Your Hosts

Nathalie & Mario

Welcome to our home!

We are Nathalie and Mario, the hosts at Au P'tit Manoir, and we are delighted to share our home with you for a memorable and comfortable stay.

Au P'tit Manoir is more than just a guesthouse for us — it is our home and our passion.

Having grown up in this beautiful region of Saguenay, we have always been passionate about its history, its culture and its cuisine.

After a few years living in Québec City, we decided to return to our roots and share with you the treasures of this little piece of paradise, along with our warm hospitality.

We look forward to welcoming you!

A home filled with history

1952 – A vision for the family and for the community

In 1952, Dr Yvan Lambert, a well-known general practitioner in the region, built this residence in his own style at 2263 rue Saint-Dominique in Jonquière. He moved in with his family and set up his medical office on the ground floor.

Dr Yvan Lambert around 1952 (Private archives)

Over the years, several doctors cared for their patients here, making it a warm and lively place, at the heart of the community. The Manoir thus became a meeting place where professionals welcomed residents from all over the region.

A precious detail from a bygone era. The sewing machine used by Dr Yvan Lambert, doctor in Jonquière (1940–1975).

"A place where people always come first… Yesterday, today and tomorrow."

Dr Lambert, a doctor in his community

A remarkable presence in Jonquière

Dr Yvan Lambert devoted his life to the health and well-being of the people of Jonquière. A family physician, he treated generations of patients with dedication and humanity, and became a familiar figure in the neighbourhood, making house calls, caring for the young and the elderly, and actively participating in many community events.

Hôtel-Dieu de Jonquière shortly after its opening in 1955 (BAnQ collection)

In 1955, he was part of the first generation of physicians to open Hôtel-Dieu de Jonquière. His name was then entered in the official register as a founding physician of the institution.

"A man whose dedication and generosity left a lasting mark on his community and inspired many."

A Heritage That Lives On

From the Past to the Present

Dr. Yvan Lambert passed away on December 29, 2013, at the age of 94.
He was the husband of Marthe Deschênes.

His funeral services were held at the Saint-Dominique Church in Jonquière, and he was laid to rest at the Saint-Dominique Columbarium, alongside his beloved wife.
His memory lives on in the hearts of those he cared for and supported.

Over the years, the house has changed hands, but it has retained its charm and noble materials. The current owners have chosen to preserve its unique history by transforming the residence into a charming tourist guesthouse: Au P'tit Manoir.

"A place where history, hospitality and memories come together."

*Today, the Manoir continues to welcome guests from near and far, in the same spirit of hospitality that inspired its first owner:
a warm place, at the service of others.*
