

KEISHA ADEJOLA, MSL

Founder of PromoteHER Coaching Group, Inc.

COACH | ENTREPRENEUR | PHILANTHROPIST

Keisha Adejola, founder and President of PromoteHER Coaching Group, Inc is a dedicated career coach who partners with ambitious women seeking to advance their careers, increase their income, and find greater fulfillment in their professional lives. With a deep passion she guides clients into landing their dream jobs with confidence and clarity.

Before entering the coaching world, Keisha, accumulated extensive professional experience in corporate and higher education, bringing her firsthand understanding of the corporate landscape, hiring practices, and career progression dynamics. Building on this foundation, she transitioned into career coaching to make a greater impact: empowering women to navigate career transitions, promotions, and shifts with purpose.

Her approach combines strategic career planning with a strengths-based mindset and personalized support, helping clients craft distinctive profiles, articulate their value, and walk into interviews with poise.
