Spirit House Brands LP Announces Certified Name Change from NexGen 2780, LP

A New Chapter. A Bigger Vision. The Legacy Continues.

ATLANTA, Georgia - November 6, 2026 - Spirit House Brands LP today announced its official name change from NexGen 2780, LP, marking a new chapter in the company's development and long-term vision for the spirits industry. The name-change amendment was filed with the Georgia Secretary of State and became effective October 27, 2026. The state issued its Certificate of Amendment - Name Change on November 3, 2026.

The new name reflects the company's vision to build a spirits platform centered on heritage, thoughtful growth and lasting legacy. The name change marks the next chapter for the existing Georgia domestic limited partnership.

The company's new website address is https://spirithousebrands.com. The website is intended to serve as a central destination for company information, leadership introductions, verified announcements and updates on the Spirit House Brands journey.

Spirit House Brands also plans to introduce The Legacy Collective, a free community for adults 21 and older, with further registration information to be shared through company channels. Readers are invited to follow Spirit House Brands for future announcements and verified milestones.
