

AI DISCLAIMER

1. INTRODUCTION

This AI Disclaimer applies to all AI-powered services provided by AI Takes Axion Ltd, including AI receptionists, automated messaging, chatbots, voice agents, and related automation tools. By using our services, you acknowledge and agree to this Disclaimer.

2. NATURE OF AI SYSTEMS

AI Systems are probabilistic — they generate responses based on data, configurations, and prompts. Outputs may be incomplete, incorrect, delayed, or contextually inappropriate.

AI Systems are not a substitute for human judgement.

3. NO GUARANTEE OF ACCURACY

The Company does not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, or reliability of AI-generated outputs; that AI responses will always reflect the client's exact intentions; or that AI Systems will perform without errors or interruptions. All outputs are provided on an 'as is' basis.

4. CLIENT RESPONSIBILITY

- Review and approve AI configurations before deployment
- Monitor AI interactions where necessary
- Verify the accuracy of outputs before relying on them
- Accept full responsibility for all decisions made based on AI-generated content

5. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The Company shall not be liable for AI-generated errors or miscommunications; missed, incorrect, or duplicated bookings; inappropriate AI responses; or business decisions made based on AI outputs.

6. THIRD-PARTY DEPENDENCIES

AI Systems may rely on third-party technologies. The Company is not responsible for failures or limitations of third-party AI models or service outages caused by external providers.

7. NO PROFESSIONAL ADVICE

AI Systems do not provide legal, financial, medical, or other professional advice. Any such information must be independently verified by qualified professionals.

8. GOVERNING LAW

This Disclaimer is governed by the laws of England and Wales.
