T1 Checklist - 2025 HOME OFFICE EXPENSE DEDUCTION

As an employee, you may be able to claim certain home office expenses (work-space-in-the-home expenses, office supplies, and certain phone expenses). For 2025, there is only one option: the detailed method.

Detailed method:

- If filing under the detailed method, we require that you provide us a completed and signed Form T2200 from your employer, as well as details of your home office amounts paid supported by documents.
- You cannot claim any expenses that were or will be reimbursed by your employer.
- Eligible employees can claim the employment portion of actual amounts paid.

Common home office expenses may include the following:

- o Office supplies (if required by employer) _____
- o Cell phone (if required by employer) _____
- o Utilities (i.e. electricity, heat, water) _____
- o Rent _____
- o Internet (monthly home internet access fee) _____
- o Property taxes (commissioned employees only) _____
- o Home insurance (commissioned employees only) _____

- Mortgage interest cannot be claimed by either employees or commissioned employees, only by self-employed individuals.
- The portion of the workspace used for employment purposes compared to the total finished area of their home is used as a basis for calculating the employment portion of the home office expenses.
  - o What is the office space as a percentage of the total finished area of your home _____%
