 TO 15 As Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, the Son of Man must be lifted up. Points to Numbers 21:8 to 9.

JOHN 19:24 They divided My garments among them and cast lots for My clothing. Fulfills Psalm 22:18.

JOHN 19:36 Not one of His bones will be broken. Fulfills Exodus 12:46 and Psalm 34:20.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

SEVEN SIGNS
Water into wine 2:1 to 11, the official's son 4:46 to 54, the man at Bethesda 5:1 to 15, feeding five thousand 6:1 to 14, walking on water 6:16 to 21, the man born blind 9, and raising Lazarus 11. John calls them signs because each one points to something bigger.

SEVEN I AM SAYINGS
I am the bread of life, the light of the world, the door, the good shepherd, the resurrection and the life, the way, the truth and the life, and the true vine. Plus Before Abraham was born, I am 8:58, which uses the name God gave Moses in Exodus 3:14. When Jesus says I am He at His arrest, the soldiers fall backward 18:6.

ALMOST ALL NEW
About 90 percent of John is not in the other three Gospels. No John means no Nicodemus, no woman at the well, no Lazarus and no doubting Thomas.

Did Anybody Listen?

Thomas, the biggest doubter in the room, ended up saying My Lord and my God, and tradition says he carried the message to India. John outlived the other apostles and taught Polycarp, who taught Irenaeus. And John 3:16 has been memorized in more languages than almost any sentence ever written.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES MESSIANIC FORESHADOW

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

John does not start in Bethlehem. He starts before time began: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was God. Then the Word becomes a man and moves into the neighborhood. John the Baptist points and says, Look, the Lamb of God. Andrew brings his brother Peter, and Nathanael asks if anything good can come from Nazareth.

THE BEGINNING // GENESIS 1:1–2; HEBREWS 11:1–3

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was
God. 2 He was with God in the beginning. 3 Through Him all things were made, and without Him nothing was made that has been made. 4 In Him was life, and that life was the light of men. 5 The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

THE WITNESS OF JOHN

6 There came a man who was sent from God. His name was John. 7 He came as a witness to testify about the Light, so that through him everyone might believe. 8 He himself was not the Light, but he came to testify about the Light.

9 The true Light, who gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and though the world was made through Him, the world did not recognize Him. 11 He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him. 12 But to all who did receive Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God— 13 children born not of blood, nor of the desire or will of man, but born of God.

THE WORD BECAME FLESH // PSALM 84:1–12

14 The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us. We have seen His glory, the glory of the one and only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

15 John testified concerning Him. He cried out, saying, "This is He of whom I said,
'He who comes after me has surpassed me because He was before me.'"

16 From His fullness we have all received grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is Himself God and is at the Father's side, has made Him known.

THE BIG QUESTION

IS JESUS GOD?

The Word Was God

JOHN 1:1 TO 18 · 5:18 · 8:58 TO 59 · 10:30 TO 33 · 20:28

WHAT JOHN SAYS

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God, 1:1. The Word became flesh, 1:14. At the end, Thomas falls before the risen Jesus and says, My Lord and my God, 20:28, and Jesus accepts it. John's whole book sits between those two verses.

WHAT JESUS SAID

Before Abraham was born, I am, 8:58. God gave His name to Moses as I AM, Exodus 3:14, and the crowd picked up stones to kill Him, 8:59. They also wanted to kill Him for making Himself equal with God, 5:18, and for saying, I and the Father are one, 10:30 to 33.

THE REST OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

In Christ all the fullness of God lives in bodily form, Colossians 2:9. Our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, Titus 2:13. The Father says to the Son, Your throne, O God, endures forever, Hebrews 1:8. All things were created through Him, John 1:3 and Colossians 1:16, and only God creates. Isaiah 43:11 says apart from Me there is no savior.

THE EARLY CHURCH

About AD 110 Ignatius of Antioch wrote of our God, Jesus the Christ (Ephesians 18). About AD 112 the Roman governor

JN 1:18 [TEXT] The oldest copies of John, like Papyrus 66 and Papyrus 75, say the only begotten God. Many later manuscripts and the KJV say the only begotten Son. This Bible follows the oldest copies: the one and only Son, who is Himself God. Either way John is saying Jesus is God and shows us the Father.

Pliny reported that Christians sang hymns to Christ as to a god (Letters 10.96).

ARIUS AND NICAEA

About AD 318 Arius, a priest in Alexandria, taught that the Son was the first and greatest thing God made: there was when He was not. In AD 325 about 300 bishops met at Nicaea and said the Son is of the same being as the Father, true God from true God, begotten, not made. Athanasius spent his life defending it and was exiled five times.

A God, or God?

JOHN 1:1 · 1:18 · 14:28 · PHILIPPIANS 2:5 TO 8 · MARK 13:32

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

Their New World Translation, 1950, says the Word was a god, because Greek has no the before God at the end of 1:1. Most Greek scholars answer that a noun put first for emphasis often has no the and can still mean the true God, or describe what the Word is: what God was, the Word was (E. C. Colwell, 1933; Philip Harner, 1973). John also uses God with no the for the Father in 1:6, 1:12 and 1:18.

ONENESS PENTECOSTALS

Jesus is fully God, and Father, Son and Spirit are names or roles of the one God, not three persons. Trinitarians answer that the Word was with God, 1:1, and that Jesus prays to the Father, John 17.

LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Jesus is divine, but He is a separate being from the Father, the firstborn spirit child of God.

ISLAM

Jesus, Isa, is a great prophet born of a virgin, but not God and not God's son, Quran 4:171 and 5:72.

JUDAISM

God is one and is not a man. Jesus was a Jewish teacher, not God.

THE HARD VERSES

The Father is greater than I, 14:28. Not even the Son knows the day or hour, Mark 13:32. Trinitarians say Jesus said these as a man, having taken the form of a servant, Philippians 2:6 to 8. Others say they show He is less than God.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Jesus claimed a closeness to the Father no prophet ever claimed. His own question is still the question: Who do you say I am? Matthew 16:15. See also The Trinity in Matthew, p.1602.

THE MISSION OF JOHN THE BAPTIST // ISAIAH 40:1–5; MATTHEW 3:1–12; MARK 1:1–8; LUKE 3:1–20

19 And this was John's testimony when the Jews of Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?" 20 He did not refuse to confess, but openly declared, "I am not the Christ."

21 "Then who are you?" they inquired. "Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

He answered, "No."

22 So they said to him, "Who are you? We need an answer for those who sent us.
What do you say about yourself?"

23 John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet:

"I am a voice of one calling in the wilderness,
'Make straight the way for the Lord.'"

24 Then the Pharisees who had been sent 25 asked him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

26 "I baptize with water," John replied, "but among you stands One you do not know.
27 He is the One who comes after me, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie."

28 All this happened at Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

JESUS THE LAMB OF GOD // MATTHEW 3:13–17; MARK 1:9–11; LUKE 3:21–22

32 Then John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove and resting on Him. 33 I myself did not know Him, but the One who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit descend and rest is He who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' 34 I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God."

THE FIRST DISCIPLES // MATTHEW 4:18–22; MARK 1:16–20; LUKE 5:1–11

35 The next day John was there again with two of his disciples. 36 When he saw Jesus walking by, he said, "Look, the Lamb of God!" 37 And when the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus.

38 Jesus turned and saw them following. "What do you want?" He asked.

They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which means Teacher), "where are You staying?"

39 "Come and see," He replied. So they went and saw where He was staying, and spent that day with Him. It was about the tenth hour.

40 Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard John's testimony and followed Jesus. 41 He first found his brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated as Christ).

42 Andrew brought him to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which is translated as Peter).

JESUS CALLS PHILIP AND NATHANAEL

43 The next day Jesus decided to set out for Galilee. Finding Philip, He told him, "Follow Me." 44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the same town as Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the One Moses wrote about in the Law, the One the prophets foretold—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

46 "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" Nathanael asked.

"Come and see," said Philip.

47 When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, He said of him, "Here is a true Israelite, in whom there is no deceit."

48 "How do You know me?" Nathanael asked.

Jesus replied, "Before Philip called you, I saw you under the fig tree."

49 "Rabbi," Nathanael answered, "You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"

50 Jesus said to him, "Do you believe just because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." 51 Then He declared, "Truly, truly, I tell you, you will all see heaven open and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Jesus goes to a wedding, and the wine runs out, which in that culture was a party disaster. His mother tells the servants, Do whatever He tells you. Six stone jars of water become the best wine of the night. Then Jesus makes a whip and clears the money changers out of His Father's house.

been invited to the wedding. 3 When the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to Him, "They have no more wine."

4 "Woman, what is that to you and to Me?" Jesus replied. "My hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you."

6 Now six stone water jars had been set there for the Jewish rites of purification. Each could hold from twenty to thirty gallons. 7 Jesus told the servants, "Fill the jars with water."

So they filled them to the brim.

8 "Now draw some out," He said, "and take it to the master of the banquet."

They did so, 9 and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not know where it was from, but the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside 10 and said, "Everyone serves the fine wine first, and then the cheap wine after the guests are drunk. But you have saved the fine wine until now!"

11 Jesus performed this, the first of His signs, at Cana in Galilee. He thus revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE // MATTHEW 21:12–17; MARK 11:15–19; LUKE 19:45–48

12 After this, He went down to Capernaum with His mother and brothers and His disciples, and they stayed there a few days.

13 When the Jewish Passover was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 In the temple courts He found men selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and money changers seated at their tables. 15 So He made a whip out of cords and drove all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle. He poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. 16 To those selling doves He said, "Get these out of here! How dare you turn My Father's house into a marketplace!"

17 His disciples remembered that it is written: "Zeal for Your house will consume Me."

18 On account of this, the Jews demanded, "What sign can You show us to prove Your authority to do these things?"

19 Jesus answered, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up again."

20 "This temple took forty-six years to build," the Jews replied, "and You are going to raise it up in three days?"

21 But Jesus was speaking about the temple of His body. 22 After He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this. Then they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

23 While He was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many people saw the signs He was doing and believed in His name. 24 But Jesus did not entrust Himself to them, for He knew them all. 25 He did not need any testimony about man, for He knew what was in a man.

Nicodemus, a top religious teacher, visits Jesus at night so nobody will see him. Jesus tells him he must be born again, and Nicodemus asks how a grown man climbs back inside his mother. 3 Jesus replied, "Truly, truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again."

4 "How can a man be born when he is old?" Nicodemus asked. "Can he enter his mother's womb a second time to be born?"

5 Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit. 6 Flesh is born of flesh, but spirit is born of the Spirit. 7 Do not be amazed that I said, 'You must be born again.' 8 The wind blows where it wishes. You hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

9 "How can this be?" Nicodemus asked.

10 "You are Israel's teacher," said Jesus, "and you do not understand these things? 11 Truly, truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, and yet you people do not accept our testimony.

12 If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? 13 No one has ascended into heaven except the One who descended from heaven—the Son of Man. 14 Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, 15 that everyone who believes in Him may have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that everyone who believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. 17 For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him. 18 Whoever believes in Him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.

19 And this is the verdict: The Light has come into the world, but men loved the darkness rather than the Light because their deeds were evil. 20 Everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come into the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. 21 But whoever practices the truth comes into the Light, so that it may be seen clearly that what he has done has been accomplished in God."

JOHN'S TESTIMONY ABOUT JESUS

22 After this, Jesus and His disciples went into the Judean countryside, where He spent some time with them and baptized.

23 Now John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because the water was plentiful there, and people kept coming to be baptized. 24 (For John had not yet been thrown into prison.)

25 Then a dispute arose between John's disciples and a certain Jew over the issue of ceremonial washing. 26 So John's disciples came to him and said, "Look, Rabbi, the One who was with you beyond the Jordan, the One you testified about—He is baptizing, and everyone is going to Him."

27 John replied, "A man can receive only what is given him from heaven. 28 You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ, but am sent ahead of Him.' 29 The bride belongs to the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom stands and listens for him, and is overjoyed to hear the bridegroom's voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete. 30 He must increase; I must decrease.

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus takes the road through Samaria, which most Jews avoided, and sits by Jacob's well at noon. He asks a Samaritan woman for a drink, then tells her everything she ever did, including five husbands. She runs to tell the whole town. Then Jesus heals an official's son from twenty miles away without even going there.

JESUS AND THE SAMARITAN WOMAN

1 When Jesus realized that the Pharisees were aware He was gaining and baptizing more disciples than John 2 (although it was not Jesus who baptized, but His disciples), 3 He left Judea and returned to Galilee.

4 Now He had to pass through Samaria. 5
So He came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. 6 Since Jacob's well was there, Jesus, weary from His journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7 When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink." 8 (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

9 "You are a Jew," said the woman. "How can You ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered, "If you knew the gift of God and who is asking you for a drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

11 "Sir," the woman replied, "You have nothing to draw with and the well is deep.
Where then will You get this living water?
12 Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock?"

13 Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. 14 But whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a fount of water springing up to eternal life."

15 The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water so that I will not get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water."

16 Jesus told her, "Go, call your husband and come back."

17 "I have no husband," the woman replied.

Jesus said to her, "You are correct to say that you have no husband. 18 In fact, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. You have spoken truthfully."

19 "Sir," the woman said, "I see that You are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews say that the place where one must worship is in Jerusalem."

21 "Believe Me, woman," Jesus replied, "a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. 22 You worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. 23 But a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth, for the Father is seeking such as these to worship Him. 24 God is Spirit, and His worshipers must worship Him in spirit and in truth."

25 The woman said, "I know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When He comes, He will explain everything to us."

26 Jesus answered, "I who speak to you am He."

were surprised that He was speaking with

JACOB'S WELL

JOHN 4:5 TO 42 · GENESIS 33:18 TO 20

Jacob's Well in the crypt of the church at Balata, Nablus.

WHAT IT IS

A deep well cut down through rock, at the foot of Mount Gerizim. Jews, Samaritans, Christians and Muslims have all called it Jacob's well for many centuries.

HOW OLD IT IS

No one can date the digging of the well itself. Christian pilgrims were already visiting it by AD 333, and a church was built over it in the 300s. Jacob lived about 1,800 years before Jesus, and Genesis 33:19 says he bought land right here near Shechem.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

It was never lost. It sits in the village of Balata, at the edge of the city of Nablus, next to the ruins of ancient Shechem. Churches over it were destroyed and rebuilt several times, and the Greek Orthodox church there today was finished in 2007.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In the crypt under the Church of Saint Photini in Nablus. Saint Photini is the name tradition gave the Samaritan woman. Visitors can still pull up water from the well.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

The woman says the well is deep 4:11, and it is, more than 100 feet. When she points to this mountain 4:20, Mount Gerizim, where the Samaritans worshiped, rises right above the well. The details fit the place.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing written on the well says Jacob dug it. The link comes from very old tradition and from how well it matches John's story.

a woman. But no one asked Him, "What do You want from her?" or "Why are You talking with her?"

28 Then the woman left her water jar, went back into the town, and said to the people, 29 "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Christ?" 30 So they left the town and made their way toward Jesus.

31 Meanwhile the disciples urged Him, "Rabbi, eat something."

32 But He told them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about."

33 So the disciples asked one another, "Could someone have brought Him food?"

34 Jesus explained, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to finish His work. 35 Do you not say, 'There are still four months until the harvest'? I tell you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are ripe for harvest.

36 Already the reaper draws his wages and gathers a crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may rejoice together. 37 For in this case the saying 'One sows and another reaps' is true. 38 I sent you to reap what you have not worked for; others have done the hard work, and now you have taken up their labor."

MANY SAMARITANS BELIEVE

39 Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in Jesus because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I ever did." 40 So when the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them, and He stayed two days.

41 And many more believed because of His message. 42 They said to the woman, "We now believe not only because of your words; we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man truly is the Savior of the world."

JESUS HEALS THE OFFICIAL'S SON // MATTHEW 8:5–13; LUKE 7:1–10

43 After two days, Jesus left for Galilee. 44 Now He Himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own hometown. 45 Yet when He arrived, the Galileans welcomed Him. They had seen all the great things He had done in Jerusalem at the feast, for they had gone there as well.

46 So once again He came to Cana in Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. And there was a royal official whose son lay sick at Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged Him to come down and heal his son, who was about to die.

48 Jesus said to him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will never believe."

49 "Sir," the official said, "come down before my child dies."

50 "Go," said Jesus. "Your son will live."

The man took Jesus at His word and departed. 51 And while he was still on the way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was alive.

52 So he inquired as to the hour when his son had recovered, and they told him, "The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour."

53 Then the father realized that this was the very hour in which Jesus had told him, "Your son will live." And he and all his household believed.

54 This was now the second sign that Jesus performed after coming from Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

At the Pool of Bethesda a man has been sick for thirty eight years. Jesus asks, Do you want to get well? He says Get up, and the man walks off carrying his mat. The leaders are not happy for him. They are upset that he carried a mat on the Sabbath. Jesus says He works just like His Father works.

THE POOL OF BETHESDA

1 Some time later there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate a pool with five covered colonnades, which in Hebrew is called Bethesda. 3 On these walkways lay a great number of the sick, the blind, the lame, and the paralyzed. [awaiting the moving of the waters.] 4 [For from time to time an angel descended into the pool and stirred the water. As soon as it was stirred, the first to enter the pool would be healed of his disease.]

5 One man there had been an invalid for thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lying there and realized that he had spent a long time in this condition, He asked him, "Do you want to get well?"

THE POOL OF BETHESDA

JOHN 5:1 TO 15

Ruins at the Pool of Bethesda, beside the Church of Saint Anne in Jerusalem.

WHAT IT IS

Two large stone pools with a thick wall between them, near what was the Sheep Gate of Jerusalem. Porches with columns once ran around the four sides and across the middle wall. Four sides plus the middle make five, just as John 5:2 says.

HOW OLD IT IS

The northern pool was dug as a water tank about 800 years before Jesus. The southern pool was added about 200 BC. Both were in use in the time of Jesus. After AD 135 the Romans built a healing shrine there, and later Christians built churches over it.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Conrad Schick, a German builder and explorer, found part of it in 1888. Much more was dug up from the 1950s on by the White Fathers, a Catholic order who care for the site.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

On the grounds of the Church of Saint Anne, inside Jerusalem's Old City near the Lions' Gate. You can walk the ruins and look down into the pools.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

For a long time some scholars said the five porches were just a symbol, maybe for the five books of Moses. The digging showed a real pool with five porches, right where John put it.

WHAT IS STILL DEBATED

Some think the southern pool, with its wide steps, was a place where people washed to be clean before going to the temple. Others think sick people gathered there hoping to be healed, as verse 7 says. It may have been both.

stirred. While I am on my way, someone else goes in before me."

8 Then Jesus told him, "Get up, pick up your mat, and walk."

9 Immediately the man was made well, and he picked up his mat and began to walk.

Now this happened on the Sabbath day, 10 so the Jews said to the man who had been healed, "This is the Sabbath! It is unlawful for you to carry your mat."

11 But he answered, "The man who made me well told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

12 "Who is this man who told you to pick it up and walk?" they asked.

13 But the man who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away while the crowd was there.

14 Afterward, Jesus found the man at the temple and said to him, "See, you have been made well. Stop sinning, or something worse may happen to you."

15 And the man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

THE FATHER AND THE SON

16 Now because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jews began to persecute Him. 17 But Jesus answered them, "To this very day My Father is at His work, and I too am working."

18 Because of this, the Jews tried all the harder to kill Him. Not only was He breaking the Sabbath, but He was even calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.

19 So Jesus replied, "Truly, truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing by Himself, unless He sees the Father doing it. For whatever the Father does, the Son also does. 20 The Father loves the Son and shows Him all He does. And to your amazement, He will show Him even greater works than these.
21 For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom He wishes.

22 Furthermore, the Father judges no one,
but has assigned all judgment to the Son, 23 so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

24 Truly, truly, I tell you, whoever hears My word and believes Him who sent Me has eternal life and will not come under judgment. Indeed, he has crossed over from death to life.

25 Truly, truly, I tell you, the hour is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. 26 For as the Father has life in Himself, so also He has granted the Son to have life in Himself. 27
And He has given Him authority to execute judgment, because He is the Son of Man.

28 Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear His voice 29 and come out—those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment.

30 I can do nothing by Myself; I judge only as I hear. And My judgment is just, because I do not seek My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me.

TESTIMONIES ABOUT JESUS

31 If I testify about Myself, My testimony is not valid. 32 There is another who testifies about Me, and I know that His testimony about Me is valid.

33 You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. 34 Even though I do not accept human testimony, I say these things so that you may be saved.

35 John was a lamp that burned and gave light, and you were willing for a season to bask in his light. 36 But I have testimony more substantial than that of John. For the works that the Father has given Me to accomplish—the very works I am doing—testify about Me that the Father has sent Me. 37 And the Father who sent Me has Himself testified about Me. You have never heard His voice nor seen His form, 38 nor does His word abide in you, because you do not believe the One He sent.

THE WITNESS OF SCRIPTURE // LUKE 16:19–31

39 You pore over the Scriptures because you presume that by them you possess eternal life. These are the very words that testify about Me, 40 yet you refuse to come to Me to have life.

41 I do not accept glory from men, 42 but I know you, that you do not have the love of God within you. 43 I have come in My Father's name, and you have not received Me; but if someone else comes in his own name, you will receive him. 44 How can you believe if you accept glory from one another, yet do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father. Your accuser is Moses, in whom you have put your hope. 46 If you had believed Moses, you would believe

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

A boy's lunch of five loaves and two fish feeds five thousand men, and the crowd wants to crown Jesus king. That night He walks on the water. The next day He says, I am the bread of life, and eat My flesh. Many followers walk away. Jesus asks the Twelve if they will leave too, and Peter says, To whom would we go?

THE FEEDING OF THE FIVE THOUSAND // MATTHEW 14:13–21; MARK 6:30–44; LUKE 9:10–17

1 After this, Jesus crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias). 2 A large crowd followed Him because they saw the signs He was performing on the sick. 3 Then Jesus went up on the mountain and sat down with His disciples.

4 Now the Jewish Feast of the Passover was near. 5 When Jesus looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward Him, He said to Philip, "Where can we buy bread for these people to eat?" 6 But He was asking this to test him, for He knew what He was about to do.

7 Philip answered, "Half a year's wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to have a small piece."

8 One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, 9 "Here is a boy with five barley loaves and two small fish. But what difference will these make among so many?"

10 "Have the people sit down," Jesus said. Now there was plenty of grass in that place, so the men sat down, about five thousand of them.

11 Then Jesus took the loaves and the fish, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted.

12 And when everyone was full, He said to His disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

13 So they collected them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

14 When the people saw the sign that Jesus had performed, they began to say, "Truly this is the Prophet who is to come into the world."

15 Then Jesus, realizing that they were about to come and make Him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by Himself.

JESUS WALKS ON WATER // MATTHEW 14:22–33; MARK 6:45–52

16 When evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, 17 got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was already dark, and Jesus had not yet gone out to them. 18 A strong wind was blowing, and the sea grew agitated.

19 When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the sea—and they were terrified. 20 But Jesus spoke up: "It is I; do not be afraid." 21 Then they were willing to take Him into the boat, and at once the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

JESUS THE BREAD OF LIFE

22 The next day, the crowd that had remained on the other side of the sea realized that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not boarded it with His disciples, but they had gone away alone. 23 However, some boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. 24 So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum to look for Him. 25 When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they asked Him, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"

26 Jesus replied, "Truly, truly, I tell you, it is not because you saw these signs that you are looking for Me, but because you ate the loaves and had your fill. 27 Do not work for food that perishes, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on Him God the Father has placed His seal of approval."

28 Then they inquired, "What must we do to perform the works of God?"

29 Jesus replied, "The work of God is this: to believe in the One He has sent."

30 So they asked Him, "What sign then will You perform, so that we may see it and believe You? What will You do? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

32 Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is My Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. 33 For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

34 "Sir," they said, "give us this bread at all times."

35 Jesus answered, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me will never hunger, and whoever believes in Me will never thirst. 36 But as I stated, you have seen Me and still you do not believe.

37 Everyone the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will never drive away. 38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but to do the will of Him who sent Me.

39 And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that I shall lose none of those He has given Me, but raise them up at the last day. 40 For it is My Father's will that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in Him shall have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day."

41 At this, the Jews began to grumble about Jesus because He had said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." 42 They were asking, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then can He say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

43 "Stop grumbling among yourselves," Jesus replied. 44 "No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day. 45 It is written in the Prophets: 'And they will all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard the Father and learned from Him comes to Me— 46 not that anyone has seen the Father except the One who is from God; only He has seen the Father.

47 Truly, truly, I tell you, he who believes has eternal life. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, yet they died. 50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that anyone may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And this bread, which I will give for the life of the world, is My flesh."

52 At this, the Jews began to argue among themselves, "How can this man give us His flesh to eat?"

53 So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh and drink the blood of the Son of Man, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For My flesh is real food, and My blood is real drink.

56 Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me, and I in him. 57 Just as the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on Me will live because of Me. 58 This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your fathers, who ate the manna and died, the one who eats this bread will live forever."

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Even Jesus' own brothers do not believe in Him yet. He goes to the Feast of Tabernacles quietly, then teaches openly in the temple. People argue about whether He is the Christ. On the last day He shouts, If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me. The temple guards come back without Him because no one ever talked like this.

JESUS TEACHES AT THE FEAST

1 After this, Jesus traveled throughout Galilee. He did not want to travel in Judea, because the Jews there were trying to kill Him. 2 However, the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near. 3 So Jesus' brothers said to Him, "Leave here and go to Judea, so that Your disciples there may see the works You are doing. 4 For no one who wants to be known publicly acts in secret. Since You are doing these things, show Yourself to the world." 5 For even His own brothers did not believe in Him.

6 Therefore Jesus told them, "Although your time is always at hand, My time has not yet come. 7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me, because I testify that its works are evil. 8 Go up to the feast on your own. I am not going up to this feast, because My time has not yet come."

9 Having said this, Jesus remained in Galilee. 10 But after His brothers had gone up to the feast, He also went—not publicly, but in secret.

11 So the Jews were looking for Him at the feast and asking, "Where is He?"

12 Many in the crowds were whispering about Him. Some said, "He is a good man."

But others replied, "No, He deceives the people."

13 Yet no one would speak publicly about Him for fear of the Jews.

14 About halfway through the feast, Jesus went up to the temple courts and began to teach. 15 The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man attain such learning without having studied?"

16 "My teaching is not My own," Jesus replied. "It comes from Him who sent Me. 17 If anyone desires to do His will, he will know whether My teaching is from God or whether I speak on My own. 18 He who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory, but He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him is a man of truth; in Him there is no falsehood. 19 Has not Moses given you the law? you keeps it. Why are you trying to kill Me?"

20 "You have a demon," the crowd replied. "Who is trying to kill You?"

21 Jesus answered them, "I did one miracle, and you are all amazed. 22 But because Moses gave you circumcision, you circumcise a boy on the Sabbath (not that it is from Moses, but from the patriarchs.) 23 If a boy can be circumcised on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses will not be broken, why are you angry with Me for making the whole man well on the Sabbath? 24 Stop judging by outward appearances, and start judging justly."

IS JESUS THE CHRIST?

25 Then some of the people of Jerusalem began to say, "Isn't this the man they are trying to kill? 26 Yet here He is, speaking publicly, and they are not saying anything to Him. Have the rulers truly recognized that this is the Christ? 27 But we know where this man is from. When the Christ comes, no one will know where He is from."

28 Then Jesus, still teaching in the temple courts, cried out, "You know Me, and you know where I am from. I have not come of My own accord, but He who sent Me is true. You do not know Him, 29 but I know Him, because I am from Him and He sent Me."

30 So they tried to seize Him, but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come. 31 Many in the crowd, however, believed in Him and said, "When the Christ comes, will He perform more signs than this man?"

32 When the Pharisees heard the crowd whispering these things about Jesus, they and the chief priests sent officers to arrest Him. 33 So Jesus said, "I am with you only a little while longer, and then I am going to the One who sent Me. 34 You will look for Me, but you will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come."

35 At this, the Jews said to one another, "Where does He intend to go that we will not find Him? Will He go where the Jews are dispersed among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? 36 What does He mean by saying, 'You will look for Me, but you will not find Me,' and, 'Where I am, you cannot come'?"

LIVING WATER

37 On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood up and called out in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. 38 Whoever believes in Me, as the Scripture has said: 'Streams of living water will flow from within him.'" 39 He was speaking about the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were later to receive. For the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

DIVISION OVER JESUS

40 On hearing these words, some of the people said, "This is truly the Prophet."

41 Others declared, "This is the Christ."

But still others asked, "How can the Christ come from Galilee? 42 Doesn't the Scripture say that the Christ will come from the line of David and from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?"

43 So there was division in the crowd because of Jesus. 44 Some of them wanted to seize Him, but no one laid a hand on Him.

THE UNBELIEF OF THE JEWISH LEADERS

45 Then the officers returned to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why didn't you bring Him in?"

46 "Never has anyone spoken like this man!" the officers answered.

47 "Have you also been deceived?" replied the Pharisees. 48 "Have any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in Him? 49 But this crowd that does not know the law—they are under a curse."

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Leaders drag in a woman caught in adultery and want her stoned. Jesus writes in the dirt and says, Let him who is without sin throw the first stone. One by one they leave. Then Jesus says, I am the light of the world, and the truth will set you free. When He says Before Abraham was born, I am, they pick up rocks.

THE WOMAN CAUGHT IN ADULTERY

1 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2 Early in the morning He went back into the temple courts. All the people came to Him, and He sat down to teach them. 3 The scribes and Pharisees, however, brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before them 4 and said, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery. 5 In the Law Moses commanded us to stone such a woman. So what do You say?"

6 They said this to test Him, in order to have a basis for accusing Him. But Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with His finger.

7 When they continued to question Him, He straightened up and said to them, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to cast a stone at her." 8 And again He bent down and wrote on the ground.

9 When they heard this, they began to go away one by one, beginning with the older ones, until only Jesus was left, with the woman standing there. 10 Then Jesus straightened up and asked her, "Woman, where are your accusers? Has no one condemned you?"

11 "No one, Lord," she answered.

"Then neither do I condemn you," Jesus declared. "Now go and sin no more."]

JESUS THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD // 1 JOHN 1:5–10

12 Once again, Jesus spoke to the people and said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will never walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

13 So the Pharisees said to Him, "You are testifying about Yourself; Your testimony is not valid."

14 Jesus replied, "Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is valid, because I know where I came from and where I am going. But you do not know where I came from or where I am going. 15 You judge according to the flesh; I judge no one. 16 But even if I do judge, My judgment is true, because I am not alone; I am with the Father who sent Me. 17 Even in your own Law it is written that the testimony of two men is valid. 18 I am One who testifies about Myself, and the Father, who sent Me, also testifies about Me."

19 "Where is Your Father?" they asked Him.

"You do not know Me or My Father," Jesus answered. "If you knew Me, you would know My Father as well."

20 He spoke these words while teaching in the temple courts, near the treasury. Yet no one seized Him, because His hour had not yet come.

21 Again He said to them, "I am going away, and you will look for Me, but you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come."

22 So the Jews began to ask, "Will He kill Himself, since He says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?"

23 Then He told them, "You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. 24 That is why I told you that you would die in your sins. For unless you believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."

25 "Who are You?" they asked.

"Just what I have been telling you from the beginning," Jesus replied. 26 "I have much to say about you and much to judge. But the One who sent Me is truthful, and what I have heard from Him, I tell the world."

27 They did not understand that He was telling them about the Father. 28 So Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am He, and that I do nothing on My own, but speak exactly what the Father has taught Me. 29
He who sent Me is with Me. He has not left Me alone, because I always do what pleases Him."

THE TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE // 2 JOHN 1:4–6

30 As Jesus spoke these things, many believed in Him. 31 So He said to the Jews who had believed Him, "If you continue in My word, you are truly My disciples. 32
Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

33 "We are Abraham's descendants," they answered. "We have never been slaves to anyone. How can You say we will be set free?"

34 Jesus replied, "Truly, truly, I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. 35 A slave does not remain in the house forever, but a son remains forever. 36 So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

37 I know you are Abraham's descendants, but you are trying to kill Me because My word has no place within you. 38 I speak of what I have seen in the presence of the Father, and you do what you have heard from your father."

39 "Abraham is our father," they replied.

"If you were children of Abraham," said Jesus, "you would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now you are trying to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham never did such a thing. 41 You are doing the works of your father."

"We are not illegitimate children," they declared. "Our only Father is God Himself."

42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I have come here from God. I have not come on My own, but He sent Me.

43 Why do you not understand what I am saying? It is because you are unable to accept My message. 44 You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out his desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, refusing to uphold the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, because he is a liar and the father of lies. 45
But because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me!

46 Which of you can prove Me guilty of sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe Me? 47 Whoever belongs to God hears the words of God. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

BEFORE ABRAHAM WAS BORN, I AM

48 The Jews answered Him, "Are we not right to say that You are a Samaritan and You have a demon?"

49 "I do not have a demon," Jesus replied,
"but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. 50 I do not seek My own glory. There is One who seeks it, and He is the Judge.
51 Truly, truly, I tell you, if anyone keeps My word, he will never see death."

52 "Now we know that You have a demon!"
declared the Jews. "Abraham died, and so did the prophets, yet You say that anyone who keeps Your word will never taste death. 53 Are You greater than our father Abraham? He died, as did the prophets.
Who do You claim to be?"

54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify Myself, My glory means nothing. The One who glorifies Me is My Father, of whom you say,

57 Then the Jews said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and You have seen Abraham?"

58 "Truly, truly, I tell you," Jesus declared, "before Abraham was born, I am!"

59 At this, they picked up stones to throw at Him. But Jesus was hidden and went out of the temple area.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus spits in the dirt, puts mud on a blind man's eyes, and sends him to wash in the Pool of Siloam. He comes back seeing. The Pharisees question him, then his parents, then him again. He finally says, I was blind and now I see, and they throw him out. Jesus finds him, and the man worships Him.

JESUS HEALS THE MAN BORN BLIND

1 Now as Jesus was passing by, He saw a man blind from birth, 2 and His disciples asked Him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3 Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but this happened so that the works of God would be displayed in him. 4 While it is daytime, we must do the works of Him who sent Me. Night is coming, when no one can work. 5 While I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

6 When Jesus had said this, He spit on the ground, made some mud, and applied it to the man's eyes. 7 Then He told him, "Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So the man went and washed, and came back seeing.

8 At this, his neighbors and those who had formerly seen him begging began to ask, "Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?"

9 Some claimed that he was, but others said, "No, he just looks like him."

But the man kept saying, "I am the one."

10 "How then were your eyes opened?" they asked.

11 He answered, "The man they call Jesus made some mud and anointed my eyes, and He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed and received my sight."

12 "Where is He?" they asked.

"I do not know," he answered.

THE PHARISEES INVESTIGATE THE HEALING

13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind. 14 Now the day on which Jesus had made the mud and opened his eyes was a Sabbath. 15 So the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight.

The man answered, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see."

16 Because of this, some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for He does not keep the Sabbath."

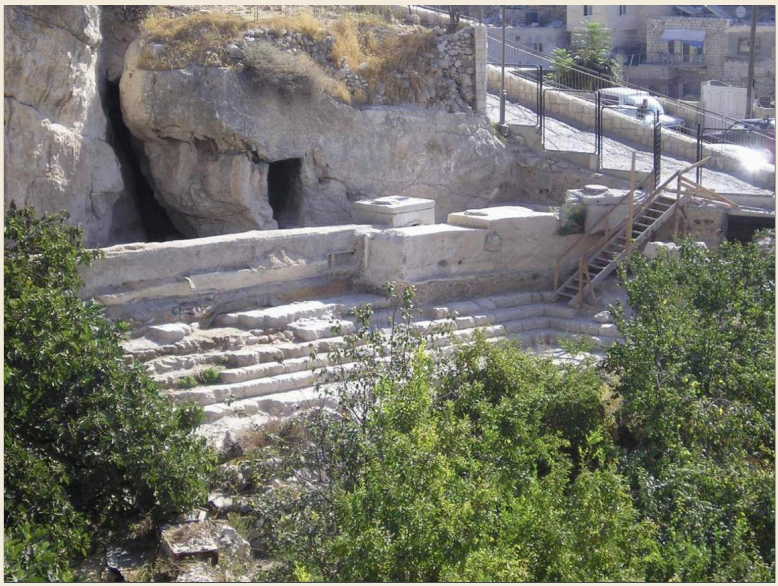
But others said, "How can a sinful man perform such signs?"

And there was division among them. 17 So once again they asked the man who had been blind, "What do you say about Him, since it was your eyes He opened?"

"He is a prophet," the man replied.

18 The Jews still did not believe that the man had been blind and had received his sight until they summoned his parents 19 and asked, "Is this your son, the one you say was born blind? So how is it that he can now see?"

20 His parents answered, "We know he is our son, and we know he was born blind. 21 But how he can now see or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him. He is old enough to speak for himself."



22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews. For the Jews had al-

THE POOL OF SILOAM

JOHN 9:1 TO 11 · ISAIAH 22:11

The stone steps of the Pool of Siloam in Jerusalem, uncovered in 2004.

WHAT IT IS

A large stone pool with wide steps going down on its sides, at the low south end of ancient Jerusalem, in the City of David. Water flowed in from the Gihon Spring through King Hezekiah's tunnel.

HOW OLD IT IS

The pool Jesus knew was built about 100 BC or a little later. Coins of the Jewish king Alexander Jannaeus were found in its plaster, and coins from the Jewish revolt, AD 66 to 70, were found in the dirt that later filled it in.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In June 2004 city workers fixing a sewer pipe hit the stone steps. Archaeologists Ronny Reich and Eli Shukron then dug it up. Before that, visitors were shown a much smaller pool from about AD 400, a little higher up the hill.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In the City of David park, just outside the walls of Jerusalem's Old City. More of the pool has been uncovered since 2022, along with a stone street that ran from the pool up to the temple.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

John says Jesus sent the blind man to wash in the Pool of Siloam 9:7. This is a big public pool from exactly that time, right where John said. Pilgrims going up to the temple likely washed here first.

THE STEPS

The pool had sets of five steps with flat landings between them, so crowds could walk down into the water from the sides.

THE PILGRIM ROAD

The stone street that ran from the pool up to the temple was about a third of a mile long. Coins found under its paving stones show it was paved about AD 30 or soon after, in the days of Pontius Pilate. Jesus may have walked on it.

WHY SILOAM

John says Siloam means Sent, 9:7. The man was sent to the pool, and Jesus is the One the Father sent, a point John makes again and again, 9:4.

ready determined that anyone who confessed Jesus as the Christ would be put out of the synagogue. 23 That was why his parents said, "He is old enough. Ask him."

24 So a second time they called for the man who had been blind and said, "Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner."

25 He answered, "Whether He is a sinner I do not know. There is one thing I do know: I was blind, but now I see!"

26 "What did He do to you?" they asked. "How did He open your eyes?"

27 He replied, "I already told you, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

28 Then they heaped insults on him and said, "You are His disciple; we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God spoke to Moses, but we do not know where this man is from."

30 "That is remarkable indeed!" the man said. "You do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes. 31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, but He does listen to the one who worships Him and does His will. 32 Never before has anyone heard of opening the eyes of a man born blind. 33 If this man were not from God, He could do no such thing."

34 They replied, "You were born in utter sin, and you are instructing us?" And they threw him out.

SPIRITUAL BLINDNESS

35 When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, He found the man and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

36 "Who is He, Sir?" he replied. "Tell me so that I may believe in Him."

37 "You have already seen Him," Jesus answered. "He is the One speaking with you."

38 "Lord, I believe," he said. And he worshiped Jesus.

39 Then Jesus declared, "For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind may see and those who see may become blind."

40 Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard this, and they asked Him, "Are we blind too?"

41 "If you were blind," Jesus replied, "you would not be guilty of sin. But since you claim you can see, your guilt remains."

10

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus says, I am the door, and I am the good shepherd who lays down His life for the sheep. Nobody takes His life; He lays it down and takes it up again. At the Feast of Dedication He says, I and the Father are one. The crowd picks up stones again, which is becoming a habit.

JESUS THE GOOD SHEPHERD // PSALM 23:1–6; EZEKIEL 34:11–24

1 "Truly, truly, I tell you, whoever does not enter the sheepfold by the gate, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber. 2 But the one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen for his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. 5 But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will flee from him because they do not recognize his voice."

6 Jesus spoke to them using this illustration, but they did not understand what He was telling them. 7 So He said to them again, "Truly, truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. 8 All who came before Me were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. 9 I am the gate. If anyone enters through Me, he will be saved. He will come in and go out and find pasture. 10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I have come that they may have life, and have it in all its fullness.

11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. 12 The hired hand is not the shepherd, and the sheep are not his own. When he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf pounces on them and scatters the flock. 13 The man runs away because he is a hired servant and is unconcerned for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd. I know My sheep and My sheep know Me, 15 just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father. And I lay down My life for the sheep. 16 I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them in as well, and they will listen to My voice. Then there will be one flock and one shepherd.

17 The reason the Father loves Me is that I lay down My life in order to take it up again. 18 No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of My own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from My Father."

19 Again there was division among the Jews because of Jesus' message. 20 Many of them said, "He is demon-possessed and insane. Why would you listen to Him?"

21 But others replied, "These are not the words of a man possessed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

JESUS AT THE FEAST OF DEDICATION

22 At that time the Feast of Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, 23 and Jesus was walking in the temple courts in Solomon's Colonnade. 24 So the Jews gathered around Him and demanded, "How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."

25 "I already told you," Jesus replied, "but you did not believe. The works I do in My Father's name testify on My behalf. 26 But because you are not My sheep, you refuse to believe. 27 My sheep listen to My voice; I know them, and they follow Me. 28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them out of My hand. 29 My Father who has given them to Me is greater than all. No one can snatch them out of My Father's hand. 30 I and the Father are one."

31 At this, the Jews again picked up stones to stone Him. 32 But Jesus responded, "I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these do you stone Me?"

33 "We are not stoning You for any good work," said the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because You, who are a man, make Yourself out to be God."

34 Jesus replied, "Is it not written in your Law: 'I have said you are gods'? 35 If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and the Scripture cannot be broken— 36 then what about the One whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world? How then can you accuse Me of blasphemy for stating that I am the Son of God?

37 If I am not doing the works of My Father, then do not believe Me. 38 But if I am doing them, even though you do not believe Me, believe the works themselves, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father."

39 At this, they tried again to seize Him, but He escaped their grasp.

JOHN'S TESTIMONY CONFIRMED

40 Then Jesus went back across the Jordan to the place where John had first been baptizing, and He stayed there. 41 Many came to Him and said, "Although

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED?

No One Can Snatch Them

JOHN 10:27 TO 29 · HEBREWS 6:4 TO 6 · 1 JOHN 2:19 · PHILIPPIANS 1:6

WHAT JESUS SAID

My sheep listen to My voice. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them out of My hand, 10:27 to 28. No one can snatch them out of My Father's hand, 10:29.

THE VERSES ON THE OTHER SIDE

Hebrews 6:4 to 6 warns about people who have tasted the heavenly gift and shared in the Holy Spirit and then fall away. If we go on sinning on purpose, no sacrifice for sins is left, Hebrews 10:26. A branch that does not remain in Jesus is thrown away, John 15:6. Paul disciplines himself so he will not be disqualified, 1 Corinthians 9:27.

THE VERSES ON THIS SIDE

He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion, Philippians 1:6. Nothing can separate us from the love of God, Romans 8:38 to 39. You are sealed with the Holy Spirit, Ephesians 1:13 to 14. They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us, 1 John 2:19.

HOW THE FIGHT STARTED

Jacob Arminius, a Dutch pastor, questioned Calvinist teaching and died in 1609. His followers said in 1610 that whether a believer can fall away needed more study. The Synod of Dort answered in 1619 that true believers will persevere to the end. Later Arminians, like John Wesley, taught that a believer can fall away. Long before, about AD 428, Augustine wrote a whole book calling perseverance a gift God gives, On the Gift of Perseverance.

CALVINIST: THE SAINTS PERSEVERE

God keeps everyone He saves, and real faith keeps going. Someone who falls away for good was never truly saved, 1 John 2:19. The warnings are how God keeps His people going. Reformed, Presbyterian and many Baptist churches hold this view.

FREE GRACE: ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED

Once you truly believe, you are saved forever, even if you later live badly or stop believing. You can lose rewards, but not salvation; you will be saved, but only as through fire, 1 Corinthians 3:15. Zane Hodges taught it, and Charles Stanley's 1990 book Eternal Security made it popular.

ARMINIAN AND WESLEYAN

God's hand holds you, but you can choose to walk away. The warnings in Hebrews mean what they say. Methodists, Nazarenes, Free Will Baptists and most Pentecostal churches, like the Assemblies of God, hold this view.

CATHOLIC, ORTHODOX AND LUTHERAN

Grace given in baptism can be lost by serious sin and turning from God, and restored by repentance. Catholics restore it through confession.

THE REAL QUESTION

Most of the fight is about people who once looked like believers and later walked away. Calvinists say they were never truly saved. Arminians say they were and are now lost. Free Grace says they are still saved. All three are trying to explain the same Bible verses and the same sad stories.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

No one is saved or kept by their own strength. Real faith shows up in a changed life. And you can know you have eternal life by trusting the Son, 1 John 5:12 to 13.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Lazarus, a close friend, is sick, and Jesus waits two more days. By the time He arrives Lazarus has been dead four days. Jesus says, I am the resurrection and the life. Then Jesus weeps. He calls, Lazarus, come out, and a dead man walks out still wrapped up. The leaders decide Jesus must die.

THE DEATH OF LAZARUS

1 At this time a man named Lazarus was sick. He lived in Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. 2 (Mary, whose brother Lazarus was sick, was to anoint the Lord with perfume and wipe His feet with her hair.) 3 So the sisters sent word to Jesus, "Lord, the one You love is sick."

4 When Jesus heard this, He said, "This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. 6 So on hearing that Lazarus was sick, He stayed where He was for two days, 7 and then He said to the disciples,
"Let us go back to Judea."

8 "Rabbi," they replied, "the Jews just tried to stone You, and You are going back
there?"

9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? If anyone walks in the daytime, he will not stumble, because he sees by the light of this world. 10 But if anyone walks at night, he will stumble, because he has no light."

11 After He had said this, He told them,
"Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to wake him up."

12 His disciples replied, "Lord, if he is sleeping, he will get better." 13 They thought that Jesus was talking about actual sleep, but He was speaking about the death of Lazarus.

14 So Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, 15 and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

16 Then Thomas called Didymus said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with Him."

JESUS COMFORTS MARTHA AND MARY

17 When Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already spent four days in the tomb. 18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, a little less than two miles away, 19 and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them in the loss of their brother. 20 So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet Him, but Mary stayed at home.

21 Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. 22 But even now I know that God will give You whatever You ask of Him."

23 "Your brother will rise again," Jesus told her.

24 Martha replied, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in Me will live, even though he dies. 26 And everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?"

27 "Yes, Lord," she answered, "I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world."

28 After Martha had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside to tell her, "The Teacher is here and is asking for you." 29 And when Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to Him.

30 Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met Him. 31 When the Jews who were in the house consoling Mary saw how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there. 32 When Mary came to Jesus and saw Him, she fell at His feet and said, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, He was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. 34 "Where have you put him?" He asked.

"Come and see, Lord," they answered.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then the Jews said, "See how He loved
him!"

37 But some of them asked, "Could not this man who opened the eyes of the blind also have kept Lazarus from dying?"

JESUS RAISES LAZARUS // ACTS 9:36–43

38 Jesus, once again deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance. 39 "Take away
the stone," Jesus said.

"Lord, by now he stinks," said Martha, the sister of the dead man. "It has already been four days."

40 Jesus replied, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

41 So they took away the stone. Then Jesus lifted His eyes upward and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.
42 I knew that You always hear Me, but I say this for the benefit of the people standing here, so they may believe that You sent Me."

43 After Jesus had said this, He called out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

44 The man who had been dead came out with his hands and feet bound in strips of linen, and his face wrapped in a cloth.

"Unwrap him and let him go," Jesus told
them.

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS // MATTHEW 26:1–5; MARK 14:1–2; LUKE 22:1–2

45 Therefore many of the Jews who had come to Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, believed in Him. 46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

47 Then the chief priests and Pharisees convened the Sanhedrin and said, "What are we to do? This man is performing many signs. 48 If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

49 But one of them, named Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them,
"You know nothing at all! 50 You do not realize that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish."

51 Caiaphas did not say this on his own. Instead, as high priest that year, he was prophesying that Jesus would die for the nation, 52 and not only for the nation, but also for the scattered children of God, to gather them together into one.

53 So from that day on they plotted to kill Him. 54 As a result, Jesus no longer went about publicly among the Jews, but He withdrew to a town called Ephraim in an area near the wilderness. And He stayed there with the disciples.

55 Now the Jewish Passover was near, and many people went up from the country to Jerusalem to purify themselves before the Passover. 56 They kept looking for Jesus and asking one another as they stood in the temple courts, "What do you think?
Will He come to the feast at all?" 57 But the chief priests and Pharisees had given orders that anyone who knew where He was must report it, so that they could arrest
Him.

MARY ANOINTS JESUS // MATTHEW 26:6–13; MARK 14:3–9; LUKE 7:36–50

1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, the hometown of Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. 2 So they hosted a dinner for Jesus there. Martha served, and Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with Him. 3 Then Mary took about a pint of expensive perfume, made of pure nard, and she anointed Jesus' feet and wiped them with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.
4 But one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was going to betray Him, asked, 5
"Why wasn't this perfume sold for a year's wages and the money given to the poor?"
6 Judas did not say this because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief. As keeper of the money bag, he used to take from what was put into it.
7 "Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "She has kept this perfume in preparation for the day of My burial. 8 The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have Me."

THE PLOT TO KILL LAZARUS

9 Meanwhile a large crowd of Jews learned that Jesus was there. And they came not only because of Him, but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. 10 So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well, 11 for on account of him many of the Jews were deserting them and believing in Jesus.

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY // ZECHARIAH 9:9–13; MATTHEW 21:1–11; MARK 11:1–11; LUKE 19:28–40

12 The next day the great crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. 13 They took palm branches and went out to meet Him, shouting:

"Hosanna!"

"Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!"

"Blessed is the King of Israel!"

14 Finding a young donkey, Jesus sat on it,
as it is written:

15 "Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion.
See, your King is coming,
seated on the colt of a donkey."

16 At first His disciples did not understand these things, but after Jesus was glorified they remembered what had been done to Him, and they realized that these very things had also been written about Him.
17 Meanwhile, many people who had been with Jesus when He called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify. 18 That is also why the crowd went out to meet Him, because they heard that He had performed this sign.
19 Then the Pharisees said to one another,
"You can see that this is doing you no good. Look how the whole world has gone after Him!"

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

20 Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the feast. 21 They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and requested of him, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." 22 Philip relayed this appeal to Andrew, and both of them went and told Jesus.
23 But Jesus replied, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24 Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a seed. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25 Whoever loves his life will lose it, but whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. 26 If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, My servant will be as well. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

27 Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? No, it is for this purpose that I have come to this hour. 28 Father, glorify Your name!"

Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."

29 The crowd standing there heard it and said that it had thundered. Others said that an angel had spoken to Him.

30 In response, Jesus said, "This voice was not for My benefit, but yours. 31 Now judgment is upon this world; now the prince of this world will be cast out. 32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw everyone to Myself." 33 He said this to indicate the kind of death He was going to die.

34 The crowd replied, "We have heard from the Law that the Christ will remain forever. So how can You say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?"

35 Then Jesus told them, "For a little while longer, the Light will be among you. Walk while you have the Light, so that darkness will not overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. 36 While you have the Light, believe in the Light, so that you may become sons of light."

After Jesus had spoken these things, He went away and was hidden from them.

BELIEF AND UNBELIEF

37 Although Jesus had performed so many signs in their presence, they still did not believe in Him. 38 This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet:

"Lord, who has believed our message?
And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

39 For this reason they were unable to believe. For again, Isaiah says:

40 "He has blinded their eyes
and hardened their hearts,
so that they cannot see with their eyes,
and understand with their hearts,
and turn,
and I would heal them."

41 Isaiah said these things because he saw Jesus' glory and spoke about Him. 42 Nevertheless, many of the leaders believed in Him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, for fear that they would be put out of the synagogue. 43 For they loved praise from men more than praise from God.

44 Then Jesus cried out, "Whoever believes in Me does not believe in Me alone, but in the One who sent Me. 45 And whoever sees Me sees the One who sent Me. 46 I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in Me should remain in darkness.

47 As for anyone who hears My words and does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I have not come to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 There is a judge for the one who rejects Me and does not receive My words: The word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

49 I have not spoken on My own, but the Father who sent Me has commanded Me what to say and how to say it. 50 And I know that His command leads to eternal life. So I speak exactly what the Father has told Me to say."

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

At supper Jesus wraps a towel around His waist and washes His disciples' feet, which was a servant's job. Peter says, Never, and then, Wash all of me. Jesus says one of them will betray Him, and Judas walks out into the night. Then Jesus gives a new command: Love one another as I have loved you.

JESUS WASHES HIS DISCIPLES' FEET

1 It was now just before the Passover Feast, and Jesus knew that His hour had come to leave this world and return to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the very end.
2 The evening meal was underway, and the devil had already put into the heart of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus.

3 Jesus knew that the Father had delivered all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was returning to God.
4 So He got up from the supper, laid aside
His outer garments, and wrapped a towel around His waist. 5 After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and dry them with the towel that was around Him.

6 He came to Simon Peter, who asked Him,
"Lord, are You going to wash my feet?"

7 Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

8 "Never shall You wash my feet!" Peter told Him.

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with Me."

9 "Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not only my feet, but my hands and my head
as well!"

10 Jesus told him, "Whoever has already bathed needs only to wash his feet, and he will be completely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." 11 For He knew who would betray Him. That is why
He said, "Not all of you are clean."

12 When Jesus had washed their feet and put on His outer garments, He reclined with them again and asked, "Do you know what I have done for you? 13 You call Me Teacher and Lord, and rightly so, because I am. 14 So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. 15 I have set you an example so that you should do as I have done for you. 16 Truly, truly, I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. 17 If you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS BETRAYAL // PSALM 41:1–13

18 I am not speaking about all of you; I know whom I have chosen. But this is to fulfill the Scripture: 'The one who shares My bread has lifted up his heel against Me.' 19 I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it comes to pass, you will believe that I am He. 20 Truly, truly, I tell you, whoever receives the one I send receives Me, and whoever receives Me receives the One who sent Me."

21 After Jesus had said this, He became troubled in spirit and testified, "Truly, truly,
I tell you, one of you will betray Me."

22 The disciples looked at one another, perplexed as to which of them He meant.
23 One of His disciples, the one whom Jesus loved, was reclining at His side. 24 So Simon Peter motioned to him to ask Jesus which one He was talking about. 25 Leaning back against Jesus, he asked, "Lord,
who is it?"

26 Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I give this morsel after I have dipped it."
Then He dipped the morsel and gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot. 27 And when Judas had taken the morsel, Satan entered into him.

Then Jesus said to Judas, "What you are about to do, do quickly." 28 But no one at the table knew why Jesus had said this to

Do not let your hearts be troubled. Jesus says He is going to prepare a place for them. Thomas asks how they can know the way, and Jesus says, I am the way, the truth and the life. Philip asks to see the Father, and Jesus says, If you have seen Me, you have seen the Father. He promises the Holy Spirit.

THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE

5 "Lord," said Thomas, "we do not know where You are going, so how can we know the way?"

6 Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. 7 If you had known Me, you would know My Father as well. From now on you do know Him and have seen Him."

8 Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."

9 Jesus replied, "Philip, I have been with you all this time, and still you do not know Me? Anyone who has seen Me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words I say to you, I do not speak on My own. and you are in Me, and I am in you. 21 Whoever has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me. The one who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself
to him."

22 Judas (not Iscariot) asked Him, "Lord, why are You going to reveal Yourself to us
and not to the world?"

23 Jesus replied, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. 24 Whoever does not love Me does not keep My words. The word that you hear is not My own, but it is from the Father who sent Me.

25 All this I have spoken to you while I am still with you. 26 But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have told you.

PEACE I LEAVE WITH YOU

27 Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled;
do not be afraid. 28 You heard Me say, 'I am going away, and I am coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. 29 And now I have told you before it happens, so that when it does happen, you will believe.

30 I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of this world is coming, and he has no claim on Me. 31 But I do exactly what the Father has commanded Me, so that the world may know that I love the Father.

Get up! Let us go on from here.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

I am the vine, you are the branches. A branch cut off from the vine cannot grow a single grape. Jesus calls His disciples friends, not servants. There is no greater love than to lay down your life for your friends. He also warns them the world will hate them, because it hated Him first.

JESUS THE TRUE VINE // ISAIAH 27:1–13

1 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the keeper of the vineyard. 2 He cuts off every branch in Me that bears no fruit, and every branch that does bear fruit, He prunes to make it even more fruitful. 3 You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. 4 Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me.

5 I am the vine and you are the branches.
The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. 6 If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. 7 If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. 8 This is to My Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, proving yourselves to be My disciples.

NO GREATER LOVE

9 As the Father has loved Me, so have I loved you. Remain in My love. 10 If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love. 11 I have told you these things so that My joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.

12 This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

14 You are My friends if you do what I command you. 15 No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not understand what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, because everything I have learned from My Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose Me, but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit—fruit that will remain—so that whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you. 17 This is My command to you: Love one another.

THE HATRED OF THE WORLD

18 If the world hates you, understand that it hated Me first. 19 If you were of the world, it would love you as its own. Instead, the world hates you, because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world.

20 Remember the word that I spoke to you:
'No servant is greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will persecute you as well; if they kept My word, they will keep yours as well. 21 But they will treat you like this because of My name, since they do not know the One who sent Me. 22
If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. Now, however, they have no excuse for their sin.

23 Whoever hates Me hates My Father as well. 24 If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin; but now they have seen and hated both Me and My Father. 25 But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law:
'They hated Me without reason.'

26 When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father—He will testify about Me. 27 And you also must testify, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus tells them it is better for them that He goes away, because then the Holy Spirit will come. The Spirit will guide them into all truth. Their sorrow will turn to joy, like a mother who forgets the pain once the baby is born. In this world you will have trouble, but take heart, I have overcome the world.

PERSECUTION FORETOLD // ACTS 23:12–22

1 "I have told you these things so that you will not fall away. 2 They will put you out of the synagogues. In fact, a time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he is offering a service to God. 3 They will do these things because they have not known the Father or Me. 4 But I have told you these things so that when their hour comes, you will remember that I told you about them. I did not tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with
you.

filled with sorrow because I have told you these things. 7 But I tell you the truth, it is for your benefit that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.

8 And when He comes, He will convict the world in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: 9 in regard to sin, because they do not believe in Me; 10 in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will no longer see Me; 11 and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world has been condemned.

12 I still have much to tell you, but you cannot yet bear to hear it. 13 However, when the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all truth. For He will not speak on His own, but He will speak what He hears, and He will declare to you what is to come. 14 He will glorify Me by taking from what is Mine and disclosing it to you. 15 Everything that belongs to the Father is Mine. That is why I said that the Spirit will take from what is Mine and disclose it to you.

16 In a little while you will see Me no more, and then after a little while you will see Me."

GRIEF WILL TURN TO JOY

17 Then some of His disciples asked one another, "Why is He telling us, 'In a little while you will not see Me, and then after a little while you will see Me' and 'Because I am going to the Father'?" 18 They kept asking, "Why is He saying, 'a little while'? We do not understand what He is saying."

19 Aware that they wanted to question Him, Jesus said to them, "Are you asking one another why I said, 'In a little while you will not see Me, and then after a little while you will see Me'? 20 Truly, truly, I tell you, you will weep and wail while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy. 21 A woman has pain in childbirth because her time has come; but when she brings forth her child, she forgets her anguish because of her joy that a child has been born into the world. 22 So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.

ASK IN MY NAME // MATTHEW 18:19–20

23 In that day you will no longer ask Me anything. Truly, truly, I tell you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you. 24 Until now you have not asked for anything in My name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

25 I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. An hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you this way, but will tell you plainly about the Father. 26 In that day you will ask in My name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. 27 For the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came from God. 28 I came from the Father and entered the world. In turn, I will leave the world and go to the Father."

29 His disciples said, "See, now You are speaking plainly and without figures of speech. 30 Now we understand that You know all things and that You have no need for anyone to question You. Because of this, we believe that You came from God."

31 "Do you finally believe?" Jesus replied. 32 "Look, an hour is coming and has already come when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and you will leave Me all alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. 33 I have told you these things so that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take courage; I have overcome the world!"

17

CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

Jesus looks up to heaven and prays the longest prayer we have from Him. He prays for Himself, then for His disciples, then for everyone who will believe through them, and that means us. His big request is that they all may be one, just as He and the Father are one.

PRAYER FOR THE SON

1 When Jesus had spoken these things, He lifted up His eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son may glorify You. 2 For You granted Him authority over all people, so that He may give eternal life to all those
You have given Him. 3 Now this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent. 4 I have glorified You on earth by accomplishing the work You gave Me to do.
5 And now, Father, glorify Me in Your presence with the glory I had with You before the world existed.

PRAYER FOR THE DISCIPLES

6 I have revealed Your name to those You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours; You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. 7 Now they know that everything You have given Me comes from You. 8 For I have given them the words You gave Me, and they have received them. They knew with certainty that I came from You, and they believed that You sent Me.

9 I ask on their behalf. I do not ask on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those You have given Me; for they are Yours. 10 All I have is Yours, and all You have is Mine; and in them I have been glorified. 11 I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to You.

Holy Father, protect them by Your name, the name You gave Me, so that they may be one as We are one. 12 While I was with them, I protected and preserved them by Your name, the name You gave Me. Not one of them has been lost, except the son of destruction, so that the Scripture would be fulfilled.

13 But now I am coming to You; and I am saying these things while I am in the world, so that they may have My joy fulfilled within them. 14 I have given them Your word and the world has hated them. For they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

15 I am not asking that You take them out of the world, but that You keep them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them by the truth; Your word is truth. 18 As You sent Me into the world, I have also sent them into the world. 19 For them I sanctify Myself, so that they too may be sanctified by the truth.

PRAYER FOR ALL BELIEVERS

20 I am not asking on behalf of them alone, but also on behalf of those who will believe in Me through their message, 21 that all of them may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I am in You. May they also be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me.

22 I have given them the glory You gave Me, so that they may be one as We are one— 23 I in them and You in Me—that they may be perfectly united, so that the world may know that You sent Me and have loved them just as You have loved Me.

24 Father, I want those You have given Me to be with Me where I am, that they may see the glory You gave Me because You loved Me before the foundation of the world.

25 Righteous Father, although the world has not known You, I know You, and they know that You sent Me. 26 And I have made Your name known to them and will continue to make it known, so that the love You have for Me may be in them, and I in them."

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES MIRACLES JESUS SPEAKING

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

Judas leads soldiers to the garden. Jesus says I am He, and they fall backward to the ground. Peter cuts off a servant's ear. Jesus is taken to Annas, then Caiaphas, while Peter denies Him three times by a fire. Pilate asks, What is truth? and the crowd picks Barabbas, a robber.

THE BETRAYAL OF JESUS // MATTHEW 26:47–56; MARK 14:43–52; LUKE 22:47–53

1 After Jesus had spoken these words, He went out with His disciples across the Kidron Valley, where they entered a garden. 2 Now Judas His betrayer also knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with His disciples. 3 So Judas brought a band of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees. They arrived at the garden carrying lanterns, torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus, knowing all that was coming upon Him, stepped forward and asked them,
"Whom are you seeking?"

5 "Jesus of Nazareth," they answered.

Jesus said, "I am He."

And Judas His betrayer was standing there with them. 6 When Jesus said, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.

7 So He asked them again, "Whom are you seeking?"

"Jesus of Nazareth," they answered.

8 "I told you that I am He," Jesus replied.
"So if you are looking for Me, let these men go." 9 This was to fulfill the word He had spoken: "I have not lost one of those
You have given Me."

10 Then Simon Peter drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 "Put your sword back in its sheath!" Jesus said to Peter. "Shall I not drink the cup
the Father has given Me?"

12 Then the band of soldiers, with its commander and the officers of the Jews, arrested Jesus and bound Him. 13 They brought Him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. 14 Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it would be better if one man died for the people.

PETER'S FIRST DENIAL // MATTHEW 26:69–70; MARK 14:66–68; LUKE 22:54–57

15 Now Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he also went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. 16 But Peter stood outside at the door. Then the disciple who was known to the high priest went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter in.

17 At this, the servant girl watching the door said to Peter, "Aren't you also one of this man's disciples?"

"I am not," he answered.

18 Because it was cold, the servants and officers were standing around a charcoal fire they had made to keep warm. And Peter was also standing with them, warming
himself.

JESUS BEFORE THE HIGH PRIEST // MATTHEW 26:57–68; MARK 14:53–65; LUKE 22:66–71

19 Meanwhile, the high priest questioned
Jesus about His disciples and His teaching.

20 "I have spoken openly to the world," Jesus answered. "I always taught in the synagogues and at the temple, where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret. 21 Why are you asking Me? Ask those who heard My message. Surely they know what I said."

22 When Jesus had said this, one of the officers standing nearby slapped Him in the face and said, "Is this how You answer
the high priest?"

23 Jesus replied, "If I said something

if I spoke correctly, why did you strike

24 Then Annas sent Him, still bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.

PETER'S SECOND AND THIRD DENIALS // MATTHEW 26:71–75; MARK 14:69–72; LUKE 22:58–62

25 Simon Peter was still standing and warming himself. So they asked him,
"Aren't you also one of His disciples?"

He denied it and said, "I am not."

26 One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, "Didn't I see you with Him in the garden?"

27 Peter denied it once more, and immediately a rooster crowed.

JESUS BEFORE PILATE // MATTHEW 27:11–14; LUKE 23:1–5

28 Then they led Jesus away from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. By now it was early morning, and the Jews did not enter the Praetorium, to avoid being defiled and unable to eat the Passover.

29 So Pilate went out to them and asked,
"What accusation are you bringing against this man?"

30 "If He were not a criminal," they replied,
"we would not have handed Him over to
you."

31 "You take Him and judge Him by your own law," Pilate told them.

"We are not permitted to execute anyone," the Jews replied. 32 This was to fulfill the word that Jesus had spoken to indicate the kind of death He was going to die.

33 Pilate went back into the Praetorium, summoned Jesus, and asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

34 "Are you saying this on your own," Jesus asked, "or did others tell you about Me?"

35 "Am I a Jew?" Pilate replied. "Your own people and chief priests handed You over to me. What have You done?"

36 Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world; if it were, My servants would fight to prevent My arrest by the Jews.
But now My kingdom is not of this realm."

37 "Then You are a king!" Pilate said.

"You say that I am a king," Jesus answered. "For this reason I was born and have come into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to My voice."

38 "What is truth?" Pilate asked.

And having said this, he went out again to the Jews and told them, "I find no basis for a charge against Him. 39 But it is your custom that I release to you one prisoner at the Passover. So then, do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

40 "Not this man," they shouted, "but Barabbas!" (Now Barabbas was an insurrectionist.)

19

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

Pilate has Jesus whipped and crowned with thorns, and the crowd shouts Crucify Him. Jesus carries His own cross to Golgotha. From the cross He gives His mother to John, then says, It is finished. He is buried in a new tomb in a garden.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS // ISAIAH 50:4–11; MATTHEW 27:27–31; MARK 15:16–20; LUKE 22:63–65

1 Then Pilate took Jesus and had Him flogged. 2 The soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns, set it on His head, and dressed Him in a purple robe. 3 And they went up to Him again and again, saying,
"Hail, King of the Jews!" and slapping Him
in the face.

4 Once again Pilate came out and said to the Jews, "Look, I am bringing Him out to a charge against Him." 5 When Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, Pilate said to them,

"Here is the man!"

6 As soon as the chief priests and officers saw Him, they shouted, "Crucify Him!
Crucify Him!"

"You take Him and crucify Him," Pilate replied, "for I find no basis for a charge
against Him."

7 "We have a law," answered the Jews,
"and according to that law He must die, because He declared Himself to be the Son of God."

8 When Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid, 9 and he went back into the Praetorium. "Where are You from?" he asked.

But Jesus gave no answer.

10 So Pilate said to Him, "Do You refuse to speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You and authority to crucify You?"

11 Jesus answered, "You would have no authority over Me if it were not given to you from above. Therefore the one who handed Me over to you is guilty of greater sin."

12 From then on, Pilate tried to release Him, but the Jews kept shouting, "If you release this man, you are no friend of Caesar. Anyone who declares himself a king is defying Caesar."

13 When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat on the judgment seat at a place called the Stone
Pavement, which in Hebrew is Gabbatha.
14 It was the day of Preparation for the Passover, about the sixth hour. And Pilate said to the Jews, "Here is your King!"

THE STONE PAVEMENT

Roman paving stones under the Sisters of Zion convent in Jerusalem. Photo by Carole Raddato, CC BY SA 2.0.

WHAT IT IS

A floor of huge stone slabs under the Sisters of Zion convent, on the Via Dolorosa. Some stones have games scratched into them, which pilgrims long thought Roman soldiers used while mocking Jesus. For centuries it was shown as the Stone Pavement, Gabbatha, where Pilate sat in judgment.

HOW OLD IT IS

Studies by the French scholar Pierre Benoit in the 1960s and 1970s showed the slabs were laid about AD 135, when the emperor Hadrian rebuilt Jerusalem as a Roman city. That is about 100 years after Jesus, so this is not the floor He stood on.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Found in the 1800s when the convent was built. It sits on top of an older water pool that was there in Jesus' time.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

Under the Ecce Homo convent of the Sisters of Zion in Jerusalem's Old City. Visitors can walk on it.

WHERE PILATE PROBABLY SAT

Gabbatha means a raised place. Many scholars now think Pilate judged Jesus at Herod's old palace on the west side of the city, near the Jaffa Gate, because Roman governors stayed there when they came to Jerusalem. Josephus says a later governor set up his judgment seat in front of that palace. Digs at the Tower of David Museum there have uncovered parts of the palace.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW JESUS SPEAKING

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE
Neither place has a sign saying Gabbatha. The old tradition points to the convent, and much of the newer evidence points to Herod's palace. Either way, John names a real kind of place a governor used.

15 At this, they shouted, "Away with Him!
Away with Him! Crucify Him!"
"Shall I crucify your King?" Pilate asked.
"We have no king but Caesar," replied the chief priests.

THE CRUCIFIXION // PSALM 22:1–31; MATTHEW 27:32–44; MARK 15:21–32; LUKE 23:26–43

16 Then Pilate handed Jesus over to be crucified, and the soldiers took Him away.
17 Carrying His own cross, He went out to The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha.
18 There they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle.
19 Pilate also had a notice posted on the cross. It read:
JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
20 Many of the Jews read this sign, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. 21 So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but only that He said, 'I am the King of the Jews.'"
22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."
23 When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they divided His garments into four parts, one for each soldier, with the tunic remaining. It was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom. 24 So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it. Instead, let us cast lots to see who will get it." This was to fulfill the Scripture:

"They divided My garments among them,
and cast lots for My clothing."

So that is what the soldiers did.
25 Near the cross of Jesus stood His mother and her sister, as well as Mary the wife of Clopas and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to His mother, "Woman, here is your son." 27 Then He said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." So from that hour, this disciple took her into his home.

THE DEATH OF JESUS // PSALM 22:1–31; MATTHEW 27:45–56; MARK 15:33–41; LUKE 23:44–49

28 After this, knowing that everything had now been accomplished, and to fulfill the Scripture, Jesus said, "I am thirsty." 29 A jar of sour wine was sitting there. So they soaked a sponge in the wine, put it on a stalk of hyssop, and lifted it to His mouth.
30 When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished." And bowing His head, He yielded up His spirit.

JESUS' SIDE IS PIERCED // ZECHARIAH 12:10–14

31 It was the day of Preparation, and the next day was a High Sabbath. In order that the bodies would not remain on the cross during the Sabbath, the Jews asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies removed. 32 So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and those of the other.
33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. 34 Instead, one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water flowed out.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS // ISAIAH 53:9–12; MATTHEW 27:57–61; MARK 15:42–47; LUKE 23:50–56

38 Afterward, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus (but secretly for fear of the Jews), asked Pilate to let him remove the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission, so he came and removed His body. 39 Nicodemus, who had previously come to Jesus at night, also brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds. 40 So they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, according to the Jewish burial custom.

41 Now there was a garden in the place where Jesus was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. 42 And because it was the Jewish day of Preparation and the tomb was nearby, they placed Jesus there.

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

Mary Magdalene finds the tomb empty. Peter and John race there, and John wins and wants you to know it. Jesus appears to Mary, then to the disciples. Thomas will not believe until he sees the nail marks. A week later he says, My Lord and my God.

THE RESURRECTION // MATTHEW 28:1–10; MARK 16:1–8; LUKE 24:1–12

1 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. 2 So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved.
"They have taken the Lord out of the tomb," she said, "and we do not know where they have put Him!"

3 Then Peter and the other disciple set out for the tomb. 4 The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. 5 He bent down and looked in at the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in.

6 Simon Peter arrived just after him. He entered the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying there. 7 The cloth that had been around Jesus' head was rolled up, lying separate from the linen cloths. 8 Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in. And he saw and believed. 9 For they still did not understand from the Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.

JESUS APPEARS TO MARY MAGDALENE // MARK 16:9–11

10 Then the disciples returned to their homes. 11 But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping. And as she wept, she bent down to look into the tomb, 12 and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and the other at the feet.

13 "Woman, why are you weeping?" they asked.

"Because they have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I do not know where they have put Him."

14 When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there. But she did not recognize that it was Jesus.

WHERE WAS JESUS BURIED?

JOHN 19:17 TO 20 · JOHN 19:38 TO 42

The Edicule, the small shrine over the traditional tomb of Jesus, in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

WHAT IT IS

Two places claim the tomb of Jesus. The Church of the Holy Sepulchre stands over a tomb cut in rock, with Golgotha a few steps away. The Garden Tomb, north of the Damascus Gate, is a rock tomb in a quiet garden that many Protestant visitors love.

HOW OLD IT IS

The Holy Sepulchre church was first built about AD 326 for Emperor Constantine. When the tomb was opened for repairs in 2016, tests dated mortar on it to about AD 345. The Garden Tomb was cut about 700 years before Jesus, according to Israeli archaeologist Gabriel Barkay.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Christians in Jerusalem pointed Constantine's builders to the Holy Sepulchre site, which Hadrian had buried under a pagan temple about AD 135. The Garden Tomb was suggested in 1883 by the British general Charles Gordon, who thought a nearby cliff looked like a skull.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

Both are in Jerusalem and both are open to visitors. The Holy Sepulchre is in the Christian Quarter of the Old City.

WHAT THE EVIDENCE SAYS

In Jesus' day the Holy Sepulchre site was an old quarry just outside the city wall, with first century tombs cut into it. That fits John 19:20 and 19:41: near the city, with a garden and a new tomb. John says no one had ever been laid in the tomb, so a tomb already 700 years old does not fit.

THE HONEST SIDE

Even the Holy Sepulchre is not proven. The people who run the Garden Tomb do not claim it is the real tomb, only a good place to remember that He is risen. Either way, the tomb is empty.

15 "Woman, why are you weeping?" Jesus asked. "Whom are you seeking?"

Thinking He was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried Him off, tell me where you have put Him, and I will get Him."

16 Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned and said to Him in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" (which means "Teacher").

17 "Do not cling to Me," Jesus said, "for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go and tell My brothers, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.'"

18 Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them what He had said to her.

JESUS APPEARS TO THE DISCIPLES // LUKE 24:36–49; 1 JOHN 1:1–4

19 It was the first day of the week, and that very evening, while the disciples were together with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them. "Peace be with you!" He said to them. 20 After He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side.

The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

21 Again Jesus said to them, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, so also I am sending you." 22 When He had said this, He breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld."

JESUS APPEARS TO THOMAS

24 Now Thomas called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. 25 So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he replied, "Unless I see the nail marks in His hands, and put my finger where the nails have been, and put my hand into His side, I will never believe."

26 Eight days later, His disciples were once again inside with the doors locked, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."

27 Then Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and look at My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into My side. Stop doubting and believe."

28 Thomas replied, "My Lord and my God!"

29 Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen Me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

THE PURPOSE OF JOHN'S BOOK

30 Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book. 31 But these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name.

21

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

The disciples fish all night and catch nothing. Jesus tells them to try the right side, and they haul in 153 fish. Then He cooks breakfast and asks Peter three times, Do you love Me? once for each denial.

JESUS APPEARS BY THE SEA OF TIBERIAS

1 Later, by the Sea of Tiberias, Jesus again revealed Himself to the disciples. He made Himself known in this way: 2 Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together. 3 Simon Peter told them, "I am going fishing."

"We will go with you," they said. So they went out and got into the boat, but caught nothing that night.

4 Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not recognize that it was Jesus. 5 So He called out to them, "Children, do you have any fish?"

"No," they answered.

6 He told them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it there, and they were unable to haul it in because of the great number of fish.

7 Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it) and jumped into the sea. 8 The other disciples came ashore in the boat. They dragged in the net full of fish, for they were not far from land, only about a hundred yards.

9 When they landed, they saw a charcoal fire there with fish on it, and some bread.

10 Jesus told them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught." 11 So Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many, the net was not torn.

12 "Come, have breakfast," Jesus said to them. None of the disciples dared to ask Him, "Who are You?" They knew it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and He did the same with the fish.

14 This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after He was raised from the dead.

JESUS AND PETER

15 When they had finished eating, Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love Me more than these?"

"Yes, Lord," he answered, "You know I love You."

Jesus replied, "Feed My lambs."

16 Jesus asked a second time, "Simon son of John, do you love Me?"

"Yes, Lord," he answered, "You know I love You."

Jesus told him, "Shepherd My sheep."

17 Jesus asked a third time, "Simon son of John, do you love Me?"

Peter was deeply hurt that Jesus had asked him a third time, "Do you love Me?"

"Lord, You know all things," he replied. "You know I love You."

Jesus said to him, "Feed My sheep.

18 Truly, truly, I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself and walked where you wanted; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." 19 Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God.

And after He had said this, He told him, "Follow Me."

JESUS AND THE BELOVED DISCIPLE

20 Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them. He was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper to ask, "Lord, who is going to betray You?" 21 When Peter saw him, he asked, "Lord, what about him?"

22 Jesus answered, "If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you? You follow Me!" 23 Because of this, the rumor spread among the brothers that this disciple would not die. However, Jesus did not say that he would not die, but only, "If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who has written them down. And we know that his testimony is true.

25 There are many more things that Jesus did. If all of them were written down, I suppose that not even the world itself would have space for the books that would be written.

ACTS

Luke Part 2

AUTHOR	Luke, the doctor and Paul's friend, who also wrote the Gospel of Luke. In some chapters Luke switches from they to we starting at 16:10, which shows he was there for parts of the trip. The early church named him as the author by about AD 180.
EVENTS TOOK PLACE	About AD 30 to 62, from Jesus going up into heaven to Paul under house arrest in Rome for two years.
DATE WRITTEN	Many conservative scholars say about AD 62, because the book ends before Paul's trial and death. Many others say AD 80 to 90.
WRITTEN TO	Theophilus, the same man Luke wrote his Gospel to Luke 1:3, Acts 1:1. His name means friend of God.
ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS	Acts survives in hundreds of Greek manuscripts. One old copy, Codex Bezae, has a longer form of Acts, about 8 percent longer than most.
KEY VERSE	Acts 1:8. You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

AN EARLY PIECE OF ACTS
This scrap is Papyrus 48, copied in the 200s and kept in the Laurentian Library in Florence, Italy. This side holds Acts 23:25 to 29, the letter the Roman commander wrote to Governor Felix about Paul. You can still read the Greek words for to the most excellent governor. The other side holds Acts 23:11 to 17, where the Lord tells Paul he will testify in Rome. Its wording is close to the longer form of Acts found in Codex Bezae. Papyrus 45, from about AD 250, holds larger parts of Acts.

Historical Setting

Rome rules the whole Mediterranean world. Roman roads and peace make travel easier than ever, and almost everyone speaks Greek. Jewish synagogues stand in cities across the empire, ready made places for Paul to start preaching. But the church begins small, about 120 people praying in an upstairs room in Jerusalem 1:15. Their leader has just left. All they have is His promise: Wait for the Holy Spirit.

What Was Going Wrong

JEALOUS LEADERS. The high priest and his friends were filled with jealousy and threw the apostles in jail 5:17 to 18.
FAKING IT. Ananias and Sapphira lied to look more generous than they were. Peter said they lied to God, not just to men 5:4.
MONEY OVER GOD. Simon tried to buy the Holy Spirit 8:18 to 20, and the silversmiths of Ephesus started a riot because Jesus was bad for business 19:24 to 27.
WHO GETS IN. Some taught that Gentiles had to keep the law of Moses before they could be saved 15:1.
MOB RULE. In the Ephesus riot most of the crowd did not even know why they were there 19:32.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Jesus goes up to heaven, and the Holy Spirit comes down. Acts shows a small group of scared followers turn into bold witnesses who fill Jerusalem with the news that Jesus is alive. Peter leads the first half of the book. Then Saul, who hunted Christians, meets Jesus and becomes Paul, who leads the second half. The good news jumps from Jews to Samaritans to Gentiles, and the book ends with Paul preaching in Rome, the capital of the world.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

PART TWO OF TWO
Luke ends his Gospel with Jesus telling the disciples to wait in Jerusalem for power from on high Luke 24:49. Acts picks up right there. Same author, same reader, one story.

WE WERE THERE
In 16:10 Luke stops saying they and starts saying we. The we sections, through the shipwreck in chapter 27, read like a travel diary, with ports, winds and days counted.

LUKE GOT THE TITLES RIGHT
Roman titles changed from city to city, and Luke uses the right one every time: politarchs in Thessalonica, a proconsul in Cyprus and Corinth, and the first man of the island on Malta. Digs have found the same titles carved in stone. See the Field Notes pages, p.1771.

THE BOOK WITH NO ENDING
Acts stops with Paul still waiting for his trial. Many say the story is not over, because the church is still writing it.

Did Anybody Listen?

About 120 believers in one room became churches in Jerusalem, Antioch, Ephesus, Corinth and Rome in about thirty years. Church tradition says Peter and Paul were both killed in Rome under Nero in the AD 60s. Less than three hundred years later the Roman emperor himself became a Christian. Today about one in three people on earth call themselves Christians.

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

For forty days the risen Jesus teaches His followers. He tells them to wait in Jerusalem for the Holy Spirit, then goes up into the clouds while they stand there staring. Two angels basically say, Why are you looking at the sky? He is coming back the same way. They pray, and Matthias is picked to replace Judas.

PROLOGUE // LUKE 1:1–4

1 In my first book, O Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach, 2 until the day He was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles He had chosen. 3 After His suffering, He presented Himself to them with many convincing proofs that He was alive. He appeared to them over a span of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God.

4 And while they were gathered together,
He commanded them: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift the Father promised, which you have heard Me discuss. 5 For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

THE ASCENSION // MARK 16:19–20; LUKE 24:50–53

6 So when they came together, they asked Him, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

7 Jesus replied, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by His own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

9 After He had said this, they watched as He was taken up, and a cloud hid Him from their sight. 10 They were looking intently into the sky as He was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. 11 "Men of Galilee," they said,
"why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen Him go into heaven."

MATTHIAS REPLACES JUDAS

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, which is near the city, a Sabbath day's walk, a little over half a mile away. 13 When they arrived, they went to the upper room where they were staying: Peter and John, James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.
14 With one accord they all continued in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

15 In those days Peter stood up among the brothers (a gathering of about a hundred and twenty) and said, 16 "Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit foretold through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus. 17 He was one of our number and shared in this ministry."

18 (Now with the reward for his wickedness Judas bought a field; there he fell headlong and burst open in the middle, and all his intestines spilled out. 19 This became known to all who lived in Jerusalem, so they called that field in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

'May his place be deserted;
let there be no one to dwell in it,'

ACTS 1:1 [TEXT] Acts comes down to us in two forms. Most manuscripts have the shorter one, which this Bible follows. Codex Bezae, from about AD 400, and a few other early copies have a longer form, about 8 percent longer. For example, Bezae adds the Golden Rule to the letter in 15:20 and 15:29. The story is the same in both.

23 So they proposed two men: Joseph and Matthias. 24 And they prayed, "Lord,

You know everyone's heart. Show us which of these two You have chosen 25 to 26 Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias. So he was added to the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Pentecost. A sound like a mighty wind fills the house, flames rest on each believer, and they speak in languages they never learned. Visitors from all over hear God praised in their own tongue. Some say they are drunk. Peter says, It is only nine in the morning. He preaches Jesus, and about three thousand people are baptized in one day.

THE HOLY SPIRIT AT PENTECOST // GENESIS 11:1–9; LEVITICUS 23:15–22

1 When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly a sound like a mighty rushing wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 They saw tongues like flames of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

5 Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem
God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. 6 And when this sound rang out, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking his own language.

7 Astounded and amazed, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?
8 How is it then that each of us hears them in his own native language? 9 Parthians, Medes, and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome, 11 both Jews and converts to Judaism; Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!"

12 Astounded and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?"

13 But others mocked them and said, "They are drunk on new wine!"

14 Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, lifted up his voice, and addressed the crowd: "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen carefully to my words. 15 These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It is only the third hour of the day! 16 No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

and they will prophesy.

Where the crowd at Pentecost came from

THE FEAST Pentecost, the Feast of Weeks, came about 50 days after Passover, Leviticus 23:15 to 16. Jews from all over the world came to Jerusalem for it, Acts 2:5.

3,000 IN ONE DAY About 3,000 people believed and were baptized, Acts 2:41. Many carried the news home to the places on this map.

EACH IN HIS OWN LANGUAGE When the Holy Spirit came, the apostles spoke in tongues, and each visitor heard them in his own language, Acts 2:6 to 11.

ROME ALREADY Visitors from Rome were there, Acts 2:10. By the time Paul wrote Romans, about AD 57, the church in Rome was well known, Romans 1:8.

Names follow the list in Acts 2:9 to 11. Places are shown at the middle of each region.

22 Men of Israel, listen to this message: Jesus of Nazareth was a man certified by God to you by miracles, wonders, and signs, which God did among you through Him, as you yourselves know. 23 He was delivered up by God's set plan and foreknowledge, and you, by the hands of the lawless, put Him to death by nailing Him to the cross. 24 But God raised Him from the dead, releasing Him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep Him in its grip.

25 David says about Him:

'I saw the Lord always before me;
because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.
26 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue
rejoices;
my body also will dwell in hope, 27 because You will not abandon my soul to Hades,
nor will You let Your Holy One see decay.
28 You have made known to me the paths of
life;
You will fill me with joy in Your presence.'

29 Brothers, I can tell you with confidence that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that He would place one of his descendants on his throne. 31 Foreseeing this, David spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did His body see decay. 32 God has raised this Jesus to life, to which we are all witnesses.

33 Exalted, then, to the right hand of God, He has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit and has poured out what you now see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend into heaven, but he himself says:

'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand
35 until I make Your enemies
a footstool for Your feet."'

36 Therefore let all Israel know with certainty that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ!"

THREE THOUSAND BELIEVE

37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and asked Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

38 Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 This promise belongs to you and your children and to all who are far off—to all whom the Lord our God will call to Himself."

40 With many other words he testified, and he urged them, "Be saved from this corrupt generation." 41 Those who embraced his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to the believers that day.

THE BIG QUESTION

PENTECOST

The Day the Church Was Born

ACTS 2:1 TO 47 · LEVITICUS 23:15 TO 21 · JOEL 2:28 TO 32 · GENESIS 11:1 TO 9 · EXODUS 19 AND 32

WHAT THE FEAST WAS

Pentecost is Greek for fiftieth. It is the Feast of Weeks, Shavuot, fifty days after Passover, when the first loaves of the wheat harvest were offered to God, Leviticus 23:15 to 21. It was one of three feasts when Jewish men came to Jerusalem, Deuteronomy 16:16. That is why Jews from every nation under heaven were in town, 2:5.

WHAT HAPPENED

About 120 believers were together, 1:15. A sound like a mighty rushing wind filled the house, tongues like fire rested on each one, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, 2:2 to 4. Jesus had told them to wait for this, 1:4 to 5.

REAL LANGUAGES

The crowd heard them in their own languages, from Parthia and Media to Egypt, Libya, Crete, Arabia and Rome, praising the mighty works of God, 2:6 to 11. Some mocked and said they were drunk. Peter said, it is only nine in the morning, 2:15. See the Romans tongues pages, p.1809, for how this compares with tongues in 1 Corinthians 14.

WHAT PETER SAID

This is what Joel spoke about: In the last days I will pour out My Spirit on all people; your sons and daughters will prophesy, 2:16 to 18 and Joel 2:28 to 29. The Spirit was no longer for a few prophets and kings. It was for everyone, men and women, young and old.

WHAT IT STARTED

About 3,000 were baptized that day, 2:41. They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching, to fellowship, to breaking bread and to prayer, 2:42. Most Christians count this day as the birthday of the church.

Babel, Sinai and the Harvest

ACTS 2:1 TO 41 · GENESIS 11:1 TO 9 · EXODUS 19:16 TO 19 · 32:28 · 2 CORINTHIANS 3:6

BABEL TURNED AROUND

At Babel, God confused one language into many and scattered the people, Genesis 11:7 to 9. At Pentecost, many languages carried one message and gathered people back together. Christians have pointed this out since the early church.

THE SINAI CONNECTION

Israel reached Mount Sinai in the third month after leaving Egypt, about the time of this feast, Exodus 19:1. Jewish tradition came to remember Shavuot as the day God gave the Law; the Book of Jubilees, written before Jesus, already ties the feast to God's covenant, and later rabbis say it plainly. At Sinai there was fire, smoke and a loud trumpet, Exodus 19:16 to 19. At Pentecost there was wind, fire and many voices.

3,000 AND 3,000

After the golden calf at Sinai, about 3,000 people died, Exodus 32:28. At Pentecost about 3,000 were saved, Acts 2:41. Many preachers connect the two with Paul's words: the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life, 2 Corinthians 3:6. Acts itself does not make the link, but the numbers are hard to miss.

THE FIRSTFRUITS

The feast offered the first loaves of the harvest. Jesus had said the fields are white for harvest, John 4:35. Pentecost

ACTS 2:46 [HEART] The early church shared meals with glad and sincere hearts.

MIRACLES

was the first loaf of a harvest that is still going on.

WHY PENTECOSTALS ARE CALLED THAT

The Pentecostal movement, which began in 1901 and 1906, took its name from this day because it expected the same Spirit and the same gifts. Churches still keep the feast of Pentecost, sometimes called Whitsunday, fifty days after Easter.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

IN JESUS' NAME?

Acts 2:38 and Matthew 28:19

ACTS 2:38 · 8:16 · 10:48 · 19:5 · MATTHEW 28:19

THE TWO VERSES

Peter said: Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, 2:38. Acts says the same in 8:16, 10:48 and 19:5. But Jesus said to baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Matthew 28:19. Which words should be said?

THE ONENESS VIEW

In 1913, at a camp meeting at Arroyo Seco near Los Angeles, a preacher named R. E. McAlister pointed out that the apostles baptized in Jesus' name. In 1914 Frank Ewart began rebaptizing people that way. When the Assemblies of God adopted a Trinity statement in 1916, many ministers left. Today the largest Oneness church is the United Pentecostal Church International, formed in 1945. They say Jesus is the one name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, since 28:19 says name, not names, and that baptism should be done in that name.

THE TRINITARIAN VIEW

In Jesus' name in Acts means by His authority and into Him, as opposed to John's baptism, 19:3 to 5. The Didache, about AD 100, tells churches to baptize in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit (7), and in the same book speaks of those baptized into the name of the Lord (9). The two phrases lived side by side. Most churches use the words of 28:19. See The Trinity in Matthew, p.1602.

THE OTHER BIG QUESTION IN 2:38

Is baptism needed to be saved?

Churches of Christ, Catholics, Orthodox and Lutherans say baptism is where God forgives and gives new life. Most Baptists and evangelicals say faith saves, and baptism shows it; Cornelius received the Holy Spirit before he was baptized, 10:44 to 48.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Repent, be baptized, and receive the Holy Spirit. Jesus is Lord.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

A man who could not walk since birth begs at the temple gate. Peter says, Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give you. In the name of Jesus, walk. The man jumps up, walking and leaping and praising God. A crowd runs over, and Peter preaches again.

A LAME MAN WALKS

1 One afternoon Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. 2 And a man who was lame from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those entering the temple courts. 3 When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money.

4 Peter looked directly at him, as did John.
"Look at us!" said Peter. 5 So the man gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said,
"Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!"

7 Taking him by the right hand, Peter helped him up, and at once the man's feet and ankles were made strong. 8 He sprang to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and leaping and praising God.

9 When all the people saw him walking and praising God, 10 they recognized him as the man who used to sit begging at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

PETER SPEAKS IN SOLOMON'S COLONNADE // DEUTERONOMY 18:15–22

11 While the man clung to Peter and John,
all the people were astonished and ran to them in the walkway called Solomon's Colonnade. 12 And when Peter saw this, he addressed the people: "Men of Israel, why are you surprised by this? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or god-liness we had made this man walk?
13 The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His servant Jesus. You handed Him over and rejected Him before Pilate, even though he had decided to release Him. 14 You rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you.
15 You killed the Author of life, but God raised Him from the dead, and we are witnesses of this fact.
16 By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know has been made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through Him that has given him
this complete healing in your presence.
17 And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did your leaders. 18
But in this way God has fulfilled what He foretold through all the prophets, saying that His Christ would suffer. 19 Repent, then, and turn back, so that your sins may be wiped away, 20 that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that He may send Jesus, the Christ,
who has been appointed for you.
21 Heaven must take Him in until the time comes for the restoration of all things, which God announced long ago through His holy prophets. 22 For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers. You must listen to Him in everything He tells you. 23
Everyone who does not listen to Him will be completely cut off from among his people.'
24 Indeed, all the prophets from Samuel on, as many as have spoken, have proclaimed these days. 25 And you are sons of the prophets and of the covenant God made with your fathers when He said to Abraham, 'Through your offspring all the families of the earth will be blessed.' 26 When God raised up His Servant, He sent Him first to you to bless you by turning each of you from your wicked ways."

The leaders arrest Peter and John and tell them to stop talking about Jesus. They answer, We cannot stop speaking about what we have seen and heard. When they pray, the whole place shakes. The believers share everything they own, and a man named Barnabas sells a field and gives the money.

PETER AND JOHN BEFORE THE SANHEDRIN

1 While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to them, 2 greatly disturbed that they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead. 3 They seized Peter and John, and because it was evening, they put them in custody until the next day. 4 But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew to about five thousand.

scribes assembled in Jerusalem, 6 along with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and many others from the high priest's family. 7 They had Peter

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES THE HEART MIRACLES OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers and elders of the people! 9 If we are being examined today about a kind service to a man who was lame, to determine how he was healed, 10 then let this be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you healed. 11 This Jesus is

'the stone you builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone.'

12 Salvation exists in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."

THE NAME FORBIDDEN

13 When they saw the boldness of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they marveled and took note that these men had been with Jesus. 14 And seeing the man who had been healed standing there with them, they had nothing to say in response. 15 So they ordered them to leave the Sanhedrin and then conferred together.

16 "What shall we do with these men?"
they asked. "It is clear to everyone living in Jerusalem that a remarkable miracle has occurred through them, and we cannot deny it. 17 But to keep this message from spreading any further among the people, we must warn them not to speak to anyone in this name."

18 Then they called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John replied, "Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God's sight to listen to you rather than God. 20 For we cannot stop speaking about what we have seen and heard."

21 After further threats they let them go.
They could not find a way to punish them,
because all the people were glorifying God for what had happened. 22 For the man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.

THE BELIEVERS' PRAYER // PSALM 2:1–12

23 On their release, Peter and John returned to their own people and reported everything that the chief priests and elders had said to them. 24 When the believers heard this, they lifted up their voices to God with one accord. "Sovereign Lord," they said, "You made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them.
25 You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of Your servant, our father David:

'Why do the nations rage
and the peoples plot in vain?
26 The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the Lord and against His Anointed One.'

27 In fact, this is the very city where Herod and Pontius Pilate conspired with the Gentiles and the people of Israel against Your holy servant Jesus, whom You anointed. 28 They carried out what Your hand and will had decided beforehand would happen. 29 And now, Lord, consider their threats, and enable Your servants to speak Your word with complete boldness, 30 as You stretch out Your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of Your holy servant Jesus."

31 After they had prayed, their meeting place was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

SHARING AMONG BELIEVERS // ACTS 2:42–47

32 The multitude of believers was one in heart and soul. No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they shared everything they owned. 33 With great power the apostles continued to give their testimony about the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And abundant grace was upon them all.

34 There were no needy ones among them, because those who owned lands or houses would sell their property, bring the proceeds from the sales, 35 and lay them at the apostles' feet for distribution to anyone as he had need.

36 Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas (meaning Son of Encouragement), 37 sold a field he owned, brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

5

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Ananias and his wife Sapphira sell land, keep part of the money, and lie that they gave it all. Both drop dead. Sick people line the streets hoping Peter's shadow will fall on them. An angel opens the jail at night. The apostles are whipped and leave happy that they were counted worthy to suffer for His name.

ANANIAS AND SAPPHIRA

1 Now a man named Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, also sold a piece of property. 2 With his wife's full knowledge, he kept back some of the proceeds for himself, but brought a portion and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and withhold some of the proceeds from the land? 4 Did it not belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? How could you conceive such a deed in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God!"

5 On hearing these words, Ananias fell down and died. And great fear came over all who heard what had happened. 6 Then the young men stepped forward, wrapped up his body, and carried him out and buried him.

7 About three hours later his wife also came in, unaware of what had happened. 8 "Tell me," said Peter, "is this the price you and your husband got for the land?"

"Yes," she answered, "that is the price."

9 "How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord?" Peter replied. "Look, the feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also."

10 At that instant she fell down at his feet and died. Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband. 11 And great fear came over the whole church and all who heard about these events.

THE APOSTLES HEAL MANY

12 The apostles performed many signs and wonders among the people, and with one accord the believers gathered together in Solomon's Colonnade. 13 Although the people regarded them highly, no one else dared to join them. 14 Yet more and more believers were brought to the Lord—large numbers of both men and women.

15 As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by. 16 Crowds also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and all of them were healed.

THE APOSTLES ARRESTED AND FREED

17 Then the high priest and all his associates, who belonged to the party of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. They went out 18 and arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail. 19 But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought them out, saying, 20 "Go, stand in the temple courts and tell the people the full message of this new life."

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES

21 At daybreak the apostles entered the temple courts as they had been told and began to teach the people.

When the high priest and his associates arrived, they convened the Sanhedrin—the full assembly of the elders of Israel—and sent to the jail for the apostles. 22 But on arriving at the jail, the officers did not find them there. So they returned with the report: 23 "We found the jail securely locked, with the guards posted at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside."

THE APOSTLES BEFORE THE SANHEDRIN

24 When the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard this account, they were perplexed as to what was happening. 25 Then someone came in and announced, "Look, the men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts teaching
the people!"

26 At that point, the captain went with the officers and brought the apostles—but not by force, for fear the people would stone them. 27 They brought them in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, where the high priest interrogated them. 28 "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name," he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us responsible for this man's blood."

29 But Peter and the other apostles replied,
"We must obey God rather than men. 30
The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging Him on a tree. 31 God exalted Him to His right hand as Prince and Savior, in order to grant repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel.
32 We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him."

GAMALIEL'S ADVICE

33 When the Council members heard this, they were enraged, and they resolved to put the apostles to death. 34 But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a short time.

35 "Men of Israel," he said, "consider carefully what you are about to do to these men. 36 Some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men joined him. He was killed, all his followers were dispersed, and it all came to nothing. 37 After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and drew away people after him. He too perished, and all his followers were scattered.

38 So in the present case I advise you:
Leave these men alone. Let them go! For if their purpose or endeavor is of human origin, it will fail. 39 But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God."

40 At this, they yielded to Gamaliel. They called the apostles in and had them flogged. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released
them.

41 The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name. 42 Every day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they did not stop teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Christ.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

The church grows fast, and Greek speaking widows are being left out of the food line. The apostles pick seven men full of the Spirit to serve tables. One of them is Stephen, who does great wonders. Enemies bring liars against him, and when the council looks at him, his face looks like the face of an angel.

THE CHOOSING OF THE SEVEN // 1 TIMOTHY 3:8–13

1 In those days when the disciples were increasing in number, the Grecian Jews among them began to grumble against the Hebraic Jews because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food.

MESSIANIC FORESHADOW OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

2 So the Twelve summoned all the disciples and said, "It is unacceptable for us to neglect the word of God in order to wait on tables. 3 Therefore, brothers, select from among you seven men confirmed to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will assign this responsibility to them 4 and will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

5 This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, as well as Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism. 6 They presented these seven to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

7 So the word of God continued to spread. The number of disciples in Jerusalem grew rapidly, and a great number of priests became obedient to the faith.

THE ARREST OF STEPHEN

8 Now Stephen, who was full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people. 9 But resistance arose from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, including Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and men from the provinces of Cilicia and Asia. They disputed with Stephen, 10 but they could not stand up to his wisdom or the Spirit by whom he spoke.

11 Then they prompted some men to say, "We heard Stephen speak words of blasphemy against Moses and against God."

12 So they stirred up the people, elders, and scribes and confronted Stephen. They seized him and brought him before the Sanhedrin, 13 where they presented false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking against this holy place and against the law. 14 For we have heard him say that Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us."

15 All who were sitting in the Sanhedrin looked intently at Stephen, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Stephen walks the council through Israel's history, from Abraham to Moses to Solomon, and shows how they always rejected the ones God sent. They grind their teeth. Stephen sees heaven open and Jesus standing at God's right hand. They stone him while a young man named Saul holds their coats. Stephen dies forgiving them.

STEPHEN'S ADDRESS: THE CALL OF ABRAHAM // GENESIS 12:1–9

1 Then the high priest asked Stephen, "Are these charges true?"

2 And Stephen declared: "Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, 3 and told him, 'Leave your country and your kindred and go to the land I will show you.' 4 So Abraham left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After his father died, God brought him out of that place and into this land where you are now living.

5 He gave him no inheritance here, not even a foot of ground. But God promised to give possession of the land to Abraham and his descendants, even though he did not yet have a child. 6 God told him that his descendants would be foreigners in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated four hundred years. 7 'But I will punish the nation that enslaves them,' God said, 'and afterward they will come forth and worship Me in this place.'

8 Then God gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision, and Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. And Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

JOSEPH SOLD INTO EGYPT // GENESIS 37:12–30

Pharaoh king of Egypt, who appointed him ruler over Egypt and all his household.

11 Then famine and great suffering swept across Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers could not find food. 12 When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers on their first visit. 13 On their second visit, Joseph revealed his identity to his brothers, and his family became known to Pharaoh. 14 Then Joseph sent for his father Jacob and all his relatives, seventy-five in all.

ISRAEL OPPRESSED IN EGYPT // EXODUS 1:8–22

15 So Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our fathers died. 16 Their bones were carried back to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor at Shechem for a price he paid in silver.

17 As the time drew near for God to fulfill His promise to Abraham, our people in Egypt increased greatly in number. 18 Then another king, who knew nothing of Joseph, arose over Egypt. 19 He exploited our people and oppressed our fathers, forcing them to abandon their infants so they would die.

THE BIRTH AND ADOPTION OF MOSES // EXODUS 2:1–10; HEBREWS 11:23–29

20 At that time Moses was born, and he was beautiful in the sight of God. For three months he was nurtured in his father's house. 21 When he was set outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and brought him up as her own son. 22 So Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in speech and action.

THE REJECTION AND FLIGHT OF MOSES // EXODUS 2:11–22

23 When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his brothers, the children of Israel. 24 And when he saw one of them being mistreated, Moses went to his defense and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian who was oppressing him. 25 He assumed his brothers would understand that God was using him to deliver them, but they did not.

26 The next day he came upon two Israelites who were fighting, and he tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why are you mistreating each other?'

27 But the man who was abusing his neighbor pushed Moses aside and said, 'Who made you ruler and judge over us? 28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 At this remark, Moses fled to the land of Midian, where he lived as a foreigner and had two sons.

THE CALL OF MOSES // EXODUS 3:1–22

30 After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai. 31 When Moses saw it, he marveled at the sight. As he approached to look more closely, the voice of the Lord came to him: 32 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look.

33 Then the Lord said to him, 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. 34 I have indeed seen the oppression of My people in Egypt. I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you back to Egypt.'

35 This Moses, whom they had rejected with the words, 'Who made you ruler and judge?' is the one whom God sent to be their ruler and redeemer through the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 He led them out and performed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, at the Red Sea, and for forty years in the wilderness.

37 This is the same Moses who told the Israelites, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.' 38 He was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers. And he received living words to pass on to us.

THE REBELLION OF ISRAEL // EXODUS 32:1–35; DEUTERONOMY 9:7–29; AMOS 5:16–27

39 But our fathers refused to obey him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt. 40 They said to Aaron, *'Make us gods who will go before us! As for this Moses who led us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened
to him.'*

41 At that time they made a calf and offered a sacrifice to the idol, rejoicing in the works of their hands. 42 But God turned away from them and gave them over to the worship of the host of heaven,
as it is written in the book of the prophets:

*'Did you bring Me sacrifices and offerings
forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?*
43 *You have taken along the tabernacle of Molech and the star of your god Rephan,
the idols you made to worship.
Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Babylon.'*

THE TABERNACLE OF THE TESTIMONY // EXODUS 40:1–33; HEBREWS 9:1–10

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of the Testimony with them in the wilderness. It was constructed exactly as God had directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen. 45 And our fathers who received it brought it in with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations God drove out before them. It remained until the time of David, 46 who found favor in the sight of God and asked to provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob. 47 But it was Solomon who built the house for Him.

48 However, the Most High does not dwell in houses made by human hands. As the prophet says:

49 *'Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool.
What kind of house will you build for Me, says the Lord, or where will My place of repose be?
50 Has not My hand made all these things?'*

51 You stiff-necked people with uncircumcised hearts and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit, just as your fathers did. 52 Which of the prophets did your fathers fail to persecute? They even killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One. And now you are His betrayers and murderers— 53 you who received the law ordained by angels, yet have not kept it."

THE STONING OF STEPHEN

54 On hearing this, the members of the Sanhedrin were enraged, and they gnashed their teeth at him. 55 But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked intently into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. 56 "Look," he said, "I see heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God."

57 At this they covered their ears, cried out in a loud voice, and rushed together at him. 58 They dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile the witnesses laid their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul.

59 While they were stoning him, Stephen appealed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60 Falling on his knees, he cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE THE HEART DEMONIC

SAUL PERSECUTES THE CHURCH

1 And Saul was there, giving approval to Stephen's death.

On that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria. 2 God-fearing men buried Stephen and mourned deeply over him. 3 But Saul began to destroy the church. Going from house to house, he dragged off men and women and put them in prison.

PHILIP IN SAMARIA

4 Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. 5 Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Christ to them. 6 The crowds all paid close attention to Philip's message and to the signs they saw him perform. 7 With loud shrieks, unclean spirits came out of many who were possessed, and many of the paralyzed and lame were healed. 8 So there was great joy in that city.

SIMON THE SORCERER // DEUTERONOMY 18:9–14

9 Prior to that time, a man named Simon had practiced sorcery in the city and astounded the people of Samaria. He claimed to be someone great, 10 and all the people, from the least to the greatest, heeded his words and said, "This man is the divine power called the Great Power." 11 They paid close attention to him because he had astounded them for a long time with his sorcery.

12 But when they believed Philip as he preached the gospel of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13 Even Simon himself believed and was baptized. He followed Philip closely and was astounded by the great signs and miracles he observed.

14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. 15
On their arrival, they prayed for them to receive the Holy Spirit. 16 For the Holy Spirit had not yet fallen upon any of them;
they had simply been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18 When Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money. 19
"Give me this power as well," he said, "so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

20 But Peter replied, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money! 21
You have no part or share in our ministry, because your heart is not right before God. 22 Repent, therefore, of your wickedness, and pray to the Lord. Perhaps He will forgive you for the intent of your heart. 23 For I see that you are poisoned by bitterness and captive to iniquity."

24 Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing you have said may happen to me."

25 And after Peter and John had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many of the Samaritan villages.

DEBATED THE BIG QUESTION

BAPTIZED IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

At Salvation or After?

ACTS 1:5 · 2:4 · 8:14 TO 17 · 10:44 TO 46 · 19:1 TO 6 · 1 CORINTHIANS 12:13

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

John the Baptist said Jesus would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire, Luke 3:16. Jesus said, in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit, 1:5. Paul says we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body, 1 Corinthians 12:13.

filled and spoke in tongues, 2:4. The Samaritans believed and were baptized, but received the Spirit later, when Peter and John came and laid hands on them, 8:14 to 17. Cornelius' household received the Spirit and spoke in tongues while Peter was still preaching, before baptism, 10:44 to 46. Twelve disciples in Ephesus received the Spirit after Paul laid hands on them, and spoke in tongues and prophesied, 19:1 to 6. Sometimes at the moment of faith, sometimes after.

WHERE THE SECOND BLESSING IDEA CAME FROM

John Wesley taught a second work of grace after salvation. The Holiness movement of the 1800s began calling it the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Preachers like D. L. Moody and R. A. Torrey taught a baptism of power for service. In 1901 Charles Parham tied it to speaking in tongues, and the Pentecostal movement was born. The full story is in the Romans tongues pages, p.1809.

WHY IT MATTERS

If the baptism in the Spirit is a second experience, every believer should seek it. If it happens at salvation, every believer already has it and should be filled again and again, Ephesians 5:18.

The Baptism in the Holy Spirit

ACTS 1:8 · 4:31 · 8:17 · ROMANS 8:9 · EPHESIANS 5:18 · GALATIANS 5:22 TO 23

CLASSICAL PENTECOSTAL

A second experience after salvation that gives power to be witnesses, 1:8. Speaking in tongues is its first outward sign, 2:4, 10:46 and 19:6. The Assemblies of God, the Church of God and others teach that every believer should seek it.

CHARISMATIC AND THIRD WAVE

Believers can be filled with the Spirit in powerful ways, often more than once, as in 4:31. Tongues is a real gift, but one gift among many, and not everyone speaks in tongues, 1 Corinthians 12:30.

AT SALVATION

Every believer is baptized in the Spirit the moment they are saved. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to Him, Romans 8:9. Later experiences are fillings, not a second baptism. The delays in Acts happened once, as the gospel moved from Jews to Samaritans to Gentiles, so the apostles could see that each group was really included. Baptists, Reformed churches and many evangelicals hold this view. James Dunn argued it in his 1970 book Baptism in the Holy Spirit.

CATHOLIC AND ORTHODOX

The Spirit is given in baptism and sealed in confirmation, called chrismation in the East, when the bishop or priest anoints and prays, like 8:17. The Catholic Charismatic Renewal, begun in 1967, speaks of baptism in the Spirit as stirring up the grace already given.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

No one can belong to Christ without the Spirit, Romans 8:9. Every believer is told to be filled with the Spirit, Ephesians 5:18. The proof of the Spirit is love, joy, peace and the rest of His fruit, Galatians 5:22 to 23.

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN // ISAIAH 53:1–8

26 Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip,
"Get up and go south to the desert road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." 27 So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official in charge of the entire treasury of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship, 28 and on his return was sitting in his chariot reading
Isaiah the prophet.
29 The Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to that chariot and stay by it."
30 So Philip ran up and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked.
31 "How can I," he said, "unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.
32 The eunuch was reading this passage

35 Then Philip began with this very Scripture and told him the good news about Jesus.

36 As they traveled along the road and came to some water, the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is there to prevent me from being baptized?" 37 [And Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may be baptized." The eunuch replied, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."] 38 And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more, but went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip appeared at Azotus and traveled through that region, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

On the road to Damascus a light from heaven knocks Saul to the ground, and Jesus asks, Why do you persecute Me? Saul is blind for three days until a nervous believer named Ananias prays for him. Saul starts preaching Jesus and has to escape over the city wall in a basket. Peter heals Aeneas and raises Tabitha from the dead.

THE ROAD TO DAMASCUS // ACTS 22:1–21; ACTS 26:1–23

1 Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the disciples of the Lord. He approached the high priest 2 and requested letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any men or women belonging to the Way, he could bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

3 As Saul drew near to Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. 4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?"

5 "Who are You, Lord?" Saul asked.

"I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," He replied. 6 "Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

7 The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless. They heard the voice but did not see anyone. 8 Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could not see a thing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus. 9 For three days he was without sight, and he did not eat or drink anything.

ANANIAS BAPTIZES SAUL

10 In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, "Ananias!"

"Here I am, Lord," he answered.

11 "Get up!" the Lord told him. "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. 12 In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight."

13 But Ananias answered, "Lord, many people have told me about this man and all the harm he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem. 14 And now he is here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on Your name."

15 "Go!" said the Lord. "This man is My chosen instrument to carry My name before the Gentiles and their kings, and before the people of Israel. 16 I will show him how much he must suffer for My name."

17 So Ananias went to the house, and when he arrived, he placed his hands on Saul. "Brother Saul," he said, "the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here, has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit."

18 At that instant, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and his sight was restored. He got up and was baptized, 19 and after taking some food, he regained his strength. And he spent several days with the disciples in Damascus.

SAUL PREACHES AT DAMASCUS

20 Saul promptly began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, declaring, "He is the Son of God."

21 All who heard him were astounded and asked, "Isn't this the man who wreaked havoc in Jerusalem on those who call on this name? And hasn't he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?"

22 But Saul was empowered all the more, and he confounded the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ.

THE ESCAPE FROM DAMASCUS

23 After many days had passed, the Jews conspired to kill him, 24 but Saul learned of their plot. Day and night they watched the city gates in order to kill him. 25 One night, however, his disciples took him and lowered him in a basket through a window in the wall.

SAUL IN JERUSALEM

26 When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 Then Barnabas brought him to the apostles and described how Saul had seen the Lord, who had spoken to him on the road to Damascus, and how Saul had spoken boldly in that city in the name of Jesus.

28 So Saul stayed with them, moving about freely in Jerusalem and speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. 29 He talked and debated with the Grecian Jews, but they tried to kill him. 30 When the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

THE HEALING OF AENEAS

31 Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria experienced a time of peace. It grew in strength and numbers, living in the fear of the Lord and the encouragement of the Holy Spirit.

32 As Peter traveled throughout the area, he went to visit the saints in Lydda. 33 There he found a man named Aeneas who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years. 34 "Aeneas," Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ heals you! Get up and put away your mat." Immediately Aeneas got up, 35 and all who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

THE RAISING OF TABITHA // JOHN 11:38–44

36 In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which is translated as Dorcas), who was always occupied with works of kindness and charity. 37 At that time, however, she became sick and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upper room. 38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to urge him, "Come to us without delay."

39 So Peter got up and went with them. On his arrival, they took him to the upper room. All the widows stood around him, weeping and showing him the tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

40 Then Peter sent them all out of the room. He knelt down and prayed, and turning toward her body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. 41 Peter took

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Cornelius, a Roman officer, sees an angel who tells him to send for Peter. Meanwhile Peter, hungry on a rooftop, sees a sheet full of animals he was never allowed to eat. A voice says, Get up, Peter, kill and eat. Peter goes to Cornelius' house, and the Holy Spirit falls on Gentiles while Peter is still talking.

CORNELIUS SENDS FOR PETER

1 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was called the Italian Regiment. 2 He and all his household were devout and God-fearing. He gave generously to the people and prayed to God regularly. 3 One day at about the ninth hour, he had a clear vision of an angel of God who came to him and said, "Cornelius!"

4 Cornelius stared at him in fear and asked, "What is it, Lord?"

The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have ascended as a memorial offering before God. 5 Now send men to Joppa to call for a man named Simon who is called Peter. 6 He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea."

7 When the angel who spoke to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among his attendants. 8 He explained what had happened and sent them to Joppa.

PETER'S VISION // LEVITICUS 11:1–47; DEUTERONOMY 14:1–21

9 The next day at about the sixth hour, as the men were approaching the city on their journey, Peter went up on the roof to pray. 10 He became hungry and wanted something to eat, but while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

11 He saw heaven open and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. 12 It contained all kinds of four-footed animals and reptiles of the earth, as well as birds of the air. 13 Then a voice said to him: "Get up, Peter, kill and eat!"

14 "No, Lord!" Peter answered. "I have never eaten anything impure or unclean."

15 The voice spoke to him a second time: "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean."

16 This happened three times, and all at once the sheet was taken back up into heaven.

PETER CALLED TO CAESAREA

17 While Peter was puzzling over the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found Simon's house and approached the gate. 18 They called out to ask if Simon called Peter was staying there.

19 As Peter continued to reflect on the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you. 20 So get up! Go downstairs and accompany them without hesitation, because I have sent them."

21 So Peter went down to the men and said, "Here am I, the one you are looking for. Why have you come?"

22 "Cornelius the centurion has sent us," they said. "He is a righteous and God-fearing man with a good reputation among the whole Jewish nation. A holy angel instructed him to request your presence in his home so he could hear a message from you."

23 So Peter invited them in as his guests. And the next day he got ready and went with them, accompanied by some of the brothers from Joppa.

enter, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet to worship him. 26 But Peter helped him up. "Stand up," he said, "I am only a man myself."

27 As Peter talked with him, he went inside and found many people gathered together. 28 He said to them, "You know how unlawful it is for a Jew to associate with a foreigner or visit him. But God has shown me that I should not call any man impure or unclean. 29 So when I was invited, I came without objection. I ask, then, why have you sent for me?"

30 Cornelius answered: "Four days ago I was in my house praying at this, the ninth hour. Suddenly a man in radiant clothing stood before me 31 and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor have been remembered before God. 32 Therefore send to Joppa for Simon, who is called Peter. He is a guest in the home of Simon the tanner, by the sea.'

33 So I sent for you immediately, and you were kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has instructed you to tell us."

GOOD NEWS FOR THE GENTILES

34 Then Peter began to speak: "I now truly understand that God does not show favoritism, 35 but welcomes those from every nation who fear Him and do what is right. 36 He has sent this message to the people of Israel, proclaiming the gospel of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.

37 You yourselves know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee with the baptism that John proclaimed: 38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him.

39 We are witnesses of all that He did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. And although they put Him to death by hanging Him on a tree, 40 God raised Him up on the third day and caused Him to be seen— 41 not by all the people, but by the witnesses God had chosen beforehand, by us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. 42 And He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that He is the One appointed by God to judge the living and the dead. 43 All the prophets testify about Him that everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins through His name."

THE GENTILES RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT // ACTS 19:1–7

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard his message. 45 All the circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. 46 For they heard them speaking in tongues and exalting God.

Then Peter said, 47 "Can anyone withhold the water to baptize these people? They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have!" 48 So he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for a few days.

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Back in Jerusalem some believers are upset that Peter ate with Gentiles. He tells them the whole story, and they praise God. In Antioch, Jews and Greeks believe together, and the disciples are called Christians there for the first time. A prophet named Agabus warns of a famine, so the church sends help to Judea.

cised believers took issue with him [3] and said, "You visited uncircumcised men and ate with them."

[4] But Peter began and explained to them the whole sequence of events: [5] "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision of something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came right down to me. [6] I looked at it closely and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds of the air. [7] Then I heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter, kill and eat.'

[8] 'No, Lord,' I said, 'for nothing impure or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'

[9] But the voice spoke from heaven a second time, 'Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.'

[10] This happened three times, and everything was drawn back up into heaven.

[11] Just then three men sent to me from Caesarea stopped at the house where I was staying. [12] The Spirit told me to accompany them without hesitation. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man's home. [13] He told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. [14] He will convey to you a message by which you and all your household will be saved.'

[15] As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, just as He had fallen upon us at the beginning. [16] Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' [17] So if God gave them the same gift He gave us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to hinder the work of God?"

[18] When they heard this, they had no further objections, and they glorified God, saying, "So then, God has granted even the Gentiles repentance unto life."

THE CHURCH AT ANTIOCH

[19] Meanwhile those scattered by the persecution that began with Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the message only to Jews. [20] But some of them, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch and began speaking to the Greeks as well, proclaiming the good news about the Lord Jesus. [21] The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord.

[22] When news of this reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, they sent Barnabas to Antioch. [23] When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced and encouraged them all to abide in the Lord with all their hearts. [24] Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and a great number of people were brought to the Lord.

[25] Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul, [26] and when he found him, he brought him back to Antioch. So for a full year they met together with the church and taught large numbers of people. The disciples were first called Christians at Antioch.

[27] In those days some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. [28] One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted through the Spirit that a great famine would sweep across the whole world. (This happened under Claudius.) [29] So the disciples, each according to his ability, decided to send relief to the brothers living in Judea. [30] This they did, sending their gifts to the elders with Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

King Herod kills James and throws Peter in prison. The night before his trial, an angel wakes Peter, his chains fall off, and he walks out. He knocks at a house where people are praying for him. A servant girl named Rhoda is so excited she forgets to open the door. Later Herod accepts worship as a god, and an angel strikes him down.

JAMES KILLED, PETER IMPRISONED

1 About that time, King Herod reached out to harm some who belonged to the church. 2 He had James, the brother of John, put to death with the sword.

3 And seeing that this pleased the Jews, Herod proceeded to seize Peter during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. 4 He arrested him and put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out to the people after the Passover.

THE RESCUE OF PETER

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was fervently praying to God for
him.

6 On the night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, with sentries standing guard at the entrance to the prison. 7 Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his wrists. 8 "Get dressed and put on your sandals," said the angel.
Peter did so, and the angel told him,
"Wrap your cloak around you and follow
me."

9 So Peter followed him out, but he was unaware that what the angel was doing was real. He thought he was only seeing a vision. 10 They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city, which opened for them by itself. When they had gone outside and walked the length of one block, the angel suddenly left him.

11 Then Peter came to himself and said,
"Now I know for sure that the Lord has sent His angel and rescued me from Herod's grasp and from everything the Jewish people were anticipating."

12 And when he had realized this, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered together and were praying. 13 He knocked at the outer gate, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer it. 14
When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed that she forgot to open the gate, but ran inside and announced,
"Peter is standing at the gate!"

15 "You are out of your mind," they told her.
But when she kept insisting it was so, they said, "It must be his angel."

16 But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astounded. 17 Peter motioned with his hand for silence, and he described how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. "Send word to James and to the brothers," he said, and he left for another place.

18 At daybreak there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. 19 After Herod had searched for him unsuccessfully, he examined the guards and ordered that they be executed. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea and spent some time
there.

THE DEATH OF HEROD

20 Now Herod was in a furious dispute with the people of Tyre and Sidon, and they convened before him. Having secured the support of Blastus, the king's chamberlain, they asked for peace, because their region depended on the king's country for food. 21 On the appointed day, Herod donned his royal robes, sat on his throne, and addressed the people. 22 And they be-

The church in Antioch sends Barnabas and Saul on the first missionary trip. On Cyprus a sorcerer fights them and is struck blind, and the governor Sergius Paulus believes. From here on Saul goes by Paul. In another Antioch he preaches in the synagogue, many Gentiles believe, and the jealous leaders run them out of town.

1 Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch), and Saul. 2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." 3 And after they had fasted and prayed, they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

HEROD AGRIPPA'S DEATH: A SECOND WITNESS

ACTS 12:19 TO 23

A small bronze coin of King Herod Agrippa I, minted in Jerusalem. The design is a royal canopy, a kind of umbrella.

WHAT IT IS

Josephus, a Jewish historian who was not a Christian, tells the same story of King Herod Agrippa I's death that Luke tells in Acts 12. Coins Agrippa made with his own name have also been found.

HOW OLD IT IS

Josephus wrote it in his Antiquities of the Jews, Book 19, about AD 93. Agrippa died in AD 44. Coins like this one were made about AD 41 to 42, in his sixth year as king.

WHAT JOSEPHUS SAYS

At a festival in Caesarea, Agrippa came into the theater at sunrise wearing a robe made all of silver. It shined so brightly that flatterers called him a god. He did not stop them. Right away terrible pains struck his stomach. He was carried out and died five days later, at age 54.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Both writers agree on the city, the royal robe, the crowd calling him a god, his silence, and a sudden attack inside his body. Luke says an angel struck him because he did not give God the glory. Josephus says Agrippa himself admitted he was being punished for accepting the flattery.

STONED AND LEFT FOR DEAD At Lystra the crowd first called them gods, then stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city. He got up and went back in, Acts 14:8 to 20.

THE HONEST SIDE

The two do not match in every detail. Josephus adds an owl he saw as a sign of death, and Luke says he was eaten by worms. Luke tells why it happened. Josephus tells what people saw. Two writers telling the same event in their own words is what real history looks like.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

Copies of Josephus are in libraries all over the world. Agrippa's coins are in many museums, including the National Library of France, which owns this one.

ON CYPRUS

4 So Barnabas and Saul, sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus. 5 When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. And John was with them as their helper.

6 They traveled through the whole island as far as Paphos, where they found a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus, 7 an attendant of the proconsul, Sergius Paulus. The proconsul, a man of intelligence, summoned Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul from the faith.

SERGIUS PAULUS, GOVERNOR OF CYPRUS

ACTS 13:4 TO 12

Roman ruins in the archaeological park of Paphos, Cyprus, the city where Paul met the governor.

WHAT IT IS

Stone inscriptions that name men of the Sergius Paullus family, the same family name as the governor Paul met on Cyprus. Luke calls him the proconsul, the right title for a governor of a Roman province run by the Senate, which Cyprus was.

HOW OLD IT IS

The inscriptions come from the first century AD. The one in Rome is from the time of Emperor Claudius, AD 41 to 54, the same years Paul visited Cyprus, about AD 46 to 48.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

In Rome a stone found in 1887 lists a Lucius Sergius Paullus as one of the men in charge of the banks of the Tiber River. At Pisidian Antioch in Turkey, stones found in 1912 name a younger Lucius Sergius Paullus and a woman named Sergia Paulla. A stone from Cyprus mentions a proconsul named Paulus.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The Rome stone is in Rome. The Pisidian Antioch stones are in the museum at Yalvaç, Turkey.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

The Sergius Paullus family was real and powerful in Paul's day. It also owned land near Pisidian Antioch. Acts 13:14 says that right after the governor believed, Paul went straight to Pisidian Antioch. Some scholars think the governor sent Paul to his family's hometown.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No stone clearly says Sergius Paulus was proconsul of Cyprus in the right years. The Cyprus stone's date is debated. The man in Rome may be the governor himself or a relative.

9 Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked directly at Elymas 10 and said, "O child of the devil and enemy of all righteousness, you are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery! Will you never stop perverting the straight ways of the Lord? 11 Now look, the hand of the Lord is against you, and for a time you will be blind and unable to see the light of the sun." Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

12 When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

IN PISIDIAN ANTIOCH

13 After setting sail from Paphos, Paul and his companions came to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them to return to Jerusalem. 14 And from Perga, they traveled inland to Pisidian Antioch, where they entered the synagogue on the Sabbath and sat down. 15 After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent word to them: "Brothers, if you have a word of encouragement for the people, please speak."

16 Paul stood up, motioned with his hand, and began to speak: "Men of Israel and you Gentiles who fear God, listen to me! 17 The God of the people of Israel chose our fathers. He made them into a great people during their stay in Egypt, and with an uplifted arm He led them out of that land. 18 He endured their conduct for about forty years in the wilderness. 19 And having vanquished seven nations in Canaan, He gave their land to His people as an inheritance. 20 All this took about 450 years.

After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet. 21 Then the people asked for a king, and God gave them Saul son of Kish, from the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled forty years. 22 After removing Saul, He raised up David as their king and testified about him: 'I have found David son of Jesse a man after My own heart; he will carry out My will in its entirety.'

23 From the descendants of this man, God has brought to Israel the Savior Jesus, as He promised. 24 Before the arrival of Jesus, John preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 As John was completing his course, he said, 'Who do you suppose I am? I am not that One. But there is One coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'

26 Brothers, children of Abraham, and you Gentiles who fear God, it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent. 27 The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus, yet in condemning Him they fulfilled the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath. 28 And though they found no ground for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have Him executed.

29 When they had carried out all that was written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. 30 But God raised Him from the dead, 31 and for many days He was seen by those who had accompanied Him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now His witnesses to our people.

32 And now we proclaim to you the good news: What God promised our fathers 33 He has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm:

'You are My Son;
today I have become Your Father.'

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

34 In fact, God raised Him from the dead, never to see decay. As He has said:

'I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David.'

35 So also, He says in another Psalm:

'You will not let Your Holy One see decay.'

36 For when David had served God's purpose in his own generation, he fell asleep. His body was buried with his fathers and saw decay. 37 But the One whom God raised from the dead did not see decay.

38 Therefore let it be known to you, brothers, that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you. 39 Through Him everyone who believes is justified from everything from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Watch out, then, that what was spoken by the prophets does not happen to you:

41 'Look, you scoffers,
wonder and perish!
For I am doing a work in your days that you would never believe,
even if someone told you.'"

A LIGHT FOR THE GENTILES // ISAIAH 49:1–6

42 As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people urged them to continue this message on the next Sabbath. 43 After the synagogue was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

44 On the following Sabbath, nearly the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. 45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and they blasphemously contradicted what Paul was saying.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly: "It was necessary to speak the word of God to you first. But since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. 47 For this is what the Lord has commanded us:

'I have made you a light for the Gentiles,
to bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'"

48 When the Gentiles heard this, they rejoiced and glorified the word of the Lord, and all who were appointed for eternal life believed. 49 And the word of the Lord spread throughout that region.

50 The Jews, however, incited the religious women of prominence and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas and drove them out of their district. 51 So they shook the dust off their feet in protest against them and went to Iconium. 52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

In Lystra Paul heals a man who has never walked, and the crowd decides Paul and Barnabas are the gods Zeus and Hermes. They try to offer sacrifices. Paul and Barnabas tear their clothes and shout, We are only men. A few days later the same crowd stones Paul and leaves him for dead. He gets up and goes back into the city.

PAUL AND BARNABAS AT ICONIUM

1 At Iconium, Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish synagogue, where they spoke so well that a great number of Jews and Greeks believed. 2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. 3 So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly for the Lord, who affirmed the message of His grace by enabling them to perform signs and wonders.

4 The people of the city were divided. Some sided with the Jews, and others with the apostles. 5 But when the Gentiles and Jews, together with their rulers, set out to mistreat and stone them, 6 they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding region, 7 where they continued to preach the gospel.

THE VISIT TO LYSTRA AND DERBE

8 In Lystra there sat a man crippled in his feet, who was lame from birth and had never walked. 9 This man was listening to the words of Paul, who looked intently at him and saw that he had faith to be healed. 10 In a loud voice Paul called out, "Stand up on your feet!" And the man jumped up and began to walk.

11 When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices in the Lycaonian language: "The gods have come down to us in human form!" 12 Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. 13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates, hoping to offer a sacrifice along with the crowds.

14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul found out about this, they tore their clothes and rushed into the crowd, shouting, 15 "Men, why are you doing this? We too are only men, human like you. We are bringing you good news that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made heaven and earth and sea and everything in them. 16 In past generations, He let all nations go their own way. 17 Yet He has not left Himself without testimony to His goodness: He gives you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness."

18 Even with these words, Paul and Barnabas could hardly stop the crowds from sacrificing to them.

19 Then some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium and won over the crowds. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, presuming he was dead. 20 But after the disciples had gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. And the next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

STRENGTHENING THE DISCIPLES

21 They preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls of the disciples and encouraging them to continue in the faith. "We must endure many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," they said.

23 Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church, praying and fasting as they entrusted them to the Lord, in whom they had believed.

24 After passing through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. 25 And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

26 From Attalia they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had just completed. 27 When they arrived, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them, and how He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. 28 And they spent a long time there with the disciples.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

Some teachers say Gentiles must be circumcised and keep the law of Moses to be saved. The apostles and elders meet in Jerusalem. Peter says we are all saved by grace, and James agrees. They send a letter: no heavy burden for the Gentiles.

THE DISPUTE OVER CIRCUMCISION

1 Then some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." 2 And after engaging these men in sharp debate, Paul and Barnabas were appointed, along with some other believers, to go up to Jerusalem to see the apostles and elders about this question.

3 Sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, recounting the conversion of the Gentiles and bringing great joy to all the brothers. 4 On their arrival in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and apostles and elders, to whom they reported all that God had done through them.

THE COUNCIL AT JERUSALEM // AMOS 9:11–15; GALATIANS 2:1–10

5 But some believers from the party of the Pharisees stood up and declared, "The Gentiles must be circumcised and required to obey the law of Moses." 6 So the apostles and elders met to look into this matter.

7 After much discussion, Peter got up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you that the Gentiles would hear from my lips the message of the gospel and believe. 8 And God, who knows the heart, showed His approval by giving the Holy Spirit to them, just as He did to us. 9 He made no distinction between us and them, for He cleansed their hearts by faith.

10 Now then, why do you test God by placing on the necks of the disciples a yoke that neither we nor our fathers have been able to bear? 11 On the contrary, we believe it is through the grace of the Lord Jesus that we are saved, just as they are."

12 The whole assembly fell silent as they listened to Barnabas and Paul describing the signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them. 13 When they had finished speaking, James declared, "Brothers, listen to me! 14 Simon has told us how God first visited the Gentiles to take from them a people to be His own. 15 The words of the prophets agree with this, as it is written:

16 'After this I will return and rebuild
the fallen tent of David.
Its ruins I will rebuild,
and I will restore it, 17 so that the remnant of men may seek the Lord,
and all the Gentiles who are called by My name,
says the Lord who does these things
18 that have been known for ages.'

19 It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not cause trouble for the Gentiles who are turning to God. 20 Instead, we should write and tell them to abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from the meat of strangled animals, and from blood. 21 For Moses has been proclaimed in every city from ancient times and is read in the synagogues on every Sabbath."

THE LETTER TO THE GENTILE BELIEVERS

22 Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to select men from among them to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They chose Judas called Barsabbas and Silas, two leaders among the brothers, 23 and sent them with this letter:

The apostles and the elders, your brothers,

To the brothers among the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:

Greetings.

24 It has come to our attention that some went out from us without our authorization and unsettled you, troubling your minds by what they said. 25 So we all agreed to choose men to send to you along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas

Paul's Second Trip

The gospel crosses into Europe, about AD 49 to 52

A NEW TEAM Paul and Barnabas split over John Mark, so Paul took Silas, Acts 15:39 to 40. Timothy joined them at Lystra, Acts 16:1 to 3.

ATHENS AND CORINTH Paul preached about the unknown god in Athens, Acts 17:22 to 31, then stayed a year and a half in Corinth, Acts 18:11.

COME OVER AND HELP US At Troas Paul saw a vision of a man from Macedonia, so they sailed to Europe, Acts 16:9 to 10. Lydia of Philippi is the first believer in Europe that Acts names, Acts 16:14 to 15.

LETTERS ON THE WAY Most think Paul wrote 1 and 2 Thessalonians from Corinth, to the young church he had to leave in a hurry, Acts 17:10.

All the cities are known places. The land route through Galatia and Phrygia is approximate.

to tell you in person the same things we are writing.

28 It seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us not to burden you with anything beyond these essential requirements: 29 You must abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. You will do well to avoid these things.

Farewell.

THE BELIEVERS AT ANTIOCH REJOICE

30 So the men were sent off and went down to Antioch, where they assembled the congregation and delivered the letter. 31 When the people read it, they rejoiced at its encouraging message.

32 Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the brothers. 33 After spending some time there, they were sent off by the brothers in peace to return to those who had sent them. 34 [Silas, however, decided to remain there.] 35 But Paul and Barnabas remained at Antioch, along with many others, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord.

PAUL'S SECOND MISSIONARY JOURNEY BEGINS // ACTS 13:1–3; ACTS 18:23–28

36 Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit the brothers in every town where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing." 37 Barnabas wanted to take John, also called Mark. 38 But Paul thought it best not to take him, because he had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not accompanied them in the work.

39 Their disagreement was so sharp that they parted company. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, 40 but Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord. 41 And he traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

A vision of a man from Macedonia calls them to Europe. In Philippi Lydia believes. Paul casts a spirit out of a slave girl, her owners lose their income, and Paul and Silas are beaten and jailed. At midnight they sing, an earthquake opens the doors, and the jailer and his family believe.

TIMOTHY JOINS PAUL AND SILAS

1 Paul came to Derbe and then to Lystra, where he found a disciple named Timothy, the son of a believing Jewish woman and a Greek father. 2 The brothers in Lystra and Iconium spoke well of him. 3 Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him, so he took him and circumcised him on account of the Jews in that area, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

4 As they went from town to town, they delivered the decisions handed down by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem for the people to obey. 5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew daily in numbers.

PAUL'S VISION OF THE MACEDONIAN

6 After the Holy Spirit had prevented them from speaking the word in the province of Asia, they traveled through the region of Phrygia and Galatia. 7 And when they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not permit them. 8 So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.

9 During the night, Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and pleading with him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." 10 As soon as Paul had seen the vision, we got ready to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

LYDIA'S CONVERSION IN PHILIPPI // REVELATION 2:18–29

11 We sailed from Troas straight to Samothrace, and the following day on to Neapolis. 12 From there we went to the Roman colony of Philippi, the leading city of that district of Macedonia. And we stayed there several days.

THE HEART MIRACLES DEMONIC

13 On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate along the river, where it was customary to find a place of prayer. After sitting down, we spoke to the women who had gathered there.

14 Among those listening was a woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul's message. 15 And when she and her household had been baptized, she urged us, "If you consider me a believer in the Lord, come and stay at my house." And she persuaded us.

PAUL AND SILAS IMPRISONED

16 One day as we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl with a spirit of divination, who earned a large income for her masters by fortune-telling.
17 This girl followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation!"

18 She continued this for many days. Eventually Paul grew so aggravated that he turned and said to the spirit, "In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!" And the spirit left her at that very moment.

19 When the girl's owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them before the authorities in the marketplace.
20 They brought them to the magistrates and said, "These men are Jews and are throwing our city into turmoil 21 by promoting customs that are unlawful for us Romans to adopt or practice."

22 The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered that they be stripped and beaten with rods. 23 And after striking them with many blows, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to guard them securely. 24 On receiving this order, he placed them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

THE CONVERSION OF THE JAILER

25 About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them.
26 Suddenly a strong earthquake shook the foundations of the prison. At once all the doors flew open and everyone's chains came loose.

27 When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, presuming that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul called out in a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself! We are all here!"

29 Calling for lights, the jailer rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. 30
Then he brought them out and asked,
"Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31 They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, you and your household." 32 Then Paul and Silas spoke the word of the Lord to him and to everyone in his house. 33 At that hour of the night, the jailer took them and washed their wounds. And without delay, he and all his household were baptized. 34 Then he brought them into his home and set a meal before them. So he and all his household rejoiced that they had come to believe in God.

AN OFFICIAL APOLOGY

35 When daylight came, the magistrates sent their officers with the order: "Release those men."

36 The jailer informed Paul: "The magistrates have sent orders to release you.
Now you may go on your way in peace."

37 But Paul said to the officers, "They beat us publicly without a trial and threw us into prison, even though we are Roman citizens. And now do they want to send us away secretly? Absolutely not! Let them come themselves and escort us out!"

38 So the officers relayed this message to the magistrates, who were alarmed to hear that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens. 39 They came to appease them and led them out, requesting that they leave

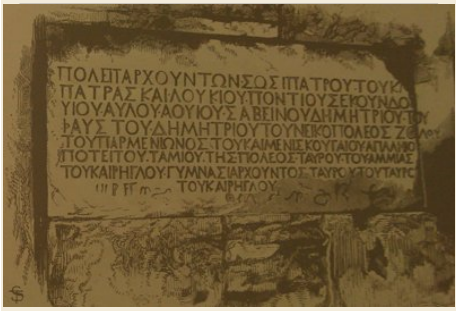
CHAPTER 17 IN 30 SECONDS

In Thessalonica a mob says these men have turned the world upside down. In Athens Paul sees a city full of idols and an altar To an Unknown God. On Mars Hill he tells the thinkers of Athens who that unknown God is. Some laugh, some want to hear more, and some believe.

THE UPROAR IN THESSALONICA



1 When they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. 2 As was his custom, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3 explaining and proving that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead. "This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Christ," he declared. 4 Some of the Jews were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with a large number of God-fearing Greeks and quite a few leading women.

5 The Jews, however, became jealous. So they brought in some troublemakers from the marketplace, formed a mob, and sent the city into an uproar. They raided Jason's house in search of Paul and Silas, hoping to bring them out to the people. 6 But when they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some other brothers before the city officials, shouting, "These men who have turned the world upside down have now come here, 7 and Jason has welcomed them into his home. They are all defying Caesar's decrees, saying that there is another king, named Jesus!"

THE POLITARCH INSCRIPTION

ACTS 17:5 TO 9

An old drawing of the Politarch Inscription from the Vardar Gate in Thessalonica. The first word is politarchs.

WHAT IT IS

A carved stone that lists the city rulers of Thessalonica and calls them politarchs. That is the same rare Greek word Luke uses in 17:6 and 17:8 for the city officials who heard the case against Paul's friends.

HOW OLD IT IS

Most experts date it to the first or second century AD, around Paul's time or a little after. Other stones with the same title go back to the 100s BC.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

It was carved on a Roman arch called the Vardar Gate at the west entrance of Thessalonica, Greece. When the gate was torn down in 1876, the British consul saved the stone.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In the British Museum in London.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Some critics once said Luke made up the word politarch, because no other ancient book used it. Now more than 30 inscriptions use it, most of them from Macedonia and many from Thessalonica itself. Luke used the exact local title.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It does not name anyone from Acts. It shows Luke knew how this city was run.

8 On hearing this, the crowd and city officials were greatly disturbed. 9 And they collected bond from Jason and the others and then released them.

THE CHARACTER OF THE BEREANS

10 As soon as night had fallen, the brothers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. On arriving there, they went into the Jewish synagogue. 11 Now the Bereans were more noble-minded than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if these teachings were true. 12 As a result, many of them believed, along with quite a few prominent Greek women and men.

13 But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that Paul was also proclaiming the word of God in Berea, they went there themselves to incite and agitate the crowds. 14 The brothers immediately sent Paul to the coast, but Silas and Timothy remained in Berea. 15 Those who escorted Paul brought him to Athens and then returned with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible.

PAUL IN ATHENS

16 While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply disturbed in his spirit to see that the city was full of idols.
17 So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and God-fearing Gentiles, and in the marketplace with those he met each
day.

18 Some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also began to debate with him. Some of them asked, "What is this babbler trying to say?" Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign gods." They said this because Paul was proclaiming the good news of Jesus and the resurrection.

19 So they took Paul and brought him to the Areopagus, where they asked him, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting? 20 For you are bringing some strange notions to our ears, and we want to know what they mean."

21 Now all the Athenians and foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing more than hearing and articulating new ideas.

PAUL'S ADDRESS IN THE AREOPAGUS

22 Then Paul stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I see that in every way you are very religious. 23 For as I walked around and examined your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.

Therefore what you worship as something unknown, I now proclaim to you.

24 The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples made by human hands. 25 Nor is He served by human hands, as if He needed anything, because He Himself gives everyone life and breath and everything else. 26 From one man He made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth;
and He determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their lands.

27 God intended that they would seek Him and perhaps reach out for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us. 28 'For in Him we live and move and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'We are His offspring.' 29 Therefore, being offspring of God, we should not think that the Divine Being is like gold or silver or stone, an image

THE UNKNOWN GOD AND MARS HILL

ACTS 17:16 TO 34

The rocks of the Areopagus, or Mars Hill, with the Acropolis and the Parthenon rising behind it in Athens.

WHAT IT IS

The Areopagus is the rock hill where the city council of Athens met, and the council itself carried the same name. Ancient writers say Athens had altars to unknown gods, like the one Paul saw. An altar to unknown gods was also dug up at Pergamon in Turkey.

HOW OLD IT IS

The writer Pausanias saw altars of gods called unknown near Athens about AD 150. The Pergamon altar is from the second century AD. Diogenes Laertius, writing in the 200s AD, says that about 600 BC Epimenides of Crete stopped a plague in Athens by setting up altars to no named god.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

German archaeologists found the Pergamon altar in 1909 in a sacred area of the goddess Demeter. The Areopagus hill was never lost. It stands just northwest of the Acropolis.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

You can climb Mars Hill today. A bronze plaque at its foot shows Paul's sermon from Acts 17:22 to 31 in Greek.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Athens really did honor gods it could not name, just in case it had missed one. Paul starts right there: the God you worship without knowing, I am going to tell you about. Epimenides, the same man tied to the unknown altars, is likely the poet Paul quotes in 17:28.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

No altar reading to an unknown god, just one god, has been found in Athens. Part of the Pergamon altar's words are broken off, so its exact reading is debated.

30 Although God overlooked the ignorance of earlier times, He now commands all people everywhere to repent. 31 For He has set a day when He will judge the world with justice by the Man He has appointed. He has given proof of this to everyone by raising Him from the dead."
32 When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some began to mock him, but others said, "We want to hear you again on this topic." 33 At that, Paul left the Areopagus. 34 But some joined him and believed, including Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others who were with them.

CHAPTER 18 IN 30 SECONDS

In Corinth Paul makes tents with Aquila and Priscilla, a couple Emperor Claudius had thrown out of Rome. The Lord tells Paul in a vision, Do not be afraid, and he stays a year and a half. The Jewish leaders drag Paul before the governor Gallio, who refuses to hear the case.

CLAUDIUS THROWS THE JEWS OUT OF ROME

ACTS 18:1 TO 3

Marble head of Emperor Claudius in the Vatican Museums.

WHAT IT IS

One sentence by the Roman writer Suetonius in his life of Emperor Claudius. In plain English: Because the Jews kept making trouble stirred up by Chrestus, he threw them out of Rome.

HOW OLD IT IS

Suetonius wrote it about AD 121. Orosius, a Christian writer in AD 417, says it happened in Claudius' ninth year, AD 49. Paul likely reached Corinth about AD 50, so Aquila and Priscilla had recently come from Italy, just as Luke says.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

A real Roman writer says Claudius ordered Jews out of Rome, matching Acts 18:2. Many scholars think Chrestus is a misspelling of Christus, Christ, and that arguments in Rome's synagogues over Jesus led to the order. Aquila and Priscilla may have been Jewish believers caught up in it.

THE HONEST SIDE

Chrestus was also a common name, so Suetonius may mean some other troublemaker. Another Roman writer, Dio Cassius, says Claudius did not throw the Jews out but stopped their meetings, maybe in AD 41. That may be a different, earlier event.

SEE ALSO

Suetonius is one of the witnesses in Exhibit A, Jesus in History, p.2120.

thy came down from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself fully to the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. 6 But when they opposed and insulted him, he shook out his garments and told them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent of it. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

7 So Paul left the synagogue and went next door to the house of Titus Justus, a worshiper of God. 8 Crispus, the synagogue leader, and his whole household believed in the Lord. And many of the Corinthians who heard the message believed and were baptized.

9 One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: "Do not be afraid; keep on speaking; do not be silent. 10 For I am with you and no one will lay a hand on you, because I have many people in this city." 11 So Paul stayed for a year and a half, teaching the word of God among the Corinthians.

PAUL BEFORE GALLIO

12 While Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews coordinated an attack on Paul and brought him before the judgment seat. 13 "This man is persuading the people to worship God in ways contrary to the law," they said.

14 But just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio told the Jews, "If this matter involved a wrongdoing or vicious crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable for me to hear your complaint. 15 But since it is a dispute about words and names and your own law, settle it yourselves. I refuse to be

ACTS 18:12 TO 17

WHAT IT IS

Pieces of a stone letter from Emperor Claudius to the city of Delphi in Greece. It names Lucius Junius Gallio, my friend and proconsul. That is the governor who threw out the case against Paul in Corinth.

HOW OLD IT IS

The letter is dated by the number of times Claudius had been hailed as a victorious general, which puts it in AD 52. Governors served one year starting in summer, so Gallio ruled Achaia about AD 51 to 52.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Found in pieces at Delphi. The first ones were published in 1905, and more pieces were added in 1970.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

In the Delphi Archaeological Museum in Greece.

WHY IT MATTERS

This is one of the most important dates in the New Testament. Since Paul stood before Gallio, he was in Corinth about AD 50 to 52. Scholars count forward and backward from here to date Paul's other trips and letters. Gallio was the brother of the famous Roman writer Seneca.

WHO GALLIO WAS

He was born Annaeus Novatus and took the name Lucius Junius Gallio when a friend of his father adopted him. His younger brother Seneca was Rome's famous thinker and Nero's teacher. Seneca wrote that no one was as sweet to anyone as Gallio was to everyone.

SICK IN GREECE

Seneca also wrote that Gallio caught a fever while he was in Achaia and took a ship away, saying the sickness came from the place, not from his body, Letters 104.1.

THE JUDGMENT SEAT

The judgment seat in 18:12 is the bema. A large stone speaking platform still stands in the middle of the old forum at Corinth, and many think Paul stood before Gallio there.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It does not mention Paul. It shows Luke had the right governor in the right city at the right time.

17 At this, the crowd seized Sosthenes the synagogue leader and beat him in front of the judgment seat. But none of this was of concern to Gallio.

PAUL RETURNS TO ANTIOCH

18 Paul remained in Corinth for quite some time before saying goodbye to the brothers. He had his head shaved in Cenchrea to keep a vow he had made, and then he sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila.

19 When they reached Ephesus, Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue there and reasoned with the Jews. 20 When they asked him to stay for a while longer, he declined. 21 But as he left, he said, "I will come back to you if God is willing." And he set sail from Ephesus.

22 When Paul had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church at Jerusalem. Then he went down to Antioch.

PAUL'S THIRD MISSIONARY JOURNEY BEGINS // ACTS 13:1–3; ACTS 15:36–41

23 After Paul had spent some time in Antioch, he traveled from place to place throughout the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

24 Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, well versed in the Scriptures. 25 He had been instructed in the way of the Lord and was fervent in spirit. He spoke and taught accurately about Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John. 26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

27 When Apollos resolved to cross over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him. On his arrival, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed. 28 For he powerfully refuted the Jews in public debate, proving from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

CHAPTER 19 IN 30 SECONDS

In Ephesus God does unusual miracles through Paul. Seven sons of Sceva try to cast out a demon in Jesus' name, and the demon says, I know Jesus and I know Paul, but who are you? Then the silversmiths start a riot, and the crowd shouts Great is Artemis for two hours.

THE HOLY SPIRIT RECEIVED AT EPHESUS // ACTS 10:44–48

1 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the interior and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples 2 and asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?"

"No," they answered, "we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

3 "Into what, then, were you baptized?" Paul asked.

"The baptism of John," they replied.

4 Paul explained: "John's baptism was a baptism of repentance. He told the people to believe in the One coming after him, that is, in Jesus."

5 On hearing this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied. 7 There were about twelve men in all.

PAUL MINISTERS IN EPHESUS // EPHESIANS 1:1–2; REVELATION 2:1–7

8 Then Paul went into the synagogue and spoke boldly there for three months, arguing persuasively about the kingdom of God. 9 But when some of them stubbornly refused to believe and publicly maligned the Way, Paul took his disciples and left the synagogue to conduct daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. 10 This continued for two years, so that everyone who lived in the province of Asia, Jews and Greeks alike, heard the word of the Lord.

ACTS 19:6 [MIRACLE] The Holy Spirit comes on the Ephesian disciples

ARCHAEOLOGY MIRACLES DEMONIC

11 God did extraordinary miracles through the hands of Paul, 12 so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were taken to the sick, and the diseases and evil spirits left them.

SEVEN SONS OF SCEVA

13 Now there were some itinerant Jewish exorcists who tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those with evil spirits.
They would say, "I command you by Jesus, whom Paul proclaims." 14 Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

15 But one day the evil spirit responded,
"Jesus I know, and I know about Paul, but who are you?" 16 Then the man with the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered them all. The attack was so violent that they ran out of the house naked and wounded.

17 This became known to all the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus, and fear came over all of them. So the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor. 18 Many who had believed now came forward, confessing and disclosing their deeds. 19 And a number of those who had practiced magic arts brought their books and burned them in front of everyone. When the value of the books was calculated, the total came to fifty thousand silver coins. 20 So the word of the Lord powerfully continued to spread and prevail.

THE RIOT IN EPHESUS

21 After these things had happened, Paul resolved in the Spirit to go to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia.
"After I have been there," he said, "I must see Rome as well." 22 He sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he stayed for a time in the province of Asia.

23 About that time there arose a great disturbance about the Way. 24 It began with a silversmith named Demetrius who made silver shrines of Artemis, bringing much business to the craftsmen.

25 Demetrius assembled the craftsmen, along with the workmen in related trades.
"Men," he said, "you know that this business is our source of prosperity. 26 And you can see and hear that not only in Ephesus, but in nearly the whole province of Asia, this Paul has persuaded a great number of people to turn away. He says that man-made gods are no gods at all. 27
There is danger not only that our business will fall into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited and her majesty deposed—she who is worshiped by all the province of Asia and the whole world."

28 When the men heard this, they were enraged and began shouting, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 29 Soon the whole city was in disarray. They rushed together into the theatre, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Paul's traveling companions from Macedonia.

30 Paul wanted to go before the assembly,
but the disciples would not allow him. 31 Even some of Paul's friends who were officials of the province of Asia sent word to him, begging him not to venture into the theatre.

32 Meanwhile the assembly was in turmoil.
Some were shouting one thing and some another, and most of them did not even know why they were there. 33 The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander forward to explain himself, and he motioned for silence so he could make his defense to the people. 34 But when they realized that he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

THE ERASTUS INSCRIPTION

ACTS 19:22 · ROMANS 16:23 · 2 TIMOTHY 4:20

The Erastus Inscription near the theater of Corinth. Photo by Rduncan2, CC BY SA 4.0.

WHAT IT IS

Big Latin letters cut into a stone pavement in Corinth. They say Erastus, in return for his office as aedile, laid this pavement at his own expense. An aedile was a city official in charge of public works.

HOW OLD IT IS

Most date it to the middle of the first century AD, Paul's time. In 2010 the scholar Steven Friesen argued it is from the second century, and others have answered that it still fits the first. The date is debated.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Found in 1929 by American archaeologists next to the theater of ancient Corinth. Corinth is the city where Paul wrote Romans.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

Still in place at the site of ancient Corinth, Greece.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Paul names an Erastus three times. In Romans 16:23, written from Corinth, Erastus is the city treasurer. In Acts 19:22 he travels with Paul's team, and 2 Timothy 4:20 says he stayed in Corinth. A rich, important Erastus did live in Corinth.

BRONZE LETTERS

The letters were cut deep into the stone because they once held letters of bronze, now gone, so the name would shine in the street.

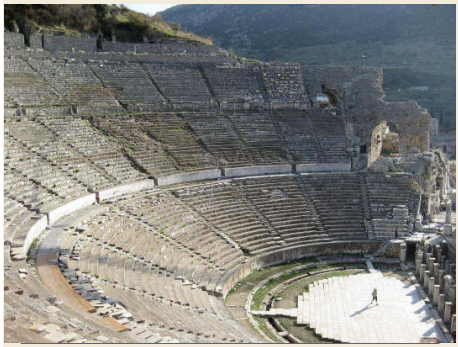
CORINTH IN PAUL'S DAY

Rome destroyed the old Greek city in 146 BC. Julius Caesar founded it again as a Roman colony in 44 BC. So in Paul's day its official language was Latin, like this stone, even though most people on the street spoke Greek.

CITY TREASURER

Romans 16:23 calls Erastus the oikonomos of the city, a manager of its money. Some think that was the same job as aedile. Others think Erastus held one office and later the other, since men in Roman cities often moved up from job to job.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE



Erastus was a common name. Romans uses a Greek title that may not mean the same job as aedile. Many think it is the same man, but no one can be sure.

EPHESUS: THE THEATER AND THE TEMPLE OF ARTEMIS

ACTS 19:23 TO 41

The great theater of Ephesus, where the crowd shouted Great is Artemis for two hours.

WHAT IT IS

The huge stone theater of Ephesus, which held about 24,000 people, and the ruins of the Temple of Artemis, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Acts 19 says the riot crowd rushed into the theater.

HOW OLD IT IS

The theater was first built in the 200s BC and made bigger by the Romans in the first century AD, around Paul's time. The temple Paul knew was rebuilt after a fire in 356 BC. Goths damaged it in AD 262.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Austrian archaeologists have dug at Ephesus since 1895, and the theater is fully uncovered. John Turtle Wood found the temple in 1869 after six years of searching. Only one rebuilt column stands there today.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

At Ephesus, near Selçuk in Turkey. Pieces of the temple are in the British Museum in London.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Inscriptions from Ephesus use Luke's exact titles: the city clerk who calmed the crowd, the Asiarchs who were Paul's friends, and the title temple keeper of Artemis in 19:35. An inscription from AD 104 tells of silver statues of Artemis being carried into this same theater, the kind of business the silversmiths were afraid to lose.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing found names Paul or Demetrius the silversmith. It shows Luke knew Ephesus well.

35 Finally the city clerk quieted the crowd and declared, "Men of Ephesus, doesn't everyone know that the city of Ephesus is guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of her image, which fell from heaven? 36 Since these things are undeniable, you ought to be calm and not do anything rash. 37 For you have brought these men here, though they have neither robbed our temple nor blasphemed our goddess.
38 So if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open and proconsuls are available. Let them bring charges against one another there. 39 But if you are seeking anything beyond this, it must be settled in a legal assembly. 40 For we are in jeopardy of being charged with rioting for today's events, and we have no justification to account for this commotion."
41 After he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul preaches until midnight, and a young man named Eutychus falls asleep and falls out of a third story window. Paul raises him up, then keeps talking until dawn. At Miletus Paul says goodbye to the leaders from Ephesus.

PAUL IN MACEDONIA AND GREECE

1 When the uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples. And after encouraging them, he said goodbye to them and left for Macedonia. 2 After traveling through that area and speaking many words of encouragement, he arrived in Greece, 3 where he stayed three months. And when the Jews formed a plot against him as he was about to sail for Syria, he decided to go back through Macedonia.

These men went on ahead and waited for Troas, where we stayed seven days.

EUTYCHUS REVIVED AT TROAS // 2 KINGS 4:18–37

7 On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Since Paul was ready to leave the next day, he talked to them and kept on speaking until midnight.

8 Now there were many lamps in the upper room where we were gathered. 9 And a certain young man named Eutychus, seated in the window, was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on.
When he was sound asleep, he fell from the third story and was picked up dead. 10
But Paul went down, threw himself on the young man, and embraced him. "Do not be alarmed!" he said. "He is still alive!"

11 Then Paul went back upstairs, broke bread, and ate. And after speaking until daybreak, he departed. 12 And the people were greatly relieved to take the boy home alive.

FROM TROAS TO MILETUS

13 We went on ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, where we were to take Paul aboard. He had arranged this because he was going there on foot. 14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene. 15 Sailing on from there, we arrived the next day opposite Chios. The day after that we arrived at Samos, and on the following day we came to Miletus.

16 Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus to avoid spending time in the province of Asia, because he was in a hurry to reach Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Pentecost.

PAUL'S FAREWELL TO THE EPHESIANS

17 From Miletus, Paul sent to Ephesus for the elders of the church.

18 When they came to him, he said, "You know how I lived the whole time I was with you, from the first day I arrived in the province of Asia. 19 I served the Lord with great humility and with tears, especially in the trials that came upon me through the plots of the Jews. 20 I did not shrink back from declaring anything that was helpful to you as I taught you publicly and from house to house, 21 testifying to Jews and Greeks alike about repentance to God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. 23 I only know that in town after town the Holy Spirit warns me that chains and afflictions await me. 24 But I consider my life of no value to me, if only I may finish my course and complete the ministry I have received from the Lord Jesus—the ministry of testifying to the good news of God's grace.

25 Now I know that none of you among whom I have preached the kingdom will you this day that I am innocent of the back from declaring to you the whole will

ACTS 20:7 · 15:28 TO 29 · 1 CORINTHIANS 16:2 · REVE-LATION 1:10 · COLOSSIANS 2:16 TO 17

WHAT ACTS SAYS

On the first day of the week we came together to break bread, 20:7. Paul tells the Corinthians to set money aside on the first day of every week, 1 Corinthians 16:2. John was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, Revelation 1:10. Jesus rose on the first day of the week, Luke 24:1. Paul also went to the synagogue on the Sabbath, 13:14 and 17:2, because that is where the Jews gathered.

THE JERUSALEM COUNCIL

In Acts 15 the apostles decided Gentile believers did not have to be circumcised or keep the law of Moses. They asked only four things, 15:29. The Sabbath was not one of them. Paul later wrote, do not let anyone judge you about a Sabbath day, Colossians 2:16 to 17, and one person regards one day above another, Romans 14:5.

THE EARLY CHURCH

The Didache, about AD 100, says to gather on the Lord's own day to break bread (14). About AD 110 Ignatius wrote of believers no longer keeping the Sabbath but living by the Lord's day (Mag-nesians 9). About AD 155 Justin Martyr said Christians meet on Sunday because God began creation and Jesus rose on that day (First Apology 67).

DID CONSTANTINE CHANGE IT?

On March 7, AD 321, Emperor Constantine made Sunday a day of rest for city workers, though farmers could still work.
Christians had already been meeting on Sunday for well over 200 years. About AD 363 the Council of Laodicea told Christians not to rest on Saturday like the Jews, but to honor the Lord's day (canon 29). Some Sabbath keepers say that is when the church changed God's day.

The Sabbath and the Lord's Day

EXODUS 20:8 TO 11 · 31:13 · MARK 2:27 · HEBREWS 4:9
TO 10 · 10:25 · ROMANS 14:5 TO 6

KEEP THE SEVENTH DAY

The fourth commandment was never canceled, Exodus 20:8 to 11. Jesus kept the Sabbath, Luke 4:16, and said it was made for man, Mark 2:27. Seventh Day Baptists began in England in the 1650s and had a church in Rhode Island by 1671. The Seventh-day Adventists, organized in 1863 with Ellen G. White, are the largest Sabbath keeping church today.
Many Messianic Jews keep it too.

SUNDAY IS THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH

The Sabbath moved to the day Jesus rose, and the whole commandment still applies. The Westminster Confession of 1646 calls Sunday the Christian Sabbath (21.7). The Puritans kept it strictly, with no work or play.

THE LORD'S DAY, NOT THE SABBATH

The Sabbath was a sign between God and Israel, Exodus 31:13, and it points to the rest we find in Christ, Hebrews 4:9 to 10. Christians meet on Sunday by custom and to honor the resurrection, not as a law. Luther wrote in his Large Catechism, 1529, that the Saturday law was for the Jews, and Christians set aside a day for the sake of good order and to hear God's word. Most evangelicals and Lutherans hold this view.

PROPHECIES FULFILLED IN SCRIPTURE

EVERY DAY IS THE LORD'S

One person regards one day above another, and another regards every day alike; each should be fully convinced in his own mind, Romans 14:5 to 6.

WHAT ALL SIDES AGREE ON

Rest is a gift from God. Do not give up meeting together, Hebrews 10:25. And do not judge each other over days, Colossians 2:16.

CHAPTER 21 IN 30 SECONDS

A prophet named Agabus ties his own hands and feet with Paul's belt and says this will happen to Paul in Jerusalem. Paul goes anyway. In the temple some men from Asia claim he brought a Gentile inside, and the whole city riots.

PAUL'S JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM

1 After we had torn ourselves away from them, we sailed directly to Cos, and the next day on to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. 2 Finding a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we boarded it and set sail. 3 After sighting Cyprus and passing south of it, we sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

4 We sought out the disciples in Tyre and stayed with them seven days. Through the Spirit they kept telling Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. 5 But when our time there had ended, we set out on our journey. All the disciples, with their wives and children, accompanied us out of the city and knelt down on the beach to pray with us. 6 And after we had said our farewells, we went aboard the ship, and they returned home.

7 When we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we landed at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and stayed with them for a day.

PAUL VISITS PHILIP THE EVANGELIST

8 Leaving the next day, we went on to Caesarea and stayed at the home of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the Seven.
9 He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.

10 After we had been there several days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. 11 Coming over to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own feet and hands, and said, "The Holy Spirit says: 'In this way the Jews of Jerusalem will bind the owner of this belt and hand him over to the Gentiles.'" 12 When we heard this, we and the people there pleaded with Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, "Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." 14 When he would not be dissuaded, we quieted down and said, "The Lord's will be done."

15 After these days, we packed up and went on to Jerusalem. 16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea accompanied us, and they took us to stay at the home of Mnason the Cypriot, an early disciple.

PAUL'S ARRIVAL AT JERUSALEM

17 When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us joyfully. 18 The next day Paul went in with us to see James, and all the elders were present. 19 Paul greeted them and recounted one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

20 When they heard this, they glorified
God. Then they said to Paul, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and all of them are zealous for the law. 21 But they are under the impression that you teach all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or observe our customs. 22 What then should we do? They will certainly hear that you have come.

23 Therefore do what we advise you. There are four men with us who have taken a vow. 24 Take these men, purify yourself along with them, and pay their expenses so they can have their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that there is no truth to these rumors about you, but that you also live in obedience to the law.

25 As for the Gentile believers, we have written to them our decision that they must abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality."

26 So the next day Paul took the men and purified himself along with them. Then he entered the temple to give notice of the date when their purification would be complete and the offering would be made for each of them.

PAUL SEIZED AT THE TEMPLE

27 When the seven days were almost over, some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul at the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him, 28 crying out, "Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people and against our law and against this place. Furthermore, he has brought Greeks into the temple and defiled this holy place." 29 For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they assumed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

30 The whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and at once the gates were shut. 31 While they were trying to kill him, the commander of the Roman regiment received a report that all Jerusalem was in turmoil. 32 Immediately he took some soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd. When the people saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

33 The commander came up and arrested Paul, ordering that he be bound with two chains. Then he asked who he was and what he had done.

34 Some in the crowd were shouting one thing, and some another. And since the commander could not get at the truth because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be brought into the barracks. 35 When Paul reached the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob. 36 For the crowd that followed him kept shouting, "Away with him!"

PAUL ADDRESSES THE CROWD

37 As they were about to take Paul into the barracks, he asked the commander, "May I say something to you?"

"Do you speak Greek?" he replied. 38 "Aren't you the Egyptian who incited a rebellion some time ago and led four thousand members of the Assassins into the wilderness?"

39 But Paul answered, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no ordinary city. Now I beg you to allow me to speak to the people."

40 Having received permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the crowd. A great hush came over the crowd, and he addressed them in Hebrew:

22

CHAPTER 22 IN 30 SECONDS

From the barracks steps Paul tells the crowd how Jesus met him on the Damascus road. They listen quietly until he says God sent him to the Gentiles. Then they riot. The commander orders Paul whipped, until Paul asks if it is legal to flog a Roman citizen without a trial. It is not.

THE TEMPLE WARNING INSCRIPTION

ACTS 21:27 TO 36 · EPHESIANS 2:14

The complete Temple Warning Inscription in the Istanbul Archaeology Museums.

WHAT IT IS

A stone sign in Greek that hung on the low wall around the inner temple courts in Jerusalem. In plain English it says: No foreigner may go past the fence around the temple. Whoever is caught will have himself to blame for the death that follows.

HOW OLD IT IS

It comes from Herod's temple, which was built starting about 20 BC and destroyed by the Romans in AD 70. That is exactly the temple Paul walked into. The Jewish historian Josephus also wrote that these warning signs stood there, in Greek and in Latin.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The French scholar Charles Clermont Ganneau found the complete sign in Jerusalem in 1871. A broken second copy, with red paint still in its letters, was found in 1935.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

The complete sign is in the Istanbul Archaeology Museums in Turkey. The broken one is in the Israel Museum in Jerusalem.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

It explains why one rumor started a riot. In Acts 21:28 to 29 the crowd thought Paul had taken Trophimus, a Greek, past this very sign. The penalty was death. It also helps picture the dividing wall between Jews and Gentiles that Ephesians 2:14 says Jesus tore down.

THE DIVIDING WALL

Josephus says a stone fence about four and a half feet high ran around the inner courts, with signs like this one set along it at equal distances, some in Greek and some in Latin, Jewish War 5.5.2.

A DEATH PENALTY ROME ALLOWED

Rome usually kept the power of death for itself. But Josephus says the Romans let the Jews put to death even a Roman citizen who went past this line, Jewish War 6.2.4.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

It does not mention Paul. It shows the rule Luke describes was real and deadly serious.

MIRACLES JESUS SPEAKING

I was just as zealous for God as any of you are today.
4 I persecuted this Way even to the death, detaining both men and women and throwing them into prison, 5 as the high priest and the whole Council can testify about me. I even obtained letters from them to their brothers in Damascus, and I was on my way to apprehend these people and bring them to Jerusalem to be punished.
6 About noon as I was approaching Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. 7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me,
'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?'
8 'Who are You, Lord?' I asked.
'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' He replied. 9 My companions saw the light, but they could not understand the voice of the One speaking to me.
10 Then I asked, 'What should I do, Lord?'
'Get up and go into Damascus,' He told me. 'There you will be told all that you have been appointed to do.'
11 Because the brilliance of the light had blinded me, my companions led me by the hand into Damascus. 12 There a man named Ananias, a devout observer of the law who was highly regarded by all the Jews living there, 13 came and stood beside me. 'Brother Saul,' he said, 'receive your sight.' And at that moment I could see him.
14 Then he said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will and to see the Righteous One and to hear His voice. 15 You will be His witness to everyone of what you have seen and heard. 16
And now what are you waiting for? Get up, be baptized, and wash your sins away,
calling on His name.'
17 Later, when I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying at the temple, I fell into a trance 18 and saw the Lord saying to me,
'Hurry! Leave Jerusalem quickly, because the people here will not accept your testimony about Me.'
19 'Lord,' I answered, 'they know very well that in one synagogue after another I imprisoned and beat those who believed in
You. 20 And when the blood of Your witness Stephen was shed, I stood there giving my approval and watching over the garments of those who killed him.' 21 Then He said to me, 'Go! I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

PAUL THE ROMAN CITIZEN

22 The crowd listened to Paul until he made this statement. Then they lifted up their voices and shouted, "Rid the earth of him! He is not fit to live!"
23 As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and tossing dust into the air, 24 the commander ordered that Paul be brought into the barracks. He directed that Paul be flogged and interrogated to determine the reason for this outcry
against him.
25 But as they stretched him out to strap him down, Paul said to the centurion standing there, "Is it lawful for you to flog
a Roman citizen without a trial?" 26 On hearing this, the centurion went and reported it to the commander. "What are you going to do?" he said. "This man is a Roman citizen."
27 The commander went to Paul and asked, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?"
"Yes," he answered.
28 "I paid a high price for my citizenship," said the commander.
"But I was born a citizen," Paul replied.
29 At once those who were about to interrogate Paul stepped back, and the commander himself was alarmed when he realized that he had put a Roman citizen in chains.
30 The next day the commander, wanting to learn the real reason Paul was accused by the Jews, released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin

CHAPTER 23 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul stands before the council and starts an argument between the Pharisees and the Sadducees about the resurrection. The Lord tells Paul he will testify in Rome. More than forty men swear not to eat until they kill him.

PAUL BEFORE THE SANHEDRIN

1 Paul looked directly at the Sanhedrin and said, "Brothers, I have conducted myself before God in all good conscience to this day."
2 At this, the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.
3 Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit here to judge me according to the law, yet you yourself violate the law by commanding that I be struck."
4 But those standing nearby said, "How dare you insult the high priest of God!"
5 "Brothers," Paul replied, "I was not aware that he was the high priest, for it is written: 'Do not speak evil about the ruler of your people.'" 6 Then Paul, knowing that some of them were Sadducees and the others Pharisees, called out in the Sanhedrin, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. It is because of my hope in the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial."
7 As soon as he had said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. 8 For the Sadducees say that there is neither a resurrection nor angels nor spirits, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.
9 A great clamor arose, and some scribes from the party of the Pharisees got up and contended sharply, "We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?" 10 The dispute grew so violent that the commander was afraid they would tear Paul to pieces. He ordered the soldiers to go down and remove him by force and bring him into the barracks.
11 The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, "Take courage! As you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so also you must testify in Rome."

THE PLOT TO KILL PAUL // JOHN 16:1–4

12 When daylight came, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. 13 More than forty of them were involved in this plot. 14 They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have bound ourselves with a solemn oath not to eat anything until we have killed
Paul. 15 Now then, you and the Sanhedrin petition the commander to bring him down to you on the pretext of examining his case more carefully. We are ready to kill him on the way."
16 But when the son of Paul's sister heard about the plot, he went into the barracks and told Paul. 17 Then Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander; he has something to tell him."
18 So the centurion took him to the commander and said, "Paul the prisoner sent and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell you." 19 The commander took the young man by the hand, drew him aside, and asked,
"What do you need to tell me?"
20 He answered, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul to the Sanhedrin tomorrow on the pretext of acquiring more information about him. 21 Do not let them persuade you, because more than forty men are waiting to ambush him.
They have bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him; they are ready now, awaiting your consent."

ARCHAEOLOGY

22 So the commander dismissed the young man and instructed him, "Do not tell anyone that you have reported this to me."

PAUL SENT TO FELIX

23 Then he called two of his centurions and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea in the third hour of the night. 24 Provide mounts for Paul to take him safely to Governor Felix." 25 And he wrote the following letter:

26 Claudius Lysias,

To His Excellency, Governor Felix:

Greetings.

27 This man was seized by the Jews, and they were about to kill him when I came with my troops to rescue him. For I had learned that he is a Roman citizen, 28 and since I wanted to understand their charges against him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin. 29 I found that the accusation involved questions about their own law, but there was no charge worthy of death or imprisonment.

30 When I was informed that there was a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once. I also instructed his accusers to present their case against him before you.

31 So the soldiers followed their orders and brought Paul by night to Antipatris. 32 The next day they returned to the barracks and let the horsemen go on with him. 33 When the horsemen arrived in Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor and presented Paul to him.

WHAT IT IS

The remains of the harbor King Herod the Great built at Caesarea, the Roman capital of Judea, plus his seaside palace. Acts 24:27 says Paul was held here for two years, and from here he sailed for Rome.

HOW OLD IT IS

Herod built the harbor and city from about 22 to 10 BC and named it after Caesar Augustus. Earthquakes and soft sand on the sea floor slowly sank parts of the breakwaters over the next few centuries.

HOW HE BUILT IT

Josephus says the harbor was bigger than the great port of Athens. Divers found that Herod's builders poured concrete into wooden frames underwater, using volcanic ash shipped all the way from Italy. It was one of the first harbors ever built in the open sea.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

Underwater work began in 1960, and the big Caesarea harbor dig started in 1980 under Avner Raban and Robert Hohlfelder. Herod's palace on a point of land by the sea has also been dug up. The Pilate Stone was found in Caesarea's theater in 1961.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Acts 23:35 says Felix kept Paul under guard in Herod's palace. The palace by the sea was the governor's home in

CHAPTER 24 IN 30 SECONDS

A lawyer named Tertullus flatters Governor Felix and accuses Paul. When Paul talks about self control and the judgment to come, Felix gets scared and sends him away. Felix keeps hoping for a bribe and leaves Paul in custody for two years.

TERTULLUS PROSECUTES PAUL

1 Five days later the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, who presented to the governor their case against Paul.

2 When Paul had been called in, Tertullus opened the prosecution: "Because of you,
we have enjoyed a lasting peace, and your foresight has brought improvements to this nation. 3 In every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix, we acknowledge this with all gratitude. 4 But in order not to delay you any further, I beg your indulgence to hear us briefly.

5 We have found this man to be a pestilence, stirring up dissension among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes, 6 and he even tried to desecrate the temple; so we seized him. [and we would have judged him according to our law.] 7 [But Lysias the commander came with great force and took him out of our hands, ordering his accusers to come before you.] 8 By examining him yourself, you will be able to learn the truth about all our charges
against him."

9 The Jews concurred, asserting that these charges were true.

PAUL'S DEFENSE TO FELIX

10 When the governor motioned for Paul to speak, he began his response: "Knowing that you have been a judge over this nation for many years, I gladly make my defense. 11 You can verify for yourself that no more than twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship. 12 Yet my accusers did not find me debating with anyone in the temple or riling up a crowd in the synagogues or in the city. 13 Nor can they prove to you any of their charges against me.

14 I do confess to you, however, that I worship the God of our fathers according to the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything that is laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, 15 and I have the same hope in God that they themselves cherish, that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked. 16 In this hope, I strive always to maintain a clear conscience before God and man.

17 After several years, then, I returned to Jerusalem to bring alms to my people and to present offerings. 18 At the time they found me in the temple, I was ceremonially clean and was not inciting a crowd or an uproar. But there are some Jews from the province of Asia 19 who ought to appear before you and bring charges, if they have anything against me. 20 Otherwise, let these men state for themselves any crime they found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin, 21 unless it was this one thing I called out as I stood in their presence: 'It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.'"

THE VERDICT POSTPONED

22 Then Felix, who was well informed about the Way, adjourned the hearing and said, "When Lysias the commander comes, I will decide your case." 23 He ordered the centurion to keep Paul under guard, but to allow him some freedom and permit his friends to minister to his needs.

24 After several days, Felix returned with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and listened to him speak about faith in Christ Jesus. 25 As Paul expounded on righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became frightened and said, "You may go for now. When I find the time, I will call for you." 26 At the same time, he was hoping that Paul would offer him a bribe. So he sent for Paul frequently and talked with him.

27 After two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus. And wishing to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

25

CHAPTER 25 IN 30 SECONDS

A new governor, Festus, takes over. The leaders want Paul brought to Jerusalem so they can ambush him. Paul says, I appeal to Caesar, and Festus answers, To Caesar you will go. Then King Agrippa and Bernice arrive with great pomp.

PAUL'S TRIAL BEFORE FESTUS

1 Three days after his arrival in the province, Festus went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem, 2 where the chief priests and Jewish leaders presented their case against Paul. They urged Festus 3 to grant them a concession against Paul by summoning him to Jerusalem, because they were preparing an ambush to kill him along the way.

4 But Festus replied, "Paul is being held in Caesarea, and I myself am going there soon. 5 So if this man has done anything wrong, let some of your leaders come down with me and accuse him there."

6 After spending no more than eight or ten days with them, Festus went down to Caesarea. The next day he sat on the judgment seat and ordered that Paul be brought in. 7 When Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges that they could not prove.

8 Then Paul made his defense: "I have committed no offense against the law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar."

9 But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, said to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to stand trial before me on these charges?"

PAUL APPEALS TO CAESAR

10 Paul replied, "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where I ought to be tried. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you yourself know very well. 11 If, however, I am guilty of anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is no truth to their accusations against me, no one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

12 Then Festus conferred with his council and replied, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!"

FESTUS CONSULTS AGRIPPA

13 After several days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice came down to Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus. 14 Since they were staying several days, Festus laid out Paul's case before the king: "There is a certain man whom Felix left in prison. 15 While I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews presented their case and requested a judgment against him. 16 I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand a man over before he has had an opportunity to face his accusers and defend himself against their charges.

17 So when they came here with me, I did not delay. The next day I sat on the judgment seat and ordered that the man be brought in. 18 But when his accusers rose to speak, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected. 19 They only had some contentions with him regarding their own religion and a certain Jesus who had died, but whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 Since I was at a loss as to how to investigate these matters, I asked if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried there on these charges. 21 But when Paul appealed to be held over for the decision of the Emperor, I ordered that he be held until I could send him to Caesar."

22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear this man myself."

"Tomorrow you will hear him," Festus declared.

PAUL BEFORE AGRIPPA AND BERNICE

23 The next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the auditorium, along with the commanders and leading men of the city. And Festus ordered that Paul be brought in.

24 Then Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are present with us, you see this man. The whole Jewish community has petitioned me about him, both here and in Jerusalem, crying out that he ought not to live any longer. 25 But I found he had done nothing worthy of death, and since he has now appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him.

26 I have nothing definite to write to our sovereign about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this inquiry I may have something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me to send on a prisoner without specifying the charges against him."

26

CHAPTER 26 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul tells King Agrippa how he went from hunting Christians to meeting Jesus in a blinding light. Festus calls him crazy. Agrippa asks if Paul thinks he can make him a Christian so fast. Paul wishes they all were, except for the chains.

PAUL'S TESTIMONY TO AGRIPPA // ACTS 9:1–19; ACTS 22:1–21

1 Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself."

Then Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense: 2 "King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate to stand before you today to defend myself against all the accusations of the Jews, 3 especially since you are acquainted with all the Jewish customs and controversies. I beg you, therefore, to listen to me patiently.

4 Surely all the Jews know how I have lived from my earliest childhood among my own people, and also in Jerusalem. 5 They have known me for a long time and can testify, if they are willing, that I lived as a Pharisee, adhering to the strictest sect of our religion.

6 And now I stand on trial because of my hope in the promise that God made to our fathers, 7 the promise our twelve tribes are hoping to see fulfilled as they earnestly serve God day and night. It is because of this hope, O king, that I am accused by the Jews. 8 Why would any of you consider it incredible that God raises the dead?

9 So then, I too was convinced that I ought to do all I could to oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 And that is what I did in Jerusalem. With authority from the chief priests I put many of the saints in prison, and when they were condemned to death, I cast my vote against them. 11 I frequently had them punished in the synagogues, and I tried to make them blaspheme. In my raging fury against them, I even went to foreign cities to persecute them.

12 In this pursuit I was on my way to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. 13 About noon, O king, as I was on the road, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and my companions. 14 We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice say to me in Hebrew, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15 'Who are You, Lord?' I asked.

'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,' the Lord replied. 16 'But get up and stand on your feet. For I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and as a witness of what you have seen from Me and what I will show you. 17 I will rescue you from your own people and from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them 18 to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those sanctified by faith in Me.'

19 So then, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. 20 First to those in Damascus and Jerusalem, then to everyone in the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, I declared that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds worthy of their repentance. 21 For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple courts and tried to kill me.

22 But I have had God's help to this day, and I stand here to testify to small and great alike. I am saying nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen: 23 that the Christ would suffer, and as the first to rise from the dead, would proclaim light to our people and to the Gentiles."

FESTUS INTERRUPTS PAUL'S DEFENSE

24 At this stage of Paul's defense, Festus exclaimed in a loud voice, "You are insane, Paul! Your great learning is driving you to madness!"

25 But Paul answered, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus; I am speaking words of truth and sobriety. 26 For the king knows about these matters, and I can speak freely to him. I am confident that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do."

28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "Can you persuade me in such a short time to become a Christian?"

29 "Short time or long," Paul replied, "I wish to God that not only you but all who hear me this day may become what I am, except for these chains."

30 Then the king and the governor rose, along with Bernice and those seated with them. 31 On their way out, they said to one another, "This man has done nothing worthy of death or imprisonment."

32 And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."

CHAPTER 27 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul sails for Rome as a prisoner. He warns them not to sail, and nobody listens. A hurricane force wind hits. An angel tells Paul everyone will live. The ship breaks apart, but all 276 people make it to shore.

PAUL SAILS FOR ROME

1 When it was decided that we would sail for Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion named Julius, who belonged to the Imperial Regiment. 2 We boarded an Adramyttian ship about to sail for ports along the coast of Asia, and we put out to sea. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us.

3 The next day we landed at Sidon, and Julius treated Paul with consideration, allowing him to visit his friends and receive their care. 4 After putting out from there, we sailed to the lee of Cyprus because the winds were against us. 5 And when we had sailed across the open sea off the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra in Lycia. 6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy and put us on board.

7 After sailing slowly for many days, we arrived off Cnidus. When the wind impeded us, we sailed to the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. 8 After we had moved along the coast with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.

9 By now much time had passed, and the voyage had already become dangerous because it was after the Fast. So Paul advised them, 10 "Men, I can see that our voyage will be filled with disaster and

Paul's Voyage to Rome

A prisoner, a storm, a shipwreck and a snake, about AD 59 to 60

I APPEAL TO CAESAR After two years in prison at Caesarea, Paul used his right as a Roman citizen to be judged by Caesar, Acts 25:11.

SHIPWRECK ON MALTA All 276 people made it to shore, Acts 27:37 and 44. A snake bit Paul and he was not hurt, Acts 28:3 to 6.

THE STORM Against Paul's warning the ship left Fair Havens late in the year. A northeast storm drove it for 14 days, Acts 27:9 to 27.

ROME AT LAST Paul lived two years in Rome under guard in a rented house and preached boldly, Acts 28:30 to 31.

great loss, not only to ship and cargo, but to our own lives as well."

11 But contrary to Paul's advice, the centurion was persuaded by the pilot and by the owner of the ship. 12 Since the harbor was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided to sail on, hoping that somehow they could reach Phoenix to winter there. Phoenix was a harbor in Crete facing both southwest and northwest.

THE STORM AT SEA // JONAH 1:4–10

13 When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had their opportunity. So they weighed anchor and sailed along, hugging the coast of Crete. 14 But it was not long before a cyclone called the Northeaster swept down across the island. 15 Unable to head into the wind, the ship was caught up. So we gave way and let ourselves be driven along.

16 Passing to the lee of a small island called Cauda, we barely managed to secure the lifeboat. 17 After hoisting it up, the crew used ropes to undergird the ship. And fearing that they would run aground on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and were driven along.

18 We were tossed so violently that the next day the men began to jettison the cargo. 19 On the third day, they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands. 20 When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the great storm continued to batter us, we abandoned all hope of being saved.

21 After the men had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have followed my advice not to sail from Crete. Then you would have averted this disaster and loss. 22 But now I urge you to keep up your courage, because you will not experience any loss of life, but only of the ship. 23 For just last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me 24 and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And look, God has granted you the lives of all who sail with you.'

25 So take courage, men, for I believe God that it will happen just as He told me. 26 However, we must run aground on some island."

THE SHIPWRECK

27 On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic Sea. About midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land. 28 They took soundings and found that the water was 120 feet deep. Going a little farther, they took another set of soundings that read 90 feet. 29 Fearing that we would run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daybreak.

30 Meanwhile, the sailors attempted to escape from the ship. Pretending to lower anchors from the bow, they let the lifeboat down into the sea. 31 But Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men remain with the ship, you cannot be saved." 32 So the soldiers cut the ropes to the lifeboat and set it adrift.

33 Right up to daybreak, Paul kept urging them all to eat: "Today is your fourteenth day in constant suspense, without taking any food. 34 So for your own preservation, I urge you to eat something, because not a single hair of your head will be lost."

35 After he had said this, Paul took bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat. 36 They were all encouraged and took some food themselves. 37 In all, there were 276 of us on board. 38 After the men had eaten their fill, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.

39 When daylight came, they did not recognize the land, but they sighted a bay with a sandy beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could. 40 Cutting away the anchors, they left them in the sea as they loosened the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach. 41 But the ship struck a sandbar and ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, and the stern was being broken up by the pounding of the waves.

42 The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners so none of them could swim to freedom. 43 But the centurion, wanting to spare Paul's life, thwarted their plan. He commanded those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. 44 The rest were to follow on planks and various parts of the ship. In this way everyone was brought safely to land.

CHAPTER 28 IN 30 SECONDS

On Malta a snake bites Paul. When he does not drop dead, the locals decide he is a god. At last Paul reaches Rome, lives under guard in a rented house for two years, and preaches boldly with no one stopping him.

ASHORE ON MALTA

1 Once we were safely ashore, we learned that the island was called Malta. 2 The islanders showed us extraordinary kindness. They kindled a fire and welcomed all of us because it was raining and cold.

3 Paul gathered a bundle of sticks, and as he laid them on the fire, a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself to his hand. 4 When the islanders saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "Surely this man is a murderer. Although he was saved from the sea, Justice has not allowed him to live." 5 But Paul shook the creature off into the fire and suffered no ill effects. 6 The islanders were expecting him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

7 Nearby stood an estate belonging to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us and entertained us hospitably for three days. 8 The father of Publius was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him, and after praying and placing his hands on him, he healed the man. 9 After this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured as well.

10 The islanders honored us in many ways and supplied our needs when we were ready to sail.

PAUL ARRIVES IN ITALY

11 After three months we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered in the island. It had the Twin Brothers as a figurehead. 12 Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. 13 From there we weighed anchor and came to Rhegium. After one day, a south wind came up, and on the second day we arrived at Puteoli. 14 There we found some brothers who invited us to spend the week with them. And so we came to Rome.

15 The brothers there had heard about us and traveled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he was encouraged and gave thanks to God.

PAUL PREACHES AT ROME // ISAIAH 6:1–13

16 When we arrived in Rome, Paul was permitted to stay by himself, with a soldier to guard him.

17 After three days, he called together the leaders of the Jews. When they had gathered, he said to them, "Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, I was taken prisoner in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. 18 They examined me and wanted to release me, because there was no basis for a death sentence against me. 19 But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, even though I have no charge to bring against my nation. 20 So for this reason I have called to see you and speak with you. It is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain."

21 The leaders replied, "We have not received any letters about you from Judea, nor have any of the brothers from there reported or even mentioned anything bad about you. 22 But we consider your views worth hearing, because we know that this sect."

23 So they set a day to meet with Paul, and many people came to the place he was staying. He expounded to them from morning to evening, testifying about the kingdom of God and persuading them about Jesus from the Law of Moses and the Prophets.

24 Some of them were convinced by what he said, but others refused to believe. 25
They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul had made this final statement: "The Holy Spirit was right when He spoke to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet:

26 'Go to this people and say,
"You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving."
27 For this people's heart has grown callous;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts,
and turn, and I would heal them.'

28 Be advised, therefore, that God's salvation has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!" 29 [When he had said this,
the Jews went away, disputing sharply
among themselves.]

30 Paul stayed there two full years in his own rented house, welcoming all who came to visit him. 31 Boldly and freely he proclaimed the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ.

BOOK 45 OF 66 · NEW TESTAMENT · LETTER

ROMANS

The Gospel, Explained

AUTHOR	Paul, once a Pharisee who hunted Christians, now an apostle. He spoke the letter out loud, and a helper named Tertius wrote it down, 16:22.
WRITTEN FROM	Corinth, Greece, near the end of Paul's third missionary trip, right before he took an offering for the poor to Jerusalem, 15:25 to 26.
DATE WRITTEN	About AD 56 to 57.
WRITTEN TO	The church in Rome, Jews and Gentiles together. Paul had never been there. Emperor Claudius had thrown the Jews out of Rome about AD 49, and by now they were back.
CARRIED BY	Most likely Phoebe, a deacon from Cenchrea, the harbor town next to Corinth, 16:1 to 2.
KEY VERSE	Romans 1:16 to 17. I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes. The righteous will live by faith.

THE OLDEST COPY OF ROMANS
This is a page of Papyrus 46, a book of Paul's letters copied in Egypt about AD 200. Part of it is in the Chester Beatty Library in Dublin, Ireland, and part is at the University of Michigan. This page holds Romans 11:24 to 33. The first words, against nature, are from the olive tree picture in 11:24, and lower down you can read the Deliverer will come from Zion, 11:26. Papyrus 46 puts the closing praise of 16:25 to 27 at the end of chapter 15.

Historical Setting

Rome is the capital of the world, a city of about a million people. The church there was not started by Paul, and no one knows for sure who started it. Visitors from Rome were in Jerusalem at Pentecost, Acts 2:10, and may have carried the news home. Jewish and Gentile believers were now trying to be one church, and they did not always agree. Paul wanted to visit on his way to Spain, so he sent ahead the clearest explanation of the gospel he ever wrote.

What Was Going Wrong

EVERYBODY SINNED. Gentiles traded God for idols, 1:23. Jews had the law but did not keep it, 2:23. All have sinned, 3:23.
JUDGING EACH OTHER. Believers looked down on each other over food and holy days, 14:3 to 4, 14:10.
BRAGGING. Some Gentile believers acted superior to the Jews. Paul says do not boast over the branches, 11:18.
FAKE TEACHERS. Some people caused divisions to serve their own appetites, 16:17 to 18.

The Idiot Proof Summary

Romans is the gospel laid out step by step. Paul starts with the bad news: everyone has sinned, and no one can earn their way to God. Then the good news: God makes people right with Him as a free gift through faith in Jesus. That new life comes with the Holy Spirit, a place in God's family and a love nothing can break. Paul shows God still has a plan for Israel, then spends five chapters on how to live it out.

Romans at a Glance

CH 6 to 8	NEW LIFE IN THE SPIRIT Dead to sin, alive to God, and nothing can separate us from His love.
CH 9 to 11	GOD'S PLAN FOR ISRAEL God has not given up on His people.
CH 12 to 16	LIVING IT OUT Love, government, freedom, unity and a long list of friends.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

LUTHER'S BREAKTHROUGH
Martin Luther, a monk who was terrified of God, studied Romans 1:17 and finally saw it: the righteous live by faith, not by being good enough. He said he felt born again and that the gates of paradise opened. His 1522 German New Testament put the word alone into 3:28, justified by faith alone, and his preface called Romans the purest gospel.

AUGUSTINE'S GARDEN
In a garden in Milan in AD 386, Augustine heard a child singing, Take up and read. He opened Paul's letters to 13:13 to 14, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and gave his life to God.

WESLEY'S WARM HEART
On May 24, 1738, on Aldersgate Street in London, John Wesley heard someone reading Luther's preface to Romans and felt his heart strangely warmed. The Methodist movement grew from that night.

THE ROMANS ROAD
Five verses that explain the gospel: 3:23, 6:23, 5:8, 10:9 to 10 and 10:13. Look for the yellow notes that lead from one stop to the next.

Did Anybody Listen?

Paul did reach Rome, but in chains, Acts 28. Tradition says he was killed there under Nero. His letter outlived the empire. Romans changed Augustine, Luther and Wesley, and through them the whole church. The Reformation, almost every Protestant church, and millions of people who walked the Romans Road can trace their faith back to this one letter.

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul introduces himself to a church he has never met and says he is not ashamed of the gospel. Then he explains how people went wrong. They could see God in creation, but they traded Him for idols, and everything slid downhill from there. The list of sins at the end is long enough that nobody gets to feel left out.

PAUL GREETS THE SAINTS IN ROME

1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, and set apart for the gospel of God— 2 the gospel He promised beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, 3 regarding His Son, who was a descendant of David according to the flesh, 4 and who through the Spirit of holiness was declared with power to be the Son of God by His resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord.

5 Through Him and on behalf of His name,
we received grace and apostleship to call all those among the Gentiles to the obedience that comes from faith. 6 And you also are among those who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.

7 To all in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints:

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UNASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed all over the world. 9 God, whom I serve with my spirit in preaching the gospel of His Son, is my witness how constantly I remember you 10 in my prayers at all times, asking that now at last by God's will I may succeed in coming to you. 11 For I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you, 12 that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith.

13 I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, how often I planned to come to you (but have been prevented from visiting until now), in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles. 14 I am obligated both to Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish. 15 That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.

16 I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, first to the Jew, then to the Greek. 17 For the gospel reveals the righteousness of God that comes by faith from start to finish, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."

GOD'S WRATH AGAINST SIN

18 The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness. 19 For what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. 20
For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood from His workmanship, so that men are without excuse.

21 For although they knew God, they neither glorified Him as God nor gave thanks to Him, but they became futile in their thinking and darkened in their foolish hearts. 22 Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools, 23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images of mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles.

24 Therefore God gave them over in the desires of their hearts to impurity for the dishonoring of their bodies with one another. 25 They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is forever worthy of praise! Amen.

THE HEART OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

26 For this reason God gave them over to dishonorable passions. Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones. 27 Likewise, the men abandoned natural relations with women and burned with lust for one another. Men committed indecent acts with other men and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.

28 Furthermore, since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, He gave them up to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done. 29 They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed, and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, and malice. They are gossips, 30 slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant, and boastful. They invent new forms of evil; they disobey their parents.
31 They are senseless, faithless, heartless, merciless.

32 Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things are worthy of death, they not only continue to do these things, but also approve of those who practice them.

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Anyone reading chapter 1 and nodding along gets a surprise. You who judge others do the same things. Knowing God's law does not save you if you do not keep it. Paul says a real Jew is one whose heart has been changed by the Spirit, not just someone with the right family tree.

GOD'S RIGHTEOUS JUDGMENT // PSALM 75:1–10

1 You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgment on another. For on whatever grounds you judge the other, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things. 2 And we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth. 3 So when you, O man, pass judgment on others, yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment? 4 Or do you disregard the riches of His kindness, tolerance, and patience, not realizing that God's kindness leads you to repentance?

5 But because of your hard and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. 6 God "will repay each one according to his deeds." 7 To those who by perseverance in doing good seek glory, honor, and immortality, He will give eternal life. 8 But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow wickedness, there will be wrath and anger.

9 There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil, first for the Jew, then for the Greek; 10 but glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good, first for the Jew, then for the Greek.
11 For God does not show favoritism.

12 All who sin apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law. 13
For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but it is the doers of the law who will be declared righteous.

14 Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. 15 So they show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts either accusing or defending them 16 on the day when God will judge men's secrets through Christ Jesus, as proclaimed by my gospel.

- ROM 1:26 [NOTE] Paul is describing same sex acts here, and the church has always read it that way. But keep reading. The list goes on in 1:29 to 31: greed, envy, gossip, slander, boasting and disobeying parents. Then 2:1 turns it around: you who judge do the same things. Many churches treat one sin on this list as the one that sends you to hell and shrug at the rest. That is a double standard. Paul's point comes in 3:23: all have sinned.
- ROM 1:27 [TEXT] The word homosexual is not in the Greek. It was coined in German in 1868 and first showed up in an English Bible in 1946, in 1 Corinthians 6:9, where the Greek words are rare and debated. Romans 1 uses plain words, men with other men. The debate here is over against nature in 1:26. Most read it as against God's design. Some say it means against custom, since Paul uses the same words for God grafting in the Gentiles in 11:24.

THE JEWS AND THE LAW

17 Now you, if you call yourself a Jew; if you rely on the law and boast in God; 18 if you know His will and approve of what is superior because you are instructed by the law; 19 if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those in darkness, 20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth— 21 you, then, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal? 22
You who forbid adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? 23 You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law? 24
As it is written: "God's name is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

25 Circumcision has value if you observe the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26
If a man who is not circumcised keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?
27 The one who is physically uncircumcised yet keeps the law will condemn you who, even though you have the written code and circumcision, are a lawbreaker.

28 A man is not a Jew because he is one outwardly, nor is circumcision only outward and physical. 29 No, a man is a Jew because he is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a man's praise does not come from men, but from God.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

So is anybody good? Paul strings Old Testament verses together to answer: no one is righteous, not even one. All have sinned and fall short. Then comes the good news. God makes people right with Him as a free gift through faith in Jesus, who paid for sin with His blood.

GOD REMAINS FAITHFUL

1 What, then, is the advantage of being a Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision? 2 Much in every way. First of all, they have been entrusted with the very words
of God.

3 What if some did not have faith? Will their lack of faith nullify God's faithfulness? 4 Certainly not! Let God be true and every man a liar. As it is written:

*"So that You may be proved right when You speak
and victorious when You judge."*

5 But if our unrighteousness highlights the righteousness of God, what shall we say?
That God is unjust to inflict His wrath on us? I am speaking in human terms. 6 Certainly not! In that case, how could God judge the world? 7 However, if my falsehood accentuates God's truthfulness, to the increase of His glory, why am I still condemned as a sinner? 8 Why not say, as some slanderously claim that we say, "Let us do evil that good may result"? Their condemnation is deserved!

THERE IS NO ONE RIGHTEOUS // PSALM 14:1–7; PSALM 53:1–6; ISAIAH 59:1–17

9 What then? Are we any better? Not at all.
For we have already made the charge that Jews and Greeks alike are all under sin. 10
As it is written:

*"There is no one righteous,
not even one.*
11 *There is no one who understands,
no one who seeks God.*
12 *All have turned away,
they have together become worthless;
there is no one who does good,
not even one."*

13 "Their throats are open graves;
their tongues practice deceit."
"The venom of vipers is on their lips."
14 "Their mouths are full

15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood;
16 ruin and misery lie in their wake,
17 and the way of peace they have not known."
18 "There is no fear of God
before their eyes."

19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God. 20 Therefore no one will be justified in His sight by works of the law. For the law merely brings awareness of sin.

RIGHTEOUSNESS THROUGH FAITH IN CHRIST // PHILIPPIANS 3:1–11

21 But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been revealed, as attested by the Law and the Prophets. 22 And this righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no distinction, 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 and are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

25 God presented Him as an atoning sacrifice in His blood through faith, in order to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance He had passed over the sins committed beforehand. 26 He did this to demonstrate His righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and to justify the one who has faith in Jesus.

27 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. On what principle? On that of works? No, but on that of faith. 28 For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the law.

29 Is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too, 30 since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.

31 Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith? Certainly not! Instead, we uphold the law.

4

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS
Paul goes back to Abraham to prove this is not a new idea. Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness, years before he was circumcised and centuries before the law. So Abraham is the father of everyone who believes, Jew or Gentile. He trusted God even when he was about a hundred years old.

ABRAHAM JUSTIFIED BY FAITH // GENESIS 15:1–7; PSALM 32:1–11; HEBREWS 11:8–19

1 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has discovered? 2 If Abraham was indeed justified by works, he had something to boast about, but not before God. 3 For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."

4 Now the wages of the worker are not credited as a gift, but as an obligation. 5 However, to the one who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness. 6 And David speaks likewise of the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

7 "Blessed are they whose lawless acts are forgiven,
whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will never count against him."

credited? Was it after his circumcision, or before? It was not after, but before.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. So then, he is the father of all who believe but are not circumcised, in order that righteousness might be credited to them. 12 And he is also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised, but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

ABRAHAM RECEIVES THE PROMISE // GENESIS 15:8–21

13 For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world was not given through the law, but through the righteousness that comes by faith. 14 For if those who live by the law are heirs, faith is useless and the promise is worthless, 15 because the law brings wrath. And where there is no law, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may rest on grace and may be guaranteed to all Abraham's offspring—not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all. 17 As it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations." He is our father in the presence of God, in whom he believed, the God who gives life to the dead and calls into being what does not yet exist.

18 Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as he had been told, "So shall your offspring be." 19 Without weakening in his faith, he acknowledged the decrepitness of his body (since he was about a hundred years old) and the lifelessness of Sarah's womb. 20 Yet he did not waver through disbelief in the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, 21 being fully persuaded that God was able to do what He had promised. 22 This is why "it was credited to him as righteousness."

23 Now the words "it was credited to him" were written not only for Abraham, 24 but also for us, to whom righteousness will be credited—for us who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. 25 He was delivered over to death for our trespasses and was raised to life for our justification.

5

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

Since we are made right by faith, we have peace with God. Even our troubles build endurance, character and hope. God showed His love by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners. Adam brought sin and death to everybody. Jesus brings grace and life to everybody who receives it.

THE TRIUMPH OF FAITH

1 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we stand. And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God.

3 Not only that, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; 4 perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5 And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out His love into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, whom He has given us.

CHRIST'S SACRIFICE FOR THE UNGODLY // JOHN 3:1–21

6 For at just the right time, while we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. 7 Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous man, though for a good man someone might possibly dare to die. 8 But God proves His love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

MESSIANIC PROPHECIES

9 Therefore, since we have now been justified by His blood, how much more shall we be saved from wrath through Him! 10 For if, when we were enemies of God, we were reconciled to Him through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through His life! 11 Not only that, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

DEATH IN ADAM, LIFE IN CHRIST // GENESIS 3:1–7

12 Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, so also death was passed on to all men, because all sinned. 13 For sin was in the world before the law was given; but sin is not taken into account when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who did not sin in the way that Adam transgressed. He is a pattern of the One to come.

15 But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many! 16 Again, the gift is not like the result of the one man's sin: The judgment that followed one sin brought condemnation, but the gift that followed many trespasses brought justification. 17 For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

18 So then, just as one trespass brought condemnation for all men, so also one act of righteousness brought justification and life for all men. 19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

20 The law came in so that the trespass would increase; but where sin increased, grace increased all the more, 21 so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

If grace covers sin, should we keep sinning to get more grace? Paul says, Absolutely not. In baptism we died with Christ and rose to a new life. Sin used to be the boss, but now you work for God. Sin pays its workers in death, but God gives eternal life as a free gift.

DEAD TO SIN, ALIVE TO GOD // 2 CORINTHIANS 4:7–18

1 What then shall we say? Shall we continue in sin so that grace may increase? 2 Certainly not! How can we who died to sin live in it any longer? 3 Or aren't you aware that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? 4 We were therefore buried with Him through baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been united with Him like this in His death, we will certainly also be united with Him in His resurrection. 6 We know that our old self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, that we should no longer be slaves to sin. 7 For anyone who has died has been freed from sin.

8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him. 9 For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, He cannot die again; death no longer has dominion over Him. 10 The death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God. 11 So you too must count yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

THE HEART OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW NOTABLE

12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its desires.
13 Do not present the parts of your body to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and present the parts of your body to Him as instruments of righteousness. 14 For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace.

THE WAGES OF SIN

15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? Certainly not! 16 Do you not know that when you offer yourselves as obedient slaves, you are slaves to the one you obey, whether you are slaves to sin leading to death, or to obedience leading to righteousness? 17 But thanks be to God that, though you once were slaves to sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching to which you were committed. 18 You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

19 I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. Just as you used to offer the parts of your body in slavery to impurity and to escalating wickedness, so now offer them in slavery to righteousness leading to holiness.

20 For when you were slaves to sin, you were free of obligation to righteousness.
21 What fruit did you reap at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The outcome of those things is death. 22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves to God, the fruit you reap leads to holiness, and the outcome is eternal life. 23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

The law is good, but it cannot make you good. It is like a mirror that shows the dirt but cannot wash your face. Paul describes the war inside: I do not do what I want, and I do what I hate. What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me? Thank God, through Jesus Christ.

RELEASE FROM THE LAW // GALATIANS 3:15–25

1 Do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to those who know the law), that the law has authority over a man only as long as he lives? 2 For instance, a married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage.
3 So then, if she is joined to another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law and is not an adulteress if she marries another man.
4 Therefore, my brothers, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, that you might belong to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit to God. 5 For when we lived according to the flesh, the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in our bodies, bearing fruit for death. 6 But now, having died to what bound us, we have been released from the law, so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.

GOD'S LAW IS HOLY

7 What then shall we say? Is the law sin?
Certainly not! Indeed, I would not have been mindful of sin if not for the law. For I would not have been aware of coveting if the law had not said, "Do not covet." 8 But sin, seizing its opportunity through the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from the law, sin is dead.

9 Once I was alive apart from the law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died. 10 So I discovered that the very commandment that was meant to bring life actually brought death.

ROM 6:17 [HEART] You obeyed from the heart the teaching you were given.

ROM 6:23 [NOTABLE] THE ROMANS ROAD, STOP 2 OF 5. Sin pays a paycheck, and the paycheck is death. But eternal life is a free gift, and you cannot earn a gift. Next stop, 5:8.

ROM 7:7 [QUOTES] Direct ← EX 20:17; DT 5:21 p.148

11 For sin, seizing its opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through the commandment put me to death.
12 So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good.

STRUGGLING WITH SIN

13 Did that which is good, then, become death to me? Certainly not! But in order that sin might be exposed as sin, it produced death in me through what was good, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.
14 We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin. 15 I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do, I do not do. But what I hate, I do. 16 And if I do what I do not want to do, I admit that the law is good. 17 In that case, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.
18 I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my flesh; for I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out.
19 For I do not do the good I want to do. Instead, I keep on doing the evil I do not want to do. 20 And if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.
21 So this is the principle I have discovered: When I want to do good, evil is right there with me. 22 For in my inner being I delight in God's law. 23 But I see another law at work in my body, warring against the law of my mind and holding me captive to the law of sin that dwells within me.
24 What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? 25
Thanks be to God, through Jesus Christ
our Lord!
So then, with my mind I serve the law of God, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin.

■ ROM 7:14 [NOTE] TWO VIEWS. Is Paul talking as a Christian here? Augustine, Luther and Calvin said yes: even believers fight sin every day, and Luther said a Christian is righteous and a sinner at the same time. Many early Greek teachers and John Wesley said no: Paul is describing life under the law without the Spirit, and chapter 8 is the answer. Either way, 7:25 ends with thanks to God through Jesus Christ.

8

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

No condemnation for those in Christ. The Spirit gives life, makes us God's children and helps us pray when we have no words. All creation is waiting to be set free. God works all things together for good for those who love Him. Nothing in all creation can separate us from the love of God in Christ.

WALKING BY THE SPIRIT // EZEKIEL 36:16–38; GALATIANS 5:16–26

1 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, [who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.] 2 For in Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set you free from the law of sin and death. 3 For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful man, as an offering for sin. He thus condemned sin in the flesh, 4 so that the righteous standard of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.
5 Those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh; but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. 6
The mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace, 7 because the mind of the flesh is hostile to God: It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. 8 Those controlled by the flesh cannot please God.
9 You, however, are controlled not by the flesh, but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ. 10 But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness. 11 And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit, who lives in you.

HEIRS WITH CHRIST

12 Therefore, brothers, we have an obligation, but it is not to the flesh, to live according to it. 13 For if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. 14 For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery that returns you to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption to sonship, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" 16 The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. 17 And if we are children, then we are heirs: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ—if indeed we suffer with Him, so that we may also be glorified with Him.

FUTURE GLORY // 2 CORINTHIANS 5:1–10

18 I consider that our present sufferings are not comparable to the glory that will be revealed in us. 19 The creation waits in eager expectation for the revelation of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not by its own will, but because of the One who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until the present time. 23 Not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. 24 For in this hope we were saved; but hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he can already see? 25 But if we hope for what we do not yet see, we wait for it patiently.

26 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know how we ought to pray, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groans too deep for words. 27 And He who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

GOD WORKS IN ALL THINGS // EPHESIANS 1:3–14

28 And we know that God works all things together for the good of those who love Him, who are called according to His purpose. 29 For those God foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brothers. 30 And those He predestined, He also called; those He called, He also justified; those He justified, He also glorified.

31 What then shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also, along with Him, freely give us all things? 33 Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is there to condemn us? For Christ Jesus, who died, and more than that was raised to life, is at the right hand of God—and He is interceding for us.

MORE THAN CONQUERORS // PSALM 44:1–26

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written:

"For Your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered."

37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

DEBATED THE BIG DEBATE

SPEAKING IN TONGUES

ROMANS 8:26 · 1 CORINTHIANS 12 TO 14 · ACTS 2:1 TO 13

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS

Jesus said believers would speak in new tongues, Mark 16:17. At Pentecost the believers suddenly spoke real languages they had never learned, and visitors from all over heard God praised in their own languages, Acts 2:4 to 11. Tongues come again in Acts 10:46 and 19:6. Paul calls tongues a gift of the Spirit, 1 Corinthians 12:10. He says the one who speaks in a tongue speaks to God, and no one understands him; he utters mysteries in the Spirit, 14:2. He also says, I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you, 14:18, and, Do not forbid speaking in tongues, 14:39.

ROMANS 8:26

When we do not know what to pray, the Spirit Himself prays for us with groans too deep for words. Many Pentecostals, and scholars like Gordon Fee, connect this to praying in tongues. Others point out that the Greek word means wordless, so Paul may mean the Spirit's own silent groaning, not sounds we make. Either way, 8:27 says the Spirit prays for us according to the will of God.

TWO KINDS OF TONGUES

The tongues in Acts 2 were real human languages the crowd understood. In 1 Corinthians 14 no one understands without an interpreter, and Paul mentions the tongues of angels, 13:1. Many Pentecostals say they are doing the same thing that happened at Pentecost. But the Bible describes Acts 2 as real languages people understood, while most tongues today fit better with what Paul calls praying in the Spirit, 1 Corinthians 14:14 to 15, Ephesians 6:18 and Jude 20.

PRAYING IN THE SPIRIT

Those who do it call it a personal prayer language. When you do not know what to pray for, the Spirit prays through you for God's perfect will for your life, Romans 8:27. Paul says it builds up the one who prays, 1 Corinthians 14:4. Many also believe the enemy cannot understand these prayers, so he cannot work against them behind the scenes in the spirit realm. No verse says that outright. It comes from 14:2, no one understands him.

NOT ALL AT ONCE IN CHURCH

Paul set rules for church meetings. If the whole church speaks in tongues and outsiders or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your minds? 14:23. Only two or three should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret, or the speaker should stay quiet and speak to himself and God, 14:27 to 28. Many Pentecostal and charismatic services have the whole room praying out loud in tongues at the same time, which seems to break this rule. Defenders say Paul meant messages spoken to the church, not a room praying together.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE GIFTS?

Irenaeus, about AD 180, wrote that he heard many believers speaking in all kinds of tongues. By about AD 390 John Chrysostom said these things used to happen but no longer did, and Augustine called tongues a sign for that time that had passed away. From about AD 500 to 1500, most believers in the West could not read the Bible for themselves. It was in Latin, most people could not read, and every copy was written by hand and cost a fortune. Some church councils banned Bibles in the common language: Toulouse in 1229 forbade lay people to own Bible books, and after 1564 reading one needed a bishop's permission. The Orthodox churches kept Scripture in Greek and Slavonic, closer to the people's own speech. When the printing press and the Reformation put the Bible back in people's hands, the church had to relearn much of what it teaches.

Tongues: The Two Sides

1 CORINTHIANS 13:8 TO 12 · 1 CORINTHIANS 14:39 TO 40

CESSATIONISM

The view that gifts like tongues, prophecy and healing stopped after the apostles. John Calvin did not invent it, since Chrysostom and Augustine said something like it first, but Calvin taught that miracles like healing had vanished away, and his teaching made the idea standard in many Protestant churches. Benjamin Warfield of Princeton built it into a full system in his 1918 book Counterfeit Miracles. Cessationists point to 1 Corinthians 13:8, tongues will cease, and say the gifts proved the apostles' message until the New Testament was finished.

THE PENTECOSTAL REVIVAL

On January 1, 1901, Agnes Ozman spoke in tongues at Charles Parham's Bible school in Topeka, Kansas. In April 1906 a revival broke out at 312 Azusa Street in Los Angeles, led by William J. Seymour, a Black preacher whose parents had been enslaved. Black and white believers worshiped side by side, which shocked people in those days. The Los Angeles Times headline said Weird Babel of Tongues. Meetings went on for about three years, and the Pentecostal movement spread around the world.

REAL LANGUAGES?

The first Pentecostals believed they were speaking real foreign languages like Acts 2. Some sailed overseas as missionaries expecting to preach without learning the language. It did not work, and most came to see tongues as a prayer language instead. Linguists who studied modern tongues, like William Samarin in 1972, found it does not have the structure of a human language. Many believers say that is the point: it is not Acts 2, it is praying in the Spirit, which no one understands, 14:2.

THE CHARISMATIC MOVEMENT

In 1960 Dennis Bennett, an Episcopal priest in Van Nuys, California, told his church he spoke in tongues. The experience spread into Lutheran, Methodist, Baptist and Catholic churches, with the Catholic Charismatic Renewal starting in 1967. In the 1980s John Wimber's Vineyard churches brought what was called the Third Wave. Today about one in four Christians in the world is Pentecostal or charismatic.

FOR EVERYONE OR FOR SOME?

Classical Pentecostals, like the Assemblies of God, teach that tongues is the first sign of being baptized in the Holy Spirit and is for every believer, Acts 2:4, 10:46 and 19:6. Many charismatics read 1 Corinthians 12:30, Do all speak in tongues?, and say it is one gift among many that the Spirit gives as He chooses, 12:11. Many hold both: a private prayer language any believer may ask for, and a public gift of tongues for some, which needs an interpreter.

CONTINUISM

The view that all the gifts continue today. Continuists say tongues will cease when the perfect comes, when we see face to face, 13:10 to 12, which means when Jesus returns, not when the Bible was finished. Paul never told the church to stop. He told them to keep order. Nearly every well known deliverance ministry today prays in tongues, which makes many believers think there may be something to it.

IS IT DEMONIC?

Some churches teach that tongues today are fake, or even demonic. If that were true, it would be strange that so many who pray in tongues also cast out demons, since Jesus said Satan does not drive out Satan, Mark 3:23 to 26. Both views come from people who love Jesus and the Bible. Read 1 Corinthians 12 to 14 and decide for yourself. Paul's last word on it: Be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. But everything must be done in a proper and orderly manner, 14:39 to 40.

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul's heart breaks for his own people, Israel. He says not all who come from Israel are true Israel, and God chose Jacob over Esau before they were born. Is God unfair? Paul answers with a potter and his clay. This chapter has kept theologians arguing for about sixteen hundred years.

PAUL'S CONCERN FOR THE JEWS

1 I speak the truth in Christ; I am not lying, as confirmed by my conscience in the Holy Spirit. 2 I have deep sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. 3 For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my own flesh and blood, 4 the people of Israel. Theirs is the adoption as sons; theirs the divine glory and the covenants;
theirs the giving of the law, the temple worship, and the promises. 5 Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them proceeds the human descent of Christ, who is God over all, forever worthy of praise! Amen.

GOD'S SOVEREIGN CHOICE // GENESIS 25:19–28; MALACHI 1:1–5

6 It is not as though God's word has failed.
For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel. 7 Nor because they are Abraham's descendants are they all his children. On the contrary, "Through Isaac your offspring will be reckoned." 8 So it is not the children of the flesh who are God's children, but it is the children of the promise who are regarded as offspring. 9
For this is what the promise stated: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."

10 Not only that, but Rebecca's children were conceived by one man, our father Isaac. 11 Yet before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad, in order that God's plan of election might stand, 12 not by works but by Him who calls, she was told, "The older will serve the younger."
13 So it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

14 What then shall we say? Is God unjust?
Certainly not! 15 For He says to Moses:

"I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."

16 So then, it does not depend on man's desire or effort, but on God's mercy. 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: *"I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display
My power in you, and that My name might be proclaimed in all the earth."* 18 Therefore God has mercy on whom He wants to have mercy, and He hardens whom He wants to harden.

19 One of you will say to me, "Then why does God still find fault? For who can resist His will?" 20 But who are you, O man, to talk back to God? Shall what is formed say to Him who formed it, "Why did You make me like this?" 21 Does not the potter have the right to make from the same lump of clay one vessel for special occasions and another for common use?

22 What if God, intending to show His wrath and make His power known, bore with great patience the vessels of His wrath, prepared for destruction? 23 What if He did this to make the riches of His glory known to the vessels of His mercy, whom He prepared in advance for glory— 24 including us, whom He has called not only from the Jews, but also from the Gentiles?
25 As He says in Hosea:

"I will call them *'My People' who are not My
people,*
and I will call her 'My Beloved' who is not My beloved,"

26 and,

"It will happen that in the very place where it was said to them,

'You are not My people,'

27 Isaiah cries out concerning Israel:

"Though the number of the Israelites is like the sand of the sea,
only the remnant will be saved.
28 For the Lord will carry out His sentence on the earth thoroughly and decisively."

29 It is just as Isaiah foretold:

"Unless the Lord of Hosts had left us descendants,
we would have become like Sodom,
we would have resembled Gomorrah."

ISRAEL'S UNBELIEF

30 What then will we say? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained it, a righteousness that is by faith; 31 but Israel, who pursued a law of righteousness, has not attained it. 32 Why not? Because their pursuit was not by faith, but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone, 33 as it is written:

"See, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense;
and the one who believes in Him will never be put to shame."

10

CHAPTER 10 IN 30 SECONDS

Israel tried to earn being right with God and missed that Christ is the end of the law. Salvation is close: confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him. Everyone who calls on the Lord will be saved. But how will they hear without someone to tell them?

THE WORD BRINGS SALVATION // ISAIAH 65:1–16

1 Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is for their salvation. 2 For I testify about them that they are zealous for God, but not on the basis of knowledge. 3 Because they were ignorant of God's righteousness and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. 4 For Christ is the end of the law, to bring righteousness to everyone who believes.

5 For concerning the righteousness that is by the law, Moses writes: "The man who does these things will live by them." 6 But the righteousness that is by faith says: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down) 7 or, 'Who will descend into the Abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)."

8 But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: 9 that if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For with your heart you believe and are justified, and with your mouth you confess and are saved.

11 It is just as the Scripture says: "Anyone who believes in Him will never be put to shame." 12 For there is no difference between Jew and Greek: The same Lord is Lord of all, and gives richly to all who call on Him, 13 for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

14 How then can they call on the One in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in the One of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone to preach? 15 And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

16 But not all of them welcomed the good news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has be- lieved our message?" 17 Consequently, faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

18 But I ask, did they not hear? Indeed they did:

"Their voice has gone out into all the earth,
their words to the ends of the world."

19 I ask instead, did Israel not understand?
First, Moses says:

"I will make you jealous by those who are not
a nation;
I will make you angry by a nation without understanding."

20 And Isaiah boldly says:

"I was found by those who did not seek Me;
I revealed Myself to those who did not ask for Me."

21 But as for Israel he says:

"All day long I have held out My hands to a disobedient and obstinate people."

11

CHAPTER 11 IN 30 SECONDS

Has God rejected Israel? No way. A faithful few remain, like the seven thousand in Elijah's day. Gentiles are wild olive branches grafted into God's tree, so do not brag. Israel is hardened in part until the full number of Gentiles comes in, and then all Israel will be saved. Paul ends in pure praise.

A REMNANT CHOSEN BY GRACE

1 I ask then, did God reject His people?
Certainly not! I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God did not reject His people, whom He foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah, how he appealed to God against Israel: 3 "Lord,
they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars. I am the only one left, and they are seeking my life as well"?

4 And what was the divine reply to him? "I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."

5 In the same way, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace. 6 And if it is by grace, then it is no longer by works. Otherwise, grace would no longer be grace.

7 What then? What Israel was seeking, it failed to obtain, but the elect did. The others were hardened, 8 as it is written:

"God gave them a spirit of stupor,
eyes that could not see,
and ears that could not hear,
to this very day."

9 And David says:

"May their table become a snare and a trap,
a stumbling block and a retribution to them.
10 May their eyes be darkened so they cannot
see,
and their backs be bent forever."

THE INGRAFTING OF THE GENTILES

11 I ask then, did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Certainly not! However, because of their trespass, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel jealous. 12 But if their trespass means riches for the world, and their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches will their fullness bring!

13 I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry 14 in the hope that I may provoke my own people to jealousy and save some of them. 15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? 16 If the first part of the dough is holy, so is the whole batch; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 Now if some branches have been broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others to share in the nourishment of the olive root, 18 do not boast over those branches. If you do, remember this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you.

19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in." 20
That is correct: They were broken off because of unbelief, but you stand by faith.
Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches,
He will certainly not spare you either.
22 Take notice, therefore, of the kindness and severity of God: severity to those who fell, but kindness to you, if you continue in His kindness. Otherwise you also will be cut off. 23 And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut from a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature were grafted into one that is cultivated, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

ALL ISRAEL WILL BE SAVED

25 I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you will not be conceited: A hardening in part has come to Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. 26 And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written:

"The Deliverer will come from Zion;
He will remove godlessness from Jacob.
27 And this is My covenant with them
when I take away their sins."

28 Regarding the gospel, they are enemies on your account; but regarding election, they are loved on account of the patri-archs. 29 For God's gifts and His call are irrevocable.
30 Just as you who formerly disobeyed
God have now received mercy through their disobedience, 31 so they too have now disobeyed, in order that they too may now receive mercy through the mercy shown to you. 32 For God has consigned everyone to disobedience so that He may have mercy on everyone.

How unsearchable are His judgments,
and untraceable His ways!

Or who has been His counselor?"
35 "Who has first given to God,

36 For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things.
To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

CHAPTER 12 IN 30 SECONDS

Now Paul gets practical. Offer your whole self to God as a living sacrifice. Do not copy the world, but let God change the way you think. Use your gifts, love for real, bless those who persecute you, and do not take revenge. Overcome evil with good.

LIVING SACRIFICES // 1 CORINTHIANS 3:16–23; 1 CORINTHIANS 6:18–20

1 Therefore I urge you, brothers, on account of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. 2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God.
3 For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but think of yourself with sober judgment, according to the measure of faith God has given you. 4 Just as each of us has one body with many members, and not all members have the same function, 5 so in Christ we who are many are one body, and each member belongs to one another.
6 We have different gifts according to the grace given us. If one's gift is prophecy, let him use it in proportion to his faith; 7 if it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach; 8 if it is encouraging, let him

FORGIVENESS // MATTHEW 18:21–35

14 Bless those who persecute you. Bless and do not curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. 16 Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but associate with the lowly. Do not be conceited.

17 Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Carefully consider what is right in the eyes of everybody. 18 If it is possible on your part, live at peace with everyone.

19 Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but leave room for God's wrath. For it is written: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord."

20 On the contrary,

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;
if he is thirsty, give him a drink.
For in so doing,
you will heap burning coals on his head."

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13 IN 30 SECONDS

Submit to the governing authorities and pay your taxes, even your property tax. Owe nobody anything except love, because love fulfills the law. It is almost morning, so wake up. Put away partying and drunkenness and clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ.

SUBMISSION TO AUTHORITIES // 1 PETER 2:13–20

1 Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which is from God. The authorities that exist have been appointed by God. 2 Consequently, whoever resists authority is opposing what God has set in place, and those who do so will bring judgment on themselves.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you want to be unafraid of the one in authority? Then do what is right, and you will have his approval. 4 For he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not carry the sword in vain. He is God's servant, an agent of retribution to the wrongdoer.

5 Therefore it is necessary to submit to authority, not only to avoid punishment, but also as a matter of conscience. 6 This is also why you pay taxes. For the authorities are God's servants, who devote themselves to their work. 7 Pay everyone what you owe him: taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due.

LOVE FULFILLS THE LAW // LEVITICUS 19:9–18

8 Be indebted to no one, except to one another in love. For he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law. 9 The commandments "Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not covet," and any other commandments, are summed up in this one decree: "Love your neighbor as yourself." 10 Love does no wrong to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

But when a ruler commands what God forbids, Peter and the apostles said, We must obey God rather than men, Acts 5:29. The Hebrew midwives, Exodus 1:17, and Daniel, Daniel 6:10, disobeyed and God honored them. So did Christians like Corrie ten Boom, who hid Jews from the Nazis.

nearer now than when we first believed. 12 The night is nearly over; the day has drawn near. So let us lay aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. 13 Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. 14 Instead, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the desires of the flesh.

14

CHAPTER 14 IN 30 SECONDS

Some Christians eat only vegetables, and some eat anything. Some keep special days, and some treat every day the same. Paul says stop judging each other over things like this. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. But do not use your freedom to make a weaker brother stumble.

THE LAW OF LIBERTY // MATTHEW 7:1–6; LUKE 6:37–42

1 Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on his opinions. 2 For one person has faith to eat all things, while another, who is weak, eats only vegetables. 3 The one who eats everything must not belittle the one who does not, and the one who does not eat everything must not judge the one who does, for God has accepted him. 4 Who are you to judge someone else's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

5 One person regards a certain day above the others, while someone else considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. 6 He who observes a special day does so to the Lord; he who eats does so to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and he who abstains does so to the Lord and gives thanks to God.

7 For none of us lives to himself alone, and none of us dies to himself alone. 8 If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. 9 For this reason Christ died and returned to life, that He might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.

10 Why, then, do you judge your brother? Or why do you belittle your brother? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. 11 It is written:

"As surely as I live,
says the Lord,
every knee will bow before Me;
every tongue will confess to God."

12 So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

THE LAW OF LOVE // EZEKIEL 14:1–11; 1 CORINTHIANS 8:1–13

13 Therefore let us stop judging one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling block or obstacle in your brother's way.

14 I am convinced and fully persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself. But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for him it is unclean. 15 If your brother is distressed by what you eat, you are no longer acting in love. Do not by your eating destroy your brother, for whom Christ died.

16 Do not allow what you consider good, then, to be spoken of as evil. 17 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For whoever serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by men.

19 So then, let us pursue what leads to peace and to mutual edification. 20 Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for a man to let his eating be a stumbling block. 21 It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything to cause your brother to stumble.

22 Keep your belief about such matters between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by

ROM 14:1 [NOTE] CHRISTIAN FREEDOM. In Rome some believers ate only vegetables, kept special days or skipped wine, and others did not. On matters like these, Paul says stop judging each other, 14:3 and 14:10, and let each one be fully convinced in his own mind, 14:5. Nothing is unclean in itself, 14:14. Freedom has two limits: do not make a weaker brother stumble, 14:21, and do not go against your own conscience, 14:23.

what he approves. 23 But the one who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and everything that is not from faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15 IN 30 SECONDS

The strong should carry the weak, just as Christ did not please Himself. Jews and Gentiles should welcome each other and praise God together. Paul shares his travel plans: Jerusalem first with an offering for the poor, then Rome, then Spain. He asks them to pray for him.

ACCEPT ONE ANOTHER

1 We who are strong ought to bear with the shortcomings of the weak and not to please ourselves. 2 Each of us should please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. 3 For even Christ did not please Himself, but as it is written: "The insults of those who insult You have fallen on Me." 4 For everything that was written in the past was written for our instruction, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures, we might have hope.

5 Now may the God who gives endurance and encouragement grant you harmony with one another in Christ Jesus, 6 so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

CHRIST THE SERVANT OF JEWS AND GENTILES

7 Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring glory to God. 8 For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised on behalf of God's truth, to confirm the promises made to the patriarchs, 9 so that the Gentiles may glorify God for His mercy. As it is written:

"Therefore I will praise You among the Gentiles;
I will sing hymns to Your name."

10 Again, it says:

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people."

11 And again:

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and extol Him, all you peoples."

12 And once more, Isaiah says:

"The Root of Jesse will appear,
One who will arise to rule over the Gentiles;
in Him the Gentiles will put their hope."

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you believe in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

PAUL THE MINISTER TO THE GENTILES

14 I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, brimming with knowledge, and able to instruct one another. 15 However, I have written you a bold reminder on some points, because of the grace God has given me 16 to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles might become an offering acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 Therefore I exult in Christ Jesus in my service to God. 18 I will not presume to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles to obedience by word and deed, 19 by the power of signs and wonders, and by the power of the Spirit of God. So from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ.

20 In this way I have aspired to preach the gospel where Christ was not known, so that I would not be building on someone else's foundation. 21 Rather, as it is written:

"Those who were not told about Him will see,
and those who have not heard will understand."

22 That is why I have often been hindered from coming to you.

PAUL'S TRAVEL PLANS // 1 CORINTHIANS 16:5–9

23 But now that there are no further opportunities for me in these regions, and since I have longed for many years to visit you, 24 I hope to see you on my way to Spain. And after I have enjoyed your company for a while, you can equip me for my journey.

25 Now, however, I am on my way to Jerusalem to serve the saints there. 26 For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem. 27 They were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual blessings, they are obligated to minister to them with material blessings.

28 So after I have completed this service and have safely delivered this bounty to them, I will set off to Spain by way of you. 29 I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

30 Now I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me. 31 Pray that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service in Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints there, 32 so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and together with you be refreshed.

33 The God of peace be with all of you. Amen.

CHAPTER 16 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul says hello to about twenty six friends by name, starting with Phoebe, who likely carried the letter. Priscilla and Aquila are back in town. Watch out for people who cause divisions. Tertius, who wrote the letter down, slips in his own hello. It ends with a big praise to the only wise God.

PERSONAL GREETINGS AND LOVE

1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a servant of the church in Cenchrea. 2 Welcome her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints, and assist her with anything she may need from you. For she has been a great help to many people, including me.

ROM 16:1 [NOTABLE] Paul trusted this letter to a woman. Phoebe most likely carried Romans to Rome. Paul calls her diakonos, the same Greek word used for deacons in 1 Timothy 3:8. Some Bibles say servant and others say deacon.

FIELD NOTES · ARCHAEOLOGY · CONFIDENCE: HIGH

CENCHREA: PHOEBE'S HARBOR

ROMANS 16:1 TO 2 · ACTS 18:18

The ancient harbor of Cenchrea today. Ruins of the old harbor tower stand on the left, and stones from the Roman harbor show above the water.

WHAT IT IS

The ruins of Cenchrea, the eastern harbor of Corinth, about 7 miles from the city. Ships from Asia and the eastern sea docked here. Phoebe served the church in Cenchrea, 16:1, and Paul sailed from here after keeping a vow, Acts 18:18.

HOW OLD IT IS

The town is far older than Paul, but most of the Roman harbor was built in the first century AD, after Julius Caesar rebuilt Corinth in 44 BC. That is the harbor Phoebe knew. A strong earthquake in the late 300s AD sank part of it into the sea.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The site was never lost. Archaeologists from the University of Chicago and Indiana University dug here from 1963 to 1968, some of them as divers working underwater. Newer digs have continued since.

WHAT THEY FOUND

Stone piers, warehouses, shops and a temple, likely of the Egyptian goddess Isis. The Roman writer Apuleius, about AD 170, describes a festival of Isis at Cenchrea. Divers found crates of colored glass wall panels still waiting to be put up when the earthquake hit. A church was built over part of the harbor later.

WHERE IT IS TODAY

At the shore by the village of Kechries, Greece. You can walk the ruins and see the old harbor stones under the clear water. The glass panels are in the museum at Isthmia.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Cenchrea was a busy port full of sailors, traders and temples to other gods. A church grew right there, and one of its leaders was a woman named Phoebe. Paul trusted her to carry the most important letter he ever wrote.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing found names Phoebe or the church of her day. The church building found here was built hundreds of years after her.

3 Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, 4 who have risked their lives for me. Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them. 5 Greet also the church that meets at their house.

Greet my beloved Epenetus, who was the first convert to Christ in the province of Asia.

6 Greet Mary, who has worked very hard for you.

7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, my fellow countrymen and fellow prisoners. They are outstanding among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys.

10 Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ.

Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.

11 Greet Herodion, my fellow countryman.

Greet those from the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.

12 Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, women who have worked hard in the Lord.

Greet my beloved Persis, who has worked very hard in the Lord.

13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who has been a mother to me as well.

14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers with them.

15 Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas and all the saints with them.

16 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

All the churches of Christ send you greetings.

AVOID DIVISIONS // TITUS 3:9–11

17 Now I urge you, brothers, to watch out for those who create divisions and obstacles that are contrary to the teaching you have learned. Turn away from them. 18 For such people are not serving our Lord Christ, but their own appetites. By smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive.

19 Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I rejoice over you. But I want you to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil.

20 The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL'S FELLOW WORKERS // COLOSSIANS 4:7–14

21 Timothy, my fellow worker, sends you greetings, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my fellow countrymen.

22 I, Tertius, who wrote down this letter, greet you in the Lord.

ROM 16:3 [FIELD NOTES] Claudius had thrown Priscilla and Aquila out of Rome, Acts 18:2. Now they are back. See the Claudius Field Notes page in Acts, p.1774.

ROM 16:7 [NOTABLE] Junia was a woman, and Paul counts her and Andronicus outstanding among the apostles. About AD 390 the great preacher John Chrysostom praised her for it. Apostle here likely means a sent out missionary, like Barnabas in Acts 14:14. For centuries many Bibles changed her to Junias, a man's name never found in ancient writing. The other view reads it as well known to the apostles.

1 CORINTHIANS

Dear Messy Church

AUTHOR	Paul, with his coworker Sosthenes, 1:1. Paul started the church in Corinth himself and stayed there a year and a half, Acts 18:11.
WRITTEN FROM	Ephesus, on Paul's third missionary trip. He planned to stay there until Pentecost, 16:8.
DATE WRITTEN	About AD 53 to 55.
WRITTEN TO	The church in Corinth, Greece, a mix of Jews and Gentiles, a few rich and many poor, 1:26.
WHY HE WROTE	People from Chloe's household reported fights in the church, 1:11, and the church sent Paul a letter full of questions, 7:1.
KEY VERSE	1 Corinthians 13:13. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

THE OLDEST COPY OF 1 CORINTHIANS

This is page 79 of Papyrus 46, a book of Paul's letters copied in Egypt about AD 200. It holds 1 Corinthians 2:11 to 3:5. You can read the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit, 2:14, then we have the mind of Christ, 2:16, and near the bottom, I follow Paul, 3:4. The number 79 is written in Greek letters at the top.

HOW IT WAS FOUND. In the early 1930s, dealers in Egypt sold the pages in batches. No one knows for sure where they were dug up. The collector Chester Beatty bought some for his library in Dublin, Ireland, and the University of Michigan bought others, including this page. Scholars matched them up and found they were one book. Frederic Kenyon published it from 1934 to 1937.

WHAT IS INSIDE. The whole book once had about 104 sheets, each written on both sides, and 86 survive. This one sheet holds only 1 Corinthians 2:11 to 3:5. Hebrews comes right after Romans, so the copyist thought Paul wrote it. Look for short words with a line over them. Copyists wrote holy names like God, Lord and Jesus that way, a habit Christians used to show honor to God's name. Most date it to about AD 200, about 150 years after Paul wrote. One scholar argued for about AD 80, but few agree.

Historical Setting

Corinth sat on a narrow strip of land between two seas, with a harbor on each side, Lechaion to the west and Cenchrea to the east. Rome flattened the old Greek city in 146 BC, and Julius Caesar rebuilt it as a Roman colony in 44 BC. By Paul's day it was rich, busy and famous for loose living. Every two years it hosted the Isthmian Games. Paul came about AD 50 to 52 and planted a church, and the Gallio inscription at Delphi dates his trial there, Acts 18:12. This is really at least his second letter to them. The first one, 5:9, is lost.

What Was Going Wrong

FAN CLUBS. Believers picked favorite preachers and split into teams, 1:12.
SEXUAL SIN. A man was sleeping with his father's wife, and the church bragged about it, 5:1 to 2.
LAWSUITS. Believers were dragging each other into pagan courts, 6:1.
A DRUNK COMMUNION. At the Lord's Supper some got drunk while the poor went hungry, 11:21.
SHOWING OFF GIFTS. Everyone spoke in tongues at once, and outsiders thought they were crazy, 14:23.
NO RESURRECTION. Some said the dead are not raised at all, 15:12.

The Idiot Proof Summary

1 Corinthians is a letter to a messy church that Paul still loves. They are gifted, smart and full of energy, but they are also proud, divided and copying the city around them. Paul answers report after report and question after question. Every answer points back to the same place: the cross, the Holy Spirit, love for each other and the risen Jesus. If your church has ever had a fight, this letter is for you.

Cool Stuff Most People Miss

THE OLDEST CREED
Paul says he passed on what he had received: Christ died, was buried, was raised and appeared, 15:3 to 8. Many scholars, even skeptics, date this creed to within a few years of the cross. More than five hundred people saw the risen Jesus, and most were still alive to ask.

THE WEDDING CHAPTER
Chapter 13 is read at weddings all over the world. Paul wrote it to a church at war with itself, to say gifts without love are just noise.

A GREEK COMEDY
Bad company corrupts good character, 15:33, is a line from Menander, a Greek writer of comedies, about 300 BC.

AN ARAMAIC PRAYER
In the Greek, Come, O Lord in 16:22 is one Aramaic word, Maranatha. Paul did not even translate it. The first believers prayed it in the language Jesus spoke.

Did Anybody Listen?

Some did and some did not. Paul made a painful visit and wrote a tear stained letter, 2 Corinthians 2:1 to 4. In 2 Corinthians he is glad many turned around, but new troublemakers showed up. About AD 96, Clement of Rome wrote to Corinth because they were fighting again and told them to reread Paul's letter about factions. The church in Corinth lasted, and its letters became some of the most read pages in the Bible.

1

CHAPTER 1 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul writes to a church he planted, and the news is not good. They have split into fan clubs: I follow Paul, I follow Apollos, I follow Peter. Paul asks, Is Christ divided? Then he says the cross looks foolish to the world, but God's foolishness is wiser than the smartest people on earth.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL AND SOSTHENES // ACTS 18:1–11; 2 CORINTHIANS 1:1–2

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

2 To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

3 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

THANKSGIVING // PHILIPPIANS 1:3–11; COLOSSIANS 1:3–14

4 I always thank my God for you because of the grace He has given you in Christ Jesus. 5 For in Him you have been enriched in every way, in all speech and all knowledge, 6 because our testimony about Christ was confirmed in you.

7 Therefore you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly await the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. 8 He will sustain you to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God, who has called you into fellowship with His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, is faithful.

UNITY IN THE CHURCH // PSALM 133:1–3; EPHESIANS 4:1–16

10 I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree together, so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be united in mind and conviction. 11 My brothers, some from Chloe's household have informed me that there are quarrels among you. 12 What I mean is this: Individuals among you are saying, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," or "I follow Christ."

13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized into the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, 15 so no one can say that you were baptized into my name. 16 Yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that I do not remember if I baptized anyone else. 17 For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with words of wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

18 For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. 19 For it is written:

> "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise;
> the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate."

20 Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? 21 For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know Him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe.

22 Jews demand signs and Greeks search for wisdom, 23 but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, 24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

25 For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength.

standards; not many were powerful; not many were of noble birth. 27 But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. 28 He chose the lowly and despised things of the world, and the things that are not, to nullify the things that are, 29 so that no one may boast in His presence.

30 It is because of Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God: our righteousness, holiness, and redemption. 31 Therefore, as it is written: "Let him who boasts boast in the Lord."

CHAPTER 2 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul did not come to Corinth with fancy speeches. He came preaching Jesus and Him crucified, with the power of the Spirit. God's wisdom is hidden from the world but shown to us by His Spirit. No eye has seen what God has prepared for those who love Him.

PAUL'S MESSAGE BY THE SPIRIT'S POWER

1 When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with eloquence or wisdom as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God. 2 For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. 3 I came to you in weakness and fear, and with much trembling. 4 My message and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power, 5 so that your faith would not rest on men's wisdom, but on God's power.

SPIRITUAL WISDOM // EPHESIANS 1:15–23

6 Among the mature, however, we speak a message of wisdom—but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. 7 No, we speak of the mysterious and hidden wisdom of God, which He destined for our glory before time began. 8 None of the rulers of this age understood it. For if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 Rather, as it is written:

"No eye has seen,
no ear has heard,
no heart has imagined,
what God has prepared for those who love Him."

10 But God has revealed it to us by the Spirit.

The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. 11 For who among men knows the thoughts of man except his own spirit within him? So too, no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. 12 We have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. 13 And this is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words.

14 The natural man does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God. For they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15 The spiritual man judges all things, but he himself is not subject to anyone's judgment. 16 "For who has known the mind of the Lord, so as to instruct Him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3 IN 30 SECONDS

The Corinthians are acting like baby Christians, still on milk. Paul planted, Apollos watered, but God made it grow. Jesus is the only foundation. Everyone's work will be tested by fire someday, and you are God's temple, so do not wreck it.

GOD'S FELLOW WORKERS // HEBREWS 5:11–14

1 Brothers, I could not address you as spiritual, but as worldly—as infants in Christ. 2 I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for solid food. In fact, you are still not ready, 3 for you are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and dissension among you, are you not worldly? Are you not walking in the way of man? 4 For when one of you says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not mere men?

5 What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? They are servants through whom you believed, as the Lord has assigned to each his role. 6 I planted the seed and Apollos watered it, but God made it grow. 7 So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. 8 He who plants and he who waters are one in purpose, and each will be rewarded according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

CHRIST OUR FOUNDATION // ISAIAH 28:14–22; EPHESIANS 2:19–22; 1 PETER 2:1–8

10 By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as an expert builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one must be careful how he builds. 11 For no one can lay a foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, 13 his workmanship will be evident, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will prove the quality of each man's work. 14 If what he has built survives, he will receive a reward. 15 If it is burned up, he will suffer loss. He himself will be saved, but only as if through the flames.

GOD'S TEMPLE AND GOD'S WISDOM // ROMANS 12:1–8; 1 CORINTHIANS 6:18–20

16 Do you not know that you yourselves are God's temple, and that God's Spirit dwells in you? 17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

18 Let no one deceive himself. If any of you thinks he is wise in this age, he should become a fool, so that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness." 20 And again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."

21 Therefore, stop boasting in men. All things are yours, 22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future. All of them belong to you, 23 and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

4

CHAPTER 4 IN 30 SECONDS

Leaders are just servants and managers of God's secrets. Paul gets sarcastic: you are already rich, already kings! Meanwhile the apostles are hungry, beaten and treated like the world's garbage. He is coming to visit soon. Should he bring a stick or a gentle spirit?

SERVANTS OF CHRIST

1 So then, men ought to regard us as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Now it is required of stewards that they be found faithful.

3 I care very little, however, if I am judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. 4 My conscience is clear, but that does not vindicate me. It is the Lord who judges me.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the appointed time; wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of men's hearts. At that time each will receive his praise from God.

6 Brothers, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us not to go beyond what is written. Then you will not take pride in one man over another. 7 For who makes you so superior? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?

8 Already you have all you want. Already you have become rich. Without us, you have become kings. How I wish you really were kings, so that we might be kings with you! 9 For it seems to me that God has displayed us apostles at the end of the procession, like prisoners appointed for death. We have become a spectacle to the whole world, to angels as well as to men.

10 We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honored, but we are dishonored. 11 To this very hour we are hungry and thirsty, we are poorly clothed, we are brutally treated, we are homeless. 12 We work hard with our own hands. When we are vilified, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it; 13 when we are slandered, we answer gently. Up to this moment we have become the scum of the earth, the refuse of the world.

PAUL'S FATHERLY WARNING

14 I am not writing this to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved children. 15 Even if you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel. 16 Therefore I urge you to imitate me. 17 That is why I have sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus, which is exactly what I teach everywhere in every church.

18 Some of you have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you. 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing, and then I will find out not only what these arrogant people are saying, but what power they have. 20 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power. 21 Which do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and with a gentle spirit?

5

CHAPTER 5 IN 30 SECONDS

A man in the church is sleeping with his father's wife, and the church is proud of how open minded it is. Paul says remove him so he can be saved in the end. A little yeast spreads through the whole batch. Christ our Passover lamb has been sacrificed.

IMMORALITY REBUKED // LEVITICUS 20:10–21; PROVERBS 5:1–23

1 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is intolerable even among pagans: A man has his father's wife. 2 And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have been stricken with grief and have removed from your fellowship the man who did this?

3 Although I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit, and I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present. 4 When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus and I am with you in spirit, along with the power of the Lord Jesus, 5 hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the Day of the Lord.

6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven works through the whole batch of dough? 7 Get rid of the old leaven, that you may be a new unleavened batch, as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with the old bread, leavened with malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and of truth.

EXPEL THE IMMORAL BROTHER

9 I wrote you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people. 10 I was not including the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters. In that case you would have to leave this world. 11 But now I am writing you not to associate with anyone who claims to be a brother but is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater or a verbal abuser, a drunkard or a swindler. With such a man do not even eat.

CHAPTER 6 IN 30 SECONDS

Believers are suing each other in pagan courts. Paul says it is better to be cheated. Then a hard list of sins that keep people out of God's kingdom, followed by good news: and that is what some of you were. You were washed. Run from sexual sin, because your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit.

LAWSUITS AMONG BELIEVERS

1 If any of you has a grievance against another, how dare he go to law before the unrighteous instead of before the saints! 2
Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if you are to judge the world, are you not competent to judge trivial cases? 3 Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the things of this life!

4 So if you need to settle everyday matters, do you appoint as judges those of no standing in the church? 5 I say this to your shame. Is there really no one among you wise enough to arbitrate between his brothers? 6 Instead, one brother goes to law against another, and this in front of unbelievers!

7 The very fact that you have lawsuits
among you means that you are thoroughly defeated already. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? 8 Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong, even against your own brothers!

MEMBERS OF CHRIST

9 Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who submit to or perform homosexual acts, 10
nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor verbal abusers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God. 11 And that is what some of you were. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

12 "Everything is permissible for me," but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible for me," but I will not be mastered by anything. 13 "Food for the stomach and the stomach for food," but God will destroy them both. The body is not intended for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. 14 By His power God raised the Lord from the dead, and He will raise us also.

15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and unite them with a prostitute? Never! 16 Or don't you know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one with her in body? For it is said,
"The two will become one flesh." 17 But he who unites himself with the Lord is one with Him in spirit.

THE TEMPLE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT // ROMANS 12:1–8; 1 CORINTHIANS 3:16–23

18 Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a man can commit is outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body. 19 Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; 20 you were bought at a price. Therefore glorify God with your body.

Many churches treat one sin on this list as the one that sends you to hell and shrug at the rest. That is a double standard. Then comes 6:11: and that is what some of you were. But you were washed. See the notes on Romans 1:26 to 27, p.1801.

Others argue they meant something narrower, like men who sold sex or used boys.

ACROCORINTH AND THE TEMPLE OF APHRODITE

1 CORINTHIANS 6:18 TO 20

The Acrocorinth, the mountain above Corinth. Photo Focal-Point, CC BY SA 3.0.

WHAT IT IS

The Acrocorinth is a huge rock mountain that towers about 1,880 feet over ancient Corinth. On its top stood a small temple of Aphrodite, the Greek goddess of love and sex. You could see it from almost anywhere in the city.

HOW OLD IT IS

The temple on top goes back to Greek times, hundreds of years before Paul. A version of it still stood in his day. The walls you see on the mountain now were built much later by Byzantine, Frankish, Venetian and Turkish armies.

WHERE AND WHEN FOUND

The mountain was never lost. Carl Blegen of the American School of Classical Studies dug the temple area on the summit in 1926 and found its foundations.

THE FAMOUS CLAIM

The Greek writer Strabo, about the time Jesus was born, said the temple of Aphrodite once owned more than a thousand temple prostitutes. Preachers often say this is why Paul warns Corinth about sexual sin.

THE HONEST SIDE

Strabo was describing the old Greek city before Rome destroyed it in 146 BC, not Paul's Roman Corinth. The temple on top was small, and most historians think the thousand is an old tale or a big exaggeration. Corinth's bad name was real, though. Greeks even had a verb, to corinthianize, meaning to sleep around.

WHAT IT CONFIRMS

Paul's readers lived under a mountain topped by a temple to a sex goddess, in a city known for loose living. That helps explain why 1 Corinthians spends so much time on sexual sin, 5:1, 6:18 and 7:2.

WHAT IT DOES NOT PROVE

Nothing found proves temple prostitution in Paul's day. The sin Paul names in Corinth came from the church's own members, not just the temple on the hill.

7

CHAPTER 7 IN 30 SECONDS

Now Paul answers their letter. Married couples should not hold out on each other. Being single is a gift, and so is being married. Do not divorce. If an unbelieving spouse leaves, let them go. Time is short, so live for the Lord whatever your situation.

PRINCIPLES OF MARRIAGE

1 Now for the matters you wrote about: It is good to abstain from sexual relations. 2
But because there is so much sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband.
3 The husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife, and likewise the wife to her husband. 4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife.
5 Do not deprive each other, except by mutual consent and for a time, so you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again, so that Satan will not tempt you through your lack of self-control. 6 I say this as a concession, not as a command. 7 I wish that all men were as I am. But each man has his own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that.
8 Now to the unmarried and widows I say this: It is good for them to remain unmarried, as I am. 9 But if they cannot control themselves, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

1CO 7:1 [NOTE] Now Paul answers their letter. It is good to abstain may be their own slogan, which he corrects. Married couples should not hold out on each other, 7:3 to 5. Staying single is a gift, 7:7, and so is marriage. Do not divorce, which Paul says comes from Jesus Himself, 7:10 to 11. If an unbelieving spouse leaves, the believer is not bound, 7:15. Many churches read that as freedom to remarry. Others say no.

10 To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband. 11 But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.

12 To the rest I say this (I, not the Lord): If a brother has an unbelieving wife and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her. 13 And if a woman has an unbelieving husband and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his believing wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy.

15 But if the unbeliever leaves, let him go.
The believing brother or sister is not bound in such cases. God has called you to live in peace. 16 How do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

LIVE YOUR CALLING

17 Regardless, each one should lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him and to which God has called him. This is what I prescribe in all the churches. 18 Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not become uncircumcised. Was a man still uncircumcised when called? He should not be circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. Keeping God's commandments is what counts.

20 Each one should remain in the situation
he was in when he was called. 21 Were you a slave when you were called? Do not let it concern you—but if you can gain your freedom, take the opportunity. 22 For he who was a slave when he was called by the Lord is the Lord's freedman. Conversely, he who was a free man when he was called is Christ's slave.

23 You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men. 24 Brothers, each one should remain in the situation he was in when God called him.

THE UNMARRIED AND WIDOWED

25 Now about virgins, I have no command from the Lord, but I give a judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. 26 Because of the present crisis, I think it is good for a man to remain as he is. 27 Are you committed to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you free of commitment? Do not look for a wife. 28 But if you do marry, you have not sinned. And if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But those who marry will face troubles in this life, and I want to spare you this.

29 What I am saying, brothers, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they had none; 30 those who weep, as if they did not; those who are joyful, as if they were not; those who make a purchase, as if they had nothing; 31 and those who use the things of this world, as if not dependent on them. For this world in its present form is passing away.

32 I want you to be free from concern. The unmarried man is concerned about the work of the Lord, how he can please the Lord. 33 But the married man is concerned about the affairs of this world, how he can please his wife, 34 and his interests are divided. The unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the work of the Lord, how she can be holy in both body and spirit. But the married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world, how she can please her husband.

35 I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but in order to promote proper decorum and undivided devotion to the Lord.

36 However, if someone thinks he is acting inappropriately toward his betrothed, and if she is beyond her youth and they ought to marry, let him do as he wishes; he is not sinning; they should get married. 37 But the man who is firmly established in his heart and under no constraint, with control over his will and resolve in his heart not to marry the virgin, he will do well.

DEMONIC OLD TESTAMENT QUOTED IN THE NEW

38 So then, he who marries the virgin does well, but he who does not marry her does even better.

39 A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, as long as he belongs to the Lord. 40 In my judgment, however, she is happier if she remains as she is. And I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

8

CHAPTER 8 IN 30 SECONDS

Can Christians eat meat that was offered to idols? An idol is nothing, and there is only one God. But knowledge puffs up and love builds up. If your freedom makes a weaker believer fall, you have sinned against Christ. Paul says he would go vegetarian forever before he did that.

FOOD SACRIFICED TO IDOLS // EZEKIEL 14:1–11; ROMANS 14:13–23

1 Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2 The one who thinks he knows something does not yet know as he ought to know. 3 But the one who loves God is known by God.

4 So about eating food sacrificed to idols:
We know that an idol is nothing at all in the world, and that there is no God but
one. 5 For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many so-called gods and lords), 6 yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom all things came and for whom we exist. And there is but one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things came and through whom we exist.

7 But not everyone has this knowledge.
Some people are still so accustomed to idols that they eat such food as if it were sacrificed to an idol. And since their conscience is weak, it is defiled. 8 But food does not bring us closer to God: We are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.

9 Be careful, however, that your freedom does not become a stumbling block to the weak. 10 For if someone with a weak conscience sees you who are well informed eating in an idol's temple, will he not be encouraged to eat food sacrificed to idols? 11 So this weak brother, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge. 12 By sinning against your brothers in this way and wounding their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

13 Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause him to stumble.

9

CHAPTER 9 IN 30 SECONDS

Paul had every right to be paid for preaching, but he worked for free so nothing would block the gospel. He became all things to all people to win some. Life is a race, so run to win. Athletes train hard for a wreath that dies in a week. We run for a crown that lasts forever.

THE RIGHTS OF AN APOSTLE // DEUTERONOMY 18:1–8

1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you yourselves not my workmanship in the Lord? 2
Even if I am not an apostle to others, surely I am to you. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

3 This is my defense to those who scrutinize me: 4 Have we no right to food and to drink? 5 Have we no right to take along a believing wife, as do the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas? 6 Or are Barnabas and I the only apostles who must work for a living?

7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Who tends a flock and does not drink of its milk?

8 Do I say this from a human perspective?
Doesn't the Law say the same thing? 9 For it is written in the Law of Moses: "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain." Is it about oxen that God is concerned? 10 Isn't He actually speaking on our behalf? Indeed, this was written for us, because when the plowman plows and the thresher threshes, they should also expect to share in the harvest.

11 If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much for us to reap a material harvest from you? 12 If others have this right to your support, shouldn't we have it all the more? But we did not exercise this right. Instead, we put up with anything rather than hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do you not know that those who work in the temple eat of its food, and those who serve at the altar partake of its offerings? 14 In the same way, the Lord has prescribed that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel. 15 But I have not used any of these rights. And I am not writing this to suggest that something be done for me. Indeed, I would rather die than let anyone nullify my boast.

16 Yet when I preach the gospel, I have no reason to boast, because I am obligated to preach. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! 17 If my preaching is voluntary, I have a reward. But if it is not voluntary, I am still entrusted with a responsibility. 18 What then is my reward? That in preaching the gospel I may offer it free of charge, and so not use up my rights in preaching it.
