

TRUE ALLIANCE CAPITAL

Business Lines of Credit

Business LOC

A Business Line of Credit (LOC) operates like a business credit card, providing access to a set amount of funds that you can draw from as needed. This facility allows you to only pay interest on the money you borrow and as you repay the funds, the credit limit replenishes for future use. The LOC is ideal for managing cash flow fluctuations, unexpected expenses, or covering seasonal revenue dips without requiring you to take a single lump sum.

True Alliance Capital provides business lines of credit up to $200,000 with flexible draw and repayment schedules. You can access the funds your business needs in as little as 24 hours, all backed by dedicated support and fully transparent terms.

- Access funds 24/7
