

Terms of Use

A complete standalone set of terms for Reset Report websites, publications, subscriptions and educational content.

The Reset Report is jointly owned educational publishing intellectual property of Adrian C. Spitters and Peter J. Merrick. It is not an advisory firm, legal entity or compensation recipient.

1. Acceptance and scope

The Reset Report is an educational brand and is not a separate legal or regulated entity. These terms govern the stated websites, forms, subscriptions, publications, presentations, meeting requests and educational content. A visit, form submission, subscription or inquiry does not create a professional relationship. Required engagements, consents and governing documents are completed separately.

2. General information, not individual advice

The content is general education and commentary. It is not personalized financial, investment, securities, insurance, tax, accounting or legal advice, and is not a recommendation to buy, sell, hold, insure, borrow, transfer, restructure or take another action. Obtain advice from the appropriate responsible professional before acting.

3. Capacity and responsibility separation

PFC and Merrick Wealth act only in their own disclosed capacities. The Reset Report does not provide regulated services, hold client assets, accept insurance applications, open accounts, determine suitability or receive transaction compensation. The named controller at each form is responsible for its privacy notice and communications. A reference, link or introduction to another organization does not make the Merrick Spitters Reset Report™ responsible for that organization's products, services, content, security, privacy practices, documents, decisions or outcomes.

4. No offer, guarantee or client acceptance

Content is not an offer or solicitation where prohibited. Availability, eligibility, insurance underwriting, account opening, product terms, transactions and service acceptance are determined only by the responsible provider and its current documents. Historical discussion, examples, illustrations, estimates and commentary do not guarantee a result, return, value, coverage, tax result, availability or future performance.

5. Referrals, compensation and conflicts

PFC receives PFC compensation and Merrick Wealth receives Merrick Wealth compensation. The Reset Report receives no transaction compensation. A referral or compensation disclosure identifies the responsible party, service, payee, material terms, actual or potential conflict, calculation method and amount where required. A payment disclosure does not make a product or service suitable. A person may choose not to proceed with any referral.

6. Third-party links and current documents

Third-party links are provided for convenience and are not an endorsement or adoption of third-party material. Current provider, insurer, dealer, account, policy, custody, engagement and regulatory documents apply to their functions and control where they differ from website content.

7. Intellectual property

Unless stated otherwise, the Merrick Spitters Reset Report™ owns or is authorized to use the website and publication content, design, trade names, trademarks and intellectual property. No content may be copied, modified, republished, commercially exploited or used to imply endorsement without written permission, except for personal, non-commercial use allowed by law.

8. Privacy, electronic communications and responsible use

The applicable privacy policy governs information under the named controller's control. Do not submit highly sensitive information through a general form. Do not use the website unlawfully, submit false information, impersonate another person, introduce malicious code, interfere with service, harvest information or bypass security. Commercial electronic messages use the consent, identification and unsubscribe process required by applicable law.

9. Availability, disclaimer and limitation

Content may change or be unavailable. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Merrick Spitters Reset Report™ makes no warranty that general content is complete, current, error-free, uninterrupted, secure, available at all times or suitable for a particular purpose, and is not liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential or punitive loss arising from reliance on general content, third-party information, unauthorized use or temporary unavailability.

10. Governing law, changes and contact

These terms are governed by applicable laws of Canada and the province whose law applies to the relevant controller, subject to mandatory rights. the Merrick Spitters Reset Report™ may change these terms when its services, technologies, content, relationships or legal requirements change. Contact: aspitters@pfcwealthsolutions.com or peter@PeterMerrick.com.

This is a complete website disclosure for the stated subject. It does not replace applicable client-specific, insurer, dealer, referral, account, custody, policy, engagement or regulatory documents. Those documents and applicable law control if they differ.
